V. And be it further enacted, That out of the future Surpluſſes of the ſaid Fund ſo created, continued, and augmented as aforeſaid (after reſerving ſo much Money as ſhall be ſufficient to ſatisfy the Intereſt due, and which ſhall at any Time be due to the ſaid Orphans and other Creditors of the ſaid City; as alſo to ſatisfy the Intereſt due and which ſhall at any Time be due on the ſaid Sum of one hundred and forty-four thouſand Pounds; and the ſaid Annuities in reſpect of the ſaid Sum of one hundred and fifty-ſix thouſand Pounds, as the ſame ſhall grow due and become payable reſpectively), the Annuities in reſpect of the ſaid Sum of forty thouſand Pounds to be borrowed and raiſed under and by virtue of this Act, and alſo ſuch Annuities as may be granted and become payable in reſpect of any other Sum or Sums of Money which, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament paſſed or to be paſſed during this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, ſhall be raiſed and charged upon the ſaid Fund, ſhall be paid from Time to Time, as the ſame ſhall grow due, before any Part of ſuch Surpluſſes ſhall be otherwiſe applied, as by the ſaid Act of the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty is directed; and that the Reſidue of ſuch Surpluſſes, after ſuch Payments as by the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act are directed to be made out of the Surpluſſes of the ſaid Fund, and which ſtill remain unſatisfied, ſhall be ſatisfied thereout, ſhall, from Time to Time, by Order of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London (which Order the ſaid Court are hereby authoriſed and directed to make), be, by the Chamberlain of the ſaid City for the Time being, applied towards the Redemption of all and ſingular the Annuities to be payable in reſpect of the ſaid Sum of forty thouſand Pounds, and of ſuch other Sums as ſhall be granted or become payable in reſpect of any other Sum or Sums of Money which, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament paſſed or to be paſſed during this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, ſhall be raiſed and charged upon the ſaid Fund, in ſuch Order as the ſaid Court of Mayor and Aldermen ſhall think fit.

Upon ſix Months Notice of Redemption of Annuities, and Tender of the Money, the Annuities to ceaſe; but the Principal to be ſtill payable.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the ſaid Court of Mayor and Aldermen ſhall give or cauſe to be given ſix Calendar Months Notice of their Intention to pay off ſuch Annuities, to be granted in reſpect of the ſaid Sum of forty thouſand Pounds to the Perſon or Perſons to whom the ſame ſhall reſpectively belong; at the End of which ſix Months, upon Payment or Tender of the reſpective Sums, for which ſuch Annuities ſhall have been granted, to or for the Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Notice ſhall be given, at the Office of the Chamberlain of the ſaid City of London for the Time being, in the Guildhall of the ſame City, and from thenceforth, the Annuity and Annuities payable to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, to whom ſuch Notice and Payment or Tender ſhall have been ſo given or made as aforeſaid, ſhall ceaſe and determine; nevertheleſs the Monies ſo tendered ſhall be paid to ſuch Perſon or Perſons upon his, her, or their Demand, and giving a Diſcharge for the ſame, and the Monies ſo paid conſidered as a Debt from or Charge upon the ſaid Fund ſhall be annihilated.

Deficiencies in Payment of Intereſt, to be ſupplied out of the Chamber of London.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Surpluſſes of the ſaid Fund charged with the Annuities which ſhall be payable in reſpect of the ſaid Sum of forty thouſand Pounds, ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter prove inſufficient to pay off and diſcharge the ſame, then and in every ſuch Caſe, and ſo often as the ſame ſhall happen, the Sum which ſhall be wanting to complete the Payment and Diſcharge of ſuch Annuities ſhall be advanced and paid out of the Chamber of the ſaid City, and be made good and ſupplied out of the like future Surpluſſes of the ſaid Fund.

The 40,000 l. to be applicable only for the Purpoſes of this Act:

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Sum of twenty thouſand Pounds, Part of the ſaid Sum of forty thouſand Pounds ſo to be raiſed and borrowed as aforeſaid, ſhall be applied for or towards completing the ſaid Gaol of Newgate, with the Appurtenances, and building an Infirmary thereto; and the Sum of twenty thouſand Pounds, Reſidue thereof, ſhall be applied towards reimburſing the ſaid City the ſaid ſeveral Sums of fifteen thouſand Pounds, and ſix thouſand two hundred Pounds, expended out of the Caſh of the ſaid City; and that no Part of the ſaid Sum of forty thouſand Pounds ſhall be applicable or applied to or for any other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever, than to or for or towards the Purpoſes for which the ſame is appropriated by this Act: And if any Surplus ſhall remain of the ſaid Sum of forty thouſand Pounds, over and above what ſhall be applied to the ſeveral Uſes and Purpoſes aforeſaid, ſuch Surplus ſhall be applied and appropriated for or towards the Increaſe of the ſaid Fund by the ſaid Act of the fifth and ſixth Years of King William and Queen Mary eſtabliſhed, and by the ſaid Act of the twenty-firſt Year of King George the Second, and the ſaid Act of the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty in Part continued and augmented as aforeſaid.

The Surplus (if any) to be applied to increaſe the Fund.

CAP. XLIX.

An Act for applying the Sum of one thouſand Pounds, to ariſe out of the Surpluſſes of a certain Fund commonly called The Orphans Fund, for the Purpoſe of opening Communications between Wapping-ſtreet and Ratcliff-highway, and between Old Gravel-lane and Virginia-ſtreet, within the Pariſhes of Saint George and Saint John of Wapping, in the County of Middleſex.

Preamble. Recital of 17 Geo. III. Cap. 22; and Act 5 & 6 Gul. & Mar.

'WHEREAS an Act was made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament for opening Communications between 'Wapping-ſtreet and Ratcliff-highway, and between Old Gravel-lane and Virginia-ſtreet; and for 'paving certain Streets intended to be built, and alſo certain other Streets and public Paſſages and Places within 'the Pariſhes of Saint George and Saint John of Wapping, in the County of Middleſex; whereby the Com- 'miſſioners thereby appointed are directed to do and perform certain Works which will be attended with 'a conſiderable Expence: And whereas an Act of Parliament was made in the fifth and ſixth Years of the 'Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for Relief of the Orphans and other Creditors 'of the City of London, whereby a Fund was eſtabliſhed for the Purpoſes therein mentioned; which ſaid 'Fund, and the Receipts and Diſburſements thereof, are under the Management and Direction of the 'Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the ſaid City of London: And whereas by certain Acts of Parliament, 'made in the twenty-firſt Year of his late Majeſty, and the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, or by 'ſome of them, the ſeveral Proviſions for ſupporting the ſaid Fund have been continued and augmented; 'and by the ſaid Acts, and alſo by an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, ſeveral further Sums of 'Money have been charged thereon for defraying the Expences of ſeveral public Works within the Cities 'of London and Weſtminſter, and elſewhere: And whereas it appears that the Produce of the ſaid Duties, 'and other Securities granted and made chargeable for the Support of the ſaid Fund, will be more than 'ſufficient to anſwer and ſatisfy the ſeveral Sums of Money charged thereon by the ſaid recited Acts of 'the fifth and ſixth Years of King William and Queen Mary, and of the twenty-firſt Year of his late Ma- 'jeſty, and the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, and of this Seſſion of Parliament, and it is reaſonable 'that the Pariſhioners of the ſaid Pariſhes of Saint George and Saint John of Wapping, who contribute to- 'wards the ſaid Duties, ſhould receive ſome Benefit therefrom;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London ſhall, and they are hereby authoriſed and required, yearly and every Year, to pay or cauſe to be paid to the Treaſurer for the Time being of the Commiſſioners appointed by the ſaid recited Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, the Annuity or yearly Sum of forty-five Pounds, by equal half-yearly Payments; that is to ſay, on the twenty-fourth Day of June, and the twenty-fifth Day of December, in every Year; and one Year's Payment of the ſaid Annuity ſhall be made on the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight.

City of London to pay 45 l. per Annum to the Treaſurer of the Commiſſioners, under the firſt recited Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That for ſecuring the Payment of the ſaid Annuity or yearly Sum to the ſaid Commiſſioners in Manner above mentioned, the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens ſhall, on or before the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, at the Expence of the Treaſurer for the Time being of the Commiſſioners appointed by or in purſuance of the ſaid recited Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament (which ſhall be allowed to him in his Accounts), make and execute, under the Common Seal of the ſaid City, ten Bonds for ſecuring one hundred Pounds each; and the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens ſhall in each of the ſaid Bonds be bound in the penal Sum of two hundred Pounds for ſecuring the Payment of one hundred Pounds to the Chamberlain of the ſaid City for the Time being, or to Maſter William Montague his preſent Chief Clerk; which ſaid Bonds ſhall be made with Conditions to be void on Payment of the reſpective Annuities to be thereby ſecured, or on Redemption of ſuch Annuities on the Terms and in the Manner herein-after expreſſed; and the ſaid Chamberlain and his Chief Clerk ſhall, and are hereby reſpectively required forthwith to aſſign, by Indorſement, ſuch Bonds as ſhall be ſo made to them reſpectively, and to deliver the ſame to the Treaſurer to the ſaid Commiſſioners.

Bonds to be given for ſecuring the Payment of the Annuity, and delivered to the Treaſurer.

III. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Bonds, ſo to be executed, indorſed, and delivered to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Commiſſioners, ſhall be numbered in arithmetical Progreſſion, and the ſame ſhall and may be ſold and diſpoſed of by ſuch Treaſurer to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall direct; and the Monies ariſing by ſuch Sale, and the Annuities to ariſe in the mean Time from ſuch Bonds, ſhall be applied, in the firſt Place, in paying the Expences of procuring and paſſing this Act, and the Remainder in opening Communications between Wapping-ſtreet and Ratcliff-highway, and between Old Gravel-lane and Virginia-ſtreet, in the ſaid Pariſhes of Saint George and Saint John of Wapping, and to no other Uſe or Purpoſe whatſoever.

Bonds to be numbered, and may be ſold.

Application of the Money ariſing by ſuch Sale.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Holder or Holders of ſuch Bonds reſpectively may, on Non-payment of the Annuities thereby ſecured, commence and proſecute any Action or Actions upon any ſuch Bonds, and recover thereupon from the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the ſaid City of London.

Holders of Bonds may bring Actions thereon.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the ſaid Annuities ſhall from Time to Time (until the Whole ſhall be redeemed) be redeemable by the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, either wholly or in Part, in ſuch Order as they ſhall think proper, upon ſix Calendar Months Notice for that Purpoſe to be firſt publiſhed in the London Gazette; at the Expiration of which Time the Proprietors of ſuch Annuity or Annuities ſhall (upon delivering up to the Chamberlain of the ſaid City of London for the Annuities to be redeemable by the City on ſix Months Notice.

Time

Time being, at his Office in the Guildhall in the ſaid City, any Bond or Bonds ſo given) be intitled to receive from the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens the Sum of one hundred Pounds, for and in full Satisfaction and Redemption of every four Pounds and ten Shillings of ſuch Annuities; and every ſuch Sum of four Pounds and ten Shillings of ſuch Annuity or Annuities in reſpect whereof ſuch Notice ſhall be given ſhall, from and after the End of the ſaid ſix Months, ceaſe and be no longer paid or payable, unleſs the ſame Sum of one hundred Pounds ſhall be demanded purſuant to ſuch Notice, and not paid.

Orphans Fund charged with the Annuities.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Fund created by the ſaid Act of the fifth and ſixth Years of King William and Queen Mary, and by the ſaid Acts of the twenty-firſt Year of King George the Second, and the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, in Part further continued and augmented, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby charged and made chargeable with the Annuities which ſhall be payable under or by virtue of this Act; ſubject nevertheleſs and without Prejudice to the Payment of the Intereſt on the principal Debt remaining due on the Credit of the ſaid Fund to the Orphans and other Creditors of the ſaid City, and of the Intereſt on the principal Sum of one hundred and forty-four thouſand Pounds by the ſaid Act of the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty charged upon the ſaid Fund, and alſo the Annuities which are or ſhall be payable in reſpect of the Sum of one hundred and fifty-ſix thouſand Pounds directed to be borrowed and raiſed upon the Credit thereof by the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act, according to the true Meaning of the ſame; and the ſame Fund ſhall be, and is hereby charged and made chargeable with the Payment alſo to the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as they ſhall advance and pay in Redemption of the ſaid Annuities, or any of them, in purſuance of this Act.

Public Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be deemed and taken to be a public Act; and all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons, are hereby required to take Notice thereof as ſuch, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

CAP. L.

An Act for applying the Sum of one thouſand five hundred Pounds, to ariſe out of the Surpluſſes of a certain Fund, commonly called The Orphans Fund, for the Purpoſe of widening certain Avenues leading into Goodman's Fields, in the County of Middleſex.

Preamble. Act 5 and 6 Gul. & Mar. recited.

'WHEREAS an Act was made in the fifth and ſixth Years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for Relief of the Orphans and other Creditors of the City of London, whereby a Fund was eſtabliſhed for the Purpoſes therein mentioned; which ſaid Fund, and the Receipts and Diſburſements thereof, are under the Management and Direction of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the ſaid City of London: And whereas by ſeveral Acts, made in the twenty-firſt Year of his late Majeſty, the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, and this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, or by ſome of them, the ſeveral Proviſions for ſupporting the ſaid Fund have been continued and augmented, and ſeveral further Sums of Money charged thereon, for defraying the Expences of ſeveral public Works within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and elſewhere: And whereas the three principal Avenues, from The Minories, through Goodman's Yard, into Preſcot-ſtreet; and from The Minories, through Swan-ſtreet and Swan-alley, into Manſell-ſtreet; and from Whitechapel or Aldgate High-ſtreet, through Somerſet-ſtreet, into Great Manſell-ſtreet, in the Pariſhes of Saint Mary Whitechapel and Saint Botolph Aldgate, in the County of Middleſex, are great Thoroughfares, and being very narrow, the Paſſage through the ſame is dangerous, and frequent Delays and Inconveniences are occaſioned thereby, and it would therefore be of great public Utility to have the ſaid Avenues widened ſufficiently to make the Paſſage through the ſame ſafe and commodious: And whereas it is reaſonable that the Sum of one thouſand five hundred Pounds, out of the Surpluſſes to ariſe from the Fund aforeſaid, ſhould be applied towards making the ſaid Openings:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London ſhall, and they are hereby authoriſed and required, yearly, and every Year, to pay, or cauſe to be paid, to John Leman of Northall in the County of Hertford, John Newnham of Mareſfield in the County of Suſſex, and Edward Hawkins of Goodman's Fields aforeſaid, Eſquires, or the Survivors or Survivor of them, or the Executors or Adminiſtrators of ſuch Survivor, one or more Annuity or Annuities, or yearly Sum or Sums of Money, amounting to the yearly Sum of ſixty-ſeven Pounds ten Shillings in the Whole, by equal half-yearly Payments; (that is to ſay) on the twenty-fifth Day of December, and the twenty-fourth Day of June, in every Year; and one Year's Payment thereof to be made on the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight.

City of London to pay an Annuity of 67 l. 10 s. to the Commiſſioners; and for that Purpoſe to iſſue Bonds under their Common Seal.

II. And be it further enacted, That for ſecuring the Payment of the ſaid reſpective Annuities to the ſaid John Leman, John Newnham, and Edward Hawkins, in Manner above mentioned, the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens ſhall, on or before the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, at the Expence of them the ſaid John Leman, John Newnham, and Edward Hawkins, make and duly execute, under the Common Seal of the ſaid City, and deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, unto the ſaid John Leman, John Newnham, and Edward Hawkins, or the Survivors or Survivor of them, or the Executors or Adminiſtrators of ſuch Survivor, fifteen Bonds; and the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens ſhall, in every ſuch Bond, become bound to the Chamberlain of the ſaid City, or to his Chief Clerk for the Time being, in the penal Sum of two hundred Pounds, for ſecuring the Payment of one hundred Pounds; with Condition, for paying an Annuity, after the Rate of four Pounds ten Shillings per Annum, at the Times above mentioned, and that every ſuch Bond ſhall be void on Redemption of ſuch Annuity, upon the Terms and in the Manner herein-after expreſſed; and the ſaid Chamberlain or his Chief Clerk are hereby required to indorſe ſuch Bonds.

Value and Condition of the Bonds.

III. And

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Bonds, so to be executed and indorsed, and delivered to the said John Leman, John Newnham, and Edward Hawkins, shall be numbered in arithmetical Progression; and the same shall or may be sold or disposed of; and the Holder or Holders of such Bonds respectively may, on Nonpayment of the Annuities thereby secured, commence and prosecute any Action or Actions upon any such Bonds, and recover thereupon from the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens; and the Monies arising by virtue of the said Bonds shall, in the first Place, be applied in paying and defraying the Costs, Charges, and Expences, incident to and attending the obtaining and passing this Act, and afterwards towards defraying the Expences of making the said Openings, and to or for no other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever.

Bonds to be numbered, and may be sold.

Application of the Money arising from Sale thereof.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Annuities shall, from Time to Time (until the Whole shall be redeemed), be redeemable by the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, either wholly or in Part, in such Order as they shall think proper, upon six Calendar Months Notice for that Purpose to be first published in the London Gazette; at the Expiration of which Time the Proprietors of such Annuity or Annuities shall (upon delivering up to the Chamberlain of the said City of London for the Time being, at his Office in the Guildhall in the said City, the Bond or Bonds so given for the same) be entitled to receive from the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, the Sum of one hundred Pounds, for, and in full Satisfaction and Redemption of, every four Pounds ten Shillings of such Annuities; and every such Sum of four Pounds ten Shillings of such Annuity or Annuities, in respect whereof such Notice shall be given, shall, from and after the End of the said six Calendar Months, cease, and be no longer paid or payable, unless the same Sum of one hundred Pounds shall be demanded pursuant to such Notice, and not paid; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Annuities to be redeemable by the City on six Months Notice.

V. And be it further enacted, That the said Fund created by the said Act of the fifth and sixth Years of King William and Queen Mary; and by the said Act of the twenty-first Year of King George the Second, and by the said Act of the seventh Year of his present Majesty, in Part further continued and augmented, shall be, and the same is hereby charged and made chargeable with the Annuities which shall be payable under or by virtue of this Act; subject nevertheless, and without Prejudice to the Payment of the Interest on the Principal Debt remaining due to the said Orphans and other Creditors of the said City, and of the Interest on the Principal Sum of one hundred and forty-four thousand Pounds, by the said Act of the seventh Year of his present Majesty charged upon the said Fund, and also the Annuities which are or shall be payable in respect of the Sum of one hundred and fifty-six thousand Pounds directed to be borrowed and raised upon the Credit thereof by the last-mentioned Act, according to the true Meaning of the same Act; and the same Fund shall be, and is hereby charged and made chargeable with the Payment also to the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of all such Sum and Sums of Money as they shall advance and pay in Redemption of the said Annuities, or any of them, in pursuance of this Act.

The Orphans Fund charged with the Payment of the Annuities.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Person or Persons who shall expend and advance Money for paying the Charges and Expences of obtaining and passing this Act, shall be intitled to, and shall receive Interest for the same, at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, until the Money so expended and advanced shall be repaid, out of the said one thousand five hundred Pounds.

Persons advancing Money to pay Expences of this Act, to be allowed Interest for the same.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a public Act; and all Judges, Justices, and other Persons, are hereby required to take Notice thereof as such, without specially pleading the same.

Public Act.

CAP. LI.

An Act for applying the Sum of four thousand Pounds, to arise out of the Surpluses of a certain Fund, commonly called The Orphans Fund, towards completing the paving of the Town and Borough of Southwark, and certain Parts adjacent, in the County of Surrey.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for paving the Streets and Lanes within the Town and Borough of Southwark, and certain Parts adjacent; and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same; and also the Courts, Yards, Alleys, and Passages, adjoining thereto; and for preventing Annoyances therein: And whereas an Act was made in the fifth and sixth Years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for Relief of the Orphans and other Creditors of the City of London, whereby a Fund was established for the Purposes therein mentioned; which Fund, and the Receipts and Disbursements thereof, are under the Management and Direction of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City of London: And whereas by several Acts, made in the twenty-first Year of his late Majesty, the seventh Year of his present Majesty, and this present Session of Parliament, or by some of them, the several Provisions for supporting the said Fund have been continued and augmented, and several further Sums of Money charged thereon, for defraying the Expences of several public Works within the Cities of London and Westminster, and elsewhere: And whereas great Progress has been made in paving the said Town and Borough of Southwark, and Parts adjacent; but the Commissioners for executing the Act have not been able to complete the same, owing to the Extent of the Works, and the Insufficiency of the Monies applicable thereto: And whereas it is reasonable that the Sum of four thousand Pounds, out of the Surpluses of the said Fund, should be applied towards the completing the paving of the said Town and Borough, and Parts adjacent:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London shall, and they are hereby authorised and required, yearly and every Recital of Act 5 Geo. III.; and Act 5 & 6 Gul. & Mar.

City of London to pay an Annuity of 180l. to the Commis-ſioners under the firſt recited Act:

and for that Purpoſe to iſſue Bonds under their Common Seal.

II. And be it further enacted, That for ſecuring the Payment of the ſaid reſpective Annuities to the ſaid Commiſſioners, in Manner above mentioned, the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens ſhall, on or before the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, at the Expence of the Treaſurer for the Time being to the ſaid Commiſſioners, make and duly execute, under the Common Seal of the ſaid City, and deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, unto ſuch Treaſurer, forty Bonds; and the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens ſhall, in every ſuch Bond, become bound to the Chamberlain of the ſaid City, or to his chief Clerk for the Time being, in the penal Sum of two hundred Pounds, for ſecuring the Payment of one hundred Pounds; with Condition, for paying an Annuity, after the Rate of four Pounds ten Shillings per Annum, at the Times above mentioned; and that every ſuch Bond ſhall be void on Redemption of ſuch Annuity, upon the Terms and in the Manner herein-after expreſſed; and the ſaid Chamberlain, or his chief Clerk, are hereby required to indorſe ſuch Bonds.

Value and Condition of the Bonds.

Bonds to be numbered, and aſſignable by Indorſement.

III. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Bonds ſo to be executed and indorſed, and delivered to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Commiſſioners, ſhall be numbered in arithmetical Progreſſion; and the ſaid Bonds ſhall be reſpectively aſſignable, by the Treaſurer for the Time being to the ſaid Commiſſioners (notwithſtanding his Name may not be mentioned therein), by proper Words to be written or indorſed thereon, and may be ſold or diſpoſed of, provided ſuch Aſſignments, Sale, and Diſpoſition, be reſpectively made by and with the Conſent and Approbation of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, to be teſtified by Writing under their Hands and Seals; and the ſaid Bonds, and all Aſſignments and Sales thereof which ſhall be made as aforeſaid, ſhall be good, valid, and effectual, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever; and the reſpective Aſſignees of any ſuch Bonds, their reſpective Executors and Adminiſtrators, may, on Nonpayment of the Annuities thereby ſecured, commence and proſecute any Action or Actions upon any ſuch Bonds, and recover thereupon from the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens; and the Monies ariſing by virtue of the ſaid Bonds ſhall, in the firſt Place, be applied by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, in paying and defraying the Coſts, Charges, and Expences, incident to and attending the obtaining and paſſing this Act, and afterwards towards defraying the Expence of carrying the ſaid Act of the ſixth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign into Execution, in the Proportions herein-before mentioned, and to or for no other Uſe, Intent, or Purpoſe whatſoever.

Application of Money ariſing from the Bonds.

Annuities to be redeemable by the City on ſix Months Notice.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the ſaid Annuities ſhall, from Time to Time (until the Whole ſhall be redeemed) be redeemable by the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, either wholly or in Part (in ſuch Order as they ſhall think proper), upon ſix Calendar Months Notice for that Purpoſe to be firſt publiſhed in the London Gazette; at the Expiration of which Time the Proprietors of ſuch Annuity or Annuities ſhall (upon delivering up to the Chamberlain of the ſaid City of London for the Time being, at his Office in the Guildhall in the ſaid City, the Bond or Bonds ſo given for the ſame) be entitled to receive from the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens the Sum of one hundred Pounds, for, and in full Satisfaction and Redemption of, every four Pounds ten Shillings of ſuch Annuities; and every ſuch Sum of four Pounds ten Shillings of ſuch Annuity or Annuities, in reſpect whereof ſuch Notice ſhall be given, ſhall, from and after the End of the ſaid ſix Calendar Months, ceaſe, and be no longer paid, or payable, unleſs the ſame Sum of one hundred Pounds ſhall be demanded, purſuant to ſuch Notice, and not paid; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

The Orphans Fund charged with the Payment of the Annuities.

V. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Fund created by the ſaid Act of the fifth and ſixth Years of King William and Queen Mary; and by the ſaid Act of the twenty-firſt Year of King George the Second, and by the ſaid Act of the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, in Part further continued and augmented, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby charged and made chargeable with the Annuities which ſhall be payable under or by virtue of this Act; ſubject nevertheleſs, and without Prejudice to the Payment of the Intereſt on the Principal Debt remaining due to the ſaid Orphans and other Creditors of the ſaid City, and of the Intereſt on the Principal Sum of one hundred and forty-four thouſand Pounds, by the ſaid Act of the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty charged upon the ſaid Fund, and alſo the Annuities which are or ſhall be payable in reſpect of the Sum of one hundred and fifty-ſix thouſand Pounds directed to be borrowed and raiſed upon the Credit thereof by the laſt-mentioned Act, according to the true Meaning of the ſame Act; and the ſame Fund ſhall be, and is hereby charged and made chargeable with the Payment alſo to the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, of all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as they ſhall advance and pay in Redemption of the ſaid Annuities, or any of them, in purſuance of this Act.

Intereſt of 4 l. 10 s. per Cent. to be allowed for Money advanced to pay the Expences of this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall expend and advance Money for paying the Charges and Expences of obtaining and paſſing this Act, ſhall be entitled to, and ſhall receive, Intereſt for the ſame, at the Rate of four Pounds ten Shillings per Centum per Annum, until the Money ſo expended and advanced ſhall be repaid out of the ſaid four thouſand Pounds.

Public Act.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be allowed in all Courts whatſoever as a public Act; and all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons, are hereby required to take Notice thereof as ſuch, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

Priſoner's Oath on delivering in the Schedule.

'I A. B. upon my corporal Oath, in the Preſence of Almighty God, do ſolemnly ſwear, proteſt, and declare, That on the twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, I 'was a Priſoner, or elſe [as the Caſe may be] that ſince the ſaid twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, I have ſurrendered, or have been committed to the Priſon of in Diſcharge of my Bail, or for Want of Bail [as the Caſe ſhall be]; and that I 'was actually arreſted, and in the Cuſtody of an Officer, before the ſaid twenty-eighth Day of January, 'one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, in the Action or Suit, Actions or Suits, in which I ſurrendered, or was committed as aforeſaid, to the ſaid Gaol or Priſon of and that I 'have, ever ſince my ſaid Surrender or Commitment, continued a Priſoner within the Priſon of 'in the actual Cuſtody of the Gaoler or Keeper of the ſaid Priſon of or within the Liberties thereof, at the Suit of and without any Fraud or Colluſion whatſoever; and 'that the Schedule now delivered by me, and ſubſcribed, doth contain, to the beſt of my Knowledge, Remembrance, and Belief, a full, juſt, true, and perfect Account and Diſcovery of all the Goods, Effects, 'and Eſtates, real and perſonal, either in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion, Remainder, or Expectancy, which I, or 'any Perſon in Truſt for me, or for my Benefit or Advantage, are ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of, intereſted in, or 'intitled to, or was or were in my Poſſeſſion at any Time ſince my Commitment to Priſon; and of all 'Debts as are to me owing, or to any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for me; and of all the Securities and 'Contracts whereby any Money now is, or will or may hereafter become payable, or any Benefit or Advantage may accrue to me, or to my Uſe, or to any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for me; and the Names 'and Places of Abode of the ſeveral Perſons from whom ſuch Debts are due and owing; and of the Witneſſes that can prove ſuch Debts or Contracts [if any ſuch there be]; and that neither I, nor any other 'Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for me, or for my Uſe, have any Lands, Money, Stock, or any Eſtate real 'or perſonal, in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion, or Remainder, or Expectancy, other than what are in the ſaid 'Schedule contained, except Wearing Apparel, and Bedding for myſelf and Family, Working Tools, and 'neceſſary Implements for my Occupation and Calling, together with a Sum of Money not exceeding 'forty Shillings, and theſe in the Whole not exceeding the Value of twenty Pounds; and that I have not, 'nor any Body for me hath, directly or indirectly, ſold, leſſened, or otherwiſe conveyed, diſpoſed of in 'Truſt, or concealed, all or any Part of my Lands, Money, Goods, Chattels, Stock, Debts, Securities, 'Contracts, or Eſtate, real or perſonal, whereby to ſecure the ſame, or to receive or expect any Profit or 'Advantage thereof, or with Intent to defraud or deceive any Creditor or Creditors to whom I am or was 'indebted in anywiſe howſoever.

'So help me GOD.'

Schedule and Oath to be ſubſcribed in the Court, and lodged with the Clerk for the Examination of Creditors.

And the ſaid Schedule and Oath ſhall be, by every ſuch Priſoner, ſubſcribed in the Preſence of the Juſtices in open Seſſion of the Peace, as hereby is directed, and ſhall be kept by, and remain with, the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, for the County, City, Liberty, Diviſion, Town, or Place, where the ſame ſhall be ſubſcribed and taken, for the better Information of all the Creditors of ſuch Priſoner who ſhall deſire, or may have Occaſion, to reſort thereto; and every ſuch Creditor ſhall be at Liberty, at ſeaſonable Times in the Day-time, to peruſe and examine the ſame.

Court, at the Requeſt of a Creditor, may examine Gaoler, &c. on Oath.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Juſtices within their reſpective Juriſdictions, at any ſuch General Quarter Seſſion, or General Seſſion, or Adjournment thereof, at the Requeſt of any Creditor or Creditors of any ſuch Priſoner, are hereby authoriſed to cauſe the Deputy Warden and Marſhal of the Fleet and King's Bench Priſon, and any other Under Officer, Tipſtaff, and Turnkey of any Gaol or Priſon, and any other Perſon, to come before them, and to examine them reſpectively on Oath, touching any of the Matters contained in any of the Oaths preſcribed by this Act to be taken, and the Truth thereof; and if the Oath which ſhall have been taken in open Court by any Priſoner or Priſoners ſhall not be diſapproved by good Teſtimony of any credible Perſon or Perſons on Oath, and ſuch Juſtices, or the major Part of them, preſent at any ſuch General Quarter Seſſion, or General Seſſion, ſhall be ſatisfied with the Truth of the Oath taken by any ſuch reſpective Priſoner, then ſuch Juſtices ſhall, in ſuch Seſſion, or ſome Adjournment thereof, command the ſaid Sheriff or Sheriffs, Gaoler or Gaolers, or Keeper of ſuch Priſon or Priſons, forthwith to ſet at Liberty ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, without having or taking any Fee or Reward, other than one Shilling for his or their Attendance with every ſuch Priſoner at ſuch General Quarter Seſſion, or General Seſſion, or any Adjournment thereof, in order for his, her, or their Diſcharge; (and which every ſuch Sheriff or Sheriffs, Gaoler or Gaolers, Keeper or Keepers of ſuch Priſon or Priſons, is and are hereby authoriſed to receive and take for every ſuch Order:) And every ſuch Order ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge to the Sheriff or Sheriffs, Gaoler or Gaolers, or Keeper of ſuch Priſon or Priſons, and ſhall indemnify him or them againſt any Eſcape or Eſcapes, or Action or Actions whatſoever for Eſcape, which ſhall or may be brought, commenced, or proſecuted, againſt him or them.

The Priſoner's Oath not being diſproved, the Court is to diſcharge him, on his paying a Fee of 1 s. to the Gaoler;

who ſhall be indemnified for the Eſcape.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Eſtate, Right, Title, Intereſt, and Truſt, of ſuch Priſoner, of, in, and unto, all the real Eſtate, as well Freehold and Copy as Cuſtomaryhold, and to all the perſonal Eſtate, Debts, and Effects, of every ſuch Priſoner, ſhall, immediately after the Diſcharge of any ſuch Priſoner, be, and the ſame is hereby veſted in the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, of and for the County, Riding, City, Town Corporate, Diviſion, Liberty, or Place, where any ſuch Priſoner ſhall be reſpectively diſcharged; and every ſuch Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, is hereby directed and required to make an Aſſignment and Conveyance of every ſuch Priſoner's Eſtate and Effects, veſted in ſuch Clerk

Eſtate and Effects of the Priſoner, upon his Diſcharge, to be veſted in the Clerk of the Peace, who is to make over the ſame to the Aſſignees named by the Court;

Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, as aforesaid, to such Creditor or Creditors of the said Prisoner, as the Justices at any General Quarter Session of the Peace, or at any Adjournment thereof, which shall be held by them within their respective Jurisdictions, shall order and direct (which Assignment and Conveyance shall be good and effectual in Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, without being wrote on Parchment or Paper stamped); and to vest the Estates thereby assigned and conveyed in the Party or Parties to whom the same shall be so assigned and conveyed, his, her, and their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, according to the Estate and Interest the Prisoner had therein; and for the preparing, ingrossing, and executing of which Assignment and Conveyance, no Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, shall take any greater Fee than two Shillings; and every such Assignment and Conveyance shall be in Trust for the Benefit of the Creditor or Creditors of every such Prisoner to whom the same shall be made, and the Rest of the Creditors of such Prisoner, in Respect or in Proportion to their respective Debts; and every Person or Persons to whom any such Assignment and Conveyance as aforesaid shall be made, is and are hereby fully empowered to sue, from Time to Time, as there may be Occasion, in his, her, or their own Name or Names, for the Recovery and attaining any Estate or Effects of any such Prisoner, and also to execute any Trust or Power vested in, or created for the Use or Benefit of, any such Prisoner, but in Trust for the Benefit of him or themselves, and the Rest of the Creditors of every such Prisoner; and to give Discharge and Discharges to any Debtor or Debtors of any such Prisoner, as shall be requisite: And every such Assignee or Assignees shall, with all convenient Speed, after his or their accepting any such Assignment or Conveyance, use his and their best Endeavours to receive and get in the Estate and Effects of every such Prisoner; and shall, with all convenient Speed, make Sale of all the Estates of such Prisoner vested in such Assignee or Assignees; and if any such Prisoner shall be interested in, or entitled to, any real Estate, either in Possession, Reversion, or Expectancy, the same, within the Space of two Months after every such Assignment and Conveyance, shall be sold by public Auction, in such Manner, and at such Place, as the major Part of the Creditors of any such Prisoner who shall assemble together, on any Notice in Writing published in the London Gazette, or in some Daily Paper, if the Prisoner before his going to Gaol resided in London, or in the weekly Bills of Mortality, and if elsewhere, then in some Newspaper which shall be published in or near the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty, or Place, in which such Prisoner dwelt before he or she was committed to Gaol, thirty Days before any such Sale shall be made, shall, under his Hand, or their Hands, agree on: And every such Assignee or Assignees, at the End of three Months at farthest from the Time of his or their accepting any such Assignment or Conveyance as aforesaid, shall make a just and fair Dividend of all such Prisoner's Estate and Effects which shall have been then recovered amongst his or her Creditors, in Proportion and in Regard to each Creditor's respective Debts; but before any such Dividend shall be made, such Assignee or Assignees shall make up an Account of such Prisoner's Estate, and make Oath in Writing, before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Division, Town, Liberty, or Place, in which any such Prisoner shall have been discharged, that every such Account contains a just and fair Account of the Estate and Effects of every such Prisoner got in by or for such Assignee or Assignees, and of all Payments made in respect thereof, and that all Payments in every such Account charged were truly, and bona fide, made and paid; and Notice of the making of every such Dividend shall be published in like Manner as a Meeting of the Creditors is herein-before directed to be published, thirty Days at least before the same shall be made; and no Creditor shall be allowed to receive any Share of such Dividend, until he shall have made out the Justness and Identity of his respective Debt by Oath, or due Proof in Writing, before some such Justice or Justices: And if any Creditor of such Prisoner shall be dissatisfied with the Reality or Fairness of any Debt claimed by any other Creditor, then the same, at the Request of any such Creditor or Creditors so dissatisfied, shall be examined into by the Justices of the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, or Place, in which such Prisoner shall have been discharged, at their next General Quarter Session, and what they shall there determine in the Premises shall be conclusive to all Parties: And if, after Payment of all such Prisoner's Creditors, there shall any of his Estate and Effects remain after Payment of all reasonable Charges, the same shall be paid to such Prisoner, his Executors or Administrators.

Assignees empowered to sue, or execute any Trust or Power for the Prisoner, &c.

Assignees to get in the Effects of the Prisoner, and sell the same; and to sell, within two Months, the Prisoner's real Estate, &c.

and make a Dividend within three Months;

first making up their Accounts, and verifying them upon Oath.

Thirty Days Notice to be given of making a Dividend; and none to receive any Share until they have proved their Debts.

Debts claimed to be examined into and determined by the Court.

Surplus of the Prisoner's Estate to be paid to him, &c.

Creditors not to suffer from any Omission in the Schedule of Prisoner's Estate.

'XV. And, to the Intent that no Loss may arise to any Creditor or Creditors from any Neglect or 'Omission in the Schedule not containing the Whole of the Estate, real or personal, belonging to any 'Prisoner who shall apply for his or her Discharge, under the Authority of this Act;' be it enacted, That all the Estate, whether real or personal, which shall belong to any Prisoner or Prisoners, and of which he, she, or they, shall be actually possessed at the Time of making such Schedule, shall be deemed and taken to be a Part of the Estate contained in such Schedule, though not inserted therein, and shall in like Manner become vested in the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as such, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been contained in such Schedule, and had been delivered into the Court according to the Directions of this Act.

Proviso.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Person holding any Security whatsoever, for which the Insolvent never received any valuable Consideration, shall be intitled to receive any Benefit from his Estate.

On Death or Removal of any Clerk of the Peace, &c. Prisoners Estates to become vested in their Successors.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case of the Death or Removal of any Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, as aforesaid, in whom the Estate, Right, Title, Interest, or Trust, of any Prisoner or Prisoners shall have vested by the Authority of this Act; every such Estate, Right, Title, Interest, and Trust, shall become vested in the Successor or Successors to every such Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, as aforesaid, respectively, as the Case may be, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, under the Provisions of this Act.

XVIII. Provided

XVIII. Provided further, and be it alſo enacted, That no Suit in Equity ſhall be commenced by any Aſſignee or Aſſignees of any ſuch Priſoner's Eſtate and Effects, without the Conſent of the major Part in Value of the Creditors of ſuch Priſoner, who ſhall meet together purſuant to a Notice to be given in the London Gazette for that Purpoſe.

No Suit in Equity to be commenced, but by Conſent of Majority in Value of Creditors.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace of every reſpective County, City, and County Town, and County Riding, Diviſion, Cinque Port, Liberty, and Place, with whom any Schedules of the Eſtates of any Inſolvent Debtor or Debtors, Fugitive or Fugitives, ſhall be left, and his Succeſſors, Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace as aforeſaid, ſhall, on the reaſonable Requeſt of any Creditor or Creditors of ſuch Inſolvent Debtor or Debtors, Fugitive or Fugitives, or his or their Attorney, produce and ſhew to ſuch Creditor or Creditors, or his or their Attorney, in the Day-time, the Schedule of the Eſtates of any ſuch Inſolvent Debtor or Debtors, Fugitive or Fugitives, which ſhall be left with any ſuch Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, or his Predeceſſor in that Office; the Perſon ſo requiring to ſee and peruſe any ſuch Schedule, paying or tendering to the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, in whoſe Cuſtody any ſuch Schedule ſhall be, or his Deputy, the Sum of one Shilling for his Trouble in ſearching for, and looking out, ſuch Schedule, and attending whilſt the ſame ſhall be peruſed by the Party or Parties requiring to have the ſame looked out, and to peruſe the ſame: And that a true Copy of every ſuch Schedule, ſigned by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, in whoſe Cuſtody the ſame ſhall be, or his Deputy, purporting the ſame to be a true Copy of ſuch Schedule, without being wrote on ſtamped Paper, and for which Copy no more ſhall be paid than Sixpence by the Sheet (each Sheet to contain ſeventy-two Words, and ſo in Proportion for a leſs Number of Words), ſhall, at all Times, be admitted in all Courts whatſoever as legal Evidence of the ſame: And if any Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, ſhall, on reaſonable Requeſt as aforeſaid, neglect or refuſe to produce to any ſuch Creditor or Creditors as aforeſaid, or his or their Attorney, any ſuch Schedule as aforeſaid, and to permit the ſame to be inſpected as aforeſaid, in the Day-time, on ſuch Payment or Tender as aforeſaid being made to him; or ſhall aſk or take more than after the Rate of Sixpence by the Sheet, each Sheet to contain ſeventy-two Words, and ſo in Proportion for leſs than ſeventy-two Words in a Sheet; or ſhall refuſe to make and deliver a Copy of any ſuch Schedule, on being requeſted as aforeſaid ſo to make the ſame, and having the Money tendered to him for Payment of ſuch Copy, after the Rate aforeſaid; ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds; which ſhall and may be ſued for and recovered in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, by Action of Debt, together with treble Coſts of Suit, in the Name of any Perſon who ſhall proſecute for the ſame: And one Moiety of which Money forfeited ſhall, when recovered, go to the Party who proſecuted for the ſame, and the other Moiety thereof to the Poor of the Pariſh in which the Offence ſhall be committed.

Attested Copy whereof to be deemed legal Evidence.

Clerk of the Peace refuſing to produce ſuch Schedule, or to deliver a Copy thereof, &c.

ſhall forfeit 10*l.* and Treble Coſts; One Moiety to the Proſecutor, and the other to the Poor of the Pariſh.

XX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That before ſuch Time as any Aſſignee or Aſſignees as aforeſaid ſhall enter on, or take any Profit from, any Copyhold or Cuſtomary Eſtate, as aforeſaid, he or they ſhall agree and compound with the Lord or Lords of the Manor or Manors of whom the ſame ſhall be holden, for the Payment of ſuch Fine or Income as, upon any Surrender and Admiſſion thereto, hath heretofore been moſt uſually accuſtomed to be paid; and that upon every ſuch Agreement or Compoſition, the ſaid Lord or Lords for the Time being, at the next Court, or ſome ſubſequent Court, which ſhall be holden for the ſaid Manor or Manors, after ſuch Agreement made, ſhall admit ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees Tenant to ſuch Copyhold or Cuſtomary Premiſes, according to the Cuſtom of the ſaid Manor or Manors of which the ſame ſhall be holden, for and during ſuch Eſtate and Intereſt as the ſaid Priſoner had therein at the Time of his or her being diſcharged as aforeſaid, reſerving the Rents, Duties, Heriots, Cuſtoms, and Services, payable and to be rendered in reſpect of the ſaid Copyhold or Cuſtomary Premiſes.

Aſſignees of Copyhold or Cuſtomary Eſtates to compound with the Lord of the Manor, and to be admitted Tenants thereupon.

XXI. Provided alſo, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend to prejudice or affect any Eſtate or Intereſt, or Right whatſoever, of any other Perſon or Perſons, other than the ſaid Priſoner or Fugitive, which may be expectant upon, or ſubject unto, the Eſtate or Intereſt of the ſaid Priſoner or Fugitive, hereby veſted in the ſaid Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace; but that the Eſtate, Intereſt, and Right whatſoever, of every other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall remain, continue, and be ſaved to them, in the ſame Manner as if this Act had not been made.

XXII. Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to hinder or prevent any Mortgage or Mortgages upon the Eſtate of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, or any Part thereof, to take place upon the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, compriſed in ſuch Mortgage or Mortgages reſpectively; nor to prevent any Statute-ſtaple, Statute-merchant, Recognizance, or Judgment, acknowledged by or obtained againſt any ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, to take place upon the Lands, Tenements, or real Eſtate, of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners; and alſo where any Inquiſition ſhall have been taken upon any ſuch Statute or Recognizance, or any Writ or Execution ſhall have been taken out and delivered to the Sheriff or proper Officer, upon any ſuch Judgment before ſuch Diſcharge ſhall be given in open Seſſion to any ſuch Perſon as aforeſaid, the perſonal Eſtate of every ſuch Priſoner reſpectively ſhall be ſubject thereto, in the firſt Place, for ſo much as ſhall remain due upon ſuch Mortgage, Statute, Recognizance, or Judgment reſpectively, in like Manner as ſuch Mortgagees and Creditors, by Statute, Recognizance, or Judgment, would have been preferred to other Creditors of an inferior Nature, againſt the real or perſonal Eſtate of ſuch Priſoner and Priſoners reſpectively, if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

All Mortgages, &c. to take place preferable to Claims of an inferior Nature.

'XXIII. And whereas many Perſons who may be intitled to, and claim the Benefit of this Act, are 'ſeiſed and poſſeſſed of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, to hold to ſuch Priſoners for the Term of 'their natural Lives, with Power of granting Leaſes, and taking Fines, reſerving ſmall Rents on ſuch 'Eſtates, for one, two, or three Lives, in Poſſeſſion or Reverſion, or for ſome Number of Years deter- 'minable upon Lives, which ſaid Powers ought to be executed for the Benefit of the Creditors of ſuch Pri- 'ſoners;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in every ſuch Caſe, all and every the Powers of leaſing ſuch Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which are or ſhall be veſted in any ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, as aforeſaid, ſhall be, and are hereby veſted in the Aſſignee or Aſſignees of the real and perſonal Eſtate of ſuch Priſoner, by virtue of this Act, to be by ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees executed for the Benefit of all and every the Creditors of ſuch Priſoners as aforeſaid.

Powers in Priſoners of leaſing Lands, &c. veſted in Aſſignees.

'XXIV. And whereas, in ſome Gaols or Priſons in this Kingdom, the Office of Gaoler or Keeper is 'held in Fee for Life, or otherwiſe, by Perſons who never act as Gaolers or Keepers themſelves, or know 'any Thing of the Priſoners therein, but depute or employ ſome Perſon or Perſons under them as Gaolers 'or Keepers of ſuch Gaols or Priſons;' be it therefore enacted, That, in every ſuch Caſe, the Perſon who ſhall have been actually employed and acted as deputed Gaoler or Keeper of any ſuch Gaol or Priſon, at the Time of the delivering in the Liſts, hereby directed to be delivered in, of Priſoners in any ſuch Gaol or Priſon, at any General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, or ſome Adjournment thereof, and not the principal Gaoler or Keeper (unleſs where ſuch principal Gaoler or Keeper ſhall act as Gaoler or Keeper himſelf), ſhall take the Oath herein-before appointed to be taken by the Gaoler or Keeper of every ſuch Gaol or Priſon.

The acting Gaoler, at the Time of delivering the Liſts, only liable to be ſworn.

XXV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices, at any General Quarter Seſſion of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof, to which any Priſoner ſhall be brought in purſuance of this Act, ſhall, if required by any Creditor or Creditors of any ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, who ſhall oppoſe his or her Diſcharge, adminiſter and give to the Gaoler, or the Perſon who acts as Gaoler or Keeper of any ſuch Priſon, at the Time of bringing up any ſuch Priſoner, in order to be diſcharged under this Act, an Oath to the following Effect; (that is to ſay)

Court, on Requiſition of a Creditor, to adminiſter an Oath to the Gaoler.

The Oath.

'I A. B. do ſwear, That was really and truly a Priſoner in my Cuſtody, in the Priſon 'of to the beſt of my Knowledge and Belief, at or upon the twenty-eighth Day of 'January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight; and that the Copy or Copies of the Cauſe or 'Cauſes of his [or her] Commitment or Detainer, now by me brought with the Body of the ſaid and produced to this Court, is or are a true Copy or Copies of the Cauſe or Cauſes of ſuch 'Detainer or Commitment, without any Fraud or Deceit by me, or any other Perſon whatſoever, to the 'beſt of my Knowledge and Belief.

'So help me GOD.'

If ſuch Perſon ſhall not have been Gaoler on Jan. 28, 1778, then he ſhall take the following

And if any Perſon who was Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of any ſuch Gaol or Priſon, on the ſaid twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, or ſince, ſhall not happen to be the Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of any ſuch Gaol or Priſon, at the Time any ſuch Liſt as aforeſaid is hereby required to be delivered in, then the Juſtices, at any ſuch Seſſion, or at any Adjournment thereof, may and are hereby required to adminiſter and give to the reſpective Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall be Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of any ſuch Gaol or Priſon, and deliver in any ſuch Liſt as aforeſaid, at any ſuch General or Quarter Seſſion, or any Adjournment thereof, an Oath, touching the Commitments, or Books of Commitment, of any ſuch Priſon, to the Effect following; (that is to ſay)

Oath.

'I A. B. do ſwear, That I have examined the Commitments, or Books kept of or concerning the Com- 'mitment, of Priſoners to the Priſon of in the [County, Riding, Diviſion, City, 'Town, Place, or Liberty of as the Caſe ſhall be]; and that I do verily believe that 'the ſaid Commitments, or Books of Commitment, are really true, and not fictitious, nor calculated for 'this Purpoſe; and by them it doth appear that was, on the twenty-eighth 'Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, really and truly a Priſoner in the actual 'Cuſtody of the then Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of the 'ſaid Priſon, without Fraud or Deceit by me, or any other Perſon or Perſons, to my Knowledge and 'Belief.

'So help me GOD.'

Court, at the Requeſt of a Creditor, may ſummon the Perſon who acted as Gaoler on Jan. 28, 1778, or ſince, and examine him, on Oath, &c.

Sheriff or Gaoler, diſobeying Order of Court, to forfeit 100*l.* with Treble Coſts.

'XXVI. And, in order to diſcover any fraudulent Entries or Commitments of Priſoners in any Gaol 'Books,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices, at any General or Quarter Seſſion of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, are hereby authoriſed, at the Requeſt of any Creditor or Creditors of any Priſoner, to convene before them, at ſome certain Time to be appointed by them, any Perſon or Perſons who was or were Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of any Gaol or Priſon within their reſpective Juriſdictions, on the ſaid twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, or at any Time ſince; and to examine every ſuch Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, on Oath, touching the Commitment and Continuance in Cuſtody of any ſuch Priſoner, as the Juſtices, at any ſuch General or Quarter Seſſion, or Adjournment thereof, ſhall think fit: And if any Sheriff, Gaoler, or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, ſhall neglect or refuſe to bring before ſuch Juſtices, at any Seſſion of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof, any Priſoner as ſhall be directed and required by Warrant of any Juſtice or Juſtices as aforeſaid, or to attend on being ſummoned for that Purpoſe; or if any Gaoler or Keeper attending, ſhall refuſe to make Anſwer and Diſcovery in the Premiſes, as ſhall be reaſonably required at ſuch General or Quarter Seſſion, or any Adjournment thereof, he, ſhe, or they, they, so offending in the Premises, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds; to be recovered, by and in the Name, and for the Use, of the Party injured, by Action of Debt, to be brought in his or her Name, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, together with treble Costs of Suit.

'XXVII. And whereas a great Number of Workmen, skilful in the several Trades and Manufactures 'of this Kingdom, and also many able Seamen and Mariners, finding themselves unable to satisfy the 'Whole of their respective Debts, and dreading the Miseries of a Gaol, have chose to leave their Employ-'ments and native Country, and have entered themselves in Foreign Service: And whereas their Conti-'nuance Abroad must be of great Prejudice to the Trade of this Kingdom;' in order therefore to induce and enable such Persons to return, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Debtor and Debtors, who was or were actually beyond the Seas, in foreign Parts, on the tenth Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, and did not go into such foreign Parts with the View or Intent to gain or have the Benefit of an Insolvent Debtors Act, who shall return and surrender himself or themselves, within fourteen Days next immediately after his or their landing in England, unto the Gaoler or Gaolers, Keeper or Keepers of the Prisons of the King's Bench, Marshalsea, or Fleet, or to the Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of the Prison or Prisons of such County, City, Town, Riding, Division, Liberty, or Place, where such Debtor or Debtors last dwelt, for the Space of six Months (which said Gaoler or Gaolers, Keeper or Keepers, is and are hereby required and empowered to receive and detain such Debtor or Debtors, surrendering as aforesaid, in order to their Discharge, as herein-after mentioned), and who, from and immediately after such Surrender, do continue in actual Custody of such Gaoler and Gaolers, Keeper or Keepers, until the Time of his Discharge, shall be deemed a Prisoner or Prisoners within, and be, to all Intents and Purposes, intitled to, the Benefit of this Act; and shall, upon due Proof of the said Premises, by the Oath of such Debtor or Debtors (not disproved by any credible Witness), be discharged in the same Manner as if he, she, or they, had been actually in Prison on the said twenty-eighth Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, and continued therein as aforesaid; subject nevertheless to the same Restrictions and Provisions, and a Compliance with the like Terms, Conditions, and Qualifications, herein-before imposed upon the said Prisoners actually in Custody upon the said twenty-eighth Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, and also subject to the Terms and Provisions relating to the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner, as aforesaid; excepting only such Particulars thereof as require the Name of a Prisoner to be inserted in the Gaoler's or Keeper's List, as aforesaid, as relate to the Oaths of such Gaoler or Keeper herein-before appointed to be taken; which Particulars cannot possibly be applied to the Case of Persons surrendering themselves as aforesaid; and also except the said Oath herein-before appointed to be taken by Prisoners in Custody upon the said twenty-eighth Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight; instead whereof, the Person or Persons so surrendering shall take an Oath, in open Court, at some General or Quarter Session of the Peace, or some Adjournment thereof, of the County, City, Town, Riding, Division, Place, or Liberty, in the Prison of which any such Fugitive or Debtor shall be held, after the Surrender of any such Fugitive or Debtor, to the Effect following; which the said Justices, authorised to put this Act in Execution, are hereby required and empowered to administer in such Manner as the Oaths herein-before mentioned are to be administered.

Debtors who were beyond the Seas on Jan. 28, 1778, surrendering themselves, may take the Benefit of this Act, upon the same Terms as other Prisoners; except in certain Particulars.

'I A. B. upon my corporal Oath, in the Presence of Almighty God, solemnly swear, protest, and de-'clare, That I was actually, on the tenth Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-'eight, beyond the Seas in foreign Parts, videlicet, at and that I did, within four-'teen Days next immediately after my landing, surrender myself to the Custody of the Keeper of '[as the Case may be]; and that I have ever since such my Surrender continued a Prisoner in 'his Custody; and that the Schedule now delivered, and by me subscribed, doth contain, to the best of 'my Knowledge, Remembrance, and Belief, a full, just, true, and perfect Account and Discovery, of all 'the real Estate, Goods, Effects, and other personal Estate, in anywise belonging to me; and also of all 'such Debts as are to me owing, or to any Person or Persons in Trust for me; and of all the Securities 'and Contracts whereby any Money now is, or will or may hereafter become payable, or whereby or 'wherefrom any Benefit or Advantage may accrue to me, or to my Use, or to any other Person or Persons 'in Trust for me; and the Names and Places of Abode of the several Persons from whom such Debts are 'due and owing; and of the Witnesses that can prove such Debts or Contracts [if any such there be]; 'and that neither I, nor any Persons in Trust for me, is or are seised of any real Estate, in Possession, 'Reversion, or Remainder, or Expectancy, or of any personal Estate of any Kind whatsoever, other than 'what are in the said Schedule contained; except my Wearing Apparel, and Bedding for myself and Fa-'mily, my working Tools, and necessary Implements for my Occupation and Calling, together with a 'Sum of Money not exceeding forty Shillings, and not exceeding in the Whole the Value of twenty 'Pounds; and that I have not, directly or indirectly, sold, lessened, or otherwise conveyed, disposed of 'in Trust, or concealed, all or any Part of my real Estate, Money, Goods, Chattels, Stocks, Debts, 'Securities, Contracts, or personal Estate whatsoever, whereby to secure the same, so as to receive or ex-'pect any Profit or Advantage therefrom to myself or Family, or with any View, Intent, or Design, to 'defraud or deceive any Creditor or Creditors, to whom I am indebted in anywise howsoever, or prevent 'their recovering or attaining their respective Debts.

'So help me GOD.'

Fugitive's Oath.

XXVIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if any Fugitive intending to surrender to the Terms of this Act, shall, within the Space before mentioned of fourteen Days, be arrested in any Suit or Action, which Cause of Action accrued before the said tenth Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seventy-eight, such Fugitive giving Notice (as before directed) to any Justice of the Peace at the next General Quarter Session or General Session; and, in all other Respects, complying with the Terms and Conditions of this Act, shall be intitled to the Benefit of the same; and every Sheriff, Bailiff, or Officer, Gaoler, or Keeper of a Prison, in whose Custody such Fugitive shall be detained, shall conform him or themselves to the Directions of this Act, in like Manner as before mentioned.

Fugitives arrested, intending to surrender, intitled to the Benefit of this Act.

'XXIX. And whereas a great Number of Commission and Warrant Officers, in his Majesty's Sea and 'Land Service, who, through unavoidable Misfortunes, have involved themselves in Debt, are now un- 'able, though willing, to serve their King and Country, because, to avoid the Disgrace and Shame of a 'Prison, they have taken Shelter in privileged Places, and cannot come forth without Danger of being 'immediately arrested, or have been thrown into Prison, without Hopes of being released by any Discharge 'of their Debts, and are therefore become useless and a heavy Burthen, instead of being serviceable to the 'State: And whereas many of them are not under the Description of those Persons who can take Benefit by 'the Provisions of this Act, without some Extension thereof, yet are very proper Objects of such Relief as 'is hereby intended to be given;' be it therefore enacted, That all and every Commission or Warrant Officer or Officers, in his Majesty's Sea or Land Service, now upon the full or half-pay List, who shall, on or before the twenty-sixth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, surrender himself or themselves to the Gaoler or Keeper of any of his Majesty's Prisons, in such Manner as is herein directed for Fugitive Debtors returning from foreign Parts, who mean to claim the Benefit of this Act, and who shall, subsequent thereto, conform themselves in all Respects to the like Terms and Conditions prescribed to such Fugitive Debtors (except as to so much of the Oath required to be taken by them, as declares that such Debtors were in foreign Parts on a certain Day, and did surrender within fourteen Days after their Return); instead whereof, every such Debtor shall swear, that he did, on or before the twenty-sixth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight [as the Case may be], surrender himself to the Custody of the Gaoler or Keeper of [insert the Name of the Prison], and who shall, in all other Respects, take the same Oath as every such Fugitive Debtor is required to do, shall be deemed and taken to be a Prisoner or Prisoners within the true Meaning of this Act, and be intitled to the Benefits thereof, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Any Commission or Warrant Officer, who shall surrender himself, as is herein directed for Fugitive Debtors, before June 26, 1778, shall be intitled to the Benefit of this Act.

'XXX. And whereas divers Persons are under a Necessity of residing Abroad, to avoid being thrown 'into Gaol on account of Annuities by them granted as a Means of raising Money either to themselves, or 'others for whom they have become Surety, and such Persons cannot have the Benefit of a Discharge by 'virtue of this Act, in respect of the accruing Payments of such Annuities subsequent to the twenty-eighth 'Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons who was or were actually beyond the Seas in foreign Parts to avoid being thrown into Gaol on account of Debts so contracted on or before the said twenty-eighth Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, and who shall surrender himself or themselves to the Gaoler or Keeper of any of his Majesty's Prisons, in such Manner as is herein directed for Fugitive Debtors returning from foreign Parts who mean to claim the Benefit of this Act, and who shall, subsequent thereto, conform themselves in all Respects to the like Terms and Conditions prescribed to such Fugitive Debtors, shall, notwithstanding the penal Sum contained in any Bond, Judgment, or other Assurance, whereby such Annuity may have been secured, should be larger than the Sum limited by this Act, be intitled to the Benefits of this Act to all Intents and Purposes; and such Person or Persons, so conforming, shall not afterwards be arrested, or held to Bail, or liable to Imprisonment, on account of the accruing Payment of any Annuity theretofore granted or secured, or in respect of any Bond, Judgment, or other Assurance, made, entered into, or obtained, for securing the Payment of any such Annuity.

Persons beyond the Seas on Account of Annuities granted before Jan. 28, 1778, who shall surrender themselves as Fugitive Debtors, &c. shall be intitled to the Benefits of this Act.

Exception.

XXXI. Provided always, That no Person shall be intitled to be discharged from his Imprisonment, under the Provisions of this Act, where the Annuity secured to any one Creditor shall exceed the Sum of one thousand Pounds, unless by the Consent of such Creditor.

Future Estates of such Debtors to be liable to Payment of Annuities.

XXXII. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall extend to exempt or discharge the future Estate or Effects, real or personal, of any such Debtor or Debtors, as are last herein before mentioned, from being liable to the Payment of such Annuity Debts as aforesaid.

Gaoler, or Printer of the Gazette, &c. not complying with the Regulations of this Act, to forfeit 200 l. for each Offence, with Treble Costs.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison, or his Deputy or Deputies, shall, without just Cause, to be approved of by the Justices at some General Quarter Session or General Session of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof, within their respective Jurisdictions, refuse or delay to bring any such Prisoner or Prisoners as aforesaid, to any such General Quarter Session, or General Session, or some Adjournment thereof, in order to his or her Discharge, or shall neglect, refuse, or designedly omit to insert, in any such List, the Name or Names of any such Prisoner or Prisoners who was or were actually in Custody in his or their respective Gaol or Prison, on the said twenty-eighth Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, or since; or shall neglect or refuse to make out, fix up, or deliver such Lists as aforesaid; or if any such Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, shall neglect or refuse to take any of the said Oaths before mentioned, and hereby required to be taken by him; or shall, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, take or receive more than the said Sum of one Shilling herein before allowed for his or her Attendance in order to be discharged of such Prisoner or Prisoners as aforesaid; or shall detain any such Prisoner after he or she shall be discharged as aforesaid; or if the Printer of the London Gazette, or other Newspaper, as aforesaid, shall wilfully refuse or neglect to insert therein the Notice by this Act directed to be given, on reasonable Request to him made for that Purpose, and Tender of the Money hereby directed to be paid; or shall take or receive any Fee or Gratuity more than Twopence as aforesaid for doing thereof; every such Gaoler and Keeper of such Prison or Prisons, his Deputy or Deputies, and every such Printer as aforesaid, shall respectively forfeit and pay to each Prisoner, in any such Case injured, the Sum of one hundred Pounds; which ſhall and may be recovered, with Treble Coſts of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of the Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

Gaoler convicted of Perjury, to forfeit 500l. with full Coſts, &c.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any ſuch Gaoler or Gaolers, or Keeper or Keepers, or any deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of any Priſon, ſhall, in taking of the aforementioned Oaths, forſwear or perjure himſelf, and ſhall thereof be lawfully convicted, ſuch Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of ſuch Priſon or Priſons (over and above ſuch Penalties as may be inflicted on Perſons convicted of Perjury), ſhall, upon every ſuch Conviction, forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds; to be recovered, with full Coſts, by Bill, Plaint, or Information, or Action of Debt, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, ſhall be allowed, by and in the Name of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, his and their Executors and Adminiſtrators, to whom any Aſſignment or Conveyance, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be made, of the Eſtate and Effects of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners; and if no ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees ſhall be living, then in the Name or Names of any other Creditor or Creditors who ſhall ſue for the ſaid Penalties; to be applied, one Moiety to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety towards Satisfaction of the Debts of ſuch his Creditor or Creditors.

Application of the Penalty.

Clerk of the Peace refuſing a Priſoner a Copy of his Diſcharge, or taking exorbitant Fees, ſhall forfeit 20l. to the Priſoner.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, or Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, ſhall delay or refuſe to give every or any ſuch Priſoner ſo diſcharged as aforeſaid, within fourteen Days after his or her Diſcharge, a Copy of the Order of his or her Diſcharge, on the Payment of two Shillings and Sixpence; or ſhall take more than the Sum of two Shillings and Sixpence for ſuch Copy; or ſhall take more than one Shilling for an Aſſignment or Conveyance of ſuch Priſoner's Eſtate or Effects; every ſuch Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, or Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, who ſhall ſo offend, and who ſhall be convicted at any ſuch General or Quarter Seſſion of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, of any ſuch Offence, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay to every ſuch Priſoner the Sum of twenty Pounds, as the Juſtices of the Peace, at any ſuch General or Quarter Seſſion of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof, ſhall order; and who are hereby empowered to cauſe the ſame to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of any ſuch Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, or Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, ſo offending.

Priſoner, &c. convicted of Perjury, to be deemed guilty of Felony.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Priſoner as aforeſaid, or any other Perſon or Perſons who ſhall take the Benefit of this Act, ſhall forſwear and perjure himſelf, herſelf, or themſelves, in any Oath to be taken under this Act, and ſhall be lawfully convicted thereof, he, ſhe, or they, ſo offending, ſhall be adjudged guilty of Felony.

Perſons diſcharged by this Act, not liable to Impriſonment for Debts, &c. contracted before Jan. 28, 1778;

XXXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon to be diſcharged by this Act ſhall, at any Time hereafter, be impriſoned by reaſon of any Judgment or Decree obtained for Payment of Money only, or for any Debt, Bond, Damages, Contempts, Coſts, Sum or Sums of Money, contracted, incurred, occaſioned, owing, or growing due, before the ſaid twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight; but that upon every Arreſt upon every Judgment, or ſuch Decree, or for ſuch Debts, Damages, Contempts, Coſts, Sum and Sums of Money, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Judge of the Court where the Proceſs iſſued, or for any two Juſtices of the Peace, upon ſhewing the Copy of the Order of ſuch Priſoner's Diſcharge or Diſcharges, to releaſe and diſcharge out of Cuſtody ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners as aforeſaid; and ſhall, at the ſame Time, order the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, in ſuch Suit or Suits, to pay ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners the Coſts he, ſhe, or they, ſhall have incurred on ſuch Occaſion, or ſo much thereof as to ſuch Judge or Juſtices ſhall ſeem juſt and reaſonable; and every ſuch Judge is hereby empowered ſo to do on ſuch Priſoner's cauſing a Common Appearance to be entered for him in every ſuch Action and Suit.

But no Priſoner to be diſcharged of Debts ſubſequent thereto.

'XXXVIII. And whereas, under former Acts of this Kind, Doubts have ariſen, what was to be done 'with ſuch Priſoners who applied at any Seſſion to be diſcharged, who owed and ſtood charged with Debts, 'as well previous as ſubſequent to the Day limited by the reſpective Acts;' to remedy which, be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Priſoner or Priſoners ſhall be diſcharged of any Debts ſubſequent to the twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight; and if it ſhall appear to the Juſtices, in any Seſſion or Adjournment, that any Priſoner or Priſoners, then applying to them to be diſcharged, ſhall ſtand charged as well with Debts previous to as ſubſequent to the ſaid twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, that, in ſuch Caſes, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Juſtices to diſcharge the Perſon of ſuch Priſoner on account of all Debts previous to the ſaid twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, and to remand him or her back to the Cuſtody of the Keeper of the Priſon from whence he or ſhe was brought, for all Debts with which he or ſhe ſtands charged with in his Cuſtody, ſubſequent to the ſaid twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight.

Juſtices, &c. may plead this Act to any Action brought againſt them, and recover Treble Coſts.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action of Eſcape, or any Suit or Action, be brought againſt any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, Sheriff, Gaoler, or Keeper of any Priſon, for performing their Office, in purſuance of this Act, they may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff be nonſuited, or diſcontinue his Action, or Verdict paſs againſt him, or Judgment upon Demurrer, the Defendant ſhall have Treble Coſts.

Perſons diſcharged may plead generally, &c. to all Actions or Judgments brought againſt them, be-

XL. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Scire Facias, or Action of Debt, or upon Judgment, ſhall be brought againſt any Priſoner, his or her Heirs, Executors, or Adminiſtrators, upon any Judgment, obtained againſt any ſuch Priſoner, or on any Statute or Recognizance acknowledged by him or her, before the ſaid twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, with reſpect to Priſoners in actual Cuſtody, or with reſpect to Debtors beyond the Seas as aforeſaid, upon the ſaid tenth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, it ſhall be lawful for

for any ſuch Priſoner, his or her Heirs, Executors, or Adminiſtrators, to plead generally that ſuch Priſoner was actually a Priſoner in ſuch Priſon at ſuch a Perſon's Suit on the twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, or was or were beyond the Seas in Foreign Parts on the tenth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight; and was or were duly diſcharged according to this Act, at the General Quarter Seſſion or General Seſſion, or Adjournment thereof, held at ſuch Time and Place, for ſuch County, Riding, Diviſion, Liberty, City, Town, or Place (as his, her, or their Caſe is), without pleading any Matter ſpecially; and in caſe any other Suit or Action ſhall be commenced againſt him, her, or them, for any other Debt, Sum or Sums of Money, due before the ſaid twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, or the tenth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, to plead in Diſcharge of his or her Perſon from Execution (over and above ſuch Matters as aforeſaid), that ſuch Debt or Sum of Money (as the Caſe ſhall happen) was contracted or due before the ſaid twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, or the tenth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, without pleading any other Matter ſpecially; whereto the Plaintiff ſhall or may reply generally, and deny the Matters pleaded as aforeſaid, or reply any other Matter or Thing which may ſhew the ſaid Defendant not to be intitled to the Benefit of this Act, or not duly diſcharged according to it, in the ſame Manner as the Plaintiff might have replied, in caſe the Defendant had pleaded this Act, and his Diſcharge, by virtue of this Act, ſpecially; and if the Plaintiff be nonſuited, diſcontinue his Action, or Verdict paſs againſt him, or Judgment on Demurrer, the Defendant to have Treble Coſts.

and in other Suits, may plead in Diſcharge of their Perſons from Execution.

Plaintiff may reply generally, &c.

but if nonſuited to pay Treble Coſts.

XLI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to releaſe or diſcharge any Attorney at Law, or Solicitor, or any other Perſon or Perſons acting, or pretending to act as ſuch, with regard to any Debt with which he or they ſhall ſtand charged for any Money, or other Effects, recovered and received by him or them, for the Uſe of any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Corporate or Politic, and by any Attorney, Solicitor, or other Perſon or Perſons acting as ſuch, embezzled, concealed, or converted, to his or their own Uſe; or to releaſe or diſcharge any Servant or Agent, or any Perſon or Perſons employed or intruſted as ſuch, with regard to any Debt or Demand with which he, ſhe, or they, ſhall ſtand charged, for and on account of any Money, Goods, or other Effects, received or poſſeſſed by him, her, or them, for the Uſe, and on account of his, her, or their Maſter or Maſters, or Employers, and by ſuch Servant or Agent embezzled, concealed, or converted to his, her, or their own Uſe; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

'XLII. And whereas many evil-diſpoſed Perſons, to ſupport their profligate Way of Life, have, by 'various ſubtle Stratagems, Cheats, and Devices, fraudulently obtained divers Sums of Money, Goods, 'Wares, Merchandizes, Bonds, Bills of Exchange, Promiſſory Notes, or other Securities for Money, 'to the great Injury of induſtrious Families, and to the manifeſt Prejudice of Trade and Credit;' be it enacted, That no Priſoner, who knowingly and deſignedly, by falſe Pretence or Pretences, ſhall have obtained from any Perſon or Perſons, Money, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, Bonds, Bills of Exchange, Promiſſory Notes, or other Securities for Money, ſhall have or receive any Benefit or Diſcharge by or under this Act; but the Juſtices, at any General or Quarter Seſſion of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, before whom any ſuch Priſoners ſhall be brought, upon due Proof of the Matter, made to their Satisfaction, ſhall remand ſuch Priſoner to the Cuſtody of the Gaoler or Keeper of the Priſon from whence he or ſhe ſhall have been brought; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Perſons who, by falſe Pretences, have obtained Money, Goods, &c. excluded the Benefit of this Act.

'XLIII. And whereas many Debtors have, with a View to defraud their Creditors, ſold, transferred, 'conveyed, or aſſigned their Eſtate and Effects to ſome Perſon or Perſons, ſubſequent to their being in 'Cuſtody of Law, or impriſoned under ſome Proceſs for Debt: And whereas ſuch Sale, Transfer, Con'veyance, or Aſſignment, has been frequently made, to the infinite Prejudice of the fair and honeſt Cre'ditor, though ſufficient Proof could not be obtained to convict the Party of a fraudulent Deſign;' be it enacted, That whenever it ſhall be proved by one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, to the Satisfaction of the Court, to which any Priſoner ſhall be brought up, in order to obtain his or her Diſcharge, that ſuch Priſoner has ſold, transferred, conveyed, or aſſigned, to any Perſon or Perſons, all or any Part of his Eſtate or Effects, ſubſequent to the Time of his Impriſonment, or of his being in Cuſtody of Law, without juſt Cauſe for ſo doing, to be allowed by the Juſtices preſiding in ſuch Court as aforeſaid; every ſuch Priſoner ſhall loſe all the Benefits and Advantages that he might have otherwiſe claimed under the Authority of this Act, and ſhall not be intitled to his or her Diſcharge; and every ſuch Sale, Transfer, Conveyance, or Aſſignment, is hereby declared to be null and void.

Any Perſon having ſold or aſſigned any Part of his Eſtate or Effects, after being in Cuſtody, with Deſign to defraud his Creditors, ſhall loſe the Benefit of this Act.

XLIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Gaoler or Keeper of any Priſon ſhall, and is hereby required to ſuffer, in the Day-time, any Perſon or Perſons deſiring the ſame, to ſee and ſpeak, in the Lodge, or ſome convenient Room in the ſaid Priſon, with any Priſoner or Priſoners, whoſe Names are inſerted in the afore-mentioned Liſt or Liſts, or London Gazette, or other Newſpapers, or any of them, or any Perſons ſurrendering themſelves purſuant to this Act; and alſo ſee, in the true and genuine Books of the ſaid Priſon, the Entries made of the Name or Names of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, together with the Name or Names of the Perſon or Perſons at whoſe Suit or Suits he, ſhe, or they, are detained: And if any ſuch Gaoler or Keeper ſhall neglect or refuſe to comply with what is here above required, every ſuch Gaoler or Keeper, who ſhall ſo offend in the Premiſſes, ſhall forfeit and pay, to the Perſon ſo refuſed and aggrieved, the Sum of forty Pounds; to be recovered, with Coſts of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of the Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed, by and in the Name or Names of the Perſon or Perſons ſo refuſed and aggrieved.

Gaoler to permit the ſpeaking in private to Priſoners, whoſe Names are inſerted in the Liſt, or Gazette, &c. and the examining original Book of Entries, &c. on Penalty of 40 l. with Coſts of Suit.

'XLV. And whereas ſeveral Perſons, who have taken the Benefit of Acts of Inſolvency, from a Diſ'ficulty of obtaining a new Credit to ſet themſelves up in their uſual Trades and Occupations (as their 'future Effects have been made liable to their Debts previous thereto), have gone Abroad for the better

'Maintenance

'Maintenance of themſelves and Families, carrying the Arts and Manufactures of this Country to our 'Enemies, or Rivals in Trade: In order to prevent ſuch Evil for the future,' be it enacted, That the future real Eſtates, as well Freehold and Copyhold, as Cuſtomary Copyhold, Salaries of Offices under Government Money, or Money in the Funds, or lent upon real Security only, of every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Priſoner or Priſoners, Fugitive or Fugitives, which, after the Time of his, her, or their total Surrender of his, her, or their Eſtates and Effects, under ſuch Acts, he, ſhe, or they, ſhall or may be ſeiſed of, in his, her, or their own Right or Uſe, by Grant, Demiſe, or Purchaſe, ſhall remain and be liable to his, her, and their reſpective Creditors, as before the making of this Act; and any Creditor or Creditors of any ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, Fugitive or Fugitives, may, at any Time hereafter, ſue out Execution, Extents, or other Proceſs, againſt ſuch real Eſtate or Money in the Funds as aforeſaid, of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, on any Judgment at the Time of ſuch Diſcharge recovered, or Statute Staple, or Recognizance acknowledged by, or Decree obtained againſt any ſuch Priſoner or Fugitive, but not againſt his, her, or their Perſon, or his, her, or their perſonal Eſtate or Effects, except Money in the Funds obtained or accrued ſince ſuch Time of ſuch Diſcharge, other than as aforeſaid.

Priſoners future Eſtates, or Money in the Funds, notwithſtanding their perſonal Diſcharge, liable to Creditors; who may ſue out Execution, but not againſt their Perſons, or perſonal Effects, &c.

XLVI. And be it alſo enacted, That any Creditor or Creditors of any Priſoner or Priſoners, Fugitive or Fugitives, who ſhall be diſcharged under this Act, may, at any Time after any ſuch Diſcharge, commence and proſecute any Action or Suit againſt any ſuch Priſoner or Fugitive, his, her, or their reſpective Heirs, Executors, or Adminiſtrators, for the Recovery of any Sum or Sums of Money which ſhall be due from any ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, Fugitive or Fugitives, at the Time of his or their ſaid Diſcharge, but ſhall not hold the Perſon of any ſuch Priſoner or Fugitive to Special Bail; nor ſhall take the Perſon, or perſonal Eſtate and Effects, other than as aforeſaid, of any ſuch Priſoner or Fugitive, in Execution, by any Judgment, Sentence, or Decree, which ſhall have been, or hereafter may be recovered or obtained againſt any ſuch Priſoner or Fugitive; and any Judge of the Court, out of which ſuch Execution ſhall iſſue, ſhall have Power to diſcharge the ſame by virtue of this Act: And in any Action or Suit, which ſhall be hereafter commenced againſt any ſuch Priſoner or Fugitive, his or her Heirs, Executors, or Adminiſtrators, no Benefit or Advantage ſhall be had or taken, for that the Cauſe of Action did not accrue within three Years next before the commencing of any ſuch Action or Suit; nor ſhall any Statute or Limitation be pleadable, or be allowed to be pleaded in Bar of or in any ſuch Action or Suit, which ſhall be hereafter commenced by any ſuch Creditor or Creditors againſt any ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, unleſs ſuch Cauſe of Action or Suit did not accrue within three Years next before any ſuch Priſoner or Fugitive ſhall be diſcharged under this Act; and, in any ſuch Caſe, the ſame may be pleaded by any ſuch Priſoner, his or her Heirs, Executors, or Adminiſtrators.

Creditors may ſue for the Recovery of Debts due at the Time of Priſoner's Diſcharge, but not hold the Priſoner to ſpecial Bail, nor take his Perſon, &c. by any Judgment recovered againſt him.

No Advantage to be taken of the Cauſe of Action not accruing within three Years, &c. Exception.

XLVII. Provided always, and be it likewiſe enacted, That by the Diſcharge of any Priſoner or Fugitive by Force of this Act, no other Perſon or Perſons who was or were Partner or Partners in Trade with any ſuch Priſoner or Fugitive, at the Time of his or her Diſcharge under this Act, or then ſtood bound, engaged with, or liable to, the Payment of any Debt with any ſuch Priſoner or Fugitive, or engaged in any Contract together with any ſuch Priſoner or Fugitive, ſhall be diſcharged from any ſuch Debt or Demand; but every ſuch other Perſon and Perſons ſhall ſeverally ſtand and be chargeable with, and liable to pay, ſuch Debt and Debts, and to perform ſuch Contracts, in like Manner as if any ſuch Priſoner or Fugitive had never been diſcharged from the ſame.

Diſcharge of Priſoner no Acquittal to his Partner or Sureties.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Gaoler or Keeper, or reputed Gaoler or Keeper, of any Priſon or Priſons, ſhall make, or cauſe to be made, any falſe Entries in any Book or Books belonging to any Priſon or Gaol under his Care, or of which he is or was Gaoler, or ſhall prepare or keep, or cauſe to be prepared or kept, any falſe Book or Books, in order for any falſe or untrue Entry or Entries to be made therein; or ſhall inſert in any Liſt, to be delivered in as aforeſaid, the Name or Names of any Perſon or Perſons who was not a Priſoner or Priſoners in actual Cuſtody in any ſuch Gaol or Priſon upon the ſaid twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, or ſhall not have ever ſince remained in ſuch actual Cuſtody (except as in the Oath of any ſuch Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, ſhall be excepted), every ſuch Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, ſhall, over and above the Penalties which he ſhall be liable to for every ſuch Fraud, forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds; to be recovered, with Treble Coſts of Suit, by and in the Name, and for the Uſe, of any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be prejudiced by any Entry, or ſuch falſe Entries; which Penalties ſhall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

Gaoler making falſe Entries in Priſon Book or Liſt, to forfeit 500 l. with Treble Coſts.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Priſoner, being thereunto required by any Creditor, ſhall refuſe to diſcover and declare the Trade or Occupation, and Habitation, or laſt Place of Abode, of the Perſon or Perſons at whoſe Suit he or ſhe is detained or charged in Cuſtody; or, being called for and deſired, by any Creditor or Creditors, to come to the Lodge of the Priſon in which any ſuch Priſoner ſhall be confined, without ſome reaſonable Cauſe being made appear to the contrary; every ſuch Priſoner, upon Proof being made thereof before the Juſtices at any General or Quarter Seſſion of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, to be held as aforeſaid, ſhall not have or receive any Benefit or Diſcharge by or under this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

Priſoner refuſing to declare the Abode, &c. of the Perſon or whoſe Suit he is detained, &c. to be excluded the Benefit of this Act.

'L. And whereas there is but one Common or County Gaol for each of the reſpective Counties of 'York, Lincoln, Lancaſter, and Durham, which ſaid Counties are each of them divided into ſeveral 'Ridings or Diviſions, all which have ſeveral Commiſſions of the Peace; and if the Gaolers of thoſe 'Gaols be obliged to carry the Debtors, Priſoners therein, to the Quarter Seſſion of each Riding or Di-'viſion, the ſame will be a very great Charge, not only to ſuch Gaolers, but alſo to the Priſoners in thoſe 'large Counties;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for two or more Juſtices of the Peace for any of the Ridings or Diviſions in the reſpective Counties (or any other

Juſtices may aſſemble at or near any County

Gaol, and hold a Session there for Discharge of Prisoners.

other County or Counties where the Prisons are at a Distance from the Place where the Sessions are held), at the Common or County Gaol thereof respectively, or at some convenient Place near thereto, and they are hereby required to assemble and meet, and to hold Session there, by Adjournment from their respective Quarter Session, from Time to Time, for the Discharge of the respective Prisoners therein, according to the Powers, Limitations, and Directions of this Act.

The Justices for the District of Holland in Lincolnshire, may adjourn to the County Gaol, &c. for discharging Prisoners.

'LI. And whereas the Division or District of Holland in the said County of Lincoln, is distant near 'forty Miles from the said County Gaol, and it is highly inconvenient and expensive for the Justices of 'the Peace acting for the said Division, to be obliged to travel to the said Gaol, for the sole Purpose of 'discharging the Prisoners under the Powers by this Act given;' be it therefore enacted, That, for the several Purposes aforesaid, the Justices for the said Division or District of Holland may adjourn their original Sessions to the County Gaol, or some Place near thereunto; and that it may and shall be lawful for any two Justices of the Peace, acting either for the Parts of Lindsey, Kesteven, or Holland, to hold such adjourned Sessions for the sole Purpose of discharging such Prisoners; Notice of the Adjournment of such original Session being given by the Clerk of Sessions to such Justices, and who shall attend there to register the Proceedings of the said Court, so far as the same relate to or affect the Discharge of any Prisoner detained for Debt in the Division of Holland, and claiming the Benefit of this Act.

Justices for the County of Surrey may assemble at the Town-hall of Southwark for administering Oaths, &c.

'LII. And whereas the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County of Surrey, which 'shall happen after the passing of this Act, may be in the Country, and upwards of twenty Miles from 'any of the said Prisons;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for such Justices as shall be assembled at the General Quarter Session of the Peace to be holden for the County of Surrey, next after the passing of this Act, and they are hereby required forthwith to adjourn the said Session to the Town-hall in the Borough of Southwark, for the Purpose of administering the Oaths required to be taken and subscribed by this Act, by the several Gaolers within the said County wherein any Prisoner or Prisoners are confined, and to the discharging such respective Prisoner or Prisoners confined therein, according to the Powers, Limitations, and Directions of this Act.

Justices of London, Middlesex, and Surrey, to assemble their respective Courts for administering Oaths, &c.

and to give thirty Days Notice of sitting to discharge Prisoners.

'LIII. And whereas the next General Quarter Session of the Peace for the City of London, and General Quarter Sessions for the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey, will not be held until the Middle of 'July, which will be the Means of detaining in Prison a Number of Persons who, with their Families, 'are in the greatest Distress;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any two or more of the Justices of the Peace for the City of London and the Counties of Surrey and Middlesex, to assemble their respective Courts as soon as may be after passing this Act, for the Purpose of administering the Oaths, and other the Matters required by this Act, and to appoint such Day or Days for the Discharge of Prisoners as they shall see proper; and every Person or Persons so cleared at such Meeting as aforesaid, shall receive all the Benefits accruing to him by this Act, in the same Manner as if such Business had been done at any General Quarter Session, or General Session of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and such Justices are hereby required to cause to be inserted in the London Gazette, Notice of the Day or Days on which they will sit, for the Discharge of such Prisoners, and other the Purposes directed by this Act (which Notice shall be inserted in the London Gazette thirty Days previous to such Time).

Prisoners who are kept in Custody for Payment of Fees, &c. to be discharged.

LIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Debtors and others, who were in Prison on or before the said twenty-eighth Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, or since, in any of the Gaols of this Kingdom, and now remain there for not paying their Fees, Rents, or other Demands due, or claimed as due, to the Keeper or Gaoler of any Prison respectively, or to any other Officer of such Prison, and upon no other Account, shall be discharged therefrom, he, she, or they, taking the Oath by this Act required to be taken by Prisoners.

This Act not to extend to Debtors to the Crown;

LV. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to discharge any Person out of Prison, seeking his or her Discharge under this Act, with respect to any Debt or Penalty with which he or she shall stand charged at the Suit of the Crown, or at the Suit of any Sheriff or other Public Officer, upon any Bail Bond entered into for the Appearance of any Person prosecuted for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to his Majesty's Revenues of Customs, Excise, or Salt Duties, or either of them.

nor to Prisoners who owe more than 1000 l. to one Person, unless such Creditor consent.

Exception.

LVI. Provided also, That this Act shall not extend to discharge any Person out of Prison, seeking his or her Discharge under this Act, who shall be charged in Custody by any Body Politic or Corporate, or by any one Person, on or before the said twenty-eighth Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy eight, in any Sum exceeding the Sum of one thousand Pounds, besides Interest and Costs, and whose Discharge shall be in Court opposed by such Body Politic or Corporate, or one Person; (except such Person or Persons who shall have been bound in Security for any other Person or Persons to a larger Amount, and it shall appear, to the Satisfaction of the Court, that such Person or Persons so bound, or giving, or joining in, such Security, hath or have not received, or applied to his, her, or their own proper and separate Use or Benefit, any Part of the Sum or Sums of Money so due and owing as aforesaid; and also except such Person or Persons who now is or are, and was or were, Prisoner or Prisoners in the actual Custody of any Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison in this Kingdom respectively, at the Time of passing the late Act for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, and who was or were deprived taking or receiving the Benefit of the said Act, arising from their Debt or Debts to any one Creditor exceeding the Sum of one thousand Pounds as aforesaid; provided such Debt or Debts due to any one Creditor do not exceed the Sum of one thousand five hundred Pounds, besides Interest and Costs): And if any such Body Politic or Corporate, Creditor or Creditors, to whom a Sum exceeding one thousand Pounds shall be owing, shall oppose the Discharge of such Prisoner (except as aforesaid), and shall insist that such Prisoner be continued in Gaol; that then, and in such Case, such Body Politic or Corporate, or Creditor or Creditors, opposing the said Prisoner's Discharge as aforesaid, shall, at his, her, or their proper Costs and Charges allow allow and pay, in the Whole, such a Weekly Maintenance to the said Prisoner, not exceeding four Shillings nor less than three Shillings and Sixpence per Week, in such Manner as the said Justices, in their General Quarter Session, or Adjournment thereof, shall order; and, upon Nonpayment of the same for the Space of fourteen Days, the said Prisoner, upon Application to the said Justices in their General or Quarter Session, held as aforesaid, shall be discharged, pursuant to the Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Creditors opposing Prisoner's Discharge, to allow him 3 s. 6 d. per Week;

and on Nonpayment for two Weeks, Prisoner to be discharged.

'LVII. And whereas, under former Acts, Creditors have been put to great Expences and Trouble in 'attending every Session and Adjournment, during the whole Continuance of the Act, to oppose the Dis- 'charge of Prisoners clearly excluded from any Benefit under the said respective Acts, but who, after 'having been before one Session heard, and refused a Discharge, to harass their Creditors, constantly 'gave fresh Notices for each subsequent Session and Adjournment of their intended Application to be dis- 'charged;' to remedy which, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases whatever, the Determination of the Justices in Session or Adjournment shall be final to all Intents and Purposes, unless the Prisoner shall, during the Continuance of this Act, get rid of the Objection or Objections for which they refused his Discharge; and, that the same may be clear and certain, the Justices are hereby required to state the Objections why such Prisoner's Discharge is refused by them; and, in all Cases whatever, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices, at any subsequent Session or Adjournment, upon Application from the Prisoner, upon due Proof on Oath made to them, by two or more credible Witnesses (which Oath they are hereby empowered to administer), of each Objection or Objections being removed, and on Proof of Notice served, at least ten Days previous to such Application, on the Creditor or Creditors who before opposed his Discharge, and of Notice likewise inserted in the Gazette, in Manner before directed by this Act, to order such Prisoner to be brought before them, and, if they shall then be of Opinion the said Prisoner is intitled to the Benefit of this Act, to order him to be discharged, he taking the Oath, and in all other Respects conforming to the Directions of this Act.

Determination of Justices to be final with respect to the Retention of any Prisoner; unless the Prisoner get rid of the Objections for which they refused his Discharge.

Justices, on Proof by two Witnesses of Objections being removed, &c. may discharge such Prisoner.

LVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That when any Creditor shall intend to oppose the Discharge of any Debtor with whose Debt he is charged in Custody, at the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, he is hereby required to give four Days Notice of his Intention to oppose such Discharge to the Prisoner, or to leave such Notice in Writing with the Keeper or Gaoler of such Prison, in order that such Prisoner may be prepared to make his Defence; and in case no such Notice shall be given as aforesaid, previous to such Quarter Sessions, or such Adjournment thereof, and such Creditor shall appear to oppose his Discharge, and it shall happen that the Prisoner is remanded, then such Creditor shall pay to such Debtor the Expences of his Application and Attendance, in any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, as the Justices at such Sessions shall direct and allow.

Creditor intending to oppose the Discharge of a Prisoner, to give him four Days Notice thereof, or pay the Expences of his Application, &c.

LIX. Provided always, That every Fugitive or Fugitives, intitled, or to be intitled, to the Benefit of this Act, shall obtain their respective Discharges on or before the first Day of October, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, or shall be excluded from all Benefit of this Act.

No Fugitive to obtain a Discharge after Oct. 1, 1780.

'LX. And whereas it may happen that several Persons, who may claim and be intitled to the Benefit 'of this Act, are seised of an Estate Tail, in some Freehold or Copyhold Lands, Tenements, or Here- 'ditaments, which Entail, with the Remainders thereupon expectant, they have, by Law, Power to 'defeat and bar, either by levying a Fine or Fines, suffering a Common Recovery or Common Reco- 'veries, or by Surrender or Surrenders thereof, whereby such Person or Persons said Freehold or Copy- 'hold Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, would be liable to the Payment of their Debts, and be 'delivered up, according to the Terms of this Act, for the Benefit of their Creditors;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every such Case, such Person or Persons so seised as aforesaid, and who shall be intitled to, and claim the Benefit of this Act, shall, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever in Law, be deemed and taken, and is and are hereby declared to be seised of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in Fee: Provided the same shall be delivered up to the Creditor or Creditors of every such Prisoner, in the same Manner as if such Person or Persons had actually levied a Fine, suffered a Common Recovery or Recoveries, or made a Surrender or Surrenders thereof, and thereby had become seised in Fee; any Law, or Construction of Law, to the contrary thereof in any-wise notwithstanding.

Persons seised of an Estate Tail, claiming the Benefit of this Act, are to deliver up the same to Creditors.

'LXI. And whereas many Persons who may take the Benefit of this Act have been great Dealers, or 'otherwise engaged in large Transactions, whereby they may be intitled to sundry and great Debts and 'Demands, of various and intricate Natures, and they may be intitled to Equities of Redemption of 'Estates, subject and liable to Mortgages, Judgments, and other Incumbrances, or to Reversions, Re- 'mainders, or other contingent Estates in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or to other Trusts or 'Interests in Estates, both real and personal, which may not be sufficiently described or discovered in the 'Schedule, or Inventory, before directed to be delivered in, upon Oath, as aforesaid, or which may want 'his Aid or Assistance to adjust, make out, recover, or manage, for the Benefit of the Creditors:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Assignees of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner or Prisoners who shall obtain his, her, or their Discharge, in pursuance of this Act, or any other Person or Persons duly authorised by them for that Purpose, from Time to Time, to apply to any two or more of the Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Place, or Liberty, where such Person or Persons shall be then residing, thereby desiring that such Person or Persons may be further examined as to any Matters or Things relating to his, her, or their Estate or Effects; whereupon such Justices shall send for, or call before them, such Person or Persons, by such Warrant, Summons, Ways, or Means, as they shall think fit; and, upon such Person's appearing, shall examine him, her, or them, as well upon Oath as otherwise, as to such Matters and Things, as such Assignee shall desire, relating to the Estate and Effects of such Person or Persons; and if any Person or Persons (on Payment, or Tender of Payment, of such reasonable Charges as such Justices shall judge sufficient) shall neglect or refuse to come and appear, not having a lawful Excuse,

Assignees may apply for further Examination of Prisoners, touching the Discovery of their Effects; and Justices may send for and examine them accordingly.

Persons refusing to appear, or answer upon Oath, may be committed.

Excuſe, to be made known to ſuch Juſtices, and by them allowed, or, being come before them, ſhall refuſe to be ſworn, or to anſwer to all ſuch Queſtions as by ſuch Juſtices ſhall be put to him, her, or them, relating to the Diſcovery of his, her, or their Eſtate or Effects, ſo veſted, or intended to be veſted, in ſuch Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, or in ſuch Aſſignees as aforeſaid, that then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Juſtices, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to apprehend ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo offending as aforeſaid, and him, her, or them, to commit to the common Gaol, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, until ſuch Time as he, ſhe, or they, ſhall ſubmit him, her, or themſelves, to ſuch Juſtices, and anſwer upon Oath to all ſuch lawful Queſtions as ſhall, by ſuch Juſtices, be put to him, her, or them, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid.

10 per Cent. allowed for diſcovering, within twelve Months, any Part of a Priſoner's Eſtate not compriſed in his Schedule.

LXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons, who ſhall, within twelve Months after the Diſcharge of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, voluntarily come in and make a Diſcovery of any Part of ſuch Debtor or Debtors real or perſonal Eſtate, as ſhall not be compriſed in ſuch Schedule as aforeſaid, before any Juſtices aforeſaid, ſhall be allowed after the Rate of twenty Pounds per Centum, out of the Net Produce of ſuch Debtor or Debtors Eſtate which ſhall be recovered on ſuch Diſcovery, and which ſhall be paid to ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo diſcovering the ſame, by the Aſſignee or Aſſignees of ſuch Priſoner's Eſtate and Effects.

Diſcharge obtained fraudulently, void.

LXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That notwithſtanding the Diſcharge of any Priſoner or Priſoners by virtue of this Act, if it ſhall hereafter appear the ſame was obtained fraudulently, or that any Part of the Oath taken by any ſuch Priſoner was not true; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, every ſuch Diſcharge ſhall be void, and of none Effect.

Perſons concealing any Eſtate or Effects of the Priſoner, forfeit 100 l. and Double Value, with Treble Coſts of Suit.

'LXIV. And, for the better Diſcovery of the Eſtate and Effects of any Priſoner who ſhall be diſ-'charged by virtue of this Act,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall have accepted of any Truſt or Truſts, and ſhall wilfully conceal or protect any Eſtate, real or perſonal, of any ſuch Priſoner, from his Creditors, and ſhall not, within thirty Days after any Aſſignee or Aſſignees ſhall, in purſuance of this Act, be choſe of any ſuch Priſoner's Eſtate, diſcover and diſcloſe to ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees ſuch Truſt and Eſtate, in Writing, and deliver up or make over the ſame to ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees, he, ſhe, or they, ſo offending, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, and alſo Double the Value of the Eſtate, either real or perſonal, ſo concealed, to and for the Uſe of the Creditors of any ſuch Priſoner; to be recovered by Action of Debt, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, in the Name or Names of the Aſſignee or Aſſignees of ſuch Priſoner's Eſtate, together with Treble Coſts of Suit.

Aſſignees, with Conſent of the Majority in Value of the Creditors, may compound for Debts due to the Priſoner's Eſtate; and may ſubmit any Diſpute relating thereto to Arbitration.

LXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall be lawful, at all Times hereafter, for any Aſſignee or Aſſignees of the Eſtate or Effects of any Priſoner or Priſoners, who ſhall be choſe in purſuance of this Act, by and with the Conſent of the major Part in Value of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners' Creditors, who ſhall be preſent at a Meeting, to be held on twenty-one Days public Notice being previouſly given, for the Purpoſe hereafter mentioned, in the London Gazette, if the Priſoner was in Cuſtody in London, or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and if not, then alſo in ſome Newſpaper which ſhall be publiſhed in the County, City, or Place, in or near which any ſuch Perſon ſhall have been in Gaol, to make Compoſition with any Perſon or Perſons, Debtors, or Accountants, to ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, where the ſame ſhall appear neceſſary or reaſonable; and to take ſuch reaſonable Part of any ſuch Debt as can, upon ſuch Compoſition, be gotten in full Diſcharge of ſuch Debts and Accounts, and alſo to ſubmit any Difference or Diſpute between ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees, and any Perſon or Perſons, for or on account, or by reaſon or means of any Matter, Cauſe, or Thing relating to ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners' Eſtate and Effects, or to any Debt or Debts due, or claimed to be due, to or from ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, to the final End and Determination of Arbitrators, to be choſen by the ſaid Aſſignee or Aſſignees, and the major Part in Value of ſuch Creditors, and the Party or Parties with whom they ſhall have no Difference; and to perform the Award of ſuch Arbitrators, or of any Umpire to be choſen by them, or otherwiſe to ſettle and agree the Matters in Difference or Diſpute between them, in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Aſſignee or Aſſignees, with ſuch Conſent as aforeſaid, ſhall think fit and can agree; and the ſame ſhall be binding to all the Creditors of ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners; and every ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees is and are hereby indemnified for what they ſhall fairly do in the Premiſes, in purſuance of this Act.

If Aſſignees die before the Effects of the Priſoners are got in, and their Heirs, &c. refuſe to act, other Aſſignees to be appointed, and Creditors to obtain a new Aſſignment from the Clerk of the Peace, which the Juſtices are to direct.

'LXVI. And whereas Proviſion ought to be made as to what ſhould become of the Eſtate and Effects 'of any Priſoner or Priſoners, Fugitive or Fugitives, not got in, obtained, or recovered, by any Aſſignee 'or Aſſignees choſe purſuant to the Directions of the ſeveral Acts, at the Time of his or their Death or 'Deaths, and whoſe Heir or Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, refuſed to act or meddle 'therein;' to remedy which, be it enacted, That in all ſuch Caſes, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Creditors of every ſuch Priſoner or Priſoners, Fugitive or Fugitives, to chuſe a new Aſſignee or Aſſignees in Manner and Form as herein before is directed, and to obtain a new Aſſignment from the Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, purſuant to the Order of the Juſtices, and which ſaid Order the ſaid Juſtices are hereby required and empowered to direct (on due Proof on Oath being made to them of the Death of ſuch former Aſſignee or Aſſignees, and Refuſal of his or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, to act or meddle therein); and the ſaid Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, are hereby empowered to obey the ſame, and execute ſuch Aſſignment accordingly, in Manner and Form as if no former Aſſignment had ever been made; the ſaid Aſſignee or Aſſignees, Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, hereby conforming to all Orders and Directions made by this Act relative to them, or any of them; and to be liable to all ſuch Pains and Penalties as are inflicted on them, or any of them, by virtue of this Act, for Diſobedience in any Part thereof, or Neglect of Duty whatever; and in caſe any ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees ſhall die, and his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall refuse to act, that then, and in such Case, it shall be lawful for such Justices of the Peace to appoint a new Assignee or Assignees, with the like Powers and Authorities as are given by this Act; and the said Justices shall have Power, in a summary Way, to oblige the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, of such Assignee or Assignees, to account and deliver up all such Estate and Effects as shall remain in his or their Hands, to be applied for the Purposes of this Act.

'LXVII. And, to the Intent and Purpose that the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner or Prisoners as 'shall be discharged by virtue of this Act may be duly and faithfully applied for the Benefit of his, her, 'or their real Creditors,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Courts at Westminster, and the Courts of Great Sessions in Wales, and the Principality of Chester, and the Counties Palatine of Lancaster and Durham, respectively, from whence any Process issued upon which any such Prisoner or Prisoners was or were committed; or where the Process issued out of any other Court, to and for the Judges of the Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer, or of Great Sessions aforesaid, within their respective Jurisdictions, or any one of them, from Time to Time, upon the Petition of any such Prisoner, or the Creditor or Creditors of such Prisoner or Prisoners, complaining of any Insufficiency, Fraud, Mismanagement, or other Misbehaviour of any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate or Effects of any such Prisoner or Prisoners, to summon all Parties concerned, and, upon hearing the Parties concerned therein, to make and give such Orders and Directions therein, either for the Removal or displacing such Assignee or Assignees, and appointing any new Assignee or Assignees in the Place or Stead of such Assignee or Assignees so to be removed or displaced, or for the prudent, just, or equitable Management or Distribution of the Estate and Effects of any such Prisoner for the Benefit of the respective Creditors, as the said Courts or Judges respectively shall think fit; and in case of the Removal or displacing of any Assignee or Assignees, and the appointing of any new Assignee or Assignees, the Estate or Effects of such Prisoner or Prisoners shall from thenceforth be divested out of the Assignee or Assignees so removed or displaced, and be vested in, and delivered over to, such new Assignee or Assignees, in the same Manner, and for the same Intents and Purposes, as the same were before vested in the Assignee or Assignees first chose as aforesaid; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Assignees complained against for Insufficiency, Fraud, Mismanagement, or other Misbehaviour; the Court thereupon is to summon the Parties, and make such Orders therein as they shall think fit.

LXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where mutual Credit hath been given between any Prisoner or Prisoners who shall be discharged in pursuance of this Act, and any other Person or Persons, or Body Politic or Corporate, before the Delivery of such Schedule or Inventory of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner or Prisoners, upon Oath as aforesaid, the respective Assignee and Assignees of such Prisoner or Prisoners is and are hereby authorised and required, on his and their Parts, to state and allow an Account between them and the other Party or Parties concerned; and nothing more shall be deemed to be vested in such Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, or such Assignee or Assignees under such Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, as the Estate or Effects of such Prisoner or Prisoners, than what shall appear to be justly due to him, her, or them, respectively, as and for the Balance of such Account, when truly stated.

Where mutual Credit has been given, the Balance to be stated and allowed.

'LXIX. And whereas many Persons are often committed on Attachments for Contempts, for not 'paying Money awarded to be paid under Submissions to Arbitrators by Rules of Court, or under Sub- 'missions to Arbitration Bonds, and which Submissions have been made Rules of Court, in pursuance of 'an Act passed in the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of William the Third, for determining Dif- 'ferences by Arbitration; and likewise for not paying of Costs duly and regularly taxed and allowed by 'the proper Officer, after proper Demands made for that Purpose; and also upon any Writ of Excommu- 'nicato Capiendo, or other Process for, or grounded on, the Nonpayment of Costs or Expences in any 'Cause or Proceeding in any Ecclesiastical Court, or for any Contempt to such Court,' it is hereby declared and enacted, That all such Persons are and shall be intitled to the Benefit of this Act, on and subject to the same Terms and Conditions as are herein expressed and declared with respect to Prisoners for Debt only.

Persons committed for not paying Money awarded under Submissions to Arbitration, and for not paying Costs, &c. are intitled to the Benefit of this Act.

'LXX. And whereas great Numbers of poor People have been and are now imprisoned for Debt, upon 'Processes issuing out of Courts of Conscience;' it is hereby enacted and declared, That all such Prisoners shall be intitled to have the Benefit of this Act, and be discharged under the same, provided he, she, or they, conform to the Directions herein before prescribed, touching other Prisoners who shall be discharged by virtue of this Act.

Prisoners upon Process out of Courts of Conscience, to have the Benefit of this Act.

LXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases wherein by this Act an Oath is required, the solemn Affirmation of any Person, being a Quaker, shall and may be accepted and taken in lieu thereof; and every Person making such Affirmation, who shall be convicted of wilful and false affirming, shall incur and suffer such and the same Penalties as are inflicted and imposed by this Act upon Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Quaker's Affirmation to be taken in lieu of an Oath.

LXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person who shall have taken the Benefit of any Act heretofore passed for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, within the Space of ten Years last past, shall have or receive any Benefit or Advantage of or under this Act, nor be deemed to be within the Intent and Meaning thereof, so as to be discharged under the same; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding; unless such Person shall be willing to serve, and shall actually enter himself to serve on Board some one of his Majesty's Ships of War for the Term of seven Years, or shall inlist as a Soldier in some of his Majesty's Land Forces for the Term of three Years.

Persons who have taken the Benefit of any Insolvent Act within ten Years, excluded from this Act: Exception.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That when any Prisoner, who may have taken the Benefit of any Insolvent Act within the Space of ten Years last past, shall under this Act apply for his Discharge, every such Prisoner shall produce to the Court (to which he shall make Application for such Discharge) a

Prisoners who have taken such Benefit, and shall apply for Discharge under this Act, to produce to the Court a Certificate ſigned by a proper Officer, ſetting forth that they are inliſted to ſerve his Majeſty, &c.

Certificate in Writing, ſigned by an Officer properly authoriſed to engage or enliſt Men for his Majeſty's Sea or Land Service [as the Caſe may be], ſetting forth that he was on the Day of [inſert the Date] engaged or inliſted [as the Caſe may be] to ſerve as a Mariner or Soldier in his Majeſty's Sea or Land Service for the Term of which Certificate ſhall be atteſted by one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes; and in caſe ſuch Certificate ſhall not be produced, or ſhall not be properly authenticated in Manner aforeſaid, to the Satisfaction of the Juſtices before whom any ſuch Priſoner ſhall be brought, he ſhall be remanded back to the Priſon from whence he came, there to remain till he ſhall have fully complied with the Directions aforeſaid, or ſhall by other legal Means ſooner obtain his Diſcharge.

LXXIV. Provided alſo, and it is hereby enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Clauſe of Relief for Bankrupts, who have not obtained Certificates and Diſcharge of their Debts.

'LXXV. And whereas Bankrupts who have not obtained their Certificates and Diſcharge of their Debts, 'under ſome one of the Acts relating to Bankrupts, have not been deemed to be within the Meaning of 'Acts of Inſolvency, as ſuch Bankrupts have no Schedules to deliver up according to the Terms and Con-'ditions of ſuch Acts; nevertheleſs, as many Bankrupts are confined in Priſon for Debt only, though they 'have already delivered up their whole Eſtates and Effects, or, from a Fear of being arreſted and thrown 'into Priſon, are frequently induced to abſcond from their Homes, and go into foreign Parts:' Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Perſon or Perſons, againſt whom a Commiſſion of Bankruptcy hath been awarded and iſſued on or before the twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, or who ſhall have been really an actual Priſoner or Priſoners, in the Cuſtody of any Gaoler or Gaolers, or Keeper of any Priſon reſpectively, on or before the twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, and againſt whom a Commiſſion of Bankruptcy ſhall have ſince been awarded and iſſued, and who hath or have duly conformed, or ſhall duly conform, him, her, or themſelves to the ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating to Bankrupts, and hath not or have not been committed to any Priſon by a Warrant of the Commiſſioners in ſuch Commiſſion named, for Contumacy or Noncompliance to thoſe Laws, and who now is or are in Priſon for Debt, Damages, Contempt, Coſts of Suit, or any Sum or Sums of Money due and accrued previous to ſuch Commiſſion, or who now are ſecreting themſelves in Fear of their Creditors; and ſhall be hereafter ſued, arreſted, or held to Bail, or ſhall ſurrender him, her, or themſelves, or be ſurrendered, in Diſcharge of his, her, or their Bail, or taken in Execution in any Suit or Action for any ſuch Debt or Debts as aforeſaid, ſhall and may apply to any one of the Judges of the Court wherein ſuch Proceſs or Proceſſes hath or have iſſued, to ſummon his, her, or their Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, to ſhew Cauſe why ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts ſhould not be diſcharged from his, her, or their Impriſonment, or Arreſt as aforeſaid, ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts firſt making Oath before ſuch Judge (or if at a Diſtance from ſuch Judge, then before a Juſtice of the Peace), who is hereby authoriſed to adminiſter ſuch Oath, that ſuch Debt or Debts did accrue previous to the iſſuing ſuch Commiſſion; and ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts making it appear to the Satisfaction of ſuch Court or Judge, that he or they hath or have made a full Diſcloſure of his or their Eſtate or Effects, and delivered up the ſame; and ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs not appearing, or not proving that ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts hath or have concealed any Part of his, her, or their Eſtate or Effects; and ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts making it appear that he or they hath or have duly conformed him, her, or themſelves, to the Laws now in Force againſt Bankrupts, ſuch Judge ſhall and may diſcharge ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts from ſuch Impriſonment or Arreſt as aforeſaid; unleſs it ſhall appear that ſuch Commiſſion was fraudulently obtained; ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts cauſing a common Appearance to be entered for him, her, or them, where neceſſary, in every ſuch Suit or Action; and if any ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts ſhall be afterwards again ſued and arreſted, or taken in Execution, or impriſoned, in any Suit or Action, for ſuch Debt or Debts, previous to ſuch Commiſſion as aforeſaid, any Judge of the Court wherein ſuch Proceſs iſſued ſhall, upon Summons of the proper Party or Parties, immediately diſcharge ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts from ſuch Arreſt or Impriſonment; nevertheleſs ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts ſhall, in all other Reſpects, be deemed ſubject to the Laws in Force againſt Bankrupts; and every Sheriff and Sheriffs, Bailiff and Officer, Gaoler and Keeper of a Priſon, is and are hereby required, on proper Notice being given of ſuch Judge's Diſcharge, to releaſe and ſet free ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts out of his or their Cuſtody, and each and every of them is and are hereby indemnified from any Action or Actions that may be brought, commenced, or proſecuted againſt him or them, for any Eſcape for or on account thereof.

Clauſe with reſpect to Bankrupts who have conformed themſelves to the Bankrupt Laws;

'LXXVI. And whereas many Bankrupts, having in all Reſpects ſtrictly conformed themſelves to the 'Directions of the Bankrupt Laws, have, notwithſtanding, been unable to obtain their Certificates, and 'have, on that Account, been diſcouraged from exerting their Induſtry in the Purſuit of their ſeveral Oc-'cupations; either living in the moſt unhappy and diſtreſſed Situation at Home, or ſeeking Relief in foreign Countries, where they can earn and ſecure to themſelves the Profit of an induſtrious Application 'to Buſineſs; ſome of whom have carried with them the Arts, Manufactures, and Commerce of this 'Country, to the great Prejudice thereof: And whereas ſome Relief given in ſuch particular Caſes, might 'prevent the Evils ariſing to the Public, and be an Encouragement for ſuch Individuals to follow their 'different Occupations at Home;' be it enacted, That any Perſon or Perſons againſt whom a Commiſſion of Bankruptcy hath been awarded and iſſued, on or before the twenty-eighth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, and who hath or have in all Things conformed to the ſeveral Acts now in Force concerning Bankrupts, by his, her, or their Surrender and Submiſſion thereto, and who ſhall not have been committed for any Act of Contumacy or Nonconformity, yet who hath not or have not gained a total Diſcharge from his, her, or their Creditors, of his, her, or their Debts, ariſing or accruing previous to ſuch Commiſſion, for want of their Certificate, ſhall have Liberty, after the Expiration of twelve Calendar Months from the Day of the Date of every ſuch Commiſſion reſpectively, to petition or to apply, by Motion of Court, to the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commiſſioners for the Time

Time being, ſetting forth the true Circumſtance of the Caſe relative to ſuch Commiſſion and Certificate; and the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, ſhall have Power and Authority to direct and order the acting Commiſſioners in the reſpective Commiſſions named, to certify to the ſaid Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commiſſioners, the Conformity or Nonconformity of ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts, and ſuch other Matter as to them ſhall ſeem neceſſary concerning the ſame (the ſaid acting Commiſſioners being hereby authoriſed and required ſo to do); and the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commiſſioners, as aforeſaid, ſhall thereupon have Power and Authority, if he or they ſhall ſo think fit, to direct and order an Advertiſement to be inſerted in the London Gazette, for the Allowance of ſuch Bankrupt's Certificate (although the ſame ſhall not appear to have been ſigned or conſented to by four-fifths in Number and Value of the ſaid Bankrupt's Creditors, agreeable to the Laws now in being), in the ſame Manner and Form as if the ſaid Certificate had been ſigned as aforeſaid; and in caſe no ſufficient Cauſe ſhall be ſhewn to the contrary within the Time limited by the ſaid Advertiſement, the ſaid Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, ſhall have Power and Authority to allow ſuch Bankrupt's Certificate, in the like Manner as if the ſame had been ſigned agreeable to the Laws now in being, and grant or make ſuch other Order thereupon, for the Relief and Diſcharge of ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts from his, her, or their Debts as aforeſaid, or otherwiſe, as to the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commiſſioners, ſhall ſeem proper; which Certificate, if ſo allowed, ſhall be as full and effectual, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame had been duly obtained and allowed agreeable to the Directions of the ſeveral Laws now in Force concerning Bankrupts; any Law or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Lord Chancellor, &c. empowered to allow ſuch Bankrupts Certificates, although not ſigned by four-fifths of their Creditors.

LXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no ſuch Bankrupt or Priſoner, who knowingly or deſignedly, by falſe Pretence or Pretences, ſhall have obtained from any Perſon or Perſons Money, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, Bonds, Bills of Exchange, Promiſſory Notes, or other Securities for Money, ſhall have or receive any Benefit or Diſcharge by or under this Act; but the Judge, the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, Lords Commiſſioners, or Juſtices at any General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, before whom any ſuch Priſoner ſhall be brought, upon due Proof of the Matter made to their Satisfaction, ſhall remand ſuch Bankrupt or Priſoner to the Cuſtody of the Gaoler or Keeper of the Priſon from whence he or ſhe ſhall have been brought; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No Perſon to receive any Benefit by this Act who ſhall, by falſe Pretences, have obtained Money, Goods, Bonds, &c.

CAP. LIII.

An Act for the more eaſy and better recruiting of his Majeſty's Land Forces and Marines.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS, for recruiting his Majeſty's Land Forces and Marines, it is neceſſary that a new 'Supply of Men be forthwith raiſed, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, by common Conſent 'and Grant in Parliament;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That within and throughout the ſeveral and reſpective Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque-ports, Pariſhes, Towns, and Places, of Great Britain, a ſpeedy and effectual Levy of able-bodied Men, to ſerve his Majeſty as Soldiers, ſhall be forthwith had, made, practiſed, and put in Execution, according to the Rules and Directions of this preſent Act.

A Levy of able-bodied Men to be made throughout Great-Britain.

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That the Juſtices of the Peace of every County, Shire, Stewartry, Riding, Liberty, or Place, within Great Britain, and all and every the Perſons who were named, or otherwiſe appointed, to be Commiſſioners for putting in Execution an Act of Parliament, made and paſſed at Weſtminſter, in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty (intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majeſty by a Land Tax, to be raiſed in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five), or any ſubſequent Act or Acts of Parliament for that Purpoſe, within the ſeveral and reſpective Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque-ports, Towns, and Places, therein particularly expreſſed, who are ſtill living, and have duly qualified themſelves according to the ſaid Acts, or ſhall duly qualify themſelves according to this preſent Act, in that Behalf, ſhall be Commiſſioners for putting in Execution this preſent Act, and the Powers therein contained, within and for the ſame Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque-ports, Towns, and Places, of Great Britain, for which they were ſo named or appointed reſpectively; and that all and every the Juſtices of the Peace, and Magiſtrates of Corporations and Burghs, in any Part of Great Britain, who are or ſhall be in any of his Majeſty's Commiſſions of the Peace, or in the Magiſtracy of ſuch Corporation or Burgh, at any Time during the Execution of this Act, who ſhall duly qualify themſelves according to this preſent Act in that Behalf (although not ſpecially named or appointed Commiſſioners by the ſaid Act), ſhall be likewiſe Commiſſioners for putting in Execution this preſent Act, and all the Powers therein contained, within the Limits of their Commiſſions and Juriſdictions reſpectively: All which Commiſſioners, by this Act intruſted with the Execution of the ſame, are hereby ſtrictly enjoined and required to uſe their utmoſt Care and Diligence that his Majeſty's Service, in making ſuch Levies as aforeſaid, be not diſappointed or neglected.

Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of the Land-Tax, and Magiſtrates of Corporations and Burghs, to put this Act in Execution; and to take Care that his Majeſty's Service be not neglected.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the High Sheriff of every County, or his Deputy, immediately upon receiving Notice for that Purpoſe from the Secretary at War, ſhall ſend Precepts to the reſpective Bailiffs, or others who are uſually employed to ſummon Juries, although in Liberties out of the ordinary Juriſdiction of the ſaid High Sheriff, directing them to ſummon the ſeveral Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, within their reſpective Diviſions and Liberties, to attend at the uſual Place of Meeting in every Diviſion, upon a certain Day in the ſaid Precepts named, within the Time limited by the Secretary at War (Notice of which Day ſhall be ſent to the War-office and Admiralty

High Sheriffs, &c. upon Notice from the Secretary at War, to iſſue Precepts for ſummoning the Commiſſioners to meet, and qualify themselves. Admiralty upon the issuing of the Precepts by the Sheriff), to qualify themselves for the Execution of this Act; and the said Commissioners shall then and there appoint the several Times and Places for the succeeding Meetings in each of their respective Subdivisions during the Continuance of this Act; and the said Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax, at such their first Meeting, or at some other Meeting to be held as soon as it can be conveniently, shall issue their Precepts to the High Constables, Headboroughs, or other proper Officers, for the respective Hundreds, Lathes, Rapes, Wapentakes, or other Subdivisions, within the said Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, or Divisions, as aforesaid; which Precept shall contain an Account of the Times and Places appointed for the succeeding Meetings, and shall be returnable on a Day, therein to be named, within twenty Days, and not less than fourteen Days, from the Time of issuing thereof; and such High Constables, Headboroughs, or other proper Officers, are hereby required forthwith to signify the Times and Places appointed for such Meetings to the several Commissioners residing within their respective Districts; and the said Commissioners, assembled at such first Meeting to qualify themselves as aforesaid, shall also give Notice of the Time and Place of all and every succeeding Meeting, to be appointed as aforesaid, to the Military Officer whom they shall have learned, by Notice from the Secretary at War, to be directed to attend this Service.

Notice of the Day of Meeting to be sent to the War-office, &c.

Commissioners to appoint the Times and Places of their succeeding Meetings, and issue Precepts for that Purpose to the High Constables, &c. and to give Notice thereof to such Military Officers as shall attend this Service.

Sheriffs to be allowed the Expences incurred in the Execution of this Act.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That all reasonable Charges or Expences incurred by any Sheriff or Deputy Sheriff in the Execution of this Act, shall be allowed in the Accounts of such Sheriff at the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer.

Every Person voluntarily inlisting himself, intitled to 3 l. Bounty-money.

'V. And, for the Encouragement of fit and able Persons voluntarily to enter into his Majesty's Service,' be it enacted, That every such Person who shall, on or before the first Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, voluntarily enter himself into his Majesty's Service, before the said Commissioners, at their first or any subsequent Meeting, shall, by Warrant of any three or more of the said Commissioners, receive the Sum of three Pounds out of the Money of the Land Tax, arisen or to arise in the Years one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, and one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, or either of them, then being in the Hands of any Receiver-general, or of any Collector thereof, within the County or Place for which the said Commissioners are appointed; and thereupon the Commissioners then present, or any three of them, shall forthwith cause such Volunteers to be delivered to the Officers appointed to receive them; and shall cause an Entry to be made, in some Book to be kept by the said Commissioners, or such Clerk as they shall appoint, of the Names of such Volunteers, and of the Parishes or Places of their last Abode (if they can be known), and of the Time and Place when and where they did so enter themselves, and of the Sums paid to them, and by whom such Payments were made, and of the Names of the Officers or Persons who received such Volunteers, and for what Regiment or Company they were received; and shall cause true Copies or Duplicates of such Entries, attested by three or more of the said Commissioners then present, within forty Days after the Delivery of such Volunteers, to be transmitted into the Office of his Majesty's Secretary at War for the Time being, to be compared with the Muster-rolls.

Volunteers to be delivered over to the Military Officers; and an Entry to be made of their Names, Places of Abode, &c.

Duplicates of Entries to be transmitted to the War-office.

Volunteers to receive Pay from the Time of their entering; and to be discharged at the End of three Years, or of the War, if they demand it.

VI. And it is hereby declared, That the Pay of every such Volunteer shall commence from the Time that he shall so enter himself into his Majesty's Service; and that every such Volunteer, after he shall have continued in the Military Service of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, during the Space of three Years, shall be at Liberty (if he think fit) to demand his Discharge from the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment or Company to which he shall belong (unless the Nation shall be then engaged in a War, and in that Case such Volunteer shall remain in Service during the Continuance of War); and such Discharge shall be granted to him gratis, in Writing, under the Hand of such Colonel or Commanding Officer, who is hereby empowered and required to give the same accordingly, on Pain of suffering the Penalties usually inflicted for Disobedience to Orders; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Warrants for Bounty-money to be paid without any Deduction.

Receivers-general and Collectors, to attend Meetings of Commissioners, and pay the Bounty.

VII. And it is hereby further enacted, That the Warrants by this Act directed to be issued by the said Commissioners for the Encouragement of Volunteers as aforesaid, shall be satisfied by such Receivers or Collectors as aforesaid, to whom such Warrants shall be directed, without any Abatement for Fees, Gratuities, Charges, Poundage, or any other Pretence whatsoever, and shall be allowed upon their Accounts; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding; and the said Receivers-general, and their respective Deputies, and the said Collectors of the Land Tax Money, or any of them, upon the Summons of the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall attend at the said Meetings for receiving Volunteers as aforesaid, and duly pay to the said Volunteers the Rewards prescribed by this Act, as they will answer at their Peril any Delay or Obstruction to his Majesty's Service which may happen by their Defaults.

Forty Shillings of every 3 l. paid out of the Land Tax, to be repaid into the Exchequer by the Paymasters of the Forces.

VIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, to cause forty Shillings of every three Pounds of the Money which shall be supplied out of the Land Tax Money for the Years one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, and one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, or either of them, for Payment of the Encouragements aforesaid, to be repaid into his Majesty's Exchequer, by the respective Paymasters of his Majesty's Forces, out of such Money as they shall receive for the said Forces, to make good the respective Credits on the said Land Taxes, and to be applied to the Satisfaction of such Principal and Interest (if any) as shall be remaining thereupon.

Commissioners empowered to levy such Men as are herein described;

IX. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, in their respective Places or Stations, shall be, and are hereby authorised and empowered to raise and levy, and to cause to be raised and levied, at any Time or Times during the Continuance of this Act, within their several Limits and Jurisdictions, all able-bodied idle and disorderly Persons, who cannot, upon Examination, prove themselves to exercise and industriously follow some lawful Trade or Employment, or to have some Substance sufficient for their Support and Maintenance, to serve his Majesty jesty as Soldiers; and to require and command all and every the High Constables, Churchwardens, Overseers of the Poor, Petty Constables, Headboroughs, and Tythingmen, and other Parish and Town Officers, or any of them, within their respective Limits and Jurisdictions, to be aiding and assisting to them the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, in the Performance of this his Majesty's Service; and for that Purpose the said Commissioners, or any three of them, are to meet in their respective Subdivisions, according to the Appointment of the Justices and Commissioners as aforesaid, and to issue out their Warrants, under their Hands and Seals, thereby requiring and commanding such Churchwardens, Overseers of the Poor, Petty Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, or other Parish or Town Officers, or else requiring and commanding the said High Constables to issue their Precepts to such Churchwardens, Overseers, Petty Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, and other Parish and Town Officers as aforesaid, every or any of them, to make, or cause to be made, a general Search within their respective Parishes, Townships, Constablewicks, or other Places, for all such Persons as they can find, who are or shall appear to them to be within the Description of this Act, and to bring all such Persons before the Commissioners, who have Power to execute this Act in and for such County, Shire, Stewartry, Riding, or Division, at such Time and Place as shall have been appointed, by the Justices and Commissioners as aforesaid, for the Second Meeting of the said Commissioners, in their respective Subdivisions, which Time and Place shall be prefixed in the said Warrants and Precepts respectively; and afterwards the said Commissioners, within their respective Limits and Divisions, shall meet at such convenient Time or Times as they shall think fit, in order to issue their like Warrants or Precepts for making general Searches for Persons within the said Description, and for bringing them before the Commissioners at any future Times and Places appointed by the Justices and Commissioners as aforesaid, during the Continuance of this Act.

and to call in the Assistance of Parish and Town Officers; and to meet in their Subdivisions, and issue general Search Warrants for bringing before them at their Second Subdivision Meeting, all Persons within the Description of this Act.

Subsequent Meetings to be at such Times and Places as shall be thought fit.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, in their respective Places or Stations, shall be, and are hereby authorised and empowered, to raise and levy, and to cause to be raised and levied, to serve his Majesty as a Soldier (at any Time or Times during the Continuance of this Act, within their respective Limits and Jurisdictions, and subject to the several Rules and Regulations herein-before specified, for the raising and levying Persons who have no lawful Trade or Employment), any fit and able Person who shall be convicted of running Goods to the Value not exceeding forty Pounds, in Lieu of any Punishment or Penalty to which such Person may be liable by any Law now in Force for preventing the running of Goods; or any fit or able Person who shall be taken in the Act of running Goods, and be thereof convicted before one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County or Place where the Offence was committed.

Persons convicted of running Goods to the Value of 40 l. may be levied as Soldiers, in Lieu of all legal Penalties.

XI. Provided always, That in case the Second Meeting appointed to be held in any Subdivision, shall be at so great a Distance of Time as may render it inconvenient to issue Warrants for bringing Persons before such Commissioners at the Second Meeting, then the Commissioners of such Subdivision respectively may adjourn themselves to some convenient Day, previous to such Second Meeting, in order to issue their Warrants as aforesaid.

If the Second Subdivision Meeting be too distant, Commissioners may adjourn to a previous Day.

XII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Churchwardens, Overseers of the Poor, Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, and other Officers of any Parish or Township, or any of them, at any Time after the said Second Meeting of the said Commissioners, having a proper Warrant or Precept as aforesaid, to search for and apprehend all or any such Person or Persons as they, or any of them, shall find, or shall appear to them, or any of them, to be within the Description of this Act, and to convey such Person or Persons before one or more of the Justices of the Peace of the County, Shire, Stewartry, City, Riding, Liberty, or Place, within which he or they shall have been so apprehended, to be examined; and if the said Justice or Justices shall judge the Person or Persons, so brought before him or them, to be within the Description of this Act, it shall in that Case be lawful for the said Justice or Justices to grant a Warrant for securing such Person or Persons (in case they shall think it necessary) in the Gaol or House of Correction, or other proper Place of Security, of the County, Town, or Place, where such Persons shall be apprehended; and the Keeper of such Gaol or House of Correction, or other proper Place of Security, shall receive such Person or Persons without Fee or Reward, and the Parish Officers shall allow such Keeper Sixpence by the Day for each Person, during the Time that they shall remain there; and shall convey them before the Commissioners, at their next Meeting for listing of Soldiers, to be examined, and (if judged by the said Commissioners to be within the Description of this Act) to be listed and delivered into his Majesty's Service, according to the true Intent and Meaning hereof.

After such Second Meeting, Parish Officers may search for and secure such Persons as come within the Description of this Act, and convey them before a Justice; who may commit them to a Place of Security till the next Meeting of the Commissioners, &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for executing this Act, who shall attend this Service at the Place or Places for listing Soldiers as aforesaid, shall strictly examine the Persons who shall be brought before them by the said Churchwardens, Overseers, Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, or other Parish or Town Officers as aforesaid; and in case the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them then present, upon Examination of the Persons so brought before them, shall find that such Persons shall come within the Descriptions herein mentioned, and the said Commissioners, and the Officer or Officers who shall be appointed to receive the impressed Men, shall judge them to be such as are hereby intended to be entertained as Soldiers in his Majesty's Service, then, and in such Case, the said Commissioners shall cause such Persons to be delivered over by the said Churchwardens, Overseers, Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, or other Parish or Town Officers, to such Officers or Persons as shall be appointed to receive such Recruits as aforesaid; such Officers or Persons giving a Receipt under their Hands, acknowledging what Men are so delivered to him or them, which Receipt they are hereby required to give.

Commissioners to examine the said Persons, and, if found proper for the Service, to deliver them to the Military Officers.

Officers to give Receipts for them;

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the respective Officers who shall receive such new-raised Men, shall pay to the Clerk appointed by the Commissioners, for the Use of the Officers of the Parish or Town so employed in the raising such Men, for their Pains and Services therein, twenty Shillings of lawful Money of Great Britain for every Man so raised; and shall also pay, for every such new-raised Man who shall have

and to the Churchwardens, &c. from 10 s. to 40 s. if such Man have a Wife or Family, as shall be settled by the Commissioners; and 6 d. per Diem to the Parish Officers for the Time they shall have kept him.

have a Wife or Family, any Sum not exceeding forty Shillings, nor less than ten Shillings, of lawful Money of Great Britain, to the said Clerk, to be by him paid over, as is herein-after directed, into the Hands of the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor, for the Benefit of such Parish or Township in which such new-raised Man shall have gained a Settlement, and whose Wife or Family may become chargeable to such Parish or Township respectively; which Sum shall be settled by the Commissioners present at the Meeting when such Person shall be inlisted, or any three or more of them, regard being had to the Number of Children, or other particular Circumstances of such Person so inlisted; for both which Payments the Clerk shall give a Receipt; and the Sum of Sixpence per Diem for keeping every such new-raised Man who shall be delivered as aforesaid, according to the Number of Days that the Officers of the said Parish or Town shall have kept him in Custody, pursuant to the Powers granted by this Act, until such Delivery; the said Allowances of twenty Shillings, and of Sixpence per Diem, in case of Dispute, to be ascertained and distributed to or amongst the said Churchwardens, Overseers, Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, and such other Parish and Town Officers, or any of them, according to the Judgment and Direction of the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them then present.

Disputes relating thereto to be settled by the Commissioners.

Commissioners may allot, out of the Money allowed to Parish Officers, 2 s. to the High Constables.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, in their respective Divisions, are hereby authorised and empowered, by and out of the said Sum of twenty Shillings, herein-before directed to be paid for the Use of the Officers of the Parish or Town so employed in the raising of such Men, to allot and order such Sum as they shall think fit, to the respective High Constables, within their respective Limits and Jurisdictions, for their Pains and Service in the Execution of this Act, not exceeding the Sum of two Shillings.

Able-bodied Men only to be inlisted; and none under 17, nor above 45 Years of Age, &c.

XVI. Provided always, That no Person shall be inlisted by the said Commissioners, by virtue of this Act, who is not such an able-bodied Man as is fit to serve his Majesty, and is free from Ruptures, and every other Distemper, or bodily Weakness or Infirmity, which may render him unfit to perform the Duty of a Soldier; and that no Man be inlisted for his Majesty's Service by virtue of this Act, who shall appear, in the Opinion of the Commissioners, or Officer or Officers appointed to receive the impressed Men, to be under the Age of seventeen Years, or above the Age of forty-five Years, or who shall be under the Size of five Feet four Inches without Shoes.

Persons discharged as not within the Description of this Act, Parish not to be allowed their Expences: If within the Description, and rejected by Officer, he shall pay the Expences of keeping them. Objections to be specified, and inquired into by Commissioners.

'XVII. And, for the better preventing any Disputes which may arise about paying for the Subsistence 'of those Persons who, having been apprehended and detained by virtue of this Act, may afterwards be 'discharged upon Examination before the Commissioners and Military Officers,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person being judged by the Commissioners not to be within the Description of this Act, shall be by them discharged, the Officers of the Parish or Town shall be intitled to no Consideration for their Expences in keeping such Person; and if any Person being judged by the Commissioners to be within the Description of this Act, shall be rejected by the Military Officer, such Officer shall pay to the Officers of the Parish or Town Sixpence per Diem, for the whole Time that they shall have kept every such Person, to be charged to the Account of his respective Regiment or Company; and every Officer who shall object to any Person delivered to him by the Commissioners, shall specify his Objection to such Person, whether it shall be to his Age or Size, or bodily Disability, and the Grounds of such Objection shall be forthwith (as far as may be) inquired into by the said Commissioners, and they shall proceed accordingly; and every Officer who shall refuse or discharge any Person delivered to him by the Commissioners, as fit to serve his Majesty within the Description of this Act, shall, without Delay, transmit to his Majesty's Secretary at War, his Reason for such Refusal or Discharge, in Writing, attested by himself.

Reasons of Discharge to be transmitted to the Secretary at War.

Inhabitants required to be assisting herein.

XVIII. And it is hereby enacted and strictly enjoined by the Authority aforesaid, That the Inhabitants of every Parish and Township, where any Persons described as aforesaid do abide, or are to be found, at the Instance of any one or more of the Commissioners appointed for the Execution of this Act, or of any Churchwarden, Overseer of the Poor, or Constable, of the same Parish or Township, shall (not having a lawful or reasonable Excuse to the contrary) be aiding and assisting in the Furtherance of his Majesty's Service by this Act described.

Ten Shillings Premium to such as shall discover any proper Person, so as he be inlisted.

'XIX. And, to encourage such Inhabitants and others to assist in discovering and apprehending such 'Persons described as aforesaid,' it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall discover and give Information of any able-bodied Man, fit to serve his Majesty within the Description of this Act, so that he shall be apprehended and inlisted before the Commissioners as aforesaid, such Person, for every Man so discovered and inlisted, shall receive, from the Officer to whom such Man shall be delivered, the Sum of ten Shillings, out of the twenty Shillings which he is elsewhere directed to pay to the Officers of the Parish or Town for every Man inlisted by virtue of this Act, and the Remainder only of the said twenty Shillings shall, in that Case, be paid to such Officers.

His Majesty, when a sufficient Number of Men shall be raised, may, by Proclamation, &c. suspend the Execution of this Act; or may suspend or inforce it in any County or Place.

Persons employed in the Execution of this Act, exempted from the Penalties of Acts 25 Car. II. 2 Gul. & Mar. and 13 & 14 Gul. III.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall wilfully do any Act or Thing whereby the Execution of this Act, in the searching for, taking, and securing, such able-bodied Men as aforesaid, shall be hindered or frustrated, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, to the Use of the Informer or Informers; and all and every such Offences may be enquired of, heard, and finally determined, by any two or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, dwelling in or near the Place where such Offence shall be committed; who have hereby Power to cause the said Penalty to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, rendering the Overplus (if any be) to the Owners; and if the Offenders have no Goods and Chattels sufficient to answer the said Penalty, then to commit him or her to the County Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain for the Space of three Months, without Bail or Mainprize.

XXVII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That this Act shall not extend to the taking or levying any Person to serve as a Soldier, who shall make it appear, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners then present, that he hath any Vote in the Election of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament, in any County, City, Borough, Town, Port, or Place, within the Kingdom of Great Britain.

XXVIII. And it is hereby enacted, That no Person who, at the Time of the Execution of this Act, shall have any Military Office or Employment in Great Britain (other than in the Militia), shall execute any Power or Authority by this Act given to Commissioners as aforesaid.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action, Plaint, Suit, or Information, shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for what he or they shall do in pursuance or Execution of this Act, the same shall be commenced within six Months after the Offence committed; and such Person or Persons so sued, in any Court whatsoever, shall and may plead the General Issue, Not Guilty, and upon any Issue joined, may give this Act, and the special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Prosecutor shall become nonsuit, or forbear further Prosecution, or suffer a Discontinuance, or if a Verdict pass against him, the Defendant shall recover Treble Costs; for which they shall have the like Remedy as in any Case where Costs by the Law are given to Defendants.

'XXX. And, for the better obviating such Frauds and Abuses as may be practised in discharging of 'Soldiers,' it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no private Soldier, who shall be duly listed into his Majesty's Service by virtue of this Act (during the Time such Soldier shall remain in Great Britain), shall be discharged from his Majesty's Service, without the Consent of the Colonel, or, in his Absence, the Field Officer commanding in Chief the Regiment, first had and obtained in Writing under their Hands and Seals for that Purpose; in which Writing the Cause of his Discharge shall be expressed, and a Duplicate or Copy of every such Discharge forthwith transmitted to the Secretary at War, to be by him kept and entered in a Book; or if a Marine, without the Consent of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being, first had and obtained; and any Officer that shall presume to discharge any Soldier inlisted pursuant to this Act, in any other Manner contrary to this Act, shall, for such Offence, be cashiered.

XXXI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That every Person who shall be impressed upon this Act, after he shall have continued in the Military Service of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, during the Space of five Years, shall be at Liberty, if he think fit, to demand his Discharge from the Colonel, or, in his Absence, the Officer commanding the Regiment or Company to which he shall belong, unless the Nation shall be then engaged in a War, and in that Case such Person shall remain in Service during the Continuance of War; and such Discharge shall be granted to him gratis, in Writing under the Hand of such Colonel or Officer, who is hereby empowered and required to give the same accordingly; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the said several Clerks to the said Commissioners, provided the said Copies or Duplicates be duly transmitted into the Office of the Admiralty, or Secretary at War, as aforesaid, shall have and receive, by the Hands of the Paymasters of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, or one of them, such Rewards as the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, upon Consideration of the Numbers of Men listed in the several Counties, Cities, Boroughs, or other Places, and the Pains and Charges of the several Clerks in this Service, shall judge the said Clerks severally and respectively to deserve.

XXXIII. Provided always, That his Majesty, when he shall be satisfied, by the said Returns of the Commissioners, or otherwise, that a sufficient Number of Recruits in the Whole shall be raised for his present Service, may be graciously pleased to suspend or stop the further Execution of this Act, by Proclamation or Order in Council, or other public Notice in the London Gazette; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXIV. Provided also, That his Majesty, when he shall judge it expedient for his Service, may at any Time suspend or enforce the Execution of this Act, in any County or Place of Great Britain, by Notice from his Majesty's Secretary at War; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Commissioner, Churchwarden, Overseer, Constable, Headborough, Tythingman, or other Parish or Town Officer, who shall be employed in the Execution of this Act, shall be liable, for or by reason of such Execution, to any of the Penalties mentioned in an Act, made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, For preventing Dangers which may happen from Popish Recusants; or in one other Act, made in the first Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary (intituled, An Act for abrogating the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and appointing other Oaths); or in one other Act, made in the Parliament holden in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of the late King William the Third (intituled, An Act for the further Security of his Majesty's Person, and the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line; and for the extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Pretenders, and their open and secret Abettors.)

XXXVI. Provided

XXXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons, hereby appointed to be a Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners for any County, Riding, City, Borough, Cinque-port, or Place, of England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed (except ſuch as duly qualified themſelves to be Juſtices of the Peace, or Commiſſioners for executing the ſaid Act for the Land Tax made and paſſed in the fifteenth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, or any ſubſequent Act or Acts of Parliament for that Purpoſe), ſhall be capable, in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, of acting as a Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners in the Execution of this Act, or executing any the Powers of the Commiſſioners therein mentioned (unleſs it be the Power hereby given of adminiſtering Oaths), until ſuch Time as he or they reſpectively ſhall have taken the Oaths appointed by an Act of Parliament, made in the firſt Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary (intituled, An Act for the abrogating the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths); and alſo in the ſaid Act (intituled, An Act for the further Security of his Majeſty's Perſon, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line; and for extinguiſhing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Pretenders, and their open and ſecret Abettors); which Oaths it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any two or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners to adminiſter, and they are hereby required to adminiſter the ſame to any other of the ſaid Commiſſioners; and that no Perſon or Perſons, hereby appointed to be a Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners for any Part of Scotland (except ſuch as duly qualified themſelves, according to the Laws of Scotland, to be Commiſſioners there for executing the ſaid Act for the Land Tax made and paſſed in the fifteenth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, or any ſubſequent Act or Acts of Parliament for that Purpoſe), ſhall be capable of acting as a Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners in the Execution of this preſent Act, in any Part of Scotland, until ſuch Time as he or they reſpectively ſhall have duly qualified themſelves according to the Laws of Scotland, for that Purpoſe.

Commiſſioners in England not to act till they have taken the Oaths appointed by Acts

nor Commiſſioners in Scotland, till they have qualified themſelves as the Laws there direct.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Perſon hereby appointed a Commiſſioner for any County, City, Town, or Place, in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed (except as before excepted), ſhall preſume to act as a Commiſſioner in the Execution of this Act, before he ſhall have taken the ſaid Oaths which by this Act he is required to take, and in the Manner hereby preſcribed, he ſhall forfeit to his Majeſty the Sum of two hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed; and that if any Perſon hereby appointed a Commiſſioner for any Shire, Stewartry, Burgh, or Place in Scotland (except as before excepted), ſhall preſume to act as a Commiſſioner in the Execution of this Act, before that he ſhall have qualified himſelf according to the Laws in Scotland, he ſhall forfeit to his Majeſty the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be recovered in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, in the ſame Manner as any other Penalties are there recoverable.

and Commiſſioners in Scotland 50 l.

XXXVIII. Provided alſo, That in caſe there ſhall not be a ſufficient Number of Commiſſioners for any City, Borough, Town, Port, or Place, of Great Britain (for which by this Act Commiſſioners are ſpecially appointed), capable of acting according to the reſpective Qualifications required by this Act; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, any the Commiſſioners appointed for the County, Shire, or Stewartry at large, within which ſuch City, Borough, Town, or Place, doth ſtand, or which is next adjoining thereto, may act as Commiſſioners in the Execution of this Act, within ſuch City, Borough, Town, Port, or Place; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Commiſſioners for the County, &c. at large, may act for any City, &c.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Commiſſioner of the Land Tax, not being a Juſtice of the Peace, or a Magiſtrate of a Corporation or a Borough, ſhall be capable of acting as a Commiſſioner in the Execution of this Act, or of any of the Powers therein contained, in or for any County at large, within England, the Dominion of Wales (the Counties of Angleſey, Merioneth, Cardigan, Caermarthen, Glamorgan, Montgomery, Pembroke, Caernarvon, and Monmouth, excepted), or in or for any of the Ridings in the County of York, unleſs ſuch Perſon by himſelf, or his Tenants or Truſtees, was taxed or did pay, in the ſame County or Riding, for the Value of one hundred Pounds per Annum, or more, of his own Eſtate, by virtue of the ſaid Act for the Land Tax, made and paſſed in England, in the fifteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, or any ſubſequent Act or Acts of Parliament for that Purpoſe; or unleſs ſuch Perſon ſo appointed to be a Commiſſioner ſhall, at the Time of the Execution of this Act, by himſelf, his Tenants, or Truſtees, enjoy an Eſtate of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of the ſaid yearly Value of one hundred Pounds, or more, within the ſaid County or Riding reſpectively; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Qualification of Commiſſioners for Counties at large within England.

XL. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Perſon intended by this Act to be diſabled for the Cauſe laſt-mentioned, ſhall nevertheleſs preſume to act as a Commiſſioner in the Execution of this Act, or any of the Powers therein contained, every ſuch Perſon, for ſuch Offence, ſhall forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds, to any Perſon or Perſons who will inform or ſue for the ſame, to be recovered in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Exchequer of Scotland as aforeſaid.

Perſons diſabled preſuming to act, forfeit 50 l.

XLI. Provided nevertheleſs, and it is hereby enacted, That no Perſon who is appointed to be a Commiſſioner for executing this Act in any Part of Great Britain, ſhall be diſabled, for the Cauſe laſt-mentioned, from acting as a Commiſſioner within and for any City, Borough, Cinque-port, or Corporate Town only, whereof he ſhall be an Inhabitant at the Time of the Execution of this Act, or from acting as a Commiſſioner within any of the Inns of Court or Inns of Chancery.

Commiſſioners may act for any City, &c. whereof they are Inhabitants, or for Inns of Court.

'XLII. And whereas ſome Doubts may ariſe whether Mayors, Bailiffs, and other Chief Magiſtrates of 'Cities, Boroughs, Towns Corporate, and Cinque-ports, for which Commiſſioners are ſpecially appointed 'by virtue of this Act, can act as Commiſſioners for executing this Act in the ſaid Cities, Boroughs, 'Towns Corporate, and Cinque-ports;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Mayors, Bailiffs, and other Chief Magiſtrates, who are appointed Commiſſioners for executing this Act, ſhall be, and have Power to act as Commiſſioners for executing this Act, within and for any City, Borough, rough, Town Corporate, or Cinque-port, wherein they inhabit at the Time of executing this Act, as well where Commissioners are specially appointed by this Act, as where they are not.

Mayors, Bailiffs, &c. to act as Commiſſioners ſpecially appointed.

Chief Magistrates of Cities, &c. upon Notice from the Secretary at War, to enforce this Act within their Jurisdictions.

'XLIII. And whereas it may often be expedient for his Majesty's Service, that the Commissioners 'hereby appointed shall execute this Act in Cities, Towns, or other Places, when it may not be conve-'nient to enforce the Execution thereof through the County in which such City, Town, or Place, shall 'be respectively situate;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of every City, Town, or Place, shall, upon receiving Notice for that Purpose from the Secretary at War, immediately proceed to put this Act in Execution within their respective Jurisdictions, in the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Mayor or other Chief Magistrate had received such Notice from the Sheriff of the County in which such City, Town, or Place, shall be respectively situate; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bailiffs Followers and Assistants, &c. not deemed to follow any Calling.

XLIV. And it is hereby provided and enacted, That no Bailiff's Follower or Assistant, employed or belonging to any Sheriff, Bailiff of Liberties, Marshalsea Court, or any other Person or Persons that shall be so employed by any one that shall have the Power of executing any Warrant or Process whatsoever, shall be deemed thereby to follow or exercise any Calling or Employment, or to have a sufficient Support and Maintenance, within the Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Labourers, having proper Certificates, not liable to be impressed from May 25, to Oct. 25.

'XLV. And forasmuch as great Inconveniencies may happen by impressing Men during the Time of 'Harvest,' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, until the twenty-fifth Day of October following, no Harvest Labourer, or Person working at Hay Harvest or Corn Harvest Work, within the Time aforesaid, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, shall be impressed by virtue of this Act, but shall be free and exempted from the same during the Time aforesaid; provided they have a Certificate under the Hands of the Minister, and of one Churchwarden or Overseer of the Poor, or Elders, of the Parish or Place where they live, allowed under the Hand and Seal of one Justice of the Peace of the same County, Shire, Stewartry, Riding, City, or Place; which Certificate shall be given gratis.

Commissioners for executing this Act within the Castle of York.

'XLVI. And, for the more easy and better putting this Act in Execution,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any three or more Commissioners for putting this Act in Execution in the several Ridings of the County of York (being Justices of the Peace), though not all of the same Riding, may, within the Castle of York, or Limits thereof, execute the Powers of this Act.

Commissioners for executing this Act in Threapwood.

'XLVII. And whereas divers Soldiers, who have deserted his Majesty's Service, have been harboured 'in a certain Place called Threapwood, lying within or near the Counties of Chester and Flint, or one of 'them, and adjoining to the Town of Cuddington in the said County of Chester;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners hereby appointed for the County of Chester, and the Officers of the said Town of Cuddington, shall execute this Act in the said Place called Threapwood, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof.

Officer not attending to receive Recruits, Commissioners may adjourn, and order the Detention of the impressed Men. Notice of Adjournment to be given to Officers attending this Service, &c. Officer to pay Subsistence Money for every Recruit, and incidental Charges.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any of the Meetings of the Commissioners by this Act appointed, in any of their Subdivisions, they shall not be attended by some proper Officer appointed for the receiving of Recruits, either through Negligence or any unavoidable Accident, then, and in that Case, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners to adjourn themselves to some other convenient Day, and they are hereby authorised to give Directions for detaining in Custody all such Persons as shall have been then brought before them by the Parish Officers to be inlisted, or such of them as they shall think duly qualified for his Majesty's Service; and the said Commissioners shall give Notice to any of the Officers attending on this Service, in the County or Place where such Subdivisions shall lye, of the Day of such Adjournment; and the said Officer is hereby required, either to attend himself, or to appoint some other Officer to attend such Commissioners, and to receive such Persons as the said Commissioners shall inlist into his Majesty's Service; and the Officers so receiving the Recruits shall pay, to such Person as the Commissioners shall appoint, Sixpence per Diem for the Subsistence of every Recruit then enlisted, from the Day of the last Meeting of the Commissioners to the said Day of Adjournment, the same to be charged to the Account of the several Regiments or Companies into which the said Recruits shall be inlisted, together with such Charges and Expences as shall appear to the said Commissioners to have been incurred on account of the detaining the said Persons, from the Day of the former Meeting of the said Commissioners to the Day of such Second Meeting, not exceeding three Pounds.

Continuance of this Act.

XLIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act, and every Thing herein contained, shall be and continue in Force until the End of the next Session of Parliament.

Form prescribed for making Entries pursuant to this Act.

L. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Entries which the Commissioners of the Land Tax are by this Act required to make, of the Names and Descriptions of all Volunteers, and also of all impressed Men, together with the other Particulars herein-before directed, be made according to the Form hereunto annexed.

CAP. LV.

An Act to permit the Exportation of certain Goods, directly from Ireland, into any Britiſh Plantation in America, or any Britiſh Settlement on the Coaſt of Africa; and for further encouraging the Fiſheries and Navigation of Ireland.

' WHEREAS by an Act, made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Trade, it is, among other Things, enacted, That, from ' and after the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty-four, no Commodity ' of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of Europe, ſhall be imported into any Land, Iſland, Plantation, Colony, Territory, or Place, to his Majeſty belonging, or which ſhall hereafter belong unto, ' or be in the Poſſeſſion of, his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in Aſia, Africa, or America (Tangier ' only excepted), but what ſhall be bona fide, and without Fraud, laden and ſhipped in England, Wales, or ' the Town of Berwick upon Tweed: And whereas it is thought proper to allow the Exportation of Goods ' (except as herein-after excepted) directly from the Kingdom of Ireland, to the Britiſh Plantations in ' America, or into any of the Settlements belonging to Great Britain on the Coaſt of Africa:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, it ſhall and may be lawful to export from the Kingdom of Ireland, directly into any of the Britiſh Plantations in America, or the Weſt Indies, or into any of the Settlements belonging to Great Britain on the Coaſt of Africa, in Ships or Veſſels which may lawfully trade to and from thoſe Places, any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, being the Produce or Manufacture of Ireland (Wool and Woollen Manufacture in all its Branches mixed or unmixed, Cotton Manufactures of all Sorts mixed or unmixed, Hats, Glaſs, Hops, Gunpowder, and Coals only excepted); and all Goods and Commodities of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of Great Britain, which have been or may be legally imported from thence into the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, Woollen Manufactures in all its Branches, and Glaſs, excepted); and all foreign Certificate Goods, which have been or may be legally imported from Great Britain into Ireland; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

After June 24, 1778, all Goods, the Produce or Manufacture of Ireland (except Wool, and Woollen and Cotton Manufactures, Hats, Glaſs, Hops, Gunpowder, and Coals), may be exported from thence directly to America, or the Coaſt of Africa:

And all Britiſh Goods, (except Woollen Manufactures and Glaſs); and alſo all foreign Certificate Goods.

Maſter of the Veſſel exporting Goods as abovementioned, to produce a proper Certificate to the Collector, &c. of the Cuſtoms at the Port of his Arrival; and deliver an Invoice of the Particulars of his Lading.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Maſter, or Perſon having the Charge of every Ship or Veſſel exporting any ſuch Goods from Ireland to the ſaid Plantations or Settlements, ſhall, upon his Arrival there, produce to the Collector or other principal Officers of the Cuſtoms, or other public Officer at the Port or Place where he ſhall arrive, a Certificate, under the Hands and Seal of Office of the Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms of the Port in Ireland where he took in his Lading, that Oath had been made before them, by the Exporter of ſuch Goods (which Oath they are hereby authoriſed to adminiſter), that the Goods mentioned in ſuch Certificate are bona fide of the Produce or Manufacture of Ireland; or that the ſame are of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of Great Britain, which had been legally imported from thence into Ireland; or that they are foreign Certificate Goods, which had been legally imported from Great Britain into Ireland (as the Caſe may be); and ſhall alſo deliver an Invoice of the Particulars of his Lading to ſuch Officers, in the Manner directed by an Act of Parliament, made in the third and fourth Years of the Reign of Queen Anne, intituled, An Act to permit the Exportation of Iriſh Linen Cloth to the Plantations, and to prohibit the Importation of Scotch Linen into Ireland; and ſhall in all other Reſpects, not altered by this Act, comply with the Regulations preſcribed by by the said recited Act, or any other Law now in Force in this Kingdom, respecting Ships trading to the said Plantations or Settlements; otherwise such Ships, and the Goods laden on Board thereon, shall be subject and liable to the same Penalties and Forfeitures as if this Act had not been made.

Proviso relating to foreign Linens.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to permit the Exportation from the said Kingdom of Ireland to any of the Places aforesaid of any foreign Linens, whether the same be white or brown or checked, or painted, stained, or dyed, in the said Kingdom of Ireland.

This Act not to extend to Bar-iron, or Iron Wares, till certain Duties are laid thereon by the Irish Parliament.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing hereinbefore contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Bar-iron, to Iron slit, rolled, plated, or tinned, nor to any Sort of manufactured Iron Wares, until a Duty of two Pounds ten Shillings per Ton, on such Bar-iron, and also a Duty of three Pounds three Shillings and Elevenpence Irish, per Ton, on such slit, rolled, plated, or tinned Iron, and manufactured Iron Wares, exported from Ireland to the British Colonies or Plantations in America, or to any of the Settlements belonging to Great Britain on the Coast of Africa, shall be imposed by some Act or Acts of Parliament to be made in the Kingdom of Ireland; and that then, and in such Case, it shall and may be lawful, from and after the Commencement of, and during the Continuance of, such respective Duties, but no longer, to export any such Iron or Iron Wares from the said Kingdom of Ireland directly to any British Colony or Plantation in America, or to any Settlement belonging to Great Britain on the Coast of Africa, in any Ship or Vessel that may lawfully trade thither, subject to the Regulations herein-before mentioned; any Thing in this Act, or in any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

If any Bounty shall be granted in Ireland on the Exportation of such Iron or Iron Wares, then the Liberty granted by this Act to cease, &c.

V. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Bounty or Premium shall be granted or allowed in Ireland, on the Exportation of such Iron or Iron Wares from thence to the said British Colonies or Plantations, or to any Settlement belonging to Great Britain on the Coast of Africa; then, and in such Case, the Liberty herein-before given to export such Iron and Iron Wares thither directly from Ireland, shall, during the Continuance of such Bounty or Premium, cease and determine; and such Iron and Iron Wares shall, in all Respects, be subject to the like Restrictions and Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures, as such Goods were and would be liable to if this Act had not been made.

No Cotton Manufactures to be exported from Ireland to America, &c. without a proper Certificate from some Custom-house in Great Britain; on Forfeiture of the Goods.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Cotton Manufactures of any Kind, whether mixed or unmixed, shall be permitted to be exported from the said Kingdom of Ireland to any of the Places aforesaid, unless the Person or Persons exporting the same shall produce and deliver a Certificate properly authenticated from the Custom-house of some Port or Ports in Great Britain, particularizing the Quantities, Kinds, and Marks, of such Cotton Manufactures, and specifying that such Goods have been legally exported from Great Britain: And in case any Cotton Manufactures shall be offered to be exported from the said Kingdom of Ireland to any of the Places aforesaid, without such Certificate, or which on Examination shall not correspond with the Marks, Numbers, and Descriptions, contained in such Certificate, all such Manufactures shall be forfeited and seized, and appropriated, one Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

The Liberty hereby granted of exporting Irish Manufactures, &c. not to take place till Duties are laid thereon equivalent to those on the same Manufactures, &c. in Great Britain.

VII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That the Liberty hereby granted of exporting Goods and Merchandize, the Manufacture of Ireland, to the Places herein-before mentioned, shall not take place except in such Cases as the said Goods and Merchandize now do, or hereafter shall, stand chargeable and pay Duties and Taxes to as great an Amount as Goods and Merchandize of the same Denomination and Quality exported from Great Britain to such Places now stand chargeable with (whether the said Charges be on the Importation of the Materials of which the said Goods and Merchandize are made, or by Duties on the Exportation of the same, or by Inland Excise not drawn back or compensated for by Bounties).

Recital of 15 Geo. III. Cap. 31;

'VIII. And whereas by an Act, made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Fisheries carried on from Great Britain and Ireland, and the British Dominions in Europe; and for securing the Return of the Fishermen, Sailors, and others employed in the said Fisheries, to the Ports thereof, at the End of the Fishing Season); it is amongst other Things provided and enacted, That no Bounty shall be allowed or paid for any Ship or Vessel employed as therein mentioned, by virtue of the said or any former Act of Parliament, unless the whole and entire Property of such Ship or Vessel shall belong to some of his Majesty's Subjects residing in that Part of his Majesty's Dominions from whence such Ship or Vessel shall be respectively fitted and cleared out: And whereas by another Act, made in the sixteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act for the further Encouragement of the Whale Fishery carried on from Great Britain and Ireland, and the British Dominions in Europe; and for regulating the Fees to be taken by the Officers of the Customs in the Island of Newfoundland); it is amongst other Things provided and enacted, That no Bounty shall be allowed or paid for any Ship which, from and after the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, shall be fitted out and employed in the Whale Fishery, in pursuance of the said Act, unless the whole and entire Property of such Ship or Vessel shall belong to some of his Majesty's Subjects residing in that Part of his Majesty's Dominions from whence such Ship or Vessel shall be respectively fitted and cleared out; which said Provisoes have been found prejudicial, inasmuch as they prevent any Co-partnership between his Majesty's Subjects residing in Great Britain, and his Majesty's Subjects residing in Ireland, for carrying on the said Fisheries;' be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Bounties shall and may be allowed and paid for any Ship or Vessel, being the Property of his Majesty's Subjects residing in Great Britain or Ireland, employed in the said Whale Fisheries, which, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, shall be fitted and cleared out from any Port in Great Britain or Ireland, pursuant to the Directions of those Acts, or any other Act of Parliament now in Force, although the whole and entire Property of such Ship or Vessel shall not belong to some of his Majesty's and 16 Geo. III. Cap. 47.

The Bounties in the recited Acts mentioned shall be paid for all Vessels the Property of his Majesty's Subjects in Great Britain or Ireland, jesty's Subjects residing in that Part of his Majesty's Dominions, from whence such Ship or Vessel shall be fitted and cleared out; any Thing in the said recited Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

After June 24, 1778, all Ships built in Ireland, and owned by his Majesty's European Subjects, to be deemed British-built, &c.

IX. And be it further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, all Ships and Vessels whatsoever built in Ireland, and owned by his Majesty's Subjects residing in any Part of the British Dominions in Europe, shall be deemed British-built, and shall be intitled to the like Privileges and Advantages in all Respects as Ships built in Great Britain; and all Ships and Vessels belonging to any of his Majesty's Subjects residing in Ireland, and not British-built, shall be intitled to the same Privileges and Advantages in all Parts of his Majesty's Dominions as Ships belonging to his Majesty's Subjects residing in Great Britain, and not British or Irish built, are intitled to.

An Act to permit the Importation of Cotton-yarn, the Manufacture of Ireland, into this Kingdom Duty-free.

Preamble. Act 12 Car. II. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, A Subsidy granted to the King of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money, payable upon Merchandize exported and imported, a Duty was imposed upon all Cotton-yarn imported into England: And whereas it is expedient that Cotton-yarn, of the Manufacture of Ireland, should be imported into Great Britain Duty-free;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, no Subsidy, Custom, Duty, or other Imposition whatsoever, shall be demanded, received, or taken, upon any Cotton-yarn of the Manufacture of Ireland, which shall be imported directly from thence into Great Britain; provided the Master, or Person having the Charge of the Ship or Vessel importing the same, shall bring with him a Certificate or Certificates from the Chief Officer or Officers of the Port or Place in Ireland where such Goods shall be put on Board, expressing the Marks, Number, Tale, or Weight, of the Goods in each Bale or Package mentioned in the Bill or Bills of Lading, with the Name or Names, Place or Places of Abode, of the Exporter or Exporters from Ireland, and the Name or Names, Place or Places of Abode, of such other Person or Persons that shall have sworn the Goods therein mentioned to have been bona fide of the Manufacture of Ireland, without Fraud or Covin, and where and to whom the same are consigned in this Kingdom; and the Master, or Person having the Charge of the Ship or Vessel in which such Cotton-yarn shall be imported, shall also, upon his Arrival, make Oath, before the Collector, or other principal Officer of the Customs, at the Port of Importation (which Oath such Collector, or other principal Officer of the Customs, is and are hereby respectively authorised to administer), that the said Bales, Parcels, and Goods therein contained, are the same Bales, Parcels, and Goods, which were taken on Board, by virtue of the said Certificate or Certificates so to be produced; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

After June 24, 1778, Cotton-yarn, of the Manufacture of Ireland, may be imported into Great Britain Duty-free; the Master of the Vessel bringing with him a proper Certificate from the Officers of the Port where the Goods were put on Board, &c.

An Act for raising a further Sum of Money, by Loans or Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight. 500,000 l.

CAP. LVIII.

An Act to explain and amend so much of an Act, made in the fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, as relates to the preventing the clandestine Conveyance of Sugar and Paneles from the British Colonies and Plantations in America into Great Britain.

Preamble. Act 4 Geo. III. recited.

'WHEREAS, by an Act made in the fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act for granting certain Duties in the British Colonies and Plantations in America; for continuing, amending, and making perpetual, an Act passed in the sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, "An Act for the better securing and encouraging the Trade of his Majesty's Sugar Colonies in America;" for applying the Produce of such Duties, and of the Duties to arise by virtue of the said Act, towards defraying the Expences of defending, protecting, and securing, the said Colonies and Plantations; for explaining an Act, made in the twenty fifth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, "An Act for the Encouragement of the Greenland and Eastland Trades, and for the better securing the Plantation Trade;" and for altering and disallowing several Drawbacks on Exports from this Kingdom, and more effectually preventing the clandestine Conveyance of Goods to and from the said Colonies and Plantations, and improving and securing the Trade between the same and Great Britain), it was amongst other Things enacted, That, from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-four, every Person or Persons, loading on board any Ship or Vessel, in any of the British Colonies or Plantations in America, any Rum or Spirits, Sugars or Paneles, Melasses or Syrups, as of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture, of any British Colony or Plantation, should, before the clearing out of the said Ship or Vessel, produce and deliver to the Collector, or other principal Officer of the Customs, at the loading Port, an Affidavit to prove the said Rum or Spirits, Sugars or Paneles, Melasses or Syrups, to be the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture, of the said Colonies or Plantations, Certain Affidavits were to be delivered to the Collector, &c. by all Persons shipping any Sugars or Paneles, &c. in the British Colonies in America.

'tations, in the Manner directed by the ſaid Act; and that ſuch Collector, or other principal Officers 'of the Cuſtoms, ſhould, within thirty Days after the ſailing of the Ship or Veſſel, tranſmit an exact 'Copy of the ſaid Affidavit to the Secretary's Office for the reſpective Colony or Plantation where the 'Goods were ſhipped, on Forfeiture of five Pounds, to be recovered in the Manner directed by the ſaid 'Act: And whereas by another Act, made in the ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, ſo 'much of the ſaid Act as related to Melaſſes or Syrups has been repealed: And whereas the Reſtrictions 'and Regulations, preſcribed by the ſaid Act of the fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, have 'been found inſufficient to prevent the Importation of Foreign Sugar and Paneles into this Kingdom;' for Remedy whereof, may it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the firſt Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, the Collector, or other principal Officer of the Cuſtoms, to whom ſuch Affidavit ſhall be produced and delivered, ſhall (without Fee or Reward), within thirty Days after the ſailing of the Ship or Veſſel, tranſmit one exact Copy of the ſaid Affidavit, to the Secretary's Office, for the reſpective Colony or Plantation where the Sugar or Paneles, referred to in the ſaid Affidavit, were ſhipped; and ſhall alſo, within the like Space of thirty Days, tranſmit another exact Copy of ſuch Affidavit to the Juſtices and Veſtry of the Pariſh and Pariſhes, Precinct or Precincts, where the ſaid Sugar or Paneles grew, or were produced and manufactured, on the Penalty of forfeiting fifty Pounds for every ſuch Omiſſion and Neglect.

After March 1, 1779, the ſaid Collector, &c. ſhall, within thirty Days after ſailing of the Veſſel, tranſmit a Copy of the Affidavit to the Secretary's Office for the Colony; and another Copy to the Juſtices, &c. of the Pariſh where the Sugar grew, &c. on Penalty of 50l.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Juſtice of the Peace of the ſaid Colonies or Plantations ſhall, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, ſubſcribe his Name to any Paper or Parchment Writing, purporting to be an Affidavit for the Purpoſe directed by the ſaid Act of the fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, unleſs the Perſon or Perſons, purporting to make ſuch Affidavit, ſhall actually appear before him, and be ſworn upon the Holy Evangeliſts to the Truth of the ſaid Affidavit, that then, and in every ſuch Caſe, every ſuch Juſtice of the Peace ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Penalty on Juſtices ſigning Affidavits before they are properly authenticated.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, if any Sugar or Paneles ſhall be imported into Great Britain, from any Britiſh Colony or Plantation in America, without, or ſhall not be included in, the Certificate required in and by the ſaid Act of the fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, that then, and in either ſuch Caſe, all ſuch Sugar and Paneles ſhall be deemed and taken to be foreign Sugar and Paneles, and ſhall be liable to the ſame Duties, Reſtrictions, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in all Reſpects; as Sugars and Paneles of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture, of any French Colony or Plantation would be reſpectively liable to by Law; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act, or any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the contrary in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

After March 1, 1779, Sugar or Paneles imported into Great Britain from America, without a proper Certificate, ſhall pay Duties as foreign Sugar, &c.

IV. Provided alſo, and it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Penalties herein-before mentioned ſhall be ſued for, had, recovered, diſtributed, and diſpoſed of, in ſuch and the ſame Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as the ſeveral Penalties mentioned in the ſaid before-mentioned Act, of the fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, are in and by the ſaid Act directed to be ſued for, had, recovered, diſtributed, and diſpoſed of.

Penalties to be ſued for, &c. in the ſame Manner as thoſe mentioned in the before-recited Act.

CAP. LIX.

An Act to amend and render more effectual the Laws relating to the raiſing and training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England; and to eſtabliſh certain Regulations with reſpect to Officers ſerving in the Corps of Fencible Men directed to be raiſed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and certain other Corps therein mentioned.

'WHEREAS it is of the utmoſt Importance to the internal Defence of this Country, in Times 'of War and Danger of Invaſion, that the Militia ſhould be kept up as complete as poſſible: And 'whereas by an Act, made in the ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to 'explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the ſeveral Laws now in being relating to the raiſing 'and training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England, it is (amongſt other Things) 'enacted, That all ſuch Militia Men, whoſe Times of Service in the Militia ſhall be near expiring, 'during the Time the Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, in which they ſerved, ſhall be 'embodied and abſent from the County, Riding, or Place, to which they belong, ſhall be returned, by 'the Commanding Officer of ſuch Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, to the County, 'Riding, or Place, for which they ſerve, ſo as that they may reach the ſaid County by the Expiration of 'their Term; but no Proviſion is made for the immediate Supply of others in the Place of ſuch Militia 'Men ſo returned as aforeſaid, the Want of which, in actual Invaſion, or immediate Danger thereof, 'might be of the utmoſt Detriment to the public Safety: And whereas it would not only greatly promote 'the public Service, but be of much Eaſe and Advantage alſo to ſuch Perſons as may be choſen by Lot 'for ſuch Corps of Militia as may be at a Diſtance from Home, and to others, who may be willing to ſerve 'as Subſtitutes for the ſame, if ſuch Perſons, whoſe Times ſhall be near expiring, were to be engaged to 'continue as Subſtitutes for ſuch as may be choſen by Lot, as aforeſaid;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That whenever any Corps of Militia ſhall be embodied and abſent from the County, Riding, or Place, to which it who ſhall tranſmit Duplicates to the Clerks of the Subdiviſion Meetings; Seven Days after which, Subdiviſion Meetings ſhall be held.

Buſineſs to be done at thoſe Meetings.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Clerk of the General Meeting ſhall tranſmit to each Clerk of the ſeveral Subdiviſion Meetings reſpectively, Duplicates or Copies of ſuch Parts of the ſaid Liſts as contain the Names of ſuch Perſons as ſerve for the Pariſhes, Townſhips, or Places, within ſuch reſpective Subdiviſions; and the Clerk of each Subdiviſion Meeting reſpectively ſhall, on Receipt thereof, forthwith give ſeven Days Notice for a Subdiviſion Meeting to be held, at which the whole Number, whoſe Times ſhall expire within four Months of the Date of the ſaid Liſts, ſhall be choſen by Lot, or otherwiſe ſupplied, according to the Statutes in that Caſe made and provided; and the Deputy Lieutenants or Juſtices preſent at the Subdiviſion Meeting, when the Men ſo choſen ſhall attend to be ſworn and enrolled, ſhall acquaint each Man who ſhall be choſen for any Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, in the ſaid Subdiviſion, if there be any of thoſe who are at that Time ſerving for the ſame, who are willing to continue his or their Service as Subſtitute or Subſtitutes for the next three Years, after the Expiration of his or their preſent Term of Service, and alſo with the Price or Prices for which he or they are willing ſo to continue the ſame; and the Perſon or Perſons choſen as aforeſaid ſhall declare whether he or they be willing to give the Prices which ſhall appear, by the Liſts aforeſaid, to be agreed to be taken by the Perſons then ſerving, who ſhall have ſigned their Conſents as above directed; and ſuch Perſons as are willing ſo to give the Sums ſo ſet down as aforeſaid, ſhall ſignify their Conſent thereto, and ſhall forthwith pay, into the Hands of the Deputy Lieutenants or Juſtices, ſuch Sum or Sums as ſtand reſpectively in the ſaid Liſts againſt the Names ſo ſubſcribed as aforeſaid; which Sum or Sums of Money ſhall be, by the ſaid Deputy Lieutenants or Juſtices, remitted to the Commanding Officer of the Corps of Militia, and be by him paid to ſuch Perſons reſpectively as ſhall have engaged to ſerve as above mentioned, who, on the Receipt thereof, ſhall be ſworn and inrolled as is herein-after directed: And that it ſhall and may be lawful for any Juſtice of the Peace for the County, Riding, City, Diviſion, or Place, where ſuch Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, ſhall happen to be, to adminiſter the Oath to every ſuch Militia Man; and ſuch Juſtice is hereby required to certify ſuch Oath, under his Hand and Seal, to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, according to the Form hereinafter directed; which Certificate ſhall be good and valid to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the Perſon ſo ſworn had been inrolled.

Juſtice to adminiſter the Oath to Militia Men, and to certify the ſame.

'So help me GOD.'

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Counties where the Number of Men is ſufficient to form two Companies only, the eldeſt Captain ſhall rank as Major, but ſhall only be intitled to the Pay of Captain; and no Clerk ſhall be allowed where the Number of Men is ſufficient to form only one or two Companies, but the Receiver-general ſhall pay the Money neceſſary for ſuch Number of Men to the Commanding Officer of ſuch Company or Companies, who ſhall account with him for the ſame.

In Counties where there are only two companies, the eldeſt Captain to rank as Major, &c.

'IV. And whereas, by the Laws now in being for raiſing and training the Militia, within that Part of Great Britain called England, it is provided, that the Acceptance of a Commiſſion in the ſaid Militia ſhall not vacate the Seat of any Member returned to ſerve in Parliament: And whereas his Majeſty has thought proper, for the more effectual Protection and internal Defence of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to direct that fencible Men, in ſeveral of the Shires in that Part of the United Kingdom, ſhould be forthwith raiſed and embodied: And whereas Officers, ſerving in any of the ſaid Corps of fencible Men, will not, by virtue of ſuch Service, be intitled to receive Half-pay, or to have any Rank in the Army, after the ſaid Corps ſhall be diſmiſſed and diſembodied, but will be ſimilar to, and as near as may be on the ſame Footing with, Officers ſerving in the Militia of England: And whereas his Majeſty may think proper to grant Commiſſions to Officers to raiſe Corps for the Defence of this Country, the Officers of which Corps may likewiſe not be intitled to receive Half-pay, or to hold any Rank in the Army, after the ſaid Corps ſhall be reduced and diſembodied;' be it enacted and declared, That the Acceptance of a Commiſſion in any Corps of fencible Men, raiſed or to be raiſed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, or in any other Corps which his Majeſty may authoriſe and direct to be raiſed in any Part of Great Britain, in which the Officers ſhall not be intitled to Half-pay, or to any Rank in the Army, after the Reduction of the ſaid Corps, ſhall not, nor ſhall be conſtrued to vacate the Seat of any Member returned to ſerve in Parliament.

Acceptance of a Commiſſion in any Corps of fencible Men raiſed, or to be raiſed, in Great Britain, in which the Officers ſhall not be intitled to Half-pay, &c. on Reduction thereof, ſhall not vacate a Seat in Parliament.

'V. And whereas it is neceſſary to aſcertain the Rank to be held by the Officers of certain Corps raiſed, or to be raiſed, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, called Fencible Men, or of any other Corps of Men which may be raiſed within Great Britain, wherein ſuch Officers ſhall not be intitled to Rank or Half-pay, except during the Time of the actual Service of ſuch Corps, with reſpect to the Officers of the Militia of that Part of Great Britain called England, during the Time that the Officers of ſuch Corps, and of the Militia, ſhall ſerve together;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Officers of ſuch Corps and of the Militia, of equal Degree, ſhall rank according to the Date of their reſpective Commiſſions.

Officers in new-raiſed Corps of Fencible Men, and Militia Officers, to rank according to Seniority.

VI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where a Battalion of Militia is commanded by a Lieutenant Colonel, who ſhall have been Commandant of the ſame for five Years or longer, it ſhall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant of the County, Riding, or Place, to which ſuch Militia ſhall belong, with the Conſent of his Majeſty, to give to ſuch Lieutenant Colonel Commandant a Commiſſion of Colonel, any Thing in any Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Lord Lieutenant, in certain Caſes, may give a Colonel's Commiſſion to a Lieutenant Colonel.

VII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon ſerving as Quartermaſter, Surgeon, or Battalion Clerk, in the Militia, ſhall, from the Time of paſſing this Act, be appointed to any other Commiſſion in the Militia, higher than that of a Lieutenant, during the Time he acts as ſuch, though he ſhould have ſuch Qualification as the Law requires for ſuch higher Commiſſion.

No Quartermaſter, Surgeon, or Battalion Clerk, to be promoted higher than a Lieutenant.

'VIII. And whereas, in and by the ſaid recited Act, it is (amongſt other Things) enacted, That when the Militia of any County, Riding, or Place, ſhould be ordered out into actual Service, it ſhould and might be lawful for the Captain of any Company of Militia to augment his Company, by incorporating, with the Conſent of his Majeſty's Lieutenant, or, in the Abſence of his Majeſty's Lieutenant, with the Conſent of two or more of the Deputy Lieutenants, any Number of Perſons who ſhould offer themſelves as Volunteers, and who ſhould appear to him to be ſufficiently trained and diſciplined, and provided with proper Clothes, Arms, and Accoutrements, and who ſhould take the Oath, and perform the other Acts therein preſcribed;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Commanding Officer, with the Conſent of his Majeſty's Lieutenant, or, in the Abſence of his Majeſty's Lieutenant, with the Conſent of any two or more of the Deputy Lieutenants, to accept a Number of Volunteers to ſerve in the ſaid Militia, either to be incorporated into the other Companies, or to be formed into a diſtinct Company, in which latter Caſe Commiſſions may be granted by his Majeſty's Lieutenant to Officers legally qualified to command the ſame.

Commanding Officer, with the Conſent of the Lord Lieutenant, &c. may accept of Volunteers, to be incorporated into the other Companies, or to form a diſtinct Company.

IX. Provided always, That the Number of Volunteers in any Battalion ſhall not exceed the Number of Men contained in any one Company of the ſaid Battalion; and though ſuch Volunteers ſhould not be provided with proper Clothes, Arms, and Accoutrements, upon the Repreſentation of his Majeſty's Lieutenant, or of two or more of the Deputy Lieutenants, ſuch Volunteers ſhall have the ſame Allowance, with regard to Pay, Arms, Clothes, and Accoutrements, as Militia Men are by Law intitled to, during the Time of their continuing in actual Service.

Number of Volunteers in any Battalion not to exceed the Number of Men in one Company of the ſame, &c.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon who is intitled to Half-pay ſhall be deemed or taken to forfeit or quit ſuch Half-pay, during the Time he ſhall ſerve as a Lieutenant or Enſign in any Regiment, Battalion, or Independant Company of Militia, but that the ſame ſhall nevertheleſs continue; and, inſtead of the Oath now appointed, ſuch Officer ſhall take the following Oath:

Officers intitled to Half-pay, not to forfeit the ſame by ſerving as Lieutenants or Enſigns in the Militia.

"I A. B.

Oath to be taken by such Officers.

'I A. B. do swear, That I had not, between the any Place or Employment

And the taking the said Oath shall be sufficient to intitle such Person to receive his Half-pay, or the said Allowance, without taking any other Oath; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

When Militia is on actual Service, two Deputy Lieutenants, &c. shall have the same Powers at Meetings, as are vested in three Deputy Lieutenants, &c. by the recited Act.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at any Meeting for any County, City, or Town, whose Militia shall be at that Time on actual Service, it shall be lawful for any two or more of the Deputy Lieutenants of such County, City, or Town, or for any one Deputy Lieutenant together with any one Justice of the Peace of such County, to have and exercise all the Powers conferred, by the said recited Act, with respect to the Militia, on any three Deputy Lieutenants, or any two Deputy Lieutenants together with any one Justice of the Peace, or any one Deputy Lieutenant together with any two Justices of the Peace, of any County at large, any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and that the said Deputy Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants, and Justice of the Peace or Justices of the Peace, as aforesaid, shall have a Power to adjourn themselves from Time to Time as they shall see proper.

Explanation of the recited Act in relation to Militia Men who shall abscond or desert.

'XII. And whereas Doubts have arisen whether any Principal or Substitute, duly sworn and inrolled, 'according to the Act of the second Year of his present Majesty, who shall neglect to join the Corps to 'which he belongs, or who after having joined it shall desert or absent himself from his Duty in the same, 'before the Expiration of the Term for which he was so sworn and inrolled, can be taken up and punished 'according to Law, after the Expiration of the three Years for which he was so engaged and sworn;' it is hereby declared to be the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act, That every Principal, Substitute, and Volunteer, shall faithfully perform his three Years Service; and if he shall abscond or desert, or absent himself from his Duty in the same, before the Expiration of the Time for which he was inrolled, whenever he is taken, he shall be subject to be punished for such Default or Desertion, and shall be obliged to complete the Remainder of his three Years Service as was unexpired at the Time of such his Default or Desertion.

Substitutes deserting, shall, besides suffering Military Punishment, serve three Years from the Day of their Apprehension.

'XIII. And whereas several Persons have made a Practice of taking Money to serve, and have deserted, 'and the pecuniary Penalty on such Persons in general cannot be levied for want of Substance, and the 'Alternative of six Months Imprisonment, in the common Gaol of the County to which they belong, 'tends not only to corrupt instead of amending their Morals, but is a Loss to the Public as well as to their 'Families, and also a great Expence to such Parish as is by Law obliged to support such Families;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Substitute, sworn and inrolled after passing this Act, who shall desert, whenever he shall be taken, over and above such Military Punishment as shall be inflicted on him, shall serve for and during the Space of three Years, to be computed from the Day on which he was apprehended; and the Commanding Officer shall order Notice to be given, to the Clerk of the Subdivision in which he is engaged to serve, of his Desertion, and the Time of his Apprehension, that he may make a fresh Entry of his Name in the Roll of the Men to serve for such Parish, for three Years from the Time of his Apprehension, as aforesaid.

When any Militia Man deserts, Commanding Officer to certify the same to the Deputy Lieutenants, &c. who shall hold a Subdivision Meeting, and ballot for another Person to serve in his Room.

XIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Principal, Substitute, or Volunteer, shall abscond, desert, or absent himself from his Duty, and shall not return or be taken in the Space of three Months, that then, upon Certificate thereof from the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Independant Company, to the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace of the Hundred or Division for which such Person so absconding, deserting, or absenting himself, was so chosen by Lot, hired, or served as Substitute or Volunteer; and such Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace are hereby required to hold a Subdivision Meeting, and to proceed to ballot for another Person to serve and be returned to the Regiment, in the Room of such Person so having absconded, deserted, or absented himself; and in case such Absentee shall at any Time return or be taken, he shall, notwithstanding any Person shall be so chosen to serve in his Room, be compelled to serve out the Remainder of his Time, as herein before directed.

Persons ballotted pretending to be Quakers, must produce a Certificate thereof, signed by two reputable Housekeepers of that Persuasion.

'XV. And whereas, in order to evade the Provisions already made by the Laws now in being con- 'cerning the raising of the Militia, Persons may pretend to be Quakers who are not actually of that Per- 'suasion,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, when the Lot shall have fallen on any one being, or pretending to be, one of the People called Quakers, no Man shall be deemed, taken, and accepted to be a Quaker within the Meaning of the said recited Act, of the second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, unless he produces, before the Deputy Lieutenant and Justices at their Subdivision Meeting, a Certificate, under the Hand of two or more reputable Housekeepers of the People called Quakers, acknowledging him to be one of their Persuasion.

Persons employed in his Majesty's Dock-yards not liable to serve as Militia Men;

'XVI. And whereas Doubts have arisen whether Persons employed in his Majesty's Dock-yards are by 'the said recited Act, made in the second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, liable to serve, by 'themselves or Substitutes, as Militia Men;' for obviating such Doubts, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons actually employed or mustered in his Majesty's Dock-yards shall be compelled to serve personally, or provide a Substitute to serve in the Militia; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Law, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVII. Provided

XVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Person actually employed and mustered in his Majesty's Service at the Tower of London, Woolwich Warren, the several Gun-wharfs at Portsmouth, Chatham, Sheerness, and Plymouth, or at the several Powder Mills, Powder Magazines, or other Storehouses belonging to his Majesty, under the Direction of the Board of Ordnance, shall be compelled to serve personally or find a Substitute in the Militia; any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

nor those employed in his Majesty's Service at the Tower, Woolwich Warren, the Gun-wharfs, &c.

XVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person who shall have faithfully served as a Serjeant in any one Corps of Militia for fifteen Years, and who shall be discharged from the same, on account of his Age or Infirmities, during the Time the Corps in which he served shall be in actual Service, shall, on the Recommendation of the Commanding Officer of the said Corps, and the Lord Lieutenant and two Deputy Lieutenants of the County, Riding, or Place, to which the said Corps belongs, or on the Death or Removal, or in the Absence of the Lord Lieutenant, by the Commanding Officer and three Deputy Lieutenants of the County, Riding, or Place, to which the said Corps belongs, be entitled to Examination at the Chelsea Board, and be capable to be placed on the Pension of Five-pence per Diem, if the said Board shall judge him deserving thereof.

Serjeants who shall have served fifteen Years in any one Corps of Militia, and discharged on account of Age, &c. shall be intitled to Examination at the Chelsea Board, &c.

XIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person being a Serjeant on the Establishment of Chelsea Hospital, at an Allowance of Twelve-pence a Day, and being appointed to serve in any Corps of Militia, shall and may receive the said Allowance of Twelve-pence a Day, together with his Pay from the said Corps of Militia; any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Serjeants on the Establishment of Chelsea Hospital at 1 s. a Day, being appointed to serve in the Militia, shall receive the said Allowance, together with their Pay in the Militia, XX. And be it enacted, That any Serjeant of Militia (who shall, by the Commanding Officer of his Regiment, or by the Sentence of a Court-martial, be found guilty of misbehaving himself as such, and to have deserved being reduced into the Ranks) shall, besides any Punishment so to be inflicted by the Court-martial, be obliged to serve in the Regiment to which he belongs as a private Militia Man for the Space of one Year from the Time of his being so reduced into the Ranks, notwithstanding he may have already served three Years before his being appointed a Serjeant.

Serjeants of Militia, who, for Misbehaviour, are reduced to the Ranks, shall be obliged to serve a Year therein, notwithstanding they may have already served three Years.

XXI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Counties where the Number of Men are sufficient to form four Companies, but are not sufficient to form a Regiment, it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty's Lieutenant to appoint two Persons legally qualified to serve without Pay as Field Officers in such Battalion, with the same Rank as if the Number were sufficient to form a Regiment.

In certain Counties, Lord Lieutenant may appoint two Field Officers without Pay, &c.

'XXII. And whereas the several Militia Acts do not sufficiently explain how far any Person, chosen 'by Lot to serve in the Militia, shall be compellable to serve, if he has removed from the Place wherein 'his Name was inserted in the List before he was so chosen by Lot: And whereas many Impediments 'and Delays have arisen to the Militia Service from such Uncertainty, and from the different Opinions 'which prevail among the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace respecting this Question; and 'Servants and unmarried Men have availed themselves of these Doubts, and have frequently changed 'their Places of Abode on Purpose to avoid the Service, by which Means the Lots usually fall on married 'Men, and the Burthen thereby becomes unequal;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person chosen by Lot to serve in the Militia, shall be liable to such Service, notwithstanding such Removal.

Every Person chosen by Lot to serve in the Militia, shall be liable thereto, notwithstanding he may have changed the Place of his Abode.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case three Deputy Lieutenants shall not attend at any Annual or other General Meeting appointed, by virtue of the several Laws now in Force for raising and training the Militia, for any County, Riding, or Place, that two or one Deputy Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenant attending at such Meeting, shall and may adjourn such Meeting to any other Time, and to any Place in such County, Riding, or Place; and in case no Deputy Lieutenant shall attend at the Time and Place appointed for such Meeting, that then the Clerk of the General Meetings, or his Deputy then and there attending, shall and may adjourn such Meeting to any other Time, and to any Place, in such County, Riding, or Place.

If three Deputy Lieutenants shall not attend at any General Meeting, the same to be adjourned.

'XXIV. And whereas the Families of Substitutes, hired Men, or Volunteers, serving in the Militia 'when embodied and called out into actual Service, and ordered to march, may become chargeable to the 'Parishes to which they belong;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That One-half of the Allowance made to such Families shall be reimbursed to the Overseer or Overseers of the Parish, Tithing, or Township, where the Family of any such Substitute, hired Man, or Volunteer, shall become chargeable, by the Treasurer of the County, Riding, or Place, in which such Parish, Tithing, or Township, shall lie; and the Account of the said Overseer and Overseers, verified on Oath before a Justice of the Peace within the County, Riding, or Place, in which the Family of such Substitute, hired Man, or Volunteer, shall be chargeable, and countersigned by a Justice of the Peace for such County, Riding, or Place, shall be a sufficient Voucher to the said Treasurer for the Payment of such Sum.

When the Families of Substitutes, &c. become chargeable to their Parishes, Half the Expences shall be reimbursed to the Overseers by the Treasurer of the County, &c.

XXV. Provided always, That any Relief which shall be given to the Family of any Militia Man, during the Time of actual Service, shall not deprive such Militia Man from voting for the Election of any Member to serve in Parliament.

Proviso.

'XXVI. And whereas the Deputy Lieutenants, Chief Magistrates, and Justices of the Peace, in 'several Counties, Cities, and Places, where the Militia have been raised, have in some Instances pro'ceeded to chuse by Lot, and to swear in Militia Men and Substitutes for such respective Counties, Cities, 'and Places, previous to the Times at which the same ought to have been done pursuant to the Provisions 'contained in the Militia Laws now in being;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Proceedings

Deputy Lieutenants, &c. indemnified for having sworn in Militia Men, &c. previous to the Times appointed for that Purpose.

Proceedings of the said Deputy Lieutenants, Chief Magistrates, and Justices of the Peace, are hereby declared valid and effectual; and the said Deputy Lieutenants, Chief Magistrates, and Justices of the Peace, are hereby respectively indemnified for such their Proceedings.

All Militia Officers above the Rank of Lieutenant, to deliver in their Qualifications within six Months after the passing this Act, or after accepting their Commissions, otherwise such Commissions to be void.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person holding, or hereafter accepting a Commission in the Militia of a higher Rank than that of Lieutenant, not having already delivered in his Qualification, who shall neglect to deliver in, to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, Riding, or Place, in and for which he is or shall be appointed, a specific Description of his Qualification, in Writing, signed by himself, within six Months after the passing of this Act, or within the Space of six Months from the Time of his accepting of such Commission as aforesaid, shall be, and is hereby declared incapable of holding the same, and the said Commission is hereby declared null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

The Benefits, &c. granted to Justices by an Act of 24 Geo. II. extended to Lieutenants, &c. acting in Execution of Militia Laws.

'XXVIII. And whereas an Act was made in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty 'King George the Second (intituled, An Act for the rendering Justices of the Peace more safe in the Execution 'of their Office; and for indemnifying Constables, and others, acting in Obedience to their Warrants): And 'whereas it is necessary to extend the Provisions of the said Act to this Act, with respect to Lieutenants 'and Deputy Lieutenants;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenant, acting in the Execution of the Militia Laws, shall be intitled to all the Benefits and Protections by the said Act granted to such Justices of the Peace.

CAP. LX.

An Act for relieving his Majesty's Subjects professing the Popish Religion from certain Penalties and Disabilities imposed on them by an Act, made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the further preventing the Growth of Popery.

Preamble.

Act 11 and 12 Gul. III.

'WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal certain Provisions in an Act of the eleventh and twelfth 'Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the further preventing the 'Growth of Popery, whereby certain Penalties and Disabilities are imposed on Persons professing the Po-'pish Religion;' may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Act as relates to the apprehending, taking, or prosecuting, of Popish Bishops, Priests, or Jesuits; and also so much of the said Act as subjects Popish Bishops, Priests, or Jesuits, and Papists, or Persons professing the Popish Religion, and keeping School, or taking upon themselves the Education or Government or Boarding of Youth, within this Realm, or the Dominions thereto belonging, to perpetual Imprisonment; and also so much of the said Act as disables Persons educated in the Popish Religion, or professing the same, under the Circumstances therein mentioned, to inherit or take by Descent, Devise, or Limitation, in Possession, Reversion, or Remainder, any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and gives to the next of Kin, being a Protestant, a Right to have and enjoy such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments; and also so much of the said Act as disables Papists, or Persons professing the Popish Religion, to purchase any Manors, Lands, Profits out of Lands, Tenements, Rents, Terms, or Hereditaments, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and makes void all and singular Estates, Terms, and other Interests or Profits whatsoever out of Lands, to be made, suffered, or done, from and after the Day therein mentioned, to or for the Use or Behoof of any such Person or Persons, or upon any Trust or Confidence, mediately or immediately, for the Relief of any such Person or Persons; shall be, and the same, and every Clause and Matter and Thing herein-before mentioned, is and are hereby repealed.

Certain Clauses in the said Act, relating to the prosecuting Popish Bishops, &c.; and imprisoning for Life Papists who keep Schools; and disabling Papists to inherit Lands by Descent, &c. in England or Wales, &c. &c. repealed.

Persons having or claiming any Lands, &c. under Titles not hitherto litigated, shall hold the same, notwithstanding the said Act.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person and Persons having or claiming any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, under Titles not hitherto litigated, though derived from any Descent, Devise, Limitation, or Purchase, shall have, take, hold, and enjoy the same, as if the said Act, or any Thing therein contained, had not been made; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

This Act not to affect any Action now depending, &c.; nor to extend to any Person who shall not, within six Months after passing this Act, or coming of Age, &c. take the following Oath.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to affect any Action or Suit now depending, which shall be prosecuted with Effect, and without Delay.

IV. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Person or Persons but such who shall, within the Space of six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or of accruing of his, her, or their Title, being of the Age of twenty-one Years, or who, being under the Age of twenty-one Years, shall, within six Months after he or she shall attain the Age of twenty-one Years, or being of unsound Mind, or in Prison, or beyond the Seas, then within six Months after such Disability removed, take and subscribe an Oath in the Words following:

The Oath.

'I A. B. do sincerely promise and swear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to his Majesty 'King George the Third, and him will defend, to the utmost of my Power, against all Conspiracies 'and Attempts whatever that shall be made against his Person, Crown, or Dignity; and I will do my 'utmost

'utmoſt Endeavour to diſcloſe and make known to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, all Treaſons 'and traiterous Conſpiracies which may be formed againſt him or them; and I do faithfully promiſe to 'maintain, ſupport, and defend, to the utmoſt of my Power, the Succeſſion of the Crown in his Ma-'jeſty's Family, againſt any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever; hereby utterly renouncing and abjuring any 'Obedience or Allegiance unto the Perſon taking upon himſelf the Stile and Title of Prince of Wales, 'in the Lifetime of his Father, and who, ſince his Death, is ſaid to have aſſumed the Stile and Title of 'King of Great Britain, by the Name of Charles the Third, and to any other Perſon claiming or pretend-'ing a Right to the Crown of theſe Realms; and I do ſwear, that I do reject and deteſt, as an un-'chriſtian and impious Poſition, That it is lawful to murder or deſtroy any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, 'for or under Pretence of their being Heretics; and alſo that unchriſtian and impious Principle, That no 'Faith is to be kept with Heretics: I further declare, that it is no Article of my Faith, and that I do 'renounce, reject, and abjure, the Opinion, That Princes excommunicated by the Pope and Council, 'or by any Authority of the See of Rome, or by any Authority whatſoever, may be depoſed or murdered 'by their Subjects, or any Perſon whatſoever: And I do declare, that I do not believe that the Pope of 'Rome, or any other foreign Prince, Prelate, State, or Potentate, hath, or ought to have, any temporal 'or civil Juriſdiction, Power, Superiority, or Pre-eminence, directly or indirectly, within this Realm. 'And I do ſolemnly, in the Preſence of God, profeſs, teſtify, and declare, That I do make this Decla-'ration, and every Part thereof, in the plain and ordinary Senſe of the Words of this Oath; without 'any Evaſion, Equivocation, or mental Reſervation whatever, and without any Diſpenſation already 'granted by the Pope, or any Authority of the See of Rome, or any Perſon whatever; and without 'thinking that I am or can be acquitted before God or Man, or abſolved of this Declaration, or any Part 'thereof, although the Pope, or any other Perſons or Authority whatſoever, ſhall diſpenſe with or annul 'the ſame, or declare that it was null or void.'

Which Oath it ſhall be competent to his Majeſty's High Court of Chancery, or to any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, the Courts of Great Seſſions within the Principality of Wales and County Palatine of Cheſter, the Courts of Chancery or Common Pleas within the Counties Palatine of Lancaſter and Durham, or to any Court of General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace of any County, Riding, Liberty, City, Borough, Town, or Place, in the Kingdom of England, or in the Principality of Wales, to adminiſter, and they are hereby required to adminiſter the ſame accordingly: Of the taking and ſubſcribing of which Oaths a Regiſter ſhall be kept and preſerved, in the Manner preſcribed by the Laws now in being requiring Oaths from Perſons taking Offices or Employments.

Court of Chancery, Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, Courts of Great Seſſions in Wales, &c. may adminiſter the Oath.

A Regiſter to be kept of the taking and ſubſcribing the ſame.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any Popiſh Biſhop, Prieſt, Jeſuit, or Schoolmaſter, who ſhall not have taken and ſubſcribed the above Oath in the above Words before he ſhall have been apprehended or any Proſecution commenced againſt him.

This Act not to extend to any Popiſh Biſhop, &c. who ſhall not have taken the ſaid Oath before he was apprehended, &c.

CAP. LXI.

An Act for repealing certain Proviſions in two Acts, made in the firſt Year of the Reign of Queen Anne; one intituled, An Act for the Relief of the Proteſtant Purchaſers of the forfeited Eſtates in Ireland; and the other intituled, An Act for advancing the Sale of the forfeited Eſtates in Ireland, and for veſting ſuch as remain unſold by the preſent Truſtees in her Majeſty, her Heirs and Succeſſors, for ſuch Uſes as the ſame were before veſted in the ſaid Truſtees; and for the more effectual ſelling and ſetting the ſaid Eſtates to Proteſtants; and for explaining ſeveral Acts relative to the Lord Bophin and Sir Redmond Everard.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS by an Act, paſſed in the firſt Seſſion of the firſt Year of Queen Anne, intituled, An 'Act for the Relief of the Proteſtant Purchaſers of the forfeited Eſtates in Ireland, it is enacted, That 'all Diſpoſitions and Sales of the ſeveral Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, Eſtates and Intereſts, 'therein mentioned, which had been then ſold or contracted for, or ſhould be thereafter ſold, by the 'Truſtees therein mentioned, ſhould be made to Proteſtants only; and that every Papiſt, or Perſon pro-'feſſing the Popiſh Religion, ſhould be diſabled and made incapable to take any Part thereof, or any 'Intereſt in or out of the ſame; and that all Conveyances and Declarations of Truſt to any Papiſt, or 'Perſon profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, concerning the ſame, ſhould be void and of none Effect; and 'that no ſuch Papiſt, or Perſon profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, during his continuing to be ſuch, ſhould 'be capable to inherit, take, or make Title to, by Deſcent, Purchaſe, Limitation, Deviſe, or other 'Conveyance, or to have, hold, or enjoy, any of the ſaid Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, Eſtates 'or Intereſts, or any Truſt or Intereſt therein; and that if any Perſon profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, or 'educated in the ſame, and not having ſolemnly and publickly renounced it, being of full Age, ſhall not, 'within the Space of ſix Months after the accruing of his or her Title, or, being under the Age of 'eighteen Years, ſhall not, within ſix Months after he or ſhe ſhall attain the Age aforeſaid, take the Oath 'of Allegiance and Supremacy, and ſubſcribe the Declaration in the ſaid Act mentioned, and continue to 'be a Proteſtant, every ſuch Perſon ſhall be diſabled to inherit or take by Deſcent, Deviſe, or Limitation, 'or Purchaſe, any of the ſaid Eſtates or Intereſts, or any Truſt or Intereſt in or out of the ſame; but that, 'during the Life of ſuch Perſon, or till his Conformity, the next of his Kindred who ſhall be a Pro-'teſtant ſhall have and enjoy the Premiſes, without being accountable for the Profits; and that all Leaſes

'for Lives or Years, or otherwiſe, to be made of any of the ſaid Premiſes, ſhall be made to ſuch Perſons 'only as are of the Proteſtant Religion: And if any ſuch Leaſe ſhall be made to, or in Truſt for, any Pa- 'piſt, or Perſon profeſſing the Popiſh Religion; or if any ſuch Leaſe be made to a Proteſtant, and the 'ſame ſhall be afterwards aſſigned to, or in Truſt for, a Papiſt, or Perſon profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, 'every ſuch Leaſe and Aſſignment ſhall be void, and the Perſon making ſuch Leaſe or Aſſignment, and the 'Perſon to whom, or for whoſe Uſe or Benefit, the ſame ſhall be made (in caſe of Acceptance), ſhall for- 'feit treble the full Value of the ſaid Lands ſo aſſigned and accepted: And whereas the ſaid ſeveral Prohi- 'bitions and Penalties were re-enacted and further enforced, by an Act paſſed in the ſecond Seſſion of the 'firſt Year of her Majeſty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for advancing the Sale of the forfeited Eſtates in 'Ireland; and for veſting ſuch as remain unſold by the preſent Truſtees in her Majeſty, her Heirs and Succeſſors, 'for ſuch Uſes as the ſame were before veſted in the ſaid Truſtees; and for the more effectual ſelling and ſetting 'the ſaid Eſtates to Proteſtants; and for explaining ſeveral Acts relative to the Lord Bophin and Sir Redmond 'Everard:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid herein-recited Acts, paſſed in the firſt Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, ſo far as they prohibit, diſqualify, or diſable any Papiſt, or Perſon profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, from taking, holding, or enjoying, any Eſtate, Right, Title, Intereſt, Claim, Property, or Demand, of, to, or in, any of the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Eſtates, or Intereſts, in the ſaid Acts mentioned; or which inflict any Penalty on the Perſon making or accepting any Intereſt in the ſame, ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this Act, be repealed, and ceaſe and be void to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

The recited Acts in Part repealed.

CAP. LXII.

An Act to continue an Act, made in the ſixteenth Year of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to authorize, for a limited Time, the Puniſhment, by hard Labour, of Offenders, who, for certain Crimes, are or ſhall become liable to be tranſported to any of his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations. [Continued till June 1, 1779.]

CAP. LXIII.

An Act for enabling Truſtees under particular Turnpike Acts, to meet and carry ſuch Acts into Execution, notwithſtanding they may not have met or adjourned agreeable to the Directions of ſuch Acts; and for preventing Diſputes touching the Payment of Tolls for Horſes or Carriages belonging to or employed by Officers or Soldiers on Duty.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS it has happened, and may hereafter happen, that the Truſtees appointed, or to be 'appointed, by Act of Parliament, for amending or repairing particular Turnpike Roads, have 'omitted, or may omit, to meet or adjourn in the Manner directed by ſuch Acts reſpectively, or that the 'Day or Days, appointed for the Firſt Meeting of the Truſtees, has or have elapſed, or may elapſe, before 'the paſſing of ſuch Acts reſpectively, whereby the Intent of ſuch reſpective Acts hath been or may be 'fruſtrated;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That in all Caſes where the Truſtees, appointed, or to be appointed, by any Act or Acts of Parliament, made or to be made, for amending or repairing any particular Turnpike Roads, ſhall not have met, or ſhall not meet, on the Day or Days appointed, or to be appointed, for their Firſt Meeting, by any ſuch Act or Acts reſpectively, or on any Day or Days appointed, or to be appointed, by Adjournment, for their Meeting, or have not adjourned, or ſhall not adjourn, in the Manner directed by any ſuch Act or Acts of Parliament, or when the Day appointed, or to be appointed, for the Firſt Meeting of the Truſtees, has elapſed, or may elapſe, before the paſſing of ſuch Act or Acts; it ſhall and may be lawful for any five or more of the Truſtees appointed to execute ſuch Act or Acts reſpectively, in any or either of the Caſes aforeſaid, to cauſe Notice, under their Hands, to be affixed on all the Turnpike Gates which ſhall be then erected on ſuch Roads reſpectively; or, if no Turnpike Gate ſhall be then erected, to cauſe the like Notice to be affixed in ſome conſpicuous Place, in one of the Market-towns near the Roads directed to be repaired as aforeſaid, and alſo to be publiſhed in ſome Newſpaper circulated in that Part of the Country, at leaſt twenty Days before the intended Meeting, appointing the Truſtees to meet at the Place where the laſt preceding Meeting was appointed to have been held, or at the Place directed for the Firſt Meeting of ſuch Truſtees, if no preceding Meeting ſhall have been held; and the ſaid Truſtees, when met in purſuance of ſuch Notice, ſhall and may, and they are hereby empowered to carry ſuch Act or Acts into Execution, in the ſame and as full and ample a Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as they might or could have done, if no ſuch Neglect or Omiſſion had happened, or ſuch Act or Acts had been paſſed previous to the Day or Days appointed for the Firſt Meeting of the Truſtees reſpectively, and ſuch Truſtees had met on ſuch Day or Days according to ſuch Appointment.

In caſe the Truſtees under any Act for repairing Turnpike Roads ſhall neglect to meet on the Day appointed, &c. any five Truſtees may appoint a Meeting.

'II. And whereas Diſputes have ariſen with reſpect to the Exemptions meant to be allowed, by ſeveral 'Acts of Parliament for repairing of public Roads within this Kingdom, for the Horſes of Officers and 'Soldiers upon their March or Duty, and for Carriages attending them;' in order to prevent ſuch Diſputes for the future, be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Toll or Duty whatſoever ſhall be demanded or taken, by virtue of any Act of Parliament already made, or hereafter to be made, for repairing any of the public Roads within this Kingdom, for or in reſpect of any Horſes belonging to Officers or Soldiers upon their March or upon Duty, or for any Horſes, Cattle, or Carriages, employed in carrying carrying or conveying the Arms or Baggage of any such Officers or Soldiers, or in carrying any sick, wounded, or disabled Officers or Soldiers; and no Carriages so employed shall be subject to be weighed at any Engine erected, or to be erected, upon any Turnpike Road, or the Owner or Driver thereof liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture for carrying any greater Weight than is or may be allowed by Law to be conveyed in any such Carriage, any Act of Parliament made or to be made to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

Carriages and Cattle employed in carrying the Arms or Baggage of Officers or Soldiers on their March,

&c. exempted from Tolls. Such Carriages not liable to be weighed.

CAP. LXIV.

An Act for enabling his Majesty to raise the Sum of one million, for the Uses and Purposes therein mentioned.

CAP. LXV.

An Act for settling and securing a certain Annuity on the Earl of Chatham, and the Heirs of the Body of the late William Pitt Earl of Chatham, to whom the Earldom of Chatham shall descend, in Consideration of the eminent Services performed by the said late Earl to his Majesty and the Public.

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WHEREAS we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Commons, did unanimously address ourselves to your Majesty, humbly to beseech your Majesty that you would be graciously pleased to bestow some signal and lasting Mark of your Royal Favour, on the Family of the late William Pitt Earl of Chatham, and to assure your Majesty, that whatever, from your Princely Goodness, your Majesty should think proper to be granted, this House, animated by the Gratitude which they, in common with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, feel towards the Memory of that upright and disinterested Minister, and ambitious of giving a Testimony of their Approbation to that public Virtue and spirited Conduct which directed the Councils of this Country in the last glorious and successful War, would, with the greatest Chearfulness, make good to your Majesty; to which Address, your Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer; That your Majesty would take the same into your Consideration, and that you would do therein what should appear to your Majesty to be most proper, agreeable to the Desire of your faithful Commons; and also, by your Majesty's most gracious Message, to declare, That your Majesty, being desirous to comply, as speedily as possible, with the said Request of your faithful Commons, had given Directions for the granting to the present Earl of Chatham, and to the Heirs of the Body of the late William Pitt, to whom the Earldom of Chatham shall descend, an Annuity of four thousand Pounds per Annum, out of the Civil List Revenue; but that your Majesty, not having it in your Power to extend the Effects of the said Grant beyond the Term of your Majesty's Life, recommended it to the House to consider of a proper Method of extending, securing, and annexing the same to the Earldom of Chatham, in such Manner as should be thought most effectual for the Benefit of the Family of the said William Pitt Earl of Chatham:' We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, duly considering your Majesty's most gracious Intention, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in Lieu of the said Annuity of four thousand Pounds per Annum, so directed to be granted to the present Earl of Chatham, and to the Heirs of the Body of the late William Pitt, to whom the Earldom of Chatham shall descend, as aforesaid, one Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum of four thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, shall be issuing and payable out of, and charged and chargeable upon, the Duties and Revenues which compose the Fund commonly called The Aggregate Fund, and every or any of them (after paying, or reserving sufficient to pay, all such Sum and Sums of Money as have been directed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of the same, but with Preference to all other Payments which shall or may hereafter be charged upon, or payable out of, the said Aggregate Fund); and the same shall from Time to Time be paid quarterly, in Manner and Form following; that is to say, To John now Earl of Chatham, and to the Heirs Male of the Body of the late William Pitt Earl of Chatham begotten, to whom the said Title, Honour, and Dignity of Earl of Chatham shall descend; which said Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum shall commence and take Effect from the fifth Day of July, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, and shall be paid and payable at the four usual Days of Payment in the Year, that is to say, the tenth Day of October, the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, and the fifth Day of July, by even and equal Portions; the first Payment thereof to be made at the tenth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight.

Preamble.

An Annuity of 4,000 l. per Annum to be paid, out of the Aggregate Fund, to John Earl of Chatham, and the Heirs Male of the late William Pitt Earl of Chatham, to whom the said Title shall descend.

The said Annuity to be paid quarterly.

First Payment on Oct. 10, 1778.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said John Earl of Chatham, and the Heirs Male of the Body of his Father, the said late William Earl of Chatham, for the Time being, to whom the said Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum shall descend, being at the Age of twenty-one Years, or above, by any Deed or Deeds in Writing to assign, limit, or appoint, any Part of the said Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum, not exceeding the Sum of one thousand Pounds yearly, by way of Jointure or Provision for any Woman or Women which he or they respectively shall happen to marry or take to Wife, for the Life or Lives of such Wife or Wives; but that the said Annuity shall not be charged or chargeable with more than one such Jointure at any one Time.

The Earl of Chatham, &c. empowered to charge the said Annuity with a Jointure of 1,000 l. yearly.

Commissioners of the Treasury to sign Warrants for Payment of the said Annuity quarterly, without any Fees.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now being, and the High Treasurer and Under-treasurer of the Exchequer and Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, and they are hereby authorised and required, by Warrant under their Hands, to direct the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer, now and for the Time being, to make forth and pass Debentures, from Time to Time, for paying the said Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum of four thousand Pounds, as the same shall, from Time to Time, become due and payable, without any Fees or Charges to be demanded or taken for paying the same, or any Part thereof; which said Warrant, and the Debentures to be made forth and passed thereupon, shall be a sufficient Authority to the several and respective Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer, now and for the Time being, for the Payment of the said Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum to the said John Earl of Chatham, and the Heirs Male of the Body of the said late William Earl of Chatham begotten as aforesaid, or to such other Person or Persons as shall be intitled to receive any Part of the said Annuity as aforesaid, at the respective quarterly Feast Days in this Act before appointed for Payment thereof, without any further or other Warrant, to be sued for, had, or obtained in that Behalf.

Such Warrants, after signed, to be valid, notwithstanding the Demise of his Majesty, &c.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, after signing of such Warrant, the same shall be good, valid, and effectual in Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof, and of this Act; and shall not be determinable or revocable by or upon the Demise of his Majesty (whom God long preserve), or of any of his Heirs or Successors, or by or upon the Death or Removal of any of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer, or by or upon the Determination of the Power, Office, or Offices, of them, or any of them.

Commissioners of the Treasury, &c. without Fee or Reward, to do all Things necessary to render this Act effectual.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Treasury now being, and the High Treasurer of the Treasury for the Time being, Chancellor and Under-treasurer, Chamberlains and Barons of the Exchequer, and all other the Officers and Ministers of the Court of Exchequer, and of the Receipt thereof, now and for the Time being, shall, and they are hereby authorised and strictly enjoined and required to do, without Fee or Reward, all such Acts, Matters, and Things, as are herein-before directed and required, or shall be necessary to be done and performed by them, or any or either of them, in order to render this Act, and the several Payments hereby directed, effectual.

Receipt of the Earl of Chatham, &c. shall be a sufficient Discharge. The Annuity to be Tax-free. If Officers of the Exchequer shall refuse to pay the Annuity on Demand, &c. they may be prosecuted for the same.

VI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Acquittance or Acquittances, Receipt or Receipts, of the said John Earl of Chatham, and the Heirs Male of the Body of the said late William Earl of Chatham, and of such other Person or Persons as shall be intitled or authorised to receive the said Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum, or any Part thereof, shall be a good and sufficient Discharge for the Payment thereof, without any further or other Warrant to be sued for or obtained in that Behalf; and that the said Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum, and every Part thereof, shall be free and clear from all Taxes, Impositions, and other public Charges whatsoever: And in case any of the Officers of the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer shall refuse or neglect to pay the said Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum, or any Part thereof, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or to do any Act necessary to enable the said John Earl of Chatham, and the Heirs Male of the Body of the said William late Earl of Chatham, and such other Person or Persons as shall be intitled to receive the said Annuity, or any Part thereof, to receive the same, then the said John Earl of Chatham, and the Heirs Male of the Body of the said William late Earl of Chatham, and such other Person or Persons as shall be intitled to receive the said Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum, or any Part thereof, may from Time to Time sue, prosecute, and implead, such Officers, or any of them, their Executors and Administrators, by Bill, Plaint, or Action of Debt, and shall or may recover Judgments, and sue out Executions thereupon, against such Officers respectively, their Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, for so much of such Sum or Sums of Money then due and owing upon the said Annuity, yearly Rent, or Sum, or any Part thereof, as shall have been in the Hands of the Officer or Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer, at the Time or Times when Demands shall have been legally made of the Payment of the said Annuity, yearly Rent, or Sum, or any Part thereof, as aforesaid, or for the Refusal or Neglect to do any Act necessary to be done by such Officer or Officers respectively.

The Annuity vested in John Earl of Chatham, &c. and not to be aliened or incumbered for any longer Term than the Life of the Party; except in making Jointures. Public Act.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Annuity, yearly Rent, or Sum of four thousand Pounds, shall be, and the same is by this Act vested in the said John Earl of Chatham, and the Heirs Male of the Body of the said late William Earl of Chatham, to whom the said Title, Honour, and Dignity of Earl of Chatham shall descend; and that the same, or any Part thereof, shall not at any Time or Times hereafter be aliened, conveyed, disposed, charged, or incumbered, by the said John Earl of Chatham, or by any of the Heirs Male of the said late William Earl of Chatham, for any greater or larger Estate or Time than during the natural Life of the Person so aliening, conveying, disposing, charging, or incumbering the same, or so as to prevent the same from descending to the Heirs Male in Tail, according to the Limitation aforesaid, other than, and according to, and in pursuance of, the Power for making such Jointures as aforesaid.

VIII. And be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be adjudged, deemed, and taken, in all Cases, and in all Courts and Places, to be a public Act.

CAP. LXVI.

An Act for making proper Drains and Sewers, for the Purpose of carrying off the Water, from the Prebendal Estate of Halliwell and Finsbury, in the Suburbs of the City of London; and for other Purposes therein mentioned.

CAP. LXVII.

An Act for authorising the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex to sell the present Session-house for the said County, and for enabling them to build another Session-house in a more convenient Situation, tuation, and to keep the same in Repair; and for applying the Sum of eleven thousand Pounds (to be borrowed upon the Credit of the Surplusses of a certain Fund, commonly called The Orphans Fund) towards defraying the Expence of building the said Session-house.

CAP. LXVIII.

An Act for building a Bridge across the River Tawey, at a Place called The Wich Tree, in the Parish of Llansamlett, to the opposite Shore in the Parish of Llangevelach, in the County of Glamorgan; for making proper Avenues or Roads to and from the said Bridge; and also for repairing and widening the Road from Pentre-brook, near a Place called Aberdwyberthy, in the Parish of Saint John's, near Swansea, to the said intended Bridge.

CAP. LXIX.

An Act for repairing the Highways and Bridges in the County of Stirling.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Powers granted by Law in Scotland relative to Highways and Bridges, and the 'Services in Work and Money which are thereby authorised to be exacted and levied, have been 'found insufficient to amend and keep in Repair the Roads and Bridges within the County of Stirling; and 'that other and further Powers are necessary, in order effectually to carry the Intention of the said Laws 'into Execution;' and as this cannot be obtained without the Aid of Parliament; may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, for the more easy and effectual Execution of the Powers granted by this Act, the said County shall be divided into eight Districts, as follows; videlicet, The first District, comprehending the Parishes of Buchanan, Drymen, Balfron, Killearn, Strathblane, and Fintry, the Place of Meeting being Killearn: The second District, comprehending the Parishes of Campsey, Baldernock, Kilsyth, and Kilpatrick, the Place of Meeting being Kilsyth: The third District, comprehending the Parishes of Denny and Dunipace (excepting the Lands of Torwoodhead), the Lands of Auchenbowie, Canglors, Bannockburn, Plean, Shiock, Garcleush, Blackhill, Sauchie, Chartershall, Polmaise, Balquhiderock on the East Side of Saint Ninian's Burn, the Lands of Greenyards, Easter and Wester, in the Parish of Saint Ninians, the West Barony of Callander, Seabegs, and Castlecary, in the Parish of Falkirk, the Place of Meeting being Denny: The fourth District, comprehending the Parishes of Stirling, Gargunnock and Kippin, Saint Ninian's, on the West of Saint Ninian's Burn, the Lands of Dundaff, Craigengelt and Gringates, in the said Parish of Saint Ninians, the Place of Meeting being Stirling: The fifth District, comprehending the Parish of Alva, the Place of Meeting being Alva: The sixth District, comprehending the Parishes of Logie, and Lecropt, the Place of Meeting being Logie: The seventh District, comprehending the Parishes of Polmont, Slamannan, Muiravonside, and the Lands of the East Barony of Callander, in Falkirk Parish, the Place of Meeting being Lauriestion: And the eighth District, comprehending the Parish of Falkirk (excepting as aforesaid), the Parishes of Airth, Larbert and Bothkennar, and the Lands of Torwoodhead, in the Parish of Dunipace, the Lands of Powhouse, Carnock, Kersey, Cowie, Bolfornought, Throsk, Poppletrees, and the two Bandeaths, in the Parish of Saint Ninians, the Place of Meeting being Falkirk.

The Shire to be divided into Eight Districts.

The aforegoing Division may be altered at any General Meeting before that of 1780.

II. Provided always, That the aforegoing Division of the County into Districts, and Places of Meeting, shall be subject to any future Alteration by any general Meeting of the Trustees under this Act, which shall be held at any Time before the annual general Meeting in the Year one thousand seven hundred and eighty, and not afterwards: Provided always, That Notice of any intended Proposition for such Alteration of the Districts, at any annual Meeting, shall be delivered, in Writing, to their Clerk, and advertised by him in the Edinburgh Caledonian Mercury, once every Week, for three Weeks before such annual Meeting Qualification of Trustees.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person, who is at present, or shall be at any Time after the passing of this Act, in his own Right, or in the Right of his Wife, in the actual Possession and Enjoyment, as Proprietor or Life-renter, of Lands lying in the County of Stirling, valued in the Cess Book of the said County at one hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent, and the eldest Son of every Person possessed of two hundred Pounds of valued Rent as above; and the Chief Magistrate of the Town of Stirling for the Time being, and one Master of each Hospital, in the said Town of Stirling, for the Time being, shall be, and they are hereby nominated and appointed Trustees for making and repairing the Highways, Roads, and Bridges, within the said County, and for executing all other the Powers by this Act given and granted.

Penalty on Persons acting without the necessary Qualifications.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person not qualified as aforesaid shall act as a Trustee, every such Person shall, for such acting, forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds Sterling, to be applied for Reparation of the Roads lying within that District in which he has acted, deducting therefrom the Expence of the Prosecution, which may be raised and carried on at the Instance of any one of the Trustees, before the Justices of Peace of the County, as herein-after mentioned.

Time and Place of Meeting, and Order of Proceeding.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Trustees, or any seven or more of them, shall, in order to carry this present Act into Execution, meet at Stirling, upon the eighth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight; and thereafter yearly upon the same Day, and at the same Place, that the Commissioners of Supply for the said County of Stirling shall be directed, by the Land Tax Act of the Year then current, to assemble for the Purposes of assessing the Land, and of choosing a Conveener, Collector, and Clerk; and that the said Trustees so assembled, at the aforesaid general Meeting, shall have Power, and are hereby empowered to adjourn to the next, or any after lawful Day, if they shall see Cause so to do, and to name a Preses or Chairman of their Meeting, and a Clerk during Pleasure, who shall attend the Meetings of the said Trustees, and shall enter their whole Proceedings regularly in a Book to be kept for that Purpose; and likewise shall, as often as required, by any Person or Persons having an Intereſt in the ſame, make and give out Copies or Extracts of the Orders or Proceedings of the Truſtees within three Days after ſuch Requiſition (at ſuch certain moderate Fee for the ſame, as ſhall be fixed by the ſaid Truſtees in a general Meeting aſſembled); and that ſuch Copies or Extracts ſhall contain the Warrant for putting theſe Orders into Execution; and that the ſaid Truſtees, in their firſt general Meeting or adjourned Meeting aforeſaid, and in all their ſubſequent annual general Meetings or adjourned Meetings aſſembled, ſhall have Power, and they are hereby empowered and required to nominate and appoint one or more of their own Number to act, without Salary, as Surveyor or Surveyors in any of the Diſtricts aforeſaid, in which his Qualification lies; and at the ſaid general Meetings the ſaid Truſtees ſhall alſo appoint early and convenient Times and Places for the firſt Meetings in each Year of the Truſtees within the reſpective Diſtricts before mentioned; and that the Truſtees, at ſuch Diſtrict Meetings aſſembled, ſhall have Power afterwards to adjourn as they ſhall ſee Cauſe.

A Surveyor to be appointed.

Truſtees to have the Superintendence of the Roads and Bridges.

VI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Truſtees of the different Diſtricts ſhall (under the Reſtrictions after-mentioned) ſuperintend, and have the Direction and Cognizance of the ſeveral Roads and Bridges within their reſpective Diſtricts, and ſhall have Power to appoint the Order in which the ſame ſhall be made or repaired, and to appropriate the Services and Monies to be exacted and raiſed, by virtue of this Act, from each Diſtrict, within ſuch their reſpective Diſtrict only; and that the ſaid Truſtees, in ſuch Diſtrict Meetings aſſembled, ſhall be, and are hereby empowered to appoint a Preſes or Conveener, and if neceſſary a Depute Clerk for each Diſtrict, and to adjourn from Time to Time; and that the Preſes or Conveener of ſuch reſpective Diſtrict Meetings, ſhall have Power, and he is hereby empowered and required, to call Meetings of the Truſtees for the ſaid Diſtrict, as often as he ſhall be required ſo to do by any two Truſtees within ſuch Diſtrict, upon ten Days previous Notice to be given at the Church Doors within the Diſtrict; and in caſe any Difference of Opinion in ſuch Diſtrict Meeting ſhall ariſe among the ſaid Truſtees, concerning the Application of the Services or Money, any one of the Truſtees who ſhall either think himſelf aggrieved, or ſhall think ſuch Application improper, may complain to the next annual general Meeting, giving eight Days Notice in Writing, to the Clerk of the Diſtrict Meeting, of his Intention to bring an Appeal, and the Matter thereof, which annual general Meeting ſhall have Power, and is hereby empowered to hear and determine the ſame; but the Works ſhall, notwithſtanding, proceed as directed by the Majority of the Diſtrict Meeting, until the Determination of ſuch Appeal; and it ſhall be lawful for any one Truſtee to act at a Diſtrict Meeting, in caſe the other Truſtees do not attend; and that all Meetings under the Authority of this Act ſhall begin to be held at Mid-day, and not earlier, and that each Member ſhall defray his own Expence, but without diſabling or reſtraining the ſaid Truſtees from making and giving a reaſonable Allowance to Collectors, Clerks, and Overſeers, for their Trouble.

Parties aggrieved may appeal to the next annual General Meeting.

Overſeers to be appointed, &c.

VII. And be it alſo enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Truſtees, in Diſtrict Meetings aſſembled, ſhall have Power, and are hereby empowered to appoint Overſeers within their reſpective Diſtricts, and to remove or diſmiſs them, and appoint others as they ſhall find neceſſary, and that the ſaid Overſeers may, by a Juſtice of the Peace of the Bounds, be made Conſtables, for the ſpecial Purpoſe of acting as Conſtables in the Buſineſs of the Highways and Roads, and for that Purpoſe only; and any Perſon refuſing to accept of the Office of Overſeer, ſhall forfeit the Sum of three Pounds Sterling.

Treaſurers to give Security.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Treaſurer or Treaſurers appointed by the ſaid Truſtees, ſhall give Security to the Amount at leaſt of one Year's Receipt.

18 s. Sterling on each 100 l. Scots of valued Rent, or 12 s. on each Ploughgate, may be levied in Lieu of Statute-work.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, the Statute-work, in Whole or in Part, in the Option of the Truſtees of each Diſtrict, ſhall be converted by an Aſſeſſment on the valued Rent, or on the Ploughgate, as the ſame ſhall be aſcertained and determined by them at their annual Meetings for that Purpoſe, variable according to the Condition of the Roads in the Diſtrict, but ſo as not to exceed eighteen Shillings Sterling on each one hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent, or twelve Shillings Sterling on each Ploughgate, and ſo in Proportion for a larger or ſmaller Valuation or Quantity of Land; and the Truſtees in each Diſtrict, who make Choice of the latter Mode of Aſſeſſment, ſhall make up a Liſt of the Ploughgates therein, and each Eſtate and Farm ſhall be held to contain as many Ploughgates, as the Arable and Paſture Lands might reaſonably keep of Ploughs, if under Tillage; and the Truſtees are hereby empowered to take ſuch Proof as they ſhall think neceſſary for aſcertaining the Number of Ploughgates; and that Copies of ſuch Liſts as are made up by them ſhall be tranſmitted to the Clerk of the general Meeting, and entered in the Books to be kept by him; and if any Perſon thinks himſelf aggrieved hereby, he may complain to the next Quarter Seſſion for Redreſs.

Perſons aggrieved may appeal to the Quarter-Seſſion.

Who are to be ſubjected to the Regulations and Aſſeſſments.

X. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Heritors, in the natural Poſſeſſion of their own Lands, as well as Tenants and Sub-tenants, ſhall be ſubjected to the Regulations and Aſſeſſments aforeſaid: Provided always, That Graſs Grounds let without Liberty of Tillage, and Grounds let for Tillage for any Term not exceeding three Years, without a Leaſe or tacit Relocation following on a Leaſe, ſhall be held to be in the natural Poſſeſſion of the Heritor.

Three Days Work for each Horſe and Cart, or 3 s. Sterling for each Horſe.

XI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon not otherwiſe hereby aſſeſſed, who ſhall keep Carts or other Carriages, for drawing Coal or Lime, or any Commodities or Goods whatever, ſhall be ſubject and liable in three Days Work of each Horſe and Cart ſo employed by him, her, or them; or, in the Option of the Truſtees, in a Sum not exceeding three Shillings Sterling for each Horſe kept by them.

Cottagers, Tradeſmen, &c. to perform ſix Days Work, or to pay 2 s. Sterling each Perſon.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Cottagers, Houſeholders, Labourers, and Tradeſmen, not being Servants hired by the Year, nor liable to ſend out Carts or Wains, ſhall be obliged, when required, to perform ſix Days Work annually on the Highways by themſelves, or by proper Perſons employed by them; or, in their Option, to pay two Shillings Sterling each Perſon for the ſaid ſix Days Work.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Miners, Colliers, Salters, Nailers, and Workmen at Furnaces, of the Age of twenty-one Years and upwards, shall perform six Days Work on the Highways annually, when required, by themselves, or by proper Persons employed by them; or, in the Option of the Proprietors, Lessees or Tacksmen of such Mines, Coal-works, Salt-works, Nail-works, or Furnaces, where they are employed, shall pay two Shillings Sterling for each Person above described; and that the Money arising therefrom be laid out on such public Roads within the District, as the Proprietors of such Works when carried on by themselves, or the Tacksmen when let, shall think most advantageous for their respective Works; and that the Money shall be laid out under the Inspection of two or more Trustees appointed by this Act, not having Interest in the said Works, appointed by the District in which they are situated; and it is hereby declared, that all those who are liable to perform Services in Terms of this Act, shall be obliged to perform the same when required (Seed-time and Harvest excepted): Provided nevertheless, That no Person shall be obliged to perform Statute-work on any Road at a greater Distance than four measured Miles from his or her Place of Residence; and that it shall be lawful for the Trustees, in their annual District Meeting assembled, to free or exempt from any Part of the said Work, or Payment of the Conversion thereof, all such Persons as shall appear to them to be in indigent Circumstances, or unable to perform the same.

Miners, Colliers, Salters, &c. to perform six Days Work, or pay 2s. Sterling.

No Person to perform Statute-work more than four Miles from his Residence.

XIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person liable in such Statute-work as aforesaid, who shall neglect or refuse to perform the same, or to make Payment of the converted Prices thereof when required (within ten Days after such Requisition made to them, either personally or at their Dwelling-houses, or by Advertisements at the Parish Churches on a Sunday), shall be liable in Manner following; videlicet, Each Person failing to perform the Statute-work, or to pay the Conversion, shall be liable in double the Sum at which his Service or Labour shall be converted; and that the Whole of these Conversions in Money shall be levied in virtue of a Warrant under the Hand of any one Justice of the Peace of the said County, proceeding upon the Oath of the Collector or Overseer, that such Person has not paid, or has been absent; and that such Warrants shall contain Authority for arresting the said Person's Effects, and for poinding and distraining the same; and that the Officer to whom the same shall be directed, shall summarily seize and distrain the readiest Goods or Effects of the said Person, and shall, at the End of three Days after such Distress, sell the same by public Roup or Auction, to the highest Offerer, at the next Town or Village to the Ground of the Lands upon which such Distress was made, for Payment of the Sum for which such Person or Persons shall respectively be liable, and of the necessary Charges, rendering the Overplus to the Owner; and that no Suspension, Appeal, Complaint, or Action, shall stop the Performance of the Statute Services, or Payment of the converted Prices thereof, or Duty of valued Rent, for that Year in which they have been appropriated: Saving always nevertheless to the Parties their Redress, either from the Persons by whom they shall have been aggrieved, or out of their several Duties, Services, and Conversions, for the Year next after the Determination of the Cause.

Penalty on Persons liable, neglecting to perform the Work or pay the Conversion.

XV. Provided always, That if it shall appear that the Statute-work, or Conversions thereof, or any Part of the same, in any District, have not been applied, the Trustees at their next general Meeting shall have Power, and are hereby required to order the Conversion of the unapplied Statute-work of such deficient District, to be applied in any of the other Districts where the general Meeting shall judge most necessary.

How the Money levied and unapplied is to be disposed of.

XVI. And be it also further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the respective District Meetings shall annually, on or before the last Tuesday of March, make up an exact and regular Report, containing an Account of the whole Money received and expended on the Highways and Bridges; and also of the Number of Persons who have performed Statute-work, or paid the Composition for the same, the Work performed, and the Offences committed, for the preceding Year, within the District under their Direction respectively; and that such Report, signed by the Preses and Clerk of the respective District Meetings, shall be transmitted by the said Clerk to the Clerk of the general Meeting, to be held at Stirling at least eight Days before the annual general Meeting, and shall by the Clerk of the general Meeting be entered in his Book, and laid before the Trustees at their said Meeting; and that in case of Failure to make out and transmit such Report, the Preses and Clerk of the District Meeting so failing shall each be liable in a Penalty or Fine of five Pounds Sterling for each Offence, to be levied by Distress in Manner before mentioned.

The several Districts to make up their Accounts annually.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Overseers (after having first obtained Warrant for so doing, under the Hand of one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace) shall be, and are hereby empowered, to take out of any Lands that shall appear to them most proper and convenient (other than Gardens, Orchards, planted Walks, Lawns, or Pleasure Grounds), Stones, Sand, Gravel, and other Materials, for making and repairing the said Roads, doing the least Damage possible, and making Satisfaction to the Owner or Occupier of the Ground, the Amount of such Satisfaction to be ascertained as herein-after directed.

Overseers empowered to take Materials out of the nearest Grounds, &c.

XVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person shall leave Carts or other Carriages, or shall lay, or cause to be laid, any Timber, Stone, Lime, Dung, Compost, Soil, or Matter whatsoever, on or within five Yards of the Side of the said Roads, unless within a sufficient Fence between the Roads (except Materials for building Houses and inclosing Grounds); and that any Person or Persons so offending shall forfeit the Materials or other Matter so laid down, and also the Sum of twenty Shillings Sterling, to be recovered and levied in the same Manner as the converted Price of Labour, one-half thereof to be paid to the Informer, and the other Half thereof to be applied for making and repairing the Roads within the District; and in case it shall not appear who laid down the said Timber, Stone, Lime, Dung, Compost, Soil, or other Matter above-mentioned, that the Possessors or Occupiers of the Grounds on which the same shall be laid down, or the Possessors and Occupiers of the Lands immediately adjacent adjacent to that Part of the Road on which the same shall be found, shall be deemed and held to be the Layers down thereof.

Penalty on Persons spoiling the Roads.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall haul or draw, or cause to be hauled or drawn, upon any Part of the said Roads, any Tree, Log, or Piece of Timber, or any Stone or other Thing whatsoever, otherwise than upon a Wheel-carriage, Sledge, or Carr, or shall suffer any Tree, Log, or Piece of Timber or Stone, or other Matter whatsoever, which shall be conveyed upon a Wheel-carriage, Sledge, or Carr, to drag upon any Part of such Roads, or shall turn his Plough on any Part of the said Roads, such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of ten Shillings Sterling, to be recovered and levied in Manner before directed.

Trustees empowered to make Passages for Water.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where it shall be found necessary to make Passages for the Water from the Ditches on the Side of the Roads, through the Ground of any adjacent Proprietor, the Trustees are hereby empowered so to do, and to keep them clear and open.

Hedges and Trees to be lopped or pruned.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That where Hedges or Branches of Trees hang over the Road, so as to annoy or obstruct the free Passage, the Owners shall cut or lop the same; and on their failing so to do when required, any one or more Justice or Justices may appoint Persons to cut or lop such Hedges or Branches of Trees, as prove a Nuisance to the said Highways: Provided that no Person be compelled, nor any Surveyor permitted, to cut or prune any Hedge at any other Time than between the last Day of September and the last Day of February; and that no Person shall be obliged to fell any Timber Trees growing in Hedges at any Time whatsoever, except where the Highway or Road shall be ordered to be enlarged, as is hereinafter directed, or to cut down or grub up any Oak Trees growing within such Highway or Road, or in such Hedges, except in the Months of April, May, June, or July; or any Ash, Elm, or other Trees, in any other Months than December, January, and February.

Trustees may widen Roads;

XXII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Trustees, or any seven of them, in a general or District Meeting assembled, shall be, and hereby are empowered to widen, or cause to be widened, any Road, to a Breadth not exceeding thirty Feet, exclusive of the Ditches or Drains on each Side thereof: Provided always, That in the Entries to Towns and Villages, the said Trustees assembled as aforesaid, shall have Power to widen such Entries to a Breadth not exceeding forty Feet; and for these Purposes, the Trustees shall be empowered to remove Fences and Houses, whose Side-walls do not exceed twelve Feet in Height, or other Obstructions, six Months Notice being always given to the Proprietors or Possessors of Houses, before the same are removed, and Satisfaction being always made, to the Owner or Owners and Lessees of Land, for so much Ground as shall be taken to widen the said Roads, above and beyond twenty Feet wide of clear passable Road, and for the Fences and Houses removed; such Satisfaction to be ascertained by the View, upon Oath, of five Trustees (one of whom to be a Justice of the Peace) of the District where such Road or Roads is or are to be widened; the said five Trustees to be appointed by a general Meeting of the Trustees of such District, who shall give at least ten Days Notice of such View to the Owner or Owners and Lessees of the Lands where such Road or Roads is or are to be widened.

making Satisfaction for Ground taken, &c.

Such Satisfaction to be previous to widening the Roads.

XXIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Road shall be widened, or Houses or Fences removed, till actual Payment of the Satisfaction so ascertained to be made to the said Owner or Owners and Lessees of the Lands where such Road or Roads is or are to be widened.

New Fences to be made.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where any Fences are removed, new and sufficient Fences shall be made by the Owner or Owners and Lessees of Lands, within eight Calendar Months after the Removal of such Fences, under Forfeiture of a Sum equal to the Money paid to them for the same, such Forfeiture to be applied towards Repair of the Roads in such District.

Roads to be measured, and Mile-stones erected.

Penalty on removing or defacing Mile-stones.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Trustees, or any seven or more of them, in a general or District Meeting assembled, shall cause the Roads to be measured, and Stones or Posts to be erected near the Sides thereof, denoting the Distance of each Mile, or such other Distances as they shall judge convenient: And if any Person or Persons shall wilfully break, destroy, damage, pull up, or remove, any such Stones or Posts, or obliterate or deface any Letters or Figures that shall be made, inscribed, or put thereon, and shall be thereof convicted before any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County; such Person or Persons so offending shall respectively forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings Sterling for every Stone or Post so wilfully broken, destroyed, damaged, pulled up, removed, obliterated, or defaced; to be levied and recovered in the same Manner as other Penalties are by this Act directed to be recovered and levied; and such Forfeitures shall be applied, one Moiety to the Informer, and the other Moiety in repairing the Stones or Posts so broken up, damaged, or defaced, or in supplying new ones in their Stead; and if there shall be any Overplus of such Forfeitures, the same shall be laid out in repairing the said Roads; and in case the Person or Persons so offending and convicted shall have no sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon such Forfeitures may be levied, then it shall and may be lawful for any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, to commit such Person or Persons to the common Gaol of the County, therein to remain for any Space not exceeding three Calendar Months, or until the Payment of the Penalty aforesaid.

Trustees may assess the District in 400*l.* Sterling, on the 100*l.* Scots of valued Rent.

'XXVI. And whereas it has been found by Experience, That the Sum of ten Shillings Scots, upon 'each one hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent, authorised to be levied by an Act of the Parliament of 'Scotland, made in the Second Parliament of King Charles the Second, and intituled, An Act for repairing 'Highways and Bridges, is insufficient for keeping the Roads and Bridges in the said County in Repair,' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be in the Power of the Trustees of each District, at their annual Meeting, to assess the District in a further Sum, not exceeding Tenpence Sterling upon each one hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent, to be expended and laid out upon the Highways and Bridges within the said District; and that the old Assessment of ten Shillings Scots, on each one hundred Pounds Scots, shall be, and the same is hereby reserved to the Disposal of the Justices of Peace as formerly.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case of any sudden Damage being done to any Bridge or Bridges, within the said County, and which may require an immediate Support or Repair, that it shall be in the Power of any two Trustees, and they are hereby empowered to give Orders for making such Repair or Repairs, but so as the Sum to be expended thereupon shall not exceed five Pounds Sterling, and that the Money so expended shall be provided for and paid by an Order of the next general Meeting, on an Application to them for that Purpose. Sudden Damage to Bridges may be repaired by two Trustees.

XXVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sums to be raised and levied by virtue of this Act, shall be applied by the said Trustees, in the first Place, to defray and pay the Charges of obtaining and passing this Act, and afterwards wholly and totally to the Uses and Purposes before mentioned, and to no other Purpose or Use whatsoever. Expences of this Act to be first paid.

XXIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Powers by this Act given and granted, shall take place from and after the passing of this Act, and have Continuance during the Term of twenty-five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament. Act to continue in Force 25 Years.

XXX. Hector Munro empowered to borrow 500 l.; and to aſſign the Rates as a Security.

'X. And whereas the ſaid Hector Munro is Superior of the Village of Findhorn, and has the Nomination and Appointment of the Baron Baillie of Muirtoun, within which the ſaid Village is ſituate: And whereas it will tend greatly to the Improvement of the ſaid Harbour, and to the Accommodation of the Public, that the ſaid Hector Munro and his Foreſaids, and any Perſon or Perſons appointed by them, had Power and Authority to remove (after reaſonable Notice to the Perſon or Perſons immediately intereſted) all unneceſſary Obſtructions within the ſaid Port and Harbour, and upon the Quays and Piers belonging to the ſame, and to order and regulate, with reſpect to the Stations and Places of mooring of the Ships and other Veſſels within the ſaid Port and Harbour, and with reſpect to the Time of Continuance upon the ſaid Quay of Goods and Merchandiſe, or others whatſoever; and to make ſuch other Bye-laws, Orders, and Regulations, for the better Government and Management of the ſaid Port and Harbour, as to them the ſaid Hector Munro and his Foreſaids ſhall ſeem meet and expedient;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Ship, Bark, Lighter, Boat, or Veſſel, which ſhall be laid by as unfit for further Sea Service, or neglected by the Owner, ſhall be permitted to be and remain in any of the Piers or Quays erected within the ſaid Harbour of Findhorn, ſo as to incumber the ſame; but that in every ſuch Caſe it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Hector Munro or his Foreſaids, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons as he or they ſhall appoint, immediately to cauſe ſuch Ship, Bark, Lighter, Boat, or Veſſel, ſo unſerviceable or neglected, to be, at the Expence of the Owner or Owners of the ſame, removed from the ſaid Quays and Piers, or any of them, and to lay the ſaid Ship or other Veſſel on any Part of the Strand or Sea Shore within the High-water Mark, or any other Place of Safety without the ſaid Harbour, and there to moor ſuch Ship or other Veſſel; and that on or before Demand of Payment is made by the ſaid Hector Munro, or his Foreſaids, from the Owner or Owners, Maſter or Agents, of ſuch Ship, Bark, or other Veſſel, of the Charge of removing and mooring ſuch Ship, Bark, or other Veſſel as aforeſaid, ſuch Charges and Expences ſhall be firſt ſeen and allowed by the Baron Baillie of the Barony of Muirtoun for the Time being; and that in caſe of Refuſal or Neglect of Payment of ſuch Charges and Expences allowed as aforeſaid, for the Space of five Days after Demand ſhall be made, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Hector Munro and his Foreſaids, to levy ſuch Expences by Diſtreſs and Sale of the ſaid Ship, Bark, Lighter, Boat, or other Veſſel, or any of her Tackle, Apparel, or Furniture, or any Part thereof, rendering the Overplus, if any ſuch there be (after deducting the Charge of taking, keeping, and Sale of ſuch Diſtreſs), to the Owner or Owners, Maſter, Factor, or Agent, of ſuch Ship, Bark, Lighter, Boat, or Veſſel, whenever the ſame ſhall be demanded.

Obſtructions to be removed from the Harbour, at the Expence of Owners, &c.

XI. And be it alſo enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall not be lawful to, or in the Power of, any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall have landed or cauſed to be landed and laid any Goods or Merchandiſe, Timber, Wood of any Kind, Maſts, Yards, Pumps, Boats, Anchors, Cables, Caſks, Guns, Ballaſt, Paving-ſtones, Lime-ſtones, Slates, Soapers Waſte, Dung or Manure, or any other Thing (other than Materials for the neceſſary Repairs of the Piers and Quays, and for immediate Uſe in Shipping), upon any of the Piers and Quays or Landing-places within the ſaid Harbour, or in any of the Avenues leading to the ſaid Quays and Piers, or any of them, to continue or permit the ſame, or any Part thereof, to remain and lie thereon for any longer Time than forty-eight Hours; and that in all ſuch Caſes where the ſaid Goods, or others aforeſaid, ſhall have ſo continued beyond the ſaid Space of forty-eight Hours, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Hector Munro, and his Foreſaids, to remove or cauſe to be removed all ſuch Goods and other Things, as he or they ſhall ſo find lying, continuing, and being, on the ſaid Quays and Goods not to remain on the Piers beyond a limited Time.

Piers and other Places, above the said limited Time, to some Place or Places of Safety, and therein to detain and keep the same till Payment of the Charges of such Removal and Detention, and of such Consideration besides, to the said Hector Munro and his Foresaids, for their Trouble in and about the same, as the said Baron Baillie of Muirtoun shall think reasonable; and if such Charges and Expences shall not be paid within the Space of five Days after Demand made thereof by the said Hector Munro or his Foresaids, then, and in every such Case, he and they respectively are hereby authorised and required to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the said Goods and Chattels so respectively secured, and render the Overplus, if any be, to the Owner or Owners, the Charges of taking, keeping, and making Sale of such Distress, being deducted and allowed, and on the same being demanded.

Warehouses to be provided for depositing Goods, &c.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Hector Munro, and his Foresaids, shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, out of any of the Rates and Duties aforesaid, to rent, or hire by the Year, or otherwise, any convenient Warehouse, Yard, or other Place, for the receiving, safe keeping, or lodging, of such Goods, or other Things so to be removed from the Quays, and other Places, as aforesaid, or to inclose, erect, or build any such Yard, Warehouse, or other Buildings, on their own Ground, or on Ground to be purchased by them, as to them shall seem most meet and fitting.

Gunpowder, and other Combustibles to be removed off the Quays, XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Gunpowder, Tar, Pitch, Rosin, Hemp, Flax, Faggots, Furze, Brandy, or other Spirituous Liquors, Turpentine, Oil, Hay, Straw, Tallow, Grease, Shavings of Wood, or other such combustible Things, shall be suffered to be and remain on the Quays and Piers aforesaid, already constructed, or hereafter to be constructed, within the said Port and Harbour of Findhorn, or in any Part thereof, or upon the Deck of any Ship or Vessel in the said Piers or Quays, lying in the Harbour aforesaid for above the Space of twenty-four Hours after passing the Custom-house Officers; and that in case such Goods and Things cannot be conveniently removed or got off from such Quays, Place, or Places, by Day-light, that then, and in every such Case, the Owners of such Goods and Things shall be obliged, and are hereby required, to set and maintain, at their own Expence, a sufficient Number of careful, discreet, and sober Persons to guard and watch over the same, for such and so many Hours, according to the Season of the Year, as the said Hector Munro and his Foresaids shall signify and appoint; and in case the Owner or Owners of such Goods and other Things shall make Default herein, every such Owner or Owners, Master or Mate, shall forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, the Sum of five Pounds Sterling.

on Forfeiture of 5l.

Ships, &c may be removed from one Birth to another,

XIV. And be it also enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Hector Munro and his Foresaids, or such other Person or Persons as they shall authorise and appoint, shall and may, and he or they are hereby authorised and empowered, when and so often as he or they shall judge necessary, to remove, or cause to be removed, any Ship, Vessel, Bark, Lighter, or Boat, lying in any of the Entrances or Passages of the said Harbour of Findhorn, or at any Quay, Pier, and Breast, already built, or hereafter to be built by virtue of this Act, or in any other Part of the said Harbour, from the Birth or Lying-place, at which they shall respectively happen to be stationed or moored at the Time, to any other Birth or Lying-place, as he or they shall think proper; and in case the Master, Mate, or any other Person having and taking the Command and Charge of the said Ship, Bark, Vessel, Lighter, or Boat, shall, after Notice given him in Writing, or left in Writing on Board the Ship or Vessel intended to be removed twelve Hours before the said Removal by the said Hector Munro and his Foresaids, or by such other Person or Persons as they shall appoint, neglect or refuse to remove, or cause to be removed, during the first High-water or Tide after such Notice, such Ship, Vessel, Bark, Lighter, or Boat, from her said Birth, to such other Birth or Mooring-places as are or shall be appointed unto them by the said Hector Munro or his Foresaids, or by any other Person authorised by him or them, that then the said Hector Munro, or his Foresaids, or any other Person or Persons he or they shall order or appoint, shall have Power, and are hereby directed and empowered, immediately after such Notice, Neglect, or Refusal, to remove, or cause to be removed, such Ship, Vessel, Bark, Lighter, or Boat, lying as aforesaid, from their present Birth and Mooring-place, to such other Birth and Mooring-place as the said Hector Munro or his Foresaids shall judge proper; and that the Masters, Commanders, Owners, and Consignees of such Ship, Vessel, Bark, Lighter, or Boat, so to be removed as aforesaid, shall respectively pay to the said Hector Munro or his Foresaids, all such Costs and Charges as shall be reasonably expended in removing such Ship, Vessel, Bark, Lighter, or Boat, to be recovered, levied, and applied, in like Manner as the Forfeitures and Penalties imposed by this Act are herein-after ordered to be recovered, levied, and applied; and that every Master, Commander, Mate, or other Person taking upon himself the Command of any Ship, Vessel, Bark, Lighter, or Boat, or the Owner, Factor, Consignee, or Agent, or other Person or Persons whatsoever, who shall obstruct or hinder the Removal of any such Ship, Vessel, Bark, Lighter, or Boat, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of five Pounds Sterling.

at the Expence of the Owners.

Ships in Distress to be allowed a Preference,

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Ship or Vessel shall arrive or come into the said Harbour of Findhorn in Distress, or meet with any Misfortune in the Harbour aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Baron Baillie of the Barony of Muirtoun aforesaid, upon a Petition to him in Writing, by the Master, Commander, or Owner of such Ship or Vessel, or Owner of any Goods on Board such Ship or Vessel, and upon Proof being made before him of such Distress, to give a Preference to such Ship or Vessel being in Distress as aforesaid, both as to the Birth at the Piers and Quays, and as to the Course of discharging, to any other Ship or Vessel arrived before her in the Port aforesaid; and that every Master or Commander of any Ship or Vessel lying within the Harbour of Findhorn, who shall refuse or delay to comply with the Order of the said Baillie, in favour of the said Ship or Vessel in Distress as aforesaid, shall forfeit the Sum of five Pounds Sterling, to be levied and applied in the Manner herein-after directed.

XVI. And

XVI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said fifteenth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, it shall not be lawful to any Person or Persons to throw or empty any Ballast, Dust, Ashes, or Rubbish, Shingle, Stones, or other Things, into the said Harbour, or to dig and take away any Ballast, Shingle, Stones, or other Things, from within the same, to the Hurt or Prejudice of the said Harbour, or of the Works erected or to be erected for the Security and Accommodation of the same, or any Part thereof, under the Penalty of forty Shillings Sterling for every such Offence. Penalty on throwing Ballast, &c. into the Harbour.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Person or Persons, who shall or may hereafter have Occasion to throw or cast out any Ballast, from out of any Ship or other Vessel, upon any Quay, Pier, or Breast, or other Place, in or about the said Quays, Piers, Breasts, or other Works, made or to be made as before mentioned, belonging to the said Port and Harbour, shall not suffer the same to be and remain on the said Quays, Piers, Breasts, or other Places, but shall immediately after cast and carry away, or cause the same to be carted and carried away, to such Place or Places as the said Hector Munro and his Foresaids shall for such Purposes provide and appoint, on Pain of forfeiting, for every such Offence, the Sum of forty Shillings Sterling. Ballast, &c. to be removed off the Quays.

XVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Master or Owner of every Ship, Bark, Lighter, Boat, or other Vessel, lying or trading in the Harbour of Findhorn, shall be, and is hereby made answerable to the said Hector Munro and his Foresaids for the Amount or Value of any Damage or Mischief that shall be done by any of the Servants, Boatmen, Bargemen, or Watermen, on board the same, to any of the Piers, Quays, Breasts, or other Works, already constructed, or that shall be constructed by virtue of this Act, with full Costs of Suit, and that such Damages and Costs shall be sued for and recovered in Manner herein-after directed. Masters of Vessels answerable for Damages done by their Crews.

XIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever to pack, or cause to be packed, upon any of the Piers, Quays, or Breasts, built or to be built as aforesaid, any Herrings or other Fish, or to suffer Herrings and other Fish, which are packed, to lie upon the said Piers, Quays, and Breasts, longer than forty-eight Hours; and that after they have lain the said Space, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Hector Munro, or his Foresaids, to carry away the said Herrings, or other Fish, and lay them in a Cellar or Warehouse, at the Expence of the Owner or Proprietor, and to detain the said Herrings and other Fish, till the Charges of carrying them from the Piers, Quays, and Breasts, shall be satisfied, and the Cellar-rent paid. Fish not to lie on the Quays above a certain Time.

XX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Hector Munro and his Foresaids, or any Collector to be appointed by them for receiving any Part of the Rates and Duties granted by this Act, to prosecute and recover the several Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages, and Costs of Suit, by this present Act imposed, in all such Cases where the Sum to be recovered shall amount to five Pounds Sterling, or upwards, by Action, Bill, Complaint, or Information, within six Months after such Offence is committed, before any two or more Justices of the Peace, within whose Jurisdiction the Offender or Offenders shall reside or be apprehended; and that the said Justices of the Peace shall, and they are hereby empowered and required to proceed to the Trial of such Offences in a summary Way, and upon Conviction of the Offender or Offenders, by their own Confession, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, to award and give such Orders, Judgments, and Decrees, as to them shall seem most agreeable to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and that in Default of Payment of the several Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages, and Costs of Suit, herein-before enacted, which shall be awarded and ordered by the Justices of Peace, the Person or Persons who shall be convicted of any of the Offences before described, shall and may be sent, by the Justices of the Peace, to the Prison or House of Correction nearest to the Place where the Offender or Offenders shall be apprehended, and there to be kept to hard Labour for such Time (not exceeding six Months) as such Justices shall direct: and that the whole Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures aforesaid, which shall be recovered by the said Hector Munro and his Foresaids, or their Collectors, after Deduction of the necessary Charges of recovering the same, shall be applied for and towards the building, making, erecting, maintaining, and repairing, the Work or Works aforesaid, and to no other Use or Purpose whatsoever. Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered and applied.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every other Penalty, Fine, and Forfeiture imposed, and which shall be incurred by virtue of this Act, and not amounting to the Sum of five Pounds Sterling, shall and may be sued for and recovered by the said Hector Munro and his Foresaids, before any one Justice of the Peace within whose Jurisdiction the Offender or Offenders before mentioned shall be apprehended, or reside for the Time, by Action, Bill, Complaint, or Information made in that Behalf within six Months after such Offence shall have been committed; and that the Justice of Peace aforesaid shall have Power, and he is hereby empowered and required, to proceed to the Trial of such Offences summarily; and upon Conviction of the Offender or Offenders in any of the Ways before mentioned, to give such Orders, Judgments, and Decrees, as to him shall seem most agreeable to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and in Default of Payment of the several Fines, Forfeitures, and others last mentioned, to be awarded by the said Justice of the Peace, the Person which shall be convicted as aforesaid shall and may be sent, by the said Justice of the Peace, to the nearest Prison or House of Correction, for such Time as the said Justice shall direct, not exceeding three Months; and that the said pecuniary Penalties, not exceeding five Pounds Sterling, shall, after Deduction of the necessary Charge of recovering the same, be applied one Half thereof to the Use of the Informer, and the other Half to the Minister and Kirk Session of Kinloss, for the Use of the Poor of that Parish. How Penalties under 5 l. may be recovered.

XXII. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Justices of the Peace, or any of them, by whom such Judgment, Sentence, or Determination, shall be given, pronounced, or made, from Time to Time, when they see Cause, to mitigate, compound, or lessen, any of the Penalties or Forfeitures aforesaid, as he or they in his or their Discretion shall think fit, so as such Mitigation or Penalties and Forfeitures may be mitigated.

Compoſition do not extend to remit above one Moiety of the Penalty inflicted and directed to be levied by this Act, and that every ſuch Mitigation or Compoſition ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge for the Perſons offending reſpectively, for ſo much of the ſaid Penalties and Forfeitures as ſhall be ſo mitigated, leſſened, or remitted.

16th Geo III. Cap. 51, recited.

'II. And whereas by an Act, made in the sixteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, (intituled, 'An Act for granting further Time for allowing the Drawback upon the Exportation of Muslins and Callicoes 'imported by the East India Company in the Years one thousand seven hundred and seventy-three, and one thousand 'seven hundred and seventy-four; for allowing further Time to the said Company to expose to Sale such Bohea and 'Single Teas and Coffee as remained unsold on the fifth Day of April, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-'six; and also such Bohea Teas as shall be imported on or before a certain Time; and for allowing the Draw-'backs on the Exportation of such Teas and Coffee; and for granting further Time for allowing the Drawback 'on the Exportation of Coffee imported in the Ship Shrewsbury, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and 'seventy-three), it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That, for and during the Term of five Years, to 'be computed from the Time of Importation, there should be drawn back and allowed, for all Coffee 'which should be exported from this Kingdom as Merchandise to Ireland, or any of the British Colo-'nies or Plantations in America, to the Exporter or Exporters thereof, such and the same Drawbacks or 'Allowances, and under such Rules, Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as such Ex-'porter or Exporters would have been intitled to in case such Coffee had been exported within the 'Term of three Years from the Times of the Importation thereof: And whereas very small Quantities 'of Coffee are exported from this Kingdom to Ireland or the Plantations, the principal and chief of such 'Exportations being to Germany, and other Parts of Europe; and it is expedient that the said in Part re-'cited Act should extend to other foreign Parts;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, Part of the said Act, relating to the Drawback on the Exportation of Coffee to Ireland or America, extended to other foreign Parts.

That the said in part recited Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to allow the like Drawback for any Coffee which hath been exported from this Kingdom to any foreign Parts, since the fifth Day of April, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and which then remained in the said Company's Warehouses unsold, or which shall be hereafter so exported to any foreign Parts within the Term of five Years from the Importation thereof, under the same Rules and Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as the former Drawback was allowed; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. V.

An Act for granting Relief to the Captors of Prizes, with respect to bringing and landing certain French Prizes in this Kingdom.

Preamble; reciting his Majesty's Order in Council of July 29, 1778.

'WHEREAS his Majesty, by Order in Council, dated the twenty-ninth Day of July, one thou-'sand seven hundred and seventy-eight, was pleased to order that General Reprisals be granted 'against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects, of the French King, and that as well all his Majesty's Fleets and 'Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned, by Letters of Marque or General 'Reprisals or otherwise, by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great 'Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods, belonging to the French King or his 'Subjects, or others inhabiting within any of the Territories of the French King, and bring the same to 'Judgment in any of his Majesty's Courts of Admiralty within his Majesty's Dominions: And whereas 'it is expedient that the several Provisions of an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, (intituled, 'An Act for the Relief of the Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in 'this Kingdom), should be extended in like Manner to all Prize Goods which have been, or may be, taken 'from the French, in pursuance of his Majesty's said Order in Council;' may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, and all the Articles, Clauses, and Provisions therein, shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all Prize Goods which have been taken from the French since the twenty-ninth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, or which shall hereafter be taken, during the Continuance of the present Hostilities with France, by any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or by any private or other Ship or Vessel having Commission or other Authority from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, for the Time being, for that Purpose.

18 Geo. III. Cap. 15, extended to Prizes taken from the French since July 29, 1778, &c.

Such Prizes, after Condemnation, to be subject to the same Duties, &c. as other Prizes.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Ships or Vessels which shall have been, or which shall be so taken as aforesaid, shall, upon Condemnation as lawful Prize, be subject and liable to the same Duties, Customs, Restrictions, and Regulations, and shall be intitled to the same Privileges and Advantages, in all Respects, to which Ships and Vessels taken and condemned as Prize are subject and liable to, and intitled to, by any Law or Statute of this Realm.

Prize Goods brought into Ireland to be subject to the same Customs, &c. as if imported there as Merchandize.

III. Provided always, That nothing contained in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament made in this Kingdom, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to exempt any Ships, Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, which shall be taken as Prize and brought into the Kingdom of Ireland, from the Payment of any Customs or Duties, or from being subject to such Restrictions and Regulations to which the same now are or may be liable, by virtue of any Law or Statute made in that Kingdom, in case the same had been imported there as Merchandize in the ordinary Course of Trade, and not brought in as Prize.

IV. And

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Tea, or other East India Goods, which are or may be liable to any Duties ad valorem, which shall be taken and condemned as Prize, shall be exported from this Kingdom to Ireland, the Certificates, Cocquets, and other Documents, shall express the Price or Value at which such Goods were sold by the Captors or their Agents upon Condemnation; and such Cocquets and other Documents shall have the same Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, upon the Importation of such Goods into Ireland, as if the said Goods had been imported by, and sold at, the Sales of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies.

Directions relating to East India Goods which shall be taken as Prize and exported to Ireland.

CAP. VI.

An Act to authorize the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, for the Time being, to order any Court martial, which may be appointed on the Charge of Vice-Admiral Sir Hugh Palliser against the Honourable Admiral Augustus Keppel, to be holden on Shore.

'WHEREAS by the Laws now in being, Courts-martial for the Trial of Officers, Mariners, Soldiers, and other Persons in or belonging to his Majesty's Fleet, are to be holden on Ship-board, and no Member of such Courts-martial after the Trial is begun can go on Shore until Sentence be given, but is to remain on Board the Ship in which the said Court first assembles, except in Case of Sickness: And whereas the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, have intimated an Intention to order a Court-martial, on a Charge exhibited by Vice-Admiral Sir Hugh Palliser against the Honourable Augustus Keppel, Admiral and Commander in Chief of a Fleet of his Majesty's Ships of War, for the Trial of the said Admiral on that Charge: And whereas, by Reason of his infirm State of Health, the necessary Attendance of the said Admiral on such Court-martial may greatly endanger his Life;' may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, for the Time being, to order that, after such Court-martial shall have been duly assembled and constituted, and the Members thereof, and the Judge Advocate, duly sworn, according to the Laws now in being, the said Court shall be adjourned to, and holden in, such convenient Place on Shore, as to the said Lord High Admiral, or the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, shall seem necessary or expedient; and such Court-martial is and shall hereby be authorized and required to adjourn to such Place accordingly, any Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Preamble.

After the Court-martial for the Trial of Admiral Keppel shall have been constituted and sworn, it shall adjourn to such convenient Place on Shore as shall be appointed by the Commissioners of the Admiralty.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That, after such Adjournment shall have taken place, no Member of such Court-martial shall separate and depart from the House in which such Court-martial shall be directed to be held until the Trial is ended, except in case of Sickness, to be judged of by the said Court, upon Pain of being cashiered from his Majesty's Service; and that the said Court-martial shall be holden and proceed in all other Respects in the same Manner and Form as if the same should continue on board the Ship in which it is originally to be assembled.

No Member of the Court-martial to depart from the House in which it shall be held during the Trial, except in case of Sickness.

CAP. VII.

An Act for making the Church or Chapel erected by Charles Roe Esquire, in the Town of Macclesfield, in the County Palatine of Chester, a perpetual Cure and Benefice, and for endowing the same, and vesting the Right of Nomination or Presentation thereof in the said Charles Roe, his Heirs and Assigns, and for other Purposes.

'WHEREAS Charles Roe, of Macclesfield, in the Parish of Prestbury and County Palatine of Chester, Esquire, hath, at his own Expence, erected a Church or Chapel in the said Town of Macclesfield, and fitted up the same, in a proper, decent, and commodious Manner, for the Performance of Divine Service, according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of England; and hath also allotted, set out, and inclosed, a Piece of Ground (which hath been already consecrated) as and for a Cemetery or Burying-ground belonging to the said Church or Chapel, containing Eighty Yards in Length, and Seventy Yards in Breadth, Part of a certain Field commonly called The Marley Bank, the Property of the said Charles Roe: And whereas the said Charles Roe is willing and desirous to endow the said Church or Chapel with the Sum of one hundred Pounds per Annum, to the Minister, and proper Salaries to the Clerk, Organist, Sexton, and other proper Officers and Assistants, to be paid out of the Rents arising, or to arise, from the Seats, Pews, or Sitting-places, in the said Church or Chapel; and also to advance and pay the Sum of two hundred Pounds for the Purpose of augmenting the Maintenance of the Ministers of Rainow and Saltersford Chapels, within the said Parish of Prestbury, or of augmenting the Maintenance of the Minister of either of the said Chapels singly, or of any other Chapel or Chapels within the said Parish, according to the Discretion of the Vicar of Prestbury for the Time being, in the Manner directed by, or in pursuance of, an Act of Parliament made in the second and third Years of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy: And whereas Charles Legh, of Adlington, in the said Parish of Prestbury, Esquire, the Patron, and Peter Meyer Clerk, the Vicar of the Parish Church of Prestbury aforesaid, by and with the Preamble; recting that Charles Roe Esquire hath built a Church in Macclesfield, and inclosed a Burying-ground for the same, &c.

'Conſent of Beilby Lord Biſhop of Cheſter, the proper Ordinary of the ſame, have, in Conſideration of 'the Premiſes aforeſaid, conſented and agreed that the ſaid Charles Roe, his Heirs and Aſſigns, ſhall, from 'and after the Conſecration of the ſaid new Church or Chapel, have the ſole Right of nominating or pre- 'ſenting a proper Perſon, to be from Time to Time licenſed by the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Cheſter, and his 'Succeſſors, to perform Divine Service therein, according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the Church 'of England; and alſo of appointing Church or Chapel Wardens, Clerks, Organiſts, Sextons, and 'other proper Officers and Aſſiſtants, for the Service of the ſaid Church or Chapel: And whereas the en- 'dowing the ſaid Church or Chapel, according to the pious and charitable Intention of the ſaid Charles 'Roe, will be of great Utility to the Inhabitants of the ſaid Town of Macclesfield, and tend to promote 'the Worſhip of Almighty God; and it is juſt and reaſonable, that the Right of Nomination or Preſenta- 'tion of the Miniſter, and of appointing other Officers for officiating in the ſaid Church or Chapel, 'ſhould be veſted in the ſaid Charles Roe, his Heirs and Aſſigns, yet the ſame cannot be effectually done, 'and firmly eſtabliſhed, without the Aid and Authority of Parliament:' Therefore your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubject, the ſaid Charles Roe, doth moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Church or Chapel ſhall be ſet apart, conſecrated, and dedicated, to and for the Service of Almighty God, as and for a Place of Divine Worſhip according to the Uſage of the Church of England, for ever; and ſhall, when and as ſoon as the ſame ſhall be ſo conſecrated and dedicated, be, and is hereby declared to be, from thenceforth, a perpetual Cure and Benefice, and ſhall be called by the Name of Chriſt Church or Chapel, in the Town of Macclesfield.

Church or Chapel to be conſecrated, &c. and made a perpetual Cure.

Right of Preſentation veſted in Mr. Roe, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the perpetual Right of Nomination or Preſentation of, in, and to the ſaid Church or Chapel ſhall, immediately after the Conſecration thereof, be veſted in, and ſettled upon, the ſaid Charles Roe, his Heirs and Aſſigns, for ever; and it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Charles Roe, his Heirs or Aſſigns, immediately after the ſaid Church or Chapel ſhall be conſecrated, to nominate and appoint a Miniſter, duly qualified according to Law, to officiate and perform Divine Service therein; and that ſuch Miniſter ſhall, after ſuch Nomination and Appointment (and a Licence obtained from the Lord Biſhop of Cheſter for the Time being, for performing Divine Service in the ſaid Church or Chapel), be deemed and taken, by virtue of this Act, to be incorporated and made one Body Politic and Corporate, by the Name of The Miniſter or Curate of Chriſt Church or Chapel, in the Town of Macclesfield, in the County Palatine of Cheſter, and by that Name ſhall have perpetual Succeſſion, and be enabled to ſue and be ſued in all Courts of this Realm; and the ſaid Church or Chapel ſhall be veſted in the ſaid Miniſter or Curate ſo to be firſt nominated and appointed, and licenſed, and his Succeſſors Miniſters or Curates of the ſaid Church or Chapel, for ever, in the ſame Manner as the Freehold and Inheritance of a Pariſh Church is by the Laws of this Realm veſted in the Incumbent thereof; and the ſaid Church or Chapel, and the Miniſter or Curate thereof for the Time being, and alſo the Church or Chapel Wardens thereof for the Time being, to be reſpectively appointed in Manner herein-after directed, ſhall be under and ſubject to the ordinary Juriſdiction of the Biſhop of Cheſter, and his Succeſſors, and ſhall be viſited in ſuch Manner as other Churches and Chapels in the Dioceſe of Cheſter are viſited.

Miniſter incorporated, and the Church or Chapel veſted in him.

Church or Chapel to be ſubject to the Juriſdiction of the Biſhop of Cheſter.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to make any new Pariſh, or to affect or alter any Payments or Aſſeſſments, either parliamentary or parochial.

Not to be deemed a new Pariſh, nor to affect any Aſſeſſments.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Miniſter or Curate of the ſaid Church or Chapel for the Time being ſhall himſelf, every Sunday Morning and Evening, read in the ſaid Church or Chapel the Prayers preſcribed in the Book of Common Prayer or Public Liturgy of the Church of England; and ſhall on every Day in Paſſion Week, and on every Tueſday and Thurſday weekly during the whole Year, and on every other Day which is ſet apart for Public Worſhip by the Church of England, in like Manner read, in the ſaid Church or Chapel, the Morning Prayers preſcribed in the ſaid Book of Common Prayer for ſuch Days reſpectively; and ſhall on every Sunday throughout the Year, as well in the Morning as in the Evening (except in the Mornings of ſuch Sundays on which the Sacrament ſhall be adminiſtered in the ſaid Church or Chapel), and on every Chriſtmas-day, Good-friday, and Aſcenſion-day, in the Morning, after Divine Service performed, preach a Sermon in the ſaid Church or Chapel; and alſo on every Eaſter-ſunday, Whitſunday, and Chriſtmas-day, and alſo upon the laſt Sunday in every Month (except in the Month of December, and in the Months in which Eaſter-day and Whitſunday ſhall happen), adminiſter the Holy Sacrament in the ſaid Church or Chapel; and if the ſaid Miniſter or Curate ſhall be prevented or hindered by Sickneſs, or any other reaſonable Cauſe, from performing the Duties above reſpectively required and enjoined, or any of them, then and in any ſuch Caſe he ſhall find and procure ſome other able Miniſter or Curate to do and perform the ſame reſpectively.

Duty of the Miniſter or Curate.

V. And be it further enacted, That in caſe the Miniſter or Curate for the Time being ſhall, at any Time after being appointed thereto, withdraw or abſent himſelf, or ſhall not reſide within the Town of Macclesfield aforeſaid, and do the Duty himſelf of the ſaid Church or Chapel, either by Means of having any other Preferment in the Church, or on any other Account or Pretence whatſoever, for more than the Space of ſix Weeks at a Time, or more than the Space of Three Calendar Months in any one Year, (Sickneſs or other unavoidable Cauſe of Abſence excepted), or if, during ſuch his Abſence or Sickneſs, the ſaid Church or Chapel ſhall not be duly ſerved and ſupplied, by the ſaid Miniſter or Curate's neglecting to procure ſome other fit and proper Miniſter or Miniſters to ſupply his Place, or do Duty therein; and if ſuch wilful Non-reſidence, beyond the Time allowed, or ſuch Neglect as aforeſaid, be proved by ſufficient Evidence, to the Satisfaction of the Lord Biſhop of Cheſter for the Time being, then, and from thenceforth, his Cure ſhall become and be deemed vacant and void, and the ſaid Charles Roe, his Heirs or Aſſigns, ſhall nominate or preſent ſome other fit and proper Perſon (to be licenſed in Manner aforeſaid) in the Room or Place of the Perſon ſo abſenting himſelf, or being guilty of ſuch Neglect as aforeſaid; and ſuch Perſon ſo to be nominated or preſented, and licenſed, ſhall be ſubject and liable to the like Diſability for Non-reſidence, or being guilty of ſuch Neglect as aforeſaid, as the Perſon or Perſons, he or they, ſhall from Time to Time ſucceed, was or were ſubject and liable to, any Licence or Diſpenſation to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Miniſter abſenting, or neglecting his Duty, Cure to be deemed vacant, and be filled up by Mr. Roe, &c.

If Vacancy not filled up in a certain Time by Mr. Roe, &c. the Right of Nomination to lapſe in the uſual Order.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in caſe the ſaid Church or Chapel ſhall be ſuffered to remain void for the Space of ſix Calendar Months without any Nomination or Preſentation thereunto by virtue of this Act as aforeſaid, then, and in ſuch Caſe, the Nomination or Preſentation to the ſaid Church or Chapel ſhall lapſe to the Ordinary, and from him to the Metropolitan, and from him to the Crown, according to the Courſe of Law in Preſentative Livings or Benefices; and the Right of Nomination or Preſentation to the ſaid Church or Chapel ſhall and may be recovered, and the Incumbency thereof may and ſhall ceaſe and be determined, in like Manner as the Preſentation to, or Incumbency in, any Vicarage Preſentative may now be recovered or determined.

No Marriages or Burying-places in the new Church.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Marriages ſhall be had or ſolemnized, nor ſhall any Graves or Burying-places be made or allowed, within the ſaid new Church or Chapel (except for the Interment of the Family of the ſaid Charles Roe, his Heirs and Aſſigns).

Chriſtenings and Burials to be regiſtered in the old Chapel.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Chriſtenings in the ſaid new Church or Chapel, and all Burials in the Church or Chapel Yard, Cemetery, or Burying-ground belonging thereto, ſhall be regiſtered as uſual in the Regiſter of the old Chapel, in the ſaid Town of Macclesfield.

Double Fees for Churchings and Burials;

'IX. And, in order that the ſaid new Church or Chapel may not prejudice the old Chapel in the ſaid 'Town of Macclesfield, nor leſſen the Revenues thereof;' be it further enacted, That if any Woman or Women ſhall chuſe to be churched in the ſaid new Church or Chapel, or if the Repreſentative or Repreſentatives of any deceaſed Perſon or Perſons ſhall be deſirous of having the Corpſe of ſuch deceaſed Perſon or Perſons buried in the ſaid new Church or Chapel Yard, Cemetery, or Burying-ground, by the Miniſter or Curate thereof, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall pay to the Miniſter or Curate of the ſaid new Church or Chapel double the Fees which are uſually and of Right ought to be paid for every ſuch Churching or Burial at the ſaid old Chapel; and the ſaid Miniſter or Curate, and his Succeſſors, ſhall, from Time to Time, collect and receive ſuch double Fees, and account for and pay one Moiety or Half Part thereof to the Miniſter, Clerk, and Sexton, of the old Chapel in the ſaid Town of Macclesfield for the Time being, to be divided among them in ſuch Shares and Proportions as the Fees payable at the ſaid old Chapel are divided; and the remaining Moiety ſhall be divided between the Miniſter or Curate, Clerk, and Sexton, of the ſaid new Church or Chapel, in ſuch Shares and Proportions as Fees of the like Nature, and for the like Services, are uſually or of Right ought to be divided among the Miniſter, Clerk, and Sexton, of the ſaid old Chapel: And in caſe of any Refuſal or Neglect of the Miniſter or Curate of the ſaid new Church or Chapel, to pay the ſaid ſeveral Fees weekly, as he ſhall receive the ſame, to the ſaid Miniſter, Clerk, and Sexton, of the ſaid old Chapel, upon Demand, the ſame ſhall and may be recovered by the ſaid Miniſter, Clerk, and Sexton reſpectively, of the ſaid old Chapel for the Time being, in ſuch Manner as any Surplice-fees demanded and taken at the ſaid old Chapel may be recovered, or by Action of Debt in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or within the County Palatine of Cheſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

One-half of which to be accounted for to the Miniſter, &c. of the old Chapel.

How to be recovered.

Rates for Burial in the new Burying-ground.

X. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Ground ſhall be broken up or opened within any Part of the ſaid Church or Chapel Yard, Cemetery, or Burying-ground (excepting in that Part which has been, and now is, ſet apart and appropriated for the burying of the Poor, being one-fourth Part of the Whole of the ſaid Church or Chapel Yard), there ſhall be paid to the ſaid Charles Roe, his Heirs or Aſſigns, the Sum of two Pounds two Shillings for every Piece of ſuch Ground containing Eight Feet in Length, and five Feet in Breadth.

Church or Chapel Wardens to be appointed by Mr. Roe, his Heirs, &c.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Charles Roe, his Heirs and Aſſigns, and they are hereby authoriſed and impowered, upon, or immediately after the Conſecration of the ſaid Church or Chapel, to nominate and appoint two ſuch Perſons as he or they ſhall think fit, to be and act as Church or Chapel Wardens thereof, until Eaſter Week next after ſuch Appointment, and from thenceforth, upon every Eaſter Monday yearly for ever, in like Manner to nominate and appoint two ſuch other Perſons as aforeſaid, to be and act as Church or Chapel Wardens for the Time being, of the ſaid Church or Chapel; and the reſpective Perſons to be nominated and appointed in Manner above mentioned, being duly ſworn according to Law, ſhall be and act as Church or Chapel Wardens of the ſaid Church or Chapel, and ſhall continue in the ſaid Office for one whole Year after ſuch reſpective Appointments, and until others ſhall be appointed and ſworn in their Room or Stead.

Clerk, Organiſt, &c. to be appointed by Mr. Roe, &c.

XII And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Charles Roe, his Heirs and Aſſigns, to nominate and appoint ſuch Perſons as he or they ſhall think fit, to officiate as Clerk, Organiſt, and Sexton, in the ſaid Church or Chapel, and ſuch other Aſſiſtants or Perſons as he or they ſhall think neceſſary for the Service of the ſaid Church or Chapel, with ſuch Salaries or Stipends as the ſaid Charles Roe, his Heirs or Aſſigns, ſhall think proper, and alſo, from Time to Time, to remove ſuch Clerk, Organiſt, Sexton, or other Perſons reſpectively, upon juſt and reaſonable Cauſe; and the Salaries or Stipends of ſuch Clerk, Organiſt, Sexton, or other Perſons ſo to be appointed, ſhall be paid by the Church or Chapel Wardens to be appointed as aforeſaid, out of the Money ariſing by the Rents of Pews or Seats in the ſaid Church or Chapel, in Manner herein-after mentioned.

Rents of Seats to the Amount of 180 l. per Ann. veſted in the Church or Chapel Wardens; the reſt may be let or ſold by Mr. Roe, &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That ſo many of the Pews or Seats in the ſaid Church or Chapel ſhall be, and are hereby declared to be, veſted in the ſaid Church or Chapel Wardens, as being let, the Rents ariſing therefrom ſhall be ſufficient to produce the Sum of one hundred and eighty Pounds per Annum, in Truſt, for paying the Salaries or Stipends to the ſaid Miniſter or Curate, Clerk, Organiſt, Sexton, and other Perſons to be appointed as aforeſaid, and other the Purpoſes in this Act mentioned; and the reſt of the the Pews or Seats in the ſaid Church or Chapel ſhall and may be let or ſold to ſuch Perſons as the ſaid Charles Roe, his Heirs or Aſſigns, ſhall from Time to Time think proper.

Seats for the Rector and Wardens to be reſerved.

XIV. Provided nevertheleſs, That the Pew or Seat in the Body of the ſaid Church or Chapel, marked or numbered with the Figures 61, ſhall belong to, and be the Property of, the Miniſter or Curate of the ſaid Church or Chapel for the Time being; and the Pew or Seat in the Body of the ſaid Church or Chapel, marked or numbered with the Figures 74, ſhall belong to, and be the Property of, the Church or Chapel Wardens of the ſaid Church or Chapel for the Time being.

Rents of Pews to be entered in a Book.

XV. Provided always, that the ſeveral Rents to be fixed and aſcertained for and upon every ſuch Pew or Seat to be let as aforeſaid, ſhall be entered in a Book to be kept for that Purpoſe, and ſubſcribed by the ſaid Church or Chapel Wardens for the Time being.

Rents of Seats to be paid half-yearly:

On Failure thereof, how to be recovered.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the Rents to be reſerved and made payable to the ſaid Church or Chapel Wardens, and the ſaid Charles Roe, his Heirs and Aſſigns, reſpectively, for the Pews or Seats in the ſaid Church or Chapel, ſhall be paid by two equal half-yearly Payments; that is to ſay, at Chriſtmas, and Midſummer; and in caſe the Rent of any ſuch Pew or Seat ſhall happen to be behind and unpaid by the Space of thirty Days next after the ſame ſhall become due, then the Church or Chapel Wardens for the Time being, and the ſaid Charles Roe, his Heirs or Aſſigns, reſpectively, ſhall and may either enter upon ſuch Pew or Seat, Pews or Seats, and let and diſpoſe of the ſame to any other Perſon or Perſons, or elſe may ſue for and recover the Rent ſo in Arrear by Action of Debt, or by Action upon the Caſe, for the Uſe and Occupation of ſuch Pew or Seat, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or within the ſaid County Palatine of Cheſter.

Wardens to pay Salaries to Miniſter, &c. to provide Books, Bread and Wine, &c. for the Sacrament, and to repair the Church.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That for the Maintenance of the Miniſter or Curate, for the Time being, of the ſaid Church or Chapel, the Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall be reſpectively appointed to act as Church or Chapel Wardens thereof, for the Time being, in purſuance of this Act, and their Succeſſors, ſhall, by and out of the Rents of the Pews or Seats ſo veſted in them as aforeſaid, yearly and every Year well and truly pay, or cauſe to be paid, to ſuch Miniſter or Curate, and his Succeſſors, for the Time being, the Sum of one hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, without any Deduction or Abatement whatſoever, for Taxes or otherwiſe, by even and equal Portions, at the Feaſts of the Nativity of our Saviour Chriſt, and Saint John the Baptiſt, the firſt Payment thereof to be made at and upon the Feaſt Day of the Nativity of our Saviour Chriſt, which ſhall happen next after the Conſecration of the ſaid Church or Chapel; and the ſaid Church or Chapel Wardens ſhall alſo pay to the Clerk, Organiſt, Sexton, and other neceſſary Officers and Attendants of the ſaid Church or Chapel, for the Time being, their reſpective Salaries or Stipends, and likewiſe furniſh Books and Surplices, provide Bread and Wine for the Holy Euchariſt, with other Things proper and neceſſary, and ſupport and keep in Repair the ſaid Church or Chapel, and the Yard thereof, with the Walls, Gates, and other Appurtenances thereto, and alſo the Organ, Clock, Bells, and other Things, to the ſaid Church or Chapel appertaining, or to appertain, and to do and perform all other Matters whatſoever which may be neceſſary or expedient for and concerning the Management, Support, and good Order, of the ſaid Church or Chapel.

If Salaries are not paid within 30 Days after due, how they may be recovered.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Default ſhall be made in the Payment of the ſaid yearly Sum of one hundred Pounds, or any Part thereof, to the ſaid Miniſter or Curate for the Time being, as aforeſaid, or of the Salaries or Stipends to the ſaid Clerk, Organiſt, Sexton, or other neceſſary Officers or Attendants of the ſaid Church or Chapel, for the Time being, by the Space of thirty Days next after any of the Days of Payment whereon the ſame ought to be paid, then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Miniſter or Curate, Clerk, Organiſt, Sexton, or other Perſon or Perſons as aforeſaid, their Executors and Adminiſtrators reſpectively, to ſue for and recover the ſame, with full Coſts of Suit againſt ſuch Church or Chapel Warden or Wardens for the Time being, and his and their Succeſſors, by Action of Debt, or upon the Caſe, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or within the ſaid County Palatine of Cheſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

Not more than Half a Year's Arrears to be recovered from ſucceeding Wardens.

XIX. Provided always, That no Arrears of the ſaid yearly Sum of one hundred Pounds, or of any of the Salaries or Stipends as aforeſaid, to be had and recovered againſt any ſucceeding Church or Chapel Warden or Wardens, which ſhall have accrued in the Time of his or their Predeceſſors, ſhall exceed in the Whole one half-yearly Payment of the ſaid yearly Sum of one hundred Pounds, or of the ſaid yearly Salaries or Stipends reſpectively; and that every Action for the Recovery thereof be commenced againſt ſuch ſucceeding Church or Chapel Warden or Wardens, within the Space of Six Calendar Months next after his or their firſt entering upon, and being ſworn into, the ſaid Office of Church or Chapel Warden or Wardens.

Wardens to keep an Account of Receipts and Diſburſements;

XXV. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be deemed and taken to be a public Act; and all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons whomſoever, are hereby required to take Notice thereof as ſuch, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

CAP. VIII.

An Act for the Regulation of his Majeſty's Marine Forces while on Shore.

CAP. IX.

An Act for allowing the Importation of fine organized Italian Thrown Silk in any Ships or Veſſels, for a limited Time.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the Second Year of the Reign of their late Majeſties King William and Queen Mary (intituled, An Act for the diſcouraging the Importation of Thrown Silk), amongſt other Things in the ſaid Act contained, the bringing in of Thrown Silk of the Growth or Production of Italy is prohibited, unleſs imported in ſuch Ships or Veſſels, and navigated in ſuch Manner, as in and by an Act, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increaſing of Shipping and Navigation), is directed and allowed, and brought from ſome of the Ports of thoſe Countries or Places whereof the ſame is the Growth or Production, and which ſhall come directly by Sea, and not otherwiſe: And whereas there is at preſent very great and immediate Want of organized Thrown Silk from Italy, for the Uſe and Purpoſe of Warp in the Silk Manufacture, without which the Manufacture cannot be carried on, and many Thouſands of Manufacturers muſt be unemployed;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons to import or bring into this Kingdom from any Port or Place, or in any Ship or Veſſel whatſoever, until the Expiration of Twenty Days after the Commencement of the next Seſſion of Parliament, organized Thrown Silk of the Growth or Production of Italy, any Thing contained in the ſaid recited Acts, or any other Act, to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Italian organized Thrown Silk may be imported in any Veſſel, and from any Place, for a limited Time.

Certain Kinds of Thrown Silk to which the Liberty of Importation hereby given, ſhall not extend.

II. Provided always, That this Act, nor any Thing herein contained, ſhall extend to give Liberty to import any Italian Thrown Silk that ſhall be coarſer than a Sort thereof known and diſtinguiſhed by the Name of Third Bolonia, nor any Sorts of Silks commonly called Tram, of the Growth of Italy, nor any other Thrown Silk of the Growth or Production of Turkey, Perſia, Eaſt India, or China, under the Penalty of forfeiting all ſuch Thrown Silks as ſhall be brought over and imported contrary to the Purport, true Intent, and Meaning of this Act; One Moiety whereof to the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons who shall seize, inform, or sue for the same; to be recovered by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed.

All organized Thrown Silk imported by virtue of this Act to be brought to the Custom-house at London.

'III. And, for the better and more effectual Execution of this Act, and to prevent the Importation 'of any Sort of Thrown Silk not organized,' be it further enacted and declared, That all such organized Thrown Silk as is allowed to be imported by this Act, wheresoever landed, shall be brought to his Majesty's Custom-house at London, to the Intent that no other Sort of Thrown Silk may be imported than that allowed by this Act, under the Penalty of forfeiting all such Thrown Silk as shall be imported contrary to the Purport, true Intent, and Meaning of this Act; One Moiety whereof shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons who shall seize, inform, or sue for the same; to be recovered by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed; any Thing to the contrary hereof in any-wise notwithstanding.

CAP. X.

An Act for repealing an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the more easy and better recruiting of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines; and for substituting other and more effectual Provisions in the Place thereof.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS, for recruiting his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, it is necessary that a new 'Supply of Men be forthwith raised, in the most speedy and effectual Manner, within the King-'dom of Great Britain, by common Consent and Grant in Parliament: And whereas it is highly expe-'dient that further and other Provisions be made for that Purpose than those contained in an Act made in 'the last Session of Parliament (intituled, An Act for the more easy and better recruiting of his Majesty's 'Land Forces and Marines);' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the said recited Act shall be, and the same is hereby repealed; and that within and throughout the several and respective Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque-ports, Parishes, Towns, and Places, of Great Britain, a speedy and effectual Levy of able-bodied Men to serve his Majesty as Soldiers, shall be forthwith had, made, practised and put in Execution, according to the Rules and Directions of this present Act.

18 Geo. III. Cap. 53, recited, and repealed.

A levy of able-bodied Men to be made throughout Great Britain.

Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of the Land Tax, and Magistrates of Corporations, and Burghs, to put this Act in Execution;

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace of every County, Shire, Stewartry, Riding, Liberty, or Place, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, as aforesaid; and all and every the Persons who were named or otherwise appointed to be Commissioners for putting in Execution an Act of Parliament, made and passed at Westminster, in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five), or any subsequent Act or Acts of Parliament for that Purpose, within the several and respective Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque-ports, Towns, and Places, therein particularly expressed, who are still living, and have duly qualified themselves according to the said Acts, or shall qualify themselves according to this present Act in that Behalf, shall be Commissioners for putting in Execution this present Act, and the Powers therein contained, within and for the same Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque-ports, Towns, and Places, of Great Britain, for which they were so named and appointed respectively, and that all and every the acting Justices of the Peace and Magistrates of Corporations and Burghs in any Part of Great Britain, who are or shall be acting in any of his Majesty's Commissions of the Peace, or in the Magistracy of such Corporation or Burgh, at any Time during the Execution of this Act, although not specially named or appointed Commissioners by the said Act or Acts, shall be likewise Commissioners for putting in Execution this present Act, and all the Powers therein contained, within the Limits of their Commissions and Jurisdiction respectively: All which Commissioners, by this Act intrusted with the Execution of the same, are hereby strictly enjoined and required to use their utmost Care and Diligence that his Majesty's Service in making such Levies as aforesaid be not disappointed or neglected.

and to take Care that his Majesty's Service be not neglected.

High Sheriffs, &c. upon Notice from the Secretary at War, to issue Precepts for summoning the Commissioners to meet, and qualify themselves.

Notice of the Day of Meeting to be sent to the War-office, &c.

Commissioners to appoint the Times and Places of their succeeding Meetings, and issue

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Sheriff of every County, or his Deputy, immediately upon receiving Notice for that Purpose from the Secretary at War, shall send Precepts to the respective Bailiffs, or others who are usually employed to summon Juries, although in Liberties out of the ordinary Jurisdiction of the said Sheriff, directing them to summon the several Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax, in their respective Divisions and Liberties, to attend at the usual Place of Meeting in every Division, upon a certain Day in the said Precepts named (such Day not to be named within Six Days after the Date of the said Precepts), within the Time limited by the Secretary at War (Notice of which Day shall be sent to the War-office and Admiralty upon the issuing of the Precepts by the Sheriff), to qualify themselves for the Execution of this Act; and the said Commissioners shall then and there appoint the several Times and Places for the succeeding Meetings, in each of their respective Subdivisions, during the Continuance of this Act, and shall have Power to adjourn, from Time to Time, as they shall find convenient; and the said Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax, at such their First Meeting, or at some other Meeting to be held as soon as it can be conveniently, shall issue their Precepts to the High Constables, Headboroughs, or other proper Officers, for the respective Hundreds, Lathes, Rapes, Wapentakes, or other Subdivisions, within the said Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, or Divisions, as aforesaid; which Precepts shall contain an Account of the Times and Places appointed for the succeeding Meetings, and shall be returnable on a Day therein to be named; named; and such High Constables, Headboroughs, or other proper Officers, are hereby required forthwith to signify the Times and Places so appointed for such Meetings to the several Commissioners residing within their respective Districts; and the said Commissioners assembled at such first Meeting shall also give Notice of the Time and Place of all and every succeeding Meeting, to be appointed as aforesaid, to the Secretary at War, or to the Military Officer or Officers whom they shall have learned, by Notice from the Secretary at War, or Secretary to the Admiralty, to be directed to attend this Service.

Precepts for that Purpose to the High Constables, &c.

and to give Notice thereof to such Military Officers as shall attend this Service.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That all reasonable Charges or Expences incurred by any Sheriff, or Deputy Sheriff, in the Execution of this Act, shall be allowed in the Accounts of such Sheriff at the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, or repaid by the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being.

Sheriffs to be allowed the Expences incurred in the Execution of this Act.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the second Meeting, appointed to be held in any Subdivision, shall be at so great a Distance of Time as to render it inconvenient to issue Warrants for bringing Persons before such Commissioners at the second Meeting, then the Commissioners of such Subdivision respectively may adjourn themselves to some convenient Day previous to such second Meeting, in order to issue their Warrants as aforesaid.

Proviso relating to Second Subdivision Meetings.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, at their First General Meeting assembled, to appoint a Clerk to attend them then, and at each of their subsequent Meetings, and for the Commissioners of the several Subdivisions to appoint a Clerk to attend them at their respective Meetings in each Subdivision wherein Soldiers are to be inlisted, as herein after mentioned; and such respective Clerks, as a Reward for their Labour and Pains in the Execution of this Act, shall be intitled to, and shall receive, for every Man who shall be listed in pursuance of this Act, at the Meetings whereon they shall respectively attend, the Sum of two Shillings of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be paid by the respective Officers who shall receive such new raised Men respectively.

Commissioners, at their First Meeting, may appoint a Clerk; who shall receive 2 s. for every Man listed at their respective Meetings.

VII Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Person or Persons, hereby appointed to be a Commissioner or Commissioners for any County, Riding, City, Borough, Cinque-port, or Place, of England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed (except such as duly qualified themselves to be Justices of the Peace, or Commissioners for executing the said Act for the Land Tax made and passed in the fifteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, or any subsequent Act or Acts of Parliament for that Purpose), shall be capable, in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, of acting as a Commissioner or Commissioners in the Execution of this Act, or executing any of the Powers of the Commissioners herein-mentioned, unless it be the Power hereby given of administering Oaths, until such Time as he or they shall have taken the Oaths appointed by two Acts of Parliament, one made in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, (intituled, An Act for the further Security of his Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princess Sophia, being Protestants; and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and secret Abettors); and the other made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, (intituled, An Act for altering the Oath of Abjuration and Assurance; and for amending so much of an Act of the seventh Year of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, "An Act for the "Improvement of the Union of the two Kingdoms," as, after the Time therein limited, requires the Delivery of certain Lists and Copies therein mentioned, to Persons indicted of High Treason or Misprision of Treason; which Oaths it shall and may be lawful to and for any two or more of the said Commissioners to administer, and they are hereby required to administer the same to any other of the said Commissioners: And that no Person or Persons hereby appointed to be a Commissioner or Commissioners for any Part of Scotland (except such as duly qualified themselves, according to Law, to be Justices of the Peace or Commissioners there for executing the said Act for the Land Tax made and passed in the fifteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, or any subsequent Act or Acts of Parliament for that Purpose), shall be capable of acting as a Commissioner or Commissioners in the Execution of this present Act, in any Part of Scotland, until such Time as he or they respectively shall have taken and subscribed the Oaths of Allegiance and Abjuration, and have subscribed the Assurance appointed by Law to be taken and subscribed by Persons in Offices of Public Trust in Scotland.

Commissioners in England not to act till they have taken the Oaths appointed by Acts and 6 Geo. III.

Nor Commissioners in Scotland, till they have qualified themselves as the Laws there direct.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Person hereby appointed a Commissioner for any County, City, Riding, Town or Place, in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed (except as before excepted), shall presume to act as a Commissioner in the Execution of this Act before he shall have taken the said Oaths which by this Act he is required to take, and in the Manner hereby prescribed, he shall forfeit to his Majesty the Sum of two hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, or on the Case, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed; and that if any Person hereby appointed a Commissioner for any Shire, Stewartry, Burgh, or Place, in Scotland (except as before excepted), shall presume to act as a Commissioner in the Execution of this Act before that he shall have qualified himself according to the Laws in Scotland, he shall forfeit to his Majesty the Sum of fifty Pounds to be recovered in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, in the same Manner as any other Penalties are there recoverable.

and Commissioners in Scotland, 50 l.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Commissioner of the Land Tax, not being a Justice of the Peace, or a Magistrate of a Corporation or a Borough, shall be capable of acting as a Commissioner in the Execution of this Act, or of any of the Powers therein contained, in or for any County at large within England, or in or for any of the Ridings in the County of York, unless such Person, by himself, or his Tenants or Trustees, was taxed or did pay, in the same County or Riding, for the Value of one hundred Pounds per Annum, or more, of his own Estate, by virtue of the said Act for and in Wales.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Commiſſioner of the Land Tax, not being a Juſtice of the Peace, or a Magiſtrate of a Corporation or a Borough, ſhall be capable of acting as a Commiſſioner in the Execution of this Act, or any of the Powers therein contained, in or for any County within the Dominion of Wales, unleſs ſuch Perſon by himſelf, or his Tenants or Truſtees, was taxed or did pay, in the ſame County, for the Value of ſixty Pounds per Annum, or more, of his own Eſtate, by virtue of the ſaid Act for the Land Tax made and paſſed in England in the fifteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, or any ſubſequent Act, or Acts of Parliament for that Purpoſe, or unleſs ſuch Perſon ſo appointed to be a Commiſſioner ſhall, at the Time of the Execution of this Act, by himſelf, his Tenants or Truſtees, enjoy an Eſtate of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of the ſaid yearly Value of Sixty Pounds, or more, within the ſaid County, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Perſons diſabled preſuming to act forfeit 50 l.

XI. And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Perſon intended by this Act to be diſabled for the Cauſe laſt-mentioned, ſhall nevertheleſs preſume to act as a Commiſſioner in the Execution of this Act, or any of the Powers therein contained, every ſuch Perſon, for ſuch Offence, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame, to be recovered in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Exchequer of Scotland, as aforeſaid.

Commiſſioners may act for any City, &c. whereof they are inhabitants, or for Inns of Court.

XII. Provided nevertheleſs, and it is hereby enacted, That no Perſon who is appointed to be a Commiſſioner for executing this Act in any Part of Great Britain, ſhall be diſabled, for the Cauſe laſt-mentioned, from acting as a Commiſſioner within and for any City, Borough, Cinque-port, or Corporate Town only, whereof he ſhall be an Inhabitant at the Time of the Execution of this Act, or from acting as a Commiſſioner within any of the Inns of Court, or Inns of Chancery.

In caſe of Inſufficiency of Commiſſioners for any City, &c. thoſe for the County at large may act for the ſame.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in caſe there ſhall not be a ſufficient Number of Commiſſioners for any City, Borough, Town, Port, or Place of Great Britain (for which by this Act Commiſſioners are ſpecially appointed), capable of acting according to the reſpective Qualifications required by this Act; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, any of the Commiſſioners appointed for the County or Shire, or Stewartry at large, within which ſuch City, Borough, Town, or Place, doth ſtand, or which is next adjoining thereto, may act as Commiſſioners in the Execution of this Act, within ſuch City, Borough, Town, Port, or Place, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Mayors, Bailiffs, &c. may act as Commiſſioners ſpecially appointed.

'XIV. And whereas Doubts may ariſe whether Mayors, Bailiffs, and other Chief Magiſtrates, of Cities, 'Boroughs, Towns Corporate, and Cinque-ports, for which Commiſſioners are ſpecially appointed by vir-'tue of the ſaid Act for the Land Tax made in the fifteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, or any ſubſequent 'Act or Acts of Parliament for that Purpoſe, can act as Commiſſioners for executing this Act, in the ſaid 'Cities, Boroughs, Towns Corporate, and Cinque Ports;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Mayors, Bailiffs, and other Chief Magiſtrates, who are appointed Commiſſioners for executing this Act, ſhall be and have Power to act as Commiſſioners for executing this Act within and for any City, Borough, Town Corporate, or Cinque-port, wherein they inhabit at the Time of executing this Act, as well where Commiſſioners are ſpecially appointed by this Act, as where they are not.

No Military Officer may be a Commiſſioner.

XV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That no Perſon who, at the Time of the Execution of this Act, ſhall have any Military Office or Employment in Great Britain (other than in the Militia, or any Regiment of Fencible Men), ſhall execute any Power or Authority by this Act given to the Commiſſioners as aforeſaid.

Commiſſioners impowered to levy ſuch Men as are herein deſcribed; and to call in the Aſſiſtance of Pariſh and Town Officers; and to meet in their Subdiviſions, and iſſue general Search Warrants for bringing before them, at their ſecond Subdiviſion Meeting, all Perſons within the Deſcription of this Act.

Subſequent Meetings to be at ſuch Times

XVI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Three or more of them, in their reſpective Places or Stations, ſhall be, and are hereby authoriſed and impowered to raiſe and levy, and to cauſe to be raiſed and levied, at any Time or Times during the Continuance of this Act, within their ſeveral Limits and Juriſdictions, all able-bodied, idle, and diſorderly Perſons, who cannot, upon Examination, prove themſelves to exerciſe and induſtriouſly follow ſome lawful Trade or Employment, or to have ſome Subſtance ſufficient for their Support and Maintenance, to ſerve his Majeſty as Soldiers; and to require and command all and every the High Conſtables, Churchwardens, Overſeers of the Poor, Petty Conſtables, Headboroughs, and Tythingmen, and other Pariſh and Town Officers, or any of them, within their reſpective Limits and Juriſdictions, to be aiding and aſſiſting to them the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Three or more of them, in the Performance of this His Majeſty's Service; and for that Purpoſe the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, are to meet in their reſpective Subdiviſions, according to the Appointment of the Juſtices and Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, and to iſſue out their Warrants under their Hands and Seals, thereby requiring and commanding ſuch Churchwardens, Overſeers of the Poor, Petty Conſtables, Headboroughs, Tithingmen, or other Pariſh or Town Officers, or elſe requiring and commanding the ſaid High Conſtables to iſſue their Precepts to ſuch Churchwardens, Overſeers, Petty Conſtables, Headboroughs, Tithingmen, and other Pariſh and Town Officers as aforeſaid, every or any of them, to make, or cauſe to be made, a general Search within their reſpective Pariſhes, Townſhips, Conſtablewicks, or other Places, for all ſuch Perſons as they can find who are or ſhall appear to them to be within the Deſcription of this Act, and to bring all ſuch Perſons before the Commiſſioners who have Power to execute this Act in and for ſuch County, Shire, Stewartry, Riding, Diviſion, or Place, at ſuch Time and Place as ſhall have been appointed, by the Juſtices and Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, for the ſecond Meeting of the ſaid Commiſſioners in their reſpective Subdiviſions (which Time and Place ſhall be prefixed in the ſaid Warrants and Precepts reſpectively); and afterwards the ſaid Commiſſioners, within their reſpective Limits and Diviſions, ſhall meet at ſuch convenient Time or Times as they ſhall think fit, in order to iſſue their like Warrants or Precepts for making general Searches for Perſons ſons within the ſaid Deſcription, and for bringing them before the Commiſſioners at any future Times and Places appointed by the Juſtices and Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, during the Continuance of this Act. and Places as ſhall be thought fit.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, in their reſpective Places and Stations, ſhall be, and are hereby authoriſed and impowered to raiſe and levy, or cauſe to be raiſed and levied, to ſerve his Majeſty as a Soldier (at any Time or Times during the Continuance of this Act, within their reſpective Limits and Juriſdictions, and ſubject to the ſeveral Rules and Regulations herein ſpecified for the raiſing and levying Perſons who have no lawful Trade or Employment), all able-bodied Perſons who ſhall be guilty of illegal landing, running, unſhipping, concealing, receiving, or carrying, prohibited Goods, Wares, or Merchandiſes, or any foreign Goods liable to the Payment of the Duties of Cuſtoms or Excile, the ſame Duties not having been paid or ſecured, or of aiding or aſſiſting therein, and ſhall be thereof convicted, before one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County or Place where the Offence was committed, in any Penalty not exceeding Forty Pounds, in lieu of ſuch Penalty, or any Puniſhment to which ſuch Perſon may be liable by any Law now in Force. Perſons guilty of running Goods, and convicted in a Penalty not exceeding 40 l. may be levied as Soldier, in lieu of all legal Penalties.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Bailiff's Follower or Aſſiſtant, employed or belonging to any Sheriff, Bailiff of Liberties, Marſhalſea Court, or any other Perſon or Perſons that ſhall be ſo employed by any one that ſhall have the Power of executing any Warrant or Proceſs whatſoever, ſhall be deemed thereby to follow or exerciſe any Calling or Employment, or to have a ſufficient Support and Maintenance, within the Intent and Meaning of this Act. Bailiffs Followers, &c. not deemed to exerciſe any Employment.

'XIX. And whereas by an Act of the ſeventeenth Year of King George the Second (intituled, An Act 'to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds, and other idle and diſorderly Perſons, 'and to Houſes of Correction), the Juſtices in Seſſions are required to adjudge all Perſons, convicted of running away from and leaving their Families chargeable upon the Pariſh, incorrigible Rogues, and to adjudge them to ſuffer the Puniſhments allotted under the ſaid Act to incorrigible Rogues;' be it hereby enacted, That the ſaid Juſtices in Seſſion ſhall be impowered, inſtead of the ſaid Puniſhments allotted to ſuch Perſons convicted of running away from and leaving their Families chargeable upon the Pariſh as aforeſaid, to enliſt the ſaid Perſons, and to deliver them to ſome Officer impowered to receive Recruits under this Act; and ſuch Perſons ſhall have the Articles of War read to them, and ſhall be deemed enliſted to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever: Provided always, That ſuch Perſons do not lie under any Diſqualification of Sickneſs or Inability recited in this Act; and the ſaid Officer ſhall, upon the Receipt of every ſuch Perſon ſo convicted, pay to the ſaid Juſtices, for the Uſe of the Overſeers of the Poor of the Pariſh upon which the ſaid Perſon ſhall have left his Family chargeable, the Sum of Forty Shillings. Perſons convicted of leaving their Families chargeable on the Pariſh, may be enliſted by the Juſtices, &c. Officers receiving any ſuch Perſon to pay 40 s. for the Uſe of the Overſeers.

XX. And be it further enacted, That any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace may, upon his or their own Knowledge, or Information upon Oath, where any able-bodied Man or Men, within the Deſcription of this Act, is or are to be found, iſſue a Warrant to the Conſtable or other Pariſh or Town Officer, or to any other Perſon or Perſons, for apprehending ſuch Man or Men; and the Conſtable, or other Pariſh or Town Officer, or other Perſon or Perſons, upon the Receipt of ſuch Warrant, is and are hereby required to apprehend ſuch Man or Men, and ſuch Man or Men ſhall be ſecured and inliſted in the Manner herein directed in relation to other Perſons apprehended in purſuance of this Act: And where any Man ſhall be apprehended and inliſted in Conſequence of ſuch Information as aforeſaid, the Whole of the twenty Shillings, by this Act directed to be paid by the Officer to whom ſuch Man ſhall be delivered in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be paid to the Informer or Informers. Juſtices, on Information, &c. where any able-bodied Men are to be found, may iſſue a Warrant for apprehending them.

XXI. Inhabitants required to be assisting herein.

XXIV. And it is hereby further enacted and strictly enjoined by the Authority aforesaid, That the Inhabitants of every Parish and Township, where any Persons described as aforesaid do abide or are to be found (at the Instance of any one or more of the Commissioners appointed for the Execution of this Act, or of any Churchwarden, Overseer of the Poor, or Constable, of the same Parish or Township), shall (not having a lawful or reasonable Cause to the contrary) be aiding and assisting in the Furtherance of his Majesty's Service by this Act described.

10 s. Premium to such as shall discover any proper Person, so as he be inlisted.

'XXV. And, to encourage such Inhabitants and others to assist in discovering and apprehending such 'Persons described as aforesaid,' it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall discover and give Information of any able-bodied Man, fit to serve his Majesty within the Description of this Act, so that he shall be apprehended and inlisted before the Commissioners as aforesaid, such Person, for every Man so discovered and inlisted, shall receive, from the Officer to whom such Man shall be delivered, the Sum of ten Shillings, out of the twenty Shillings which he is elsewhere directed to pay to the Officers of the Parish or Town, for every Man impressed by virtue of this Act, and the Remainder only of such twenty Shillings shall, in that Case, be paid to such Officers.

Persons obstructing the Execution of this Act to forfeit 10 l.;

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall wilfully do any Act or Thing whereby the Execution of this Act, in the searching for, taking, and securing, such able-bodied Men as aforesaid, shall be hindered or frustrated, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, to the Use of the Informer or Informers; and all and every such Offences may be enquired of, heard, and finally determined, by any two or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, dwelling in or near the Place where such Offence shall be committed; who have hereby Power to cause the said Penalty to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, rendering the Overplus (if any be) to the Owners; and if the Offender has no Goods and Chattels sufficient to answer the said Penalty, then to commit him or her to the County Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain for the Space of three Calendar Months without Bail or Mainprize.

which may be levied by Distress.

Commissioners to examine the Persons brought before them, &c.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for executing this Act, who shall attend this Service at the Place or Places for listing Soldiers in pursuance of this Act, shall strictly examine the Persons who shall be brought before them by the said Churchwardens, Overseers, Constables, Headboroughs, Tithingmen, or other Parish or Town Officers, as aforesaid; and it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorised to administer an Oath to each and every Person who shall appear and give Evidence touching any Person so brought before them in pursuance of this Act: And in case the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them then present, upon Examination of the Persons so brought before them, shall find that such Persons shall come within the Descriptions herein mentioned; and the said Commissioners, and the Officer or Officers who shall be appointed to receive the impressed Men, shall judge them to be such as are hereby intended to be entertained as Soldiers in his Majesty's Service; then, and in such Case, the said Commissioners shall cause such Persons to be delivered over, by the said Churchwardens, Overseers, Constables, Headboroughs, Tithingmen, or other Parish or Town Officers, to such Officers or Persons as shall be appointed to receive such Recruits as aforesaid: And if it shall at any Time appear to the Officer, under whose Command such impressed Men shall be, that any such Men are more proper for his Majesty's Service by Sea than by Land, then it shall and may be lawful for such Officer to carry such Men before any three of the Commissioners authorised to put this Act in Execution; and if such Commissioners shall judge such Persons to be more proper for his Majesty's Service by Sea than by Land, then it shall be lawful for such Officer to cause such Men to be delivered over to any Commission Officer of his Majesty's Fleet to be appointed for entering such Persons to serve as common Sailors in the said Fleet, such Officer giving a Receipt under his Hand, acknowledging what Men are so delivered to him (which Receipt he is hereby required to give), and also repaying to the Land Officer the Expences incurred by him on account of the said impressed Men.

and, if found proper for the Service, to deliver them to the Military Officers.

How Officer to proceed when impressed Men shall be found more proper for the Sea Service than the Land.

Commissioners present at the delivering over any Recruit, may upon Demand made in his Behalf, appoint a further Meeting; and finding him not to be within the Description of this Act, are to certify the same to the Secretary at War, who shall cause the Man to be discharged.

Officer to pay him 1 s. for each Day he shall

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners who shall have been present at any such Meeting where any Man shall have been delivered over as aforesaid, or for the major Part of them, upon the Demand of such Man, or of any other Person on his Behalf, signified to their Clerk within Four Days after such Meeting, and by him notified to each of the said Commissioners, to appoint a further Meeting of the same Commissioners, at which any other Commissioners may also attend, to be holden within six Days after the making of such Demand, unless the Party appealing shall require a further reasonable Time; and if, upon further and more certain Information, the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, at such further Meeting, shall find that such Man was not, at the Time of his being delivered over as aforesaid, within the Description of this Act, they are hereby required to certify the same, under their Hands and Seals, to his Majesty's Secretary at War, or Secretary to the Admiralty, or to the general Officer whom they shall have learned, by Notice from the Secretary at War, to have been appointed to command his Majesty's Forces in the District where such Commissioners act, who, on the Receipt of such Certificate, shall cause the Man to be forthwith discharged; and the recruiting Officer shall, on such Person's receiving his Discharge as aforesaid, cause to be paid to such Man the Sum of one Shilling for each Day he shall have been so detained in the Service as aforesaid, to be allowed to such Officer out of the recruiting Fund, over and above such Subsistence as he may have received; and the Clerk appointed by the Commissioners shall repay to such Officer (without Fee or other Deduction) the several Sums before paid to him by the said Officer, and shall give back the Receipts taken as above directed in Exchange for a Copy of the said Man's Discharge; and in Case no such Discharge shall have been obtained as aforesaid, then the said Clerk shall, after the Expiration of fourteen Days from the Time that such Man was delivered over as aforesaid, pay over, without Fee or Deduction, to the Persons respectively intitled thereto under the Directions of this Act, the several Sums deposited in his Hands for that Purpose.

have been detained. Clerk to repay to the Officer the Sums received of him, proper Persons.

&c. If no Discharge be obtained, Clerk to pay over the Sums deposited to the XXIX. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to impower the said Commissioners to inlist any Person as a Soldier, until the several Sums, herein directed to be paid, by the respective Officers appointed to receive such new-raised Men, shall be first paid to the Person or Persons respectively authorised to receive the same.

None to be inlisted till the Sums payable by the Officers are first paid.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Officer or Officers, and other Person or Persons appointed to attend the said Commissioners, and to receive such impressed Men, shall, in case he or they shall find it necessary, detain such impressed Men in some secure House or Place, to be provided by the Justices of the Peace, in their Petty or Special Sessions, for that Purpose; but in case no such House or Place shall be provided, then in the Gaol of the County, Town, or Place, where such Men shall be received into his Majesty's Service, or in the House of Correction, or other public Prison, of such County, Town, or Place; and the Keeper of such Gaol, House of Correction, or Prison, shall receive such impressed Men until they can be removed, without Fee or Reward; and such Keeper shall be allowed the usual Subsistence for such Men, during the Time they remain there, from the Officer by whom they shall be delivered as aforesaid; and the Constables, Headboroughs, and other Civil Officers, shall, if required, be assisting to such Officer in conveying such Man or Men to such Gaol, Place, or House of Correction, and shall be allowed such reasonable Sum or Sums as the major Part of the Commissioners then present shall appoint, to be paid by the Officer or Officers who shall require such Assistance.

Officers may secure impressed Men.

Keeper to be allowed their Subsistence Money.

Civil Officers to be aiding in securing them, and to be allowed for their Trouble.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, at any of the Meetings of the Commissioners by this Act appointed, in any of their Subdivisions, they shall not be attended by some proper Officer appointed for the receiving of Recruits, either through Negligence or any unavoidable Accident; then, and in that Case, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners to adjourn themselves to some other convenient Day, and they are hereby authorised to give Directions for detaining in Custody all such Persons as shall have been then brought before them by the Parish Officers to be inlisted, or such of them as they shall think duly qualified for his Majesty's Service; and the said Commissioners shall give Notice to any of the Officers attending on this Service, in the County or Place where such Subdivisions shall be, of the Day of such Adjournment; and the said Officer is hereby required, either to attend himself, or appoint some other Person to attend such Commissioners, and to receive such Persons as the said Commissioners shall inlist into his Majesty's Service; and the Officers for receiving the said Recruits shall pay, to such Person as the said Commissioners shall appoint, Six-pence per Diem for the Subsistence of every Recruit then inlisted, from the Day of the last Meeting of the Commissioners to the said Day of Adjournment, the same to be charged to the Account of the several Regiments or Companies into which the said Recruits shall be inlisted, together with such Charges and Expences as shall appear to the said Commissioners to have been incurred, on account of the detaining the said Persons, from the Day of the former Meeting of the said Commissioners to the Day of such Second Meeting, not exceeding three Pounds.

Officer not attending to receive Recruits, Commissioners may adjourn, and order the Detention of the impressed Men.

Notice of Adjournment to be given to Officers attending this Service, &c.

Officer to pay Subsistence Money for every Recruit, and incidental Charges.

'XXXII. And for the better preventing any Disputes which may arise about paying for the Subsistence 'of those Persons who, having been apprehended and detained by virtue of this Act, may afterwards be dis-'charged upon Examination before the Commissioners and Military Officers,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person, being judged by the Commissioners not to be within the Description of this Act, shall be by them discharged, the Officers of the Parish or Town shall be intitled to no Consideration for their Expences in keeping such Person; and if any Person being judged by the Commissioners to be within the Description of this Act, shall be rejected by the Military Officer, such Officer shall pay to the Officers of the Parish or Town Six-pence per Diem for the whole Time that they shall have kept such Person, to be charged to the Account of his respective Regiment or Company; and every Officer who shall object to any Person delivered to him by the Commissioners, shall specify his Objection to such Person, whether it be to his Age or Size, or bodily Disability, and the Grounds of such Objection shall be forthwith, as far as may be, inquired into by the said Commissioners, and they shall proceed accordingly; and every Officer who shall refuse or discharge any Person delivered to him by the Commissioners, as fit to serve his Majesty within the Description of this Act, shall, without Delay, if a Land Officer, transmit to his Majesty's Secretary at War, or, if a Marine Officer, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, his Reasons for such Refusal or Discharge, in Writing, signed by himself.

Persons discharged as not within the Description of this Act, Parish not to be allowed their Expences: If within the Description, and rejected by Officer, he shall pay the Expences of keeping them.

Objections to be specified, and inquired into by Commissioners.

Reasons of Discharge to be transmitted to the Secretary at War, &c.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Pay of every such new-raised Man, so delivered to the Officers or Persons appointed to receive them as aforesaid, shall commence from the Time of his being taken and secured as aforesaid; and no Person, so inlisted or entered in pursuance of this Act, shall be liable to be taken out of his Majesty's Service by any Process, other than for some criminal Matter.

New-raised Men to receive Pay from the Time of their being secured; and not liable to Arrests for Debt.

XXXIV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, to impose upon any Gaoler, or Keeper of a House of Correction or Prison, who shall suffer any Person, committed to his Custody in pursuance of this Act, to escape; or upon any High Constable, Churchwarden, Overseer, Petty Constable, Headborough, Tithingman, or other Parish or Town Officer, for every wilful Neglect or Default in the Execution of any Warrant, Order, or Precept, to them or any of them directed in pursuance of this Act, a Rewards for Commissioners Clerks.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the said several Clerks to the said Commissioners, provided the said Copies or Duplicates be truly transmitted into the Office of the Admiralty or Secretary at War, as aforesaid, shall have and receive, by the Hands of the Paymaster of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, or one of them, such Rewards as the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, upon Consideration of the Numbers of Men listed in the several Counties, Cities, Boroughs, or other Places, and the Pains and Charges of the several Clerks in this Service, shall judge the said Clerks severally and respectively to deserve.

Officers to pay to the Parish Officers, for their Trouble, 20 s. for every such Man; and to the Churchwardens, &c. from 10 s. to 40 s. if such Man have a Wife or Family; as shall be settled by the Commissioners; and 6 d. per Diem to the Parish Officers for the Time they shall have kept him.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the several Officers who shall receive impressed Men raised in the Manner herein-before mentioned, shall pay to the Clerk appointed by the Commissioners, for the Use of the Officers of the Parish or Town so employed in the raising such Men, for their Pains and Services therein, twenty Shillings of lawful Money of Great Britain for every Man so impressed; and shall also pay, for every such Man who shall have a Wife or Family, any Sum not exceeding forty Shillings, nor less than ten Shillings, of lawful Money of Great Britain, to the said Clerk, to be by him paid over, as is herein-after directed, into the Hands of the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor, for the Benefit of such Parish or Township in which such Man shall have gained a Settlement, and whose Wife or Family may become chargeable to such Parish or Township respectively; which Sum shall be settled by the Commissioners present at the Meeting when such Person shall be inlisted or entered, or any three or more of them, Regard being had to the Number of Children, or other particular Circumstances of such Person so inlisted; for both which Payments the Clerk shall give a Receipt; and the Sum of Six-pence per Diem for keeping every such Man who shall be so delivered as aforesaid, according to the Number of Days that the Officers of the said Parish or Town shall have kept him in Custody, pursuant to the Powers granted by this Act, until such Delivery; the said Allowances of twenty Shillings, and of Six-pence per Diem, in case of Dispute, to be ascertained and distributed to and among the said Churchwardens, Overseers, Constables, Headboroughs, Tithingmen, and such other Parish and Town Officers, or any of them, according to the Judgment and Discretion of the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them then present.

Disputes relating thereto to be settled by the Commissioners.

Commissioners may allot, out of the Money allowed to Parish Officers, 2 s. to the High Constables.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, in their respective Divisions, are hereby authorised and impowered, by and out of the said Sum of twenty Shillings, herein-before directed to be paid for the Use of the Officers of the Parish or Town so employed in the raising of such Men, to allot and order such Sum as they shall think fit to the respective High Constables, within their respective Limits and Jurisdictions, for their Pains and Service in the Execution of this Act, not exceeding the Sum of two Shillings.

Every Person voluntarily inlisting himself intitled to 3 l. 3 s. Bounty-Money.

'XXXIX. And, for the Encouragement of fit and able Persons voluntarily to enter into his Majesty's 'Service,' be it enacted, That every such Person who shall, on or before the first Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, voluntarily enter into his Majesty's Service, before the said Commissioners, at their first or any subsequent Meeting, upon being duly attested, shall receive the Sum of three Guineas from from the Officers appointed to receive them, and ſhall forthwith be delivered to the ſaid Officers; and the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall cauſe an Entry to be made in ſome Book to be kept by them, or ſuch Clerk as they ſhall appoint, of the Names of ſuch Volunteers, and of the Pariſhes or Places of their laſt Abode (if they can be known), and of the Time and Place when and where they did ſo enter themſelves, and of the Sums paid to them, and by whom ſuch Payments were made, and of the Names of the Officers or Perſons who received ſuch Volunteers, and for what Regiment or Company they were received; and ſhall cauſe true Copies or Duplicates of ſuch Entries, atteſted by three or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners then preſent, within forty Days after the Delivery of ſuch Volunteers, to be tranſmitted into the Office of his Majeſty's Secretary at War for the Time being, or into the Office of the Admiralty if the Volunteers be delivered for the Marines.

Volunteers to be delivered over to the Military Officers; and an Entry to be made of their Names, Places of Abode, &c.

Duplicates of Entries to be tranſmitted to the War-office, &c.

XL. 'And, for the greater Encouragement of all Perſons who ſhall be fit and willing to ſerve his Ma-'jeſty as Volunteers,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Pay of every ſuch Perſon who ſhall enter into the Service of his Majeſty as a Volunteer, in purſuance of this Act, or with any recruiting Officer or Serjeant, during the Continuance of this Act, ſhall commence from the Time that he ſhall ſo enter himſelf into his Majeſty's Service; and that every ſuch Volunteer, after he ſhall have continued in the Military Service of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, during the Space of three Years, ſhall be at Liberty, if he ſhall think fit, to demand his Diſcharge from the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment or Company to which he ſhall belong, unleſs the Nation ſhall be then engaged in a War, and in that Caſe ſuch Perſon ſhall remain in Service, during the Continuance of War; and ſuch Diſcharge ſhall be granted to him gratis, in Writing, under the Hand of ſuch Colonel or Commanding Officer, who is hereby required and impowered to give the ſame accordingly, on Pain of being caſhiered.

Volunteers to receive Pay from the Time of their entering; and to be diſcharged at the End of three Years, or of the War, if they demand it.

XLI. And it is hereby further enacted, That no Perſon who ſhall enter into the Service of his Majeſty as a Volunteer in purſuance of this Act, or with any recruiting Officer or Party during the Continuance of this Act, and ſhall not deſert the ſame, ſhall, at any Time after the Expiration of ſuch Military Service, be liable in his Perſon to do any Highway Duty, commonly called Statute-duty, or be appointed to ſerve as a Peace Officer, or Pariſh Officer, or be liable to ſerve in the Militia, or in any of his Majeſty's Land or Sea Forces, unleſs he ſhall conſent thereto; and that every ſuch Volunteer, after ſuch Military Service as aforeſaid, ſhall have the like Privilege in reſpect of ſetting up and exerciſing any Trade, and of not being removeable, unleſs he ſhall become actually chargeable, as by the Statute made in the third Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to enable ſuch Officers, Mariners, and Soldiers, as have been in the Sea or Land Service, or in the Marines, ſince the twenty-ſecond Year of his late Majeſty King George the Second, to exerciſe Trades, is given to thoſe who have ſerved according to the ſaid recited Act; and all other the Benefits and Advantages therein expreſſed ſhall extend, and be conſtrued to extend, to all ſuch Volunteers, and alſo the Wives and Children of ſuch Volunteers as aforeſaid, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid Act, and every Clauſe thereof, were here again particularly repeated and re-enacted.

Volunteers, after Expiration of their Service, not liable to Statute-duty, or to ſerve Pariſh Offices, or in the Militia; but may ſet up and exerciſe any Trade, as eaſe to Act 3 Geo. III.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if any Volunteer ſhall be wounded or maimed in actual Service, ſo as to become unfit for military Duty, and ſhall be diſcharged on that Account at any Time before the Expiration of the Term for which he was engaged to ſerve, the ſame ſhall be expreſſed in the Diſcharge given him, under the Hand and Seal of his Commanding Officer; and every Perſon ſo diſcharged ſhall be intitled to the ſame Privileges, Benefits, and Advantages, of every Kind whatſoever, as if he had continued for the full Term of his Engagement in the Service of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; any Thing contained in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Volunteers diſcharged before the Expiration of their Term of Service, on account of Wounds received in actual Service, to be intitled to the ſame Privileges as if they had ſerved their full Term.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon who ſhall be impreſſed in purſuance of this Act, after he ſhall have continued in the Military Service of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, during the Space of Five Years, ſhall be at Liberty, if he ſhall think fit, to demand his Diſcharge from the Colonel, or, in his Abſence, the Officer commanding the Regiment or Company to which he ſhall belong, unleſs the Nation ſhall be then engaged in a War, and in that Caſe ſuch Perſon ſhall remain in Service during the Continuance of War; and ſuch Diſcharge ſhall be granted to him gratis, in Writing under the Hand of ſuch Colonel or Officer, who is duly impowered and required to give the ſame accordingly; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Impreſſed Men, after 5 Years Service, to be diſcharged, if they demand it.

'XLIV. And, for the better obviating ſuch Frauds and Abuſes as may be practiſed in diſcharging of 'Soldiers,' it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no private Soldier, who ſhall be duly inliſted or impreſſed into his Majeſty's Service by virtue of this Act, ſhall, during the Time ſuch Soldier continues in Great Britain, be diſcharged from his Majeſty's Service without the Conſent of the Colonel, or, in his Abſence, the Officer commanding the Regiment, firſt had and obtained in Writing; and any Officer of his Majeſty's Land Forces, Marines, or Sea Service, who ſhall preſume to diſcharge any Perſon, inliſted or impreſſed purſuant to this Act, in any other Manner contrary to this Act, or ſhall by falſe Muſter or Certificate, or in Conſideration of a Gratuity of any Kind, or by any other colluſive or evaſive Ways or Means whatſoever, ſuffer or permit any Perſon who ſhall voluntarily inliſt, or be impreſſed into his Majeſty's Service by virtue of this Act, to avoid the actual Service hereby intended, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall not only loſe the Benefit of this Act, but every ſuch Officer ſhall, for ſuch Offence, be caſhiered.

No Soldier or Marine to be diſcharged without a Certificate from his Colonel, &c.

Officers diſcharging new-raiſed Men contrary to this Act, or permitting them to avoid actual Service, ſhall be caſhiered.

'XLV. And, for the better preventing ſuch Frauds and Abuſes as may be practiſed by any pretended 'Ignorance of the Terms under which any Non-commiſſion Officer or Soldier may have entered into the 'Service,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That whenever any Perſon, who ſhall be duly inliſted or impreſſed into his Majeſty's Service during the Continuance of this Act, ſhall join the Regiment or Company in which he is to ſerve, his Name, Deſcription, and Terms of Service, ſhall be entered in the Public Book of ſuch Regiment or Company; and a Copy of ſuch Entry ſhall be delivered, as a Certificate for every ſuch Perſon, ſigned by the commanding Officer of ſuch Regiment or Company.

When any new-raiſed Man ſhall join his Regiment, his Name, Deſcription, &c. ſhall be entered in the Public Book thereof; and when draughted into any other Regiment or Company, to be entered accordingly.

XLVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whenever and as often as such Person shall, by the Necessity of the Service, be draughted into any other Regiment or Company, the Entry shall be made in the same Manner in the Public Book of such Regiment or Company; and the Commanding Officer thereof is hereby directed to add to the Certificate the Circumstance of such Person being draughted, and at what Time, and to sign his Name and Rank thereto.

Persons employed in the Execution of this Act, exempted from the Penalties of Acts 25 Car. II. 1 Gul. & Mar. and 13 & 14 Gul. III.

XLVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Commissioner, Churchwarden, Overseer, Constable, Headborough, Tithingman, or other Parish or Town Officer, who shall be employed in the Execution of this Act, shall be liable, for or by reason of such Execution, to any of the Penalties mentioned in an Act, made in the Twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, for preventing Dangers which may happen from Popish Recusants; or in one other Act, made in the first Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for abrogating the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and appointing other Oaths; or in one other Act, made in the Parliament holden, in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of the late King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the further Security of his Majesty's Person, and the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line; and for the extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Pretenders, and their open and secret Abettors.

Limitation of Actions.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action, Plaint, Suit, or Information, shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for what he or they shall do in Pursuance or Execution of this Act, the same shall be commenced within six Months after the Offence committed, and shall be laid or brought in the County or Place where the Fact was committed, and not afterwards or elsewhere; and such Person or Persons sued, in any Court whatsoever, shall and may plead the General Issue Not Guilty, and upon any Issue joined may give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Prosecutor shall become nonsuit, or forbear further Prosecution, or suffer a Discontinuance, or if a Verdict or Judgment upon Demurrer pass against him, the Defendant shall recover Treble Costs, for which he shall have the like Remedy as in any Case where Costs by the Law are given to Defendants.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

Act 24 Geo. II. so far as it relates to Justices, extended to Justices and Commissioners acting under Authority of this Act.

No Action to be commenced, &c. for any Thing done in Execution of this Act, till Notice in Writing shall be given to the Party.

Defendant may tender Amends for Injury complained of, and plead the same in Bar, &c.

XLIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Statute made in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the rendering the Justices of the Peace more safe in the Execution of their Office, and for indemnifying Constables and others acting in Obedience to their Warrants, so far as the said Act relates to the rendering the Justices more safe in the Execution of their Office, shall extend, and be construed to extend, to the Justice or Justices of the Peace, and the Commissioner or Commissioners acting under the Authority, or in Execution of this Act; and no Action or Suit shall be had or commenced, or Writ issued out, or Copy of Writs served upon any Peace Officer or Officers, or any other Person or Persons, for any Thing done in the Execution of this Act, until Notice in Writing shall have been given to him or them, or left at his or their usual Place of Abode, by the Attorney for the Party commencing such Action, or suing out or serving the Copy of the said Writ; which said Notice in Writing shall contain the Name and Place of Abode of the Person who is to bring such Action, together with the Cause of Action or Complaint, and the Name and Place of Abode of the said Attorney shall be underwritten or indorsed thereon; and such Defendant or Defendants shall be at Liberty, and may by virtue of this Act, at any Time within fourteen Days after such Notice, tender, or cause to be tendered, any Sum or Sums of Money, as Amends for the Injury complained of, to the Party complaining, or to the said Attorney; and if the same is not accepted of, such Defendant or Defendants may plead such Tender in bar of such Action or Actions, together with the General Issue, or any other Plea, with Leave of the Court; and if, upon Issue joined upon such Tender, the Jury shall find the Amends tendered to have been sufficient, the said Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant or Defendants, who shall in such Case be intitled to his and their Treble Costs.

No Action to be brought in Scotland on Account of executing this Act, till Notice has been given to the Party offending, who may tender Amends, &c.

L. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action shall be brought against any Justice of the Peace, Commissioner, or other Officer, employed in the Execution of this Act, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the Person instituting such Action shall, previous to the Commencement thereof, intimate by himself, or his Agent or Attorney, his said Intention, and Grounds of Complaint, so as that the Justice, Commissioner, or other Officer, may have Opportunity of making due Amends for the Injury intended to be prosecuted; and if the said Justice, Commissioner, or other Officer, shall make it appear, to the Satisfaction of the Judge before whom the Action is brought, that such due Amends was tendered and refused previous to the Commencement of the Action, the said Judge shall give Decree for the Defender, who shall, in such Case, be intitled to Treble Costs of Suit.

Where the Defendant had probable Cause for doing the Action complained of, the Plaintiff not intitled to Damages nor Costs:

LI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where a Verdict shall be given for the Plaintiff, in any Action to be brought against any Justice of the Peace or Commissioner, or any Peace Officer or other Person, for seizing, taking, imprisoning, or detaining, such Plaintiff in Execution of this Act, under Colour of any Authority or Authorities hereby given, and it shall appear to the Judge or Court, before whom the same shall be tried, that there was a probable Cause for doing the the Act complained of in such Action, and the said Judge or Court shall certify on the Record that there was probable Cause, as aforesaid; then, and in such Case, the Plaintiff shall not be intitled to above Two-pence Damages, nor to any Costs of Suit.

But if the Cause of Action was maliciously committed, he shall have Double Costs.

LII. Provided always, That where a Verdict shall be given for the Plaintiff in any such Action as aforesaid, and the Judge or Court, before whom the Cause shall be tried, shall certify on the Record, that the Injury for which such Action was brought was wilfully and maliciously committed, the Plaintiff shall be intitled to Double Costs of Suit.

His Majesty, when a sufficient

LIII. And be it further enacted, That when his Majesty shall be satisfied, by the said Returns of the Commissioners or otherwise, that a sufficient Number of Recruits in the whole shall be raised for his present preſent Service, or for other ſufficient Reaſons, it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty to ſuſpend or revive the Execution of this Act, with reſpect to the whole of Great Britain, or any Part thereof, by Proclamation or Order in Council, or other public Notice in the London Gazette, or by Notice from his Majeſty's Secretary at War; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Number of Men ſhall be raiſed, may, by Proclamation, &c. ſuſpend the Execution of this Act; or may ſuſpend or enforce it in any County or Place.

LIV. Provided alſo, That his Majeſty, when he ſhall judge it expedient for his Service, may at any Time ſuſpend the Execution of this Act, in any County or Place of Great Britain, by Notice from his Majeſty's Secretary at War; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Volunteers to enjoy all their Privileges, &c. notwithſtanding ſuch Suſpenſion.

LV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Perſons who ſhall enter as Volunteers during the Continuance of this Act, ſhall be intitled to the ſame Bounties, Privileges, Immunities, and Advantages, as are herein granted to ſuch Volunteers, notwithſtanding any ſuch Suſpenſion as aforeſaid.

Chief Magiſtrate of Cities, &c. upon Notice from the Secretary at War, to enforce this Act within their Juriſdictions.

'LVI. And whereas it may often be expedient for his Majeſty's Service, that the Commiſſioners hereby 'appointed ſhall execute this Act in Cities, Towns, or other Places, when it may not be convenient 'to enforce the Execution thereof through the County in which ſuch City, Town, or Place, ſhall be re-'ſpectively ſituate;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Mayor or other Chief Magiſtrate of any City, Town, or Place, ſhall, upon receiving Notice for that Purpoſe from the Secretary at War, immediately proceed to put this Act in Execution, within their reſpective Juriſdictions, in the ſame Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if ſuch Mayor or other Chief Magiſtrate had received ſuch Notice from the Sheriff of the County in which ſuch City, Town, or Place, ſhall be reſpectively ſituate; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XI.

An Act for rendering more beneficial an Act, made in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled, An Act for establishing Agreements, made between Charles Brandling, Esquire, and other Persons, Proprietors of Lands, for laying down a Waggon Way, in order for the better supplying the Town and Neighbourhood of Leeds, in the County of York, with Coals, by enabling the said Charles Brandling to supply, annually, a larger Quantity of Coals to and for the Use of the said Town and Neighbourhood; and for regulating the Prices of carrying Coals from the Repository at Casson-close.

CAP. XII.

An Act for repairing the Highways and Bridges in the County of Linlithgow and Bathgate.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Laws now in being, for repairing the High Roads and Bridges in that Part of 'Great Britain called Scotland, by Way of Statute-labour, are found insufficient in the County of 'Linlithgow and Bathgate: Therefore, and for the better regulating the Repairs of the Roads and Bridges, 'and of the Statute-labour within the County aforesaid,' may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Heritors and Life-renters in the County of Linlithgow and Bathgate, who are at present, or at any Time hereafter shall be possessed as actual Proprietors of Lands therein of one hundred Pounds Scots Valuation in their own Right, or in Right of their Wives; and the eldest Sons of every Person possessed of two hundred Pounds Scots Valuation as above, being of lawful Age, and the Chief residing Magistrate of the Royal Borough of Linlithgow, and the Magistrates of the Royal Borough of Queensferry, and the Bailie of every Borough of Barony within the said County for the Time being, shall be, and they are hereby nominated and appointed Trustees and Commissioners for making, repairing, widening, and keeping in Repair, the Highways, Roads, and Bridges, in their respective Parishes within the said County, and for executing all other the Powers by this Act to them given and granted.

Commissioners.

II. Provided always, That if any Person not qualified in any particular Parish as aforesaid, shall presume to act as a Trustee, every such Person shall, for each Time he shall so act, forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds Sterling, besides the Expence of Prosecution, to be recovered by Complaint, in a summary Way, at the Suit of any Commissioner within the said County, before the Justices of the Peace at their Quarter Sessions, or before the Sheriff Depute of the said County, or his Substitute; which Penalty shall be paid to the Trustees in the respective Parishes, to be by them applied for repairing the said Roads: And in case any such Complaint shall be made, the Proof of Qualification shall lie upon the Defendant.

Penalty of acting if not qualified.

'III. And, for the more easy and effectual Execution of this Act, and of the Powers herein-after 'granted,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners qualified as aforesaid shall meet by themselves, or their Proxies appointed by a Writing under their Hands, at their respective Parish Churches, upon the first Tuesday of April, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, with Power of Adjournment; and failing their Meeting on that Day, upon every succeeding Tuesday of that Month; and failing any such Meeting, upon any Day, previous Notice, by Order of any one Commissioner in the Parish, being made by the Reader from his Desk on a Sunday, at least ten Days before the Meeting, with Power of Adjournment: And the Commissioners of each Parish within the said County shall, at their first Meeting, or at any adjourned Meeting, and on or before the first Tuesday of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, make up a List of the Plough-gates of Land, and Subdivisions thereof, and of the Possessors of the same, and of all other Persons, Horses, or Cattle, liable to Statute-work within the respective Parishes.

Commissioners shall meet in their respective Parish Churches; and make up Lists.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That a Plough-gate shall be deemed so much Land as may reasonably be laboured with four Horses, and two Servants, according to the Nature of the Soil, but not less than seventy Acres; for ascertaining which the Commissioners may take such Proof as they

What deemed a Plough-gate.

Lists to be transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace.

they shall think proper: And that Copies of these Lists shall be transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace, and entered in a Book to be kept by him for that Purpose; and likewise Copies of all subsequent Alterations the Commissioners may find it necessary to make upon them, which they are hereby empowered to do.

Commissioners neglecting, Justices may make up Lists, and examine and correct them.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Commissioners shall neglect to make up and transmit their Lists, as herein directed, on or before the first Tuesday of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, the Justices of the Peace of the County, at their Quarter Sessions, or at any Adjournment thereof, shall have Power to make up the same, and to execute every other Part of this Act in the same Manner as the Commissioners are hereby directed to do; and the Justices, at their Quarter Sessions, shall have Power to examine into the Lists, and correct Errors therein; and that Persons thinking themselves aggrieved by any of the aforesaid Lists may appeal to the Quarter Sessions, or to any adjourned Meeting thereof.

Persons liable in Statute-work.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Possessors of Lands shall furnish to the Highways, for six Days yearly, one Cart with two able Horses, and one able Servant, or two Carts, with one able Horse and one able Servant for each Cart, or Wains in Proportion, where the Custom is to work with Oxen; and that for each Plough-gate of Land they possess; and so in Proportion for Three-fourths, One-half, and One-quarter of a Plough-gate.

Power to convert the Statute-work.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners in their respective Parishes shall have Power to demand a Conversion in Money for the Whole or any Part of the Statute-work, not exceeding the ordinary Rate of Labour in that Part of the County for Carts, Wains, Horses, and Oxen; and not exceeding Six-pence Sterling per Day for each Householder.

Grass Grounds.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where the Tenant is debarred from the Liberty of Tillage, the Heritor, or Setter, shall be obliged to furnish the Statute-labour; or, at his Option, to pay the converted Value.

Work to be done by Persons who keep more Carts, Horses, &c. than used for Cultivation of their Lands; and by Cottagers, &c. Seed-time and Harvest exempted. Not more than three Miles distant. Commissioners may excuse indigent Persons.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Persons keeping more Carts and Horses, or Wains and Work-oxen, than are used for the Cultivation of the Land they possess, shall furnish yearly six Days Work of the Half of such additional Carts and Horses, or Wains and Work-oxen, or in their Option shall pay the converted Value; and that Persons keeping more Draught or Carriage Horses than necessary for their Ploughs and Carts, shall furnish yearly three Days Work with a double Cart, for each Pair of such additional Horses, or in their Option pay the converted Value; and that Householders or Cottagers, and all labouring Men (not being Servants hired by the Year or Half Year, nor liable to furnish Carts), shall work themselves upon the High Roads for three Days yearly, instead of the six Days now required by Law, or in their Option pay Six-pence Sterling for each Day's Work; and that the Statute-work shall be performed at any Time when required by the Overseers (except during Seed-time and Harvest), upon Notice being given in the respective Parish Churches, at least four Days before the Work is to be performed; and that no Persons shall be compelled to furnish or perform Statute-labour, at a greater Distance than three measured Miles from their Place of Residence; and that the Commissioners of the respective Parishes may, at their Discretion, exempt indigent Persons, either from working, or paying Conversion, especially such as have three or more Children under fourteen Years of Age.

Miners, Colliers, &c.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Miners, Colliers, Salters, and Workmen at Furnaces, of the Age of twenty Years, or upwards, shall perform three Days Work yearly upon the Highways, or in the Option of their Employers pay the converted Value.

Application of the Statute-work.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Application of the Statute-work, and of the Money arising from the Conversions, and of all other Monies destined by this Act for repairing the High Roads and Bridges, shall be put under the sole Direction and Management of the Commissioners aforesaid of the Parish from which the same shall arise; to be applied for repairing and keeping in Repair the High Roads and Bridges within the respective Parishes, and to no other Purposes whatever.

The Statute-work of any Parish may be applied in repairing the Roads in the Parish adjoining; not exceeding three Miles distant.

XII. Provided always, That it shall be lawful to the Commissioners, at their stated or adjourned Meetings, to apply any Part of the Statute-work of their Parish, in repairing such Roads in any next adjoining Parish, as lead to or from their own Parish.

XIII. Provided nevertheless, That the Statute-labour so to be applied in such next adjoining Parish, shall not extend to a greater Distance than three measured Miles from the Parish where such Statute-labour is directed to be performed.

Commissioners to determine what Roads are to be repaired.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of each Parish shall, at a Meeting to be held on the first Tuesday in April yearly, with Power of Adjournment, determine what Roads in the respective Parishes are to be repaired that Year; and make such Allocations of the Statute-work, and such Appropriation of the Conversion Monies, as to them shall seem proper for making the said Repairs: And failing their Meeting on the first Tuesday of April, they shall meet upon every successive Tuesday of that Month; and failing any such Meeting, upon any Day, previous Notice, by Order of any one Commissioner of the Parish, being made by the Reader from his Desk on a Sunday, at least ten Days before the Meeting, with Power of Adjournment.

Payment of Conversion Monies.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the whole of the Conversion Monies shall be paid to the Collector within ten Days after being demanded by Intimation from the Reader's Desk on a Sunday.

Persons not performing Statute-labour their Effects to be poinded.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person, liable by this Act, shall refuse or delay to perform his or her Statute-labour when required by the Person appointed to oversee the Performance thereof, or to pay his or her Composition Money as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any Commissioner in the Parish, where such Statute-labour is to be performed, or Composition paid in Lieu of the same, or any Part thereof, to issue a summary Warrant for poinding his or her Effects for the Composition

Compoſition Money due; and if for Statute-labour, for double the Compoſition correſponding thereto, and for the Expence of the Poinding, not exceeding two Shillings and Six-pence Sterling, to be aſcertained in the Warrant of Poinding.

A Collector to be appointed in each Pariſh.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners ſhall appoint a Collector in their reſpective Pariſhes for receiving the Monies ariſing from Converſions or otherwiſe, to whom they ſhall allow a reaſonable Salary.

Converſion in Money in Royal Boroughs to be levied by the Collector of the Land Tax, and paid to the Commiſſioners, after deducting 5 per Cent. Penalty.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Collector of the Land Tax, or Ceſs, of each Royal Borough, in the ſaid County, for the Time being, ſhall be annually bound to collect the Converſion Money of the Statute-work of the Inhabitants, and others, reſiding within ſuch Royal Boroughs, in caſe he ſhall be deſired or required ſo to do by the Commiſſioners of the Pariſh, at their firſt Annual or any After-meeting; and ſhall be bound to account for and pay to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Perſons empowered by them, the Monies he ſhall ſo collect and receive, after Deduction of five Pounds Sterling per Centum of the Sums ſo collected, to be allowed him for his Trouble; and that under the Penalty of five Pounds Sterling, to be paid by ſuch Collector to the Commiſſioners, for every ſuch Offence, in refuſing or neglecting ſo to do; which Penalty ſhall be levied and recovered in Manner hereinafter directed: And that the Commiſſioners ſhall have Power to appoint a Clerk in their reſpective Pariſhes, who ſhall enter all their Proceedings in a Book, to whom they may allow a reaſonable Salary.

Clerks to be appointed.

Commiſſioners may appoint Committees, and Overſeers.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners may appoint Committees of their own Number, or others reſiding within the Pariſh, to direct the Application of the Work, and Money allowed for the particular Roads: And that the Commiſſioners or Committees may appoint Overſeers under them, with a ſuitable Gratification for their Trouble.

Accounts to be made up annually, and laid before the Quarter Seſſions.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Collector ſhall be obliged annually to make up an exact Account of the Money received by Converſions or otherways; and the Committees or Overſeers ſhall, in like Manner, make up an Account of the whole Money expended, and Statute-work performed, in their reſpective Pariſhes; which, with the Vouchers, ſhall be annually laid before the Juſtices, at their Quarter Seſſions, to be examined by them, or ſuch of their Number as they ſhall appoint: And that Abſtracts of theſe Accounts be recorded in the Books kept by the Clerk of the Peace, for which he ſhall be allowed a Gratification from each Pariſh, as the Juſtices ſhall determine, not exceeding five Shillings Sterling: And that Collectors and Committees, or Overſeers, neglecting to give in their Accounts, may be fined by the Juſtices, in a Sum not exceeding five Pounds Sterling; to be applied to the Reparation of any of the Roads within the County, at the Direction of the Juſtices.

Penalty.

Penalty on any Pariſh not making the Services effectual.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the Commiſſioners of any Pariſh ſhall neglect to execute the Powers committed to them by this Act, and ſhall not have applied at leaſt one Half of their Statute-work in Money or Labour, it ſhall be lawful for the Juſtices, at their Quarter Seſſions (on the Application of any one Heritor in the County), to apply the Statute-work of ſuch defaulting Pariſh to the Reparation of the Roads in that or any adjoining Pariſh; but that, where only Part of a Pariſh has been deficient, the Money levied from ſuch Deficients ſhall be applied in that Part of the Pariſh where the Commiſſioners have done their Duty, or where theſe Commiſſioners ſhall deſire.

Overſeers may take Materials.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall be lawful for the Overſeers, or any employed by them, to dig, gather, and take away, all Kind of Materials for repairing the Roads in or from any Common or Waſte Grounds, without making any Satisfaction; and from ſeveral Grounds, (not being a Garden, Orchard, Yard, planted Walk, or Avenue to a Houſe, or any Piece of incloſed Ground, planted, ſet apart, and uſed for a Plantation or Nurſery for Trees, or Pleaſure Ground) and to open convenient Acceſſes for carrying off the ſaid Materials, on making ſuch Satisfaction for the Damage done, as the Commiſſioners ſhall judge reaſonable: And that it ſhall be lawful to the Overſeers to make Cauſeways and Bridges on the Roads, and to make neceſſary Ditches or Drains through the adjacent Grounds.

Power to make Cauſeways, Bridges, &c.

Breadth of Roads.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Roads commonly called King's Highways ſhall hereafter be thirty Feet wide, clear of Dike, Ditch, or Hedge, where not already incloſed, in Terms of the former Statutes; and that Church and Market Roads, and all other Roads, be at leaſt twenty-two Feet wide, clear of Dike, Ditch, or Hedge: And that it ſhall be lawful to the Commiſſioners in each Pariſh, to alter the Courſe of the ſaid Roads, on making ſuch previous Satisfaction to the Owners or Occupiers of the Ground, as any two or more Juſtices ſhall judge reaſonable: Provided, That in altering the ſaid Roads, no Damage ſhall be done to any Houſe or Building, the Side Walls of which are above ten Feet high, or to any Garden, Orchard, Yard, incloſed or planted Walk, or Avenue to any Houſe or incloſed Ground, ſet apart and uſed as a Plantation or Nurſery for Trees, or Pleaſure Ground, Park or Policy, or to any growing Timber that affords Shelter or Beauty to any of the Premiſes: And further, That no old Road ſhall in any caſe be ſtopped, till the new one is made ſufficient, and declared ſuch by a Quarter Seſſion, or a Committee to be appointed by them for that Purpoſe: And that, where Roads run through unincloſed Grounds, Head-ridges ſhall be made on each Side, at leaſt twenty Feet broad, under a Penalty not exceeding five Pounds, nor leſs than forty Shillings Sterling.

Power to alter Roads.

Head-ridges 20 Feet broad.

Ditches to be ſcoured, and Hedges pruned.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where there are Ditches on the Sides of the Roads, the Occupier ſhall keep them ſcoured and clear; and where Branches of Trees or Hedges hang over the Road, ſo as to annoy or interrupt the free Paſſage of the ſame, the Owners ſhall cut or prune them; and on their failing to do ſo when required, any Two or more Juſtices may appoint Perſons to ſcour ſuch Ditches, and cut or prune ſuch Branches or Hedges, at the Owners Expence, to be levied as directed for levying the Converſions of the Statute-work, provided the ſame be done betwixt the firſt Day of October and the firſt Day of February.

XXV.

Method of Proceeding where one Side of a Road has been inclosed, &c.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where one Side of a Road has been inclosed before passing this Act, no Inclosure shall be made on the other Side, without leaving the full Standard Breadth between the Fences: And where the old Inclosures have been made within less than the Half of the Standard Breadth of the Middle of the Road, and the Ground on the opposite Side belongs to a different Person, the Owner of the Side formerly inclosed shall have it in his Option either to remove his Inclosure, or, at the Sight of Two or more Justices, to pay to the Owner of the unincloſed Side, the Value of the Ground which the latter is obliged to leave out for the Road more than what otherways would have fallen upon him.

Penalty on laying Dung, &c. on the Side of the Roads, or dragging Timber thereon.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person shall lay down any Manure for Land, Stones, Timber, or any Nuisance or Hindrance, within Five Yards of the Side of the Roads, except within a sufficient Fence between it and the Road; or leave Carts or Carriages on such Road, or haul or draw any Tree or Piece of Timber, or other Material whatever, on the said Roads, otherways than upon a Wheel-carriage, Sledge, or Cart, or do any Thing whatever whereby the said Roads shall be unnecessarily spoiled or damaged, under the Penalty of Ten Shillings Sterling for each such Offence.

Commissioners may measure the Roads, and erect Mile-stones and Direction-posts.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful to the said Commissioners, at their General Annual Meetings in the respective Parishes, to cause any of the said Roads to be measured, and Stones or Posts to be erected on the Side thereof, denoting the Distance, at each Mile, or at such other Distances as they may judge convenient; also to order, or cause to be erected, Guide-posts, upon such Parts of the Roads where the same are crossed or joined by other Roads, as they shall judge proper; and where any Parts of the Roads are subject to deep or dangerous Floods, to erect graduated Posts at the Entrances, denoting the Depth of the Water at the deepest Parts: And if any Person or Persons shall break down, destroy, or deface, any such Mile-stones, Guide or Graduated Posts, set up by Order of the Commissioners, or shall break down the Cape-stones on the Ledges or Parapet Walls on the Sides of any of the Bridges on the Roads, or turn any Stream of Water upon any Part of the said Roads, unless a sufficient covered or arched Drain or Passage shall have been previously made as herein directed; or shall be aiding or assisting to any of these Offences, or rescue, or attempt to rescue, any Person apprehended for having been guilty of any of them; every Person so offending in any of the Premises, and being thereof lawfully convicted, by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before the Sheriff Depute of the County, or before two or more Justices of the Peace for the County, shall not only be condemned to pay the Whole of the Damages and Expences sustained, but also a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, nor less than Twenty Shillings Sterling; and for a second Offence shall, besides paying the Damages and Expences, pay a Penalty not exceeding ten Pounds, nor less than two Pounds Sterling.

Penalty on destroying or defacing Mile-stones, &c. or breaking down the Parapet Walls of Bridges, &c.

Recovery of the Conversion Money.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall neglect or refuse to pay the aforesaid Conversions, or to work on the Highways when required, then it shall be lawful for any two or more Justices of the Peace, upon an Application signed by the Collector, to grant summary Warrant for distraining the Effects of the Defaulter for Payment of the converted Value before mentioned, and One-third Part more, besides the Expence of Execution; and that the Justices of the Peace aforesaid, or any two or more of them, shall award Damages to the triple Value, to be paid to the Person aggrieved by such Warrant or Warrants, if they shall find the same occasioned by a false and improper Accusation; and in case the Collector shall fail to exact the aforesaid Conversion, he shall be liable, by Sentence of one or more of the said Justices, to pay triple the Conversion Money so omitted to be exacted by him; and that no Person shall be prosecuted or punished, for any Offence against this Act, after the Lapse of six Months from the Offence.

Penalty on Collectors not exacting Conversion.

Not to prosecute after six Months.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to the next Quarter Sessions;

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall consider him or themselves aggrieved by any Order, Procedure, Sentence or Judgment, with respect to any of the Matters or Things by this Act referred to the Determination of the said Commissioners, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person or Persons to appeal or apply for Redress to the Justices of the Peace for the said County, in their then next Quarter Sessions (giving fourteen Days previous Notice to the Parties interested or complained of); but in case there shall not be fourteen Days till the next Quarter Sessions, then such Person or Persons shall be at Liberty to appeal to the Justices at their next subsequent Quarter Sessions, who are hereby authorised and impowered to hear and determine the Matters in Dispute, and whose Judgment therein shall be final and conclusive, and not subject to the further Review of any superior Court.

whose Judgment shall be final.

Expences of the Act to be levied by an Assessment on the Heritors.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Expence of passing this Act shall be settled and allowed by the Justices at their Quarter Sessions, and shall be defrayed and levied by a Tax upon the Heritors or Land-owners, within the said County of Linlithgow, according to the Valuation of their respective Lands, and shall be collected by the Collector of the Land Tax, or any other Person appointed by the said Justices; and it is especially provided and declared, That no Commissioner shall hold any Place of Profit under this Act.

Public Act.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed a Public Act; and all Judges and Justices, and others, are hereby required judicially to take Notice thereof as such, without the same being specially pleaded.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the Twenty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for amending, explaining, and reducing into one Act of Parliament, the Laws relating to the Government of his Majeſty's Ships, Veſſels, and Forces by Sea; it is, among other Things, enacted, That from and after the Twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-nine, no Member of any Court-martial, after the Trial is begun, ſhall go on Shore till Sentence be given, but remain on Board the Ship in which the Court ſhall firſt aſſemble, except in Caſe of Sickneſs, to be judged of by the Court, upon pain of being caſhiered from his Majeſty's Service; nor ſhall the Proceedings of the ſaid Court be delayed by the Abſence of any of its Members, provided a ſufficient Number doth remain to compoſe the ſaid Court, which ſhall, and is thereby required to ſit from Day to Day (Sunday always excepted) until the Sentence be given: And whereas it hath been found by Experience, that the confining Members of Courts-martial to the Ship in which ſuch Courts-martial ſhall firſt aſſemble, until Sentence be given, hath been attended with great Inconveniencies and Prejudice to the Healths of Officers ſummoned to attend as Members of Courts-martial; and it is highly neceſſary and expedient that ſuch Inconveniencies ſhould be prevented in future;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That ſo much and ſuch Part of the ſaid recited Act as directs that no Member of any Court-martial, after the Trial is begun, ſhall go on Shore till Sentence be given, but remain on Board the Ship in which the Court ſhall firſt aſſemble, except in Caſe of Sickneſs, to be judged of by the Court, upon Pain of being caſhiered from his Majeſty's Service; and that the Proceedings of the ſaid Court ſhall not be delayed by the Abſence of any of its Members, provided a ſufficient Number doth remain to compoſe the ſaid Court, which is thereby required to ſit from Day to Day (Sunday always excepted) until the Sentence be given, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby repealed and made void, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

Act 22 Geo. II. recited.

Part of the ſaid Act repealed.

II. Provided

Proceedings of Courts-martial not to be delayed by the Absence of any Members, provided enow remain to make a Court.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Proceedings of any Court-martial shall not be delayed by the Absence of any of its Members, provided a sufficient Number doth remain to compose such Court, which shall, and is hereby required to sit from Day to Day (Sunday always excepted) until the Sentence be given; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding: And no Member of the said Court-martial shall absent himself from the said Court during the whole Course of the Trial, upon Pain of being cashiered from his Majesty's Service, except in Case of Sickness, or other extraordinary and indispensable Occasion, to be judged of by the said Court.

No Member to be absent except on some extraordinary Occasion.

Two Clauses in the said Act 22 Geo. II. recited,

'III. And whereas by two Clauses in the said Act, passed in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, it is enacted and declared, That every Person in the Fleet, who through Cowardice, Negligence, or Disaffection, shall, in Time of Action, withdraw or keep back, or not come into the Fight or Engagement, or shall not do his utmost to take or destroy every Ship which it shall be his Duty to engage, and to assist and relieve all and every of his Majesty's Ships, or those of his Allies, which it shall be his Duty to assist and relieve, and being convicted thereof by the Sentence of a Court-martial, shall suffer Death; and also that every Person in the Fleet, who, through Cowardice, Negligence, or Disaffection, shall forbear to pursue the Chace of any Enemy, Pirate, or Rebel, beaten or flying, or shall not relieve or assist a known Friend in View, to the utmost of his Power, and being convicted of any such Offence by the Sentence of a Court-martial, shall suffer Death: And whereas the restraining of the Power of the Court-martial to the inflicting of the Punishment of Death, in the several Cases recited in the said Clauses, may be attended with great Hardship and Inconvenience;' be

it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful, in the several Cases recited in the said Clauses, for the Court-martial to pronounce Sentence of Death, or to inflict such other Punishment as the Nature and Degree of the Offence shall be found to deserve.

CAP. XIX.

An Act for defraying the Charge of the Pay and Cloathing of the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, for one Year, beginning the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine.

CAP. XX.

An Act for the better raiſing and ſecuring a Fund for a Proviſion for the Widows and Children of the Miniſters of the Church of Scotland, and of the Heads, Principals, and Maſters, in the Univerſities of Saint Andrews, Glaſgow, Edinburgh, and Aberdeen; and for repealing two Acts made in the ſeventeenth and twenty-ſecond Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second for thoſe Purpoſes.

Preamble.

' WHEREAS the Widows and Children of the Miniſters of the Church, and of the Heads, Principals, and Maſters, in the Univerſities of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, had often ' been left in indigent Circumſtances, without any Proviſion for their Subſiſtence or Education: And Act 17 Geo. II. recited.

'whereas all the charitable Deſigns that had been propoſed for the Relief of ſuch Widows and Orphans 'had proved ineffectual, an Act was made, in the ſeventeenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King 'George the Second, intituled, An Act for raiſing and eſtabliſhing a Fund for a Proviſion for the Widows and 'Children of the Miniſters of the Church of Scotland, and of the Heads, Principals, and Maſters of the Uni- 'verſities of Saint Andrews, Glaſgow, and Edinburgh; whereby it was enacted, That the ſaid Miniſters, 'Heads, Principals, and Maſters, were to pay, out of their reſpective Stipends, or Salaries, at their Option, ſome one of the Annual Rates following: That is to ſay, Two Pounds twelve Shillings and Six- 'pence; three Pounds eighteen Shillings and Nine-pence; five Pounds and five Shillings; or Six Pounds 'eleven Shillings and Three-pence, of lawful Money of Great Britain; to be applied for Payment of Life- 'rent Annuities to the reſpective Widows of ſuch Miniſters of the ſaid Church, or Heads, Principals, or 'Maſters in the Univerſities aforeſaid, amounting to ten Pounds, fifteen Pounds, twenty Pounds, or 'twenty-five Pounds, of like Money, in Proportion to ſuch of the aforeſaid Annual Rates as they ſhall 'reſpectively have choſen: And alſo, to the making Proviſion reſpectively for the Children of the ſaid 'Miniſters, Heads, Principals, and Maſters, amounting to the Sum of one hundred Pounds, one hundred 'and fifty Pounds, two hundred Pounds, or two hundred and fifty Pounds, of like Money, and in the 'like Proportion: And it was further enacted, That the Surplus of the aforeſaid Annual Rates, and 'other Sums payable by virtue of the aforeſaid Act, were, after Payment of the annual Expence of Ma- 'nagement, and of the Annuities payable to Widows, and of the Proviſions payable to Children, to be 'lent out to the Miniſters of the Church of Scotland; and to the Heads, Principals, and Maſters, in the 'aforeſaid Univerſities, to the Amount of thirty Pounds of lawful Money to each of them; and that all 'future Surpluſſes were, from Time to Time, to be lent out upon proper Security, until the Capital 'therein mentioned ſhould be made up and completed: And whereas the aforeſaid Act was explained and 'amended, by another Act, made in the twenty-ſecond Year of his ſaid Majeſty's Reign, in which Act 'the Heads, Principals, and Maſters, in the Univerſity of Aberdeen were comprehended, upon their own 'Application and Petition; and Liberty granted for raiſing the Capital to fifty thouſand Pounds of lawful 'Money of Great Britain, over and above the Sums lent to Miniſters, Heads, Principals, and Maſters as 'aforeſaid; making together a Stock or Fund of eighty thouſand Pounds of like Money: And whereas it 'hath been found from Experience, that the granting a Loan of thirty Pounds to each of the aforeſaid 'Miniſters, Heads, Principals, and Maſters, has, in many Inſtances, proved hurtful to their Families, 'and to the Fund; and that the Intereſt of a larger Stock or Capital, over and above the aforeſaid Annual 'Rates, and other Sums payable for Support of the Fund, will be neceſſary for Payment of the annual 'Expence, when the Widows ſhall have arrived at their Maximum;' Therefore, and for removing ſeveral Inconveniencies and Difficulties which have ariſen in the Execution of the aforeſaid Acts, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland, holden in the Month of May, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, and the Truſtees in and by the aforeſaid Acts appointed for executing the ſame, after due Enquiry has been made into the Sentiments of the Miniſters of the ſaid Church, and of the Heads, Principals, and Maſters in the ſaid Univerſities, liable in Payment of one or other of the aforeſaid Annual Rates, do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That every Miniſter who was poſſeſſed of a Benefice in the Church of Scotland, and every Perſon who was poſſeſſed of the Office of Head, Principal, or Maſter, in any of the Univerſities of Saint Andrews, Glaſgow, Edinburgh, and Aberdeen, on or before the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, and who is now ſubject and liable to one of the Annual Rates following, videlicet, Two Pounds twelve Shillings and Six-pence, three Pounds eighteen Shillings and Nine-pence, five Pounds and five Shillings, or ſix Pounds eleven Shillings and Three-pence, of lawful Money of Great Britain, ſhall, in the Manner herein-after directed, continue to pay the ſame yearly at each Term of Candlemas during his Life, notwithſtanding he may have ceaſed, or ſhall hereafter ceaſe to be a Miniſter of the ſaid Church, or a Head, Principal, or Maſter in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid, by Reſignation, Deprivation, or any other Manner of Way.

The ſaid Act amended by Act 22 Geo. II.

Miniſters now in the Church, &c. to continue liable in Payment of their Rates.

Miniſters, &c. hereafter admitted to be ſubject to Rates.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Miniſter, Head, Principal, or Maſter, who has been ordained or admitted ſince the ſaid twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, or who ſhall hereafter be ordained or admitted to a Benefice in the Church of Scotland, or to an Office in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid, ſhall be ſubject and liable to one or other of the aforeſaid Annual Rates, in the Option of the ſaid Miniſters, Heads, Principals, and other Maſters reſpectively, to be made within the Time and in the Manner herein-after directed.

Proviſo.

III. Provided always, That what is herein-above enacted, ſhall not comprehend any Perſon who ſhall hereafter be ordained or admitted to a Benefice in the ſaid Church of a temporary Nature, or to a precarious Office in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid, where there is no Security for the Continuance of ſuch Benefice or Office; and that it ſhall not be competent for any ſuch Perſon to claim the Benefit of this Fund; it being intended only for a Proviſion to the Widows and Children of the Miniſters, Heads, Principals, and Maſters, holding fixed Benefices in the ſaid Church, and permanent Offices in the Univerſities aforeſaid.

Rule for notifying the Option of Rates.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Miniſter, Head, Principal, or Maſter, who has been admitted ſince the ſaid twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, or who ſhall hereafter be admitted to a Benefice in the Church of Scotland, or to an Office in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid, and who was not before entitled to a Benefice in the ſaid Church, or to an Office in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid, ſhall make his Election of one or other of the four above-mentioned yearly Rates, to which he chuſes to be ſubject during his Life, by a Writing ſigned by him, addreſſed to the Truſtees herein-after appointed, and which he ſhall deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, at the General Collector or Receiver's Office at Edinburgh, within the Time respectively after-mentioned; that is to say, Every Minister having a Benefice in the Western or Northern Isles of Scotland, on or before the twenty-sixth Day of January that shall first happen after such Minister shall have had Right to his Benefice for one whole Year; and every other Minister aforesaid, of the Church of Scotland, on or before the twenty-sixth Day of January that shall first happen after such Minister shall have had Right to his Benefice for one Half Year; and every Head, Principal, or Master, in any of the Universities aforesaid, on or before the twenty-sixth Day of January that shall first happen after he hath held his Office for four Calendar Months; and every respective Minister, Head, Principal, or other Master, neglecting to give Notice as aforesaid, shall be deemed and adjudged to have made his Election of the Annual Rate of three Pounds eighteen Shillings and Nine-pence, and shall be liable to the said Rate accordingly during his Life.

Rule for Ministers, &c. making their first Payment,

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Minister, Head, Principal and Master, who has been admitted, since the said twenty-ninth Day of September, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, or who shall hereafter be admitted to a Benefice in the said Church, or to an Office in any of the Universities aforesaid, shall, at the first Term of Candlemas, after he hath notified his Option as aforesaid, make Payment of the Rate or Rates to which he shall then be subjected in virtue of his said Option, or in Default of his making his Election; that is to say, If at the said Term of Candlemas, he shall have enjoyed, and had Right to his Benefice for one Half Year, he shall be liable to the Payment of one Half of his yearly Rate; if he was entitled to his Benefice for one whole Year, he shall be liable to the Payment of one Year's Rate; and if he was entitled to his Benefice for one Year and an Half, he shall be liable to the Payment of one Year and an Half of his Rate: And lastly, if his Salary is of such a Nature as to be payable only de die in diem, he shall make Payment of such Proportion of his Annual Rate as corresponds to the Number of Days from the Date of his Admission to the twenty-second Day of November, immediately preceding the Time limited for making his Election as aforesaid: And every such Minister, Head, Principal, or Master aforesaid, shall, after the aforesaid Term of Candlemas, when first liable in Payment of his Rate as before enacted, make Payment of a full Year's Rate, at each succeeding Term of Candlemas, during his Life, notwithstanding he shall cease to be a Minister of the said Church, or a Head, Principal, or Master, in any of the Universities aforesaid, by Resignation, Deprivation, or any other Manner of Way; all which Rates shall be paid in the Manner herein-after directed.

and future Payments.

Rate to be paid on the Death of a Minister, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the said Ministers of the Church of Scotland, or the Heads, Principals, or other Masters, in any of the Universities aforesaid, shall, at their respective Deaths, have Right to only one Half of the Benefice or Salary of that Year in which they shall happen to die; that one Half of the said yearly Rate shall be payable for that Year out of their Benefice or Salary, at the first Term of Candlemas, after the Death of the said Ministers, Heads, Principals, or Masters respectively, in the Manner herein-after directed.

Ministers, subject to a Tax on account of their Marriage.

VII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Minister, Head, Principal, and Master, who is now possessed of a Benefice in the Church of Scotland, or of an Office in any of the Universities aforesaid, and every other Person who is subject and liable in Payment of one or other of the aforesaid Annual Rates, who shall hereafter marry; and every Minister, Head, Principal, or Master, who shall hereafter be admitted to a Benefice in the said Church, or to an Office in any of the Universities aforesaid, and who is or shall be married, shall, in respect of his Marriage, be subject and liable to a Sum equal to his Annual Rate, and to the like Sum for each succeeding Marriage: which Sum in respect of the Marriage of a Minister of the said Church, Head, Principal, or Master, in any of the Universities aforesaid, shall be paid, over and above his Annual Rate, at the First Term of Candlemas, which shall be one full Year after such Marriage, and his Admission into the said Benefice and Office respectively, in the Manner herein-after directed.

Proviso in favour of those who marry Annuitants.

VIII. Provided always, That if any Minister of the said Church, Head, Principal, or Master in the Universities aforesaid, or any other Person, liable in Payment of one or other of the aforesaid Annual Rates, shall happen to marry a Widow entitled to an Annuity in pursuance of this Act, such Minister, Head, Principal, Master, or other Person, shall not be subject to the Payment of any Sum in respect of such Marriage.

Time when ordained Assistants are subjected to Rates;

IX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Ministers of the Church of Scotland, or such Heads, Principals, or Masters in any of the Universities aforesaid, who have been ordained, or admitted Assistants and Successors to the Ministers, Heads, Principals, or Masters, having Right to a Benefice or Salary respectively, and who are not already subjected to one or other of the aforesaid Annual Rates, or who shall hereafter be ordained or admitted Assistants or Successors to Ministers, or to Heads, Principals, or other Masters, having Right to the Benefice or Salary as aforesaid, where there is no real Vacancy of such Benefice or Office, shall (as to all the Purposes of this Act) be held as admitted to a Benefice in the said Church, or to an Office in any of the Universities aforesaid, only from the Time that such Assistant shall come to have Right to the full Benefice or Salary respectively.

and when they shall make their Election of Rates.

X. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so soon as such Assistants shall come to have Right to their full Benefice or Salary as aforesaid, they shall be obliged to make their Election of one or other of the aforesaid Annual Rates, and shall be liable in Payment thereof, in the same Manner, and within the Time herein-before enacted, with respect to other Ministers of the said Church, and Heads, Principals, and other Masters in the Universities aforesaid, when first admitted to a Benefice or Office respectively.

Ministers, &c. of 40 Years of Age at Admission, and having Children subject to additional Rates.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Minister, Head, Principal, or Master, who shall hereafter be ordained or admitted for the first Time to a Benefice in the Church of Scotland, or to an Office in any of the Universities aforesaid, and who, at the Time of his Ordination or Admission, shall be forty Years of Age, or upwards; and every Assistant to a Minister, Head, Principal, or Master, who, upon coming to the Enjoyment of his full Benefice or Salary as aforesaid, shall be forty Years of Age, or upwards, ſhall, if married, or a Widower, having a Child or Children, be liable in Payment of a Sum equal to two Years and an Half of the Annual Rates to which he is ſubjected in virtue of his Option, or in Default of making his Election as aforeſaid, over and above the Annual and other Rates herein-before enacted, to be paid by the other Miniſters of the ſaid Church, or Heads, Principals, and Maſters in the Univerſities aforeſaid; which Payment ſhall be made at the Term of Candlemas that ſhall firſt happen after he has, or ought to have, made his Election of one or other of the aforeſaid Annual Rates in the Manner herein-before directed.

Proviſo in caſe they are then unmarried.

XII. Provided always, That if ſuch Miniſters, Heads, Principals, or Maſters, or ordained Aſſiſtants, ſhall, at the Time of their Ordination or Admiſſion, or coming to the Enjoyment of their full Benefice or Salary as aforeſaid, be Batchelors, or Widowers having no Children, they ſhall not be liable to the aforeſaid additional Tax while they remain unmarried; but in caſe of their marrying afterwards, they ſhall be obliged to pay the ſaid additional Tax at the Term of Candlemas that ſhall firſt happen twelve Calendar Months thereafter.

Perſons holding two Offices not ſubject to an additional Rate.

XIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when any Miniſter of the Church of Scotland, entitled to a Benefice, is alſo a Head, Principal, or Maſter, in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid, and thereby intitled to a Salary, ſuch Miniſter ſhall not be liable to double Rates, but ſhall only be liable to one Rate in reſpect of both Offices.

Rate payable out of the Ann:

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon the Death of every Miniſter of the Church of Scotland, and of every Head, Principal, or Maſter in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid, or of any Perſon who once enjoyed a Benefice in the ſaid Church, or an Office in any of the aforeſaid Univerſities, and who was ſubject to one or other of the yearly Rates before-mentioned, a Sum equal to one Half of his yearly Rate ſhall be due and payable for the Half Year immediately after his Death, by thoſe who have a Right to the Ann, where the Ann is by Law competent; and where no Ann is competent, the ſame ſhall be paid by his Heirs and Executors; which Half Year's Rate ſhall be paid in the Manner herein-after directed at the firſt Term of Candlemas which ſhall happen a full Year after the Ann ſhall be due and payable, where the Ann is competent; and where no Ann is competent, at the firſt Term of Candlemas which ſhall happen one full Year after the Death of ſuch Miniſter, Head, Principal, or Maſter.

And where no Ann is competent, by the Heirs, &c.

Rates payable out of Vacancies.

XV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Benefice of the Church of Scotland, and every Office of Head, Principal, or Maſter in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid, that are now vacant, or that hereafter ſhall become vacant, ſhall be ſubject and liable to the Sum of three Pounds and two Shillings of lawful Money of Great Britain, for every Half Year during ſuch Vacancy, payable in the Manner herein-after directed at the Term of Candlemas happening twelve Calendar Months after the vacant Stipends and Salaries reſpectively ſhall become due and payable.

Intimation to be made to the Patrons of the reſpective Pariſhes when theſe Rates become due.

XVI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Perſons concerned in Payment of the vacant Stipends and Salaries reſpectively may be duly appriſed of the aforeſaid Tax, the Moderators of Preſbyteries, and the Principals of Univerſities, or their reſpective Clerks, are hereby required, within three Calendar Months after theſe Rates ſhall, from Time to Time, fall due, to intimate the ſame to the proper Officers of the Crown where his Majeſty is Patron, and to other Patrons or their Doers, or to the Heritors and the Perſons themſelves, who are liable in Payment of the vacant Benefices or Salaries; which Intimation ſhall be made by a Writing or Letter delivered to them perſonally, or left at their Dwelling-houſes in the Preſence of two Witneſſes; and the ſaid Moderators and Principals, or their reſpective Clerks, are hereby further required to acquaint the General Collector or Receiver herein-after named, of their having made ſuch Intimation by a Letter bearing the Time thereof; and if they ſhall neglect ſo to do, they ſhall be liable for the full Expences and Damages which the Fund may ſuſtain through ſuch Default.

Time when theſe Rates bear Intereſt.

XVII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the annual and other Rates payable by the Miniſters of the Church of Scotland, by the Heads, Principals, or Maſters, in the Univerſities aforeſaid, or by thoſe who have ceaſed, or ſhall ceaſe to be Miniſters, Heads, Principals, or Maſters, and alſo the Rates payable out of, or in reſpect of the Ann, and the Rates payable out of the vacant Stipends or Salaries reſpectively as before enacted, ſhall be paid to the General Collector or Receiver herein-after named, at his Office in Edinburgh, within eleven Days after the reſpective Terms of Candlemas herein-before appointed; and in Default of ſuch Payment being made within the ſaid Time, the ſaid Miniſters, Heads, Principals, Maſters, and other Perſons reſpectively liable in Payment of the ſame, ſhall thereafter be ſubject to the lawful Intereſt of ſuch Sums remaining unpaid.

Penalty on Preſbyteries, &c. neglecting to make Intimation.

XVIII. Provided always, That if Intimation ſhall not be made of the Sums payable out of the vacant Stipends or Salaries reſpectively, to the Patrons or other Perſons above mentioned, within the Time herein-before required and appointed, the Intereſt of ſuch Sums ſhall not be exigible from thoſe Patrons or Perſons, but ſhall be paid by the Moderators of Preſbyteries or Principals of Univerſities, or their Clerks reſpectively, in Default of their having neglected to make ſuch Intimation.

Rates, &c. privileged Debts.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the aforeſaid yearly Rates and other Sums, payable by the preſent and future Miniſters of the Church of Scotland, and by the preſent and future Heads, Principals, and Maſters, in the Univerſities aforeſaid; and the aforeſaid Sum of thirty Pounds, lent on Bond to Miniſters now in the Church, and to Heads, Principals, and Maſters, now in the Univerſities of Scotland, together with the Intereſt thereof, ſhall be privileged Debts, and preferable to all other Debts of the ſaid Miniſters, Heads, Principals, and Maſters, not only upon their Benefices and Salaries reſpectively, but alſo upon their whole other perſonal Eſtate; and that the aforeſaid Rates, payable out of the Ann, or in reſpect of the Ann, ſhall be privileged Debts, and preferable to all the other perſonal Debts of thoſe who have Right to the Ann, or to the perſonal Debts of the Heirs and Executors of the Miniſters, Heads, Principals, or Maſters, where no Ann is competent; and that the aforeſaid Rates, payable out of the vacant Stipends or Salaries reſpectively, ſhall be a preferable Burthen upon the vacant

Stipends

Stipends and Salaries to all other Debts and Burthens; any Law or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Application of the Money;

XX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the aforeſaid annual and other Sums, payable by the Miniſters of the Church of Scotland, and by the Heads, Principals, and Maſters, in the Univerſities aforeſaid, and other Perſons, and the Sums payable out of the Ann, or in reſpect of the Ann, and alſo the Sums payable out of the vacant Benefices or Salaries, in the Manner herein-before directed, ſhall be applied by Order and Direction of the Truſtees herein-after appointed, and their Succeſſors, to the Uſes and Purpoſes after mentioned; videlicet, In the firſt Place, there ſhall be paid a Sum, not exceeding two hundred and ten Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, yearly, for the Salaries of the General Collector or Receiver, and the Clerk herein-after named and appointed; and in the ſecond Place, two hundred Pounds of like Money ſhall be applied annually for raiſing the Capital herein-after mentioned, until the ſame is completed; and the Remainder of the ſaid ſeveral Sums, after diſcharging the Charges of Management herein-after mentioned, ſhall be applied for Payment of the Annuities to the Widows who are now upon the Fund to which they are reſpectively intitled; which Annuities ſhall continue payable to them on the twenty-ſixth Day of May yearly during their Life, and continuing unmarried; and alſo for the Payment of an Annuity to the Widow of every Miniſter of the Church of Scotland, and of every Head, Principal, and Maſter, in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid, who hath been ſubject to one or other of the annual Rates above mentioned, in Proportion to the Rate to which the deceaſed Huſband of the reſpective Widow was liable, in the Manner following; that is to ſay, If the Huſband was liable to the annual Rate of two Pounds twelve Shillings and Six-pence, his Widow ſhall be intitled to an Annuity of ten Pounds; if the Huſband was liable to the annual Rate of three Pounds eighteen Shillings and Nine-pence, his Widow ſhall be intitled to an Annuity of fifteen Pounds; if the Huſband was liable to the annual Rate of five Pounds and five Shillings, his Widow ſhall be intitled to an Annuity of twenty Pounds; and if the Huſband was liable to the annual Rate of ſix pounds eleven Shillings and Three-pence, his Widow ſhall be intitled to an Annuity of twenty-five Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain: Which reſpective Annuities of thoſe Widows who ſhall hereafter come upon the Fund, ſhall be computed to run from the twenty-ſixth Day of May, or the twenty-ſecond Day of November, which ſhall be one full Half Year after the Huſband's Death, and ſhall be due on the twenty-ſixth Day of May, or the twenty-ſecond Day of November thereafter, by equal Portions, and the firſt Year's or Half Year's Annuity reſpectively ſhall be payable on the twenty-ſixth Day of May, which ſhall be a full Year, or a full Half Year, reſpectively, after the Time from which the Annuity ſhall be computed as aforeſaid; and the ſaid Annuity ſhall ſo continue payable on the ſaid twenty-ſixth Day of May yearly, during the Widow's Life, and her remaining unmarried; and upon the Death or Marriage of any Widow, who is now upon the Fund, or who ſhall hereafter come upon the Fund, her ſaid Annuity ſhall ceaſe and determine upon the twenty-ſixth Day of May, or the twenty-ſecond Day of November, immediately preceding her Death or Marriage: And if ſhe ſhall happen to die, or to marry before the Elapſe of ten Years, from the Commencement of her Annuity, and her former Huſband ſhall have left a Child or Children, who at the ſaid Widow's Death or Marriage ſhall be under the Age of ſixteen Years, ſuch Child or Children under the Age of ſixteen Years, ſhall be intitled to ſuch a Sum of Money as ſhall be equal to ten Years of the ſaid Widow's Annuity, deducting ſo much thereof as ſhall have been received by her; which Sum ſhall be equally divided among them, if there happen to be more than one Child.

viz. For Payment of Charges of Management; for raiſing the Capital; and for paying the Annuities to Widows.

Rule for computing Annuities.

Time when Annuities ſhall ceaſe or determine.

Children under Age intitled to Reverſion of Annuities.

XXI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if an Annuitant ſhall hereafter marry a Miniſter, Head, Principal, or Maſter, or any other Perſon liable in Payment of one or other of the aforeſaid annual Rates, ſhe ſhall be intitled, until the Capital herein-after mentioned is completed, to one Half of her Annuity; and ſhall, after the ſaid Capital is completed, be intitled to her full Annuity; which Half or full Annuity ſhall ceaſe and determine upon the twenty-ſixth Day of May, or the twenty-ſecond Day of November, immediately preceding the Diſſolution of the Marriage: And if ſuch Annuitant ſhall happen to be the Survivor, ſhe ſhall thereafter be intitled to an Annuity correſponding to her laſt Huſband's annual Rate; which new Annuity ſhall commence and determine in the ſame Manner as is herein-before enacted with reſpect to the Annuities of other Widows who ſhall hereafter come upon the Fund.

Widows marrying Miniſters, &c. to continue Annuitants.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if her former Huſband ſhall have left a Child or Children, who at the Time of her ſaid Marriage ſhall be under the Age of ſixteen Years, and ſhe ſhall not have drawn ten Years Annuity, in this Caſe her Annuity ſhall ceaſe and determine on the twenty-ſixth Day of May, or the twenty-ſecond Day of November, immediately preceding her Marriage; and ſuch Child or Children ſhall be intitled to the Reverſion of her ten Years Annuity, in the like Manner as is before enacted with reſpect to Children under ſixteen Years of Age, whoſe Father's Widow ſhall marry any Perſon not ſubject to one or other of the aforeſaid annual Rates.

Proviſo in favour of Children under Age.

XXIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Miniſter of the Church of Scotland, and every Head, Principal, or Maſter, in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid, or any other Perſon who ſhall have been ſubject to one or other of the aforeſaid annual Rates, and who ſhall die, not leaving a Widow, but one or more Children, ſuch Child or Children ſhall be intitled to a Sum equal to ten Years of the Annuity that would have been payable to their Father's Widow; which Sum, in caſe there are more Children than one, ſhall be equally divided among them.

Sums to be paid to Children whoſe Fathers died Widowers.

XXIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Proviſions to Children of the Miniſters of the Church of Scotland, or to the Children of the Heads, Principals, and Maſters, in the Univerſities aforeſaid, falling due in conſequence of the Death of their reſpective Fathers, or of the Death or Marriage of the Widows of their ſaid Fathers, in any one Year, computed from the twenty-ſecond Day of November, to the twenty-ſecond Day of November, in the Year following, ſhall be payable on the thirteenth Day of Auguſt, in the Manner herein-after mentioned.

When their Proviſions are payable.

XXV. And

Truſtees, in certain Caſes, to make Stoppages from the Widows Annuities.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Truſtees herein-after appointed, and they are hereby required to ſtop and deduct the one Half of every Annuity which ſhall hereafter become payable for the firſt Time to the Widow of every Miniſter of the Church of Scotland, and of every Head, Principal, or Maſter, in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid, and of every other Perſon ſubject and liable to one or other of the aforeſaid annual Rates, who ſhall not have paid, during the Time of, and by his being a Contributor to the ſaid Fund, a Sum equal to the Amount of three Years of the Annuity correſpondent to his annual Rate, and the like Sum annually, during the Life of ſuch Widow, until either ſhe ſhall pay into the Fund, or until ſuch Stoppages and Deductions ſhall amount to as much as, together with the Sums paid by her Huſband, without computing Intereſt thereon, ſhall make up or be equal to three Years of her Annuity; and it ſhall and may be lawful for the Truſtees aforeſaid, and they are hereby required to ſtop and detain, out of the Sum or Proviſion which ſhall become payable to the Child or Children of every Miniſter, Head, Principal, Maſter, or other Perſon, ſubject and liable to an annual Rate as aforeſaid, who ſhall not have paid a Sum equal to three Years Annuity correſponding to his annual Rate, ſo much as, together with the Sums paid by him, or that may have been deducted from his Widow, without computing Intereſt thereon, ſhall make up, or be equal to three Years of the ſaid correſponding Annuity; and the Widows and Children aforeſaid ſhall only be intitled, in the reſpective Caſes and Events aforeſaid, to the Remainder, after the ſaid Stoppages or Deductions from the Annuities or Sums provided to them in Manner aforeſaid.

alſo from the Children's Proviſions.

Loan of 30 l. to be diſcontinued.

XXVI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That to prevent in future the Inconveniencies which have ariſen from lending thirty Pounds to the Miniſters of the Church of Scotland, and to the Heads, Principals, and Maſters, in the Univerſities aforeſaid, it ſhall not hereafter be competent to any of the ſaid Miniſters, Heads, Principals, or Maſters, to demand, or for the Truſtees herein-after appointed to grant him ſuch a Loan.

Loans already granted to be repaid, with Intereſt.

XXVII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Miniſter of the Church of Scotland, and every Head, Principal, or Maſter, in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid, who has received ſuch Loan, ſhall continue to pay the Intereſt thereof, at the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, at the Term of Candlemas, yearly, along with his annual Rate; and ſhall be, and he is hereby required, to pay the principal Sum upon his ceaſing to be a Miniſter of the ſaid Church, or a Head, Principal, or Maſter, in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid; and in caſe of his Death, the ſame ſhall be repaid by his Heirs, Executors, and Succeſſors, and the ſaid Loans ſhall bear lawful Intereſt from the twenty-ſixth Day of May, or the twenty-ſecond Day of November, immediately preceding the reſpective Terms of Repayment as above mentioned.

Loans may be repaid upon giving Notice thereof.

XXVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall be competent for every Miniſter of the Church of Scotland, and for every Head, Principal, or Maſter, in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid, who has received the aforeſaid Loan, to repay the ſame to the General Collector or Receiver herein-after mentioned, at the Term of Candlemas or Whitſunday in any one Year, notwithſtanding his continuing to be a Miniſter of the ſaid Church, or a Head, Principal, or Maſter, in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid, upon tranſmitting previous Notice of his Intention to the Clerk of the Truſtees herein-after mentioned, at leaſt three Calendar Months before the ſaid Term.

Capital to be raiſed to 100,000 l.

XXIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Capital which is now limited to eighty thouſand Pounds, including the Loans granted to Miniſters, Heads, Principals, and Maſters, as aforeſaid, ſhall be raiſed to the Sum of one hundred thouſand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, that the Fund hereby eſtabliſhed may be ſufficient for anſwering the ſeveral Purpoſes of this Act; and particularly for Payment of the Annuities that will fall due to Widows, when their Number ſhall have arrived at the Maximum.

Surpluſſes of the annual Produce above the annual Expence to be applied for raiſing the Capital;

XXX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in order the more effectually to raiſe the ſaid Capital of one hundred thouſand Pounds, the Truſtees herein-after appointed ſhall order and direct, and take care that the Sum of two hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain ſhall, as before enacted, be applied annually for that Purpoſe, until the Capital is made up; and ſhall likewiſe order, that if in any one Year before the Capital is completed, the Intereſt thereof, ſo far as raiſed, and the Intereſt of the Sums lent to Miniſters, Heads, Principals, and Maſters, as aforeſaid, together with the annual and other Rates, and the Rates payable out of or in reſpect of the Ann, and alſo the Rates payable out of the vacant Stipends or Salaries reſpectively, ſhall exceed the Charges of Management, and the Sums hereby ordered to be applied for raiſing the Capital, and the Annuities due to Widows, and the Proviſions due to Children for that Year, ſuch Exceſs or Surplus ſhall be applied to the Purpoſe aforeſaid, of raiſing the Capital Stock or Fund, by lending out the ſame along with the Sums herein-before appointed to be lent out for ſuch reſpective Year; and the ſaid Truſtees ſhall further order, that when any of the Sums lent to Miniſters, Heads, Principals, or Maſters, aforeſaid, ſhall be repaid, ſuch Sums ſhall alſo be applied towards raiſing the aforeſaid Capital of one hundred thouſand Pounds, until the Whole of theſe Loans are thus transferred to the ſaid Capital: Which Capital being ſo made up, ſhall be no further increaſed.

and likewiſe ſuch 30 l. as ſhall be repaid.

No Encroachment to be made on the Capital, nor the raiſing thereof retarded.

XXXI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That although the annual Surplus aforeſaid, in any one Year after Payment of the Charges of Management, and of the Sum hereby appointed to be applied towards raiſing the Capital Stock or Fund for that Year, ſhall not be ſufficient to pay the whole Annuities to Widows, and the Proviſions payable to Children for that Year; yet no Encroachment ſhall on that Account be made on the Capital, ſo far as then raiſed; nor ſhall the further raiſing thereof be thereby ſtopped or retarded; but ſuch Deficiency or Short-coming ſhall firſt affect the Sums payable to ſuch Annuitants as have married any Perſon liable to one of the aforeſaid annual Rates; and then the Children's Proviſions proportionably; and laſtly, the Sums payable to ſuch Annuitants as have remained unmarried proportionably, without regard to the Order of Time in which theſe Annuities and Proviſions become due; and the ſame ſhall again be made good to them out of the Surplus of the Produce of the ſucceeding ceeding Year or Years, in this Order; videlicet, After Deduction of the Expence of Management, and of the Sum to be applied for raiſing the Capital as aforeſaid, the Sums due to Annuitants (who have remained unmarried) unpaid in the preceding Year, ſhall be paid and made good in the firſt Place, and then their Annuities of the current Year; and after the ſaid Annuities, the Children's Proviſions of the former Year, and then their Proviſions for the current Year; and laſtly, the Sums due to ſuch Annuitants as have married any Perſon liable to one of the aforeſaid annual Rates for the former Year or Years; and then their Annuities for the current Year.

If the Capital be diminiſhed how to be made up.

XXXII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the aforeſaid Capital ſhall hereafter be diminiſhed, either by the Inſolvency of Debtors, or by any other Accident whatever, ſuch Diminution ſhall from Time to Time be made up by After-Surpluſſes, in the ſame Manner as the Capital was originally raiſed.

Plan to be formed for diſpoſing of the Surplus of the Fund, after the Capital is raiſed.

XXXIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſo ſoon as the Capital ſhall amount to ninety-ſeven thouſand Pounds, the Truſtees herein-after appointed ſhall intimate the ſame to the ſeveral Preſbyteries and Univerſities aforeſaid, deſiring their reſpective Members ſubject and liable to one of the aforeſaid annual Rates, to ſignify their Opinion, in caſe, in any one Year after the Capital is raiſed to one hundred thouſand Pounds, the annual Produce ſhall exceed the annual Expence, in what Manner the Surplus ſhall be diſpoſed of; that the Truſtees, after collecting their Sentiments, ſhall form a Plan for the Application of ſuch Surplus to ſuch Purpoſes as ſhall appear moſt agreeable to the Contributors, and moſt for the Benefit of all concerned; that a Plan being ſo formed, ſhall be tranſmitted for the Conſideration of the aforeſaid Members of the Preſbyteries and Univerſities, and thereafter carried into Execution, if it ſhall obtain the Sanction of Two-thirds of their Number.

In what Caſe the ſaid Plan may be ſet aſide.

XXXIV. Provided always, That if at any Time thereafter the ſaid Plan ſhall be diſapproved of by Two-thirds of the ſaid Miniſters, Heads, Principals, and Maſters, liable in Payment of an annual Rate as aforeſaid, it ſhall be ſet aſide, and a new Plan adopted, agreeable to their Sentiments.

Truſtees appointed.

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Miniſter who is now, or ſhall hereafter be poſſeſſed of a Benefice within the Bounds of the Preſbytery of Edinburgh, and every Perſon who is now, or ſhall hereafter be poſſeſſed of the Office of Head, Principal, or Maſter, in the Univerſity of Edinburgh, ſhall be, and they are hereby nominated and appointed the ordinary and ſtated Truſtees, for putting into Execution all the Powers in and by this Act given, during their continuing poſſeſſed of a Benefice or Office reſpectively in the Preſbytery or Univerſity aforeſaid.

Miniſters in the Univerſities and Preſbyteries formerly Truſtees continued, unleſs they decline the Office.

XXXVI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Miniſter having an Office in any of the ſaid Univerſities of Saint Andrews, Glaſgow, and Aberdeen; and every Miniſter having a Benefice in any of the Preſbytery Seats in Scotland (Edinburgh excepted), and who in virtue of the aforeſaid in Part recited Acts did become a Truſtee, ſhall continue to exerciſe that Office, unleſs he ſhall within twelve Calendar Months after the Time of paſſing this preſent Act, by a Writing under his Hand, ſignify to the Truſtees aforeſaid, that he declines continuing in the ſaid Office.

Miniſters admitted to any Office in the Univerſities of St. Andrews, Glaſgow, and Aberdeen, &c. to be Truſtees.

XXXVII. And be it alſo enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall be competent for every Miniſter who ſhall be hereafter admitted to any Office in the ſaid Univerſities of Saint Andrews, Glaſgow, and Aberdeen, or to a Benefice in any of the ſaid Preſbytery Seats (Edinburgh excepted), to become a Truſtee, upon his ſignifying by a Writing under his Hand, to be delivered to the Clerk of the Truſtees herein-after named, within twelve Calendar Months after his Admiſſion, that he chuſes to accept of the ſaid Truſt; and in Default of his making ſuch Intimation, he is hereby excluded from becoming a Truſtee at any Time thereafter, during his continuing in Poſſeſſion of ſuch Office or Benefice reſpectively.

Such Truſtees only to continue during their being in theſe Offices.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Miniſters who now are, or ſhall hereafter become Truſtees, in conſequence of their having an Office in any of the aforeſaid Univerſities of Saint Andrews, Glaſgow, or Aberdeen, or a Benefice in any of the aforeſaid Preſbytery Seats, ſhall only continue Truſtees during their remaining in Poſſeſſion of ſuch Office or Benefice reſpectively.

Each Preſbytery to elect one Truſtee.

XXXIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for every Preſbytery in Scotland (Edinburgh excepted), hereafter annually to elect one of their Number to be a Truſtee for one Year, commencing from the firſt Day of May yearly; and that it ſhall and may be lawful for each of the ſaid Univerſities of Saint Andrews, Glaſgow, and Aberdeen, annually, to elect two of their Number, not being Miniſters, to be Truſtees for one Year, commencing from the ſaid firſt Day of May yearly.

Truſtees ſo elected may refuſe to act.

XL. Provided always, That it ſhall be in the Power of the ſaid annual Truſtees, elected by the ſaid Preſbyteries and Univerſities, reſpectively to refuſe to accept, or to act in the ſaid Office, ſo as ſuch Refuſal be notified to the reſpective Preſbyteries or Univerſities at the Time of Election, if the Truſtees elect be preſent, or elſe at the next Meeting of the Preſbytery or Univerſity reſpectively, after the Election ſhall come to his or their Knowledge.

Truſtees authoriſed to levy the Rates, &c.

XLI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ordinary and ſtated Truſtees, and the other Truſtees before nominated and appointed, are hereby authoriſed to levy the reſpective annual Rates, and other Sums payable by virtue of this Act, and to iſſue the ſame for the Purpoſes herein-before expreſſed, and for raiſing the aforeſaid Capital to one hundred thouſand Pounds by Loans to be made at Intereſt, not lower than one Pound per Centum under the lawful Intereſt for the Time being, to any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, and to uplift the ſaid Capital in Whole or in Part, and to employ the ſame from Time to Time, and for putting into Execution all the other Powers in and by this Act given.

Truſtees not to employ any Part of the Capital without Conſent of Lord Preſident, &c.

XLII. Provided always, That it ſhall not be in the Power of the ſaid Truſtees to lend out, uplift, or re-employ any Part of the Capital, but with the Advice and Conſent of the Lord Preſident and the two Senior Judges of the Court of Seſſion, the Lord Chief Baron and the Senior Baron of the Court of Exchequer, and of the Lord Juſtice General and Lord Juſtice Clerk for the Time being, or any three of them.

XLIII. And

Quorum of Truſtees, and Meetings appointed.

XLIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Truſtees, or any nine of them, whereof ſix to be Miniſters of the Church of Scotland, to execute all the Powers committed to them by this Act; and for that End they ſhall have four ſtated Meetings annually, to be held on the third Tueſday in the Month of February, the third Tueſday in the Month of March, the third Tueſday in the Month of May, and the fourth Tueſday in the Month of November, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, in the Hall of the Houſe built by the ſaid Truſtees within the City of Edinburgh, with Power to the ſaid Truſtees, or any nine of them, as aforeſaid, to chuſe one of their Number to be Præſes, and with Power to adjourn themſelves, from Time to Time, to ſuch Times and Places as they ſhall ſee Cauſe; and that it ſhall and may be lawful for the Præſes of the laſt Meeting of the ſaid Truſtees, or in his Abſence the Moderator of the Preſbytery of Edinburgh for the Time being, or in his Abſence the eldeſt Miniſter of the City of Edinburgh, to call Meetings of the ordinary and ſtated Truſtees as Occaſion ſhall require, at ſuch Times and Places as he ſhall judge proper, by cauſing a Summons to be left at their reſpective Dwelling-houſes, twenty-four Hours at leaſt previous to the Meeting; and the ſaid Præſes, Moderator of the Preſbytery of Edinburgh, and eldeſt Miniſter of the ſaid City reſpectively, are hereby required, upon the Requeſt of any five or more of the Truſtees, to call ſuch Meetings in like Manner; which Meetings of the ordinary and ſtated Truſtees are hereby impowered, if they ſhall ſee Cauſe, to call a General Meeting of the whole Truſtees, by giving Notice in the Edinburgh Newſpapers fourteen Days at leaſt previous to the Meeting, by an Advertiſement bearing the ſpecial Purpoſe for which ſuch Meeting is called.

Manner in which the Meetings of the Truſtees are to be called.

Former Clerk to the Truſtees eſtabliſhed in his Office.

'XLIV. And whereas Alexander Stevenſon, one of the Depute Clerks of the Court of Seſſion, was, on 'the twenty-fifth Day of November, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty, elected, and has ſince that 'Time officiated as Clerk to the ſaid Truſtees, with a Salary of fifty Pounds of lawful Money of Great 'Britain, and gave Bond, with ſufficient Sureties, for the faithful Diſcharge of his Office, under the 'Penalty of one hundred Pounds of like Money,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Alexander Stevenſon ſhall, and he hereby is appointed to exerciſe the ſaid Office of Clerk to the Truſtees; and ſhall, at his own Charge, provide proper Books, and ſhall inſert therein, from Time to Time, their Proceedings; and ſhall write, or cauſe to be written, their Orders; and ſhall have an Officer for advertiſing the Meetings of the Truſtees, for which Officer he ſhall be allowed a Sum not exceeding five Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain.

Succeeding Clerks to give Security.

XLV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That his Succeſſors to be choſen in the Manner herein-after directed, with a Salary not exceeding the like Sum of fifty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, and five Pounds of like Money for his Officer, ſhall, upon his Election, give Bond to the Truſtees, with one or more ſufficient Sureties, under the Penalty of one hundred Pounds, of like Money, for the faithful Diſcharge of his Office, as herein-before and after enacted reſpecting the preſent Clerk.

Former Collector eſtabliſhed in his Office, &c.

'XLVI. And whereas the Reverend Doctor Alexander Webſter, one of the Miniſters of the City of Edin-'burgh, was, upon the twenty-ſixth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, elected, 'and has ſince that Time officiated as General Collector or Receiver of the aforeſaid annual and other 'Rates and Sums payable for Support of the Fund, with a Salary of one hundred and fifty-five Pounds of 'lawful Money of Great Britain, and gave Bond to the Truſtees, with ſufficient Sureties, to the Extent 'of ſeven thouſand Pounds of like Money, for the faithful Diſcharge of his Truſt, and that he would 'effectually levy and make good the annual and other Rates payable by the Miniſters of the ſaid Church, 'and by the Heads, Principals, and Maſters, in the Univerſities aforeſaid;' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the aforeſaid General Collector or Receiver ſhall, and he is hereby appointed to execute the ſaid Office of General Collector or Receiver of the aforeſaid annual and other Rates payable by the ſaid Miniſters, Heads, Principals, and Maſters reſpectively, and ſhall effectually levy and make good the ſame.

Proviſo.

XLVII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That the aforeſaid General Collector or Receiver ſhall not be obliged to make good the Rates that ſhall become due by the ſaid Miniſters, Heads, Principals, and Maſters, after they ſhall ceaſe to have Right to a Benefice in the ſaid Church, or to an Office in any of the Univerſities aforeſaid.

Power to the Collector to recover Rates.

XLVIII. Provided always, That the aforeſaid General Collector or Receiver ſhall uſe ultimate legal Diligence for the Recovery of theſe Rates within twelve Calendar Months after they ſhall become due, which he ſhall report and inſtruct annually to the Truſtees at their ſtated Meeting on the fourth Tueſday in the Month of November, when his Accounts are to be cleared; but if no Alteration ſhall happen in the Circumſtances of ſuch Perſons againſt whom the ſaid General Collector or Receiver has uſed ultimate Diligence without Effect, he, upon giving Evidence thereof to the Truſtees, and their ſuſtaining the ſame, ſhall be acquitted and diſcharged, notwithſtanding he ſhall not have renewed ſuch Diligence for the preceding Year's Rate.

The Collector to execute his Office of levying and applying the Procuce of the Fund as directed by the Truſtees.

XLIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the General Collector or Receiver aforeſaid is hereby authoriſed and impowered to levy the Rates payable out of or in reſpect of the Ann, and alſo the Rates payable out of the vacant Stipends or Salaries reſpectively, and all the other Sums payable for Support of the Fund in the Manner herein-before directed; and to iſſue the Annuities to Widows, and the Proviſions to Children; and to lend out the Surpluſſes upon Intereſt, from Time to Time, as he ſhall be directed by the Truſtees.

Proviſo.

L. Provided always, That it ſhall not be in the Power of the ſaid General Collector or Receiver to lend out any Part of the Capital, or to uplift or re-employ the ſame, without a particular Appointment of the ſaid Truſtees.

Collector to keep a Public Office in Edinburgh.

LI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid General Collector or Receiver ſhall keep a Public Office within the City of Edinburgh, in which Attendance ſhall be given from the Hour of Ten to Twelve in the Forenoon of every lawful Day for thirty Days immediately following the iſſuing of the the Warrants to him, in the Manner herein-after mentioned; and from the Hour of Ten to Twelve in the Forenoon of every Wedneſday throughout the reſt of the Year.

Collector to deduct from Widows Annuities, and Childrens Proviſions, Sums due by their deceaſed Huſbands or Fathers.

LII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid General Collector or Receiver, at the Sight and Direction of the aforeſaid Truſtees, to retain and deduct from the Annuities of Widows, and from the Proviſions of Children, ſuch Sum or Sums as ſhall be due by the reſpective deceaſed Huſbands or Fathers, or their Heirs and Executors, and which have not been or cannot be recovered, upon the ſaid General Collector or Receiver making over his Claim and Demand upon the Deceaſed, his Heirs or Executors, with all the Privileges and Preferences thereunto belonging, in favour of the Widow or Children reſpectively.

Collector may appoint Deputies.

LIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid General Collector or Receiver ſhall and may appoint one or more Deputies, for whom he ſhall be anſwerable, for levying the annual Rates and other Sums herein-before directed to be paid to him at his Office in Edinburgh, in caſe the ſame ſhall not be paid within the Time before limited.

Expences in recovering Sums due from Debtors to be paid out of their Eſtates.

LIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the full Expences that ſhall be incurred by the ſaid General Collector or Receiver, or his Deputies, in recovering Payment of the reſpective Sums from the Debitors therein, or out of their Effects, through their Default in not making regular Payment as aforeſaid, ſhall be recovered out of their reſpective Eſtates without any Abatement or Mitigation.

Lords of Council and Seſſion to iſſue Letters of Horning againſt Miniſters, &c. for compelling Payment;

LV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Lords of Council and Seſſion in Scotland, or any one of them, to iſſue Letters of Horning, at the Inſtance of the ſaid General Collector or Receiver, againſt all and every the Miniſters of the Church of Scotland, and the Heads, Principals, and Maſters, in the Univerſities aforeſaid, and the other Perſons ſubject and liable to one or other of the aforeſaid annual Rates, and againſt all and ſundry the Perſons liable in Payment of the Rates out of or in reſpect of the Ann, and vacant Stipends or Salaries reſpectively, for compelling Payment of the aforeſaid Sums, Principal and Intereſt, to the Payment of which they, or any of them, are or may be liable by virtue of this Act; and that the ſaid Letters of Horning ſhall be executed, and other Proceedings ſhall be had thereon, in the ſame Form and Manner as is now in Uſe and authoriſed by Law with reſpect to Hornings, at the Inſtance of the ſaid Miniſters of the Church of Scotland, for compelling Payment of their Stipends; and that no Suſpenſion of any Charge, to be given in virtue of ſuch Letters of Horning, ſhall be paſſed without Conſignation of the Sums charged for, as is alſo in Uſe and authoriſed by Law in the aforeſaid Caſe; any Law or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

and for recovering Sums due from vacant Benefices and Salaries,

LVI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the Moderators of Preſbyteries, Principals of Univerſities, or their reſpective Clerks, ſhall neglect to intimate, from Time to Time, the Sums that ſhall fall due out of vacant Benefices or Salaries reſpectively, within the Time, and to the Perſons herein-before particularly appointed, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid General Collector or Receiver, to charge them with Horning for compelling Payment of the Damages and Expences which the Fund may ſuſtain through ſuch Default; and that the ſaid Letters of Horning ſhall be executed, and other Proceedings ſhall be had thereon, in the ſame Manner as is above enacted, reſpecting Hornings iſſued againſt the aforeſaid Miniſters of the Church, and Heads, Principals, and other Maſters, in the Univerſities aforeſaid.

Collector, or his Sureties in caſe of his Death, may recover Sums appointed to be made good by him.

LVII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid General Collector or Receiver, in caſe of his being removed from his Office, before he ſhall have received the Rates that are by this Act appointed to be made good by him, or for his Sureties in caſe of his Death, to levy the ſame, in the ſame Manner and by the ſame Diligence as was competent for him to have uſed whilſt in Office, with all the Privileges and Preferences to which he was entitled.

Reſignation of Offices to be made to the Truſtees at one of their ſtated Meetings.

LVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Reſignations of the Office, whether of Clerk to the Truſtees, or of General Collector or Receiver, ſhall be made to the Truſtees at one or other of their four ſtated Meetings herein-before appointed to be held; and that all Reſignations of the aforeſaid Offices, at any other Meetings of the Truſtees, ſhall be, and are hereby declared to be null and void.

Truſtees may ſuſpend or remove their Officers upon reaſonable Cauſe.

LIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Truſtees, for reaſonable Cauſes, to ſuſpend or remove their Clerk, or the General Collector or Receiver, and thereupon to elect another Clerk, or General Collector or Receiver, who is hereby impowered to act until the next Meeting of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland; which Meeting is hereby authoriſed finally to determine upon the Cauſes of the Suſpenſion or Deprivation of the former Clerk, or the former General Collector or Receiver; and ſhall either reſtore him to his Office, or continue the Clerk, or the General Collector or Receiver elected by the Truſtees; or remit to the Truſtees to elect another Clerk, or another General Collector or Receiver, with Power to act until the next Meeting of the General Aſſembly.

Vacancies of the Office of Clerk or Collector to be filled up by the Truſtees, until the Meeting of the General Aſſembly.

LX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That on every other Vacancy of the Office of Clerk to the ſaid Truſtees, or of the Office of General Collector or Receiver, whether ſuch Vacancy ſhall happen by Reſignation, Death, Diſapprobation of the General Aſſembly aforeſaid, or any other Way, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Truſtees to elect a Clerk, or a General Collector or Receiver, who ſhall have Power to act until the next Meeting of the General Aſſembly; which Meeting is hereby impowered to continue the Clerk, or the General Collector or Receiver, choſen by the Truſtees, or to diſapprove of him; and in caſe the Clerk, or the General Collector or Receiver, choſen by the Truſtees, ſhall be diſapproved of by the General Aſſembly, the ſaid Truſtees ſhall thereupon elect another Clerk, or General Collector or Receiver, who is hereby impowered to act until the next Meeting of the General Aſſembly: It being the true Meaning and Intent of this Act, that in all Caſes of a Vacancy, either in the Office of Clerk to the Truſtees, or of General Collector or Receiver, whether the ſaid Vacancy is occaſioned by Reſignation, Suſpenſion, Deprivation, Death, Diſapprobation of the General Aſſembly, or any other Way; the ſaid Truſtees ſhall, in the firſt Inſtance, elect a new Clerk, or a General Collector or Receiver; ſuch Election being always ſubjected to the Review of the General Aſſembly, in Manner aforeſaid.

Proviſo.

LXI. Provided always, That the Clerk, or General Collector or Receiver, ſo named and elected by the Truſtees, ſhall be allowed a proportionable Part of the Salary annexed to his Office during the Time that he ſhall have diſcharged his Truſt.

One or two may be choſen to execute the Office of Collector.

LXII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Truſtees to elect one or two Perſons, but no greater Number, to execute the Office of General Collector or Receiver, whoſe Election ſhall be ſubject to the Review of the next General Aſſembly, in the Manner herein-before deſcribed.

Notice to be given of Election of Officers;

LXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Elections of the Clerk, or of the General Collector or Receiver aforeſaid, by the Truſtees, whether ſuch Election ſhall be made in a ſtated Meeting of the Truſtees, or in a Meeting called for that Purpoſe, Notice ſhall be given, in the Edinburgh Newſpapers, of the intended Election, and of the Day appointed for the ſame, at leaſt fourteen Days before the Day of Election.

or ſuch Elections to be void.

LXIV. And it is hereby enacted, That every Election, whether of Clerk to the Truſtees, or of the General Collector or Receiver aforeſaid, made by the Truſtees, without ſuch public Notice, ſhall, to all Intents and Purpoſes, be null and void.

General Collector to give Security.

LXV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the General Collector or Receiver, ſo elected and choſen, ſhall, upon his Admiſſion, give Bond to the ſaid Truſtees, with one or more ſufficient Sureties, to the Extent of ſeven thouſand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, for the faithful Diſcharge and Execution of his Truſt, in the Manner herein before and after enacted, reſpecting the preſent General Collector or Receiver; and ſhall, in Conſideration of his whole Trouble and Expence, be allowed an annual Salary, not exceeding the Sum of one hundred and fifty-five Pounds of like Money.

Preſbyteries to make up Liſts of Miniſters, &c. admitted to Benefices, &c.

LXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Preſbytery in Scotland, and each of the Univerſities aforeſaid, ſhall from Time to Time make up Liſts of all the Miniſters, Heads, Principals, or Maſters, admitted into Benefices or Offices, within their reſpective Preſbyteries or Univerſities, with the particular Dates of their Admiſſions, and of their reſpective Ages at ſuch Admiſſions, properly certified; and with a particular Account, whether ſuch Miniſter or Member of the Univerſity be married, or a Widower having Children, and with the Date of his Marriage, if the ſame ſhall happen afterwards; and alſo a particular Liſt of the Miniſters of the Preſbytery and Members of the Univerſity reſpectively, who ſhall have died within the Year; and whether they have left a Widow and Children, with the Name of the Widow, and the Names and Ages of the Children; and alſo a Liſt of all the Widows who have died, or been married, within the Year, with the Dates of their Death or Marriage, and what Children of their former Huſband's were alive at the Time of the ſaid Widow's Death or Marriage; and alſo Liſts of all the Vacancies happening within their ſaid Preſbyteries or Univerſities reſpectively, with the Dates and Cauſe of the Vacancy: Which Liſts, as alſo all other Liſts that ſhall be found neceſſary by the Truſtees, and by them appointed to be made up, ſhall be computed from the twenty-ſecond Day of November in each Year, to the twenty-ſecond Day of November in the Year following, and ſhall be atteſted by the Moderator and Clerk of the Preſbytery, and by the Head or Principal, and Clerk, of the ſaid Univerſities reſpectively, and ſhall be tranſmitted by the ſaid Moderator, Head, or Principal reſpectively, to the Truſtees Clerk reſiding at Edinburgh, on or before the firſt Day of February, and the Moderator of the Preſbytery, and the Head and Principal of the Univerſities, neglecting to ſign and tranſmit ſuch Liſts as aforeſaid, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be paid in to the General Collector or Receiver, and to be levied in the ſame Manner, and to be applied to the ſame Purpoſes, as the annual Rates are herein-before appointed to be applied.

Proviſo in favour of the Preſbyteries in the Iſles.

LXVII. Provided always, That the Moderators of the Preſbyteries, in the Weſtern and Northern Iſles of Scotland, ſhall not be ſubject to the ſaid Penalty of ten Pounds, in caſe they tranſmit ſuch Liſts as aforeſaid on or before the firſt Day of May yearly.

Preſbyteries, &c. to give Certificates to the Widows and Children.

LXVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Moderators or Preſbyteries, and their Clerks, and the Heads or Principals of the Univerſities aforeſaid, and their Clerks reſpectively, ſhall, at the Requeſt of each Widow or Child claiming Right to an Annuity or Proviſion, deliver to them a Certificate ſigned as aforeſaid, certifying the Death of the Miniſter, or the Death or Marriage of his Widow, with the reſpective Dates thereof, and the Names and Ages of his Children.

Truſtees to make up Liſts of Widows and Children intitled to receive Annuities and Proviſions.

LXIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Truſtees ſhall, at their Meeting on the ſaid third Tueſday of March yearly, make up Liſts of all the Widows and Children intitled to receive Annuities and Proviſions out of the Funds of the preceding Year, mentioning the Sums to which they are reſpectively intitled; which Liſts ſhall remain in the Hands of the Truſtees Clerk, and ſhall be open to the Inſpection of all Parties intereſted; and it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Parties intereſted to give in their Objections in Writing to the ſaid Clerk, to be by him laid before the ſaid Truſtees for their Determination, at their ſaid Meeting, upon the third Tueſday of May following.

Truſtees to ſettle the Liſts of Annuitants, &c.

LXX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Truſtees ſhall, at their ſaid Meeting upon the third Tueſday of May yearly, finally ſettle and adjuſt the ſaid Liſts, and their Præſes ſhall ſign two fair Copies thereof, one to be kept by their Clerk, and the other to be forthwith delivered to the General Collector or Receiver; and ſhall alſo ſign a Warrant upon the General Collector or Receiver for Payment accordingly, in favour of each Widow or Child intereſted; videlicet, for Payment of an Annuity to every Widow who ſhall ſurvive Twelve of the Clock at Noon on the twenty-ſixth of May, and for Payment to the Children of their reſpective Proviſions, on the thirteenth Day of Auguſt thereafter; and ſhall lodge all the ſaid Warrants in the Hands of their Clerk, to be by him delivered to the Widows as they ſhall call for the ſame; upon their producing to him ſuch Certificates as ſhall be required by the ſaid Warrants; and iſſue Warrants for Payment, &c.

rants; and shall deliver to the Children the Warrants in their Favour, on the said thirteenth Day of August, or so soon thereafter as they shall call for the same.

General Collector to make Payment upon Warrants being presented to him.

LXXI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the aforesaid General Collector or Receiver shall, immediately upon the said Warrants being presented to him, at his Office, upon any of the Days, and within the Hours above specified, make Payment of the respective Sums therein contained, without Fee or Reward, upon a Receipt indorsed upon the said Warrants.

Widows or Children to lodge the Certificates required.

LXXII. Provided always, That the Widows or Children claiming Annuities or Provisions in virtue of the aforesaid Warrants shall along therewith lodge, with the said General Collector or Receiver, such Certificates as shall be required by the said Warrants, according to the Forms prescribed by the Trustees.

No Rewards to be taken by the Collector or Clerk for delivering Warrants.

LXXIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if either the General Collector or Receiver, or the Clerk to the Trustees aforesaid, shall, on any Pretence whatever, exact or receive any Money or Reward whatsoever, for or in respect of delivering the aforesaid Warrants, or for making Payment pursuant to the said Warrants, the said General Collector or Receiver, and Clerk respectively so offending, shall, ipso facto, forfeit his Office, and be incapable of ever being re-elected into the same; and upon Proof of such Offence being taken by the Trustees, which Proof they are hereby impowered to take, the said Trustees are hereby impowered and required to deprive the said General Collector or Receiver, or the said Clerk respectively, and to declare him or them incapable of being re-chosen: And if any Person acting under the said General Collector or Receiver, or under the said Clerk respectively, shall exact any Fee or Reward upon the aforesaid Accounts, the said General Collector or Receiver, or the said Clerk, by whom such Person was appointed, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds, of lawful Money of Great Britain, upon Proof brought before the said Trustees in Manner aforesaid, which Sums shall be levied and applied in the same Manner as is above directed with respect to the Annual Rates.

Remedy for Widows or Children omitted in the Lists.

LXXIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Widow, Child, or Children, intitled to an Annuity, or to Provisions respectively, shall be unduly omitted in making up the said Annual List as aforesaid, whether such Omission shall be occasioned through Default of the Presbyteries or Universities respectively, in not transmitting Lists agreeable to the Form that shall be prescribed by the Trustees, or from whatever other Cause or Occasion, it shall and may be lawful for such Widow, Child, or Children, to make their Claim to the said Trustees, on or before their next stated Meeting, upon the third Tuesday of March, in the Year following; and the said Trustees are hereby impowered and required to insert the said Widow, Child, or Children, in their Lists to be made up for that Year; and shall grant Warrants for Payment of their Annuities and Provisions respectively, out of the Produce of the Year immediately preceding.

If Omission not owing to Default, Trustees may allow Interest on their Claims.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That if it shall appear to the said Trustees, that the Omission of such Widow, Child, or Children, was not owing to any Default of their own, but to other Causes, of which the Trustees are hereby declared the sole Judges in this Case, and no otherways, it shall be competent for them to allow such Widow, Child, or Children, Interest on their respective Claims, from the Dates when such Claims shall respectively be given in.

Time limited for making Claims upon such Omissions.

LXXVI. Provided always, That if the Widow, Child, or Children, so unduly omitted, shall, if residing within the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, neglect to make their Claim within five Years, or if residing out of these Kingdoms within ten Years after such Omission, their Claim shall be held as deserted and given up, and shall not be allowed at any Time thereafter.

Payments to be made to Majors, and to Tutors for Minors.

LXXVII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Payment herein-before directed shall be made to the Widows or Children respectively named in the Warrants, if the Persons so named are Majors, and to the Tutors and Curators of such of them as are Minors; and if they have no Tutors or Curators, to such Person or Persons as shall be authorised for that Purpose, by an Act of the Presbytery or University respectively, of which the Person under whom the Provision is claimed was last a Member.

Annuities and Provisions to Children not liable to Arrestment.

LXXVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the aforesaid Annuities payable to Widows, and the Provisions payable to Children, of the aforesaid Ministers of the Church of Scotland, and of the Heads, Principals, and Masters, in the Universities aforesaid, shall not be liable to any Arrestment, but shall be paid to the Widows and Children themselves, or to their Tutors or Curators, or Trustees as aforesaid, or to their Executors and Administrators or Assigns; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Trustees to attend stated Meetings, or forfeit 2s. 6d.

LXXIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Trustees herein-before named and appointed shall attend the aforesaid stated Meetings, and the adjourned Meetings thereof, and all occasional Meetings to which they shall be lawfully warned or summoned; and in case of the Absence of the said Trustees from any of the aforesaid four stated Meetings, they shall forfeit the Sum of two Shillings and Six-pence of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be levied and applied to such Purposes as the Trustees shall appoint; and a Certificate, under the Hands of the Clerk, shall be a sufficient Evidence of such Absence, and of the Penalty being incurred, unless the Trustees absent as aforesaid shall have a sufficient Cause for such Absence, and which shall be allowed by a Majority of the Trustees who shall be present at the respective Meetings.

Proviso.

LXXX. Provided always, That if such Excuse is disallowed of, it shall not be competent for the Trustees to modify or lessen the Penalty.

Trustees to prepare a State of the Fund, and cause the same to be printed.

LXXXI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Trustees shall annually prepare a State of the Funds under their Management, and an Account of their Proceedings, which shall be laid annually before the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, and shall cause one thousand Copies thereof to be printed, to lie in the Hands of the Clerk of the Trustees in their Hall, till called for by the several Ministers, Heads, Principals, and Masters, and others liable in Payment of any of the annual Rates aforesaid.

Expence of printing, &c. to be paid by the Collector.

LXXXII. And it is hereby enacted, That the Expence of printing the ſaid annual State as aforeſaid, and of ſupporting and keeping in Repair the before-mentioned Houſe and Hall of the Truſtees, and their other neceſſary or incidental Expences, ſhall be paid by the ſaid General Collector or Receiver, and ſhall be allowed to him out of his Receipts annually; provided the ſaid Expences do not in any one Year exceed the Sum of ſeventy Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain.

Collector to exhibit an Account of Money come to his Hands.

LXXXIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid General Collector or Receiver ſhall annually, on the ſaid fourth Tueſday of November, exhibit to the Truſtees, at their Meeting, a particular Account of the Sums that ſhall then have come into his Hands in the Year preceding, diſtinguiſhing by whom paid, and on what Account; and alſo of the Sums paid by him out of his Receipts; and the ſaid Truſtees ſhall, and are hereby impowered to audit and paſs his Accounts, and to acquit and diſcharge him and his Sureties, from Time to Time, of the Sums ſo accounted for.

Annual Rates paid by the Miniſters deemed Part of their Stipends.

LXXXIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all future Proceſſes of Modification and Augmentations of Stipends, the aforeſaid annual Rates payable by the Miniſters of the Church of Scotland, by virtue of this Act, ſhall be deemed and computed as Part of their Stipends; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Expence of this Act to be paid by the Collector.

LXXXV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Expence incurred in obtaining this preſent Act of Parliament ſhall be paid by the ſaid General Collector or Receiver, at the Sight and by Direction of the Truſtees herein-before appointed, and for which he ſhall have Credit at the firſt Clearance of his Accounts thereafter.

Former Acts repealed.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this preſent Act, the aforeſaid in Part recited Acts of the ſeventeenth and of the twenty-ſecond Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, ſhall be, and they are hereby repealed and made void.

Public Act.

LXXXVII. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That this Act ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act; and all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons, are to take Notice thereof as ſuch in all Courts and Places whatſoever without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

CAP. XXI.

An Act for licenſing and regulating Lottery-office Keepers.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

Preamble.

'WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, think it will be for the Advantage of the Public, and that it will prevent many fraudulent Practices uſed by Perſons dealing in Lottery Tickets, and in Shares and Chances of Lottery Tickets, to grant unto your Majeſty the Duty upon Licences, and to eſtabliſh the ſeveral Regulations herein-after mentioned;' and therefore do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, publicly or privately, ſet up, exerciſe, keep, or open, by himſelf, or any other Perſon or Perſons, any Office or Place for buying, ſelling, inſuring, regiſtering, giving, or otherwiſe dealing in, any Tickets or Chances, or Parts thereof, or on the Number or Numbers of any Ticket or Tickets in any Lottery whatſoever, or ſhall, by Writing or Printing, publiſh the ſetting up or uſing any ſuch Office or Place, without firſt taking out a Licence for that Purpoſe, in Manner hereafter mentioned, before he, ſhe, or they, ſhall ſo ſet up, keep open, or publiſh, any ſuch Office or Place as aforeſaid.

After April 5, 1779, no Perſon to keep a Lottery-office without a Licence.

Each Licence to coſt 50 l.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, for every Licence to be taken out by any Perſon or Perſons, for every ſuch Office or Place uſed for dealing in or concerning Lottery Tickets, as aforeſaid, there ſhall be paid unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors (over and above all other Duties, to which the Perſon or Perſons taking out the ſame may be reſpectively liable, as Brokers, or otherwiſe), the Sum of fifty Pounds, immediately upon taking out ſuch Licence; and every ſuch Licence ſhall be granted under the Hands and Seals of two or more of the Managers and Directors of the Lottery for the Time being, and the Duty for the ſame ſhall be paid at their Office in London, or at ſuch other Place, and to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, as the ſaid Managers and Directors ſhall appoint to deliver out ſuch Licences reſpectively, and to receive the ſaid Duties; and they are hereby reſpectively authoriſed and required to grant and deliver ſuch Licences to all Perſons applying for the ſame, upon their Payment of fifty Pounds for each Licence as aforeſaid.

and ſhall be granted under the Hands and Seals of two Managers.

Licence to ſet forth the Name of the Perſon taking out the ſame, &c. and to continue in Force for one Year.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Licence ſhall ſet forth the true Name and Place of Abode of the Perſon or Perſons taking out the ſame; and alſo the Place where ſuch Buſineſs or Dealing ſhall be carried on; and ſuch Licence ſhall continue in Force for twelve Calendar Months from the Date thereof, and no longer; and every Perſon acting or dealing in any of the Matters therein contained, after the Expiration of ſuch Licence, without firſt taking out ſuch Licence, and renewing the ſame yearly, in Manner aforeſaid, ſhall reſpectively forfeit, for each Offence, the Sum of one hundred Pounds; to be recovered and diſtributed in Manner hereafter mentioned.

Perſons keeping any Office contrary to this Act, to forfeit 100 l.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon who, after the ſaid fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, ſhall publiſh, open, ſet up, or keep, any ſuch Office or Place, under any of the Denominations aforeſaid, or any like Denominations, contrary to the the Intent and Meaning of this preſent Act, ſhall forfeit, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Produce of the Duty on Licences to be applied towards defraying the Expences of the Lottery.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Monies to ariſe by the Duty hereby granted for Licences as aforeſaid, ſhall be applied towards defraying the Expences attending the Commiſſion to be made forth for managing, directing, and drawing, the Lottery eſtabliſhed by an Act, made in this Seſſion of Parliament (intituled, An Act for raiſing a certain Sum of Money by way of Annuities, and for eſtabliſhing a Lottery), in ſuch Manner as the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or any three or more of them, or the High Treaſurer for the Time being, ſhall direct, authoriſe, and approve.

No Perſon to ſell any Share of a Ticket leſs than a Sixteenth,

'VI. And whereas the dividing of Chances or Tickets in a Lottery into very ſmall Shares, has been 'found miſchievous,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons, ſo licenſed as aforeſaid, ſhall ſell any Share or Shares of any Ticket or Tickets in the ſaid Lottery, or of the Chance or Chances of any Ticket or Tickets in the ſaid Lottery, in any ſmaller Share or Proportion than One-ſixteenth Part or Share only, or ſhall publiſh any Propoſals for ſelling any Share or Shares of any Ticket or Tickets in the ſaid Lottery, or of any Chance of any Ticket or Tickets in the ſame, in any ſmaller Share or Proportion than One-ſixteenth Part or Share, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; every Perſon who ſhall offend in any of the ſaid Matters ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be recovered and diſtributed in Manner hereafter mentioned; and every ſuch Sale or Contract, and every Agreement relating thereto, ſhall be, and is hereby declared null and void.

on Penalty of 50 l.

Penalty on Perſons promiſing to pay any Money upon any Chance relating to the drawing of the Lottery, contrary to this Act.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall, under the Denomination of Sale of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandiſes, or with or without Conſideration, or under any Pretence, or in any Manner whatſoever, promiſe or agree to pay any Sum or Sums of Money, upon any Chance or Event whatſoever relating to the drawing of any Ticket or Tickets in the ſaid Lottery, or ſhall publiſh any Propoſals for any ſuch Purpoſes as aforeſaid, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and every Perſon or Perſons who ſhall offend in any of the ſaid Matters, ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of fifty Pounds; to be recovered and diſtributed in the Manner hereafter mentioned; and every ſuch Promiſe or Contract, and every Agreement relating thereto, ſhall be, and is hereby declared null and void.

No Buſineſs to be tranſacted at any Lottery-office before Eight in the Morning, nor after Eight in the Evening. Exception.

VIII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no ſuch Office or Place kept for any of the ſaid Purpoſes, ſo licenſed as aforeſaid, ſhall be open for any of the ſaid Purpoſes, or for the Tranſaction of any Buſineſs relating to the ſaid Lottery, before the Hour of Eight of the Clock in the Morning, nor after the Hour of Eight of the Clock in the Evening (except on the Evening of the Saturday preceding the drawing of the ſaid Lottery); and that the ſaid Limitation or Reſtriction in Point of Time ſhall be inſerted in, and made a Condition of, every ſuch Licence; and in caſe of any Breach of the ſaid Condition, ſuch Licence ſhall be forfeited, and ſhall and may be revoked by any two or more of the ſaid Managers and Directors; and (over and beſides all other Penalties to which ſuch Perſon or Perſons may be liable) ſuch Licence ſhall not be renewed, nor ſhall any new Licence be granted to, or for the Benefit of, the ſame Perſon or Perſons, directly or indirectly, for keeping any ſuch Office or Place for any of the Purpoſes aforeſaid.

Two Juſtices may ſummon Offenders againſt this Act, &c. and, on Proof of the Offence, convict them in Penalties, &c.

'IX. And whereas many Perſons have offended againſt former Acts made for eſtabliſhing Lotteries, in 'ſuch Manner that they could not be proſecuted to Conviction, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or In-'formation, in the regular Courſe of Law, within the Period of drawing a Lottery, and having made their 'Profit thereof, have eaſily avoided the Penalties incurred for ſuch Offences by ſuddenly removing them-'ſelves;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any two or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, for the County, City, Town, or Place, where any Offences ſhall be committed againſt this Act, or the ſaid Act made in this Seſſion of Parliament, upon Information or Complaint made to them upon Oath (which Oath there are hereby authoriſed to adminiſter) againſt any Perſon or Perſons offending againſt this Act, or the ſaid Act, to ſummon the Party offending, and, upon full and ſufficient Proof being produced, to convict the Perſon or Perſons ſo offending againſt this or the ſaid Act, in the penal Sum or Sums to be forfeited and paid by ſuch Offender or Offenders as aforeſaid; and the Perſon or Perſons ſo convicted ſhall, immediately after ſuch Conviction, pay ſuch Penalty to ſuch Juſtices of the Peace as aforeſaid; one Moiety whereof ſhall be for the Uſe and Benefit of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall firſt inform and proſecute for the ſame, and the other Moiety to be applied to the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes as the Monies ariſing by the Duty on Licences granted by this Act are directed to be applied: And, upon the Neglect or Refuſal of ſuch Offender or Offenders to pay ſuch Penalty or Penalties in Manner aforeſaid, the ſaid Juſtices, before whom ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall be convicted, are hereby authoriſed and required to grant a Warrant of Diſtreſs, to levy ſuch Penalty or Penalties on the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Offender or Offenders; and in caſe no ſufficient Diſtreſs ſhall be found, then to commit ſuch Offender or Offenders to the common Gaol for ſuch County, City, or Place, there to remain for any Time not exceeding three Months, or until the Money ſo forfeited ſhall be fully paid and ſatisfied.

If Penalties are not immediately paid, they may be levied by Diſtreſs.

On Failure of Diſtreſs, Offender to be committed.

Any Perſon forging a Licence, ſhall forfeit 500 l. &c.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall forge or counterfeit any Licence or Licences, to be made forth by virtue of this Act for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds; one Moiety thereof to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him that ſhall proſecute or ſue for the ſame; to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, in which no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed; and ſhall be ſubject to ſuch other Penalties as may be inflicted on Perſons for Forgery.

Commiſſioners of the Treaſury to eſtabliſh an

'XI. And, the more effectually to prevent Abuſes in the ſelling of Lottery Tickets in Shares or 'Chances,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That any three or more of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury,

Office in London, and to appoint a Perſon to conduct the Buſineſs thereof;

Treaſury, or the High Treaſurer for the Time being, ſhall and may, on or before the fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, inſtitute and eſtabliſh, and are and is hereby authoriſed and required to inſtitute and eſtabliſh, an Office, within the City of London, for the Purpoſes herein-after mentioned; and that any three or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the ſaid High Treaſurer for the Time being, ſhall appoint, and are and is hereby authoriſed and required to appoint, ſome one or more fit and proper Perſon or Perſons to officiate in, and to conduct the Buſineſs of, the ſaid Office, taking ſuch Security for the full and true Performance of his or their Duty therein, as to any three or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or to the ſaid High Treaſurer for the Time being, ſhall ſeem requiſite and neceſſary; and that each and every Ticket in the ſaid Lottery, before it ſhall be divided into or ſold in Shares or Chances, ſhall be brought to the ſaid Office, and ſhall be there depoſited and left with the ſaid Officer or Officers ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, who is or are hereby authoriſed to receive the ſame.

with whom all Tickets, before they are divided into Shares, ſhall be depoſited.

All Shares to be ſtamped by the Officer,

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Officer or Officers ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, ſhall, and is and are hereby authoriſed and required to ſtamp and mark each and every Share or Chance of each and every ſuch Ticket in the ſaid Lottery, ſo depoſited as aforeſaid, with ſome Flouriſh or Device engraved thereon; and that the ſaid Officer or Officers ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, upon the Receipt of every ſuch Ticket, or any Number of Tickets, in the ſaid Lottery, for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, ſhall give a Receipt or Receipts to the Holder or Proprietor, at whoſe Office ſuch Ticket or Tickets is or ſhall be ſhared or divided, in Writing for the ſame, in the Form following; (that is to ſay) who ſhall give a Receipt for every Ticket depoſited with him.

Form of Receipt.

'RECEIVED the Day of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, of a Ticket in the preſent Lottery, Number which is divided into Shares or Chances; purſuant to an Act of Parliament, made in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled, An Act for licenſing and regulating Lottery-office Keepers; which ſaid Ticket now remains and is in my Cuſtody, in purſuance of the ſaid Act.'

All Tickets depoſited in the Office, to remain there three Days after drawing.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That each and every ſuch Ticket in the ſaid Lottery as ſhall be ſo depoſited in the ſaid Office, and ſhall be divided into Shares or Chances purſuant to this Act, ſhall remain and continue in the Cuſtody and Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Officer or Officers, ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, until the Expiration of three Days next after the Drawing of ſuch Ticket in the ſaid Lottery; and that on the Expiration of three Days next after the Drawing of ſuch Ticket in the ſaid Lottery, ſuch Ticket ſhall be returned to the Owner or Owners thereof, his, her, or their Agent or Agents, Aſſignee or Aſſigns, upon producing the ſaid Officer's ſaid Receipt for the ſame.

The Numbers of all Tickets depoſited in the Office to be entered in a Book, with the Names of the Owners, and the Number of Shares into which they are divided.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That a Book or Books ſhall be kept by the ſaid Officer or Officers ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, who ſhall truly and fairly enter and regiſter in ſuch Book or Books, the Number of each and every ſuch Ticket in the ſaid Lottery, which ſhall be ſo as aforeſaid depoſited in the ſaid Office for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, together with the Name and Names of all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſo leave and depoſit the ſame, for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, and alſo the Number of Shares or Chances into which each and every ſuch Ticket in the ſaid Lottery ſhall be ſo divided as aforeſaid; which Book or Books any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever ſhall and may, from Time to Time, and at all ſeaſonable Times, reſort to and inſpect, on Payment of the Sum of Two-pence, of lawful Money of Great Britain, to the ſaid Officer or Officers ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid.

2 d. for each Share to be paid to the Officer on depoſiting Tickets in the Office; who ſhall therewith pay all Expences incident to the Office.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, upon the leaving and depoſiting of any Ticket in the ſaid Lottery at or in the ſaid Office, with the ſaid Officer or Officers ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſo leave and depoſit the ſame ſhall pay to the ſaid Officer or Officers ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, for each and every Share or Chance, into which each and every ſuch Ticket in the ſaid Lottery ſhall be divided by the ſaid Officer or Officers ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, the Sum of Two-pence of lawful Money of Great Britain; and that with the Monies ariſing from ſuch Fee to be paid as aforeſaid, the ſaid Officer or Officers ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall bear and pay all ſuch incident Charges and Expences as ſhall or may attend the Receipt, Entry, and taking Care of all ſuch Tickets in the ſaid Lottery, as ſhall be brought to and depoſited in the ſaid Office as aforeſaid, for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, and all other Expences attendant on the ſaid Office.

Penalty on ſelling any Share of a Ticket without a Stamp.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever ſhall, at any Time or Times hereafter, ſell or expoſe to Sale any Share or Chance of any Ticket in the ſaid Lottery, without ſuch Share or Chance ſhall have been firſt ſtamped and marked by the ſaid Officer or Officers, purſuant to this Act; that then, and in ſuch Caſe, all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſo offending, upon being convicted thereof before any one Juſtice of the Peace for any County, Riding, or Diviſion, or before the Mayor, or other Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, for any City or Town Corporate, upon the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes (which ſaid Oaths the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace and Mayor are hereby authoriſed, impowered, and required to adminiſter), or upon the View of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, or the Mayor, Juſtice or Juſtices, for any City or Town Corporate, or on the Confeſſion of the Party or Parties accuſed, ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds for each and every Share or Chance ſo ſold or expoſed to Sale, as aforeſaid; to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, of one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace of ſuch County, Riding, Diviſion, City, or Town, where the Offence ſhall be committed; which ſaid Forfeitures, when recovered, after deducting the reaſonable Charges of ſuch Proſecution, ſhall go and be applied, One-third thereof to the Informer, and the remaining Two-thirds to the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed.

Application thereof.

XVII. And

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall preſume to forge or counterfeit, or to cauſe or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or ſhall willingly act or aſſiſt in the forging or counterfeiting of any Receipt or Receipts for, or any Share or Shares, Chance or Chances of, any Ticket or Tickets, ſigned, divided, made, and delivered out, by virtue of this Act, or alter any Number, Figure, Word, or Stamp, therein or thereon, or utter, vend, barter, or diſpoſe of, any ſuch forged, counterfeited, or altered Receipt or Receipts for any Share or Shares, Chance or Chances, of any Ticket or Tickets; or ſhall bring any ſuch forged or counterfeit Receipt or Receipts, or any Share or Shares, Chance or Chances, the Stamp whereof, or any Figure or Word therein, ſhall have been altered (knowing the ſame to be ſuch), to any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever with a fraudulent Intention, or ſhall willingly aid, abet, aſſiſt, hire, or command, any Perſon or Perſons to commit any ſuch Offence as aforeſaid; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo offending, and being thereof convicted in due Form of Law, ſhall forfeit and incur the ſame Penalty, to be recovered in the ſame Manner, and ſuffer the ſame Puniſhment, as is herein-before inflicted and declared in reſpect to the forging or counterfeiting of a Licence, in this Act before mentioned. Penalty on forging or altering Receipts, or uttering the ſame with a fraudulent Intention.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſued, moleſted, or proſecuted, for any Thing done by virtue or in purſuance of this Act, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the ſpecial Matter in Evidence, in his, her, or their Defence or Defences; and if afterwards a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall diſcontinue his, her, or their Action or Proſecution, or be nonſuited, or Judgment ſhall be given againſt him, her, or them, upon Demurrer, or otherwiſe; then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts awarded to him, her, or them, againſt any ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs. General Iſſue. Treble Coſts.

CAP. XXII.

An Act to continue ſeveral Laws relating to the giving further Encouragement for the Importation of Naval Stores from the Britiſh Colonies in America, to the landing of Rum or Spirits of the Britiſh Sugar Plantations before Payment of the Duties of Exciſe; to the diſcontinuing the Duties payable upon the Importation of Tallow, Hogs Lard, and Greaſe; to the regulating the Fees of Officers of the Cuſtoms and Naval Officers in America; to the allowing the Exportation of certain Quantities of Wheat, and other Articles, to his Majeſty's Sugar Colonies in America; and to the allowing a Drawback of the Duties on Rum ſhipped as Stores to be conſumed on board Merchant Ships on their Voyages.

'WHEREAS the Laws herein-after mentioned have by Experience been found uſeful and beneficial, and are near expiring,' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That ſo much of an Act, made in the eighth Year of the Reign of King George the Firſt, intituled, An Act for giving further Encouragement for the Importation of Naval Stores, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, as relates to the Importation of Wood and Timber, and of the Goods commonly called Lumber, therein particularly enumerated, from any of his Majeſty's Britiſh Plantations or Colonies in America, free from all Cuſtoms and Impoſitions whatſoever, which was to be in Force for twenty-one Years from the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty-two; and which by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts, made in the ſixteenth, twenty-fourth, and thirty-firſt Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, and the fourth and twelfth Years of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, was further continued until the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby further continued, from the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-five, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament. Preamble. Such Part of an Act 8 Geo. I. for encouraging the Importation of Naval Stores, &c. as relates to Timber and Lumber, further continued till Sept. 29, 1785, &c.

II. Provided nevertheleſs, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That a due Entry of ſuch Goods ſhall be firſt made in the Cuſtom-houſe belonging to the Port where the ſame ſhall be imported, in the ſame Manner and Form, expreſſing the Quantities and Qualities of the reſpective Goods, as was uſed and practiſed before the making of the ſaid recited Act; and the ſaid Goods ſhall be landed in the Preſence of the proper Officer appointed for that Purpoſe, otherwiſe ſuch Goods ſhall be liable to the Payment of the like Duties as would be due and payable for the ſame, at the Times of the Importation thereof, if the ſaid recited Act had not been made; and it ſhall and may be lawful for any Officer of the Cuſtoms to ſtop ſuch Goods, and ſecure the ſame in his Majeſty's Warehouſe till ſuch Duties are accordingly paid; and if the ſame ſhall not be paid within ſix Months after the ſaid Goods are brought to ſuch Warehouſe, they ſhall and may be ſold, and the Produce thereof applied in the ſame Manner as other Goods, which are brought to his Majeſty's Storehouſes for Security of the Duties, may, by the Laws now in Force, be ſold and diſpoſed of, any Thing in the ſaid recited Act, or any other Act, to the contrary notwithſtanding. The above-mentioned Goods to be entered in the Cuſtom-houſe at the Place of Importation, &c.

III. ## CAP. XXIV.

An Act for charging the Lands within the North Level, Part of the Great Level of the Fens called Bedford Level, and divers Lands adjoining thereto, in the Manor of Crowland, with further Taxes, for a limited Time, for discharging the Debts incurred by the Commissioners under an Act of the Twenty-seventh Year of King George the Second; and for better supporting and preserving the Drainage of the said Lands.

Preamble.

Recital of Act 15 Car. II.

and 27 Geo. II.

By the last-mentioned Act, the North Level and Portland were divided into five Districts; and Commissioners appointed, who were impowered to lay Taxes not exceeding 1 s. per Acre for the first Four Years,

' WHEREAS, by an Act of Parliament, made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for settling the Draining of the Great Level of the Fens, called Bedford Level, it was (amongst other Things) enacted, That William then Earl of Bedford, and the Adventurers and Participants of Francis then late Earl of Bedford, and of the said Earl William, their Heirs and Assigns, should be a Body Politic and Corporate, in Deed and in Name, and have Succession for ever, by the Name of the Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Company of Conservators of the Great Level of the Fens, with Power to lay Taxes on ninety-five thousand Acres of Land, allotted as a Recompence for draining the said Great Level, in order to the Support, Maintenance, and Preservation, of the said Great Level, and Works made, and to be made, for that Purpose, in such Manner as by the said Act is set forth: And whereas, by another Act, passed in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for discharging the Corporation of the Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Company of Conservators of the Great Level of the Fens, commonly called Bedford Level, from a Debt due to the Duke of Bedford, and Earl of Lincoln, and for enabling the Proprietors of Lands in the North Level, Part of the said Great Level, to raise Money to discharge the Proportion of the said North Level in the Debts of the said Corporation, and for ascertaining and appropriating the Taxes to be laid on the said North Level, and for the more effectual draining and preserving the said North Level, and divers Lands adjoining thereto, in the Manor of Crowland; stating (amongst other Facts) that, at a Court of the said Corporation, held on the tenth Day of March, one thousand six hundred and ninety-seven, the said Corporation had declared, that the several Parts of the said Great Level should be distinguished by the Names of the North Level, the Middle Level, and the South Level, respectively; it was (amongst other Things) enacted, That all the Money that should arise or be produced by the Taxes on such Part of the said ninety-five thousand Acres as lay within the said North Level (and which were thereby fixed at a Tax and a Quarter), and all other Rents and Revenues of the said Corporation, arising from the said North Level, should from thenceforth be applied and disposed of by the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, and their Successors, in and about the several Banks and Works in the said Act, in that Behalf mentioned; and, in the first Place, to raise, make good, and keep in Repair, the North Bank of Moreton's Leame, the East Bank of Cordyke, from Moreton's Leame to The Folly Bank, the Folly Bank from Cordyke to the River Welland, the Bank reaching from The Folly Bank to Peakirk Town, and the South Bank of the River Welland to the West Dam at the End of Crowland Town, until the said Banks should be made of such Height and Strength as the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, or their Successors, should judge sufficient to defend the said North Level, and South Holland, against the Land-floods; and afterwards, in such other Works belonging to the said North Level as are therein for that Purpose mentioned: And whereas it was by the said last-mentioned Act further enacted, That the Lands and Grounds in the said North Level, and the Lands called Portsand, otherwise Great Porsand, lying within the Manor of Crowland, in South Holland, in the County of Lincoln, intended to be drained under the Authority of the said Act, should be divided into five several Districts, in Manner therein mentioned; and Commissioners were thereby appointed for the said several Districts, and Powers were thereby given for continuing and keeping up a Succession of such Commissioners; and it was thereby enacted, That the Commissioners for the said five Districts should meet yearly, and from Time to Time assess, tax, and charge, all and every the respective Owner or Owners of all and singular the Lands and Grounds within the said several Districts (except as therein is excepted) by and with equal and proportionable yearly Rates and Taxes, not exceeding one Shilling and 6 d. per Acre afterwards; and to borrow 14,000 l.

That Sum borrowed, and applied pursuant to that Act, and to another Act of 13 Geo. III.

Act 29 Geo. II. impowered the Corporation to borrow 5,000 l. more.

Recital of Act 11 Geo. III.

The 5,000 l. borrowed and expended, and other Debts contracted.

The Lands in the North Level charged with a further Tax of 6 d. per Acre, and Portsand 3 d. per Acre, payable to the Corporation.

The Taxes, and Money borrowed thereon, to be applied to the Corporation Works belonging to the North Level.

The Corporation impowered to borrow the further Sum of 10,000 l.;

'per Acre, yearly, during the first four Years, and not exceeding Sixpence per Acre in any one Year after 'the Expiration of the said four Years, to be paid half-yearly to such Person or Persons as the said Com-'missioners should appoint to receive the same; and that the Monies to be raised by the said Taxes, and 'also all Sums to be borrowed and received on the Credit thereof, in Manner therein-after mentioned, 'should, from Time to Time, be applied and disposed of by the said Commissioners, in or towards divers 'Works therein mentioned and specified, for draining and preserving the said Districts; and the said 'Commissioners were thereby impowered to borrow and take up Money (not exceeding in the Whole the 'Sum of fourteen thousand Pounds) on the Credit of the said Taxes, so directed to be assessed by them as 'aforesaid, and such Taxes were, in the first Place, to be chargeable with the Monies so borrowed, and 'the Interest thereof: And whereas the Commissioners, acting under the said last-mentioned Act, did, 'pursuant to the Powers therein contained, borrow and take up at Interest in the Whole the Sum of four-'teen thousand Pounds, on the Credit of the said Taxes by the said last-mentioned Act directed to be assessed 'and charged by the said Commissioners as aforesaid; and the Monies so borrowed, together with the 'Surplus of the said Taxes, after keeping down the Interest thereof, have been applied by the said Com-'missioners in and towards the Works directed by the said Act, and likewise in executing divers other 'necessary and expensive Works for the Improvement of the Wisbeach River, at or near the Outfall of 'the Waters of the said North Level and Portsand, to the Sea, in pursuance, and according to the Direc-'tions, of another Act of Parliament, made and passed in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his present 'Majesty, intituled, An Act for draining and preserving certain Lands and Grounds in the Parishes of Tid 'Saint Giles, and Newton, in the Isle of Ely, in the County of Cambridge, and in Tid Saint Mary's, in the 'County of Lincoln; and, by the last-mentioned Act, the said Tax of Sixpence per Acre, chargeable by 'the said Commissioners under the said Act of the twenty-seventh Year of his said late Majesty, is made 'applicable towards the further Support and Maintenance of the said Works; and the said fourteen thou-'sand Pounds now remain a Debt on the said Taxes, so chargeable by virtue of the said last-mentioned 'Act: And whereas, by an Act passed in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, 'intituled, An Act for establishing a Fund, for Payment of the Bonds of the Governor, Bailiffs, and Com-'monalty, of the Company of Conservators of the Great Level of the Fens, called Bedford Level, and for ex-'changing the present Bonds of the said Corporation for other Bonds, payable out of the Revenues of the Middle 'and South Levels, Part of the said Great Level, and for enabling the said Corporation to borrow further Sums 'for the Use of the said Great Level, the said Corporation was impowered to borrow Money upon Bonds, 'not exceeding in the Whole five thousand Pounds, for the Use of the said North Level, to be charged 'on the Rents, Taxes, and Sums of Money, to be received, raised, or levied, by the said Corporation, 'from, upon, or on account of such Part of the said ninety-five thousand Acres as lay within the said 'North Level: And whereas, by an Act passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty 'King George the Third, intituled, An Act to enable the Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Company 'of Conservators of the Great Level of the Fens called Bedford Level, to complete and maintain the principal 'Banks and Works necessary to the well draining and preserving the North Level, Part of the said Great Level, 'and for laying Taxes upon the Lands within the said North Level, and divers Lands adjoining thereto, in the 'Manor of Crowland, reciting (amongst other Things) that several Breaches having happened in the 'North Bank of Moreton's Leame in the Years one thousand seven hundred and sixty-three, and one thou-'sand seven hundred and sixty-four, the said Corporation had borrowed the said Sum of five thousand 'Pounds; and that other Breaches having happened in the said North Bank of Moreton's Leame in the 'Year one thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven, the said five thousand Pounds had been expended, and 'other Debts contracted, by the said Corporation, in the necessary Repairs of the said North Bank, and 'other Works belonging to the said Corporation, in the said North Level; and that further Breaches had 'then lately happened in the said North Bank of Moreton's Leame; it was enacted, That all the Lands 'and Grounds within the said North Level, and the said Lands called Portsand, comprised in the said Act 'of the twenty-seventh Year of King George the Second (except as therein excepted), should be, and the 'same were thereby yearly, and every Year, rated, charged, and assessed, in Manner following; that is 'to say, all the Lands and Grounds within the said North Level (except as therein excepted) with a Tax 'of Sixpence for every Acre, and the said Lands, called Portsand, with Three-pence for every Acre, 'to be paid to the said Corporation, or their Receiver; and that the said Taxes, and all Money to be 'raised thereon, or borrowed and received on the Credit thereof, should, together with all Money 'arising by the Tax and a Quarter, fixed upon such Part of the said ninety-five thousand Acres as lie 'within the said North Level, and all other the Rents and Revenues arising or payable to the said Corpo-'ration from the said North Level (but without Prejudice to the Payment of the said former Debt of five 'thousand Pounds, and the Interest thereof), be applied by the said Corporation in and towards the 'Charges of repairing the said North Bank of Moreton's Leame, and the several other Banks and Works of 'the said North Level, to which the Monies arising from the said Tax and a Quarter, on such of the said 'ninety-five thousand Acres as lie within the said North Level, and the Rents and other Revenues of the 'said Corporation, arising from the said North Level, were, by the said Act of the twenty-seventh Year 'of his late Majesty King George the Second, directed to be applied: And it was thereby further enacted, 'That it should be lawful for the Commissioners for the five several Districts or Divisions, nominated or 'appointed, elected or chosen, by virtue of the said Act of the twenty-seventh Year of his said late Ma-'jesty King George the Second, to elect, yearly, eighteen of the said Commissioners, to be a Committee, 'to superintend and direct the Repairs and Amendments of the said Banks and Works; and the said Cor-'poration was thereby impowered to raise, by Sale of the Taxes thereby charged, or to borrow on the 'Credit thereof, and of their other Taxes, Rents, and Revenues, arising from the said North Level (but 'without Prejudice to the Bond Creditors for the said Sum of five thousand Pounds), such further Monies 'as they should judge necessary for the Purposes aforesaid, not exceeding twenty thousand Pounds:

'And

'And whereas the said Corporation, in pursuance of the said last-mentioned Act, did borrow, upon Bonds, further Sums, to the Amount of twenty thousand Pounds, for the Purposes therein mentioned, which Debt of twenty thousand Pounds, and also the said former Debt of five thousand Pounds (amounting together to twenty-five thousand Pounds), now remain due and owing on Bonds from the said Corporation, upon account of the said North Level: And whereas the said Tax of Sixpence per Acre, chargeable by the said Act of the twenty-seventh Year of his said late Majesty, upon the Lands and Grounds in the said North Level, and upon the said Lands called Portsand, and payable to the said Commissioners of the said five Districts, being subject in the first Place to the said Debt of fourteen thousand Pounds incurred thereon, the Surplus thereof, after Payment of the Interest of that Debt, amounts only to three hundred and twenty-six Pounds one Shilling and Two-pence per Annum, or thereabouts, which is insufficient for supporting and maintaining the several Works to which the same is applicable by the said Acts of the twenty-seventh Year of his said late Majesty King George the Second, and the thirteenth Year of his present Majesty; and the several Taxes, Rents, and Revenues, payable to the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, from the said North Level, being subject, in the first Place, to the Interest of the said Debt of twenty-five thousand Pounds incurred thereon, and to the Payment of a yearly Sum of forty-one Pounds to the Trustees for the Welland Bank and Road, the Surplus thereof, after Payment of such Interest and yearly Sum, and of the further yearly Sum of seventy-seven Pounds (the Amount of the Salaries of the several Officers of the said Corporation for the said North Level), amounts only to three hundred forty-six Pounds eleven Shillings and Ten-pence, per Annum, or thereabouts, which is insufficient for supporting and maintaining the several Works to which the same is applicable; and without further Aids for supporting and maintaining the said several Banks and Works for preserving the said North Level, the said Banks will soon be in Danger of breaking, whereby the said Lands would be drowned, to the inestimable Loss of the several Owners and Proprietors thereof, and to the Prejudice of the Public; for Prevention whereof, and in regard it will be greatly for the Benefit of the Proprietors of the said Lands to raise further Taxes thereon, for a limited Time, to be paid to the Commissioners of the said five Districts, not only for augmenting their present Revenue, applicable to the Works directed to be maintained by the said Commissioners, but also for gradually discharging the said Debt of fourteen thousand Pounds, whereby that Revenue will be increased, from Time to Time, as the Interest of the said Debt shall decrease by such gradual Discharge thereof; and likewise to raise further Taxes on the said Lands, for a limited Time, to be paid to the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, to be applied, in Augmentation of their present Revenue from the said North Level, to the Support of the several Works directed to be maintained by them for the Preservation of the said North Level:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for and notwithstanding the several Acts herein-before mentioned, or any of them, or any Clause or Clauses therein, or in any of them, contained, all and singular the Lands and Grounds situate, lying, or being, within the said North Level, and all and every the said Lands and Grounds called Great Porsand, otherwise Great Porsand, lying within the said Manor of Crowland, comprised in the said Act of the twenty-seventh Year of his said late Majesty King George the Second (except Great Burrough Fen Common, otherwise Peterborough Great Fen Common, the Common now commonly called The four hundred Acre Common in Alderlands, Little Borough Fen Common, otherwise Peterborough Little Fen Common, otherwise Flagg Fen Common, and that Part of Sutton Common which lies South of Old South Eau; and also except all the Lands called Hurts Grounds, in the Parish of Stand-ground; and also all the Lands of Oxney and Tanholt Farms, Chapel close, Borough-hill Close, Padhams, Peakirk Long Meadows, Peakirk Little Meadows, and the Closes adjoining thereto, Newark Edgerley, and the Closes adjoining thereto towards the West and North, Billingswood, and the Closes adjoining thereto, in the Parish of Paston, the Lands called The Inhams, lying South of the Folly Bank, and the Closes at the South End of The Inhams, called Puttock Closes; and also except all the High Lands in Eyebury and Newark, and all the High Lands in the Parishes of Peterborough, Werrington, Glinton, Peakirk, Eye, Standground, and Whittlesey, or any of them), shall yearly and every Year, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, for and during the Term or Space of nine Years, to be computed from the said twenty-fifth Day of December, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, be further rated, taxed, charged, and assessed; and the same are hereby further rated, taxed, charged, and assessed, in Manner following; that is to say, all and every the said Lands and Grounds within the said North Level (except as before excepted) with a further yearly Tax of one Shilling for every Acre thereof, and the said Lands and Grounds called Portsand, otherwise Great Porsand, with a further yearly Tax of Sixpence for every Acre thereof; and that the said Taxes so hereby charged as aforesaid shall be paid by the respective Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, of the respective Lands and Grounds so hereby respectively charged therewith, half-yearly, at the Days or Times following; that is to say, on the twenty-fourth Day of June, and the twenty-fifth Day of December, in each Year, during the said Term or Space of nine Years, by equal Payments, to such Person or Persons as the Commissioners for the Time being of the said five Districts, under the said Act of the twenty-seventh Year of his said late Majesty King George the Second, or the major Part of them present at any General Meeting, shall, from Time to Time, appoint to be Receiver or Receivers; the first half-yearly Payment thereof to begin and be made on the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty.

which was borrowed accordingly.

The Revenues, after the pinching down the Interest of the Debts, are insufficient to support the Works; which, without further Aid, will soon be in Danger of breaking.

The Lands in the North Level charged with a further Tax of 1s. per Acre, and Portsand with 6d. per Acre, for nine Years, payable to the Commissioners.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Monies arising from the said Taxes hereby charged as aforesaid, shall, together with the Monies arising from the said Tax of Sixpence per Acre assessable on the said Lands and Grounds within the said five Districts, by the said Commissioners, under the said Act of the twenty-seventh Year of his said late Majesty King George the Second (but without Prejudice to the Securities of the Creditors for the said Sum of fourteen thousand Pounds, or any of them), them), be applied and diſpoſed of by the ſaid Commiſſioners for the ſaid five Diſtricts in Manner following; that is to ſay, in the firſt Place, in paying and defraying the Coſts, Charges, and Expences, incurred in and about the paſſing of this Act; and ſecondly, in paying and keeping down the Intereſt of the ſaid Debt of fourteen thouſand Pounds, or of ſo much thereof as ſhall from Time to Time remain due and undiſcharged; and thirdly, in the gradual Diſcharge of the Principal of the ſaid Debt, by applying a yearly Sum of not leſs than one thouſand five hundred Pounds, during the firſt ſeven Years of the ſaid Term or Space of nine Years, out of the Rates and Taxes to become due and payable during the ſaid firſt ſeven Years of the ſaid Term, in and towards the Payment and Reduction of the ſaid Debt; and by applying a further Sum of not leſs than one thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds, out of the Rates and Taxes to become due and payable in the eighth Year of the ſaid Space or Term of nine Years, in or towards the Payment of the then Reſidue of the ſaid Debt; and by applying out of the Rates and Taxes, to become due in the ninth Year of the ſaid Term, a further Sum of not leſs than one thouſand eight hundred Pounds, in Diſcharge of the Reſidue of the ſaid Debt, if ſo much thereof ſhall then remain undiſcharged; and fourthly, that the Reſidue and Surplus of the Monies ariſing from the ſaid ſeveral yearly Rates and Taxes, after anſwering the Purpoſes aforeſaid, ſhall be applied, from Time to Time, by the ſaid Commiſſioners for the ſaid five Diſtricts, or the major Part of them preſent at their General Meetings, in and about the ſeveral Works to which the ſaid Tax of Sixpence per Acre, chargeable and aſſeſſable by the ſaid Commiſſioners, by virtue of the ſaid Act of the twenty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty King George the Second, is applicable by that Act, and by the ſaid Act of the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, or any other Act, and in diſcharging the Wages and Salaries of Officers, and other neceſſary Expences.

to keep down the Intereſt of the Debt of 14,000 l. and in the gradual Diſcharge of that Debt; and to the Support of the Works.

The Lands in the North Level charged with a further Tax of 4 d. and Portſand of 2 d. per Acre, for the like Term of nine Years, payable to the Corporation:

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, for and notwithſtanding the before-mentioned Acts, or any of them, or any Clauſe or Clauſes therein, or in any of them contained, all and every the ſaid Lands and Grounds ſituate or being within the ſaid North Level (except as before is excepted), and all and every the ſaid Lands and Grounds called Portſand, otherwiſe Great Porſand, in the ſaid Manor of Crowland, ſhall, yearly and every Year, from and after the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, for and during the ſaid Term or Space of nine Years, to be computed from the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, be further rated, taxed, charged, and aſſeſſed; and the ſame are hereby further rated, taxed, charged, and aſſeſſed, in Manner following; that is to ſay, all and every the ſaid Lands and Grounds within the ſaid North Level (except as before is excepted), with a further yearly Tax of Four-pence for every Acre thereof, and the ſaid Lands and Grounds called Portſand, otherwiſe Great Porſand, with a further yearly Tax of Two-pence for every Acre thereof; and that the ſaid Taxes of Four-pence per Acre and Two-pence per Acre, hereby reſpectively charged as laſt aforeſaid, ſhall be paid by the reſpective Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, of the reſpective Lands and Grounds ſo reſpectively charged therewith, half-yearly, at the Days or Times following; that is to ſay, on the twenty-fourth Day of June, and the twenty-fifth Day of December, in each Year, during the ſaid Term or Space of nine Years, by equal Payments, to the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the ſaid Company of Conſervators, and their Succeſſors, or to ſuch Perſon as ſhall, from Time to Time, be by them appointed, by virtue of the aforeſaid Act of the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, to be Receiver of the Taxes charged by that Act; the firſt half-yearly Payment thereof to begin and be made on the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty.

To be applied to the Works of the Corporation belonging to the ſaid North Level.

IV. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Monies ariſing from the ſaid reſpective Taxes of Four-pence per Acre, and Two-pence per Acre, ſo hereby charged as laſt aforeſaid, and directed to be paid to the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, or their Receiver, appointed purſuant to the ſaid Act of the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, ſhall be, from Time to Time, applied by the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, in and towards the ſeveral Works for Preſervation of the ſaid North Level, to which the preſent Revenues of the ſaid Corporation ariſing from the ſaid North Level are applicable, by virtue of the ſaid Acts of the twenty-ſeventh Year of his ſaid late Majeſty King George the Second, and the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, or any other Act, in ſuch Manner as the Committee, to be from Time to Time elected and appointed out of the ſaid Commiſſioners of the ſaid five Diſtricts, by the ſaid Act of the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, ſhall, from Time to Time, direct, and in ſuch Sort as the ſaid Committee are by the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act impowered, in reſpect to the Application of the Taxes charged by that Act.

Quantities of the Lands how to be taken.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Quantities of the ſeveral Lands and Grounds, ſo taxed and charged by this Act, ſhall be deemed and taken according to the Quantities thereof aſcertained in purſuance of the ſaid Act of the twenty-ſeventh Year of his ſaid late Majeſty King George the Second; and that the reſpective Owners or Occupiers of the ſaid Lands and Grounds ſhall pay the reſpective Taxes charged by this Act, according to the ſame Number of Acres, Roods, and Perches, as they are now rated and taxed at, under the ſaid Act of the twenty-ſeventh Year of his ſaid late Majeſty, ſave as to ſuch Variations or Alterations as may be found neceſſary to be made in Conſequence of the Proviſions and Directions herein-after contained.

Accounts to be delivered in of the Names of Tenants, and Quantities of Lands.

VI. Provided, and be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral and reſpective Owners of the ſeveral Lands and Grounds hereby taxed and charged as aforeſaid, or his, her, or their Agent or Agents, ſhall, on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty, deliver to the Commiſſioners of the ſaid five Diſtricts or Diviſions, or to their Clerk, Receiver, or Collector, juſt and true Accounts, in Writing under their reſpective Hands, of the Names of each and every of their reſpective Tenants, and of the Quantities of Acres, Roods, and Perches, in Statute Meaſure, of their reſpective Lands and Grounds taxed and charged by this Act, in the Hands or Occupation of each and every of his, her, and their Tenant or Tenants reſpectively; and alſo of the Quantities of Acres,

Acres, Roods, and Perches, in Statute Meaſure, of ſuch of his, her, or their Lands taxed and charged by this Act, as ſhall be in his, her, or their own Hands or Occupation reſpectively, or as ſhall be untenanted; and ſhall likewiſe, from Time to Time hereafter, when and ſo often as thereunto required by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or their Clerk, Receiver, or Collector, by one Month's Notice in Writing, ſigned by the ſaid Clerk, Receiver, or Collector, to be given to ſuch Owner or Owners, or his, her, or their Agent or Agents, or left at his, her, or their Dwelling-houſe or Dwelling-houſes, or uſual Place or Places of Abode reſpectively, deliver further Accounts, in Writing under their reſpective Hands, of ſuch Particulars as aforeſaid, and ſo as often, from Time to Time, as ſuch Notice ſhall be given to any ſuch Owner or Owners, or his, her, or their Agent or Agents, or left at his, her, or their Dwelling-houſe, or Dwelling-houſes, or uſual Place or Places of Abode reſpectively: And in caſe any ſuch Owner or Owners, or his, her, or their Agent or Agents, ſhall, at any Time or Times, refuſe or neglect to deliver in ſuch Account or Accounts within the Time aforeſaid, or according to ſuch Notice as aforeſaid; or in caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall have Reaſon or Cauſe to ſuſpect that any Account or Accounts ſo delivered in ſhall not be juſt and true; that then, and in either of the ſaid Caſes, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Committee for examining the Accounts of the ſaid Commiſſioners, appointed in purſuance of the ſaid Act of the twenty-ſeventh Year of his ſaid late Majeſty King George the Second, or any three of them, to direct and cauſe Surveys or Admeaſurements to be made of all or any Part of the Lands and Grounds of all or any of the Perſons ſo refuſing or neglecting to give in ſuch Account or Accounts as aforeſaid, or whoſe Account or Accounts ſhall be ſuſpected not to be juſt and true, the Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Survey or Admeaſurement being firſt ſworn to make a true and juſt Survey or Admeaſurement of ſuch Lands or Grounds according to the beſt of his Skill and Judgment, which Oath any one of the ſaid Commiſſioners is hereby impowered to adminiſter; and in caſe, upon any ſuch Survey or Admeaſurement, it ſhall be found that any ſuch Account or Accounts, delivered in as aforeſaid, was or were a true and juſt Account or Accounts, then the Expence of ſuch Survey or Admeaſurement, as to the Lands and Grounds contained in ſuch Account or Accounts ſo found to be juſt and true, ſhall be borne by the ſaid Commiſſioners out of the Monies ariſing from the ſaid Taxes; but in caſe any ſuch Account or Accounts, delivered in by any ſuch Owner or Owners, or his, her, or their Agent or Agents, ſhall be found not to contain or ſet forth a full and true Account of the Name or Names of all and every his, her, or their Tenant or Tenants, and the full and true Quantities of all and every his, her, and their Lands, in the Hands or Occupation of each and every of his, her, and their Tenants reſpectively, and of the Lands in his, her, or their own Occupation, or untenanted or to be otherwiſe fraudulent or unjuſt; or in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall refuſe or neglect to deliver in ſuch Account or Accounts within the Time aforeſaid, or purſuant to ſuch Notice as aforeſaid; then, and in either of the ſaid Caſes, and ſo often as the ſame ſhall happen, the Expence of ſuch Surveys and Admeaſurements, as to the Lands or Grounds of the Perſon or Perſons ſo refuſing or neglecting to deliver in ſuch Account or Accounts within the Time aforeſaid, or delivering in untrue or unjuſt Account or Accounts, ſhall be borne by the Perſon or Perſons refuſing or neglecting to deliver in ſuch Account or Accounts, or delivering in ſuch untrue or unjuſt Account or Accounts reſpectively, and ſhall be charged and levied upon his, her, or their Lands and Grounds, in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Taxes hereby charged are herein-after directed to be levied; and that the ſeveral and reſpective Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, of the ſeveral Lands and Grounds hereby taxed and charged as aforeſaid, ſhall be charged and chargeable with, and ſhall, from Time to Time, pay the ſaid Taxes hereby taxed and charged as aforeſaid; and alſo the ſeveral Taxes and Rates already taxed or charged, or hereafter to be taxed or charged, by virtue of the aforeſaid Acts of the twenty-ſeventh Year of his ſaid late Majeſty King George the Second, and the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, or either of them, for the Lands and Grounds in his, her, or their Hands or Occupations reſpectively, according to the Accounts ſo given in, where no Objection ſhall be made thereto by the ſaid Commiſſioners or Committee, and according to ſuch Survey or Surveys, Admeaſurement or Admeaſurements, where ſuch Survey or Surveys, Admeaſurement or Admeaſurements, ſhall be made, and ſo from Time to Time, when and ſo often as any ſuch Account or Accounts ſhall be given in, and not objected to, as aforeſaid, or when and ſo often as any ſuch Survey or Surveys ſhall be made.

How to proceed when Owners neglect to deliver in Accounts, or ſhall deliver ſuſpicious Accounts.

'VII. And, to the End that the ſeveral and reſpective Taxes, to be charged and aſſeſſed by virtue of 'this Act, may be the more eaſily collected,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the ſeveral and reſpective Occupiers of the ſeveral and reſpective Lands and Grounds taxed and charged by virtue of this Act, ſhall be, and they are hereby reſpectively required, and made liable to pay the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Taxes hereby charged upon the Lands and Grounds in their reſpective Occupations; and in caſe of ſuch Payment by any Tenant or Tenants, who ſhall hold the Lands and Grounds by him, her, or them occupied, at a Rack Rent or Rack Rents, ſuch Tenant or Tenants ſhall be at Liberty, and he, ſhe, and they, is and are hereby reſpectively impowered, to deduct and retain, out of his, her, or their Rent or Rents, all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money, as he, ſhe, or they, ſhall reſpectively pay for ſuch Taxes as aforeſaid; and the ſeveral and reſpective Landlords, or Owners of ſuch Lands and Grounds, are hereby required to allow ſuch Deductions or Payments, upon the Receipt of the Reſidue of their Rents, ſuch Tenant or Tenants producing proper Receipts for the Payment of ſuch Taxes; and all and every Tenant or Tenants, ſo holding at Rack Rent, and paying ſuch Taxes, ſhall be acquitted and diſcharged, from and againſt his, her, or their Landlord or Landlords, of and from ſo much Money as the Tax or Taxes, by him, her, or them reſpectively paid as aforeſaid, ſhall amount unto, in as full and ample a Manner, as if the ſame had been actually paid to his, her, or their Landlord or Landlords reſpectively.

Taxes to be paid by the Occupiers.

VIII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Leſſee or Tenant, for any Life or Lives, or Years, charged with the ſaid Taxes, who ſhall hold his, her, or their Lands, hereby taxed and charged as aforeſaid, by virtue of, or under any Leaſe from any Biſhop or Collegiate Church or College, or any Eccleſiaſtical Corporation, ſole or aggregate, or the Truſtees

But not Leſſees holding beneficial Leaſes.

Truſtees for the Charity of Peterborough, or under any other beneficial Leaſe whatſoever, ſhall be intitled to deduct any Tax or Taxes charged by this Act, out of the Rent reſerved or payable, by any ſuch Leaſe or Leaſes, to his, her, or their Landlord or Landlords, but the ſaid Taxes ſhall be paid and borne by the ſaid Leſſee or Leſſees, ſo holding ſuch Lands and Grounds under any ſuch Leaſe or Leaſes, any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary thereof in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

Power of Diſtreſs, for Recovery of the Taxes.

IX. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall neglect to pay all or any of the reſpective Taxes hereby taxed and charged upon, or for or in reſpect of, the Lands or Grounds in his, her, or their Poſſeſſion or Occupation, by this Act, or any Part thereof, within twenty-one Days next after the ſame ſhall become due or payable reſpectively, unto the Receiver or Receivers appointed from Time to Time to collect or receive the ſame reſpectively, at the uſual Place or Places of Reſidence of ſuch Receiver or Receivers reſpectively, within the ſaid North Level, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Receiver or Receivers reſpectively, or any Perſon or Perſons, by virtue of any Warrant or Precept under the Hand and Seal of ſuch Receiver or Receivers reſpectively, to enter into or upon the Lands and Grounds ſo taxed and charged by this Act, in Poſſeſſion of ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo making Default in Payment as aforeſaid, or into any Part thereof, and into all or any of the Meſſuages, Buildings, or Erections, thereupon ſtanding, or thereunto belonging, with their Appurtenances, and to levy and raiſe all and every Sum and Sums of Money by him, her, or them, payable for ſuch Tax or Taxes reſpectively, by Diſtreſs of the Goods and Chattels which ſhall be found upon the Premiſes, for or in reſpect of which ſuch Tax or Taxes in Arrear ſhall have become due or payable; and, in caſe ſufficient Diſtreſs cannot be found on ſuch Premiſes, then to levy and raiſe all Arrears of the ſaid Taxes reſpectively, by Diſtreſs of the Goods and Chattels of the Perſon or Perſons ſo making Default in Payment as aforeſaid, which ſhall be found in any other Place within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and the Goods and Chattels ſo diſtrained to impound on the Premiſes, or take, lead, drive, carry away, and keep for the Space of five Days, at the Coſts and Charges of the Owner or Owners thereof, leaving at ſuch Meſſuage, Grounds, or Premiſes, Notice in Writing of the Cauſe of ſuch Diſtreſs or Diſtreſſes; and, if the Owner or Owners of the Goods and Chattels ſo diſtrained ſhall not pay all and every ſuch Sum and Sums of Money ſo due and in Arrear for ſuch Taxes reſpectively as aforeſaid, and all Charges attending ſuch Diſtreſs, or replevy the Goods and Chattels ſo diſtrained with ſufficient Sureties to be given to the Sheriff of the County where the Diſtreſs ſhall be ſo made, or High Bailiff of the Iſle of Ely, according to the Laws now in being for Diſtreſſes in caſe of Nonpayment of Rent, within five Days next after ſuch Diſtreſs ſhall be made, and Notice thereof given as aforeſaid, the Perſon or Perſons ſo diſtraining ſhall and may, with the Sheriff or Under-ſheriff of the County, High Bailiff of the Iſle of Ely, or his Deputy by him appointed, and acting for him, or Conſtable or Headborough of the Pariſh or Place where ſuch Diſtreſs ſhall be made (who are hereby required to aſſiſt therein), cauſe the Goods and Chattels ſo diſtrained to be appraiſed by two or more indifferent Perſons to be ſworn by ſuch Sheriff, Under-ſheriff, High Bailiff, or his Deputy, Conſtable, or Headborough (who are hereby impowered to adminiſter ſuch Oath), to appraiſe the ſame according to the beſt of their Judgment; and, after ſuch Appraiſement, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſtreſs the Goods and Chattels ſo diſtrained to ſell for the beſt Price or Prices that can be reaſonably gotten for the ſame, for and towards Satisfaction of the Monies for which ſuch Diſtreſs ſhall be ſo made, and the Charges of taking, keeping, appraiſing, and ſelling the Goods and Chattels ſo diſtrained, leaving the Overplus (if any) in the Hands of ſuch Sheriff, Under-ſheriff, High Bailiff, or his Deputy, Conſtable, or Headborough, for the Owner's Uſe.

If Arrears, &c. are not paid, or Goods replevied, within five Days, they may be ſold.

Unoccupied Lands to remain a Security.

X. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That, in caſe any of the ſaid Lands or Grounds ſhall at any Time be untenanted or unoccupied, ſo that no ſufficient Diſtreſs can be found for levying the ſaid Taxes in Arrear as aforeſaid, then the Lands and Grounds chargeable therewith ſhall always remain a Security for the Payment thereof, and all Goods and Chattels, which ſhall at any Time thereafter be found thereon, ſhall and may be diſtrained, impounded, kept, appraiſed, and ſold, in Manner aforeſaid, until all Arrears of the ſaid Taxes, and the Charges of ſuch Diſtreſs, ſhall be fully paid and ſatisfied.

Limitation of Actions.

XI. Provided, and it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action, Suit, Information, or other Proceeding, ſhall, at any Time or Times, be commenced or proſecuted againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for any Thing done, or to be done, in purſuance of this Act, or in Execution of any of the Powers or Authorities hereby given, every ſuch Action, Suit, Information, or other Proceeding, ſhall be commenced within twelve Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards; and ſhall be laid or brought in ſome or one of the Counties of Cambridge, Huntingdon, Lincoln, and Northampton, or in the Iſle of Ely, and not elſewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Action may plead the General Iſſue, or, if in Replevin, may juſtify and avow, by virtue of this Act, as Perſons acting under and by Authority of Commiſſioners of Sewers are enabled to do, and give this Act, and the Special Matter in Evidence, without ſpecially pleading the ſame (other than as aforeſaid), at any Trial to be had thereupon; and that the ſame was done in purſuance, and by the Authority of this Act: And if the ſame ſhall appear to have been ſo done, or if any ſuch Action, Suit, Information, or other Proceeding, ſhall be brought after the Time ſo limited for bringing the ſame, or ſhall be brought in any other County, then the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants, Avowant or Avowants; and in ſuch Caſe, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall become nonſuit, or forbear Proſecution of or diſcontinue his, her, or their, Action or Actions, Suit or Suits, or if Judgment ſhall be given againſt him, her, or them, upon Demurrer or otherwiſe, then, and in every or any of the ſaid Caſes, the Defendant or Defendants, Avowant or Avowants, ſhall recover double Coſts, for which he, ſhe, or they, ſhall have the like Remedy as where Coſts are awarded by Law.

Double Coſts.

General Saving.

XII. Saving and reſerving nevertheleſs unto the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Company of Conſervators of the Great Level of the Fens, commonly called Bedford Level, and their Succeſſors, and and to all and every other Perſon and Perſons, his, her, and their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, all ſuch lawful Rights, Powers, Juriſdictions, and Authorities, now veſted in, and enjoyed by, them reſpectively, as are not hereby taken away, repealed, or altered.

XIII. And be it further enacted and declared, That this Act ſhall be deemed and allowed, in all Courts within this Kingdom, and upon all Occaſions whatſoever, to be a Public Act; and ſhall be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch by all Courts, Judges, and other Perſons, without ſpecially pleading the ſame. Public Act.

CAP. XXV.

An Act for granting to his Majeſty additional Duties upon the Produce of the ſeveral Duties under the Management of the reſpective Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe in Great Britain.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

'WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, towards raiſing, by the moſt eaſy Means, the neceſſary Supplies to defray your Majeſty's public Expences, have freely and voluntarily reſolved to give and grant unto your Majeſty the ſeveral Subſidies and Duties herein-after mentioned;' and do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, an additional Impoſt or Duty, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum upon the Produce and Amount of all the ſeveral Subſidies, Impoſts, and other Duties, of what Kind or Nature ſoever they may be, which are now due and payable to his Majeſty, and are collected in this Kingdom under the Management and Direction of the reſpective Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in Great Britain, for and upon any Goods and Merchandiſes imported into, or exported from, or carried coaſtwiſe in, Great Britain; which ſaid additional Impoſt or Duty ſhall be charged and paid upon the Amount of the ſaid former Subſidies, Impoſts, and other Duties, after the uſual Diſcounts and other Allowances have been made and deducted therefrom, and ſhall be wholly repaid and drawn back upon Exportation of the Goods, under the ſame Rules, Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and in the ſame Manner and Form in all Reſpects as the preſent Duties of Cuſtoms are now charged, collected, paid, and drawn back, except as herein-after is provided. Preamble. From April 5, 1779, an additional Duty, after the Rate of 5 per Cent. of the former Duties, laid on all Goods imported into, exported from, or carried Coaſtwiſe in, Great Britain.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Impoſt or Duty herein-before granted, ſhall not be charged and paid for or on Account of any Prize Goods warehouſed in this Kingdom purſuant to two ſeveral Acts of Parliament, the one made in the eighteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, and the other in this preſent Seſſion, for granting Relief to the Captors of Prizes with reſpect to bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; nor for any other Goods which by any Act of Parliament now in Force are permitted to be warehouſed in this Kingdom for Exportation, unleſs, and until, ſuch Goods ſhall be taken out of any Warehouſe wherein they are ſo ſecured, to be conſumed or uſed in this Kingdom; and that the ſaid additional Impoſt or Duty ſhall not be drawn back or repaid upon the Exportation of any Goods, in any Caſe where no Drawback is allowed by Law. Prize Goods warehouſed, &c. not liable to the aforeſaid Duty.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, there ſhall be charged, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, an additional Duty or Charge of five Pounds per Centum, upon the Produce and Amount of all the ſeveral Inland Duties, Rates, Impoſitions, and Charges (except as herein-after is excepted), now payable to his Majeſty, and which are charged and collected under the Management of the reſpective Commiſſioners of Exciſe in England and Scotland; which ſaid additional Duty or Charge of five Pounds per Centum hereby impoſed, ſhall and may, from Time to Time, be charged, raiſed, received, levied, recovered, and ſecured, by ſuch Ways and Means, and under ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, and with ſuch Power of adjudging and mitigating Penalties and Forfeitures, and ſubject to ſuch Allowances, Drawbacks, Rules, and Directions, as the ſeveral and reſpective Inland Duties, Rates, Impoſitions, and Charges, on the Produce and Amount of which the ſaid additional Duty and Charge is hereby impoſed, are or can, by any Statute now in Force, be reſpectively charged, raiſed, received, levied, collected, recovered, ſecured, mitigated, or drawn back, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if all and every the ſeveral reſpective Powers, Authorities, Directions, Rules, Regulations, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Powers of Mitigation, Clauſes, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this preſent Act. An additional Duty on all exciſeable Goods (except as after excepted), after the Rate of 5 per Cent. of the former Duties.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to charge, with the ſaid additional Duty or Charge of five Pounds per Centum, the Produce or Amount of the Duty on Malt, Mum, Cyder, or Perry, continued and granted to his Majeſty in and by an Act made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing and granting to his Majeſty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine; nor upon the Produce or Amount of the Duties ariſing from and payable for any Beer, Soap, Tallow Candles, or Hides, brewed, made, tanned, tawed, or dreſſed, within Great Britain; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding. This Act not to affect the Duties granted by the Malt Act of this Seſſion, nor thoſe on Beer, Soap, Tallow Candles, and Hides, made, &c. in Great Britain.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, there ſhall be charged, raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, An additional Duty on Malt of 15 per Cent. of the Duty payable thereon by an Act of 33 Geo. II.

paid, to and for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, an additional Rate, Duty, and Impoſition, of fifteen Pounds per Centum upon the Produce or Amount of the Duty payable on Malt, by an Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty ſeveral Duties upon Malt; and for raiſing the Sum of eight Millions by way of Annuities, and a Lottery, to be charged on the ſaid Duties; and to prevent the fraudulent obtaining of Allowances in the ganging of Corn making into Malt; and for making forth Duplicates of Exchequer Bills, Tickets, Certificates, Receipts, Annuity Orders, and other Orders, loſt, burnt, or otherwiſe deſtroyed:

The ſaid Duty to be raiſed, levied, &c. agreeable to the Directions contained in the Malt Act of this Seſſion.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the additional Rate, Duty, and Impoſition, of fifteen Pounds per Centum hereby granted, ſhall be aſcertained, ſecured, raiſed, collected, levied, recovered, and paid, in ſuch and the like Form and Manner, and under ſuch Management, and by the ſame Ways, Means, and Methods, and with ſuch and the like Allowances and Repayments, and Power of making Compoſitions, proportionally and according to ſuch Rules, Regulations, and Directions, and under ſuch Penalties, Forfeitures, and Fines, with ſuch Power of Recovery and Mitigation thereof, and other Powers, as are preſcribed, mentioned, or expreſſed, for or concerning the aſcertaining, compounding, ſecuring, managing, raiſing, collecting, levying, recovering, paying, allowing, and repaying, the ſeveral and reſpective Duties upon Malt within Great Britain, which were continued and granted to his Majeſty, in and by the ſaid above-recited Act, made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, or as are contained in any other Act or Acts of Parliament in and by the ſaid Act, made in this preſent Seſſion, mentioned or referred unto, or any of them; and that all and every Article, Rule, Clauſe, Matter, and Thing, in them, any or either of them, contained or thereby referred unto, ſhall be in full Force and Effect, and be duly obſerved, practiſed, and put in Execution, for charging, aſcertaining, compounding, ſecuring, managing, raiſing, collecting, levying, recovering, paying, allowing, and repaying, the ſaid additional Rate, Duty, and Impoſition, of fifteen Pounds per Centum hereby granted, and for levying, recovering, and mitigating, Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and for doing all other Matters and Things, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame were ſpecially repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this preſent Act.

New Duties to be paid into the Exchequer weekly;

VII. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid additional Impoſts and Duties by this Act granted, ſhall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Hands of the Receiver-general of the Cuſtoms, and to the Caſhier of the Exciſe in England, reſpectively, for the Time being; and ſuch Receiver-general and Caſhier reſpectively ſhall weekly, to wit, on Wedneſday in every Week, if it be not an Holiday, and if it be, then on the next Day after that is not an Holiday, anſwer and pay all the Monies ariſing by the ſaid additional Impoſts and Duties (the neceſſary Charges of raiſing, collecting, and anſwering the ſame, only excepted) into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, diſtinct and apart from all other Monies which ſuch Receiver-general and Caſhier reſpectively ſhall receive for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for the Uſes and Purpoſes in this Act mentioned.

to be kept ſeparate from all other Duties;

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept, in the Office of the Auditor of the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies ariſing from the ſaid ſeveral Impoſts and Duties, and paid into the ſaid Receipt as aforeſaid, ſhall be entered ſeparate and apart from all other Monies paid and payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, upon any Account whatſoever; and the ſaid Money ſo paid into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, as aforeſaid, ſhall, together with ſuch other Rates, Duties, and Revenues, as ſhall be granted by any Act or Acts of this Seſſion of Parliament for this Purpoſe, be a Fund for the Payment of the ſeveral Annuities, and all ſuch other Charges and Expences as are directed to be paid and payable purſuant to an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raiſing a certain Sum of Money by way of Annuities, and for eſtabliſhing a Lottery.

and to be applied in Payment of the Annuities granted by the Lottery Act of this Seſſion.

CAP. XXVI.

An Act to continue and amend an Act, made in the eleventh Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the White Herring Fiſhery.

Preamble. Act 11 Geo. III. recited,

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty (intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the White Herring Fiſhery), it was enacted, for the better Regulation of the ſaid Trade, and for preventing Frauds and Impoſitions in the Management thereof, That, from and after the twenty-ſecond Day of October, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, a Bounty of thirty Shillings per Ton ſhould be paid annually, in Manner as in the ſaid Act is provided for, to the Owner or Owners of all deckt Veſſels from twenty to eighty Tons Burthen, that ſhould be fitted out and employed in the ſaid Fiſhery, in Manner, and under the Regulations mentioned in the ſaid Act, and that for the Space and Term of ſeven Years from and after the ſaid twenty-ſecond Day of October, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, and to the End of the then next enſuing Seſſion of Parliament: And whereas the ſaid Fiſhery is of the greateſt Importance to the Nation, by promoting uſeful Induſtry, providing for great Numbers of poor People, and ſerving as a Nurſery for Seamen; but the ſame cannot be carried on without the Aid of a Bounty, and as a Prolongation of the above-recited Act (which expires at the End of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament) will be of great Advantage to the Public;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act, and all the Powers, Proviſions, Clauſes, and Penalties, therein contained (except as hereinafter is excepted), ſhall, from and after the Term therein mentioned, be, and the ſame are hereby granted and continued for and during the further Term of ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next and further continued (except as after excepted) for ſeven Years.

next Session of Parliament, and shall, during such additional Term, be in full Force, and be put in Execution, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were again repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

Part of a Clause in the said Act repealed.

'II. And whereas great Inconveniencies have arisen to the said Fishery, and to the Persons employed 'therein, by reason of Part of a Clause in the said Act which enacts, That every Buss or Vessel shall 'proceed respectively, manned, furnished, and accoutred (as therein mentioned), either to Yarmouth in 'the County of Norfolk, Whitehaven in the County of Cumberland, and Leith in the County of Edinburgh, 'Inverness in the County of Inverness, or to Brassey Sound in Shetland, Campbeltown or Oban in Argyleshire, 'or Kirkwall in Orkney, and be at the Rendezvous of the said Fishery there on or before the twenty-second 'Day of June, and shall not shoot or wet their Nets before the twenty-fourth Day of the said Month of 'June, and shall continue fishing to the twelfth Day of October; or shall proceed to Yarmouth in the 'County of Norfolk, Whitehaven in the County of Cumberland, Leith in the County of Edinburgh, Inver- 'ness in the County of Inverness, or to Brassey Sound in Shetland, Campbeltown or Oban in Argyleshire, or 'Kirkwall in Orkney, and be at the Rendezvous of the said Fisheries on or before the first Day of October, 'and shall continue fishing until the eleventh Day of January following, unless they shall have sooner 'completed their Loading of Fish;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this present Act, that Part of the said Clause above recited shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

At what Places, and at what Time, the fishing Vessels are to rendezvous, &c.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Buss or Vessel shall, from and after the passing of this present Act, proceed respectively, manned, furnished, and accoutred, in Manner directed by the before-recited Act, either to Yarmouth in the County of Norfolk, Whitehaven in the County of Cumberland, Leith in the County of Edinburgh, Inverness in the County of Inverness, or to Brassey Sound in Shetland, Campbeltown or Oban in Argyleshire, Kirkwall in Orkney, Stranraer in the County of Wigtown, or to Stornoway in the Island of Lewis and County of Ross, and shall be at the Rendezvous of the said Fishery there at any Time between the first Day of August and the first Day of October, in each Year, and shall continue fishing for the Space of three Months from the Day of their respective Departures from the said Places of Rendezvous, unless they shall have sooner completed their Loading of Fish; any Thing in the before-recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAP. XXVII.

An Act for further continuing and extending the Provisions of two Acts, made in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, and in the tenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for granting a Bounty on certain Species of British and Irish Linens exported, and taking off the Duties on the Importation of foreign Raw Linen Yarns made of Flax; and for granting a Bounty on the Exportation of British chequed and striped Linens, and upon British and Irish Diapers, Huckabacks, Sheeting, and other Linen, of above a certain Breadth.

Recital of an Act 29 Geo. II.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King 'George the Second (intituled, An Act for granting a Bounty upon certain Species of British and Irish 'Linens exported, and taking off the Duties on the Importation of foreign Raw Linen Yarns made of Flax), it 'is enacted, That there shall be given and paid, without any Fee, Reward, or Deduction whatsoever, a 'Bounty for every Yard of British and Irish Linens, made of Hemp or Flax, and of the Breadth of twenty-'five Inches, or more, under the Value of Five-pence per Yard, the Sum of one Halfpenny; and of the 'Value of Five-pence per Yard, and under the Value of Six-pence per Yard, the Sum of one Penny; and 'of the Value of Six-pence per Yard, and not exceeding the Value of Eighteen-pence per Yard, the Sum 'of one Penny Halfpenny; which, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, in the Year one thou-'sand seven hundred and fifty-six, and within the Term of fifteen Years, to commence from the said 'twenty-fourth Day of June, or at any Time thereafter before the End of the then next Session of Par-'liament, shall be exported out of Great Britain to Africa, America, Spain, Portugal, Gibraltar, the Island 'of Minorca, or the East Indies: And it was thereby further enacted, That, from and after the said 'twenty-fourth Day of June, no Subsidy, Custom, Rate, Duty, or other Imposition whatsoever, should be 'demanded, collected, received, or taken, upon any Raw or Brown Linen Yarn, made of Flax, and 'known by the Names of Dutch Yarn, and French Yarn, and of Spruce or Muscovia Yarn, or any other 'foreign Raw or Brown Linen Yarns, made of Flax, which shall be imported into this Kingdom; but that 'all such Linen Yarns shall and may be imported Duty-free for the Space of fifteen Years, from the said 'twenty-fourth Day of June, or at any Time thereafter before the End of the then next Session of Par-'liament, any former Law, Statute, or Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary notwithstanding: And 'whereas by another Act, made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty (intituled, An Act 'for continuing the Bounties on British and Irish Linens exported; for further discontinuing the Duties on the 'Importation of foreign Raw Linen Yarns made of Flax; and for granting a Bounty on the Exportation of British 'chequed and striped Linens, and upon British and Irish Diapers, Huckabacks, Sheeting, and other Linen, of 'above a certain Breadth), the said first-recited Act of the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his late Ma-'jesty King George the Second, was thereby continued until the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand 'seven hundred and seventy-eight, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: 'And it was thereby further enacted, That there shall be given and paid, without any Fee, Reward, or 'Deduction whatsoever, a Bounty for every Yard of British chequed or striped Linen, of the Breadth of 'twenty five Inches, or more, and not exceeding one Shilling and Six-pence, and not under Seven-pence, and 10 Geo. III. Cap. 38.

'in Value per Yard, the Sum of one Halfpenny; which, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, 'one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, and within the Term of ſeven Years, to commence from 'the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June laſt mentioned, and from thence to continue to the End of the then 'next Seſſion of Parliament immediately following the Expiration of the ſaid additional Term of ſeven 'Years, ſhall be exported out of Great Britain to Africa, America, Spain, Portugal, Gibraltar, the Iſland 'of Minorca, or the Eaſt Indies, in the ſame Manner, and under the like Proviſions, Conditions, and Li- 'mitations, as the herein-before recited Bounties were allowed by the ſaid Act of the twenty-ninth Year 'of his late Majeſty, and continued under the ſaid Act of the tenth Year of his preſent Majeſty: And by 'the ſaid laſt-recited Act, it was further enacted, That for and upon every ſquare Yard of Diapers, Huck- 'backs, Sheeting, and other Species of Linen, upwards of one Yard Engliſh in Breadth, though of no 'finer or better Fabrick or Quality than Linen of an ordinary Breadth (which are intitled to the Bounty 'by the ſaid firſt-recited Act), being of the Manufacture of Great Britain or Ireland, and not exceeding 'one Shilling and Six-pence the ſquare Yard in Value, a Bounty of one Penny Halfpenny upon every 'ſuch ſquare Yard, and ſo in Proportion for any Quantity exceeding a ſquare Yard, ſhall be allowed upon 'the Exportation thereof, reſpectively, for ſuch Time, and in ſuch Manner, and under and ſubject to the 'like Conditions, Reſtrictions, and Limitations, as are preſcribed by the ſaid firſt-recited Act of the 'twenty-ninth Year of his late Majeſty's Reign, and continued by the ſaid Act of the tenth Year of his 'preſent Majeſty: And whereas the Manufacture of Linen would continue to be improved, and the Ex- 'portation thereof to foreign Parts be preſerved and increaſed, if the Bounties granted by the ſaid recited 'Acts of the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty, and tenth Year of the Reign of his pre- 'ſent Majeſty, were continued, and the Duties on the Importation of foreign Raw Linen Yarn, made of 'Flax, taken off for a further Term of Years:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Autho- rity of the ſame, That the ſaid two Acts, made in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty, and in the tenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby further con- tinued, under all the Clauſes, Conditions, and Limitations, contained in the ſaid two recited Acts, until the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-ſix, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

The two recited Acts further continued for 8 Years.

'II. And whereas, by a Clauſe in the ſaid Act of the twenty-ninth Year of his late Majeſty, and alſo by 'the Act of the tenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, it is provided and enacted, That no 'Linen of the Manufacture of Ireland, to be exported from Great Britain, ſhall be intitled to the Bounty, 'unleſs ſuch Linen ſhall be, at the Time of ſuch Exportation, the Property of a Perſon or Perſons re- 'ſiding in Great Britain, or in ſome of his Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations in America: And whereas it 'is reaſonable that the like Benefit and Advantage ſhould be allowed to the Merchants of Ireland, as is 'by the ſaid Act allowed to Perſons reſiding in the American Colonies and Plantations;' be it therefore further enacted, That during the Continuance of this Act, all Linen of the Manufacture of Ireland, to be exported from Great Britain, being at the Time of Exportation the Property of a Perſon or Perſons re- ſiding in Ireland, ſhall be intitled to the ſaid Bounty upon the like Terms with Linens the Property of Perſons reſiding in the American Colonies and Plantations; any Thing in the ſaid Acts, or either of them, to the contrary in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

The ſame Bounty to be allowed on the Exportation of Iriſh Linens the Property of Perſons reſiding in Ireland, as on thoſe the Property of Perſons reſiding in America.

CAP. XXVIII.

An Act to permit, during the preſent Hoſtilities with France, certain Goods enumerated in the Act of Navigation to be imported in Britiſh-built Ships ſold to Foreigners, and for releaſing Ships and Goods which have been ſeized in purſuance of the ſaid Act.

Preamble.

Recital of the Navigation Act 12 Car. II.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles 'the Second (intituled, An Act for encouraging and increaſing of Shipping and Navigation), it is, 'amongſt other Things, enacted, That no Goods or Commodities of the Growth, Production, or Ma- 'nufacture of Muſcovy, or of any the Countries, Dominions, or Territories, to the Great Duke or Em- 'peror of Muſcovy or Ruſſia belonging; as alſo, that no Sorts of Maſts, Timber, or Board, no foreign 'Salt, Pitch, Tar, Roſin, Hemp, or Flax, Raiſins, Figs, Prunes, Olive Oils, no Sort of Corn or Grain, 'Sugar, Pot-aſhes, Wines, Vinegar, or Spirits called Aqua Vitæ, or Brandy Wine, ſhall be imported into 'England, Ireland, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in any Ship or Ships, Veſſel or Veſſels, what- 'ſoever, but in ſuch as do truly and without Fraud belong to the People thereof, or ſome of them, as the 'true Owners and Proprietors thereof, and whereof the Maſter, and three-fourths of the Mariners at 'leaſt, are Engliſh; and that no Currants nor Commodities of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture, of 'any of the Countries, Iſlands, Dominions, or Territories, to the Ottoman or Turkiſh Empire belonging, 'ſhall be imported into any of the foremention'd Places, in any Ship or Veſſel but which is of Engliſh- 'built, and navigated as aforeſaid, and in no other, except only ſuch foreign Ships and Veſſels as are of 'the Built of that Country or Place of which the ſaid Goods are the Growth, Production, or Manufac- 'ture, reſpectively, or of ſuch Port where the ſaid Goods can only be, or moſt uſually are, firſt ſhipped 'for Tranſportation, and whereof the Maſter, and three-fourths of the Mariners at leaſt, are of the ſaid 'Country or Place, under the Penalty and Forfeiture of Ship and Goods: And whereas the ſelling of 'Britiſh-built Ships to Foreigners is a beneficial Branch of Trade, and ought therefore to be encouraged, 'and it is highly reaſonable that Britiſh Ships ſo ſold to, or being the Property of, Foreigners, ſhould en- 'joy the ſame Privilege in theſe Kingdoms as if they were of the Built of the reſpective Countries or

'Places from whence such Ships do come;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the fifth Day of April, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, and during the present Hostilities with France, but no longer, the said recited Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to hinder or prevent any Person or Persons whatsoever from importing into the Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, any of the said Goods or Merchandizes herein-before mentioned and expressed, in Shipping built in Great Britain, Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man, or in any of the Lands, Islands, Dominions, and Territories, to his Majesty, in Africa, Asia, or America, or in his Possession, so as the Master, and three-fourths of the Mariners at least, belonging to and navigating any such Ship or Vessel, are British, or of the same Country or Place of which the said Goods are the Growth, Production, and Manufacture, respectively, and not otherwise.

The said Act not to extend (during the present Hostilities with France) to prevent the Importation of certain enumerated Goods in Vessels the Property of Foreigners, provided they are British or Irish Built, &c.

II. Provided always, That all such Goods and Merchandizes so imported into Great Britain or Ireland, in Ships belonging to, and the Property of, Foreigners, although British-built, shall be liable to Aliens and all other Duties, in the same Manner as if such Ships were Foreign-built.

Goods imported in such Ships liable to Aliens Duties.

'III. And whereas several Ships or Vessels British built, which are the Property of Foreigners, and 'navigated with foreign Mariners, have arrived in this Kingdom since the present Hostilities with France, 'laden with some of the Goods and Merchandizes mentioned and expressed in the before-recited Act of 'the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, and the Owners of such Goods are prevented 'from entering the same, and some have been seized, with the Vessels importing such Goods, on account 'of their being liable to the Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted by the said Act: And whereas it is reasonable that the Owners of such Ships or Vessels and Goods should receive the Benefit intended by this 'Act;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owners of such Goods so imported, to enter and pay the Aliens and other Duties due and payable for the said Goods, without incurring any Penalties or Forfeitures whatsoever, for or by reason of the said recited Act; and that the said Goods so entered or to be entered, and the said Ships or Vessels in which they were imported, shall be released and discharged from any Seizure or Forfeiture on account of such Importation, any Thing in the said recited Act, or any Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Owners of all such Ships which have already arrived since the present Hostilities with France, shall receive the Benefit of this Act.

CAP. XXIX.

An Act for allowing Corn, Grain, and Flour, imported into the Port of Cowes in the Isle of Wight, to be landed without Payment of the Duties, under the like Restrictions as Corn, Grain, and Flour, are allowed to be landed at the several Ports mentioned in an Act, made in the thirteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to regulate the Importation and Exportation of Corn.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act to regulate the Importation and Exportation of Corn; it is enacted, That in case any Wheat 'or Wheat-flour, Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer, Bigg, or Oats, shall be imported into any or either 'of the Ports in the said Act particularly mentioned, at any Time when the Duties not repealed by the 'said Act shall be due and payable for such Species of Corn, Grain, or Flour respectively, the same, upon 'due Entry thereof, may be forthwith landed from on board the Ship or Vessel, in which such Species of 'Corn, Grain, or Flour, shall be so imported, in the Presence of the proper Officer or Officers of the 'Customs, without Payment of the said Duties, under certain Restrictions and Regulations in the said Act 'mentioned and prescribed: And whereas it is expedient that Corn, Grain, and Flour, imported into the 'Port of Cowes, at any Time when the Duties not repealed by the said Act shall be due and payable for such 'Species of Corn, Grain, or Flour, respectively, should, in like Manner, be landed without Payment of 'the said Duties:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in case any Wheat or Wheat-flour, Rye, Pease, Beans, Barley, Beer, Bigg, or Oats, shall be imported into the said Port of Cowes, at any Time when the Duties not repealed by the said Act shall be due and payable for such Species of Corn and Grain, or Flour, respectively, the same, upon due Entry thereof, may be forthwith landed from on board the Ship or Vessel in which such Species of Corn, Grain, or Flour, shall be so imported, in the Presence of the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, without Payment of the said Duties; and such Corn, Grain, and Flour, shall be subject and liable to be warehoused, and to be delivered in the same Manner, and under and subject to the like Securities, Conditions, Regulations, and Restrictions, as Corn, Grain, and Flour, imported into any or either of the several Ports mentioned in the said Act are subject and liable to, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Port of Cowes had been included in the said Act; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary thereof in any-wise notwithstanding.

Recital of the Corn Act 13 Geo. III.

Wheat, Wheat-flour, &c. may be imported at Cowes Duty-free, subject to the Regulations contained in the above-recited Act.

CAP. XXX.

An Act for the better Relief and Employment of the Poor of the several Parishes within the Hundred of Cosford (except the Parish of Hadleigh), and also of the Parish of Polsted, within the Hundred of Babergh, in the County of Suffolk.

CAP. XXXI.

An Act for building a new Aſſize or Town Hall and Market-houſe, within the City or Borough of Wells, in the County of Somerſet; and for regulating the Markets within the ſaid City or Borough.

CAP. XXXII.

An Act for continuing and amending two Acts, made in the twenty-ſixth Year of his late Majeſty, and the fourth Year of his preſent Majeſty, for repairing the Road from Piper's Inn to Glaſtonbury, and ſeveral other Roads therein mentioned, in the County of Somerſet; and for repairing the Road from Piper's Inn aforeſaid to Athelney-Bridge; and alſo for paving, cleanſing, and lighting the City or Borough of Wells, in the ſaid County, and for removing and preventing Incroachments, Nuiſances, and Annoyances therein.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act for draining, improving, and preſerving, the Low Lands in the Pariſhes of Altcar, Sefton, Halſall, and Walton upon the Hill, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS certain Low Lands, lying in the ſeveral Townſhips, Vills, Hamlets, or Diſtricts, of Altcar, Sefton, Netherton, Lunt, Thornton, Aintree, Maghull, Melling, Ince Blundell, Little Crosby, Formby, and Down Holland, within the ſeveral Pariſhes of Altcar, Sefton, Halſall, and Walton upon the Hill, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, containing, in the Whole, four thouſand eight hundred and forty-three Acres of Land, Statute Meaſure, or thereabouts, and herein-after particularly deſcribed, have for ſeveral Years paſt been, and ſtill are, commonly overflowed with Water, through the Defect of their Outfalls to the Sea, and Obſtructions in the preſent Courſe of the River Alt, in the ſaid County; by which Means the ſame are rendered of little or no Value, to the Loſs of the Public as well as the great Damage of the Owners and Proprietors of ſuch Lands: And whereas the ſaid Low Lands are bounded as follows; (that is to ſay) In Melling, from or near a certain Bridge called Bull-bridge, beginning at the higher End of a Cloſe called Knotsfield, belonging to the Right Honourable the Earl of Sefton in the Kingdom of Ireland, on the South and Eaſt Sides thereof, adjoining to the Highway leading to Melling, and from about the Middle of the ſame Cloſe, acroſs another Cloſe of the ſaid Earl called The Cannock, and from thence acroſs three Cloſes called The Wheat Hey, The Summer Worked Hey, and The Meadow, belonging to the ſaid Earl, and from thence acroſs another Cloſe called The Meakins Hey, into another Cloſe called The Big Ryding, both belonging to the Reverend Wilfred Troutbeck, and acroſs the ſame at the South End thereof, to another Cloſe called The Dyers Carr, belonging to the ſaid Earl, and acroſs the ſame near the South End thereof, and from thence on the North Side to about the Middle thereof, to another Cloſe called The Poolers Meadow, belonging to Richard Wilbraham Bootle Eſquire, and down or acroſs the ſame Cloſe, to another Cloſe called The Old Meadow, belonging to the Reverend John Stanley, and from thence into Maghull, to another Cloſe called The Loweſt Alter, belonging to the ſaid Earl, and acroſs the ſame to another Cloſe called The Cowhey, belonging to the ſaid Earl, about the Middle of the End thereof, and from the South-weſt Corner thereof, and acroſs the ſame to the North-eaſt Corner thereof, adjoining to the Highway leading from Ormſkirk to Liverpool, and from thence Weſtwards to another Cloſe called The Chew, belonging to the ſaid Earl, and acroſs the ſame, adjoining to the Townſhip of Sefton, and following the North-weſt Side thereof, to about the Middle of the South End of a Cloſe called The Little Wood Hey, belonging to the ſaid Earl, and from thence acroſs the ſame to three other Cloſes called The Great Wood Hey, and the Two Wharfs, belonging to the ſaid Earl, and acroſs the ſame three Cloſes to another Cloſe called The Calf Croft, belonging to the Reverend Richard Rothwell, and acroſs the ſame about the Middle thereof, to another Cloſe called The Marled Hey, belonging to the ſaid Earl, and acroſs the ſame near the Bottom thereof to another Cloſe called The Cow Acre, belonging to the ſaid Richard Rothwell, and acroſs the ſame, to and acroſs the Highway leading from Ormſkirk to Sefton, to another Cloſe called The Parſons Hey, belonging to the ſaid Richard Rothwell, and acroſs the ſame about the North-eaſt Corner thereof, near unto a Capital Meſſuage called The Oldhall of Maghull, and from thence Northwards to other Cloſes called The Carr, and The Little Meadow, belonging to the ſaid Richard Rothwell, and acroſs the Eaſt Ends thereof, to another Cloſe called The Aughton Meadow, belonging to the ſaid Earl, and acroſs the ſame, near the higher End thereof, to Two other Cloſes called The Old Paſture, and The Lane Meadow, belonging to the ſaid Earl, and acroſs the ſame, near the Middle thereof, and alſo acroſs a Lane adjoining thereto, unto another Cloſe called The Loweſt Lane Croft, belonging to the ſaid Earl, on the higher Side thereof, and from thence to another Cloſe called The Lower Mean Hey, belonging to the ſaid Earl, and following the South and Eaſt Sides thereof, to and acroſs the higher Part of another Cloſe called The Puſhed Meadow, belonging to the ſaid Earl, and acroſs the higher Part thereof, and from thence into Altcar, to the higher Side of another Cloſe called The Prieſt Meadow Stack, and along the ſame Northwards to the North-weſt Corner thereof, and from thence to about the Middle of the North Side thereof, and from thence to about the Middle of another Cloſe called The Broad Hey, and acroſs the ſame to another Cloſe called The Showrick Side, and following the Eaſt Side thereof to the South-weſt Corner of another Cloſe called The Horſe Coppy, and along the South and Eaſt Sides thereof, to another Cloſe called The Nearer Carr, along the South and Eaſt Sides thereof, to two other Cloſes, called The Marled Carr and The Near Carr, on the Eaſt Ends thereof, and acroſs the ſame unto and acroſs a Lane to two other Cloſes, called The Intack and The Hainſhoot Meadow, at the higher Ends thereof, and following the ſame to another Cloſe called The Ryding Lake, and

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall be, and they are hereby authoriſed and impowered, from Time to Time, to open, deepen, clear, enlarge, ſtraighten, divert, embank, and bring into a more direct Line and free Courſe, the River Alt, in the ſaid County of Lancaſter, below a certain Bridge called Bull Bridge, ſituate in the Townſhips of Aintree and Melling aforeſaid, from or near the ſame Bridge, unto the Shore, where the ſaid River falls and runs into the Sea, and alſo upon the Sea Shore, and down to the Low Water Mark, or Reflux of the Sea, in ſuch Courſe, Direction, and Manner, as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall order or think proper, not deviating from the preſent Courſe thereof, in any of the incloſed or Inlands, more than Sixty Yards in any Place, in the opening, deepening, clearing, enlarging, diverting, embanking, or bringing the ſame River into a more direct Line and free Courſe, unleſs ſuch further Deviation ſhall be with the Conſent in Writing of the Owner or Proprietor of the Lands in which ſuch Deviation ſhall be made (except in or through certain Cloſes called The Little Marſh, The Salt Marſh, The Long Carterer's Marſh, and Carterer's Marſh, in Altcar; and certain Cloſes called The Marſh, The Little Marſh, The North New Marſh, and The New Marſh, in Ince Blundell); and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, are hereby alſo authoriſed and impowered, for the more ſpeedy and effectual draining, improving, and preſerving of the ſaid Low Lands, and conveying and carrying off the ſaid Waters, to make, cut, and embank, a new Channel or Courſe for the ſame, from the ſaid River Alt, beginning at or near a certain Cloſe or Parcel of Land in Altcar aforeſaid, belonging to the ſaid Earl of Sefton, and now or late in the Poſſeſſion of Robert Scariſbrick, and adjoining, on the North Side thereof, to the ſaid Cloſe or Parcel of Land called The Lord's Marſh, and acroſs the ſame to or near the South-weſt Corner thereof, to and acroſs the South Ends of ſeveral other Cloſes or Parcels of Land called Formby Marſhes, Brown Bear Garden, and Bear Garden, adjoining or near thereto, belonging to the ſaid Richard Formby, and now or late in the ſeveral Poſſeſſions of John Bolton, Thomas Aindow, and Richard Bolton, on the North Side of a Cop or Fence called Formby Marſh Cop, and to and acroſs another Cloſe or Parcel of Land called The Outſides, belonging to the ſaid Richard Formby, and now or late in the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Richard Bolton, and from thence to and through a certain Common or unincloſed Lands called Ravenſmeals Common, belonging to the ſaid Richard Formby, on the North Side of a certain Pier or Pillar there, called Formby Land Mark, to the Sea Shore, and down to the Low Water Mark or Reflux of the Sea, in ſuch Courſe, Direction, and Manner, as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall order or think proper; ſuch new Channel not to be made above twenty Yards wide at the Bottom, nor the Embankment thereof above forty Yards diſtant from each Side of ſuch new Channel or Courſe, in any Part of the incloſed Lands, unleſs the ſame or any of them ſhall be made wider or more diſtant with the Conſent of the Owner or Proprietor of the Inlands through which ſuch new Channel or Courſe ſhall be made; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, are hereby alſo authorized and impowered to open, deepen, clear, enlarge, embank, and bring into a more direct and free Courſe, the ſeveral Rivulets, Brooks, or Streams of Water running into the ſaid River Alt, commonly called Maghull Hall Brook, Maghull Brook, Lydiate Brook, or Within Brook, and Down Holland Brook or Fleam Brook; (that is to ſay) the ſaid Rivulet or Brook called Maghull Hall Brook, running between Maghull on the Eaſt, and Netherton and Sefton on the Weſt Sides thereof, from or near the higher or South-eaſt Corner of a Cloſe called The New Meadow, in Netherton aforeſaid, to and into the ſaid River Alt; the ſaid Rivulet or Brook called Maghull Brook, from or near the South-eaſt Corner of a certain Cloſe or Place called The Prieſt's Meadow Nook, in Altcar aforeſaid, to and into the ſaid River Alt; the ſaid Rivulet or Brook called Lydiate Brook or Within Brook, from or near the ſaid Clow, ſituate and being between the ſaid two Cloſes, called The Middle Newhey, and The Higher Cuddock Meadow, in Altcar aforeſaid, to and into the ſaid River Alt; and the ſaid Rivulet or Brook called Down Holland or Fleam Brook, from or near the ſaid Place called The Horſe Plat, being oppoſite or near unto the Houſe of the ſaid Jane Norris, and between the ſaid Townſhips of Down Holland and Formby, to a certain Bridge, called The Rale Bridge, ſituate and being between the ſaid Townſhips of Formby and Altcar, and from thence to and into the ſaid River Alt; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, are hereby alſo authoriſed and impowered to erect and make, or cauſe to be made, ſuch Bridges over the ſaid River, and alſo over the ſaid new Channel, and the ſaid Rivulets, Brooks, or Streams and to make a new Channel;

Commiſſioners impowered to change the Courſe of the River Alt below Bull Bridge;

and to open ſeveral Rivulets;

and to make Bridges, Drains, and other Works;

Streams of Water, running into the ſaid River Alt, and to ſcour out or ſtop up, and turn ſuch Cuts and Drains, and to repair and ſupport ſuch Banks, Bridges, and Sluices, and likewiſe to make ſuch new Cuts, Drains, Dams, Banks, Tunnels, Clows, Sluices, and Outlets, in, through, or upon the ſaid Low Lands, or any Part or Parts thereof, and to erect ſuch Flood-gates, Engines, Locks, Wiers, and other Works, thereupon, and in, acroſs, and upon the ſaid River Alt and ſuch new Channel, for draining and conveying the Water from the ſaid Low Lands, and alſo to take and uſe ſuch Earth and Ground near or adjoining to the ſaid Banks and to the ſaid new Channel, as ſhall be neceſſary for the making, raiſing, ſtrengthening, and maintaining of ſuch Banks, as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall think proper; the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, making ſuch Satisfaction to the ſeveral Perſons whoſe Lands and Grounds ſhall be damaged by the making or erecting any ſuch Works as aforeſaid, as ſhall be agreed on between ſuch Perſons reſpectively, and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, for the Damages they ſhall ſuſtain thereby.

and to uſe Earth and Ground near the Banks.

Commiſſioners authoriſed to alter the Courſe of Rivulets and Brooks;

'III. And whereas, in order to ſcour and cleanſe the ſaid River Alt, or the ſaid new Channel, it is 'proper that the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhould be impowered to divert or alter the Courſe of ſeveral Rivulets, 'Brooks, and Streams, running into the ſaid River, below a Bridge called Bull Bridge;' be it therefore further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, are hereby fully authoriſed and impowered, from Time to Time, as they ſhall ſee Occaſion, to divert, alter, or change the Courſe of all or any Rivulets, Brooks, or Streams, running into the ſaid River Alt below Bull Bridge aforeſaid (except as herein-after is excepted), ſo as to cauſe the ſame to communicate with ſuch Part or Parts of the ſaid River or new Channel, as they, or any three or more of them, ſhall think fit, for the better and more effectual ſcouring and cleanſing the ſaid River or the ſaid new Channel.

but not to leſſen the Streams which ſupply Sefton Mills, &c.

IV. Provided always, That nothing ſhall be done by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Perſon or Perſons employed by them, which ſhall take away, leſſen, or diminiſh, any of the Streams of Water which uſually ſupply certain Mills in the ſaid Pariſh of Sefton, called Sefton Mills, or which ſhall in any Manner whatſoever prejudice or injure the ſaid Mills, or to divert, change, or alter any Stream of Water ſo as to deprive any of the Owners or Occupiers of their uſual Watering-places for their Cattle.

Clauſe for limiting the Time when the new Channel ſhall be made, &c.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid new Channel ſhall not be made until the End of twelve Calendar Months after the ſaid River Alt ſhall have been opened, deepened, cleared, enlarged, diverted, and embanked as aforeſaid; and then only in caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall in their Judgment think the ſaid River Alt, when ſo opened, deepened, cleared, enlarged, diverted, and embanked, as aforeſaid, inſufficient to drain, improve, and preſerve the ſaid Low Lands; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall in ſuch Caſes certify the ſame in Writing under their Hands, and ſuch Certificate ſhall be entered and recorded amongſt the other Proceedings of the ſaid Commiſſioners under this Act.

River Alt to be kept open and cleanſed till the new Channel is completed, and adjudged ſufficient to drain the Lands.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in caſe the ſaid River Alt ſhall be certified inſufficient to drain, improve, and preſerve the ſaid Low Lands as aforeſaid, the ſame ſhall nevertheleſs be from Time to Time opened, cleared, and embanked, until the ſaid new Channel ſhall be completely cut and made, and alſo until the ſaid new Channel ſhall be found ſufficient to drain, improve, and preſerve the ſaid Low Lands, by the Verdict of a Jury, as herein-after is mentioned.

Jury to be ſummoned.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, at any Time or Times after they ſhall have certified that the ſaid River Alt is inſufficient to drain, improve, and preſerve the ſaid Low Lands as aforeſaid, and after the ſaid new Channel ſhall have been completely cut and made as aforeſaid, ſhall, and they are hereby impowered and required, from Time to Time, to iſſue a Warrant or Warrants under their Hands, to the Sheriff of the ſaid County of Lancaſter for the Time being, or, in caſe ſuch Sheriff or his Under Sheriff ſhall happen to be one of the Proprietors of the ſaid Low Lands, or enjoy any Office or Truſt under the ſaid Commiſſioners, or ſhall be otherwiſe intereſted in the Matters in queſtion, then to one of the Coroners of the ſaid County of Lancaſter, not intereſted as aforeſaid, requiring ſuch Sheriff or Coroner reſpectively to impannel, ſummon, and return a Jury; and the ſaid Sheriff or Coroner, reſpectively, are hereby required accordingly to impannel, ſummon, and return, a Jury of twenty-four able and ſufficient and indifferent Men, qualified according to the Laws of this Realm, to be returned for Trials of Iſſues in his Majeſty's Court of Common Pleas at Lancaſter, to appear before the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, at ſuch Time and Place as in ſuch Warrant or Warrants ſhall be appointed, not being leſs than ten, or more than twenty-one Days after ſuch Warrant or Warrants ſhall be ſerved upon the ſaid Sheriff or Coroner reſpectively; and alſo to return Iſſues of every ſuch Perſon impannelled and returned, and not appearing, the Sum of forty Shillings, which ſhall be duly eſtreated and levied by the Sheriff of the ſaid County, upon the Goods and Chattels of the Perſon not appearing, to the Uſe of the ſaid Commiſſioners, to be applied for the Purpoſes of this Act, by Warrant or Warrants of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, attending at ſuch Meeting; and in caſe a ſufficient Number of Jurymen ſhall not appear at the Time and Place appointed as aforeſaid, then the ſaid Sheriff or Coroner ſhall return other honeſt and indifferent Men of the Standers-by, or that can ſpeedily be procured to attend that Service (being ſo qualified as aforeſaid) to make up the ſaid Jury to the Number of twelve; and all Parties concerned may have their lawful Challenges againſt any of the ſaid Jurors, but ſhall not challenge the Array; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any one or more of them, are hereby impowered to ſummon and call before the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, at any of their Meetings to be holden in purſuance of this Act, in ſuch Manner as herein-after is mentioned, all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons as ſhall be thought neceſſary to be examined as Witneſs or Witneſſes, touching the Matters to be inquired of by the ſaid Jury; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, are hereby impowered to examine on Oath any ſuch Witneſs or Witneſſes as aforeſaid, as well as any other Witneſs or Witneſſes, before the ſaid Jury; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three and examine them on Oath.

Commiſſioners may ſummon Witneſſes,

three or more of them, may order and authoriſe the ſaid Jury, or any ſix or more of them, to view the old Channel or Courſe of the ſaid River Alt, and alſo the ſaid new Channel; and ſuch Jury ſhall upon Oath (which Oath, as well as the Oaths to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be called upon or produced to give Evidence as aforeſaid, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any one or more of them, at any of their Meetings, is and are hereby impowered to adminiſter) enquire whether the ſaid new channel is ſufficient to drain, improve, and preſerve the ſaid Low Lands, without any opening, clearing, or embanking in future of the old Channel of the ſaid River, below the ſaid new Channel; and if the ſaid Jury ſo to be ſworn, ſhall by their Verdict find that the ſaid new Channel is ſufficient to drain, improve, and preſerve the ſaid Low Lands, without any opening, clearing or embanking in future of the old Channel of the ſaid River, below the ſaid new Channel, then and from thenceforth the ſaid old Channel, below the ſaid new Channel, ſhall not be opened, cleared, or embanked, under this Act; but as well the Eſtate, Right, Title, and Intereſt of and in the ſaid old Channel, below the ſaid new Channel, as of and in the Banks and other the Appurtenances thereto belonging, ſhall revert and belong to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as would have been intitled thereto in caſe this Act had not been made; and the ſaid Verdict ſhall, as ſoon as conveniently can be done, be entered and recorded amongſt the other Proceedings of the Commiſſioners for putting this Act in Execution; and the Expences of ſummoning ſuch Jury, and of taking their Inquiſition, ſhall be paid and borne by and out of the Monies to be collected and received under this Act.

If the Jury find new Channel ſufficient to drain, the old Channel not to be opened in future.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for all Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, Corporations Aggregate or Sole, Huſbands, Guardians, Truſtees, Feoffees in Truſt, Committees, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and all other Truſtees whomſoever, not only for and on Behalf of themſelves, their Heirs and Succeſſors, but alſo for and on Behalf of their Ceſtuique Truſts, whether Infants, Iſſue unborn, Lunatics, Idiots, or Femes-covert, who are or ſhall be ſeiſed, poſſeſſed of, or intereſted in their own Right, and to and for all other Perſons whomſoever who are or ſhall be ſeiſed, poſſeſſed of, or intereſted in or to the Lands wherein ſuch new Channel ſhall be made and embanked as aforeſaid, or wherein the ſaid River Alt ſhall be enlarged or embanked, or brought into a more direct Line and free Courſe, or in or upon which any Bank, Cut, Drain, Dam, Tunnel, Outlet, or other Work ſhall be made, or in or upon which ſhall be erected or made any Bridge or Bridges, Floodgate or Flood-gates, Engine or Engines, Lock or Locks, Weir or Weirs, or other Work, or from whence ſhall be taken or uſed any Earth or Ground as aforeſaid, to agree with the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, for any Damage that ſhall be done thereby; and in caſe they ſhall not agree with the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, about the Value of ſuch Damage, then the ſame ſhall be aſſeſſed and adjudged as herein-after is mentioned; and all and every ſuch Bodies Politic, Corporate or Collegiate, Corporations Aggregate or Sole, Huſbands, Guardians, Truſtees, Feoffees in Truſt, Committees, Executors, Adminiſtrators, and all other Truſtees whomſoever, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and alſo their Ceſtuique Truſts, whether Infants, Iſſue unborn, Lunatics, Idiots, or Femes-covert, who are or ſhall be ſo ſeiſed, poſſeſſed of, or intereſted in their own Right, and every other Perſon and Perſons whomſoever who are or ſhall be ſo ſeiſed, poſſeſſed or intereſted as aforeſaid, ſhall be bound by all and every or any ſuch Agreement, Aſſeſſment, and Adjudication as aforeſaid; but if ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall not agree with the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, about the Value of the Damages to be occaſioned as aforeſaid, then ſuch Damages ſhall be aſſeſſed, aſcertained and determined, by the Juſtices at any Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the ſaid County, to be holden by Adjournment or otherwiſe, within the Diviſion of the ſame County where the ſaid Low Lands lie, within ſix Calendar Months next after Application ſhall have been made to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, touching ſuch Damages (Notice thereof in Writing being given by ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo intending to appeal, to the Clerk to the ſaid Commiſſioners, at leaſt fourteen Days before ſuch Quarter Seſſions); and the Juſtices at ſuch Quarter Seſſions or Adjournment, or the major Part of them, not intereſted in the ſaid Low Lands (upon Proof of ſuch Notice), are hereby authoriſed and required, by Examination of Witneſſes upon Oath (which Oath the ſaid Juſtices are hereby authoriſed to adminiſter), and by other proper and ſufficient Enquiry, Evidence, and Satisfaction, to hear and determine the Matter thereof, and to give Relief therein; and alſo to give ſuch Coſts to either Party as they ſhall think reaſonable, and by their Order or Warrant, to levy ſuch Coſts by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party or Parties liable to pay the ſame, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner or Owners of ſuch Goods and Chattels, after deducting the reaſonable Charges of ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale; and the Determination of the ſaid Juſtices ſhall be final and concluſive upon all Parties.

Incapacitated Perſons impowered to agree for Damages done to Lands.

If they cannot agree, then to be bound by Adjudication and Aſſeſſment of Damages;

or, at the Election of the Party ſuſtaining Damage by the Quarter Seſſions;

IX. Provided nevertheleſs, That in caſe the Owner or Owners of ſuch Lands ſhall deſire that ſuch Damages ſhould be aſſeſſed, aſcertained, and determined by a Jury, inſtead of by the ſaid Juſtices, and ſhall, by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, within fourteen Days after Application ſhall have been made to them as aforeſaid, ſignify ſuch Deſire to any one of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or to their Clerk, that then the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall and may, and they are hereby impowered and required, from Time to Time, to iſſue out their Warrant or Warrants, under their Hands and Seals, to be directed to the Sheriff of the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, or in caſe ſuch Sheriff ſhall happen to be intereſted in the Matter in queſtion, or any Way related to any of the Parties concerned, then to one of the Coroners of the ſaid County not intereſted or related as aforeſaid, for the ſummoning, impannelling, and returning of a Jury; and ſuch Sheriff or Coroner reſpectively to whom ſuch Warrant or Warrants ſhall be directed, is and are hereby required accordingly to ſummon, impannel, and return, a Jury of twenty-four ſufficient and indifferent Men, qualified according to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm to be returned for Trials of Iſſues joined in his Majeſty's Court of Common Pleas at Lancaſter, to appear before the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, at ſuch Time or Times, Place or Places, within the ſaid County of Lancaſter, as in ſuch Warrant or Warrants ſhall be expreſſed, not being leſs than Ten, nor above twenty-one Days after any ſuch Warrant ſhall be ſerved upon or delivered to ſuch Sheriff, his Deputy, or Coroner reſpectively; and alſo to return Iſſues of every ſuch Perſon impannelled and

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall and will, in caſe they cannot agree with any ſuch Perſon or Perſons for any ſuch Damage or Damages as aforeſaid (ſave and except the ſaid Lands and Damages of the ſaid Richard Formby, his Heirs and Aſſigns, or his or their Truſtee or Truſtees, which are provided for as herein-after is mentioned), on Notice in Writing given to or left for ſuch three or more Commiſſioners, with the Collector or Receiver for the Time being, to be appointed under this Act, by or on the Behalf of any ſuch Perſon or Perſons requiring ſuch Warrant or Warrants as aforeſaid, iſſue ſuch Warrant or Warrants within the Space of twenty-one Days next after ſuch Notice given or left as aforeſaid, and proceed to aſſeſs ſuch Damage or Damages by ſuch Jury or Juries in ſuch Manner as herein-before is mentioned; and all ſuch Damages, which the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall agree to pay to any ſuch Perſon or Perſons, or which ſhall be aſſeſſed either by the ſaid Juſtices, or by any ſuch Jury or Juries as aforeſaid, ſhall be paid by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, by and out of the Monies to be raiſed and received by and under this Act; and the ſaid Money agreed to be paid, or which ſhall have been aſſeſſed for ſuch Damages, ſhall be paid according to their reſpective Priorities as to the Time of Contract or Aſſeſſment; and the Collector or Receiver for the Time being ſhall, from Time to Time, at all ſeaſonable Times (on Demand made to him in Writing by or on the Behalf of any ſuch Perſon or Perſons, to whom any Sum or Sums of Money agreed to be paid or aſſeſſed for Damages as aforeſaid, ſhall be then remaining due and unpaid), produce and ſhew to ſuch Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Demand, the Book or Books of Accounts of all Monies which ſhall then have been had and received by or under this Act, and of the Application thereof, and permit ſuch Perſon or Perſons to make any Extract or Extracts of ſuch Accounts, or any of them; and the Monies to be had or received under this Act (after Payment of the Intereſt of the Monies that ſhall then have been borrowed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, under the Power for that Purpoſe herein-after mentioned and given) ſhall, in the firſt Place, be paid and applied in Satisfaction and Diſcharge of ſuch Damages which ſhall have been ſo agreed to be paid, or ſhall have been aſſeſſed as aforeſaid, according to their reſpective Priorities in Point of Time, with Intereſt for the ſame, at the Rate of five Pounds by the Hundred, by the Year, from the reſpective Times at which ſuch Sum or Sums of Money were agreed to be paid or aſſeſſed reſpectively.

The Damages to be paid according to the Priority of Agreement with the Parties.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after twelve Calendar Months next after the ſaid River Alt ſhall have been opened, deepened, cleared, enlarged, diverted, and embanked as aforeſaid, and from and after the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall have certified in Writing under their Hands, that the ſaid River Alt, when ſo opened, deepened, cleared, enlarged, diverted, and embanked as aforeſaid, is inſufficient to drain, improve, and preſerve the ſaid Low Lands, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, or any Perſon or Perſons, by their Order or Appointment, to enter into and upon the Lands of the ſaid Richard Formby, through which the ſaid new Channel is intended to be cut, and there to ſet out and aſcertain the Lands to be uſed for ſuch new Channel, and the Locks, Weirs, Bridges, and other Communications, to be made in and over ſuch new Channel, firſt giving to the ſaid Richard Formby, or his Truſtee or Truſtees, or his or their known Agent or Agents, ten Days Notice of ſuch their Intention; and from and after aſcertaining the Lands ſo to be cut, and the Locks, Weirs, Bridges, and other Communications, ſo to be made made as aforesaid, then the said Commissioners, or any three of them, are hereby enabled to agree with the said Richard Formby, his Trustee or Trustees, or any other Person or Persons properly authorised, for the Lands so to be cut, and for the Damages to be occasioned thereby, either to the said Lands, or the Rabbit Warren thereon, and to pay, out of the Monies to be raised by virtue of this Act, such Sum or Sums of Money, at such Times and in such Manner as shall be agreed upon between the said Parties, for such Lands and Damages: But in case the said Richard Formby, his Trustee or Trustees, Agent or Agents, shall, for the Space of ten Days after Notice to be given to him or them as aforesaid, neglect or refuse to agree with the said Commissioners for such Lands and Damages as aforesaid, then it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, to cause a like Jury as herein-before mentioned, to be in like Manner, and under the same Restrictions, summoned, impannelled, returned, and sworn, and also, in like Manner to direct a View of six or more of them, if required; and the said Jurors, when so impannelled and sworn, shall upon their Oath (which Oath, and also the Oaths to be taken by the Person or Persons who shall be produced to give Evidence before them, the said Commissioners, or any one or more of them, are and is hereby impowered to administer) enquire of, assess, and ascertain, the Value of such Lands, and the immediate Damages to be done to the said Rabbit Warren, and to award such Sum or Sums of Money to be paid for the same as they shall think fit; and their Verdict or Determination therein shall be recorded and kept by the said Commissioners among their Proceedings in the Execution of this Act, and shall be binding and conclusive on all Parties concerned; and upon Payment or legal Tender of such Sum or Sums of Money so to be awarded by the said Jurors as aforesaid, to the said Richard Formby, his Trustee or Trustees, or any other Person authorised to receive the same, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, their Workmen, or others, to enter into and upon the said Lands of the said Richard Formby, there to cut and make such new Channel, and to erect such Weirs, Locks, Bridges, and other Communications as shall be so ascertained and set out as aforesaid: And in case any subsequent or consequential Damages shall happen to arise to the Property of the said Richard Formby, his Heirs or Assigns, by any of the Works to be done under this Act, and the same cannot be settled by Agreement as aforesaid, the same shall in like Manner, upon ten Days Notice to be given by the Party requiring the same, be settled by a like Jury, and their Verdict or Determination shall in like Manner be final; and the Money so to be awarded, as last-mentioned, shall be by the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, paid out of the Monies to arise by virtue of this Act, to the said Richard Formby, his Heirs and Assigns, within two Calendar Months next after such last-mentioned Verdict shall be found as aforesaid.

If Parties cannot agree, a Jury to be summoned, whose Verdict shall be final.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where a Verdict or Assessment shall be given or made for a greater Sum of Money, as a Recompence or Satisfaction for any such Damage as aforesaid, than had been offered to be paid or given by the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, then all the Expences of summoning such Jury, and of taking such Inquest, shall be settled by the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, and shall be defrayed and paid by them out of the Monies to be raised under this Act; but if any Verdict or Assessment shall be given or made for the same, or a less Sum of Money than had been previously offered to be paid or given by the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Costs and Expences of summoning such Jury, and taking such Inquest, shall be settled in like Manner by the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, and shall be paid by the Person or Persons with whom the said Commissioners shall have such Controversy or Dispute; and that all and every Person or Persons making Complaint, and requesting such Jury, shall, before the said Commissioners shall be obliged to issue out their Warrant or Warrants for the summoning such Jury as aforesaid, first enter into a Bond to the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, in the Penalty of fifty Pounds, conditioned to prosecute such his, her, or their Complaint, and to bear and pay the Costs and Expences of summoning such Jury, and taking such Inquest, in case a Verdict shall be given for the same, or a less Sum of Money than had been offered to be paid or given as a Recompence or Satisfaction for such Damage as aforesaid by the said Commissioners, before the summoning and returning of the said Jury or Juries.

Expences of the Jury by whom to be borne.

Persons requesting a Jury, to enter into a Bond to prosecute their Complaint, &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall not be obliged to receive or take Notice of any Complaint or Complaints, to be made by any Person or Persons whomsoever, for any Injury or Damage by him, her, or them sustained by virtue of this Act, unless Application in Writing hath been or shall be made in relation thereto, by or on Behalf of such Person or Persons, to the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, or to their known Agent or Agents, or to the Collector of the Rates or Assessments under this Act, within the Space of six Calendar Months next after the Time that such Injury or Damage shall have been sustained, or the doing or committing thereof shall have ceased.

Complaint of Damages to be given in Writing within six Calendar Months after done, or Party not entitled to Damage.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners herein-before named, or any three or more of them, shall meet in the Parish Church of Sefton aforesaid, upon the Eighteenth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, or within ten Days after, and shall proceed to put this Act in Execution; and the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them then assembled, shall and may adjourn themselves, and meet again pursuant to such Adjournment, and proceed in the Execution of this Act, as often as they shall think proper; and shall, at all such Meetings, make such Rules and Orders as they shall deem necessary to be observed for the ordering, managing, and executing, in the most effectual Manner, the several Powers granted by this Act; and if at the said First or any other of the Meetings of the said Commissioners, a sufficient Number of the Commissioners shall not be present for acting or for adjourning, that then, and as often as the Case shall happen, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, by Writing under their Hands, to call a Meeting for putting this Act in Execution, by causing public Notice of the Time and Place of such Meeting to be given in the Parish Churches of Altcar, Sefton, Halsall, and Walton upon the Hill aforesaid, on some Sunday immediately after Divine Service, and such Writing to be affixed on the Doors of such Churches respectively,

First Meeting of Commissioners.

How to proceed on Failure of a sufficient Number to adjourn.

Commissioners to appoint Officers, respectively, ten Days at least before such Meeting, and to continue such Meeting or Meetings by Adjournment, from Time to Time, as they shall think proper: And the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall, from Time to Time, nominate and appoint one or more Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, and such other Officer or Officers, as they shall think necessary or proper for collecting the Rates and Assessments to be made or assessed by virtue of this Act, and for the Management and Direction of making the said new Channel, and of the said Banks, Drains, Dams, and Outlets, and of making and erecting the said Bridges, Flood-gates, Engines, Lock or Locks, Weir or Weirs, or other Works, and for repairing and maintaining the same; and the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, may authorise any such Officers, from Time to Time, to purchase and provide Timber, and all other Materials and Things necessary for those Purposes; and to contract and agree with any Person or Persons for the doing and performing any of the Works before mentioned; and the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall cause to be drawn up and entered, such Rules or Orders, and other Proceedings of the said Commissioners, as shall be made or had under or by virtue of this Act, in a Book or Books to be kept for that Purpose; and the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, may allow their said Collectors, Receivers, and other Officers, such Salaries as they the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall judge reasonable; which said Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, and such other Officer or Officers, may and shall, from Time to Time, be displaced or removed at the Will and Pleasure of the Commissioners, or any three or more of them, who shall and may nominate and appoint other or others in the Place and Stead of the Person or Persons so displaced or removed, as they the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall see Occasion; and such Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, so to be nominated and appointed, before he or they shall act in the Execution of their several Offices, shall give such Security for the due and faithful Execution of such their respective Offices, and for performing the several Trusts committed to them, as the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall in their Discretion require.

and allow them Salaries.

Penalty for not appearing.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any one or more of them, at his or their own Will, or at the Requeſt of any Perſon or Perſons, Party or Parties, intereſted in any Matter or Thing to be done or determined under this Act, by or before the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, or to be enquired into or determined by the ſaid Juſtices, or by any ſuch Jury or Juries, as aforeſaid, ſhall and may ſummon, by Writing under the Hands or Hand of ſuch Commiſſioners, or any one or more of them, ſuch Witneſs or Witneſſes as ſhall be thought neceſſary to appear and give Evidence before the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, at any of their Meetings to be held in purſuance of this Act, or before the ſaid Juſtices, or before any ſuch Jury or Juries, as aforeſaid, at ſuch Time and Place, as ſhall by ſuch Summons be appointed; and if any ſuch Witneſs being duly ſerved with ſuch Summons, and having been paid, or had tendered, a Sum of Money ſufficient to bear his or her Charges of Attendance, ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear, or give Evidence, then the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, on due Proof thereof made before them, are hereby impowered and required, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to levy, by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of every Perſon ſo neglecting or refuſing to appear, or give Evidence, a Sum of Money not exceeding ten Pounds, nor leſs than five Pounds, to the Uſe of ſuch Perſon or Perſons who cauſed any ſuch Perſon to be ſummoned as a Witneſs, as aforeſaid, rendering the Overplus (if any) upon Demand, after deducting the reaſonable Charges of ſuch Summons, Diſtreſs, and Sale, to the Perſon whoſe Goods and Chattels ſhall be ſo diſtrained and ſold as aforeſaid.

When Rates are neglected to be paid, they may be levied by Diſtreſs.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſo rated or taxed as aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay the Rate or Tax charged upon him, her, or them reſpectively, or any Part thereof, for the Space of ſix Days after the reſpective Times of Payment to be appointed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them (public Notice thereof being affixed upon the Doors of the Pariſh Churches of Altcar, Sefton, Halſall, and Walton upon the Hill aforeſaid, by or by the Order of the Collector or Receiver for the Time being to the ſaid Commiſſioners), it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Collector or Receiver, or for any other Perſon or Perſons, by virtue of any Warrant or Precept under the Hands and Seals of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them (which ſaid Warrant or Precept the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, are hereby impowered and required, from Time to Time, to make and grant, as Occaſion ſhall require), to levy the Sum or Sums of Money ſo aſſeſſed or rated, or ſuch Part thereof as ſhall be unpaid, by Diſtreſs and Sale of any Goods and Chattels of the Perſon or Perſons ſo aſſeſſed and rated as aforeſaid, which ſhall be found in the ſaid County of Lancaſter or elſewhere, elſewhere, and the Goods and Chattels ſo diſtrained to keep for the Space of five Days, at the Coſts and Charges of the Owner or Owners thereof; and if ſuch Owner or Owners ſhall not, within the Space of five Days, pay the Sum or Sums of Money ſo aſſeſſed or rated, that then the Goods and Chattels ſo diſtrained ſhall be appraiſed by two or more of the Inhabitants of the Pariſh where the ſame ſhall be taken, or other proper Perſons, and ſhall be ſold by the ſaid Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, for Payment of the ſaid Money; and the Overplus (if any be) coming by ſuch Sale, after the Sum or Sums ſo aſſeſſed or rated, and the Charges of taking, keeping, and ſelling the ſaid Diſtreſs, are deducted, ſhall be returned to the Owner or Owners thereof, upon reaſonable Demand; and the ſeveral and reſpective Tenants of all and ſingular the ſaid Low Lands who ſhall be aſſeſſed or rated by virtue of this Act, are hereby required and authoriſed to pay all or ſo much of the Sum and Sums of Money which ſhall be ſo aſſeſſed or rated, and charged, upon the Owner or Owners of ſuch Low Lands in reſpect thereof, as the Rent of ſuch reſpective Tenants ſhall amount unto, and to deduct out of the Rent ſo much of the ſaid Aſſeſſments or Rates as the Owner or Owners of the ſaid Low Lands, in reſpect thereof, are or ſhall be aſſeſſed or rated at, or as ſuch Rent ſhall amount unto, or be ſufficient to pay or ſatisfy; and the Landlords of ſuch reſpective Premiſes, according to their reſpective Intereſts, are hereby required to allow ſuch Deduction and Payment, upon Receipt of the Reſidue of their Rent (if any ſuch there be); and every Tenant paying ſuch Aſſeſſment or Rate, or ſo much thereof as his or her Rent ſhall amount to and be ſufficient to pay, ſhall be acquitted and diſcharged for ſo much Money as he or ſhe ſhall ſo pay, as if the ſame had been actually paid to the Perſon or Perſons entitled to the Rents of ſuch Lands; except where there is a Leaſe or Contract for leſs than three Years to come from the paſſing of this Act, in which Caſe the Proportion of the Aſſeſſment or Rate which the Tenant ought to bear and pay, in Conſideration of the Benefit he receives, ſhall be adjudged or awarded by any five or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, having no Intereſt in the Premiſes ſo in Leaſe or Contract.

Tenants to deduct Taxes out of their Rents.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay, or cauſe to be paid, to the Collector or Collectors for the Time being of the ſaid Aſſeſſments or Rates, the Sum or Sums of Money which ſhall be reſpectively aſſeſſed or rated, and charged, on ſuch Perſon or Perſons, for the Space of ſix Days after perſonal Demand ſhall have been made, or Notice thereof in Writing left at the Dwelling-houſe or laſt Place of Reſidence of ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo aſſeſſed or rated, and charged or taxed as aforeſaid, by the ſaid Collector or Collectors, every ſuch Perſon ſo refuſing or neglecting ſhall, over and above the Aſſeſſments or Rates ſo in Arrear, forfeit and pay the Sum of two Shillings for every twenty Shillings which ſhall be ſo in Arrear and unpaid, and ſo in Proportion for any leſſer Sum in Arrear, to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, and in ſuch Manner as the aforeſaid Aſſeſſments, Rates, or Taxes, are herein and hereby directed to be levied; and the Money ſo forfeited and levied ſhall be applied towards carrying on the ſaid Works of draining, and other the Purpoſes of this Act.

For the better recovering Payment of the Taxes.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any of the ſaid Low Lands ſhall at any Time hereafter be untenanted or unoccupied, ſo that no ſufficient Diſtreſs can be found for levying the ſaid Aſſeſſments, Rates, or Taxes, then the Lands chargeable therewith ſhall always remain a Security for Payment thereof; and all Goods and Chattels which ſhall at any Time thereafter be found thereon, ſhall and may be diſtrained, kept, appraiſed, and ſold, in Manner as aforeſaid, until all Arrears of the ſaid Aſſeſſments, Rates, or Taxes, and the Charges attending ſuch Diſtreſs or Diſtreſſes, ſhall be fully paid and ſatisfied; and alſo that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers for the Time being, to enter upon and let the ſame Lands, to be mowed or depaſtured from Year to Year only, for the beſt Rent that can be gotten for the ſame, and to receive and take the Rents and Profits thereof for the Uſe of the ſaid Commiſſioners, to be applied for the Purpoſes of this Act, until all Arrears of the ſaid Aſſeſſments, Rates, or Taxes, and Charges, ſhall be fully ſatisfied and paid, rendering the Overplus of the Rents and Profits (if any), after diſcharging ſuch Arrears and Charges, to the Owner or Owners of ſuch Lands.

How Taxes may be levied on untenanted Premiſes.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall cauſe Notice or Notices in Writing, ſigned by them, to be given to or left at the uſual Place or Places of Abode or Dwelling of any Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, ſo to be nominated and appointed as aforeſaid, thereby requiring him or them to pay all or any Sum or Sums of Money which ſhall have been collected and received by him or them by virtue of or in conſequence of his or their ſaid Office or Offices, and then remaining unpaid by him or them, over and above his or their Salary or Salaries, to the Perſon or Perſons, and at the Time and Place therein for that Purpoſe mentioned, and the Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers to or for whom any ſuch Notice or Notices ſhall be ſo given or left as aforeſaid, ſhall, for the Space of ſix Days, refuſe or neglect to pay the Sum or Sums of Money mentioned in ſuch Notice or Notices, to the Perſon or Perſons therein named, then, and in every ſuch Caſe and as often as it ſhall ſo happen, it may and ſhall be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons, by virtue of any Warrant or Precept under the Hands and Seals of any three or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners (which Warrant or Precept the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, are hereby impowered, from Time to Time, to make and grant (as they ſhall think fit), to diſtrain all or any of the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, for the Sum or Sums of Money mentioned in ſuch Notice or Notices, and to appraiſe, ſell, and diſpoſe of, the Goods and Chattels ſo diſtrained, for Payment of the Sum or Sums of Money mentioned in the ſaid Notice or Notices, rendering and paying the Overplus of the Money raiſed by ſuch Sale or Sales (if any) as ſhall remain after paying all the Sum or Sums of Money mentioned in ſuch Notice or Notices, and all the Coſts and Expences of or relating to ſuch Diſtreſſes and Sales as aforeſaid, to the ſaid Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, upon reaſonable Demand.

How to recover Payment of the Money from the Collectors.

XXVII. And

Commiſſioners impowered to borrow Money,

'XXVII. And for as much as the Money ſo to be aſſeſſed, rated, levied, collected, and gathered, as 'aforeſaid, will not be ſufficient to defray the immediate Expences of making ſuch new Channel, Banks, 'Bridges, Cuts, Drains, Dams, Tunnels, Cloughs, Sluices, and Outlets, and of erecting and making 'ſuch Flood-gates, Engines, Locks, Weirs, and other Works, as will be neceſſary for the Draining and 'ſpeedy Improvement of the ſaid Low Lands;' be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, aſſembled at any Meeting to be held as aforeſaid, ſhall and may, and are hereby impowered, from Time to Time, to borrow and take up at Intereſt any Sum or Sums of Money which they ſhall think neceſſary for the making, carrying on, repairing and preſerving the ſaid Works, and other the Purpoſes of this Act; and by Writing under their Hands and Seals (without Stamps) to aſſign over the ſaid yearly Rates and Taxes hereby charged or to be charged upon the Owners and Occupiers of the ſaid Low Lands, and every or any Part thereof (the Coſts and Charges of the Aſſignments to be paid out of the ſaid Rates or Taxes), as a Security for the Repayment of ſuch Sum or Sums, with Intereſt, to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall advance or lend ſuch Sum or Sums, his, her, or their Truſtee or Truſtees, Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns; which Money ſo to be borrowed ſhall be applied and diſpoſed of in making ſuch new Channel, Banks, Bridges, Cuts, Drains, Dams, Tunnels, Cloughs, Sluices, and Outlets, and erecting and making ſuch Flood-gates, Engines, Locks, Weirs, and other Works, as will be neceſſary for draining and improving the ſaid Low Lands, and for other the Purpoſes of this Act, and to no other Uſe or Purpoſe whatſoever.

and to aſſign the Rates as a Security.

Further Security to the Lenders.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Rates, Taxes, and Sums of Money to be aſſeſſed or charged by virtue of this Act, upon the Owners or Occupiers of the ſaid Low Lands, ſhall be charged and chargeable, in the firſt place, with the Payment of the Principal Money ſo to be borrowed, and the Intereſt of ſuch Money from Time to Time, and ſhall veſt in the reſpective Creditors upon Default of Payment of ſuch principal Money and Intereſt, until the ſame ſhall be duly ſatisfied and paid, together with the Coſts and Charges occaſioned by the Non-payment thereof; but ſubject nevertheleſs to the Payment of ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, with Intereſt, as ſhall be agreed to be paid, or ſhall be aſſeſſed for Damages, as herein-before is mentioned; and the ſaid Creditors, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns reſpectively, ſhall have the ſame Power, Rights, and Privileges, of raiſing and recovering the ſeveral Rates, Taxes, and Sums of Money, payable by the ſeveral Owners and Occupiers of the ſaid Low Lands, for and in reſpect of ſuch Principal Money and Intereſt, in caſe of Default of Payment thereof, as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or their Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, could have had in caſe the ſaid Principal and Intereſt Money had been regularly and duly ſatisfied and paid.

Aſſignments of the Rates may be transferred.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon to whom any Aſſignment of the ſaid Rates and Taxes ſhall be made, for ſecuring any ſuch Sum or Sums of Money lent as aforeſaid, or who ſhall be entitled to the Money thereby ſecured, ſhall have full Power, from Time to Time, by Indorſement on the original Grant, Aſſignment, or Security, or otherwiſe, by any Writing or Writings, without Stamps, to aſſign or transfer the ſame to any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever; and ſuch Transfer or Aſſignment, from and after the Time that a Copy of the ſame ſhall be entered in a Book to be kept by the ſaid Commiſſioners for that Purpoſe (which Entry their Clerk or Treaſurer is hereby required to make, upon producing ſuch Aſſignment, and Payment of five Shillings for making the ſame), ſhall entitle ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, to the principal Sum, and all Intereſt due or to grow due thereupon; and ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees, and his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, may in like Manner aſſign the ſame again, and ſo toties quoties, as Occaſion ſhall require, every ſuch Aſſignment being entered as aforeſaid.

The Occupiers only to be taxed for Repairs after the Money borrowed ſhall be paid and the Works completed.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That from and after the Principal Money which ſhall be borrowed for the Purpoſes of this Act as aforeſaid, and the Intereſt thereof, ſhall have been fully paid and ſatisfied, and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall have certified in Writing, ſigned by them, that the ſaid Works for draining and preſerving of the ſaid Low Lands have been completed and finiſhed, the reſpective Occupiers only of the ſaid Low Lands ſhall from thenceforth be aſſeſſed, rated, and taxed, yearly and every Year, for and towards the repairing, maintaining, and preſerving of ſuch Works, at and after ſuch annual Acre Rate or Tax, as aforeſaid; and the ſame ſhall be paid by ſuch Occupiers without having any Abatement or Allowance out of their or any of their Rent, from the reſpective Owners of the ſaid Low Lands, or of any Part thereof, or otherwiſe howſoever; any Thing herein contained to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

Puniſhment for deſtroying the Works.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time or Times wilfully, maliciouſly, and wantonly, burn, cut, throw down, or otherwiſe deſtroy, or cauſe, or procure, or hire any Perſon or Perſons to burn, cut, throw down, or otherwiſe deſtroy, any Bridge, Baulk, Mill, Clough, Engine, Flood-gate, Lock, Weir, or Sluice, which now is or are, or at any Time or Times hereafter ſhall be making or erecting, or made or erected, for draining and improving the ſaid Low Lands, and ſhall be thereof lawfully convicted, every ſuch Perſon ſhall be ſubject and liable to the like Pains and Penalties as in Caſes of Felony; and the Court by and before whom ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be tried, ſhall and have hereby Power and Authority to cauſe ſuch Perſon or Perſons to be puniſhed, in like Manner as Felons are directed to be puniſhed by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm; or, in Mitigation of ſuch Puniſhment, ſuch Court may, if they think fit, award ſuch Sentence as the Law directs in Caſes of Petit Larceny.

Penalty for opening Flood-gates, &c.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter wilfully, maliciouſly, or wantonly open, or cauſe to be opened, any of the ſaid Flood-gates, Cloughs, or Tunnels, or other Paſſage for Water, to the Prejudice of the ſaid Low Lands, or any Part thereof, or ſtop, dam up, ſpoil, or damage, or cauſe, procure, or hire any Perſon to ſtop, ſpoil, or damage, any Drain, Water-courſe, Tunnel, Bridge, or other Work or Works which now is or are, or at any Time or Times hereafter ſhall be making or erecting, or made or erected for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, or ſhall wilfully or maliciouſly lay, throw, or place, any Rubbiſh or any other Obſtruction therein, or cauſe, procure, or hire, any Perſon to lay, throw, or place, any Rubbiſh therein, in order to obſtruct or prevent the free Current and Paſſage of the Water, every Perſon offending in any of the ſaid Caſes, who ſhall be convicted thereof on the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Perſon or Perſons, before two Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid County of Lancaſter, ſhall forfeit, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of every ſuch Offender, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the Juſtices by whom ſuch Conviction ſhall be made, to be applied and laid out for the Purpoſes of this Act; and for Want of ſufficient Diſtreſs, ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall be committed to the Houſe of Correction or Common Gaol of the ſaid County of Lancaſter, by virtue of any Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any two of the ſaid Juſtices, there to remain for any Time not exceeding twelve Calendar Months, at the Diſcretion of the ſaid Juſtices by whom ſuch Commitment ſhall be made; and if ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall offend again in like Manner, and be thereof lawfully convicted, every ſuch Perſon ſhall be ſubject and liable to the like Pains and Penalties, as in Caſes of Felony; and the Court by and before whom ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be tried, ſhall, and have hereby Power and Authority to cauſe ſuch Perſon or Perſons to be puniſhed, in like Manner as Felons are directed to be puniſhed by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm; or in Mitigation of ſuch Puniſhment, ſuch Court may, if they think fit, award ſuch Sentence as the Law directs, in Caſes of Petit Larceny.

Offenders, for ſecond Offence, to be puniſhed as Felons.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time make, or cauſe to be made, any Watering-place or Places of Acceſs for any Cattle to drink, in any of the Dams or Drains within the ſaid Low Lands, or ſhall continue to uſe any Watering-place after Notice in Writing to the contrary ſhall be given to him, her, or them, by any Officer appointed by any two or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners; or if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall drive, or cauſe to be driven, any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, upon or acroſs any Bank which ſhall be made or maintained by virtue of this Act (unleſs ſuch Bank hath been of Right uſed as a Cart-way, or be made upon any common Drove-way, and a ſufficient Paſſage ſhall not be left along the Side of the ſaid Bank); or if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall ſtack any Sedge or Fodder upon any of the ſaid Banks, or ſhall drive, or cauſe to be driven, any Horſes, Cattle, Sheep, or Lambs, upon any Bank which ſhall be raiſed or maintained by virtue of this Act, every Perſon ſo offending in any of the ſaid Caſes, being thereof convicted before one Juſtice of the Peace for the ſaid County of Lancaſter, on the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, or on Confeſſion of the Party or Parties offending, ſhall forfeit, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of ten Shillings to the ſaid Commiſſioners, to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of every ſuch Offender or Offenders, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the ſaid Juſtice before whom ſuch Conviction ſhall be made, and applied for the Purpoſes of this Act.

Penalty on making Watering-Places or driving Carriages or Cattle on the Bank,

XXXIV. Provided always, That where there is no Drove-way leading to the Lands or Grounds of any Owner or Occupier in the ſaid Low Lands, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every Owner or Occupier of ſuch Lands or Grounds, and his, her, and their Servants and Workmen, to drive any Cattle upon and acroſs the ſaid Banks to and from ſuch Low Lands or Grounds; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Exception, relating to driving Cattle.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall permit or ſuffer his, her, or their Horſes, Cattle, Sheep, or Lambs, to depaſture or feed, or if any Horſes, Cattle, Sheep, or Lambs ſhall be found depaſturing or feeding upon any of the Banks or Drove-ways which ſhall be made or maintained by virtue of this Act; then and in either of the ſaid Caſes, when and as often as it ſhall ſo happen, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any ſuch Collector or Receiver as aforeſaid, or any other Perſon employed by him, to ſeize and impound ſuch Horſes, Cattle, Sheep, or Lambs, then depaſturing or feeding upon ſuch Banks or Drove-ways, and to detain and keep ſuch Horſes, Cattle, Sheep, or Lambs, until the Owner or Owners thereof ſhall have paid, to the Perſon or Perſons impounding the ſame, the Sum of one Shilling for every Horſe, and for every Ox, Cow, or other Neat Cattle, and the Sum of Three-pence for every Sheep or Lamb, which ſhall be ſo impounded; and in caſe the ſame ſhall not be paid, together with the reaſonable Charges of detaining and keeping the ſame, before the next Meeting of the ſaid Commiſſioners, that then the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall and may cauſe the Horſes, Cattle, Sheep, and Lambs, ſo impounded, to be ſold, returning the Overplus of the Money ariſing thereby (if any be) to the Owner or Owners of ſuch Horſes, Cattle, Sheep, and Lambs, on reaſonable Demand, after the reaſonable Charges of ſuch detaining, keeping, and ſelling the ſame, be fully paid and ſatisfied.

To prevent feeding Cattle on the Banks or Drove-ways.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon ſhall mow, or cauſe to be mown, any of the Banks or Drove-ways to be made or maintained by virtue of this Act, unleſs the ſame ſhall be done by the Order or Direction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them; and the Produce of the Banks of the ſaid new Channel ſhall be ſold and diſpoſed of, and the Money ariſing thereby applied for the Preſervation of the ſaid Banks or Drove-ways, and other the Purpoſes of this Act; and that no Perſon or Perſons ſhall plough, dig, delve, or break up, or cauſe to be ploughed, dug, delved, or broken up, any of the Banks or Drove-ways made or to be made and maintained by virtue of this Act, unleſs the ſame ſhall be done by the Order or Direction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them.

The Banks not to be mowed, ploughed, or dug, but by Direction of Commiſſioners.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall and may, and they are hereby authoriſed and impowered, to cauſe any Star to be planted in and upon ſuch of the Sand-hills, or other Places near or contiguous to the ſaid old Channel of the River Alt, or the ſaid new Channel when made, or any of the Inlets or Outlets of Water of either of them, and to remove any Hill or Hills which may cauſe any Obſtruction or Impediment to either of the ſaid Channels, or any of the Inlets or Outlets of Water thereto or therefrom, as they the ſaid Com-

Commiſſioners impowered to plant Star in the Low Lands,

Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall from Time to Time think proper or neceſſary for the Preſervation as well of the Courſe of the ſaid old Channel, as of the Courſe of the ſaid new Channel when made, or any of the ſaid Inlets or Outlets of Water thereto or therefrom.

Penalty on Occupiers of Low Lands who ſhall neglect to open Watercourſes, and repair Cloughs and Tunnels.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the Occupier or Occupiers of any of the ſaid Low Lands ſhall at any Time or Times refuſe or neglect well and ſufficiently to widen, deepen, ſcour, or cleanſe, his, her, or their Ditches, Drains, or Watercourſes, or to put into good and ſufficient Repair, Order, and Condition, his, her, or their Cloughs and Tunnels, in or upon any of the ſaid Low Lands, after ten Days Notice given to him, her, or them, for any of thoſe Purpoſes, by any Officer appointed by any two or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners; then and ſo often it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two or more of them, to employ ſome Perſon or Perſons, well and ſufficiently to widen, deepen, ſcour, or cleanſe, ſuch Ditches, Drains, or Watercourſes, or any of them, and to put into good and ſufficient Repair, Order, and Condition, ſuch Cloughs and Tunnels, or any of them, and by Warrant or Precept under their Hands and Seals (which Warrant or Precept the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two or more of them, are hereby impowered and required from Time to Time to make and grant, as Occaſion ſhall require) to levy the uſual or reaſonable Charges and Expences of ſuch widening, deepening, ſcouring, or cleanſing, of ſuch Ditches, Drains, or Watercourſes, and of putting into ſuch Repair, Order, and Condition, ſuch Cloughs and Tunnels reſpectively, by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods, Chattels, or Cattle, of ſuch Occupier or Occupiers ſo refuſing or neglecting, which ſhall be found upon any Part of the ſaid Low Lands occupied by him, her, or them reſpectively, in the ſame Manner as the ſaid Rates and Taxes are herein-before directed to be levied, together with the Charges of making, keeping, and ſelling ſuch Diſtreſs, rendering the Overplus (if any) to ſuch Occupier or Occupiers reſpectively (after all Charges paid) upon reaſonable Demand.

The Tenure of Lands not to be altered by any Forfeiture incurred by this Act.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to defeat, alter, or change the Nature or Tenure of the ſaid Low Lands, or any of them, by reaſon of the Nonpayment of Taxes, or on any other Account mentioned in this Act; but the ſame ſhall remain, continue, and be under the ſeveral Tenures they were holden before the paſſing of this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary hereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Works done by virtue of this Act not to be ſubject to Commiſſioners of Sewers.

XL. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid new Channel, and the Cuts, Drains, Dams, Banks, Cloughs, Tunnels, Bridges, Flood-gates, Engines, Locks, Weirs, and other Works, made and to be made, and altered, in, upon, and about the ſaid Low Lands, and the ſaid River, Rivulets, Brooks, or Streams, by virtue of this Act, ſhall not be ſubject to the Controul, Direction, Survey, or Order of any Commiſſion of Sewers, or Law or Statute relating to Sewers; and that the Power of the Commiſſion of Sewers ſhall not extend or be deemed to extend to any of the Premiſes compriſed in this Act, any Law or Statute to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

In caſe the new Channel be made through Mr. Formby's Lands, the Commiſſioners ſhall cauſe a Carriage Bridge to be made in his Lands, and ſuch other Bridges as they ſhall think proper.

XLI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the ſaid new Channel ſhall be made as aforeſaid, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall and are hereby required to cauſe to be made a good and ſubſtantial Carriage Bridge over the ſaid new Channel, at ſuch Place within the Eſtate of the ſaid Richard Formby, as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall think moſt convenient and proper; and ſhall alſo make ſuch other Bridge or Bridges over the ſaid River Alt, and alſo over the ſaid new Channel, as to them ſhall appear neceſſary; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall from Time to Time maintain and ſupport the ſaid Carriage Bridge, and ſuch other Bridge or Bridges as aforeſaid; and the Expence of building, making, maintaining and ſupporting the ſaid Bridge or Bridges, ſhall be defrayed out of any Money to be raiſed or received by virtue of this Act.

Election of new Commiſſioners.

'XLII. And, for continuing a ſufficient Number of Commiſſioners for putting this Act in Execution;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon the Death, Reſignation, or Refuſal to act, of any of the Commiſſioners herein-before named, or to be appointed in Manner herein-after mentioned, (ſuch Reſignation or Refuſal to be ſignified in Writing to the Clerk to the ſaid Commiſſioners), or of their or any of their becoming incapable to act as herein-after is mentioned, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſurviving Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, aſſembled at a Meeting to be held as aforeſaid, to chuſe, from Time to Time, a proper Perſon, not intereſted in the ſaid Low Lands, to be a Commiſſioner in the Place of each Commiſſioner who ſhall die, or reſign, or refuſe to act, or become incapable of acting as aforeſaid; and every ſuch new Commiſſioner ſo to be from Time to Time choſen as aforeſaid, ſhall have the like Power and Authority to act, in all Things relating to the Execution of this Act, as the Commiſſioners before named are by this Act inveſted with; and every ſuch Election of a new Commiſſioner ſhall be from Time to Time entered in the Book or Books of the Proceedings of the ſaid Commiſſioners in Execution of this Act.

Perſons intereſted in the Lands incapable of being Commiſſioners.
No Buſineſs valid unleſs done at Meetings.

XLIII. Provided always, That no Perſon or Perſons intereſted in the ſaid Low Lands, or any of them, ſhall be enabled to meet, ſit, or act as a Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners for any of the Purpoſes herein-before mentioned, or to elect any new Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners in the Room of other or others, or to put any of the Powers or Authorities of this Act in Execution; and that no Order, Adjudication, or Determination, made by any of the Commiſſioners, ſhall be binding, unleſs the ſame ſhall be made at their firſt General Meeting, or at ſome or one of their General Meetings, or Meetings by Adjournment, to be held in purſuance of this Act, or in conſequence of or by Order at ſuch Meetings or Meeting reſpectively.

Commiſſioners becoming intereſted incapable of acting.

XLIV. Provided alſo, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons appointed, or to be appointed a Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners in or by virtue of this Act, ſhall at any Time after ſuch Appointment become ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of any of the ſaid Low Lands by Deſcent or Purchaſe, or otherwiſe intereſted therein, ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall immediately after his or their becoming ſo ſeiſed, poſſeſſed, or intereſted, be incapable of of being or acting as a Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners under this Act, or in carrying the Purpoſes thereof into Execution; and all Acts to be afterwards done by ſuch Perſon and Perſons as a Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, ſhall and are hereby declared to be reſpectively null and void.

Commiſſioners to be ſworn.

XLV. Provided alſo, That no Perſon ſhall be capable of acting as a Commiſſioner in the Execution of any of the Powers or Authorities hereby given (other than adminiſtering the Oath following to one another) until he ſhall have taken and ſubſcribed an Oath to the Effect following; (that is to ſay)

The Oath.

'I A. B. do ſwear, That I will, without Favour or Affection, Hatred or Malice, truly and impartially, according to the beſt of my Skill and Knowledge, execute and perform all and every the Powers and Authorities given unto me as a Commiſſioner appointed in purſuance of an Act of Parliament for draining, improving, and preſerving, the Low Lands in the Pariſhes of Altcar, Sefton, Halfall, and Walton upon the Hill, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter.'

Which Oath the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any one or more of them, is or are hereby authoriſed and impowered to adminiſter to any other of the ſaid Commiſſioners, at their firſt or any ſubſequent Meeting or Meetings, to be holden in purſuance of this Act.

Commiſſioners not to be perſonally, or their Eſtates, ſubject to any Coſts or Charges by Means of their acting in the Execution of this Act.

XLVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall be conſtrued to charge or ſubject the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any of them, with any Coſts or Charges, perſonally, or out of their or any of their own private Eſtates, but that all Coſts and Charges which ſhall be awarded againſt the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any of them, under this Act, ſhall be borne and paid from and out of the Monies to be had and received by virtue of or under this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof, in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Diſtreſs not unlawful for Want of Form.

Perſons may recover, in caſe of Irregularity in Diſtreſs, for Special Damage; but not after Amends tendered.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That where any Diſtreſs ſhall be made for any Sum or Sums of Money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the Diſtreſs itſelf ſhall not be deemed unlawful, nor the Perſon or Perſons making the ſame be deemed a Treſpaſſer or Treſpaſſers, on Account of any Defect or Want of Form in the Summons, Conviction, Warrant of Diſtreſs, or other Proceedings relating thereto, nor ſhall the Perſon or Perſons diſtraining be deemed a Treſpaſſer or Treſpaſſers ab initio, on Account of any Irregularity which ſhall be afterwards committed by the Perſon or Perſons diſtraining; but the Perſon or Perſons aggrieved by ſuch Irregularity ſhall and may recover full Satisfaction for the ſpecial Damage in an Action upon the Caſe; but no Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any ſuch Action ſhall recover for any ſuch Irregularity, if Tender of good and ſufficient Amends ſhall have been made by or on Behalf of the Defendant or Defendants, before ſuch Action brought; nor if ſuch Tender of Amends ſhall be made at any Time after ſuch Action brought, and before the Trial thereof, together with Coſts of Suit to the Time of ſuch laſt-mentioned Tender; but on Proof made of ſuch Tender on the Trial of ſuch Action, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein ſhall ſuffer Judgment, as in Caſes of Nonſuit, to be entered againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, with Treble Coſts, to be recovered in the ſame Manner as any Defendant or Defendants may recover Coſts at Law.

Books of Account to be kept.

'XLVIII. And, to the End that it may appear clearly what Money has been raiſed from Time to Time by virtue of this Act, and that the Owners and Proprietors of the ſaid Low Lands may be ſatisfied, that the Money collected and raiſed hath been duly applied;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall cauſe Books of Aſſeſſments, Receipts, and Diſburſements, to be provided and kept, and the Accounts of every Collector or Receiver ſhall be entered therein after the ſame ſhall have been paſſed and allowed as herein-after mentioned; and that once or oftener in every Year, on one of the Days of Meeting of the ſaid Commiſſioners, Inſpection ſhall be had by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, of the Receipts and Diſburſements of all Money which ſhall be collected by virtue of this Act; and all Accounts relating to the ſame ſhall be then, or within twenty Days after, made up and ſettled by any three or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, aſſembled at ſuch Meeting; at which Time the reſpective Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, of the ſaid Rates and Sums of Money to be raiſed as aforeſaid, is and are hereby required to attend, with proper Books of Accounts of his or their Receipts and Diſburſements, and all Vouchers for the ſame; and upon Conſideration and Examination thereof upon Oath (which Oath any one of the ſaid Commiſſioners at ſuch Meeting is hereby impowered to adminiſter) the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, are hereby impowered to allow, paſs, and ſign the ſaid Accounts, or ſuch Part or Parts of the ſame as they ſhall ſee juſt and reaſonable; and ſuch Accounts, or ſuch Part or Parts of them as ſhall be ſo allowed, paſſed, and ſigned, ſhall be fairly entered in ſuch Book or Books to be kept for that Purpoſe as aforeſaid, by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any one of them, or by their Clerk; and the ſaid Book or Books ſhall and may at all Times be inſpected and peruſed at ſeaſonable Hours, without Fee or Reward, by any Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, of any of the ſaid Low Lands hereby directed to be drained and preſerved.

Accounts to be paſſed yearly, or oftener.

Rules and Orders to be entered in Books, and ſigned; and may be given in Evidence.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That all Rules, Orders, and Proceedings of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any of them, in the Execution of this Act, ſhall be entered in a Book or Books to be kept for that Purpoſe; and ſuch Rules, Orders, and Proceedings, when entered, ſhall be ſigned by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, and the Clerk to the ſaid Commiſſioners is hereby required to ſet his Name as a Witneſs thereto: And the ſaid Rules, Orders, and Proceedings, ſo ſigned and atteſted, ſhall be deemed and taken to be original Rules, Orders, and Proceedings; and ſhall and may be produced and read in Evidence in all Cauſes of Appeal, Suits, Actions, or other Proceedings, touching any Thing done in purſuance of this Act: And ſuch Book or Books ſhall and may be inſpected and peruſed at all ſeaſonable Hours, without Fee or Reward; and Copies thereof, or of any Part thereof, may be taken by any Perſon or Perſons, paying the ſaid Clerk after the Rate of Three-pence for every one hundred Words.

No Order to be reverſed, unleſs by Conſent of five Commiſſioners.

L. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Order which ſhall be made by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, by virtue and under the Authority of this Act, at any of their Meetings, ſhall be altered, reverſed, annulled, or made void, at any ſubſequent Meeting, unleſs five or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall be preſent at ſuch Meeting, and ſhall conſent thereto, nor unleſs ten Days Notice in Writing, ſigned by the Clerk to the ſaid Commiſſioners, be affixed upon the Church Doors of Altcar, Sefton, Halſall, and Walton upon the Hill aforeſaid reſpectively, on ſome Sunday; in which ſaid Notice it ſhall be expreſſed what Order or Orders are intended to be reverſed, altered, or made void Saving the Rights of Lords of Manors.

LI. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall prejudice, leſſen, or defeat, the Right, Title, or Intereſt, of the Lord or Lords, Lady or Ladies, of any Manor or Manors within the Juriſdiction or Limits whereof the ſaid Low Lands, by this Act directed to be drained, embanked and preſerved, do lie, of, in, or to any Seigniories, Royalties, and Rights, incident and belonging to the ſaid Manor or Manors, but that ſuch Lord or Lords, Lady or Ladies, ſhall at all Times hereafter have, hold, exerciſe, and enjoy, all Rights, Royalties, Juriſdictions, and Privileges (except ſuch as may be prejudicial to the draining of the ſaid Lands hereby directed to be drained and preſerved), in as full, ample, and beneficial Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as he, ſhe, or they might have had, held, exerciſed, and enjoyed the ſame, in caſe this Act had not been made; nor ſhall any Thing in this Act prejudice, leſſen, or defeat the Right or Intereſt of any of the Owners and Proprietors of the ſaid Low Lands, of, in, or to the Liberty of Fiſhing and Fowling in or upon the ſaid new intended Channel, and the ſaid River Alt, and the Rivulets, Brooks, or Streams, running, or which ſhall run therein.

Fiſhing and Fowling reſerved to Owners.

Juſtices may adminiſter Oaths.

False Evidence to be puniſhed as Perjury.

LII. And be it further enacted, That in all Caſes wherein Juriſdiction is given to any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace by this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices to adminiſter an Oath to any Witneſs or Witneſſes; and that all and every Perſon and Perſons, who, in any Examination to be taken by virtue of this Act, ſhall wilfully give falſe Evidence or Information before the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, or before any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, and being convicted thereof, ſhall be ſubject and liable to ſuch Pains and Penalties as, by any Law now in being, Perſons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are ſubject and liable to.

Perſons aggrieved by Order of Juſtices, may appeal to the Quarter Seſſions;

LIII. And be it further enacted, That all Perſons who ſhall think themſelves aggrieved by the Order or Judgment of any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, upon Account of any Offence committed againſt this Act, may appeal to the Juſtices of the Peace at their next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, to be holden by Adjournment, or otherwiſe, for the Diſtrict of the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, wherein the ſaid Low Lands directed by this Act to be drained and preſerved, do lie; the Perſon or Perſons ſo appealing, firſt entering into a Recognizance, with two ſufficient Sureties, in a ſufficient Penalty, to proſecute ſuch Appeal with Effect, and to pay the Coſts which ſhall be aſcertained by the ſaid Juſtices in their ſaid General Quarter Seſſions, in caſe ſuch Order or Judgment ſhall be affirmed; and the Juſtices, in their ſaid General Quarter Seſſions, are hereby authoriſed and required to hear and determine ſuch Appeal, and to give ſuch Coſts to either Party as they ſhall think reaſonable, and to make ſuch Order therein as to them ſhall appear juſt; which Order ſhall be final and concluſive to all Parties, and ſhall not be removed or removable by Certiorari, or any other Writ or Proceſs whatſoever, into any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or for the ſaid County Palatine of Lancaſter, or elſewhere.

whoſe Order ſhall be final.

Proceedings not to be quaſhed for want of Form.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That no Order or other Proceedings to be made or had by or before any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, by virtue of the Powers by this Act granted, ſhall be quaſhed or vacated for want of Form only.

How Juſtices to proceed for Conviction of Offenders.

LV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, before whom any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be convicted of any Offence againſt this Act, ſhall and may cauſe the Conviction to be drawn up in the following Form of Words, as the Caſe ſhall happen, or in any other Form of Words to the ſame Effect:

Form of Conviction.

County Palatine of Lancaſter (to wit) } ‘ BE it remembered, That on the Day of in the Year of our Lord A. B is convicted before
‘ of his Majeſty's Juſtices [or Juſtice] of the Peace for the County of Lancaſter, by virtue of an Act made ‘ in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King George the Third, for draining, improving, and ‘ preſerving the Low Lands in the Pariſhes of Altcar, Sefton, Halſall, and Walton upon the Hill, in the

‘ committed, as the Caſe ſhall be.] ‘ Given under our Hands and Seals [or Hand and Seal], the Day and Year aforeſaid.’

Limitation of Actions.

LVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action, Suit, or Information, ſhall be commenced or proſecuted againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for any Thing done or to be done in purſuance of this Act, or in the Execution of any of the Powers or Authorities hereby given, every ſuch Action, Suit or Information, ſhall be commenced within ſix Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and ſhall be brought and laid in one of his Majeſty's Courts of Record in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, and not elſewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Action, Suit, or Information, ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and if in Replevin, may juſtify and avow, by virtue of this Act, as Perſons acting by Authority of Commiſſioners of Sewers are enabled to do, and may give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence, without ſpecially pleading the ſame, otherwiſe than as aforeſaid, at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the Fact or Facts alleged in ſuch Action, Suit, or Information, to have been done, was or were done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act: And if the ſame ſhall appear to have been ſo done, or if any ſuch Action, Suit, or Information ſhall be brought after the Time before limited for bringing the ſame, or ſhall be brought in any other County or Place than as aforeſaid, then the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants, Avowant or Avowants; or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall become nonſuited, or forbear Proſecution, or diſcontinue his, her, or their Action, Suit, or Information, or if any Judgment or Verdict ſhall paſs againſt him, her, or them, upon a Demurrer, or otherwiſe, then, and in any of the ſaid Caſes, the Defendant or Defendants, Avowant or Avowants, ſhall recover Treble Coſts; for which he, ſhe, or they ſhall have like Remedy as where Coſts are by Law awarded. Treble Coſts.

General Iſſue.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be deemed and allowed to be a Public Act; and all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons, are hereby required to take Notice thereof as ſuch, without ſpecially pleading the ſame. Public Act.

CAP. XXXIV.

An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual, an Act paſſed in the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for draining and preſerving certain Fen Lands and Low Grounds, lying in the South Level, Part of the Great Level of the Fens commonly called Bedford Level, and in the County of Cambridge, between the River Cam, otherwiſe Grant, Weſt, and the Hard Lands of Bottiſham, Swaffham Bulbeck, and Swaffham Prior, Eaſt; and for impowering the Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Company of Conſervators of the Great Level of the Fens, commonly called Bedford Level, to ſell certain Fen Lands, lying within the Limits aforeſaid, commonly called Inveſted Lands.

'WHEREAS the Commiſſioners appointed by and choſen in purſuance of an Act, paſſed in the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty King George the Third, intituled, An Act for draining and preſerving certain Fen Lands and Low Grounds lying in the South Level, Part of the Great Level of the Fens commonly called Bedford Level, and in the County of Cambridge, between the River Cam, otherwiſe Grant, Weſt, and the Hard Lands of Bottiſham, Swaffham, Bulbeck, and Swaffham Prior, Eaſt; and for impowering the Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Company of Conſervators of the Great Level of the Fens, commonly called Bedford Level, to ſell certain Fen Lands, lying within the Limits aforeſaid, commonly called Inveſted Lands, have, in purſuance of the Powers and Authorities thereby granted, and for the due Execution of the ſaid Act, from Time to Time borrowed conſiderable Sums of Money upon the Credit of the Tolls and Taxes charged and to be charged by virtue of the ſaid Act, and have expended Part thereof, amounting to the Sum of two thouſand eight hundred Pounds and upwards, in repairing the Eaſt Bank of the River Grant, lying between Clay Hythe Ferry and the Sluice commonly called Reach or Upwere Sluice, and in making a croſs Bank from the Town of Reach to the Eaſt Bank of the River Grant, and the Reſidue thereof in ſcouring out and deepening the Loads mentioned in the ſaid Act, and in making Banks by the Sides thereof, and in amending, to the great Benefit of the Navigation, ſuch Banks, after they have been damaged by Horſes haling thereon, and alſo in erecting Engines and doing other Works of draining, which have been of conſiderable Uſe to many of the Lands in the ſaid Diſtrict: And whereas it is found by Experience, that the Boundary of the ſaid Diſtrict by the former Act, may in ſome Parts of it, for the better Security of the Draining, be enlarged, without Prejudice or Injury to any private Owner or Occupier of Lands within the ſame: And whereas the Tolls granted by the ſaid Act for repairing the ſaid Eaſt Bank of the River Grant, and ſcowering out and deepening the ſeveral Loads, and repairing, maintaining, and ſupporting, the ſeveral Banks of the ſeveral Loads within the ſaid Diſtrict, are inſufficient for and unequal to the Expence thereof, ſo that the Land-owners in the ſaid Diſtrict are not able to ſupport the ſaid Works, or to complete ſuch other Works as are neceſſary for draining their Lands, and paying the Intereſt of the Monies already borrowed, and laid out in the erecting, making, and Maintenance thereof, inſomuch that the Banks, ſo neceſſary both for the Navigation and Draining, as well as the other Works now made, muſt ſoon fall into Decay, and the ſaid Diſtrict be again reduced to a drowned Condition, and ſo remain, without ſuch reaſonable Contribution from the Navigators, and others uſing the ſaid Banks, as ſhall be in ſome Sort adequate to the Expences the ſaid Commiſſioners have and ſhall hereafter be put to for maintaining the ſame: And whereas neither the Tolls or Taxes granted by the ſaid Act have been regularly and duly paid, the Tolls having been evaded, and ſome of the Taxes left in Arrear, for want of ſufficient Powers to enforce the regular Payment thereof; which if ſuffered ſo to continue, will defeat the Purpoſes of the ſaid Act:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Boundary, inſtead of going, as under the former Act, from Common Hardridge Gate to a certain Place called Barr Hill, ſhall go from the ſaid Gate along the Outring Ditch of North Hill Cloſes, next Hardridge Common (including all the ſaid Common) to the Ground of Thomas Panton Eſquire, lying in Bottiſham Lead, in the Occupation of Thomas Grain, and along the Ditch on the South-weſt Side thereof, to Sheep North Hill Grounds, and along the upper and lower Parts thereof, and of the incloſed Graſs Grounds, called The Rough, to the Rough Common Gate, and acroſs from thence to the Outring Ditch of Hardwalk Common, and round the ſaid Common, including the ſame, to Hardwalk Gate, near a Place called Grubble Hole, and from thence along by the Run of Water at the End of The Ruſh Grounds, next Hog Green, and along by the Outring Ditch, on the Weſt and South-weſt Sides thereof, and the Ground called The Parſons upper Lot, and round by the Outring Ditch, on the South Side of the ſaid Lot and Lug Ground, including the ſame, to a Ground of Sname Jenyns Eſquire, and up the Outring Ditch on the Weſt Side thereof, to Black Ditch Drove, Preamble. Recital of an Act 7 Geo. III. The Boundary inconvenient, and Tolls inſufficient, &c. Deſcription of the new Boundary.

Drove, and from thence along by the Line as deſcribed in the former Act, to the Ferry Place at Clayhithe, as aforeſaid.

What Lands ſhall be taxed.

II. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall not at any Time aſſeſs, rate, or tax, any other Lands, taken into the Limits by the aforeſaid Alteration of the Boundary, than the Grounds called The Hardwalk Common, in the Pariſh of Horningſea; nor ſhall they at any Time aſſeſs, rate, or tax, the ſaid Common, until a Mill ſhall have been erected on the Hardridge Common, or a Clough or other Engine, that may anſwer the End of a Mill, ſhall elſewhere be made for carrying the Waters from off the Ditton, Horningſea, and Quoi Fens directly into the River, or the Bottiſham Load; but ſo ſoon as ſuch Mill or other Engine ſhall have been erected or made, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, at any of their quarterly Meetings, to aſſeſs, rate, or tax the ſame with any Sum that ſhall ſeem to them expedient or adviſeable, not exceeding one Shilling per Acre; and ſhall exerciſe and make uſe of all ſuch and the ſame Powers, Remedies, and Means, for collecting, receiving, recovering, and compelling Payment of the ſaid Taxes, Rates, or Aſſeſſments, hereby directed to be charged upon the ſaid Lands called Hardwalk Common, in all Reſpects whatſoever, as the Commiſſioners have for the collecting and recovering Payment of other Taxes rated and charged upon other Lands, by virtue of this Act or of the Act hereby intended to be amended and rendered more effectual.

Tolls on the Eaſt Bank of the River Grant.

'III. And, the better to ſecure the Tolls granted by the former Act,' be it enacted, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, there ſhall be paid to the ſaid Commiſſioners, and their Succeſſors, or their Toll-gatherer for the Time being, at any Place or Places they ſhall appoint on the Eaſt Bank of the River Grant, between Clayhithe and Upware Sluice, the Sum of Two-pence for every Horſe or Gelding, Mare, Mule, Aſs, or other Beaſt, attending upon, or going in or with any Boat or Boats, Lighter or Lighters, whether ſuch Horſe, or other Beaſt, ſhall at the Time of paſſing by or through the Toll-gate, or Place fixed on by the ſaid Commiſſioners for collecting the ſame, be actually haling or not; and for every other Horſe, Mare, Gelding, Mule, Aſs, or other Beaſt, travelling on the ſaid Bank, one Penny: for every Drove of Neat Cattle Ten-pence per Score; and for every Drove of Calves, Sheep, or Lambs, Hogs or Pigs, Five-pence per Score; and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſſer Number; the ſaid Toll ſo paid, to be applied to the Maintenance and Support of the ſaid Bank, and for no other Purpoſe whatſoever: And in caſe of Neglect or Refuſal of Payment of the ſaid Tolls on Demand, the Collector or Collectors thereof, to be appointed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, are hereby authoriſed and required to ſeize and detain any Horſe or Horſes, Beaſt or Beaſts, or Boat, Lighter, or Veſſel, wherein the ſame are carried, on which ſuch Toll is hereby impoſed, and them or any of them from thence to remove, take, ſeize, and diſtrain, as alſo to take, ſeize, and diſtrain, any Horſe or Horſes, Beaſt or Beaſts, haling or paſſing on the ſaid Bank; and in caſe the ſaid Toll or Tolls, for Nonpayment of which ſuch Horſe or Horſes, Beaſt or Beaſts, Boat, Lighter, or Veſſel, are taken, ſhall not be paid within three Days after ſuch Seizure, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Collector or Collectors to ſell ſuch Horſe or Horſes, Beaſt or Beaſts, or Boat, Lighter, or Veſſel, ſo ſeized and diſtrained as aforeſaid, and out of the Monies ariſing from ſuch Sale to deduct and retain the ſaid Toll or Tolls ſo neglected or refuſed to be paid, and the reaſonable Coſts and Charges attending the Seizure, Detention, and Sale thereof as aforeſaid, rendering the Overplus, if any there be, on Demand, to the Owner or Owners of ſuch Horſe or Horſes, Beaſt or Beaſts, or Boat, Lighter, or Veſſel, reſpectively.

Penalty on evading the Tolls.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Waterman, or other Perſon haling any Boat or Boats, Lighter or Lighters, with one or more Horſe or Horſes, or other Beaſt or Beaſts, ſhall take off, or cauſe to be taken off, or removed from or out of the ſaid Boat or Boats, Lighter or Lighters, any ſuch Horſe or other Beaſt, with Intent to avoid the ſaid Tolls, or any Part thereof; or, after having paſſed by any Tollgate or Turnpike to be erected by virtue of this Act, ſhall put on, add to, or uſe any other Horſe or Horſes, Beaſt or Beaſts, for haling ſuch Boat or Boats, Lighter or Lighters, than he ſhall have paid the Toll for; or ſhall forcibly paſs through or over ſuch Toll-gate or Turnpike, with any Horſe or Horſes, Beaſt or Beaſts, without paying the Tolls hereby directed to be paid; every Perſon ſo offending ſhall, for every ſuch Horſe or other Beaſt, forfeit and pay to the ſaid Commiſſioners the Sum of forty Shillings for every Offence, to be levied and recovered by Warrant of Diſtreſs, in like Manner as the Forfeiture is herein-after directed to be recovered from Watermen, or any other Perſon, giving in a falſe Account of their Lading; the Monies ſo raiſed by ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale to be applied to the ſame Purpoſes as the Tolls hereby granted.

New Tolls at the ſeveral Sluices.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That inſtead of the Tolls granted by the former Act, to be paid at each of the Sluices called Bottiſham and Swaffham Sluices, and alſo Reach Lead, there ſhall be paid to the ſaid Commiſſioners, their Collector or Collectors by them appointed, at any Place or Places which they ſhall at any of their Meetings fix on and approve, by or near the reſpective Loads of Bottiſham, Swaffham, and Reach;

For every Chaldron of Coals; for every Chaldron of Cinders; for every two Chaldron of Lime; for every Ton Weight of Clunch Stone; for every Hundred of Battens; for every Quarter of a hundred of three or four Inch Deals; for every Half hundred of other Deals; for every Half hundred of Fir Spars, not exceeding eighteen Feet in Length; for every Ton of Timber; for every five hundred of Bricks; for every thouſand of common Tiles; for every five hundred of Pan or other Tiles; for every five hundred of Pamments; for every four thouſand of Turf; for every five hundred of Sedge; for every thouſand of Reed; for every ten Coomb of Wheat, Rye, Meſledine, Beans, Peaſe, or Seeds; for every twenty Coomb of Oats, Barley, or Malt; for every Ton of Iron or Lead; for every Hogſhead of Wine or Cyder; for every two Barrels of Beer, Pitch, or Tar; for every eight Gallons of Rum, Brandy, Gin, and other ſpirituous Liquors; for every four Crates of Glaſs; for every eight Groſs of Bottles; for every four Boxes of Glaſs; for every two Packs, or twenty Tod of Wool; for every two Pockets, or two hundred Weight of Hops; for every ſixty Bunches of Fir Lath; for every forty Bunches of Oak Lath; for every ſixteen thouſand of Spits; for every ſixteen hundred of Splints; for every eight dozen of Hurdles; for every eight hundred of Poles; and for every Ton Weight of Salt, Sand, or other Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes whatſoever, not herein-before mentioned, the Sum of Four-pence; and ſo in Proportion for every greater or leſſer Quantity or Weight of the ſaid Goods paſſing on, or being navigated through, the ſaid Sluices or Loads:

Which ſaid Sum and Sums ſhall and may be demanded and taken in the Name of and as a Toll or Duty, for the Repairs of the reſpective Banks and Loads only, and ſhall be paid by every Perſon who ſhall carry or convey any of the Articles herein-before particulariſed, or any other Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes whatſoever: And in caſe of Neglect or Refuſal of Payment of the ſaid Toll or Duty on Demand, the Collector or Collectors thereof to be appointed by the ſaid Commiſſioners is and are hereby authoriſed and impowered to enter into any Boat, Barge, Lighter, or Veſſel, being in any of the ſaid Loads, taking with him or them ſuch Aſſiſtance as he or they may think proper, and to ſeize and detain any of the ſaid Goods or Commodities, or the Veſſels carrying the ſame, with their Tackle, until Payment of the ſaid Toll or Duty; and if the ſaid Toll ſhall not be paid within three Days next after ſuch Seizure, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Collector or Collectors to ſell all or any of the ſaid Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, Commodities, and Veſſels, with their Tackle, ſo ſeized and detained as aforeſaid, and out of the Money ariſing from ſuch Sale to deduct and retain the ſaid Toll or Duty ſo neglected to be paid, and the reaſonable Coſts and Charges attending ſuch Seizure, Detention, and Sale, as aforeſaid, rendering the Overplus, if any, on Demand, to the Owner or Owners of ſuch Veſſel or Veſſels reſpectively; and if the ſaid Collector or Collectors ſhall be at any Time oppoſed or reſiſted in the Execution of his or their Office, by any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, whether intruſted with the Navigation of ſuch Boat, Barge, or Lighter, or not, every ſuch Perſon ſhall forfeit and pay to the ſaid Commiſſioners the Sum of five Pounds for every ſuch Offence, to be levied and recovered in the like Manner as any other Penalties and Forfeitures are herein directed to be recovered; which ſaid Penalty and Penalties, when recovered, are to be applied for the Repairs of the reſpective Banks and Loads only.

On Neglect of Payment of Tolls, Collectors may ſeize Veſſels and Goods, and ſell the ſame.

VI. Provided nevertheleſs, That all ſuch Corn, Hay, Sedge, Fodder, Reed, or other Produce, growing upon any Part of the Fen Lands and Low Grounds within the Limits of this Act, which ſhall be brought, conveyed, or carried up or down any of the Loads from off the ſaid Fen Lands and Low Grounds, to the Home or Homes of the reſpective Owner or Owners of ſuch Corn, Hay, Sedge, Reed, Fodder, or other Produce, ſhall be, and are hereby diſcharged and exempt of and from the Payment of the ſeveral Tolls and Duties herein-before laſt mentioned.

Exemptions from Tolls.

'VII. And to the Intent that the Quantity and Quality of ſuch Goods and Commodities which ſhall at 'any Time or Times be carried up or down any Part of the ſaid Loads called Reach Load, Bottiſham Load, 'Swaffham Load, or Burwell New Load, or any of them, may be diſcovered and known, and that the 'Tolls by this Act granted may be juſtly and truly paid;' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Waterman, or other Perſon, who ſhall at any Time navigate, carry, or convey through any of the ſaid Sluices, or up or down any Part of the ſaid Loads, any Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities whatſoever, ſhall, upon Demand made by the ſaid Collector or Collectors of the Tolls, give a juſt and true Account of the Quantity and Quality of all ſuch Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Commodities, as he ſhall have on board, and of the Name or Names of the Owner or reſpective Owners thereof; which Account being reduced and put into Writing by the ſaid Collector or Collectors, the ſaid Waterman or other Perſon is and are hereby required to ſubſcribe his Name or Mark thereto; and if he ſhall refuſe ſo to do, or ſhall deliver in a falſe or untrue Account, he ſhall, for every ſuch Refuſal or falſe Account ſo by him given or declared, forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings, over and above the Tolls and Duties payable for ſuch Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities, by virtue of this Act, and to be applied to the like Uſes with ſuch Tolls; and in ſuch Caſe the ſaid Collector or Collectors, or any other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall, and he and they are hereby authoriſed, by virtue of a Warrant or Precept under the Hand and Seal of any Juſtice of the Peace for the County, Liberty, or Place, where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, or where the Offender lives, to levy and recover the ſaid Forfeiture by Diſtreſs of any of the Goods and Chattels of the Perſon or Perſons where found; and if the Owner and Owners of the ſaid Goods and Chattels ſhall not pay the Sum or Sums ſo forfeited, within the Space of five Days, that then the ſaid Goods and Chattels ſhall be appraiſed by proper Perſons, and be ſold by the ſaid Collector or Collectors, or other Perſon or Perſons duly authoriſed, for the Payment of the ſaid Forfeiture; and the Overplus, if any, ariſing from ſuch Sale, after the Sum or Sums ſo forfeited, and the reaſonable Charges of taking, keeping, and ſelling the ſaid Goods and Chattels, are deducted, ſhall be returned to the Owner or Owners thereof, upon Demand; and in caſe the Perſon ſo offending ſhall not have ſufficient Goods and Chattels, whereupon the ſaid Forfeiture can be levied, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Juſtice, or any other Juſtice of the Peace for the ſaid County, Liberty, or Place where the Offender lives, to commit the Perſon ſo offending to the Houſe of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of one Month, unleſs the ſaid Forfeiture ſhall be ſooner paid and ſatisfied.

In order to aſcertain the Quality and Quantity of Goods, Watermen ſhall give Accounts thereof.

Penalty on Refuſal, or giving a falſe Account, which may be levied by Diſtreſs.

On Failure of Diſtreſs, Offender to be committed.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no more than one Half of the ſaid Tolls ſhall be demanded or taken by the ſaid Commiſſioners on either of the ſaid Loads, till after the reſpective Sums hereafter mentioned ſhall firſt have been expended in ſcouring and deepening the reſpective Loads, and making good Towing paths, for the better Security and Improvement of Navigation therein, viz. the Sum of one hundred Pounds for the Benefit of the Bottiſham Navigation; one hundred and fifty Pounds for the Benefit of the Swaffham Navigation; and the Sum of three hundred Pounds for the Benefit of the Reach Navigation: But, immediately from and after the ſaid reſpective Sum or Sums ſhall have been expended for the Improvement of the ſaid Navigations, in all or any of the ſaid Loads, or in making good the Towing-

Half Tolls only to be paid till certain Sums ſhall be laid out.

Towing-paths thereof, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners to demand and take the full Tolls hereby imposed on all Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities, that shall be carried or conveyed up or down such Load or Loads, about or upon which such Sum or Sums hath or have been respectively expended; and which said Tolls shall be demanded, taken, and applied, in like Manner, and under the like Powers, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as the Tolls and Duties are in anywise directed to be taken, levied, and applied, by virtue of this and the Act hereby intended to be amended and rendered more effectual.

Toll at Burwell New Load.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all and all Manner of Persons navigating and carrying Goods up or down that Part of the Load commonly called Burwell New Load, from Upwere Sluice to Powt Hall, within the Limits aforesaid, shall pay one Moiety or Half Part of the Tolls herein-before directed to be paid on the Goods carried up or down any of the said Loads, which said Tolls shall be levied and recovered in the same Manner herein-before last mentioned; and shall also forfeit and pay the like Forfeiture or Penalty of forty Shillings on refusing to give an Account in Manner herein-before directed, or for giving an untrue Account to the Collector or Collectors, on Demand, of all or any Goods by him or them respectively carried, to be levied and recovered by Warrant of Distress, in like Manner as in such Case is herein-before directed; and shall also forfeit and pay the like Penalty and Penalties in case of Misbehaviour, to be recovered and applied in the same Manner, and for the same Purposes, except in such Cases where the Commissioners, at one of their quarterly Meetings, shall have compounded with any such Navigator, so navigating up or down that Part of Burwell New Load aforesaid, for a less Sum; which Composition the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, at such Meeting, are hereby authorised and impowered to make.

Trustees impowered to reduce the Tolls.

X. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, at any of their quarterly Meetings aforesaid, shall have full Power and Authority, with the Consent of such Person or Persons who shall be then entitled to two Thirds of the Money borrowed on the Credit of the former and this present Act, from Time to Time to lessen and reduce the said Tolls, or any Part thereof, for such Time as the said Commissioners, or any seven of them, shall think proper; and such Tolls lessened or reduced shall be collected, recovered, and applied, in the same Manner as the Tolls and Taxes hereby granted are directed to be collected, recovered, and applied; and also to raise the same again, as Occasion shall require, so as no greater Tolls be at any Time demanded or taken than herein-before directed and appointed to be taken.

Lands dug into Turf Pools, unable to pay the whole Tax, to pay one Half for seven Years.

'And whereas, at the Time of passing the said Act hereby intended to be amended, many of the Lands 'had been dug into Hods or Turf Pools; and it was thought necessary for encouraging the Owners of such 'Lands to improve the same, that they should be charged with one Half of the Tax only wherewith the 'other Lands of the same Sort and Degree, not dug, should be charged, for the first seven Years: And 'whereas it appears that the said Term of seven Years, which is now expired, has not been sufficient to 'bring them into such a State as to enable the Owners thereof to pay the whole Tax, and it is therefore 'necessary a Power should be vested in the Commissioners to apportion the Taxes to be charged on such 'broken or dug Lands at different Times, in Proportion to the Improvements made therein;' be it therefore enacted, That no Lands or Grounds that are now dug out into any Hod or Turf Pools, except such as were levelled before the passing of this Act, shall, for the first seven Years next ensuing the Commencement thereof, be assessed or charged with more than one Half of the Tax wherewith the whole Lands of the same Sort or Degree are assessed and charged; but that at the End of the said seven Years it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any five of them, at any Quarterly Meeting, if they shall then be fully satisfied that all or any such broken or dug out Ground, from the Improvements made therein by the Drainage, ought to pay a higher Tax, to increase the Tax on all or any of such broken or dug out Lands so improved, as they shall judge just and reasonable, but so that the Rate or Tax set upon one Acre of such Land shall not exceed the Tax wherewith the whole Lands of the same Sort or Degree are assessed and charged.

Owners may appeal.

XI. Provided always, That if any Owner or Occupier of such broken or dug out Lands shall think himself aggrieved or injured by such increased Assessment so made by the said Commissioners, such Owners or Occupiers may appeal unto the Justices of the Peace, at one of the two next General Quarter Sessions to be held for the said County of Cambridge, after such Assessment shall have been made, and not afterwards, giving twenty-one Days Notice of such Appeal to the Clerk to the said Commissioners; which said Justices are hereby authorised and required to hear and finally determine such Complaints, and give Relief therein as they shall see Cause, as also to award such Costs, to the Appellants or Respondents, as to them shall seem just and reasonable.

Power to appeal from former Assessments.

'XII. And whereas some Appeals, under the Assortment of the Act hereby intended to be amended, 'were not settled by the said Commissioners to the general Satisfaction of all the Parties then complaining, 'and some have thought themselves aggrieved by the Determination then made by the said Commissioners;' be it therefore enacted, That all and every of the said Appellants are and shall be at Liberty to make a further Appeal to the said Commissioners, first giving Notice thereof in Writing to the Clerk of the said Commissioners, within one Month after the passing of this Act, signifying their Intention of appealing to the said Commissioners; and in such Notice they the said Appellants shall specify and particularly set out such Lands, under the Assortment against which they before appealed, that seem to be rated too low, in Proportion to their own; and the said Appellants shall be confined to their former Appeal, and not be at Liberty to complain of any others being under-rated than those they then mentioned; and within twenty Days next after such Notice of Appeal so given in Writing, and in Manner as aforesaid, the said Commissioners, or five of them, are hereby required to meet for the Purpose of hearing and determining the said Appeals, either by making such Alterations, or not, in the Rates, or by taking so much Tax from the one, and adding it, or not, to the other, or in any other Manner, as to them shall seem most equal and just; and and in case the said Commissioners shall not, within forty Days after such Appeal, determine the same, or if any of the Parties shall not be satisfied with the Determination of the said Commissioners, that then he, she, or they may appeal unto the Justices of the Peace at one of the two next General Quarter Sessions to be held for the said County of Cambridge, and not afterwards, giving at least ten Days Notice thereof in Writing to the said Clerk of the said Commissioners; which said Justices are hereby authorised and required to hear and finally determine such Complaints, and give Relief therein as they shall see Cause, as also to adjudge and order such Costs to the Appellants or Respondents as to them shall seem reasonable; but if no such Notice of Appeal, and in Manner as before directed, shall be given to the said Commissioners within one Month after the passing of this Act, the Determination before made by the said Commissioners in the Case of Appeals, shall stand good, and be binding and conclusive, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Justices not to act where interested.

XIV. Provided always, That no Justice of the Peace shall have a Voice in the Determination of such Appeal, who has any Interest in any of the Fen Lands and Low Grounds within the Limits as before described.

Satisfaction for Injury done to the Rush Ground.

'XV. And whereas under the former Act, and Powers therein given, the said Commissioners, in order 'to the Support, Reparation, and Maintenance of the Banks, and other Works, erected and done for the 'Preservation and general Service of the whole Level, have injured a Ground called The Rush Ground, in 'the Parish of Ditton, now or late in the Occupation of James Priest, insomuch that the Arrears of Tax 'now due thereon cannot justly be demanded;' be it therefore enacted, That the said Commissioners shall be, and they are hereby authorised and impowered to appoint two disinterested Persons, of competent Skill, Knowledge, and Judgment, to view the said Ground so injured; and in pursuance of the Report of the said two Persons, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to release, acquit, and discharge the said James Priest, or the Proprietor of the said Ground, from the Payment of all or any Part of the Tax that is now in Arrear and due thereon.

Power to relieve the Proprietors of Adventure Lands.

'XVI. And whereas the Lands called Adventure Lands, lying within the Limits of the District 'herein described, are, besides the Tax assessed on them by the Commissioners (which Tax is as much 'as many of them, from their Value, are able to bear), yet charged with, and always liable to be 'charged with, a Tax by the Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Company of Conservators of 'the Great Level of the Fens: And whereas it will be for the general Benefit of the draining the said 'District, that the several and respective Owners and Occupiers of such Adventure Lands should continue 'in the Possession and Cultivation of the said Adventure Lands, and not forfeit or abandon the same for 'Nonpayment of either of the said Taxes;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, or any five of them, having once after the passing of this Act obtained the Consent in Writing of Two-thirds of the Creditors, in Value, to whom, or in Trust for whom, any Assignment has been already made of the Taxes raised, or to be raised, by virtue of the Act hereby intended to be rendered more effectual, may, and are hereby impowered, from Time to Time, at any of their quarterly Meetings, to abate or remit so much of the Tax which shall have been assessed on any of the said Adventure Lands annually, by virtue of this or the former Act, as shall appear to them necessary to prevent their being forfeited and abandoned for Non-payment of Taxes; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Proviso.

XVII. Provided nevertheless, That they the said Commissioners shall at no Time, in any one Year, abate or remit more than the Amount of the Tax which now is, or may hereafter be charged on the said Lands for that Year, by the said Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Company of Conservators of the Great Level of the Fens.

Persons refusing to pay Taxes, one Month after Notice,

'XVIII. And whereas many of the Taxes laid on the Fen Lands and Low Grounds granted by the 'former Act are now in Arrear, for want of sufficient Powers to enforce the regular Payment thereof;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons so rated or taxed as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to pay the Rate or Tax charged upon him, her, or them respectively, within the Space of one Month after the respective Notices of the Times and Places of Payment appointed by the said Commissioners shall have been affixed upon the Door of the Parish Church in which such Lands shall lie, signed by the Collector or Receiver to the said Commissioners for the Time being, every such Person shall forfeit and pay the further Sum of Two-pence for every Shilling, and so in Proportion for every greater or lesser Sum, which shall be so in Arrear and unpaid: and it shall be lawful for such Collector or Receiver, or for any other Person or Persons, by virtue of a Warrant or Precept under the Hands and Seals of three or more of the Commissioners (which said Warrant or Precept such Commissioners, or any three or more of them, are hereby impowered from Time to Time to make, as Occasion shall require), to levy the Sum or Sums so assessed, rated, and forfeited, by Distress and Sale of such Goods and Chattels which shall be found upon all or any of the Grounds and Premises so charged with any such Sum or Sums of Money, if any Distress can be found thereon; and in case no sufficient Distress can be found on the Premises, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Collector or Receiver, or other Person or Persons, by virtue of such Warrant or Precept as aforesaid, to levy the Sum or Sums so rated and in Arrear, by Distress and Sale of any Goods and Chattels, belonging to such Person or Persons, which shall be found upon any other Lands or Tenements lying within the Limits above described, and the Goods and Chattels so distrained to keep by the Space of five Days, at the Costs and Charges of the Owner or Owners thereof; and if such Owner or Owners shall not, within the Space of five Days, pay the Sum or Sums so forfeited, assessed, or rated, that then the Goods and Chattels so distrained shall be appraised by two or more of the Inhabitants of the Parish where the same shall be taken, or by any other two or more proper Persons, and be sold by the said Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, for the Payment of the said Money; and the Overplus (if any be) arising from such Sale, after the Sum or Sums so forfeited, rated, and assessed, and the reasonable Charges of taking, keeping, and selling the said Distress, are deducted, shall be returned to forfeit Two-pence for every Shilling in Arrear.

Taxes and Forfeitures may be levied by Distress.

Tenants to pay the Taxes, and deduct the ſame out of their Rents.

to the Owner or Owners thereof, upon Demand; and the ſeveral and reſpective Tenants of all and ſingular the ſaid Fen Lands and Low Grounds, bounded and deſcribed as aforeſaid, which are or ſhall be aſſeſſed or rated by virtue of this or the former Act, are hereby required and authoriſed to pay the Sum or Sums of Money which ſhall be ſo aſſeſſed and charged upon ſuch Fen Lands and Low Grounds, and to deduct out of the Rent ſo much of the ſaid Aſſeſſment or Rate, as the ſaid Fen Lands or Low Grounds, or the Tenant or Tenants in reſpect thereof, is, are, or ſhall be aſſeſſed or rated at; and the Landlords, both mediate and immediate, according to their reſpective Intereſts, are hereby required to allow ſuch Deductions and Payments, upon Receipt of the Reſidue or their Rent; and every Tenant paying ſuch Aſſeſſment or Rate ſhall be acquitted and diſcharged for ſo much Money as the ſaid Aſſeſſment or Rate ſhall amount to, as if the ſame had been actually paid to the Perſon or Perſons entitled to the Rents of ſuch Lands or Grounds, except where there is a Leaſe for three or more Years to come from the Commencement of this Act, in which Caſe the Proportion of the Aſſeſſment or Rate, which the Tenant ought to bear and pay in Conſideration of the Benefit he receives, ſhall be adjudged and awarded by five or more of the Commiſſioners for putting this Act in Execution, who have no Intereſt in the Premiſes ſo in Leaſe.

Grounds to remain a Security for Taxes,

XIX. Provided always, and be it hereby enacted and declared, That in caſe any of the ſaid Fen Lands and Low Grounds ſhall at any Time hereafter be untenanted or unoccupied, and that no ſufficient Diſtreſs can be found for levying the ſaid Rates and Taxes, then the ſaid Lands and Grounds chargeable therewith ſhall always remain a Security for Payment thereof, and all Goods and Chattels which ſhall at any Time thereafter be found thereon (except of ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall occupy the ſame under or by virtue of a Hiring from the Commiſſioners) ſhall and may be diſtrained, kept, appraiſed, and ſold in Manner aforeſaid, until all Arrears of the ſaid Rates and Taxes, and the Charges of ſuch Diſtreſs, ſhall be fully paid and ſatisfied; and alſo that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, for the Time being, to let the ſame Lands and Grounds to be mown and fed, from Year to Year only, for the beſt Rent that can be gotten for the ſame, and to take and receive the Rents and Profits thereof for the Uſe of the ſaid Commiſſioners, to be applied for the Purpoſes of this Act, until all Arrears of the ſaid Taxes, Rates, Penalties, and Charges, ſhall be fully ſatisfied and paid, rendering the Overplus of ſuch Rents and Profits (if any), after diſcharging ſuch Arrears, upon Demand, to the Owner and Owners of ſuch Lands and Grounds.

XX. And be it further enacted, That where any of the ſaid Rates and Taxes hereafter to be impoſed and ſet by virtue of this Act, or which have been aſſeſſed or impoſed by virtue of the ſaid Act hereby intended to be amended and rendered more effectual, ſhall hereafter be, or heretofore have been, in Arrear and unpaid by the Space of two whole Years together, then the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, at any of their Quarterly Meetings, ſhall have full Power and Authority to ſell to the beſt Bidder, at a public Auction, ſo much of the ſaid Lands and Grounds, in reſpect of which any Tax ſhall be ſo in Arrear, as ſhall be ſufficient to raiſe ſuch Taxes and Arrears of Taxes, and alſo the Penalties incurred for Nonpayment thereof as aforeſaid, by Writing under the Hands and Seals of five or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, without Stamps; and alſo, if all or any Part of the ſaid Lands on which the Taxes already ſet and impoſed, or hereafter to be ſet and impoſed, cannot be ſold at ſuch Auction for the Amount of the Rates, Taxes, and Penalties, due thereon, then to ſell the ſame for the beſt Price that can be gotten for them, freed and diſcharged from ſuch Rates, Taxes, and Penalties, which at any Time before ſuch Sale they ſhall have been rated and charged with by virtue of this preſent Act, or the Act hereby intended to be amended and rendered more effectual; and every ſuch Grant or Conveyance ſo made ſhall be valid and effectual, and the Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Sale ſhall be made ſhall be a lawful Purchaſer of ſo much of the ſaid Lands or Grounds as ſhall be ſo ſold, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

When Taxes ſhall be in Arrear for Commons,

'XXI. And whereas many Difficulties have ariſen with regard to the Taxes due on certain Lands 'called Commons, within the Limits aforeſaid, many of which ſaid Taxes are ſtill unpaid and in Arrear, on 'Account of the Commiſſioners not being able to aſcertain or particularly ſet out the exact Limits or Bounds 'of the ſame, the ſaid Commons having never been held in Severalty, but lying intermixed, and being fed 'and depaſtured in common with other Grounds, by Means whereof the diſtraining on ſuch Lands, for 'Nonpayment of the Taxes due thereon, becomes very unſafe and hazardous, and the general Drainage of 'the Level, by reaſon of the ſaid Taxes being unpaid and in Arrear, is greatly impeded; to remedy which 'Evils,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Tax or Taxes, Rate or Rates, is, are, or ſhall be in Arrear and due, for or in reſpect of any ſuch Common or Commons, Part or Parts of Common, within the Limits aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, for the Time being, to let ſuch Common or Commons, Part or Parts of Common, without identifying or ſetting out the ſame by Metes, or any other Bounds or Deſcription, than ſpecifying the Owner or Owners Name, from Year to Year, only, for the beſt Rent that can be gotten for the ſame, and to take the Rents and Profits thereof, for the Uſe of the ſaid Commiſſioners, to be applied for the Purpoſes of this Act, until all Arrears of the ſaid Taxes, Rates, Penalties, and Charges, ſhall be fully paid and ſatisfied, rendering the Overplus of ſuch Rents and Profits, if any, after diſcharging ſuch Arrears, upon Demand, to the Owner or Owners of ſuch Common or Commons, Part or Parts of Common.

the ſaid Commons may be let, or ſold to the beſt Bidder.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That when any of the ſaid Rates and Taxes on the ſaid Common or Commons, or Part or Parts of Common, hereafter to be impoſed and ſet by virtue of this Act, or which have been aſſeſſed or impoſed by virtue of the Act hereby intended to be amended and rendered more effectual, ſhall hereafter be, or heretofore have been, in Arrear and unpaid by the Space of two whole Years together, then the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, at any of their quarterly Meetings, ſhall have full Power and Authority to ſell to the beſt Bidder, at a public Auction, for the beſt Price that can be gotten, all and every the ſaid Common and Commons, Part or Parts of Common, in reſpect of which any Tax ſhall be ſo in Arrear, to raiſe ſuch Taxes, Penalties, and Expences, or any or either of them, incurred by Nonpayment and Sale thereof as aforeſaid, by Writing under the Hands and Seals of five five or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, without Stamps, freed and diſcharged from all and every of the Rates, Taxes, and Penalties, charged or rated upon the ſame, by the ſaid Commiſſioners before ſuch Sale thereof; and every Grant or Conveyance ſo made ſhall be valid and effectual, and the Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Sale ſhall be made ſhall be a lawful Purchaſer of the ſaid Common or Commons, or Part or Parts of Common, as ſhall be ſo ſold, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

Public Notice to be given of Sales.

XXIII. Provided alſo, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall give public Notice, from Time to Time, of the Sale of the Lands and Commons for which any Tax or Penalty is or ſhall be in Arrear, by affixing openly on the ſeveral Church Doors of the ſeveral Pariſhes within the Limits of the ſaid Diſtrict, a Schedule on Parchment, under the Hands of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five of them, three Sundays at the leaſt preceding ſuch Sale, containing ſuch Lands and Commons, or Part or Parts of Common, in the ſaid Diſtrict, for which any Tax or Penalty is or ſhall be in Arrear, with the Name and Names of the reſpective Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers thereof, if the ſame are known to the ſaid Commiſſioners, with the Sum or Sums due thereon for the Tax and Penalty; and if the Owner or Owners of any of the ſaid Lands are not known to the ſaid Commiſſioners, then the ſame ſhall be ſet out and deſcribed in the ſaid Schedule by their Abuttals; and that all Sales of Lands and Commons, or Part or Parts of Common, made in purſuance of ſuch Notice, and in Manner herein-before directed, ſhall be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, any Thing contained in this, or the Act hereby intended to be amended, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

How Money paid for Adventure Lands ſhall be applied.

XXIV. Provided alſo, That if any of the ſaid Fen Lands or Low Grounds herein-before directed to be ſold for Nonpayment of the Taxes due thereon, ſhall be Adventure Lands, in every ſuch Caſe the Monies ariſing from the Sale thereof ſhall, in the firſt Place, be applied by the Commiſſioners in diſcharging the Taxes due thereon to the Corporation of Bedford Level; in the next Place, the reaſonable Charges of the Commiſſioners attending ſuch Sale; and that if any Surplus ſhall remain after the Payment of the Taxes, and alſo the Charges attending ſuch Sale, the ſame ſhall be applied in diſcharging all or ſo much of the Taxes as ſhall be due to the ſaid Commiſſioners on the ſaid Premiſes.

Deeds ſhall be regiſtered.

XXV. Provided alſo, That if any of the ſaid Lands or Grounds ſo ſold for Nonpayment of Taxes be Adventure Lands, in every ſuch Caſe, the Deed, Writing, or Inſtrument, purporting to be a Sale thereof from the ſaid Commiſſioners, ſhall be regiſtered in the like Manner as Conveyances of the ninety-five thouſand Acres of Adventure Land are directed to be regiſtered, by an Act paſſed in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for ſettling the Great Level of the Fens called Bedford Level.

Lands, when ſold, to be liable to Taxes by this and the former Act;

XXVI. Provided alſo, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to impower the ſaid Commiſſioners to diſcharge ſuch Lands and Commons, or any Part thereof, from any Rates or Taxes wherewith the ſame ſhall, after Sale thereof as aforeſaid, be liable to be rated or aſſeſſed; but that the ſaid Lands and Commons, or Part or Parts of Common, after they are ſo ſold, ſhall be rated or aſſeſſed in ſuch Manner as other Lands and Grounds of the like Kind and Degree ſhall be aſſeſſed; except, nevertheleſs, with reſpect to the Adventure Lands, or any Part thereof, that the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall, after ſuch Sale, remain veſted with the Power and Authority given by this Act, of abating and remitting ſo much of the Tax as ſhall appear to them neceſſary for preventing the ſame from being forfeited and abandoned for Nonpayment of the Tax.

and by Act 15 Car. II.

XXVII. Provided alſo, That nothing contained in the Power hereby given to the Commiſſioners to ſell the ſaid Adventure Lands, for the Nonpayment of the Tax impoſed by this preſent Act, or the Act hereby intended to be amended and rendered more effectual, ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to exonerate or diſcharge ſuch Lands ſo ſold, from any Tax or Taxes that ſhall or may, after the Sale thereof, be impoſed by virtue of an Act, made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for ſettling the Draining of the Great Level of the Fens called Bedford Level; but that all Purchaſers thereof ſhall have and enjoy the ſame, ſubject thereto.

Commiſſioners may borrow Money,

'XXVIII. And, the better to enable the ſaid Commiſſioners to borrow ſuch further Sums of Money as 'will be ſufficient to complete the Works neceſſary for the draining and Improvement of the ſaid Fen 'Lands and Low Grounds, and Navigation through the ſame;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, ſuch major Part being not leſs than ſeven, aſſembled at any Public Meeting to be held as aforeſaid, ſhall and may, and are hereby impowered, from Time to Time, to borrow any Sum or Sums of Money which they ſhall think neceſſary, for the making, carrying on, or completing, repairing, and preſerving of ſuch Works; and by Writing under their Hands and Seals, without Stamps, to aſſign over the ſaid yearly Rates, Taxes, and Tolls, hereby charged and to be charged upon the ſaid Fen Lands and Low Grounds, and Navigation, and every or any Part thereof (the Coſts and Charges of the Aſſignments to be paid out of the ſaid Taxes), as a Security for Repayment of ſuch Sum or Sums, with Intereſt, not exceeding five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall advance or lend ſuch Sum or Sums, his, her, or their Truſtee or Truſtees; which Money ſo to be borrowed ſhall, in the firſt Place, be applied to defray the Expences of obtaining this preſent Act, and all Proceedings preparatory thereto, and other incidental Charges attending the ſame; and the Reſidue of the Money ſo to be borrowed ſhall be applied and diſpoſed of in making and repairing ſuch Cuts, Drains, Dams, Banks, Funnels, and Outlets, and erecting ſuch Works and Engines, as may be neceſſary for draining and improving the ſaid Fen Lands and Low Grounds, and Navigation, and to and for no other Uſe or Purpoſe whatſoever.

and aſſign the Rates as a Security.

Monies aſſeſſed by this Act, charged with Payment of Principal and Intereſt.

XXIX. And be it further enacted and declared, That the Tolls, Rates, Taxes, and Sums of Money to be aſſeſſed by virtue of this Act upon the ſaid Fen Lands and Low Grounds, and Navigation, ſhall be charged and chargeable, in the firſt Place, with the Payment of the Principal Money already borrowed by virtue of the Act hereby intended to be amended and rendered more effectual, and in the next Place with the Money which ſhall be hereafter borrowed by virtue of the ſame, or of this Act, and the Intereſt of ſuch Money from Time to Time, and the ſame ſhall veſt in the reſpective Creditors, upon the Default of Payment of ſuch Principal and Intereſt, until the ſame ſhall be fully paid and ſatisfied, together with the Intereſt thereof; and the ſaid Creditors, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, reſpectively, ſhall have the ſame Power, Rights, and Privileges of raiſing and recovering the ſeveral Tolls, Taxes, and Sums of Money, payable by the ſeveral Owners and Occupiers of the ſaid Fen Lands and Low Grounds, and Navigations, for and in reſpect of ſuch Principal Money and Intereſt, in caſe of Default of Payment thereof, as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or their Collectors, would have had in caſe the ſaid Principal and Intereſt had been regularly and fully ſatisfied and paid; any Thing before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Aſſignments may be transferred.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon to whom any Aſſignment of the ſaid Tolls, Rates, and Taxes, ſhall be made, for ſecuring any ſuch Sum or Sums of Money lent as aforeſaid, and who ſhall be entitled to the Money thereby ſecured, ſhall have full Power, from Time to Time, by Indorſement on the original Grant or Security, without Stamps, under his or her Hand and Seal, atteſted in the Preſence of two credible Witneſſes, to aſſign or transfer the ſame to any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever; and ſuch Transfer or Aſſignment, from and after the Time that the ſame is entered in a Book to be kept by the ſaid Commiſſioners for that Purpoſe (which Entry their Clerk or Treaſurer is hereby required to make, upon producing ſuch Aſſignment, and Payment of one Shilling for the ſaid Entry), ſhall entitle ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, to the ſaid Principal Sum, and all the Intereſt due or to grow due thereupon; and ſuch Aſſignee or Aſſignees may in like Manner aſſign again, and ſo toties quoties, as Occaſion ſhall require, every ſuch Aſſignment being entered as aforeſaid.

Transfers to be entered in a Book.

When Cattle are driven away, and Goods removed, to prevent Recovery of Taxes,

'XXXI. And whereas it happens that Owners and Occupiers of Lands within the ſaid Diſtrict, to 'avoid the Payment of the Taxes charged thereon, as alſo the Charges of making, ſcouring, and cleanſing, the Ditches belonging to their reſpective Grounds within the Limits of the ſaid Act, do drive their 'Cattle, and remove their other Property from off the Lands and Premiſes charged therewith, ſo that no 'Diſtreſs can be found thereon, or upon any other Lands or Tenements in the Occupation of the Perſon 'or Perſons charged with ſuch Rates, Taxes, and Sums of Money, lying within the Limits of the ſaid 'Diſtrict, whereupon to levy the ſaid Rates, Taxes, or Sums of Money, whereby the ſame often remain 'a long Time in Arrear, to the great Prejudice and Delay of the ſaid Undertaking; for Remedy whereof,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes where any Taxes, or Money laid out by the Officer, with the Direction of the Commiſſioners, in making, ſcowering, and cleanſing any Ditch belonging to any Ground or Premiſes within the Limits of the ſaid Act, and which ſhall have been neglected to have been done by the Owner or Occupier thereof, upon Notice given for that Purpoſe, as in and by the Act hereby intended to be amended and rendered more effectual is directed, and no ſufficient Diſtreſs ſhall be found whereon to levy the ſame, within the Limits of the ſaid Act, then and in every ſuch Caſe, where the Owner or Occupier of ſuch Grounds or Ditches have removed, or cauſed to be removed, his or her Cattle or Goods from off the ſame, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Collector or Collectors of the ſaid Taxes, appointed and to be appointed in purſuance of the ſaid former Act, and they are hereby impowered, after a Demand being firſt made, and a Refuſal or Neglect of Payment thereof, by a Precept or Warrant under the Hands of any two or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, to levy the ſame, or any Part, by Diſtreſs and Sale (made in the like Manner as any other Diſtreſs and Sale herein directed) of any the Goods and Chattels of the Perſon or Perſons ſo charged with ſuch Rates, Taxes, and Sums of Money as aforeſaid, whereſoever and whenſoever any ſuch Goods and Chattels ſhall be found, together with the reaſonable Charges of ſuch Seizure and Sale, rendering the Overplus (if any), upon Demand, to the Perſon or Perſons ſo charged reſpectively.

they may be diſtrained elſewhere.

Perſons digging Turf-pits improperly,

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall dig or cauſe to be dug any Hods, Culpins, or Turfs, or any Thing in the Nature of Turf, in any of the Fen Lands or Low Grounds taxed by virtue of this Act, except it be in Partition Dykes already made, or which hereafter may be made with the Approbation and Conſent of any five or more of the Commiſſioners, in Writing under their Hands, for dividing any Grounds into Pieces, ſuch Pieces not to conſiſt of leſs than five Acres; or in any ſmall Dyke which may hereafter be made with the like Approbation of the Commiſſioners, round any Ground containing not leſs than four Acres at leaſt, for the Preſervation of Oſier Holts, Quicks, and Wood Plantations only, and which ſmall Dykes ſhall at no Time exceed eight Feet in Width; or in Commonable Places where Turf has been uſually dug; ſuch Hods, Culpins, or Turfs, ſo dug out of the Fen called Poor's Fen, to be ſpent and conſumed only in the Townſhip or Pariſh within the Diſtrict where the ſame ſhall be reſpectively dug, and ſuch Hods, Culpins, and Turf ſo dug out of any other Place than the Poor's Fen, to be ſpent and conſumed any where elſe within the Diſtrict aforeſaid, but not out of the Bounds and Precincts of the ſame, under the Penalty of twenty Shillings for every thouſand of Turf otherwiſe ſold, given, or ſpent, to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Seller, Giver, or Perſon who carries the ſame away, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Juſtice of the Peace for the ſaid County of Cambridge, in the like Manner as any other Penalty is herein directed to be levied; which ſaid Penalty is hereby directed to be given to the Informer: And if any Hods, Culpins, or Turf, ſhall be dug within the ſaid Diſtrict otherwiſe than as aforeſaid, every ſuch Digger, Owner, or Occupier of the Ground from whence ſuch Hods, Culpins, or Turf were dug, ſhall forfeit the Sum of twenty Shillings for every thouſand of Turf ſo dug, to be levied in the like Manner before directed; and it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be appointed for that Purpoſe, by Writing under the Hands of any two or more of the Commiſſioners, to go upon the Premiſes, and to throw the ſaid Hods, Culpins, or Turfs ſo cut, into the Pits or Places from whence the ſame were dug and taken, and to fill the ſaid Pools or Pits with the ſaid Turf, or other Earth which ſhall have been taken thereout; the Expences attending the filling up and levelling the Pits or Places ſo dug, to be borne and paid by the Perſon or Perſons who hath or have dug or cut the ſame reſpectively, and in Default of Payment to be levied in like to forfeit 20s. for every thouſand of Turfs,

Manner

Manner as any Penalty or Penalties herein-before mentioned are directed to be levied, together with the reaſonable Coſts and Charges attending ſuch Levy and Seizure.

'XXXIII. And whereas the ſaid Commiſſioners have been obliged, for the better Preſervation and Security of the ſaid Diſtrict, at a very great Expence, to erect and ſupport a Croſs Bank from the Point of Reach Dock, on the South Side of Reach Load, to the River Bank near the Sluice at Upwere, which Bank, and alſo the Banks on the Sides of Swaffham and Bottiſham Loads, though intended only for the Preſervation and Security of the ſaid Diſtricts, are nevertheleſs made of public Utility to Travellers and others, who frequently paſs and repaſs thereon, without making any Compenſation for the Damage they do to the ſame;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in order to provide a proper Fund effectually to raiſe, ſtrengthen and maintain the ſaid Banks, which the ſaid Commiſſioners and their Succeſſors are hereby authoriſed and impowered from Time to Time to do, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, ſhall be, and are hereby authoriſed to erect a Turnpike or Toll-houſe at ſuch Place or Places on each of the ſaid Banks as they ſhall judge moſt convenient, and thereat to demand and take as a Toll, before any Cattle whatſoever ſhall be permitted to paſs through any ſuch Gate or Gates, the Sums following; (that is to ſay)

The new Banks of great Uſe to Travellers.

Power to erect Turnpikes thereon.

For every Horſe, Mare, Gelding, Mule, Aſs, or other Beaſt, the Sum of One Penny.
For every Drove of Oxen, Cows, or Neat Cattle, the Sum of Ten-pence per Score:
For every Drove of Calves, Hogs, Sheep, or Lambs, the Sum of Five-pence per Score; and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Number:

The Tolls.

Which reſpective Sum or Sums of Money ſhall be demanded and taken in the Name of, and as a Toll, and ſhall be paid to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, ſhall appoint to collect the ſame; and the Money ſo to be raiſed is hereby veſted in the ſaid Commiſſioners, and ſhall be applied in ſuch Manner as is before directed; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſubject to the Payment of any of the ſaid Tolls, ſhall, after Demand thereof, neglect or refuſe to pay the ſame, it ſhall be lawful for the Perſon or Perſons appointed as aforeſaid to collect the ſaid Tolls, to ſeize and detain any Horſe or other Beaſt, upon which ſuch Toll is by this Act impoſed, or any of the Goods or Chattels of ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo neglecting or refuſing; and if ſuch Toll, and reaſonable Charges of ſuch ſeizing and detaining, ſhall not be paid within the Space of five Days, it ſhall be lawful for the Perſon or Perſons ſo ſeizing and diſtraining, to ſell the Horſes, Beaſts, or Goods, or any of them, ſo ſeized and diſtrained, returning the Overplus (if any) to the Owner thereof, upon Demand, after ſuch Toll, and all reaſonable Charges, ſhall be deducted; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſubject to any of the ſaid Tolls as aforeſaid, ſhall evade the Payment thereof, by violently riding or forcing through the ſaid Turnpike or Gate, or otherwiſe howſoever, and thereby prevent the Perſon or Perſons appointed to receive the Tolls from diſtraining or ſecuring the Horſe, Beaſt, Goods, or Chattels, of ſuch Perſon, that then it ſhall be lawful for any Juſtice of the Peace for the County of Cambridge, or any Juſtice of the Peace for the Liberty or Place where the Offender lives, on Complaint made on Oath, to iſſue his Warrant, and cauſe the ſaid Offender to be brought before him, or any other Juſtice of the Peace for the County of Cambridge, or County, Liberty, or Place where the Offender lives, and on Proof of the ſaid Offence, by the Oath of the ſaid Perſon or Perſons appointed to receive the ſaid Tolls, or any other credible Witneſs, and on full Conviction of the Offence, by Writing under his Hand and Seal, to order the ſaid Offender to be impriſoned for any Time not exceeding ſeven Days, unleſs ſuch Offender ſhall in the mean Time have made full Satisfaction and Amends to the ſaid Commiſſioners; and before ſuch Offender ſhall be diſcharged, a Certificate of the ſame, under the Hands of five or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, verified on Oath by a credible Witneſs, ſhall be produced to any Juſtice of the Peace for the County, Liberty, or Place, where ſuch Offender ſhall be committed; and on producing the ſame, ſuch Juſtice is hereby impowered, by Writing under his Hand, to diſcharge the ſaid Offender.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, to cauſe to be made and erected ſuch Fences as they ſhall think proper, and of ſuch Length as they ſhall think neceſſary, on the Side of ſuch Gate or Gates as ſhall be erected by virtue of this Act, to prevent Perſons evading the Payment of the Tolls hereby granted; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall damage or deſtroy any ſuch Fence, every ſuch Perſon ſhall pay the Expence of repairing and reſtoring ſuch Fence, to be aſcertained by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, in Writing under their Hands, a Duplicate of which ſhall be ſerved on the Perſon or Perſons ſo offending, by leaving the ſame at his, her, or their laſt Place of Abode; and if ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall not, within three Days after Service thereof, pay, or cauſe to be paid, the Sum ſo aſcertained as aforeſaid, he, ſhe, or they ſhall forfeit and pay for every ſuch Offence the Sum of five Pounds, over and above the Sum ſo aſcertained; which ſaid Expences and Penalty ſhall and may, upon Oath made of the Facts by one Witneſs, be levied and recovered, in the ſame Manner as any other Penalty or Forfeiture is by this Act directed to be levied and recovered; which Penalty ſhall be applied towards carrying on the Expence of heightening and ſtrengthening the ſaid Banks.

Power to erect Fences to prevent evading Tolls.

Penalty on deſtroying Fences.

XXXV. Provided always, That no Toll ſhall be taken for any Horſe haling Boats in the ſaid Loads, or from any Paſſenger on Horſeback going to, or returning from, any of the ſaid Grounds lying in the ſaid Diſtrict, or for any Beaſt or Beaſts, Sheep, or other Cattle, going to, or returning from, Paſture therein.

Exemptions from Tolls.

XXXVI. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it enacted, That if any Perſon ſhall claim and take Benefit of any of the Exemptions aforeſaid, not being entitled thereto, ſuch Perſon ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered in the like Manner as any other Penalty is herein directed to be recovered, to be applied towards the Expence of heightening and ſtrengthening the ſaid Banks.

Penalty on claiming Exemptions unjuſtly.

" XXXVII. And

The Clerk may adjourn Meetings.

'XXXVII. And whereas, by the Provisions of the Act hereby intended to be amended and rendered 'more effectual, no Adjournment can be made but by Order of five Commissioners assembled as therein 'directed; which has frequently been attended with great Inconveniences in the Execution of the said Act, 'five Commissioners having not been able at all Times to attend;' be it therefore enacted, That if it shall happen there shall not appear at any such Meeting five of the said Commissioners to act, or adjourn the said Meeting to any other Time or Place, it shall and may be lawful for any one of the said Commissioners, or, if no Commissioner attends, for the Clerk to the said Commissioners, or any Person acting for and in his Name, to adjourn the said Meeting to, and appoint the Commissioners to meet at the Place where the last Meeting was appointed to be held, on that Day Sevennight, and so from Time to Time till a sufficient Number of Commissioners shall attend.

Four public Meetings to be held in each Year,

'XXXVIII. And whereas, in pursuance of the former Act, only two public Meetings were held in 'every Year, which have been found inadequate to the Purposes of the said Act;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the better putting this present Act in Execution, the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, shall meet four Times in every Year, videlicet, the second Wednesday in January, the second Wednesday in April, the second Wednesday in July, and the second Wednesday in October, at the Swan, or principal Inn or Public House in Bottisham, unless Notice in Writing, signed by any five or more of them, be affixed upon the Church Door, or Church-yard Gate, of every the respective Towns or Parishes, six Days at least before such intended Meeting, and be also read in the respective Churches, on some Lord's Day immediately after Divine Service ended, appointing some other Place for such Quarterly Meetings as aforesaid; the first Meeting to be at the Swan in Bottisham, upon the third Wednesday after passing this Act; but the said Commissioners, or any two or one of them (in case two do not attend) or their Clerk, may adjourn, and meet again pursuant to such Adjournment, as often as shall be thought necessary, without giving such Notice as aforesaid.

In case of Non-attendance, new Commissioners may be appointed,

'XXXIX. And whereas, on account of the Nonattendance of a sufficient Number of Commissioners, 'many Inconveniencies have arisen;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if it shall happen any Commissioner shall absent himself from all the Meetings during the Space of twelve Months together, or shall refuse or neglect to act during the Space of twelve Months together; or if any Commissioner, desirous to resign his Office, shall give ten Days Notice thereof in Writing to the Commissioners, or any five of them, before any of their Meetings, in every such Case the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, may, and are impowered to give Notice in Writing of such Nonattendance, or Refusal or Neglect to act, or Desire of Resignation, to the Parish or Township for which such Person is a Commissioner, by causing the same to be publicly read in the Church belonging to such Parish or Town, at least ten Days before the next Quarterly Meeting; and then it shall be lawful to and for the several Persons qualified to elect Commissioners for such Parish or Township, to meet and elect another Commissioner, pursuant to the Regulations and Directions in the Act hereby intended to be rendered more effectual; and if the said Persons shall not choose a new Commissioner before the next Quarterly Meeting, after Notice received from the Commissioners, then it shall be lawful for the rest of the Commissioners, or the major Part of them present at their next or any future Quarterly Meeting, to elect a new Commissioner, out of such Parish or Town; which said Commissioner, so chosen and appointed by the said Commissioners, shall be and is hereby vested with the like Powers, Privileges, and Authorities, and shall and may act in the Execution of this Act as fully as any Commissioner under the Act hereby intended to be amended is impowered to do; but if no such Notice in Manner aforesaid be given by the Commissioners, to the Parish or Township in respect of which the Person so desirous to resign, or who has neglected or refused to act, or who has absented himself from the Meetings for twelve Months together, is a Commissioner, then every such Commissioner, notwithstanding his Nonattendance, Neglect or Refusal, or Notice of Resignation, shall still continue to be and act as a Commissioner, in the same Manner as before; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

There being only three Commissioners for Bottisham, another shall be appointed,

'XL. And whereas at present there are only three Commissioners appointed for the Parish of Bottisham, 'which not being altogether in Proportion to the Quantity of Land lying within the said Parish,' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and immediately after the passing of this Act, there shall be appointed four Commissioners for the Parish of Bottisham; and that it shall be lawful for the several and respective Persons qualified by this Act to elect Commissioners, and they are hereby required, at the next and every succeeding General Election of Commissioners, to elect and chuse four Commissioners for the said Parish; and that until such next General Election, John Farlow, Esquire, the present Mayor of the Town of Cambridge, shall, and is hereby appointed to act as the fourth Commissioner for the said Parish, and is hereby vested with the same Powers and Authorities as any other Commissioner, for putting this Act in Execution.

For improving the Commonable Parts of the Lands, Fen Reeves may direct the Management thereof.

'XLI. And, for the better Improvement and more orderly Management of the Commonable Parts of 'the said Fen Lands and Low Grounds, and also of that Part of the Fen lying between Swan's Lake and 'Head Lake, called The Low Fen, The Little Fen, The Sedge Fen, and The Turf Bars, belonging to the 'Township of Swaffham Prior;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Fen Reeves chosen, as directed by the Act hereby intended to be amended and rendered more effectual, for such Parish or Parishes which have Commonable Parts belonging to them, shall be, and are hereby impowered, with the Consent of the Owners of the major Part of such Commonable Rights, assembled in Vestry, or at the usual Place of Meeting in each Parish for the transacting of public Business, on or before the last Day of March in every Year (Notice of such Meeting being first given in Church, on some Sunday immediately after Divine Service is ended, ten Days at least before such Meeting), to set out by Metes and Bounds, or otherways, what Part or Parts of the several and respective Commons in such Parish or Parishes shall be fed, and what Part or Parts thereof shall be kept for mowing for that Year, and what Quantity of Ground each Commoner shall mow, according to his Number of Common Rights; and also to limit a Time for getting off the Crop, not later than the first Day of August; and to order what Stock each Commoner shall keep less on the Common, for the Acre or Acres so agreed to be mown for that Year; and also it shall and may be lawful for the Fen Reeves for the Town of Swaffham Prior, chosen as aforesaid, and assembled in the School-house or usual Place of Meeting in the said Town, upon like Notice given as before directed, by and with the Consent of the Owners of the major Part of the Lots or Dolvars in the said Fens called The Low Fen, The Little Fen, The Sedge Fen, and The Turf Bars, there and then assembled, to direct and appoint the said Fens, or such Part or Parts thereof, to be fed, as to the said Fen Reeves, and such Owners as aforesaid so assembled, shall seem most for the Benefit of all the Owners or Occupiers thereof in general; and it shall and may be lawful also for the said Fen Reeves, and such Owners as aforesaid so assembled, to fix and direct the Time and Manner of feeding the said Fens, and proportion the Quantity of Stock each Person shall keep, according to the Number of his Lots or Dolvars, and the Goodness thereof.

The Commissioners may determine Differences.

XLII. Provided always, That if the said respective Fen Reeves and Owners of all or any of the said Parishes or Townships cannot agree, at any such Meeting or Meetings so to be held as aforesaid, about the Manner of feeding or mowing the said Commons, or Parts of the said Fens, or touching any other Matters relative to the Regulation thereof, the said Fen Reeves or Owners shall apply to the Commissioners; and it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any five of them, at any of their Meetings, to enquire into the Differences that have arisen, and after hearing the several Matters in Dispute, and examining a Witness or Witnesses thereon on Oath (which said Oath the said Commissioners are hereby impowered to administer), finally at such Meeting to adjudge and determine the same, by Writing under their Hands.

Cattle feeding contrary to Agreements may be impounded, &c.

XLIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Fen Reeves of every respective Parish or Town shall be, and they are hereby impowered and required, from Time to Time, to impound all Sheep, Horses, Mules, Asses, Beasts, and Cattle of every Kind, that, contrary to such Agreement or Agreements, or Adjudication of the said Fen Reeves and Owners, so made or settled as aforesaid, shall be fed and depastured, or found in or upon any of the Drove-ways within the Limits aforesaid, or upon such Commons or Parts of the said Fens so agreed to be mown or fed, except such Cattle as shall be driving directly to or from any the several Grounds in the said Fens, in the Occupation of the Owner or Owners of such Cattle, and to take for every Sheep so feeding or depasturing Three-pence per Head, and for every Horse or other Beast one Shilling; and if the Owner or Owners of such Sheep or other Beast shall not, within three Days after the same shall be impounded, pay to the said Fen Reeves the Sum so charged on such Cattle, it may and shall be lawful for the said Fen Reeves to sell any such Sheep or other Beast, and return the Overplus (if any) upon Demand, to the Owner thereof, after such Penalty, and all reasonable Charges, shall be deducted.

Cattle shall not stop to depasture on the Grounds, &c.

XLIV. Provided nevertheless, That if any Person, under Pretence of driving his Sheep, or any other Cattle, to his several Grounds, shall stop or stay the same to feed or depasture on any of the said Drove-ways, or other Grounds, so agreed to be mown or fed; or if any Sheep or Cattle shall be found without a Driver or Keeper, in or upon any of the said Drove-ways, or such other Grounds; or if any Person shall claim and take Benefit of the Exemption aforesaid, not entitled thereto, every such Person, or Owner of such Sheep or other Cattle, shall, over and above the Penalty before directed to be levied, pay and forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings; which said Penalty and Forfeiture shall and may be levied and recovered in the same Manner as any other Penalty or Forfeiture is by this Act directed to be levied and recovered; and one Moiety of such Penalty shall be paid to the Informer, and the other Moiety shall be applied towards carrying on the said Works of Draining, and other Purposes of this Act.

under the Penalty of 40 s.

Sedge, &c. not to be cut in certain Places without Leave.

'XLV. And, for the better preserving of all the said Drove-ways, and the said Low Fen, Little Fen, 'Sedge Fen, and Turf Bars;' be it enacted, That no Person or Persons shall at any Time cut any Sedge, Reed, Fodder, Litter, or Produce whatsoever, growing or being thereon, under the Penalty of ten Shillings for every hundred of Sedge or Reed, and the like Sum of ten Shillings for every Half Load of Fodder, Litter, or other Produce so cut, without Leave first obtained from, and also under the Direction of the said Fen Reeve, in Writing, to be levied by Distress and Sale (made in the like Manner as any other Distress and Sale herein directed) of the Goods and Chattels of such Owner or Person who shall cut or carry away the same, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Justice of the Peace for the said County of Cambridge, or the County, Liberty, or Place, where the Offender lives, such Penalty to be paid to the Informer; and in case the Person so offending shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels whereupon the said Penalty can be levied, it shall be lawful for the said Justice, or any other Justice of the Peace for the County, Liberty, or Place, where the Offender lives, to commit the Person so offending to the House of Correction, there to remain without Bail for the Space of one Calendar Month, unless the said Penalty shall be sooner paid: And it shall and may be lawful for the Fen Reeves, and they are hereby required to cause all and every the said Drove-ways to be amended, and the common Ditches belonging thereto, and also those belonging to Low Fen, Little Fen, Sedge Fen, and Turf Bars, to be cleaned and scoured out; and also to make new Cuts, and do all other Works that may be necessary for carrying off the Waters, and improving the said Fens; and the said several Fen Reeves, who have served the Office of Fen Reeve, shall, on public Notice given in their respective Churches ten Days at least before the Expiration of their Office, give a full, true, and perfect Account of all such Monies as have been received and disbursed by them in the Execution of their Office, to such Owners and Occupiers of Commonable Rights and Dolvars as shall then be assembled; who are hereby authorised and required to grant the said Fen Reeves a Rate on all and every of the several and respective Owners and Occupiers in each Parish or Township, according to the Number or Parts of such Commonable Rights in each Parish, or of Dolvars in the Township of Swaffham Prior (not less than two whereof, with the Sedge and Turf Fen Parts belonging to the same, or at least ten Acres of Ground in the said Fens of Swaffham Prior, shall be deemed a whole Right), that every such Person shall be possessed of or occupy; which said Rate being allowed by one Justice of the County of Cambridge, Fen Reeves to cause Drove-ways to be mended, and Ditches to be scoured.

bridge, may, in caſe of Refuſal or Neglect of Payment, be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of any Goods or Chattels of the Perſon or Perſons charged therewith, made in the like Manner as any other Diſtreſs and Sale herein-before directed.

Charge on a Commonable Right not to exceed 3 s.

XLVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Fen Reeve, in any of the ſaid Pariſhes or Townſhips, ſhall bring a Charge, upon any Right deemed or to be deemed a Commonable Right, that ſhall exceed three Shillings in any one Year.

Commiſſioners may appoint Fen Reeves, if Pariſhes neglect it.

XLVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the Inhabitants of all or any of the Pariſhes or Townſhips within the Limits aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe or neglect to chuſe the Fen Reeves at the Time appointed by this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful in ſuch Caſe for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five of them, at any of their quarterly Meetings, to appoint ſuch Perſon or Perſons as to them ſhall ſeem proper for the Office, in every ſuch Pariſh or Town where ſuch Fen Reeve or Fen Reeves had not been choſen under the Direction of the Act hereby intended to be amended and rendered more effectual; and the Fen Reeve or Fen Reeves ſo choſen and appointed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, for all or any of the ſaid Pariſhes or Towns, ſhall have the ſame Powers, and may act in the Office of Fen Reeve as fully, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as the Fen Reeves choſen and appointed by the Inhabitants of the other Pariſhes or Towns are empowered under the ſaid Act to do.

Commiſſioners may take Earth from Boutes or Waſhes, making Satisfaction to the Owners.

XLVIII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That for the better procuring Earth proper for the repairing the Banks within the ſaid Diſtrict, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five of them, or for their Officers and Workmen, to take and uſe any Earth from the Grounds called The Boutes or Waſhes, ſo that they do not take the ſame at a leſs Diſtance than five Yards from the Weſt or Eaſt Bank of the River Grant; the Commiſſioners ſetting a Value upon the Lands ſo taken, and giving Notice in Writing of the Value thereof; and if the Owner of the Land ſhall not approve of the Value fixed by the Commiſſioners, it ſhall be lawful for him or her to apply to the next General Quarter Seſſion of the Peace to be held for the County of Cambridge, giving fourteen Days Notice at the leaſt of ſuch Appeal to the Clerk to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or, if ſufficient Time ſhall not intervene between the Notice given by the Commiſſioners, and the Quarter Seſſion immediately enſuing, in ſuch Caſe the Application may be made to the next ſubſequent Quarter Seſſion of the Peace, but not afterwards, giving the like Notice of ſuch Application; and the Juſtices at the ſaid Seſſions are hereby authoriſed and required to hear and finally determine all and ſingular the Matters in Difference, and give ſuch Relief in the Premiſes as they ſhall think juſt, and adjudge ſuch Coſts to ſuch of the Parties as they ſhall deem reaſonable and proper.

Puniſhment for deſtroying Works.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter wilfully or maliciouſly deſtroy, ſtop, dam up, ſpoil, or damage, any Drain, Watercourſe, Tunnel, or Bridge, made, or to be made; or ſhall lay, or throw, or place any Rubbiſh, or any other Obſtruction therein, or cauſe, procure, or hire any Perſon to lay, throw, or place any Rubbiſh therein; or ſhall wilfully ſpoil, damage, obſtruct, or impede any Work or Works made or done, or which may hereafter be made, done, or ſet about, under the Direction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, for the better Security of the Draining, within the Limits aforeſaid, it ſhall be lawful for any Juſtice of the Peace for the County of Cambridge, or any Juſtice of the Peace for the County, Liberty, or Place, where the Offender lives, on Complaint on Oath, by his Warrant, to cauſe the ſaid Offender to be brought before him, and on Conviction of the Facts, on the Oath of one Witneſs, to direct and order ſuch Offender to the Houſe of Correction, for any Time not exceeding one Month, and before his or her Diſcharge to be publicly whipped through the Pariſh or Town where the Offence was committed.

The laſt Clauſe not to invalidate the former Act.

L. Provided nevertheleſs, That nothing contained in the laſt Clauſe ſhall extend to invalidate or repeal the Clauſe contained in the ſaid Act hereby intended to be amended and rendered more effectual, with reſpect to the cutting, throwing down, or deſtroying, any Bank, Mill, Engine, Floodgate, or Sluice, as in the ſaid Act is mentioned; but the ſaid Clauſe ſhall ſtand in Force and Effect, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proceedings not to be quaſhed for want of Form, nor removed into any Court of Record.

LI. And be it further enacted, That no Order made touching or concerning any of the Matters aforeſaid, or any other Proceedings to be had touching the Conviction or Convictions of any Offender or Offenders againſt this Act, ſhall be quaſhed or bad for Want of Form, or be removed or removable by Certiorari, or any other Writ or Proceſs whatſoever, into any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; and that where any Diſtreſs ſhall be made, for any Sum or Sums of Money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the Diſtreſs itſelf ſhall not be deemed to be unlawful, nor the Party or Parties making the ſame be deemed a Treſpaſſer or Treſpaſſers, on Account of any Defect or Want of Form in the Summons, Conviction, Warrant of Diſtreſs, or other Proceeding relating thereto, nor ſhall the Party or Parties diſtraining be deemed a Treſpaſſer or Treſpaſſers ab initio, on Account of any Irregularity which ſhall be afterwards done by the Party or Parties diſtraining, but the Perſon or Perſons aggrieved by ſuch Irregularity ſhall and may recover full Satisfaction for the Special Damage in an Action on the Caſe.

Saving the Rights of Conſervators.

LII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to invalidate, leſſen, diminiſh, alter, or take away, any of the Rights, Powers, and Authorities, veſted in the Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Company of Conſervators of the Great Level of the Fens called Bedford Level, by virtue of the ſaid Act of the fifteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, or by virtue of any other Act or Statute whatſoever; but that all Rights, Powers, and Authorities whatſoever, which, by virtue of the ſaid Act of the fifteenth of King Charles the Second, or of any other Act or Statute whatſoever, now are veſted in the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs, and Conſervators, or any of them, ſhall for ever hereafter remain, continue, and be in the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, and every of them, as fully and amply, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if this Act had never been made.

LIII. And

LIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action, Suit, or Information, shall be commenced or profecuted againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, every ſuch Action or Suit ſhall be commenced within ſix Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and ſhall be laid or brought in the County of Cambridge, and not elſewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Action or Suit ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and if in Replevin, may juſtify and avow generally, by virtue of this Act, as Perſons acting by Authority of Commiſſioners of Sewers are enabled to do, and may give this Act and the ſpecial Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the Fact alleged in ſuch Action or Suit to have been done, was done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act: And if the ſame ſhall appear to have been ſo done, or if any Action or Suit ſhall be brought in any other County or Place than as aforeſaid, then the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants, Avowant or Avowants; or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall become nonſuited, or forbear Proſecution, or diſcontinue his, her, or their Suit or Suits, or if any Verdict ſhall paſs againſt him, her, or them, upon a Demurrer or otherwiſe, then and in any of the ſaid Caſes the Defendant or Defendants, Avowant or Avowants, ſhall recover Treble Coſts, for which he, ſhe, or they ſhall have a like Remedy as where Coſts by Law are awarded.

LIV. And be it alſo enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Act, made in the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for draining and preſerving certain Fen Lands and Low Grounds, lying in the South Level, Part of the Great Level of the Fens commonly called Bedford Level, and in the County of Cambridge, between the River Cam, otherwiſe Grant, Weſt, and the Hard Lands of Bottiſham, Swaffham Bulbeck, and Swaffham Prior, Eaſt; and for impowering the Governor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the Company of Conſervators of the Great Level of the Fens, commonly called Bedford Level, to ſell certain Fen Lands, lying within the Limits aforeſaid, commonly called Inveſted Lands; and all the Powers and Authorities, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Puniſhments, Proviſoes, Matters, and Things therein contained, ſhall remain, continue, and be in full Force and Effect, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame had been herein again repeated and re-enacted, except the Alterations and Amendments which have been made therein by virtue of this preſent Act.

Act 7 Geo. III. to remain in Force, except where altered.

LV. And be it further enacted and declared, That this Act ſhall be deemed and allowed a public Act; and all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons, are hereby required to take Notice thereof as ſuch, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

Public Act.

CAP. XXXV.

An Act to repeal ſo much of ſeveral Acts of Parliament, as prohibit the Growth and Produce of Tobacco in Ireland; and to permit the Importation of Tobacco of the Growth and Produce of that Kingdom into Great Britain, under the like Duties and Regulations as Tobacco of the Growth of the Britiſh Colonies in America is permitted to be imported.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS it is of the greateſt Importance to the Strength and Security of theſe Kingdoms, that every Attention and Encouragement ſhould be given to ſuch of the Produce and Manufacture of the Kingdom of Ireland as do not materially interfere with the commercial Intereſts of Great Britain: And whereas by an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second (intituled, An Act for prohibiting the planting, ſetting, or ſowing, of Tobacco in England or Ireland), and by divers other Acts ſince paſſed, the Culture of Tobacco within the Kingdom of Ireland, and the Exportation of the ſame from thence, is prohibited;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the twentieth Day of May, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, ſo much of two ſeveral Acts of Parliament, the one made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second (intituled, An Act for prohibiting the planting, ſetting, or ſowing, of Tobacco in England or Ireland); and the other made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second (intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Trade); or of any other Act made in this Kingdom, which prohibits or reſtrains the ſetting, planting, or improving to grow, making, or curing Tobacco, either in Seed, Plant, or otherwiſe, in the Kingdom of Ireland, ſhall be, and the ſame is and are hereby repealed and made void.

So much of two Acts of 12 and 15 Car. II. or of any other Acts made in this Kingdom, which prohibits the planting, &c. of Tobacco in Ireland, repealed.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Tobacco the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of Ireland, ſhall be exported from thence to any Port or Place whatſoever out of the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, except to Great Britain; under the like Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are preſcribed in an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second (intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increaſing of Shipping and Navigation), with reſpect to Tobacco, and other enumerated Goods of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture, of any of the Engliſh Plantations therein mentioned.

Iriſh Tobacco to be exported to Great Britain only; under the Securities, &c. preſcribed in the Navigation Act 12 Car. II.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when any Tobacco the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of Ireland, ſhall be laden on board any Ship or Veſſel, at any Port or Place whatſoever within the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, in order to be conveyed from thence into Great Britain, the Collector and Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms, at ſuch Port or Place where ſuch Tobacco ſhall be laden, ſhall, at and upon the clearing of every ſuch Ship or Veſſel, by the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms appointed for that Purpoſe, deliver to the Maſter, Commander, or other Perſon taking Charge of any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, a Manifeſt or Content in Writing, under his and their Hands and Seal of Office, which ſhall contain a true Account of all the Tobacco laden on board every ſuch Ship or Veſſel, with the

The Duty of Officers of the Cuſtoms in Ireland on the Shipping of Tobacco for Exportation.

Number of Hogſheads, Caſks, Cheſts, or other Package thereof, and the Quantity of the Tobacco contained in each particular Hogſhead, Caſk, Cheſt, or other Package, together with the Marks and Numbers ſet on each and every Hogſhead, Caſk, Cheſt, or other Package, with the Tare thereof; and alſo ſhall, at and upon the clearing of every ſuch Ship or Veſſel, as aforeſaid, immediately tranſmit a Duplicate of ſuch Manifeſt or Content to the reſpective Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in Great Britain: And any Collector, Comptroller, or other chief Officer of the Cuſtoms, at any Port or Place in Ireland, who ſhall neglect or refuſe to deliver to the Maſter, Commander, or Perſon taking Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſuch Manifeſt or Content as is herein-before directed, or who ſhall not tranſmit a Duplicate thereof, as hereby required, to the reſpective Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in Great Britain, ſhall forfeit and loſe the Sum of two hundred Pounds; one Moiety whereof to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall ſue or proſecute for the ſame, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter or Dublin.

Penalty on Neglect thereof.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Maſter, Commander, or Perſon taking Charge of any Ship or Veſſel having ſuch Tobacco laden on board as aforeſaid, ſhall, upon his Arrival at his Port of Diſcharge in Great Britain, and at the Time he makes his Report of his Ship or Veſſel at the Cuſtom-houſe, deliver to the Collector of the Cuſtoms at the ſaid Port (who is hereby required and directed to deliver the ſame to the Land-waiters appointed for the Delivery of ſuch Ship or Veſſel), the Manifeſt or Content of the Lading of his Ship or Veſſel, which he received from the Collector, Comptroller, or other chief Officer of the Cuſtoms, at the Port or Place in Ireland where he took in his Lading: And if any Maſter, Commander, or Perſon taking Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall neglect or refuſe to deliver ſuch Manifeſt or Content to the Collector of the Cuſtoms, at the Time he makes his Report of his Ship or Veſſel at the Cuſtom-houſe at the Port of his Diſcharge, he ſhall forfeit and loſe the Sum of one hundred Pounds; one Moiety thereof to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof to ſuch Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms as ſhall ſue and proſecute for the ſame, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh, reſpectively, where the Offence ſhall be committed.

Every Commander of a Veſſel exporting Iriſh Tobacco ſhall, on his Arrival at a Britiſh Port, deliver to the Collector the Manifeſt or Content of his Lading which he received at the Port of Lading in Ireland. Penalty on Neglect thereof.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Tobacco ſhall be imported into Great Britain in Caſks, Cheſts, or Caſes, each of which ſhall contain four hundred and fifty Pounds Weight of Nett Tobacco at the leaſt, and not otherwiſe; and ſhall be liable to the ſame Duties, and intitled to the ſame Diſcounts, Allowances, and Drawbacks, and in all Reſpects ſubject to the ſame Rules, Regulations, Reſtrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as Tobacco the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America is liable, ſubject, and intitled to by Law, in as full and ample Manner as if the ſaid Duties, Diſcounts, Allowances, and Drawbacks, Rules, Regulations, Reſtrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and the ſeveral Clauſes relative thereto, had been particularly repeated and enacted in this preſent Act.

Iriſh Tobacco ſhall not be imported into Great Britain in Caſks, &c. containing leſs than 450 lb.; and ſhall be liable to the ſame Duties, Drawbacks, &c. as Tobacco the Growth of the Britiſh Colonies in America.

CAP. XXXVI.

An Act for erecting a Market-houſe, and regulating the Markets, within the Borough of Bridgewater, in the County of Somerſet; and for paving, cleanſing, lighting, and watching, the Streets, Lanes, and other public Paſſages and Places, within the ſaid Borough.

CAP. XXXVII.

An Act for granting a Bounty upon the Importation into this Kingdom of Hemp, of the Growth of the Kingdom of Ireland, for a limited Time.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Encouragement of the Cultivation of Hemp in the Kingdom of Ireland, and the Importation thereof from thence, will be a Means of furniſhing this Kingdom with Sail-cloth and Cordage (ſo eſſentially neceſſary for the Supply of his Majeſty's Royal Navy, as well as for Ships employed in the Merchants Service) at more reaſonable Rates than at preſent, and will alſo tend to make the Supply of the ſaid Materials cheaper and leſs precarious, and be a Means of introducing Trade, Manufacture, and Induſtry, by employing many of his Majeſty's Subjects within the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, every Perſon or Perſons who ſhall, within the Time appointed by this Act, import, or cauſe to be imported, into this Kingdom, directly from the ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, in any Ship or Ships that may lawfully trade thither, manned as by Law is required, any Hemp water-rotted, bright and clean, of the Growth of Ireland, ſhall have and enjoy, as a Reward or Premium for ſuch Importation, the following Sum; (that is to ſay)

After June 24, 1779, the following Premiums to be paid on the Importation of Iriſh Hemp;

videlicet,
For the firſt ſeven Years, 8 l. per Ton;
for the next ſeven Years, 6 l. per Ton;
and for the following ſeven Years, 4 l. per Ton.

For every Ton of ſuch Hemp ſo imported, from the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, to the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-ſix, the Sum of eight Pounds Sterling:

For every Ton of ſuch Hemp ſo imported, from the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-ſix, to the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-three, the Sum of ſix Pounds Sterling:

And for every Ton of ſuch Hemp ſo imported, from the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-three, to the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand eight hundred, the Sum of four Pounds Sterling:

To

To be paid upon Demand to the Importer of ſuch Hemp, by the Collector of the Port where the ſame ſhall be imported, out of the Cuſtoms; and in caſe the Collector of the Port where the ſame ſhall be imported ſhall not have Money ſufficient in his Hands, he is hereby required to certify the ſame to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, who ſhall cauſe the ſame to be paid by the Receiver-general of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms; the Bounty of the Hemp imported into England to be paid by the Receiver-general of the Cuſtoms in England, and of that imported into Scotland to be paid by the Receiver-general there.

Commiſſioners of the Navy to have the Refuſal of all ſuch Hemp.

'II. And, to the End a particular Benefit may accrue hereby to his Majeſty's Royal Navy, and for the 'better Supply of the ſame with naval Stores,' be it further enacted, That, upon the Importation of any ſuch Hemp from Ireland for which a Reward or Premium is hereby granted, the Pre-emption or Refuſal of ſuch Hemp ſhall be offered and tendered to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy upon landing the ſame; and if, within the Term of twenty Days after ſuch Tender, the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall not contract or bargain for the ſame, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Importer or Importers, Owner or Owners, of the ſaid Hemp, otherwiſe to diſpoſe of the ſame for his or their beſt Profit and Advantage.

Importers of Hemp to produce, to the chief Officers of the Cuſtoms at the Port of Importation, a Certificate from the Collector, &c. at the Port of Lading in Ireland.

'III. And in order to intitle the Importer of ſuch Hemp to the Premium granted by this Act, and to 'prevent Frauds by importing foreign Hemp,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons importing any ſuch Hemp into Great Britain, ſhall produce to the chief Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms, at the Port of Importation, a Certificate or Certificates, under the Hands and Seal of Office of the Collector and Comptroller, or other chief Officer of the Cuſtoms, at the Port in Ireland where ſuch Hemp ſhall be put on board; certifying, that before the Departure of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, Ships or Veſſels, the Perſon or Perſons, Merchant, Trader, or Factor, loading the ſame, had made Oath before them, that the ſaid Hemp, ſo ſhipped on board, was truly and bona fide of the Growth and Produce of ſome Place in Ireland; expreſſing in the ſaid Certificate the Number, Marks, and Packages, of ſuch Hemp, with the Name or Names, Place or Places of Abode, of the Exporter or Exporters from Ireland, and the Name of the Place or Places in Ireland where the ſaid Hemp grew and was produced, together with the Name or Names, Place or Places of Abode, of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall have ſworn the Hemp therein mentioned to be bona fide of the Growth and Produce of ſuch Place in Ireland, and where and to whom in Great Britain the ſame is conſigned; and the Maſter, or Perſon having the Charge or Command of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, Ships or Veſſels, importing ſuch Hemp, ſhall, on his Arrival in this Kingdom, alſo make Oath before the Collector and Comptroller, or other chief Officer of the Cuſtoms at the Port of Importation, that the ſeveral Packages, ſo marked and numbered, and the Hemp contained therein, are the ſame Packages and Goods that were taken on board his ſaid Ship or Veſſel at the ſaid Port in Ireland, by virtue of the ſaid Certificate or Certificates ſo to be produced as aforeſaid; which ſaid Oaths the ſaid Officers herein-before named are reſpectively hereby authoriſed and required to adminiſter.

Officers to examine the Hemp before they make out Certificates.

'IV. And, that the Officers of the Cuſtoms may be the better able to diſcover any Frauds intended for 'receiving the aforeſaid Premium,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Officers, and they are hereby required, before they make out any ſuch Certificate, to examine the ſaid Hemp, by opening each Package, and ſhifting the ſame, in ſuch Manner as to ſee the whole Contents, or by ſuch other Means as they ſhall think proper, to find out and diſcover whether the ſaid Hemp is water-rotted, bright and clean, and free from any falſe Mixture.

Diſputes between Surveyors, &c. and Importers of Hemp, how to be ſettled.

V. Provided always, That in caſe any Doubt or Diſpute ſhall ariſe between the Surveyors or Officers of the Cuſtoms and the Owners or Importers of ſuch Hemp as is imported into the Port of London, as to the Quality of the ſame, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms to call two or more Merchants, Manufacturers, or others, well ſkilled in the Commodity, who ſhall declare upon Oath, if required, their Opinion as to the Quality of the ſame, and according to the beſt of their Judgment, determine whether the ſaid Hemp is intitled to the Premium hereby granted, or not; and if any Doubt or Diſpute ſhall ariſe as to the Quality of any Hemp imported into any of the Out-ports in England, Samples thereof ſhall be taken, and ſent up to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in London, and into the Out-ports in Scotland, to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms at Edinburgh, in ſuch Manner as the reſpective Commiſſioners ſhall direct, in order to be inſpected and adjudged there as before-mentioned.

Officer demanding any Reward for examining, &c. ſuch Hemp, ſhall forfeit his Office, and 100l.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Fee, Gratuity or Reward, ſhall be demanded, taken, or received, by any Officer of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, for examining, viewing, or delivering, ſuch Hemp, with reſpect to the Premium or Reward allowed by this Act, or for the ſigning any of the Certificates in order to the receiving ſuch Premium or Reward, or for paying the ſame; and any ſuch Officer demanding or taking ſuch Fee or Reward ſhall, for ſuch Offence, forfeit his Office; and ſuch Officer ſhall alſo be incapable of ſerving his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and ſhall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Exporters of Iriſh Hemp for which a Premium has been paid ſhall repay the ſame (beſides other Duties) at the Port of Exportation;

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any ſuch Hemp, of the Growth or Produce of Ireland, ſhall, after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, be exported from Great Britain, that then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Perſon or Perſons ſo exporting the ſame, ſhall, before the Entry thereof, pay unto the Collector of the Cuſtoms at the Port where the ſame ſhall be exported, or to the chief Officer of the Cuſtoms there, the full Sum which is by this Act allowed as a Premium on all ſuch Hemp as he intends to export, over and above any Duty the ſame is or may by Law be ſubject to pay at Exportation by any Act: Provided always, That the ſaid Collector or chief Officer of the Cuſtoms, upon receiving ſuch Premium from the Exporter of ſuch Hemp as aforeſaid, ſhall charge himſelf with the Money ſo received, or with the ſaid Premium, and the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms are to take particular Care that the ſame be duly brought to the Account of his Majeſty by ſuch Collector or chief Officer as aforeſaid.

on Penalty of forfeiting such Hemp, and double the value thereof.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, their Agents or Assigns, shall be found fraudulently to export such Hemp without paying such Premium to the Collector or chief Officer of the Customs in Manner aforesaid, such Person or Persons shall forfeit and lose all such Hemp, and double the Value thereof; one Moiety whereof shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Informer or Prosecutor, to be prosecuted in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, respectively, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed.

In case of Dispute whether the Hemp be the Produce of Ireland, the Onus probandi to lie on the Owner.

IX. Provided always, That if any Doubt or Dispute shall arise whether the Hemp, or any Part thereof, so to be exported, is of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of Ireland, or of foreign Growth, Product, or Manufacture, the Onus probandi shall lie on the Owner or Claimer thereof, and not on the Informer or Prosecutor; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Penalty on importing foreign Hemp as Irish Hemp, and demanding a Premium for the same.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Master or Owner of any Ship or Vessel shall clandestinely import or receive in such Ship or Vessel, to be imported into Great Britain, any Hemp, knowing the same to be foreign Hemp, and shall demand or receive for any such foreign Hemp the Reward or Premium hereby granted, such Master or Owner shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be sued for and recovered in Manner as aforesaid; and the Ship or Vessel in which such foreign Hemp shall be so fraudulently imported, with all her Guns, Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture, shall be forfeited to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

CAP. XXXVIII.

An Act for altering the Times of holding the Martinmas and Candlemas Terms in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Terms of Martinmas and Candlemas, as they are at present kept, for the sitting 'of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, have been found inconvenient: And whereas it would 'be more convenient for the Subjects of Scotland that the said Terms were altered;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, Martinmas Term, in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, to begin Nov. 24, and end Dec. 20; and Candlemas Term to begin Jan. 15, and end Feb. 3.

That Martinmas Term, for the said Court of Exchequer, shall, at all Times hereafter, begin on the twenty-fourth Day of November, and end upon the twentieth Day of December; and that Candlemas Term, for the said Court, shall, at all Times hereafter, begin on the fifteenth Day of January, and end on the third Day of February; except any of the said Days, upon which the said Terms are appointed to begin or end, shall happen to be a Sunday, in which Case the Beginning or Ending of such Term in which that happens shall be upon the Day following.

CAP. XXXIX.

An Act for paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting, the Town and Borough of Burton upon Trent, in the County of Stafford; and for removing and preventing Obstructions and Annoyances therein.

CAP. XL.

An Act for better securing the Duties on Starch.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS, notwithstanding the many Laws made for securing the Revenues on Starch, and for 'protecting the fair Trader, many gross Frauds are daily practised by evil-minded and indigent 'Persons, who are encouraged in such Practices, not only from the great Length of Time allowed by those 'Laws for the Payment of the Duties on Starch, but also for want of some further Regulations in the 'Manner of carrying on the Starch-making Business; for Remedy whereof,' be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, no Person or Persons whatsoever, residing within the Limits of the Head Office of Excise in London, shall be permitted to make Entry of any Workhouse or Place for the making of Starch, as required by the Statutes in that Case already made and provided, unless such Person or Persons shall occupy a Tenement or Tenements of the yearly Value of ten Pounds, or upwards, and for which he, she, or they shall accordingly be assessed in thir own Name, and shall also pay to the Parish Rates; and that no Person or Persons whatsoever, residing in any other Part of the Kingdom where there are Rates to Church and Poor, shall be permitted to make any such Entry, unless such Person or Persons shall be assessed and pay to Church and Poor, in the several Parishes and Places in which they shall respectively reside; and that no Entry of any Workhouse or Place for making of Starch, already made or hereafter to be made as required by the Statutes in that Case made and provided, shall be of any Avail to any Person or Persons not so qualified, or for any longer Time than the Person or Persons so making Entry shall be qualified as aforesaid; and every Person making Starch, and not qualified as aforesaid, shall, notwithstanding any Entry by him or them made, be deemed and taken to be Persons making Starch without Entry, and shall be subject to the like Penalties and Forfeitures as Persons making Starch without Entry are, by the Statutes in such Case made and provided, now subject unto.

After July 5, 1779, no Person, within the Limits of the Excise Office in London, shall make Entry of any Workhouse for making Starch, unless he shall occupy a Tenement of 10l. a Year, and pay Parish Rates; and no Person, in any other Part of the Kingdom, shall make such Entry, unless he shall pay to Church and Poor.

Recital of an Act 10 Annæ.

'II. And whereas, by an Act passed in the tenth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne '(intituled, An Act for laying additional Duties on Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, and new Duties 'on Starch, Coffee, Tea, Drugs, Gilt and Silver Wire, and Policies of Insurance, to secure a yearly Fund for

'Satisfaction

'Satisfaction of Orders to the Contributors of a further Sum of one million eight hundred thouſand Pounds towards her Majeſty's Supply; and for the better ſecuring the Duties on Candles; and for obtaining Doubts concerning certain Payments in Scotland; and for ſuppreſſing unlawful Lotteries, and other Devices of the ſame Kind; and concerning Cake-ſoap; and for Relief of Mary Ravenall, in relation to an Annuity of eighteen Pounds per Annum; and concerning Prize Cocoa-nuts brought from America; and certain Tickets which were intended to be ſubſcribed into the Stock of the South Sea Company; and for appropriating the Monies granted in this Seſſion of Parliament); it was, amongſt other Things, enacted, That all and every Perſon and Perſons whatſoever, who ſhould make any Starch in London, Weſtminſter, or in any Parts within the weekly Bills of Mortality, ſhould monthly, and every Month; and all and every Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, who ſhould make any Starch in any other Part of Great Britain, ſhould, once in every ſix Weeks, make a true Entry in Writing, at the next Office for the ſaid Duties, of all the Starch by him, her, or them, ſeverally made within ſuch Month, or ſix Weeks, reſpectively; which Entries were to be made in Manner as is therein expreſſed: And it was further enacted by the ſaid Act, That all and every Perſon, who ſhould make any Starch in London or Weſtminſter, or within the Limits of the ſaid weekly Bills of Mortality, ſhould, within four Weeks; and all and every Perſon whatſoever, who ſhould make any any Starch in any other Parts of Great Britain, ſhould, within ſix Weeks, after he, ſhe, or they, ſhould have made, or ought to have made, ſuch Entry as aforeſaid, pay and clear off all the ſaid Duties upon Starch, which ſhould be due from him, her, or them reſpectively; and that all and every ſuch Makers of Starch, who ſhould refuſe or neglect to make ſuch Payment as aforeſaid, ſhould forfeit and loſe, for every ſuch Offence, Double the Sum of the ſaid Duty: And whereas the Allowance of ſo long a Time for the making of the Entries, and for the Payment of the Duties, as aforeſaid, hath been found prejudicial to the Revenue, and alſo to the fair Trader, as evil-minded and indigent Perſons have been encouraged thereby to make Starch, and have made Entry of the Starch by them made, but have neglected to pay the Duty when due, and before the Time that the Duty could be recovered have abſconded from their reſpective Dwelling-places, or by other Methods have evaded the Payment of the ſame,' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, the above-recited Clauſes, and every Article, Matter, and Thing, therein contained, ſhall be, and are hereby repealed, and made null and void; ſave only and except in all Caſes relating to the recovering any Arrears which may at that Time remain unpaid of the ſaid Duties, or to any Penalty or Forfeiture which ſhall have been incurred upon, or at any Time before, the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Certain Clauſes in the ſaid Act repealed.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, all and every Perſon whatſoever, who ſhall make any Starch, ſhall, weekly and every Week, make a true Entry in Writing, at the next Office for the Duties on Starch, of all the Starch by him, her, or them ſeverally made within each Week, which ſaid Entries ſhall contain the Weight of all the Starch mentioned therein reſpectively, and what Quantity thereof was made at each Making in that Week, on Pain to forfeit, for every Neglect, the Sum of fifty Pounds; which Entries ſhall be made upon Oath by the Maker of ſuch Starch, or by their Chief Workman or Servant employed in making the ſame, according to the beſt of their Knowledge and Belief, unleſs ſuch Maker, Workman, or Servant, be a known Quaker, and the ſolemn Affirmation of ſuch Maker, Workman, or Servant, to the ſame Effect, in caſe he or ſhe be a known Quaker, ſhall and may be taken inſtead of ſuch Oath; and the ſaid Entries, Oaths and Affirmations to verify the ſame, ſhall, for ſuch Starch as ſhall be made within the Limits of the Chief Office of Exciſe in London, be made with and adminiſtered by ſuch Officer or Officers as ſhall be appointed by the Commiſſioners for the Duties on Starch in England, or the major Part of them for the Time being; and for all Starch made in all other Parts of Great Britain, with and by the Collectors and Superviſors of the Diſtrict or Diviſion within which the reſpective Makers of Starch ſhall inhabit, without any Fee or Charge whatſoever to be taken or demanded for the ſame.

After July 5, 1779, Starch-makers to make Entries, on Oath, weekly, particulariſing the Quantity made at each making; on Penalty of 50 l.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon and Perſons whatſoever, who ſhall make any Starch in Great Britain, ſhall, within One Week after he, ſhe, or they, ſhall make, or ought to have made, ſuch Entry as aforeſaid, pay and clear off all the Duties for Starch which ſhall be due from him, her, or them, reſpectively; and that all and every ſuch Maker of Starch, who ſhall refuſe or neglect to make ſuch Payment as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit and loſe, for every ſuch Offence, Double the Sum of the ſaid Duty whereof the Payment ſhall be ſo refuſed or neglected; and that no ſuch Makers of Starch, after ſuch Default in Payment made, ſhall ſell, deliver, or carry out, any Starch, until he hath paid and cleared off his Duty, as aforeſaid, on Pain to forfeit Double the Value of ſuch Starch ſo delivered or carried out.

Starchmakers to pay the Duties within a Week after the Time of Entry, or forfeit double the Sum neglected to be paid.

V. Provided always, That no Maker of Starch ſhall be obliged to go or ſend farther than the Market-town where his or her Starch is made, or the next Market-town to the Place where his or her Starch is made, for the making ſuch Entries, or the Payment of the ſaid Duties.

'VI. And, for the better preventing the Frauds frequently committed by divers Makers of Starch, by emptying the Vat or Vats made uſe of for making of Starch in the Abſence of the Exciſe Officer,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, every Maker of Starch, before he, ſhe, or they, do begin to empty or waſh out any of the Vat or Vats, made uſe of by him, her, or them, in preparing or making of Starch, he, ſhe, or they, ſhall give to the Officer of Exciſe of the Diviſion or Diſtrict where his, her, or their Starch-houſe is ſituate, twelve Hours Notice, if ſuch Starch-houſe ſhall be within the Limits of the Chief Office of Exciſe in London; or if ſuch Starch-houſe ſhall be in any other Part of Great Britain, twenty-four Hours Notice of the particular Time and Hour when and at which he, ſhe, or they, intend to begin to empty or waſh out ſuch such Vat or Vats; and in case such Maker or Makers of Starch shall not begin to empty or wash out the said Vat or Vats, at the Hour and Times mentioned in such Notice, or within two Hours next after, then every such Notice shall be, and is hereby declared to be, void, and every such Maker and Makers of Starch shall, and is hereby obliged to give a fresh and like Notice in Manner aforesaid: And in case any such Maker or Makers of Starch shall neglect or refuse to give such first Notice before he begins to empty or wash out his, her, or their Vat or Vats, or to insert in such Notice the Particulars herein-before required, or to give a fresh Notice in Manner aforesaid, before he begins to empty or wash out the Vat or Vats, in case he, she, or they, shall not begin and proceed to empty or wash out the said Vat or Vats at the Hour and Time mentioned in the said first Notice, or within two Hours next afterward, such Maker or Makers of Starch shall, in every such Case, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

on Forfeiture of 100 l.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when and so soon as the said Vat or Vats shall be so emptied or washed out as aforesaid, and the Waters shall be put into the Frames, Tubs, or other Utensils, used for preparing and making the same into Starch, the said Waters shall remain unmoved and undisturbed in the same Frames, Tubs, or Utensils, for the Space of forty-eight Hours, at least, from the Time of emptying and washing out the said Vat or Vats, agreeable to the said Notice, and that the Slimes and Wash shall not, during the said Space of forty-eight Hours, be taken off the same: And that the Officers for the Duties upon Starch may be able to ascertain when the said Waters were so put into the said Frames, Tubs, or Utensils, after the said Vat or Vats have been emptied or washed out, as aforesaid, every Maker of Starch shall give, or cause to be given, to the Officer of Excise under whose Survey such Maker of Starch shall then be, a Notice in Writing, specifying therein the particular Hour or Time of the Day when such Maker of Starch did finish the emptying or washing out of each and every Vat and Vats; and if any Maker or Makers of Starch shall, after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, neglect to deliver such Notice as last aforesaid, he, she, or they, shall, for every such Neglect, forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

After the Vats are emptied, the Waters shall remain in the Frames, &c. undisturbed for 48 Hours. Starchmaker to give the Officer a Notice in Writing specifying the Hour when each Vat was emptied; on Forfeiture of 100 l.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whenever any Maker or Makers of Starch shall be desirous to take off from the four Waters the Slimes or Wash so put into the Frames, Tubs, or Utensils, after the same shall have been and have remained unmoved and undisturbed for the Space of forty-eight Hours, as aforesaid, he, she, or they, shall give to the Officer of Excise of the Division or District where his, her, or their Starch-house is situate, twelve Hours Notice, if such Starch-house shall be within the Limits of the Chief Office of Excise in London, or if such Starch-house shall be in any other Part of Great Britain, twenty-four Hours Notice, of the particular Time and Hour when and at which he intends to take off such Slimes and Wash; and in case such Maker or Makers of Starch shall not begin and proceed to take off the Slimes and Wash as aforesaid at the Time and Hour mentioned in such Notice, or within Two Hours next after, then every such Notice shall be, and is hereby declared to be, void, and every such Maker and Makers of Starch shall be, and is hereby obliged to give a fresh and like Notice, in Manner aforesaid; and in case any such Maker or Makers of Starch shall neglect to give such first Notice before he begins to take off such Slimes or Wash, or to insert in such Notice the Particulars herein-before required, or to give a fresh Notice, in Manner aforesaid, before he begins to take off such Slimes or Wash, in case he, she, or they, shall not begin and proceed to take off such Slimes and Wash at the Hour and Time mentioned in the said first Notice, or within two Hours next afterwards, such Maker or Makers of Starch shall, in every such Case, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Starchmakers to give proper Notice to Officers before they take off the Slimes and Wash from the four Waters;

on Forfeiture of 200 l.

IX. And be it further enacted, That when the Slimes shall be taken off, as aforesaid, and the same shall be put into any Tub or Tubs, or other Utensil, the same shall remain in the same Tub or Tubs, or other Utensils, into which the same shall have been first put, for the Space of twenty-four Hours after the same shall have been so taken off; and if any Maker or Makers of Starch shall move or disturb the Waters after the same shall have been so emptied or washed out of the Vat or Vats into any Frame, Tub, or Utensil, or shall take off the Slimes or Wash during the Space of forty-eight Hours, as aforesaid, or shall move or disturb the Slimes after the same shall have been put into such Tub or Tubs, or other Utensil, during the Space of twenty-four Hours, as aforesaid, then, and in every such Case, such Maker and Makers of Starch shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

When the Slimes are put into a Tub, &c. they shall remain there 24 Hours. Starchmaker disturbing them during that Time, &c. shall forfeit 100 l.

'X. And, the better to prevent any Frauds by the secreting or concealing of Starch,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Officer or Officers for the said Duties upon Starch shall at any Time miss any Quantity or Quantities of Starch, of which an Account had been taken by Gauge, whilst the same was in the four Waters or Slimes, respectively, and before the said Starch has been put into the Boxes, and shall not, upon reasonable Demand, receive Satisfaction what is become of the same, then, and in every such Case, it shall and may be lawful for such Officer or Officers to charge the Maker of such Starch according to the Gauge taken of the same in the four Waters or Slimes, as aforesaid, respectively, and every such Maker shall pay the Duty so charged.

Duty on Starch to be paid according to the Gauge taken in the four Waters.

'XI. And, for the further securing the Duty on Starch,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, when any Maker or Makers of Starch shall give Notice of his Intention to box, as required by an Act, made in the fourth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second (intituled, An Act to prevent Frauds in the Revenue of Excise with respect to Starch, Coffee, Tea, and Chocolate), every such Maker of Starch shall, in each such Notice, express and declare the particular Frame, Tub, or other Utensil, from which he, she, or they, intend to box any Starch; and that when any such Maker or Makers of Starch shall begin to box such Starch, they shall proceed and continue to box the same until the whole Quantity of Starch in each such Frame, Tub, or other Utensil, shall be perfectly boxed; and if any Maker or Makers of Starch shall, at any Time after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, neglect to give Notice of his Intention to box his green Starch, or shall neglect to insert in every such Notice the particular Frame, Tub, or other Utensil, from which the Starch is intended to be Starchmakers to give Notice to Officers before they box their Starch, particularizing the Frame, Tub, &c. from which it is to be boxed; on Forfeiture of 200 l.

boxed as aforesaid, or shall not proceed or continue to box the whole Quantity of Starch in any such Frame, Tub, or other Utensil, after such Notice as aforesaid, every such Maker or Makers of Starch shall, in every such Case, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of two hundred Pounds; any Law, Custom, or Usage, notwithstanding.

Starchmaker to deliver to the Officer a Description of every Room, &c. by him used for making Starch, which shall be marked and numbered; on Forfeiture of 50l.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, every Maker of Starch shall deliver to the Officer who surveys his or their Starch-house an Account, in Writing, containing as well an exact Description of each and every Room and Place, by him, her, or them, made use of for the making, drying, or keeping of Starch, as also of each and every Vessel or Utensil by him, her, or them, made use of for the making of Starch, before he, she, or they, presume to use the same; all which said Rooms and Places, Vessels and Utensils, shall be marked and numbered by, or by the Direction of, the respective Surveyors or Supervisors of Excise who survey the respective Makers of Starch, to whom such Rooms and Places, Vessels and Utensils, respectively belong, at the Expence of such respective Makers; and if any such Maker of Starch shall make use of any Room or Place, Vessel or Utensil, for the making of Starch, without giving such Account as aforesaid, or before the same shall have been marked and numbered as aforesaid, or shall refuse to pay for the marking and numbering the same, he, she, or they shall, for every such Offence respectively, forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds.

When Starchmakers break any Pieces of Starch from their Boxes, they shall deliver a particular Account thereof to the Officer; on Forfeiture of 200l.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, whenever any Maker or Makers of Starch shall have broken the Starch from his, her, or their Boxes, he, she, or they, shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Officer of Excise under whose Survey such Maker of Starch shall then be, an Account, in Writing, of the true Number of Pieces broken from such Box, distinguishing, in such Writing, the Size of the different Pieces, under the different Denominations following; that is to say, Large, Middling, and Small, and how many Pieces of each Denomination are contained in each Breaking from the Boxes: And in case any such Maker of Starch shall neglect to deliver to such Officer such Account, in Writing, distinguishing therein as aforesaid; or if, after such Account given in as aforesaid, any Officer of Excise shall discover, in any Place whatsoever, entered or not entered, any Increase in the Number of Pieces, or a greater Number of the large or middling Pieces than were particularly specified in such Writing; then, and in every such Case, every such Maker and Makers of Starch shall, for each Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

When Starch is put into the Stove for drying, the Pieces to be so placed that the Officers may be able to count them.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, whenever any Maker or Makers of Starch shall put their Starch when scraped, or when put into the Papers, into the Stove or Stoves for drying the same, every such Maker of Starch shall place, or cause to be placed, the several Pieces of Starch so put into such Stove or Stoves, in such Manner as that the Officers of Excise may have Access to, and be able to count distinctly the Number of the several Pieces of Starch so put into such Stove or Stoves.

Starchmakers to provide Ladders, and assist the Officers in taking Account of the Pieces of Starch; and to do nothing to obstruct them therein; on Forfeiture of 200l.

'XV. And, that such Officers of Excise may, without Inconvenience or Hurt, be able to count the said 'Pieces in such Stove or Stoves,' it is hereby enacted, That, from and after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, every Maker of Starch shall provide proper Ladders, and shall assist the said Officers in taking an Account of the said several Pieces of Starch in such Stove or Stoves; and that no Maker or Makers of Starch shall, by himself, or by any other Person, during the Space of two Hours after such Officer shall have entered the Stove of any such Starch-maker, for the Purpose of counting the Number of Pieces of Starch then in such Stove, stir or break up the Fire under the said Stove, nor shall, during the said Space of two Hours, whilst such Officer remains in such Stove, throw, or cause to be thrown, upon the Pan of such Stove, any Dirt, Meal, or other Ingredient, whereby a Smoke may be raised, or the Officer hindered or obstructed in counting the Pieces of Starch in the said Stove: And if any such Maker or Makers of Starch shall not so place the several Pieces of Starch in their respective Stove or Stoves as aforesaid, as that the Officers of Excise may distinctly count the same; or if such Maker or Makers of Starch shall not provide proper Ladders, or shall not assist the said Officers in taking the Account as aforesaid; or shall, by stirring up the Fire, or by any Means whatsoever, hinder or obstruct the Officers of Excise from going into, and continuing in the said Stove or Stoves, during the Space of two Hours, as aforesaid, or until such Officer shall have taken the Account of all the said Pieces, if the same shall be done within the said Space of two Hours; then, and in every such Case, the Person offending therein shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Starchmaker to give proper Notice to Officer before he break down any Piece of Starch into Scrapings;

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, when any Maker or Makers of Starch shall be desirous to break down any Piece or Pieces of Starch into Scrapings, or otherwise, he, she, or they, shall give to the Officer of Excise of the Division or District where his, her, or their, Starch-house is situate, twelve Hours Notice, if such Starch-house shall be situate within the Limits of the Chief Office of Excise in London; or if such Starch-house shall be in any other Part of Great Britain, twenty-four Hours Notice of the particular Time and Hour when and at which he, she, or they intend to break down such Pieces of Starch into Scrapings, or otherwise; and in case such Maker or Makers of Starch shall not begin and proceed to break down such Pieces of Starch as aforesaid, at the Time and Hour mentioned in such Notice, or within two Hours next after, then every such Notice shall be, and is hereby declared to be, void; and every such Maker and Makers of Starch shall be, and is and are hereby obliged to give a fresh and like Notice in Manner aforesaid: And in case any such Maker or Makers of Starch shall neglect to give such first Notice, before he, she, or they, begin to break down such Pieces of Starch, or to insert in such Notice the Particulars herein-before required, or to give a fresh Notice in Manner aforesaid, every such Maker of Starch shall, in every such Case, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

on Forfeiture of 100l.

If Officer shall find, drying in the Stove, any

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, if any Officer for the Duties on Starch shall discover and and find, in the Stove or Stoves of any Maker of Starch, any Piece or Pieces of Starch drying in ſuch Stove or Stoves, of which no Account had been before taken in the Box or Boxes, by the Officer for the Duties on Starch, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, each and every ſuch Piece and Pieces of Starch ſhall be deemed, and is and are hereby declared to be, Starch of which no Account had been taken by the Officer for the ſaid Duties upon Starch; and the Maker or Makers of ſuch Starch, in whoſe Stove ſuch Piece or Pieces ſhall be ſo diſcovered and found, ſhall forfeit and loſe, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Piece of Starch of which no Account had been taken in the Box, the Maker ſhall forfeit 100 l.

Starchmaker mixing the Starch-waters of different Makings, while his Starch is under Water, ſhall forfeit 100 l. except it be done in Preſence of an Officer.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, if any Maker of Starch ſhall, at any Time whilſt his Starch is in Operation, and under Water, mix, or cauſe to be mixed, any of the Starch-waters of one Making with thoſe of another Making, every ſuch Maker of Starch ſhall forfeit and loſe, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of one hundred Pounds, except ſuch Mixing be made in the Preſence of an Officer for the Duties on Starch.

Starchmaker removing any Starch, after it is dried, out of his Stove, &c. before weighing, and an Account thereof taken by an Officer, ſhall forfeit 200 l.

'XIX. And whereas fraudulent Starch-makers have, in many Inſtances, been rather encouraged in carrying on their Frauds, by reaſon of the Smallneſs of the Penalties already provided in theſe Caſes; now, for the more effectual preventing the like Frauds,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if, after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, any Maker of Starch ſhall remove, or cauſe to be removed, any Quantity whatſoever of Starch, after the ſame ſhall be dried, out of his, her, or their Stove or Stoves, or out of any other Place or Places, made uſe of by them for the drying of Starch, before the ſame has been weighed, and an Account taken thereof, by the proper Officer appointed for that Purpoſe, he, ſhe, or they ſhall reſpectively forfeit and loſe, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of two hundred Pounds; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And concealing Starch, with Intent to defraud his Majeſty, ſhall forfeit 100 l.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, if any Maker of Starch ſhall fraudulently hide or conceal, or ſhall cauſe or ſuffer to be hid or concealed, any Starch, to the Intent to deceive his Majeſty of the juſt Duties chargeable on the ſame, that then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Party ſo offending ſhall forfeit and loſe the Sum of one hundred Pounds; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, notwithſtanding.

Starchmaker obſtructing Officer in performing his Duty, to forfeit 50 l.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, if any Maker of Starch ſhall obſtruct or hinder any of the Officers for the Duties upon Starch, in the Execution of any of the Powers and Authorities given to him or them by this or any other Act, for the aſcertaining and ſecuring the Duties upon Starch, the Perſon or Perſons offending therein ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and loſe the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered and applied.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, impoſed by this Act, ſhall be ſued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by ſuch Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, is or may be ſued for, recovered, or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Exciſe; or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, reſpectively; and that one Moiety of every ſuch Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them who ſhall diſcover, inform, or ſue for the ſame.

General Iſſue.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, at any Time or Times, be ſued, moleſted, or proſecuted, for any Thing by him or them done in purſuance or by Colour of this Act, or of any Matter or Thing in this Act contained, ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the ſpecial Matter, in Evidence in his or their Defence; and if afterwards a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall become nonſuited, or diſcontinue his, her, or their Action or Proſecution, or Judgment ſhall be given againſt him, her, or them, upon Demurrer or otherwiſe, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts.

Treble Coſts awarded to him or them againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

CAP. XLI.

An Act for granting a Drawback of the Duties, impoſed by an Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, upon all foreign Wines exported from Great Britain to any Britiſh Colony or Plantation in America, or to any Britiſh Settlement in the Eaſt Indies.

Preamble. Recital of an Act 18 Geo. III.

'WHEREAS, by an Act of Parliament, made in the eighteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty ſeveral additional Duties upon Wines and Vinegar imported into this Kingdom), it was amongſt other Things provided and enacted, That, upon the Exportation of any Sort of Wines (except French Wines) from this Kingdom to any Britiſh Colony or Plantation in America as Merchandize, the Exporter ſhould be paid and allowed a Drawback of all the before-mentioned Duties paid upon the Importation of ſuch Wine by virtue of the ſaid recited Act, except the Sum of three Pounds thirteen Shillings and Sixpence per Ton: And whereas, in order to promote and encourage the Exportation of Wines from this Kingdom to the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, and to the Britiſh Settlements in the Eaſt Indies, it is expedient to allow the Drawback of all the Duties granted by the ſaid recited Act upon the Exportation of all foreign Wines ſo exported to thoſe Places;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, upon the Exportation of any French Wine, or any other foreign Wines, from this Kingdom, to any Britiſh Colony or Plantation in America, or to any Britiſh Settlement in the Eaſt Indies, as Merchandize, the Exporter ſhall be paid and allowed a Drawback of all the Duties before mentioned, which were paid upon the Importation of ſuch Wine by virtue of the ſaid herein-before recited Act of Parliament, made in the eighteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign; any Thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding: Which Drawback or Allowance ſhall be made in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in all Reſpects, as any former Drawback or Allowance, payable out of the Duties of Cuſtoms upon the Exportation of ſuch Wine, was, could, or might be made, before the paſſing of this Act.

A Drawback of all the Duties laid, by the ſaid Act, on the Importation of foreign Wines, ſhall be allowed on the Exportation thereof to America, or the Eaſt Indies.

CAP. XLII.

An Act to enable the Truſtees for putting in Execution an Act of the ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for building a Bridge at Worceſter over the River Severn, and for opening convenient Avenues to the ſaid Bridge, to finiſh and complete the ſaid Bridge, and to carry the Purpoſes of the ſaid Act into Execution.

CAP. XLIII.

An Act for the more eaſy and ſpeedy Recovery of Small Debts within the Soake of Horncaſtle, and Wapentakes of Wraggoe and Gartree (except the Pariſh of Great Sturton), and within the Wapentakes of Louth Eſke, Ludborough, and Calceworth, and Pariſhes of Wrangle, Leake, Leverton, Benington, Butterwick, Frieſton, and Fiſhtoft, in the Hundred of Skirbeck, in the County of Lincoln.

Preamble.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every Person and Persons whomsoever, who now hath or have, or hereafter shall or may have, any Debt or Debts, not amounting to the Sum of forty Shillings, due or owing to him, her, or them, in his, her, or their own Right, or as Executor, Administrator, Assignee, Guardian, or Trustee, by or from any other Person or Persons whomsoever, inhabiting or residing within the Soake of Horncastle, and Wapentakes of Wraggoe, Gartree, Louth Eske, Ludborough, and Calceworth, and Parishes of Wrangle, Leake, Leverton, Benington, Butterwick, Freiston, and Fishtoft aforesaid, or any of them, or any Part thereof (except within the Parish of Great Sturton, in the Wapentake of Gartree aforesaid), or trading and dealing, or seeking a Livelihood therein, to apply to any of the Clerks of the said Court, or either or any of their Deputy or Deputies for the Time being; who shall immediately make an Entry in his Book of the Cause, expressing the Names of the Parties, and the Sum demanded; and shall thereupon make out and deliver a Summons in Writing, under his Hand, directed to such Debtor or Debtors, expressing the Sum demanded of him, her, or them, and the Name or Names of such Party or Parties demanding the same, thereby requiring and commanding such Debtor or Debtors to appear, at a certain Time and Place, before the Commissioners of the said Court, to answer such Demand; and the Serjeant or Serjeants of the said Court, or any of them, shall forthwith serve, or cause such Summons to be served on such Debtor or Debtors, either personally, or by leaving the same at the Dwelling-house or Place of Abode, Lodging, Shop, Shed, Stall, Stand, or other Place of dealing or working of such Debtor or Debtors, within the Soake, Wapentakes, and Parishes aforesaid; and the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall, upon Proof made of the Service of such Summons, have full Power and Authority, by virtue of this Act, to make due Enquiry concerning such Demands, and to pronounce and give such final Sentence or Judgment, and to make such interlocutory or final Orders and Decrees therein, as to them shall seem most just and equitable.

How officers are to proceed.

Commissioners may regulate Proceedings;

X. And, for the better regulating the Proceedings of the said Court, and rendering this Act effectual for the Purposes thereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for the Time being, or any three or more of them, being a Majority of the Commissioners assembled in Court as aforesaid, shall have full Power and Authority, by virtue of this Act, from Time to Time, and as often as they shall see Occasion, at any of the said Courts, to make such Rules or Orders, for the better regulating of the Practice of the said Court as to them shall seem necessary, and conducive to the Purposes of this Act, so as they shall be consistent with Equity, and do not tend to lessen, abridge, or alter, the Fees herein-after allowed by this Act to be taken by the respective Clerks and Serjeants, or Officers, of the said Court of Requests for the Time being, or to the Exercise of any Jurisdiction inconsistent with the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and do relate to the Process, Practice, and Method of Proceeding of and in the said Court only; according to which Rules and Orders, so from Time to Time to be made, the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall have full Power and Authority, by virtue of this Act, to proceed upon, and to hear and determine all Matters of Debt, not amounting to the said Sum of forty Shillings, which shall be brought before them by virtue of this Act, and to make and pronounce such Judgments and Decrees concerning the same, and the Costs of Suit, as to them shall seem agreeable to Equity and good Conscience.

and administer Oaths.

XI. And, for the better Discovery of the Truth, and for the more solemn Determination of all the Causes and Matters which shall be depending in the said Courts, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, assembled in Court, and they are hereby impowered, to administer, or cause to be administered, an Oath to the Party or Parties, Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Defendant or Defendants, and also to such Witness or Witnesses as shall be produced by either Party, and also to the Officers of the Court, and to any Person or Persons whomsoever whose Evidence shall, to the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them assembled at the said Court, appear necessary.

On Non appearance of Defendant, the Court may proceed ex parte;

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Debtor or Debtors, who shall have been duly summoned as aforesaid, shall, without some good Cause, to be allowed by the Court, refuse or neglect to appear in the said Court at the Time and Place mentioned in the said Summons, then it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, upon Proof being made upon Oath of the Service of the said Summons in Manner before directed, to proceed to hear the Cause on the Part of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs only, and to make such Order, Decree, or Judgment therein, and to award such Costs as to them shall seem meet.

And on Non-appearance or Nonsuit of Plaintiff, may award Costs.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if upon the Day of the Return of the Summons, or at any Continuation or Adjournment of the said Court, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall not appear, or appearing, shall not make Proof of his, her, or their Debt or Demand, to the Satisfaction of the said Court, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, to award to the Defendant or Defendants reasonable Costs, and to order and compel the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs to pay the same, by such Ways and Means as are herein provided for the enforcing of the Payment of Debts and Costs ordered and decreed to be paid by the said Court.

Commissioners may award Execution;

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in any Case where the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall have made any Order or Decree for the Payment of Money, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, at their Discretion, to award Execution either against the Body or Bodies, or Goods, of the said Party or Parties against whom such Order or Decree shall be made; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Clerk or Clerks of the said Court, at the Request of the Party or Parties prosecuting such Order or Decree, to issue a Precept, under his Hand and Seal, to the respective Serjeant or Serjeants of the said Court; who, by virtue of any such Precept issued upon the Execution awarded against the Body or Bodies of such Party or Parties, shall and may, and is and are hereby respectively impowered and required to take and apprehend, or cause to be taken and apprehended, such Party or Parties, being within the Soake, Wapentakes, and Parishes of Wrangle, Leake, Leverton, Benington, Butterwick, Freiston, and Fishtoft aforesaid, or any of them (except the Parish of Great Sturton aforesaid), and to convey him, her, or them, to some Common Gaol or House of Correction within the said County of Lincoln, there to remain until he, she, or they shall perform and obey such Order, Decree, or Judgment, so as no Person shall remain in Confinement upon any such Execution for any longer Space of Time than three Calendar Months; and such Serjeant or Serjeants, by virtue of any such Precept, issued upon the Execution awarded against the Goods of any such Party or Parties, shall and may, and is and are hereby impowered to levy, by Distress and Sale of the Goods of such Party or Parties being within the Soake, Wapentakes, and Parishes aforesaid, or any of them, such Sum and Sums of Money, and Costs, as shall be so ordered and decreed; and if the Party or Parties against whose Body or Bodies, or Goods, such Execution shall be awarded, and such Process shall issue thereupon, shall, by absconding, or by secreting or removing his, her, or their Goods, or conveying away the same by Bill of Sale, or by any other Means whatsoever, prevent or evade the Service or Effect of any Execution, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, upon due Proof thereof made to them by the Oath or Oaths of such Serjeant or Serjeants, or of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, at their Discretion, to award Execution either against the Body or Bodies, or Goods, of such Party or Parties, wheresoever the same Goods may be, and Process shall issue thereupon, and be executed by the respective Serjeants in Manner aforesaid, until the Party or Parties, at whose Suit such Execution shall be issued, shall be fully paid and satisfied.

and commit the Party.

Court may order Debts to be paid at several Times.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall, at any Time, upon the Request and for the Ease and Convenience of the Defendant or Defendants, order and decree the Debt due to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs to be paid at several Payments, then upon the Default or Failure of any of the said Payments so ordered and decreed, the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, assembled in Court, shall and may, at the Instance of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, and upon due Proof of the said Default or Failure, award Execution for the whole Debt, or such Part thereof as shall then remain unpaid, together with such further Costs as to them shall seem reasonable, to be recovered by the same Process and in like Manner as is herein-before provided for Recovery of the Debt and Costs first decreed; the former Order or Decree to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

On Execution, Clerk to indorse the Debt and Costs.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Precept to be issued, upon any Execution awarded against the Body or Bodies, or Goods, of any Person or Persons whomsoever, the Clerk or Clerks who shall issue the same shall express and set down in Writing the Sum or Sums of Money, and Costs, so ordered and decreed to be paid; and if the Party or Parties against whom such Execution shall be be awarded, ſhall, before any actual Sale of his, her, or their Goods, or before he, ſhe, or they, is, are, or ſhall be taken and apprehended, or before the Expiration of the Term of his, her, or their Impriſonment, pay, or cauſe to be paid, or tendered, unto the Clerk or Clerks of the Court, who ſhall iſſue ſuch Precept, ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, and Coſts, together with one Shilling, as a Reward for his or their Trouble in receiving and paying over ſuch reſpective Debts and Coſts to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, and entering Acknowledgment of Satisfaction, in the Book or Regiſter of the ſaid Court, for ſuch Debt and Coſts, and alſo the Sum of two Shillings and Sixpence for Gaol Fees, in caſe ſuch Party or Parties ſhall have been committed to Priſon, then and in ſuch Caſe and Caſes the Execution ſhall be ſuperſeded, and the Body or Bodies, and Goods, of ſuch Party or Parties, ſhall be diſcharged and ſet at Liberty. In what Caſes the Execution ſhall be ſuperſeded.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the Serjeant or Serjeants of the ſaid Court, who ſhall be employed to ſerve or levy any Execution, ſhall, by wilful Connivance or Neglect, cauſe or ſuffer the Party or Parties, againſt whom ſuch Execution ſhall be awarded, to eſcape or abſcond, or the Goods of ſuch Party or Parties to be carried away or ſecreted, ſo as ſuch Execution ſhall not have its due Effect, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, aſſembled in Court, upon Complaint, and due Proof made upon the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, to order ſuch Serjeant or Serjeants to pay the Sum or Sums of Money, for which the ſaid Execution was awarded, to the Party or Parties complaining, and to enforce the Payment thereof by the ſame Method and Means as are herein-before provided for the Payment of other Debts. Serjeants ſuffering an Eſcape, or Goods to be removed, to pay Debt and Coſts.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon ſhall be capable of acting as a Commiſſioner in the Execution of this Act, until he ſhall have taken an Oath, or (being of the People called Quakers) made an Affirmation, to the following Effect; (that is to ſay) Commiſſioners to be ſworn.

'I A. B. do ſwear [or affirm], That I will faithfully, impartially, and honeſtly, according to the beſt of my Judgment hear and determine all ſuch Matters and Cauſes as ſhall be brought before me by virtue of an Act of Parliament for the more eaſy and ſpeedy Recovery of Small Debts within the Soake of Horncaſtle, and Wapentakes of Wraggoe and Gartree (except the Pariſh of Great Sturton), and within the Wapentakes of Louth Eſke, Ludborough and Calceworth, and Pariſhes of Wrangle, Leake, Leverton, Benington, Butterwick, Freiſton, and Fiſhtoft, in the County of Lincoln, without Favour or Affection, Prejudice or Malice to either Party. The Oath.

'So help me GOD.'

Which Oath the reſpective Clerk or Clerks of the ſaid Court, or any of the Commiſſioners who ſhall have taken ſuch Oath, is and are hereby impowered and required to adminiſter in open Court; and the ſaid reſpective Clerk or Clerks of the ſaid Court ſhall enter, or cauſe a Memorial thereof to be entered, in the Regiſter of the ſaid Court where the ſame ſhall be taken. Memorial thereof to be regiſtered.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That no Attorney at Law, or Solicitor of any Court whatſoever, ſhall be allowed to plead or maintain any Privilege againſt the Proceſs, Authority, Juriſdiction or Judgment of the ſaid Court of Requeſts, or be admitted to appear in the ſaid Court as an Attorney or Advocate in Behalf of any Plaintiff or Defendant. No Attorney or Solicitor to plead or have Privilege in the Court of Requeſts.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Fees herein-after limited and expreſſed, and no other, ſhall be taken by the reſpective Clerk or Clerks, Serjeant or Serjeants, or their Succeſſors, for their ſeveral and reſpective Services in the Execution of this Act; (that is to ſay) Fees to be taken by Officers.

A Table of which Fees ſhall from Time to Time be fixed up by the reſpective Clerk or Clerks of the ſaid Court, in ſome conſpicuous Part or Parts of the reſpective Court-houſes or Places where the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall meet, ſo that all Perſons concerned may ſee and examine the ſame.

Coſts in no Caſe to exceed 15 s.

XXI. Provided always, That no Coſts to be given, awarded, or allowed by the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall in any Caſe whatſoever exceed the Sum of fifteen Shillings.

Penalty on taking greater Fees.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the reſpective Clerk or Clerks, Serjeant or Serjeants, of the ſaid Court for the Time being, ſhall take or demand any greater or other Fees or Reward than what are herein-before mentioned, for his or their Service in the Execution of this Act, he and they ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay ſuch Fine (not exceeding the Sum of forty Shillings, nor leſs than ten Shillings) as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Seven or more of them, ſhall aſſeſs and impoſe, to be applied to the Uſe of the Poor of the Town or Pariſh where the Offence ſhall be committed.

Clerks and Serjeants may be diſplaced.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the reſpective Clerk or Clerks, Serjeant or Serjeants, appointed or to be appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall be guilty of any Miſbehaviour, either by Neglect or Breach of Duty, or in taking greater Fees than before mentioned, or otherwiſe, in the Execution of their reſpective Offices, that then upon Complaint, and due Proof thereof made upon Oath, in open Court, the Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them then ſitting, are hereby directed and required to cauſe the whole Number of Commiſſioners to be ſummoned, by an Advertiſement to be inſerted in ſome public Newſpaper uſually circulated within the ſaid Soake, Wapentakes, and Pariſhes, to meet at a convenient Time and Place; and the Commiſſioners then preſent, not being leſs than eleven in Number, ſhall and may examine and conſider the Merits of ſuch Complaint; and if it ſhall appear to ſuch Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, that any of the reſpective Clerk or Clerks, Serjeant or Serjeants, have been guilty of ſuch Miſbehaviour or Breach of Duty as aforeſaid, in his or their reſpective Office or Offices, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them then aſſembled, to diſmiſs or remove ſuch Clerk or Clerks, Serjeant or Serjeants, from his or their ſaid Office or Offices, and to nominate and appoint any other fit and proper Perſon or Perſons to execute the ſaid Office or Offices of Clerk or Clerks, Serjeant or Serjeants, in the Room and Place of him or them ſo diſmiſſed and removed as aforeſaid.

No Commiſſioner, &c. to act where intereſted.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Commiſſioner of the ſaid Court for the Time being ſhall be Party to, or intereſted in, any Cauſe depending in the ſaid Court, ſuch Perſon ſhall not be capable of acting as a Commiſſioner in the hearing and determining ſuch Cauſe, or making any Order, Decree, or Judgment therein, but after being heard in the ſaid Cauſe, ſhall withdraw from the ſaid Court until the ſame is finally determined; and if the reſpective Clerk or Clerks, Serjeant or Serjeants, of the ſaid Court for the Time being, ſhall be a Party to, or intereſted in, any Cauſe depending in the ſaid Court, ſuch Clerk or Clerks, Serjeant or Serjeants, ſhall not exerciſe his or their Office in the ſaid Cauſe, or in any Thing relating thereto; but the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, aſſembled at ſuch Court, ſhall and may depute and appoint ſome other Perſon or Perſons to exerciſe the ſaid Office of Clerk or Clerks, Serjeant or Serjeants, reſpectively, in his or their Place or Stead, in all Things relative to ſuch Cauſe.

Penalty on inſulting the Court.

XXV. And, for the better enforcing the Orders and Decrees from Time to Time to be made by the ſaid Commiſſioners, and that the Commiſſioners, and the Clerks and Officers of the ſaid Court, may be inveſted with proper Power and Authority, and be free and exempt from Inſult and Abuſe; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall affront, inſult, or abuſe, all or any of the Commiſſioners, Clerks, or Officers of the ſaid Court for the Time being, during their ſitting in the ſaid Court, or in going to, or returning from the ſame; or ſhall interrupt the Proceedings of the ſaid Court; or at any Time ſhall affront, inſult, or abuſe, hinder, obſtruct, or attempt or threaten to hinder or obſtruct, any of the Clerks or Serjeants in the lawful Execution of his or their reſpective Office or Offices, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, then ſitting, or if not then ſitting, at the next Court to be held in or near the Town where ſuch Inſult or Miſdemeanor ſhall be committed, to cauſe a Warrant to be iſſued by the Clerk or Clerks of the ſaid Court, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, directing ſuch Serjeant or Serjeants to apprehend and take, or cauſe ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo offending as aforeſaid to be apprehended and taken, before three or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners; and, upon the Fact alleged being proved by the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby impowered and directed to puniſh ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo offending as aforeſaid, by Fine, not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings, nor leſs than Five Shillings, which ſhall be immediately paid into the Hands of the ſaid Commiſſioners before whom ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall be convicted, and be paid and applied in like Manner as the Fines herein-before mentioned are directed to be applied; and if the ſaid Offender or Offenders ſhall not pay the ſaid Fine in Manner aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to cauſe the ſame to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender or Offenders Goods, or to commit ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo offending as aforeſaid to ſome Common Gaol or Houſe of Correction in the ſaid County of Lincoln, there to remain for any Space of Time not exceeding three Calendar Months, or until he, ſhe, or they ſhall pay the ſaid Fine.

Copy of the laſt preceding Clauſe to be ſtuck up in the Court houſe.

XXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the reſpective Clerks of the ſaid Court ſhall fix, or cauſe to be fixed up, in ſome public Part of each of the ſaid Court-houſes, houſes, or other Places where the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall meet, a true Copy of the laſt preceding Clauſe of this Act, to the End that no Perſon or Perſons ſhall or may plead ignorance thereof.

Gaolers, &c. to receive and detain Perſons committed.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Keeper and Keepers, for the Time being, of the reſpective Common Gaols or Houſes of Correction within the ſaid County of Lincoln, ſhall and may, and he and they is and are hereby required and commanded to receive and take into his and their Cuſtody, all and every Perſon and Perſons who ſhall be committed, or ordered to ſtand committed, by any three or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners preſent in Court, or by virtue of any Warrant, Attachment, Execution, or other Proceſs iſſuing out of the ſaid Court of Requeſts: And in caſe the Keeper or Keepers of the ſaid Gaols or Houſes of Correction, or any of them, ſhall neglect or refuſe to receive and take into his and their Cuſtody, any Perſon or Perſons committed by virtue of this Act, or, before the Expiration of the Time for which any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſo committed to his or their Cuſtody, ſhall diſcharge ſuch Perſon or Perſons, or wilfully permit and ſuffer ſuch Perſon or Perſons to go at large, without a Warrant, Order, or Authority, for that Purpoſe, in Writing, ſigned in Court by three or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, every Keeper offending in any of the Caſes aforeſaid, and being thereof convicted before the Commiſſioners ſitting at any of the ſaid Places where the ſaid Court is herein-before directed to be held, upon the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, or on his or their own Confeſſion, ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, any Sum not exceeding five Pounds, nor leſs than forty Shillings, at the Diſcretion of ſuch Commiſſioners; and ſuch Sum ſhall be immediately paid by the Perſon or Perſons ſo offending, into the Hands of the Clerk or Clerks of the ſaid Court for the Time being, before whom he or they ſhall be convicted, or in Default thereof, ſhall and may be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any three or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, in Court aſſembled; which Sum, when paid or levied, ſhall be applied in like Manner as the Fines herein-before mentioned are directed to be paid and applied.

Penalty on Neglect thereof.

No Action for Debt, recoverable by this Act, to be brought in any other Court: Except Courts Baron, &c.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Action or Suit for any Debt not amounting to the Sum of forty Shillings, and recoverable by virtue of this Act in the ſaid Court of Requeſts, ſhall be brought againſt any Perſon or Perſons reſiding or inhabiting within the Juriſdiction thereof, in any of the King's Courts at Weſtminſter, or any other Courts whatſoever (except in all ſuch Courts Baron for holding Pleas of Debt, within the ſaid Soake and Wapentakes, and Pariſhes of Wrangle, Leake, Leverton, Benington, Butterwick, Freiſton, and Fiſhteſt, as have heretofore been held for the Recovery of Debts under forty Shillings), or elſewhere out of the ſaid Court of Requeſts; and no Suit that ſhall be commenced in the ſaid Court of Requeſts in purſuance of this Act, nor any Proceedings therein, ſhall or may be removed into any ſuperior Court; but the Judgments, Decrees, and Proceedings of the ſaid Court ſhall be final and concluſive, to all Intents and Purpoſes.

To what Debts this Act ſhall not extend.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, ſhall not extend to any Debt for Rent upon any Leaſe or Contract where the Title of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, can or may come in queſtion, or in or upon any other real Contract; nor to any Debt that ſhall ariſe upon or by reaſon of any Cauſe concerning any laſt Will or Teſtament, or Matrimony, or any Thing properly belonging to the Eccleſiaſtical Courts; nor to any Debt for Money won at or by Means of any Horſe-race, Cock-match, Wager, or any Kind of Gaming or Play; or for any Forfeiture upon any penal Statute; nor to any Debt whereof there hath not been a Contract, Acknowledgment, Undertaking, or Promiſe to pay, within ſix Years before the taking out of the Summons for the ſame, although ſuch Debt ſhall not amount to forty Shillings.

Penalty on wilful Perjury.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons, making Oath or giving Evidence in any Cauſe or Matter whatſoever depending in the ſaid Court of Requeſts, ſhall commit wilful and corrupt Perjury, and be thereof duly convicted according to Law, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall incur and ſuffer the like Pains and Penalties as any other Perſon or Perſons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury is or are liable to, or ſhall be ſubject to, by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm.

Penalty on not obeying a Subpœna.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Perſon reſiding within the Soake and Wapentakes, and Pariſhes of Wrangle, Leake, Leverton, Benington, Butterwick, Freiſton, and Fiſhteſt aforeſaid, or either or any of them (except within the Pariſh of Great Sturton aforeſaid), who ſhall be duly ſerved with a Subpœna or Summons to be iſſued out of the ſaid Court of Requeſts, to give Evidence on Behalf of any Plaintiff or Defendant, ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear, purſuant to ſuch Subpœna or Summons, at the Time and Place therein mentioned, and due Proof ſhall be made of the Service of ſuch Subpœna or Summons, and no Cauſe of Abſence be ſhewn or aſſigned, to the Satisfaction of the Commiſſioners preſent at the Court to which ſuch Perſon ſhall be by ſuch Subpœna or Summons required to appear, and Oath ſhall be made before the ſaid Commiſſioners, by the Party at whoſe Inſtance and on whoſe Behalf ſuch Subpœna or Summons iſſued, that the Perſon ſerved therewith was according to the beſt of his, her, or their Judgment and Belief, a material Witneſs for ſuch Party, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, aſſembled in ſuch Court, to impoſe and lay a Fine not exceeding fifty Shillings, nor leſs than five Shillings, to be levied (if not immediately paid on Demand) by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them; which Fine, when paid or levied, ſhall be paid over to the Party at whoſe Inſtance ſuch Subpœna or Summons iſſued.

Reſervation of the Rights of all Courts Baron for the Soake, Wapentakes, and Pariſhes.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall not extend to alter, change, take away, or annul, any of the Courts Baron for holding Pleas of Debt, or any other Manerial Rights, Privileges, Franchiſes, and Juriſdictions, belonging to any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, as Lord or Lords, Lady or Ladies, of the ſeveral and reſpective Manors within the ſaid Soake of Horncaſtle, and Wapentakes of Wraggoe, Gartree, Louth Eſke, Ludborough, and Calceworth, and Pariſhes of Wrangle, Leake, Leverton, Benington, Butterwick, Freiſton, and Fiſhtoft; but that the ſame ſhall be, remain, and continue in as full and ample Power, Juriſdiction, and Authority, as if this Act had never never been made, and shall not be, or be deemed to be, altered, lessened, or affected thereby; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

This Act shall not affect the Boston Small Debts Act.

XXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prejudice, obstruct, prevent, or defeat the Execution of an Act, made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the more easy and speedy Recovery of Small Debts within the Borough of Boston and Skirbeck Quarter, and the Parishes of Boston and Skirbeck, in the County of Lincoln, or in any Manner whatsoever to interfere with, lessen, or alter the Jurisdiction of the Court of Requests for the Borough of Boston, Shirbeck Quarter, and Parishes of Boston and Shirbeck, by the said Act constituted, or to impower the Commissioners, acting by virtue of this Act, to intermeddle with, or to invalidate, lessen, alter, or take away, any of the Rights, Powers, or Authorities which by the said Act were vested in all or any of the Commissioners acting under the said Act; but that the same shall be and continue as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act had never been made; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

This Act not to extend to the Parish of Great Sturton.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Parish of Great Sturton, in the Wapentake of Gartree, shall not be deemed to be within or Part of the Wapentake of Gartree aforesaid, with respect to any Provisions or Powers contained in this Act; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary hereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Limitation of Actions.

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons, for any Matter or Thing done, or omitted to be done, in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced within three Calendar Months next after the Cause of Action shall arise, and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County of Lincoln, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereon; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, or discontinue such Action or Suit, or if upon a Verdict or Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover Treble Costs, and have such Remedies for the same as any Defendant or Defendants can or may have in other Cases where Costs are given by Law.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

Public Act.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be a public Act; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without specially pleading the same.

CAP. XLIV.

An Act for the further Relief of Protestant Dissenting Ministers and Schoolmasters.

Preamble; reciting the Toleration Act 1 Gul. & Mar.

'WHEREAS, by an Act made in the first Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for exempting their Majesties Protestant Subjects, dissenting from the Church of England, from the Penalties of certain Laws, Persons dissenting from the Church of England, in holy Orders, or pretended holy Orders, or pretending to holy Orders, and Preachers or Teachers of any Congregation of Dissenting Protestants, are required, in order to be intitled to certain Exemptions, Benefits, Privileges, and Advantages, to declare their Approbation of, and to subscribe, the Articles of Religion mentioned in the Statute made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth (except as in the said Act, made in the first Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, is excepted): And whereas many such Persons scruple to declare their Approbation of, and to subscribe, the said Articles not excepted as aforesaid: For giving Ease to such scrupulous Persons in the Exercise of Religion,' may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Person dissenting from the Church of England, in holy Orders, or pretended holy Orders, or pretending to holy Orders, being a Preacher or Teacher of any Congregation of dissenting Protestants, who, if he scruple to declare and subscribe as aforesaid, shall take the Oaths, and make and subscribe the Declaration against Popery, required by the said Act, in the first Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, to be taken, made, and subscribed by Protestant Dissenting Ministers, and shall also make and subscribe a Declaration in the Words following; videlicet, Protestant Dissenting Ministers, who shall take the Oaths and subscribe the Declaration against Popery required by the said Act, and shall also make and subscribe the following Declaration,

'I A. B. do solemnly declare, in the Presence of Almighty God, that I am a Christian and a Protestant, and as such, that I believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament, as commonly received among Protestant Churches, do contain the revealed Will of God; and that I do receive the same as the Rule of my Doctrine and Practice.'

shall be intitled to all the Privileges granted by the Toleration Act, and by an Act 10 Ann. for confirming the same, &c.;

shall be, and every such Person is hereby declared to be, intitled to all the Exemptions, Benefits, Privileges, and Advantages, granted to Protestant Dissenting Ministers by the said Act, made in the first Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary; and by an Act, made in the tenth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for preserving the Protestant Religion, by better securing the Church of England, as by Law established; and for confirming the Toleration granted to Protestant Dissenters by an Act, intituled, 'An Act for exempting their Majesties Protestant Subjects, dissenting from the Church of England, from the Penalties of certain Laws;' and for supplying the Defects thereof; and for the further securing the Protestant Succession, by requiring the Practisers of the Law in North Britain to take the Oaths and subscribe the Declaration therein mentioned; and the Justices of the Peace at the General Session of the Peace to be holden for the County or Place where any Protestant Dissenting Minister shall live, are hereby required quired to tender and administer the said last-mentioned Declaration to such Minister, upon his offering himself to make and subscribe the same, and thereof to keep a Register; and such Minister shall not give or pay, as a Fee or Reward to any Officer or Officers belonging to the Court aforesaid, above the Sum of Sixpence for his or their Entry of such Minister's making and subscribing the said last-mentioned Declaration, and taking the Oaths, and making and subscribing the Declaration against Popery, required by the said Act, made in the first Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, to be taken, made, and subscribed by Protestant Dissenting Ministers; nor above the Sum of Sixpence for any Certificate thereof to be made out and signed by the Officer or Officers of the said Court; and every such Person, qualifying himself as aforesaid, shall be exempted from serving in the Militia of this Kingdom; and shall also be exempted from any Imprisonment, or other Punishment, by virtue of an Act, made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the Uniformity of public Prayers and Administration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies; and for establishing the Form of making, ordaining, and consecrating, Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, in the Church of England; or by an Act made in the fifteenth Year of the same Reign, intituled, An Act for Relief of such Persons as by Sickness, or other Impediment, were disabled from subscribing the Declaration in the Act of Uniformity, and Explanation of Part of the said Act; for preaching or officiating in any Congregation of Protestant Dissenters, for the Exercise of Religion permitted and allowed by Law.

and shall be exempted from serving in the Militia, and from any Punishment by virtue of the Act of Uniformity, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Dissenting Minister, nor any other Protestant dissenting from the Church of England, who shall take the aforesaid Oaths, and make and subscribe the above-mentioned Declaration against Popery, and the Declaration herein-before mentioned, shall be prosecuted in any Court whatsoever, for teaching and instructing Youth as a Tutor or School-master; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Dissenters qualifying themselves as aforesaid, allowed to instruct Youth.

III. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the enabling of any Person dissenting from the Church of England to obtain or hold the Mastership of any College or School of Royal Foundation, or of any other endowed College or School for the Education of Youth, unless the same shall have been founded since the first Year of the Reign of their late Majesties King William and Queen Mary, for the immediate Use and Benefit of Protestant Dissenters.

No Dissenter to hold the Mastership of any College or School of Royal Foundation, &c.

'IV. And whereas it hath been doubted, whether the said Act, made in the first Year of the Reign of 'King William and Queen Mary, be a Public or Private Act;' be it enacted and declared, That the said Act, and also this present Act, shall be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be public Acts; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without specially pleading them, or either of them.

The said Act 1 Gul. & Mar. and this Act, to be deemed Public Acts.

CAP. XLV.

An Act to enable the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster to sell and dispose of certain Fee-farm Rents, and other Rents, and to enfranchise Copyhold and Customary Tenements, within their Survey, and to encourage the Growth of Timber on Lands held of the said Duchy.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of his late 'Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for advancing the Sale of Fee-farm Rents and 'other Rents; and by another Act, passed in the twenty-second and twenty-third Years of the same King, 'intituled, An Act for vesting certain Fee-farm Rents and other small Rents, in Trustees; or one of them, all 'the Fee-farm Rents, Rents Service, Rents Seck or Dry Rents, Chantry Rents, Guild Rents, Castle 'Guard Rents, and other Rents, within the Survey of the Duchy of Lancaster, due and payable to the 'said late King, his Heirs and Successors (except as therein mentioned), were vested in certain Trustees, 'and their Heirs, with Powers for them to make Sale thereof, for the Benefit of the said King, his Heirs 'and Successors, with a Proviso therein contained, that until Sale should be made of the said Rents by 'the said Trustees, the King's Receivers should collect and receive the same: And whereas, by an Act 'of the first Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the better Support of 'her Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, divers wholesome Provisions were 'made for the Preservation, Improvement, and Increase of the Land Revenues of the Crown, and for 'preventing the Alienation of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tythes, Woods, 'or other Hereditaments, belonging to her said late Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, with a Proviso therein 'contained, that the said Act should not disable the Trustees for Sale of Fee-farm and other Rents, to 'execute any the Trusts of the said several Acts of Parliament herein-before mentioned: And whereas 'several of the said Rents within the Survey of the said Duchy of Lancaster were sold under the said 'Authority so given to the said Trustees, but the Residue thereof, consisting of many small Rents, arising 'and payable in divers Counties, remain unsold, the collecting and Payment whereof is not only charge-'able to the Crown, but is troublesome and inconvenient to the Subject; but forasmuch as the said 'Trustees, who were six in Number, are all long since dead, and it has not been discovered which of 'them was the Survivor, or who is or are the Heir or Heirs of such Survivor, or in whom the legal Estate 'in the said unsold Rents is now vested, for which Reasons no complete Sale thereof can be effected, 'nor a good Title made thereto, without the further Aid of Parliament: And whereas the King's Ma-'jesty is seised to himself, his Heirs and Successors, as Parcel of the Possessions of the said Duchy of 'Lancaster, of divers Honours, Manors, and Lordships, within which are divers Tenants holding of his 'Majesty Customary or Copyhold Messuages, Lands, and Tenements, Parcel of the said Honours, Ma-'nors, or Lordships, in respect of which said Messuages, Lands, and Tenements, the said Tenants are Preamble. Recital of two Acts 22 and 23 Car. II; and of an Act 1 Anne.

'ſubject, upon Deſcent or Alienation thereof, to the Payment of Fines, either arbitrary or certain, Heriots, 'Reliefs, and other Dues, according to the reſpective Cuſtoms of the ſaid Honours, Manors, or Lord- 'ſhips, over and beſides the yearly Quit-Rents iſſuing and payable thereout: And whereas it would tend 'greatly to the Relief of the ſaid Tenants, and to the Improvement of their reſpective Eſtates, if the ſame 'could be enfranchiſed and diſcharged from the ſaid Burthens incident to their reſpective Tenures; but 'the ſame cannot be done without the Aid of Parliament:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That ſo much of the ſaid ſeveral recited Acts of the twenty-ſecond Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, and the twenty-ſecond and twenty-third Years of the Reign of the ſame King, as relates to or concerns any Fee-farm Rents, or other Rents whatſoever, remaining unſold by the ſaid Truſtees, and now in the Survey or Receipt of the Duchy of Lancaſter, or the Officers thereof, or to the Appropriation of the Money to ariſe by any Sale or Sales thereof; and alſo ſo much of the ſaid recited Act of the firſt Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, as relates to or concerns any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, within or Parcel of the Honours, Manors, or Lordſhips of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, now held by Copy of Court-roll, or being of the Nature of Copyhold or of Cuſtomary Tenure, or to any Fines payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, upon Deſcent or Alienation of the ſame, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby repealed.

Part of the recited Acts repealed.

Fee-farm Rents, &c. remaining unſold by the Truſtees, to be in the Poſſeſſion of his Majeſty, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and ſingular the ſaid Fee-farm Rents, and other Rents whatſoever, remaining unſold by the ſaid Truſtees as aforeſaid, and now in the Survey or Receipt of the ſaid Duchy, or the Officers thereof, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby declared to be, in the actual Seiſin and Poſſeſſion of our Sovereign Lord the King, his Heirs and Succeſſors, as Parcel of the Poſſeſſions of his ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid recited Acts had not been made.

Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaſter impowered to ſell the ſaid Fee-farm Rents, &c.; but not for leſs than 25 Years Purchaſe.

III. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaſter for the Time being, to ſell and diſpoſe, and thereupon to grant and aſſure, in the Name of the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, under Seal of the ſaid Duchy, unto or to the Uſe of the reſpective Purchaſers of the ſaid Rents, and to their Heirs for ever, all and ſingular Fee-farm Rents, Rents Service, Rents Seck or Dry Rents, Quit Rents, Chantry Rents, Guild Rents, and other Rents, due and payable to the King's Majeſty, as Parcel of the Poſſeſſions of his ſaid Duchy, and now being within the Survey and Receipt of the ſaid Duchy, and the Officers of the ſame, at and for ſuch Conſiderations in Money as the ſaid Chancellor and Council ſhall think fit, not being leſs than after the Rate of twenty-five Years Purchaſe of the groſs Amount of any ſuch Rent or Rents; and that the ſeveral Grants and Aſſurances of any ſuch Rent or Rents, to be ſo made under the Seal aforeſaid, being inrolled in the Court of the Duchy Chamber of Lancaſter, within twelve Calendar Months next after the reſpective Dates thereof, ſhall be good, valid, and effectual in the Law, unto the reſpective Grantees and their Heirs; and that all and every Perſon and Perſons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, his and their Heirs, Succeſſors, and Aſſigns, having and taking any ſuch Grant or Aſſurance, and cauſing the ſame to be inrolled as aforeſaid, ſhall, by Force and Virtue of this Act, be adjudged to be in the actual Seiſin and Poſſeſſion of the Rent or Rents ſo purchaſed and conveyed, and ſhall hold and enjoy the ſame in perfect Peace, freed and diſcharged of and from all Claims and Demands which can or may be made by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or by any Perſon or Perſons claiming any Eſtate, Right, or Intereſt, by, from, or under, the ſaid Truſtees, or the Survivor of them, and of and from all Manner of Incumbrances whatſoever, heretofore had or charged upon the ſame Rents, and as fully and amply as his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or the ſaid Truſtees, or the Survivor of them, or his Heirs, might or could have held or enjoyed the ſame; and ſhall have and enjoy, under their ſaid reſpective Purchaſes, all and every the Benefits and Advantages for the Recovery thereof, and the Arrears thereof, as are or were given or allowed to Purchaſers of any Rent or Rents in and by the ſaid Act of the twenty-ſecond Year of King Charles the Second, and by the ſaid other Act of the twenty-ſecond and twenty-third Years of the ſame King, and in as large and ample Manner and Form as if ſuch Purchaſers had purchaſed the ſaid Rents under the Truſtees appointed or authoriſed in and by, or under and by virtue of the Powers contained in the ſaid Acts, or either of them.

Owner of the Lands whereout the Rents are payable, to be preferred in the Purchaſe thereof.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the immediate Owner of the Lands and Hereditaments whereout any of the ſaid Rents are due, payable, or iſſuing, ſhall be preferred in the Purchaſe thereof reſpectively before any other, ſo as ſuch immediate Owner ſhall pay and diſcharge all Arrears of Rent due from him or her, and tender himſelf or herſelf in Perſon, or by his or her Agent, to the ſaid Chancellor and Council, to contract for the Purchaſe thereof, and ſhall perfect his or her Contract, and pay the Purchaſe Money into the Hands of the Receiver-general of the Revenues of the ſaid Duchy, on or before the ſixth Day of November, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty, at ſuch Rate as ſhall be agreed upon, not being leſs than twenty-five Years Purchaſe, as aforeſaid.

D.* 'for a Term [as the Caſe may be,] which will expire on [expreſſing the Time when the ſubſiſting 'Leaſe will expire.] In Witneſs, &c.

The aforeſaid Grants, &c. under the Seal of the Duchy, to be valid in Law.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Grants, Conveyances, and Aſſurances, in the reſpective Forms aforeſaid, under the Seal of the ſaid Duchy, ſhall be good, ſufficient, valid, and effectual in the Law, for granting and aſſuring the ſaid Rents unto the ſeveral Purchaſers thereof, and their Heirs for ever, and alſo for conveying and aſſuring the ſaid Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, therein reſpectively to be compriſed, enfranchiſed, and diſcharged, unto and to the Uſe of the ſeveral and reſpective Perſons therein to be named, and their Heirs for ever; any Thing contained in the ſaid recited Act of the firſt Year of Queen Anne to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding; and that the Inrolment of the ſaid Grants, Conveyances, and Aſſurances, in the Court of Duchy Chamber of Lancaſter, ſhall be of the ſame Force and Validity as Inrolments of Bargains and Sales in any of the four Courts at Weſtminſter.

Proviſo relating to ſuch Rents, Fines, &c. as are now under Leaſe.

VIII. Provided always, That where any Leaſe of any of the aforeſaid Rents, Fines, Heriots, Reliefs, or other Cuſtomary Dues or Payments, hath been granted under the Seal of the ſaid Duchy for any Term now ſubſiſting, that then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the ſaid Grants, Conveyances, and Aſſurances, ſo far as the ſame relate to or concern any of the Hereditaments compriſed in ſuch Leaſe, ſhall commence and take Effect only upon or from the Expiration or Determination of ſuch Leaſe reſpectively; and that ſuch an Abatement ſhall be made in the Purchaſe-money for the Hereditaments ſo in Leaſe, as ſhall be agreed upon between the ſaid Chancellor and Council, and the reſpective Purchaſers or Perſons therein reſpectively named; and that the Perſon or Perſons entitled to the Benefit of ſuch Leaſe, ſhall and may have and take all ſuch Remedies in the Law, for recovering and enforcing the Payment of the ſeveral and reſpective Rents, Fines, Heriots, Reliefs, and other Cuſtomary Dues and Payments, during the Continuance of ſuch Leaſe, as he, ſhe, or they would, could, or might have had or taken in caſe this Act had not been made; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Tenants for Life of Copyhold Lands, &c. may purchaſe Enfranchiſement thereof;

'IX. And whereas it may be convenient to Perſons who are ſeiſed of Copyhold Lands and Eſtates (being 'within and Parcel of the Honours, Manors, or Lordſhips, of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter), as Tenants 'for Life only, to have the ſame enfranchiſed,' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for all ſuch Tenants for Life, who are or ſhall be ſeiſed of any ſuch Copyhold Lands and Eſtates as aforeſaid, and they are hereby authoriſed and impowered to contract and agree with the ſaid Chancellor and Council for the Enfranchiſement, and for the Purchaſe of Timber thereon for diſcharging the ſaid Copyhold Lands and Eſtates from the Payment of all Cuſtomary Fines, Fines of Ingreſs, and other Fines, Heriots, Reliefs, Quit Rents, and other Dues and Payments, to which, by the reſpective Cuſtoms of ſuch Honours, Manors, or Lordſhips, the ſame are now, or would hereafter otherwiſe be ſubject and liable to, and to pay to the ſaid Chancellor and Council ſuch Price or Conſideration as ſhall be agreed on for the ſame: And after any ſuch Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, ſhall be ſo enfranchiſed and diſcharged from ſuch Fines, Rents, Dues, and Payments, as aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful for the reſpective Owners and Proprietors thereof, being Tenants for Life as aforeſaid, to charge ſuch Copyhold Lands and Eſtates with the Payment of the Money to be paid for the Enfranchiſement thereof, and for diſcharging the ſame from ſuch Fines, Rents, Dues, and Payments, as aforeſaid; and for ſecuring the Repayment of ſuch Money with Intereſt, by Deed or Deeds, Writing or Writings, under their reſpective Hands and Seals, to be duly executed by them, and atteſted by two or more credible Witneſſes, to grant, mortgage, leaſe, or demiſe, or otherwiſe ſubject the Lands and Eſtates ſo charged as aforeſaid, unto ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall advance and lend the ſame reſpectively, for any Term or Number of Years, ſo as ſuch Grant, Mortgage, Leaſe, or Demiſe, be made with a Proviſo or Condition to ceaſe and be void, or with an expreſs Truſt to be ſurrendered, when the Money thereby to be ſecured, with the Intereſt thereof, ſhall be fully paid and ſatisfied; and alſo with a Covenant, that ſuch reſpective Tenants for Life ſhall pay and keep down the Intereſt of the Money to be thereby reſpectively ſecured during their reſpective Lives, in ſuch Manner that no Perſon afterwards coming into Poſſeſſion of any ſuch Lands and Eſtates, ſhall be ſubject or liable to pay any farther or larger Arrear of Intereſt than for one Year preceding the Time when the Title to ſuch Poſſeſſion ſhall accrue and commence; and every ſuch Grant, Mortgage, Leaſe, or Demiſe, ſo to be made as aforeſaid, ſhall be good, valid, and effectual in the Law, for the Purpoſes thereby intended, notwithſtanding any Settlement, Will, Truſt, Uſe, Remainder, Limitation, or other Incumbrance, of and concerning the ſame Lands and Eſtates, or any Part or Parts thereof, then in being or capable of taking Effect.

and charge the Premiſes with the Payment of the ſaid Purchaſe Money.

Grants, &c. where the Conſideration ſhall not exceed 10 l. not ſubject to Stamp duty.

X. And be it further enacted, That where the Money to be paid as the Conſideration for any ſuch Grant, Conveyance, or Aſſurance, ſhall not exceed the Sum of ten Pounds, ſuch Grants, Conveyances, and Aſſurances, under the Seal of the ſaid Duchy, ſhall be ſubject to no Stamp-duty for the ſame; and where the Conſideration Money to be paid ſhall exceed ten Pounds, that the ſaid Grants, Conveyances, and Aſſurances, ſhall be ſubject only to ſuch Stamp-duty as is or are, or hereafter may be by Law requiſite for any Deeds, whereby Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, are conveyed.

Enfranchiſed Premiſes to remain ſubject to Entails, Settlements, &c.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all and ſingular the Premiſes to be enfranchiſed and diſcharged as aforeſaid, under and by virtue of this Act, ſhall, from and after the Conveyance and Aſſurance thereof reſpectively, remain, enure, continue, and be ſubject and liable to all ſuch Entails, Wills, Settlements, Mortgages, Leaſes, Judgments, Uſes, Truſts, Limitations, Remainders, Reverſions, and all other Incumbrances, as the ſame Premiſes now are, or at the Time of the making ſuch Conveyances and Aſſurances thereof ſhall or may be ſubject and liable to, in as large and ample Manner and Form as if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Grants to be made at the Expence of the Grantees. Officers Fees.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Grants and Aſſurances to be made under the Seal aforeſaid by virtue of this Act, ſhall be ſued forth and inrolled in Manner herein-before directed, at the Expence of the reſpective Grantees therein to be named; and that the ſeveral Fees hereafter mentioned, and no more, ſhall be charged for the ſame by the Officers of the ſaid Duchy; (that is to ſay,)

CAP. XLVIII.

An Act to explain ſo much of an Act, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increaſing of Shipping and Navigation, as relates to the Importation into this Kingdom, and other his Majeſty's Dominions, of Goods and Commodities, of the Growth or Production of Africa, Aſia, or America, which are manufactured in foreign Parts; for preventing Maſters of Ships removing their Veſſels out of the Stream, except to the lawful Quays, in the Port of London, before the Goods are diſcharged, or their Veſſels are cleared by the proper Officer inwards or outwards; and for allowing the Officers of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe to make uſe of Lights on board Ships in the Haven, Dock, or Baſon, at the Port of Kingſton upon Hull.

Preamble. Recital of the Navigation Act 12 Car. II.

' WHEREAS by an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and encreaſing of Shipping and Navigation; it was, amongſt other ' Things, enacted, That no Goods or Commodities of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture, of ' Africa, Aſia, or America, ſhall be imported or brought into England, Ireland, Wales, the Iſlands of ' Guernſey or Jerſey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from any other Place or Places, Country or Countries, but only from thoſe of the ſaid Growth, Production, or Manufacture, or from thoſe Ports where ' the ſaid Goods and Commodities can only, or are or uſually have been firſt ſhipped for Tranſportation, ' and from none other Places or Countries, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of all ſuch of the aforeſaid ' Goods as ſhall be imported from any other Place or Country, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning ' of the ſaid Act, as alſo of the Ship in which they were imported, with all her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel: And whereas Doubts have ariſen whether ſuch Goods, if carried from ' the Place or Country of the Growth or Production into any foreign Parts of Europe, and manufactured ' there, may not be imported from thence into this Kingdom, and other of his Majeſty's Dominions in ' the ſaid Act mentioned: And whereas the Importation of ſuch Goods and Commodities ſo manufactured ' would be very prejudicial to the Trade and Navigation of Great Britain, and would tend to the Ruin of ' ſeveral Artificers and Labourers, whoſe Families are ſupported by the manufacturing ſuch Goods and ' Commodities in this Kingdom;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, the ſaid in Part recited Act, of the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to permit any Goods or Commodities whatſoever, of the Growth or Production of Africa, Aſia, or America, which ſhall be in any Degree manufactured in foreign Parts, to be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain, Ireland or the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, or Man, except and unleſs the ſame ſhall be ſo manufactured in the Country or Place of which the ſaid Goods and Commodities are the Growth and Production, or in the Place where ſuch Goods and Commodities can only or are firſt ſhipped for Tranſportation, and from no other Place or Country whatſoever, under the Penalties and Forfeitures in the ſaid Act mentioned; any Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

II. Provided nevertheleſs, That this Act ſhall not reſtrain or prohibit the Importation of Oil of Cloves, Oil of Cinnamon, Oil of Mace, and Oil of Nutmegs, or of any Goods or Commodities which are permitted to be imported into this Kingdom, under particular Circumſtances and Reſtrictions, by any ſubſequent Act or Acts of Parliament which are now in Force.

Certain Goods, the Importation whereof is not prohibited by this Act.

'III. And whereas Ships and Veſſels arriving at the Port of London from Holland and Flanders, and other 'foreign Parts, and alſo Ships and Veſſels outward bound from the ſaid Port to foreign Parts, are frequently 'removed from the lawful Quays, or out of the Stream, to lie at Anchor cloſe to the Back-doors of the 'Houſes of the Maſters of ſuch Veſſels, or at the Public Houſes frequented by ſuch Maſters on the Side of 'the River Thames, before they are diſcharged and cleared by the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms, whereby 'Cambrics, Lace, India Silks, and other prohibited Goods, are very often run from on board ſuch Veſſels, 'to the Detriment of the Revenue and fair Trader; for Remedy whereof for the future,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the firſt Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, if any Ship or Veſſel, coming or arriving from foreign Parts, within the Limits of the Port of London, ſhall be removed out of the Stream, except to the lawful Quays, before all the Goods are diſcharged out of ſuch Ship or Veſſel; or if any Ship or Veſſel, outward-bound from the ſaid Port of London to any foreign Parts, having any Goods or Merchandiſe on board thereon, ſhall, during her Continuance in the ſaid Port, be ſo removed out of the Stream, except to the lawful Quays, unleſs upon any Accident or emergent Occaſion, immediately to be made known to the Commiſſioners or Principal Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, and their Conſent for thoſe reſpective Purpoſes obtained; the Maſter, Purſer, or other Perſon taking Charge of every ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall forfeit and loſe the Sum of one hundred Pounds for each and every ſuch reſpective Offence; one Moiety whereof ſhall be to the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms as ſhall inform, proſecute, or ſue for the ſame, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter.

Penalty on Maſters of Ships removing their Veſſels out of the Stream, except to the lawful Quays, in the Port of London, before the Goods are diſcharged, &c.

'IV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent 'Majeſty, intituled, An Act for making and eſtabliſhing public Quays or Wharfs at Kingſton upon Hull, for 'the better ſecuring his Majeſty's Revenues of Cuſtoms, and for the Benefit of Commerce in the Port of King-'ſton upon Hull; for making a Baſon or Dock, with Reſervoirs, Sluices, Roads, and other Works, for the 'Accommodation of Veſſels uſing the ſaid Port; and for appropriating certain Lands belonging to his Majeſty, and 'for applying certain Sums of Money out of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms at the ſaid Port, for thoſe Purpoſes; and for 'eſtabliſhing other neceſſary Regulations within the Town and Port of Kingſton upon Hull; it is, amongſt 'other Things, enacted, That no Perſon whatſoever ſhall have or keep, or cauſe to be had or kept, any 'Fire, Candle, or Lamp, lighted (except in the Manner in the ſaid Act for that Purpoſe mentioned) on 'board any Ship or Veſſel within the Haven, Dock, or Baſon, by the ſaid Act directed to be made, in the 'ſaid Port of Kingſton upon Hull (the Veſſels employed as Ferry-boats only excepted), at any Time or 'Times whatſoever, between the twenty-ninth Day of September and the twenty-fifth Day of March, in every 'Year, after the Hour of Seven in the Evening, and before the Hour of Seven in the Morning; nor at any Time 'or Times whatſoever, between the twenty-fifth Day of March and the twenty-ninth Day of September, 'in every Year, after the Hour of Eight in the Evening, or before the Hour of Five in the Morning, upon 'Pain of forfeiting, for every Offence, the Sum of three Pounds: And whereas, in order to prevent the 'clandeſtine running of cuſtomable and prohibited Goods from on board Ships or Veſſels in the Night, it 'is abſolutely neceſſary that the Tideſmen, and other Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms and Exciſe, ſta-'tioned on board, and appointed to guard ſuch Veſſels for the Security of the public Revenues, ſhould 'have Liberty to uſe Lights, properly ſecured, during their Stay on board, as Occaſion may require;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid recited Act, or any Part thereof, ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to reſtrain or prohibit any Officer or Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms or Exciſe from uſing lighted Candles on board any Ship or Veſſel in the ſaid Haven, Dock, or Baſon, in ſuch Lanthorns, guarded, or properly ſecured againſt Accidents of Fire, as the Collector of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, and the Collector or other principal Officer of Exciſe, and the Governor or Chairman of the Dock Company at the Port of Kingſton upon Hull, ſhall at any Time think proper to direct and approve of for that Purpoſe; nor ſhall any ſuch Officer or Officers be liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture for having or keeping, or cauſing to be had or kept, ſuch Lights, in Lanthorns ſecured as aforeſaid, on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Recital of an Act 14 Geo. III.

The ſaid Act not to extend to reſtrain any Officer of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe from uſing Lights on board any Veſſel in the Haven, &c. of Kingſton upon Hull.

CAP. XLIX.

An Act to prevent Abuſes in the Payment of Wages to Perſons employed in the Bone and Thread Lace Manufactory.

'WHEREAS the Practice of paying Perſons employed in the making of Bone and Thread Lace, in 'the Whole or in Part, with Goods inſtead of Money, is a great Injury to the Lace-makers, and 'tends to the Diſcouragement of the Lace Manufacture: And whereas it would tend to encourage the

Preamble.

'Manufacture of Bone and Thread Lace, if the Persons employed therein were in future to be paid 'in Money only, and if some Provision was made for the more easy and speedy Recovery of such Mo- 'ney;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, all Lace Merchants and Dealers in Lace, and all other Persons who shall employ any Person or Persons in the making of Bone or Thread Lace, or who shall buy any Bone or Thread Lace of the Maker or Makers thereof, shall and are hereby required to pay such Person or Persons for their Labour, and for all the Lace so bought of them, in Money only, and not with Goods, or by way of Truck, or in any other Manner whatsoever, either in the Whole or in Part; any Usage or Custom to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

After June 24, 1779, all Persons who shall employ any Lace Manufacturers, or shall purchase Lace of them, shall pay them in Money, and not with Goods;

II. And be it further enacted and declared, That if any Lace Merchant or Dealer in Lace, or other Person, shall, after the said twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, pay any Person or Persons employed in making Bone or Thread Lace, in the Whole or in Part, for their Labour, or for the Purchase of any Bone or Thread Lace, with Goods, or by Way of Truck, or in any other Manner than with Money only, every such Lace Merchant, Dealer in Lace, or other Person, so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds, to be levied and recovered by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any one Justice of the Peace, within the County, City, or Place, where such Offence shall be committed; rendering the Overplus, if any, to the Owner or Owners of such Goods and Chattels, after deducting the reasonable Charges of such Warrant, Distress and Sale; and such Forfeitures, when recovered, shall be paid to the Party or Parties aggrieved; and for want of sufficient Distress, such Justice shall, and is hereby authorised and required to commit the Offender to the common Gaol, Prison, or House of Correction, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for the Space of six Calendar Months, unless such Penalty, and the Charges attending the Recovery thereof, shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

on Penalty of 10*l*.

to be levied by Distress.

On Failure of Distress, Offender to be committed.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, if any Sum or Sums of Money shall be due and owing to any Person or Persons employed in the making of any Bone or Thread Lace, for his or her Labour, or for the Purchase of any such Lace, every such Person shall and may apply to any Justice of the Peace for the County, City, or Place where the Cause of Complaint shall arise; and in case it shall, upon the Oath of the Party complaining (which Oath such Justice is hereby impowered to administer), appear to such Justice that such Money is due and owing as aforesaid, then such Justice shall and is hereby authorised and required to cause the same to be levied and recovered in the same Manner as the Forfeiture herein-before imposed is directed to be levied and recovered.

How Lacemakers may recover Debts due to them for Lace sold, or for making thereof.

IV. Provided always, that if any Person shall think himself or herself aggrieved by any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any such Person to appeal to the Justices of the Peace, at any General Quarter Sessions to be holden for the County, City, or Place, where the Act, Order, or Proceeding, appealed against shall be made or done, within six Calendar Months next after the making or doing thereof, the Person appealing first giving fourteen Days previous Notice to the Person or Persons in whose Favour such Act, Order, or Proceeding, shall be made or done, of his or her Intention to bring such Appeal; and the Justices at such Quarter Sessions are hereby authorised and required to hear and determine the Matter of every such Appeal, and to make such Order therein, and to award such Costs to either Party, as they shall think proper, and by their Order or Warrant to levy the Costs which shall be so awarded by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons liable to pay the same, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner or Owners of such Goods and Chattels, after deducting the reasonable Charges of such Distress and Sale; and the Determination of the Justices in the said Quarter Sessions shall be final, binding, and conclusive upon all the Parties.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to the Quarter Sessions:

on giving 14 Days Notice.

CAP. L.

An Act for more effectually preventing Frauds by private Distillers, and for the better securing the Duties on Low Wines and Spirits.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Duties on Low Wines and Spirits are greatly diminished, and the fair Trader much 'injured, by Means of small Stills privately made Use of for making and distilling Low Wines and 'Spirits: And whereas, notwithstanding the many Laws already made for securing these Duties, and for 'protecting the fair Trader, many gross Frauds are daily practised by evil-minded and indigent Persons, 'who are encouraged in such Practices from the great Length of Time allowed by those Laws for the Pay- 'ment of the Duties arising from Low Wines and Spirits: Now, for Remedy of these Mischiefs,' be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, every Person or Persons making or keeping any Wash fit for Distillation, and having in his, her, or their Occupation, Possession, or Custody, any Still or Stills, the cubic Contents of which, when the Head is on, will amount to two Gallons or upwards, Proof being thereof made, by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before any one or more of the Commissioners of Excise for the Time being, or before one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, who are hereby respectively impowered to administer the same, shall be deemed and taken to be common Distillers for Sale, and shall be liable to the several Rates and Duties of Excise, and be subject to the Survey of the Officers of Excise, and to the several Penalties,

After June 24, 1779, every Person making Wash for Distillation, and having in his Possession a Still of the cubic Contents of two Gallons, shall be deemed a common Distiller, &c.

nalties, Fines, and Forfeitures, impoſed by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, in any wiſe relating to Diſtillers; any Law, Statute, or Uſage, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

'II. And whereas, by an Act, paſſed in the tenth and eleventh Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act to prohibit the exceſſive Diſtilling of Spirits and Low Wines from Corn, and againſt the exporting of Beer and Ale, and to prevent Frauds in Diſtillers, it was, amongſt other Things, enacted, That if any Officer of Exciſe ſhould, under the Authority of a Warrant from a Juſtice of the Peace, diſcover and find any private and concealed Still, Back, or Veſſel, Spirits, Low Wines, or Materials preparing for Diſtillation, that in ſuch Caſe every ſuch Still, Back, or other Veſſel, and alſo ſuch Spirits, Low Wines, and Materials for Diſtillation, ſhould be abſolutely forfeited, and that the Perſon or Perſons claiming the ſame ſhould forfeit, for every Place in which ſuch Still, Back, or other Veſſel, ſhall be found, and alſo for every ſuch Still, Back, or other Veſſel, found therein, the Sum of two hundred Pounds: And whereas by one other Act, paſſed in the tenth and eleventh Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act for laying further Duties upon Sweets; and for leſſening the Duties as well upon Vinegar as upon certain Low Wines and Whale Fins, and the Duties upon Brandy imported; and for the more eaſy raiſing the Duties upon Leather; and for charging Cinders; and for permitting the Importation of Pearl Aſhes; and for preventing Abuſes in the brewing of Beer and Ale, and Frauds in the Importation of Tobacco; it was enacted, That the Proprietor of any private Still, Back, or other Veſſel, which ſhould be diſcovered, according to the Directions of the before recited Act, or the Perſon in whoſe Cuſtody the ſame ſhould be found, ſhould forfeit and loſe, for every ſuch Still, Back, and other Veſſel, the Sum of two hundred Pounds: And whereas it may be doubted, whether, upon the Diſcovery and finding of private and concealed Stills, Backs, and other Veſſels, and of Spirits, Low Wines, or Materials preparing for Diſtillation, by any Officer or Officers of Exciſe not having a Warrant from a Juſtice of the Peace, ſuch private and concealed Stills, Backs, or other Veſſels, Spirits, Low Wines, or Materials preparing for Diſtillation, are forfeited, and liable to be ſeized by ſuch Officer, and whether the Proprietor of ſuch private and concealed Stills, Backs, or other Veſſels, ſo diſcovered, or the Perſons in whoſe Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion the ſame ſhall be found, are liable and ſubject to the ſaid Penalty of two hundred Pounds: Now, to obviate all ſuch Doubts,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Officer or Officers of Exciſe ſhall at any Time diſcover and find any private or concealed Still, Back, or other Veſſel, for the making, preparing, or keeping of Waſh, Low Wines, or Spirits, or other Materials preparing for Diſtillation, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Officer to ſeize every ſuch Still, Back, or other Veſſel, and all ſuch Low Wines, Spirits, Waſh, and other Materials preparing for Diſtillation, which he ſhall ſo find and diſcover, and either to detain and keep the ſame in the Houſe or Place where found, or to remove the ſame to the Office of Exciſe next to the Place where he ſhall ſo find and diſcover the ſame; and in caſe the ſame ſhall not, within ten days next after ſuch Seizure, be claimed by the true and lawful Owner thereof, then the ſaid Stills, Backs, and other Veſſels, Spirits, Low Wines, Waſh, and other Materials preparing for Diſtillation, ſhall be abſolutely forfeited; and the Proprietor of any ſuch private and concealed Back, Still, or other Veſſel, or the Perſon in whoſe Cuſtody the ſame ſhall be found, ſhall forfeit and loſe, for every Place in which any ſuch private Still, Back, and other Veſſel, ſhall be found, and alſo for every ſuch Still, Back, and other Veſſel found therein, the Sum of two hundred Pounds: And if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall obſtruct, oppoſe, moleſt, or hinder, the Officers of Exciſe, or others acting in their Aſſiſtance, in the due ſeizing ſuch private Stills, Backs, and other Veſſels, Spirits, Low Wines, Waſh, or other Materials preparing for Diſtillation, or in removing the ſame, or any of them, after Seizure, to the next Office of Exciſe, as aforeſaid; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, every Perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit and loſe the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Recital of 10 and 11 Gul. III. Cap. 44 and Cap. 21.

Officer of Exciſe diſcovering any private Still, &c. or any Materials preparing for Diſtillation, may ſeize the ſame. If the ſaid Stills, &c. be not, within ten Days, claimed by the Owner, they ſhall be forfeited; and the Proprietor thereof, or the Perſon in whoſe Cuſtody they are found, ſhall forfeit, for each Particular, 200l. Penalty on obſtructing Officers in ſeizing ſuch Stills, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall be permitted to make Entry of any Workhouſe or Place, or of any Still or Utenſil for making, diſtilling, or keeping, of Low Wines or Spirits, unleſs ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall occupy a Tenement or Tenements of the yearly Value of ten Pounds, or upwards, and for which he, ſhe, or they ſhall accordingly be aſſeſſed in their own Name, and ſhall alſo pay to the Pariſh Rates in the ſeveral Pariſhes or Places in which they ſhall reſpectively reſide; and that no Entry of any Workhouſe, Place, Still, or Utenſil, for making, diſtilling, and keeping, of Low Wines and Spirits, then made, or thereafter to be made, of any ſuch Workhouſe, Place, Still, or Utenſil, ſhall be of any Avail to any Perſon not ſo qualified, or for any longer Time than the Perſon or Perſons ſo making Entry ſhall be qualified, as aforeſaid; and every Perſon making or diſtilling Low Wines or Spirits, and not qualified as aforeſaid, ſhall, notwithſtanding any Entry by him, her, or them made, be deemed and taken to be Perſons making and diſtilling Low Wines and Spirits without Entry, and ſhall be ſubject to the like Penalties and Forfeitures as Perſons making and diſtilling Low Wines and Spirits without Entry are, by the Statutes in ſuch Caſe made and provided, now ſubject unto.

No Perſon to make Entry of any Workhouſe or Still for making Low Wines or Spirits, unleſs he ſhall occupy a Tenement of 10l. per Ann. and ſhall pay to Pariſh Rates.

'IV. And, for the more effectual ſecuring the Duties on Low Wines and Spirits, made and diſtilled within Great Britain,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, all and every Perſon whatſoever, who ſhall make or diſtil Low Wines or Spirits, ſhall, weekly and every Week, make a true Entry in Writing at the next Office of Exciſe, within the Limits of which the ſaid Low Wines or Spirits are by him or them reſpectively made or diſtilled, of all the Waſh by him, her, or them reſpectively uſed for the making of Low Wines and Spirits, within each Week, on Pain to forfeit, for every Neglect of making ſuch true Entry, the Sum of ten Pounds.

Diſtillers to make Entry, weekly, of all the Waſh uſed by them in making Low Wines and Spirits.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Diſtiller who ſhall not pay and clear off within a Week after he, ſhe, or they, ſhall have made his, her, or their Entry, or ought to have made his, her, or their Entry, as aforeſaid, ſhall pay double the Value of the Duty.

Diſtillers not paying Duties within a Week after Entry, to pay double.

Certain Words to be painted over the outward Door of every Stillhouſe, Storehouſe, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, every Maker, Diſtiller, Rectifier, and Compounder, of Spirits, who ſhall make, diſtil, rectify, or compound, any Spirituous Liquors for Sale within Great Britain, ſhall cauſe to be painted, in durable, large, legible Characters, over the outward Door of each and every Stillhouſe, Storehouſe, Warehouſe, Shop, Cellar, Vault, and other Place, by him, her, or them, reſpectively made uſe of for the making or keeping of Britiſh-made Spirituous Liquors, the Words Diſtiller, Rectifier, or Compounder of Spirituous Liquors (as the Caſe may be); upon Pain of forfeiting, for every ſuch Stillhouſe, Storehouſe, Warehouſe, Shop, Cellar, Vault, or other Place, which, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, ſhall be ſo made uſe of by ſuch Maker, Diſtiller, Rectifier, or Compounder, without having the ſaid Words ſo painted as aforeſaid, the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

on Forfeiture of 100l.

Penalty on buying Britiſh-made Spirits of any Perſon other than a Diſtiller, &c. who has the before-mentioned Words painted over the outer Door of his Stillhouſe, &c. (Exception.)

VII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon who ſhall either make, diſtil, rectify, or compound, any Britiſh-made Spirituous Liquors for Sale, or who ſhall ſell or deal in any Sort of Spirituous Liquors, ſhall receive or buy, or procure or employ any Perſon to receive or buy for him, her, or them, or for his, her, or their Uſe, any Britiſh-made Spirituous Liquors (except at the public Sales of ſuch Britiſh-made Spirituous Liquors as have been condemned, and are ſold under the Direction of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe), of any Perſon or Perſons other than a Maker, Diſtiller, Rectifier, or Compounder of Spirituous Liquors for Sale, over the outward Door of whoſe Stillhouſe, Storehouſe, Warehouſe, Shop, Cellar, Vault, or other Place by him, her, or them reſpectively made uſe of for the making or keeping of Britiſh-made Spirituous Liquors, ſhall be painted, as aforeſaid, the Words Diſtiller, Rectifier, or Compounder of Spirituous Liquors, as the Caſe may be; every ſuch Perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit and loſe, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Either Buyer or Seller informing againſt the other Party, ſhall be diſcharged of his own Penalty.

'VIII. And, for the more effectual Diſcovery of ſuch Offenders,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the offending Party or Parties, whether Buyer or Seller of ſuch Britiſh-made Spirituous Liquors, who ſhall firſt diſcover and inform againſt the other of the ſaid Parties, ſhall, in every ſuch Caſe, be, and he is hereby declared diſcharged and acquitted of and from all Penalties and Forfeitures, which, at the Time of ſuch Information given, he might be liable for or by reaſon of ſuch his own Offence.

Penalty on Perſons, not having made Entry of all the Places uſed by them, who ſhall paint over any of their Doors the Words Diſtiller, Rectifier, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon whatever, other than ſuch as ſhall have duly made Entry of all the Places by him, her, or them reſpectively made uſe of for making or keeping of Britiſh-made Spirituous Liquors, ſhall paint, or cauſe to be painted, over the Door of any Place to them reſpectively belonging, the Words Diſtiller, Rectifier, or Compounder of Spirituous Liquors, or either of them, every Perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit and loſe the Sum of two hundred Pounds, and ſhall alſo be ſubject to the ſeveral Penalties and Forfeitures to which Perſons making or diſtilling Spirituous Liquors for Sale, without making Entry, are now ſubject unto.

All the Powers, Penalties, and Forfeitures, &c. contained in former Revenue Laws, to be applied in collecting, levying, and recovering the Duties and Penalties mentioned in this Act.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Methods, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters and Things, which, in and by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for ſettling a Revenue upon his Majeſty in Lieu thereof, or by any other Law now in Force relating to his Majeſty's Revenue upon Beer, Ale, or other Liquors, are provided, ſettled, or eſtabliſhed, for ſecuring, enforcing, managing, raiſing, levying, collecting, paying, mitigating, or recovering, adjudging, or aſcertaining the Duties or Penalties thereby granted, and for preventing, detecting, and puniſhing Frauds relating thereto (not otherwiſe altered by this Act), ſhall be exerciſed, practiſed, applied, and impoſed, levied, recovered, and put in Execution, for the ſecuring, enforcing, managing, raiſing, levying, collecting, paying, mitigating, and adjudging, aſcertaining, and recovering, the Duties and Penalties herein mentioned and directed, and for preventing, detecting, and puniſhing, Frauds relating thereto, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if all and every the ſaid Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Methods, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this Act.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered and applied.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, impoſed by this Act, ſhall be ſued for, levied, recovered, or mitigated, by ſuch Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, is or may be ſued for, recovered, or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, reſpectively; and that one Moiety of every ſuch Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him, her, or them, who ſhall diſcover, inform, or ſue for the ſame.

CAP. LI.

An Act for granting to his Majeſty certain Duties on Licences to be taken out by all Perſons letting Horſes to Hire for travelling, in the Manner therein mentioned; and certain Duties on all Horſes let to Hire for the Purpoſes of travelling Poſt, and by Time; and upon certain Carriages therein mentioned.

Preamble.

'Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, towards raiſing by the moſt eaſy Means the neceſſary Supplies to defray your Majeſty's public Expences, have freely and voluntarily reſolved to give and grant unto your Majeſty the ſeveral and reſpective Duties herein-after mentioned; and do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, unto and for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the ſeveral Rates and Duties following; (that is to ſay) That every Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, in Great Britain, who ſhall let to Hire any Horſe for the Purpoſe of travelling Poſt by the Mile, or from Stage to Stage, or being a Perſon uſually letting Horſes to Hire, ſhall let to Hire for a Day, or any leſs Period of Time, any Horſe for drawing any Coach, Chariot, or Chaiſe, or any other Carriage uſed in travelling Poſt, ſhall yield and pay annually unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the Sum of five Shillings for a Licence for that Purpoſe; that for and in reſpect of every Horſe hired by the Mile or Stage to be uſed in travelling Poſt, in Great Britain, there be charged a Duty of one Penny for every Mile ſuch Horſe ſhall be hired to travel Poſt; and that for and in reſpect of every Horſe hired for a Day, or any leſs Period of Time, for drawing, on a Poſt or other public Road, any Coach, Chariot, or Chaiſe, or any other Carriage uſed in travelling Poſt, there ſhall be charged, if the Diſtance ſhall be then aſcertained, the Sum of one Penny per Mile, and if the Diſtance ſhall not then be aſcertained, there ſhall be charged the Sum of Twelvepence for and in reſpect of each Horſe ſo hired; ſuch Duty to be paid by the Perſon or Perſons by whom ſuch Horſe ſhall be hired; that every Perſon who ſhall keep any Four-wheeled Chaiſe, or other Machine, commonly called A Diligence or Poſt-coach, or by what Name ſoever ſuch Carriages now are or hereafter ſhall be called or known, for the Purpoſe of conveying in the Inſide thereof any Number of Paſſengers, not exceeding four, for Hire, to and from Stage to Stage, or from Place to Place, ſhall yield and pay annually unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the Sum of five Shillings for a Licence for that Purpoſe; that every Four-wheeled Chaiſe, or other Machine, commonly called A Diligence or Poſt-coach, or by what Name ſoever ſuch Carriages now are, or hereafter ſhall be called or known, for the Purpoſe of conveying in the Inſide thereof any Number of Paſſengers, not exceeding four, for Hire, to and from Stage to Stage, or from Place to Place, ſhall be charged with a Duty of one Halfpenny per Mile ſuch Carriage ſhall travel, to be paid by the Owners thereof: And for the better and more effectual raiſing, levying, collecting, and paying the ſaid Rates and Duties herein-before granted, the ſame ſhall be under the Government, Care, and Management of the Commiſſioners for the Time being appointed to manage the Duties payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and charged on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who, or the major Part of them, are hereby required and empowered to appoint and employ ſuch Officers under them for that Purpoſe, and to allow ſuch Salaries and incident Charges, as ſhall be neceſſary; and to provide and uſe ſuch Marks or Stamps as they ſhall think fit; and to repair, renew, or alter the ſame, from Time to Time, as there ſhall be Occaſion; and to do all other Acts, Matters, and Things, neceſſary to be done for putting this Act in Execution, with relation to the ſaid Rates and Duties hereby granted, in the like, and in as full and ample Manner as they, or the major Part of them, are authoriſed to put in Execution any of the Laws now in being concerning ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper.

After July 5, 1779, the following Duties to be paid to his Majeſty; videlicet, Every Poſtmaſter, &c. who ſhall let Horſes to Hire for travelling Poſt, for an annual Licence, 5 s: Every Perſon hiring Horſes to travel Poſt, to pay, for each Horſe, 1 d. per Mile, or 1 s. per Day, where the Diſtance ſhall not be aſcertained: Every Perſon keeping a Diligence, Poſt-coach, or other Four-wheeled Carriage, for carrying only four Inſide Paſſengers, for Hire, ſhall pay annually 5 s. for a Licence; and ſhall alſo pay one Halfpenny for every Mile ſuch Carriage ſhall travel. The ſaid Duties to be under the Management of the Commiſſioners for the Stamp-duties.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, no Perſon whatſoever, required by this Act to be licenſed, ſhall, unleſs he or ſhe be authoriſed and enabled in the Manner herein-after preſcribed, let out any Horſe for Hire, either by the Mile or Stage, or to draw any Coach, Chariot, or Chaiſe, or any other Carriage uſed in travelling Poſt, for a Day, or any leſs Period of Time, upon Pain to forfeit for every ſuch Offence, five Pounds, to be recovered and applied as herein-after is directed.

Penalty on Perſons letting out Horſes to travel Poſt without a Licence.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, any two or more of his Majeſty's Commiſſioners appointed for managing the Duties ariſing by Stamps on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or ſome Perſon duly authoriſed by them, ſhall grant Licences to ſuch Perſons who ſhall apply for the ſame, to let out Horſes for Hire, in Manner aforeſaid, in any City, Town, or other Place, within Great Britain, for the Space of one Year, to commence from the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, upon all Licences to be granted on or before that Day; and upon Licences to be firſt granted to any Perſon or Perſons after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, to commence from the Day of the Date of every ſuch Licence; and all and every Perſon or Perſons who ſhall take out ſuch Licence for letting out Horſes for Hire in Manner aforeſaid, ſhall take out a freſh Licence for another Year ten Days at the leaſt before the Expiration of that Year for which he, ſhe, or they ſhall be ſo licenſed, if he, ſhe, or they ſhall continue to let out Horſes for Hire, in Manner aforeſaid, and ſhall, in like Manner, renew ſuch Licence from Year to Year, paying down the reſpective Sums due for ſuch Licences, as long as he, ſhe, or they ſhall continue to let out Horſes for Hire, in Manner aforeſaid.

Any two Commiſſioners of the Stamp-duties, or Perſons authoriſed by them, may grant Licences for letting out Horſes to Hire.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon whatſoever, licenſed or to be licenſed by Authority of this Act, ſhall, by virtue of one Licence, keep more than one Inn, Houſe, or other Place, for letting Horſes for the Purpoſes aforeſaid; but for each and every Inn, Houſe, or other Place, which any Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, ſhall keep for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, a ſeparate and diſtinct Licenſe ſhall be taken out, and paid for, by ſuch Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon.

No Perſon to keep more than one Inn, for letting Horſes, by virtue of one Licence.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, ſo licenſed to let Horſes as herein-before mentioned, ſhall cauſe the Words Licenſed to let Poſt-horſes, to be painted or written, in legible Characters, either on a Sign hung out, or in ſome viſible Place in the Front of his, her, or their Houſe, Stables, or Out-offices, at the reſpective Places at which he, ſhe, or they let out Horſes to Hire, as aforeſaid, to denote that ſuch Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, is a Letter or Furniſher of Poſt-horſes, and authoriſed to furniſh Travellers with the ſame purſuant to Law; and if any Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, ſo licenſed as aforeſaid, ſhall preſume to let out Horſes for Licenſed Innkeepers, &c. to cauſe certain Words to be painted on the Fronts of their Houſes, &c. before they let Horſes for Hire.

on Penalty of 5*l.*

for Hire as herein-before mentioned, without fixing or hanging out such Token as aforesaid, every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered and distributed as herein-after is directed.

Innkeepers, &c. who furnish Carriages to travel Post, shall affix their Names, and their Places of Abode, on some conspicuous Part thereof;

on Penalty of 5*l.*

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, so licensed as aforesaid, shall, if he, she, or they, furnish his, her, or their own Chaises, or other Carriages, at the same Time with such Horses let to Hire to travel Post as aforesaid, mark or paint, or cause to be marked or painted, upon some conspicuous Part of the Chaise, or other Carriage so furnished, his, her, or their Christian and Surname, and the Name of the City, Town, or Place, of his, her, or their Abode, in plain and legible Characters, and continue the same thereupon, so long as such Chaise or Carriage shall be so used; and if any Person or Persons shall neglect the same, or mark or paint, or cause to be marked or painted, any false or fictitious Name, or Place of Abode, on such Chaise or other Carriage, he or she shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of five Pounds.

Commissioners of the Stamp-duties are to deliver, to every Person taking out a Licence, printed or written Papers;

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners appointed for managing the Duties arising by Stamps on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, shall, at the Time of issuing such Licence as aforesaid, deliver, or cause to be delivered, to every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, so to be licensed, printed or written Papers, intituled, Stamp-office Weekly Account; in which shall be inserted the Day of the Week, and Blanks left for the Number of Horses and Miles, and for the Day of the Month, and the Names of the Postillions or Drivers employed, to be filled up as herein-after directed, according to the following Form, or such other Form as the said Commissioners shall judge convenient for keeping such Accounts:

Penalty on Officers making Default.

Postmasters, &c. on receiving their first Licence, to give Security for the Redelivery of Tickets unaccounted for, &c.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That each and every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person so licensed to let Horses for the Purposes aforesaid, shall, at the Time of receiving his, her, or their first Licence, give Security, by Bond, to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the Sum of fifty Pounds, with a Condition that he, she, or they will, whenever thereunto required, redeliver, or cause to be redelivered, the Stamp-office Tickets which he, she, or they may have received, and that may remain unaccounted for by him, her, or them; and that he, she, or they, will also deliver to the Perſon or Perſons (properly authoriſed by the Commiſſioners appointed for managing the Duties ariſing by Stamps on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, to inſpect the ſame, and to receive the Money due thereon) the Stamp-office Account ſo delivered to him, her, or them, as aforeſaid, faithfully made out, filled up, ſigned, and atteſted, as herein-after directed, and make Payment of all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as ſhall be due and payable to his Majeſty, in purſuance of, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and alſo truly and faithfully to obſerve and perform all the Directions, Matters, and Things herein contained, on his, her, or their Behalf, to be obſerved and performed; and in caſe of the Non-performance or Breach of ſuch Condition, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the Perſons ſo appointed by them, to cauſe each and every ſuch Bond to be proſecuted according to Law; and in caſe of Judgment againſt the Defendant, the ſaid Commiſſioners may, if they ſhall think fit, refuſe to grant to ſuch Perſon, againſt whom ſuch Judgment ſhall be obtained, any Licences to let Horſes as aforeſaid in future.

to

Poſtmaſters, &c. letting out Horſes to travel Poſt, ſhall receive, for the Uſe of his Majeſty, of the Perſons hiring the ſame, 1d. for every Mile each Horſe is to travel; and ſhall deliver to them Stamp-office Tickets properly filled up. Penalty on Neglect thereof.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, licenſed as aforeſaid, who ſhall let Horſes to Hire by the Mile or Stage, to be uſed in travelling Poſt, ſhall, by themſelves or Servants, previous to the uſing ſuch Horſe or Horſes, aſk, demand, and receive, for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, of and from the Perſon or Perſons hiring the ſame, the Sum of one Penny per Mile, for each Mile ſuch Horſe ſhall be ſo hired to travel, at and after the Rate or Number of Miles which he, ſhe, or they ſhall charge ſuch Traveller or Travellers for the Stage or Diſtance ſuch Horſe may be hired to go; and ſhall, at the ſame Time he or ſhe receives Payment of the Duty for ſuch Horſe or Horſes, deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, to the Perſon or Perſons hiring ſuch Horſe or Horſes, one or more of the Stamp-office Tickets herein-before mentioned, as Occaſion ſhall require, and to which ſuch Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, ſhall add, or cauſe to be added, in Words or Figures, the Month and Day of the Month, and the Number of Miles for which ſuch Horſe or Horſes are ſo hired: And if any Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, ſhall neglect to aſk, demand, and receive, the ſaid Duty of one Penny per Mile from ſuch Perſon or Perſons hiring ſuch Horſe or Horſes, or ſhall neglect or refuſe to deliver ſuch Ticket or Tickets, as herein-before directed, to ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo hiring the Horſes as aforeſaid, ſuch Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds; and moreover, in caſe of not receiving the ſaid Rate or Duty, be chargeable therewith to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in the ſame Manner as if he, ſhe, or they had actually received the ſame.

Travellers to deliver their Tickets at the firſt Turnpike they ſhall paſs through. Penalty on Neglect.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Traveller or Travellers, to whom ſuch Ticket ſhall be delivered as aforeſaid, who ſhall paſs through any Turnpike, ſhall, at the firſt Turnpike through which he, ſhe, or they ſhall paſs, deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, to the Toll-gate Keeper there, the Ticket or Tickets ſo given to him, her, or them, at the Place where he, ſhe, or they hired ſuch Horſe or Horſes, which the ſaid Toll-gatherer is hereby directed to receive and file; and if any Traveller or Travellers ſo going Poſt as aforeſaid, ſhall have neglected to take ſuch Ticket or Tickets, or ſhall not deliver, or cauſe the ſame to be delivered, he, ſhe, or they ſhall, before ſuch Horſes be permitted to paſs ſuch Toll-gate, pay for every Horſe hired and uſed by ſuch Travellers or Traveller, the Sum of one Shilling and Sixpence, which the Gate-keeper is hereby authoriſed to aſk and demand, and not permit ſuch Horſes to paſs till he, ſhe, or they ſhall have paid the ſame, or produce ſuch Ticket or Tickets as aforeſaid.

Poſtmaſters, &c. letting out Horſes to travel by the Day, &c. ſhall receive, for the Uſe of his Majeſty, of the Perſons hiring them, 1d. for every Mile each Horſe is to travel; or 1s. for each Horſe, where the Diſtance ſhall not be aſcertained; and ſhall deliver to them Stamp-office Tickets properly filled up. Penalty on Poſtmaſter, &c. for Neglect.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon licenſed as aforeſaid, who ſhall let to Hire any Horſe or Horſes by the Day, or leſs Period of Time, as aforeſaid, ſhall, by themſelves or Servants, previous to ſuch Horſe or Horſes being uſed, aſk, demand, and receive, for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, of and from the Perſon or Perſons hiring the ſame, the Sum of one Penny per Mile for each Mile ſuch Horſe or Horſes ſhall be ſo hired to go, where the Diſtance ſhall be then aſcertained, and where the Diſtance ſhall not be then aſcertained, then the Sum of Twelve-pence for each Horſe ſo hired, previous to ſuch Horſe or Horſes being uſed; and ſhall, at the ſame Time, deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, to the Perſon ſo hiring ſuch Horſe or Horſes, one or more of the Stamp-office Tickets herein-before mentioned, with the Words For a Day inſerted thereon, as Occaſion ſhall require, and to which any Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, ſhall add, or cauſe to be added, in Words or Figures, the Month, and Day of the Month; and in caſe ſuch Horſe or Horſes ſhall be hired to return the ſame Day with the ſame Carriage, and any Perſon or Perſons therein by or for whom ſuch Horſe or Horſes are ſo hired, then the Words To return; and if any Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, ſhall neglect to aſk, demand, and receive the ſaid Duty of one Penny per Mile, or Twelve-pence, as the Caſe may happen to be, from ſuch Perſon or Perſons hiring ſuch Horſe or Horſes, or neglect or refuſe to deliver ſuch Ticket or Tickets, ſuch Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds, and moreover, in caſe of not receiving the ſaid Rate or Duty, be chargeable therewith to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in the ſame Manner as if he, ſhe, or they had actually received the ſame.

Enumeration of Particulars to be inſerted, by Poſtmaſters, &c. in the Account to be delivered them from the Stamp-office.

XII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon ſo licenſed to let Horſes as aforeſaid, ſhall inſert in the Account herein-before ſpecified ſo delivered to him, her, or them, from the Stamp-office, the Number of Horſes uſed in travelling Poſt, and the Number of Miles for which ſuch Horſes ſhall have been ſo uſed, alſo the Number of Horſes let to Hire for a Day, or any leſs Period of Time, and the Day of the Month on which the ſame were uſed, together with the Names of the Poſtillions or Drivers employed; which ſaid Account ſhall be ſigned by ſuch Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon ſo licenſed as aforeſaid, and witneſſed by the Hoſtler or other Servant employed in preparing and getting ready ſuch Horſes, and ſhall be open, when required, to the Inſpection of any Perſon or Perſons duly authoriſed, under the Hands and Seals of the ſaid Commiſſioners for managing the Duties on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, to inſpect the ſame; and and ſuch Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, ſo licenſed as aforeſaid, reſiding in the City of London or Liberty of Weſtminſter, ſhall, the firſt Tueſday or Wedneſday in every Month, and ſuch other Perſons ſo licenſed as aforeſaid, reſiding within five Miles of the City of London, or Liberty of Weſtminſter, or within the Bills of Mortality, ſhall, the firſt Thurſday or Friday in every Month, or at ſuch other Times as may be appointed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, on public Notice given in the Gazette, bring in and deliver to the Commiſſioners, or to the Perſon or Perſons appointed by them for the Purpoſe of receiving the ſame, at the Head Office, the Accounts herein-before directed for the four Weeks ending on the Saturday preceding ſuch Day of Delivery, and ſhall, within eight Days thereafter, pay ſuch Sum and Sums of Money which ſhall appear to be due thereon to the Receiver-general for the Time being of the Duties on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, or to the proper Officer for the Time being for collecting the ſaid Duties, for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, at the Head Office in Lincoln's Inn, or wherever elſe the ſame may be held, upon Pain of forfeiting ten Pounds for every Default in not delivering in ſuch Account, and double the Amount of the Money ſo due and payable from ſuch Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, for the ſaid Rates or Duties, for the Nonpayment thereof.

At what Time licenſed Perſons reſiding in London or Weſtminſter, or within five Miles thereof, or in the Bills of Mortality, ſhall deliver their Accounts at the Stamp-office, &c.

Where and when licenſed Perſons living in other Parts of the Kingdom ſhall deliver their Accounts, &c.

XIII. And it is hereby further enacted, That every Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon ſo licenſed as aforeſaid, not reſiding within the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or within five Miles of the ſame, or within the Bills of Mortality, ſhall, at all ſuch Times and Places to be appointed for that Purpoſe as herein-after mentioned, produce and deliver the Accounts herein-before directed for the Weeks ending on the Saturday preceding ſuch Delivery, and then unaccounted for, to the Perſon or Perſons duly authoriſed, by Commiſſion under the Hands and Seals of three of the ſaid Commiſſioners for managing the Duties on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, to receive ſuch Accounts, and the Money due thereon, and at the ſame Time pay to ſuch Perſon or Perſons all Sum and Sums of Money which ſhall appear to be due upon ſuch Accounts, under the Penalty of ten Pounds for every Default in not delivering ſuch Accounts, and double the Amount of the Money due and payable from ſuch Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, for the ſaid Rates or Duties, for the Nonpayment thereof.

All Tickets having the Number of Miles expreſſed therein, ſhall be accordingly paid for by the Poſtmaſter, &c. Penalty on Poſtmaſters, &c. who ſhall endeavour to defraud his Majeſty of the Rates impoſed by this Act.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Ticket delivered from the Stamp-office, that ſhall appear with the Number of Miles expreſſed therein, either in Words or Figures, ſhall be deemed a Ticket upon which the Duty has been received, and ſhall be accounted and paid for by the Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, according to ſuch Number of Horſes and Miles marked thereon, at and after the Rate aforeſaid.

XV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, ſo licenſed as aforeſaid, who ſhall be guilty of any wilful Concealment, or making falſe Accounts, or any other fraudulent Contrivance, Device, or Pretence whatſoever, with an Intent or Deſign to defraud his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, of any of the Rates or Duties impoſed by this Act, or any Part thereof, ſuch Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, ſhall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds, to be recovered as herein-after directed; and the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall and may, if they ſhall ſo think fit, after Judgment obtained againſt ſuch Offender, refuſe to grant to ſuch Offender any Licence in future.

Every Poſtmaſter, &c. who ſhall take the Hire for Horſes travelling Poſt, ſhall be accountable for the Duty.

'XVI. And, in order to prevent the evading the Payment of the Duties hereby granted, by permitting 'Carriages conveying Perſons Poſt to be drawn by Horſes which have paid the Duty for the Stage, under 'the Pretence of ſuch Horſes being upon the Return home;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, who ſhall take the Hire for ſuch Horſes by the Mile, or from Stage to Stage, ſhall be conſidered as the Perſon to whom the Duties herein-before granted ſhall be paid, and ſhall be chargeable with and accountable for the ſame, as if ſuch Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, was the actual Proprietor of ſuch Horſes, although the ſame may belong to, and be the Property of, any other licenſed Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon.

No Poſtmaſter, &c. at whoſe Houſe any Traveller ſhall change Horſes, ſhall let them any otherwiſe than by the Mile or Stage.

'XVII. And, in order to prevent evading the Payment of the Duties hereby granted upon Horſes hired 'by the Mile or Stage, under Pretence of the letting ſuch Horſes for a Day, or any leſs Period of Time,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, at whoſe Inn, Houſe, or other Place, kept for letting Horſes to Hire, any Traveller or Travellers ſhall change Horſes, ſhall let to Hire any Horſe or Horſes, to ſuch Traveller or Travellers, in any other Manner than by the Mile or Stage; and if any Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, ſhall act contrary hereto, he, ſhe, or they, ſhall, for every Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered as herein-after mentioned.

Receiver-general of the Stamp-duties ſhall pay to the Toll-gate Keepers 10 s. where the Duties on Tickets delivered by them ſhall amount to 100 l. &c.

'XVIII. And, in Compenſation for the Trouble every Toll-gate Keeper may have in and about the 'Execution of this Act, and for an Encouragement to diſcover and detect Frauds that may be committed 'againſt the ſame,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Receiver-general at the Head Office, and the ſaid other Collectors, ſhall and may, and they are hereby authoriſed and required to pay to the reſpective Toll-gate Keepers, who ſhall deliver, as herein-after mentioned, Tickets by him or her received at ſuch reſpective Gates, the Sum of ten Shillings, where the Duties upon ſuch Tickets ſhall amount to one hundred Pounds; and at and after that Rate for Tickets where the Duties thereon ſhall amount to any greater or leſs Sum than one hundred Pounds, and alſo allow ſuch Toll-gate Keeper to retain the Money collected by him from ſuch Traveller or Travellers who ſhall not, purſuant to this Act, have delivered Tickets to ſuch Toll-gate Keeper, as aforeſaid.

Where and when the Toll-gate Keepers ſhall bring the ſaid Tickets.

XIX. Provided always nevertheleſs, and it is hereby enacted, That all and every Toll-gate Keeper ſhall, for the Compenſation and Allowance aforeſaid, bring, or cauſe to be brought, the Tickets herein-before mentioned by him or her received, if within five Miles of London, then to the Head Office there, or to ſuch other Place within the Bills of Mortality as the Commiſſioners ſhall appoint; and if beyond the Diſtance of five Miles from London, then to ſuch Places, and at ſuch Times, as the Collector appointed to collect ſuch Duties ſhall require, and deliver up, or cauſe to be delivered up, ſuch Tickets to the Receiver-general or Collector to be appointed as aforeſaid.

Penalty on Toll-gate Keepers who ſhall not deliver up Tickets on Demand.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Toll-gate Keeper who ſhall have received ſuch Stamp-office Tickets as aforeſaid, who ſhall not bring, or cauſe to be brought, ſuch Tickets, at the Times and Places aforeſaid, ſhall, upon Demand made at the Gate of ſuch Turnpike, deliver ſuch Tickets to the Collector to be appointed by the ſaid Commiſſioners for managing the Duties on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, as aforeſaid; and if any Toll-gate Keeper ſhall refuſe to deliver up all and every ſuch Stamp-office Tickets, ſo received by him or her, upon ſuch Demand as aforeſaid, every Toll-gate Keeper ſhall, for each Ticket he or ſhe ſhall ſo refuſe to deliver up, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Shillings, to be recovered as herein-after is directed.

Where Poſtmaſters, &c. reſiding out of the Bills of Mortality, are to attend and paſs their Accounts.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, ſo licenſed as aforeſaid, not reſiding in the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, nor within the Bills of Mortality, ſhall, at the Times and at the Places to be mentioned at the Foot of the firſt Licence granted to him, her, or them, when the ſame ſhall be delivered, and afterwards at the Foot of every Receipt which ſhall be given by the Collector for the Money paid in by him, her, or them, on account of the ſaid Duties, attend, and there deliver in and paſs his Account, and pay the Duty received by him, her, or them, as aforeſaid, to the Collector ſo appointed to collect the ſame: Provided that no ſuch Perſon as aforeſaid ſhall be compelled to travel for the Payment of the ſaid Duties, or other Cauſes whatſoever touching or concerning the ſame, if he, ſhe, or they live in a Market-town, out of the ſaid Town, or if he, ſhe, or they live out of a Market-town, then to no other Place than to the Market-town neareſt to his, her, or their Habitation.

This Act not to extend to Horſes uſed in Hackney-coaches, &c.

XXII. Provided alſo, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any Horſes uſed in Hackney-coaches, licenſed purſuant to ſeveral Acts of Parliament made for that Purpoſe; nor to any Horſe or Horſes uſed in the drawing of any Coach, Chariot, or Chaiſe, or any other Carriage, uſed in travelling Poſt, where ſuch Horſe or Horſes ſhall be hired to return before Twelve of the Clock at Night of the ſame Day with the ſame Carriage, and any Perſon or Perſons therein by or for whom ſuch Horſe or Horſes were hired, and ſhall actually return accordingly.

All Horſes hired by the Mile, or Stage, ſhall be deemed hired to travel Poſt.

XXIII. And it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Horſe hired by the Mile, or Stage, ſhall be deemed to be hired to travel Poſt, within the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, although the Perſon or Perſons hiring the ſame do not go or travel ſeveral Stages upon a Poſt-road, or change Horſes; and although at the Stage or Place at or to which ſuch Horſe ſhall be hired there ſhall not be any Poſt-houſe; and although there ſhall not be any Poſt ſettled or eſtabliſhed on the Road, or any Part thereof, upon which ſuch Horſe ſhall be hired to go; any Thing herein-before contained, or any Law or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

On the Death of any licenſed Poſtmaſter, &c. his Executors, &c. ſhall not be liable to any Penalty for letting Horſes to Hire, provided they take out a Licence within 30 Days after his Death.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, licenſed to let Horſes in Manner aforeſaid, ſhall die, it ſhall and may be lawful for his or her Executors, Adminiſtrators, or other Perſons ſucceeding to ſuch Inn, Houſe or other Place, to let Horſes to Hire in Manner aforeſaid, until ſuch Time as ſuch Perſon ſhall procure ſuch Licence, and give ſuch Security as herein-before directed, without being liable to the Penalty herein-before inflicted upon the Perſons letting Horſes to Hire without being licenſed in that Behalf, provided ſuch Licence be taken out within thirty Days after the Death of ſuch Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon; and ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſubject to the ſame Rules, Regulations, and Charges, and liable to account, and to the Payment of the ſame Rates and Duties hereby impoſed, as ſuch Poſtmaſter, Innkeeper, or other Perſon, was ſubject and liable to.

No Perſon ſhall let out for Hire any Diligence, or Poſt-coach, &c. without a Licence, on Penalty of 5 l. for each Offence.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, no Perſon who ſhall keep any four-wheeled Chaiſe, or other Machine, commonly called A Diligence or Poſt-coach, or by what Name ſoever ſuch Carriage or Carriages now are or hereafter ſhall be called or known, for the Purpoſe of conveying, in the Inſide thereof, any Number of Paſſengers, not exceeding four, for Hire, from Stage to Stage, or from Place to Place, ſhall let out the ſame for ſuch Purpoſe, without having firſt obtained a Licence under the Hands of two of the ſaid Commiſſioners for managing the Duties on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, for that Purpoſe, upon Pain to forfeit, for every Time ſuch Machine ſhall be ſo uſed, the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered and applied as herein-after is directed.

Commiſſioners of Stamp-duties to grant ſuch Licences to all Perſons who ſhall apply for them.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, any two or more of his Majeſty's Commiſſioners appointed for managing the Duties ariſing by Stamps on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or ſome Perſon duly authoriſed by them, ſhall grant Licences, under their Hands and Seals, to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall apply for the ſame, to let out for Hire any ſuch Diligence, or other Carriage, for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, for the Space of one Year, to commence from the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, upon all Licences to be granted on or before that Day; and upon Licences to be firſt granted to any Perſon or Perſons after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, to commence from the Day of the Date of ſuch Licence; which ſaid Licence ſhall be renewed at leaſt ten Days previous to the Expiration of the Year for which it was granted; and if the Perſon or Perſons ſo licenſed ſhall continue to let out for Hire ſuch Machine, Diligence, or Carriage, as aforeſaid, he, ſhe, or they ſhall, in the ſame Manner, renew ſuch Licence from Year to Year, paying down the reſpective Sums due for ſuch Licence, and ſo yearly and every Year, as long as he, ſhe, or they ſhall continue to let ſuch Diligence, or other Carriage, in Manner aforeſaid.

Only one Diligence, &c. to be kept by virtue of one Licence.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons, ſo licenſed to let out Diligences, or other Carriages, in Manner aforeſaid, ſhall, by virtue of one Licence, keep more than one Diligence, or other Carriage, for the Purpoſe aforeſaid.

All licenſed Perſons to pay One Half-penny for

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons, ſo licenſed to uſe any Diligence or Carriage as aforeſaid, to and from Stage to Stage, or from Place to Place, ſhall every Mile their Diligence, &c. ſhall travel; and ſhall declare, when they receive their Licence, to and from what Places it is intended to be uſed, and how often.

ſhall pay to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the Sum of one Halfpenny for every Mile every ſuch Carriage or Carriages ſhall be ſo uſed or travel, as aforeſaid.

XXIX. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons, ſo licenſed to uſe ſuch Diligence, or other Carriage, as aforeſaid, ſhall, at the Time of receiving ſuch Licence, declare from what Place, and to what Place, ſuch Diligence or other Carriage is intended to be uſed, diſtinguiſhing the Diſtance or Number of Miles between the two extreme Towns or other Places ſuch Diligence or other Carriage is to go, and the Number of Journies each ſuch Diligence or Carriage is ſo intended to be uſed, either in the Day or in the Week, as the Caſe may happen to be, that the ſame may be inſerted in ſuch Licence; and all and every Perſon or Perſons, ſo licenſed for ſuch Purpoſe as aforeſaid, ſhall give Security, by Bond, to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in the Sum of twenty Pounds, with a Condition for the faithful accounting for and paying ſuch Sums as may be due for the Journies ſuch Diligence or other Carriage may have ſo made.

Diſcretionary Powers veſted in Commiſſioners relative to Diligences, &c. paſſing and repaſſing within 12 Miles of London.

'XXX. And, in regard it may be difficult to aſcertain the Number of Times ſuch licenſed Diligences, or 'other Carriages, making ſhort Stages about London, may go in a Day,' it is hereby provided and enacted, That the Commiſſioners for managing the Stamp-duties, or the major Part of them, or ſuch Officers as they ſhall appoint in that Behalf, ſhall and may, and they are hereby impowered to make ſuch Allowances as ſhall appear to be juſt to any Perſon or Perſons licenſed to uſe any Diligence, or other Carriage, as aforeſaid, to go from and to return to London, where the Diſtance does not exceed twelve meaſured Miles, upon Oath made by the Owner of ſuch Diligence, or other Carriage, before the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, or ſuch Officers ſo to be appointed, as to the Number of Journies actually made in a Day by ſuch Diligence or other Carriage, where the ſame ſhall differ from the Number expreſſed in ſuch Licences; which Oath the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby required to adminiſter, and to examine into all the Circumſtances relative to the Number of Journies ſo made by ſuch Diligence, or other Carriage, as aforeſaid, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, are hereby impowered to make ſuch Regulations, with reſpect to ſuch Diligences, or other Carriages, where ſuch Allowances are applied for, as they ſhall, from Time to Time, find neceſſary, as well for the effectual ſecuring the Duties on ſuch Diligences, or other Carriages, as doing Juſtice to the Owners or Proprietors thereof.

The Name of the Owner of every Diligence, &c. to be painted on the Outſide of each Door. Where and when the Duties ariſing from Diligences, &c. ſhall be paid.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons ſo licenſed to uſe every ſuch Carriage as aforeſaid, ſhall mark or paint, or cauſe to be marked or painted, on the outſide Pannel of each Door, before he, ſhe, or they ſhall uſe the ſame for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, his, her, or their Chriſtian and Surname, mentioning the Place from whence they ſet out, and to which they are going, in plain and legible Characters; and every Proprietor of every ſuch Diligence or other Carriage as aforeſaid licenſed to go from London to any other Place, or from any other Place to London, ſhall, on the firſt Monday in every Month, between the Hours of Eight in the Morning and two in the Afternoon, unleſs the ſame be an Holiday, and then on the next Day, not being an Holiday, clear the ſaid Duties charged and become due by virtue of this Act, by paying the ſame to the Receiver-general of Stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, or to the proper Officer for the Time being for collecting the ſaid Duties, for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, at the Head Office in Lincoln's Inn, or wherever elſe the ſame may be held; and if ſuch Proprietor or Proprietors ſhall be licenſed from any Town in the Country to any other Town than London, then ſuch Proprietor or Proprietors ſhall clear the ſaid Duties, by paying the ſame to the Perſon duly authoriſed, by Commiſſion under the Hands and Seals of three of his Majeſty's Commiſſioners of the Stamp-duties, to receive the ſame, under the Penalty of ten Pounds.

Licenſed Proprietor of any Diligence, &c. to give ſeven Days Notice before he diſcontinue the ſame.

XXXII. Provided always, That every ſuch licenſed Proprietor or Proprietors of any Diligence or other Carriage as aforeſaid, who ſhall lay down and diſcontinue the Uſe of the ſame, ſhall give Notice, in Writing, ſeven Days at leaſt before he, ſhe, or they ſhall lay down or diſcontinue ſuch Diligence or other Carriage, and ſhall have ſuch Notice indorſed upon the Back of ſuch his, her, or their Licence or Licences, or upon the Bond ſo to be given as aforeſaid, and from thenceforth, on Payment of all Arrears, ſhall be no longer charged or chargeable for or in reſpect of ſuch Diligence or other Carriage.

Poſtmaſters, &c. to be allowed 3 d. in the Pound out of the Monies to be accounted for and paid by them.

XXXIII. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Receiver-general at the Head Office, and the ſaid other Collectors duly appointed to receive the Duties hereby impoſed, ſhall make an Allowance to the ſeveral Poſtmaſters, Innkeepers, or other Perſons licenſed as aforeſaid, and they ſhall be intitled reſpectively to deduct for their own Uſe, at and after the Rate of Three-pence in the Pound, out of the Monies by them regularly accounted for and paid to ſuch Receiver-general or other Collector, according to the Directions herein-before contained.

Penalty on forging any Ticket, or uttering the ſame.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon ſhall falſely make, forge, or counterfeit, or cauſe or procure to be falſely made, forged, or counterfeited; or wilfully act or aſſiſt in the falſe making, forging, or counterfeiting, any Ticket, by this Act authoriſed or directed to be uſed, with an Intent to defraud his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, of any of the ſaid Duties, or ſhall utter or publiſh as true any falſe, forged, or counterfeited Ticket, with an Intent to defraud his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, of any of the ſaid Duties, every Perſon ſo offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be levied and applied as herein-before directed and declared.

Pecuniary Penalties amounting to 20 l. to go One-half to his Majeſty, and the other to the Informer.

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all pecuniary Penalties hereby impoſed, amounting to twenty Pounds or more, ſhall be divided and diſtributed, to wit, one Moiety thereof to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof, with full Coſts of Suit, to ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall inform and ſue for the ſame, in any of his Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, for Offences committed in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, and in his Majeſty's Court of Seſſion, Court of Juſticiary, or Court of Exchequer, in Scotland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed.

Two Juſtices may determine any Offence againſt this Act, if the Penalty does not exceed 20l.

XXXVI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any two or more Juſtices of the Peace, reſiding near the Place where the Offence ſhall be committed, to hear and determine any Offence againſt this Act, which ſubjects the Offender to any pecuniary Penalty not exceeding twenty Pounds: which ſaid Juſtices of the Peace are hereby authoriſed and required, upon any Information exhibited, or Complaint made, in that Behalf, to ſummon the Party accuſed, and alſo the Witneſſes on either Side, and upon the Appearance or Contempt of the Party, ſhall proceed to the Examination of the Matter of Fact; and upon due Proof made thereof, either by the voluntary Confeſſion of the Party, or by Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, to give Judgment or Sentence for the Penalty or Forfeiture, according as in and by this Act is directed, and to award and iſſue out their Warrants, under their Hands and Seals, for the levying any pecuniary Penalties or Forfeitures ſo adjudged, on the Goods of the Offender, and to cauſe Sale to be made thereof, in caſe they ſhall not be redeemed within ſix Days, rendering to the Party the Overplus, if any; and where the Goods of ſuch Offender cannot be found ſufficient to anſwer the Penalty, to commit ſuch Offender to Priſon, there to remain until ſuch pecuniary Penalty ſhall be paid and ſatisfied; and if either Party ſhall find himſelf aggrieved by the Judgment of the ſaid Juſtices, then he or they ſhall or may, upon giving Security to the Amount of the Value of the Penalties and Forfeitures ſo awarded by ſuch two Juſtices, appeal to the Juſtices of the Peace at the next General Quarter Seſſions for that County, Riding, or Place, who are hereby impowered to ſummon and examine Witneſſes, upon Oath, and finally to hear and determine the ſame; and in caſe of Conviction, to iſſue Warrants for levying the Penalties as aforeſaid.

Perſons aggrieved may appeal to the Quarter Seſſions.

Juſtices may mitigate the Penalties.

XXXVII. Provided nevertheleſs, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid reſpective Juſtices, where they ſhall ſee Cauſe, to mitigate and leſſen any ſuch Penalties as they ſhall think fit, reaſonable Coſts and Charges of the Officers and Informers, as well in making the Diſcovery as in proſecuting the ſame, being always allowed over and above ſuch Mitigation, and ſo as ſuch Mitigation do not reduce the Penalties to leſs than double the Duties over and above the ſaid Coſts and Charges; any Thing contained in this Act, or any other Act of Parliament, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Receiver general of Stamp-duties to pay the Duties granted by this Act into the Exchequer.

Auditor to keep a ſeparate Account thereof.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Duties herein-before granted ſhall be paid, from Time to Time, into the Hands of the Receiver-general for the Time being of the Duties on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who ſhall keep a ſeparate and diſtinct Account of the ſeveral Rates and Duties, and pay the ſame (the neceſſary Charges of raiſing, paying, and accounting for the ſame, being deducted) into the Receipt of the Exchequer, at ſuch Time, and in ſuch Manner, as the Duties now charged on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, are directed to be paid; and that in the Office of the Auditor of the ſaid Receipt ſhall be provided and kept a Book or Books, in which all the Monies ariſing from the ſaid ſeveral Rates and Duties, and paid into the ſaid Receipt as aforeſaid, ſhall be entered ſeparate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, upon any Account whatſoever; and the ſaid Money, ſo paid into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer as aforeſaid, ſhall, together with ſuch other Rates, Duties, and Revenues, as ſhall be granted by any Act or Acts of this Seſſion of Parliament for this Purpoſe, be a Fund for the Payment of the ſeveral Annuities, and all ſuch other Charges and Expences as are directed to be paid and payable purſuant to an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament (intituled, An Act for raiſing a certain Sum of Money by way of Annuities, and for eſtabliſhing a Lottery).

Part of an Act of 9 Annæ repealed.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſo much of an Act, made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, (intituled, An Act for eſtabliſhing a General Poſt-Office for all her Majeſty's Dominions, and for ſettling a weekly Sum out of the Revenues thereof for the Service of the War, and other her Majeſty's Occaſions), as reſtrains any Perſons, other than the Poſtmaſter-general for the Time being, and the reſpective Deputies and Subſtitutes of ſuch Poſtmaſter-general, from preparing or providing, or from letting to Hire, or furniſhing Horſes or Furniture for riding Poſt within this Kingdom, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby repealed and made void.

Perſons ſued for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, may plead the General Iſſue, and recover Treble Coſts.

XL. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time or Times be ſued, moleſted, or proſecuted, for any Thing by him or them done or executed in purſuance of this Act, or of any Clauſe, Matter, or Thing, herein contained, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give the ſpecial Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence; and if upon the Trial a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs become nonſuited, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts awarded to him or them againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

CAP. LII.

An Act for taking off the Duty upon all Salt uſed in the curing of Pilchards, and laying a proportionable Duty upon all Pilchards conſumed at Home only.

Preamble. Recital of an Act 5 Geo. ‘WHEREAS, by an Act of Parliament, paſſed in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the firſt, intituled, An Act for recovering the Credit of the Britiſh Fiſhery in foreign Parts, and for better ſecuring the Duties on Salt, Pilchards cured for Exportation are exempted from the Payment of any Duty on Salt to his Majeſty, except the Cuſtoms payable on the Importation thereof: And whereas of late Times the Pilchard Fiſhery hath been ſo much increaſed, that the Demands of foreign Markets have been found inſufficient to take off and vend the Quantities of Pilchards cured at a Price adequate to encourage and preſerve a Fiſhery ſo valuable: And whereas, upon a ſerious View and Inveſtigation of the State of the ſaid Fiſhery, there is Reaſon to hope that the ſame

'may be preſerved, and carried on in its full Extent, if, under proper Regulations, a reaſonable Abate-
'ment were made in the Duty on Salt uſed in the curing of all ſuch Pilchards as may be appropriated for 'Home Conſumption;' be it thereſore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, the Duties now payable on Salt uſed in curing of Pilchards for Home Conſumption, ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer paid.

After July 5, 1779 Duties on Salt uſed in curing Pilchards for Home Conſumption, to ceaſe.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That at the Beginning of every Fiſhing Seaſon for Pilchards, the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt delivered Duty-free for the curing of Pilchards for Exportation, purſuant to the ſaid Act, or his or their Agent or Agents, ſhall, inſtead of the Oath required by the ſaid Act, make Oath, in Writing, before the Officer for the Duty on Salt, at the Office neareſt to the Place where the Salt is lodged (who is hereby impowered to adminiſter the ſame), declaring the Quantity of the foreign or Britiſh Salt reſpectively lodged for the curing of Fiſh, and that all the ſaid Salt is intended for the curing of Fiſh for Exportation only, and ſhall not, by his or their Order, Conſent, or Connivance, directly or indirectly, be ſold, given away, or any Way delivered, but for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, except ſo much thereof as ſhall be uſed for curing ſuch Pilchards as ſhall be entered with the Officer of the Place for Home Conſumption, and charged with the Duties by this Act chargeable thereon.

New Oath to be taken by the Proprietors of Salt delivered Duty free at the Beginning of the fiſhing Seaſon for Pilchards, &c.

III. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Curer of Pilchards, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, before he removes any Pilchards (except for Exportation) from the Office, Cellar, or Place, where the ſame ſhall be cured, ſhall, from Time to Time, make Entry thereof at the next Salt-office; and ſhall pay to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, a Duty of five Shillings and Two-pence Halfpenny for every Caſk or Barrel, containing fifty Gallons of cured Pilchards, ſo to be removed, and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſs Quantity, in Lieu and full Satisfaction of any other Duty impoſed or laid on Britiſh or foreign Salt, to his Majeſty, in reſpect of Pilchards cured as aforeſaid, for Home Conſumption; and that no ſuch Curer ſhall ſell a leſs Quantity than twenty-five Gallons of Pilchards at any one Time; and that ſuch Pilchards ſhall be packed or put up in Caſks, each Caſk not containing leſs than twenty-five Gallons, and the Contents of ſuch Caſks ſhall be marked on the Heads thereof, by the proper Officer of the Commiſſioners of the Salt Duties; and upon Entry and Payment of the Duty, and marking ſuch Caſks as aforeſaid, a Permit ſhall be given gratis by the Salt-officer, expreſſing the Contents of the Caſks for which the Duty ſhall be paid, as aforeſaid, and the Marks of ſuch Caſks, and for what Place the ſame are intended, and whether to be ſent by Land or Water Carriage; on Pain of forfeiting all the Pilchards that ſhall be ſold in leſs Quantities than herein-before mentioned, or that ſhall be removed or carried away before Entry is made, and the Duty paid, and without the Caſks containing ſuch Quantity of Pilchards at the leaſt, and being marked, and ſuch Permit obtained as aforeſaid, and of the Caſk or Veſſel in which ſuch Pilchards ſhall be found, and alſo the Sum of forty Shillings for every twenty-five Gallons of Pilchards ſo ſold or removed, and ſo in Proportion for a greater or leſs Quantity, to be recovered from the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſo ſell, remove, or carry away, the ſame; one Moiety thereof for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to the Officer or Officers who ſhall ſeize, ſue, or inform for the ſame, to be ſued for, recovered, and levied, in ſuch Manner and Form, and with ſuch Power of Mitigation, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, may be ſued for, recovered, levied, and mitigated, by any Law of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; and all and every Officer and Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, Exciſe, or Duties upon Salt, are hereby authoriſed and impowered to ſeize all ſuch Pilchards ſo ſold in leſs Quantities than herein-before mentioned, or removed or carried away before Entry and Payment of Duty, and all other Things performed as aforeſaid, and the ſaid Caſks or Veſſels wherein they ſhall be found.

Pilchards for Home Conſumption to be entered at the next Salt-office; and a Duty of 5 s. 2 d. Halfpenny to be paid for every Caſk of 50 Gallons.

No Curer to ſell leſs than 25 Gallons at a Time.

On Entry, and Payment of the Duty, &c. a Permit to be given gratis by the Salt-officer.

Penalty on ſelling in leſs Quantities than above-mentioned, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons purchaſing Pilchards to ſell by Retail ſhall, at any one Time, buy a leſs Quantity than twenty-five Gallons, and ſhall alſo be obliged, upon Demand, or Inquiry made of him or them for that Purpoſe, by any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, in ſome reaſonable Time of the Day, to diſcover to ſuch Officer or Officers the Name or Names, and Place or Places of Abode, of the Curer or Vendor of any Quantity or Quantities of Pilchards then in his Poſſeſſion; and that if any ſuch Retailer ſhall purchaſe a leſs Quantity of Pilchards than is before mentioned, or ſhall, upon ſuch Demand or Inquiry, refuſe to diſcover the Name and Place of Abode of any ſuch Curer or Vendor, every Perſon ſo offending ſhall, in each Caſe, forfeit the Quantity or Quantities of Pilchards ſo purchaſed, or reſpecting which ſuch Demand or Inquiry ſhall be made, and the Caſk or Caſks (if any) wherein the ſame ſhall be contained, and alſo the Sum of forty Shillings, to be recovered by the Ways or Means, and in Manner herein-before mentioned or directed.

Retailers of Pilchards not to buy leſs than 25 Gallons at a Time, nor refuſe to diſcover the Names of the Curers.

Penalty.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt delivered Duty-free for curing Pilchards for Exportation, his, her, or their Agent or Agents, ſhall in the Account which, after the End of every Fiſhing Seaſon, they are to deliver in Writing into the Salt-office, containing the Quantity of Fiſh exported, or entered and ſhipped to be exported, on which the Salt taken away, after its Delivery into the ſole Cuſtody of the ſaid Proprietor or Proprietors, his, her, or their Agent or Agents, has been uſed or conſumed, as by the former Law is directed (and under the Penalties thereby preſcribed), expreſs alſo the Quantity of Pilchards entered for Home Conſumption, on which ſuch Salt has been uſed or conſumed.

Proprietors of Salt delivered Duty-free for curing Pilchards for Exportation, are, in their Account at the End of the Seaſon, to expreſs the Quantity entered for Home Conſumption, on which ſuch Salt has been uſed.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in caſe the Duties of Exciſe on Salt (which now amount to three Shillings and Four-pence per Buſhel on home-made Salt, and ſix Shillings and Eight-pence per per Buſhel on foreign Salt), or any of them, ſhall ceaſe, determine, or be redeemed by Parliament, then the Rate or Duty of five Shillings and Two-pence Halfpenny for every Caſk or Barrel, containing fifty Gallons, hereby impoſed upon cured Pilchards for Home Conſumption, ſhall ceaſe, or be leſſened in Proportion to the Duties on Salt that ſhall ſo ceaſe, determine, or be redeemed; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

ſhould be leſſened then the aforeſaid Rate on Pilchards ſhall be leſſened in Proportion.

CAP. LIII.

An Act for diſcontinuing the Duties on Cotton-wool, the Growth and Product of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, exported from this Kingdom.

'WHEREAS the Importation of Cotton-wool, the Growth and Product of the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America, may be increaſed, and the Manufacture thereof promoted and encouraged, if the Duties now payable on the Exportation thereof from this Kingdom are diſcontinued;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, the Duties now payable upon Cotton-wool, the Growth or Produce of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, exported from this Kingdom to any Parts beyond the Seas, ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer paid or payable; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Preamble.

After June 24, 1779, the Duties on the Exportation of Cotton-wool, the Growth of the Britiſh Colonies in America, ſhall ceaſe.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That due Entries ſhall be made at the Cuſtom-houſe of all ſuch Cotton-wool, in the ſame Manner and Form, expreſſing the Quantities and Qualities thereof, as was uſed and practiſed before the making of this Act; and ſuch Cotton-wool ſhall be ſhipped outwards in the Preſence of the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms appointed for that Purpoſe; and the Exportation thereof ſhall be in Britiſh-built Ships or Veſſels, navigated according to Law; and on Failure of the ſaid Conditions and Directions, or any or either of them, the ſaid Cotton-wool ſhall be liable to the ſame Duty as if this Act had never been made; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The aforeſaid Cotton-wool to be duly entered, and ſhipped in the Preſence of proper Officers, &c. or otherwiſe liable to the Duty.

CAP. LIV.

An Act for further continuing, for a limited Time, an Act, made in the ſixteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to authoriſe, for a limited Time, the Puniſhment, by Hard Labour, of Offenders who, for certain Crimes, are or ſhall become liable to be tranſported to any of his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations. [Further continued to July 1, 1779.]

CAP. LV.

An Act for enlarging the Times appointed for the Meetings of Commiſſioners or Truſtees for putting in Execution certain Acts of this Seſſion of Parliament.

'WHEREAS certain Acts may have been made and paſſed in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, appointing the firſt Meetings of the Commiſſioners or Truſtees for putting ſuch Acts in Execution upon certain Days, which have elapſed before, or happened upon, the reſpective Days of paſſing ſuch Acts, and Doubts may ariſe, whether in ſuch Caſes the Commiſſioners or Truſtees appointed in and by ſuch Acts are authoriſed to meet and carry ſuch Acts into Execution;' may it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That in caſe any Act or Acts of Parliament hath or have paſſed during this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, and the Commiſſioners or Truſtees for putting ſuch Act or Acts in Execution ſhall not have met and holden their firſt Meetings on the reſpective Days appointed by ſuch Acts reſpectively, or ſhall have met and holden any Meetings without ſufficient Authority ſo to do, it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Commiſſioners or Truſtees, or ſuch Number of them as by ſuch Acts are authoriſed to meet and to put ſuch Acts in Execution, to meet and proceed in the Execution of ſuch Acts reſpectively, on or before the Day Fortnight next after the End of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament; and all ſuch Meetings ſo had, ſhall and are hereby declared to be as good, valid, and effectual, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, as if the Commiſſioners or Truſtees had met and proceeded to put ſuch Acts in Execution on the Days appointed in and by ſuch reſpective Acts, or as if they had been authoriſed by ſuch reſpective Acts to have holden Meetings on the Days on which any Meetings may have been already holden, as aforeſaid; and all Acts, Matters, and Things, which ſhall be done by ſuch Commiſſioners or Truſtees in the Execution of ſuch Acts reſpectively, ſhall be as valid and effectual in all Reſpects, and to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, as if their firſt Meetings had been held on the Days appointed by ſuch Acts reſpectively, or as if they had been authoriſed by ſuch reſpective Acts to have holden Meetings on the Days on which any Meetings may have been already holden as aforeſaid.

Preamble.

If the Commiſſioners or Truſtees appointed to execute any Act of this Seſſion, ſhall not have met as therein appointed, &c. they may meet on or before the Day Fortnight next after the End of this Seſſion.

CAP. LVI.

An Act for altering, amending, and enforcing, ſo much of an Act, made in the ſeventeenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty certain Duties on Licences to be taken out by all Perſons acting as Auctioneers; and certain Rates and Duties on all Lands, Houſes, Goods, and other Things, ſold by Auction; and upon Indentures, Leaſes, Bonds, Deeds, and other Inſtruments; as relates to the Method of granting Licences to Auctioneers, and to the collecting the Duties on Eſtates and Goods ſold by Auction.

Preamble. 17 Geo. III. Cap. 50, recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the ſeventeenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty certain Duties on Licences to be taken out by all Perſons acting as Auctioneers; and certain Rates and Duties on all Lands, Houſes, Goods, and other Things, ſold by Auction; and upon Indentures, Leaſes, Bonds, Deeds, and other Inſtruments; certain Duties were impoſed on all Licences to be taken out by Perſons ſelling Eſtates, Goods and Chattels, by Auction, and on the Purchaſe-money of the Things ſo ſold: And whereas the Powers, Rules, and Regulations, therein preſcribed for aſcertaining, ſecuring, and collecting, the ſaid Duties, and for preventing Frauds therein, have been found ineffectual to ſecure the Payment thereof; and the ſaid Duties have, by reaſon of various Frauds and Evaſions, been greatly decreaſed or withheld; for Remedy thereof, and for the better ſecuring the Payment of the ſaid Duties,' be it enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, the ſeveral Powers, Rules, Regulations, and Proviſions, by the ſaid Act given and directed, for granting Licences to Auctioneers, and for collecting and managing the Duties by the ſaid Act impoſed on Licences to be granted to Perſons ſelling by Auction, and on the Purchaſe-money of the Eſtates, Goods, and Effects ſo ſold, ſhall ceaſe and determine, and be no longer uſed, except in all Caſes relating to the Recovery of any Arrears which may at that Time remain unpaid of the ſaid Duties, or to any Penalty or Forfeiture which ſhall have been incurred upon, or at any Time before, the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Part of the ſaid Act repealed.

The Duty granted by the former Act of 6 d. in the Pound out of the Purchaſe-money of Plate and Jewels, repealed;

'II. And whereas, by the ſaid recited Act, it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That, from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-ſeven, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, in ſuch Manner as in the ſaid Act is mentioned, to and for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the Sum of Six-pence for every twenty Shillings, out of the Purchaſe-money ariſing by Sale at Auction of all Plate and Jewels: And whereas the ſaid Duty of Six-pence in every twenty Shillings, out of the Purchaſe-money of the ſaid Goods, has been found to prevent, in a great Meaſure, the Sale of the ſaid Goods by Auction, to the Prejudice of the Revenue intended to be raiſed by the ſaid Act;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, the ſaid Duty of Six-pence in every twenty Shillings, out of the Purchaſe-Money of the ſaid Goods, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby repealed; and a Duty of 3 d. in the Pound ſubſtituted inſtead thereof.

and that the Sum of Three-pence for every twenty Shillings, out of the Purchaſe-money ariſing by Sale at Auction of all Plate and Jewels, ſhall be raiſed, levied, and collected, to and for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; the ſaid Duty to be paid, accounted for, recovered, and applied, in ſuch and the like Manner as the other Rates and Duties, granted by the ſaid recited Act upon Sales by Auction, are directed to be paid, accounted for, recovered, and applied; any Thing therein, or in this preſent Act, contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No Perſon to ſell Eſtates, Goods, &c. as an Auctioneer, without having taken out a Licence.

'III. And, for the better preventing the like Frauds, and for the more effectual ſecuring the Payment of the Duties by the ſaid Act impoſed,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, no Perſon whatever, not already licenſed according to the ſaid Act, who now, or at any Time or Times hereafter doth or ſhall exerciſe the Trade or Buſineſs of an Auctioneer, or Seller by Commiſſion, at any Sale of any Eſtate, Goods, or Effects whatſoever, by Outcry, knocking down of Hammer, by Candle, by Lot, by Parcel, or by any other Mode of Sale at Auction, or whereby the higheſt Bidder is deemed to be the Purchaſer, or who ſhall act in ſuch Capacity, ſhall preſume to deal in, vend, or ſell, any Eſtate, Goods, or Effects whatſoever, by public Sale or otherwiſe, by way of Auction as aforeſaid, in any Manner whatſoever, without firſt taking out a Licence, in Manner herein-after mentioned, before he, ſhe, or they ſhall ſo put up to Sale, or ſell, any ſuch Eſtate, Goods, or Effects, by public Sale, by way of Auction, as aforeſaid; and in which Licence ſhall be ſet forth the true Name and real Place of Abode of the Perſon or Perſons taking out the ſame, for which he, ſhe, or they ſhall immediately, upon taking out thereof, pay down for each and every Licence, ſo to be taken out from Time to Time, the ſeveral Sums of twenty Shillings and five Shillings, by the ſaid Act granted, over and beſides any other Duties or Payments to which ſuch Perſon or Perſons may be liable for trading in, vending, or ſelling, any Gold or Silver Plate, or otherwiſe, in Manner following; that is to ſay, If ſuch Licenſes be taken out within the Limits of the Chief Office of Exciſe in London, then ſuch Licences, whether they be granted for ſelling by way of Auction within the ſaid Limits, or in any other Part of England or Wales, ſhall be granted under the Hands and Seals of two or more of his Majeſty's Commiſſioners for the Duties of Exciſe for the Time being, or of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as the Commiſſioners of Exciſe ſhall from Time to Time appoint for that Purpoſe, and the ſaid reſpective Duties ſhall be paid at the ſaid Chief Office of Exciſe in London; but if the Licence for ſelling by Auction, in the

Where Licences ſhall be taken out for England and Wales;

the Parts of England and Wales not within the ſaid Limits, ſhall be taken out without the Limits aforeſaid, then ſuch Licences ſhall be granted under the Hands and Seals of the ſeveral Collectors and Surveyors of Exciſe within their reſpective Collections and Diſtricts, and the ſaid Duty of five Shillings, by the ſaid Act impoſed, ſhall be paid for the ſame to the Collector of Exciſe who ſhall grant and deliver the ſame: And in caſe ſuch Licences ſhall be taken out within the Limits of the Chief Office of Exciſe in Scotland, ſuch Licences ſhall be granted under the Hands and Seals of two or more of his Majeſty's Commiſſioners of Exciſe in Scotland for the Time being, or of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in Scotland ſhall appoint for that Purpoſe; and the Duty of five Shillings, by the ſaid Act impoſed for the ſame, ſhall be paid at the Chief Office of Exciſe in Scotland, in the ſame Manner as is herein-before deſcribed in regard to the Licences to be taken out within the Limits of the Chief Office of Exciſe in London; but if ſuch Licences ſhall be taken out in any Part of Scotland, not within the Limits of the Chief Office of Exciſe in Scotland, then ſuch Licences ſhall be granted under the Hands and Seals of the ſeveral Collectors and Surveyors of Exciſe in Scotland, within their reſpective Collections and Diſtricts, and the ſaid Duty, by the ſaid Act impoſed for the ſame, ſhall be paid, by each and every Perſon and Perſons ſo taking out ſuch Licences, to the Collector of Exciſe who ſhall ſo grant and deliver the ſame; and ſuch reſpective Commiſſioners of Exciſe, and the Perſons ſo to be appointed, as aforeſaid, by them reſpectively, and alſo ſuch Collectors are hereby reſpectively authoriſed and required to grant and deliver ſuch Licences to the Perſons who ſhall apply for the ſame, upon their paying the Duty by the ſaid Act directed to be paid for each and every ſuch Licence.

and where for Scotland.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon or Perſons already licenſed, or who, after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, ſhall take out any ſuch Licence as aforeſaid, is and are hereby required to take out a freſh Licence, ten Days at leaſt before the Expiration of twelve Calendar Months after taking out the firſt Licence, before he, ſhe, or they do preſume to vend or ſell, by way of Auction, as aforeſaid, and in the ſame Manner to renew every ſuch Licence from Year to Year, paying down the like Sum of twenty Shillings, or five Shillings, reſpectively, by the ſaid Act impoſed for each and every new or renewed Licence, at the Place and at the Times before mentioned: And if any Perſon or Perſons not already licenſed as aforeſaid, ſhall preſume or offer to vend or ſell by way of Auction as aforeſaid, without firſt taking out ſuch Licence, or without renewing the ſame yearly in Manner as aforeſaid, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall, if the Offence ſhall be committed within the Limits of the Chief Office of Exciſe in London, forfeit and loſe, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of one hundred Pounds; and if ſuch Offence ſhall be committed in any Place without the ſaid Limits, then ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and loſe the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Licences to be renewed annually.

Penalty on ſelling Goods, &c. by Auction without a Licence, or without duly renewing the ſame.

'V. And whereas, by the ſaid recited Act, a Rate or Duty of Three-pence is to be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, for every twenty Shillings of the Purchaſe-money ariſing by Sale at Auction of any Intereſt, in Poſſeſſion or Reverſion, in any Freehold, Copyhold, or Leaſehold Lands, Tenements, Houſes, or Hereditaments, and of any Annuities or Sums of Money charged thereon, and of any Utenſils in Huſbandry and Farming Stock, Ships, and Veſſels, and of any reverſionary Intereſts in the Public Funds, and the Sum of Six-pence for every twenty Shillings out of the Purchaſe-money ariſing by Sale at Auction of all Fixtures, Furniture, Plate, Jewels, Pictures, Books, Horſes, and Carriages, and all other Goods and Chattels whatſoever: And whereas it may be doubted whether the ſaid reſpective Rates and Duties ſo impoſed as aforeſaid, are payable for any Part of ſuch Purchaſe-money not amounting to the Sum of twenty Shillings: Now, to obviate all ſuch Doubts,' it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid reſpective Rates and Duties of Three-pence and Six-pence ſo impoſed, as aforeſaid, was intended to be charged, and is hereby declared to be charged and chargeable, for every twenty Shillings of the ſaid Purchaſe-money, and in Proportion for any greater or leſſer Sum of the Purchaſe-money ariſing or to ariſe by Sales at Auction.

The ſeveral Duties of 3d. and 6d. in the Pound, granted by the former Act, are to be charged in Proportion for any greater or leſs Sum.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, the ſaid reſpective Rates and Duties of Three-pence and Six-pence by the ſaid Act impoſed, ſhall be, and are hereby declared to be, a Charge upon every Auctioneer or Seller by Commiſſion, immediately from and after the knocking down of the Hammer, or other cloſing of the Bidding, at every Sale by way of Auction, and that the Rates and Duties ſo charged ſhall be paid, by every ſuch Auctioneer or Seller by Commiſſion, in Manner and at the Times herein-after mentioned.

After July 5, 1779, the aforeſaid Duties ſhall be a Charge upon the Auctioneer immediately after the cloſing of every Sale.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, every Perſon not already licenſed, acting as Auctioneer as aforeſaid, at any public Sale or Auction within the Limits of the Chief Office of Exciſe in London, ſhall, at the Time of receiving the Licence, give Security by Bond to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in the Sum of two hundred Pounds, with two or more ſufficient Sureties, which Security the Commiſſioners for the Duty of Exciſe for the Time being, or any two or more of them, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons as the ſaid Commiſſioners of Exciſe ſhall from Time to Time appoint to deliver out the Licences as aforeſaid, is and are hereby authoriſed and impowered to take, that he will, within twenty-eight Days after each and every Sale by way of Auction, deliver, at the Chief Office of Exciſe in London, to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be appointed by the Commiſſioners of Exciſe to receive the ſame, an exact and particular Account in Writing of the total Amount of the Money bid at each Sale, and of the ſeveral Articles, Lots, or Parcels, which ſhall have been there ſold, and the Price of each and every ſuch Article, Lot, or Parcel; and at the ſame Time make Payment of all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as ſhall be due and payable to his Majeſty, in purſuance of, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; which Sum or Sums of Money he is hereby authoriſed and impowered to retain out of the Produce ariſing by ſuch Sale, or Depoſit made at ſuch Sale, or otherwiſe recover the ſame by Action of Debt, or on the Every Auctioneer within the Limits of the Exciſe-office in London, when he takes out his Licence, ſhall be bound to his Majeſty, in 200l. with Sureties, that he will, within 28 Days after each Sale, deliver, at the ſaid Office, a particular Account thereof, &c.

Caſe, againſt the Perſon or Perſons by whom ſuch Auctioneer ſhall be employed, or on whoſe Account ſuch Goods ſhall be ſo ſold; and every Perſon ſo acting as Auctioneer, or the Perſon who acted as his Clerk at ſuch Sale, if any, ſhall make Oath to the Truth of each and every ſuch Account before the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or one of them, or before ſuch Perſon as the ſaid Commiſſioners of Exciſe ſhall appoint to receive the ſame; which Oath the ſaid Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or one of them, or other Perſon ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, is and are hereby authoriſed and impowered to adminiſter: And in caſe the Auctioneer giving ſuch Bond ſhall neglect to deliver in his Account, or to make Payment of the Rates and Duties as herein directed; or if it ſhall appear that the Account delivered in by ſuch Auctioneer was not a true and juſt Account, or that the ſaid Auctioneer hath acted contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of ſuch Bond, and of this preſent Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners of Exciſe to cauſe ſuch Bond to be put in Suit, unleſs they ſhall find ſufficient Cauſe to forbear the ſame, and thereupon, in caſe of a Verdict or Judgment againſt the Defendant, ſuch Licence ſhall thenceforth become void to all Intents and Purpoſes.

and ſhall make Oath to the Truth of ſuch Account.

If Auctioneer ſhall not fulfil the Conditions of the Bond, Commiſſioners of Exciſe may put it in Suit.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That each and every Perſon ſo acting as aforeſaid, at every ſuch public Auction, in any Part of Great Britain not within the Limits of the ſaid Chief Office of Exciſe in London, ſhall, at the Time of receiving ſuch Licence, as aforeſaid, give Security by Bond as aforeſaid, in the Sum of fifty Pounds, which Security ſhall be taken by the reſpective Commiſſioners of Exciſe in Great Britain, or any two or more of them, reſpectively, or by ſuch Perſon or Perſons as the ſaid Commiſſioners of Exciſe reſpectively ſhall appoint to deliver out the ſaid Licences, in like Manner as is herein-before mentioned and directed with regard to the Bonds to be given within the Limits of the Chief Office of Exciſe in London, that he will, within ſix Weeks after every Sale by Auction, deliver in an exact and particular Account, in Manner as is herein-before required to be delivered by Perſons ſelling by Auction within the Limits of the ſaid Chief Office of Exciſe in London; and ſhall, at the ſame Time, make Payment of all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as ſhall be due and payable to his Majeſty, for and on account of each and every Sale by way of Auction by him made, from Time to Time, within ſuch ſix Weeks reſpectively; and all the Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, herein-before preſcribed or contained, for the better levying, ſecuring, or accounting for, the ſaid Rates or Duties within the Limits of the ſaid Chief Office of Exciſe in London, ſhall be obſerved in all other Parts of Great Britain, as if the ſame were again particularly repeated and re-enacted.

Every Auctioneer in Great Britain, not within the Limits of the Exciſe-office in London, ſhall give Security as aforeſaid in 50 l. that he will, within ſix Weeks after each Sale, deliver in a particular Account thereof, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, every ſuch Auctioneer, or Seller by Commiſſion, ſelling by Auction within the Limits of the ſaid Chief Office of Exciſe in London, ſhall, two Days at leaſt before he, ſhe, or they do begin any Sale by way of Auction, deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, at the ſaid Chief Office of Exciſe, to the Perſon who ſhall be appointed by the Commiſſioners of Exciſe to receive the ſame, a Notice in Writing, ſigned by ſuch Auctioneer, ſpecifying in ſuch Notice the particular Day when ſuch Sale by Auction is to begin; and ſhall, at the ſame Time, or within twenty-four Hours after, deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, to the Perſon ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, a written or printed Catalogue, atteſted and ſigned by ſuch Auctioneer, or his known Clerk; in which Catalogue ſhall be particularly expreſſed and enumerated each and every Article, Lot, Parcel, and Thing, by ſuch Auctioneer intended to be ſold at ſuch Auction; and every ſuch Auctioneer, ſelling by Auction in any Part of Great Britain, not within the Limits of the ſaid Chief Office of Exciſe in London, ſhall, at leaſt three Days before he, ſhe, or they do begin any Sale by way of Auction, deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, to the Collector of Exciſe, in whoſe Collection ſuch Sale is intended to be, or at the Office of Exciſe next to the Place where ſuch Sale is intended to be, a like Notice in Writing, ſigned by ſuch Auctioneer, ſpecifying therein the particular Day when ſuch Sale is to begin; and ſhall, at the ſame Time, or within twenty-four Hours after, deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, to ſuch Collector, or at the Office of Exciſe next to the Place where ſuch Sale is intended to be, a written or printed Catalogue, atteſted and ſigned by ſuch Auctioneer, or his known Clerk; in which Catalogue ſhall be particularly expreſſed and enumerated each and every Article, Lot, Parcel, and Thing, by ſuch Auctioneer intended to be ſold at ſuch Auction: And if any ſuch Auctioneer ſhall preſume to ſell any Eſtate, Goods, or Effects, by way of Auction, without delivering the Notices and Catalogues herein-before required to be delivered, or ſhall, at any ſuch Sale, ſell any Eſtate, Goods, or Effects, not particularly expreſſed or enumerated in ſuch Catalogue, every ſuch Auctioneer ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and loſe the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Auctioneers to deliver, at the Exciſe-office, &c. previous Notice of each Sale; and likewiſe an atteſted Catalogue containing an exact Enumeration of the Particulars to be ſold;

on Penalty of 20 l.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any ſuch Auctioneer, ſo ſelling by Auction at any Place within England or Wales, not within the Limits of the ſaid Chief Office of Exciſe in London, ſhall not be prepared to deliver in the Account, by this Act required, to the Collector of Exciſe within whoſe Collection ſuch Notice was delivered, and ſuch Sale by Auction made, then, and in ſuch Caſe, ſuch Auctioneer ſhall, and he is hereby permitted and required to deliver in his Account of ſuch Sale, within ſix Weeks after every ſuch Sale, at the ſaid Chief Office of Exciſe in London, and to the Perſon appointed to receive the ſame, and ſhall, at the ſame Time, deliver to the ſame Perſon a true Copy of the Notice, and of the Catalogue by him before delivered to the ſaid Collector; and if any ſuch Auctioneer ſhall neglect to deliver ſuch Copy of the ſaid Notice, or of the ſaid Catalogue, every Auctioneer offending therein ſhall, for each Offence, forfeit and loſe the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Any Auctioneer in England or Wales, not within the Limits of the Exciſe-office in London, who ſhall not be prepared to deliver in his Account of any Sale to the Collector of Exciſe, ſhall, within ſix Weeks after ſuch Sale, deliver it at the Exciſe-office in London.

'XI. And whereas it may ſometimes happen that Sales at Auction of Eſtates or Goods may be rendered null and void, by reaſon that the Perſon, for whoſe Benefit the ſame ſhall be ſold, had no Title to, or no Right to diſpoſe of, the ſame;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, if any Sale by Auction of any Eſtate, Goods, or Chattels, ſhall be rendered void, by reaſon that the Perſon for whoſe Benefit the ſame

If the Sale by Auction of any Eſtate, &c. ſhall be rendered void, owing to a defective Title, the ſame was ſold had no Title to the ſame, or no Right to diſpoſe thereof, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Auctioneer, who paid the Duty for the Thing ſo ſold, or for the Perſon for whoſe Benefit the ſame was ſo ſold, to lay his, her, or their Complaint before the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or Juſtices of the Peace, within whoſe Juriſdiction reſpectively ſuch Sale was made; and the ſaid Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or Juſtices of the Peace, reſpectively, upon ſuch Complaint to them made, by or on the Behalf of ſuch Auctioneer, or by or on the Behalf of the Perſon for whoſe Benefit the ſame was ſold, ſhall, and are required to hear and determine all ſuch Complaints, and examine the Witneſſes upon Oath which ſhall be produced, as well on the Behalf of the Party making ſuch Complaint, as on the Behalf of all and every other Party and Parties; which Oath they have hereby Power to adminiſter; and thereupon, or by other due Proof, to relieve the Party ſo complaining of ſo much of his, her, or their reſpective Payments, as ſhall be ſo made out before them to have been over-paid; any Thing in this Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Auctioneer, &c. may complain to the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or Juſtices of Peace; who ſhall hear and determine the ſame.

XII. Provided alſo, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the real Owner of any Eſtate, Goods, or Effects, put up to Sale by way of Auction, ſhall become the Purchaſer, by means of his own Bidding, or the Bidding of any other Perſon on his Behalf, or for his Uſe, at ſuch Sale, without Fraud or Colluſion, then, and in ſuch Caſe, the reſpective Commiſſioners of Exciſe in Great Britain, and ſuch Collectors, Surviſors, and other Officers of Exciſe, as are hereby reſpectively authoriſed, within their reſpective Collections and Diſtricts, to receive the ſaid Duties, are hereby authoriſed and required to make an Allowance to ſuch Owner of the Duties ariſing by this Act upon ſuch Bidding; provided Notice be given to the Auctioneer before ſuch Bidding, both by the Owner and the Perſon intended to be the Bidder, of the latter being appointed by the former, and having agreed accordingly to bid at the Sale for the Uſe and Behoof of the Seller; and provided ſuch Notice be verified by the Oath of the Auctioneer, as alſo the Fairneſs and Reality of the ſaid Tranſaction, to the beſt of his Knowledge and Belief; and in caſe any Diſpute ſhall ariſe whether ſuch Purchaſe by the Owner was not made by Colluſion, or in order to leſſen the full Sum appointed by this Act to be paid, or concerning the Fairneſs of ſuch Tranſaction, then, and in ſuch Caſes, the Proof thereof ſhall lie upon the Perſon acting as Auctioneer; and on Failure therein, or in caſe of any unfair Practice, then no ſuch Allowance ſhall be made as aforeſaid; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Where Owners of Eſtates, &c. bid themſelves, or employ others to bid for them, an Allowance of the Duties is to be made accordingly; provided Notice be given to the Auctioneer that ſuch Perſons are to bid for the Owners, &c.

XIII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to any Sale or Sales, by way of Auction, of Eſtates or Chattels, made by any Rule, Order, or Decree, of his Majeſty's Court of Chancery, or of Exchequer in England, before the Maſter in Chancery, or the Deputy Remembrancer of the ſaid Court of Exchequer; or by any Order or Decree of the Courts of Great Seſſions in Wales, or by any Order or Decree of the Court of Seſſion or Exchequer in Scotland reſpectively; or to any ſuch Sales made by the Eaſt India Company, or the Hudſon's Bay Company; or by Order of his Majeſty's Commiſſioners for the Duties of Cuſtoms or Exciſe; or by Order of the Board of Ordnance, or Commiſſioners of the Navy or Victualling Offices; nor to the Sale by Auction of any Goods diſtrained for Rent, or for Nonpayment of Tithes; any Thing herein-before to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Certain Auctions to which this Act ſhall not extend.

XIV. Provided alſo, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to any Auction to be held, on the Account of the Lord or Lady of any Manor, for the granting any Copyhold or Cuſtomary Meſſuages, Lands, or Tenements, for the Term of a Life or Lives, or any Number of Years; or to any Auction to be held for the letting or demiſing any Meſſuages, Lands, or Tenements, for the Term of a Life or Lives, or any Number of Years, to be created by the Perſon or Perſons on whoſe Account ſuch Auction ſhall be held; or to the Sale or Sales of any Woods, Coppices, Produce of Mines or Quarries, or to any Contract relating thereto, or to the cutting or working the ſame, or to the Sale of any Materials uſed in the working of ſuch Mines or Quarries reſpectively; or to the Sale of any Cattle, and live or dead Stock, or unmanufactured Produce of Land; ſo as ſuch Sale or Sales of Woods, Coppices, Produce of Mines or Quarries, Cattle, Corn, Stock, or Produce of Land, be made whilſt they continue on the Lands producing the ſame, and by the Owner or Owners of ſuch Lands, or Proprietor or Proprietors of, or Adventurer or Adventurers in, ſuch Mines, or Quarries reſpectively, or by his or their Steward or Agent, Stewards or Agents; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Not to extend to Auctions for granting Copyhold or Cuſtomary Lands, &c.

XV. Provided alſo, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this or in the ſaid recited Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to charge with the ſaid Rate or Duty, any Eſtate, Goods, or Chattels, ſold at Auction, under the Authority of any Sheriff or Under-ſheriff, for the Benefit of Creditors, in Execution of any Judgment had or obtained; or any Eſtate or Effects of Bankrupts, ſold by Order of the Aſſignee or Aſſignees under any Commiſſion of Bankruptcy; or any Goods imported into this Kingdom, by way of Merchandize, from any Britiſh Colony or Plantation in America, the ſame being of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture, of the ſaid Colonies or Plantation, on the firſt Sale of ſuch Goods, by or for the Account of the original Importer to whom the ſame were conſigned, and by whom they were entered at the Cuſtom-houſe at the Port of Importation, ſo as ſuch Sale be made within twelve Months after ſuch Goods ſhall be ſo imported; nor to any Ships, or their Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture, or the Cargoes thereof, which may be taken and condemned as Prize, which ſhall be ſold in this Kingdom, by or for the Benefit of the Captors thereof; nor to charge with the ſaid Rate or Duty any Ships or Goods that may be wrecked or ſtranded on the Coaſts of this Kingdom, and ſold by Auction for the Benefit of the Inſurers or Proprietors thereof, or which may be ſold, free of Duty, to defray the Charges of Salvage; nor to charge with the ſaid Rate or Duty any Goods damaged by Fire, and ſold by Order of and for the Benefit of the Inſurers of ſuch Goods; nor to Sales made by Truſtees choſen in purſuance of an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for rendering the Payment of the Creditors of Inſolvent Debtors more equal and expeditious; and for regulating the Diligence of the Law by Arreſtment and Poinding; and for extending the Privilege of Neither this Act nor the former Act to extend to any Sale under a Sheriff's Authority for the Benefit of Creditors; nor to Effects of Bankrupts ſold by Order of Aſſignees, &c.

Bills to Promiſſory Notes; and for limiting Actions upon Bills and Promiſſory Notes, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

After July 5, 1779, Auctioneers ſelling any Effects, &c. ſeized by a Sheriff in Execution, ſhall enumerate the Particulars thereof in the Catalogue to be delivered by them, which ſhall be certified by the Sheriff, &c.;

And Auctioneers employed to ſell the Effects of any Bankrupt, ſhall enumerate the Particulars in the Catalogue as aforeſaid, which ſhall be certified by the Aſſignees, &c.

Penalty on Sheriff, &c. or Aſſignee, who ſhall ſuffer an Eſtate, &c. to be inſerted in the Catalogue which was not the Property of the Debtor or Bankrupt.

Auctioneers employed to ſell Goods damaged by Fire, for the Benefit of the Inſurers, ſhall enumerate the Particulars in the Catalogue, which ſhall be certified by the Inſurers.

Penalty on Inſurers who ſhall ſuffer to be inſerted in the Catalogue any Goods other than ſuch as were to be ſold for their Benefit, &c.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered and applied.

'XVI. And for the better and more effectual preventing Frauds which may be practiſed by Auctioneers 'ſelling Eſtates, Goods, or Chattels, under the Authority of Sheriffs, or their Under-ſheriffs, or under 'the Order and Direction of the Aſſignees under any Commiſſion of Bankruptcy;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, every Auctioneer who ſhall ſell at Auction any Eſtates, Goods, or Chattels, that have been ſeized by any Sheriff or Under-ſheriff, or by their Authority, and by them, or either of them, taken for the Benefit of Creditors, in Execution of any Judgment had and obtained, ſhall ſpecify and enumerate, in the Catalogue by him to be delivered under the Directions of this Act, as well the particular Eſtates and Effects to be ſold, and alſo the exact Sum to be levied under ſuch Execution; and the Sheriff or Under-ſheriff reſpectively ſhall, and they are hereby required to ſubſcribe and ſign every ſuch Catalogue, and to certify at the Foot thereof, that all and every the Eſtates, Goods, and Effects, in ſuch Catalogue reſpectively ſpecified and enumerated, were really and truly the Property of the Perſon againſt whom ſuch Judgment was had and obtained, and that the ſame, and every Part thereof, were actually ſeized in Execution of the ſame Judgment; and every Auctioneer who ſhall be employed, by the Aſſignees under any Commiſſion of Bankruptcy, to ſell the Effects of any Bankrupt, ſhall likewiſe ſpecify and enumerate, in the Catalogue to be by him delivered as aforeſaid, the particular Goods and Effects then to be ſold; and the Aſſignees, or Aſſignee, if only one under ſuch Commiſſion, ſhall, and he and they is and are hereby required to ſubſcribe and ſign ſuch Catalogue, and to certify, at the Foot thereof, that all and every the Eſtates, Goods, Chattels, and Effects, in ſuch Catalogue reſpectively ſpecified and enumerated, were really and truly the Property of the ſaid Bankrupt at the Time of ſuing forth the ſaid Commiſſion; which reſpective Catalogue, ſo ſigned and certified as aforeſaid, ſhall be produced by every ſuch Auctioneer, to the Perſon to whom ſuch Auctioneer is by this Act directed to deliver his Account, before ſuch Auctioneer ſhall be permitted to paſs his Account, or to have the ſame allowed: And if ſuch Sheriff, Under-ſheriff, Aſſignee, or Aſſignees reſpectively, ſhall inſert, or ſuffer or permit to be inſerted, in any ſuch Catalogue ſo to be ſubſcribed, ſigned, and certified, as aforeſaid, any Eſtate, Goods, Chattels, or Effects whatſoever, other than ſuch as were really and truly the Property of the Debtor or Debtors, Bankrupt or Bankrupts, as aforeſaid, reſpectively; or if any Sheriff or Under-ſheriff ſhall omit or neglect to certify on ſuch Catalogue the true Sum to be levied, or ſhall certify thereon any falſe Sum to be levied, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Party offending ſhall, for every ſuch Offence reſpectively, forfeit and loſe the Sum of twenty Pounds.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, every Auctioneer who ſhall be employed to ſell any Goods damaged by Fire, ſold by Order of, and for the Benefit of, the Inſurer or Inſurers of ſuch Goods, ſhall ſpecify and enumerate, in the Catalogue to be by him delivered as aforeſaid, the particular Goods then to be ſold; and the Inſurers, or the Inſurer, if only one, ſhall, and he and they is and are hereby required to ſubſcribe and ſign ſuch Catalogue, and to certify, at the Foot thereof, that all and every the Goods in ſuch Catalogue reſpectively ſpecified and enumerated, were really and truly ſold for the Benefit of ſuch Inſurer or Inſurers; which Catalogue ſo ſigned and certified as aforeſaid, ſhall be produced by every ſuch Auctioneer, to the Perſon to whom ſuch Auctioneer is, by this Act, to deliver his Account, before ſuch Auctioneer ſhall be permitted to paſs his Account, or to have the ſame allowed: And if ſuch Inſurer or Inſurers reſpectively ſhall inſert, or ſuffer or permit to be inſerted, in any ſuch Catalogue ſo to be ſubſcribed, ſigned, and certified as aforeſaid, any Goods whatſoever other than ſuch as were really and truly to be ſold for the Benefit of him or them as aforeſaid; or if any Inſurer or Inſurers ſhall omit or neglect to certify on ſuch Catalogue the true Particular of the Goods to be ſold; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Party offending ſhall, for every ſuch Offence reſpectively, forfeit and loſe the Sum of twenty Pounds.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, impoſed by this Act, ſhall be ſued for, levied, recovered, or mitigated, by ſuch Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, is or may be recovered or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and that one Moiety of every ſuch Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture (all neceſſary Charges for the Recovery thereof being firſt deducted), ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them who ſhall diſcover, inform, or ſue for the ſame.

'relative to the ſaid Rates and Aſſeſſments: Wherefore, in order to put an End to ſuch Controverſies, and 'that an Income may be provided in future ſufficient for the Maintenance of the Vicar of the ſaid Pariſh 'of The Trinity, to be in Lieu of all Tythes and other Eccleſiaſtical Dues, within thoſe Parts of the ſaid 'Pariſh which lie within the ſaid City of Coventry and Suburbs thereof, except ſuch Endowments, Be-'queſts, and Stipends, as have been heretofore or ſhall be hereafter beſtowed upon the Vicar of the ſaid 'Pariſh, and alſo except Surplice Fees:' May it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act, paſſed in the fourth and fifth Year of the Reign of King Philip and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for the Payment of Tythes in the City of Coventry, ſhall, ſo far as the ſame relates to the Pariſh and Vicarage of The Trinity, in the City of Coventry, and Suburbs thereof, be, and the ſame is hereby declared to be repealed.

Act of Philip and Mary repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That within thirty Days after the paſſing of this Act, and in Eaſter Week in every Year afterwards, one Rate or Aſſeſſment ſhall be made, laid, and aſſeſſed, by Aſſeſſors to be named and appointed as herein-after is mentioned, to be in Lieu of Tythes, and all Rates, Aſſeſſments, or other Eccleſiaſtical Dues and Payments claimed by the Vicar of the ſaid Pariſh or Vicarage, under or by virtue of the ſaid Act paſſed in the fourth and fifth Year of the Reign of King Philip and Queen Mary (Eaſter Offerings and Surplice Fees excepted), upon all and every Perſon and Perſons who do or ſhall inhabit, hold, or occupy, any Houſe, Garden-ground, or Orchard for Sale, Shop, Warehouſe, Dyehouſe, Malthouſe, Brewhouſe, Kilnhouſe, or Workhouſe, Yard, Barn, Stable, Shed, Cellar, Vault, or other Tenement, by whatſoever Name or Deſcription the ſame may be known, of the yearly Value of twenty Shillings or upwards, within thoſe Parts of the ſaid Pariſh of The Trinity which lie within the ſaid City of Coventry, and Suburbs thereof; which Rate or Aſſeſſment ſhall be collected quarterly, and made and laid to raiſe one Shilling in the Pound per Annum, and no more, upon all and every ſuch Premiſes reſpectively, according to the yearly Value thereof.

Rates in Lieu of Tythes.

III. Provided, That no ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment ſhall be laid upon any Dwelling-houſe only, the annual Rent or Value whereof ſhall be under ſix Pounds.

Houſes under 6l. per Ann. not to be rated.

IV. Provided alſo, That no Meſſuages, or other Buildings, Yards, Gardens, Orchards, or other Hereditaments, ſhall be conſtrued or taken to be within the Suburbs of the ſaid City, as to the Purpoſes of this Act, the Situation or Situations whereof reſpectively is or are without and beyond the Limits of the ſeveral Wards of the ſaid City.

Proviſo relating to the Suburbs of the City.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Vicar for the Time being, and the Pariſhioners, of the ſaid Pariſh of Trinity, who are liable to be rated or aſſeſſed by virtue of this Act, ſhall meet at ſome Place in the ſaid City, on or before the fourteenth Day after the Day of paſſing this Act, and annually afterwards upon the twenty-fifth Day of March, or within two Days after, of which reaſonable Notice ſhall be given in the Church on the Sunday preceding; and at ſuch firſt and other Meetings, it ſhall be lawful for the Vicar and Pariſhioners then attending, and they are hereby required to nominate and appoint two Perſons, Inhabitants of the ſaid City, not being of the People called Quakers, to be Aſſeſſors of the Rates or Aſſeſſments hereby authoriſed to be made, laid, and aſſeſſed; one to be named by the Vicar, and one by the Majority of the Pariſhioners then aſſembled; and every ſuch Perſon ſo to be nominated and appointed Aſſeſſors as aforeſaid ſhall, before he preſumes to act in the Execution of the ſaid Office of Aſſeſſor, take an Oath in the following Form, before one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid City, who are hereby directed to adminiſter the ſame:

Two Aſſeſſors to be appointed annually.

Aſſeſſors to be ſworn.

'I A. B. do ſwear, That in the Rate or Aſſeſſment which I ſhall make upon the ſeveral Premiſes within 'thoſe Parts of the Pariſh of The Trinity, which lie within the City of Coventry, and Suburbs thereof, 'I will rate and aſſeſs each of ſuch Premiſes at the true annual Value, according to the beſt of my Skill and 'Judgment; and that I will truly and faithfully execute the Truſts repoſed in me by virtue of an Act of 'the nineteenth Year of his preſent Majeſty, for the better providing of a Maintenance for the Vicar of the 'Pariſh of The Trinity, in the City of Coventry.'

Their Oath.

And if any Perſon ſo to be appointed Aſſeſſor, ſhall preſume to act in the Execution of the ſaid Office, before he ſhall have taken the aforeſaid Oath, he ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered in any Court of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed; and that the Forfeitures or Penalties ſo to be incurred (all neceſſary Charges for the Recovery thereof being firſt deducted) ſhall be diſtributed, one Moiety thereof to the Vicar of the ſaid Pariſh, and the other Moiety to him or her who ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame.

Penalty on Aſſeſſors acting before they ſhall be ſworn.

VI. And be it further enacted, That ſuch Perſons to be appointed Aſſeſſors as aforeſaid, do and ſhall, on or before the thirtieth Day after the Day of paſſing this Act, and in all future Years in Eaſter Week, or within three Days after, according to the beſt of their Skill and Judgment, aſcertain the full and juſt annual Value which every of the Premiſes, by this Act authoriſed and directed to be rated and aſſeſſed, is really and bona fide worth, to be let; and do and ſhall make one Aſſeſſment, according to the Rate herein-before ſet forth, upon the Inhabitants, Holders, or Occupiers, of every the Premiſes by this Act directed to be rated or aſſeſſed; and do and ſhall, by Writing under their Hands, certify the Houſes and other Premiſes charged by this Act, together with the annual Values, eſtimated and aſcertained as aforeſaid, for or in reſpect of the ſame reſpectively, and the Names of the ſeveral Inhabitants, Holders, or Occupiers thereof reſpectively, and the ſeveral Sums of Money charged and payable by them for or in reſpect of the ſame, by virtue of this Act; and likewiſe do and ſhall, on or before the ſaid thirtieth Day after the Day of paſſing this Act, and in future Years on or before the Expiration of three Days after Eaſter Week, deliver the Aſſeſſments made by them as aforeſaid unto two Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid City.

Juſtices to ſign the Aſſeſſments, and deliver them to the Vicar.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Juſtices to whom ſuch Aſſeſſments ſhall be delivered in purſuance of this Act ſhall, within the Space of one Calendar Month next after the Receipt of the ſame reſpectively, ſet their Hands to the ſaid Aſſeſſments, and ſhall forthwith deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, the ſame to the Vicar of the ſaid Pariſh for the Time being, or to his Order.

A Copy of the Aſſeſſments ſhall be lodged in the Pariſh Veſtry.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch Aſſeſſor or Aſſeſſors ſhall deliver a Copy or Duplicate of ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment to be made reſpectively as aforeſaid, fairly written, and ſubſcribed by them, unto the ſaid Vicar for the Time being, and another Copy or Duplicate thereof to the Churchwardens of the ſaid Pariſh, ſome or one of them, to be by them, ſome or one of them, lodged in the Veſtry of the ſaid Pariſh, for the Uſe and Inſpection of the Inhabitants of the ſame Pariſh who are liable to be rated or aſſeſſed by virtue of this Act.

Rate may be levied by Diſtreſs.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſo rated and aſſeſſed, who ſhall not appeal againſt ſuch Rate within the Time herein-after limited for ſuch Purpoſe, ſhall refuſe or omit to pay the Sum or Sums of Money which he, ſhe, or they ſhall be rated or aſſeſſed at, by virtue of this Act, for the Space of fourteen Days after perſonal Demand made thereof, or Demand in Writing, left at the Place of Abode, or Occupation, of ſuch Perſon or Perſons; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, it ſhall be lawful for one or more ſuch Juſtices, upon Oath of the Vicar for the Time being, or ſome Perſon acting for him, of ſuch Demand being made, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals (which he or they are hereby required to grant), to authoriſe and direct ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo acting for and under the ſaid Vicar, or any other Perſon to be therein named, to levy the Sum or Sums due, by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, rendering the Overplus (if any be), upon Demand, to the Owner or Owners of ſuch Goods and Chattels, the Charges and Expences of taking and making ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale being firſt deducted and paid.

Rate on divided Houſes how to be recovered;

'X. And whereas many Houſes within the ſaid Pariſh of The Trinity in Coventry, are or may, by the 'Owners, Proprietors, or Leſſees thereof, be divided, and let out in Tenements or Lodgings to divers Per-'ſons, whereby it may be difficult to recover the Rates or Aſſeſſments laid thereupon;' be it therefore further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Aſſeſſors to be appointed for the Purpoſes of this Act, to rate and aſſeſs the Owners, Proprietors, or Leſſees of ſuch Houſes reſpectively as ſhall be let to or occupied by two or more Tenants, which Rate or Aſſeſſment ſhall be paid by or recovered of the Proprietor or firſt Taker thereof.

and from Perſons removing.

XI. And be it further enacted, That when any Perſon or Perſons, who hath or have been rated and aſſeſſed by virtue of this Act, ſhall quit his, her, or their Houſe or other Tenement, whereupon ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment hath been made, before he, ſhe, or they ſhall have paid the ſame, and ſhall afterwards neglect or refuſe to pay the ſame when due, and demanded as aforeſaid by the Perſon or Perſons authoriſed and appointed to collect and receive the ſame; that then, and in every ſuch Caſe, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Perſon or Perſons, having ſuch Warrant for levying the ſame as aforeſaid, in any Place within the reſpective Juriſdiction of the Juſtices granting ſuch Warrant, or out of the Limits thereof, ſuch Warrant being firſt backed or counterſigned by ſome Juſtice of the Peace in the County, City, or Place, where the Diſtreſs is ſo to be made, to diſtrain the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo neglecting or refuſing, and the ſame to ſell, rendering the Overplus (if any be), after deducting the Amount of the Rate or Aſſeſſment, and the reaſonable Charges and Expences of ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale, to the Owner of ſuch Goods and Chattels demanding the ſame.

Aſſeſſors, &c. impowered to inſpect Pariſh Rates, for their information in laying Aſſeſſments.

'XII. And, for the better Information of the Perſons to be appointed Aſſeſſors as aforeſaid, with re-'ſpect to the annual Value of all Houſes, Tenements, or Premiſes, charged by this Act, and the better 'to enable them to perform their Duty;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Aſſeſſors, or any one or more of them, or any Perſon or Perſons authoriſed by any or either of them, ſhall have Liberty to inſpect, and to take Copies of or Extracts from, any Book or Books kept by any Pariſh Officer or Officers, or other Perſon or Perſons, of or concerning the Rates payable to the Poor, or any other public Taxes, Rates, or Aſſeſſments, within the ſaid Pariſh of The Trinity; and if any Perſon or Perſons, in whoſe Cuſtody or Power any of the ſaid Books ſhall be, ſhall refuſe or neglect to permit the ſaid Inſpection, or the Copies or Extracts to be made as aforeſaid, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, every Perſon who ſhall ſo refuſe or neglect ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of forty Shillings to the Vicar of the ſaid Pariſh.

Allowance to Aſſeſſors.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That, in Conſideration of the extraordinary Care and Pains requiſite in making and adjuſting the firſt Rate or Aſſeſſment by virtue of this Act, the Aſſeſſors ſhall have an Allowance for ſuch firſt Aſſeſſment of Three-pence for each Houſe rated or aſſeſſed by them, and the Sum of one Penny for each ſuch Houſe in every future Rate or Aſſeſſment; ſuch Allowances to be made and paid by the Vicar, at the Time of receiving ſuch Rates or Aſſeſſments.

Perſons aggrieved by the Rate may appeal to the Quarter Seſſions;

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the ſaid Vicar for the Time being, or any Perſon or Perſons, ſhall think himſelf, herſelf, or themſelves aggrieved by any Rate or Aſſeſſment made in purſuance of this Act, ſuch Vicar, or other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall and may appeal to the Quarter Seſſion of the Peace to be holden for the City and County of Coventry, within ſix Calendar Months next after the making of ſuch Rate, ſuch Appellant or Appellants firſt giving, or cauſing to be given, eight Days Notice at the leaſt, in Writing, of his, her, or their Intention to bring ſuch Appeal, and of the Matter thereof, to the ſaid Aſſeſſors, and within four Days next after ſuch Notice entering, or cauſing a Recognizance to be entered into, before ſome Juſtice of the Peace for the ſaid City and County, by two ſufficient Perſons or Sureties, conditioned to try ſuch Appeal, and to abide the Order of, and to pay ſuch Coſts as ſhall be awarded by, the Juſtices in ſuch Quarter Seſſion; and the ſaid Juſtices, upon due Proof of such Notice being given as aforesaid, and of the entering into such Recognizance, shall hear and determine the Causes and Matters of such Appeal in a summary Way, and award such Costs to the Party or Parties appealing, or appealed against, as they the said Justices shall think proper; and the Judgment of the said Justices, in their said Quarter Sessions, shall be conclusive upon all the Parties, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever. whose Determination shall be final.

XV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal the said Act of Philip and Mary, so far as respects any Arrears of Tythes, or Easter Offerings, to the Vicar of Trinity, in the City of Coventry, that have become due or payable on or before the passing of this Act. Arrears of Tythes or Easter Offerings to be paid to the Vicar.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person shall think himself or herself aggrieved by any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, and for which no particular Method of Relief hath been already appointed, such Person may appeal to the Justices of the Peace at any General Quarter Session of the Peace to be holden for the said City and County of Coventry, within four Calendar Months after the Cause of such Complaint shall have arisen, such Appellant first giving, or causing to be given, ten Days Notice at least, in Writing, of his or her Intention to bring such Appeal, and of the Matter thereof, to the Party meant to be appealed against, and, within four Days after such Notice, entering into Recognizance before some Justice of the Peace for the said City and County of Coventry, with two sufficient Sureties, conditioned to try such Appeal, and to abide the Order of, and to pay such Costs as shall be awarded by, the Justices at such Quarter Session; and the Justices at such Session, upon due Proof of such Notice being given as aforesaid, and of the entering into such Recognizance, shall hear and finally determine the Causes and Matters of such Appeal, in a summary Way, and award such Costs to the Parties appealing, or appealed against, as they the said Justices shall think proper; and the Determination of such Justices at such Quarter Session shall be final, binding, and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes. General Appeal to the Quarter-Sessions, on giving 10 Days Notice.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons, for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, until twenty-one Days Notice shall be thereof given to the said Assessors, or after sufficient Satisfaction, or Tender thereof, hath been made to the Party or Parties aggrieved, or after six Calendar Months after the Fact committed; and every such Action or Suit shall be laid or brought in the County or Place where the Matter shall arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants, in every such Action or Suit, shall or may, at his or their Election, plead specially, or plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act: And if the same shall appear to be so done, or if such Action or Suit shall be brought before twenty-one Days Notice shall be thereof given as aforesaid, or after a sufficient Satisfaction made or tendered as aforesaid, or after the Time limited for bringing the same as aforesaid, or shall be brought in any other County, then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his, her, or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, then the Defendant or Defendants shall recover Treble Costs, and have such Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Cases by Law. Limitation of Actions. General Issue. Treble Costs.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be a Public Act; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without being specially pleaded. Public Act.

CAP. LVIII.

An Act for preserving the Navigation of the River Lee, in the Counties of Hertford, Essex, and Middlesex.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, for ascertaining, preserving, and improving, the Navigation of the River Lee, from the Town of Hertford to the Town of Ware, in the County of Hertford; and for preserving and improving the said River, from the said Town of Ware, to the New Cut or River made by the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of London; and for other Purposes therein mentioned; the Governor and Company of the New River, in Consideration of a Quantity of Water supplied out of the said River Lee, for the Use of the said New River, are directed to pay to certain Trustees appointed in and by the said Act, for the Care and Management of the Navigation of the River Lee, two annual Sums of Money, amounting together to the Sum of three hundred and Fifty Pounds, to be applied in preserving and improving the Navigation of the said River Lee: And whereas, by an Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for improving the Navigation of the River Lee, from the Town of Hertford to the River Thames; and for extending the said Navigation to the Flood-gates belonging to the Town Mill, in the said Town of Hertford; certain Persons therein named, together with the Trustees appointed in or by virtue of the said Act of the twelfth Year of his late Majesty, were appointed Trustees for putting the said Act of the seventh Year of his present Majesty in Execution, and divers Powers and Authorities are given and granted to the said Trustees, for making, extending, improving, and maintaining the said Navigation, and for making and maintaining certain new Cuts or Canals to communicate with the said River Lee; and by the said Act of the seventh Year of his present Majesty, the said annual Sum of three hundred and fifty Pounds is vested in the said Trustees, together with certain Rates and Duties thereby granted, for the Purposes of the said Acts; and the said Navigation hath been completed for several Years, and is found beneficial to the Public: And whereas the said Trustees have charged the Rates or Duties, Preamble. Recital of an Act 12 Geo. II. and 7 Geo. III.

'and other Monies arising by virtue of the said Acts, with the Payment of the Principal Sum of forty-'four thousand three hundred Pounds, and also with the Payment of Annuities for the Lives of certain 'Persons, to the Amount of three thousand four hundred Pounds, or thereabouts; and there will be like-'wise due to several Persons for Arrears of Interest, Annuities, Rents, Compensations, and Purchase of 'Lands, and for Workmen's Bills, and other annual Expences of carrying on the said Navigation, at 'Midsummer next, the Sum of ten thousand six hundred Pounds, or thereabouts: And whereas the Mo-'ney arising by virtue of the said Acts is not sufficient to pay and discharge the Interest of the said Principal 'Money, and also to pay the said Annuities, and other Monies, due and owing as aforesaid; and, unless 'some additional Rates and Duties are allowed to be collected upon the said Navigation, several Persons 'who have lent and advanced Money upon the Credit of the said Acts will be very great Sufferers, and 'the Navigation of the said River will be totally lost, to the great Detriment of the Public: Wherefore, 'in order to preserve the said Navigation, and for Relief of the said several Annuitants, and other Cre-'ditors;' May it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Monday Sevennight next after passing of this Act, there will be paid, at such Place and Places, and in such Manner and Proportions, as herein-after mentioned, to the Collector or Collectors appointed by the said Trustees, or any seven or more of them, by all and every Person and Persons who shall carry or convey any Goods, Wares, Merchandises, or Commodities whatsoever, up or down the said River, or the said Cuts or Canals (over and above the Rates and Duties payable by virtue of the said Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty), the several additional Rates and Duties herein after mentioned; (that is to say)

The Trustees authorised to collect the following

Additional Rates. For every Ton of Malt passing through King's Weir, or the Lock nearest thereto, the Sum of one Shilling and Three-pence; and passing through Newman's Weir, or the Lock nearest thereto (the Rates and Duties for the same not having been paid at King's Weir, or the Lock nearest thereto, as aforesaid), the Sum of Eleven-pence; and passing through Lee Bridge, or any Lock in the new Cut below the said Bridge (the Rates and Duties for the same not having been paid at King's Weir, or Newman's Weir, or the Locks nearest the said Weirs, as aforesaid), the Sum of Five-pence; and passing on any Part of the Cut between Bromley Lock and the River Thames (the Rates and Duties not having been paid for the same above Bromley Lock aforesaid), the Sum of Two-pence; and so in Proportion for any less Quantity than a Ton:

For every Ton of Flour that shall be carried or conveyed through King's Weir aforesaid, or the Lock nearest the same, the Sum of Four-pence Halfpenny; and through Newman's Weir, or the Lock nearest the same, the Sum of Four-pence Halfpenny; and through Lee Bridge, or any Lock in the new Cut below the said Bridge, the Sum of Three-pence; and so in Proportion for any less Quantity than a Ton:

For every Chaldron of Coals, Culm, or Cinders, carried or conveyed through Newman's Weir, or the Lock nearest the same, the Sum of Six-pence; and through Lee Bridge aforesaid, or any Lock in the said Cut below the said Bridge, the Sum of Seven-pence; and so in Proportion for any less Quantity than a Chaldron:

For every Ton of other Goods, Wares, Merchandises, and Commodities whatsoever, that shall be carried or conveyed through King's Weir, or the Lock nearest the same, the Sum of Six-pence; and through Newman's Weir, or the Lock nearest the same, the Sum of Six-pence; and through Lee Bridge, or any Lock in the said Cut below the said Bridge, the Sum of Three-pence; and between Bromley Lock and the Thames, the Sum of Two pence; and so in Proportion for any less Quantity than a Ton:

For every Pleasure Boat which shall pass through any of the said Locks or Places, or on the said Cut between Bromley Lock and the Thames, the Sum of one Shilling; and for every empty Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Vessel, passing along the said Cut from Bromley Lock towards the Thames, after having delivered any Lading for which the said Rates and Duties shall not have been paid, or passing along the said Cut from the River Thames towards Bromley Lock, and not having been to deliver any Lading for which the Rates and Duties shall have been paid, the Sum of five Shillings:

Which said additional Rates and Duties hereby granted, shall be collected, levied, and recovered, by such and the like Ways, Means, and Methods, as the Rates and Duties granted by the said Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty can or may, by virtue thereof, be collected, levied, and recovered, and as if the additional Rates and Duties hereby granted were inserted in the Body of the said Act; and the same shall be applied to and for the several Uses, Intents, and Purposes, as the Rates and Duties granted by the said Act are thereby directed to be applied.

Additional Rates to be a Security for Money due on the Credit of the former Acts. II. And be it further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That the said additional Rates and Duties herein-before granted, are hereby declared to be a Security for the Payment of all the Principal Monies borrowed and due as aforesaid, and all Interest due and to become due for the same, and also for the Payment of the several Annuities granted and now payable as aforesaid, and of all other Monies whatsoever due and owing on the Credit of the said former Acts; and the several Persons intitled thereto shall have the same Powers and Remedies for the Recovery thereof, out of the Rates and Duties hereby granted, as are by the said recited Act given for the Recovery of any Money charged upon the Rates and Duties thereby granted.

The Rates to be reduced in certain Proportions as the Annuities fall in. III. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from Time to Time, as the Annuities granted by the said Trustees shall fall in, the Rates and Duties hereby granted shall be reduced, in the Proportions following; (that is to say) When the said Annuities shall be reduced to two thousand four hundred Pounds, no more than three fourth Parts of the Rates and Duties hereby granted ſhall be demanded or taken; and when the ſaid Annuities ſhall be reduced to one thouſand four hundred Pounds, no more than one Half of the ſaid Rates and Duties ſhall be demanded or taken; and that when the ſaid Annuities ſhall be reduced to four hundred Pounds, no more than one fourth Part of the ſaid Rates and Duties ſhall be demanded or taken; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

All Aſhes, Breeze, and Materials not uſed for Manure, to be ſubject to the Rates;

'IV. And whereas Aſhes, Breeze, and other Materials uſed in making Bricks, are frequently conveyed upon the ſaid River, under the Pretence of being for manuring of Land, whereby the Payment of the Rates and Duties is evaded;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Aſhes, Breeze, and other Materials and Things which ſhall not be uſed for manuring of Land, ſhall be liable to the Payment of the like Rates and Duties as are by the ſaid recited Act of the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and this Act, granted for any Goods, Wares, Merchandiſes, and Commodities (except Coals, Culm, or Cinders); and it ſhall and may be lawful for the Collector or Collectors appointed by the ſaid Truſtees, or any five or more of them, to demand, collect, and recover the ſaid Rates and Duties for all ſuch Aſhes, Breeze, and other Materials and Things, as ſuch Collector ſhall have Reaſon to apprehend are not intended to be uſed for manuring of Land, in ſuch Manner, and by the ſame Ways and Means, as the Rates and Duties herein-before granted can or may be demanded, collected, and recovered; any Thing in the ſaid former Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

but if uſed for Manure, the Rates ſhall be returned.

V. Provided nevertheleſs, That in caſe it ſhall afterwards be made appear to ſuch Collector, that the Aſhes, Breeze, or other Materials or Things for which the ſaid Rates and Duties ſhall have been paid as aforeſaid, were for the manuring of Land, that then the Rates and Duties ſo paid ſhall be returned by ſuch Collector to the Owner or Owners of ſuch Aſhes, Breeze, or other Materials or Things, or his or their Agents or Servants, upon Demand.

Every Lading of Wood ſhall be deemed 25 Tons.

'VI. And, for the better aſcertaining the Tonnage of Timber and Wood, to be charged with the Payment of the Rates or Duties granted by the ſaid recited Act, and this Act;' be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That whenever any Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Veſſel, navigated upon the ſaid River, Cuts, or Canals, ſhall be laden with Timber or Wood only, ſuch Lading ſhall, for the Purpoſes of the ſaid recited Act of the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and of this Act, be deemed Twenty-five Tons, although the ſame may actually be a greater or leſs Quantity; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act, or in this Act, or any Uſage or Cuſtom, to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

So much of the former Act as requires Steerſmen to deliver Bills of Lading, repealed.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, ſo much of the ſaid recited Act of the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, as requires Perſons having the Charge of any Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Veſſel, to give an Account in Writing, as therein is mentioned, of the Quantity, Quality, and Weight, of the Goods, Wares, Merchandiſes, and Commodities, which ſhall be in ſuch Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Veſſel, and alſo of the Quantity, Quality, and Weight, of the Goods, Wares, Merchandiſes, and Commodities, which ſhall have been diſcharged or taken out of ſuch Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Veſſel, before the Arrival thereof at the Place where ſuch Account is to be given, and as inflicts any Penalty on ſuch Perſons for not giving ſuch Account, or for giving a falſe Account, ſhall be, and is hereby repealed.

Owners of Goods, or Perſons delivering any on their Behalf, ſhall give Bills of Lading to the Steerſmen, who are to produce the ſame to the Collectors of the Tolls.

Penalty on Neglect, &c.

VIII. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, the Owners of, or Perſons ſelling any Goods, Wares, or Merchandiſe, or any Perſon who ſhall deliver any Goods, Wares, or Merchandiſe, on Account of ſuch Owners or Perſons ſelling the ſame, on board any Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Veſſel, to be carried or conveyed upon the ſaid River, Cuts, or Canals, ſhall, and are hereby required to give a true Account, in Writing under their reſpective Hands, of the Quantity, Quality, and Weight, of all ſuch Goods, Wares, and Merchandiſe, to the Steerſman or other Perſon having the Care, Charge, or Management of the Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Veſſel, on board of which ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandiſe ſhall be delivered, together with the Date of the Delivery thereof; and the ſaid Steerſman or other Perſon ſhall produce the ſaid Account to the Collector or Collectors of the ſaid Rates or Duties, and deliver a true Copy thereof to every ſuch Collector; and in caſe any ſuch Steerſman or other Perſon ſhall not produce ſuch Account, and deliver a Copy thereof as aforeſaid, every ſuch Steerſman or other Perſon ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds; and in caſe any ſuch Steerſman or other Perſon ſhall produce a falſe Account to any ſuch Collector or Collectors as aforeſaid, the Perſon who ſhall have ſigned ſuch falſe Account ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

All Veſſels to be marked with graduated Figures, denoting their Burthen;

'IX. And, for the better enabling the Collectors of the ſaid Rates or Duties to judge of the Truth of the Accounts of Lading to be produced as aforeſaid;' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty, all Boats, Barges, Lighters, and other Veſſels, which ſhall be navigated upon the ſaid River, Cuts, or Canals, ſhall be painted or marked, in three different Places on each Side thereof, with graduated Figures or Marks, of proper Dimenſions, at ſuch Diſtances, and upon ſuch Parts of the Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Veſſel, as the ſaid Truſtees, or any five or more of them, ſhall order, under the Direction of ſome proper and ſkilful Perſon; and ſo from Time to Time, as Occaſion ſhall require; and the ſame ſhall at all Times be kept ſo marked, in a plain and legible Manner; and that, after the ſaid firſt Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty, if any Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Veſſel, ſhall be navigated upon the ſaid River, Cuts, or Canals, not being painted or marked in a plain and legible Manner as aforeſaid, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, the Owner, or Perſon having the Care, Charge, or Management, of ſuch Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Veſſel, ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

on Penalty of 5l.

So much of the former Act as directs the Truſt-

'X. And whereas it might tend to the better Execution of the ſaid recited Acts, and this Act, if the ſaid Truſtees were obliged to hold more than one General Meeting in every Year;' be it therefore enacted ees to meet on the first Monday in June yearly, repealed.

acted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, so much of the said recited Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, as directs a General Meeting of the Trustees to be holden on the first Monday in June in every Year, and Notice to be given thereof, shall be, and is hereby repealed.

First Meeting of the Trustees.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, shall hold a Meeting for carrying the Purposes of the said recited Acts, and this Act, into Execution, at the Sign of the Rose and Crown, at Enfield Highway, in the Parish of Enfield, in the said County of Middlesex, upon the Monday Sevennight after the passing this Act, and may adjourn such Meeting from Time to Time previous to their first General Meeting (to be holden as herein-after mentioned), as they shall think proper; and that the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, shall hold three General Meetings in every Year, at or within the respective Times and Places herein-after mentioned; (that is to say) In the Town of Hertford, upon the last Monday in July, or within six days afterwards; in the Parish of Waltham Holy Cross, in the said County of Essex, on the last Monday in October, or within six Days afterwards; and in the City of London, on the last Monday in January, or within six Days afterwards; and the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, shall, at such respective General Meetings, appoint the Day, and the House or Place (being within the respective Times, and at the respective Places, aforesaid) upon and at which their then next General Meeting shall be holden; and the Clerk to the said Trustees for the Time being shall, at such respective General Meetings, lay before the Trustees then assembled, a full State of the Accounts relative to the Execution of the said recited Acts, and this Act, up to such of the Days following, videlicet, Midsummer-day, Michaelmas-day, and Christmas-day, as shall happen next before the Day of holding such respective Meetings, in order that the same may be audited and settled; and the said Trustees, at such General Meetings, are hereby required to examine and pass the said Accounts; and after the same shall be examined and passed, an Abstract thereof shall be made out, and signed by five or more of the said Trustees, and the same shall be fairly entered in the Book of Proceedings of the said Trustees; and all Persons interested in the said Navigation may, at all convenient Times, have a Copy of such Abstract, upon paying to the Clerk to the said Trustees the Sum of two Shillings and Six-pence; and in case the said Trustees shall not settle and pass the said Accounts at any such General Meeting, then such Meeting shall be adjourned to the seventh Day then next following, and so from Time to Time, until the said Accounts shall be settled and passed, and an Abstract thereof made and signed as aforesaid; and after the said Accounts shall be completed as aforesaid, the said Trustees may adjourn such respective Meetings to such Place and Time, previous to the Time of holding their next General Meeting, as the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, shall think proper.

Three General Meetings to be held in every Year; at which they shall audit and settle the Accounts, and cause an Abstract thereof to be made and entered in the Book of their Proceedings.

After two Years, the Trustees shall settle the Accounts at two several Meetings in every Year.

XII. Provided nevertheless, That after the Expiration of two Years from the passing of this Act, the said Trustees shall be obliged to examine and settle the said Accounts at two at least of the said three General Meetings in every Year, any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

No Money to be borrowed till the Accounts are settled.

XIII. Provided also, That no Money shall be borrowed by the said Trustees, until the said Accounts shall have been settled, and entered as aforesaid.

Securities for Money borrowed, and Annuities granted, to be valid.

'XIV. And whereas Doubts may arise touching the Validity of some of the Securities granted by 'the said Trustees; to obviate such Doubts, and to secure the several Creditors who have, bona fide, lent 'and advanced their Money for the Purposes of the said Navigation;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Principal Sums of Money so lent and advanced to the said Trustees, and the Annuities granted by them, shall be, and they are hereby respectively declared to be charged upon the Rates or Duties granted and made payable by the said recited Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and also upon the Rates or Duties by this Act granted and made payable; and that the several Securities given and granted for the Payment thereof, are hereby declared to be valid and effectual in the Law, to all Intents and Purposes.

Trustees impowered to pay off any Principal Money now due;

'XV. And whereas Doubts have arisen touching the Power of the said Trustees to pay off any parti-'cular Securities for Money at Interest already granted, in case they find it necessary so to do;' be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees, or any seven or more of them, from Time to Time, as they shall think proper, to pay off any of the Principal Money borrowed and due upon the Credit of the said Rates and Duties; provided three Calendar Months Notice thereof, at the least, shall be given in Writing, signed by them, to the Person or Persons intitled to the Money so to be paid off, and of the Day and Place at and upon which such Money will be paid; and in case the Securities given for such Money shall not be produced at the Time and Place to be mentioned in such Notice, and upon Tender of the Principal Money, and all Interest then due thereon, shall not be delivered up to the said Trustees, or to their Clerk, that then the Interest of all such Principal Money shall from thenceforth cease, and be no longer paid or payable.

giving three Months Notice.

Proviso.

XVI. Provided nevertheless, That the Principal Money in respect whereof such Notice shall be given, and also the Interest for the same up to the Time mentioned in such Notice for the Payment thereof, shall still remain due and payable, until the same shall be received by the Person intitled to the same.

All Monies secured by the former Acts, shall also be charged upon the present and former Rates, &c.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all Payments to be made, and also the Monies due and owing on the Credit of the said former Acts, shall be payable as well out of the Rates and Duties created by this Act, as out of the Rates and Duties created by the said former Acts, in the like Course of Payment, and with the same Priority, and with the like Remedies for Recovery thereof, as are directed in and by the said former Acts; any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Trustees not to grant any Annuities for the future.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Annuity or Annuities shall hereafter be granted upon the Credit of the Rates and Duties authorised to be collected by virtue of the said recited Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, or by this Act; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

No Money to be hereafter borrowed, unless 21 Trustees shall concur therein;

XIX. And be it further enacted, That no Money shall hereafter be borrowed upon the Credit of the Rates and Duties authorised to be collected on the said River, or any of them, unless twenty-one Trustees at the least shall be present, and shall concur therein, and unless seven of such Trustees shall be resident in the said County of Hertford, seven within the said County of Essex, and seven within the said County of Middlesex and City of London, or one of them; and that no such Money shall be so borrowed, but at a Meeting to be holden for that Purpose; of which Meeting one Calendar Month's Notice at the least shall be given in some of the public Newspapers circulated in the said Counties, at least three Times before the borrowing any such Money; any Thing in the said recited Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

and then not more than 20,000 l.

XX. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby declared, That no more than the Sum of twenty thousand Pounds, over and above the said Sum of forty-four thousand three hundred Pounds Principal Money, already charged on the said Rates, shall hereafter be borrowed on the Credit of the said former Act, or this present Act; any Thing in the said former Act, or this Act, to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

Trustees authorised to assign over the Rates for Payment of all Arrears of Interest and Annuities, &c.

XXI. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees, or any seven or more of them, if they think fit, at the Request of any Person or Persons to whom any Arrears of Interest, or any Arrears of Annuities, shall, on the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, be due and owing on the Credit of the said Rates or Duties, to assign over the said Rates or Duties, or any Part thereof, for securing the Payment of all such Arrears, together with Interest for the same; and all such Assignments shall be good, valid, and effectual in the Law, for the Payment of the Money thereby secured, and all Interest to grow due for the same, any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary hereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided also, That the Sum for which the said Rates and Duties shall be assigned, as herein-before mentioned, shall be construed and taken to be Part of the Sum of twenty thousand Pounds, which the Trustees are authorised to raise by virtue of this Act.

Collectors required to keep the Gates of Locks, near the Places of Collection, shut; and not to suffer any Vessel to pass till the Rates are paid. Penalty on Neglect.

'XXII. And, in order to prevent any Waste of Water at any of the Locks, at or near the Places appointed for collecting the said Rates or Duties, and for the better Collection thereof;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Collectors of the said Rates or Duties shall, and are hereby authorised and required, at all Times hereafter, to keep the Gates of the Locks, at or near the several Places appointed for collecting the said Rates or Duties, properly shut and locked, or otherwise fastened, so as not to suffer any unnecessary Waste of Water through the same (except only at such Times, and for so long as shall be necessary for Boats, Barges, Lighters, and other Vessels, to pass through such Locks, and in Times of Flood); and no Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Vessel, shall be suffered to pass through any such Lock until the whole Rates or Duties authorised to be collected shall be paid to such Collector; and in case any Collector shall not keep the Gates of the Lock, at or near the Place where he shall be appointed to collect the said Rates or Duties, properly shut and locked, or otherwise fastened, so as not to suffer any unnecessary Waste of Water through the same, or if such Collector shall permit or suffer any Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Vessel, to pass through any such Lock as aforesaid, before the full Rates or Duties which ought to be collected shall have been paid, every such Collector offending in either of the Cases aforesaid shall, for every Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding forty Shillings.

Trustees to keep the Locks and Works in Repair, to prevent Waste of Water.

'XXIII. And, for the more effectual preventing the Waste of Water in any of the said Cuts or Canals, 'to the Prejudice of any Mill,' be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the Locks or other Works made or erected, or to be made or erected, by the said Trustees, shall be out of Repair, and any Mill shall be prejudiced thereby, then, and in every such Case, upon Notice thereof in Writing, given by the Occupier of such Mill to the Surveyor to the said Trustees, such Surveyor is hereby required forthwith to inspect into and consider the same, and report such Notice, and his Opinion thereof, to the said Trustees, at their next Meeting; and the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, shall, and are hereby required, at their said next Meeting, to take the same into Consideration, and as soon as may be to cause such Locks and Works to be put into good and sufficient Repair, so as to prevent the Waste of Water as aforesaid; and in case such Surveyor shall refuse or neglect to inspect into and survey such Defect or Want of Repair in any of the said Locks or other Works, or make such Report as aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, nor less than forty Shillings.

Persons navigating Vessels required to shut the upper Gates of the Locks as soon as the Vessels are passed, except some other Vessel is in Sight.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Steersman, or other Person having the Care, Charge, or Management, of any Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Vessel, upon the said River, Cuts, or Canals, and passing with such Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Vessel, through any Lock upon the said River, Cuts, or Canals, shall suffer the Water to remain in the Lock longer than is necessary for such Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Vessel, to pass through the same; and that every such Steersman, or other Person, in going down the said River, Cuts, or Canals, shall shut the lower Gates of such Lock before he shall draw the Cloughs of the upper Gates thereof; and after he shall have brought such Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Vessel, into the said Lock, shall shut close the upper Gates before he shall draw the Cloughs of the lower Gates thereof; and in going up the said River, Cuts, or Canals, shall, so soon as he shall have passed with such Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Vessel, out of the said Lock, shut the upper Gates of the said Lock, and afterwards draw the Cloughs of the lower Gates, unless there shall be then a Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Vessel, in Sight from the said Lock, coming down the said River, Cuts, or Canals, in which Case the lower Gates of the said Lock shall be left shut, and the upper Gates shall be left open; and every Person who shall not act agreeable to the Directions herein-before mentioned, shall, for every Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding forty Shillings.

XXV. And

So much of the former Act as requires the Names to be put on the Bows of Veſſels, repealed.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſo much of the ſaid recited Act of the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, as requires the Owners of Boats, Barges, Lighters, or other Veſſels, to cauſe their Names, and alſo the Names of the Steerſmen, or other Perſons having the Care or Charge of ſuch Boats, Barges, Lighters, or other Veſſels, and their reſpective Places of Abode, to be placed and ſet on the upper Part of the Bow on both Sides of ſuch Boats, Barges, Lighters, or other Veſſels, and as inflicts a Penalty for Default therein, ſhall be, and is hereby repealed.

Names and Places of Abode of Owners and Steerſmen to be put on the Sterns of Veſſels;

on Penalty of 5 l.

XXVI. Provided nevertheleſs, and it is hereby declared, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, the Owner or Owners of every Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Veſſel, paſſing upon the ſaid River, Cuts, or Canals, ſhall cauſe his, her, or their Name or Names, and alſo the Name of the Steerſman, or other Perſon having the Care or Charge of every ſuch Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Veſſel, and their reſpective Places of Abode, to be placed and ſet at full Length, in white Letters upon a black or dark Ground, ſuch Letters to be four Inches long, and of a proportional Breadth, and made on ſome conſpicuous Part of the Stern of every ſuch Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Veſſel, and to be kept at all Times plain and legible; and in caſe any Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Veſſel, ſhall, at any Time after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, be navigated on the ſaid River, Cuts, or Canals, not having the Name or Names of the Owner or Owners thereof, and alſo the Name of the Steerſman, or other Perſon as aforeſaid, and alſo their reſpective Places of Abode, placed and ſet on the Stern of every ſuch Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Veſſel, and kept plain and legible, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; or if any Steerſman or other Perſon ſhall cover or conceal the ſame, or uſe any Means whatſoever to prevent any Perſon from reading the ſame; every Perſon offending in any of the Caſes aforeſaid ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

Penalty on floating of Timber.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, float, or cauſe any Timber to be floated, upon the ſaid River, Cuts, or Canals, every ſuch Perſon ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Shillings for every Time he or they ſhall float, or cauſe any Timber to be floated, upon the ſaid River, Cuts, or Canals.

Penalty on Perſons aſſaulting the Collectors, or obſtructing them in their Duty.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon ſhall aſſault, interrupt, or obſtruct, any Collector, or other Perſon employed by the ſaid Truſtees, or any five or more of them, in collecting the ſaid Rates or Duties, or otherwiſe in the Execution of his Office, every ſuch Perſon ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding forty Shillings, nor leſs than ten Shillings.

Proviſo.

XXIX. Provided always, That nothing herein contained ſhall prevent, or be conſtrued to prevent, any ſuch Collector, or other Perſon, having his Remedy, for any ſuch Offence, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Law, by Action, Indictment, or otherwiſe.

Tottenham Mill Stream to be uſed as Part of the Navigation for ever, ſubject to a certain annual Payment.

'XXX. And whereas a certain navigable Stream or Cut belonging to James Townſend, Eſquire, called 'Tottenham Mill Stream, hath been uſed as Part of the ſaid Navigation, for the Paſſage of Boats, Barges, 'Lighters, and other Veſſels, for which the ſaid Truſtees have paid to the ſaid James Townſend the annual 'Sum of ten Pounds ten Shillings; and the ſaid James Townſend is conſenting that the ſaid Stream or Cut 'ſhould be uſed as Part of the ſaid Navigation for ever, ſubject to the ſame annual Rent; but the ſame 'being no Part of the Navigation deſcribed in the ſaid Act, the Uſe of the ſaid Stream cannot be ſecured 'to the Public, unleſs ſome further Powers are granted for that Purpoſe;' be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Stream or Cut, together with a proper Towing-path on the Weſt Side thereof, ſhall for ever hereafter be uſed as Part of the ſaid Navigation; and that the Owners of all Boats, Barges, Lighters, and other Veſſels, ſhall have Liberty to navigate along the ſaid Stream or Cut, and to make uſe of the ſaid Towing-path, in like Manner as if the ſaid Stream or Cut had been Part of the Navigation deſcribed in the ſaid Act; and the ſaid Truſtees, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall, and have hereby full Power and Authority, from Time to Time, to ſcour, cleanſe, deepen, and do ſuch other Works in the ſaid Stream or Cut, and repair the ſaid Towing-path, as they ſhall think fit, for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Navigation, without any Hindrance, Moleſtation, or Interruption, from the ſaid James Townſend, or any Perſon or Perſons who may hereafter be entitled to the ſaid Stream or Cut, and Towing-path, ſo that no Damage be done thereby to Tottenham Mills, by preventing the Water flowing to the ſame as it now doth.

Nothing to be done to prejudice Tottenham Mills.

XXXI. Provided always, Thet nothing herein contained ſhall authoriſe the ſaid Truſtees, or any of them, or any other Perſon or Perſons acting under their Authority, to contract the ſaid Stream or Cut, or prevent the Occupier of Tottenham Mills from penning a Head of Water to the ſaid Mills, or to obſtruct, hinder, or prevent the navigating or paſſing of Boats, Barges, Lighters, and other Veſſels, to and from the ſaid Mills.

The Occupiers of the Mills not to draw the Water below a certain Height.

XXXII. Provided alſo, That the Occupier or Occupiers of the ſaid Mills, or any other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall not, upon any Account or Pretence, cauſe the Water to be let or drawn out of the ſaid Stream or Cut, ſo as to reduce the ſame below the Height of two Feet on the preſent Sill of the Waſte-gate of the ſaid Mills, to be aſcertained by a Stone put down and marked for that Purpoſe: And the ſaid Truſtees are hereby required at all Times to keep the Gates of the Lock near the ſaid Stream or Cut of an equal Height with the Banks of the ſaid Mill Stream at the Mill Head, for keeping a full Head of Water to the ſaid Mills; and the ſaid Truſtees ſhall, at all Times, repair, and keep in good Repair, the Bridge built acroſs the new Cut near the ſaid Mill Stream.

The Truſtees to keep the Gates of the Lock near the Stream of an equal Height with the Banks; and to repair the Bridge.

How the Rent payable for the Uſe of Totten-XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Truſtees, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall, and they are hereby authoriſed and required, out of any Money ariſing by virtue of the ſaid recited Acts, and this this Act, to pay, or cause to be paid, to the said James Townsend, and the Owner of the said Stream or Cut, and Towing-path, for the Time being, the annual Rent of ten Pounds ten Shillings, of lawful Money of Great Britain, free and clear of and from all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, on the twenty-fifth Day of March in every Year, the first Payment to be made on the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty; and in case the said yearly Rent shall not be paid for the Space of twenty-one Days next after the Day herein-before appointed for the Payment thereof, that then the said James Townsend, and the Owner for the Time being of the said Stream or Cut, and Towing-path, shall have such and the same Remedies for recovering the same yearly Rent, and all Costs and Expences attending the Recovery thereof, as are in the said recited Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty provided for the Payment of any Rents or Annuities granted and made payable by virtue thereof.

ham Mill Stream, may be recovered.

'XXXIV. And whereas, by the said recited Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, the said Trustees are required to pay to Sir William Wake Baronet, and Peter Floyer Esquire, their Heirs and Assigns, the Sum of one Penny per Ton on all Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Commodities, which should be carried or conveyed down the said River, through the Cut or Canal made from the said River, above King's Weir, to the West Tail Stream of the Powder Mills near Waltham Abbey: And whereas it is apprehended that, by laying the additional Rates or Duties herein-before granted, their Property may be injured:' Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the said Sum of one Penny per Ton shall not hereafter produce to the said Sir William Wake and Peter Floyer, their respective Heirs and Assigns, the clear annual Sum of one hundred and sixty Pounds, that then the said Trustees, or any seven or more of them, shall, and they are hereby authorised and required, from Time to Time, to make up the Deficiency to the said Sir William Wake and Peter Floyer, their respective Heirs and Assigns, and the same shall be paid to the said Sir William Wake and Peter Floyer, their respective Heirs and Assigns, at the End of every Year in which any such Deficiency shall happen; and in case of Nonpayment thereof, for the Space of ten Days after the same shall be due, the said Sir William Wake and Peter Floyer, their Heirs and Assigns, shall and may have and take such and the like Powers and Remedies for receiving and recovering the same, and all Costs and Charges attending the Recovery thereof, as are in the said recited Act given for Recovery of the said one Penny per Ton.

In case the Tonnage made payable to Sir William Wake and Mr. Floyer, by the former Act, shall not amount to 160*l.* per Annum, the Deficiency shall be made up to them by the Trustees.

'XXXV. And whereas it would be for the Benefit of the said Navigation, and of certain Mills, called Dicker Mills, situate near the said Town of Hertford, and also of certain Works for supplying the said Town with Water, belonging to the Mayor and Aldermen of the said Town, if the Water in Dicker Mill Stream was always kept up to a certain Height;' be it therefore enacted, That the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, shall, and they are hereby required, within forty Days next after their first Meeting to be holden in pursuance of this Act, to give Notice to the Owner and Occupier of the said Mills, and to the Mayor of the said Town of Hertford, directing each of them to appoint an Engineer, to meet an Engineer to be appointed by the said Trustees, on a certain Day, to be mentioned in such Notice, in order to examine the said Mill Stream, and to agree upon and settle to what Height the Water in the said Mill Stream ought to be kept up for the future, and to order and direct proper Stones or Posts to be fixed or set up in or on the Banks of the said Stream, and also near the said Water-works, with proper Marks thereon denoting such Height; and the Determination of the said Engineers, or any two of them, shall be final and conclusive.

The Height at which the Water is to be kept in Dicker Mill Stream, to be ascertained by Engineers.

XXXVI. Provided always, That in case Engineers shall not be appointed as aforesaid, or being so appointed, shall neglect or refuse to act, or shall not agree therein within three Calendar Months after the Day to be appointed for the Meeting of the said Engineers as aforesaid, that then the Justices of the Peace, at their General Quarter Sessions to be holden for the said County of Hertford, upon Application made to them for that Purpose on Behalf of the said Trustees, or of the Owner or Occupier of the said Mills, shall, and they are hereby required to name and appoint some able Engineer to examine, settle, and determine touching the Matters aforesaid, and his Determination shall be final and conclusive; and after such Determination as aforesaid, the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, shall, and they are hereby required to cause such Stones or Posts as aforesaid to be forthwith fixed or set up, with proper Marks thereon, and at such Place and Places as the said Engineers or Engineer (as the Case may be) shall direct, in order to denote and fix the Height to which the Water in the said Stream ought to be kept up; and the said Trustees shall from Time to Time support and keep such Stones or Posts fixed, with such Mark or Marks as aforesaid; and all the Charges and Expences attending the appointing and employing the said Engineers, and also of erecting and fixing such Stones or Posts, and keeping and supporting the same as aforesaid, shall be borne, paid, and defrayed by the said Trustees, out of any Money arising by virtue of the said former Act, or of this Act; and that after the said Stones or Posts shall be fixed or set up, and marked as aforesaid, it shall not be lawful for the Occupier of the said Mills, or the Person having the Care of the said Water-works, to suffer the said Mills, or Water-works, to work, or for the Person having the Care of the Navigation there to keep open the Cistern or Lock near the said Mills, when the Water shall be reduced below the Mark or Marks upon the said Stones or Posts; and in case the Water within the said Stream shall at any Time be reduced below the said Mark or Marks, and the Occupier of the said Mills shall not immediately shut down the said Mills, or the Person having the Care of the said Water-works shall not immediately shut down the said Works, or the Person having the Care of the Navigation there as aforesaid shall not immediately shut the said Cistern or Lock, so as to raise and keep up the Water to the said Mark or Marks, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act (Notice having been given to them respectively so to do), every such Occupier, and other Person aforesaid, so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding forty Shillings, nor less than ten Shillings; and in case any Person or Persons shall break, raise, pull up, sink lower, or destroy, or in anywise alter any of the Stones or Posts which shall be so fixed or set up as aforesaid, or obliterate, deface, change, or alter, any Letters,

In case the said Engineers shall not agree within three Months after their Appointment, the Quarter Sessions for Hertfordshire shall appoint another Engineer to settle the same.

The Mills, &c. not to work when the Water shall be below the Marks on the Stones or Posts.

Penalty on altering Marks, &c.

Letters, Figures, or Marks, which ſhall be inſcribed thereon, every ſuch Perſon ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding five Pounds, nor leſs than forty Shillings.

Nothing to be done to prejudice Dicker Mills, &c.

XXXVII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That in aſcertaining the Height at which the Water in Dicker Mill Stream aforeſaid ſhould be kept for the future, or in fixing or ſetting up any ſuch Poſts or Stones as aforeſaid, nothing ſhall be done to the Prejudice of Dicker Mills, or of the Occupier thereof, or of the ſaid Water-works, or of certain Mills called Hertford Town Mills, or any Occupier thereof.

Proviſo.

XXXVIII. Provided alſo, That no Occupier of the ſaid Mills called Dicker Mills, or Perſon having the Care of the ſaid Water-works, ſhall be ſubject to the Penalty aforeſaid, for not keeping the Water in Dicker Mill Stream up to ſuch Height as aforeſaid, whenever any of the Works of the ſaid Navigation, above the Mouth of the Cut or Canal in King's Mead, ſhall be out of Repair.

Truſtees may leaſe the Rates after the End of Five Years.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the Term of five Years from and after the paſſing of this Act, the ſaid Truſtees, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall have full Power and Authority, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, to let or demiſe the Rates and Duties authoriſed to be collected upon the ſaid River, Cuts, or Canals, for any Term, not exceeding two Years at any one Time, for the higheſt Rent they can get for the ſame, by public Bidding or otherwiſe, the ſame to be payable at ſuch Times, and under ſuch Covenants, as the ſaid Truſtees, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall think fit (the ſaid Truſtees taking proper Security from the Perſon or Perſons to whom the ſaid Tolls ſhall be leaſed or demiſed, for Payment of the Rent or Rents, and Performance of the Covenants); which Rent and Rents ſhall be paid to the ſaid Truſtees, or any ſeven or more of them, or to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as they ſhall appoint to receive the ſame, and ſhall be applied and diſpoſed of in the ſame Manner as the ſaid Rates and Duties are by the ſaid recited Act of the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and this Act, directed to be applied and diſpoſed of.

Public Notice thereof to be given.

XL. Provided always, That one Calendar Month's previous Notice, at the leaſt, be given in ſome of the public Newſpapers circulated in the ſaid Counties of Hertford, Eſſex, Middleſex, and the City of London, of the Intention of the ſaid Truſtees to leaſe or demiſe the ſaid Rates and Duties.

If the Truſtees leaſe the Tolls, they ſhall employ a Perſon, to be approved of by Sir William Wake and Mr. Floyer, to take an Account of the Tonnage of all Goods paſſing through the Lock near King's Weir.

XLI. Provided alſo, That in caſe the ſaid Truſtees ſhall at any Time let the ſaid Rates and Duties, they ſhall, and are hereby required, during ſuch Time as the Rates and Duties ſhall continue to be let as aforeſaid, to keep conſtantly employed, at their own Coſts and Charges, ſome proper Perſon, to be approved of by the ſaid Sir William Wake Baronet, and Peter Floyer Eſquire, their reſpective Heirs and Aſſigns, and ſuch Perſon is hereby required to take and keep an exact and faithful Account in Writing of the Tonnage of all Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, which ſhall paſs, from Time to Time, through the ſaid Lock, in the Cut near to King's Weir aforeſaid; and the ſaid Sir William Wake Baronet, and Peter Floyer Eſquire, their reſpective Heirs and Aſſigns, ſhall have free Liberty, from Time to Time, to inſpect ſuch Accounts, and to take Copies or Extracts thereof; and it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Sir William Wake Baronet, and Peter Floyer Eſquire, and their reſpective Heirs and Aſſigns, within twenty Days before the Expiration of every Year, to compare the ſame with the Account kept by the Leſſee of the ſaid Tolls ariſing at King's Weir; and in caſe ſuch Leſſee ſhall refuſe to produce his Account to the ſaid Sir William Wake Baronet, and Peter Floyer Eſquire, and their reſpective Heirs and Aſſigns, for the Space of ten Days after Notice given for that Purpoſe, that then and in that Caſe his Leaſe ſhall, at the Expiration of the Year, ceaſe and determine.

The Truſtees under the former Act to have full Power to carry this Act into Execution.

XLII. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Truſtees appointed or elected, or who ſhall hereafter be appointed or elected, by or in purſuance of the ſaid Act of the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and all, every, or any of them, ſhall have full Power and Authority to act in the Execution of this preſent Act of Parliament, in all Reſpects, and to all Intents and Purpoſes, as fully and effectually as if the ſeveral Proviſions contained in this Act were inſerted in the Body of the ſaid recited Act.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered and applied.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That the ſeveral Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act impoſed, ſhall be levied and recovered in the ſame Manner as any Penalties or Forfeitures are, by the ſaid recited Act of the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, directed to be levied and recovered, and ſhall be applied for the Purpoſes of the ſaid recited Acts, and this Act.

Perſons aggrieved may appeal to the Quarter Seſſions.

XLIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Perſons who ſhall think themſelves aggrieved by the Order or Judgment of any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, upon account of any Offence committed, or ſuppoſed to be committed, againſt this Act, may appeal to the Juſtices of the Peace for either of the ſaid Counties where the Offence was committed, or ſuppoſed to be committed, at any General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held within the Space of ſix Calendar Months after ſuch Cauſe of Appeal ſhall happen, the Perſon or Perſons ſo appealing firſt giving Security, to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices, to proſecute ſuch Appeal with Effect, and to pay the Coſts which ſhall be aſcertained by the ſaid General Quarter Seſſions, in caſe ſuch Order or Judgment ſhall be affirmed; and the Juſtices at ſuch General or Quarter Seſſions are hereby authoriſed and required to hear and determine ſuch Appeal, and to make ſuch Orders therein, and to award Coſts, as to them ſhall appear juſt; which Orders ſhall be final and concluſive to all Parties, and ſhall not be removed or removeable, by any Writ of Certiorari or otherwiſe, into any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or elſewhere; and that no Order or Proceeding to be had by or before any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, relating to the Execution of this Act, ſhall be quaſhed or vacated for want of Form only.

Limitation of Actions.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That if any Action, Suit, or Information, ſhall be brought or commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, every ſuch Action, Suit, or Information, ſhall be commenced within ſix Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and ſhall be laid or brought in the Counties of Hertford, Eſſex, or Middleſex, and not elſewhere; where; and the Perſon or Perſons ſo ſued or proſecuted, may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the ſpecial Matter, in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the ſame was done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act: And if it ſhall appear to have been ſo done, or if any Action, Suit, or Information, ſhall be brought after the Time before limited for bringing the ſame, or ſhall be brought in any other County or Place than as aforeſaid, that then the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants; or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall become nonſuited, or ſuffer a Diſcontinuance of his, her, or their Action, Suit, or Information, after the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have appeared, or if in any ſuch Action, Suit, or Information, Judgment ſhall be given againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts, and ſhall have ſuch Remedy for the ſame, as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Coſts of Suit in other Caſes by Law.

General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

XLVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Coſts, Charges, and Expences incident to and attending the obtaining and paſſing this Act, ſhall be paid out of the firſt Monies which ſhall be collected or received by virtue of the ſaid former Acts or this preſent Act.

Expences of this Act how to be paid.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be a Public Act; and all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons whomſoever, are hereby required to take Notice thereof as ſuch, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

Public Act.

CAP. LIX.

An Act for repealing the Duties on all inhabited Houſes, impoſed by an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, and for granting to his Majeſty other Duties upon all inhabited Houſes in Great Britain, and for amending the ſaid Act; and alſo for amending ſo much of an Act, made in the ſeventeenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, as impoſes a Duty upon all Servants retained or employed in the ſeveral Capacities therein mentioned.

Preamble. Recital of 18 Geo. III. Cap. 26.

'WHEREAS, by an Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty certain Duties upon all inhabited Houſes within the Kingdom of Great Britain, certain yearly Rates and Duties were granted upon all inhabited Houſes within the Kingdom of Great Britain, to be paid by the Occupiers thereof; (that is to ſay) a Duty of Sixpence in the Pound on all Dwelling-houſes, with the Houſehold Offices therewith occupied, worth the yearly Rent of five Pounds, and under the yearly Rent of fifty Pounds; and of one Shilling in the Pound on all Dwelling-houſes, with the Houſehold Offices therewith occupied, worth the yearly Rent of fifty Pounds and upwards; to be eſtimated and aſcertained in Manner therein expreſſed: And whereas the ſaid Rates and Duties do not bear a proper Proportion to each other, and the Payment thereof hath been greatly evaded;' we, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, do therefore think that it will be for the Advantage of the Public to repeal the preſent Rates and Duties on inhabited Houſes, and to grant unto your Majeſty the ſeveral new Rates and Duties on inhabited Houſes herein-after mentioned, to be applied to the Uſes and Purpoſes which the ſaid Rates and Duties, granted by the above-mentioned Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, are now applicable unto; and do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, the Rates and Duties granted by the Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty certain Duties upon all inhabited Houſes within the Kingdom of Great Britain, ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be no longer paid or payable, except only ſuch Monies as ſhall have become due in reſpect of the ſaid Rates and Duties, aſſeſſed at any Time on or before the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, and which ſhall be in Arrear and unpaid.

After July 5, 1779, the Duties granted by the recited Act to ceaſe.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, there ſhall be charged, raiſed, levied, and paid, unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the ſeveral and reſpective Rates and Duties upon all inhabited Houſes, with their Appurtenances, herein-after mentioned, by the Occupiers thereof reſpectively; (that is to ſay) Upon and for every Dwelling-houſe inhabited, together with the Offices, Courts, Yards, and Gardens, as herein-after expreſſed, therewith occupied, which now are, or hereafter ſhall be, erected within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and which are, or for the Time being ſhall be, worth the yearly Rent of five Pounds and upwards, and under the yearly Rent of twenty Pounds, the yearly Sum of Sixpence in the Pound; and upon and for every Dwelling-houſe inhabited, together with the Offices, Courts, Yards, and Gardens, as herein-after expreſſed, therewith occupied, which now are, or hereafter ſhall be, erected within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and which are, or for the Time being ſhall be, worth the yearly Rent of twenty Pounds and upwards, and under the yearly Rent of forty Pounds, the yearly Sum of Nine-pence in the Pound; and upon and for every Dwelling-houſe inhabited, together with the Offices, Courts, Yards, and Gardens, as herein-after expreſſed, therewith occupied, which now are, or hereafter ſhall be, erected within the Kingdom of Great Britain, and which are, or for the Time being ſhall be, worth the yearly Rent of forty Pounds and upwards, the yearly Sum of one Shilling in the Pound, to be eſtimated and aſcertained in the Manner in the ſaid Act and this preſent Act expreſſed.

New Duties to be paid; videlicet,

For all inhabited Dwelling-houſes, &c. from 5 l. to 20 l. a Year, 6 d. in the Pound; from 20 l. to 40 l., 9 d. in the Pound; and for all at 40 l. a Year, and upwards, 1 s. in the Pound.

III. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That, in all Pariſhes and Places where the Aſſeſſments were made for three Quarters of a Year, from the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven

Where the Aſſeſſments for the former Rates were made for three Quarters of a Year, a further Aſſeſſment of one Quarter ſhall be made, up to July 5, 1779. Sixpenny Rates on Houſes of 20 l. a Year and upwards, made for any Time after July 5, 1779, to be void. Aſſeſſments for new Duties to be made out for three Quarters of a Year, up to April 6, 1780; ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, to the fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, at the Rates preſcribed by the former Act, a further Aſſeſſment ſhall be made at the ſame Rates for one Quarter, from the ſaid fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, to the fifth Day of July following; and that if any Rate or Aſſeſſment, at Six-pence in the Pound, on the Value of any Houſe and Houſehold Offices therewith occupied, worth the yearly Sum of twenty Pounds and upwards, hath been, or ſhall be made, in purſuance of the ſaid Act for raiſing the ſaid Rate and Duty thereby granted, for and in reſpect of the Quarter, Half Year, or any other Time, after the ſaid fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, every ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment, ſo far as the ſame relates to the raiſing ſuch Rate and Duty, in reſpect of ſuch Quarter, Half Year, or other Term, after the fifth Day of July, ſhall be null and void.

and after that Time to be made out annually, &c.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Aſſeſſments ſhall be made out for raiſing the Duties by this preſent Act impoſed, from the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, to the ſixth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty; which Aſſeſſments ſhall be certified by the Aſſeſſors, and returned by them to the ſaid Commiſſioners, on or before the tenth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine; and that the Surveyors ſhall and may, on or before the ſixteenth Day of November following, certify their Surcharges for raiſing the ſaid Duties for the ſaid three Quarters, to the ſaid Commiſſioners; and that all Appeals, in reſpect to the ſaid three Quarters Aſſeſſments, ſhall and may be heard and determined between the tenth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, and fourth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty; and that from and after the fifth Day of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty, the ſaid Duties ſhall be aſſeſſed annually for one whole Year, to commence from the fifth Day of April in each Year; and that in all future Years the Aſſeſſments ſhall be made out and certified, and the Surcharges certified, and the Appeals heard, at the ſame Times as the Aſſeſſments, Surcharges, and Appeals, are made, certified, and heard, on the Duties on Houſes and Windows.

Coach-houſes, &c. and Gardens not exceeding one Acre, to be valued together with the Dwelling-houſes.

V. And be it further enacted and declared, That every Coach-houſe, Stable, Brewhouſe, Waſh-houſe, Laundry, Woodhouſe, Bakehouſe, Dairy, and other Offices, and all Yards, Courts, and Curtilages, and Gardens, not exceeding one Acre, belonging to, and occupied with, any Dwelling-houſe, chargeable to the Rates and Duties impoſed by this Act, ſhall be valued together with ſuch Dwelling-houſe, and be liable to, and charged and aſſeſſed with, the Rates and Duties impoſed by this Act.

If the Commiſſioners in England or Wales ſhall neglect to appoint Aſſeſſors, &c. the Surveyors may perform their Duty.

'VI. And, for the more effectual levying and collecting the Duty impoſed by this Act, in that Part of 'Great Britain called England and Wales,' be it enacted and declared, That in caſe at any Time the Commiſſioners for putting in Execution this preſent Act, ſhall neglect to appoint Aſſeſſors, or in caſe the Aſſeſſors by them appointed ſhall neglect to perform what is required of them, by the ſaid Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, and this preſent Act; that then, and in ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Surveyor or Surveyors, appointed or to be appointed in that Behalf, to do and perform ſuch and the like Services as are by the ſaid Acts required from ſuch Aſſeſſors.

Part of the recited Act repealed.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That that Part of the ſaid recited Act, whereby the Commiſſioners thereby appointed for putting the ſame in Execution have Power to enlarge, alter, abate, or diminiſh, the Aſſeſſments to be delivered to the ſaid Commiſſioners, before ſuch Commiſſioners ſhall have ſet their Names to ſuch reſpective Aſſeſſments, teſtifying their Allowance thereof, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby repealed.

After July 5, 1779, no Aſſeſſments which ſhall be made or delivered to the Commiſſioners, ſhall be altered before the Time for hearing Appeals.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, no Aſſeſſments which ſhall be made or delivered to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, purſuant to the ſaid Act, or this preſent Act, ſhall be altered or diminiſhed before the Time for hearing and determining Appeals, and then only upon the Commiſſioners hearing the Matter of the Appeal particularly relating thereto, or concerning the ſame, upon a general Appeal Day.

All Shops and Warehouſes attached to the Dwelling-houſe ſhall be charged to the Rates, together with ſuch Dwelling-houſe: Except thoſe of Wharfingers.

'IX. And whereas the ſaid Act recited, That ſeveral Manufactures, Trades, Occupations, and Call-'ings, neceſſarily require Warehouſes and Buildings requiſite for carrying them on, by reaſon whereof, the 'Perſons concerned therein are obliged to pay large Rents, or have laid out conſiderable Sums thereon, and 'that it might be a great Hardſhip upon ſuch Perſons to be rated to the full Extent of their reſpective Rents, 'or of the Value of the Premiſes above mentioned; and it was thereby enacted and declared, That ſuch 'Premiſes ſhould not be liable to the Duty impoſed by the ſaid Act, but that the Aſſeſſment ſhould be made 'on the Dwelling-houſe only, with the Houſehold Offices belonging to it: And whereas, under Colour of 'the ſaid Exemption, the Payment of the ſaid Rates and Duties hath been greatly eluded;' it is therefore hereby enacted, That all Shops and Warehouſes, which are attached to the Dwelling-houſe, or have any Communication therewith (except ſuch Warehouſes and Buildings upon or near adjoining to Wharfs, which are occupied by Perſons who carry on the Buſineſs of Wharfingers, and who have Dwelling-houſes upon the ſaid Wharfs for the Reſidence of themſelves or Servants employed upon the ſaid Wharfs, and who are to be rated in reſpect of the ſaid Dwelling-houſes only), ſhall be charged with the Rates and Duties granted by this Act, together with the Dwelling-houſe and the Houſehold and other Offices thereto belonging; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No Warehouſe which is a diſtinct Building from the Dwelling-houſe and Shop, ſhall be charged with the Rates.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Warehouſe, being a diſtinct and ſeparate Building, and not Part or Parcel of the Dwelling-houſe or Shop, but employed ſolely for the Purpoſe of lodging Goods, Wares, and Merchandiſe, or for carrying on ſome Manufacture (although the ſame may adjoin to, or have an internal Communication with, the Dwelling-houſe), ſhall be charged with the Rates and Duties granted by this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

All inhabited Houſes of 5 l. a

'XI. And whereas it is declared by the ſaid Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, That no Houſes ſhall, 'within the Intention of that Act, be deemed or taken to be inhabited Houſes, except the ſame ſhall be

'inhabited by the Owner, or by a Tenant renting the ſame: And whereas Doubts have ariſen, whether 'Houſes inhabited by Perſons who pay no Rent for the ſame are within the Meaning of the ſaid Act;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Houſes within the Kingdom of Great Britain, of the annual Value of five Pounds and upwards, inhabited by any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſhall be ſubject to the Duty impoſed by this Act, except ſuch as are expreſsly excepted by the ſaid recited Act: Provided always, That no Houſe ſhall be conſidered as an inhabited Houſe, in which a Servant or other Perſon only reſides to take care of the ſame.

Year or upwards, to be ſubject to the Duties, except ſuch as are expreſsly excepted by the recited Act. No Houſe to be deemed inhabited in which only one Perſon reſides to take Care thereof.

XII. And be it further enacted and declared, That where any Houſe ſhall be divided into different Stories or Tenements, let in different Apartments to ſeveral Perſons, and ſubject by the ſaid recited Act to the Duties thereby granted as if the ſame was inhabited by one Perſon or Family only, the Landlord or Owner of every ſuch Houſe ſhall be deemed and taken to be the Occupier of ſuch Dwelling-houſe, and ſhall be charged with and liable to pay the Duties impoſed by this Act; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Where Houſes are let in different Tenements, the Landlord ſhall be deemed the Occupier.

XIII. And be it likewiſe enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Hall and Office whatſoever belonging to any Perſon or Perſons, or to any Bodies Politic or Corporate, that are or may be lawfully charged with the Payment of any other Taxes or Pariſh Rates, ſhall be ſubject to the Duties granted by this Act, and ſhall be reſpectively charged as inhabited Houſes within the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, to whom the ſame ſhall belong, ſhall be charged and aſſeſſed as the Occupiers thereof.

All Halls and Offices chargeable to other Taxes or Pariſh Rates, to be ſubject to the Duties granted by this Act.

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon ſhall preſume to act as a Commiſſioner in the Execution of the ſaid recited Act, or of this preſent Act, or of ſuch Part of the before recited Act of the ſeventeenth Year of his preſent Majeſty as relates to the granting to his Majeſty a Duty upon all Servants retained or employed in the ſeveral Capacities therein mentioned, or any of the Powers therein or herein contained, until he hath firſt taken (beſides the Oaths required to be taken by any other Act or Acts of Parliament) an Oath, or, being one of the People called Quakers, made and ſubſcribed his ſolemn Affirmation, in the following Manner:

Commiſſioners to be ſworn before they execute this Act, or the recited Acts.

'I A. B. do ſwear (or affirm, as the Caſe may require), That I will truly and faithfully execute the Office 'of a Commiſſioner, and will determine upon all Appeals which ſhall be brought before me according 'to the beſt of my Skill and Judgment, purſuant to the Acts of Parliament in that Behalf.

'So help me GOD.'

The Oath.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon ſhall be capable of acting as a Commiſſioner in the Execution of the ſaid recited Acts, or of this preſent Act, or any of the Powers therein or herein contained, within the City of London and Liberty of Saint Martin le Grand, nor within the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, unleſs ſuch Perſon be poſſeſſed of Lands, Tenements, or Perſonal Eſtate, to the Amount or Value of two thouſand Pounds at leaſt, after the Payment of all his Debts, any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding; which Qualification they ſhall ſwear to previous to their acting as aforeſaid, or, being one of the People called Quakers, make and ſubſcribe his ſolemn Affirmation, in the following Form:

Commiſſioners for the City of London, &c. to be ſworn as to their Qualification.

'I A. B. do ſwear (or affirm, as the Caſe may require), That I truly and bona fide have ſuch an Eſtate, 'conſiſting of (ſpecifying the ſame), of the clear Value of two thouſand Pounds, over and above what 'will ſatisfy and diſcharge all my Debts.

'So help me GOD.'

The Oath.

And if any Perſon ſhall preſume to act as a Commiſſioner in the Execution of the ſaid recited Acts, or of this preſent Act, or any of the Powers therein or herein contained, before he ſhall have taken ſuch Oaths, or made ſuch Affirmations, as herein directed, he ſhall forfeit, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of two hundred Pounds; one Moiety thereof ſhall be paid to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to any Perſon or Perſons who will inform or ſue for the ſame.

Penalty on Commiſſioners acting before they have taken the Oaths.

'XVI. And whereas, by the ſaid recited Act of the ſeventeenth Year of his preſent Majeſty, it is pro- 'vided, That in caſe any Maſter or Miſtreſs ſhall neglect or refuſe to make out, ſign, and deliver, to the 'Aſſeſſor or Aſſeſſors to be appointed by virtue of the ſaid Act, a Liſt of his or her Servants, as by the ſaid 'Act is required; or in caſe, in any Liſt delivered, any Servant or Servants ſhall, by the ſaid Aſſeſſor or 'Aſſeſſors, be found to be omitted, then, and in either of the ſaid Caſes, ſuch Aſſeſſor or Aſſeſſors are 'by the Act authoriſed and impowered to make, upon ſuch Maſter or Miſtreſs ſo neglecting or refuſing to 'deliver a Liſt, or delivering a deficient Liſt, of his or her Servants, an Aſſeſſment of the Number of Ser- 'vants retained or employed by ſuch Maſter or Miſtreſs, as in the ſaid Act is mentioned, diſtinguiſhing 'their Chriſtian and Surnames, and their reſpective Employments; and the Surveyor or Surveyors, in the 'ſaid Act mentioned, are by the ſaid Act authoriſed and required to examine every Liſt and Aſſeſſment, 'and if he or they ſhall diſcover that any Maſter or Miſtreſs, who ſhould and ought to be charged with 'the ſaid Duty, ſhall have been omitted to be charged therewith, or ſhall have been under-rated, he or 'they are directed to certify, as in the ſaid Act mentioned, ſuch Servant or Servants as have been omitted, 'together with the Chriſtian and Surname, and the Employment, of each Servant, by way of Surcharge: 'And whereas great Difficulties have occurred to the Aſſeſſors and Surveyors, in making ſuch Aſſeſſments 'and Surcharges, in diſcovering the Names and Employments of the Servants, in reſpect of whom the Recital of Part of the Servants Act, 17 Geo. III.

'Maſter

No Aſſeſſment or Surcharge, made by any Aſſeſſor, &c. ſhall be impeached for any Miſtake in the Servants Names, &c.

'Maſter or Miſtreſs ought to be aſſeſſed and charged;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Aſſeſſment or Surcharge, made or to be made, by any Aſſeſſor or Aſſeſſors, Surveyor or Surveyors, by virtue of the ſaid Act, or this preſent Act, ſhall be impeached or affected by reaſon of any Miſtake or Variance in the Chriſtian or Surname, or either of them, of any Servants, or in the Deſcription of their Employments; but that all ſuch Aſſeſſments and Surcharges ſhall be valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purpoſes, notwithſtanding any ſuch Miſtake or Variance, provided the Perſon or Perſons intended to be deſcribed ſhall be a Servant or Servants, in reſpect of whom the Maſter or Miſtreſs ought to be aſſeſſed within the Meaning of the ſaid Act.

Regulations relating to Maſters, &c. who have different Places of Reſidence.

'XVII. And whereas, by the ſaid Act of the ſeventeenth Year of his preſent Majeſty, Notice is taken, 'that many Maſters and Miſtreſſes have, or may have, different Places of Reſidence, or may have Servants, 'in reſpect of whom ſuch Maſters or Miſtreſſes may be liable to be rated or aſſeſſed, ſtationed or reſiding 'in different Places, and Relief is therein provided to prevent ſuch Maſters and Miſtreſſes from being aſ- 'ſeſſed in more Places than one for their reſpective Servants, which has been found to be attended with 'conſiderable Difficulties, and afforded Occaſion for many Evaſions;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Maſter or Miſtreſs, when he or ſhe is called upon by the Aſſeſſors for a Liſt of his or her Servants, in each Pariſh or Diſtrict where he or ſhe has a Place of Reſidence, as directed by the ſaid recited Act, ſhall at the ſame Time return a Liſt, or make a Declaration, ſigned by him or her, of the Number of Servants they mean to pay for at every other Place, ſpecifying the particular Pariſh or Pariſhes wherein he or ſhe means to pay for ſuch other Servant or Servants; and the ſaid Aſſeſſors ſhall enter the ſame at the End of their ſeveral Aſſeſſments, and deliver them to the Surveyor for the Diſtrict, that he may tranſmit the Particulars thereof to the Commiſſioners for managing the Affairs of Taxes; and on Failure of the Delivery of ſuch Liſt, or making a Declaration, in the Manner above-mentioned, by any Maſter or Miſtreſs, the Aſſeſſors or Surveyors ſhall, and are hereby required to ſurcharge ſuch Maſter or Miſtreſs for every Servant who has been retained by any Maſter or Miſtreſs reſpectively, within the Pariſh for which the Aſſeſſment is made, during the Year ending the fifth Day of April preceding the making ſuch Aſſeſſment.

Penalty on Maſters for not returning Servants in one Pariſh, according to Liſts, &c. delivered in another.

XVIII. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That if it ſhall be diſcovered that any Servant or Servants have not been returned by a Maſter or Miſtreſs in one Pariſh, according to the Liſts or Declarations delivered in another, in order to their being brought regularly into Charge by the Aſſeſſors, the Maſter or Miſtreſs of ſuch Servant or Servants ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of forty Pounds, one Half to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſue for the ſame.

All the Powers, Rules, Penalties, &c. in the recited Acts (not hereby altered), to be obſerved in executing the ſaid Acts, and this Act.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things, not hereby altered, contained in the ſaid recited Acts, made in the ſeventeenth Year of his preſent Majeſty, and in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, or either of them, for raiſing, levying, collecting, and paying the Duties thereby granted, ſhall be in full Force, and be duly obſerved, practiſed, and put in Execution, throughout the whole Kingdom of Great Britain, for raiſing and levying, collecting and paying, the ſeveral Rates and Duties on Servants, and on inhabited Houſes, by the ſaid Acts, and this preſent Act granted, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame or the like Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this preſent Act.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered.

XX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures to be incurred for any Offences againſt this Act, for which there is no particular Way of levying herein preſcribed or appointed, ſhall be recovered in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, with Coſts of Suit, by Action of Debt, or on the Caſe, Bill, Suit, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

Perſons ſued in executing this Act, may plead the General Iſſue, and recover Treble Coſts.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, at any Time or Times, be ſued, moleſted, or proſecuted, for any Thing by him or them done or executed in purſuance of this Act, or of any Clauſe, Matter, or Thing herein contained, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give the ſpecial Matter in Evidence, for his or their Defence; and if, upon the Trial, a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs become nonſuited, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts awarded to him or them againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

CAP. LX.

An Act for eſtabliſhing certain Payments to be made to the Vicar of the Pariſh of Saint Michael in the City of Coventry for the Time being in Lieu of Tithes; and for repealing ſo much of an Act of the fourth and fifth of Philip and Mary as relates to the Payment of Tithes in the ſaid Pariſh.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the King's Majeſty, in Right of the Crown of theſe Realms, is Patron of the Vicar- 'age of the Pariſh and Pariſh Church of Saint Michael in the City of Coventry: And whereas there 'have been certain Rates and Payments made to the now Vicar, and his Predeceſſors Vicars of the ſaid 'Pariſh of St. Michael, which compoſe the principal and almoſt the whole of the Emoluments ariſing to 'the ſaid Vicar; but the ſame are now become an incompetent Proviſion, and inadequate to the Duty re- 'quired to be performed in the ſaid Pariſh: And whereas, by a Statute paſſed in the fourth and fifth

'Years

'Years of the Reign of King Philip and Queen Mary, intituled, An Acte for the Payment of Tythes in the Citie of Coventrye, a Sum of two Shillings in the Pound was charged upon the Occupiers of all Houſes, Buildings, and Gardens, within the ſaid City and Suburbs, and made payable to the Vicars of the reſpective Pariſhes therein; but no Payment or Claim hath ever been made under the ſaid Act within the ſaid Pariſh of Saint Michael, and, if enforced, would now become an intolerable Burthen on the Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſh, and a Subject of endleſs Expence and Litigation: And whereas the preſent Vicar and Pariſhioners of the ſaid Pariſh have come to an Agreement between themſelves to raiſe by a Rate, in thoſe Parts of the ſaid Pariſh which lie within the ſaid City and Suburbs, certain Sums of Money to be paid to him the ſaid Vicar, and his Succeſſors Vicars of the ſaid Pariſh, in Lieu of the ſaid ancient Rates and Payments, and of all Rights and Claims that can or may ariſe under the ſaid Act:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every the ſaid ancient Rates and Payments made to the ſaid Vicar, and his Predeceſſors Vicars of the ſaid Pariſh, ſhall, and it is hereby declared that the ſame ſhall, from the Time of the Commencement of the Rate hereafter by this Act eſtabliſhed and made payable inſtead thereof, ceaſe, determine, and be void, and be no longer paid or payable within ſuch Parts of the ſaid Pariſh which are within the ſaid City and Suburbs; and that the ſaid Act, paſſed in the fourth and fifth Years of the Reign of King Philip and Queen Mary, intituled, An Acte for the Payment of Tithes in the Citie of Coventrye, ſhall, ſo far as the ſame relates to the ſaid Pariſh and Vicarage of Saint Michael, be, and the ſame is hereby declared to be repealed.

Ancient Payments, and Act of 4th and 5th of Philip and Mary, repealed, with reſpect to this Pariſh.

II. And be it further enacted, That, within fourteen Days after the paſſing of this Act, and within one Calendar Month next after Eaſter Tueſday in every Year afterwards for ever, a Rate or Aſſeſſment ſhall be made, laid, and aſſeſſed, by Aſſeſſors to be nominated and appointed as herein-after mentioned, upon all and every Perſon and Perſons who do or ſhall inhabit, hold, or occupy, any Houſe, Garden, or Building, by whatſoever Name or Deſcription the ſame may be known, within thoſe Parts of the Pariſh of Saint Michael which lie within the City and Suburbs of Coventry aforeſaid; which ſaid Rate or Aſſeſſment ſhall be made and laid to raiſe one Shilling in the Pound per Annum, and no more, upon all and every ſuch Premiſes reſpectively which are, or for the Time being ſhall be, of the yearly Rent or Value of ten Pounds and upwards, and Six-pence in the Pound per Annum, and no more, upon all and every ſuch Premiſes reſpectively which are, or for the Time being ſhall be, of the yearly Rent or Value of ſix Pounds and upwards, and under the yearly Rent of ten Pounds; and which ſaid Rate or Aſſeſſment ſhall be in Lieu and full Diſcharge of all ancient Payments, Eaſter Offerings, Tithes, and other Eccleſiaſtical Dues, Claims, and Demands whatſoever, heretofore paid or payable to the ſaid Vicar (except Surplice Fees, and ſuch Stipends, Donations, and Bequeſts, as have been heretofore or ſhall be hereafter beſtowed upon the Vicar of the ſaid Pariſh for the Time being).

A Rate to be made in Lieu of ancient Payments, Tithes, &c.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment ſhall be laid upon any Houſe, Garden, or Building, the annual Rent or Value whereof ſhall be under ſix Pounds, if the ſame be not let upon a beneficial or repairing Leaſe, with Fine or Foregift paid or taken for the ſame, but of which Dwelling-houſe, Garden, or Building, the true annual Rent or Value ſhall bona fide be under ſix Pounds; nor ſhall any ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment be laid upon any public Building, Garden Ground occupied by Gardeners for the Purpoſe of ſelling the Produce thereof, or Gardens not contiguous to the Dwellings of the Occupiers thereof.

Houſes, &c. under 6 l. per Annum, and public Buildings, &c. not to be rated.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Rate or Aſſeſſment ſhall be laid and charged only upon the Inhabitants or Occupiers for the Time being of the reſpective Houſes, Gardens, and Buildings, hereby made liable to the ſaid Rate or Aſſeſſment, and not on the Landlord or Landlords who let or demiſe the ſame.

Rate to be laid on Occupiers only.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That within fourteen Days after the paſſing of this Act, and upon Eaſter Tueſday in each and every Year for ever after the paſſing of the ſame, or within fourteen Days next after every ſuch Eaſter Tueſday, the Vicar for the Time being, and the Pariſhioners of the ſaid Pariſh of Saint Michael, who are liable to be rated or aſſeſſed by virtue of this Act, ſhall meet in the Veſtry-room of and belonging to the ſaid Pariſh, or in ſuch other Place where the Buſineſs of the ſaid Pariſh is uſually tranſacted; which reſpective Days of Meeting ſhall be appointed by the ſaid Vicar for the Time being, and ſhall be held between the Hours of Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon and Two of the Clock in the Afternoon of ſuch reſpective Days; and of each and every of which Meetings Notice ſhall be by him, or by ſome Perſon by his Direction, publicly given in the Church of Saint Michael aforeſaid, immediately after Divine Service in the Forenoon of the Sunday next preceding the Day of each and every of ſuch Meetings; and the ſaid Vicar for the Time being ſhall at ſuch reſpective Meetings appoint, by Writing under his Hand, one or more Perſon or Perſons, not exceeding the Number of Six, being Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſh and liable to the ſaid Rate or Aſſeſſment, and not being of the People called Quakers; and the Majority of ſuch Inhabitants ſo met or aſſembled in purſuance of ſuch Notice as aforeſaid, ſhall and may, and are hereby impowered to appoint, on Behalf of themſelves and the reſt of the Pariſhioners of the ſaid Pariſh, an equal Number of Perſons with the ſaid Vicar for the Time being, Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſh, and liable to the ſaid Rate or Aſſeſſment as aforeſaid, and not being of the People called Quakers; which laſt-mentioned Appointment ſhall be ſigned by three at leaſt of the ſaid Pariſhioners, if ſo many ſhall be then and there preſent; and in caſe there ſhall not be three of the ſaid Inhabitants, liable to the ſaid Rate or Aſſeſſment, preſent at ſuch Meeting, then the ſaid Vicar for the Time being, and ſuch other Perſon or Perſons, Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſh and liable as aforeſaid, as ſhall be then preſent, ſhall and are hereby impowered to make ſuch Appointment in Manner aforeſaid; and if none of the ſaid Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſh ſo liable as aforeſaid ſhall be preſent at ſuch Meeting, or being preſent

Inhabitants to meet annually for chuſing Aſſeſſors.

ſhall neglect or refuſe to appoint ſuch Aſſeſſor or Aſſeſſors in Manner aforeſaid, then the ſaid Vicar for the Time being ſhall, and is hereby authoriſed and impowered alone to appoint two or more Perſons, not exceeding the Number of Six, being Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſh and liable as aforeſaid in Manner and Form as before mentioned, which ſaid Perſons ſo appointed in Manner aforeſaid by the ſaid Vicar for the Time being, and the Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſh, or by the ſaid Vicar alone, as the Caſe may be, ſhall and are hereby declared to be Aſſeſſors for the Purpoſes of making the Rates or Aſſeſſments, by this Act authoriſed and directed to be made, and ſhall continue in ſuch Office for the Term of one Year.

Aſſeſſors to have perſonal Notice of their Appointment. Penalty on Aſſeſſors refuſing or neglecting to execute the Office.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, immediately after the ſaid Appointments or Appointment, a Duplicate or Copy of ſuch Appointments or Appointment ſhall be delivered perſonally to the ſeveral Perſons appointed as aforeſaid.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon appointed as aforeſaid, and refuſing to take upon him the ſaid Office of Aſſeſſor, or neglecting duly to execute the ſame, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds, which ſhall be recovered from him and them reſpectively in like Manner and by the Means hereafter appointed for the Recovery of the Rates and Aſſeſſments hereby directed to be made, and ſhall be paid to the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh of Saint Michael, to be by them applied in Aid of the Rates for the Relief of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh.

No Perſon compellable to ſerve a ſecond Time for 7 Years.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon and Perſons who ſhall duly execute the ſaid Office of Aſſeſſor, or ſhall pay the aforeſaid Penalty for not executing the ſame, ſhall not be compelled or compellable to execute the ſame again for the Term or Space of ſeven Years then next following.

Saint John's Pariſh to be conſidered as Part of Saint Michael's.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Pariſh of Saint John Baptiſt within the City and Suburbs aforeſaid ſhall, as to any Rates or Aſſeſſments to be made by virtue of this Act, and the Appointment of Aſſeſſors to aſſeſs or make the ſame, and all and every other Matters and Things herein contained, be deemed and taken to be Part of the Pariſh of Saint Michael.

Houſes, &c. without the Limits of the ſeveral Wards, not deemed within the Suburbs.

X. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Meſſuages, or other Buildings, Yards, Gardens, Orchards, or other Hereditaments, ſhall be conſtrued or taken to be within the Suburbs of the ſaid City as to the Purpoſes of this Act, the Situation or Situations whereof reſpectively is or are without and beyond the Limits of the ſeveral Wards of the ſaid City.

How Aſſeſſors are to be paid.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for and in Conſideration of the extraordinary Trouble that the Aſſeſſors will have in making and adjuſting the firſt Aſſeſſment to be made under and by virtue of this Act, the ſaid Aſſeſſors ſhall have an Allowance for ſuch firſt Aſſeſſment of Threepence for each Houſe aſſeſſed by them reſpectively; and the Aſſeſſors appointed yearly afterwards in Manner herein-before directed, ſhall alſo have an Allowance, for each and every Rate or Aſſeſſment made by them in purſuance of this Act, of one Penny for each Houſe ſo aſſeſſed by them reſpectively; ſuch reſpective Allowances to be paid to the ſaid Aſſeſſors reſpectively, by the Vicar of the ſaid Pariſh for the Time being, upon the Delivery of ſuch Aſſeſſments in Manner herein-after directed.

How Rates to be paid where Occupiers remove, or for intermediate Time.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Perſon or Perſons ſhall come into or occupy any Houſe, Garden, or Building, rated or aſſeſſed, or liable to be rated or aſſeſſed, by virtue of this Act, out of or from which any other Perſon aſſeſſed ſhall be removed, or which at the Time of making any Rate or Aſſeſſment in purſuance of this Act was empty or unoccupied, that then every Perſon ſo removing from, and every Perſon ſo coming into or occupying the ſame, ſhall be liable to pay to ſuch Rate in Proportion to the Time that ſuch Perſon occupied the ſame reſpectively, in the ſame Manner, and under the like Penalty of Diſtreſs as if ſuch Perſon ſo removing had not removed, or ſuch Perſon ſo coming into and occupying ſuch Houſe, Garden, or Building, had been originally rated and aſſeſſed in ſuch Rate; which ſaid Proportion, in caſe of Diſpute, ſhall be finally ſettled and aſcertained by the Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid City in a ſummary Way, by Examination of Witneſſes upon Oath or Affirmation (which Oath or Affirmation they are hereby impowered and required to adminiſter), at their then next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, to be held within one Month next after ſuch Diſpute ſhall ariſe; and the ſaid Juſtices are hereby authoriſed and required, upon Application to them for that Purpoſe, finally to ſettle and aſcertain the ſame in Manner aforeſaid.

Rates to be made by Aſſeſſors, and delivered to the Vicar and Churchwardens.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Perſons ſo appointed Aſſeſſors as aforeſaid do and ſhall, within two Months after perſonal Notice of ſuch Appointment, and ſuch other Perſons who ſhall be afterwards appointed Aſſeſſors in Manner aforeſaid do and ſhall, within one Month after perſonal Notice of every ſuch Appointment, eſtimate and aſcertain, according to the beſt of their Skill and Judgment, the full and juſt yearly Rent or Value of every ſuch Dwelling-houſe, Garden, and Building, hereby charged and chargeable as aforeſaid, within thoſe Parts of the ſaid Pariſh of Saint Michael which lie within the ſaid City and Suburbs, and do and ſhall make a Rate or Aſſeſſment in Writing of one Shilling in the Pound, according to ſuch Eſtimate and Valuation, upon the Occupier or Occupiers of every Dwelling-houſe, Garden, and Building, of the yearly Value of ten Pounds and upwards, in reſpect thereof, and of Six-pence in the Pound, according to ſuch Eſtimate or Valuation, upon the Occupier or Occupiers of every ſuch Dwelling-houſe, Garden, and Building, of the yearly Value of ſix Pounds and upwards, in reſpect thereof; and which ſaid firſt Rate or Aſſeſſment ſo to be made in purſuance of this Act ſhall be made for one whole Year, commencing at the Feaſt of Eaſter, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine; and do and ſhall, within one Week after ſuch Rates and Aſſeſſments ſhall have been made in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, and in the ſame Manner within one Week after the Rates and Aſſeſſments ſhall have been made in all ſucceeding Years, deliver a Copy or Duplicate of ſuch Rates or Aſſeſſments to be made reſpectively as aforeſaid, fairly written and ſubſcribed by them, unto the ſaid Vicar for the Time being, and another Copy or Duplicate thereof to the the Churchwardens of the ſaid Pariſh, ſome or one of them, to be by them, ſome or one of them, lodged in the Veſtry of the ſaid Pariſh for the Uſe and Inſpection of the Inhabitants of the ſame who are liable to be rated or aſſeſſed by virtue of this Act.

Aſſeſſments to be verified on Oath.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Aſſeſſor ſhall, before the Delivery of the Duplicates of ſuch Aſſeſſment to the ſaid Vicar and Churchwardens in Manner aforeſaid, produce ſuch Aſſeſſment and Duplicates thereof to ſome one of the Juſtices of the Peace in and for the ſaid City; and at the Time of ſuch Production make Oath before ſuch Juſtice, in the Form or to the Effect following; videlicet, Form of Oath.

'I A. B. do ſwear, That in the Aſſeſſment, and Duplicates of the ſame, now produced by me of the Houſes, Gardens, and Buildings, ſituate in thoſe Parts of the Pariſh of Saint Michael which lie within the City and Suburbs of Coventry, under and by virtue of an Act of the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for eſtabliſhing certain Payments to be made to the Vicar of the Pariſh of Saint Michael in the City of Coventry, I have rated each Houſe, Garden, and Building, at their true annual Rent or Value, according to the beſt of my Skill and Judgment.

So help me GOD.'

Which Oath each and every Juſtice of the Peace in and for the ſaid City is hereby impowered and required to adminiſter upon Application to him for that Purpoſe, and to certify at the Foot of ſuch Aſſeſſment, and the Duplicates thereof, that ſuch Oath as above mentioned was duly taken before him by the Aſſeſſors making ſuch Aſſeſſment.

Notice of Rates to be given in the Pariſh Church.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Notice of every ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment being made and verified in the Manner aforeſaid ſhall be given in the ſaid Pariſh Church of Saint Michael immediately after Divine Service in the Forenoon of the Sunday next after the ſame is delivered in ſo verified as aforeſaid, to the ſaid Vicar and Churchwardens, and alſo a printed or written Notice that ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment is ſo made and verified as aforeſaid, ſhall on the ſame Sunday be affixed on the Door of the ſaid Pariſh Church; in which ſaid Notices the Time within which any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall apprehend him, her, or themſelves to be aggrieved by any ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment, muſt appeal, ſhall be expreſſed and declared.

If Aſſeſſors refuſe to make Aſſeſſment, the Vicar to aſſeſs.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the major Part of the Aſſeſſors, ſo to be appointed, ſhall neglect or refuſe to make ſuch Aſſeſſment within the Time limited by this Act for making the ſame, then the ſaid Aſſeſſment ſhall and may be made by the other Aſſeſſors or Aſſeſſor only; and if all and every ſuch Aſſeſſors or Aſſeſſor ſhall neglect or refuſe to make ſuch Aſſeſſment within the Time aforeſaid, then and in ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Vicar or his Succeſſors to make the ſame; and that all and every Perſon and Perſons who ſhall be mentioned in the Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments ſo to be made by the ſaid other Aſſeſſors or Aſſeſſor, or by the ſaid Vicar or his Succeſſors, ſhall be liable to pay the ſeveral Sums for which he, ſhe, or they ſhall be ſo rated, as fully as if the ſame had been made by all the ſaid Aſſeſſors; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Rate to be collected by the Vicar quarterly.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every of the ſaid Rates or Aſſeſſments, after the ſame ſhall be ſo made, verified, and publiſhed as aforeſaid, ſhall or may be collected by the Vicar of the ſaid Pariſh for the Time being, or any Perſon or Perſons acting for him and under his Direction and by his Appointment, quarterly, at the four moſt uſual Days of Payment; videlicet, the Nativity of Saint John the Baptiſt, the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel, the Nativity of our Lord Chriſt, and the Feaſt of Eaſter, by equal Portions; and the Money ariſing thereby ſhall be to the ſole Uſe and Benefit of the Vicar of the ſaid Pariſh of Saint Michael in Coventry for the Time being, and ſhall be accepted and taken in Lieu of, and in full Satisfaction and Compenſation for, all ancient Rates and Payments, and all Manner of Tithes, Moduſes in Lieu of Tithes, Mortuaries, Eaſter Offerings, and other Eccleſiaſtical Dues and Demands of any Nature or Kind whatſoever, heretofore paid or payable to the ſaid Vicar, and his Predeceſſors Vicars of the ſaid Pariſh, within thoſe Parts of the ſaid Pariſh which lie within the ſaid City and Suburbs (Surplice Fees excepted, which ſhall remain due and payable as heretofore, and alſo except all ſuch Endowments, Bequeſts, and Stipends, as have been heretofore or ſhall hereafter be beſtowed upon the Vicar of the ſaid Pariſh for the Time being).

Rates to be recovered by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of Perſons neglecting or refuſing to pay.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſo rated and aſſeſſed as aforeſaid, who ſhall not appeal from ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment within the Time herein-after limited for that Purpoſe, ſhall refuſe, neglect, or omit to pay to the Vicar of the ſaid Pariſh for the Time being, or to ſuch Perſon or Perſons acting for him, and under his Direction, and by his Appointment, the Sum and Sums of Money, which he, ſhe, or they ſhall be rated or aſſeſſed at by virtue of this Act; or if any Perſon or Perſons, appealing in Manner hereafter directed, ſhall refuſe, neglect, or omit to pay to the ſaid Vicar, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo to be appointed by him as aforeſaid to receive the ſame, ſuch Sum or Sums of Money as upon the Determination of ſuch Appeal ſhall be found to be due and payable to the ſaid Vicar for the Time being, for the Space of ten Days after perſonal Demand made thereof, or Demand in Writing left at the uſual Place of Abode or Occupation of ſuch Perſon or Perſons reſpectively; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid City, upon Oath of the ſaid Vicar for the Time being, or ſome Perſon acting for and under him (which Oath they are hereby impowered and required to adminiſter without Fee or Reward), of any ſuch Demand and Nonpayment, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals (which he or they are hereby impowered and required to grant), to authoriſe and direct ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo acting for and under the ſaid Vicar, and any other Perſon to be therein named, to levy, as ſoon as may be, ſuch Rate or Monies ſo in Arrear and refuſed or neglected to be paid, together with the Coſts attending the same, to be ascertained by such Justice or Justices, not exceeding the Sum of twenty Shillings, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of every such Person or Persons so in Arrear, and refusing or neglecting to pay as aforesaid, wherever such Goods and Chattels can be found, not only in the said Parish of Saint Michael, but in any other Parish or Place within the City or County of the City of Coventry, rendering the Overplus (if any be) to the Party or Parties so distrained, or leaving the same, for his, her, or their Use, at the Place where such Distress shall be made.

Houses, where Part let out to Lodgers, to be paid for by principal Occupier.

'XIX. And whereas many Persons, Occupiers of Houses within the said Parish of Saint Michael, do 'or may let out Part or Parts thereof to divers Persons as Lodgers or Inmates only, of whom it might be 'difficult to recover the Rates or Assessments laid thereupon;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in such case it shall be lawful for the Assessors to be appointed for the Purposes of this Act, and they are hereby required to rate and assess the principal Occupier and Occupiers, whether Owners, or Tenants under the Owners of such Houses respectively, of which such Part or Parts shall be so let out to Lodgers or Inmates for the Whole of such House and Houses; which Rate or Assessment shall be paid by and recovered of such principal Occupier and Occupiers respectively.

Houses, &c. let without Rent reserved on account of Fine, or at less than real Value, on account of Covenant for Improvement, to be assessed at the real Value.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any House, Garden, or Building, by whatsoever Name or Description the same may be known, within the said Parish of Saint Michael (except as herein-before excepted), shall be let on Lease without any Rent reserved thereby, on account of Fore-gift or Fine having been paid for the same; or at a less Rent than the real annual Value thereof, on account of any Covenant therein contained for Improvement of the same; then, and in every such Case, every such Dwelling-house, Garden, and Building as aforesaid, shall for the Purposes of this Act be assessed according to the real annual Rent that the same shall at the Time of making such Assessment appear to the Assessors to be worth to let; and they are hereby authorised and required to assess the same accordingly.

Rent reserved without Fine, &c. to be conclusive Evidence of the Value of the Premises.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when a Rent is, bona fide, reserved upon any Lease of a House, Garden, or Building, without any Fine or Fore-gift paid for the same, or any Covenant therein contained for Improvement of the Premises, such Rent shall, and the same is hereby declared to be conclusive Evidence of the annual Value of such Premises.

Provision against Fraud or Collusion between Landlords and Tenants.

XXII. Provided always, and it is hereby also enacted, That, in order to prevent any Fraud or Collusion between Landlords and Tenants, no House, Garden, or Building which, on the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, was let at the yearly Rent of ten Pounds or upwards, shall thereafter be rated or assessed at less than that Sum, unless the yearly Rent thereof shall be, bona fide, reduced to nine Pounds or under; and that no House, Garden, or Building, which at the Time aforesaid was let at the yearly Rent of six Pounds or upwards, shall thereafter be rated or assessed at less than that Sum, unless the yearly Rent thereof shall be, bona fide, reduced to five Pounds or under.

Persons aggrieved by the Rates may appeal to the Justices in Session, within one Month after Publication.

Witnesses to be examined on Oath.

XXIII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the said Vicar for the Time being, or any Person or Persons rated or liable to be rated or assessed by virtue of this Act, shall apprehend him, her, or themselves aggrieved by any Rate or Assessment made in pursuance thereof, it shall and may be lawful for such Vicar or other Person and Persons to appeal from such Rate or Assessment to the Justices of the Peace at any General or Quarter Session of the Peace to be held for the said City of Coventry, or at any Adjournment thereof, within one Month next after Publication of such Rate or Assessment shall have been made in Manner aforesaid; and the said Justices, other than and except such Justices as may be interested in the Premises, shall, and they are hereby impowered and required, at such General Quarter Session of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof, to hear and determine the Causes and Matter of every such Appeal in a summary Way, by the Examination of Witnesses, upon Oath or Affirmation (which Oath or Affirmation they are hereby impowered and required to administer and take), and to alter and amend such Rate or Assessment in the Articles complained of according to the Justice of the Case, and to award to the Party or Parties for whom any such Appeal shall be determined, such Costs as to them in their Discretion shall seem reasonable, not exceeding the Sum of five Shillings; which Costs and Sum, inserted in the said Rate by the said Justices upon an Appeal, shall be recovered in like Manner and by the Means herein-before appointed for the Recovery of the Rates and Assessments hereby directed to be made.

No Abatement to be made in, or Addition to, the Rate, unless it shall appear upon Oath that the Party is over-rated or under-rated.

XXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Justices shall not, upon the hearing of any Appeal, make any Abatement or Defalcation in, or Addition to, the Charge made upon any Person by such Rate or Assessment as aforesaid, but the same shall stand good and remain Part of the annual Assessment, unless it shall then appear to the said Justices, by Examination of the Circumstances of the Case upon Oath, that such Person is over-rated or under-rated in and by such Rate or Assessment, in which Case the said Justices are hereby authorised and impowered upon every such Appeal to abate and diminish, or to add and to raise, any such Rate or Assessment to be made as aforesaid, agreeable to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Three Days Notice of Appeal to be given by Appellant.

XXV. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Occupier or Occupiers, rated or assessed by virtue of this Act, shall appeal from any such Rate or Assessment in Manner aforesaid, he, she, or they shall give, or cause to be given, three Days Notice at the least of his, her, or their Intention of appealing, and of the Matter and Cause thereof, to the Vicar of the said Parish for the Time being; and that if the Vicar for the Time being shall appeal from any such Rate or Assessment in Manner aforesaid, he shall give or cause to be given the like Notice in Writing of such his Intention, and of the Matter and Cause thereof, to the Occupier or Occupiers of the Premises in respect of which he shall so appeal against the said Rate or Assessment.

How Witnesses to be compelled to attend.

'XXVI. And whereas it may be difficult to procure the Attendance of Witnesses upon Appeals made in 'pursuance of the Powers in that Behalf in this Act contained;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That each and every Justice of the Peace in and for the said City is hereby impowered and required, upon Application for that Purpoſe, to iſſue and grant a Summons or Summonſes for the Attendance of any Witneſs or Witneſſes upon hearing of any ſuch Appeal on the Behalf of the Appellant or Reſpondent, as the Caſe may be; and every ſuch Witneſs refuſing or neglecting to appear and give Evidence according to ſuch Summons upon the Hearing of any ſuch Appeal (unleſs prevented by Sickneſs, or other lawful Excuſe to be allowed by the ſaid Juſtices) ſhall, upon Proof of the Service of ſuch Summons requiring his Attendance, and of ſuch Refuſal or Neglect upon Oath before ſuch Juſtices of the Peace in and for the ſaid City in Seſſion aſſembled, forfeit and pay, to the Uſe of the Party on whoſe Behalf ſuch Witneſs was ſummoned to appear, ſuch Sum as ſhall by ſuch Juſtices be thought reaſonable, not exceeding the Sum of twenty Shillings, to be recovered in caſe of Nonpayment thereof from every ſuch Witneſs reſpectively, by the Party to whom the ſame ſhall be forfeited, in like Manner and by the Means herein-before appointed for the Recovery of the Rates and Aſſeſſments by this Act directed to be made.

For recovering Arrears due between Eaſter, 1778, and Eaſter, 1779.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the preſent Vicar of the ſaid Pariſh ſhall be intitled to and ſhall receive from all and every Perſon and Perſons who did inhabit, uſe, or occupy, any Houſe, Garden, or Building (except as before excepted), in the ſaid Pariſh within the City aforeſaid, and the Suburbs thereof, at any Time between the Feaſts of Eaſter, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, and one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, ſuch Proportions of the ſeveral Sums of one Shilling in the Pound upon every ſuch Premiſes of the yearly Rent or Value of ten Pounds and upwards, and Sixpence in the Pound upon every ſuch Premiſes of the yearly Rent or Value of ſix Pounds, and under the yearly Rent or Value of ten Pounds, according to the Time ſuch Perſons reſpectively did inhabit, uſe, or occupy, any of ſuch Premiſes reſpectively; the ſame to be aſcertained according to the Rate that ſhall be firſt made in purſuance of this Act, with the like Liberty of appealing, and with the like Powers of recovering the ſame, as are herein-before eſtabliſhed in reſpect to the ſaid Rate.

Churchwardens and Overſeers, after Eaſter, 1780, may levy annually, by a Pound Rate, from 280 to 300 l.; which ſhall be paid quarterly to the Vicar, in full Satisfaction of all his Demands under this Act.

XXVIII. No Settlement to be gained by paying the Rate.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon who ſhall be charged with or pay to any Rate or Aſſeſſment to be made in purſuance of this Act, ſhall thereby gain any legal Settlement in the ſaid Pariſh of Saint Michael.

Diſtreſs not unlawful for want of Form, &c.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Diſtreſs and Sale ſhall be made by virtue of this Act, ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale ſhall not be unlawful, nor the Party or Parties making or doing the ſame reſpectively be deemed a Treſpaſſer or Treſpaſſers, on account of any Defect or Want of Form, or other Irregularity, in any Warrant or other Proceeding whatſoever, relating to or concerning any ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale; nor ſhall the Party or Parties making ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale be deemed a Treſpaſſer or Treſpaſſers ab initio on account of any Irregularity which ſhall afterwards be done or tranſacted in any ſuch Caſe by him or them; but the Perſon or Perſons aggrieved by any ſuch Irregularity ſhall and may, by Action of Treſpaſs, or on the Caſe, recover Satisfaction for the ſpecial Damages only, and in every ſuch Action ſhall have no more Coſts than Damages, unleſs ſuch Damages ſhall exceed the Sum of forty Shillings.

Limitation of Actions.

XXXIV. Provided always, That no Action or Suit whatſoever ſhall be commenced or proſecuted againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for any Thing done or to be done in purſuance of this Act, or any Clauſe, Power, or Thing herein contained, until after fourteen Days Notice in Writing, ſigned by the Party aggrieved, ſhall be given to the Perſon or Perſons againſt whom the ſaid Action or Suit is intended to be brought; nor after a ſufficient Satisfaction, or a Tender thereof, hath been made to the Party or Parties ſo alleging him, her, or themſelves to be aggrieved, nor after ſix Calendar Months next following ſuch Grievance, and the Fact committed; and every ſuch Action ſhall be laid in the County of the City of Coventry, and not elſewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in every ſuch Action or Suit ſhall and may plead at his Election ſpecially, or the General Iſſue, and give this Act, and the ſpecial Matter, in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the ſame was done in purſuance of this Act, and by Force of ſome or one of the Powers and Authorities hereby given: And if the ſame ſhall appear to be ſo done, or that ſuch Action or Suit ſhall be brought before fourteen Days Notice had been thereof given, or after ſufficient Satisfaction made or tendered, or after the Time limited for bringing the ſame, as is herein-before directed, or ſhall be laid in any other County or Place than as aforeſaid, then the Jury in every ſuch Caſe ſhall find a Verdict for the Defendant or Defendants; and in every ſuch Action, if a Verdict ſhall be found for the Defendant or Defendants, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall be nonſuited, or diſcontinue his, her, or their Action or Actions after the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have appeared, or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment ſhall be given againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, then the Defendant or Defendants ſhall and may recover Treble Coſts, and have ſuch Remedy for the ſame, as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Caſes by Law.

General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

Public Act.

XXXV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act, and every Thing herein contained, ſhall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be a Public Act; and ſhall be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons whomſoever, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

CAP. LXI.

An Act for continuing in the Poſſeſſion of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, for a limited Time, and under certain Conditions, the Territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues lately obtained in the Eaſt Indies; and for continuing, for a limited Time, ſo much of an Act, made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for eſtabliſhing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs of the Eaſt India Company, as well in India as in Europe, as will expire in the Courſe of the preſent Year.

Preamble.

Recital of 13 Geo. III. Cap. 64.

'WHEREAS by an Act, paſſed in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty a Sum of Money, to be raiſed by Exchequer Bills; and to be advanced and applied in the Manner, and upon the Terms, therein mentioned, for the Relief of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies; it was directed, That the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, or the Lord High Treaſurer for the Time being, ſhould cauſe to be prepared and made any Number of Exchequer Bills, not exceeding in the Whole the Amount of one million four hundred thouſand Pounds, to be lent, advanced, and iſſued, as in the ſaid Act was directed, for the Relief of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies: And whereas by the ſaid Act it was declared, That in the then Circumſtances of the Eaſt India Company, it would not be in their Power to provide for the Repayment of the Loan aforeſaid, and for eſtabliſhing their Affairs upon a more ſecure Foundation for the Time to come, unleſs the Public ſhould agree to forego, for the then preſent Time, all Participation in the Profits ariſing from the territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues lately obtained in the Eaſt Indies; and therefore it was by the ſaid Act enacted, That until the aforeſaid Sum of one million four hundred thouſand Pounds ſhould be repaid, and the Bond Debt of the Company be reduced to the Sum of one million five hundred thouſand Pounds, the whole clear Profits ariſing from the aforeſaid territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues, after defraying the Charges and Expences attending the ſame, together with all the clear Revenue and Profits of the ſaid Company, after providing for the current Payments of Intereſt, and other Outgoings, Charges and Expences, of the ſaid Company, ſhould, from Time to Time, be diſpoſed of and applied in the Manner as in the ſaid Act was directed; (that is to ſay,) Until the aforeſaid Sum of one million four hundred thouſand Pounds ſhould be repaid, and ſo long as the ſaid Sum, or any Part thereof, ſhould remain unpaid, there ſhould, in the firſt Place, be ſet-

'apart and applied, out of the ſaid clear Revenues and Profits, ſuch a Sum as might be ſufficient for anſwering a Dividend to the Proprietors of the Stock of the ſaid Company, not exceeding the Rate of ſix Pounds per Centum per Annum upon the Capital Stock of the ſaid Company; and all the Surplus of the ſaid clear Revenues and Profits ſhould be applied in Diminution of the ſaid Sum of one Million four hundred thouſand Pounds, or ſuch Part thereof as ſhould be remaining unpaid, and for defraying the Charges incurred in reſpect thereof; and after the Repayment of the Whole of the Money ſo advanced and applied as aforeſaid, and until the Bond Debt of the ſaid Company ſhould be reduced to the Sum of one million five hundred thouſand Pounds, there ſhould in like Manner be ſet apart and applied, in the firſt Place, out of the ſaid clear Revenues and Profits, ſuch Sum as might be ſufficient for anſwering a Dividend, not exceeding the Rate of ſeven Pounds per Centum per Annum upon the Capital Stock of the ſaid Company; after which all the Surplus of the ſaid clear Revenues and Profits ſhould be applied in reducing the Bond Debt of the ſaid Company: And whereas the ſaid Sum of one million four hundred thouſand Pounds has been repaid, and fully diſcharged, and all the Charges incurred in reſpect thereof have been defrayed, and the Bond Debt of the ſaid Company has been reduced to, or under, the Sum of one million five hundred thouſand Pounds, whereby the Circumſtances, in Conſideration whereof it was in the aforeſaid Act declared that the Public ſhould agree to forego, for the then preſent Time, all Participation in the Profit ariſing from the territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues lately obtained in the Eaſt Indies, have ceaſed and are determined; but whereas notwithſtanding it may be expedient that the aforeſaid territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues ſhould, for a limited Time, and under certain Conditions and Reſtrictions, remain in the Poſſeſſion of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all the territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues, lately obtained in the Eaſt Indies, ſhall remain in the Poſſeſſion of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, and their Succeſſors, for and during the Term of one Year, to be computed from the fifth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine.

All the territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues, lately obtained in the East Indies, to remain in Poſſeſſion of the Company till April 5, 1780.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, for and during the ſaid Term, the whole clear Profits ariſing from the ſaid territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues, after defraying the Charges and Expences attending the ſame, together with all the clear Revenue and Profits of the ſaid Company, after providing for the current Payments of Intereſt, and other Outgoings, Charges, and Expences, of the ſaid Company, ſhall be diſpoſed of and applied in Manner following; that is to ſay, it ſhall and may be lawful, out of the ſaid clear Revenues and Profits, to ſet apart and apply, in the firſt Place, ſuch Sum as may be ſufficient for anſwering a Dividend to the Proprietors of the Stock of the ſaid Company, not exceeding the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum upon the Capital Stock of the ſaid Company, after which the whole Surplus of the ſaid clear Revenues and Profits ſhall be reſerved and await any future Agreement that may be made between the Public and the ſaid Company.

No Dividend to be made by the Company, before April 5, 1780, of more than Eight per Cent. per Ann.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That during the Continuance of this Act, the ſaid United Company do cauſe, and they are hereby directed and required to cauſe to be made up half-yearly, with as much Accuracy as the Nature of the Caſe will admit, a Statement or Account of the Profit and Loſs upon the Whole of the Trade and Revenues of the ſaid Company, together with a State of the Debts of the ſaid Company in England, excluſive of their Bond Debt, to the firſt Day of September, and the firſt Day of March; the firſt of ſuch Statements or Accounts to be made up from the firſt Day of March to the firſt Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine; and to tranſmit ſuch Statement or Account fairly written, and ſigned by two or more of the Directors of the ſaid United Company, within twenty-one Days after the Day to which ſuch Statement or Account ſhall be made up reſpectively, to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, or the High Treaſurer for the Time being.

The Company are to cauſe to be made up half yearly, during the Continuance of this Act, an Account of the Profit and Loſs upon their Trade, &c. which ſhall be tranſmitted to the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That during the Continuance of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid United Company, or their Succeſſors, or any of their Officers or Servants on their Account, to accept or otherwiſe bind the ſaid Company or their Succeſſors, for the Payment of any Bill or Bills of Exchange, drawn by any of their Officers or Servants, at any of their Preſidencies in the Eaſt Indies, for any Sum exceeding the Sum of three hundred thouſand Pounds, excluſive of Certificates, to the Amount of eight thouſand Pounds, to the Commanders and Officers of each of the Company's Ships, without the Conſent and Order firſt had and obtained of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or of the High Treaſurer for the Time being, who are hereby reſpectively authoriſed to give ſuch Conſent, or to make ſuch Order thereon as they ſhall judge expedient; and every Acceptance or Engagement made contrary to the true Meaning and Intent of this Act, ſhall be null and void to all Intents and Purpoſes.

The Company reſtricted from accepting Bills above a certain Sum drawn on them by their Officers, &c. in the East Indies, without the Conſent of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury.

'V. And whereas by another Act, paſſed in the ſame Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for eſtabliſhing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs of the East India Company, as well in India as in Europe, it was, among other Things, enacted, That, for the Government of the Preſidency of Fort William in Bengal, there ſhould be appointed a Governor General and four Counſellors, and that the whole Civil and Military Government of the ſaid Preſidency, and alſo the Ordering, Management, and Government of all the territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues in the Kingdoms of Bengal, Bahar, and Oriſſa, ſhould, during ſuch Time as the territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues ſhould remain in the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid United Company, be veſted in the ſaid Governor General and Council of the ſaid Preſidency of Fort William in Bengal; and alſo that the Governor General and four firſt Counſellors, appointed by the ſaid Act, ſhould each of them hold and continue in his and their reſpective Offices for and during the Term of five Years from the Time of their Arrival at Fort William in Bengal, and taking upon them the Government of the ſaid Preſidency, and ſhould not be removeable in 'the mean Time, except by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon Representation made by the 'Court of Directors for the said United Company for the Time being: And whereas it may be expedient 'that the said Regulation should be extended to the Person and Persons who, at the Time of passing this 'Act, shall have and enjoy the respective Offices of Governor General, and Counsellors of the said Pre-'sidency;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Person and Persons who, at the Time of the passing of this Act, shall have and enjoy the Office and Offices of Governor General and Counsellors of the said Presidency, shall hold and continue in his and their respective Offices for and during the Continuance of this Act, and shall not be removeable in the mean Time, except by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon Representation made by the Court of Directors for the said United Company for the Time being; and shall have and enjoy all and singular the Powers and Authorities vested by the said Act in the first Governor General and four first Counsellors by the said Act appointed, and shall be subject to the said Restrictions and Limitations as by the said Act the first Governor General and first four Counsellors were made subject; and that in case of the Avoidance of the Offices of such Governor General, or any of the said Counsellors, such Office shall be respectively supplied in the same Manner as the same Office would by the said Act have been supplied, during the Remainder of the Term of five Years which was computed from the Time that the first Governor General and four first Counsellors took upon them the Government of the said Presidency.

The Governor General and Counsellors of the Presidency of Fort William, shall continue in their Offices during the Continuance of this Act, except they should be removed by his Majesty, &c.

VI. Provided always nevertheless, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to affect the Rights of the Crown, or of the said Company, after the Expiration of this Act; but that the same shall remain, continue, and be in the same State and Condition in all Respects, as though this Act had never been made.

This Act not to affect the Rights of the Crown, or of the Company, after the Expiration thereof.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act; of which Notice shall be judicially taken by all Judges, Justices, and all other Persons whatsoever, without specially pleading the same.

Public Act.

CAP. LXII.

An Act to permit the Removal of Lime, and other Articles necessary for the Improvement of Land, without Cocquet or Bond.

Preamble.

Recital of an Act 23 & 14 Car. II.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles 'the Second (intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and regulating Abuses in his Majesty's Customs), 'it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That if any Goods, Wares, or Merchandises, shall be shipped 'or put on board to be carried forth to the open Sea, from any one Port, Creek, or Member, of England, 'Dominion of Wales, or Port and Town of Berwick, to be landed at any other Place of this Realm, 'without a Sufferance or Warrant first had and obtained from the Officers of his Majesty's Customs, all 'such Goods, Wares, and Merchandises, shall be forfeited and lost; and that the Master of every Ship 'or Vessel that shall so lade or take in any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandises, to be landed and dis-'charged as aforesaid, shall, before the Ship or Vessel be removed or carried out of the Port from whence 'he shall take in his Lading, take out a Cocquet or Cocquets, and become bound to the King's Majesty, 'with good Security, in the Value of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandises, for Delivery and Discharge 'thereof, in the Port or Place for which the same shall be entered, or in some other Port or Place in this 'Kingdom: And whereas, in order to promote the Cultivation and Improvement of Land, it is expe-'dient that Lime, and other Articles necessary for that Purpose, should be removed at as little Expence 'as possible to the Owners and Proprietors of such Land, and that they should not be put to any Trouble 'or Difficulty more than is necessary for the Security of the public Revenue;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, no Cocquet or Bond shall be required or taken by any Officer or Officers of the Customs, from the Master or Owner of any Hoy, Vessel, or Boat, or from any other Person whatsoever, for carrying or removing of any Lime, Lime-stones, Chalk, Marle, or Dung, from any Port, Member, or Creek, in Great Britain, to be landed at any other Port or Place within the said Kingdom; but such Lime, Lime-stones, Chalk, Marle, and Dung, may be so shipped and laden, at any Port, Member, or Creek, within this Kingdom, by Sufferance or Warrant, and may be removed and carried by open Sea, and landed at any other Port or Place in Great Britain, by Transire only; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

After 24 June 1779, Lime, &c. for the Improvement of Land, may be carried from Port to Port, without giving any Cocquet or Bond.

CAP. LXIII.

An Act for raising a certain Sum of Money by Loans or Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine. 1,500,000*l.*

CAP. LXIV.

An Act for raising a further Sum of Money, by Loans or Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine. 1,900,000*l.*

CAP. LXV.

An Act for the further Augmentation of the Salaries of the Puiſne Juſtices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and of the Barons of the Coif of the Court of Exchequer, at Weſtminſter.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS it is reaſonable and expedient that a further Augmentation ſhould be made to the Salaries of the Puiſne Juſtices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, and of the Barons of the Coif of the Court of Exchequer, at Weſtminſter: And whereas the ſeveral Stamp-duties, granted by divers Acts of Parliament, made in the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, and in the ſecond and fifth Years of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, and appropriated for the Payment of the augmented Salaries of the reſpective Judges and Juſtices therein mentioned; and which ſince that Time, by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, have been charged with the Payment of a ſecond Augmentation of the Salaries of the Juſtices of Cheſter, and of the great Seſſions for the Counties of Wales, have for many Years paſt produced annually a conſiderable Surplus, but not ſufficient to ſupply ſo much as is neceſſary for ſuch further Augmentation as aforeſaid; and there remained in the Receipt of the Exchequer on the fifth Day of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, the Sum of fifteen thouſand two hundred and ninety-ſeven Pounds ten Shillings and Five-pence Farthing, of the Surpluſſes of the ſeveral Stamp-duties aforeſaid: And whereas the Deductions of Six-pence in the Pound out of all Monies paid upon all Salaries, Penſions, Annuities, and other Payments from the Crown, eſtabliſhed by an Act of Parliament, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King George the Firſt, after ſatisfying the Annuities thereby charged on the ſame, hath alſo for many Years paſt produced a very conſiderable Surplus, all which ſaid ſeveral Surpluſſes are by the ſaid Acts reſpectively reſerved for the Diſpoſition of Parliament;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, there ſhall be yearly, and every Year, iſſued, paid, and applied, out of the ſaid Sum of fifteen thouſand two hundred and ninety-ſeven Pounds ten Shillings and Five-pence Farthing, of the Surpluſſes of the ſaid ſeveral Stamp-duties ſo remaining in the Receipt of the Exchequer as aforeſaid; and out of all or any of the Surpluſſes which have ariſen or ſhall ariſe upon the ſaid ſeveral Stamp-duties granted by the Acts aforeſaid (after the Payments already charged thereupon ſhall from Time to Time have been ſatisfied), and out of the Surpluſſes now remaining in the Receipt of the Exchequer, and which ſhall hereafter ariſe, upon the ſaid Deductions of Six-pence in the Pound out of all Salaries, Penſions, Annuities, and other Payments as aforeſaid, after ſatisfying the ſaid ſeveral Annuities already charged on the ſame, the Sums of Money following, to the ſeveral Judges herein-after mentioned, as an Addition to and in further Augmentation of their reſpective Salaries; that is to ſay, the Sum of four hundred Pounds to each of the Puiſne Juſtices for the Time being in the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas at Weſtminſter; the Sum of five hundred Pounds to the Chief Baron for the Time being in the Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter; and the Sum of four hundred Pounds to each of the other Barons of the Coif for the Time being in the ſaid Court of Exchequer; which ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Sums of Money ſhall be and are hereby charged upon the ſaid Sum of fifteen thouſand two hundred and ninety-ſeven Pounds ten Shillings and Five-pence Farthing, and alſo upon the ſeveral Surpluſſes aforeſaid; and ſhall be paid thereout in every Year at ſuch Time and Times, and in ſuch Manner, as the Salaries of the ſaid Judges now are or have been accuſtomarily paid.

After July 5, 1779, there ſhall be paid yearly out of the Surpluſſes of certain Stamp-duties, &c. the following Sums, in Augmentation of the Judges Salaries; videlicet, 400l. to each Puiſne Judge in the King's Bench and Common Pleas; 500l. to the Chief Baron, and 400l. to each of the other Barons of the Exchequer.

CAP. LXVI.

For every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which ſhall be ingroſſed, written, or printed, any Certificate or Debenture for drawing back any Cuſtoms or Duties, or any Part of any Cuſtoms or Duties, for or in reſpect of the reſhipping or exporting of any Goods or Merchandiſes, which ſhall be exported or ſhipped to be exported from Great Britain, for any Parts beyond the Seas, an additional Stamp-duty of Eight-pence:

For every Piece, &c. uſed in any Bill of Lading for Exportation, 4d.

For every Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which ſhall be ingroſſed, written, or printed, any Note or Bill of Lading, which ſhall be ſigned for any Goods or Merchandiſes to be exported, an additional Stamp-duty of Four-pence.

Probates of the Wills, &c. of common Seamen or Soldiers not chargeable by this Act.

II. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to charge the Probate of any Will, or Letters of Adminiſtration, of any common Seaman or Soldier who ſhall be ſlain or die in his Majeſty's Service, a Certificate being produced from the Captain of the Ship or Veſſel, or Captain of the Troop or Company, under whom ſuch Seaman or Soldier ſerved at the Time of his Death, and Oath made of the Truth thereof before the proper Judge or Officer by whom ſuch Probate or Adminiſtration ought to be granted, which Oath ſuch Judge or Officer is hereby authoriſed and required to adminiſter, and for which no Fee or Reward ſhall be taken.

The aforeſaid Duties to be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of the Stamp-office.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, for the better and more effectual levying, collecting, and paying, all the ſaid additional Duties herein-before granted, the ſame ſhall be under the Government, Care, and Management, of the Commiſſioners for the Time being appointed to manage the Duties charged on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who, or the major Part of them, are hereby required and impowered to employ the neceſſary Officers under them for that Purpoſe, and to uſe and provide ſuch Stamps to denote the ſaid ſeveral Duties as ſhall be requiſite in that Behalf, and to do all other Things neceſſary to be done for putting this Act in Execution with relation to the ſaid ſeveral Rates and Duties herein-before granted, in the like and in as full and ample Manner as they, or the major Part of them, are authoriſed to put in Execution any former Law concerning ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper.

Commiſſioners may provide one new Stamp to denote the ſeveral Duties granted by different Acts.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, to prevent the Multiplication of Stamps upon ſuch Pieces of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheets or Pieces of Paper, on which ſeveral Duties are by ſeveral Acts of Parliament impoſed, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, inſtead of the diſtinct Stamps directed to be provided to denote the ſeveral Duties on the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, charged therewith, to cauſe, if they ſhall ſee Occaſion, one new Stamp to be provided to denote the ſaid ſeveral Duties, and the Duty granted by this Act, on every Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, charged with the ſaid ſeveral Duties.

All Vellum, &c. liable to the new Duties, ſhall, before it is ingroſſed, &c. be brought to the Stamp-office to be ſtamped.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, liable to the Duties hereby charged, ſhall, before the ſame ſhall be ingroſſed, printed, or written upon, be brought to the Head Office for ſtamping or marking Vellum, Parchment, or Paper; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, by themſelves, or by their Officers employed under them, ſhall forthwith, upon Demand to them made, by any Perſon or Perſons, from Time to Time, ſtamp or mark, as this Act directs, any Quantities or Parcels of Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, as ſhall be brought to them for that Purpoſe, the Perſon ſo bringing the ſame paying to the Receiver-general of the Stamp-duties for the Time being, or his Deputy or Clerk, the ſeveral Duties payable for the ſame by virtue of this Act.

Uſual Allowance to be made for preſent Payment.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſame Allowance ſhall be made on preſent Payment of the ſeveral Duties granted by this Act, in ſuch Manner as by any former Law relating to ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, is directed and allowed.

Stamps may be altered and renewed, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Stamps, as the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby directed and authoriſed to provide and uſe, ſhall and may be altered and renewed in ſuch Manner as any other Stamps on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, are, by any former Law relating to ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, directed to be altered and renewed; and that all Perſons, who ſhall have in their Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, marked with the Stamp or Mark which ſhall be ſo altered or renewed, or on which, being already ſtamped with a Stamp denoting any former Duty, a new Stamp is hereby directed to be impreſſed, ſhall have the like Remedy and Allowance as by any former Law relating to ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, is in like Caſes directed.

If any Perſon ſhall counterfeit any Seal, Stamp, &c. with Intent to defraud his Majeſty of his Duties, ſuch Perſon ſhall ſuffer Death as a Felon.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon ſhall counterfeit or forge, or procure to be counterfeited or forged, any Seal, Stamp, or Mark, directed or allowed to be uſed by this or any other Act of Parliament, for the Purpoſe of denoting the Duties by this or any other Act of Parliament granted, or ſhall counterfeit or reſemble the Impreſſion of the ſame, with an Intent to defraud his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, of any of the ſaid Duties; or ſhall privately or fraudulently uſe any Seal, Stamp, or Mark, directed or allowed to be uſed by this or any other Act of Parliament relating to the Stamp-duties, with Intent to defraud his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, of any of the ſaid Duties; every Perſon ſo offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall be adjudged a Felon, and ſhall ſuffer Death as in Caſes of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

All Powers, Diſtribution of Penalties, &c. preſcribed by former Stamp acts, to be applied in Execution of this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Powers, Proviſions, Articles, Clauſes, Diſtribution of Penalties and Forfeitures, and all other Matters and Things, preſcribed or appointed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Stamp-duties on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, ſhall be of full Force and Effect with relation to the ſeveral Duties hereby impoſed, and ſhall be applied and put in Execution for the raiſing, levying, collecting, and ſecuring, the ſaid additional and new Duties hereby impoſed, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, as fully, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame had ſeverally and reſpectively been hereby enacted with relation to the ſaid additional and new Duties hereby impoſed.

Receiver-general to keep a ſeparate Account of the Duties granted by this Act, and to pay the ſame into the Exchequer.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Duties herein-before granted ſhall be paid, from Time to Time, into the Hands of the Receiver-general for the Time being of the Duties on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who ſhall keep a ſeparate and diſtinct Account of the ſeveral Rates and Duties, and pay the ſame (the neceſſary Charges of raiſing, paying, and accounting for the ſame, being deducted) into the Receipt of the Exchequer, for the Uſes and Purpoſes in this Act mentioned, at ſuch Time, and in ſuch Manner, as any former Duties on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, are directed to be paid.

Auditor of the Exchequer to keep a ſeparate Account of all Monies ariſing therefrom. Application thereof.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be provided and kept, in the Office of the Auditor of the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies ariſing from the ſaid ſeveral Rates and Duties, and paid into the ſaid Receipt as aforeſaid, ſhall be entered ſeparate and apart from all other Monies paid and payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, upon any Account whatſoever; and the ſaid Money, ſo paid into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer as aforeſaid, ſhall, together with ſuch other Rates, Duties, and Revenues, as ſhall be granted by any Act or Acts of this Seſſion of Parliament for this Purpoſe, be a Fund for the Payment of the ſeveral Annuities, and all ſuch other Charges and Expences as are directed to be paid and payable purſuant to an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raiſing a certain Sum of Money by way of Annuities, and for eſtabliſhing a Lottery.

Preamb'e; reciting that certain Perſons have lately ingroſſed more than the uſual Quantity in a Skin of Parchment, to the Diminution of the Stamp-duties.

' XII. And whereas, by the ſeveral Laws now in Force, in order to prevent his Majeſty, his Heirs or ' Succeſſors, from being defrauded of any of the Duties charged upon Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, ' it is enacted, That all Records, Writs, Pleadings, or other Proceedings, in Courts of Law and Equity, ' and all Deeds, Inſtruments, and Writings whatſoever, charged with the Stamp-duties, ſhall be in' groſſed or written in ſuch Manner as they have been uſually accuſtomed to be written: And whereas, ' till the laſt Stamp-duties were impoſed, it was the general Practice to inſert in one Skin of Parchment ' twelve Chancery Sheets, containing ninety Words in each Sheet, or fifteen Common Law Sheets, con' taining ſeventy-two Words in each Sheet, and the ſame has been held a fair and reaſonable Quantity to ' be ingroſſed and written in and upon each Skin of Parchment, and that the uſual Charge for drawing ' and ingroſſing the ſame might, upon any Coſts to be taxed, be fairly and equitably allowed: And whereas ' ſeveral Perſons, in Injury to his Majeſty's Revenue of Stamps, inſert in one Skin of Parchment the ' Contents of a greater Quantity of Sheets than the Quantity of Chancery, or Common Law Sheets ' above ſpecified, and charge their Clients or Employers double or treble the Sum for drawing and in' groſſing ſuch Skins, calling the ſame double and treble Skins, and pretending that they inſert twice or ' three Times as much in Quantity as they are obliged to do; and that, upon a Taxation, they would ' be allowed as much as they have charged, reckoning the ſame by the Number of Sheets, by which Means ' the Client or Employer, inſtead of judging of ſuch Charge by the Number of Skins, is liable to be im' poſed upon, and the Revenue of Stamps materially injured and diminiſhed;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, all Attornies, Solicitors, or other Perſons, ſhall make their ſeveral Charges, at and after the known and uſual Rates, upon their Client or Employer, by the Number of Skins they ſhall ſo ingroſs or write, and not otherwiſe; and that if any Attornies, &c. to charge their Clients by the Number of Skins they ingroſs, according to the uſual Rates.

Double or treble Charges not payable; but ſubject the Perſon making the ſame to the Forfeiture of 10l.

Attorney, Solicitor, or other Perſon, ſhall, for the writing or ingroſſing one Skin of Parchment only, charge any Client or Employer for double or treble Skins, or for more than one Skin, making his Charge by the Sheet, or in any other Manner than by the Skin, under Pretence of having inſerted in ſuch one Skin of Parchment a greater Number of Sheets than what they are obliged to do, or than what is uſually done, or under any Pretence whatſoever, ſuch Charge ſhall not be payable by the Client; and further, that every Attorney, Solicitor, or other Perſon, ſhall, for every ſuch Charge ſo made or demanded, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds, with Treble Coſts of Suit, to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame, in any Court of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, ſhall be allowed.

The above Clauſe not to extend to the Charge for any Deed, the Whole of which ſhall not amount to the uſual Quantity contained in two Skins.

XIII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to the Charge to be made for the ingroſſing any Deed, the whole Contents of which ſhall not amount to the Quantity or Number of Sheets to be contained in two Skins, reckoning the Quantity in each Skin according to the Number of Sheets above ſpecified.

Perſons ſued for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, may plead the General Iſſue; and recover Treble Coſts.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, at any Time or Times, be ſued, moleſted, or proſecuted, for any Thing by him or them done or executed in purſuance of this Act, or of any Clauſe, Matter, or Thing, herein contained, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence, for his or their Defence; and if upon the Trial a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall become nonſuited, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts awarded to him or them againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

CAP. LXVII.

An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more ſpeedy and effectual manning his Majeſty's Navy.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS his Majeſty, by Order in Council, dated the twenty-ninth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, was pleaſed to order that General Repriſals be granted againſt the Ships, Goods, and Subjects, of the French King; and that as well all his Majeſty's Fleets and Ships, as alſo all other Ships and Veſſels that ſhall be commiſſioned by Letters of Marque or General Repriſals, or otherwiſe, by his Majeſty's Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, ſhall and may lawfully ſeize all Ships, Veſſels, and Goods, belonging to the French King, or his Subjects, or others inhabiting within any the Territories of the French King, and bring the ſame to Judgment in any of the Courts of Admiralty within his Majeſty's Dominions: Now, for the Encouragement of the Officers and Seamen of his Majeſty's Ships of War, and the Officers and Seamen of all other Britiſh Ships and Veſſels having Commiſſions and Letters of Marque, and for inducing all Britiſh Seamen who may be in any foreign Service to return into this Kingdom, and become ſerviceable to his Majeſty; and for the more effectual ſecuring and extending the Trade of his Majeſty's Subjects;' be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Flag Officers, Commanders, and other Officers, Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers on board every Ship and Veſſel of War in his Majeſty's Pay, ſhall have the ſole Intereſt and Property of and in all and every Ship, Veſſel, Goods, and Merchandiſes, which they have taken ſince the twenty-ninth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, or ſhall hereafter take during the Continuance of Hoſtilities againſt France, after the ſame ſhall have been finally adjudged lawful Prize to his Majeſty, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Admiralty in Great Britain, or in his Majeſty's Plantations in America, or elſewhere; to be divided in ſuch Proportions, and after ſuch Manner, as his Majeſty hath, by his Proclamation of the ſixteenth Day of September laſt, already ordered and directed, or as his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall think fit to order and direct, by Proclamation or Proclamations hereafter to be iſſued for thoſe Purpoſes.

Prizes made by the King's Ships to be divided between the Captors, in the Proportions by his Majeſty already ordered, or to be hereafter ordered, by Proclamation.

Admiralty to iſſue Commiſſions to Privateers, on the Owners giving proper Security.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or any Perſon or Perſons by him or them impowered and appointed, ſhall, at the Requeſt of any Owner or Owners of any Ship or Veſſel, giving ſuch Bail and Security as is hereinafter mentioned and expreſſed, cauſe to be iſſued forth in the uſual Manner one or more Commiſſion or Commiſſions to any Perſon or Perſons whom ſuch Owner or Owners ſhall nominate to be Commander, or, in caſe of Death, ſucceſſively Commanders of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, for the attacking, ſurpriſing, ſeizing, and taking, by and with ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or with the Crew thereof, any Place or Fortreſs upon the Land, or any Ship or Veſſel, Goods, Ammunition, Arms, Stores of War, or Merchandiſe, belonging to or poſſeſſed by any of his Majeſty's Enemies, upon the Land, or in any Sea, Creek, Haven, or River; and that ſuch Ship or Ships, Veſſel or Veſſels, or any Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods, and Merchandiſes whatſoever, with all their Furniture, Tackle, and Apparel, ſo to be taken by or with ſuch private Ship or Veſſel, according to ſuch Commiſſion or Commiſſions, after final Adjudication as lawful Prize in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Admiralty as aforeſaid, and not before, ſhall wholly and entirely belong to and be divided between and among the Owner and Owners of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and the ſeveral Perſons who ſhall be on board the ſame, and be aiding and aſſiſting to the taking thereof, in ſuch Shares and Proportions as ſhall be agreed upon with the Owner or Owners of ſuch Ship or Veſſel as ſhall be Prizes made by ſuch commiſſioned Ships to be divided between the Owners and Captors, according to private Contract.

be the Captor thereof, their Agents or Factors, as the proper Goods and Chattels of such Owner or Owners, and the Persons who shall be intitled thereto by virtue of such Agreements among themselves; and that neither his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or any Admiral, Vice-admiral, Governor, or other Person, commissioned by or claiming under his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, other than the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, being the Captor of such Prize, Ship, or Vessel, Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods, and Merchandises, and the Persons claiming under him or them, shall be intitled to any Part or Share thereof (except as to the Customs and Duties payable by any Act or Acts of Parliament); any Custom, Statute, or other Law, to the contrary notwithstanding.

No commissioned Ship to have Share in any Prize while she is under Convoy.

III. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall intitle any Ship having a Commission, and which shall receive Orders from, and put herself under, the Convoy of any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels, to share in any Prize or Prizes taken by such Convoy, or by such Ship having a Commission, whilst the said commissioned Ship shall remain under the Care and Protection of such Convoy.

All Prize Ships legally condemned shall be deemed British-built Ships.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Prize Ships or Vessels which shall be legally condemned, shall, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, be considered as British-built Ships or Vessels, and be deemed and taken as such, and shall be intitled to have and enjoy all and every the same Rights, Liberties, Privileges, and Advantages, in all Respects whatsoever, with British built Ships or Vessels, and shall be subject and liable to all and every the Rules and Regulations that British-built Ships or Vessels are subject and liable to; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Admiralty may revoke Commissions granted to Privateers.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain for the Time being, or any three or more of them, at any Time or Times hereafter, to revoke and make void, by any Order or Orders, in Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, any Commission or Commissions which hath, have been, or shall be issued forth to any Person or Persons who hath, have been, or shall be nominated Commander or Commanders of any Ship or Vessel, either in pursuance of his Majesty's aforesaid Order in Council, or this present Act.

Secretary of the Admiralty to give Notice of such Revocation to the Owners, &c.;

VI. Provided nevertheless, That the Secretary of the Admiralty for the Time being shall, with all convenient Speed after any and every such Commission shall be so revoked, cause Notice thereof in Writing to be forthwith sent to the Owner or Owners, or Agent or Agents, or Surety or Sureties, or some one of them, of the Ship or Vessel named or described in such Order of Revocation; and in case such Ship or Vessel shall be in the Channel, the said Order of Revocation shall be effectual to supersede and annul the said Commission at the Expiration of twenty Days from and after such Notice given as aforesaid, or sooner, if Notice shall be actually given in Writing, by the Secretary of the Admiralty, to the Captain or Commander thereof; and in case such Ship or Vessel shall be in the Northern Seas, at the Expiration of thirty Days; and in case such Ship or Vessel shall be to the Southward of Cape Finisterre, or in the Mediterranean, at the Expiration of six Weeks; and in case such Ship or Vessel shall be in North America, or the West Indies, at the Expiration of three Months; and in case such Ship or Vessel shall be in the East Indies, at the Expiration of six Months: And any Commander or Commanders, Owner or Owners, Agent or Agents, Surety or Sureties, of any such Ship or Vessel, whereof such Commission or Commissions, issued or to be issued forth as aforesaid, shall be so revoked, may complain thereof to his Majesty in Council, within thirty Days next after the Secretary of the Admiralty for the Time being shall cause Notice thereof to be given as aforesaid; and the Determination of his Majesty in Council touching every such Complaint shall be final.

who may complain thereof to his Majesty in Council.

When any Order of Revocation shall be superseded, Commission shall be deemed to have continued in Force.

VII. Provided always, That in case any such Order of Revocation shall be superseded, such Commission shall be deemed and taken to have continued in Force; and all Prizes taken by virtue thereof shall belong to and be the Property of such Owners and Captors, in such Manner as the same would have been in case such Order of Revocation had not been made.

Proviso.

VIII. Provided also, That no Person shall be liable to be punished for doing, before he shall have received personal Notice of such Order of Revocation, any Matter or Thing which he might have lawfully done under the Authority of such Commission, in case such Order of Revocation had not been made.

Bail, &c. to be taken before granting any Commission.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, before the granting or issuing of any Commission in pursuance of this Act, such Bail and Security shall be taken as have been usual upon the granting or issuing of Commissions for private Ships of War; and that, previous to the taking of such Bail and Security, the Persons who propose to be bound and give such Security, shall severally make Oath, before the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty of England, or Judge of any Vice-admiralty Court in his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations, or his Surrogate, or other Person or Persons by such Judge or Surrogate lawfully commissioned, that, at the Time of their being sworn, they are respectively worth more Money than the Sum for which they are then to be bound, over and above all their just Debts; and moreover the Marshal of the said High Court of Admiralty, or any Vice-admiralty Court in his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations, for the Time being, or his Deputy, or the Person or Persons so commissioned as aforesaid, is or are hereby required and directed to make diligent Enquiry into, and satisfy himself or themselves of the Sufficiency of such Bail and Security, and make a Report thereof to the said Judge, or his Surrogate, before any such Commission shall be granted or issued.

All Persons applying for any Commission, to set forth in Writing an exact De-

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, who shall apply to the said Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral for the Time being, or any Person or Persons by him or them impowered and appointed, in order to obtain any Commiſſion to be granted or iſſued forth in purſuance of this Act, ſhall make every ſuch Application in Writing; and therein ſet forth a particular, true, and exact Deſcription of the Ship or Veſſel for which ſuch Commiſſion is requeſted, ſpecifying the Burthen of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and the Number and Nature of the Guns on board the ſame, to what Place belonging, and the Name or Names of the principal Owner or Owners of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and the Number of Men intended to be put on board the ſame (all which Particulars ſhall be inſerted in every Commiſſion to be granted or iſſued in purſuance of this Act); and that every Commander of a private Ship or Veſſel of War, for which a Commiſſion ſhall be granted or iſſued in purſuance of this Act, ſhall produce ſuch Commiſſion to the Collector, Cuſtomer, or Searcher, for the Time being, of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, reſiding at or belonging to the Port from whence ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall be firſt fitted out, or to the lawful Deputy or Deputies of ſuch Collector, Cuſtomer or Searcher; and the ſaid Collector, Cuſtomer, or Searcher, or his or their lawful Deputy or Deputies, ſhall, as ſoon thereafter as conveniently may be, without Fee or Reward, inſpect and examine ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſo as to aſcertain the Burthen thereof, and the Number of Men, and Number and Nature of the Guns on board the ſame; and if ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall thereupon be found to be of ſuch Burthen, and be manned and armed according to the Tenor of the Deſcription inſerted in ſuch Commiſſion as aforeſaid, or be of a greater Burthen or Force than ſhall be mentioned in ſuch Commiſſion, then ſuch Collector, Cuſtomer, or Searcher, or his or their lawful Deputy or Deputies, ſhall, and he and they is and are hereby required immediately, upon the Requeſt of the Commander of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, to give a Certificate thereof, in Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, gratis, to ſuch Commander; which Certificate ſhall be deemed a neceſſary Clearance before ſuch private Ship or Veſſel ſhall be permitted to ſail from that Port: And if the Commander of any Ship or Veſſel, for which any Commiſſion ſhall have been granted or iſſued in purſuance of this Act, ſhall depart with ſuch Ship or Veſſel from ſuch Port of Clearance before he hath received ſuch Certificate, or ſhall depart from any ſuch Port, or proceed upon a Cruize, with a Force inferior to the Force ſpecified in ſuch Commiſſion, or required by this Act, in every ſuch Caſe the Commiſſion for ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall from thenceforth be abſolutely null and void, and the Commander ſo offending, being convicted thereof before any Court of Admiralty, ſhall be impriſoned, without Bail or Mainprize, for ſuch Space of Time as the ſaid Court ſhall direct, not exceeding one Year for any one Offence.

Commanders of commiſſioned Ships to produce their Commiſſions to the Collector, &c. of the Cuſtoms; who are to examine ſuch Ships; and if found agreeable to the Deſcription, to grant a Certificate thereof.

Penalty on Commander leaving Port without a Certificate, &c.

Penalty on Collector, Cuſtomer, &c. for granting a falſe Certificate.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Collector, Cuſtomer, or Searcher, of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, or his or their lawful Deputy or Deputies, ſhall grant a Certificate for any Ship or Veſſel which ſhall not be of the Burthen and Force ſpecified in the Commiſſion granted to the Commander or Commanders thereof, or of a greater Burthen and Force than ſhall be mentioned in ſuch Commiſſion, he ſhall, for ſuch Offence, forfeit his ſaid Office, and be for ever after incapable of holding any Office in the Cuſtoms; and ſhall alſo forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered, by any Perſon or Perſons who will ſue for the ſame, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, in which no Eſſoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed; and one Moiety of the ſaid Penalty of one hundred Pounds, when recovered, ſhall be paid to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety to the Treaſurer for the Time being to the Corporation for the Relief and Support of ſick, maimed, and diſabled Seamen, and of the Widows and Children of ſuch as ſhall be killed, ſlain, or drowned, in the Merchants Service, for the Uſe of ſuch Corporation; or where ſuch Forfeitures ſhall be incurred in any of the Out-ports in which a Corporation is eſtabliſhed, or ſhall hereafter be eſtabliſhed, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, then a Moiety of ſuch Penalty ſhall be paid to the Truſtees for the Uſe of the Corporation ſo eſtabliſhed.

Proviſo for aſcertaining the Tonnage.

XII. Provided always, That the Number of Tons ſo to be certified, be aſcertained according to the Rules laid down by an Act paſſed in the eighth Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for making a convenient Dock or Baſon at Liverpool, for the Security of all Ships trading to or from the ſaid Port of Liverpool.

If the Commander of a commiſſioned Ship ſhall agree with any Perſon belonging to any Prize taken, for the Ranſom thereof, &c. he ſhall be deemed a Pirate, and ſuffer accordingly.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe at any Time or Times any Commander or Commanders of any private Ship or Ships, or Veſſel or Veſſels of War, commiſſioned as aforeſaid, ſhall agree with the Commander or Commanders, or other Perſon or Perſons, of or belonging to any Neutral or other Ship or Ships, Veſſel or Veſſels, for the Ranſom of any ſuch Neutral Ship or Ships, Veſſel or Veſſels, or the reſpective Cargo or Cargoes thereof, or any Part thereof, after the ſame ſhall have been taken as Prize, and ſhall, in purſuance of ſuch Agreement or Agreements, actually quit, ſet at Liberty, or diſcharge, any ſuch Prize, or Prizes, inſtead of bringing the ſame into ſome Port or Ports belonging to his Majeſty's Dominions; that then all and every of the Commander and Commanders of ſuch private Ship or Ships, or Veſſel or Veſſels of War, who ſhall agree for any ſuch Ranſom, and ſhall quit, ſet at Liberty, or diſcharge, any ſuch Prize or Prizes in Manner aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be, guilty of Piracy, Felony, and Robbery; and he, they, and every of them, being duly convicted thereof before any Court of Admiralty, ſhall have and ſuffer ſuch Pains of Death, Loſs of Land, Goods, and Chattels, as Pirates, Felons, and Robbers upon the Seas, ought to have and ſuffer according to the Laws now in being.

Offences on board Privateers puniſhable in the ſame Manner as on board Ships of War.

'XIV. And whereas, in all private Ships of War or Merchant Ships that ſhall take out Letters of Marque, 'it is expedient, for the better Diſcipline and Government of ſuch Ships, that all Perſons who enter themſelves on board the ſaid Ships ſhould be under proper Regulations, and pay Obedience to the lawful Commands of the Captains and Chief Commanders of the ſaid Ships;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Offences committed by any Officer or Seaman on board any Privateer or Merchant Ship, having taken Letter of Marque, during the preſent Hoſtilities with France, ſhall be puniſhed in ſuch Manner as the like Offences are puniſhable on board his Majeſty's Ships of War.

Offenders accuſed of Crimes

XV. Provided always, That all Offenders who ſhall be accuſed of ſuch Crimes as are cognizable only by a Court-martial, ſhall be confined on board ſuch Privateer or Merchant Ship carrying Letter of Marque, on

on which such Offence shall be committed, until they shall arrive in some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or can meet with such a Number of his Majesty's Ships of War abroad as are sufficient to make a Court-martial; and upon Application made, by the Commander of such Privateer or Merchant Ship carrying Letter of Marque, to the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, for the Time being, or the Commander in Chief of his Majesty's said Ships of War abroad, the said Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or such Commander in Chief abroad, are hereby authorised and required to call a Court-martial for trying and punishing the said Offences.

cognizable only by a Court-martial, to be confined on board, &c.

'XVI. And whereas good and necessary Laws have been made, and are still in Force, within several of 'his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, for preventing the carrying off from the said Colonies or 'Plantations any Servant or Slave without the Consent of the Owner; or the carrying off from thence any 'other Person or Persons whomsoever, until such Person shall have taken out his Ticket from the Secre-'tary's Office within such respective Colony or Plantation, in such Manner, and under such Penalties and 'Forfeitures, as in and by the said several Laws is declared and provided;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Commanders of private Ships of War or Merchant Ships, having Letters of Marque, shall, upon their going into any of those Ports or Harbours, be subject, and they are hereby determined to be subject, to the several Directions, Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in and by such Laws made and provided; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Privateers subject to the Laws and Regulations established in British Colonies in going into the Ports there.

'XVII. And, for the more speedy proceeding to Condemnation, or other Determination, of any Prize, 'Ship, or Vessel, Goods or Merchandizes, already taken, or hereafter to be taken, as aforesaid, and for 'lessening the Expences that have been usual in the like Cases,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Judge or Judges of any Court of Admiralty, or other Person or Persons thereto authorised, shall, within the Space of five Days after Request to him or them for that Purpose made, finish the usual preparatory Examination of the Persons commonly examined in such Cases, in order to prove the Capture to be lawful Prize, or to enquire whether the same be lawful Prize or not; and that the proper Monition usual in such Cases shall be issued, by the Person or Persons proper to issue the same, and shall be executed in the usual Manner, by the Person or Persons proper to execute the same, within the Space of three Days after Request in that Behalf made; and in case no Claim of such Capture, Ship, Vessel, or Goods, shall be duly entered or made in the usual Form, and attested upon Oath, giving twenty Days Notice after the Execution of such Monition; or if there be such Claim, and the Claimant or Claimants shall not, within five Days, give sufficient Security (to be approved of by such Court of Admiralty) to pay Double Costs to the Captor or Captors of such Ship, Vessel, or Goods, in case the same so claimed shall be adjudged lawful Prize; that then the Judge or Judges of such Court of Admiralty shall, upon producing to him or them the said Examinations, or Copies thereof, and upon producing to him or them, upon Oath, all Papers and Writings which shall have been found, taken in or with such Capture; or upon Oath made that no Papers or Writings were found; immediately, and without further Delay, proceed to Sentence, either to discharge and acquit such Capture, or to adjudge and condemn the same as lawful Prize, according as the Case shall appear to him or them, upon Perusal of such preparatory Examinations, and also of the other Papers and Writings found, taken in or with such Capture, if any Papers or Writings shall be found; and in case such Claim shall be duly entered or made, and Security given thereupon, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act, and there shall appear no Occasion to examine any Witnesses other than those who shall be then near to such Court of Admiralty, that then such Judge or Judges shall forthwith cause such Witnesses to be examined within the Space of ten Days after such Claim made and Security given, and proceed to such Sentence as aforesaid touching such Capture; but in case, upon making or entering such Claim, and the Allegation and the Oath thereupon, or the producing such Papers or Writings as shall have been found or taken in or with such Capture, or upon the said preparatory Examinations, it shall appear doubtful to the Judge or Judges of such Court of Admiralty, whether such Capture be lawful Prize or not, and it shall appear necessary, according to the Circumstances of the Case, for the clearing and determining such Doubt, to have an Examination, upon Pleadings given in by the Parties, and admitted by the Judge, of Witnesses that are remote from such Court of Admiralty, and such Examination shall be desired, and that it be still insisted, on Behalf of the Captors, that the said Capture is lawful Prize, and the contrary be still persisted in on the Claimants Behalf, that then the said Judge or Judges shall forthwith cause such Capture to be appraised by Persons to be named by the Parties, and appointed by the Court, and sworn truly to appraise the same according to the best of their Skill and Knowledge; for which Purpose, the said Judge or Judges shall cause the Goods found on board to be unladen, and (an Inventory thereof being first taken, if the Judge or Judges shall think necessary, by the Marshal of the Admiralty, or his Deputy) shall cause them to be put into proper Warehouses, with separate Locks of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs, and where there is no Comptroller, of the Naval Officer, and the Agents or Persons employed by the Captors and Claimants, at the Charge of the Party or Parties desiring the same; and shall, after such Appraisement made, and within the Space of fourteen Days after the making of such Claim, proceed to take good and sufficient Security from the Claimants to pay the Captors the full Value thereof, according to such Appraisement, in case the same shall be adjudged lawful Prize; and shall also proceed to take good and sufficient Security from the Captors to pay such Costs as the Court shall think proper, in case such Ship shall not be condemned as lawful Prize; and after such Securities duly given, the said Judge or Judges shall make an Interlocutory Order for releasing or delivering the same to such Claimant or Claimants, or his or their Agents, and the same shall be actually released or delivered accordingly.

Judge to finish the preparatory Examination, with respect to the Captures, within 5 Days,

Monition to be issued and executed in 3 Days after requested,

If no Claim thereupon be made within a limited Time, or Security given by the Claimant, the Judge to proceed forthwith to Sentence.

If Claim be entered, and Security given, and Witnesses be near, Examination, &c. to be had and made within 10 Days.

If the Legality of the Capture shall appear doubtful, and the Parties persist in litigating their Right, the Judge shall order the Capture to be appraised, and the Goods to be unloaded, and lodged in Warehouses, and an Inventory taken thereof; and upon Security for full Value taken of the Claimants, and for Costs, of the Captors, shall make Order for Release of the Capture to Claimant.

XVIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Claimant or Claimants shall refuse to give such Security, the Judge or Judges shall cause the Captor or Captors in like Manner to give

Claimant refusing, and Captor giving such Security,

Judge to make Order for Delivery of Prize to Captor.

give good and ſufficient Security to pay the ſaid Claimant or Claimants the full Value thereof, according to the Appraiſement, in caſe any ſuch Capture or Captures ſhall be adjudged not to be lawful Prize; and the ſaid Judge or Judges ſhall thereupon proceed to make an Interlocutory Order for the releaſing and delivering the ſame to the ſaid Captor or Captors, or their Agents.

His Majeſty may give ſuch further Rules and Directions to the Courts of Admiralty, as he ſhall judge proper.

XIX. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall be conſtrued to reſtrain his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, from giving ſuch further Rules and Directions to his reſpective Courts of Admiralty for the Adjudication and Condemnation of Prizes, as by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, ſhall be thought neceſſary or proper.

Captures made in America, to be under the joint Care of the Officers of the Cuſtoms and Captors, till condemned or acquitted there. Upon Condemnation, Prize to be delivered to the Captors.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Captures as aforeſaid, which ſhall be brought into any of his Majeſty's Dominions in America, in order to be proceeded againſt to Condemnation in any of his Majeſty's Vice-admiralty Courts, ſhall, without breaking Bulk, ſtay there, and be under the joint Care and Cuſtody of the Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms, or, where there is no Comptroller, of the Naval Officers of the Port or Place where the ſame ſhall be brought, and of the Captors thereof, or their Agents; ſubject to the Directions of the Court of Vice-admiralty, until the ſame ſhall, by final Sentence, have been either cleared and diſcharged, or adjudged and condemned as lawful Prize, or that ſuch Interlocutory Order as aforeſaid ſhall have been made for the releaſing or delivering of the ſame; and, upon the Condemnation or Adjudication thereof as lawful Prize, ſhall, in caſe the ſame were taken by any private Ship or Ships commiſſioned as aforeſaid, be immediately delivered unto the Captors thereof, or their Agents, to be by them diſpoſed of as their Goods and Chattels; and in caſe the ſame were taken by any of his Majeſty's Ships of War, unto ſuch Perſon or Perſons, and to be diſpoſed of and divided as his Majeſty by his Proclamation hath already ordered and directed, or his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall, by Proclamation or Proclamations hereafter to be iſſued for thoſe Purpoſes, order and direct.

Books and Writings found on board any Prize, how to be diſpoſed of.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Books, Papers, and Writings, found in any Ship or Veſſel taken as Prize, ſhall without Delay be brought into the Regiſtry of the Court of Admiralty wherein ſuch Ship or Veſſel may be proceeded againſt in order to Condemnation; but that ſuch only of the ſaid Books, Papers, and Writings, ſhall be made uſe of and tranſlated, as ſhall be agreed or inſiſted upon by the Proctors of the ſeveral Parties, Captors or Claimants, or, in caſe of no Claim, by the Captor or Regiſter, to be neceſſary for aſcertaining the Property of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and Cargo thereof.

Judge, or other Officer in America, &c. guilty of Neglect or Delay in executing his Duty,

with full Coſts of Suit.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Judge or Judges, or other Officer or Officers, in any of his Majeſty's Plantations or Dominions abroad, to whom reſpectively it ſhall appertain, ſhall delay the doing, performing, making, or pronouncing, any of the ſeveral Proceedings, Matters, or Things, for, towards, or relating to, condemning or diſcharging, releaſing or delivering, of any ſuch Capture in Manner aforeſaid, within the reſpective Times herein-before limited, or as ſoon as the ſame, or any of them, ought to be done, according to the Tenor and true Meaning of this Act; all and every ſuch Judge and Judges, and other Officer and Officers, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds; one Moiety thereof to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof, with full Coſts of Suit, to ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame in any of the Courts in or for any of his Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations, or in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record within his Kingdom of Great Britain.

Fees of Court on Condemnation of Prizes in America, &c. for Veſſels under 100 Tons, 10*l.* for all above 15*l.* Upon Payment of the Fees, Judges, &c. liable to the above Penalties for Neglect or Delay of Duty.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall not be paid, unto or among all the Judges and Officers of ſuch Court of Admiralty in any of his Majeſty's Plantations or Dominions abroad, for, towards, or relating to, the adjudging or condemning of ſuch Capture as aforeſaid as lawful Prize, above the Sum of ten Pounds, in caſe ſuch Prize, Ship, or Veſſel, be under the Burthen of one hundred Tons; nor above the Sum of fifteen Pounds, in caſe the ſame be of that or any greater Burthen; and that upon Payment of either of the ſaid reſpective Sums, as the Caſe ſhall require, to the ſaid Judge or Judges, or any of them, to be by him or them diſpoſed or divided, as he or they ſhall think fit, among the Officers of ſuch Court, ſuch Judges and Officers, and every of them, ſhall be liable to all and every the ſeveral Penalties hereby impoſed for neglecting or delaying to do and perform their ſeveral and reſpective Duties or Offices, in and relating to the ſeveral Proceedings aforeſaid, within the reſpective Times herein for that Purpoſe limited.

Judgment of the Court may be appealed from.

XXIV. Provided nevertheleſs, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Captor or Captors, Claimant or Claimants, ſhall not reſt ſatisfied with the Sentence given in ſuch Court of Admiralty in any of his Majeſty's Plantations or Dominions abroad, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Party or Parties thereby aggrieved, to appeal from the ſaid Court of Admiralty to the Commiſſioners appointed, or to be appointed, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, for receiving, hearing, and determining, Appeals in Cauſes of Prizes; ſuch Appeal to be interpoſed and received in the like Manner as Appeals have been uſually interpoſed and received from the High Court of Admiralty within this Kingdom; ſo as the ſame be made within fourteen Days after Sentence, and good Security be likewiſe given by the Appellant or Appellants, that he or they will effectually proſecute ſuch Appeal, and anſwer the Condemnation, and alſo pay Treble Coſts, as ſhall be awarded, in caſe the Sentence of ſuch Court of Admiralty be affirmed; any Thing in this Act before contained to the contrary hereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Appeal to be made within 14 Days after Sentence, and Security to be given to proſecute the ſame, &c.

Execution of Sentence not to be ſuſpended thereupon, if the Appellate give Security for Veſſel, &c. or Value.

XXV. Provided always, That the Execution of any Sentence ſo appealed from as aforeſaid, ſhall not be ſuſpended by reaſon of ſuch Appeal, in caſe the Party or Parties appellate ſhall give ſufficient Security, to be approved of by the Court in which ſuch Sentence ſhall be given, to reſtore the Ship, Veſſel, Goods, or Effects, concerning which ſuch Sentence ſhall be pronounced, or the full Value thereof, to the Appellant or Appellants, in caſe the Sentence ſo appealed from ſhall be reverſed.

XXVI. And

XXVI. And be it enacted, That in caſe any Perſon, who was not a Party in the firſt Inſtance of the Cauſe, ſhall interpoſe an Appeal from a Sentence given in any Admiralty Court, ſuch Perſon, or his or her Agent, ſhall at the ſame Time enter his or her Claim, otherwiſe ſuch Appeal ſhall be null and void.

Perſon, who was not a Party in the firſt Inſtance, interpoſing an Appeal, is to enter his Claim at the ſame Time.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Appeal ſhall be interpoſed from a Sentence given in any Admiralty Court concerning any Ship, Veſſel, or Goods and Effects, which have been, or now are, or ſhall hereafter be ſeized or taken as Prize, that then and in ſuch Caſe the Judge of ſuch Court of Admiralty ſhall and may, at the Requeſt, Coſts, and Charges, either of the Captor or Claimant, or of the Claimant only, in Caſes where the Privilege is reſerved in favour of the Claimant, by any Treaty or Treaties ſubſiſting between his Majeſty and foreign Powers, make an Order to have ſuch Capture appraiſed, unleſs the Parties ſhall otherwiſe agree upon the Value thereof, and an Inventory taken, and then take Security for the full Value thereof accordingly; and thereupon cauſe ſuch Capture to be delivered to the Party giving ſuch Security, in like Manner as is herein-before enacted, notwithſtanding ſuch Appeal: And if there ſhall be any Difficulty or ſufficient Objection to the giving or taking of Security, the ſaid Judge ſhall, at the Requeſt of either of the Parties, order ſuch Goods and Effects to be entered, landed, and ſold by public Auction, under the Care and Cuſtody of the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms, and under the Direction and Inſpection of ſuch Perſons as ſhall be appointed by the Claimants and Captors; and the Monies ariſing by ſuch Sale ſhall be depoſited in the Bank of England, or in ſome Public Securities, and in the Names of ſuch Truſtees as the Captors and Claimants ſhall jointly appoint, and the Court ſhall approve, for the Uſe and Benefit of the Parties who ſhall be adjudged to be intitled thereto; and if ſuch Security ſhall be given by the Claimants, then it is hereby alſo enacted, that ſuch Judge ſhall give to ſuch captured Ship or Veſſel a Paſs, to prevent its being taken again by his Majeſty's Subjects in its deſtined Voyage.

In caſe of Appeal, the Judge may, at the Requeſt, &c. of the Captor or Claimant, order the Capture to be appraiſed; and deliver it to either Party who ſhall give Security for the full Value thereof.

In caſe of Objection to taking Security, the Judge ſhall, if either Party requeſt it, order the Effects to be ſold by Auction, &c.

Produce of the Sale to be depoſited in the Bank, &c.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Judge, Regiſter, or Deputy Regiſter, Marſhal, or Deputy Marſhal, or any other Officer whatſoever, of or belonging to any Court of Admiralty, or Vice-admiralty, in Great Britain or Ireland, or in any of his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations in America, or in any other of his Majeſty's Dominions, nor any Perſon or Perſons practiſing either as Advocate, Proctor, or otherwiſe, in any ſuch Court or Courts, ſhall be concerned or intereſted, directly or indirectly, as Owner, Part-owner, Sharer or Adventurer, in any Private Ship or Ships, or Veſſel or Veſſels of War whatſoever, having any Commiſſion or Commiſſions as aforeſaid; and in caſe any ſuch Judge, Regiſter, Deputy Regiſter, Marſhal, Deputy Marſhal, or other Officer, Advocate, or Proctor whatſoever, ſhall, notwithſtanding this Act, be directly or indirectly concerned or intereſted as aforeſaid, ſuch Judge, Regiſter, Deputy Regiſter, or Marſhal, Deputy Marſhal, or other Officer reſpectively, ſhall, for ſuch Offence (being thereof lawfully convicted, either upon an Information or Indictment in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record, or at any General or Quarter Seſſion of the Peace), abſolutely forfeit his Office and Employment in and belonging to any ſuch Court of Admiralty, or Vice-admiralty, of what Kind or Nature ſoever ſuch Office or Employment may happen to be, and ſhall alſo forfeit and pay, to the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the Sum of one hundred Pounds; and every ſuch Advocate or Proctor reſpectively ſhall, for ſuch laſt mentioned Offence (being thereof lawfully convicted in Manner aforeſaid), be from thenceforth abſolutely diſqualified, and rendered for ever incapable of practiſing, either as an Advocate or Proctor, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Admiralty or Vice-admiralty whereſoever.

Penalty on every Judge Regiſter, or other Officer belonging to any Court of Admiralty, who ſhall be intereſted in any Privateer.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Regiſter, or Deputy Regiſter, nor any Marſhal, or Deputy Marſhal, of or belonging to any of his Majeſty's Courts of Admiralty, or Vice-admiralty, whatſoever, ſhall either directly or indirectly, by himſelf or themſelves, or by any Agent or Agents, or other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, act or be concerned in any Manner, either as an Advocate or Proctor, in any Cauſe, Matter, or Buſineſs whatſoever, that ſhall be depending in any ſuch Court or Courts of Admiralty, or Vice-admiralty, to which ſuch Regiſter, Deputy Regiſter, Marſhal, or Deputy Marſhal, ſhall then belong; and that every Regiſter, Deputy Regiſter, Marſhal, or Deputy Marſhal, who ſhall be guilty of ſuch Offence (being thereof lawfully convicted, either upon an Information or Indictment, in Manner aforeſaid), ſhall from thenceforth abſolutely forfeit his reſpective Office and Employment of Regiſter, Deputy Regiſter, Marſhal, or Deputy Marſhal, in and belonging to the ſame Court.

If any Regiſter, Marſhal, &c. belonging to any Court of Admiralty, ſhall act as Proctor therein, he ſhall forfeit his Office.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Commander or Commanders, Officer or Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, or others, ſhall break Bulk on board, or embezzle any of the Money, Jewels, Plate, Goods, Merchandiſe, Tackle, Furniture, or Apparel, of or belonging to any Prize or Prizes, ſuch Commander, Officer, Seaman, Marine, Soldier, or others, ſhall forfeit Treble the Value of all ſuch Money, Jewels, Plate, Goods, Merchandiſe, Tackle, Furniture or Apparel, as he or they ſhall embezzle; one Third Part thereof to be to the Uſe of Greenwich Hoſpital, and the other two Third Parts thereof to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, by Action of Debt, Plaint, or Information, in any Court of Record in Great Britain; in which no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

Captors breaking Bulk, or embezzling the Effects, to forfeit Treble Value;

One-third to Greenwich Hoſpital, and the other two to the Proſecutor.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Appraiſements and Sales of any Ship or Ships, Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, as ſhall be taken by any of his Majeſty's Ships of War, ſhall be made by Agents or Perſons nominated and appointed, in equal Numbers, by the Flag Officers or Flag Officer, Captains or Captain, Officers or Officer, Ships Companies or Ship's Company, and others, intitled thereunto; (that is to ſay), That if the Flag Officers or Flag Officer of any Fleet or Squadron of Ships, as ſhall take any ſuch Prize or Prizes (or the Majority of ſuch Flag Officers, if more than one), ſhall nominate and appoint one or more Perſon or Perſons Agent or Agents to ſell or appraiſe the Appraiſements and Sales of Prizes taken by the King's Ships, to be made by the Agent for the Officers and Crews concerned in the Capture.

the ſame, as aforeſaid, then the Captains and Commanders, or Captain and Commander, intitled thereunto, or the Majority of them (if more than one), ſhall nominate and appoint the like Number of Perſons or Agents to act for them; and all the other Officers, under the Degree of a Captain and Commander, intitled thereto, or the major Part of them, ſhall alſo nominate and appoint the like Number of Perſons or Agents to act for them; and all the Crews of the ſeveral Ships Companies of the Fleet or Squadron, or Ship's Company, and others, intitled thereto, or the major Part of them, ſhall likewiſe nominate and appoint the ſame Number of Perſons or Agents to act on their Behalf in ſuch Appraiſement or Sale.

The above Clauſe not to extend to Privateers.

XXXII. Provided, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to alter or make void any Agreement or Agreements made, or to be made, in Writing, between the Owners, Officers, and Seamen, of any private Ships or Veſſels of War.

Agents to exhibit and regiſter, within a limited Time, their Letters of Attorney in the Court where the Prize ſhall be condemned, on Penalty of 500l.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be ſo nominated and appointed Agent or Agents as aforeſaid, for any Prize or Prizes, taken by any Ship or Ships, Veſſel or Veſſels of War, or by any Merchant Ship or Ships employed in his Majeſty's Service, or having Letters of Marque, or for receiving the Bounty herein-after granted, and which Prize or Prizes ſhall be condemned in the High Court of Admiralty in Great Britain, or in any of the Courts of Admiralty in any of his Majeſty's Plantations in America, or in any other his Majeſty's Dominions where the ſaid Prize and Prizes, and every of them, ſhall be condemned, ſhall exhibit, and cauſe to be regiſtered, in the ſaid High Court of Admiralty in Great Britain, or in the reſpective Courts of Admiralty in America, or in any other his Majeſty's Dominions where the ſaid Prize and Prizes, and every of them, ſhall be condemned, his or their reſpective Letter or Letters of Attorney, appointing him or them Agent or Agents for the Purpoſes aforeſaid; and if any Perſon or Perſons, ſo appointed Agent or Agents as aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe or neglect ſo to do for the Space of ſix Calendar Months next after Sentence of Condemnation of any Prize ſhall be given in the ſaid High Court of Admiralty in Great Britain, or in America, or other his Majeſty's Dominions, for the Care and Diſtribution of which he or they ſhall be appointed Agent or Agents, ſuch Perſon or Perſons, ſo refuſing or neglecting, ſhall forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to be recovered, by him or them who ſhall ſue for the ſame, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any Court of Record in Great Britain, America, or in any other of his Majeſty's Dominions; in which no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

Regiſters in all Courts of Admiralty to enter all Letters of Attorney delivered to them, by any Agent for Prizes taken by his Majeſty's Ships, &c. within 14 Days after Delivery;

XXXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Regiſter or Regiſters of his Majeſty's High Court of Admiralty, and of all other Courts of Admiralty in Great Britain, and other his Majeſty's Dominions, ſhall, from Time to Time, duly enter or regiſter, or cauſe to be entered or regiſtered, in one or more Book or Books, to be by him or them kept for that Purpoſe only, all Letters of Attorney that ſhall be exhibited or delivered to them after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, by any Agent or Agents for any Prize or Prizes taken, or to be taken, by any of his Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels of War, or by any Agent or Agents for the Receipt and Diſtribution of any Bounty Bill or Bills, within fourteen Days after the ſame ſhall be ſo exhibited or delivered to ſuch Regiſter or Regiſters, at his or their reſpective Offices; which Regiſtry ſhall contain the Days of Delivery and Entry, the Dates of the Letters of Attorney, the Names and Places of Abode of the Agents, the Names of the Prizes taken, or of the Ships of War or Privateers of the Enemy taken, burnt, ſunk, or otherwiſe deſtroyed, together with the Names of the Ships or Veſſels by which ſuch Prizes ſhall have been taken, or by which ſuch Ships of War or Privateers of the Enemy ſhall have been taken, burnt, ſunk, or otherwiſe deſtroyed, together with the Date of the Condemnation, and of Appeal, if any interpoſed; and and to tranſmit Copies thereof, half yearly, to the Treaſurer of Greenwich Hoſpital; the Regiſter or Regiſters ſhall, on the twenty-ſixth Day of December, and the twenty-fifth Day of June, or within forty Days thereafter, in every Year, tranſmit or deliver unto the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, or to the lawful Deputy of ſuch Treaſurer for the Time being, a true Copy or Tranſcript, under his or their Hand or Hands, of all ſuch Entries as aforeſaid within the preceding Half Year; and if ſuch Regiſter or Regiſters ſhall neglect or refuſe to make or keep ſuch Entries, or to tranſmit or deliver ſuch Copies thereof, as aforeſaid, within the reſpective Times herein-before limited for that Purpoſe, he or they ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record, in which no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

on Forfeiture of 100l.

Agent appointed after Condemnation of Prize, to regiſter his Letters of Attorney in like Manner, &c.

XXXV. Provided always, That if any Agent or Agents ſhall be appointed after the Time any Sentence of Condemnation in any of the ſaid Courts of Admiralty ſhall be given, ſuch Agent or Agents ſhall, under the aforeſaid Penalty, regiſter, or cauſe to be regiſtered, in Manner aforeſaid, his or their reſpective Letters or Letter of Attorney, appointing him or them Agent or Agents as aforeſaid, within the Space of ſix Calendar Months after the Date of the ſaid Letter or Letters of Attorney.

Regiſters, on Penalty of 500l. to tranſmit yearly to the Treaſurer of Greenwich Hoſpital, Copies of all Letters of Attorney regiſtered in their Courts.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Regiſter or Regiſters of all and every the Court and Courts of Admiralty in any of his Majeſty's Plantations in America, or elſewhere in any other of his Majeſty's Dominions, ſhall yearly and every Year, upon the twenty-third Day of October, or within three Calendar Months next after the ſame, make out and tranſcribe true Copies of all and every ſuch Letter and Letters of Attorney as ſhall be ſo regiſtered in the ſaid Court or Courts, to which the Judge and Judges of the ſaid Court and Courts ſhall affix his and their Seal of Office; and then the ſaid Regiſter and Regiſters ſhall tranſmit the ſame to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich, to be there regiſtered, and to be inſpected by any Perſon gratis; the Charges of which Copies, and affixing the Seal or Seals thereto, and tranſmitting the ſame to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Hoſpital, ſhall be paid by the ſaid Agent or Agents at the Time of making ſuch Regiſtry as aforeſaid: And in caſe ſuch Regiſter or Regiſters ſhall neglect or refuſe to tranſcribe and tranſmit ſuch Copy and Copies of the ſaid Letter and Letters of Attorney, in Manner aforeſaid (if any Ship or Ships in that Time ſhall ſail from ſuch Port or Place to any Port or Ports in Great Britain), ſuch Regiſter and Regiſters, ſo neglecting or refuſing, Judge to affix his Seal of Office thereto.

Agents to pay the Expences thereof.

fuſing, ſhall forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to be recovered by him or them who will ſue for the ſame, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any Court of Record in Great Britain or America, or elſewhere in any other of his Majeſty's Dominions, in which no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

'XXXVII. And, for the more effectual making ſuch Letters of Attorney Evidence of the Agency of 'the Perſon or Perſons to whom the ſame ſhall be made,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That true Copies of ſuch Letter and Letters of Attorney, and of Tranſcripts, under Seal, tranſmitted by the ſaid Regiſter or Regiſters of the Court and Courts of Admiralty in his Majeſty's Plantations in America, and elſewhere within his Majeſty's Dominions, and regiſtered by the ſaid Treaſurer of Greenwich Hoſpital, ſhall, from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, be good and ſufficient Evidence of the Agency of the Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Letter of Attorney is or ſhall be made; and from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, ſhall be admitted, without further or other Proof thereof, to be legal Evidence, in all his Majeſty's Courts of Record of Law or Equity; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

The ſaid Copies, when regiſtered by the ſaid Treaſurer, to be deemed Evidence of the Agency of ſuch Perſons.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That after the Sale or Sales of any Prize or Prizes, which have been or ſhall be taken from the Enemy by any of his Majeſty's Ships of War, public Notification, in Manner herein-after mentioned, ſhall be given by the Perſons or Agents appointed as aforeſaid, for the Payment of the ſeveral Shares to the Captors aforeſaid; that is to ſay, If the Prize or Prizes ſhall have been or ſhall be condemned in his Majeſty's High Court or other Court of Admiralty in Great Britain, then the Perſon or Perſons, Agent or Agents, appointed or to be appointed in purſuance of this Act, for the Appraiſement and Sale of ſuch Prize or Prizes, ſhall inſert and publiſh, or cauſe to be inſerted and publiſhed, ſuch Notification, under his or their Hand or Hands reſpectively, in the London Gazette; and if condemned in any Court or Courts of Admiralty or Vice-admiralty in any other of his Majeſty's Dominions, then ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Agent or Agents as aforeſaid, ſhall inſert and publiſh, or cauſe to be inſerted and publiſhed, ſuch Notification, under his or their Hand or Hands reſpectively, in the Gazette, or ſome other Newſpaper of public Authority, of the Iſland or Place where the Prize or Prizes ſhall have been or ſhall be condemned; and if there ſhall be no Gazette, or ſuch other Newſpaper publiſhed there, then in ſome or one of the moſt public Newſpapers of ſuch Iſland or Place; and all Perſons or Agents publiſhing, or cauſing to be publiſhed, every ſuch Notification reſpectively, ſhall deliver to the Collector, Cuſtomer, or Searcher, for the Time being of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms reſiding at or belonging to the Port or Place where the Prize or Prizes ſhall have been or ſhall be condemned, or the lawful Deputy or Deputies of ſuch Collector, Cuſtomer, or Searcher; and if there ſhall be no ſuch Collector, Cuſtomer, or Searcher, then ſuch Perſons or Agents as aforeſaid ſhall deliver, to the principal Officer or Officers of the Port or Place where the Prize or Prizes ſhall have been or ſhall be condemned, or to the lawful Deputy or Deputies of ſuch principal Officer or Officers, two of the Gazettes or other Newſpapers in which ſuch Notifications ſhall be ſo inſerted and publiſhed; and if there ſhall not be any public Newſpapers in any ſuch Iſland or Place, then ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Agent or Agents, ſhall give two ſuch Notifications in Writing, under his or their reſpective Hand or Hands, to the ſaid Collector, Cuſtomer, or Searcher, or the Deputy or Deputies of ſuch Collector, Cuſtomer, or Searcher, or where there ſhall be no ſuch Collector, Cuſtomer, or Searcher, to ſuch principal Officer or Officers, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, aforeſaid: And every ſuch Collector, Cuſtomer, or Searcher, and principal Officer or Officers, or ſuch Deputy or Deputies, ſhall ſubſcribe his or their Name or Names on ſome conſpicuous Part of both the ſaid Gazettes, Newſpapers, or written Notifications reſpectively, and by the firſt Ship which ſhall ſail (after his or their Receipt of ſuch Gazettes, Newſpapers, or written Notifications reſpectively) from ſuch Port or Place to any Port of Great Britain, ſhall tranſmit or ſend, to the Treaſurer of the Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich, or the Deputy of ſuch Treaſurer for the Time being, one of the ſaid Gazettes, Newſpapers, or written Notifications, with his or their Name or Names ſo ſubſcribed to and upon the ſame reſpectively, to be there regiſtered; and ſhall faithfully preſerve and keep the other of the ſaid two Gazettes, Newſpapers, or written Notifications, with his or their Name or Names thereon ſubſcribed as aforeſaid, in his or their Cuſtody; and that in every ſuch printed or written Notification as aforeſaid, the ſaid Perſon or Perſons, Agent or Agents, ſhall inſert or ſpecify his or their Place or Places of Abode, and the preciſe Day of the Month and Year appointed for the Payment of the ſeveral and reſpective Shares of the Prize or Prizes to the Captors: And all ſuch Notifications, with reſpect to Prizes condemned or to be condemned in Great Britain, ſhall be publiſhed in the London Gazette three Days at leaſt before any Part or Parts, Share or Proportion, of any ſuch Prize or Prizes, ſhall be paid to any Perſon or Perſons intitled thereto; and all ſuch Notifications, with reſpect to Prizes condemned or to be condemned in any other Part of his Majeſty's Dominions, ſhall be delivered to the ſaid Collector, Cuſtomer, or Searcher, or principal Officer or Officers aforeſaid reſpectively, or ſuch reſpective Deputy or Deputies, three Days at leaſt before any Part or Parts, Share or Proportion, of any ſuch Prize or Prizes ſhall be paid to any Perſon or Perſons intitled thereto: After which ſeveral and reſpective Notifications, if any Man's Shares ſhall remain in the Hands of the Perſons or Agents appointed as aforeſaid, either belonging to ſuch Men as ſhall be run from his Majeſty's Service, or which ſhall not be legally demanded within three Years, then ſuch Share or Shares ſo remaining in the Perſons or Agents Hands, or belonging to ſuch Men as ſhall run from his Majeſty's Service, ſhall go and be paid to the Uſe of Greenwich Hoſpital.

Agents to give public Notice of the Time appointed for Payment of the Shares to the Captors; and ſhall deliver to the Collector, &c. of the Cuſtoms two of the Newſpapers, &c. in which ſuch Notification ſhall be inſerted; who ſhall ſubſcribe the ſame, and tranſmit one of them to the Treaſurer of Greenwich Hoſpital, to be there regiſtered.

Notifications relating to Prizes condemned in Great Britain to be publiſhed in the London Gazette, three Days before any Share ſhall be paid, &c Shares of Run Men, and of ſuch as ſhall not be demanded within 3 Years, to be paid to Greenwich Hoſpital.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Agent, appointed, or to be appointed, for Appraiſement or Sale of any Prize or Prizes, taken, or to be taken, from the Enemy, by any of his Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels of War, or for the Diſtribution of any Bounty-money, ſhall neglect or refuſe to publiſh, give, or deliver, any Notification herein directed or required to be publiſhed, given, or delivered, or ſhall not publiſh, give, or deliver, any ſuch Notification, before the Payment of any Part of ſuch Prize or Bounty Money, and within the Times herein reſpectively limited, or in the Manner

Any Agent for Appraiſement or Sale of Prizes taken by his Majeſty's Ships of War, &c. who ſhall neglect to publiſh proper Notifications before Payment, shall forfeit 100 l.

Manner herein appointed; or shall not specify or set forth, in such Notification, the Matters and Things herein directed to be specified and set forth; every such Person or Agent shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record in Great Britain or America, or elsewhere in any of his Majesty's Dominions, in which no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed: And if any Collector, Customer, or Searcher, of his Majesty's Customs, or principal Officer or Officers, or such Deputy or Deputies as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to receive or to attest, or shall not transmit or send, any such Gazette, Newspaper, or written Notification, as aforesaid, in such Manner as is before directed, every such Collector, Customer, or Searcher, Principal Officer or Officers, or such Deputy or Deputies, so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be sued for and recovered in the same Manner as the above Penalty is directed to be sued for and recovered.

And Collector, &c. of the Customs neglecting to attest or transmit the same, shall be liable to the same Penalty.

XL. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Notifications in all such Gazettes, Newspapers, and in Writing respectively, as aforesaid, which shall be so transmitted and attested by such Collector, Customer, or Searcher, or Principal Officer or Officers, or such Deputy or Deputies as aforesaid, and registered at the said Royal Hospital, on Proof of the Hand-writing of such Collector, Customer, Searcher, Principal Officer or Officers, or Deputy or Deputies, from Time to Time, and at all Times, shall be good and sufficient Evidence, in all his Majesty's Courts of Law and Equity, that the Person or Persons, whose Name or Names is or are therein set forth and specified as the Agent or Agents for the Prize or Prizes therein respectively mentioned, is or are such Agent or Agents.

Notifications transmitted and attested as aforesaid, and registered at Greenwich Hospital, shall be deemed Evidence of the Agency of the Persons therein mentioned.

Commissioners of the Navy may purchase, for the King's Use, Naval Stores on board neutral Ships brought into Port by the King's Ships or Privateers,

'XLI. And whereas great Numbers of Ships of neutral Nations may pass the Seas laden with Naval 'Stores, intended to be carried to the Ports of France, whereby his Majesty's Enemies may not only be 'enabled and encouraged to fit out and arm Privateers to destroy the Trade of his Majesty's Subjects, but 'may also be supplied with Materials to build and fit out Ships of War, to annoy and invade his Majesty's 'Dominions: And whereas divers Ships of neutral Nations, laden as aforesaid, may be taken and brought 'into the Ports of Great Britain, and the Purchase of such Naval Stores, laden on board such Ships of 'neutral Nations, for the Service of his Majesty, may in many Cases be expedient, without proceeding 'to the Condemnation thereof;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy for the Time being, or their Officers or Agents, during the Continuance of the present Hostilities with France, to purchase, on the Account or for the Service of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors only, all or any such Naval Stores found on board any such Ships of neutral Nations, which have been, shall or may hereafter be brought into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, by any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or by any private Ships or Vessels of War, or other Ships or Vessels having Commissions or Letters of Marque; and that the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs for the Time being shall and may permit and suffer such Naval Stores, so purchased as aforesaid, to be entered and landed within any of the Ports of this Kingdom; any Thing in an Act of Parliament, passed in the twelfth Year of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Act 12 Car. II. notwithstanding.

'XLII. And, as a further Encouragement to the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, 'on board his Majesty's Ships of War, as also of Privateers, to attack, take, and destroy any Ships of Force 'belonging to the Enemy;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be paid, by the Treasurer of his Majesty's Navy, upon Bills to be made forth by the Commissioners of the Navy, to be paid according to the Course thereof, without Fee or Reward, unto the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, or others, who shall have been actually on board any of his Majesty's Ship or Ships of War, or Privateer or Privateers, at the taking, or sinking, or burning, or otherwise destroying, any Ship or Ships of War belonging to the Enemy, since the twenty-ninth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, five Pounds for every Man who was living on board any Ship or Ships so taken, sunk, burnt, or otherwise destroyed, at the Beginning of the Attack or Engagement between them; the Numbers of such Men to be proved by the Oaths of three or more of the Chief Officers or Men which were belonging to the said Ship or Ships of War or Privateers of the Enemy, or belonging to any of them, at the Time of her or their being taken as Prize, sunk, burnt, or otherwise destroyed, before the Mayor, or other Chief Magistrate, of the Port within any of his Majesty's Dominions whereunto any Prize, or Officers or Men of such Ships, as were sunk, burnt, or otherwise destroyed, shall be brought; or before the British Consul or Vice-consul residing at any neutral Port to which such Prize, or Officers or Men, shall be brought; which Oaths the said Mayor, or other Chief Magistrate, of any such Port, or Consul or Vice-consul, are hereby respectively impowered and required to administer, and shall forthwith grant a Certificate thereof, without Fee or Reward, directed to the Commissioners of the Navy; upon producing which Certificate to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, together with an authentic Copy of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation of such Ship so taken; or where such Certificate cannot be had and obtained, then upon producing only a Copy of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation, whereby the Number of Men on board such Ships of the Enemy shall appear to have been proved; or if such Ship be sunk, burnt, or otherwise destroyed, on producing only a Certificate from the Mayor, or other Chief Magistrate, or Consul or Vice-Consul, as aforesaid, the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, or such Person or Persons as they shall appoint for that Purpose, shall, according to the Course of the Navy, within fifteen Days, make out Bills for the Amount of such Bounty, directed to the Treasurer of the Navy, payable to, and to be divided amongst, the Officers, Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers, on board his Majesty's Ships of War, in Manner, Form, and Proportion, as by his Majesty's Proclamation for granting the Distribution of Prizes, already issued or to be issued for that Purpose, is or shall be directed and appointed; and amongst the Owners, Officers, and Seamen, of any private Ship or Vessel of War, in such Manner and Bounty Money payable to the Captors, by the Navy-office, for all Men on board the Enemies Ships taken or destroyed.

Numbers to be ascertained upon Oath; and a Certificate granted thereof, and produced to the Commissioners of the Navy, with Copy of Ship's Condemnation; unless the Ship be sunk or destroyed.

Dividend to be made according to Proportion settled by Proclamation, &c.

Proportion as by any Agreement in Writing, they ſhall have entered into for that Purpoſe, ſhall be directed.

Where ſuch Oath and Certificate cannot be made and had at the firſt Port, the ſame may be done at any other Port;

XLIII. Provided nevertheleſs, That in all Caſes where ſuch Oath and Certificate cannot be adminiſtered and granted at the firſt Port whereunto any Prize, or Officers or Men of ſuch Ships as have been, or ſhall be taken, ſunk, burnt, or otherwiſe deſtroyed, ſhall be brought, ſuch Oath or Oaths, relating to any Prize or Prizes that ſhall be taken, or to any Ships of his Majeſty's Enemies that ſhall be ſunk, burnt, or otherwiſe deſtroyed, as aforeſaid, ſhall and may be adminiſtered and taken by and before the Mayor, or other Chief Magiſtrate, of any Port within any of his Majeſty's Dominions, or by or before the Britiſh Conſul, or Vice-conſul, reſiding at any neutral Port whereunto any Prize or Prizes, or Officers or Men of any Ships belonging to his Majeſty's Enemies as have been, or ſhall be, taken, ſunk, burnt, or otherwiſe deſtroyed, ſhall at any Time afterwards be brought (Proof being firſt made, by Affidavit before ſuch Perſon or Perſons, of the Inability of making ſuch Oath or Oaths, and obtaining ſuch Certificate, at the ſaid firſt Port); and the Mayor, or other Chief Magiſtrate, Conſul or Vice-conſul, ſhall thereupon grant ſuch Certificate and Certificates as are herein-before directed; which Certificate and Certificates ſhall be good and effectual to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame were granted by the Mayor, or other Chief Magiſtrate, Conſul or Vice-conſul, of the Port to which ſuch Prize or Prizes, Officers or Men, as aforeſaid, ſhall be firſt brought; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Proof being made of ſuch Inability at the firſt Port.

Certificate granted thereupon to be valid.

Prizes which had been taken from his Majeſty's Subjects not in Rebellion, to be reſtored to them, on Payment of 1-8th Part of the Value thereof;

but if any ſuch Ship had been uſed by the Enemy as a Man of War, a Moiety of the Value to be paid on reſtoring thereof.

XLIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if any Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, taken as Prize, or any Goods therein, ſhall appear, and be proved, in any Court of Admiralty, to have belonged to any of his Majeſty's Subjects of Great Britain or Ireland, or any of the Dominions and Territories remaining and continuing under his Majeſty's Protection and Obedience, which were before taken or ſurpriſed by any of his Majeſty's Enemies, and at any Time afterwards again ſurpriſed and retaken from his Majeſty's Enemies by any of his Majeſty's Ships of War, or any private Man of War, or other Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, under his Majeſty's Protection and Obedience; that then ſuch Ships, Veſſels, Boats, and Goods, and every ſuch Part and Parts thereof, as aforeſaid, formerly belonging to ſuch his Majeſty's Subjects, ſhall in all Caſes be adjudged to be reſtored, and ſhall be, by Decree of the ſaid Court of Admiralty, accordingly reſtored to ſuch former Owner or Owners, or Proprietors, he or they paying, for and in Lieu of Salvage, one-eighth Part of the true Value of the Ships, Veſſels, Boats, and Goods, reſpectively ſo to be reſtored; which Salvage, if retaken from the Enemy by any of his Majeſty's Ship or Ships of War, ſhall be anſwered and paid to the Captains, Officers, and Seamen, in his Majeſty's ſaid Ship or Ships or War, to be divided in ſuch Manner as before in this Act is directed touching the Share of Prizes belonging to the Flag Officers, Captains, Officers, Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers, where Prizes are taken by any of his Majeſty's Ships of War; and if ſuch Ship ſo retaken by any of his Majeſty's Ship or Ships of War, or by any private Man of War, ſhall appear to have been, after the taking by the Enemy, by them ſet forth as a Man of War, the former Owners and Proprietors, to whom the ſame ſhall be reſtored, ſhall be adjudged to pay, and ſhall pay, for Salvage, the full Moiety of the true Value of the ſaid Ship ſo taken and reſtored without Deduction, as aforeſaid; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Bills for Bounty Money to be paid to Agents, and to be divided amongſt the Captors.

Shares not demanded within 3 Years, to be paid over to Greenwich Hoſpital.

Bounty Money to Privateers, to be divided as agreed among themſelves.

XLV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Bill or Bills, to be made out for the Bounty hereby granted to the Commanders, Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, of his Majeſty's Ships of War, for taking, ſinking, burning, or otherwiſe deſtroying, any Ships of War, or Privateers, belonging to any of his Majeſty's Enemies, ſhall be made payable to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be authoriſed and appointed by the Flag Officers or Flag Officer, Captains or Captain, Officers or Officer, Ships Companies or Ship's Company, and others, intitled thereunto, in like Manner as herein-before is directed for the nominating and appointing Agents for Appraiſements and Sales to be made as aforeſaid; the ſame to be diſtributed and divided, by the ſaid Perſon or Perſons ſo authoriſed and appointed, amongſt the Captors, in ſuch Manner, Form, and Proportion, as aforeſaid; the ſeveral Shares of which Captors, if not legally demanded within three Years after public Notification, and alſo of ſuch as ſhall run from his Majeſty's Service, ſhall be applied to the Uſe of Greenwich Hoſpital; and that the Bill or Bills to be made out for the Bounty hereby granted to Privateers, for taking, burning, ſinking, or otherwiſe deſtroying, any Ships of War, or Privateers, belonging to any of his Majeſty's Enemies, ſhall be made payable to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be nominated and appointed by the Owner or Owners, Officers and Seamen, of ſuch Privateer or Privateers, who ſhall have taken, ſunk, burnt, or otherwiſe deſtroyed, the ſame, or the major Part of them, to be divided in ſuch Manner and Proportions as ſhall have been agreed on by them as aforeſaid.

Ships or Merchandiſe taken by Colluſion by Privateers, forfeited to his Majeſty, with the Bond; one Moiety to the Crown, the other to the Proſecutor; and if ſo taken by a King's Ship, the Captain to forfeit 1000 l.

XLVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Ship or Veſſel, or any Goods or Merchandiſe, ſhall be taken or retaken, or reſtored, without being firſt brought to Adjudication, by any Privateer, through Conſent, or clandeſtinely, or by Colluſion or Connivance, the Ship and Veſſel, and Goods and Merchandiſes, ſo taken or retaken, or reſtored, and alſo the Ship's Tackle, Furniture, Apparel, and Ammunition, of ſuch Privateer, ſhall, upon Proof thereof to be made in any Court of Admiralty, be declared and adjudged to be good Prize to his Majeſty; and one Moiety thereof ſhall be to the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to the Uſe of ſuch Perſon who ſhall diſcover and ſue for the ſame; and the Bond given by the Captain of ſuch Privateer ſhall be, and is hereby adjudged to be, forfeited to his Majeſty: And in caſe any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or any Goods or Merchandiſes as aforeſaid, ſhall be taken, or ſo retaken or reſtored, by any Man of War, through Conſent, clandeſtinely, or by Colluſion or Connivance of the Commander or Captain, ſuch Commander or Captain ſhall forfeit the Sum of one thouſand Pounds; one Moiety thereof to the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to the Uſe of ſuch Perſon who ſhall diſcover and ſue for the ſame; to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, or any more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed; and ſuch Captain, or Officer, ſhall forfeit his Command and Employment, and ſhall be, and is hereby disabled and made incapable of any Office or Employment under his Majesty, during the Space of seven Years; and the said Goods and Merchandises, and the Ship, Tackle, Apparel, Furniture, Guns, and Ammunition, so taken by Collusion, shall be, and is hereby directed to be adjudged, in all Courts of Admiralty, as good Prize and Forfeiture to his Majesty.

and be suspended for 7 Years, and the Ship and Goods taken forfeited.

Run Men forfeit their Share of Prize and Bounty Money; which is to be paid over to Greenwich Hospital;

XLVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons, belonging to any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or to any Merchant Ship employed in his Majesty's Service, who shall run away, or withdraw him or themselves from the Ship or Vessel by which any Prize or Prizes shall be taken from any of his Majesty's Enemies, or otherwise from his Majesty's Service, before or after Notification shall be given, by the Persons or Agents appointed as aforesaid, of the Day appointed for the Payment of the several Shares to the Captors of the said Prize or Prizes, shall have, or be intitled to have or claim, any Interest in, or Benefit of, the said Share or Shares of the said Prize or Prizes, or the Bounty Money aforesaid, or any Part thereof; but such Share and Shares of such Prize and Prizes, and Bounty Money, shall go and be paid to the Use of Greenwich Hospital.

and if they run, after Notification, to lose what then remains of their Share in the Agents Hands.

XLVIII. Provided always, That if any Person or Persons shall or do run away, or withdraw him or themselves, from any such Ship or Vessel, as aforesaid, after Notification given as aforesaid, he or they shall forfeit and lose such Part of his and their Share and Shares of the said Prize or Prizes, and Bounty Money, as shall be remaining in the said Agent or Agents Hands, at the Time of his and their running away, or withdrawing him or themselves; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Agents, within 3 Months after the Day appointed for first Payment, to transmit to the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital an Account of the Produce of such Prize, and Payment of Shares; and also transmit a like Account of the Bounty-money;

XLIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, Agent and Agents, and others, who shall sell, or otherwise dispose of, any Prize or Prizes, so to be taken as aforesaid from any of his Majesty's Enemies, shall, within the Space of three Calendar Months next after the Day to be appointed for the first Payment or Distribution to the Captors of such Prize or Prizes made in pursuance of such public Notification as aforesaid, make out, and transmit or deliver unto the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich for the Time being, or to such Person or Persons as he shall for that Purpose depute or appoint, a true State and Account in Writing, under the Hand or Hands of such Agent or Agents, or Person or Persons so employed, of the Produce of all such Prize and Prizes as aforesaid, together with an Account of the Payments of the several Shares to the Captors, as shall then have been really and truly by him or them respectively paid; and also that all and every Person and Persons, authorised and appointed by this present Act to receive Bills for the Bounty hereby granted, shall, within the like Space of three Calendar Months next after the Day appointed for the first Payment or Distribution of such Bills for the Bounty as aforesaid, in like Manner make out, and transmit or deliver to the Treasurer for the Time being of the said Hospital, or to his sufficient Deputy, a true State and Account in Writing, under his or their Hand or Hands, of the Payment and Distribution of such Bills: And further, that all and every Person and Persons, Agents and others, who, by virtue of this Act, shall sell or dispose of any Prize or Prizes, which already have been, or shall at any Time or Times hereafter be taken from the said Enemy, by any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or who shall receive or dispose of any Bill or Bills for Bounty, such Person and Persons, Agents and others, so selling and disposing thereof, shall, within the Space of three Calendar Months next after the Expiration of the Term of Three Years limited by this Act, make out an exact Account in Writing of the Produce of such Prize and Prizes, Bill and Bills for Bounty; as also of the Payments of the several Shares to the respective Captors, together with a true and just Account, upon Oath, to be taken before the Treasurer of the said Hospital for the Time being, or any other Person or Persons by him for that Purpose deputed and authorised, in Writing under his Hand and Seal (which Oath the said Treasurer of the said Hospital, and his sufficient Deputy and Deputies, authorised as aforesaid, is and are hereby authorised and impowered to administer), of all Sum and Sums of Money as shall be then remaining in such Agent or Agents or Persons Custody, Power, or Possession; and shall at the same Time deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Treasurer of the said Hospital for the Time being, or to his sufficient Deputy or Agent, the said Accounts, so attested upon Oath as aforesaid, together with all such remaining Sum and Sums of Money then so left and remaining in his or their Hands, as aforesaid, taking from the said Treasurer, or his proper Deputy or Agent, his or their Acquittance or Acquittances for the same.

and, within 3 Years after, to make out on Oath, and transmit a like Account of the Produce and Payments of such Prizes and Bounty-money, and of all Sums then remaining in their Hands, which are to be paid over at the same Time to the Treasurer of said Hospital.

Agents neglecting to render such Accounts and Payments, to forfeit 100 l. over and above the Money then in their Hands; One-third to the King, and the rest to the Hospital.

L. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons, hereby directed to transmit or deliver all or any the Accounts before mentioned, who shall neglect or refuse to transmit or deliver all or any such Account or Accounts to the Treasurer of the said Hospital, or his said Deputy or Agent, within the Time before limited and appointed, in Manner and Form as is herein-before mentioned; or who shall neglect or refuse to pay over all and every such Sum and Sums of Money, as shall remain in his or their Hand or Hands, Power, Custody or Possession, after the Term of three Years, to be accounted as aforesaid; shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, over and above the Money then in such Agents Hands; One-third Part whereof shall belong to his Majesty, and the remaining two-thirds to the said Royal Hospital; to be recovered, with Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record; in which no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed.

If there appear any Fraud or Collusion in such Accounts, Persons concerned therein to forfeit 100 l. extra. One-third to the King, one to the

LI. And be it further enacted, That if any Fraud, Collusion, or Deceit, shall be wittingly or willingly made, used, committed, permitted, or done, or suffered, in making, stating, or balancing, any such Accounts, then every Person or Persons who shall be thereof duly convicted, and his and their Aiders and Abettors, shall forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, over and above the Penalties and Punishments inflicted by this Act, the Sum of one hundred Pounds; One-third Part whereof to be to the Use of his Majesty, and one other Third to the Use of the said Hospital, and the other Third to the Informer who shall sue for the same; to be recovered, with Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any Court of Record, in which no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

Hoſpital, and one to the Proſecutor.

LII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Agent or Agents for Prizes, or Bounty-money, ſhall be liable to be ſued, impleaded, or arreſted, by any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be made Run from his Majeſty's Service, in the Liſts to be duly certified of the Names of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, or others, who ſhall be actually on board any of his Majeſty's Ships of War at the taking of any Prize or Prizes, unleſs the Perſon or Perſons ſo made Run ſhall, before any Action brought, obtain a Certificate of his or their R or R's being taken off, and the Forfeiture of his or their Shares of ſuch Prizes and Bounty Monies being diſcharged by the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy who ſubſcribed the ſaid Liſts, and ſhall produce ſuch Certificate to the ſaid Agent or Agents reſpectively; and unleſs the ſaid Agent or Agents, on the producing of ſuch Certificate or Certificates, ſhall refuſe to pay the ſaid Prize or Bounty Money (in caſe the ſame be due and payable according to the Directions in his Majeſty's Proclamation) within two Months after any ſuch Demand made and ſuch Certificate produced.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be applied.

LV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures given and granted by this Act, ſhall be applied one Moiety to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety to the Uſe of the ſaid Royal Hoſpital.

Penalties given to Greenwich Hoſpital how to be recovered.

LVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures, and Parts of Penalties and Forfeitures, given or to be given to the Uſe of the ſaid Royal Hoſpital, by this preſent Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, ſhall and may be ſued for and recovered in the Name of the Commiſſioners and Governors of the Royal Hoſpital for Seamen at Greenwich in the County of Kent.

A Seſſion of Oyer and Terminer, for trying naval Offences, to be held twice a Year at the Old Bailey.

'LVII. And, for the more ſpeedy bringing of Offenders to Juſtice, and to prevent the Inconveniences 'occaſioned by want of frequently holding a Seſſion of Admiralty, for the Trial of Offences committed on 'the High Seas,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, a Seſſion of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Juriſdiction of the Admiralty of England, ſhall be held twice, at leaſt, in every Year, that is to ſay, In the ſeveral Months of March and October in each Year, at Juſtice Hall in the Old Bailey, London, except at ſuch Times as the Seſſions of Oyer and Terminer, and Gaol Delivery, for the City of London, and County of Middleſex, ſhall be appointed to be there held, or in ſuch other Place within that Part of Great Britain called England, as the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain for the Time being, or any three or more of them, ſhall, by any Letter or Order, in Writing under their Hands, directed to the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty in England for the Time being, appoint.

LVIII. And

Commissioners of Oyer and Terminer, or Justices of Peace, impowered to take Informations, on Oath, of any Piracy, &c. committed within the Admiralty Jurisdiction; and to grant Warrants for Commitment of the Persons accused.

LVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, it shall and may be lawful, not only to and for any one or more of the Commissioners for the Time being named in the Commission of Oyer and Terminer for the trying of Offences committed within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, but also to and for any one or more of the Justices of the Peace for the Time being of any County, Riding, Division, or Place, within that Part of Great Britain called England, and they are hereby respectively authorised and impowered, from Time to Time, to take any Information or Informations, of any Witness or Witnesses, in Writing, upon Oath, touching any Piracy, Felony, or Robbery, done or committed, or charged to have been done or committed, in or upon the Sea, or in any Haven, River, Creek, or Place, where the Admiral or Admirals hath or have Power, Authority, or Jurisdiction; and thereupon (if such Commissioner or Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace, respectively, shall see Cause), by any Warrant or Warrants, under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to cause the Person or Persons, accused in such Information or Informations, to be apprehended and committed to the Gaol of the County or Place wherein the same Information or Informations shall be taken, there to remain until discharged by due Course of Law.

Commissioners or Justices may oblige all Persons they shall think necessary to enter into Recognizance to prosecute such Offenders.

Persons refusing to enter into such Recognizance may be committed.

LIX. And it is hereby further enacted, That such of the said Commissioners, or Justices of the Peace, who shall cause any such Person or Persons to be committed as is last mentioned, shall, and he or they is or are hereby respectively required, at the same Time, to oblige all and every such other Person or Persons, whom such Commissioner or Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace, shall judge necessary to prosecute and give Evidence against the Person or Persons who shall be so committed as aforesaid, to enter into one or more Recognizance or Recognizances to his Majesty, in a sufficient Penalty, for his, her, or their appearing at the then next Session of Oyer and Terminer, and Gaol Delivery, to be held for the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, there to prosecute and give Evidence against the Person or Persons who shall be committed as aforesaid; and if any Person shall refuse to enter into such Recognizance to prosecute or give Evidence as shall be required, he, she, or they, so refusing, shall be committed, by any such Commissioner or Commissioners, Justice or Justices, to the Gaol of the County or Place in which the Person so refusing shall be, until the next Sessions of Admiralty shall be held, or such Persons shall enter into such Recognizance as shall be required as aforesaid; which Recognizance or Recognizances, together with the Information or Informations taken touching the Offence or Offences wherewith the Person or Persons to be committed as aforesaid shall be charged, the said Commissioner or Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace, before whom the same shall be taken, shall, and they are hereby respectively required to transmit, with all convenient Speed, to the Register for the Time being of the High Court of Admiralty of England, to be by him forthwith laid before the Judge for the Time being of the same Court, and afterwards to be kept among the Records of that Court.

Marshal of the Admiralty and all Peace Officers, to obey the Orders of the said Commissioners and Justices.

LX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Marshal of the Admiralty for the Time being, and his Deputy or Deputies, and all Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Stewards, Constables, Headboroughs, Tithingmen, Keepers of Gaols and Prisons, and all other Officers whatsoever for keeping of the Peace (as well within Liberties as without), shall, and they and every of them are hereby respectively authorised and required, from Time to Time, diligently to execute, perform, and obey, all such Precept and Precepts, Warrant and Warrants, and other Order and Orders, as shall at any Time or Times hereafter be made, directed, issued, or given, to them, or any of them respectively, by one or more of the said Commissioners named in the Commission of Oyer and Terminer, or Justices of the Peace, by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, touching any of the Matters or Things herein contained.

Continuance of this Act.

LXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue in Force during the present Hostilities with France, and no longer.

CAP. LXVIII.

An Act for explaining, amending, and rendering more effectual, an Act passed in the twenty-third Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, for the more easy and speedy Recovery of Small Debts within the Tower Hamlets.

Preamble.

Recital of an Act 23 Geo. II.

'WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was passed in the twenty-third Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the more easy and speedy Recovery of Small Debts within the Tower Hamlets, which said Act hath by Experience been found useful to the Inhabitants thereof; but the same is in many Respects defective, and insufficient to answer the good Purposes thereby intended: And whereas the Place now used as a Court-house by the Commissioners for executing the said Act is very inconvenient for that Purpose, and greatly out of Repair; and no Provision is made by the said former Act for raising Money to build, or provide, or put in Repair, a proper Court-house, and Offices for executing the Powers of the said Act:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That at any General Meeting of the said Commissioners to be held after the passing of this Act in Manner as by this Act is directed, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them assembled at such Meeting, to authorise one or more Person or Persons, on their Behalf, to contract for, and purchase, or accept a convenient Piece or Pieces of Ground, and any Messuages or Tenements, in the High-street, in the Parish of Saint Mary, Whitechapel, or in some other convenient Place within the Tower Hamlets aforesaid; which said Ground and Messuages or Tenements, when purchased or accepted, shall be conveyed to Samuel Hawkins, John Baker, James Wood, Lanney Richard Cousemaker, Commissioners may authorise a Person to purchase or accept Ground, and Messuages or Tenements, for building a Court-house; which shall be conveyed to Trustees.

Couſemaker, David Wilmot, James Hatch, Peter Lefevre, James Spagg, John Sherwood, James Caney, Daniel Martin, Jaſper Clarke, James Bidlake, Laurence Dermott, Charles Beek, James Henley, John Perry, Thomas Page, Charles Mills, John Robinſon, Abraham Benee, and William Buckmaſter, and the Survivors of them, and their Succeſſors, to be choſen as by this Act is directed, as Truſtees for the Purpoſes herein-after mentioned (of which ſaid Truſtees one hath been choſen by the Pariſhioners, or Inhabitants of each of the Pariſhes, Hamlets, Precincts, and Liberties within the ſaid Tower Hamlets, the Precinct of the Tower within only excepted); and the ſaid Truſtees ſhall be ſeiſed thereof, in Truſt for the Service and Benefit of the ſaid Hamlets, for the Purpoſes in this and the ſaid former Act mentioned: And that upon Payment of the Purchaſe Money, which ſhall be agreed to be paid for the ſaid Piece or Pieces of Ground and Meſſuages or Tenements, it ſhall be lawful for the Commiſſioners nominated, aſſigned, and appointed, as by the ſaid former Act is directed, to take Poſſeſſion of the ſame; and the ſame, and every Part thereof, ſhall be, and is and are hereby declared to be veſted in the Truſtees herein-before named, and the Survivors of them, and their Succeſſors, for the Purpoſe of building a Court-houſe and Offices, and alſo ſuch other Conveniencies as ſhall by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, at any ſuch General Meeting as aforeſaid, be deemed neceſſary for executing the Buſineſs of the Court of Requeſts for the Tower Hamlets, to which Uſe the ſaid Buildings ſhall be applied.

Ground and Meſſuages or Tenements to be veſted in Truſtees, on Payment of the Purchaſe Money.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when and as often as any one or more of the ſaid Truſtees ſhall die, it ſhall be lawful for the Pariſhioners or Inhabitants of the Pariſh, Hamlet, Precinct, or Liberty, within the ſaid Tower Hamlets (where ſuch Truſtee or Truſtees was or were reſident at the Time that he or they was or were choſen or appointed a Truſtee or Truſtees), as have a Right to aſſemble and meet for the Choice of Officers in their reſpective Veſtry, or other Place of Meeting for tranſacting the public Buſineſs of ſuch Pariſh, Hamlet, Precinct, or Liberty; and they, or the major Part of them ſo aſſembled as aforeſaid, are hereby impowered and required, on the Tueſday next after the Feaſt of Eaſter next enſuing the Deceaſe of ſuch Truſtee or Truſtees, to appoint one other Perſon or Perſons reſident within ſuch Pariſh, Hamlet, Precinct, or Liberty, to be a Truſtee or Truſtees in the Room of him or them ſo dying, in whom (together with the ſurviving Truſtees) the Fee-ſimple and Inheritance of the ſaid Piece or Pieces of Ground and Meſſuages or Tenements ſo to be purchaſed or accepted as aforeſaid, and all the Buildings and Erections which ſhall be made or built thereon, ſhall, by virtue of ſuch Appointment, be veſted in Truſt, for the Purpoſes in this and the ſaid former Act mentioned; and whenever any of the ſaid Truſtees ſhall happen to die, the firſt or original Number of twenty-two Truſtees ſhall from Time to Time be filled up in Manner as above mentioned.

When Truſtees die, others to be choſen in their Room.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when the ſaid Piece or Pieces of Ground, and Meſſuages or Tenements, ſhall be ſo purchaſed or accepted as aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners to cauſe to be built and finiſhed thereon, or provided and fitted up, a convenient Court-houſe, and ſuch other Buildings and Conveniencies, as ſhall be adjudged requiſite by the ſaid Commiſſioners, at any General Meeting or Meetings, to be held as by this Act is directed, or by the major Part of them aſſembled at ſuch Meeting or Meetings; all which ſaid Ground and Buildings ſhall from Time to Time be uſed, maintained, ſupported, and repaired, in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall think fit.

Commiſſioners may build a Court-houſe and other Conveniencies;

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, aſſembled at any ſuch General Meeting or Meetings for that Purpoſe, to borrow and raiſe any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the Sum of one thouſand five hundred Pounds in the Whole, for the purchaſing of the ſaid Piece or Pieces of Ground, and Meſſuages or Tenements, and the erecting of ſuch Buildings, or providing and fitting up ſuch Court-houſe and Offices as above mentioned, by the Grant of one or more Annuity or Annuities, for the Life or Lives of any Perſon or Perſons, to be charged or chargeable upon the ſeveral Sums of Money by this Act raiſed, or added to the Fees of the ſaid Court, herein-after particularly mentioned; which ſaid Annuity or Annuities ſhall not exceed the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon any one Life, for every one hundred Pounds ſo borrowed or raiſed, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Sum: And they the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall and may, at any ſuch Meeting or Meetings, by an Order or Orders, ſigned by any ſeven or more of them (without any Stamp), charge the ſaid additional Sums hereby raiſed, or added to the ſaid Fees, with the Payment of ſuch Annuity or Annuities accordingly; and from and immediately after the advancing of the Monies for the Purchaſe, or granting of ſuch Life Annuity or Annuities as aforeſaid, into the Hands of the Treaſurer or Treaſurers, to be appointed by the Authority of this Act, and the Delivery of ſuch Order or Orders for the Payment of ſuch Annuity or Annuities as aforeſaid, ſuch Annuity or Annuities ſhall ſtand, and be charged and chargeable upon, and ſhall be paid and payable out of the ſaid Monies, to ariſe from the ſaid additional Sums by this Act charged upon the ſaid Fees, in ſuch Manner and Form as, by ſuch Order or Orders for Payment thereof, ſhall be expreſſed or directed, and the ſame ſhall be free from all Taxes and Deductions whatſoever.

and may borrow Money by Annuities.

Annuities to be charged on the additional Sums added to the Fees.

V. And be it further enacted, That all and every the ſaid Annuity or Annuities may be aſſigned by the Perſon or Perſons intitled to the ſame, or his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, by Indorſement, upon the Back of the ſaid Order or Orders, to any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever.

Annuities aſſignable by Indorſement.

'VI. And, for enabling the ſaid Commiſſioners to pay and diſcharge the ſaid Annuity or Annuities,' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, there ſhall be paid, into the Hands of the Treaſurer or Treaſurers to be appointed by the Authority of this Act, for every Summons which ſhall be iſſued out of the ſaid Court, the Sum of Two-pence, and for every Hearing in the ſaid Court, the Sum of one Penny, over and above the Fees received, or to be received, by the Clerks of the ſaid Court, for every ſuch Summons and Hearing reſpectively, by virtue of, or under the Authority of this or the ſaid former Act; which ſaid additional Sums hereby charged upon the ſaid ſeveral Fees, ſhall from Time to Time be applied in Payment of the ſaid Annuity or Annuities ſo to be granted or ordered Commiſſioners enabled to diſcharge the Annuities.

as above mentioned, and the Arrears thereof, during and until the ſame ſhall be fully paid off and diſcharged.

Additional Sums added to the Fees to ceaſe on the Death of Annuitants.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That, from and after the Death of the Perſon or Perſons, upon whoſe Life or Lives ſuch Annuity or Annuities ſhall be granted, and from and after the diſcharging of ſuch Annuity or Annuities, and all Arrears thereof, the Payment of the ſaid ſeveral additional Sums of Money, charged upon the ſaid Fees by virtue of this Act as aforeſaid, and each and every of them, ſhall ceaſe and determine, and ſhall be no longer paid or payable.

Commiſſioners may contract for the building a Court-houſe, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, at any General Meeting or Meetings, to be held as by this Act is directed, may, and are hereby directed to contract with any Perſon or Perſons for the building and finiſhing of the ſaid Court-houſe and other Conveniencies hereby authoriſed to be built, and ſuch Contract ſhall ſpecify the particular Works to be done, and the Prices to be paid for the ſame, and the Time or Times when ſuch Works ſhall be completed, and the Penalties to be paid or ſuffered in caſe of Non-performance thereof, and the ſame ſhall be executed by ſeven or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, and alſo by the Perſon or Perſons contracting to perform ſuch Works reſpectively; and, previous to their entering into ſuch Contract, fourteen Days Notice at leaſt ſhall be given, in one or more of the public Newſpapers, circulated within the Bills of Mortality, expreſſing the Intention of ſuch Contract, and the Time and Place of Meeting of the Commiſſioners to receive Propoſals for entering into the ſame.

Commiſſioners to order Payment of Annuities, and all Monies due for Building.

'IX. And for the better regulating the Payment of the ſaid Annuity or Annuities, and of the Money 'which may be expended in the building and finiſhing the ſaid Court-houſe and Offices,' be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, at any ſuch General Meeting or Meetings as aforeſaid, ſhall (by Warrant, in Writing under their Hands, directed to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be choſen Treaſurer or Treaſurers by the Authority of this Act) order or direct the Payment of the ſaid Annuity or Annuities, and alſo all ſuch Monies as ſhall be due and payable for the building and finiſhing of the ſaid Court-houſe and Offices, to the Perſon or Perſons intitled to receive the ſame reſpectively, as the ſame ſhall become due; and ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers ſhall, upon Receipt of ſuch Warrant or Warrants, forthwith pay the ſame out of the Monies which ſhall be in his or their Hands as aforeſaid, by virtue of, or under this Act, and ſuch Warrants, when paid, ſhall be allowed in Account to ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers, upon the ſettling or auditing of his or their Accounts with the ſaid Commiſſioners, in Manner as directed by this Act.

For recovering Money belonging to Suitors of the Court now in the Hands of Clerks, &c.

'X. And whereas there are in the Hands of the preſent and former Clerks of the ſaid Court, and of 'the Repreſentatives of Clerks deceaſed, divers and conſiderable Sums of Money, which were paid into the 'ſaid Court for the Uſe of the Suitors thereof, but have not yet been called for or claimed by the Perſons 'intitled to receive the ſame, although the ſame have been ſo paid in for the Space of ſix Years and upwards: And the ſaid Commiſſioners being deſirous that the ſaid Money ſhould be laid out and inveſted in 'ſome Government Security, that the ſame may be forth-coming to the ſeveral Suitors in the ſaid Court, 'who are intitled thereto, when they ſhall demand the ſame reſpectively;' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, at any General Meeting to be held after the paſſing of this Act, to demand the Monies ſo in the Hands of any of the ſaid preſent or former Clerks of the ſaid Court, and alſo the ſaid Monies in the Hands of or due from the Repreſentatives of any Clerk of the ſaid Court who is deceaſed; and if, upon ſuch Demand, the ſame or the Payment thereof ſhall be refuſed, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, at any ſuch General Meeting, to ſue for and recover the ſame by Action or Actions upon the Caſe, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, in the Name of the Treaſurer or Treaſurers to be appointed by the Authority of this Act; in which Action or Actions it ſhall be ſufficient for the ſaid Treaſurer or Treaſurers to declare that the Defendant or Defendants is or are indebted to ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers, in the Sum of Money which ſhall be ſo demanded of ſuch Defendant or Defendants reſpectively, for ſo much had and received, for the Uſe of the Commiſſioners of the Court of Requeſts for the Tower Hamlets; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall recover in ſuch Action or Actions, he or they ſhall be intitled to his or their full Coſts, and ſhall have the like Remedy for the ſame by Law as Plaintiffs have for Recovery of Coſts in other Caſes.

Bonds entered into by the Clerks, and their Sureties, to be delivered up and cancelled, when the Money in the Hands of the ſaid Clerks is recovered.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon Payment or Recovery of the Monies which ſhall be ſued for, or due from the ſaid Clerks, or from the Repreſentative or Repreſentatives of any deceaſed Clerk or Clerks, in Manner as aforeſaid, the Bond or Bonds which was or were entered into by ſuch Clerk or Clerks, and their reſpective Sureties, to the ſaid Commiſſioners, upon his or their being choſen ſuch Clerk or Clerks of the ſaid Court, ſhall be, and is and are hereby declared to be void and of no Effect, and ſhall be delivered up to be cancelled; and ſuch Clerk and Clerks, and the ſeveral other Obligors or Sureties in the ſaid Bonds mentioned reſpectively, ſhall thereupon be fully and abſolutely releaſed and diſcharged from their ſaid reſpective Bonds or Obligations, and of and from all Claims and Demands by the Suitors, or any other Perſon whatſoever, for or on Account of the Monies ſo recovered or paid as aforeſaid.

Money now in the Hands of Clerks, &c. belonging to the Suitors, ſhall (when recovered) be placed out on Government Security.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That when and ſo ſoon as the ſaid Monies, or any Part thereof, ſhall be recovered as aforeſaid, the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall, and are hereby required to lay out and inveſt the ſame in Three per Centum Conſolidated Bank Annuities, or in ſome other Government Security, in the Name of any three Perſons to be choſen, by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, at any ſuch General Meeting, as Truſtees for that Purpoſe; and ſuch three Truſtees, and their Succeſſors, to be appointed as by this Act is directed, ſhall ſtand and be poſſeſſed of the ſame for the Uſes and Purpoſes herein-after mentioned.

If the Suitors demand their Money after it is ſo

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons intitled to any of the Money ſo already paid into the ſaid Court upon the Account aforeſaid, and which is directed to be laid out and invested in Manner above mentioned, shall at any Time after the passing of this Act demand the same of the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, when in Court, the same shall be a Charge upon the said Money so laid out and invested in Manner as aforesaid; and the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall, and are hereby required to order the Money which shall be so demanded to be paid to the Person or Persons intitled to receive the same, immediately after such Demand shall be made, and the same shall thereupon be paid to such Person or Persons accordingly, by the Treasurer or Treasurers appointed or chosen as aforesaid, from any Sum or Sums of Money in his or their Hands; and the said Commissioners shall, and are hereby required to direct so much Stock to be sold, as shall be necessary to replace the same, from Time to Time, as the said Commissioners shall think fit.

to

invested, the Treasurer to pay it, and to sell as much Stock as will replace the same.

XIV. And as to all such Money as shall or may be hereafter paid into the said Court for or on account of the Suitors thereof (and which shall not be claimed and taken out of the said Court, within the Space of six Years after the same shall have been so paid in),' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners shall, and are hereby required, at the Expiration of the said six Years next after such Monies shall have been so paid in as aforesaid, to lay out and invest the same from Time to Time in the Purchase of Three per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, or some other Government Security, in the Name of any three Persons, to be chosen by the said Commissioners, in Manner as by this Act is directed with respect to the said Monies which have been already paid into the said Court; and their Successors to be in like Manner chosen or appointed as Trustees for that Purpose; and if any Person or Persons intitled to any of the Money which shall be so hereafter paid into the said Court upon the Account aforesaid, and which shall not have been demanded until after the Expiration of such six Years, shall at any Time afterwards demand the same of the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, when in Court, the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall, and are hereby required to order the Money which shall be so demanded, to be paid to the Person or Persons intitled to receive the same, immediately after such Demand shall be made; and the same shall thereupon be paid to such Person or Persons accordingly, by the said Treasurer or Treasurers, from any Sum or Sums of Money in his or their Hands; and the said Commissioners shall, and are hereby required to direct so much of the Money, so to be laid out and invested after the Expiration of such six Years, to be sold, as shall be necessary to replace the same, from Time to Time, as the said Commissioners shall think fit, until the Whole thereof shall be so applied and disposed of; any Thing in this or the former Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

If the Money which shall be hereafter paid into Court is not claimed by the Suitors within six Years after it is paid in, the Commissioners may place it on Government Security: But if claimed by such Suitors after the Expiration of six Years, shall be paid to them immediately.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Interest and Dividends, as well of the said Money already paid into the said Court, and hereby authorised to be sued for and invested as aforesaid, as of all such other Money as shall or may at any Time hereafter be paid into the said Court upon the Account aforesaid (and which shall be laid out and invested in any Government Security, at any Time after the Expiration of six Years from the Time of paying in the same, as by this Act is directed), or so much thereof as shall remain unclaimed by the said Suitors of the said Court, as aforesaid, shall from Time to Time be paid and applied in repairing, and keeping in Repair, the said Court-house and Offices hereby authorised to be built as aforesaid, and for insuring the same, and defraying all Taxes, and other Expences attending the said Court-house and Offices, in such Manner as they the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, at any General Meeting or Meetings to be held as by this Act is directed, shall from Time to Time judge necessary for those Purposes respectively.

The Interest and Dividends of the Money placed out by the Commissioners shall be applied towards the Reparation, &c. of the Court house.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That when and as often as any one or more of the said three Trustees in whom or in whose Name the said Monies shall by the Authority of this Act be laid out and invested respectively as aforesaid, shall happen to die, the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, at any General Meeting to be held as by this Act is directed, shall, and are hereby required, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, to appoint one other Person or Persons to be a Trustee or Trustees, in the Room of him or them so dying; and thereupon such new Trustee or Trustees shall, together with the Survivor or Survivors of the said Trustees first chosen, and their Successors, stand and be possessed of the said Monies, so placed out and invested, upon the Trusts and for the Purposes above mentioned of and concerning the same; and whenever any one of the said three Trustees shall happen to die, the first or original Number of Three shall from Time to Time be filled up in Manner as aforesaid.

In case the Trustees, in whose Names the Money shall be placed out at Interest, shall die, the Commissioners to appoint others.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, at any General Meeting to be held as aforesaid, or the major Part of them assembled at such Meeting, shall and may, and are hereby required to elect and choose one or more Person or Persons to be Treasurer or Treasurers for the Receipt of the said additional Sums of Money, hereby charged upon the several Fees above particularly mentioned, and of all Monies which shall, at any Time after the passing of this Act, be paid for or on Account of the Purchase of any Annuity or Annuities, and other the Purposes of this Act; and the said Treasurer or Treasurers shall continue in his or their Office, until another shall be chosen in his or their Room.

Commissioners may choose a Treasurer.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Clerks of the said Court shall account to the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, once in every Year, or oftener, if they shall be required so to do by the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, at any such General Meeting or Meetings as aforesaid, for all the said additional Sums charged upon the said Fees, and for all Monies which shall be so paid into the said Court as aforesaid; and shall from Time to Time pay all the said Monies (except the Sum of one hundred Pounds, which shall always be left in the Hands of the said Clerks, to answer the Claims of the said Suitors), and the said additional Sums upon the said Fees, to the said Treasurer or Treasurers, whensoever thay shall be required so to do by the said Commissioners, at any such General Clerks to account to the Commissioners for additional Sums to the Fees, and for Monies paid into Court by the Suitors.

Meeting or Meetings as aforeſaid, or by any ſeven or more of them aſſembled at any ſuch Meeting or Meetings.

Commiſſioners to take Security of the Treaſurer;

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners aſſembled at any ſuch General Meeting or Meetings as aforeſaid, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall and may, and are hereby required to take ſufficient Security of ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers ſo to be elected and choſen as aforeſaid, by Bond, or otherwiſe, to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, in any Sum not leſs than two thouſand Pounds, for the accounting and due Payment, by ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers, of all Monies which ſhall come to his or their Hands, and for the Delivery of all Books, Papers, and Writings, to any ſucceeding Treaſurer or Treaſurers; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any fifteen or more of them, aſſembled at any ſuch Meeting, may diſcharge or remove ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers from his or their ſaid Office:

who ſhall account for all Monies received, &c.

And every ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers ſhall account annually, or oftener, if thereunto required by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, at any ſuch General Meeting, for all Monies by him or them received and paid, as ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers as aforeſaid, on fourteen Days previous Notice to be given or left at his or their Houſe or Houſes, or moſt uſual Place or Places of Abode, for that Purpoſe: And the ſaid Treaſurer or Treaſurers, or his or their Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall well and truly pay all ſuch Monies, as ſhall appear to be remaining in his or their Hands, in auditing or ſettling ſuch Accounts, and ſhall deliver over all Books, Papers, and Writings, in his or their Poſſeſſion, Cuſtody, or Power, belonging to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or to the ſaid Office of Treaſurer, to any ſucceeding Treaſurer or Treaſurers, when thereunto required by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, at any ſuch General Meeting as aforeſaid.

Commiſſioners to take Cognizance of Debts for Rent under 40 s.

'XX. And whereas there are great Numbers of Manufacturers and Day-labouring People reſiding in 'the Tower Hamlets, who with their Families occupy Tenements, or Parts of Tenements, let by Parole 'Demiſe, and the Expences of recovering of ſuch Rents by Action at Law moſt commonly exceed the 'Amount of the Rent ſued for, to the great Injury of the Landlords of ſuch Tenements, and the Op'preſſion of ſuch Occupiers;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners to take Cognizance of any Debt or Demand, under the Value of forty Shillings, for Rent of any Tenement, or Part of a Tenement, within the Tower Hamlets aforeſaid, let by Parole Demiſe (except the Precinct of the Tower within); and alſo for the ſaid Commiſſioners to hear and determine on ſuch Debts and Demands, and to award Execution, in the ſame Manner as they are authoriſed to do for any other Cauſe of Action, any Thing in the ſaid former Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No Perſon to recover Rent as aforeſaid, unleſs he has been in Poſſeſſion of the Premiſes, &c. 21 Months preceding the Time for which ſuch Rent is demanded.

XXI. Provided always nevertheleſs, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall not take Cognizance of any ſuch Demand or Claim for Rent, unleſs the Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Demand or Claim, or the Perſon or Perſons in whoſe Right ſuch Demand or Claim ſhall be made, or under whom he or they ſhall claim, hath or have been in the actual Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Tenements, or in the actual Receipt of Rent for the ſaid Tenements, during twelve Months immediately preceding the Time for which ſuch Rent ſhall be ſo demanded; and provided alſo that no Recovery of Rent in the ſaid Court be accepted or given in Evidence in Support of the Title of any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, to any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments whatſoever.

This Act not to prevent any Perſon from diſtraining for Rent.

XXII. Provided alſo, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to prevent any Perſon or Perſons from making Diſtreſs for or bringing any Action or Actions for Rent, although the ſame ſhall not amount to the Sum of forty Shillings.

If Defendant neglects to appear to the Summons, the Court may pronounce Judgment in his Abſence;

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, in all Caſes whatſoever, whenever any Debtor or Defendant, reſiding within the Juriſdiction of the ſaid Court, ſhall have been duly ſummoned to appear before the Commiſſioners in the ſaid Court, according to the uſual and accuſtomed Manner of ſummoning Perſons for that Purpoſe, and ſuch Debtor or Defendant ſhall refuſe or neglect to appear to ſuch Summons, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, when aſſembled in the ſaid Court, upon due Proof being made before them that ſuch Debtor or Defendant was duly ſummoned in Manner as aforeſaid, to proceed to hear the Cauſe or Matter of Complaint, touching or concerning ſuch Debt or Debts, on the Part of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs only, and to make or pronounce thereon ſuch Order or Orders, or Judgment or Judgments, in reſpect of the Debt or Debts demanded or ſued for, as to them ſhall ſeem juſt and equitable:

and ſhall appoint a certain Time for him to ſhew Cauſe againſt ſuch Judgment, &c.

And the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall then fix upon and appoint ſome certain Time and Place, according to their Diſcretion, for every ſuch Debtor or Defendant to ſhew Cauſe before the Commiſſioners of the ſaid Court, or any three or more of them, againſt ſuch Order or Orders, or Judgment or Judgments, ſo made and pronounced upon ſuch Hearing as aforeſaid; at which Time and Place, or at any other ſubſequent Court or Courts, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall have full Power and Authority by this Act (whether ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall appear or ſhew Cauſe, or not) upon Proof, on the Oath of one of the Beadles of the ſaid Court (That ſuch Order or Orders, or Judgment or Judgments, or a Copy thereof, had been delivered to ſuch Debtor or Debtors, or left at his, her, or their uſual Place of Reſidence, or Abode, or Working), to award Execution thereupon, in like Manner as by the ſaid former Act they are authoriſed to do in other Caſes: And the Clerks and Beadles of the ſaid Court are, in every ſuch Caſe, hereby authoriſed to take and receive the like Fees, for the Call of the Defendant, and making, and ſerving or leaving of every ſuch Order as aforeſaid, as they are authoriſed and impowered to take and receive for or upon any Attachment, iſſued by virtue of or under this or the ſaid former Act.

Attornies not exempt from the Juriſdiction of the Court.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Privilege ſhall be allowed to exempt any Perſon from the Juriſdiction of the ſaid Court of Requeſts on account of his being an Attorney or Solicitor of any of the Courts at Weſtminſter, or of any other Court whatſoever, but that all

Attornies

Attornies and Solicitors shall be subject to the several Processes, Orders, Judgments, and Executions of the said Court of Requests, in the same Manner as any other Persons are subject to the same by this or the said former Act.

Directions for holding General Meetings.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no General Meeting shall be held as aforesaid for any of the Purposes in this or the said former Act, without the Order of three or more of the Commissioners, made upon one of the Court-days in the said former Act mentioned, whilst they shall be in Court; which said Order shall be in Writing, and shall specify the particular Time and Place, and also the Purpose of such General Meeting, and shall be registered by the Clerks then present in Court, or one of them, and Notice thereof in Writing, or in Print, shall be delivered to, or left at the usual Place of Abode of, all the said Commissioners respectively, by the Beadles of the said Court, or by any other Person or Persons the Commissioners requiring such General Meeting shall direct, four Days at least before the holding of each and every such General Meeting respectively.

No Victualler, &c. capable of acting as a Commissioner.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Victualler, or Person or Persons whomsoever who shall sell Ale, Beer, or Spirituous Liquors by Retail, shall be capable of acting as a Commissioner in the Execution of this or the said former Act.

Expences of this Act how to be paid.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That all the Charges and Expences of procuring and passing of this present Act shall be paid, satisfied, and discharged, out of the first Monies which shall be raised as aforesaid, by virtue or in pursuance of this Act.

This Act not to extend to the Precinct of the Tower within, &c.

XXVIII. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the Precinct of the Tower within; nor to restrain the ancient Court of Record held for and within the Liberty of the Tower of London, from holding Plea of any personal Action which shall arise within the said Liberty, or to take away, alter, or abridge, any Jurisdiction, Authority, Privilege, Immunity, or Exemption, which the Chief Governor of the Tower, or his Deputy or Deputies, or any Officer or Minister or any Inhabitants within the said Liberty, enjoys or enjoy, or ought to enjoy, by virtue of any Law, Usage, Prescription, Grant, Charter, Commission, or otherwise, any Thing herein or in the said recited Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Limitation of Actions.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, or on account of any Order, Determination, Judgment, or Decree of the said Commissioners, until twenty Days Notice shall be given thereof in Writing, to be left at the Office of the Clerks of the said Court, or after sufficient Satisfaction or Tender thereof hath been made to the Party or Parties aggrieved, or after three Calendar Months next after the Cause of Action shall arise; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Actions and Suits, and every of them, may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial or Trials which shall be had thereupon: And if the Plaintiff shall become nonsuited, or if a Verdict or Judgment shall be given for the Defendant or Defendants therein, then, and in either of the said Cases, such Defendant or Defendants shall have Double Costs, and shall have such Remedy for recovering the same, as any Defendant or Defendants may have for his, her, or their Costs in any Cases by Law.

General Issue.

Double Costs.

Public Act.

XXX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a public Act; and shall be taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without specially pleading the same.

CAP. LXIX.

An Act for the more effectually preventing the pernicious Practices of Smuggling in this Kingdom; and for indemnifying Persons who have been guilty of Offences against the Laws of the Customs and Excise, upon the Terms therein mentioned.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS, in Defiance of the several Laws of Customs and Excise already made, and of the Penalties and Provisions from Time to Time enacted for the Punishment of Offenders against such Laws; and notwithstanding the Grace and Clemency lately offered to Persons who had been guilty of Smuggling Offences, great Quantities of prohibited and uncustomed Goods, and particularly of Tea, foreign Brandy, and other foreign Spirits, continue to be illegally imported into and landed in this Kingdom; and such Goods are run, carried, and conveyed, from the Sea Coasts through the Country, as well by secret Frauds and clandestine Practices as by open Force, and by Gangs of daring and dissolute Persons, armed with offensive Weapons, and associated and assembled to carry into Execution their evil and pernicious Purposes, in Subversion of all Civil Authority and Power whatsoever: And whereas it is become highly necessary, for the Preservation of the public Revenue, the Protection of the fair Trader, and the Quiet and good Order of the Kingdom, that some further Provisions should be made for the better preventing such illegal Practices, and for deterring all Persons from committing such Offences, or from being aiding and assisting therein;' be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, where any foreign Brandy or other foreign Spirituous Liquors shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, or into any Port, Harbour, Haven, or Creek thereof, from any Part of Europe, in any Vessel or Cask which shall not contain sixty Gallons at the least (excepting only for the Use of the Seamen then belonging to and on board the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported, not exceeding two Gallons for each Seaman), then not only the said Brandy, and other foreign Spirituous Liquors, but also the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be so imported, of whatever

After Aug. 1, 1779, if any foreign Spirituous Liquors shall be imported from any Part of Europe, in a Vessel containing less than 60 Gallons, the same shall be forfeited, with the Ship, Guns, &c. (Exception.)

whatever Burthen the ſame may be, with all her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, ſhall be forfeited and loſt.

After Aug. 1, 1779, when any Tea, Coffee, or other Goods, are liable to Forfeiture for being found on board any Ship coming from foreign Parts, at Anchor, &c. or hovering on the Coaſts,

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, when any Tea, Coffee, foreign Brandy, or other foreign Spirituous Liquors, or any Goods whatſoever, are liable to Forfeiture for being found on board any Ships or Veſſels coming or arriving from foreign Parts, at Anchor, or hovering within the Limits of any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or within two Leagues of the Coaſts thereof, or for having been diſcovered to have been within the Limits of any Port, contrary to any Act of Parliament now in Force, the Ship or Veſſel, if coming or arriving from any Part of Europe, on board which ſuch Goods ſhall be ſo found, together with all her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, ſhall be forfeited, provided ſuch Ship or Veſſel doth not exceed the Burthen of two hundred Tons.

Recital of an Act 8 Geo. I.

'III. And whereas by an Act, made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George 'the Firſt, it was, amongſt other Things, enacted, That if any Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge, or 'Galley, rowing, or made or built to row, with more than four Oars, ſhould be found upon the Water, 'or in any Place within the Counties of Middleſex, Surrey, Kent, or Eſſex, or in the River Thames, either 'above or below London Bridge, or within the Limits of the Ports of London, Sandwich, or Ipſwich, ſuch 'Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge, or Galley, with all her Tackle and Furniture, or the Value thereof, 'ſhould be forfeited, and the Owner or Owners thereof, or any Perſon uſing or rowing the ſame, ſhould 'alſo forfeit and loſe the Sum of forty Pounds; in which Act it was provided, that the ſaid Act ſhould 'not extend to any Barge or Galley belonging to his Majeſty, or any of the Royal Family, or to any 'Long-boat, Yaul, or Pinnace, belonging to or uſed in the Service of any Merchant Ship or Veſſel, or 'to any ſuch Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge, or Galley, as ſhould be licenſed by the Lord High Admiral, or Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or the major Part of them for 'the Time being, upon ſufficient Security to be given to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by the 'Owner or Owners of ſuch Boat, Wherry, Pinnace, Barge, or Galley, as in the ſaid Act is directed, 'with Condition that the ſame ſhould not be made uſe of in the clandeſtine Running of uncuſtomed and 'prohibited Goods: And whereas it may be a Means to prevent and diſcourage the pernicious Practice of 'Smuggling, if the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Reſtrictions, were extended to ſuch Boats and other 'Veſſels as are made or built to row, or are found rowing with more than ſix Oars, within any other Part 'of this Kingdom;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, the ſaid in Part recited Act, and the ſeveral Clauſes, Penalties, Forfeitures and Reſtrictions, therein contained (not altered by this Act), ſo far as the ſame relate to Boats, Wherries, Pinnaces, Barges, or Gallies, rowing, or made or built to row, with more than four Oars, within the Counties and Places in the ſaid Act mentioned, ſhall extend, and be conſtrued to extend, to all Boats, Wherries, Pinnaces, Barges, Gallies, or other Veſſels whatſoever, rowing, or made or built to row, with more than ſix Oars, which ſhall be found, either upon the Land or Water, within any Harbour, Port, or Place whatſoever, in any other Part of Great Britain, or within two Leagues of the Coaſt thereof, ſubject nevertheleſs to the ſeveral Exceptions relative thereto as in the ſaid recited Act is and are particularly provided.

The ſaid Act, ſo far as it relates to Boats, Barges, &c. built to row with more than four Oars, within the Counties therein mentioned, ſhall be extended to Boats, &c. built to row with more than ſix Oars, in any Part of Great Britain.

This Act not to extend to Commanders of his Majeſty's Ships, or Tranſport Veſſels, &c.; nor to Tow-boats in the Port of Briſtol.

IV. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to the Commanders of any of his Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels, or Veſſels employed in the Tranſport Service, with reſpect to foreign Spirituous Liquors put on board them, to be iſſued by way of Allowance to the reſpective Ships Companies, or Troops put on board them.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act ſhall be conſtrued to extend to Boats commonly called Tow-boats (uſed in towing Ships or Veſſels), belonging to licenſed Pilots within the Port and Juriſdiction of the City of Briſtol.

Ships and Boats forfeited by this Act may be ſeized by any Officer of Cuſtoms or Exciſe.

VI. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Ships, Veſſels, and Boats, forfeited by this Act, ſhall and may be ſeized and arreſted by any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe; and ſhall and may be proſecuted, condemned, and recovered, in the ſame Manner as other Ships and Veſſels are directed to be proſecuted, condemned, and recovered, by an Act, made in the third Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the further Improvement of his Majeſty's Revenue of Cuſtoms, and for the Encouragement of Officers making Seizures, and for the Prevention of the clandeſtine Running of Goods into any Part of his Majeſty's Dominions; and that when any Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, liable to Forfeiture by this Act, which, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, is after Condemnation liable to be burnt or deſtroyed, or to be uſed in his Majeſty's Service, ſhall be ſeized by any Officer of Cuſtoms or Exciſe as forfeited, and the ſame ſhall not be thought fit or neceſſary to be uſed in his Majeſty's Service, it ſhall and may be lawful for the reſpective Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, after Condemnation, to direct the Hull of every ſuch Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, to be broken up, and the Materials of every ſuch Hull to be ſold to the beſt Advantage, and the Produce thereof to be divided in the ſame Manner as the Produce of the Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel, of Ships, Veſſels, and Boats, burnt and deſtroyed, is now directed to be divided; and no Writ of Delivery ſhall be granted out of the Court of Exchequer for any ſuch Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, ſo ſeized by any Officer of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, and which by any former Act relating to the Cuſtoms or Exciſe is directed to be burnt or deſtroyed, or to be uſed in his Majeſty's Service, and which is hereby liable to be broken up, unleſs the Officer ſeizing the ſame ſhall delay proceeding to the Trial and Condemnation thereof for the Space of three Terms; and in that Caſe, not without good Security being given, in double the Value of ſuch Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, to return the ſame upon Condemnation, in order to be broken up, or uſed in his Majeſty's Service.

When any Ships, &c. ſhall be ſeized as are not fit for his Majeſty's Service, their Hulls may be broken up and ſold.

In what Caſes Writs of Delivery may be granted out of the Exchequer for ſuch Ships, &c.

VIII. And

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, in all Cases where the Officers of Customs or Excise shall discover and find on board any Ship or Vessel, coming and arriving from Foreign Parts, within the Limits of any of the Ports of this Kingdom, more than one hundred Pounds Weight of Tea, not being in Ships belonging to or employed by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies; or more than one hundred Gallons of Foreign Brandy, or of other Foreign Spirituous Liquors, over and above the Quantity of two Gallons for every Seaman then belonging to and on board such Ship or Vessel, and being in Casks under sixty Gallons; the Master, or other Person having or taking the Charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit the Sum of three hundred Pounds; and it shall and may be lawful in such Case for any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, and for all other Persons acting in their Aid and Assistance, and they and each of them is and are hereby authorised to arrest, take, and detain, the said Master or other Person so having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, and to carry and convey the Person so taken before any one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, residing near to the Place where such Ship or Vessel shall then be, or where such Person shall be arrested and taken; and the Person so carried and conveyed shall be obliged to enter into a Recognizance to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, before such Justice, in the Sum of three hundred Pounds (which Recognizance such Justice is hereby authorised and required to take), with Condition to enter an Appearance in the Courts of Exchequer in England and Scotland respectively, within the first four Days of the Term next ensuing such Arrest, to any Information which shall or may be exhibited against him; and such Justice shall, and he is hereby required forthwith to transmit every such Recognizance to the King's Remembrancer in such of the said respective Courts; and if such Person shall refuse to enter into such Recognizance as aforesaid, then such Justice shall commit such Person to the next County Gaol, there to remain until he shall enter into such Recognizance.

Penalty of 300 l. on the Master of any Ship coming from abroad having more than 100 Pounds of Tea on Board (not being an East India Ship); or more than 100 Gallons of foreign Spirits (besides two Gallons for each Seaman on board), being in Casks under 60 Gallons. Officers of Customs or Excise may arrest such Masters, &c.

VIII. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, and for all other Persons acting in their Aid and Assistance, to arrest, stop, and detain, all and every Person and Persons who shall be found aiding or assisting in unshipping to be laid on Land any Tea, foreign Brandy, or other foreign Spirituous Liquors, or any Goods or Merchandises whatsoever (Customs and other Duties not being first paid or secured), or which are or may be prohibited to be imported into this Kingdom; and such Officer or Officers, and all Persons acting in their Aid and Assistance, shall forthwith carry and convey the said Person or Persons before one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace residing near to the Place where such Offences shall be committed; and such Justice or Justices shall, if he or they see Cause, commit such Person or Persons to the next County Gaol, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, until the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the same County or Place, to be tried and dealt with as by this Act is herein-after directed.

After Aug. 1, 1779, Officers of Customs or Excise, and their Assistants, may arrest all Persons found aiding in unshipping uncustomed or prohibited Goods; and carry them before a Justice, who may commit them.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, if any Persons, to the Number of two or more in Company, shall be found passing in any Part of this Kingdom with one or more Horse or Horses, or with any Cart or Carriage, whereon there shall be laden or put more than six Pounds Weight of Tea, or foreign Brandy, or other foreign Spirituous Liquors, exceeding the Quantity of five Gallons, not having paid the respective Duties by Law charged thereon, and not having an authentic Permit or Permits with the same; and shall carry any offensive Arms or Weapons, or wear any Vizard, Mask, or other Disguise, when passing with such Tea, or foreign Spirituous Liquors, as aforesaid; it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, and all other Persons acting in their Aid and Assistance, to stop, arrest, and detain, the Person and Persons so passing as aforesaid, in whose Charge, Care, Custody, or Possession, the said Tea, foreign Brandy, or other foreign Spirituous Liquors, or either of them, shall then be found; and the said Officer and Officers, and the Persons acting in their Aid and Assistance, shall and may, and they are hereby authorised to convey the Person or Persons, so offending as aforesaid, before any one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace; who, if he or they see Cause, shall commit the Offender or Offenders to the next County Gaol, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, till the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the County or Place, to be tried and dealt with as by this Act is herein-after directed.

Two or more Persons travelling together armed, or in Disguise, with any Horse or Carriage laden with more than six Pounds of Tea, or five Gallons of foreign Spirits, without a Permit, may be arrested by any Officers of Customs or Excise, and carried before a Justice, who may commit them.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, from and after the said first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, any Person or Persons whatsoever shall assault, resist, oppose, molest, obstruct, or hinder, any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise in due seizing or securing any Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-nuts, Chocolate, foreign Brandy, or other foreign Spirituous Liquors, or any other Goods whatsoever which by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise shall or may be liable to be seized by virtue of or in pursuance of any Act now in Force; or shall by Force or Violence rescue, or shall cause to be rescued, any of the said Goods, after the same shall have been seized by such Officer or Officers aforesaid, or shall attempt or endeavour so to do; or, after such Seizure, shall cut, stave, break, or otherwise destroy or damage any Casks, Vessels, Boxes, or Package, wherein the same respectively shall be contained; it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officers of the Customs and Excise, and for all Persons acting in their Aid and Assistance, to stop, arrest, and detain, all and every the Person and Persons so offending, and him, her, or them, forthwith to carry and convey before one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, near to the Place where the Offence shall be committed or done; and the Justice or Justices shall, if he or they see Cause, commit the Person or Persons, so brought before him or them, to the next County Gaol, until the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden for the same County or Place, there to be tried and dealt with as by this Act is herein-after directed.

Any Person after Aug. 1, 1779, who shall obstruct any Officer of Customs or Excise in seizing uncustomed or prohibited Goods; or shall attempt to rescue the same; or shall damage any Casks, &c. in which such Goods shall be contained; may be arrested by the Officers, the Offender,

&c. and carried before a Justice, who may commit

XI. And

Officers to enter into Recognizance to proſecute.

Charges of Proſecution to be paid by Receiver-general of Cuſtoms or Exciſe.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Officer or Officers who ſhall convey any Offender, arreſted by the Authority of this Act, before any Juſtice of the Peace as aforeſaid, ſhall, in caſe ſuch Offender ſhall be committed to the County Gaol as aforeſaid, enter into a Recognizance to his ſaid Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, before ſuch Juſtice, in the Sum of forty Pounds, conditioned to appear at ſuch General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, and to proſecute the Perſon ſo committed; and the Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms and Exciſe reſpectively are hereby directed and required to order the Charges of ſuch Proſecution to be paid out of any Money in the Hands of the Receiver-general of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe reſpectively, ariſing by any Branch of the Revenue under their reſpective Management.

Perſons committed as aforeſaid to be tried by the Quarter-Seſſions; who, on Conviction, ſhall commit the Offender to hard Labour in the Houſe of Correction of the County, &c.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be arreſted, detained, and committed, as aforeſaid, for any Offence againſt this Act, to any County Gaol, there to remain until the next General Quarter Seſſions as aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Juſtices at ſuch Seſſions, and they are hereby authoriſed and required to examine, hear, try, and determine, all and every ſuch Offence and Offences; and if the Perſon or Perſons ſo committed as aforeſaid, ſhall be duly convicted before them of any Offence againſt this Act, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Juſtices, at ſuch General Quarter Seſſions, and they are hereby reſpectively authoriſed and required, in Lieu of any other Puniſhment to which ſuch Offender or Offenders might be liable for the ſame Offence by any former Act, to commit ſuch Perſon or Perſons to hard Labour in the Houſe of Correction of the County, City, Town, or Place, there to remain for a Term not exceeding three Years, nor leſs than one Year.

But if ſuch Convict ſhall be deemed a proper Perſon to ſerve his Majeſty by Land or Sea, the Juſtices ſhall deliver him over to the proper Officer.

XIII. Provided always, That if any Perſon ſo convicted ſhall be approved of by any Officer of his Majeſty's Land Forces or Fleet, as an able and proper Perſon to ſerve his Majeſty, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Juſtices, at ſuch General Quarter Seſſions, and they are hereby reſpectively authoriſed and required, in Lieu of any other Puniſhment to which ſuch Offender may be liable by this or any former Act for the ſame Offence or Offences, to order and adjudge every ſuch Offender to ſerve his Majeſty as a Soldier or Sailor, and to cauſe ſuch Man to be delivered over to ſuch Officer of his Majeſty's Land Forces or Fleet, ſuch Officer giving a Receipt under his Hand acknowledging what Men are ſo delivered to him, which Receipt ſuch Officer is hereby required to give; and ſuch Officer may, in caſe he ſhall find it neceſſary, detain ſuch Man in ſome ſecure Houſe or Place; and no Perſon ſo delivered in purſuance of this Act ſhall be liable to be taken out of his Majeſty's Service by any Proceſs other than for ſome criminal Matter.

If Juſtices, at the Time of convicting any ſuch Offender, ſhall not be attended by a proper Officer, they may adjourn, and give Notice thereof to Officer, who ſhall attend in Perſon, or by Deputy.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the ſaid Juſtices in their Seſſions ſhall not be attended, at the Time of convicting ſuch Offender or Offenders as aforeſaid, by ſome proper Officer of his Majeſty's Land Forces or Fleet, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Juſtices to adjourn themſelves to ſome other convenient Day, and to give ſuch Directions as they ſhall think proper for ſecuring ſuch Offenders as aforeſaid, and to cauſe Notice to be given to any ſuch Officer of the Day and Place of ſuch Adjournment; and ſuch Officer is hereby required to attend, or appoint ſome other Perſon to attend, the ſaid Juſtices at ſuch Adjournment, and to receive ſuch Perſons as they ſhall adjudge or order to be ſo delivered as aforeſaid, in caſe ſuch Officer ſhall approve of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as able and proper to ſerve his Majeſty in Manner aforeſaid.

Juſtices may levy a Fine upon Gaoler, &c. for ſuffering an Eſcape, or on Pariſh Officers for making Default in Execution of Warrants, &c.

XV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Juſtices to impoſe upon any Gaoler, or Keeper of any Houſe of Correction, or of any Priſon, who ſhall ſuffer any Perſon, committed to his Cuſtody in purſuance of this Act, to eſcape, or upon any Conſtable, Headborough, Tithingman, or Pariſh or Town Officer, for every wilful Neglect or Default in the Execution of any Warrant, Order, or Precept, to them, or any of them, directed in purſuance of this Act, a Fine not exceeding ten Pounds, and to cauſe every ſuch Fine to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owners, and to pay the ſaid Fine to the Informer or Informers.

The Second and Sixth Sections of the Articles of War againſt Mutiny and Deſertion to be read to the Perſons delivered as aforeſaid, and the Oath tendered to them.

Juſtices to certify that ſuch Perſons are adjudged to ſerve his Majeſty, &c.; which Certificate, together with ſuch Men, ſhall be delivered to the proper Officers, and they ſhall be thereupon deemed to be inliſted.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices, upon ſuch Conviction as aforeſaid, and Delivery of ſuch Perſons to ſuch Officer or Officers receiving ſuch Perſons as aforeſaid, ſhall cauſe the ſecond and ſixth Sections of the Articles of War againſt Mutiny and Deſertion to be read to the Perſon ſo to be delivered as aforeſaid, in the Preſence of the ſaid Juſtices; and the ſaid Juſtices ſhall tender to every ſuch Perſon the Oath mentioned in the third Section of the Articles of War; and the ſaid Juſtices ſhall, and they are hereby required forthwith to certify under their Hands, that ſuch Perſon or Perſons is or are ordered and adjudged to ſerve his Majeſty, ſetting forth the Name, Age, Pariſh, and laſt Place of Abode, of him or them reſpectively, if known, and that the ſecond and ſixth Sections of the Articles of War againſt Mutiny and Deſertion were read to him or them, and that he or they had taken the Oath mentioned in the ſaid Articles of War, or had refuſed to take the ſaid Oath; and ſhall deliver ſuch Certificate, together with ſuch Man or Men, to the ſaid Officers or Perſons appointed to receive them, and ſuch Man or Men ſhall thereupon be deemed and taken to be inliſted, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, and ſhall and may be proceeded againſt as if he or they had taken the ſaid Oath according to the ſaid Articles of War; and the ſaid Juſtices ſhall alſo forthwith cauſe an Entry or Memorial to be made, in a Book or Books to be kept by them, or by the Clerks of the Peace of the County or Place, for that Purpoſe, of the Names of the Men ſo delivered as aforeſaid, the Ages, Pariſhes and Places of their laſt Abode, if they can be known, and of the Time and Place when and where ſuch Men were delivered to the ſaid Officers or Perſons appointed to receive them, and the Names of the Officers or Perſons who received them, and for what Regiment or Company, or Ship, they were ſo received; and ſhall cauſe true Copies or Duplicates of ſuch Entries, atteſted by the ſaid Juſtices or the Clerk of the Peace, within forty Days after the delivering ſuch Men as aforeſaid, to be tranſmitted into the Office of the Secretary at War, or into the Office of the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral.

An Entry to be made of the Names, Ages, and Places of Abode, &c. of the Men ſo delivered, and of the Names of the Officers who received them, &c.

'XVII. And, for the more effectually preventing any Frauds or Abuſes that may be practiſed in the 'diſcharging of ſuch Perſons,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon who ſhall be ordered and adjudged to ſerve his Majeſty as a Soldier or as a Sailor, by virtue of this Act, and ſhall have been approved of as aforeſaid, ſhall, on any Account, during the Term of five Years, unleſs diſabled within that Time by unavoidable Accident or bodily Infirmity, be diſcharged from his Majeſty's Service; and any Officer of his Majeſty's Land Forces, Marines, or Sea Service, who ſhall preſume, knowingly and wilfully, to diſcharge any Perſon ſo raiſed, levied, and delivered over, as aforeſaid, contrary to this Act, or ſhall, by falſe Muſter, or Certificate, or in Conſideration of a Gratuity of any Kind, or by any other colluſive or evaſive Ways or Means whatſoever, ſuffer or permit any ſuch Perſon to avoid the actual Service hereby intended, every ſuch Officer ſhall, for ſuch Offence, be caſhiered.

Perſons adjudged to ſerve his Majeſty by virtue of this Act (unleſs diſabled by Accident, &c.), ſhall not be diſcharged within five Years, nor ſuffered to avoid actual Service. Officers offending herein to be caſhiered.

'XVIII. And, for the better preventing the clandeſtine Sale and Diſpoſal of Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-nuts, 'Chocolate, foreign Brandy, or other foreign Spirituous Liquors, whereby the illegal Importation and 'Running of ſuch Goods is greatly encouraged, and that innocent Perſons may not unwarily be rendered 'liable to Penalties,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, every Druggiſt, Grocer, Chandler, Coffee-houſe Keeper, Chocolate-houſe Keeper, and all and every other Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall be a Seller of, or Dealer in, Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-nuts, or of any or either of them, or ſhall be a Maker or Seller of Chocolate, ſhall cauſe to be painted or written in large legible Characters over the Door of each and every Shop, Coffee-houſe, Chocolate-houſe, and other Place by him, her, or them reſpectively made uſe of for the keeping Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-nuts, or Chocolate, the Words Dealer in Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-nuts, or Chocolate, as the Caſe may be, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of two hundred Pounds for every Shop, Coffee-houſe, Chocolate-houſe, or Place, which, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, ſhall be ſo made uſe of by any ſuch Druggiſt, Grocer, Chandler, Coffee-houſe Keeper, Chocolate-houſe Keeper, or any other Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall be a Seller or Dealer as aforeſaid reſpectively, without having the ſaid Words painted or written thereon as aforeſaid: And that, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, all and every Importer for Sale, or Dealer in foreign Brandy, Arrack, Rum, Spirits, or other foreign Strong Waters, who ſhall ſell the ſame, either by Wholeſale or Retail, ſhall cauſe to be painted or written in large legible Characters, over the outer Door, or in the Front, or in ſome conſpicuous Part of each and every Houſe, Shop, Warehouſe, Storehouſe, Cellar, Vault, and other Places by him, her, or them reſpectively, made uſe of for the keeping of foreign Brandy, or other foreign Spirituous Liquors, the Words Importer of, or Dealer in, foreign Spirituous Liquors, upon Pain of forfeiting, for every ſuch Shop, Warehouſe, Storehouſe, Cellar, Vault, or other Place, which, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, ſhall be ſo made uſe of by any ſuch Importer, Seller, or Dealer reſpectively, without having the ſaid Words painted or written as is hereby directed, the Sum of fifty Pounds.

After Aug. 1, 1779, every Druggiſt, Grocer, or other Perſon, who ſhall ſell Coffee, Tea, or Cocoa-nuts, or make or ſell Chocolate, ſhall cauſe to be painted over the Door of his Shop, &c. the Words, 'Dealer in Coffee, Tea, &c.' on Penalty of 200l.: And every Importer for Sale, or Dealer in foreign Spirituous Liquors, ſhall cauſe to be painted over the outer Door, or in the Front of his Houſe, &c. the Words 'Importer of, or Dealer in, foreign Spirituous Liquors,' on Penalty of 50l. Additional Penalty of 100l. on every Dealer in Tea, Coffee, Cocoa-nuts, Chocolate, and on every Dealer in foreign Spirituous Liquors, reſpectively, who ſhall buy any of the ſaid Goods or Liquors of any Perſon not having the Words aforeſaid painted over the Door of his Shop, &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Dealer or Dealers in Tea, Coffee, Cocoa-nuts, or Chocolate, ſhall buy or procure, or employ any Perſon to buy for him, her, or them, or for his, her, or their Uſe, any Tea, Coffee, Cocoa-nuts, or Chocolate, of any other Perſon or Perſons than of a Dealer in ſuch Commodities, over the Door of whoſe Shop, Coffee-houſe, Chocolate-houſe, and other Place by him, her, or them reſpectively, made uſe of for the keeping of Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-nuts, or Chocolate, ſhall be painted or written, as aforeſaid, the Words Dealer in Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-nuts, or Chocolate, as the Caſe ſhall be, every ſuch Dealer ſo offending ſhall forfeit and loſe, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of one hundred Pounds, over and above all former Penalties; and if any Importer or Dealer in foreign Spirituous Liquors ſhall buy or procure, or employ any Perſon to buy for him, her, or them, or for his, her, or their Uſe, any foreign Spirituous Liquors of any other Perſon than of an Importer or Dealer, over the Door of whoſe Shop, Warehouſe, Storehouſe, Cellar, Vault, and other Place, by him, her, or them reſpectively, made uſe of for the keeping of foreign Brandy, and other foreign Spirituous Liquors, ſhall be written or painted, as aforeſaid, the Words Importer of, or Dealer in, foreign Spirituous Liquors; every ſuch Importer or Dealer ſo offending ſhall forfeit, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of one hundred Pounds, over and above all former Penalties.

Certain Caſes enumerated in which neither the Dealers in Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-nuts, or Chocolate,

XX. Provided always, That no ſuch Dealer in Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-nuts, or Chocolate, ſhall be ſubject to the ſaid Penalties of one hundred Pounds for or by reaſon of any Purchaſe or Transfer of any Tea, Coffee, or Cocoa-nuts, whilſt the ſame ſhall remain in the reſpective Warehouſes wherein the ſame ſhall be lodged and put, according to the Directions of an Act made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt; nor by reaſon of any Purchaſe of any Tea, Coffee, or Cocoa-nuts, or Chocolate, at any Sale or Sales made by the Direction of the Eaſt India Company, or of the Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms or Exciſe reſpectively; or at any Sale made of any Tea, Coffee, or Cocoa-nuts, ſold for the Benefit of the Inſurers or Proprietors thereof, and which may be ſold free of Duty to defray the Charges of Salvage; nor by reaſon of any firſt Purchaſe of any Prize Teas: Nor ſhall any ſuch Dealer in foreign Spirituous Liquors be ſubject to the ſaid Penalty of one hundred Pounds by reaſon of the Purchaſe of any foreign Spirituous Liquors, whilſt the ſame remain on board the Ships in which the ſame were lawfully imported, or on the Quays upon which they ſhall have been lawfully landed; nor to the Purchaſe of any Rum whilſt the ſame remains in any Warehouſe wherein the ſame ſhall have been put, according to the Directions of the Act of the fifteenth and ſixteenth Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second; nor to the Purchaſe of any Arrack whilſt the ſame remains in the Warehouſes of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies; nor to the Purchaſe of any Prize foreign Spirituous Liquors; nor to the Purchaſe of any foreign Spirituous Liquors ſold for the Benefit of the Inſurers or Proprietors thereof, and which may be ſold free of Duty to defray the Charges of Salvage; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

nor the Dealers in foreign Spirituous Liquors, ſhall be ſubject to the ſaid Penalty of 100l.

XX. And

Penalty on Perſons, not having made proper Entries at the Exciſe Office, who ſhall paint over their Doors, &c. the Words aforementioned.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if, at any Time after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, other than ſuch as ſhall have duly made Entry, at the proper Offices of Exciſe, of the Places by them reſpectively made uſe of for keeping of Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-nuts, or Chocolate, or for the keeping of foreign Brandy, or foreign Spirituous Liquors, ſhall paint or write, or cauſe to be painted or written, over the Door or in the Front of any Place to them reſpectively belonging, the Words Dealer in Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-nuts, or Chocolate, as the Caſe ſhall be, or the Words Importer of, or Dealer in, Spirituous Liquors, every Perſon and Perſons reſpectively offending therein, ſhall forfeit and loſe the Sum of fifty Pounds, and ſhall alſo be ſubject to the ſeveral Penalties and Forfeitures to which Perſons ſelling of, or dealing in, Coffee, Tea, Cocoa-nuts, Chocolate, or foreign Spirituous Liquors, without Entry, are now ſubject unto.

If any Perſon, not being ſuch Importer or Dealer as aforeſaid, ſhall buy any Tea, Coffee, &c. or foreign Spirituous Liquors (except as before excepted), of any Perſon not having the aforementioned Words painted over his Door, &c. he ſhall forfeit 10 l.

If the Seller of any Tea, &c. contrary to this Act ſhall, within 20 Days, and before any Information has been lodged againſt him, inform againſt the Buyer, the ſaid Seller ſhall be indemnified from all Penalties for his own Offence.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon whatſoever, not being ſuch Importer or Dealer as aforeſaid, ſhall buy or procure, or employ any other to buy for him or her, any Tea, Coffee, Cocoa-nuts, Chocolate, foreign Brandy, or any other foreign Spirituous Liquors (ſave and except at ſuch Sales, and in ſuch Manner as is herein-before provided and excepted), of any other Perſon or Perſons than of ſuch Perſon or Perſons reſpectively over whoſe Door, or in the Front, or on ſome conſpicuous Part of whoſe Houſe, Shop, Warehouſe, Storehouſe, Cellar, Vault, or other Place, ſuch Words ſhall be painted or written as aforeſaid; every ſuch Perſon ſo buying, or ſo procuring or employing any other to buy for him, her, or them, any ſuch Goods as aforeſaid, ſhall, for each Offence, forfeit and loſe the Sum of ten Pounds; and if the Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall have ſold any Tea, Coffee, Cocoa-nuts, or Chocolate, foreign Brandy, or other foreign Spirituous Liquors, to any Dealer therein, or to any other Perſon or Perſons, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, ſhall, within twenty Days next after ſuch Sale, and before any Information has been lodged againſt him or them for ſuch Offence, diſcover and inform againſt the Perſon or Perſons who bought, or who procured or employed any other to buy for him, her, or them, ſuch Tea, Coffee, Cocoa-nuts, or Chocolate, foreign Brandy, or other foreign Spirituous Liquors, as aforeſaid, every ſuch Perſon ſo diſcovering and informing ſhall thereupon be diſcharged and indemnified from all Penalties to which, at the Time of ſuch Information given, he might be liable, for or by reaſon of ſuch his own Offence.

Recital of an Act 19 Geo. II.

'XXIII. And whereas by an Act, made in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King 'George the Second, intituled, An Act for the further Puniſhment of Perſons going armed or diſguiſed in Defi- 'ance of the Laws of Cuſtoms or Exciſe; and for indemnifying Offenders againſt thoſe Laws upon the Terms in 'this Act mentioned; and for the Relief of Officers of the Cuſtoms in Informations upon Seizures; and which 'ſaid Act was to continue in Force for the Space of ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the next 'Seſſion of Parliament; and which, by ſeveral ſubſequent Statutes, of the twenty-ſixth and thirty-ſecond 'Years of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, and the fourth, eleventh, and eighteenth Years of the Reign of 'his preſent Majeſty, was further continued until the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven 'hundred and eighty-five, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; Perſons 'charged with being guilty of Offences in the ſaid Act mentioned and preſcribed, were required to ſurrender 'themſelves within a Time limited by the ſaid Act, and that on Neglect or Refuſal of Surrender, ſuch 'Perſons were to be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be convicted and attainted of Felony: And whereas 'Doubts have ariſen whether the Methods and Orders in the ſaid Act directed and preſcribed, relative to the 'apprehending and harbouring the Offenders therein mentioned, or for cauſing ſuch Offenders to ſurrender, 'are or were re-enacted and continued by the ſaid ſeveral Acts: Now, to put an End to ſuch Doubts,' be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Methods, Orders, Directions, Rules, Proclamations, Penalties, Puniſhments, Rewards, Matters, and Things, provided, ordered, ſettled, directed, impoſed, given, and required, by the ſaid Act of the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, relative to the Surrender, proclaiming, apprehending, harbouring, and puniſhing ſuch Offenders, was, were, and are continued and re-enacted by the ſaid ſeveral Acts, made in the twenty-ſixth and thirty-ſecond Years of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, and in the fourth, eleventh, and eighteenth Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and the ſame may be lawfully exerciſed, practiſed, applied, uſed, and impoſed, in regard to all and every Perſon and Perſons that offend, or ſhall in future offend, againſt the ſaid Act of the nineteenth Year of his ſaid late Majeſty.

All the Rules, Penalties, and Rewards, in the recited Act contained, relative to the Surrender, and harbouring, &c. of the Offenders therein mentioned, are continued by the ſeveral Acts made for continuing the ſaid recited Act.

All foreign Thread Lace, imported after Aug. 1, 1779, to be marked at each End of every Piece.

XXIV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all foreign Thread Lace which, from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, ſhall be imported into this Kingdom, ſhall, after the ſame hath been entered at the Cuſtom-houſe, and before it ſhall be diſcharged by the Officers, and delivered into the Cuſtody of the Importer, or his Agent, be marked or ſealed at each End of every Piece, with ſuch Mark or Seal, and by ſuch Officer or Officers, as the reſpective Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in Great Britain ſhall direct and appoint for that Purpoſe.

All Perſons poſſeſſed of foreign Thread Lace may, on or before Feb. 1, 1780, bring the ſame to the neareſt Cuſtom-houſe, and have it marked, on making Oath that the Import Duties were paid, &c.

XXV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, having in his, her, or their Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion, in any Part of this Kingdom, for Sale, any foreign Thread Lace ſo directed to be marked or ſealed as aforeſaid, ſhall, on or before the firſt Day of February, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty, bring or cauſe ſuch Lace to be brought to the Cuſtom-houſe for the Port neareſt to the Place where ſuch Lace ſhall be, and ſhall make Proof on Oath before the Collector and Comptroller, or other principal Officer of the Cuſtoms at ſuch Port (which Oath ſuch Collector and Comptroller, or other Officer, is and are hereby required to adminiſter without Fee or Reward), that the legal Duties due and payable to his Majeſty were paid upon the Importation of ſuch Lace, if the ſame was imported by him, her, or them, or that ſuch Lace was purchaſed by ſuch Perſon or Perſons (having Poſſeſſion thereof) in a legal fair Way of Trade, and that he, ſhe, or they, verily believe the legal Duties due and payable to his Majeſty have been duly paid for the ſame, mentioning the Time when, and the Port where, ſuch Lace was imported, or the Time when, and of whom, ſuch Lace was purchaſed, as the Caſe may be, ſuch Lace ſhall be thereupon, without Fee or Reward, marked or ſealed at each End of every Piece with ſuch Mark or Seal, and by ſuch Officer or Officers, as the reſpective Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in Great Britain, or any three or more of them, ſhall direct and appoint for that Purpoſe.

Perſons intending to export ſuch Lace, to give Notice to proper Officer, XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, every Perſon intending to export any ſuch foreign Thread Lace which ſhall have been marked or ſealed purſuant to the Directions of this Act, ſhall, before ſuch Lace is ſhipped in order to be exported, give Notice to the proper Officer or Officers, to be appointed for that Purpoſe by the reſpective Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in Great Britain, when and where he will pack up the ſame in order to be exported; and the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms are hereby impowered and required to cauſe ſuch Officer or Officers to take Care that ſuch Marks or Seals be taken off from every Piece ſo intended to be exported, without Fee or Reward; and no Perſon ſhall be intitled to the Drawback allowed upon the Exportation of ſuch Lace, unleſs he ſhall have given ſuch Notice as herein-before is directed, and until ſuch Marks or Seals ſhall be taken off by the proper Officer or Officers as aforeſaid.

who is to ſee that the Marks are all taken off, otherwiſe no Drawback to be allowed.

All foreign Thread Lace found in this Kingdom, after Feb. 1, 1780, not marked as aforeſaid, ſhall be forfeited.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the firſt Day of February, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty, in caſe any foreign Thread Lace ſhall be found in any Shop, Warehouſe, or other Place whatſoever, upon Land, within this Kingdom, not being marked or ſealed, as herein-before is directed, upon both Ends of every whole and entire Piece, or upon one End of every Remnant of ſuch Lace, the ſame ſhall be forfeited and loſt, and ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms, and ſhall and may be proſecuted, recovered, and diſpoſed of in the ſame Manner, and by the ſame Rules and Regulations, as foreign Thread Lace, clandeſtinely imported and run into this Kingdom, may be proſecuted, recovered, and diſpoſed of, by any Law now in Force.

Penalty on counterfeiting any Mark or Seal uſed in purſuance of this Act, or on having in Poſſeſſion any foreign Thread Lace marked or ſealed with ſuch Counterfeit.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time forge or counterfeit any Mark or Seal, to reſemble any Mark or Seal which ſhall be provided or uſed in purſuance of this Act, or ſhall forge or counterfeit the Impreſſion of any ſuch Mark or Seal upon any Goods required by this Act to be marked or ſealed, or ſhall ſell, or expoſe to Sale, or have in his, her, or their Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion, any ſuch foreign Thread Lace with a counterfeit Mark or Seal thereon, knowing the ſame to be counterfeited; all and every ſuch Offender and Offenders, and his, her, and their Aiders, Abettors, and Aſſiſtants, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, one Moiety to his Majeſty, and the other Moiety to ſuch Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms as ſhall ſue and proſecute for the ſame; and ſuch Offender and Offenders ſhall alſo be adjudged to ſtand in the Pillory, in ſome public Place, for the Space of two Hours.

Every Perſon who, before June 1, 1779, ſhall have been guilty of any Offence againſt the Laws of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, and for which no Proſecution has been commenced, &c. is indemnified by this Act, on the Conditions following; videlicet,

'XXIX. And whereas, at the ſame Time that the Laws for ſecuring the Revenues of Cuſtoms and Exciſe ought to be enforced, for the Sake of the Fair Trader, and the Honour and Dignity of Government, 'it may be proper to pardon ſuch of thoſe who have been heretofore guilty of ſuch illegal Practices, who 'are deſirous to make ſuch Atonement for their paſt Offences, by dedicating themſelves to the Service of 'their King and Country,' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon who, before the firſt Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, ſhall have been guilty of illegal running, loading, unſhipping, concealing, receiving, or carrying, any Wool, prohibited Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, or any foreign Goods liable to the Payment of Duties of Cuſtoms or Exciſe (the ſame Duties not having been paid or ſecured), or of aiding or aſſiſting therein, or ſhall have been armed with Fire-arms, or other offenſive Arms or Weapons, in order to be aiding or aſſiſting any ſuch Offenders as have been guilty of receiving ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandiſes, or ſuch foreign Goods as aforeſaid, where Duties had not been paid for or ſecured, after Seizure from the Officers of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, or of any other Act or Matter whatſoever whereby Perſons may be deemed and taken to be Runners of foreign Goods and Commodities, within the Intent and Meaning of any Law now in Force; or of hindering, oppoſing, obſtructing, wounding, or beating, any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, in the Execution of his or their Office or Duty, or of aiding or aſſiſting therein; ſhall be, and are, by the Authority of this preſent Act, acquitted, indemnified, releaſed, and diſcharged, againſt the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, or Officers of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, and every of them, and all and every other Perſon and Perſons, of and from all and every the ſaid Offences, concerning which no Suit or Information, or Proſecution, ſhall have been commenced, or Compoſition made or offered, before the ſaid firſt Day of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, upon the following Terms and Conditions; (that is to ſay,) That he do, before he ſhall be arreſted for the ſame, and before the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, inliſt or enter himſelf with ſome Commiſſion Officer of his Majeſty's Land Forces or Fleet, to ſerve as a Soldier or Sailor in the Army or Fleet, and do, for three Years at leaſt, from the Time of ſuch Inliſting or Entry, actually and bona fide ſerve and do Duty as ſuch in the ſaid Army or Fleet; and ſhall alſo, before the ſaid twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, regiſter his Name, Employment, and uſual Place of Abode, with the Clerk of the Peace of the County, Riding, or Diviſion, where he reſides, in a Book which is hereby directed to be kept by the ſaid Clerk among the Records of the Seſſions for the ſaid County, Riding, or Diviſion, for this Purpoſe; and ſhall ſign ſuch Regiſter, ſignifying that he claims the Benefit of this Act, and that he has inliſted or entered himſelf with a certain Commiſſion Officer, by the Name of his Majeſty's Land Forces or Fleet, as the Caſe ſhall be, to ſerve as a Soldier or Sailor, which Entry ſhall be in the following Form:

That, before Sept. 29, 1779, and before he ſhall be arreſted for ſuch Offence, he enter himſelf to ſerve as a Soldier or Sailor for three Years, and do Duty as ſuch; and ſhall alſo, before Sept. 29, 1779, regiſter his Name, &c. with the Clerk of the Peace, and ſign ſuch Regiſter.

'A. B. of claims the Benefit of an Act of the nineteenth Year of his Majeſty King 'George the Third, and has entered himſelf with C. D. a Commiſſion Officer of his Majeſty's Land Forces Form of Entry.

'[or Fleet], and has regiſtered his Name in the Book kept by the Clerk of the Peace of this County
'(Riding, or Diviſion), this Day of purſuant to the Directions of the 'ſaid Act.'

Clerk of the Peace to tranſmit to Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms, &c. an Account of all Perſons who have regiſtered their Names.

For which Entry or Regiſter, there ſhall be paid the Clerk of the Peace for ſuch County, Riding, or Diviſion, one Shilling, and no more; and that the ſaid Clerk of the Peace ſhall, immediately after the ſaid twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, tranſmit to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe an exact Account of all the Perſons who have, by ſuch Entry or Regiſter as aforeſaid, entitled themſelves to claim the Benefit of this Act.

Penalty on Perſons claiming the Benefit of this Act, who ſhall afterwards be guilty of the like Offences, or who ſhall deſert, &c.

XXX. Provided always, That every Perſon who ſhall make ſuch Entry, and claim the Benefit of this preſent Act as aforeſaid, and ſhall afterwards be guilty of, or commit any of the like Offences as thoſe herein-before mentioned, or hereby intended to be acquitted, releaſed, and diſcharged, or ſhall at any Time after deſert from the ſaid Service, or, within the ſaid Term of three Years, procure his Diſcharge therefrom, ſhall be ſubject and liable to be proſecuted, not only for or in reſpect of ſuch new Offence, but ſhall alſo be ſubject and liable to all the ſame Penalties, Pains, and Forfeitures, as he would have incurred or been ſubject and liable to, in caſe this Indemnity had never been given; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Penalty on Officer ſuffering ſuch Perſons to avoid actual Service.

XXXI. Provided alſo, That if any Officer of his Majeſty's Land Forces or Navy ſhall, by falſe Muſter or Certificate, or by any other colluſive or evaſive Ways or Means whatſoever, ſuffer or permit ſuch Perſon or Perſons to avoid the actual Service as aforeſaid, ſuch Perſon ſhall not only loſe the Benefit of this Act, but every ſuch Officer ſhall ſuffer the Penalty of five hundred Pounds.

Any Juſtice, on Complaint made of any Officer for Neglect of Duty, may examine into the ſame; and if there appear reaſonable Grounds of Complaint, the Juſtice ſhall tranſmit the Complaint, with the Examinations taken before him, to the Commiſſioners, &c. who may diſmiſs the Officer, &c.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Officer of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe ſhall not uſe his beſt Endeavours to ſeize any Tea, Coffee, foreign Brandy, or other foreign Spirituous Liquors liable to Forfeiture, and which it ſhall be the Duty of ſuch Officer to ſeize; or to ſtop, detain, and carry and convey before one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, any Perſon or Perſons whom ſuch Officer is hereby authoriſed to ſtop, detain, and carry and convey before one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace; that then, and in any of the ſaid Caſes, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace reſiding near to the Place where ſuch Officer ſhall make Default in the Performance of his Duty, upon Complaint thereof made to ſuch Juſtice within three Months after ſuch Default, to examine into the Truth of ſuch Complaint upon the Oath of credible Perſons, which Oath ſuch Juſtice is hereby authoriſed to adminiſter; and if it ſhall appear to ſuch Juſtice that there is a reaſonable Ground for ſuch Complaint, then ſuch Juſtice is hereby required to tranſmit the ſaid Complaint, together with the Examinations taken before him thereon, unto the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, if the Officer complained againſt ſhall belong to the Cuſtoms; and if ſuch Officer ſhall belong to the Exciſe, then unto the Commiſſioners of Exciſe; which Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe reſpectively, are hereby required to make Enquiry, by ſuch Ways and Means as to them ſhall ſeem meet, into the Truth of the ſaid Complaint; and in caſe they think fit on the Ground thereof to diſmiſs the Officer, againſt whom ſuch Complaint ſhall be made, from his Majeſty's Service, then ſuch Officer is hereby made incapable of executing any Office in his Majeſty's Revenue of Cuſtoms or Exciſe for the future: Provided nevertheleſs, That no Perſon ſhall be compelled to go above five Miles from the uſual Place of his Abode to be examined before any Juſtice of the Peace upon any Complaint to be made to him as aforeſaid.

No Perſon proſecuted under this Act, liable to any other Proſecution for the ſame Offence.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon who ſhall be proſecuted or puniſhed by any of the Proviſions in this Act, ſhall be liable to be proſecuted or puniſhed for the ſame Offence by any other Act or Acts; any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. LXX.

An Act for extending the Provisions of an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King George the First, intituled, An Act to prevent frivolous and vexatious Arrests; and for other Purposes.

Preamble. Recital of an Act 12 Geo. I.

'WHEREAS in and by an Act of Parliament, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King George the First (intituled, An Act to prevent frivolous and vexatious Arrests), it is enacted, That, 'from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, no Person 'shall be held to Special Bail upon any Process issuing out of any superior Court, where the Cause of 'Action shall not amount to the Sum of ten Pounds, or upwards, nor out of any inferior Court, where 'the Cause of Action shall not amount to the Sum of forty Shillings, or upwards: And whereas the Power 'of Arrest and Imprisonment, on mesne Process issuing out of such inferior Court, where the Cause of 'Action does not amount to ten Pounds, is found by Experience to be attended with much Oppression to 'great Numbers of his Majesty's Subjects; for Remedy whereof,' be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, no Person shall be arrested or held to Special Bail, upon any Process issuing out of any inferior Court, where the Cause of Action shall not amount to the Sum of ten Pounds, or upwards; but that the like Copies of Process shall be served (for the Service of which Process, a Sum not exceeding two Shillings and Six-pence shall be allowed in Costs), and the like Proceedings shall be had thereupon in such inferior Court, in all Cases where the Cause of Action shall not amount to the Sum of ten Pounds, or upwards, as are directed to be had, by the said recited Act, in such inferior Court in all Cases where the Cause of Action shall not amount to the Sum of forty Shillings; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

After July 1, 1779, no Person shall be arrested, or held to special Bail, upon any Process issuing out of an inferior Court, for less than 10 l.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the first Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, in all Cases in such inferior Court (having Jurisdiction to the Amount of ten Pounds, or upwards) where the Cause of Action shall amount to ten Pounds, or upwards, the like Affidavit shall be made and filed of such Cause of Action, and the like Proceedings shall be had thereupon, as are directed by the said recited Act to be had, where the Cause of Action amounts to the Sum of forty Shillings, or upwards, in such inferior Court.

Proceedings in inferior Courts, in Causes of 10 l. or upwards, shall be the same as by the recited Act are ordered in Causes of 40 s. or upwards.

'III. And whereas divers Acts of Parliament have passed for the Recovery of Debts within certain Dis'tricts and Jurisdictions, which may have authorised the Arrest and Imprisonment of Defendants, where 'the Cause of Action amounts to less than ten Pounds;' be it enacted, That so much of such Act or Acts of Parliament as gives such Power shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

So much of all Acts for Recovery of Small Debts, as authorises Imprisonment of Defendants for less than 10 l. repealed.

'IV. And, forasmuch as Persons served with Process issuing out of inferior Courts, where the Debt is un'der ten Pounds, may, in order to avoid Execution, remove their Persons and Effects beyond the Limits of 'the Jurisdiction of such Courts;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where final Judgment shall be obtained, in any Action or Suit in any inferior Court of Record, it shall and may be lawful to and for any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, upon Affidavit made and filed therein of such Judgment being obtained, and of diligent Search and Enquiry having been made after the Person or Persons of the Defendant or Defendants, or his, her, or their Effects, and of Execution having issued against the Person or Persons, or Effects, as the Case may be, of the Defendant or Defendants, and that the Person or Persons, or Effects, of the Defendant or Defendants, are not to be found within the Jurisdiction of such inferior Court, which Affidavit may be made before a Judge or Commissioner authorised to take Affidavits, and such superior Court, to cause the Record of the said Judgment to be removed into such superior Court, to issue Writs of Execution thereupon to the Sheriff of any County, City, Liberty, or Place, against the Person or Persons, or Effects, of the Defendant or Defendants, in the same Manner as upon Judgments obtained in the said Courts at Westminster; and the Sheriff, upon every such Execution, shall, and he is hereby authorised to detain the Defendant or Defendants, until the Sum of twenty Shillings be paid to him, or to levy the same out of the Effects, according to the Nature of the Execution, for the extraordinary Costs of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in the inferior Court subsequent to the said Judgment, and of the Execution in the superior Court, over and above the Money for which such Execution shall be issued.

In all Cases where final Judgment shall be obtained in an inferior Court, and Affidavit made thereof in any Court of Record at Westminster, and of Execution having issued against the Person or Effects of the Defendant, and that the same cannot be found within the Jurisdiction of the inferior Court; the Record of such Judgment may be removed into the superior Court, and Writs of Execution issued to the Sheriff of any County, &c.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, no Execution shall be stayed or delayed, upon or by any Writ of Error, or Supersedeas thereon to be sued, for the reversing of any Judgment given, or to be given, in any inferior Court of Record, where the Damages are under ten Pounds, unless such Person or Persons, in whose Name or Names such Writ of Error shall be brought, with two sufficient Sureties, such as the Court (wherein such Judgment is or shall be given) shall allow of, shall first, before such Stay made or Supersedeas to be awarded, be bound unto the Party for whom any such Judgment is or shall be given, by Recognizance, to be acknowledged in the same Court, in double the Sum adjudged to be recovered by the said former Judgment, to prosecute the said Writ of Error with Effect, and also to satisfy and pay (if the said Judgment be affirmed, or the said Writ of Error be non-pros'd) all and singular Upon what Conditions Execution shall be stayed upon any Writ of Error, &c. for reversing Judgment given in an inferior Court, where the Damages are under 10 l.

the Debt, Damages, and Costs, adjudged or to be adjudged, and all Costs and Damages to be awarded for the same delaying of Execution.

No Cause under 10 l. to be removed into a superior Court, unless the Defendant become bound to pay Debt and Costs if Judgment pass against him.

VI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Cause, where the Cause of Action shall not amount to the Sum of ten Pounds, or upwards, shall be removed or removeable into any superior Court, by any Writ of Habeas Corpus, or otherwise, unless the Defendant, who shall be desirous of removing such Cause, shall enter into the like Recognizance for Payment of the Debt and Costs, in case Judgment shall pass against him.

CAP. LXXI.

An Act for granting to his Majesty a certain Sum of Money out of the Sinking Fund; and for applying certain Monies therein mentioned for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine; and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

"WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies which we have chearfully granted to your Majesty in this Session of Parliament, have resolved to give and grant to your Majesty the Sum herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; &c.'

CAP. LXXII.

An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual, the several Laws now in being relative to the Militia Forces of this Kingdom; and for making certain Provisions relative to the Fencible Men in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS many Advantages may arise from further Regulations in the Militia Laws,' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of an Act, made in the eighteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign (intituled, An Act to amend and render more effectual the Laws relating to the raising and training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England; and to establish certain Regulations with respect to Officers serving in the Corps of Fencible Men directed to be raised in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and certain other Corps therein mentioned), as relates to the Relief to be given to the Families of Substitutes serving in the Militia, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

So much of 18 Geo. III. Cap. 59, as relates to the Relief to be given to the Families of Substitutes, repealed.

'II. And whereas the Families of Substitutes, hired Men, or Volunteers, serving in the Militia, when 'embodied and called out into actual Service, and ordered to march, may become chargeable to the Pa- 'rishes to which they belong;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Substitute, whose Family may so become chargeable, shall not serve for the Parish where his Family shall dwell, it shall be lawful for the Justice of the Peace, who shall make any Order for the Relief of such Family, at the same Time to direct the Overseers of the Parish for which he shall serve, to reimburse the Money so paid to the Overseer or Overseers who shall have advanced the same, in pursuance of the Order before-mentioned, if such Parish shall be situated within the same County; and if such Parish shall be situated in any other County, the said Justice shall cause the same to be reimbursed in Manner herein-after mentioned.

How the Families of Substitutes, that may become chargeable, shall be supported.

III. Provided always, That no such Allowance shall occasion such Family to be removeable or compelled to be sent to any Workhouse or Poorhouse, nor shall such Substitute be thereby deprived of his legal Settlement elsewhere, nor of his Right of voting for the Election of Members to serve in Parliament.

Family of Substitute not to be sent to the Workhouse, &c. nor he deprived of voting.

of his Privilege

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Substitute, whose Family shall be relieved as aforesaid, shall serve for any Parish situate in another County, the Monies advanced by the Overseers of the Parish, Township or Place, where the Family shall dwell, shall be repaid them out of the County Stock by the Treasurer of the County to which the Parish, Township, or Place, shall belong, on producing a Certificate of the Order of the Justice allowing such Relief (which Certificate such Justice is hereby required to grant accordingly); and the Treasurer who shall so repay such Overseer, shall transmit such Certificate, and also an Account of all Monies so repaid by him from Time to Time, quarterly, to the Treasurer of the County, Riding, or Place, in the Militia whereof such Substitute shall serve; and the Treasurer to whom the same shall have been so transmitted, shall forthwith reimburse the same to the Treasurer from whom the said Account was received; which Account so received and reimbursed, shall be laid before the Justices of the Peace at their next General or Quarter Session which shall be held for such County, Riding, or Place, for their Allowance thereof; and the said Justices shall, and they are hereby required to allow the same accordingly, and forthwith to make an Order for the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, Township, or Place, for which such Substitute shall serve, to make good the same to the Treasurer of the County, out of the Poor Rates of such Parish, Township or Place; and all Payments so made by such Treasurer or Treasurers, Overseer or Overseers, in pursuance of such Order or Orders of such Justice or Justices, shall be allowed and passed in their respective Accounts, in like Manner as other Expences

In case the Family of a Substitute become chargeable to his Parish, and he serve for a Parish in a different County, then his Parish shall be reimbursed out of the Stock of the County for which he serves. Accounts to be laid before the Quarter Sessions; who are to order the Overseers of the Parish for which the Substitute serves to make good the same to the County Treasurer out of the Parish Rates.

Expences incurred on account of the Militia are by the Militia Laws now in being directed to be paſſed and allowed.

Proviſo relating to peculiar Juriſdictions.

V. Provided always, That in all Places having peculiar Juriſdictions, and not contributing to the County, ſuch Account ſhall be made over to the Treaſurer, Receiver, or other public Officer belonging to ſuch peculiar Juriſdiction, to be by him reimburſed, accounted for, and allowed, in Manner aforeſaid.

Captain-lieutenants to be appointed. Their Rank.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for his Majeſty's Lieutenants of Counties to appoint Captain-lieutenants to all Regiments or Battalions of Militia to which ſuch Appointment hath not been already made; and that all Captain-lieutenants ſhall rank with the Officers of his Majeſty's other Forces of equal Degree as youngeſt of their Rank.

Qualifications of Captain-lieutenants.

VII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the future all Perſons to be appointed Captain-lieutenants, ſhall have the ſame Qualifications as Perſons ſerving as Captains are required to have; provided that it ſhall not be neceſſary for any Perſon having acted as Captain-lieutenant before the firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, to hold any other Qualification than as a Lieutenant.

Officers who have neglected to qualify themſelves agreeable to Militia Act 18 Geo. III. not liable to the Penalties thereof:

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Officer or Officers of Militia ſhall have neglected or omitted to deliver in his or their ſeveral reſpective Qualification or Qualifications, agreeable to the Directions of an Act, made in the eighteenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign (intituled, An Act to amend and render more effectual the Laws relating to the raiſing and training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England; and to eſtabliſh certain Regulations with reſpect to Officers ſerving in the Corps of Fencible Men directed to be raiſed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and certain other Corps therein mentioned), ſuch Officer or Officers, notwithſtanding ſuch Omiſſion or Neglect, ſhall not be ſubject or liable to any of the Penalties impoſed by the ſaid recited Act; and all Acts done by them in virtue of their reſpective Commiſſions as Officers in the Militia are hereby declared to be valid and of full Effect; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Provided they ſhall ſo qualify themſelves on or before the Firſt of Dec. next,

IX. Provided always, That this Act ſhall not extend to prevent ſuch Officer or Officers, who ſhall neglect or omit to deliver in his or their reſpective Qualification or Qualifications, on or before the firſt Day of December next, according to the Directions of the Act of the eighteenth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, to amend and render more effectual the Laws relating to the raiſing and training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England; and to eſtabliſh certain Regulations with reſpect to Officers ſerving in the Corps of Fencible Men directed to be raiſed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and certain other Corps therein mentioned, from being liable to the Penalties impoſed by the ſame for ſuch Neglect or Omiſſion.

All Militia Officers above the Rank of Lieutenant, to tranſmit to the Clerk of the Peace, on or before the firſt of Dec. next, or within ſix Months after accepting their Commiſſions, a Deſcription of their Qualifications, &c.

X. And be it further enacted, That every Officer now holding, or hereafter accepting a Commiſſion as Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, Major, or Captain, in the Militia, ſhall, on or before the firſt Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, or within ſix Months after having accepted any ſuch Commiſſion in future, tranſmit to the Clerk of the Peace of the County in the Militia whereof ſuch Officer ſhall ſerve, a true Deſcription of his Qualification for holding ſuch Commiſſion as aforeſaid, and alſo a Certificate of his having taken the Oaths required; and the Clerk of the Peace ſhall forthwith enter and inrol the ſame, and alſo ſhall tranſmit to the Lieutenant of the ſaid County, a true Copy of every ſuch Liſt and Certificate ſo entered as aforeſaid; and the Lieutenant ſhall (unleſs juſt Cauſe be ſhewn to the contrary within the Time by this Act limited), on Receipt thereof, give Notice to the Officer or Officers who ſhall not have been certified by the Clerk of the Peace to have entered his or their Qualification, that he ſhall proceed to the Appointment of other fit Perſons to ſerve in the Militia, if proper Perſons duly qualified ſhall offer themſelves for ſuch Service, in the Room of ſuch Officers as ſhall, at the Time or Times above mentioned, have omitted ſo to deliver in the ſaid Liſts and Certificates reſpectively; and ſuch Lieutenant ſhall, and he is hereby required and directed to declare, in the London Gazette, within ſix Weeks, the Commiſſion of ſuch Officer to be vacant, and ſhall proceed to ſuch Appointment accordingly: And that, for the better aſcertaining the Time of granting any ſuch Commiſſions, the ſaid Lieutenants ſhall, from Time to Time, cauſe to be inſerted in the London Gazette, the Dates of the Commiſſion, and Names and Rank of the Officers, together with the Names of the Officers in whoſe Stead they are ſo commiſſioned, in like Manner as Commiſſions in the Army are publiſhed from the War-office; and the ſaid Clerk or Clerks of the Peace ſhall, on or before the firſt Day of December in every Year, tranſmit to one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, in order that they may be laid before Parliament, a true Copy of all Entries to be made and inrolled, and alſo an Account of all Returns ſo tranſmitted by him to the ſaid Lieutenants, together with the Dates of the ſaid Entries and Returns; and every ſuch Clerk of the Peace being guilty of any Neglect herein, ſhall be liable to the ſame Penalties as by the Militia Laws now in being are impoſed on Clerks of the Peace for any Neglect of Duty.

How Lord Lieutenant to proceed reſpecting thoſe Officers who ſhall neglect to deliver in their Qualifications.

Account to be publiſhed in the Gazette of the Dates of the new Commiſſions, &c. and the Names of the Officers whom they ſucceed.

Penalty on Perſons who ſhall receive Money to ſerve as Subſtitutes, and ſhall neglect to appear to be ſworn, agreeable to Act 2 Geo. III.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall take and receive of and from any Man ballotted to ſerve in the ſaid Militia, or of and from any Perſon employed by him for that Purpoſe, any Sum or Sums of Money for the Purpoſe of ſerving as a Subſtitute in the Militia, in the Room of ſuch ballotted Man, as aforeſaid, and ſhall afterwards neglect to appear at the uſual Meeting appointed for ſwearing the Militia Man, or before ſome one Deputy Lieutenant, in the Manner and according to the Directions of an Act, made in the ſecond Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign (intituled, An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the ſeveral Laws now in being relating to the raiſing and training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England), ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo neglecting as aforeſaid, upon Conviction thereof before any Juſtice of the Peace, or before any Deputy Lieutenants at their ſaid Meeting, ſhall not only return the Sum ſo by him taken and received, but ſhall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding twenty Shillings, to be paid to the ballotted Man, or to the Poor of the Pariſh, at the Diſcretion of the Juſtices or Deputy Lieutenants; and if ſuch Offender ſhall not immediately pay the Sum ſo by him received, and the ſaid Penalty, he ſhall be committed to the Houſe of Correction for the Space of fourteen Days.

Commanding Officer of every Company of Militia to lay out, to the moſt Advantage of each Man under his Command, the Guinea to which he is entitled, by Act 2 Geo. III. on receiving Orders to march out of the County.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Captain, or other commanding Officer of each Company of Militia, to lay out, in the Manner moſt advantageous for the Militia Man under his Command, the Sum of one Guinea, which, by the ſaid recited Act, paſſed in the ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, is directed to be paid to all Militia Men, when the Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, to which they belong, is ordered to be embodied, and march out of the County, and to every Recruit who ſhall afterwards join the Regiment, Battalion, or Company, giving an Account, within three Months, or as ſoon as deſired, to the Militia Man ſo intitled to receive the ſaid Sum of one Guinea, how ſuch Money has been expended.

Deputy Lieutenants, &c. who have ballotted and ſworn in Militia Men before the Time appointed by Law, are hereby indemnified, and their Proceedings declared valid.

'XIII. And whereas the Deputy Lieutenants, Chief Magiſtrates, and Juſtices of the Peace, in ſeveral 'Counties, Cities, and Places, where the Militia have been raiſed, have, in ſome Inſtances, proceeded to 'chuſe by Lot, and to ſwear in Militia Men and Subſtitutes for ſuch reſpective Counties, Cities, and 'Places, previous to the Times at which the ſame ought to have been done, purſuant to the Proviſions 'contained in the Militia Laws now in being;' be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Proceedings of the ſaid Deputy Lieutenants, Chief Magiſtrates, and Juſtices of the Peace, are hereby declared valid and effectual, and the ſaid Deputy Lieutenants, Chief Magiſtrates, and Juſtices of the Peace, are hereby reſpectively indemnified for ſuch their Proceedings.

Recital of a Clauſe in Militia Act 2 Geo. III.

'XIV. And whereas, by an Act, made in the ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty (in-'tituled, An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the ſeveral Laws now in being re-'lating to the raiſing and training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England), it is (amongſt 'other Things) enacted, That in caſe any Perſon ſhall be choſen by Lot to ſerve in the Militia, for any 'Pariſh, Tithing, or Place, or Pariſhes, Tithings, or Places, and ſuch Perſon ſhall be ſworn and inrolled, 'or ſhall provide a fit Perſon to ſerve as his Subſtitute, who ſhall be ſworn and inrolled, the Church-'warden or Overſeer, or Churchwardens or Overſeers, of ſuch Pariſh, Tithing, or Place, ſhall, within 'one Month after the Time of ſuch ſwearing or inrolling of the Man ſo choſen by Lot, or of the 'Subſtitute reſpectively, pay to every ſuch Perſon ſo choſen by Lot, if the Regiment or Battalion, in 'which he or his Subſtitute ſhall ſerve, ſhall be then embodied, any ſuch Sum of Money, not ex-'ceeding five Pounds, as three Deputy Lieutenants, or two Deputy Lieutenants and one Juſtice, or 'one Deputy Lieutenant and two Juſtices, in whoſe Preſence ſuch Perſon ſhall be choſen by Lot, ſhall ad-'judge to be, as near as may be, one Half of the current Price then paid for a Volunteer in the County or 'Riding where ſuch Perſon ſhall be ſo choſen by Lot: And whereas by an Act, made in the eighteenth 'Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to amend and render more effectual the Laws and 18 Geo. III. Cap. 59. 'relating to the raiſing and training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England; and to 'eſtabliſh certain Regulations with reſpect to Officers ſerving in the Corps of Fencible Men directed to be raiſed 'in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and certain other Corps therein mentioned, it is (amongſt other 'Things) enacted, That at any Meeting for any County, City, or Town, whoſe Militia ſhall be at that 'Time on actual Service, it ſhall be lawful for any two or more of the Deputy Lieutenants of ſuch 'County, City, or Town, or for any one Deputy Lieutenant, together with any one Juſtice of the 'Peace of ſuch County, to have and exerciſe all the Powers conferred by the therein (and herein) recited 'Act, with reſpect to the Militia, on any three Deputy Lieutenants, or any two Deputy Lieutenants 'together with any one Juſtice of the Peace, or any one Deputy Lieutenant together with any two 'Juſtices of the Peace of any County at large;' now, be it hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Churchwarden or Overſeer of any Pariſh, Tithing, or Place, or Pariſhes, Tithings, or Places, ſhall, after the paſſing of this Act, refuſe or neglect to pay to any Perſon choſen by Lot as aforeſaid, who ſhall have been ſworn and inrolled, or who ſhall have provided a fit Perſon to ſerve as his Subſtitute, who ſhall have been ſworn and inrolled, within one Month after ſuch Swearing and Inrolling, ſuch Sum, not exceeding five Pounds, as two Deputy Lieutenants, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Juſtice of the Peace of ſuch County, Riding, City, or Place, ſhall adjudge to be as near as may be one Half of the current Price then paid for a Volunteer in the County or Riding where ſuch Perſon ſhall be ſo choſen by Lot, upon his producing to ſuch Churchwarden or Overſeer an Order for that Purpoſe, under the Hands of two Deputy Lieutenants, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Juſtice of the Peace of ſuch County, Riding, City, or Place, the Militia thereof then being embodied, and in actual Service; that ſuch Churchwarden or Overſeer, ſo refuſing or neglecting, ſhall forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds, to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Churchwarden or Overſeer, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any one Juſtice of the Peace of the County, Riding, City, or Place, where ſuch Churchwarden or Overſeer ſhall dwell, rendering the Overplus (if any) on Demand, after deducting the Charges of ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale, to ſuch Churchwarden or Overſeer; and one Half of which Sum ſhall be paid to the Perſon ſo choſen by Lot as aforeſaid, in Lieu of the Sum ordered to be paid to him as aforeſaid, and the other Half thereof to the Clerk of the Regiment or Battalion, to be added to the common Stock.

Every Churchwarden, &c. who ſhall refuſe to pay to any Perſon choſen by Lot, and ſworn, or who ſhall have provided a Subſtitute, ſuch Sum, not exceeding 5l. as ſhall be adjudged, by the Deputy Lieutenants, &c. to be Half the current Price paid for a Volunteer (on producing a proper Order for that Purpoſe), ſhall forfeit 10l. Application thereof.

So much of the Militia Act of laſt Seſſion as relates to the Half-pay of Lieutenants and Enſigns ſerving in

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſo much of an Act, paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act to amend and render more effectual the Laws relating to the raiſing and training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England; and to eſtabliſh certain Regulations with reſpect to Officers ſerving in the Corps of Fencible Men directed to be raiſed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and certain other Corps therein mentioned, as relates to the Half-pay of Lieutenants and Enſigns the Militia, &c. repealed.

ſigns ſerving in the Militia, and the Oath therein directed to be taken by them, be, and the ſame is hereby repealed.

Perſons intitled to Half-pay not to forfeit it whilſt they ſerve as Lieutenants, &c. in the Militia.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon who is intitled to Half-pay ſhall be deemed or taken to forfeit or quit ſuch Half-pay during the Time he ſhall ſerve as Lieutenant, Enſign, Adjutant, Quarter-maſter, or Surgeon, in any Regiment of Militia, but that the ſame ſhall nevertheleſs continue; and inſtead of the Oath now appointed, ſuch Officer ſhall take the following Oath:

New Oath for Half-pay Officers ſerving in the Militia.

'I A. B. do ſwear, That I had not, between the any Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under his Majeſty, beſides my Allowance of Half-pay, as a reduced in late Regiment of (or Allowance as in late Troop of Horſe Guards, or Regiment of Horſe reduced), ſave and except my Pay as Lieutenant, Enſign, Adjutant, Quarter-maſter, or Surgeon (as the Caſe may be), for ſerving in a Regiment of Militia.'

And the taking of the ſaid Oath ſhall be ſufficient to intitle ſuch Perſon to receive his Half-pay, or the ſaid Allowance, without taking any other Oath; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act, or any other Law, Statute, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Half-pay not to be forfeited for ſerving as Lieutenant, &c. in the Fencibles.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon who is intitled to Half-pay ſhall be deemed or taken to forfeit or quit ſuch Half-pay, during the Time he ſhall ſerve as a Lieutenant, Enſign, Adjutant, Quarter-marter, or Surgeon, in any Regiment of Fencible Men, but that the ſame ſhall nevertheleſs continue; and inſtead of the Oath now appointed, ſuch Officer ſhall take the following Oath:

New Oath for Half-pay Officers ſerving in the Fencibles.

'I A. B. do ſwear, That I had not, between the any Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under his Majeſty, beſides my Allowance of Half-pay, as a reduced in late Regiment of (or Allowance as in late Troop of Horſe Guards, or Regiment of Horſe reduced), ſave and except my Pay as a Lieutenant, Enſign, Adjutant, Quarter-maſter, or Surgeon (as the Caſe may be), for ſerving in a Regiment of Fencible Men.'

And the taking of the ſaid Oath ſhall be ſufficient to intitle ſuch Perſon to receive his Half-pay, or the ſaid Allowance, without taking any other Oath; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act, or any other Law, Statute, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Serjeants on the Eſtabliſhment of Chelſea Hoſpital at 1s. a Day, being appointed to ſerve in the Fencibles, ſhall receive the ſaid Allowance, together with their Pay in the Fencibles.

XVIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That any Perſon being a Serjeant on the Eſtabliſhment of Chelſea Hoſpital, at an Allowance of Twelve-pence a Day, and being appointed to ſerve in any Corps of Fencible Men, ſhall and may receive the ſaid Allowance of Twelve-pence a Day, together with his Pay from the ſaid Corps of Fencible Men; any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Duty of Clerks of Subdiviſion Meetings.

XIX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Clerk or Clerks of the Subdiviſion Meetings ſhall, after any Subdiviſion Meeting hath been appointed, give reaſonable Notice in Writing, of the Time and Place appointed for the ſame, to every Deputy Lieutenant and Juſtice of the Peace who ſhall be reſident within the ſaid Subdiviſion; and alſo to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, if on actual Service, or, if not on actual Service, to the Colonel thereof, an Account of the Days fixed for receiving Liſts, ballotting and ſwearing in the Men, of ſuch Subdiviſion; and ſhall, as ſoon as the Men are ſworn in, likewiſe tranſmit to the Commanding Officer or Colonel as aforeſaid, a Liſt, ſpecifying the Names, Trades, and uſual Places of Abode, of ſuch Men as are ſworn, and, if Subſtitutes, the Names, Trades, and Places of Abode, of the Principals in the Room of whom they were ſworn.

Recital of Part of the Militia Act 2 Geo. III. relating to Subdiviſion Meetings.

'XX. And whereas, by an Act, made in the ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the ſeveral Laws now in being relating to the raiſing and training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England, it is enacted, That, in the ſeveral Counties, Ridings, and Places, where the Militia has been, or ſhall be, raiſed, four Subdiviſion Meetings ſhall, on the laſt Tueſday in May, or on the laſt Tueſday in October, be appointed for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Act; and ſeveral Directions, Proviſions, and Penalties, are contained in the ſaid Act, reſpecting the ballotting, inrolling, and providing Subſtitutes, and for other Purpoſes, to be done at ſuch four Subdiviſion Meetings: And whereas Subdiviſion Meetings are likewiſe, by the ſaid Act, directed to be held, upon ſeven Days Notice being given, for filling up Vacancies in the Militia, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned; but Doubts have ariſen whether the ſeveral Powers, Proviſions, and Penalties, in the ſaid Act contained, can extend to enforce the Orders made at any other Subdiviſion Meeting than at the four that may be appointed by the General Meetings on the laſt Tueſday in May, or on the laſt Tueſday in October;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes where Ballots are directed to be taken by any of the Laws relating to the Militia, every Perſon choſen purſuant to the ſaid Acts, at any Subdiviſion Meeting thereby appointed, ſhall be inrolled, and every Subſtitute provided ſhall ſubſcribe his Conſent to ſerve, and ſhall ſerve in the ſaid Militia for the Space of three Years, and ſhall be liable and ſubject to all the ſeveral Directions, Proviſions, and Penalties, in the ſaid herein-before recited Act of the ſecond of his preſent Majeſty contained, or in any other Act relating to the Militia of this Kingdom.

Every Perſon ballotted purſuant to the Militia Laws, at any Subdiviſion Meeting, ſhall be inrolled; and every Subſtitute ſubſcribe his Conſent to ſerve for three Years.

Recital of a Clauſe in the Militia Act 18 Geo. III.

'XXI. And whereas, by the ſaid Act of the eighteenth Year of his preſent Majeſty, Power is given to the Deputy Lieutenants and Juſtices, upon Certificate from the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion,

'Battalion, or Company, to ballot for other Men to serve in the Militia, where the Time of any Militia-'man shall be within four Months of its Expiration, when the Regiment shall be embodied, and at a Dis-'tance from Home: And whereas Doubts have arisen how far the same Power extends when the Regi-'ment shall be embodied, and within the County; and it is highly expedient that the said Clause should 'be explained and made clear, so that no future Doubts may arise thereupon;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the same and like Powers, Directions, and Provisions, given by that Act to the Commanding Officers, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices, and others, with respect to the ballotting for proper Men to serve in the Militia, in Lieu of others, four Months previous to the Expiration of their Time, when embodied, and at a Distance from Home, shall be, and are hereby continued and given to the Commanding Officers, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices, and others, to proceed to ballot for such other Men, and to execute the Powers necessary thereto, at any Time within four Months previous to the Expiration of their Time, when the Regiment, Battalion, or Company, shall be within the County, Riding, or Place, to which it belongs, or in any other County, Riding, or Place; and further, that the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Company, shall have Power to discharge such Number of Men of his Regiment, Battalion, or Company serving therein, whose Times of Service are within the Time of the Expiration aforesaid, and to receive such other Men, in Lieu thereof, as shall be so ballotted, or inrolled and sworn in as ballotted Men or Substitutes, at any Time within the Term so allowed, whether the Regiment shall be within the County, or absent from Home in any other Part of the Kingdom; and the Time of the Service of such Men so received, sworn in, and inrolled, shall commence at any Time within the Term allowed as aforesaid, or at the End thereof.

The same Powers given by that Act to Commanding Officers, Deputy Lieutenants, &c. respecting ballotting four Months previous to the Expiration of the Time of Service, when the Regiment, &c. shall be at a Distance from Home, are hereby continued, whether they are in or out of the County.

Commanding Officer impowered to discharge so many of his Men whose Time of Service is near expired, as there are others ballotted as aforesaid to supply their Places.

'XXII. And whereas it frequently happens that Persons drawn, by Ballot, to serve in the Militia, ne-'glect to appear, agreeable to the Order of the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace, to be sworn 'in and inrolled, or to find a Substitute to serve in their Stead, or to pay the Sum of ten Pounds, and such 'Persons so neglecting have not sufficient Effects whereon to levy the said Sum by Distress and Sale, and 'by the Laws now in being, in case they are apprehended for such Failure or Neglect, can only be pu-'nished by three Months Imprisonment in the House of Correction, which Punishment is by no Means 'adequate, when the Militia in which they are drawn to serve are embodied;' be it therefore enacted, for Remedy thereof, That, from and after the passing of this Act, whenever any Person drawn, by Ballot, to serve in any Militia Regiment or Company, shall neglect to appear to be sworn in, or to find a Substitute to serve in his Stead, or to pay the Sum of ten Pounds, or shall not have sufficient Effects whereon to levy the same by Distress and Sale, and be afterwards apprehended, by Warrant from any Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace, for such Offence, instead of being punished by Commitment to the House of Correction, as aforesaid, his Name shall be entered on the Rolls, and he shall be delivered over to some proper Officer of the Regiment or Company for which he was drawn, and be compelled to serve for the full Term of three Years from the Time of his Apprehension, and be liable to the same Punishments for afterwards absconding, deserting, or otherwise, as if he had originally attended, and been duly sworn and inrolled.

If any Person ballotted to serve in the Militia, shall not appear to be sworn in, nor find a Substitute, nor pay 10*l.* &c. but shall be afterwards apprehended, his Name shall be entered on the Rolls, and he shall be delivered to a proper Officer, and compelled to serve three Years.

'XXIII. And whereas, by an Act, passed in the Second Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act 'to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the several Laws relating to the Militia Forces in 'that Part of Great Britain called England, certain Powers were granted to Deputy Lieutenants and Jus-'tices to hold Subdivision Meetings, and to order fresh Ballots for the Purpose of filling up Vacancies, in 'the Cases therein mentioned, giving seven Days Notice of such Meetings; and Doubts have arisen to 'what Cases or Vacancies such Powers extend;' be it enacted, That the said Deputy Lieutenants and Justices shall, and they are hereby required, in all Cases, when a regular Discharge of any Militia Man shall be produced to them, from any Commanding Officer, certifying the Reason of such Discharge, and that such Reason renders such Militia Man unfit for Service, to proceed to confirm the same, and also to cause the Lists to be amended, and other Persons to be chosen to fill up such Vacancies, in like Manner as in and by the said recited Act, or any other Law now in Force relating to the Militia, is directed and provided.

Deputy Lieutenants, &c. on receiving from a Commanding Officer a regular Discharge of any Militia Man, &c. are to chuse another in his Stead.

'XXIV. And whereas great Inconveniencies have arisen from certain Powers granted by an Act, passed 'in the eighteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for defraying the Charge of the Pay and 'Cloathing of the Militia, in that Part of Great Britain called England, for one Year, beginning the twenty-fifth 'Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight; and for filling up Vacancies in the Militia, in 'the Cases therein mentioned;' be it enacted, That so much of the said Act as relates to the Powers granted to Deputy Lieutenants and Justices, and to Colonels or Commanders of Regiments or Battalions, to discharge Militia Men, and order fresh Ballots, before the Expiration of the Term for which such Militia Men shall have been chosen by Lot, and inrolled to serve, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Part of 18 Geo. III. Cap. 14. repealed.

'XXV. And whereas, by the Militia Laws now in being, it is enacted, That his Majesty's Lieute-'nant for every County, Riding, and Place, together with any two Deputy Lieutenants, or in the Ab-'sence, Removal, or Death, of his Majesty's Lieutenant, any three Deputy Lieutenants, shall, for se-'veral of the Purposes in the said Act declared, appoint Subdivisions of the said Deputy Lieutenants, 'within their respective Counties, Ridings, and Places, and shall issue out their Orders to the Chief Con-'stable, and where there is no Chief Constable, to some other Officer of the several Hundreds, Rapes, 'Laths, Wapentakes, or other Divisions, within their respective Counties, Ridings, and Places, to require, 'by Orders under their Hands, the Constable, Tithing-man, Headborough, or other Officer, of each Pa-'rish, Tithing, or Place, within their respective Hundreds, Rapes, Laths, Wapentakes, or other Divi-'sions, to return to the Deputy Lieutenants, within their respective Subdivisions, at the Place and on the 'Day appointed at the said first General Meeting, fair and true Lists in Writing of the Names of all the Men 'usually, Recital of Part of former Militia Laws relating to the appointing of Subdivisions of Deputy Lieutenants.

'uſually, and at that Time, dwelling within their reſpective Pariſhes, Tithings, and Places, between the 'Ages of eighteen and forty-five, diſtinguiſhing their reſpective Ranks and Occupations, and for the ſeveral 'other Purpoſes in the ſaid Act directed: And whereas, for the different Rapes in the County of Suſſex, 'there are no Peace Officers who can act officially as belonging to the ſaid Rapes: And whereas the Rapes 'in the ſaid County are the moſt convenient Diſtricts to be appointed as the Subdiviſions for the Deputy 'Lieutenants to execute the ſeveral Purpoſes directed by the ſaid Acts, and do contain within their Bound-'aries ſeveral Hundreds, to each of which there is a Peace Officer belonging: And whereas the Boroughs 'and Tithings, over which there are Headboroughs, Tithingmen, or other Peace Officers, are uncertain in 'their Boundaries, and often include Parts of various Pariſhes, from which great Inconveniencies ariſe, 'both in ballotting for the Men to be drawn by Lot for the Service of the ſaid Militia, and alſo in the 'Payment of the Money directed to be paid by the Pariſhes to thoſe who may be allotted to ſerve: And 'whereas it would be more expedient that the ballotting for Men to ſerve in the ſaid Militia for the County 'of Suſſex ſhould be by the Diviſion of Pariſhes, to which Diviſion there are no Peace Officers;' be it

Lord Lieutenant of Suſſex, after the laſt Tueſday in next October, to iſſue Orders to the Chief Conſtables of Hundreds to iſſue their Precepts to Churchwardens, &c. to return to the Deputy Lieutenants Liſts of the Names of all Men dwelling in their Pariſhes between the Ages of 18 and 45, &c. Churchwardens and Overſeers, for the Purpoſes of the Militia Laws, to be deemed the Officer of ſuch Pariſh, &c.

therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the laſt Tueſday in October next, his ſaid Majeſty's Lieutenant, or on his Death or Removal, or on his Abſence, any three or more Deputy Lieutenants of the County of Suſſex, ſhall and may iſſue out his or their Orders to the Chief Conſtable of the ſeveral Hundreds in the Rapes in the ſaid County where their Subdiviſions may have been or may be appointed, directing ſuch Chief Conſtables to iſſue their Precepts to the Churchwardens or Overſeers of the Poor of each Pariſh within their reſpective Hundreds or other Diviſions, to return to the Deputy Lieutenants within their reſpective Subdiviſions, at the Place and on the Days by them directed, fair and true Liſts in Writing of the Names of all the Men uſually dwelling within their reſpective Pariſhes, between the Ages of eighteen and forty-five, diſtinguiſhing their reſpective Ranks and Occupations, and for ſuch ſeveral other Purpoſes as are directed to be done by the Conſtables, Tithingmen, Headborough, or other Officer, of each Pariſh, Tithing, or Place, within their reſpective Hundreds or other Diviſions, in an Act, made in the ſecond Year of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the ſeveral Laws now in being relating to the raiſing and training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England; and that the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor of the ſeveral Pariſhes in the ſaid County, to whom ſuch Orders ſhall be iſſued, ſhall, for the Purpoſes of the ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating to the Militia of this Kingdom, be deemed the Officer of ſuch Pariſh, and ſhall be inveſted with all the Powers and Authorities, and be liable to the ſeveral Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as the Conſtable, Tithingman, Headborough, or other Officer, of any Pariſh, Tithing, or Place, are ſubject and liable to, for or upon account of his refuſing or neglecting to return ſuch Liſts, as aforeſaid, or being guilty of Fraud or wilful Partiality in making thereof, or not attending the Orders iſſued by his Majeſty's Lieutenant, or any three Deputy Lieutenants, or for the ſeveral other Offences in the ſaid recited Act or in the preſent Act contained.

CAP. LXXIII.

An Act for enabling his Majeſty to raiſe the Sum of one million, for the Uſes and Purpoſes therein mentioned.

CAP. LXXIV.

An Act to explain and amend the Laws relating to the Tranſportation, Impriſonment, and other Puniſhment, of certain Offenders.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Puniſhment of Felons, and other Offenders, by Tranſportation to his Majeſty's 'Colonies and Plantations in America, is attended with many Difficulties:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the firſt Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, when any Perſon, at any Seſſion of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol Delivery, or at any Quarter or other General Seſſion of the Peace, to be holden for any County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Corporation, or Place, within that Part of Great Britain called England, or at any Great Seſſion to be holden for the County Palatine of Cheſter, or within the Principality of Wales, ſhall be lawfully convicted of any Grand or Petty Larceny, or any other Crime, for which he or ſhe is or ſhall be liable by Law to be tranſported to any of his Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations in America; or if any Perſon convicted of ſuch Crime hath already been ordered to be tranſported, but ſuch Order hath not yet been executed; it ſhall and may be lawful for the Court before which any ſuch Perſon hath been or ſhall be ſo convicted; or any Court holden for the ſame Place with like Authority, if ſuch Court ſhall think fit, to order and adjudge that ſuch Perſon ſhall be tranſported to any Parts beyond the Seas, whether the ſame be ſituated in America, or elſewhere, in ſuch and the like Manner, and for any Term of Years not exceeding ſuch and the ſame Term as and for which ſuch Perſon is or ſhall be liable to be tranſported to any of his Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations in America aforeſaid; any Law, Statute, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

When any Perſon is convicted, in England or Wales, of any Crime puniſhable by Tranſportation to America, the Court may order him to be tranſported to any Parts beyond the Seas, either in America, or elſewhere.

When any Convict ſhall be ordered for Tranſportation as aforeſaid, or any Offender, excluded from Be-

II. And be it further enacted, That when any ſuch Perſon, who hath already been, or ſhall hereafter be ſo convicted, ſhall, in conſequence thereof, be ordered to be tranſported to any Parts beyond the Seas, or if his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall hereafter be graciouſly pleaſed to extend the Royal Mercy to any Offender convicted or attainted of any Felony by which he or ſhe is excluded from the Benefit of Clergy, or of ſuch Statutes as are equivalent thereunto, upon the Condition of Tranſportation to any Parts beyond the Seas as aforesaid, then and in any such Cases all Laws, Statutes, Usages, and Customs now in Force, with regard to the Transportation of Criminals to any of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, and their Punishment for being afterwards at large, within any Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain, before the Expiration of the several Terms for which they were ordered to be transported, or had agreed to transport themselves, and particularly the several Provisions contained in an Act, made in the fourth Year of King George the First, intituled, An Act for the further preventing Robbery, Burglary, and other Felonies; and for the more effectual Transportation of Felons, and unlawful Exporters of Wool; and for declaring the Law upon some Points relating to Pirates; and in one other Act, made in the sixth Year of King George the First, intituled, An Act for the further preventing Robbery, Burglary, and other Felonies; and for the more effectual Transportation of Felons; and in one other Act, made in the sixteenth Year of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the more easy and effectual Conviction of Offenders found at large within the Kingdom of Great Britain, after they have been ordered for Transportation; and in one other Act, made in the eighth year of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the more speedy and effectual Transportation of Offenders; shall take place, be in Force, and enure, with regard to the Transportation of all such Offenders as aforesaid, to any Part or Parts beyond the Seas, and with regard to their Punishment for being afterwards at large in this Kingdom before the Expiration of their respective Terms, in like Manner as if the same had been repeated and specially inserted in this Act.

nefit of Clergy, shall receive his Majesty's Pardon on Condition of Transportation as aforesaid, all Laws relating to Transportation of Criminals to America, and their returning before the Expiration of their Term, shall be in Force with respect to the Offenders first mentioned.

'III. And whereas the Punishment of Burning in the Hand, when any Person is convicted of Felony 'within the Benefit of Clergy, is often disregarded, and ineffectual; and sometimes may fix a lasting Mark 'of Disgrace and Infamy on Offenders, who might otherwise become good Subjects, and profitable Mem-'bers of the Commonwealth;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, when any Person shall, in any of the Courts before mentioned, be lawfully convicted of any Felony within the Benefit of Clergy, for which he or she is liable by Law to be burned or marked in the Brawn of the left Thumb, it shall and may be lawful for the Court before which any Person shall be so convicted, or any Court holden for the same Place with the like Authority, if such Court shall think fit, instead of such Burning or Marking, to impose upon such Offender such a moderate pecuniary Fine as to the Court in its Discretion shall seem meet; or otherwise it shall be lawful, instead of such Burning or Marking, in any of the Cases aforesaid, except in the Case of Manslaughter, to order and adjudge that such Offender shall be once, or oftener, but not more than three Times, either publicly or privately whipped, such private Whipping to be inflicted in the Presence of not less than two Persons, besides the Offender and the Officer who inflicts the same; and in case of Female Offenders, in the Presence of Females only; and such Fine or Whipping, so imposed or inflicted, instead of such Burning or Marking, shall have the like Effects and Consequences to the Party on whom the same, or either of them, shall be so imposed or inflicted, with respect to any Discharge from the same, or other Felonies, or any Restitution to his or her Estates, Capacities, and Credits, as if he or she had been burned or marked as aforesaid.

When any Person is convicted of any Felony for which he shall be liable to be burnt in the Hand, the Court may, instead thereof, impose on him a moderate Fine; or order him to be whipped.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall abridge or deprive any of the said Courts of the Powers now vested in them by Law of detaining and keeping in Prison, for any Time not exceeding one Year, or of committing to the House of Correction, or public Workhouse, to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not less than six Months, or exceeding two Years, any such Offender as aforesaid; but that such Offender may, if such Court shall think fit, after such Burning or Marking, or after such Whipping or Fine, as shall by virtue of this present Act be inflicted or imposed instead thereof, be so detained or committed, and with such accumulated Punishment, in case of Escape from such House of Correction or Workhouse, as if this Act had never been made.

This Act not to abridge the Powers vested in the said Courts of imprisoning Offenders.

'V. And whereas, if many Offenders, convicted of Crimes for which Transportation hath been usually 'inflicted, were ordered to solitary Imprisonment, accompanied by well-regulated Labour, and religious 'Instruction, it might be the Means, under Providence, not only of deterring others from the Commission 'of the like Crimes, but also of reforming the Individuals, and inuring them to Habits of Industry;' be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, in his Privy Council, to appoint three Persons to be Supervisors of the Buildings to be erected in pursuance of this Act, and from Time to Time to remove them, or any of them, and appoint others in the Place of such as shall be so removed, or shall die, or resign their Trust; and the said Supervisors, or any two of them, shall, as soon as conveniently may be, fix upon any Common, Heath, or Waste, or any other Piece or Pieces of Ground, which may be lawfully purchased under the Powers of this Act, and which shall be situated within any one of the Counties of Middlesex, Essex, Kent, or Surrey, upon which they, or any two of them, shall erect, or cause to be erected, two plain, strong, and substantial Edifices or Houses, which shall be called The Penitentiary Houses, for the Purpose of confining and employing in hard Labour, in one of the said Houses, such Male Convicts, and in the other, such Female Convicts, as, in pursuance of the Powers herein-after contained, shall be ordered to Imprisonment and hard Labour: Provided always, That in fixing upon such Piece or Pieces of Ground as aforesaid, Regard shall be especially had to Healthiness and the Accommodation of Water, avoiding, as far as possible, any Place where other Buildings are or may be erected contiguous to, or within a small Distance from the outward Fence or Inclosure of such Houses, or a Situation within any populous Town: Provided also, That the Situation and other Circumstances of such Piece or Pieces of Ground shall be reported to and approved of by the Lord Chancellor, the Speaker of the House of Commons, the Justices of the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas, the Barons of the Coif of the Court of Exchequer, and the Lord Mayor of London, for the Time being respectively, or by any eight or more of them, before the same shall be finally fixed upon, or any Purchase made of the same.

His Majesty impowered to appoint three Supervisors, who are to fix upon a Piece of Ground, and to erect thereon two substantial Edifices, to be called Penitentiary-Houses, for confining and employing Convicts.

In the Choice of the Ground, special Regard to be had to Healthiness and Accommodation of Water, &c. The Situation, &c. to be approved of by the Lord Chancellor, the Speaker, the Judges, and Lord Mayor.

VI. And be it further enacted, That when such Piece or Pieces of Ground shall be fixed upon, with such Approbation as aforesaid, the said Supervisors, or any two of them, shall, as soon as may be, contract for the absolute Purchase, in Fee-simple, of the said Piece or Pieces of Ground, for the Purpose of erecting thereon such Penitentiary Houses, and other Buildings and Inclosures, in such Manner as herein is directed; which Ground so to be purchased shall be conveyed to the Clerk of Assize of the Home Circuit for the Time being, and to his Successors for ever; and the said Clerk of Assize for the Time being is hereby made and declared to be a Corporation Sole, for the special Purpose of being capable to take and hold, in perpetual Succession, the said Piece or Pieces of Ground for the Uses and Purposes of this Act.

Incapacitated Persons impowered to sell and convey for the Purposes of this Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for all Corporations Aggregate or Sole, Ecclesiastical, Civil, or Eleemosynary, Husbands, Guardians, Committees, Executors, Administrators, and all Trustees whatsoever, not only on Behalf of themselves, but also on Behalf of their Cestuique Trusts, whether Infants or Issue unborn, Lunatics, Idiots, Femes-covert, or other Person or Persons under any Disability whatsoever, and also for all other Persons who are or shall be seised, possessed of, or interested in, any Piece or Pieces of Ground on which the said Penitentiary Houses, or either of them, shall be appointed to be erected, to contract or agree for, sell, convey, and assure such Piece or Pieces of Ground unto such Clerk of Assize for the Time being; and all such Contracts, Agreements, Sales, Conveyances, and Assurances, shall be valid and effectual in the Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, any Law, Statute, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding, and all Corporations and Persons so agreeing or conveying, are hereby indemnified for what they shall respectively do by virtue of this Act.

Sums paid for Ground to Corporations, &c. to be laid out in the Purchase of Lands subject to the same Limitations, &c.;

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Sums of Money which shall be agreed to be paid to any Corporations, Husbands, Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Committees, or other Trustees whatsoever, for or on Behalf of any Infants, Lunatics, Idiots, Femes-covert, or other Cestuique Trusts, or to any other Person or Persons whose Lands shall be limited in strict Settlement, for the Purchase of any such Piece or Pieces of Ground as aforesaid, shall, in case such Sums of Money shall exceed the Sum of one hundred Pounds, be laid out by such Corporations, Husbands, Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Committees, or other Trustees, or any Person or Persons seised of Land so limited in strict Settlement, as soon as conveniently may be, in the Purchase of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in Fee-simple, to be conveyed to, or to the Use of, such Corporations, Husbands, Executors, Administrators, Guardians, Committees, or other Trustees, and to and for such other Person or Persons, and for such Estate and Estates, and to, for, upon, and subject to such Uses, Trusts, Limitations, Remainders, and Contingencies, as the Lands or Grounds for or in respect whereof such Purchase-money shall be paid as aforesaid, shall be limited, settled, and assured, at the Time such Purchase or Contract shall be made in Manner aforesaid, or such as shall be then capable of taking Effect, the Charges of such Conveyances and Settlements to be paid in the same Manner as the Expence of building on such Ground; and in the mean Time, and until such Purchase or Purchases shall be made, such Money, whether the same shall or shall not exceed the Sum of one hundred Pounds, shall be laid out by such Corporations, or other Persons for the Time being interested therein, in some Government Securities, in the Names of two Persons, one to be nominated by the Party or Parties for the Time being interested therein, and the other by the Supervisors aforesaid; and the Interest arising from such Securities shall be paid to such Person or Persons respectively as would have been intitled to the Rents and Profits of such Piece or Pieces of Ground, in case the same had not been sold, or would for the Time being be intitled to the Rents and Profits of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments so to be purchased, in case the same were purchased and settled as aforesaid.

and, till such Purchase shall be made, to be placed out on Government Security.

If Owners refuse to treat, or to accept the Price offered by the Supervisors, the Value of the Ground to be ascertained by a Jury.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any such Corporations, Husbands, Guardians, Committees, Executors, Administrators, or other Trustees, or any Person or Persons for the Time being interested in any such Piece or Pieces of Ground as aforesaid, upon Notice to him, her, or them given, or left in Writing at the House or Houses, or other Place or Places of Abode, of such Person or Persons, or of the principal Officer or Officers of any such Corporation, shall, for the Space of twenty-one Days next after such Notice given or left, neglect or refuse to treat, or shall refuse to accept such Price as shall be offered by the said Supervisors, or their Agent, or shall otherwise not agree for the Sale of such Piece or Pieces of Ground, or if, by Reason of Absence or Incapacity, they shall be prevented from treating for such Sale, then, and in every such Case, the said Supervisors, or any two of them, shall cause the Value of such Ground to be inquired into and ascertained by a Jury of indifferent Men of the County, Riding, Liberty, Division, City, Corporation, or Place, wherein the same shall be situated; and to that End shall summon and call before such Jury, and examine upon Oath (which Oath any one or more of such Supervisors is and are hereby impowered to administer), any Person or Persons whomsoever; and such Supervisors, or any two of them, shall, by ordering a View, or otherwise, use all Ways and Means for the Information of themselves, and of such Jury, in the Premises; and when such Jury shall have enquired of and ascertained the Value of such Ground, the said Supervisors shall thereupon order that the Sum or Sums of Money which shall so appear to be the Value of such Ground, shall be paid and applied in such Manner as is herein-before directed touching the Money to be paid for Ground, for Sale whereof the Person or Persons interested shall contract and agree in Manner aforesaid; which Verdict or Inquisition, and Order, shall be filed of Record by the Clerk of the Peace of the said County, Riding, Liberty, Division, City, Corporation, or Place, and shall be final and conclusive, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, against all Parties and Persons whomsoever, claiming or to claim in Possession, Remainder, Reversion, or otherwise, their Heirs and Successors, as well absent as present, Infants, Femes-covert, Lunatics, Idiots and Persons under any Disability whatsoever, Corporations, Husbands, Guardians, Trustees, Committees, Executors, Administrators, or any other Person or Persons whomsoever.

Until Certificate shall be made as aforesaid, the Court in which such Offenders shall be convicted, may order the Number above specified to hard Labour in

XXVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in the mean Time, and until such Certificate shall be made as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Court in which any such Offenders as aforesaid shall be convicted, or any other Court held for the same Place, and with like Authority, to order and adjudge such Offenders, not exceeding the Numbers herein-before respectively limited, to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour, for the several Terms aforesaid, in the respective Houses of Correction, or other proper Places, within each respective County; which Houses of Correction, or other proper Places, shall, during such Time, be deemed and esteemed to be Penitentiary Houses to all Intents and Purposes, within the Meaning the House of Correction, &c. for the County; all of whom shall be transferred to the Penitentiary Houses as soon as they are ready for their Reception.

Meaning of this Act, except only with regard to the Appointment of Officers and Servants, and other interior Regulations of such Houses, directed by this Act; and when such Certificate shall be made as aforesaid, the Offenders then imprisoned in such Houses of Correction, or other Places, by virtue of this Act, shall be transferred to such new-erected Penitentiary Houses, for the Residue of the several Terms during which they were ordered and adjudged to be imprisoned; and the Justices of the Peace for every County, at their several Quarter Sessions to be holden next after the Feast of Saint Thomas the Martyr, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, or at any Adjournment of the same Sessions, are hereby required to give Directions for the temporary Reception, safe Custody, Employment, and due Regulation of such Offenders, the Expences of which, being previously examined and allowed by the said Justices at their Quarter Sessions, shall be paid by the Treasurer of each respective County, who shall be allowed the same in his Accounts.

Any Male convicted in England or Wales, of any Crime (except Petty Larceny) punishable by Transportation, may, if of competent Age and bodily Strength, be kept to hard Labour in cleansing the Thames, &c. for any Term not less than one Year, nor more than seven Years.

'XXVII. And, for the more severe and effectual Punishment of atrocious and daring Offenders,' be it further enacted, That, from and after the first Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, where any Male Person, at any Session of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol Delivery, to be holden for the County of the City of London, or for any other County within that Part of Great Britain called England, or for the Royal Franchise of Ely, or at any Great Session to be holden for the County Palatine of Chester, or within the Principality of Wales, shall be lawfully convicted of Grand Larceny, or any other Crime, except Petty Larceny, for which he shall be liable by Law to be transported to any Parts beyond the Seas, it shall and may be lawful for the Court before whom any such Person shall be so convicted, or any Court holden for the same Place with like Authority, if such Court shall think fit, in the Place of such Punishment by Transportation, to order and adjudge that such Person, appearing to be of competent Age, and free from any bodily Infirmity, shall be punished by being kept on board Ships or Vessels properly accommodated for the Security, Employment, and Health of the Persons to be confined therein, and by being employed in hard Labour in the raising Sand, Soil, and Gravel from, and cleansing, the River Thames, or any other River navigable for Ships of Burthen, or any Port, Harbour, or Haven, within that Part of Great Britain called England, such River, Port, Harbour, or Haven, being previously approved and appointed for that Purpose by Order of his Majesty in his Privy Council, or in any other Service for the Benefit of the Navigation of the said Rivers, Ports, Harbours, or Havens, or in any other public Works upon the Banks or Shores of the same, under the Management and Direction of such Superintendant or Superintendants as hath been or shall be appointed, for the River Thames, by the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, and for other Rivers, Ports, Harbours, or Havens, by the Justices of the Peace for the Counties wherein such Rivers, Ports, Harbours, or Havens, are situated, or of such of the Counties next adjoining to the same, respectively, as his Majesty in Council shall direct, at their Quarter or other General Session of the Peace, for such Term, not less than one Year, nor exceeding five Years, or in case such Offender shall be liable to be transported for fourteen Years, not exceeding seven Years, as such Court of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol Delivery, shall think fit to order and adjudge.

In case his Majesty should extend his Mercy to any Person convicted of any Felony punishable by Death, the Judge shall order the Offender to be kept to hard Labour in a Penitentiary House, or on the Thames, &c. for the Time specified by the Secretary of State.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Person shall, at any Session of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol Delivery, or Great Session, within England or Wales, be lawfully convicted of any Robbery, or other Felony, for which he or she shall by Law, either under this Statute, or under any other Statute now in Force, or hereafter to be made, be liable to suffer Death, without Benefit of Clergy, and his Majesty shall be graciously pleased to extend the Royal Mercy to any such Offender, upon Condition of being kept to hard Labour, during any specified Term, in any Penitentiary House to be erected in pursuance of this Act, or, such Offenders being Males, upon Condition of being kept to hard Labour, during any specified Term, in the Custody of such Superintendant or Superintendants as aforesaid, for the Benefit of the said Navigations; and such Intention of Mercy shall be notified, in Writing, by one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to the Court in which such Offender shall be convicted, or to any Court held for the same Place with the like Authority; or, if no such Court shall be sitting, then to any Justice of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol Delivery, or Justice of Great Sessions, by or before whom such Offender shall have been convicted or condemned; such Court or Justice may and shall, immediately on receiving such Notification, allow to every such Offender the Benefit of a conditional Pardon, in the same Manner as if there was a conditional Pardon under the Great Seal; and may and shall order, that every such Offender shall be kept to hard Labour in such Penitentiary House as aforesaid, or in the Custody of such Superintendant or Superintendants as aforesaid, for the Time specified in the Notification from such Secretary of State.

When any Offender shall be ordered to hard Labour, the Clerk of Assize, &c. shall give a Certificate to the Sheriff or Gaoler, who shall deliver such Offender and Certificate to the Governor or Superintendant, &c. who shall give a Receipt for the same.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That when any Offender shall be ordered and adjudged to be kept to hard Labour in any of the Manners aforesaid, the Clerk of Assize, or other Clerk of the Court in which such Offender shall be convicted, shall give to the Sheriff or Gaoler, having the Custody of such Offender, a Certificate in Writing, under his Hand, containing an Account of the Christian Name, Surname, and Age, of such Offender; of his or her Offence, of the Court before which he or she was convicted, and of the Term for which he or she shall be so ordered to hard Labour; and the Sheriff or Gaoler, having the Custody of such Offender, shall, with all convenient Speed, after the making of such Order, and the receiving such Certificate, convey such Offender, or cause him or her to be conveyed to such House or Place to which such Order shall direct him or her to be conveyed; and shall deliver such Offender, or cause him or her to be delivered, together with such Certificate, to such Governor or Superintendant as aforesaid, or to such Person or Persons as such Governor or Superintendant shall appoint; and such Governor or Superintendant, or other Person or Persons to whom such Offender shall be so delivered, shall give a proper Receipt in Writing, under his or their Hand or Hands, to the Sheriff or Gaoler so delivering such Offender, which shall be his sufficient Discharge; and such Governor or Superintendant shall transmit such Certificate to the Clerk of the Peace of the County or Place wherein such Penitentiary House, or other Place of Confinement, shall be situated, to be filed with the Records of the Sessions.

XXX. And

XXX. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of Aſſize, or other Clerk of the Court, ſhall have the ſame Fee, Gratuity, or Satisfaction, on granting ſuch Certificate, and the Sheriff or Gaoler ſhall have the ſame Fee on delivering out of his Cuſtody any ſuch Offender ſo to be ordered to any ſuch Penitentiary Houſe, or other Place of hard Labour, as hath uſually been paid, and would have been due to them reſpectively, if ſuch Offender had been ſentenced to Tranſportation, except in the Caſe of Petty Larceny, wherein they ſhall have only ſuch Fees as have uſually and of Right been paid upon Conviction for the ſaid Offence, and Judgment to be whipped for the ſame; and ſuch Fees, Gratuities, and Satisfaction, and alſo all Expences to be incurred by any Sheriff or Gaoler in the Conveyance of any ſuch Offender whatever to the Houſe or Place to be appointed for his or her Confinement, ſuch Expences being previouſly examined and allowed by the Juſtices of the Peace at their Quarter or other General Seſſion, ſhall be paid by the Treaſurer of the County or Place for which the Court in which ſuch Offender ſhall be convicted ſhall have been held, to ſuch Clerk of Aſſize, or other Clerk of the Court, and to ſuch Sheriff or Gaoler, reſpectively, and every ſuch Treaſurer ſhall be allowed every ſuch Payment in his Accounts.

Fees to be paid to the Clerk of Aſſize, &c. and to the Sheriff or Gaoler.

Such Fees, and the Expences of conveying Offenders to their Place of Confinement, to be paid by the County Treaſurer.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That after Delivery of any ſuch Offender as aforeſaid into the Cuſtody to which he or ſhe ſhall be ordered or adjudged, ſuch Governor or Superintendant, or other Perſon having the Cuſtody of Offenders under his Direction, ſhall, during the Term for which ſuch Offender ſhall be ordered to hard Labour, have the ſame Powers over ſuch Offender as are incident to the Office of a Sheriff or Gaoler; and in caſe of any Abuſe of ſuch Cuſtody, or other Miſbehaviour or Negligence in the Diſcharge of his Office, ſhall be liable to the ſame Puniſhment as a Gaoler is now liable to by Law.

Governor or Superintendant to have the ſame Power over Offenders in his Cuſtody as a Sheriff or Gaoler.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch Governor of each ſuch Penitentiary Houſes ſhall, during the Term preſcribed for the Impriſonment and hard Labour of ſuch Offender, keep him or her, ſo far as may be conſiſtent with his or her Sex, Age, Health, and Ability, to Labour of the hardeſt and moſt ſervile Kind, in which Drudgery is chiefly required, and where the Work is little liable to be ſpoiled by Ignorance, Neglect, or Obſtinacy, and where the Materials or Tools are not eaſily ſtolen or embezzled, ſuch as treading in a Wheel, or drawing in a Capſtern, for turning a Mill or other Machine or Engine, ſawing Stone, poliſhing Marble, beating Hemp, raſping Logwood, chopping Rags, making Cordage, or any other hard and laborious Service; and thoſe of leſs Health and Ability, Regard being alſo had to Age and Sex, in picking Oakum, weaving Sacks, ſpinning Yarn, knitting Nets, or any other leſs laborious Employment: And if the Work to be performed by any ſuch Offenders ſhall be of ſuch a Nature as may require previous Inſtruction, proper Perſons ſhall be provided to give the ſame, by Order of the ſaid Committee, to whom a ſuitable Allowance ſhall be made.

All Offenders in the Penitentiary Houſes, who are able, are to be kept to Labour of the hardeſt and moſt ſervile Kind; and thoſe of leſs Ability are to be employed in leſs laborious Work.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That ſuch Offenders as ſhall be ſent to either of ſuch Penitentiary Houſes ſhall, during their Hours of Reſt, be kept entirely ſeparate and apart from each other, and be lodged in ſeparate Rooms or Cells, not exceeding twelve Feet in Length, eight Feet in Breadth, and eleven Feet in Heighth, nor leſs than ten Feet in Length, ſeven Feet in Breadth, and nine Feet in Height, and without any Window within ſix Feet of the reſpective Floors; which Rooms or Cells ſhall be dried and moderately warmed, in damp or cold Weather, by Flues from the Fires in the Kitchens, and other public Fires belonging to each Houſe; and the ſaid Offenders ſhall alſo, during their Hours of Labour, in caſe the Nature of their ſeveral Employments will permit, be in like Manner kept ſeparate and apart from each other; and where the Nature of the Employment may require two Perſons to work together, the Room in which ſuch two Perſons ſhall work ſhall be of ſuitable Dimenſions; and if the Nature of the Work wherein any ſuch Offenders ſhall be employed ſhall require the Labour of many Perſons at one Time, a common Work-room or Shed ſhall be allotted to them for that Purpoſe; but during the Time the Offenders are employed in ſuch common Work-room or Shed, the Governor of the ſaid Houſe, or the Taſk-maſter, or one or more of their Servants or Aſſiſtants, ſhall be conſtantly preſent, to attend to the Behaviour of ſuch Offenders; and ſuch two or more Perſons ſhall not be ſuffered to continue together, except during the Hours of Labour, and Divine Service, and the Times reſpectively allotted for their Meals and Airings.

Offenders during the Hours of Reſt, to be lodged in ſmall Rooms, ſeparate from each other; and during the Hours of Labour alſo to be kept ſeparate as much as the Nature of their Employments will allow.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That ſuch Offenders ſhall be employed in Work, at the ſaid Penitentiary Houſes, every Day in the Year, except Sundays, Chriſtmas-day, and Good-Friday, and alſo except ſuch Days when ill Health will not allow of their working; and the Hours of Work in each Day ſhall be as many as the Seaſon of the Year, with an Interval of Half an Hour for Breakfaſt, and an Hour for Dinner, will permit, but not exceeding eight Hours in the Months of November, December, and January, nine Hours in the Months of February and October, and ten Hours in the reſt of the Year; and when ſuch Hours of Work are paſſed, the working Tools, Implements, and Materials, or ſuch of them as will admit of daily Removal, ſhall be removed to Places proper for their ſafe Cuſtody, and there be kept till the Hour of Labour ſhall return.

The Hours of Work in different Parts of the Year.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That every Offender who ſhall be ordered to either of ſuch Penitentiary Houſes ſhall, during the Time of his or her Confinement therein, be fed and ſuſtained with Bread, and any coarſe Meat, or other inferior Food, and Water, or ſmall Beer; and alſo be clothed with a coarſe and uniform Apparel, with certain obvious Marks or Badges affixed to the ſame, as well to humiliate the Wearers as to facilitate Diſcovery in caſe of Eſcapes; the Whole to be ordered in ſuch Manner as the Committee aforeſaid ſhall from Time to Time appoint for thoſe Purpoſes; and no ſuch Offender ſhall, during the Time of his or her Confinement, be permitted to have any other Food, Drink, or Clothing, than ſuch as ſhall be ſo appointed; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall wilfully ſupply any ſuch Offender, at any Time during the Term of his or her Confinement, with any Food, Drink, or Clothing, other than ſuch as ſhall be ſo appointed, or with any Money, he or ſhe ſo ſupplying ſuch Offender ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit a Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, nor leſs than forty Shillings.

How the Offenders ſhall be fed and clothed.

Penalty on ſupplying them with other Food or Clothing.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Officer or Servant of either of ſuch Penitentiary Houſes ſhall ſupply any of the Offenders therein with any Money, Clothing, Proviſions, or Diet, or with any Spirituous

If any Officer or Servant in either of the Penitentiary Houſes ſhall ſupply any Offender with Money, Proviſions, &c. contrary to this Act, he ſhall be ſuſpended by the Governor, and reported to the Committee; who may puniſh him by Fine and Impriſonment.

Spirituous or other Liquors whatſoever, except ſuch Money, Clothing, Proviſions, or Diet, or ſuch Water and Small Beer, as the Governor of the Houſe ſhall from Time to Time permit or direct, and except ſuch Diet and Liquors as the Surgeon or Apothecary attending ſuch Houſe ſhall think proper to order for any ſuch Offenders, in caſe of Illneſs; and in caſe any ſuch Officer or Servant ſhall be found guilty of carrying to any ſuch Offender, or of knowingly permitting to be carried to any ſuch Offender, any Money, Clothing, Proviſions, or Diet, or Liquors whatſoever, contrary to the Intent of this Act, ſuch Officer or Servant ſhall immediately be ſuſpended by the ſaid Governor; who ſhall report the ſame to the Committee at their next Meeting; and ſuch Committee ſhall enquire thereof upon Oath, and ſhall puniſh ſuch Officer or Servant by Forfeiture of Office, by any Fine not exceeding ten Pounds, and by Impriſonment for any Term not exceeding ſix Months, or by any one or more of ſuch Puniſhments, as the ſaid Committee ſhall, in their Diſcretion, think proper.

Offenders, when brought to the Penitentiary Houſes, to be ſeparately lodged, and waſhed, and examined by the Surgeon; and when diſcharged, to be furniſhed with decent Clothing and Money; and after having continued in a reputable Service for one Year, to be entitled to a further Sum of Money.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That when any Offender, who ſhall be ordered to hard Labour in either of ſuch Houſes as aforeſaid, ſhall be brought thither in purſuance of the Powers contained in this Act, he or ſhe ſhall be ſeparately lodged, and waſhed, cleanſed and purified, and ſhall then be examined by the Surgeon or Apothecary, and ſhall continue in ſuch ſeparate Lodging until it be certified by ſuch Surgeon or Apothecary that he or ſhe is fit to be received among the other Convicts, and the Clothes in which he or ſhe ſhall then be clothed ſhall be burnt, if neceſſary, or otherwiſe ſhall be ſold and diſpoſed of at the Diſcretion of the Governor, and the Produce thereof ſhall be accounted for to the Committee aforeſaid; and ſuch Offender ſhall not be diſmiſſed at the End or other Determination of his Term, unleſs at his own Requeſt, if he ſhall then labour under any acute or dangerous Diſtemper, nor until he can be ſafely diſcharged; and when ſuch Offender ſhall be finally diſcharged, ſuch other decent Clothing as ſhall be judged neceſſary and proper by the Committee aforeſaid, ſhall be delivered to ſuch Offender, and alſo ſuch Sum of Money, for his or her immediate Subſiſtence, as the ſaid Committee ſhall think proper, ſo as ſuch Sum ſhall not exceed three Pounds, nor be leſs than twenty Shillings, in caſe ſuch Offender ſhall have been confined in ſuch Penitentiary Houſe for the Space of one Year, and ſo in Proportion for any ſhorter Term of Confinement; and if ſuch Offender, at the End or other Determination of his or her Term, ſhall procure any reputable Maſter of a Ship, or Tradeſman, or other ſubſtantial Houſekeeper, to take him or her into Service, or provide him or her with proper Employment for one Year then next enſuing, the ſame to be approved by the Committee aforeſaid, he or ſhe, having ſerved accordingly, ſhall be entitled at the End of the Year to another Sum of Money, equal to that which was allowed to him or her at the Time of his or her Diſmiſſion.

The Offenders to be divided into three Claſſes, and the Term of their Confinement to be divided into three equal Parts, &c.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the ſeveral Offenders to be ſent to each of ſuch Penitentiary Houſes ſhall be divided into three Claſſes, which ſhall be called The Firſt, Second, and Third Claſs; for which Purpoſe the Time for which ſuch Offenders ſhall ſeverally be committed ſhall be divided into three equal Parts; and during the firſt Part of the Time of the Impriſonment of every ſuch Offender, he or ſhe ſhall be ranked in the firſt Claſs, and during the ſecond Part of ſuch Time, he or ſhe ſhall be ranked in the ſecond Claſs, and during the third and laſt Part of ſuch Time, he or ſhe ſhall be ranked in the third Claſs; and the Confinement and Labour of ſuch Offenders as ſhall from Time to Time be ranked in the firſt Claſs, ſhall be the moſt ſtrict and ſevere, and the Confinement and Labour of the Offenders ranked in the ſecond Claſs, ſhall be more moderate, and the Confinement and Labour of thoſe ranked in the third Claſs, ſhall be ſtill more relaxed; which ſeveral Degrees of Confinement and Labour, ſo to be affixed to each Claſs, ſhall from Time to Time be ſettled by the ſaid Committee, by Orders of Regulation to be approved of in Manner aforeſaid, but ſo as not to defeat or elude the ſpecial Proviſions made and appointed by this Act.

Governor may employ Offenders in the third Claſs as Servants, &c.

XXXIX. Provided alſo, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Governor of each ſuch Houſes to employ, at his Diſcretion, any of the Offenders aforeſaid, who ſhall be ranked in the ſaid third Claſs, as Servants, Overſeers, or Aſſiſtants, in the Management of the Works, and Care of their Fellow Priſoners, inſtead of being confined to ſuch their daily Labour as aforeſaid.

How the Lodging-rooms ſhall be furniſhed.

XL. And be it further enacted, That each of the Lodging-rooms which ſhall be appointed in the ſaid Penitentiary Houſes, for the Offenders ſo confined therein, ſhall be provided with an Iron Bedſtead, with Matting for lying upon, one or more hempen Sheets, a Coverlit, and two or more coarſe Blankets; and no Perſon, except the Officers and Servants of the Houſe, and ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be authoriſed by Order of any two of the Committee aforeſaid, ſhall be permitted to go at any Time into ſuch Lodging-rooms, or to ſee or converſe with the Offenders; and every Night in the Year the Doors of all ſuch Lodging-rooms ſhall be locked, and all Lights therein extinguiſhed, after the Hour of Nine; and a Watchman ſhall patrole each of ſuch Penitentiary Houſes at leaſt twice in every Hour during the Night, and until Return of the Time of Labour in the Morning of the next Day.

The Doors to be locked, and the Lights extinguiſhed, every Night at Nine.

Juſtices for the County may inſpect the Penitentiary Houſes, &c. at all ſeaſonable Times.

XLI. Provided always, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, acting for the County or Place wherein ſuch Penitentiary Houſes, or Places of Confinement, to be provided in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be ſituated, at all ſeaſonable Times, to viſit and inſpect every Part of ſuch Penitentiary Houſes, or Places of Confinement, in order to make Report to the Quarter Seſſions, or give Notice to the Inſpector, herein-after mentioned, of any Abuſe or Miſmanagement which he or they may obſerve therein.

Chaplain to read Morning and Evening Prayers, and preach two Sermons, every Sunday, &c.; and to viſit the Offenders, with the Governor's Leave.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That the Chaplain ſhall read Morning and Evening Prayers, in the Chapel of each of ſuch Penitentiary Houſes, and preach a Sermon both Morning and Afternoon, on every Sunday in the Year, and alſo on every Chriſtmas-day and Good Friday; and all the Offenders confined in ſuch Houſe, who ſhall not be diſabled by Illneſs, ſhall attend the ſaid Prayers and Sermons, which ſhall alſo be attended by the reſident Officers, and by the Servants of ſuch Houſe, or ſuch of them as can be ſpared from their ſeveral Employments, and ſhall not be prevented by Illneſs; and the ſaid Chaplain ſhall viſit, with the Leave of the Governor, any of the Offenders, either ſick or in Health, that may deſire or ſtand in need of his ſpiritual Advice and Aſſiſtance, provided that ſuch Viſitation, to ſuch of the Offenders as ſhall be in Health, ſhall not interfere with their ſtated Hours of Labour.

Large Yards, properly ſecured, to be adjoining to the Penitentiary Houſes, for the Offenders to walk in and air themſelves.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That there ſhall be, adjoining to each of ſuch Penitentiary Houſes, one or more large and airy Yards or Places, incloſed and properly ſecured, in which, and on the Top of ſuch Houſe, if the Building will admit ſuch a Convenience, the Offenders ordered to be confined in ſuch Houſe ſhall be permitted to walk and air themſelves, for ſuch ſtated Time as their Health may require, and the Governors ſhall reſpectively permit; and if proper Employment can be found, ſuch Offenders may alſo be permitted to work in ſuch Yards, inſtead of their Lodging-rooms or Work-rooms; but ſuch airing or working in ſuch Yards ſhall never be permitted unleſs in the Preſence or within the View of the Governor or Taſk-maſter, or ſome of their Servants or Aſſiſtants.

Offenders, when ſick, to be viſited by the Surgeon, and, if neceſſary, to be ſent to the Infirmary.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any ſuch Offender ſhall appear to be ſick, he or ſhe ſhall be viſited by the Surgeon or Apothecary attending ſuch Houſe, and if the Sickneſs be found to be real, the ſaid Surgeon or Apothecary ſhall report the ſame to the Governor; who ſhall, if the Sickneſs be of ſuch a Nature as to require it, order ſuch Offender to be ſent to the Infirmary belonging to ſuch Houſe, and to be entered in a Book to be kept for that Purpoſe as ſick; and when ſuch Offender ſhall have ſo far recovered his or her Health, as that the ſaid Surgeon or Apothecary ſhall judge him or her in a proper Condition to quit the Infirmary, and to return to his or her Employment, and the ſaid Apothecary ſhall ſo report, the ſaid Governor ſhall order ſuch Offender to be brought back to his or her Lodging-room, and to be again employed in Labour, ſo far as ſhall be conſiſtent with the Health of ſuch Offender.

Two of the Committee to attend at each Penitentiary Houſe every Fortnight, when they ſhall ſee the Offenders, and inſpect the Accounts of the Governor and Storekeepers, &c.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Committee, or any two of them, ſhall attend at each of the ſaid Penitentiary Houſes once at leaſt in every Fortnight; and on every ſuch Attendance ſhall examine the State of ſuch Houſe, and ſhall ſee every Offender confined there, and not diſabled by Sickneſs; and ſhall inſpect the Accounts of the Governor and Storekeepers, and alſo examine the Conduct and Management of ſuch Houſe, and the Behaviour of the Officers thereof, and of the Offenders confined therein; and the ſaid Committee are hereby authoriſed and impowered to confer Rewards and Encouragements on ſuch of the ſaid Offenders as ſhall appear the moſt diligent and meritorious, by giving them a ſmall Part of the Profits of their daily or weekly Earnings, to be properly applied for the Uſe and Benefit of themſelves or Families, or by permitting them to work, during the Intervals of their ſtated Labour, for the like Uſe and Benefit.

Governor impowered to hear Complaints of certain Offences, and to puniſh the Offenders.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That the Governor of each of ſuch Penitentiary Houſes ſhall have Power to hear all Complaints touching any of the following Offences; that is to ſay, Diſobedience of any of the Orders of the Houſe; Aſſaults by one Perſon confined in ſuch Houſe upon another, when no dangerous Wound or Bruiſe is given; profane Curſing and Swearing, or indecent Behaviour; Abſence from Chapel, or irreverent Behaviour there; and Idleneſs or Negligence in Work, or wilful Miſmanagement of it; all which are declared to be Offences by this Act; and the ſaid Governor may examine any Perſons touching ſuch Offences, and may determine thereupon, and may puniſh ſuch Offences, either by moderate Whipping, or by ordering the Offenders to cloſe Confinement in the Dungeons of ſuch Houſe, and by keeping them upon Bread and Water only, for any Term not exceeding three Days.

Enormous Offenders to be confined by the Governor, and reported to the Committee at their next Meeting.

Committee to enquire concerning ſuch Offences, and to puniſh the Offenders.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Offender who ſhall be committed to any ſuch Penitentiary Houſe ſhall, during the Term for which he ſhall be ſo committed, be guilty of any Offence which the Governor of ſuch Houſe is not hereby authoriſed to puniſh, or for which the Puniſhment which ſuch Governor is hereby authoriſed to inflict ſhall by ſuch Governor be deemed not ſufficient, by reaſon of the Enormity of the Offence, or the Repetition thereof, ſuch Governor may, and he is hereby required to confine ſuch Offender, either in his or her own Lodging-room, or in one of the Dungeons belonging to ſuch Houſe, till the next Meeting of the ſaid Committee, and ſhall then report ſuch Offence, with the Nature and particular Circumſtances thereof, and the Name of the Offender, to the ſaid Committee; and ſuch Committee ſhall have Power to enquire of, upon Oath, and determine concerning all ſuch Offences ſo reported to them as aforeſaid, and ſhall order ſuch Offenders to be puniſhed, either by moderate Whipping, or repeated Whippings, by cloſe Confinement in one of the Dungeons, with Bread and Water only for Suſtenance, for any Term not exceeding one Month, or by removing ſuch Offenders, if ranked in the ſecond or third Claſs, into any prior Claſs, or by any or all of ſuch Puniſhments; and in caſe of Removal into any prior Claſs, the Offender ſhall, from the Time of making ſuch Order of Removal, go through ſuch prior Claſs, and alſo the ſubſequent Claſs or Claſſes, in the ſame Manner as under his or her original Commitment, and for ſuch additional Time as ſuch Committee ſhall think proper to order, ſo as the whole Time of Confinement, to be computed from ſuch Order of Removal into ſuch prior Claſs, to the final Diſcharge of the Offender, ſhall not exceed the original Term for which he or ſhe was committed.

Any one of the Committee may adminiſter an Oath, &c.

Penalty on Perſons ſummoned who ſhall refuſe to appear, &c.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever by this Act the ſaid Committee, or any two of them, are impowered or directed to make any Enquiry, or receive any Proof upon Oath, any one of the ſaid Committee is hereby authoriſed to tender and adminiſter ſuch Oath; and any two of the ſaid Committee may ſummon, or cauſe to be ſummoned, ſuch Witneſſes as they ſhall think meet, to appear and give Evidence before them; and if any Perſon, being duly ſummoned, ſhall refuſe or neglect to appear, or being preſent, and competent to be a Witneſs, ſhall refuſe to be ſworn, or being ſworn, ſhall refuſe to give Evidence, ſuch Perſon ſhall forfeit any Sum not leſs than twenty Shillings, or more than ten Pounds, at the Diſcretion of the ſaid Committee.

Committee to report to the Judges at the next Aſſizes all Offenders who ſhall manifeſt extraordinary Diligence or Merit;

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That if the ſaid Committee ſhall at any Time obſerve, or be ſatisfactorily informed of, any extraordinary Diligence or Merit in any of the Offenders under their Inſpection, they ſhall report the ſame to the Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, and Goal Delivery, or Great Seſſions, at their next or any ſubſequent Seſſion to be holden for the County in which ſuch Offender was convicted; and ſuch Juſtices, if the Offender ſhall be committed for a certain Term of Months or Years, ſhall and may, if they ſhall think proper, ſhorten the Confinement of ſuch Offender, on Condition that ſuch Of-who may shorten their Time of Confinement, &c.

fender, being a Male, shall engage himself to serve in the Sea or Land Forces, or without any Condition, as to them in their Discretion shall seem meet; and if the Offender shall be committed for Life, in pursuance of a conditional Pardon, such Justices shall, if they think proper, report him or her to his Majesty as an Object of Royal Mercy.

Male Convicts, after they are delivered to the Superintendant, shall be washed, and their Clothes changed, &c.

L. And be it further enacted, That after the Delivery of any such Male Offender into the Custody of any such Superintendant or Superintendants as aforesaid, he shall be confined in some secure Place or Vessel, to be provided for the sole Purpose of receiving such Offenders on their first Arrival, and shall be washed and cleaned, and his Clothes shall be burnt, if it is deemed necessary, and others provided for him; and he shall remain there for the Space of four Days at the least, unless, during that Time, he shall be found to be infected with any putrid or contagious Fever, or other Disease; in which Case he shall be immediately sent to the Hospital or Infirmary, till such Time as the Surgeon or Apothecary attending the same shall think it safe to remove him on board one of the Vessels appointed for the Confinement of Offenders in general, and to lodge him among the healthy Convicts.

An Hospital to be provided for the Sick, &c.;

LI. And be it further enacted, That there shall be provided for the Reception of such Offenders, in the Custody of every Superintendant, as shall happen to be sick, or to be disabled by any Wound or Accident, a secure Place or Vessel, to serve as an Hospital or Infirmary, with such proper Assistants as may be necessary for their speedy Recovery, but the Whole to be under the Charge and Controul of such Superintendant aforesaid, who shall be liable to answer for the Escape of any Offender so removed to such Hospital or Infirmary; and there shall also be provided, by the said Superintendant, a large Piece of Ground, securely fenced and inclosed, for a Garden and Airing-ground, in which shall be raised proper Vegetables for the Use of the Offenders under the Custody of every such Superintendant; who shall be at Liberty to employ such of the invalid Offenders, recommended for that Purpose by the Surgeon or Apothecary, as the said Superintendant shall think proper, and for whose Escape he shall be liable to answer, in the Culture and Management of such Garden.

likewise a large Garden for raising Vegetables for the Use of the Offenders.

Offenders, in Custody of the Superintendant, to be employed in raising Sand, &c. for the Benefit of the Navigation of the Thames, &c.;

LII. And be it further enacted, That, subject to the Exceptions and Provisions aforesaid, every such Superintendant or Superintendants shall, during the Term prescribed for the Imprisonment and Hard Labour of every such Offender, keep him to hard Labour, either in raising Sand, Soil, and Gravel, or in any other laborious Service, for the Benefit of the Navigation of the Thames, or of such other Navigable Rivers, Ports, Harbours, or Havens, as aforesaid, or in any other public Works upon the Banks or Shores of the same; but when the said laborious Service shall be for the Navigation of the Thames, then at such Places only, and subject to such Limitations and Restrictions, as the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity house shall, from Time to Time, prescribe.

but not in delivering Ballast to Masters of Ships.

LIII. Provided nevertheless, That such Offenders shall in no Case be employed in delivering Tonnage or Ballast to Masters and Commanders of Ships, but only in digging, raising, and taking up the Gravel, Sand, and Soil, from the Shelves and Sand-banks of the said Rivers, Ports, Harbours, or Havens, and in discharging the same upon the Shore, above the High-water Mark, except in such Cases where any Embankment or Sea-wall shall be directed to be made or repaired, or in some other laborious Service for the Benefit of such Navigations, or for completing such other public Works as aforesaid.

Offenders to be fed with Bread, coarse Meat, &c. and Water or Small Beer.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That every Offender who shall be ordered to Hard Labour in the Custody of such Superintendant or Superintendants as aforesaid, shall, during the Time of such Service, be fed and sustained with Bread, and any coarse Meat, or other inferior Food, and Water or Small Beer, and also clothed, at the Discretion and under the Direction of such Superintendant or Superintendants; and such Offender shall not, during the Term of such Service, be permitted to have any other Food, Drink, or Clothing, than such as shall be so directed; and if any Person shall supply any such Offender, at any Time during the Term of his said Service, with any Drink, Food, or Clothing, other than such as shall be so directed, or with any Money, he or she so supplying shall, for every such Offence, forfeit a Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, nor under forty Shillings.

Penalty on Persons supplying them with any other Food, &c.

Offenders who refuse to work, or otherwise misbehave themselves, may be whipped, &c.

LV. And be it further enacted, That if any Offender, who shall be so delivered to such Superintendant or Superintendants to be kept to Hard Labour, shall, during the Term of such Service, refuse to perform any Labour authorised by this Act, or shall be guilty of any other Misbehaviour or disorderly Conduct, it shall be lawful for the Superintendant or Superintendants, having the Custody of any such Offender, to order such Whipping, or other moderate Punishment, to be inflicted upon him, as may be inflicted by Law on Persons committed to a House of Correction for Hard Labour.

Every Offender, at the End of his Confinement, shall receive a Sum of Money, not less than 20 s. nor more than 3 l. with decent Clothing.

His Majesty, on the good Behaviour of Offenders, may shorten the Term of their Confinement.

Offenders, who shall continue in a reputable Service for one Year from the Time of their Dismission, to be in-

LVI. And be it further enacted, That every Offender, who shall be delivered to such Superintendant or Superintendants to be kept to Hard Labour in Manner aforesaid, shall, at the End of the Term of such Service, and upon being restored to his Liberty, receive from the Superintendant or Superintendants, under whom he shall have so served, such Sum of Money, not being less than twenty Shillings, nor more than three Pounds, in case he hath been confined for one Year, and so in Proportion for any shorter Term, together with such decent Clothing as the Court, into which such Returns shall be made, as herein-after mentioned, shall appoint: And if any such Offender, whilst confined to Hard Labour in Manner aforesaid, shall, by his Industry and other good Behaviour, shew such Signs of Reformation as shall induce the said Court to recommend him as an Object of his Majesty's Mercy, and it shall be thereupon signified, by a Letter from one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, to the Superintendant or Superintendants as aforesaid, that his Majesty thinks fit, in Consideration of such good Behaviour, to shorten the Duration of such Offender's Term, such Offender shall be accordingly set at Liberty at the Time mentioned in such Letter, and shall, together with necessary Clothing, receive a Sum of Money from his Superintendant or Superintendants, in Proportion to the Time of his Confinement, according to the Rates aforesaid; and any such Offender so dismissed at the End or other Determination of his Term, who shall procure any reputable Master of a Ship, or Tradesman, or other substantial House-keeper, to take him into Service, or provide him with proper Employment, for one Year then next ensuing, the same to be approved by such Super-titled to a further Sum of Money.

Superintendant or Superintendants, and who shall serve accordingly, shall be entitled, at the End of the Year, to another Sum of Money, equal to that which was allowed him at the Time of his Dismission.

LVII. Provided always, That no Offender shall be dismissed out of the Custody of the said Superintendant or Superintendants, at the End or other Determination of his Term, unless at his own Request, if he shall then labour under any acute or dangerous Distemper, nor until he can be safely discharged.

Offenders labouring under acute Distempers not to be dismissed, unless they desire it.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any of the said Offenders shall happen to die in the Custody of such Superintendant or Superintendants as aforesaid, they shall be buried in the most commodious Places adjacent to the several Rivers, Ports, Harbours, and Havens, in or near which they shall have been respectively employed, according to the Form for Burial prescribed by the Liturgy of the Church of England; and the necessary Charges of such Funerals, and also of the Coroners who shall sit on the Bodies of the Offenders so dying in such Custody, together with the necessary Expences of providing such Chaplains, Surgeons, and Apothecaries, as the said Superintendant or Superintendants shall find it expedient, or shall be required by the Court into which such Returns as are herein-after mentioned shall be made, from Time to Time, to employ in attending the Offenders in his or their Custody or Custodies, shall be paid by such Superintendant or Superintendants, and brought to Account in Manner herein-after mentioned.

Directions relative to the Burial of Offenders who shall die in Custody of the Superintendants.

LIX. Provided always, That such Chaplains so to be employed as aforesaid shall read Morning and Evening Prayer, and preach a Sermon after each, in every such Place of Confinement, on every Christmas-day, Good Friday, and Sunday, throughout the Year.

The Chaplain's Duty.

LX. And be it further enacted, That every such Superintendant shall, in the Custody, Treatment, and Employment of the Offenders committed to his Care, conform to and observe the several Directions herein-before given for regulating the Conduct of the Governors of the said Penitentiary Houses, so far as the Nature of the Service in which the said Offenders shall be employed, and their different Places and Modes of Confinement, will permit, and so far as is consistent with the other Regulations and Orders contained in this Act, with respect to the said Offenders.

Superintendant, in the Treatment and Employment of Offenders, to observe the Directions before given to the Governors of the Penitentiary Houses, &c.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That each of the Governors and Superintendants of the several Places of Confinement to be appointed by virtue of this Act, shall keep a regular Book or Books, for the Purposes herein-after mentioned; and from thence, from Time to Time, shall make true and just Returns, specifying the Names of all and every the Person or Persons who shall be committed to their Custody, the Offences of which they shall have been guilty, the Court before which each Person was convicted, the Sentence of the Court, the Age, bodily Estate, and Behaviour of every such Convict while in Custody, and also the Names of all and every the Person or Persons who shall have died under such Custody, or shall have escaped from such Place of Confinement, or shall have been discharged from thence by Order from one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, or otherwise; which Returns shall be made, the first Day of every Term, to his Majesty's Court of King's Bench, and shall be verified on the Oath of the Person making the same.

Governors and Superintendants to keep regular Books; from which Returns are to be made, the first Day of every Term, to the Court of King's Bench, specifying the Names and Offences, &c. of all Persons committed to their Custody.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That a State of the Accounts of each of the said Penitentiary Houses shall be laid before the Justices of the Peace for the County in which the same shall be situated, four Times in the Year, at their General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and the said Accounts shall be then, or at any other adjourned Sessions to be then appointed for that Purpose, inspected, and carefully examined; and if the said Justices shall observe any notorious Waste to have happened, or any extravagant Expences to have been incurred, or any other gross Mismanagement, they shall report the same to the Justices of his Majesty's Court of King's Bench, who shall immediately take Order therein, and check or redress the same.

A State of the Accounts of each Penitentiary House to be laid before every Quarter Sessions for the County; who, if they observe any notorious Waste, &c. are to report the same to the Court of King's Bench.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty to appoint one fit and able Person to be Inspector of the two Penitentiary Houses to be erected by virtue of this Act, and of the several Ships and Vessels, to be employed on the River Thames for the Confinement of Offenders as aforesaid, and of all other Gaols and Places of criminal Confinement within the City of London and County of Middlesex; which Inspector shall personally visit and inspect every such Place of Confinement once at least in every Quarter of a Year, or oftener, if Occasion shall require, and shall diligently examine into the several Particulars herein-before directed to be returned to his Majesty's Court of King's Bench, and also into the State of the Buildings, the Behaviour and Conduct of the respective Officers, the Treatment and Condition of the Prisoners, the Amount of the several Earnings, and the Expences attending every such Place of Confinement, and shall make a faithful Report of the same to both Houses of Parliament, at the Beginning of every Session, and also in Matters of extreme or pressing Necessity, shall and may make a special Report thereof to the Justices of his Majesty's Court of King's Bench, who shall immediately take Order therein, and regulate or redress the same; and such Inspector shall continue in such Office during his Majesty's Pleasure, and shall receive such Salary as his Majesty shall appoint, not exceeding two hundred Pounds per Annum.

His Majesty may appoint an Inspector of the Penitentiary Houses, &c.; who shall visit and inspect every such Place of Confinement once a Quarter, and make a faithful Report of the state thereof to both Houses of Parliament, at the Beginning of every Session.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Expences of carrying this Act into Execution, not herein-before specially provided for, shall be annually laid before the House of Commons, and after deducting thereout the Nett Profits, if any, arising from the Earnings of the Offenders who shall be kept to Hard Labour in any of the Places of Confinement to be appointed by virtue of this Act, shall be provided for in the next Supplies to be granted to his Majesty by Parliament.

Expences of executing this Act to be laid annually before the House of Commons, &c.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall be ordered to Hard Labour in any of the Places of Confinement to be appointed by virtue of this Act, instead of being capitally punished, shall, at any Time during the Term for which he or she shall be so ordered to Confinement, break Prison, or escape escape from the Place of his or her Confinement, or in his or her Conveyance to such Place of Confinement, or from the Person or Persons having the lawful Custody of such Offender, he or she so breaking Prison or escaping, shall be guilty of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy; but in case he or she so breaking Prison, or escaping, hath been ordered to Hard Labour instead of Transportation, he or she shall be punished by an Addition of three Years to the Term for which he or she, at the Time of his or her Breach of Prison, or Escape, was subject to be confined; and if such Person, so punished by such Addition to the Term of Confinement, shall afterwards be convicted of a second Escape, or Breach of Prison, he or she shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Punishment of Persons ordered to hard Labour who shall break

Prison, or escape from lawful Custody.

If any Person shall rescue, or attempt to rescue, any Offender ordered to hard Labour; or any Person having the Custody of such Offender shall voluntarily permit his Escape, or any other Person shall be assisting therein; every such Person shall be guilty of Felony.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall rescue any Offender, who by Force of this Act, or any Part of it, shall be ordered to Hard Labour, in any Place of Confinement appointed by virtue of this Act, either during the Time of his or her Conveyance to the Place appointed for such Hard Labour, or whilst such Offender shall be in the Custody of the Person or Persons under whose Care and Charge he or she shall be so confined; or if any Person shall be aiding or assisting in any such Rescue; every such Person so rescuing, aiding, or assisting, shall be guilty of Felony, and may be ordered to Hard Labour in any Place of Confinement appointed by virtue of this Act, for any Term not less than one, nor exceeding five Years: And if any Person having the Custody of any such Offender as aforesaid, or being employed by the Person having such Custody, as a Keeper, Under-keeper, Turnkey, Assistant, or Guard, shall voluntarily permit such Offender to escape; or if any Person whatsoever shall, by supplying Arms, Tools, or Instruments of Disguise, or otherwise, be in any Manner aiding and assisting to any such Offender in any Escape, or in any Attempt to make an Escape, though no Escape be actually made, or shall attempt to rescue any such Offender, or be aiding and assisting in any such Attempt, though no Rescue be actually made, every such Person so permitting, attempting, aiding, or assisting, shall be guilty of Felony; and if any Person having such Custody, or being so employed by the Person having such Custody as aforesaid, shall negligently permit any such Offender to escape, such Person so permitting shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor; and, being lawfully convicted of the same, shall be liable to Fine or Imprisonment, or to both, at the Discretion of the Court.

Method of Trial and Conviction of Offenders for making Escape, or breaking Prison; and of Persons for assisting therein.

'LXVII. And, to the Intent that the Prosecutions for Escapes, Breaches of Prison, and Rescues, may be 'carried on with as little Trouble and Expence as is possible;' be it further enacted, That any Offender escaping, breaking Prison, or being rescued, in Manner aforesaid, may and shall be tried before the Justices of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol Delivery, or at the Great Sessions for the County where he or she shall be apprehended and retaken; and in case of any Prosecution for any such Escape, Attempt to escape, Breach of Prison, or Rescue, either against the Offender escaping, or attempting to escape, or having broke Prison, or been rescued, or against any other Person or Persons concerned therein, or aiding, abetting, or assisting the same, a Copy, properly attested, of the Certificate herein-before directed to be given to the Sheriff or Gaoler by the Clerk of the Assize, or other Clerk for the Time being of the Court in which such Offender shall be convicted, and by such Sheriff or Gaoler to be delivered, together with the Offender, to such Governor or Superintendant as aforesaid, and by such Governor or Superintendant to be transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace, to be filed with the Records of the Sessions, shall, after Proof made that the Person then in Question before the Court is the same that was delivered with such Certificate, be sufficient Evidence to the Court and Jury, not only of the Nature and Fact of the Conviction itself, and the Species of Confinement to which such Person was ordered, but also that the Person then in Question is the same that was so convicted, and ordered to such Confinement.

Penalties of this Act how to be recovered and applied.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That any pecuniary Penalties created by this Act, for the Recovery of which no Mode is herein-before prescribed, shall be recoverable before two or more Justices of the Peace in the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Borough, Town, or Place, in which the Offence shall be committed, on Proof of the Offence by the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, or on Confession of the Offender; and one Moiety thereof shall be paid to the Use of the Penitentiary House, or other Place of Confinement, to which the Offence more immediately relates, and the other Moiety to the Informer or Informers prosecuting for the same; and in case of Nonpayment, shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of such Justices; and the Overplus of the Money raised, after deducting the Penalty, and the Expences of the Distress and Sale, shall be rendered to the Owner; and for Want of sufficient Distress the Offender shall be sent by such Justices to the Prison of such County, Riding, Division, City, Borough, Town, or Place, for such Term, not exceeding six Months, nor less than one Month, as such Justices shall think most proper.

Allowance to be made to the County of Middlesex for their disproportionate Expences.

LXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in Consideration of the great and disproportionate Expences which the County of Middlesex will probably incur, in providing for the temporary Reception and Maintenance of great Numbers of Offenders as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, to issue and allow to the Treasurer of the said County of Middlesex, from Time to Time, till such Certificate shall be made as aforesaid, such Sum or Sums of Money as shall appear to be reasonable, in Aid of such extraordinary Expences, not exceeding the Sum of three hundred Pounds for one Year, and so in Proportion for any longer or shorter Time.

Regulation relative to the Lodgings of the Judges at County Assizes.

'LXX. And whereas the Courts of Assize, Nisi Prius, Oyer and Terminer, and Gaol Delivery, for 'several Counties at large in this Kingdom, are often held in or near Cities or Towns that are Counties 'of themselves, and at the same Time with the like Courts for the said Cities or Towns; and Inconvenien-'cies frequently arise, in transacting the Business of the several Courts, for that the Lodgings of the Judges 'are situate either only in the County at large, or only in the County of such City or Town;' be it therefore further enacted, That whenever the Courts of Assize, Nisi Prius, Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol Delivery, for any County at large, in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be held in or near any City or Town that is also a County of itself, and at the same Time with the like or any of the like Courts for the said City or Town, the Lodgings of the Judge or Judges shall be construed and taken to be situate both within the County at large, and also within the County of such City or Town, for the Purpose of carrying this Act into Execution, and of transacting the Business of the Assizes for such County at large, and for the County of such City or Town, during the Time that such Judge or Judges shall continue therein for the Execution of their several Commissions.

Persons prosecuted under this Act may plead the General Issue, LXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Suit or Action shall be prosecuted against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons may plead the General Issue, and give this Act or the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done by the Authority of this Act; and if a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become Nonsuit, or discontinue his, her, or their Action or Actions, after Issue joined; or if on Demurrer, or otherwise, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendants have by Law in other Cases; and though a Verdict shall be given for any Plaintiff, in any such Action or Suit as aforesaid, such Plaintiff shall not have Costs against the Defendant, unless the Judge, before whom the Trial shall be, shall certify his Approbation of the Verdict.

and recover Treble Costs.

Limitation of Actions.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That all Actions, Suits, and Prosecutions, to be commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, shall be laid and tried in the County or Place where the Fact was committed, and shall be commenced within six Months after the Fact committed, and not otherwise.

So much of 16 Geo. III. Cap. 43, continued as relates to the Terms of Confinement of Offenders unexpired at the passing of this Act, LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That an Act, made and passed in the sixteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to authorise, for a limited Time, the Punishment by Hard Labour of Offenders who, for certain Crimes, are or shall become liable to be transported to any of his Majesty's Colonies and Plantations; and which was continued by two subsequent Acts, the one made in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and the other in this present Session of Parliament, till the first Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, shall, with regard to such Offenders whose respective Terms of Confinement under and by virtue of the said Acts are subsisting and unexpired at the passing of this Act, continue and remain in Force till the End or other Determination of their said respective Terms; the Time limited for the Expiration of the said Acts, or any other Matter or Thing, to the contrary notwithstanding; save only that such Offenders so confined shall, from and after the said first Day of July, be subject to the Orders and Regulations herein-before contained, instead of those contained in the said former Act.

Continuance of this Act.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in Force until the first Day of June, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer; except with regard to Offenders whose respective Terms of Confinement under and by virtue of this Act shall be then subsisting and unexpired, with regard to whom it shall continue in Force till the End or other Determination of their respective Terms.

CAP. LXXV.

An Act for removing certain Difficulties with respect to the more speedy and effectual Manning of his Majesty's Navy, for a limited Time.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS by several Acts of Parliament, Persons under certain Descriptions are protected from 'being impressed into his Majesty's Service at Sea: And whereas it is equally just and expedient 'that such Protections should not be used to obstruct the public Defence in an arduous and difficult Con'juncture;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of an Act, passed in the second Year of the Reign of her Majesty Queen Anne (intituled, An Act for the Increase of Seamen, and better Encouragement of Navigation, and Security of the Coal Trade), as grants any Exemption or Protection to any Apprentice or other Person from being impressed, or permitted or suffered to list or enter into his Majesty's Sea Service; and also one Act passed in the thirteenth Year of his late Majesty's Reign (intituled, An Act for the Increase of Mariners, and Seamen to navigate Merchant Ships, and other trading Ships or Vessels); and also so much of an Act, passed in the second Year of his Majesty's Reign (intituled, An Act for the better supplying the Cities of London and Westminster with Fish, and to reduce the present exorbitant Price thereof, and to protect and encourage Fishermen), as grants any Protection to the Persons therein described from being impressed into his Majesty's Service at Sea; and also so much of an Act passed in the eleventh Year of his Majesty's Reign (intituled, An Act for the better Support and Establishment of the Greenland and Whale Fishery), as grants the like Protection to the Persons therein described, shall be, and the same are hereby declared and enacted to be of no Force and Effect, for and during the Space of five Calendar Months, to be computed from the sixteenth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine.

Part of an Act 2 Annæ, for Increase of Seamen, &c.; and 13 Geo. II. Cap. 17.; and Part of 2 Geo. III. Cap. 15; and Part of 11 Geo. III. Cap. 38, suspended for 5 Months, from June 16, 1779.

II. Provided nevertheless, That the Suspension of the above-mentioned Acts, so far as they relate to Persons serving on board of Ships and Vessels employed in the Coal Trade, shall not continue longer than one Calendar Month, to be computed from the sixteenth Day of June aforesaid.

Exception in favour of Persons employed in the Coal Trade.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons shall be sued or molested for taking and impressing, or causing to be taken and impressed, within the Time aforesaid, any Person or Persons for his Majesty's Service at Sea, contrary to the Provisions of the before recited Acts, or any of them.

No Person to be molested for impressing, within the Time aforesaid, contrary to the recited Acts.

CAP. LXXVI.

An Act for augmenting the Militia.

Preamble. Recital of the Militia Act 2 Geo. III.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the several Laws now in being relating to 'the

'raiſing and training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England; it is, amongſt other 'Things, enacted, That the Number of Private Men to be raiſed, by virtue of the ſaid Act, in that Part 'of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall con- 'ſiſt of the Numbers therein particularly mentioned: And whereas, in the preſent Situation of public 'Affairs, it is highly neceſſary and expedient that the Number of the Militia Forces ſhould be augmented:

and 18 Geo. III. Cap. 59.

'And whereas by an Act, paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act to amend and render 'more effectual the Laws relating to the raiſing and training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain 'called England; and to eſtabliſh certain Regulations with reſpect to Officers ſerving in the Corps of Fencible 'Men directed to be raiſed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and certain other Corps therein men- 'tioned, it is enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any of his Majeſty's Lieutenants to authoriſe 'the Acceptance of any Number of Volunteers in any Regiment or Battalion of Militia, and to ap- 'point Officers to command ſuch Volunteers, provided the Number of ſuch Volunteers does not exceed 'the Complement of any one Company in any ſuch Regiment or Battalion: And whereas it may be ex- 'pedient further to extend the Proviſions of the ſaid Act with reſpect to the raiſing Volunteer Companies 'in the Militia Forces of this Kingdom;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, if any Perſon or Perſons, properly qualified according to the Laws now in Force, ſhall offer to his Majeſty's Lieutenant of any County to raiſe one or more Company or Companies to be added to the Regiment or Battalion of any County or Riding, it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty's Lieutenant to accept ſuch Offers, and to appoint ſuch Officers accordingly; and ſhall certify to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, the Names and Ranks of ſuch Officers, within one Month after they ſhall be ſo appointed; and in caſe his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, ſhall, within one Month after ſuch Certificate laid before his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, ſignify his or their Diſapprobation of any Perſon to be ſuch Officer in the Militia, his Majeſty's Lieutenant ſhall not grant a Commiſſion to ſuch Perſon, but ſhall grant Commiſſions to ſuch Perſons ſo appointed who ſhall not be diſapproved of by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, as aforeſaid; and on the Certificate of his Majeſty's Lieutenant, or of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment or Battalion to which ſuch Company or Companies ſhall be annexed, that ſuch Company or Companies are actually raiſed, ſuch Company or Companies ſhall be intitled to the ſame Allowance of Bounty, Subſiſtence Money, Arms, and Clothing, as the reſt of his Majeſty's Militia Forces in this Kingdom.

Lord Lieutenants impowered to accept of Volunteer Companies, and to appoint Officers therein.

Such Companies to be intitled to the ſame Pay, &c. as the other Militia Forces.

II. And be it enacted, That when any ſuch Companies of Volunteers ſhall be added to any Regiment, ſuch Addition ſhall not make it neceſſary to ſeparate ſuch Regiment into two Battalions, but ſuch Regiment ſhall remain and continue one Regiment.

Augmented Regiments not to be made two Battalions.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the ſeveral Laws, and all the Rules, Regulations, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things therein contained, and now in Force, or which ſhall be paſſed in this Seſſion of Parliament, relative to the raiſing, training, paying, clothing, embodying, and calling out, the Militia, ſhall be applied, practiſed, and put in Execution, with reſpect to the additional Volunteer Companies by this Act directed to be raiſed, in as full and ample Manner as if the ſaid ſeveral Laws, Rules, Regulations, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things, were herein again at large repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this preſent Act; ſave and except ſo far as the ſame are altered by any Proviſions contained in this Act.

Volunteer Companies to be ſubject to all the Laws, Regulations, &c. now in Force relating to the Militia; and to be reduced when the Militia ſhall be diſembodied, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Volunteer Companies which ſhall be raiſed in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be reduced and diſſolved whenever the Militia of the Counties, Ridings, and Places, in which ſuch Companies ſhall be raiſed, ſhall be diſembodied, or at ſuch earlier Period as his Majeſty ſhall ſignify his Pleaſure to reduce ſuch Companies.

Continuance of this Act.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be and continue in Force until the firſt Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-two, and no longer.

CAP. LXXVII.

An Act to enable the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury to compound a Debt due to the Crown from James Gildart and his Sureties, and for veſting the Eſtates of the ſaid James Gildart in Francis Gildart and Thomas Gildart; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

"Preamble reciting ſeveral Bonds entered into by James Gildart, and his Sureties. A Writ of Extent "iſſued by the Court of Exchequer. Commiſſioners of the Treaſury impowered to compound with Fran- "cis Gildart and Thomas Gildart, for the Money remaining due to the Crown from James Gildart, as "Receiver-general of the Land Tax, &c. for Lancaſhire, or from his Sureties. All the Eſtates, both real "and perſonal, which James Gildart was poſſeſſed of or intitled to at the ſuing out of the Extent; and alſo "the Eſtates which were deviſed as aforeſaid by Richard Gildart, are veſted in Francis Gildart and Thomas "Gildart; ſubject to the Payment of the Compoſition herein mentioned for the Debts aforeſaid. Upon "Payment of the Compoſition above-mentioned, or giving Security for the ſame, the ſaid Eſtates to be "abſolutely veſted in them and their Heirs, freed from all Debts due from James Gildart to the Crown, "and from the Bonds entered into by his Sureties. Francis Gildart and Thomas Gildart impowered to "bring Actions for recovering Poſſeſſion of Premiſes, &c. After Payment of, or giving Security for, "the Compoſition herein mentioned, the aforeſaid Eſtates veſted in Francis and Thomas Gildart, and any "Eſtate which James Gildart may hereafter acquire, and alſo his ſeveral Sureties, are freed and diſcharged "of the aforeſaid Debts due to the Crown. General Saving."

CAP. LXXVIII.

An Act for enlarging the Term of an Act, paſſed in the twelfth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, for building a Temporary Bridge over the River Tyne, between the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne and Gateſhead, in the County of Durham; for completing the new Stone Bridge over the ſaid River; and for making the Avenues to, and the Paſſage over the ſame more commodious.

CAP. I.

An Act for holding the ensuing Election of a Knight of the Shire for the County of Southampton, at the Town of New Alresford, in the said County.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for regulating the Quartering of Soldiers during the Time of the Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, it is enacted, That when and as often as any Election of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament shall be appointed to be made, the Secretary at War, or the Person who shall officiate in the Place of the Secretary at War, shall, at some convenient Time before the Day appointed for such Election, issue and send forth proper Orders for the Removal of all Soldiers, who shall be quartered or billetted in any City, Borough, Town, or Place, where such Election shall be appointed to be made, out of every such City, Borough, Town, or Place, one Day at least before the Day appointed for such Election, to the Distance of two or more Miles from such City, Borough, Town, or Place, and not to make any nearer Approach thereto, until one Day at the least after the Poll to be taken at such Election shall be ended, and the Poll Books closed, under certain Penalties and Disabilities in the said Act mentioned: And whereas by an Act, made in the seventh and eighth Years of King William the Third, for the further regulating Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, and for the preventing irregular Proceedings of Sheriffs, and other Officers, in electing and returning such Members, it is enacted, That upon every Election of any Knight of the Shire, the Sheriff shall hold his County Court at the most public and usual Place of Election, and where the same has been usually held for forty Years: And whereas an Election is soon to be held for a Knight of the Shire for the County of Southampton, and, if not otherwise provided for, will be held at the City of Winchester (being the usual Place for holding Elections for the said County), at which Place many French and Spanish Prisoners are now confined, for the safe keeping of which a Number of Troops or Soldiers are absolutely necessary, and cannot be removed from thence without manifest Danger as well to the Inhabitants of the said City, and all Persons resorting thereto, as to the Public in general:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Election shall be begun and held at the Town of New Alresford, in the said County of Southampton; and that the County Court for the said County at which the said Election shall be made (whether the same County Court be holden by Adjournment, or otherwise) shall be holden at the said Town of New Alresford, and not at Winchester aforesaid; and the Adjournment of the said County Court, if any such has been made, and is now depending, to the said City of Winchester, or any other Place, shall be deemed and taken to be legally made to the said Town of New Alresford; any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding; and the Sheriff of the said County, or his Deputy, are hereby authorised and required to adjourn the Poll, from the said Town of New Alresford, to Newport in the Isle of Wight, in the Manner directed in and by an Act made in the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the further regulating Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, and for the preventing irregular Proceedings of Sheriffs, and other Officers, in the electing and returning such Members, in relation to adjourning the Poll from the said City of Winchester.

Preamble; reciting an Act 8 Geo. II.

and 7 & 8 Gul. III.

The ensuing Election for Hampshire to be held at New Alresford, instead of Winchester.

CAP. II.

An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty. 4*s*.

CAP. III.

An Act for continuing and granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and eighty.

CAP. IV.

An Act for continuing an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, for allowing the Importation of fine organzined Italian Thrown Silk in any Ships or Vessels, for a limited Time. [Further continued till March 25, 1781.]

CAP. V.

An Act for further continuing an Act, made in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to impower his Majesty to secure and detain Persons charged with, or suspected of, the Crime of High Treason, committed in any of his Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, or on the High Seas, or the Crime of Piracy. [Further continued till January 1, 1781.]

CAP. VI.

An Act to repeal certain Acts made in Great Britain, which restrain the Trade and Commerce of Ireland with Foreign Parts.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS, in order to promote and advance the Welfare and Prosperity of his Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, it is expedient that certain Acts of Parliament, formerly made in Great Britain, 'which lay Restraints upon the Trade and Commerce of Ireland, respecting the Articles herein-after mentioned, should be repealed;' may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

So much of any British Acts of Parliament as prohibit or restrain the Exportation of Woollen Manufactures from Ireland to Foreign Parts, repealed.

That, from and after the passing of this Act, so much of an Act of Parliament, made in the tenth and eleventh Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act to prevent the Exportation of Wool out of the Kingdoms of Ireland and England into Foreign Parts; and for the Encouragement of the Woollen Manufactures in the Kingdom of England; and so much of any other Act or Acts of Parliament made in Great Britain, which prohibit or in any Manner restrain the Exportation of Cloth, Serge, Bays, Kerseys, Says, Frizes, Druggets, Cloth-serges, Shalloons, or any other Drapery Stuffs or Woollen Manufactures whatsoever, made up or mixed with Wool or Wool Flocks, from the Kingdom of Ireland into Foreign Parts, shall be, and the same is and are hereby repealed and made void.

So much of 19 Geo. II. Cap. 12. as relates to the Exportation of Glass from Ireland, repealed.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, so much of an Act, made in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty several Rates and Duties upon Glass, and upon Spirituous Liquors; and for raising a certain Sum of Money by Annuities, and a Lottery, to be charged on the said Rates and Duties; and for obviating some Doubts about making out Orders at the Exchequer for the Monies advanced upon the Credit of the Salt Duties, granted and continued to his Majesty by an Act of the last Session of Parliament; as relates to the Exportation of Glass, Glass Bottles, or Glass of any Kind or Denomination whatsoever, from or out of the Kingdom of Ireland, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed and made void.

CAP. VII.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to explain and amend so much of an Act, made in the fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, as relates to the preventing the clandestine Conveyance of Sugar and Paneles from the British Colonies and Plantations in America into Great Britain.

Preamble.

28 Geo. III. Cap. 58, recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to amend and explain so much of an Act, made in the fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, as relates to the preventing the clandestine Conveyance of Sugar and Paneles from the British Colonies and Plantations in America into Great Britain; it was among other Things enacted, That, from and after the first Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, if any Sugar or Paneles shall be imported into Great Britain, from any British Colony or Plantation in America, without, or which shall not be included in the Certificate required in and by the said Act of the fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, that then, and in either such Case, all such Sugar and Paneles shall be deemed and taken to be foreign Sugar and Paneles, and shall be liable to the same Duties, Restrictions, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in all Respects, as Sugar and Paneles of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture, of any French Colony or Plantation, would be respectively liable to by Law; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: And whereas great Inconveniencies have arisen, and may arise, from the taking away, by the said

'said Act of the eighteenth Year of his present Majesty, the discretionary Power, which was formerly 'vested in the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs by the said Act of the fourth of his present Ma- 'jesty, to dispense with the said Certificate;' for Remedy whereof, may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Sugar or Paneles shall be imported into Great Britain, from any British Colony or Plantation in America, without, or which shall not be included in the Certificate required by the said Act of the fourth of his present Majesty, and it shall be made appear, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs at London or Edinburgh respectively, that the Goods are really and truly the Produce of any British Plantation or Colony in America, and that no Fraud was intended, it shall and may in such Case be lawful for the said respective Commissioners to permit the said Goods to be entered, upon Payment of the British Plantation Duties, any Thing in the said Act, of the eighteenth Year of his present Majesty, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Sugar or Paneles from British America may be entered on Payment of British Plantation Duties, without the Certificate required by an Act 4 Geo. III.

'II. And whereas several Parcels of Sugar have been imported into this Kingdom, from several of the 'British Colonies or Plantations in America, since the said first Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and 'seventy-nine, without, or which are not included in the Certificate required by the said Act of the fourth 'of his present Majesty; Part of which Sugar now remains secured in Warehouses under his Majesty's 'Locks, and other Part thereof hath been delivered upon the Merchants depositing the French Duties in 'the Hands of the proper Officer of his Majesty's Customs till such Certificate could be produced, and 'other Part which hath been lately so imported is not yet entered: And whereas, from the present State 'of public Affairs in the West Indies, it is now impracticable to produce the Certificates for such Sugar, 'for want of which, unless Relief is granted by Parliament, the said Sugar is liable to the same Duties, 'Restrictions, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as Sugar of the Growth, Produce, or Manufac- 'ture, of any French Colony or Plantation, notwithstanding the same is really the Produce of the British 'Colonies or Plantations in America:' For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the respective Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or any three or more of them, to permit the said Sugar so secured in Warehouses, or not entered, to be entered and delivered, upon Payment of the British Plantation Duties for the Quantity landed, and the Difference of the Duties so deposited to be returned, upon the Proof herein before required and directed; any Thing in the said Act, of the eighteenth Year of his present Majesty, to the contrary notwithstanding.

How Commissioners of the Customs are to act relative to Sugar imported from America since March 1, 1779.

CAP. VIII.

An Act to indemnify such Officers of the Militia as have not transmitted to the Clerks of the Peace Descriptions of their Qualifications, and Certificates of their having taken the Oaths as required; and for allowing further Time for the Delivery of Descriptions of Qualifications by such Officers of the Militia; and for obliging the Captain Lieutenant to deliver in a Description of his Qualification.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to explain, 'amend, and render more effectual, the several Laws now in being relative to the Militia Forces of this 'Kingdom; and for making certain Provisions relative to the Fencible Men in that Part of Great Britain called 'Scotland, every Officer then holding or then after accepting a Commission as Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, 'Major, or Captain, is required, before the first Day of December, one thousand seven hundred and 'seventy-nine, or within six Months after such Acceptance, to deliver in his or their several respective 'Qualification or Qualifications, agreeable to the Directions of an Act made in the eighteenth Year of his 'Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to amend and render more effectual the Laws relating to the raising and 'training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England; and to establish certain Regulations 'with respect to Officers serving in the Corps of Fencible Men directed to be raised in that Part of Great Britain 'called Scotland, and certain other Corps therein mentioned; and also to transmit to the Clerk of the Peace of 'the County, in the Militia whereof such Officer shall serve, a true Description of his Qualification, and 'also a Certificate of his having taken the Oaths required: And whereas, by Reason of such Officers 'being upon Duty, and at a Distance from their respective Counties, many of them have omitted to deliver 'in their respective Qualifications, and to transmit such Description and Certificate as aforesaid, whereby 'they are or may be liable to the Penalties imposed by the said Acts for such Neglect or Omission:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in case any such Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, Major, Captain, or Officer of Militia, shall have neglected or omitted to deliver in his or their several respective Qualification or Qualifications, or to transmit to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, in the Militia whereof such Officer shall serve, a true Description of his Qualification for holding such respective Commission, and also a Certificate of his having taken the Oaths required, such Officer or Officers, notwithstanding such Omission or Neglect, shall be, and are hereby indemnified from the Penalties imposed by the said recited Acts for such Omission or Neglect; and all Acts done by them, in virtue of their respective Commissions as Officers in the Militia, are hereby directed to be valid and of full Effect; any Thing in the said recited Acts, or either of them, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Recital of Cap. 72, of the last Session;

and 18 Geo. III. Cap. 59.

Militia Officers, who have neglected to deliver in their Qualifications, &c. are indemnified, and their Acts valid.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Officer now holding or hereafter accepting a Commission as Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, Major, Captain, or Captain Lieutenant, excepting only such Captain Lieutenants tenants as have acted as such before the first Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, in the Militia, not having already transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, in the Militia whereof such Officer shall serve, a true Description of his Qualification for holding such Commission, according to the Directions of an Act of the last Session of Parliament, shall, on or before the first Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, or within six Months after having accepted any such Commission in future, transmit to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, in the Militia whereof such Officer shall serve, a true Description of his Qualification for holding such Commission as aforesaid; and in case any such Officer shall neglect or omit to transmit such Description of his Qualification, every such Officer so omitting or neglecting shall be liable to the Penalties imposed by the said Acts for such Neglect or Omission.

Officers to deliver in their Qualifications before March 1, 1780.

CAP. IX.

An Act for extending the Provisions of two Acts, made in the eighteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, and in the last Session of Parliament, with respect to bringing Prize Goods into this Kingdom, to Spanish Prize Goods; and for repealing so much of the said last-mentioned Act as relates to the Certificates for Prize Tea and East India Goods exported from this Kingdom to Ireland; for the Removal of East India Goods condemned as Prize at any Out-port to London for Sale, and of Prize Goods for Exportation; and for reducing the Duty on Foreign Prize Tobacco.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS his Majesty, by Order in Council dated the eighteenth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, was pleased to order that general Reprizals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the King of Spain; and that, as well all his Majesty's Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque or General Reprizals, or otherwise, by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods, belonging to the King of Spain, or his Subjects, or others inhabiting within any of the Territories of the King of Spain, and bring the same to Judgment in any of his Majesty's Courts of Admiralty within his Majesty's Dominions: And whereas it is expedient that the several Provisions of two Acts of Parliament, the one made in the eighteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Relief of the Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom; and the other made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting Relief to the Captors of Prizes, with respect to bringing and landing certain French Prizes in this Kingdom, should be extended in like Manner to all Prize Goods which have been, or may be taken from the Spaniards in pursuance of his Majesty's said Order in Council, subject nevertheless to such Alterations and Regulations as are herein-after prescribed:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Acts made in the eighteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, and in the last Session of Parliament, and all the Articles, Clauses, and Provisions therein (except where any Alteration is made by this Act), shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all Prize Goods and Ships or Vessels which have been taken from the Spaniards since the eighteenth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, or which hereafter may be taken during the Continuance of the present Hostilities with Spain, by any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or by any private or other Ship or Vessel having Commission or other Authority from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain for the Time being, for that Purpose.

18 Geo. III. Cap. 15.

19 Geo. III. Cap. 5.

The above recited Acts extended to all Spanish Prizes taken since June 18, 1779, or which may be taken during the present Hostilities.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any foreign Ship or Vessel hath been or shall hereafter be taken, during the present Hostilities, and condemned as Prize in any of his Majesty's Dominions out of this Kingdom, the Duty due and payable by Law for such Ship or Vessel shall be paid, upon her first Arrival at any Port in this Kingdom, to the Collector of his Majesty's Customs at such Port, by the Master, Owner, or Consignee, of such Ship or Vessel, whether the same shall have been sold by the Captors after Condemnation, or otherwise; and that no foreign-built Ship or Vessel so condemned shall enjoy or be entitled to the Privilege of a British-built Ship or Vessel, until such Duty is paid for the same: And it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs to stop and detain such Ship or Vessel at any Port in Great Britain, until the said Duty is paid as aforesaid; and in case Payment thereof shall not be made for the Space of three Calendar Months after the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel at any Port in this Kingdom, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or any three or more of them, to cause such Ship or Vessel, and her Materials, Apparel, and Furniture, to be sold publicly to the best Bidder, and the Produce thereof to be applied, first to the Charges that shall arise by such Detention and Sale, next to the Customs and Duties, and the Overplus to be paid to the Proprietor of such Ship or Vessel, or other Person duly authorised by such Proprietor to receive the same.

Clause relative to the Payment of Duties for Prizes condemned in his Majesty's Dominions beyond Sea.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the herein-before recited Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, as enacts, That if any Tea, or other East India Goods, which are or may be liable to any Duties ad valorem, which shall be taken and condemned as Prize, shall be exported from this Kingdom to Ireland, the Certificates, Cocquets, and other Documents, shall express the Price or Value at which such Goods were sold by the Captors or their Agents upon Condemnation, and that such Cocquets and other Documents shall have the same Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, upon the Importation of such Goods into Ireland, as if the said Goods had been imported by and sold at the Sales of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be, and the same is hereby repealed and made void.

Part of the recited Act of last Session repealed.

East India Goods condemned as Prize in any Out-port, shall be brought to London for Sale.

'IV. And whereas Goods of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the East Indies taken as Prize, 'have been, and may, during the present Hostilities with France or Spain, be carried into some of the Out-'ports of this Kingdom and condemned; and from the Inexperience of the Officers of the Customs at such 'Ports, Difficulties have arisen in computing and charging the Duties thereon:' For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where such Goods shall be carried into any Out-port in this Kingdom, and condemned as Prize, Bond, with sufficient Security, shall be given to his Majesty, in Treble the Value of such Goods, that the same shall be brought to London, and delivered to his Majesty's Warehouse-keeper, at the Custom-house for the Port of London, to be deposited by him in Warehouses provided at the Expence of the Captors or their Agents, and approved of by the Commissioners of the Customs, or any four or more of them; and with further Condition to produce a Certificate from such Warehouse-keeper, within three Months from the Date of such Bond, that the Goods have been delivered accordingly; which Security the Collector and Comptroller, or other principal Officer of the Customs, at the Port from whence such Goods are to be removed, are hereby authorised and impowered to take, and to cancel and discharge such Bond upon receiving the Certificate from the Warehouse-keeper, as herein-before directed; and if such Goods shall be sent by Land Carriage, they shall be removed under the Seals of Office of such Collector and Comptroller, or principal Officer of the Customs, and shall be accompanied with a Transire expressing the Number and Marks of the Packages; and all such Goods so removed, either by Land or Water, shall afterwards be publicly exposed to Sale in the City of London, by the Captors or their Agents, they giving Notice of such Sale to the proper Officers of the Customs and Excise appointed or to be appointed for that Purpose; and the Duties due and payable for such Goods shall be thereupon computed and charged by the proper Officers of the Customs or Excise respectively concerned therein, by the same Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, in all Respects (excepting any Allowance for Warehouse Rent) as the Duties payable upon the like Goods imported by, and sold at the Sales of, the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, are computed and charged; and the Duties due by Law thereon shall be accordingly paid and applied; any Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

How the Duties thereon shall be computed.

Prize Goods lodged in Warehouses may be removed to any Custom-house Warehouse in Great Britain for Exportation.

'V. And whereas, by the herein-before recited Act, made in the eighteenth Year of his Majesty's 'Reign, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That any Prize Goods received into any Warehouses in 'this Kingdom, in pursuance of that Act, may be exported directly from thence without paying any fur-'ther Duty than is by the said Act directed, upon the Security therein mentioned: And whereas, in some 'Cases, it is impracticable for the Captors or their Agents to procure Ships to export such Goods directly 'from the Ports where they are so warehoused, and the keeping such Goods therein for a considerable Time, 'in order to procure such Vessels, is attended with great Expence and Loss to the Captors:' For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or any three or more of them, in any Case where they shall think proper, to order such Goods, so secured in any Warehouse in this Kingdom, to be removed and sent from thence for Exportation to any Custom-house Warehouse, at any other Port or Place in Great Britain, by and under the Seal of Office of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs at the Port from whence the Goods are intended to be so removed, at the Expence of the Captors or their Agents, or other Person or Persons who may have purchased the same; and in such Case, the Security directed by the herein-before recited Act, shall be taken by the Customer or Collector of the Port to which such Goods are removed, before they are delivered for Exportation, instead of the Customer or Collector of the Port where they were first warehoused as aforesaid; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Foreign Prize Tobacco to pay the same Duties as Tobacco the Produce of British America.

'VI. And whereas the Duties payable by Law upon Prize Tobacco, of the Growth, Product, or 'Manufacture of any foreign Colony or Plantation, are so high as to render it impracticable for the Captors 'or their Agents to dispose of the same, after Condemnation, in this Kingdom to any Advantage:' For Remedy thereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Tobacco, not being the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of any British American Colony or Plantation, or any Place or Country under the Dominion of his Majesty, which hath been taken and condemned as Prize, and which is now remaining in any Warehouse in this Kingdom under the King's Locks, or on Board any Ship or Vessel unentered at the Custom-house, or which shall hereafter, during the present Hostilities with France or Spain, be taken and condemned as Prize in this Kingdom, or in any of his Majesty's Dominions abroad, shall be liable to pay the same Duties as Tobacco of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the British Colonies or Plantations in America, are or may be liable to by Law, and to no other; and upon Exportation of such Tobacco into foreign Parts, the Whole of such Duties so paid or secured shall be repaid and drawn back, or the Security vacated, excepting the Half of the old Subsidy, granted by an Act passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, and the Whole of the further Subsidy of Poundage, granted by an Act passed in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, being what is commonly called The Subsidy one thousand seven hundred and forty-seven, if such Tobacco shall be taken by any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War; and the Half of the old Subsidy only, if taken by any private or other Ship having Commission as aforesaid; and such Tobacco shall, in all other Respects, be subject and liable to the same Securities, Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as Tobacco of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the British Colonies or Plantations in America, are or may be liable to by Law; any Act or Acts of Parliament, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

What Part of the Duties shall be drawn back on Exportation.

Directions relative to foreign Prize Tobacco condemned in any of his Ma-

VII. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any such foreign Tobacco shall be taken as Prize, and carried into any foreign Port or Place, and condemned in any of his Majesty's Dominions out of this Kingdom, and such Tobacco shall be afterwards imported into Great Britain, the Importer or Proprietor of such Tobacco shall produce, to the Collector and Comptroller jesty's Dominions beyond Sea, and afterwards imported into Great Britain.

Comptroller of the Customs at the Port of Importation, a Certificate under the Hands and Seals of Office of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs, and Naval Officer, or any two of them, at the Port or Place where such Tobacco shall be condemned; and if there shall be no Collector or Comptroller, or Naval Officer, at such Port or Place, then under the Hand and Seal of the Governor or Commander in Chief, or the British Consul residing there, certifying that such Tobacco hath been taken and condemned as Prize; which Certificate shall express the Quantity, Number, and Marks, of the Package of such Tobacco, and by what Ship the same was taken, and when and where the same was condemned; on Failure whereof, such Tobacco shall be subject to the same Duties and Restrictions as it would have been liable to if this Act hat not been made.

CAP. X.

An Act to allow the Trade between Ireland and the British Colonies and Plantations in America and the West Indies, and the British Settlements on the Coast of Africa, to be carried on in like Manner as it is now carried on between Great Britain and the said Colonies and Settlements.

Recital of an Act 12 Car. II.

22 & 23 Car. II.

and 15 Car. II.

4 Geo. III. Cap. 15.

7 Geo. I. Cap. 21.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That, for every Ship or Vessel which shall load any Commodities, in that Act particularly enumerated, at any English Plantation in America, Asia, or Africa, being the Growth, Product, or Manufacture thereof, Bond shall be given, with one Surety, to the Value of one thousand Pounds, if the Ship be of less Burthen than one hundred Tons, and of the Sum of two thousand Pounds, if the Ship be of greater Burthen, that the same Commodities shall be brought by such Ship or Vessel to some other English Plantation, or to some Port in England or Ireland, or Principality of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed: And whereas, by another Act of Parliament, made in the twenty-second and twenty-third Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act to prevent the planting of Tobacco in England, and for regulating the Plantation Trade, it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That the Word Ireland should be left out of all such Bonds: And whereas, by several subsequent Acts of Parliament, made in this Kingdom, which are now in Force, the said enumerated Commodities, and several other Articles which are particularly enumerated in such subsequent Acts, are to be carried to some other British Plantation, or to some Port in Great Britain only: And whereas, by another Act of Parliament, made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Trade, no Commodity of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of Europe (excepting some particular Articles which are enumerated in that Act, and in other subsequent Acts of Parliament which are now in Force), can be imported into any Land, Island, Plantation, Colony, Territory, or Place, belonging to, or in the Possession of, his Majesty, in Asia, Africa, or America, but what shall be bona fide, and without Fraud, laden and shipped in Great Britain, in Ships navigated according to Law, and carried directly from thence, and from no other Place or Places whatsoever: And whereas by another Act of Parliament, made in the fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for granting certain Duties in the British Colonies and Plantations in America; for continuing, amending, and making perpetual, an Act passed in the sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the better securing and encouraging the Trade of his Majesty's Sugar Colonies in America; for applying the Produce of such Duties, and of the Duties to arise by virtue of the said Act, towards defraying the Expences of defending, protecting, and securing the said Colonies and Plantations; for explaining an Act made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Greenland and Eastland Trades, and for the better securing the Plantation Trade; and for altering and disallowing several Drawbacks on Exports from this Kingdom, and more effectually preventing the clandestine Conveyance of Goods to and from the said Colonies and Plantations, and improving and securing the Trade between the same and Great Britain; it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That any Officer of the Customs may stop any British Vessel arriving from any Port of Europe, which shall be discovered within two Leagues of the Shore of the British Colonies in America, and take from thence and seize, as forfeited, any Goods (except Salt, Wines, Horses, Victuals, and Linen Cloth, as therein particularly mentioned) for which the Master shall not produce a Cocquet or Clearance from the Collector or proper Officer of his Majesty's Customs, certifying that the said Goods were laden on Board the said Ship or Vessel in some Port of Great Britain: And whereas by another Act of Parliament, made in the seventh Year of the Reign of King George the First, intituled, An Act for the further preventing his Majesty's Subjects from trading to the East Indies under foreign Commissions; and for encouraging and further securing the lawful Trade thereto; and for further regulating the Pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet; it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That no Commodity of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the East Indies, and other Places beyond the Cape of Good Hope, shall be imported or carried into any Land, Island, Plantation, Colony, Territory, or Place, to his Majesty or the Crown of Great Britain belonging, or which should thereafter belong to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in Africa or America, but such only as shall be bona fide, and without Fraud, loaden and shipped in Great Britain, in Ships navigated according to Law: And whereas it is expedient to allow the Trade between Ireland and the British Colonies in America and the West Indies, and the British Settlements on the Coast of Africa, to be carried on in like Manner, and with equal Advantages to his Majesty's Subjects in Ireland, as it is now carried on between Great Britain and the said Colonies and Settlements:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent cellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the British Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or of any of the Settlements belonging to Great Britain on the Coast of Africa, and which by any Act or Acts of Parliament are required to be imported from such Colonies, Plantations, or Settlements into Great Britain; and also any other Goods, which, having been in any Way legally imported into the said Colonies, Plantations, or Settlements, may now or hereafter be legally exported from thence for Great Britain, shall and may be laden in, and exported from such Colonies, Plantations, or Settlements, respectively, and in like Manner imported directly from thence into the Kingdom of Ireland; and that any Goods or Commodities of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of Ireland, or of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of Great Britain, legally exported from thence into Ireland, or of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of any other Part of Europe; and any Goods or Commodities of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the East Indies, or other Places beyond the Cape of Good Hope, which are now required by any Act of Parliament to be shipped or laden in Great Britain, to be carried directly from thence to any British Colony or Plantation in Africa or America; as also any other Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, which now or hereafter may be legally shipped or laden in Great Britain, to be carried directly from thence, and imported into any Colony or Plantation in America or the West Indies, or into any British Settlement on the Coast of Africa; shall and may be shipped and laden at any Port or Place in the Kingdom of Ireland, and exported directly from thence, and in like Manner imported into any British Colony or Plantation in America or the West Indies, or into any British Settlement on the Coast of Africa; any Thing in the said herein before recited Acts or either of them, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament made in Great Britain, or any Usage or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding; subject nevertheless to the Conditions herein after expressed.

Any Goods which may be legally imported from British America, or the British Settlements on the Coast of Africa, into Great Britain, may in like Manner be imported directly from the said Settlements, &c. into Ireland: And any Goods which may be legally exported from Great Britain to British America, or the said Settlements, may be exported directly from Ireland to the same Places;

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Importation and Exportation allowed by this Act, shall commence from and as soon, and shall have Continuance so long, and in such respective Cases only, as the Goods, or any of them, which are hereby allowed to be imported from the said Colonies, Plantations, or Settlements, into Ireland, or to be exported from Ireland into the said Colonies, Plantations, or Settlements, shall be liable, by some Act or Acts of Parliament to be made in the Kingdom of Ireland, to equal Duties and Drawbacks, and shall be made subject to the same Securities, Regulations, and Restrictions, in all other Respects, as the like Goods now are, or hereafter may be, liable and subject to upon being imported from the said Colonies, Plantations, or Settlements, into Great Britain, or exported from thence to such Colonies, Plantations, or Settlements respectively; in the Consideration of which equal Duties and Drawbacks, due Attention may be given to, and Allowance made for, any Duty or Imposition, or any Part of the same, which shall be retained in Great Britain, or not drawn back, or not compensated by Bounty in Great Britain, upon the Export of any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, from thence to Ireland, as also for any Duty paid on Importation of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize into Ireland, so as the said Goods, Wares, or Merchandize respectively be not exported from Ireland with less Incumbrance of Duties or Impositions than now do, or hereafter shall, remain upon the like Goods when legally exported from Great Britain.

On Condition that the Irish Parliament impose, on the Goods to be so exported or imported, Duties, &c. equal to those to which such Goods are liable on being exported from, or imported into Great Britain.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, during the Continuance of this Act, so much of the herein before recited Act, made in the twenty-second and twenty-third Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, as directs or requires the Word Ireland to be left out of any Bond taken for any Ship or Vessel that shall load any enumerated Commodities in any British Plantation in America, Asia, or Africa, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed and made void; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Part of the recited Act 22 & 23 Car. II. repealed.

IV. And it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the Act of the fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, as is herein-before recited, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to subject to Seizure and Forfeiture, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, which by this Act, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, may now, or hereafter, be legally imported from Ireland into any of the British Colonies or Plantations in America, or any British Settlement on the Coast of Africa; provided the Master, or other Person taking the Charge of the Ship or Vessel carrying such Goods, shall produce a Cocquet or Cocquets, Clearance or Clearances, from the proper Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs, certifying that the said Goods were laden on Board the said Ship or Vessel in some Port of Great Britain, or in some Port of Ireland, respectively.

Clause relative to the recited Act 4 Geo. III.

V. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if it shall so happen that any additional Duty shall be imposed, or any Alteration shall be made in the Drawbacks, or otherwise, upon any Goods so as aforesaid imported into, or exported from Great Britain, by any Act of Parliament that may hereafter be made in this Kingdom at any Time when the Parliament of Ireland shall not be sitting; that then and in such Case the Liberty of Importation and Exportation, granted by this Act, shall have Continuance, and remain in full Force, with respect to such Goods, until the End of four Calendar Months after the Meeting of the then next Session of Parliament in Ireland; but if the Parliament of Ireland shall be sitting at the Time that any such additional Duty shall be imposed, or any such Alteration shall be made in Great Britain, then, and in such Case, the Liberty of Importation and Exportation granted by this Act shall have Continuance, and remain in full Force, upon such Goods as aforesaid, until the End of four Calendar Months from the Time that such additional Duty shall be laid, or such Alteration made, in case the Parliament of Ireland shall so long continue to sit without Prorogation or Dissolution; and in case it shall within that Time be prorogued or dissolved, then the Liberty of importation and Exportation aforesaid shall have Continuance, and remain in full Force, until the End of four Calendar Months next after the Meeting of the then next Session of Parliament in Ireland.

Regulations to be observed on any Alteration of the Duties in Great Britain when the Irish Parliament shall not be sitting, &c.

This Act not to restrain any Liberty of Export to, or Import from, America or Africa, granted to the Irish by any former Act.

VI. Provided always, and be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing herein before contained shall extend to, or be construed to extend to, the imposing any Condition or Restriction upon or in respect of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, which by an Act passed in the eighteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to permit the Exportation of certain Goods directly from Ireland into any British Plantation in America, or any British Settlement on the Coast of Africa; and for further encouraging the Fisheries and Navigation of Ireland; or which by any other Act or Acts of Parliament may now be legally exported from Ireland to any of the British Colonies or Plantations in America and the West Indies, or to the British Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or which may now be legally imported into Ireland from any of the Colonies, Plantations, or Settlements aforesaid; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

No Person to trade to any Colony in America whilst such Trade is prohibited by Act of Parliament.

VII. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that this Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to allow any Person or Persons to trade to, from, or in, any Colony or Plantation in America, during such Time, and in such Manner, as the Trade or Intercourse of Great Britain with such Colony or Plantation is or shall be prohibited or restrained by any Act or Acts of Parliament made, or hereafter to be made, in this Kingdom; but whenever Trade and Intercourse shall be permitted between Great Britain and such Colony or Colonies, the same Trade and Intercourse shall in like Manner be permitted and allowed between Ireland and the said Colony or Colonies.

CAP. XI.

An Act for continuing the Term and Powers of an Act, made in the thirty-second Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for laying a Duty of two Pennies Scots, or one sixth Part of a Penny Sterling, upon every Scots Pint of Ale, Porter, and Beer, which shall be brewed for Sale, brought into, tapped, or sold, within the Town of Kelso, in the Shire of Roxburgh, for finishing a Bridge cross the River Tweed, and for other Purposes therein mentioned.

Preamble. Act 32 Geo. II. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the thirty-second Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, a Duty of two Pennies Scots, or one sixth Part of a Penny Sterling, was laid upon every Scots Pint of Ale, Porter, and Beer, which should be brewed for Sale, brought into, tapped, or sold, within the Town and Parish of Kelso, in the Shire of Roxburgh, for finishing a Bridge cross the River Tweed; for repairing the Streets of the said Town; for procuring and conveying to proper Places within the said Town a sufficient Supply of fresh and wholesome Water; and for building and erecting a Workhouse for maintaining and employing the Poor of the said Town and Parish, and for purchasing proper Materials for setting the said Poor to work; which Duty was to commence and have Continuance from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine, for and during the Term of twenty-one Years, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas the Trustees appointed for putting the said Act in Execution have caused the said Bridge to be finished, and have expended the whole Produce of the said Duty, together with a considerable Sum of Money borrowed on the Credit thereof, in finishing the said Bridge only; which Money cannot be repaid, and the other Works, directed by the said Act, carried into Execution, unless the Term and Powers of the said Act be continued:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act shall continue in full Force and be executed, from the Expiration of the Term thereby granted, for and during the further Term of twenty-one Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of of Parliament.

and further continued for 21 Years.

CAP. XVII.

An Act to remove certain Difficulties relative to Voters at County Elections.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the several Laws now in being for ascertaining the Rights of Persons claiming to vote in the Elections of Knights of the Shire to serve in Parliament, for that Part of Great Britain called England, are difficult to be carried into Execution, and great Delays and Inconveniencies have been occasioned by the numberless Disputes which have arisen at County Elections concerning such Rights:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, no Person shall vote for electing of any Knight or Knights of the Shire to serve in Parliament, within that Part of Great Britain called England, or the Principality of Wales, in respect of any Messuages, Lands, or Tenements, which have not, for six Calendar Months next before such Election, been charged or assessed towards some Aid granted or to be granted to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by a Land Tax (in case any such Aid be then granted and assessable), in the Name of the Person or Persons who shall claim to vote at such Election for or in respect of any such Messuages, Lands, or Tenements, or in the Name of his or their Tenant or Tenants actually occupying the same as Tenant or Tenants of the Owner or Landlord thereof.

After Jan. 1, 1781, no Person to vote at any County Election in England or Wales, who has not been assessed to the Land Tax for his Qualification six Months previous to the Time of Election.

II. Provided always, That this Act, with respect to such rating and assessing as aforesaid, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to Annuities or Fee-farm Rents (duly registered) issuing out of any Messuages, Lands, or Tenements, rated or assessed as aforesaid; nor shall the same extend, or be construed to extend, to any Person who became entitled to such Messuages, Lands, or Tenements, for which he shall vote, or claim to vote, as aforesaid, by Descent, Marriage, Marriage Settlement, Devise, or Promotion to any Benefice in a Church, or by Promotion to an Office, within twelve Calendar Months next before such Election; but such Person shall be entitled to vote at such Election, if the Messuages, Lands, or Tenements, for which he shall vote, or claim to vote, as aforesaid, have been, within two Years next before such Election, rated or assessed to the Land Tax, in the Name of the Person or Persons by or through whom such Person voting, or claiming to vote, as aforesaid, shall derive his Title to the Messuages, Lands, or Tenements for which he shall vote, or claim to vote, as aforesaid, or in the Name of some Predecessor, within two Years next before such Election, of such Person claiming to vote in respect of any Promotion to any Benefice in a Church, or Promotion to an Office, or in the Name of the Tenant or Tenants of such Person or Persons, such Tenant or Tenants actually occupying such Messuages, Lands, or Tenements.

Certain Cases to which this Act shall not extend; provided his Qualification has been assessed to the Land Tax, in the Name of his Predecessor, within two Years before the Election.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of the Land Tax for that Part of Great Britain called England, or the Principality of Wales, at their respective Meetings held for appointing Assessors of the Land Tax for the several Parishes and Places lying within the Division for which such Commissioners shall act, shall cause to be delivered to each of the said Assessors, a printed Form of an Assessment, as set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed; and the said Assessors are hereby required to make their Assessments according to the said Form; and shall make three Duplicates of such Assessments; and shall (at least fourteen Days before such Assessment shall be delivered to the Commissioners of the Land Tax for the County, Riding, or Division, within which the Parish or Place for which such Assessment shall be made shall lie) cause one of the said Duplicates, or a fair Copy thereof, to be stuck up upon one of the Doors of the Church or Chapel of the Parish or Place for which such Assessment shall be made; but in case such Assessment shall be made for an Extra-parochial or any other Place, where there is not any Church or Chapel, then such Assessment shall be stuck up upon one of the Doors of the Church or Chapel in a Parish next adjoining; and if any Person or Persons (renting, holding, or occupying, any Messuages, Lands, or Tenements, in any such Parish or Place) shall rent, hold, or occupy Messuages, Lands, or Tenements, belonging to different Owners or Proprietors, the same shall be separately and distinctly rated and assessed in such Assessments, that the Proportion of the Land Tax to be paid by each separate Owner or Proprietor respectively may be known and ascertained; and the said Duplicates shall be delivered to the Land Tax Commissioners, at their Meeting for the Receipt of Assessments; and if the Name of any Owner or Owners of any Messuages, Lands, or Tenements, in such Parish or Place, entitled to vote as aforesaid, shall not appear or be included in such Assessment, it shall and may be lawful for such Person or Persons, by himself or themselves, or by his or their Agent or Agents, to appeal to the Commissioners of the Land Tax, to whom such Assessments shall be returned; and every Person so intending to appeal shall, and is hereby required to give Notice thereof in Writing to one or more of the Assessors of the Parish or Place wherein he is rated; and the said Commissioners, on sufficient Cause to be shewn, shall amend the Duplicates of such Assessments, by inserting therein the Name or Names of the actual Occupier or Occupiers, and of the Owner or Owners of such Messuages, Lands, or Tenements, or the Person or Persons entitled to, or in the actual Receipt of the Rents, Issues, and Profits thereof, or by erasing the Name of any Person who shall appear to them to have been improperly inserted therein; and the said Commissioners are hereby required to cause one of the said Duplicates so amended (after the same shall be duly signed and sealed by the said Commissioners, or any three of them) to be returned to the said Assessors, or one of them; and Commissioners of the Land Tax to deliver to Assessors a printed Form of Assessment, who are to make their Assessments according thereto.

A Duplicate of Assessments to be stuck up on the Door of the Parish Church, &c.

Qualified Persons, whose Names are omitted in Assessments, may appeal to the Commissioners; who are to amend the Assessments where defective.

An amended Duplicate to be returned to the Assessors, and delivered to the Clerk of the Peace at the next Quarter Sessions.

such Assessors are hereby required to deliver such Duplicate, so amended, within ten Days after the Receipt thereof, to one of the Chief Constables of the Hundred, Lath, or Wapentake, within which the Parish or Place for which such Assessment was made shall lie, taking the Receipt of such Chief Constable for the same, and which Receipt such Chief Constable is hereby required to give; and such Chief Constable is hereby also required to deliver such Duplicate upon Oath (which Oath the said Magistrates are hereby impowered to administer), without any Alteration, at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County, Riding, or Division, within which such Assessment shall be made, in open Court, the first Day of such Sessions, to the Clerk of the Peace attending such Sessions, to be by him filed and kept amongst the Records of the Sessions.

Penalty on Assessor, &c. who shall alter, or neglect to deliver any Duplicate as above directed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Assessor shall neglect to deliver such Duplicate so amended, to such Chief Constable as aforesaid, or if such Chief Constable, to whom the same shall be delivered, shall neglect to deliver the same to such Clerk of the Peace, at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace as aforesaid, or shall wilfully alter or deface any such Duplicate; every such Assessor and Chief Constable so offending shall, for every such Offence, and for every such Duplicate so neglected to be delivered as aforesaid, forfeit the Sum of five Pounds, to be levied and recovered in the Manner herein after mentioned.

If Clerk of the Peace shall not receive all the Duplicates before the end of Michaelmas Sessions yearly, the Court shall immediately fine the Chief Constables making Default.

On Failure of Payment, Fines may be levied by Distress.

V. And be it further enacted, That at the Michaelmas Sessions in every Year, the Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, attending such Sessions, in every County, Riding, or Division, as aforesaid, shall, before the Conclusion of such Sessions, examine whether the Duplicates of all the Assessments within such County, Riding, or Division, shall have been delivered for that Year; and if it shall appear that any such Duplicates have not been received by or delivered to such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, by the proper Chief Constables, then and in such Case such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, shall report the same to the Court, and the Court shall immediately set and impose the said Fine or Fines of five Pounds upon such Chief Constables, for the Hundred, Lath, or Wapentake, within which the Parish or Place for which such Duplicate or Duplicates of the Assessment or Assessments not returned shall lie; and the said Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, shall give to such Chief Constables immediate Notice of such Fine or Fines; and if the same is or are not immediately paid, the Justices assembled in the said Quarter Sessions shall, by Order of Court, issue a Warrant of Distress for the Recovery thereof, directed to the Constable or Constables of the respective Parishes or Places where such Chief Constables shall live; and such Warrant shall be delivered or transmitted by the Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, to such Constables, or one of them, who is and are hereby required to levy such Fine or Fines, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Chief Constables, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owners of such Goods and Chattels, after deducting the reasonable Charges of such Distress.

In Case Chief Constables make Oath that Assessors neglected to deliver said Duplicates to them, then the Fines shall be levied on the said Assessors, except they deliver the Duplicates, &c. within ten Days after Notice:

But if Assessors, within said Time, shall produce to the Clerk of the Peace the Chief Constables Receipt, then the Fine shall be levied on said Constables.

VI. Provided always, That if such Chief Constables shall voluntarily make Oath at such Sessions, that such Duplicate or Duplicates was or were not delivered to them, or either of them, by such Assessor or Assessors, then, and in such Case, the said Fine or Fines, herein before directed, shall be set and imposed upon such Assessor or Assessors of the Parish or Place, Parishes or Places, for which such Duplicate or Duplicates shall not be returned; and the Justices assembled in such Quarter Sessions shall, by Order of Court, issue a Warrant of Distress for the Recovery thereof, directed to the Constable or Constables of such Parish or Place, or respective Parishes or Places, or to such other Person or Persons as such Justices shall think proper; and also shall, by Order of Court, require the Chief Constables, or one of them, to give Notice to such Assessor or Assessors, that such Fines have been set and imposed; and such Chief Constables are hereby required to serve such Notices upon such Assessors within fourteen Days next after such Sessions; and if such Assessors, or one of them, shall not deliver such Duplicate, or the Chief Constable's Receipt for the same, to the Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, for such County, Riding, or Division, within ten Days after being served with such Notice, then and in such Case the said Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, shall deliver or transmit such Warrant of Distress against the Assessor, to the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be directed, who is hereby required to levy the said Fine set upon such Assessor, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Assessor or Assessors, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner or Owners, after deducting the reasonable Charges of such Distress.

VII. Provided always, That if such Assessors, or either of them, shall, within the said ten Days after such Notice, produce to the said Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, the Receipt of such Chief Constables, or one of them, for such Duplicate, then and in such Case such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, shall deliver or transmit the Warrants against such Chief Constables, or such of them who shall have signed such Receipt, to the proper Constable or Constables to whom the same shall be directed, that the same may be executed as aforesaid, and the Warrant or Warrants for levying the Fine or Fines upon such Assessor or Assessors shall not be executed.

Fines to be paid to the Treasurer of the County, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Fines to be set and imposed upon such Chief Constables and Assessors as aforesaid, shall, after the same shall be so levied and recovered, be, by the Person or Persons who shall levy and recover the same, paid to the Treasurer of the County, Riding, or Division, wherein the same shall be levied or recovered, or the lawful Deputy of such Treasurer, to be applied and disposed of as Part of the County Stock, under the Direction of the Sessions of such County, Riding, or Division.

When Assessments are not made, and returned to the Clerk of the Peace, Justices may order them to be made and returned forthwith.

IX. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Assessment shall not have been made by the Assessor or Assessors of any Parish or Place, and returned to the Chief Constable, and by the Chief Constable to the Clerk of the Peace, by the Neglect or Default of any Person concerned therein, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices at the said Quarter Sessions, or any two Justices for such County, Riding, or Division, out of Sessions, to order and direct such Assessment or Assessments forthwith to be made and returned in Manner aforesaid; and such Assessments so made and returned, shall have the same and the like Effect as if made and returned at the Time and in the Manner herein before directed.

X. And

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall be dissatisfied, or shall think himself or themselves aggrieved by any Determination of the said Commissioners of the Land Tax, it shall and may be lawful for such Person or Persons to appeal against such Determination to the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County, Riding, or Division, within which such Commissioners shall act, which shall happen next after the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen, giving ten Days Notice of such Appeal to one of the Commissioners signing the Duplicate of the said Assessment, and also to one of the Assessors of the Parish or Place where the Estate belonging to the Person or Persons who shall think himself or themselves aggrieved shall lie; and the Justices assembled in such Sessions are hereby authorised and required, by Examination upon Oath (which Oath the said Justices are hereby authorised to administer), to hear and determine the Matter of such Appeal, and to amend such Assessments where they shall think necessary; and also to award such Costs as to them in their Discretion shall seem reasonable; and by their Order or Warrant to levy the Costs which shall be so awarded, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons against whom the same shall be so awarded, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner or Owners, after deducting the reasonable Charges of such Distress.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to the Quarter Sessions;

giving ten Days Notice.

Justices may award Costs.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if the said Commissioners, upon any Appeal before them, and also the said Justices in Sessions upon any Appeal before them, shall find it requisite to insert in such Assessments, or the Duplicates thereof, the Names of any Person or Persons, which shall appear to such Commissioners, or to such Justices, to have been improperly omitted, such Person or Persons shall be taken and deemed to be rated in such Assessment or Assessments, as effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the Name or Names of such Person or Persons had been originally inserted in such Assessment by the Assessors.

Any Person whose Name, on Appeal, shall appear to have been improperly left out of any Assessment, shall be deemed to have been rated therein.

'XII. And whereas Disputes have arisen, whether the Husbands of Women entitled to Dower or 'Thirds, at Common Law, out of the Estates of their former Husbands, shall be entitled to vote in the 'Election of Members of Parliament, unless Dower has been assigned and set out, by Metes and Bounds, 'for such Women;' be it therefore further enacted, That where any Woman, the Widow of any Person Tenant in Fee or in Tail, shall be entitled to Dower or Thirds, by the Common Law, out of the Freehold Estate of which her Husband died seised or possessed of, and shall intermarry with a second Husband, such second Husband shall be entitled to vote in respect of such Dower or Thirds, if such Dower or Thirds shall be of the clear yearly Value of forty Shillings, or upwards, although the same has not been assigned or set out by Metes or Bounds, if such second Husband shall be in the actual Receipt of the Profits of such Dower, and the Estate from whence the same issues is rated to, and contributes to the Land Tax in the Name of the actual Owner of the Lands or Tenements from whence such Dower or Thirds arises or issues.

Husbands of Women entitled to Dower out of the Estates of their former Husbands, may vote in respect thereof, although the said Dower has not been set out by Metes or Bounds.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for all and every Person or Persons, at all seasonable Times, to resort to and inspect the said Duplicates, or any Part thereof, in the Hands of such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, paying for every Search into, or Inspection of, such Duplicates, or any Part thereof, one Shilling, and no more; and the said Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, is hereby required and directed, upon Demand, to deliver a true Copy or Copies of all such Duplicates, or of such Part or Parts of them, or any of them, of which a Copy shall be demanded, to any Person or Persons who shall demand or desire the same (such Copy or Copies to be signed by such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, purporting the same to be a true Copy or true Copies), and for which Copy or Copies such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, shall be paid at and after the Rate of six Pence, and no more, for every three hundred Words or Figures, and so in Proportion for any lesser Number of Words or Figures; which said Duplicates, and also a true Copy of them, or any of them, or any Part of them, signed as aforesaid, and also the Duplicate of any Assessment in the Possession of the Commissioners of the Land Tax, or in the Possession of the Receiver-general of the County, or a Copy of the said Duplicates, signed by such Commissioners, and purporting the same to be a true Copy, shall at all Times, and in all Places, be allowed and admitted as legal Evidence of such Assessments, Certificates, Memorials, and Books of Entries, in all Cases whatsoever; and such Copy shall be delivered in a reasonable Time after the same shall be demanded.

Duplicates may be inspected.

Clerk of the Peace to deliver signed Copies of Duplicates, on Demand, and being paid 6d. for every 370 Words, &c.

Duplicates, &c. to be deemed legal Evidence.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Clerk of the Peace of every County, Riding, or Division, in whose Office such Duplicates shall be filed as aforesaid, or his Deputy, shall, upon reasonable Notice, attend at every Election of a Knight or Knights of the Shire for such County, with the said original Duplicates, at the Request of any Candidate, or the Agent or Agents of any Candidates; the Person or Persons requesting the same making such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, a Satisfaction for such Attendance, at and after the Rate of two Guineas for each Day of his Attendance at such Election, together with an Allowance of one Shilling and six Pence a Mile for the Costs and Charges he may be at, or put unto, in his Journey from the Place of his Abode to and from the Place of such Election.

Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, to attend at every Election of a Knight of the Shire, with original Duplicates, at the Request of any Candidate; Such Candidate to pay him 2l. Charges.

2s. for each Day's Attendance, and 1s 6d. per Mile for travelling

XV. And be it further enacted, That after issuing any Writ or Precept for the Election of a Knight or Knights of the Shire for any County within that Part of Great Britain called England, or the Dominion of Wales, the Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, shall, and he is hereby required to attend, gratis, from Day to Day, from the Hour of Nine in the Forenoon to Three in the Afternoon, in each Day, at the Place where the Records of such County, Riding, or Division, are usually kept, from the Time of the Delivery of such Notice to the Day immediately preceding the Day of Election of such Knight or Knights, for the Purpose of receiving Applications for the Inspection of such Duplicates, and for making Copies of them, or any of them, or of so much of them, or any of them, which he shall be requested to copy as aforesaid.

After issuing any Writ for Election of a County Member, the Clerk of the Peace shall attend gratis, from Nine to Three each Day, where the Records of Duplicates, &c.

the County are usually kept, to make Copies of

XVI. And

Penalty on Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, making Default.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, shall neglect or refuse to permit such Duplicates, or any of them, or any Part of them, or any of them, to be inspected by any Person or Persons who shall request the same as aforesaid, or shall neglect or refuse to deliver any Copy or Copies of the same, or any Part thereof, within the Time before mentioned, or shall neglect to attend as aforesaid at the Place where the Records of such County, Riding, or Division, are usually kept, or at any County Election, with such Duplicates, in pursuance of the Directions of this Act; every such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds to the Party aggrieved, provided such Action is brought within two Months after the Offence shall have been committed; and if no such Action shall be brought within the said Time, then to any Person who shall sue for the same in the Manner herein-after mentioned; and shall also forfeit his Office of Clerk of the Peace, or Deputy, the same to be absolutely void on such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, being convicted of such Offence; and such Clerk of the Peace, or Deputy Clerk of the Peace, shall be rendered incapable of being again appointed a Clerk of the Peace, or Deputy Clerk of the Peace, or of acting as such, in or for any County, Riding, or Division whatsoever.

Action to be brought within two Months, &c.

Final Judgment upon any Verdict against a Clerk of the Peace, shall be deemed sufficient Conviction.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That final Judgment upon any Verdict to be obtained against such Clerk of the Peace, or Deputy Clerk of the Peace, for the Recovery of such Forfeiture, shall be deemed and taken to be a sufficient Conviction of such Offence, without any other Prosecution or Conviction whatsoever; and immediately after such Judgment, the said Office of Clerk of the Peace, or Deputy Clerk of the Peace, shall be absolutely void, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Penalties how to be recovered.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Forfeitures or Penalties laid or imposed against such Clerk of the Peace, or Deputy Clerk of the Peace, by this Act, shall and may be recovered, with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed.

Prosecutions to be commenced within 12 Months.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared, That no Person shall be liable to any Forfeiture or Penalty by this Act laid or imposed, unless Prosecution be commenced within twelve Calendar Months next after such Forfeiture or Penalty shall be incurred.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act to repeal so much of an Act made in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of Henry the Seventh, or of any other Acts which prohibit the exporting, carrying, or conveying, Coin out of this Realm into Ireland; and so much of certain Acts, made in Great Britain, which prohibit the Importation of Foreign Hops into Ireland, and which take off the Drawback upon Hops exported from Great Britain to Ireland; and to allow the Importation into, and Exportation from, Ireland, of such Goods as may be imported into, or exported from, Great Britain, by the Merchants of England trading to the Levant Seas.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal the several Acts of Parliament herein-after mentioned, so far as the same restrain the Trade and Commerce of Ireland,' may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, so much of an Act of Parliament, made in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of King Henry the Seventh (intituled, Coin), and so much of any other Act or Acts of Parliament, made in Great Britain,

So much of any Acts, as prohibit the exporting Gold or Silver Coin to Ireland, repealed.

which prohibit the exporting, carrying, or conveying, of Coin of Gold or Silver out of this Realm into Ireland, shall be, and the same is and are hereby repealed and made void.

So much of 9 Annæ, Cap. 12, or other Acts, which prohibit the Importation of foreign Hops into Ireland; and so much of the recited Act, and 6 Geo. I. Cap. 11, which enact that no Drawback shall be allowed on Hops exported to Ireland, repealed.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, so much of an Act of Parliament, made in the ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for laying a Duty on Hops; and so much of any other Act or Acts of Parliament made in Great Britain, which prohibit the Importation of foreign Hops into the Kingdom of Ireland; and also so much of the said recited Act, and of another Act, made in the sixth Year of the Reign of King George the First, intituled, An Act for laying a Duty upon wrought Plate; and for applying Money arising for the clear Produce (by Sale of the forfeited Estates) towards answering his Majesty's Supply; and for taking off the Drawbacks upon Hops exported for Ireland; and for Payment of Annuities, to be purchased after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum at the Exchequer, redeemable by Parliament; and for appropriating Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament; and to prevent counterfeiting Receipts and Warrants of the Officers of the South Sea Company; and for explaining a late Act concerning Foreign Salt cellared and locked up before the four and twentieth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and nineteen; and to give a further Time for paying Duties on certain Apprentices Indentures; and for Relief of Thomas Vernon Esquire, in relation to a Parcel of Senna imported in the Year one thousand seven hundred and sixteen; which enact, That no Part of the Duties shall be repaid or drawn back for any Hops (whether the same be of Foreign or British Growth), which shall be exported or shipped for Exportation from Great Britain for Ireland, shall be, and the same is and are hereby repealed and made void.

26 Geo. II. Cap. 18, recited.

'III. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his late 'Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for enlarging and regulating the Trade into the Levant 'Seas, it is amongst other Things enacted, That every Subject of Great Britain, desiring Admission into 'the Company of Merchants of England trading into the Levant Seas, commonly called, or known by 'the Name of, The Turkey Company, shall, upon Request for that Purpose made in the Manner by the 'said Act directed, be admitted into the said Company; and that the Goods permitted to be exported or 'imported by Persons made free of the said Company, shall be exported from and imported into Great 'Britain only:' And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Goods as may lawfully be exported from, or imported into, Great Britain, in British Ships, by any Person or Persons free of the said Company, by virtue of the said recited Act, or any other Act made in this Kingdom, shall and may, in like Manner, be exported from, or imported into, any Port or Place in the Kingdom of Ireland, by any Person admitted, or to be admitted into, and made free of, the said Company, in British or Irish Ships or Vessels, legally navigated, on paying such Impositions or Sums of Money as shall be assessed and charged on all Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, to be exported and imported as aforesaid, or on any Ships laden with the same, for defraying the necessary Expences of the said Company; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Any Goods which may be exported or imported to or from Great Britain and the Levant Seas, may, by any Person free of the Turkey Company, be exported or imported to or from Ireland and the said Seas.

IV. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Oath required by the said recited Act to be taken by Persons upon their Admission to their Freedoms in the said Company, shall and may be taken before, and administered by, two of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the Kingdom of Ireland.

The Oath to be taken on Admission into the said Company, may be administered in Ireland.

CAP. XIX.

An Act to continue several Laws relating to the better securing the lawful Trade of his Majesty's Subjects to and from the East Indies, and for the more effectual preventing all his Majesty's Subjects trading thither under Foreign Commissions; to the importing Salt from Europe into the Province of Quebec in America; to the permitting the free Importation of Raw Goat Skins into this Kingdom; to the allowing the Exportation of certain Quantities of Wheat, and other Articles, to his Majesty's Sugar Colonies in America; and to the permitting the Exportation of Tobacco-pipe Clay from this Kingdom to the British Sugar Colonies or Plantations in the West Indies.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Laws herein-after mentioned have by Experience been found useful and bene- 'ficial, and are near expiring;' may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act, made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for reviving an Act, made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, intituled, 'An Act for the better securing the lawful Trade of his Majesty's Subjects to and from the East 'Indies, and for the more effectual preventing all his Majesty's Subjects trading thither under Foreign Com- 'missions;' which was to continue in Force from the first Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, for the Term of seven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which was by two Acts, made in the thirteenth and twentieth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, further continued until the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty; shall be, and the same is hereby further continued from the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thousand eight hundred, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

5 Geo. II. Cap. 29, relating to the Trade to the East Indies, further continued till March 25, 1800, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Act, made in the fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for importing Salt from Europe into the Province of Quebec in America, for

4 Geo. III. Cap. 19, for importing Salt from Europe to Quebec,

for a limited Time, which was to continue in Force from the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-four, for the Term of one Year, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and which was by two Acts, made in the sixth and thirteenth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, further continued until the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; shall be, and the same is hereby further continued from the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

further continued till June 24, 1785, &c.

15 Geo. III. Cap. 35, to permit the free Importation of raw Goat Skins, further continued until June 20, 1785, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That an Act, made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, to permit the free Importation of raw Goat Skins into this Kingdom for a limited Time, which was to continue in Force from the twentieth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, for the Term of five Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, shall be, and the same is hereby further continued from the Expiration thereof, until the twentieth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

So much of 16 Geo. III. Cap. 37, as relates to the Exportation of Wheat, &c. to the Sugar Colonies,

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of an Act, made in the sixteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for allowing the Exportation of certain Quantities of Wheat, and other Articles, to his Majesty's Sugar Colonies in America, and to the Island of Saint Helena, and to the other Settlements belonging to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and of Biscuit and Peas to Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Bay Chaleur, and Labrador; and for indemnifying all Persons with respect to advising or carrying into Execution his Majesty's Orders of Council already made for allowing the Exportation of Wheat, and other Articles; as relates to allowing the Exportation of certain Quantities of Wheat, and other Articles, to his Majesty's Sugar Colonies in America, which was to continue in Force until the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven; and which by three Acts, made in the seventeenth, eighteenth, and nineteenth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, was continued until the first Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty; shall be, and the same is hereby further continued from the Expiration thereof, until the first Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one.

further continued until May 1, 1781.

So much of 17 Geo. III. Cap. 43, as permits the Exportation of Tobacco-pipe Clay to the Sugar Colonies,

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of an Act, made in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing the eleventh Rule in the Book of Rates, so far as the same relates to the making any Allowance upon the Importation of damaged Currants and Raisins, and for making the Importer of such Goods an Abatement in the Duties in lieu thereof; and for explaining the said Rule with respect to such Allowance for Damage on other Goods; and to permit the Exportation of Tobacco-pipe Clay from this Kingdom to the British Sugar Colonies or Plantations in the West Indies, for a limited Time; as permits the Exportation of Tobacco-pipe Clay from this Kingdom to the British Sugar Colonies or Plantations in the West Indies, which was to continue in Force until the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; shall be, and the same is hereby further continued from the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

CAP. XX.

An Act for the better Supply of Mariners and Seamen to serve in his Majesty's Ships of War, and on Board Merchant Ships, and other Trading Ships and Vessels.

Preamble.

'FOR the better Supply of Mariners and Seamen to serve in his Majesty's Ships of War, and on Board Merchant Ships, and other Trading Ships and Vessels;' be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, until the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, and no longer (except in respect to such Merchant Ships, and other Trading Ships or Vessels, which shall be on their Voyage before the said twenty-fifth Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, who shall be, and are hereby allowed the Liberty and Benefit of returning Home navigated in the Manner as herein-after is provided), it shall and may be lawful for any Merchant Ship, or other Trading Ship or Vessel, to be navigated by Foreign Seamen or Mariners, not being Natives of Great Britain, or of any of the Colonies or Plantations thereto belonging, or his Majesty's natural or naturalized Subjects, so as the Number of such Foreign Seamen or Mariners do not exceed three-fourths of the Mariners at any one Time employed to navigate such Merchant Ship, or other Trading Ship or Vessel, and that one-fourth at least of the Mariners or Seamen so employed, be at all Times Natives, or his Majesty's naturalized Subjects of Great Britain (sudden Death, and Hazard and Casualties of War, and the Seas, saved and excepted), one Act of Parliament, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and encreasing of Shipping and Navigation, or any other Statute or Law, to the contrary notwithstanding.

From the passing of this Act till March 25, 1781, Merchant Ships, &c. may be navigated by three-fourths Foreign Seamen.

This Act not to restrain any Royal Proclamation to be made pursuant to an Act 13 Geo. II.

II. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to take away or restrain the Effect of any such Royal Proclamation, as his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, are impowered to make by virtue of an Act, passed in the thirteenth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Supply of Mariners and Seamen to serve in his Majesty's Ships of War, and on Board Merchant Ships and other Trading Ships and Privateers.

'III. And whereas Doubts have arisen whether, according to the true Intent and Meaning of an Act, 'made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act 'for the better Supply of Mariners and Seamen to serve in his Majesty's Ships of War, and on Board Merchant 'Ships and other Trading Ships, and Privateers, any Foreign Mariner or Seaman, who shall have served 'for the Time mentioned in the said Act, during the Time of the present Hostilities, on Board any of his 'Majesty's Ships of War, or any Merchant or other Trading Ship or Vessel, or Privateer (which at the 'Time of such Service belonged to any of his Majesty's Subjects), shall, by virtue of the said Act, be 'deemed to be a natural born Subject of his Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain;' be it therefore enacted and declared, That the said Act, and every Thing contained therein, is and has continued to be, and shall be deemed and taken to be and have continued to be, in full Force; and that any Foreign Mariner or Seaman, who at any Time during the last War, or during the present Hostilities, from and since the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-seven, shall have faithfully served on Board any such Ships or Vessels for the Space of two Years, shall be deemed and taken to be a natural born Subject of his Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain, and shall have and enjoy all the Privileges, Rights, Powers, and Capacities, which, by the said in Part recited Acts, are given and granted to Foreign Seamen who served on Board any British Ship for the like Space of Time during the then War.

Recital of an Act 13 Geo. II.

Any Foreign Seaman who, during the late War, or the present Hostilities, shall have faithfully served on Board any British Ship for two Years, shall be deemed a natural born Subject of Great Britain.

IV. And be it further enacted, That any Ship or Vessel which shall at any Time hereafter, during the present War, arrive, or which, at any Time since the twenty-fifth Day of March, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, has arrived, in any of the Ports of this Realm, navigated according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall and may be entered, and the respective Cargoes landed, on Payment of British Duties, and no other, without incurring any Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures, whatsoever: And if any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, navigated according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and which have arrived in any Port of this Realm since the said twenty-fifth Day of March last past, or the Cargo or Cargoes of such Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, shall have been seized, such Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, with their respective Cargoes, shall be delivered to the respective Owners and Proprietors thereof, on Payment of British Duties only, and no other, without any Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures whatsoever; the Act of the twelfth of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, or any other Act or Acts to the contrary thereof, notwithstanding.

Any Ship which, since March 25, 1779, has arrived, or during the present Hostilities shall arrive, in any Port of this Realm, navigated according to this Act, may be entered, &c. on Payment of British Duties; And if any such Ship, or its Cargo, has been seized, the same shall be delivered to the Owners, on Payment of British Duties only.

CAP. XXI.

An Act for amending and rendering more effectual two Acts, passed in the tenth and eleventh Years of his present Majesty's Reign, for better supplying the City of Worcester, and the Liberties thereof, with Water, and for the better paving and lighting the said City, and for removing and preventing all Obstructions and Annoyances therein.

'WHEREAS an Act was made in the tenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for better supplying the City of Worcester, and the Liberties thereof, with Water, and 'for the better paving and lighting the said City, and for removing and preventing all Obstructions and Annoy-'ances therein: And whereas another Act was made in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his present Ma-'jesty, intituled, An Act to explain a Clause in an Act of the last Session of Parliament "for better supplying "the City of Worcester, and the Liberties thereof, with Water, and for better paving and lighting the said "City, and for removing and preventing all Obstructions and Annoyances therein;" and great Progress hath 'been made towards completing the said Works: And whereas the Commissioners are in and by the 'said recited Acts, or one of them, required and impowered to direct how much Money shall be raised 'upon all Messuages, Tenements, Buildings, and Hereditaments, within the said City, whereof any 'Part was situated within thirty Yards from any Main Pipe; but no House, Warehouse, Building, Te-'nement, or Hereditament, of or under the yearly Rent of five Pounds is liable to be rated by virtue of 'the said recited Acts: And whereas the Money directed to be raised by the Rate authorised by the said 'Acts is found insufficient to defray the Expence of completing the Purposes of the said Acts, particularly 'the lighting of the said City; and it is necessary that the said Commissioners should have Power to raise 'annually a larger Sum by a higher Rate than is at present authorised to be raised, and that Houses and 'Tenements of less annual Value than five Pounds should be liable to be rated: And whereas the said Acts 'have in several other Particulars been found defective, and want Amendment:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the Clause in the said Acts passed in the tenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, which directs and authorises the said Commissioners to raise Money for the Purposes of the said Act by an equal Pound-rate on all Messuages, Tenements, Buildings, and Hereditaments, within the said City (except as therein is excepted), the same not to exceed one Shilling in the Pound per Annum; and also that so much of the Clause or Proviso in the said Act which provides, that no Person shall be rated or pay to the Rates or Assessments, which shall be made by virtue of the said Act, for any House, Warehouse, Building, Tenement, or Hereditament, of or under the yearly Rent or Value of five Pounds (unless the Occupier thereof shall desire to be rated), be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Preamble. Recital of Acts 10 Geo. III. and 11 Geo. III.

Provisions of the former Act relating to the Rates repealed.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, are hereby impowered and required yearly and every Year, or oftener as there shall be Occasion, Rates not to exceed 1 s. in the Pound.

Occasion, to nominate and appoint under their Hands, within every Parish of the said City, two or more Persons, being Inhabitants or Residents within each respective Parish, to be Assessors of the Money by this Act directed to be raised; and the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, shall once in every Year, or oftener if there shall be Occasion, fix and ascertain, and, as soon after as may be, issue an Order under their Hands to the Assessors for the Time being, directing how much in the Pound shall be raised by an equal Pound-rate upon all Messuages, Tenements, Buildings, and Hereditaments, within the said City (except as in the said recited Act is excepted), the same not to exceed two Shillings in the Pound in any Year; which several and respective Sums the said Assessors are hereby required from Time to Time to rate and charge upon the Tenants and Occupiers thereof; and all such Tenants and Occupiers are hereby made liable to pay the said Rate so directed to be raised as aforesaid, and every Part thereof, according to the true annual Rent or Value of their respective Messuages, Tenements, Buildings, and Hereditaments, lying and being within the said City.

Exemptions from being rated.

III. Provided always, That no Person shall be rated, or be liable to pay to the Assessments to be made by virtue of this Act, on account of or for any House, Warehouse, Building, Tenement, or Hereditament, under the yearly Rent or Value of four Pounds, unless such Person shall desire to be rated, and shall signify such his or her Desire to the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, at some Meeting to be held in pursuance of this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Houses let out in Tenements how to be rated.

'IV. And whereas many Houses within the several Parishes of the said City are or may be, by the several 'Landlords or Owners thereof, let out in Lodgings or Tenements to divers Tenants, whereby it will be 'difficult to rate or assess the said Tenants in respect of such Houses, or to recover such Rates and Assess-'ments so made;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, to rate and assess in every such Rate or Assessment as aforesaid the Owner or Owners of all such Houses or Tenements as shall be so let to or occupied by two or more Tenants (which Rate or Assessment shall be paid by the Occupier or Occupiers of any Part or Parts of such Houses or Tenements); and such Occupier or Occupiers of such Houses or Tenements is and are hereby authorised and required to pay such Sum and Sums of Money as shall be so rated or assessed upon the Owner or Owners thereof, being duly demanded of such Occupier or Occupiers, and to deduct the same out of his, her, or their respective Rents; and the Landlord or Landlords, Owner or Owners of such Houses or Tenements, is and are hereby required to allow such Deductions and Payments upon the Receipt of the Residue of his, her, or their Rents; and every such Occupier, paying such Assessment or Assessments, shall be acquitted and discharged for so much of his or her Rent as the said Assessment or Assessments so paid by him or her shall amount unto, as if the same had been actually paid to the Person or Persons to whom his or her Rent shall be due and payable; and in Default of Payment of the said Rate or Rates, Assessment or Assessments, the same shall be and remain a Charge upon the said Premises, and shall and may be recovered of and from the Landlord or Landlords, Owner or Owners, in such Manner as the Rates or Assessments are authorised to be levied by the said first-recited Act.

Commissioners.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners appointed to put the said former Acts into Execution, shall be, and they are hereby declared to be Commissioners for putting in Execution all the Powers by this Act and the said former Acts granted or given.

Recital.

'VI. And whereas by the said first-recited Act any Person or Persons who shall break, injure, or da-'mage, any Part of the Building of the Water-works, or any Conduit, Reservoir, Water-house, or En-'gine, to be erected for the Purposes of the said Act, or wilfully cause the Water to run to Waste from 'any Conduit, Water-house, Engine, or from any Reservoir, to be provided as aforesaid, or shall cut, 'damage, break, or destroy, any Part of the Pipes laid under Ground, or otherwise made use of for the 'Purposes aforesaid, or any Part of the Materials used or provided for the Purposes aforesaid, the Person 'or Persons offending in any of the Cases above mentioned are made liable to forfeit and pay the Sum of 'twenty Shillings, which Penalty is found inadequate to any of the Offences above mentioned;' be it Penalty on injuring the Works.

therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the passing of this Act, break, injure, or damage, any Part of the Building of the said Water-works, or any Conduit, Reservoir, Water-house, or Engine, erected or to be erected for the Purposes of the said Act, or shall wilfully cause the Water to run to Waste from any Conduit, Water-house, or Engine, or from any Reservoir, to be provided as aforesaid, or shall cut, damage, break, or destroy, any Part of the Pipes laid under Ground, or otherwise made use of for the Purposes aforesaid, or any Part of the Materials used or provided for the Purposes aforesaid, the Person or Persons offending in any or either of the Cases aforesaid, and being thereof convicted, either by his or her own Confession, or by the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before any Justice of the Peace for the said City (which Oath such Justice is hereby authorised and required to administer), shall, for every Offence, forfeit the Sum of five Pounds, over and above the Reparation of the real Injury or Damage done.

Penalty on causing Annoyances.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall set out or lay, or cause, procure, permit, or suffer to be set out or laid, any Timber, Boards, Bricks, Casks, Furnaces, Stalls, Benches, Crates, Pens, or any other Annoyance, or any Waggon, Dray, Cart, or other Carriage (for any longer Time than shall be reasonable for the loading or unloading the same); or if any Person or Persons shall build, place, or suffer to continue any Steps leading into any Cellar or Vault, or throw or lay any Dung, Ashes, or any other Thing whatsoever which shall occasion any Annoyance, Nuisance, or Obstruction whatsoever, or shall suffer any such Dung or Ashes to remain for any longer Time than twelve Hours, to be computed from six of the Clock in the Morning, or shall suffer such Dung or Ashes to remain in the Night-time in any of the said Streets, Lanes, Ways, or Passages, within the said City (except such Scaffoldings or other Erections, Bricks, Lime, or other Materials, as shall be reasonable and necessary for the building and repairing Houses and other Works, and except such Rubbish as shall be necessarily occasioned by such Buildings or Repairs, so as the Owner of such Buildings and Scaffoldings do put up a Light upon or near such Rubbish or other Things that shall lie in the said Streets, Lanes, or Passages, during the Night-time), it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, either at any Meeting to be held in pursuance of this Act, or at any Meeting to be held upon Complaint made of any such Annoyance, Nuisance, or Obstruction, to cause the same to be altered or regulated, removed, taken, and carried away, and deposited in such Place or Places as the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, shall direct and appoint, there to remain until the Person who shall have occasioned any such Annoyance, Nuisance, or Obstruction, shall have paid and discharged all Costs, Charges, and Expences, attending the carrying away and depositing the same as aforesaid, as also the Sum of ten Shillings for such Offence.

For appointing a proper Person to remove Nuisances.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, shall and may appoint a Peace Officer, or any other Person, to take and remove any Benches, Stalls, or other Nuisances, that shall be put or placed on or over any of the said Footways at any Time, and also to take such Person or Persons who shall put and place such Nuisances as aforesaid before some Justice or Justices of the Peace for the said City, who is and are hereby required to examine such Person or Persons, and upon being convicted of the said Offence such Person or Persons shall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Shillings.

To prevent Annoyances by driving Wheelbarrows, &c. on Foot Pavements.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, from and after the passing of this Act, shall wilfully or negligently drive or wheel any Carriage, Wheelbarrow, or other Wheel-carriage, or shall run any Wheel without a Carriage, upon the Foot Pavement, or shall ride, drive, or lead, any Horse, Mare, Gelding, Ass, Mule, or other Beast, upon the Foot Pavements (except at such Places where it shall be necessary to cross into any House, Stable-yard, or Road, and then only for such Time as shall be needful for the Purposes of crossing), or shall fasten or tie by the Bridle or Halter, or shall leave unfastened, or suffer to remain on any Pretence whatsoever, any Horse, Mare, Gelding, Ass, or Mule, on the Foot Pavement of any of the Streets or Lanes in the said City, or within the Liberties thereof, every Person offending, in any or either of the Cases aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence; which said Penalty shall be recovered, and Offenders proceeded against, in the Manner directed by the first-recited Act with respect to Drivers of Carts.

For sweeping the Footways.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Saturday after the passing of this Act, every Person and Persons who shall inhabit the front Part, or shall be the Occupier of the greatest Part, of any Dwelling-house, Warehouse, Building, or the Owner or Proprietor of any Wall adjoining to the Foot Pavement or other Footways within the said City, or the Liberties thereof, shall sweep and clean, or cause to be swept and cleaned, the said Footways at least twice in a Week; that is to say, in the Forenoon on Wednesday and Saturday in every Week, upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence for each and every Neglect therein.

For preventing Persons suffering their Water to run to Waste.

XI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, liable to be rated to the Assessments to be made by virtue of this Act, shall, from and after the passing thereof, wilfully or negligently suffer the Severn Water to run to Waste after the Cistern, Tub, Barrel, or other Vessel, used by them for the Reception of such Water, shall be full, or after such Person or Persons shall or might have saved a reasonable and sufficient Quantity of Water for their Use, or after Notice given to them or their Servant to prevent the same by any Commissioner acting under the said first-recited Act, or by the Turncock or other Servant of the said Commissioners, every Person or Persons so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of two Shillings and six Pence.

To prevent hooping of Casks, &c. in the Streets.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall hoop, fire, cleanse, wash, or scald any Cask; or hew or saw, or cause to be hewed or sawed, any Stone, Wood, or Timber; or bind, make, or repair any Wheel; or shoe, bleed, cleanse, or dress, or turn or drive loose any Horse or Horses; or wet, slack, or mix any Lime; or wet, mix, or make any Mortar (except as herein-before mentioned); or throw at any Cock or Fowl in the Manner called Cock-throwing, or set up any Cock or Fowl to be thrown at in such Manner; or shall make, or assist in the making, any Fire or Fires commonly called Bonfires; or shall set to or let off or throw any Squib, Serpent, Rocket, or Fire-works whatsoever, in any of the Streets, Lanes, or public Ways, within the said City or Liberties thereof; every Person so offending, in any or either of the Cases aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Shillings, over and above such Penalties which are inflicted on any or either of the said Offences by any Law or Statute now in being.

To prevent killing Swine, &c. in the Streets.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall kill, slaughter, singe, scald, dress, or cut up, any Beast, Swine, Calf, Sheep, Lamb, or other Cattle, or cause the same to be done, in any open or public Street, Lane, or Way, within the said City, or the Liberties thereof, or hang up, or cause to be hung up, any Beast, Swine, Calf, Sheep, Lamb, or other Cattle, or any Part or Parts thereof, or any Sort of Goods or other Things whatsoever, on or over any of the Footways in any of the said Streets, Lanes, or public Passages (except in the Street called The Shambles, and the Market-place called The New Shambles), every Person or Persons so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Shillings; and if any Swine, Beast, or other Cattle, shall be found wandering about the said Streets, Lanes, or Ways, or any or either of them, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer or Officers of the said Commissioners, or any other Person or Persons whomsoever, to impound such Swine, Beast, or Cattle, in the common Pound in the said City, or such other Place as shall be appointed for that Purpose by the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, and the same to detain in the said Pound or Place, until the Sum of five Shillings, and the Expences of impounding such Swine, Beast, or Cattle, shall be fully paid and satisfied; and in case such Penalty and Expences shall not be paid within three Days after such Swine, Beast, or Cattle, shall be impounded, and public Notice thereof given by the Common Cryer that such Swine, Beast, or other Cattle, are so impounded for the Cause aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for such Person or Persons as shall be appointed by the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, for that Purpose, to sell, or cause such Swine, Beast, or Cattle, to be sold, and after deducting the Charge of impounding, crying, and Sale thereof, the Money arising from the Sale shall be applied to such and the same Purposes as the Money arising from the Rates or Assessments is hereby directed to be applied.

Penalty.

For paving the Streets, and removing Obstructions.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Occupiers of all Houses, Buildings, Gardens, and Hereditaments, which do or shall adjoin to any Street, Lane, or Place, within the said City, shall, at his, her, and their Costs and Charges respectively from Time to Time, within ten Days next after Notice in Writing given for that Purpose by the Surveyor to be appointed by virtue of this Act, cause the Ground before such Houses, Buildings, Gardens, or Hereditaments, in the said Streets, Lanes, or Places, to be raised or lowered, and well and sufficiently pitched and paved, and all the Gutters or Channels to be turned and altered, and the Grates already placed or hereafter to be placed over any Sewers, Drains, Watercourses, or Ditches, to be taken up, removed, altered, or replaced, and all Sewers, Drains, Watercourses, and Ditches, to be opened, cleansed, repaired, and scoured, which belong to the aforesaid Houses, Buildings, Gardens, and Hereditaments, and which ought of Right to be done by the Occupiers or Owners thereof respectively, and the same, and the several other Works to be done, as herein-after mentioned, shall be done in such Manner, and in such Form, as the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, shall from Time to Time order, direct, and appoint; and also the Occupiers of all Gardens or Lands into or through which any Common Sewers, Drains, Watercourses, or Ditches, extend within the said City or the Liberties thereof, shall from Time to Time, within ten Days next after Notice for that Purpose given by the said Surveyor, cause such Common Sewers, Drains, Watercourses, or Ditches, to be cleansed and scoured, and all Flood-gates or Stanks made or to be made therein to be taken up and removed, at the Costs and Charges of such Occupiers respectively; and likewise every Occupier of any House or other Building, within any Street, Lane, or Place, within the said City, shall take down, alter, and remove, all Posts, Steps, Bulks, Windows, Shew-boards, Shew glasses, or other Projections, which do or shall encroach in or over or on the Footway in any Street, Lane, or Place aforesaid; and also take away, alter, and remove, all Doors opening in or leading from the said Footways into any Cellar or Vault, and all Signs, Sign-posts, Sign-irons, Poles, Penthouses, Boards, or other Annoyances whatsoever, which shall be fixed to or against any House or other Building, or which shall hereafter be hung from any such House or other Building, within the Space of ten Days next after Notice in Writing given by the said Surveyor for taking down, altering, or removing, all such Annoyances as aforesaid, and cause all such Signs and Sign-boards to be fixed and placed close to the Wall, or on the Front of the Houses or other Buildings to which they respectively belong, at the Costs and Charges of the Occupiers of such Houses or Buildings; and all Occupiers of the aforesaid Houses, Buildings, Gardens, Lands, and Hereditaments, are hereby authorised to deduct the Expences attending the several and respective Works aforesaid out of his, her, or their Rent or Rents; and the Owners or Landlords of all such Houses, Buildings, Tenements, Gardens, Lands, and Hereditaments, are hereby required to allow the same accordingly.

Projections in or over the Footways of the Streets to be removed.

Tenants to deduct the Expences out of their Rents.

Expences of removing projecting Windows, &c. how to be defrayed.

XV. Provided always, That one Moiety of the Expence of removing any Window or Projection hanging over the Footways in any of the said Streets, Lanes, or Places aforesaid, shall be defrayed by the Occupier of the Building having such Window or Projection, and the other Moiety out of the Rates or Assessments granted by this Act; but no Occupier of any House shall be liable to pay more than five Pounds on account of removing any such Window or Projection.

If Occupiers neglect to do the Works directed by this Act, Commissioners may cause them to be done, and levy the Expences by Distress.

XVI. Provided also, That in case any such Occupier as aforesaid shall refuse or neglect to do and perform all or any of the several Works aforesaid, within the Time and in the Manner before directed, that then, and in all or any of the Cases aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, to cause the several Works aforesaid, or any of them, to be done in such Manner and Form as they shall think fit to order and direct, and the Charges and Expences attending the same to be paid by such Occupiers as aforesaid who ought to do and perform the said Works according to the Directions of this Act; and in case any such Occupier shall refuse or neglect to pay all such Charges and Expences, for the Space of Fourteen Days after such Charges and Expences shall be demanded of him or her by the said Surveyor, or some other Officer belonging to the said Commissioners, that then it shall and may be lawful for any one Justice of the Peace for the said City, upon Complaint made to him by such Surveyor or other Officer, to cause all such Charges and Expences to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Occupier so neglecting or refusing as aforesaid, together with all Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Occupier whose Goods and Chattels shall be so distrained and sold.

Monies to be accounted for between Dec. 25, and March 25, yearly.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That between the twenty-fifth Day of December and the twenty-fifth Day of March in every Year, a fair and just Account shall be made out of all Monies received and paid by virtue of this Act, and how, to whom, when, and for what Purposes the same shall have been laid out and expended; and a Copy or Duplicate thereof, signed by seven or more of the said Commissioners so assembled as aforesaid, shall be deposited with the Clerk to the said Commissioners, who is hereby required to permit any Person, rated or assessed as aforesaid, to inspect the same at all seasonable Times, paying one Shilling for such Inspection; and shall upon Demand forthwith give Copies of the same, or any Part thereof, to any such Person paying at the Rate of three Pence for every one hundred Words, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Number of Words; which Account and Copy or Duplicate the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, are hereby impowered and required to cause to be written out and signed, and delivered accordingly.

XVIII.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons to whom any Assignment or Assignments shall be made by the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, as a Security for any Sum or Sums of Money lent or to be lent and advanced, or any Annuity or Annuities to be payable on the Credit of this Act, or who shall be intitled to the Money thereby secured, shall and may from Time to Time, by proper Words to be indorsed on the Back of his, her, or their Assignment or Security, or by any other Writing or Writings under his, her, or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to be duly executed in the Presence of two or more credible Witnesses, assign or transfer his, her, or their Right, Title, Interest, or Benefit, to the Principal and Interest Money and Annuities thereby secured, or any Part thereof, to any Person or Persons whomsoever; and such Assignee may and is hereby impowered to assign the same again in like Manner, and so toties quoties; which Assignment shall be in the following Form of Words, or to that Effect, videlicet: Assignments may be transferred.

'I Do hereby transfer this Assignment, with all my Right and Title to the Principal Money [or Annuity, as the Case may be] thereby secured, and to all the Interest now due upon the same, unto his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns. Dated this Day of in the Year of our Lord' Form of Assignment.

'XIX. And, for the better regulating the Manner of setting up or continuing the Lamps in the said Streets, Lanes, or Places, within the said City,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, shall, and they are hereby authorised and required to proportion the Number of Lamps to be set up or continued in each Parish, according and in Proportion to the Money raised in such Parishes respectively. The Number of Lamps in each Parish to be in Proportion to the Money raised therein.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Rates herein-before granted shall be subject and liable to the Payment of all Money now due and owing, or which shall or may hereafter be borrowed and become due on the Credit of the said recited Acts and this Act, and of all Interest due and to grow due for the same respectively Rates subject to Payment of Monies due on the former Acts and this Act.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said former Acts, as to all and every Matter, Clause, and Proviso, therein contained, and also as to every Fine, Penalty, and Forfeiture thereby authorised to be imposed, or thereby inflicted for Offences committed, and the Manner of levying and recovering thereof (except wherein otherwise provided for by this Act), shall be extended and extend to this Act, and to the Rates and Assessments hereby authorised and directed to be made, laid, and assessed, and be deemed Part thereof, and shall operate, be in Force, and be observed, enforced, and performed in respect to this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act. Provisions of former Acts extended to this Act.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Charges and Expences incident to and attending the obtaining and passing this Act, shall be paid out of the Money raised or to be raised by virtue of the said recited Acts and this Act. Expences of this Act how to be paid.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, every such Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid and tried in the County or Place where the Cause of Complaint shall arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act: And if the same shall appear to have been so done, or if any Action or Suit shall be brought after the Time before limited for bringing the same, or shall be brought in any other County or Place than as aforesaid, then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or suffer a Discontinuance of his, her, or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared; or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and shall have such Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Costs of Suit in any other Cases by Law. Limitation of Actions. General Issue. Treble Costs.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be a public Act; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without specially pleading the same. Public Act.

CAP. XXII.

An Act for the better Government and Regulation of the Poor in the Town and Parish of Maidstone, in the County of Kent.

CAP. XXIII.

An Act to amend an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more speedy and effectual manning his Majesty's Navy; and for making further Provisions for those Purposes.

'WHEREAS his Majesty, by Order in Council, dated the eighteenth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, was pleased to order that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects, of the King of Spain; and that as well all his Maj sty's Fleets and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned, by Letters of Marque or General Preamble.

'Reprisals, or otherwise, by his Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods, belonging to the King of Spain, or his Subjects, or others inhabiting within any the Territories of the King of Spain, and bring the same to Judgment in any of the Courts of Admiralty within his Majesty's Dominions: Now, for the Encouragement of the Officers and Seamen of his Majesty's Ships of War, and the Officers and Seamen of all other British Ships and Vessels having Commissions and Letters of Marque, and for inducing all British Seamen who may be in any Foreign Service to return into this Kingdom, and become serviceable to his Majesty; and for the more effectual securing and extending the Trade of his Majesty's Subjects;' be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Flag Officers, Commanders, and other Officers, Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers, on Board every Ship and Vessel of War in his Majesty's Pay, shall have the sole Interest and Property of and in all and every Ship, Vessel, Goods, and Merchandises, which they have taken since the eighteenth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, or shall hereafter take during the Continuance of Hostilities against Spain, after the same shall have been finally adjudged lawful Prize to his Majesty, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Admiralty in Great Britain, or in his Majesty's Plantations in America, or elsewhere; to be divided in such Proportions, and after such Manner, as his Majesty hath, by his Proclamation of the twenty-fifth of June, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, already ordered and directed, or as his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, shall think fit to order and direct, by Proclamation or Proclamations hereafter to be issued for those Purposes.

Prizes made by the King's Ships, during the Hostilities against Spain, to be divided between the Captors, in the Proportions by his Majesty already ordered, or to be hereafter ordered, by Proclamation.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods, and Merchandises whatsoever, with all their Furniture, Tackle, or Apparel, taken or to be taken, during the Continuance of Hostilities against Spain, by or with any private Owner or Owners, Ship or Vessel, according to any Commission or Letter of Marque granted, or to be granted, as herein-after is set forth, by the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or any Person or Persons by him or them impowered and appointed (being first adjudged lawful Prize in any of his Majesty's Courts of Admiralty as aforesaid), shall wholly and entirely belong to and be divided between and among the Owner and Owners of such Ship or Vessel, and the several Persons who shall be on Board the same, and be aiding and assisting to the taking thereof, in such Share and Proportion as shall be agreed on with the Owner and Owners of such Ship or Vessel as shall be the Captor thereof, their Agents or Factors, as the proper Goods and Chattels of such Owner or Owners, and the Persons that shall be thus intitled thereto by virtue of such Agreements among themselves; and that neither his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or any Admiral, Vice-Admiral, Governor, or other Person commissioned by or claiming under his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, other than the Owner or Owners of such Ship or Vessel, being the Captor of such Prize, Ship, or Vessel, Arms, Ammunition, Stores of War, Goods, and Merchandises, and the Persons claiming under him or them, shall be intitled to any Part or Share thereof (except as to the Customs and Duties); any Custom, Statute, or other Law, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Prizes made by Privateers to be divided between the Owners and Captors, according to private Contract.

'III. And whereas by an Act, made in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more speedy and effectual manning his Majesty's Navy, several Provisions and Regulations were established for the better carrying on the salutary Purposes by the said Act intended in the Prosecution of Hostilities against France;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Regulations and Provisions respecting the Grant of Commissions or Letters of Marque, the Persons acting and the Captures made under the Authority of such Commissions or Letters of Marque, and all other Clauses, Provisoes, Matters, and Things, contained in the said Act shall extend, and be construed and deemed to extend, to the Grant of Commissions or Letters of Marque to the Persons acting, and the Captures made, under the Authority of such Commissions or Letters of Marque for General Reprisals against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the King of Spain, and all other Matters or Things whatsoever, in respect of the same, during the Continuance of Hostilities against Spain, as fully, amply, and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Regulations, Provisions, Clauses, Provisoes, Matters and Things, had been particularly repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Provisions in 19 Geo. III. Cap. 67, for prosecuting Hostilities against France, extended to Letters of Marque, &c. for General Reprisals against Spain.

IV. Provided always, and be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in the said Act, made in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, or in this Act contained, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to exempt any Ships, Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, already taken, and which shall be taken as Prize, and brought or imported into this Kingdom, or any of his Majesty's Plantations in America, from the Payment of any Customs or Duties, or from being subject to the Restrictions and Regulations to which the same now are or shall hereafter be liable by virtue of the Laws and Statutes of this Realm.

Prize Goods liable to Payment of Customs.

'V. And whereas by the said Act, made in the nineteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, it is enacted, 'That all Penalties and Forfeitures given and granted by the said Act, shall be applied one Moiety to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich: And whereas such Distribution of Penalties and Forfeitures may interfere with the Distribution of several Penalties and Forfeitures which are otherwise particularly disposed of by the said Act;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much and such Part of the said recited Act shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Part of 19 Geo. III. Cap. 67, relating to Application of Penalties, repealed.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted or incurred by the said recited and this present Act, other than such as are otherwise particularly disposed of, shall be applied one Moiety to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety to the Use of the said Royal Hospital.

Application of Penalties.

'VII. And

'VII. And whereas it is by the said recited Act, among other Things, enacted, That if any Ship, 'Vessel, or Boat, taken as Prize, or any Goods therein, shall appear and be proved in any Court of Admiralty to have belonged to any of his Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain or Ireland, or any of the Dominions and Territories remaining and continuing under his Majesty's Protection and Obedience, which were before taken or surprized by any of his Majesty's Enemies, and at any Time afterwards again surprized and retaken from his Majesty's Enemies by any of his Majesty's Ships of War, or any private Man of War, or other Ship, Vessel, or Boat, under his Majesty's Protection and Obedience, that then such Ships, Vessels, Boats, and Goods, and every such Part and Parts thereof, as aforesaid, formerly belonging to such his Majesty's Subjects, shall, in all Cases, be adjudged to be restored, and shall be, by Decree of the said Court of Admiralty, accordingly restored to such former Owner or Owners, or Proprietors, he or they paying, for and in Lieu of Salvage, as in the said Act is particularly mentioned and directed: And whereas it hath been found by Experience, that great Expence is incurred by the original Owners and Recaptors of Colliers and Coasting Vessels, and other Vessels of small Value, by proceeding to Adjudication in the Manner directed by the said recited Act, with respect to the Salvage of such recaptured Colliers and Coasting Vessels, and other Vessels of small Value, the Charges whereof frequently exceed the Sum paid for Salvage to the Recaptors:' For Remedy whereof be it enacted, That in Cases of all Colliers and Coasting Vessels, and other Vessels of small Value, taken by the Enemy, and afterwards retaken by any of his Majesty's Ships of War, or by any Privateer or Merchant Ship having Letter of Marque, or by any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, under his Majesty's Protection or Obedience, it shall and may be lawful, immediately upon such recaptured Collier or Coasting Vessel, or other Vessel of small Value, being brought into Port, for the Owners and Agents on both Sides to agree upon the Salvage, so as such Salvage shall not exceed the respective Proportions directed by the said recited Act to be paid to Recaptors; and upon producing to the Judge of any Court of Admiralty, or his Surrogate, or to any one or more of the Commissioners for taking Examinations in Prize Causes, an Attestation of the Master of the recaptured Ship or Vessel, of the Property thereof, and of the Cargo, including also an Attestation of some Person of good Credibility as to the Identity of the said Ship or Vessel, and of his having carefully viewed the same; that then it shall be lawful for the Recaptor, or his Agent, immediately to restore the same without any further Delay, and such Restitution being certified to the Court, shall be decreed to be affirmed accordingly; any Thing in the said recited Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Recital of Part of 19 Geo. III. Cap. 67, relating to recaptured Vessels.

Regulations concerning recaptured Colliers, Coasting Vessels, &c.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act for converting into Money the Statute Labour, in the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, for the Purpose of repairing the Highways, Bridges, and Ferries, within the said Stewartry.

'WHEREAS the Powers granted by Law, relative to Highways, Bridges, and Ferries, and the 'Services thereby authorised to be exacted in Scotland, have not been found sufficient for making, 'widening, and repairing, and keeping in Repair, the Roads, Bridges, and Ferries, in the Stewartry of 'Kirkcudbright: And whereas the Performance of Statute-labour when rigorously exacted, has been found 'very unequal and oppressive, and it would be more equitable and convenient if a moderate Assessment or 'Conversion in Money was paid in lieu thereof, and if further Powers were given to the Justices of the 'Peace, and Commissioners of Supply for carrying the Intentions of the said Laws into Execution; and, 'as this cannot be done without the Aid of Parliament,' may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Person, who is at present, or hereafter shall be, in his own Right, or in the Right of his Wife, in the actual Possession and Enjoyment, as Proprietor or Liferenter of Lands, in the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, valued in the Tax-roll, or Valuation Books of the said Stewartry to the Extent of one hundred Pounds Scots per Annum; and all and every the eldest Sons of such Persons, being Heirs of the said Property, or in the Absence of the said Proprietor and his Heir, the Factor having a Commission for collecting his Rents; and also the Stewart-depute of the said Stewartry for the Time being, and his Substitutes, and the Provost, or chief residing Magistrate of each of the Royal Burghs within the said Stewartry, during his Magistracy, shall be, and are hereby appointed Trustees for making, widening, and repairing, and keeping in Repair, the Highways, Roads, Bridges, and Ferries, within the said Stewartry, and for executing all other Powers by this Act to them given and granted.

Preamble.

Trustees.

II. Provided always, That if any Person not qualified, or described as aforesaid, shall presume to act as a Trustee in the Execution of this Act, every such Person shall, for every such Act, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds Sterling, beside the Expence of Prosecution, to be recovered by Complaint in a summary Way, at the Suit of any Proprietor of Land within the said Stewartry, before the Justices of the Peace at their Quarter Sessions, or before the Stewart-depute of the said Stewartry, or his Substitute or Substitutes, which Penalty shall be paid to the said Trustees, or their Clerk, to be applied for the Purposes of this Act; and, in case any such Complaint shall be brought, the Proof of Qualification shall lie upon the Defendant.

Penalty on acting if not qualified.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Occupiers of Land, and other Persons chargeable with Statute-labour within the said Stewartry, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, pay (to the Collectors to be appointed in Manner herein-after mentioned) an Assessment or Conversion in Money, in lieu of Statute-labour, according to the following Rates; that is to say, all Occupiers of Lands, whether Proprietors or Tenants, shall be liable to pay yearly an Assessment in Money for the Lands occupied Assessment to be laid on Occupiers of Land, occupied by them respectively, according as the said Lands stand valued in the Tax-roll of the Stewartry, at a Rate not exceeding the Sum of fifteen Shillings Sterling for each hundred Pound Scots of such valued Rent, except as to the fourth Division, as herein-after mentioned: And all Occupiers of Burgh Roods, or Lands lying in the Territory of Royal Burghs, whether Proprietors or Tenants, shall pay, as Assessment or Conversion for Statute-labour, a Sum not exceeding three Pence Sterling per Annum, for each Pound Sterling of yearly real Rent, payable for Burgh Lands occupied by them, which shall be diminished in the same Proportion that the aforesaid Assessment or Conversion of Lands in the Parish shall be diminished: And all Innkeepers, Carters, Carriers, and other Persons keeping Horses for Hire, shall pay as Assessment or Conversion for Statute-labour of such Horses, the Sum of two Shillings Sterling yearly for each Horse so kept for Hire, and one Shilling Sterling yearly for each Person working the said Horse: And all Householders or Inhabitants of Royal Burghs and Villages, that now are, or hereafter may be, erected, and the Occupier or Occupiers of any House within the said Stewartry, shall, in the Place of their Statute-labour, pay yearly an Assessment or Conversion of one Shilling and six Pence Sterling for every Dwelling-house occupied by them, whereof the Rent exceeds fifteen Shillings Sterling yearly: And all Tradesmen and their Journeymen, not being Householders or Occupiers of Land (Apprentices bound by regular Indentures excepted), shall, in Lieu of Statute-labour, pay each one Shilling and six Pence Sterling yearly. And where Householders occupy any profitable Land near to their Houses, on which a Horse or Horses are employed or used for its Working or Improvement, the Valuation of which Land does not exceed twenty Pounds Scots, the said Householder or Occupier shall pay, as Assessment or Conversion for the Statute-labour of the said Horse, one Shilling Sterling for each Horse yearly, over and above what he shall be rated at for the Valuation of his Land.

on Tradesmen, on Occupiers of Land under 20l. Scots of Valuation.

IV. Provided always, That Servants hired by the Year, and Cotters or other Labourers who are engaged to work by the Year, whose Masters shall be bound to pay an Assessment or Conversion as Occupiers of the Lands wherein such Servants, Cotters, and Labourers reside, shall not be liable to pay any Conversion for their Statute-labour. Provided also, That Clergymen and Schoolmasters shall not pay any Assessment or Conversion for their Manses, Glebes, or Houses, nor for Servants occupied therein, unless they shall be Occupiers of other Lands as Tenants or Proprietors; in which Case, they are to pay, for such other Lands so occupied by them, according to the Rate of the Class to which they belong. Provided also, That it shall be in the Power of the said Trustees at their Division Meeting (herein-after mentioned) to exempt from Payment of Assessment or Conversion for Statute-labour, such Persons as to them shall appear to be in indigent Circumstances.

Exception of yearly Servants, Cotters, &c.

of Clergymen and Schoolmasters, of indigent Persons.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where any Lands rated at a cumulo Valuation in the Books of the said Stewartry are occupied by Division or in separate Possessions, the Proprietors of such Lands, or their Factors, shall and are hereby required to make up and deliver to the Clerk of the General Meeting, upon the second Tuesday in June, as herein-after mentioned, or in ten Days thereafter, a true State or Account of the Valuation of such respective Lands, with the Names of the Tenants who occupy the same, and of the Parishes wherein they are situated, and the Proportion of valued Rent falling upon each Farm, suitable to the yearly Rent of the same: And, in case any Proprietor shall fail to give in such State or Account, it shall be in the Power of any five or more of the said Trustees, or any Person or Persons authorised by them, to compel such Proprietor or Proprietors to pay for the Whole of such Lands so valued in cumulo, according to the valued Rent thereof, in the Valuation Books of the said Stewartry, and to cause the same to be levied in the Manner and for the Purposes herein-after mentioned: And, in case any Tenant shall think such State of Valuation given in by the Proprietor unequal, it shall be lawful for such Tenant to complain to the next or any subsequent General Meeting of Trustees herein-after mentioned, whose Determination thereon shall be final. And the Proprietors may recover in Manner herein-after mentioned from their Tenants the Sums they may be obliged to pay for them respectively.

Where a cumulo Valuation, Proprietors and their Factors to make up States.

In Default, may be compelled to pay for all the Lands so valued in cumulo.

Tenants may complain of such States.

Proprietors have Relief.

'VI. And, for ascertaining the Conversion payable by the Occupiers of Burgh Roods and Houses in 'Royal Burghs and Villages, and by other Householders as above-mentioned,' be it further enacted, That any five or more of the said Trustees, at their first General Meeting in June, or at any adjourned General Meeting of the said Trustees, and yearly thereafter, shall, and they are hereby authorised and required to nominate and appoint two or more Assessors for each Borough, Village, and Division, within the said Stewartry, who, within the Space of one Calendar Month after their Appointment, shall yearly return upon Oath (to be administered by a Justice of the Peace, or a Magistrate of any of the Royal Burghs) to the Clerk of the General Meeting, as herein-after mentioned, an exact List of the Occupiers of the said Burgh Roods and Houses, and the Rents of the said Burgh Roods, where the same are in Tenantry, or to the best of their Judgment the annual Value of such Burgh Roods, where they are in the natural Possession of the Proprietor, or where the Rent paid by the Tenant cannot be ascertained: And the said Assessors shall and are hereby required and empowered to make up full and distinct annual Lists of all the Inhabitants of each Parish, who are chargeable with any of the Conversions imposed by this Act, other than the landed Proprietors for their Valuation Lands: And also Accounts of the Horses and Servants kept therein for Hire and otherways, specifying the different Classes to which the said Inhabitants and Horses belong: Which Lists and Accounts, when so made up, shall be delivered to the said Trustees at their Division Meeting, or to their Clerk, herein-after mentioned: And the said Assessors are hereby required, and shall be obliged to act and to perform their Duty faithfully, according to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, under the Penalty of five Pounds Sterling for every Offence, to be levied and applied as herein-after mentioned: But no Person shall be obliged to hold the Office of Assessor for more than two Years successively, nor shall again be obliged to accept of the said Office, during the Space of six Years thereafter: And the whole Sums arising from the aforesaid Assessment or Conversion shall be paid in two equal Moieties, on or before the twenty-fifth Day of June, and twenty-fifth Day of December yearly, to the the Collectors to be appointed by the said Trustees, as herein-after specified; and for which Receipts are to be given gratis, in case the same are demanded.

'VII. And, for the more effectual Execution of this Act, and of the Powers hereby granted,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Trustees before-mentioned shall hold a General Meeting (five of whom to be a Quorum) at the Town Hall of Kirkcudbright on the second Tuesday in June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, and shall form themselves into a regular Meeting, by chusing a Preses and Clerk (which Clerk shall continue in Office until the next General Meeting for imposing the Land Tax), and shall proceed to concert and give proper Instructions for carrying this Act into Execution; at which Meeting they are also to call for Extracts from the Books of the Clerk of Supply of the Valuation of each Parish in the Stewartry (which Extracts the said Clerk is hereby ordered to make out, and give in to the Meeting gratis): And the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, are hereby authorised and required to fix the Rate of Assessment or Conversion for Statute-labour to be levied in each Parish or Division for that Year, although the previous State of the Roads, Bridges, and Ferries, may not be made up, as herein-after mentioned. And the Clerk to be chosen by the Meeting as aforesaid, after finding Caution for the faithful Execution of the Trust put in him, shall carefully ingross in a Book, to be kept for that Purpose, the whole Proceedings of the said Meeting, and the Orders given by such Meeting, and by every other General Meeting: And the said Trustees shall thereafter hold two General Meetings at the said Town Hall of Kirkcudbright, the first of which shall be held upon the second Tuesday in October yearly, at which they the said Trustees shall annually receive a Report from each Division (as herein-after specified) of the State of the Highways, Bridges, and Ferries therein, with Estimates of the Expences necessary for repairing them: And the other General Meeting of the Trustees shall be held at the same Place, upon the Day appointed by Act of Parliament for imposing the Land Tax; at which last Meeting, the Clerk to the said Trustees is to be annually chosen, and the Rate of Assessment or Conversion, payable by each Parish or Division for the Year ensuing, is to be fixed; and the said Trustees, or a Majority of them present at the said General Meetings, are hereby authorised and impowered to adjourn such respective Meetings to such other Time as they may judge proper; and the Clerk is hereby required to give, at least, ten Days previous Notice of such Adjournment in one of the Dumfries or Edinburgh Newspapers: And the said Clerk shall also receive and ingross in a Book or Books the Reports made to the General Meeting from Division Meetings (herein-after to be specified); all which Books shall at all Times be open and free for the Inspection of any of the said Trustees gratis: And that no Act, Order, or Proceeding of the said Trustees, at any such General Meeting, shall be valid, unless made or done by a Majority of the Trustees then present, such Majority not being less than five.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Stewartry shall be classed or arranged into eight Divisions; that is to say, The first Division to consist of the Parishes of Kirkcudbright, Rerrick, and Kelton. The second Division to consist of the Parishes of Borgue, Twynholm, Tungland, and Balmaghie. The third Division to consist of Girthon, Anwoth, and Kirkmabreck. The fourth Division to consist of Minnigaff, Kells, Carsfairn, Dalry, and Balmaclellan. The fifth Division to consist of the Parishes of Parton, Kirkpatrick-Durham, and Crossmichael. The sixth Division to consist of the Parishes of Buittle, Orr, Colvend, and Kirkgunion. The seventh Division to consist of the Parishes of Kirkbean, New-abbey, and Troqueer. And the eighth and last Division to consist of the Parishes of Kirkpatrick-Irongray, Tereagles, and Lochrutton. In each of which Divisions the first General Meeting in June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, shall appoint a Conveener, who is hereby required to write, or cause to be written, a Letter to every Trustee residing or having Property in the said Divisions, appointing them to meet at such Place as may be most convenient for the Generality of the Trustees in the said Division; which Division Meeting shall not be later than three Weeks after the said General Meeting in June: And the Trustees (three of whom to be a Quorum in the Division Meetings), when so convened, are to chuse a Preses and Clerk, and to proceed to execute the Instructions that shall be given to them by the General Meeting; and may adjourn themselves from Time to Time as they shall see Cause; and are to ascertain the Highways, Bridges, and Ferries, most necessary to be made or repaired, and to contract with proper Undertakers for executing the same: And they are also to appoint a Collector for each Division, who must find Caution, to the Satisfaction of the Trustees in each Division, or any three or more of them, for the faithful Execution of the Trust reposed in him, and collect, at the Periods above fixed, the Assessment or Conversion which the General Meeting shall have ascertained to be paid by each Class above specified in each Parish, in Conformity to the Lists and Accounts made up and given in by the Assessors above mentioned. And the Collector shall account faithfully to the Trustees in each Parish for the whole Money he shall collect therein, and the same shall be regularly entered in Books to be kept by him for that Purpose, and also reported to and ingrossed by the Clerk of the General Meeting. And the Collector shall account every six Months, or oftener (if required by any three or more of the said Trustees), upon Oath, to be administered by any two of the Justices of the Peace in the said Stewartry: And in case any Collector, after ten Days Notice being given to him for that Purpose in Writing by three or more of the said Trustees, shall refuse to give in such Account or Accounts, and to swear to the Truth thereof, or shall refuse to pay the Balance due thereon, to the Person or Persons appointed by the said Trustees, or any three or more of them, to receive the same; then, and in such Cases, it shall and may be lawful for any two Justices of the Peace for the said Stewartry, to commit the Offender to the County Gaol, there to remain until such Accounts, and all the Expences attending the Recovery of the Balance due thereon, shall be paid and fully satisfied, or until he shall be liberated therefrom in due Course of Law.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Trustees in each Parish, or any two or more of them, shall meet at the Parish Church, on the first Thursday in October yearly, and there make up particular States of the several Roads, Bridges, and Ferries, within the Parishes respectively, and Estimates of the Sums necessary for making, widening, and repairing the said Roads, Bridges, and Ferries,

Parish Meeting the first Thursday in October yearly, must make up States and Estimates, and Accounts of Assessments, &c.

for the Year ensuing; and shall also make up an Account of the Application of the Assessments or Conversions for Statute-labour theretofore levied: Which States, Estimates, and Accounts, shall be reported to the General Meeting of Trustees, on the second Tuesday in October annually, and a Copy of them lodged with the Collector of each Division Meeting, to be at all Times open to the Inspection of the Trustees in such Division gratis: And if any Person shall object or complain that the Report made of the State of the Roads, Bridges, and Ferries, within any Parish, is not just, the said General Meeting shall appoint a Committee to inspect the same, and to report the true State thereof to the next subsequent General Meeting, or Adjournment of the same; and such States, Estimates, and Accounts, or Reports thereof, when approved, shall be lodged with the Records of the General Meeting: In Conformity to which Reports, the Valuation of Lands, and the List and Account of Inhabitants and Houses in each Parish and Division, the General Meeting for fixing the Rate of Assessment or Conversion, shall, and are hereby required to ascertain and determine the Rate and Sums to be annually levied from each Parish and Division respectively; which Sums, so ascertained, shall be applied by the Trustees in each Division aforesaid; but in such Manner as that the whole Money levied in each Parish shall be applied to the Roads, Bridges, and Ferries, within the same, except the necessary Expences of Management, and the Salaries to Clerks, Collectors, and other Officers; which Expences of Management, and Salaries to Clerks, Collectors, and other Officers, as well those of the General as of the Division Meetings, shall not in the Whole exceed seven and one half per Centum of the maximum Assessment or Conversion fixed to be taken by this Act, and shall be divided as the Trustees at the General Meeting shall direct; and except also such Part thereof as shall, by the Consent of a Majority of the Trustees residing or having Property in each Parish, be applied for making, widening, or repairing any of the principal High-roads, Bridges, or Ferries, leading from the same through other Parishes.

If any Complaint against same, General Meeting to appoint a Committee to inspect, &c.

X. Provided always, That if the Trustees in any Parish or Division shall neglect to make up and give in to the General Meeting, to be held in October, such States, Estimates, or Reports, as above specified, then the Trustees, at the General Meeting for fixing the Rate and Amount of the Assessment or Conversion, shall assess such Parish or Division in the full maximum of the Assessment or Conversion above-mentioned, to be taken in lieu of Statute-labour.

Parish or Division Meetings failing to give in States, &c. to be assessed in the full maximum.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said Trustees, at all their General or Division Meetings, shall pay and defray their own Expences; and that the whole Procedure of the Trustees in the Division Meetings shall always be subject to the Controul of the General Meetings.

Trustees to defray their own Expences.

Division Meeting subject to General Meeting.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person, liable to pay the said Assessment or Conversion for Statute-labour, shall refuse to pay the same to the Collector, on or before the respective Days above specified for Payment thereof, it shall then be lawful for the Stewart-depute, or any of his Substitutes, or for two or more Justices of the Peace for the said Stewartry, to grant a Warrant for poinding the Effects of the Deficient in a summary Manner, to appraise them on the Spot where found, and afterwards to sell the same by Auction, for Payment of the Assessment or Conversion that shall be due, together with the full Charges attending the Recovery thereof, and the Overplus (if any be) shall be paid, when demanded, to the Person whose Effects shall have been so poinded: Which Warrants are to be so granted by the Stewart-depute, or Substitutes, or Justices aforesaid, upon an Application made to them, or any of them, and an Attestation subscribed by any of the Collectors, certifying that the Persons complained of have been deficient in paying the Assessments or Conversions above-mentioned, and expressing therein the Arrear of each Person; and the same summary Recourse shall be competent to Proprietors of Land, who may be obliged to pay the Assessment or Conversion for their Tenants, in case the Tenant shall not repay his Landlord within ten Days after he shall be required by him so to do.

Deficients to be poinded.

Same competent to Proprietors against their Tenants.

XIII. Provided always, That the Stewart-depute, or his Substitutes, or the Justices of the Peace for the said Stewartry, or any two or more of them, shall award the Value of Triple Damages sustained by any Person or Persons aggrieved by the Execution of a Warrant granted as above; which Damages are to be paid by the Collector, upon whose Attestation such Warrant shall have been granted, in case it shall appear to the said Stewart-depute, or his Substitutes, or to the said Justices of the Peace, that the said Collector has made a false Accusation against any Person liable as aforesaid; which Triple Damages shall be wholly payable to the Parties aggrieved, and shall be levied as above directed with respect to poinding the Effects of Deficients: And in case any of the Collectors shall fail or omit to exact the aforesaid Assessments or Conversions, every such Collector shall be liable, by a Sentence of the said Stewart-depute, or any of his Substitutes, or any one or more of the said Justices of the Peace, to pay the Assessment or Conversion-money so failed or omitted to be exacted by him.

Collectors making a false Accusation, liable in Triple Damages; and to pay Sums omitted to be collected by them.

XIV. Provided always, That no Objections to the prepared States and Estimates of Expences of Highways, Bridges, and Ferries, nor any Complaint or Appeal that may be made respecting the Assessments or Conversions, or other Matters hereby directed, shall stop the Payment of the several Assessments or Conversions; but the Parties who may think themselves aggrieved shall nevertheless be at Liberty to bring an Action for Redress in Manner herein-after mentioned.

Objections, Appeals, &c. not to stop Payment; reserving Action for Redress.

'XV. And whereas the Highways and Roads in the Parishes of Minnigaff, Kells, Carsfairn, Dalry, 'and Balmaclellan, being the fourth Division of the said Stewartry, are more extensive, and will be much 'more difficult to make, widen, repair, and keep in Repair, than the Highways and Roads in any of the 'other Parishes in the said Stewartry; and therefore the said Assessment or Conversion of fifteen Shillings 'Sterling for each hundred Pounds Scots of Valuation, and three Pence Sterling for each Pound Sterling 'of real Rent of Borough Roods in the said fourth Division of the said Stewartry, will be inadequate to 'the Expences thereof;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be in the Power of the said Trustees, or a Quorum of them, at their General Annual Meeting for fixing the Rate of Conversion, or Adjournments thereof as aforesaid, and they are hereby authorised and required, upon Application being made to them by any of the said Trustees possessing two-thirds of the Valuation and Property in Roads, &c. in 4th Division more difficult to make.

General Meeting therefore, on Application of Trustees having 2-thirds of Valuation in in the said fourth Division, to fix the Assessment or Conversion to be taken in lieu of Statute-labour in the said fourth Division, at any Rate that shall not exceed twenty Shillings Sterling for every hundred Pounds Scots of Valuation of Lands, and four Pence Sterling for every Pound Sterling of real Rent of Borough Roods in the said fourth Division; provided nevertheless that the Assessment or Conversion to be taken from Householders and Tradesmen and their Journeymen, or for Horses and Servants in the said fourth Division, shall not be altered from the Assessment or Conversion to be generally taken in the rest of the Stewartry for the like Classes; which Assessment or Conversion to be fixed and taken in the said fourth Division, shall be levied in the same Manner as any other Assessment or Conversion is by this Act authorised and directed to be levied, and shall be applied within the same Division in Manner before directed.

fourth Division, may assess in a Sum not exceeding 20s. on 100l. Scots on Land, and 4d. per Pound Sterling on Burgh Rood; but no Addition on Householders, &c.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall be willing to advance and lend Money without Interest, for the more speedy making, widening, or repairing any particular Roads within any Parish in the said Stewartry, the said Trustees at their said General Meetings shall have Power, and they are hereby authorised to fix and ascertain the Rate and Amount of the Conversion or Assessment to be levied upon Valuation of Lands, or real Rent of Borough Roods, in the Parish where the Money shall be so advanced and lent, for the three Years then next ensuing, and to allot or assign the Whole, or such Part thereof, to the Person or Persons so advancing and lending Money, as shall be necessary for Repayment thereof, within the said Space of three Years; which Money so advanced and lent shall be no Burthen on the Assessment or Conversion of the Stewartry in general, but only on the Assessment or Conversion of the particular Parish for which such Money shall be advanced and lent; provided always, that no greater Sum shall be allotted or assigned as aforesaid, at any one Time, than the Amount of the Assessment or Conversion for three Years; and such Allotment or Assignment shall not be made, unless with the Consent of a Majority of the Trustees residing within such particular Parish; and the Whole of the Money that shall be so advanced and lent, shall be applied solely to the particular Road or Roads for the making or repairing of which such Money shall be so advanced and lent.

Persons willing to lend Money for making particular Roads.

Terms of this Loan.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Trustees in their General or Division Meetings, or a Quorum of them, shall, and they are hereby authorised to cause the Highways or Roads, Bridges and Ferries, within the said Stewartry, to be amended, widened, and repaired, in such Manner as they shall think proper; and also to cause such Drains to be cut and made through any Ground lying contiguous to the said Roads; and new Arches and Bridges of Stone, Brick, or Timber, to be made and erected upon the said Roads; and any old Bridges which may become useless or unnecessary, by changing the Course of the Roads or otherwise, to be pulled down, and the Materials thereof to be applied in building new Arches, or for repairing the said Highways or Roads, as they shall see proper: And also to cause such Parts of the said Roads as are not of a sufficient Breadth to be widened, and made of such Breadth as they shall think proper, not exceeding ten Yards; and also to cause the Course of such Part or Parts of the said Roads as they shall think proper to be changed or altered for shortening the same, or for making them more accessible; and for that Purpose to cause to be pulled down (if necessary) any Houses, the Side Walls of which are not more than twelve Feet high; provided nevertheless, that previous Application shall be made to, and the Consent of the Majority of the Trustees at a General Meeting obtained, as well for altering and widening the said Roads, as for pulling down the said Houses.

Trustees to make Roads, or to cut Drains; to erect Arches and Bridges; or pull down old ones:

May widen Roads, not exceeding 10 Yards:

May alter Roads, and pull down Houses:

XVIII. Provided always, That in all such Alterations, and in widening the said Roads, the said Trustees shall, in every Particular, follow the Method prescribed in the general Act of the eleventh Year of his present Majesty, for widening of Roads in Scotland; and also where any Houses, or any Parts of Houses, shall be taken down by Authority of this Act for the altering or widening of any of the said Roads, the full Value of all such Loss as shall be thereby sustained by the Owners or Possessors of such Houses shall be first paid to them; and, for ascertaining the said Loss, the said Trustees shall follow the same Method as is directed for ascertaining and paying the Value and Damages incurred by altering or widening Roads, by the said Act of the eleventh of his present Majesty.

But must observe Method settled by Act 11 Geo. III.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the said Trustees, or any three or more of them, or such Person or Persons as they shall appoint, may dig, gather, take, and carry away, Gravel, Furze, Heath, Stones, or other such like Materials, out of the several Grounds of any Person, where such Materials may be found, not being dug or raised for the private Use of the Proprietor of such Grounds, for making, repairing, and amending the said Roads, or for building Arches and Bridges as aforesaid, and to open Accesses for carrying off the said Materials; such Accesses, and the Places from which the said Materials shall be proposed to be taken, being first marked out by any three or more of the said Trustees, if so required by the said Proprietor of such Grounds, or his or her Factor, or by the Occupier thereof; they the said Trustees making reasonable Satisfaction, out of the Money arising by virtue of this Act, to the Owners or Occupiers of the Grounds respectively, from which such Materials shall be taken, or over which the same may be carried, for the Damages to be done thereby; but if such Proprietor, Factor, or Occupier, shall not be satisfied with the Satisfaction offered by the said Trustees, the same shall, upon Application made to the Stewart for that Purpose, be ascertained by a Jury, in the same Manner as prescribed in the said Act of the eleventh of his present Majesty; but such Application shall not prevent the said Trustees from causing the said Materials to be carried off and used in the mean Time.

Trustees may take Materials, &c.

on paying Damages.

'XX. And whereas an easy Access to Water-carriage, and to the Sea, may tend much to the Improvement of Agriculture and Commerce,' be it therefore further enacted, That it shall be in the Power of the said Trustees, at their General Annual Meetings, to order and cause any Roads to be made within the Limits of the said Stewartry, in the nearest and most convenient Direction from the great Roads, not only to the different Ports or Places within the said Stewartry mentioned in the Book of Rates, but also towards the following Places; that is to say, Carsnaw, Park M'Clurg, Palneur below Bridge, Skyreburn, Fleet-bridge, the Isle Mouth of Knockbrex, Kirk-andrews, Brighouse-bay, Balmangan-bay, Tungland, Tarff below Bridge, Mankfmans-lake, Mullock-bay, Netherlaw-burnfoot, Auchencairn, Garden-creek, Dub of Hass or Dalbeatie-burn, Roads may be made to Seaports, &c.

and to Landing-places on the Rivers of Dee and Ken.

burn, Southwick-burn, Saturneſs-point, Newabbey-burn, Laghall and Orchyardtoun-burn; and alſo towards the following Places on the Loch of Ken, and the River Dee, that is to ſay, at and oppoſite to the Boatcroſt of Livingſton on both Sides of the River Dee, at Little Kenmore, on the Weſt Side of Loch Ken, and at and oppoſite to the Place called Cubbox Iſle, on both Sides of Ken.

But Proprietors to be previouſly paid.

Provided always, That three Months previous Notice at the leaſt be given thereof to the reſpective Proprietors of the Lands through which ſuch Roads ſhall be made, and ſuch Proprietors ſhall be previouſly paid not only the Value of the Land to be uſed in making ſuch new Roads, and the Fences to be made along both Sides thereof, but alſo of the Ground neceſſary for a Landing-place, whereon to lay Lime, Shells, Coals, or other Goods, and alſo the Expence of fencing off the ſame; which Ground to be uſed for a Landing-place, the ſaid Truſtees, or any three or more of them, or any Committee by them named, ſhall appoint and mark out, not exceeding one Acre: Provided alſo, That no Warehouſe or other Houſe or Building whatever ſhall be erected upon the ſaid Landing-place, or upon the new Roads to be ſet out as laſt mentioned.

Other Conditions.

And for aſcertaining and fixing the Damages and Value aforeſaid, the ſame Mode ſhall be followed as is preſcribed by the ſaid Act of the eleventh of his preſent Majeſty, for determining the Value and Damage ariſing from widening Roads to thirty Feet.

No Houſe, Garden, &c. to be prejudiced.

Provided alſo, That in altering, widening, or making the Roads aforeſaid, or in digging or taking away the aforeſaid Materials, nothing ſhall be done that may any Way prejudice any Houſe or Building, the Side Walls of which are above twelve Feet high, or any Garden, Orchard, or Planted Walk, or any Avenue appertaining to ſuch Houſe.

Poſſeſſors to clean Ditches made by them.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Ditches have been, or in Time coming ſhall be made through any Fields adjoining to any of the ſaid Roads, either for preventing Water running upon, or for conveying the Water from, any of the Highways or Roads in the ſaid Stewartry, by the Proprietors or Occupiers of the ſaid Fields, then ſuch Proprietors or Occupiers ſhall and are hereby required to keep thoſe Ditches properly ſcoured, and not to allow the Water to ſtagnate therein; and in caſe of their failing ſo to do, after ten Days Notice previouſly given, the Overſeers of the ſaid Roads, being ſo ordered by any one of the ſaid Truſtees, may, and are hereby required to order ſuch Ditches to be cleanſed, opened, and ſcoured, at the Coſts and Expences of the Proprietors or Occupiers of the Fields through which thoſe Ditches ſhall be made; and upon their refuſing Payment of ſuch Coſts and Expences, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid Stewartry, or any two or more of them, or the Stewart-depute, or his Subſtitute, to levy ſuch Coſts and Expences by Diſtreſs and Sale, in the ſame Manner as is herein-before directed for levying the Aſſeſſment or Converſion-money aforeſaid.

In Default, Truſtees may order it at their Coſt.

Provided always, That the Ditches and Drains which ſhall be made by Order of the ſaid Truſtees, or any three or more of them, ſhall be ſcoured and kept in Repair out of the Money ariſing by virtue of this Act; and if any Proprietor or Occupier of Land, through which any ſuch Ditches or Drains are or ſhall be made, ſhall obſtruct or fill up any of them, the Perſon or Perſons ſo offending ſhall forfeit and pay Triple the Expence of repairing and ſcouring the ſame, to be recovered in Manner herein-after mentioned; and the ſaid Proprietor or Occupier ſhall be deemed the Tranſgreſſor, unleſs it ſhall be proved that the Tranſgreſſion was committed by ſome other Perſon.

Ditches and Drains made by Truſtees to be ſcoured at public Expence.

Poſſeſſors obſtructing the ſame, to pay Triple Expence.

And where any Paſſage for Cattle or Carriages acroſs any Road, for the Convenience of the Occupier of the Ground through which it paſſes, ſhall be made, the Occupier of ſuch Ground ſhall always cover the Drains along the Sides of ſuch Road with ſufficient Stones, in ſuch Manner as the Courſe of the Water in the Drains may not be interrupted, or the Road thereby prejudiced: Provided always, That no Occupier of Land ſhall conduct any Water acroſs any Road for the meliorating of his Fields, or other Purpoſes, until he ſhall have applied for, and obtained the Conſent of a Quorum of the ſaid Truſtees reſiding in the Diviſion where the Road is ſituated; and every ſuch Occupier ſhall be obliged to carry the Water acroſs the Road in a covered Drain of ſuch Depth and Conſtruction as that the Water may not prejudice the Road.

Water carried acroſs any Road, Manner thereof.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Houſes ſhall, after the paſſing of this Act, be built near the Sides of any public Roads, or in any Villages, or in caſe any Houſes or other Buildings of any Kind ſhall be erected at or near the Outlets of any Town, within the ſaid Stewartry, where Houſes have not formerly been built or erected, no ſuch Houſe or other Building ſhall be built within the Diſtance of twenty-two Feet from the Middle of any of the ſaid public Roads or Highways, under the Penalty of forty Shillings Sterling for every Offence, and the Expence of demoliſhing ſuch Houſe or Edifice; and it ſhall be lawful for any one or more of the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace to ſtop the building or erecting of every ſuch Houſe or Building as he or they ſhall apprehend to be within the ſaid Diſtance from the Middle of the ſaid Roads or Highways, by an Order in Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, until ſuch Time as ſufficient Evidence ſhall be brought before him or them, that ſuch Building ſhall be built or erected beyond the Diſtance aforeſaid; and if ſuch Proof ſhall not be adduced at or before the next General Quarter Seſſions for the ſaid Stewartry, it ſhall be lawful for any two or more of the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace to order ſuch Building to be pulled down and removed at the Expence of the Erecter, or of the Occupier of the Ground, and to grant a Warrant for levying the ſame as herein-after mentioned.

No Houſes to be built hereafter nearer than 22 Feet from the Centre of the Road.

No Annoyances to be laid on the Roads, &c.

Head-ridges.

Gates.

'XXIII. And, for preventing Annoyances in the ſaid Roads,' be it further enacted, That every Perſon, in plowing any Field contiguous to any of the ſaid Roads, ſhall always make Head-ridges along the Side of the Roads, of the Breadth of twenty-four Feet at leaſt; and all Gates upon Incloſures next to any of the High Roads, ſhall open inwards to the Field; and no Perſon ſhall lay, or cauſe to be laid, any Timber, Stones, Lime, dead Horſes, or other Carrion, Dung, Soil, Compoſt, Aſhes, Rubbiſh, or other Matter, upon any of the ſaid Roads, or in the Trenches or Drains along the Sides of the ſame, except Materials for incloſing of Grounds adjoining to the ſaid Roads; which, nevertheleſs, ſhall be ſo laid down, as not to interrupt a free and eaſy Paſſage along the Roads for two Carriages, nor the Courſe of the Water in the Drains; and that in making any covered or arched Paſſage or Drain for Water acroſs any the ſaid Roads, a ſafe and eaſy Paſſage along one Half of ſuch Road ſhall be left without any Obſtruction either by breaking the Road, or laying down Materials; but the said covered Drain or Passage shall be made across, and completely finished across one Half of the Road before the other Half shall be opened; and the Whole, or the open Part thereof, shall, if practicable, be completed in one Day, or otherwise the Materials for executing the same shall be so well fenced off, that Passengers may suffer no Injury thereby; which Precautions, and Manner of executing covered Drains as aforesaid, shall be strictly observed by all Contractors or others employed in making or repairing the said Roads. And every Person offending herein, shall not only forfeit the Materials laid down, but also the Sum of ten Shillings Sterling for every Offence, to be levied and recovered in Manner herein-after directed, one Half thereof to be paid to the Informer, and the other Half to be applied for making or repairing the said Roads. Penalty.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if, after the first Day of November, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, any Person or Persons shall haul or draw, or cause to be hauled or drawn, upon any Part of the said Roads, any Tree, Log, or Piece of Timber, or any Stone, Iron, or other Thing whatsoever, otherwise than upon a Wheel-carriage (except Sledges or Sledge-carrs that are used for carrying large Stones, Grain, Hay, and Manure), or shall suffer any Tree, or other Matter whatsoever, which can be conveyed upon a Wheel-carriage, to drag upon any Part of the said Roads; every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of ten Shillings Sterling, to be recovered and levied in Manner herein-after directed. Every Thing drawn on the Roads must be on a Wheel-carriage. Exception. Penalty.

XXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Trustees, or any three or more of them, at their general annual Meetings, may cause any of the said Roads to be measured, and Stones or Posts to be erected on the Sides thereof, denoting the Distance, at each Mile, or at such other Distances as they may judge convenient; and also, to order or cause to be erected Guide-posts upon such Part of the said Roads, where the Roads are crossed or joined by other Roads, as they shall judge proper. And if any Person or Persons shall break down, destroy, or deface, any such Mile-stones or Guide-posts, or shall break down the Cape-stones on the Ledges or Parapet Walls on the Sides of any of the Bridges on the said Roads, or turn any Stream of Water upon any Part of the said Roads, unless a sufficient covered or arched Drain or Passage shall have been previously made, as before directed, or shall be aiding and assisting therein, or shall rescue or attempt to rescue any Person apprehended for any such Offence; every Person offending in any of the Cases aforesaid, and being thereof lawfully convicted, by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before the Stewart-depute of the said Stewartry, or his Substitute, or before two or more Justices of the Peace for the said Stewartry, shall, for a first Offence, be not only adjudged to pay the Whole of the Damages and Expences sustained, but also a Penalty not exceeding five Pounds, nor less than twenty Shillings Sterling; and, for a second, or any subsequent Offence, shall, besides paying the Damages and Expences, pay a Penalty not exceeding ten Pounds, nor less than two Pounds Sterling. Trustees may erect Milestones, &c. Penalty for defacing these Stones, &c.; for breaking Parapet Walls of Bridges; for turning Water on Roads.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, so soon as the Roads in any one Parish shall be completely repaired to the Satisfaction of the Trustees in such Parish, the said Trustees are hereby impowered to apply to any of the said General Meetings, who are hereby required to appoint a Committee to inspect the said Roads: And if the said Committee shall find, and report to the General Meeting of the said Trustees, that the Roads in the said Parish shall be then completely repaired; it shall be in the Power of the said General Meeting to diminish the Assessment or Conversion of the said Parish to such a Sum as they shall think necessary for keeping the said Roads in good and proper Repair, and for defraying the Proportion of the Expences of Management with respect to such Parish. When Roads in any Parish are complete, Trustees may diminish Assessment, &c.

XXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted, or authorised to be imposed, in relation to any Matter or Thing in this Act contained, the Manner of levying and recovering whereof is not otherways particularly directed, shall, upon Proof of the Offence, before Two or more Justices of the Peace, or the Stewart-depute of the said Stewartry, or his Substitute, either by the Confession of the Party, or other legal Evidence, be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party or Parties offending, by Warrant under the Hand of such Justices, or of the said Stewart-depute or his Substitute (which Warrant is hereby authorised and required to be granted, and Oaths administered by the said Justices or Stewart-depute, or his Substitute, gratis), such Sale being always made by public Auction to the highest Offerer, at such Places as shall be directed in the said Warrant, within three Days after such Distress shall have been made; and the overplus Money arising from such Sale (after the Penalties and Forfeitures are recovered, and the Charges thereof deducted) shall be returned, on Demand, to the Owner or Owners of such Goods and Chattels. And all such Penalties and Forfeitures, when recovered, shall be paid to the said Trustees, or their Collectors for the Time being; and shall be laid out and applied in repairing of such of the Roads upon or in respect whereof such Penalties or Forfeitures shall be incurred. And, in case sufficient Distress cannot be found, or such Forfeitures and Penalties shall not forthwith be paid, it shall be lawful for any two of the said Justices of the Peace, or for the Stewart-depute of the said Stewartry, or his Substitute, together with one Justice of the Peace, and they are hereby authorised and required, by Warrant under their Hands, to cause such Offender or Offenders to be committed to any House of Correction, or Common Gaol, in the said Stewartry, there to remain for any Time not exceeding three Calendar Months, unless such Penalties and Forfeitures, and all reasonable Charges, shall be sooner paid and satisfied. Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered. How to be applied. On Failure of Distress, Offender to be committed.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person shall think him or herself aggrieved by any of the Proceedings in the Execution of this Act, for which no particular Method of Relief has been hereby provided, such Person or Persons may, at any Time within twelve Months after the Matter complained of shall be done (but not afterwards), appeal to the Justices of the Peace, at their Quarter Sessions for the said Stewartry, the Person or Persons appealing first giving fifteen Days previous Notice of such Appeal to the Clerk of the said Justices of the Peace, and lodging with him, at the Time of entering the said Appeal, a Recognizance to prosecute the same, and to pay Triple Costs, in case, upon Discussion thereof, it shall appear groundless: And the said Justices of the Peace are hereby authorised and required How Parties aggrieved may obtain Redress.

required to take Cognizance of such Complaints and Appeals, and to make such Determination therein, as they shall think proper; and such Determination shall be final.

Assessment for building and repairing Bridges, to continue as at present.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted and declared, That nothing in this Act shall take away or lessen the Power which the Commissioners of Supply and Justices of the Peace have, by the present Law, to assess themselves for the Expence of building and repairing Bridges in the said Stewartry.

A Trustee may act as a Justice of the Peace.

Exception.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be no Objection to any Person acting as a Justice of the Peace in any Matter or Thing relative to this Act, that he is hereby appointed a Trustee, except where such Trustee is personally interested, in which Case he shall not sit or act as a Justice of the Peace: Provided always, that none of the said Trustees shall hold any Place of Profit under this Act.

Land-owners to pay Expence of obtaining this Act.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Expence of passing this Act, as settled and allowed at the first Meeting of the said Trustees appointed to put the same in Execution, shall be defrayed and levied by a Tax upon the Heritors or Land-owners within the said Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, according to the Valuation of their respective Lands; and to be collected by the Collector of the Land Tax, or any other Person appointed by the General Meeting of the said Trustees to be holden as aforesaid.

Limitation of Actions.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced for any Thing which shall have been done in pursuance of this Act, every such Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Calendar Months after the Fact committed, and not afterwards.

Public Act.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed a Public Act; and all Judges, Justices, and others, are hereby required judicially to take Notice thereof as such, without the same being specially pleaded.

CAP. XXV.

An Act for repealing the Duties payable upon Pot and Pearl Ashes, Wood and Weed Ashes, imported into Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in Lieu thereof, for a limited Time.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS Pot and Pearl Ashes, Wood and Weed Ashes, are essentially necessary in the whitening of Linen Cloth and Thread, and in the preparing of Linen Yarn for the Loom, and are used in several other Manufactures of this Kingdom; and in order to promote and encourage such Manufactures, it is expedient to reduce the Duties payable by Law upon the Importation of such Pot and Pearl Ashes, Wood and Weed Ashes, from any foreign Part of Europe, for a limited Time:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the thirty-first Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, and during the Continuance of this Act, the several Rates and Duties payable upon the Importation of Pot and Pearl Ashes, Wood and Weed Ashes, from any foreign Part of Europe into this Kingdom, shall cease and determine; and in lieu and instead thereof, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, the Sum of two Shillings for every Hundred Weight, containing one hundred and twelve Pounds Weight Avoirdupoise, of such Pot and Pearl Ashes; and the Sum of six Pence for every Hundred Weight, containing one hundred and twelve Pounds Weight Avoirdupoise, of such Wood and Weed Ashes, which shall be so imported into Great Britain from any foreign Place or Country in Europe; subject nevertheless to an additional Impost of five Pounds per Centum, in the same Manner, and under the same Regulations, as the additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum is granted to his Majesty, by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon the Produce of the several Duties under the Management of the respective Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in Great Britain, and after that Rate for any greater or less Quantity thereof; any Thing in any former Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

From May 31, 1780, all Duties on Pot and Pearl Ashes, &c. imported from any foreign Part of Europe, to cease.

New Duties granted.

New Duties to be paid in ready Money, and collected and applied as the former Duties,

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duties made payable by this Act upon such Pot and Pearl Ashes, Wood and Weed Ashes, shall be paid down in ready Money, without any Discount or Allowance upon Importation, or any Drawback upon Exportation, and shall, in all other Respects, be raised, levied, collected, recovered, and paid, and shall be applied and appropriated to the same Uses as the former Duties were applicable, by such Rules, Ways, and Means, and under the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as the former Duties, which are repealed by this Act, were raised, levied, collected, recovered, paid, applied, and appropriated, and were subject and liable to; and all the Powers, Penalties, Provisions, Articles, and Clauses, contained in the several Acts of Parliament relative thereto, which are now in Force and not altered by this Act, shall be applied, practised, and executed, for the raising, levying, collecting, recovering, paying and applying, the said Duties according to the true Intent and Meaning of this present Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

Continuance of this Act.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue in Force until the thirty-first Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three.

CAP. XXVI.

An Act for repairing, enlarging, and preserving the Harbour of Aberystwyth, in the County of Cardigan.

'WHEREAS the Town of Aberystwyth, in the County of Cardigan, is a Port of very considerable Trade, which hath of late Years greatly increased, and the Ships and Vessels now belonging to the Harbour there, and trading to and from the said Port, are more numerous and of larger Dimensions than heretofore: And whereas the Harbour of the said Port, by reason of a large Bank of Sand which crosses the Entrance of it, is so greatly obstructed that the navigating of Vessels even of very small Burthen, into or out of the same, is become very difficult and dangerous, and often impracticable, to the great Detriment of the Trade of the said Town and Port, and to the Danger and Inconvenience, as well of Ships and Vessels belonging to the same, which, by reason of such Obstruction, are obliged to ride in the Bay of Cardigan, as of such other Ships and Vessels as are driven on the Coast by Stress of Weather: And whereas several Sums of Money have been from Time to Time expended in improving the said Harbour, which afforded only a temporary Relief; for the Storms from the Sea gradually formed a fresh Bank of Sand to obstruct the Entrance instead of the Obstruction removed; and the Harbour in its present ruinous State is in great Danger of being intirely lost and destroyed; which renders the clearing, deepening, enlarging, and securing the same, and the making of sufficient additional Works thereto, absolutely necessary, both for public Utility, and the Preservation and Advantage of the Trade of the said Town and Port; but as the same cannot be effectually done without the Aid and Authority of Parliament,' may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Right Honourable the Earl of Lisburne, John Adams of Peterwell, Thomas Allcock of Fron Fraith, John Campbell of Stackpool Court, Matthew Davies of Cwmcynfel, Thomas Davies of Aberystwyth, John Davies of Creigiau, John Gwynne of Mynachty, Lewis Gwynne of the same, John Griffith of Pen Pontbren, Cornelius Griffith of Llanbadarn, Edward Hughes of Aberllolwyn, John Hughes of Morfa, Thomas Herbert of Aberystwyth, John Hughes of Ty Mawr, David Williams Hopkins of Aberystwyth, Thomas Johnes senior of Croft Castle, Thomas Johnes junior of Llanfair, Thomas Johnes of Abermead, John Jones of Crynfryn, John James of Aberystwyth, John Jones of Dolau Cothy, John Jones of Cefn y Coed, William Jones of Troed y Rhiw, William Jones of Aberystwyth, Henry Jones of Tyglyn, Sir Watkin Lewes Knight, Edward Loveden Loveden of Gogarthan, Thomas Lloyd of Abertrynant, the Reverend Richard Lloyd Vicar of Llanbadarn-fawr, James Lloyd of Mabus, John Lloyd of the same, John Lewis of Caermarthen, John Lewis of Aberystwyth, John Lewis of Llanllyr, William Lewis of the same, John Lewis of Llanauron, William Lewis of the same, Walter Lewis of Coed Mawr, Thomas Lewis Lloyd of Wern, David Morgan of Llanfraed, John Morgan of Aberystwyth, Thomas Owen of Aberystwyth, the Reverend William Powell of Nant Eos LL. D. Thomas Powell of the same, John Parry of Aberystwyth, Philip Pugh of Tyglyn, Thomas Parry of Llidiardau, George Parry of Haverfordwest, Roderick Richardes of Pen y Glais, Griffith Roderick of Aberystwyth, Richard Richards of Carrog, Thomas Rogers of Gelli, Lewis Rogers of the same, Thomas Steed, the Honourable John Vaughan, John Vaughan of Golden Grove, the Reverend Isaac Williams of Llanrhystyd, John Williams of Castle Hill, John Watkin, Nathaniel Williams of Rhandir, and their Successors, to be elected in Manner herein-after mentioned, shall be, and they are hereby constituted and appointed Trustees for putting this Act in Execution. Preamble. Trustees.

II. And be it further enacted, That four General Quarterly Meetings of the said Trustees shall be held at such House or Place in Aberystwyth aforesaid as they, or any five or more of them, shall from Time to Time appoint, upon the first Monday in January, the first Monday in April, the first Monday in July, and the first Monday in October, yearly and every Year for ever; at each of which said Quarterly Meetings the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, shall inspect, examine, audit, adjust, settle, and make up all the Accounts of the next preceding Quarter relating to the said Harbour; and that the first of the said Meetings shall be held at the House of Richard Foy in Aberystwyth aforesaid, upon the said first Monday in July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty; and all such General Quarterly Meetings shall begin between the Hours of Ten and Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon of each Day, whereon any such Meeting shall be held; and the said Trustees, at all Meetings to be held for the Purposes of this Act, shall pay and defray their own Charges and Expences. Times and Places for holding the Meetings of Trustees. Trustees to pay their own Charges.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Acts, Matters, and Things, hereby authorised or required to be done by any five or more of the said Trustees in Execution of any of the Powers or Authorities herein contained, shall be done at Meetings to be held in pursuance of this Act, and not otherwise: And if at any General Quarterly Meeting hereby appointed to be held, or at any Adjournment thereof, there shall not appear a sufficient Number of Trustees to act, the Trustee or Trustees then present, or the Clerk to the said Trustees, shall, from Time to Time as often as it shall so happen, adjourn the said Meeting, and appoint a Meeting of the said Trustees to be held on that Day Fortnight at the Place where the last Meeting was appointed to have been held. No Acts to be valid unless done at Meetings.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case any of the Persons herein-before constituted and appointed Trustees, or that shall be elected or appointed in pursuance of this Act, shall die, resign, or become disqualified to act, that then and in such Case, and as often as it shall so happen, it shall and may be lawful for the surviving Trustees, within the Space of one Calendar Month next after any such Death, Resignation, or Disqualification shall happen, or be known to have happened, and they, or any five or more of them, are hereby required to elect and appoint such Person (having an Estate in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, in his own Right, or in Right of his Wife, within the said County of Cardigan, of the clear How Trustees shall be elected in the Room of such as shall die, resign, &c.

clear yearly Value of forty Pounds or more, or having two hundred Pounds Property or upwards, for twelve Months at least preceding the Day of such Election, in one or more Vessel or Vessels belonging to the Port of Aberystwyth, charged and chargeable with the Rate or Duty of Tonnage hereby imposed), as they shall think proper, to be a Trustee, instead of the Person so dying, resigning, or being disqualified.

Persons holding Places of Profit under this Act, incapable of acting as Trustees.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case any Person herein-before named and appointed a Trustee, or who shall be elected a Trustee in pursuance of this Act, shall take or accept of any Place of Profit arising or to arise out of the Rates or Duties hereby granted, or shall be concerned or interested in any Contract or Bargain made or to be made for executing all or any of the several Purposes of this Act, each and every Person, from and after the Time of accepting such Place of Profit, and during the Time he shall hold and enjoy the same, or shall be concerned or interested in any Contract or Bargain as aforesaid, shall be, and is hereby declared incapable of acting as a Trustee in the Execution of this Act.

Penalty on Persons acting as Trustees, if not qualified.

VI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in case any Person herein-before-named and appointed a Trustee, or who shall be elected a Trustee in pursuance of this Act to put the same in Execution, shall not, at the Time of his acting as such, be qualified in Manner herein-before mentioned, each and every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall sue for the same; to be recovered in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record, by Action of Debt, or on the Case, or by Bill, Suit, or Information, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed; and every Person so prosecuted shall prove that he is qualified as aforesaid, or otherwise shall pay the said Penalty upon Proof given of his having acted as a Trustee in the Execution of this Act.

Power to deepen and enlarge the Harbour.

VII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said first Monday in July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Trustees, and they, or any five or more of them, are hereby impowered to order and direct the said Harbour of Aberystwyth to be scoured and cleansed from Gravel, Sand, Shingle, Dirt, Mud, and all other Obstructions whatsoever; and also to raise and make, or cause to be raised and made, sufficient Works from Time to Time, for improving, enlarging and preserving the said Harbour, or to repair, take down, and remove such Works, or any of them, as Occasion shall require, for more effectually securing, enlarging, and preserving the said Harbour; and to cleanse, scour, and deepen the Channels of the Rivers Rheidiol and Ystwyth, and erect such Locks or other Works in or across the said Rivers, or either of them; as also such Docks, Locks, Piers, Jetteaus, Quays, Breastworks, or other Works, Buoys, Mooring-posts, Cranes, Engines, Lamps, Light-houses, and Landmarks, as shall from Time to Time be adjudged necessary by the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, as well for improving, enlarging, and preserving the said Harbour, as for the safe and commodious Entrance and Reception of all Ships and Vessels resorting thereto, and the convenient lading and unlading thereof.

Slips to be left in the Breastworks for launching Vessels.

VIII. Provided always, That proper and convenient Slips or Openings shall be left in such Parts of the Breastworks or Quays of the said Harbour, or of any Lock or Dock to be made in pursuance of this Act, as the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, shall adjudge necessary and direct, for the Purpose of launching any Ships or Vessels which shall be built or repaired upon the Lands adjoining thereto.

Part of the Waste below Aberystwyth Bridge vested in Trustees.

'IX. And, for the better enabling the said Trustees to complete the several Works aforesaid, and more 'effectually to put this Act in Execution,' be it further enacted and declared, That so much and such Part of the Waste or Common lying between the Bridge at Aberystwyth and the Sea, on both Sides of the Harbour, as shall extend to the Distance of forty Feet from High-water Mark, and also so much and such Pieces or Parcels of Land or Ground as shall be gained from the Sea by the erecting of any Pier, Jetteau, or other Work, which shall be made or erected in pursuance of this Act, shall be, and the same are hereby severally vested in the said Trustees and their Successors for ever, for the several Purposes of this Act; and that from and after the said first Monday in July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, all Right of Common in or upon the Lands so vested in the said Trustees, shall cease, determine, and be utterly extinguished; and it shall and may from Time to Time be lawful to and for the said Trustees, or such Person or Persons as they, or any five or more of them, shall direct and appoint for that Purpose, to commence and prosecute any Action or Actions against any Person or Persons who shall molest, disturb, or injure them in the Possession thereof, or of any Part thereof.

Trustees enabled to contract with Persons for repairing the Harbour.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, to contract and agree with any Person or Persons for the making and doing all or any Part of the Work or Business necessary to be done for cleansing, deepening, enlarging, and completing the said Harbour of Aberystwyth, as also with any Person or Persons for Timber, Stones, or other Materials to be used therein, and keeping the same in Repair when finished; and all Contracts so made shall be binding and conclusive to and upon all Parties and Persons whomsoever.

Property of the Piers, Quays, &c. vested in Trustees.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the several and respective Rates or Duties imposed by this Act, and also the Right and Property of all and every the Piers, Quays, Wharfs, Docks, Locks, and other Works to be erected, made, or done, in pursuance of this Act, and the Ground whereon such Works shall be erected, shall be, and the same are hereby severally vested in the said Trustees and their Successors for ever for the Purposes of this Act; and they, or any five or more of them, are hereby authorised and impowered to bring Actions, or prefer Bills of Indictment, against any Person or Persons who shall steal, take away, break down, or spoil, any Works or Materials used or to be used in completing and maintaining the said Harbour, or that shall do any Act, Matter, or Thing, whereby any Damage may accrue to the same; and the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, are hereby authorised and impowered from Time to Time to let out, for the best Rent that can be obtained, and in such Manner as they, or any five or more of them, shall think proper, all or any of the Rates or Duties by this Act granted from Year to Year, or for any Term not exceeding three Years; and also all or any such Wharfs, Docks, Quays, Cranes, Cranes, Engines, or the Land hereby vested in them as aforesaid, for any Term not exceeding twenty-one Years, the Rent respectively arising therefrom to be applied towards completing and maintaining the said Harbour, and the Works belonging to the same.

'XII. And, to prevent any Exactions or unreasonable Demands from the respective Tenants or Lessees 'under the said Trustees,' be it enacted, That the said Trustees shall, in every Lease or Agreement that they, or any five or more of them, shall enter into for the leasing or letting such Rates or Duties, Wharfs, Docks, Quays, Cranes, Engines, or Land as aforesaid, expressly mention what Sums shall be demanded or taken by the respective Tenants or Lessees, either as Rates or Duties, or for the Use of such Wharfs, Docks, Quays, Cranes, Engines, or Land, of the Master or Owner of any Ship or Vessel, or other Person liable to pay the same; and if any such Tenant or Lessee shall demand or take more than the Sum stipulated by such Agreement, such Tenant or Lessee shall, for every such Offence, forfeit Treble the Sum demanded more than shall be allowed to be taken by such Lease or Agreement, to be recovered and levied in Manner herein after mentioned; one Moiety of which Forfeiture shall be applied to the completing and maintaining the said Harbour and other Works, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons as shall prosecute, sue for, and recover the same.

Clause for preventing Exactions by any of the Lessees.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said first Monday in July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall throw or empty any Ballast, Earth, Dust, Ashes, Rubbish, or Stones, into the said Harbour, or into the River Rheidiol or Ystwyth, or take away any Ballast, Shingle, Stones, or other Things, the Removal or taking away of which may be prejudicial thereto, or to the Works erected or to be erected for the Security of the same, or do any Act, Matter, or Thing, to prejudice or annoy the same; and if any such Prejudice or Annoyance shall be done, the Matter thereof shall be examined into by the said Trustees, or any three or more of them, who are hereby impowered, for every such Offence, to impose any Fine or Fines upon every or any Person or Persons so offending, not exceeding the Sum of forty Shillings, which the said Trustees, or any three or more of them (by Warrant under their Hands and Seals directed to such Person or Persons as they shall appoint), are hereby impowered to levy and raise by Distress and Sale of the respective Goods and Chattels of every or any such Offender or Offenders, rendering to him, her, or them, the Overplus, if any there be, and he, she, or they shall demand the same; and the said Fine or Fines when levied shall be paid to such Person or Persons as the said Trustees, or any three or more of them, shall direct and appoint to receive the same, to be applied as herein-after directed.

Ballast or Rubbish not to be emptied into the Harbour.

Penalty.

XIV. Provided always, That if at any Time or Times hereafter any Person or Persons shall have Occasion to throw or cast any Ballast out of any Ship or other Vessel upon any Quay or other the Works made or to be made in pursuance of this Act, the same shall not be suffered to be or remain there for a longer Space of Time than two Hours after Notice given for the Removal thereof, under the Penalty of forty Shillings for every Offence; but the same shall be removed and carried away to such Place or Places as the said Trustees, or any Person or Persons by them, or any five or more of them, appointed, shall order and direct.

Ballast not to be left upon the Quay, &c.

XV. Provided also, That no Gunpowder, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Hemp, Flax, Faggots, or Furze, Brandy or other Spirituous Liquors, Turpentine, Oil, Hay, Straw, Tallow, Grease, Shavings of Wood, or any other flammable or combustible Matter or Thing whatsoever, shall be suffered to be or remain on any Quay, Pier, or Place, or upon the Deck of any Ship or other Vessel within the said Harbour, above the Space of twenty-four Hours after passing the Custom-house Officers; and in case the same cannot be conveniently removed or got off by Day-light, that then the Owner or Owners thereof shall be obliged, and he and they is and are hereby required, to set and maintain, at his and their own Expence, a sufficient Number of careful and sober Persons to guard and watch over the same for such and so many Hours (according to the Season of the Year) as the said Trustees, or the Quay-master, or other Person or Persons by them, or any five or more of them, appointed, shall specify and direct; and in case any such Owner or Owners, or the Person or Persons having the Rule or Command of any such Ship or Vessel as aforesaid, shall make Default in the Premises, each and every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds.

Gunpowder, &c. to be removed after a certain Time;

on Penalty of 10l.

'XVI. And for the more orderly Government of the said Harbour, and for the better preserving the 'same, and the Works to be erected there, from Prejudice or Damage, as well as Accommodation of Ships 'or Vessels coming into, or going out of the said Harbour;' be it enacted, That the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, shall have Power and Authority, and they are hereby authorised and impowered to nominate and appoint such Person or Persons as they shall think proper, with such annual Allowance or Salary, out of the Rates or Duties by this Act granted and made payable, as they shall think fit, not exceeding ten Pounds per Annum; and such Person or Persons so appointed shall, from Time to Time, order and require all and every or any Person or Persons having the Rule or Command of any Ship or other Vessel entering into, lying, being, or abiding within the said Harbour, to lie, anchor, moor, and ballast such Ship or other Vessel in such proper Place or Places within the same, as the said Person or Persons so appointed shall order, assign, or direct, for those Purposes, provided that the Person or Persons so appointed shall, to the best of his or their Skill and Knowledge, order or require such Ship or other Vessel to lie, anchor, moor, or ballast in a Place of Safety; and in case any Person or Persons then having the Rule or Command of such Ship or other Vessel shall neglect or refuse so to do, he and they, and each of them, for such Neglect or Refusal, shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding five Pounds.

Power to regulate Vessels lying within the Harbour.

XVII And be it further enacted, That for the better effecting the several Matters and Things to be done in pursuance of this Act, and supporting the same for the future, there shall, from and after the said first Monday in July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, be paid to the said Trustees and their Successors, or to such Person or Persons as they, or any five or more of them, shall from Time to Time appoint to collect and receive the same; and they the said Trustees and their Successors, and such Person or Persons Trustees impowered to take certain Duties.

as they, or any five or more of them, shall from Time to Time appoint as aforesaid, are hereby authorised and impowered to demand, collect, receive, and take, of and from the Masters or Owners, Master or Owner, or other Person or Persons having the Rule or Command of every Ship or other Vessel, the several Rates or Duties following; that is to say, XVIII. Provided always, That no Ship or Vessel of War belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, nor any Ship or Vessel employed in Fishing only, shall be subject or liable to any of the Rates or Duties hereby granted.

Vessels not to be cleared till Duties paid.

'XIX. And, to the Intent the said Rates or Duties may be duly answered and paid,' be it further enacted, That no Collector, Comptroller of his Majesty's Customs, Receiver of Entries, or Ship's Surveyor, or Searcher, Waiter, or other Officer of the Customs whatsoever belonging to the Port of Milford, in the County of Pembroke (within which the Port and Harbour of Aberystwyth aforesaid is comprehended), shall, at any Time after the said first Monday in July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, give or make out any Cocket or other Discharge, or take any Report outwards for any Ship or other Vessel, or permit any Ship or other Vessel to go out of the said Harbour, or from any Creek, Shore, or Landing-place within the Bounds or Limits aforesaid, until the Master or Owner, or other Person having the Rule or Command of such Ship or other Vessel, shall produce a Certificate from the Collector or Collectors, to be appointed in pursuance of this Act, that the Rates or Duties by this Act granted are paid, or secured to be paid, which said Certificate the said Collector or Collectors is and are hereby required to give without Fee or Reward; and that any Collector, Comptroller of his Majesty's Customs, Receiver of Entries, or Ship's Surveyor, or Searcher, Waiter, or other Officer of the Customs whatsoever, making Default in any of the Premises enjoined by this Act, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed, nor more than one Imparlance; one Moiety of such Forfeiture to be to the Use of the Person or Persons who shall prosecute, sue for, and recover the same; and the other Moiety thereof to be paid into the Hands of the said Trustees, or to such Person or Persons as they, or any five or more of them, shall appoint to receive the same, to be applied for the Purposes of this Act.

Manner of Recovery of Rates.

'XX. And, to the Intent the Rates or Duties imposed by this Act may be more effectually collected and levied,' be it further enacted, That in case any Owner or Master, or other Person having the Rule or Command of any Ship or other Vessel, or any other Person to whom any Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, landed or shipped within the said Harbour, or the Bounds or Limits aforesaid, and charged or chargeable with the Rates or Duties granted by this Act, shall belong, or be delivered unto, or by whose Order the same shall be landed or shipped, shall refuse to pay the same, then and in such Case it shall and may from Time to Time be lawful to and for the Collector or Collectors, to be appointed in pursuance of this Act, to go on Board such Ship or other Vessel to demand, collect, and receive the said Rates or Duties, and on Nonpayment thereof to take and distrain every such Ship or other Vessel, and all her Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture thereto belonging, or any Part thereof, or all or any Part of the Goods, Wares, or Merchandise chargeable therewith, or in respect whereof such Rates or Duties shall be payable, and Default made as aforesaid, either on Board such Ship or other Vessel or on Land, and the same to detain until the respective Rates or Duties shall be satisfied and paid; and in case of any Neglect or Default in Payment of the said Rates or Duties for the Space of three Days after any Distress or Distresses so made or taken, that then it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Collector or Collectors to cause the same to be appraised by two or more sworn Appraisers, or other sufficient Persons, and afterwards to sell the said Distress or Distresses, and therewith to satisfy himself or themselves, as well for and in respect of the Rates or Duties so neglected or delayed to be paid, and for which such Distress or Distresses shall have been made or taken as aforesaid, as also for and in respect of his or their reasonable Charges in taking, keeping, appraising, and selling the same, rendering the Overplus (if any such there be) to the Owner upon Demand.

Persons eluding the Payment to continue chargeable.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Master, Owner, or other Person having the Rule or Command of any Ship or other Vessel, or the Owner of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, shall, by any Method whatsoever, at any Time or Times, elude or avoid the Payment of the Rates or Duties hereby made payable, or any Part thereof, each and every Person eluding or avoiding Payment as aforesaid shall stand charged with, and be liable to, the Payment of the same, and the same shall and may be recovered from such Master or Owner respectively by the same Method and in such Manner as is hereinafter directed for levying and recovering the Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties imposed by this Act.

How Tonnage Duties shall be ascertained.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Master, or other Person having the Rule or Command of any Ship or other Vessel, and the Person appointed to collect the Rates or Duties hereby made payable, cannot otherwise agree about and ascertain the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel, that then and so often it shall and may be lawful for such Collector, or other Person employed or appointed for that Purpose, to enter into such Ship or Vessel at any seasonable Time, and admeasure the same in Manner following; that is to say; By taking the Length of the Keel of every such Ship or other Vessel so much as she treads on the Ground, and the Breadth within Board by the midship Beam from Plank to Plank, Half of which Breadth shall be accounted for the Depth; and the Length so taken being multiplied by the Breadth, and the Product thereof by the said accounted Depth, and the Whole divided by Ninety-four, the Quotient shall give and be deemed to give the true Contents of the Tonnage; according to which Rule and Method all Ships and Vessels shall be measured for computing, ascertaining, and collecting the said Rates or Duties of Tonnage; any Custom, Practice, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Penalty on Persons obstructing the measuring of Vessels.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Master, or other Person having the Rule or Command of any Ship or other Vessel, or any other Person whatsoever, shall obstruct or hinder the Person appointed to collect the Rates or Duties hereby made payable, or any other Person employed or appointed by the said Trustees to admeasure Ships or Vessels in pursuance of this Act to enter on board such Ship or Vessel, or to take the Admeasurement thereof, such Master or other Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

Officers appointed by the Trustees to be sworn.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Quay-master, and other Officers and Servants to be appointed by virtue of this Act, shall, when thereunto required by any one of the said Trustees, swear that he or they will duly perform and execute his or their respective Office or Offices; and all and every Person or Persons who shall be employed or appointed to take the Tonnage of any Ship or other Vessel coming into, or going out of, the said Harbour, shall, when required in like Manner, swear that he or they will duly take the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel; which Oath any one or more of the said Trustees is or are hereby authorised and impowered to administer.

Power to borrow Money, and assign the Rates as a Security.

'XXV. And to the End a sufficient Sum of Money may be speedily raised for the Purposes of this 'Act, and in order to secure the Repayment of the same,' be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, and they are hereby impowered, by Indenture or Writing under their Hands and Seals, to mortgage or assign the Rates or Duties granted by this Act as a Security for any Sum or Sums of Money by them to be borrowed (not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of four thousand Pounds), for the Ends and Purposes of this Act, to any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, or Bodies Politic or Corporate, that shall or will lend or advance the same, for securing the Repayment thereof, with Interest, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum (Copies of all which Mortgages or Assignments shall be entered in a Book or Books to be kept for that Purpose); and all and every Sum and Sums of Money so to be borrowed shall be paid into the Hands of the said Trustees, or of the Clerk or Clerks, Treasurer or Treasurers, to be by them appointed; the Costs and Charges of all which Mortgages or Assignments shall be borne and paid out of the Rates or Duties hereby granted; and all and every Sum and Sums of Money advanced and paid by way of Loan as aforesaid, and the Interest payable for the same respectively, shall be charged and chargeable upon the Rates or Duties hereby granted.

Remedy for recovering Arrears of Interest.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the Interest upon any Sum or Sums of Money advanced by way of Loan as aforesaid shall be in Arrear and unpaid for the Space of forty Days next after any of the Time or Times when the same is, are, or shall become due and payable, and be demanded, the aforesaid Rates or Duties shall from thenceforth vest in the Person or Persons to whom such Interest shall be so in Arrear, until the same shall be fully paid and satisfied, together with all Costs and Charges occasioned by the Nonpayment of the same; and all and every such Person and Persons shall have, and is hereby vested with the like Powers, Right, and Privilege of collecting, receiving, and levying the said Rates or Duties hereby made payable, as the said Trustees, or the Collectors or Receivers by them appointed, could have had in case the said Interest had been regularly and fully paid and satisfied.

No Money to be borrowed after the first Meeting, unless 10 Days Notice be given.

XXVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Money shall be borrowed on the Credit of the Rates or Duties hereby granted after the first Meeting of the said Trustees, unless Notice in Writing be, by Order and under the Hands of the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, affixed on the Church Door of Llanbadarn-fawr, and on the Town-hall of Aberystwyth, at least ten Days before the borrowing of such Money.

Application of the Money borrowed, &c.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That the several Sums of Money which shall be collected, received, levied, and borrowed by virtue of this Act shall be applied, in the first Place, in paying the Charges and Expences incident to and incurred in the obtaining and passing this Act, and afterwards in defraying the necessary Expences of completing and maintaining the several Works aforesaid, and in executing the Purposes of this Act, and to no other Use or Purpose whatsoever.

XXX. And

Trustees to appoint Officers,

XXX. And be it further enacted, That the said Trustees, at their first or any subsequent Meeting, or any five or more of them, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, shall and may chuse and appoint such Person or Persons as they shall think proper to be Collector or Collectors of the Rates or Duties granted by this Act; and also one or more fit Person or Persons to be Surveyor or Surveyors of the Harbour and Works erected for rendering the same safe and commodious for the Reception of Ships and Vessels; and also a Clerk, Treasurer, or Receiver of the said Rates or Duties, and such other Officer or Officers as they shall think necessary to employ in the Execution of this Act; and the said Trustees shall allow to such Collector or Collectors, Clerk, Treasurer, Receiver, or Surveyor or Surveyors, or other Person or Persons so appointed, such Salaries or Rewards as to the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, at a General Meeting assembled, shall appear reasonable; and the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, shall and may, and they are hereby impowered to remove or displace any such Collector, Clerk, Receiver, Treasurer, Surveyor, or other Person or Persons whatsoever by them appointed in pursuance of this Act, and in the Room and Stead of the Person or Persons so removed or displaced, to nominate and appoint from Time to Time such other Person or Persons as they shall think proper.

and allow them Salaries.

Officers to give Security.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, shall take of such Collector or Collectors, Clerk, Receiver, or Treasurer, and from such other Person or Persons as shall be chosen and nominated from Time to Time as aforesaid, a good and sufficient Security, as well for answering and paying all and every Sum or Sums of Money which shall be by him or them respectively received (and in such Manner as the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, shall, under their Hands and Seals, from Time to Time order, direct, and appoint), as for his and their giving and making true Accounts thereof in Writing when and as often and in such Manner as he and they shall be ordered and required so to do by the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, and of all Sums of Money by him or them respectively disbursed, and the respective Times of such Disbursements, and to whom, and by what Order.

Proceedings to be entered in Books.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the said Trustees shall take care to have all the Receipts, Payments, Debts, Credits, and Contracts, made by and with the Artificers and Workmen employed in or about the completing the said Harbour, and the maintaining or preserving the same, or anyways relating thereto, and also an Account of all Moneys received and borrowed by the said Trustees by virtue of this Act, and all other their Proceedings whatsoever, fairly entered and written in one or more Book or Books to be kept for those Purposes: to which Book or Books all Persons concerned or interested shall, at any seasonable Time or Times, have free Access, and shall have the Perusal or Inspection thereof gratis, and may have Copies or Extracts therefrom, paying for the same after the Rate of one Penny for every seventy-two Words; and by or out of the Money arising from the Rates or Duties by this Act granted, or by or out of any other Money which shall come into the Hands of the said Trustees, or into the Hands of the Clerk, Treasurer, or Receiver, to be by them appointed, to pay and satisfy, or cause to be paid and satisfied, unto the Artificers and Workmen to be employed in and about the completing or maintaining the said Harbour and Premises, all Sums of Money which shall be justly due to them, or any of them, for the same.

Trustees, with the Consent of Creditors, may lessen the Rates, &c.

XXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, with the Consent of such Person or Persons as shall be intitled to three-fourths of the Money lent on the Credit of the Rates or Duties hereby granted, shall and may from Time to Time (if they shall think fit) lessen or reduce all or any Part of the said Rates or Duties; and if, at any Time after such Lessening or Reduction of the said Rates or Duties, the same shall be found insufficient to answer the several Intents and Purposes of this Act, that then and in such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, to advance and raise the said Rates or Duties, so as not to exceed the several and respective Sums herein-before specified.

When the Money borrowed shall be paid off, one Moiety of the Rates only to be paid.

XXXIV. Provided also, That, from and after such Time as the Principal Sum and Sums of Money borrowed or to be borrowed in pursuance of this Act, and the Interest attending the same, shall be paid off and discharged, one Moiety, or such greater Part or Proportion of the Rates or Duties by this Act granted, as the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, shall think proper, shall, in respect of all British Ships and Vessels, Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, cease and determine; and that then and from thenceforth the other Moiety or Part as aforesaid of the said Rates or Duties shall continue to be collected, paid, and applied, by the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, towards repairing, maintaining and securing the said Harbour, and the Works and Buildings thereto belonging, in maintaining and upholding the Buoys, Lights, Light-houses, and other Land-marks appurtenant to the said Harbour, and in paying the Salaries, Rewards, or Allowances, to the several Officers and Servants belonging thereto, and such other Purposes as the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, shall think most expedient for the Benefit and Improvement of the said Harbour: But in case any Damage or unforeseen Accident shall afterwards happen to any Pier, Lock, Quay, Breast-work, or other Work, erected in pursuance of this Act, which cannot be repaired by, or out of, the Produce of the Rates or Duties reduced as aforesaid, that then, and as often as it shall so happen, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, by Notice in Writing under their Hands affixed on the Church Door of Llanbadarn-fawr, and on the Town-hall of Aberystwyth, to revive the Rates or Duties so discontinued, and order the same to be paid according to the Proportions herein-before set forth and ascertained, till such Damages shall be repaired, and the Charges and Expences attending the same shall be fully paid and satisfied, and no longer.

If any Accident happens to the Pier, &c. the discontinued Rate to revive, Persons destroying the Works to be deemed guilty of Felony.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons whomsoever who shall at any Time or Times hereafter wilfully or designedly demolish, break down, destroy, damage, or set on fire, any of the Works constructed or to be constructed, in or belonging to the said Harbour, or that shall wilfully do any Damage to any of the Shipping or Goods within the same, or who shall wilfully or designedly signedly extinguish or put out any of the Fires or Lights used in or belonging to the said Harbour for the Safety and Protection of the Ships or other Vessels resorting to the same, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony; and the Court, by and before whom such Person or Persons shall be indicted and tried, shall, and have hereby Power and Authority to punish such Felon or Felons in such and the like Manner as Felons are directed to be punished by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm; or in Mitigation of such Punishment may (if they see Cause) adjudge the Offender or Offenders to suffer such other Punishment, by Fine, Imprisonment, or otherwise, as the said Court in their Discretion shall think proper.

Masters of Vessels to be answerable for Damages done by their Crews.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Master, Owner, or other Person having the Rule or Command of every Ship or other Vessel lying or being in the said Harbour, shall be, and is hereby made answerable to the said Trustees for the Amount or Value of any Damage or Mischief that shall be done by any of the Servants or Crew on board the same, to any of the Works constructed, or to be constructed, in pursuance of this Act; and the same, if not forthwith paid and satisfied, shall and may be recovered in such Manner as the Penalties and Forfeitures hereby inflicted are in and by this Act directed to be recovered.

Bye-laws may be made at General Meetings.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Trustees, or any five or more of them, at any Time or Times hereafter in General Meeting assembled, to make, ordain, and establish such Rules, Orders, and Bye-laws, for the better keeping in Repair, improving, and securing the said Harbour, and the Works to be erected, made, or set up, in pursuance of this Act, as also for ascertaining the Rates payable for Carts and Carriages within and belonging to the said Harbour, or payable to the several Officers and Servants appointed by the said Trustees, and for other the Purposes of this Act; and may also from Time to Time, at any succeeding General Meeting, repeal, add to, amend, or alter, such Rules, Orders, or Bye-laws, as to them shall appear requisite and necessary, and fix and appoint reasonable pecuniary Penalties, not exceeding forty Shillings, for the Non-observance or other Breach of such Rules, Orders, or Bye-laws, or any of them; which said Penalties shall be recovered and applied in such Manner as the Fines and Penalties imposed by this Act are directed to be recovered and applied; and the said Trustees shall cause the said Rules, Orders, and Bye-laws, to be printed, and fixed or hung up at the most public and conspicuous Places, as well within the said Harbour, as within the said Town of Aberystwyth, within twenty-one Days after the same shall be made, amended, altered, or repealed, as aforesaid, and to pay the Charge and Expence thereof out of the Rates or Duties hereby granted; and no Rule, Order, or Bye-law, made at any General Meeting as aforesaid, shall be repealed or altered at any subsequent Meeting, unless ten Days previous Notice of the Intention to repeal or alter the same, signed by the Clerk or Treasurer to the said Trustees, be affixed on the Church Door of Llanbadarn-fawr, and on the Town-hall of Aberystwyth aforesaid, and unless seven Trustees shall be present and consenting thereto.

Penalties how to be recovered and applied.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, by this Act inflicted or authorised to be imposed or levied (the Manner of levying and recovering whereof is not otherwise hereby particularly directed) shall be levied and recovered by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant or Warrants under the Hands and Seals of any two or more Justices of the Peace for the said County of Cardigan (which Warrant or Warrants the said Justices are hereby impowered and required to grant upon the Information of any one or more credible Witness or Witnesses upon Oath, which Oath the said Justices are hereby impowered and required to administer without Fee or Reward); and such Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, when recovered (after rendering the Overplus, if any, to the Party or Parties whose Goods and Chattels shall be so distrained and sold (the Charges of such Distress and Sale being first deducted), shall go, be applied, and disposed of, if not otherwise directed to be applied and disposed of by this Act, for and towards the Execution of the several Purposes hereby intended; and for Want of sufficient Distress the said Justices, or any two of them, are hereby impowered and required to commit the Person or Persons so convicted to the common Gaol or other public Prison of or within the said County, there to remain for the Space of two Months, or until Payment of the respective Forfeitures shall be made.

How Distresses shall be disposed of.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Part of the Goods or Chattels to be at any Time distrained by virtue of this Act (other than such Distress or Distresses as shall be made for Nonpayment of the Rates or Duties hereby granted) shall be sold till the Expiration of five Days from the Day upon which such Goods or Chattels shall be distrained; but that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Person or Persons convicted, at any Time before the Expiration of the said five Days, by Payment of the Money for which such Goods or Chattels shall have been distrained, and the Costs and Charges attending such Distress, to redeem the same.

Distress not to be deemed unlawful for Want of Form.

XL. And be it further enacted, That where any Distress shall be made for any Sum or Sums of Money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the Distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the Party or Parties making the same be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers on account of any Defect in the Summons, Conviction, Warrant of Distress, or other Proceedings relating thereto; nor shall the Party or Parties distraining be deemed a Trespasser or Trespassers ab initio on account of any Irregularity by him or them done or committed after such Distress made or taken; but the Person or Persons aggrieved by such Irregularity shall and may recover full Satisfaction for the special Damage in an Action upon the Case.

Satisfaction for special Damage.

Plaintiff not to recover, unless proper Notice be given, nor after Tender of Amends, &c.

XLI. Provided always, That no Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall recover in any Action for such Irregularity, or for any Trespass or other wrongful Proceeding, unless Notice in Writing signed by his, her, or their Attorney (specifying the Cause of Action) shall have been given to the Defendant or Defendants at least twenty-one Days before the same shall be brought; nor shall the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs recover in any such Action, if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made to him, her, or them, or to his, her, or their Attorney, by or on the Behalf of the Defendant or Defendants before such Action brought; and in case no such Tender of Amends shall have been made, it shall and may be lawful for the Defendant or Defendants (by

(by Leave of the Court) at any Time before Issue joined, to pay into Court such Sum of Money as he, she, or they shall think fit; whereupon such Proceedings, Orders, and Judgments shall be had, made, and given, in and by such Court, as in other Actions where Defendants are allowed to pay Money into Court.

Proceedings not to be quashed for Want of Form.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That no Order, Verdict, Judgment, or other Proceeding, touching or concerning any of the Matters aforesaid, or touching or concerning the Conviction of any Offender or Offenders against this Act, shall be quashed or vacated for want of Form only, or be removed or removable by Certiorari, or any other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; any Law or Statute to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Exemption from Stamp-duty.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That no Warrant, Mortgage, Assignment, Transfer, or other Security, or any other Writing whatsoever, in pursuance of, or relating to the Execution of any of the Powers or Authorities in this Act contained, shall be subject or liable to any Stamp-duty whatsoever.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to the Quarter Session,

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person shall think himself or herself aggrieved by any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, and for which no particular Method of Relief is hereby otherwise provided, it shall and may be lawful for such Person to appeal to the Justices of the Peace at any General or Quarter Session of the Peace to be holden in and for the said County of Cardigan within six Calendar Months next after the Cause of such Appeal shall have arisen, such Appellant first giving, or causing to be given, fourteen Days Notice at the least in Writing of his or her Intention to bring such Appeal, and of the Matter thereof, to the Clerk or Treasurer of the said Trustees, and within four Days after such Notice entering into a Recognizance before some Justice of the Peace for the said County, with two sufficient Sureties, conditioned to try such Appeal, and to abide the Order of, and pay such Costs as shall be awarded by, the Justices at such General or Quarter Session; and the said Justices at such Session, upon due Proof of such Notice having been given as aforesaid, and of the entering into such Recognizance, shall hear and finally determine the Matter of such Appeal in a summary Way, and award such Costs to the Parties appealing or appealed against, as the said Justices shall think proper; and the Determination of such Justices thereupon shall be final, binding, and conclusive to all Parties.

giving 14 Days Notice.

Limitation of Actions.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Action or Suit shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, twenty-one Days previous Notice thereof shall be given to the Clerk or Treasurer to the said Trustees; and every such Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Calendar Months next after the Cause of Action shall arise, and not afterwards, and shall be laid or brought in the County of Cardigan, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in all Actions or Suits so brought, shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act: And if it shall appear to have been so done, or that such Action or Suit was brought after the Time before limited, or shall be brought in any other County or Place, that then the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant or Defendants; and upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or suffer a Discontinuance of his, her, or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared; or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Costs of Suit in other Cases by Law.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

Public Act.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be a public Act; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without specially pleading the same.

CAP. XXVII.

An Act for building a Bridge across the River Wye, between Whitney and Clifford, in the County of Hereford.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Ferry over the River Wye, between the Villages of Whitney and Clifford, in the County of Hereford, is frequently very dangerous, and sometimes impassable; and it would be of great Convenience to the Public, if a proper and substantial Bridge, for the Passage of Carriages, was built over the said River, at or near the said Ferry: And whereas Tomkyns Dew Esquire (Lord of the Manor of Whitney and Clifford aforesaid) is Owner of the said Ferry, and of the Soil of the Waste and other Lands on each Side the River: And whereas Thomas Weale of the said Parish of Whitney, Francis Eves of The Hay, in the County of Brecon, Charles Haywood of The Sheepcott, in the Parish of Clifford aforesaid, Lewis Chambers of the said Parish of Clifford, and John Philips of The Hay aforesaid, Gentlemen, are willing, at their own Expence, to undertake to build, support, and maintain, such Bridge as aforesaid; and the said Tomkyns Dew is consenting thereto, upon having a reasonable Compensation made to him for his said Ferry: But although the building such Bridge as aforesaid will be of public Utility, yet the same cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Thomas Weale, Francis Eves, Charles Haywood, Lewis Chambers, and John Phillips, are hereby appointed Undertakers for building, supporting, and maintaining the said Bridge; and that it shall and may be lawful for the said Undertakers, their Heirs and Assigns, and they are hereby authorised, impowered, and required, within the Space of three Years next after the passing of this Act, at their own proper Costs and Charges, by themselves, their Deputies, Agents, Officers, Workmen, Servants, and others, to build a good and substantial Undertakers impowered to build a Stone Bridge across the River Wye.

Stone

Stone Bridge across the said River, at or near the said Ferry, fit and proper for the Passage of Travellers and Carriages, and to keep the same in good Repair for ever; and for that Purpose, to cause any Shelves or other Obstructions in the said River to be removed, and all Beds of Gravel, Sand, Mud, or other Impediment, to be taken away, and the Banks of the said River to be dug and cut, in such Manner as shall be necessary and proper for building the said Bridge; and from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, to do, or cause to be done, all other Things necessary and convenient for erecting, supporting, and maintaining the said Bridge; and after the said Bridge shall be built as aforesaid, the same shall for ever be and remain a public Bridge; and all Persons, Horses, Cattle, and Carriages, shall have free Liberty (upon Payment of the respective Tolls herein-after granted) to pass over the same, without any Hindrance or Interruption of or by the said Undertakers, their Heirs or Assigns, or any other Person or Persons whomsoever.

The Bridge to be a public one.

II. Provided always, That nothing herein-before contained shall restrain the said Undertakers, their Heirs and Assigns, from making Use of Bricks, for the Purpose only of turning the Arches and Upper Works of the said Bridge.

Bricks may be used for turning the Arches.

III. Provided also, That the Center or Middle Arch of the said Bridge shall be at least thirty Feet wide in the Clear, and at least fifteen Feet high above the usual Height of the Water in the said River, in order that a sufficient Passage may be left for the Navigation of Boats, Barges, and other Vessels; and that the Carriage Way over the said Bridge shall be twelve Feet wide at the least, any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Dimensions of the Middle Arch, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Undertakers, their Heirs and Assigns, to inclose a Piece of Ground, Part of the Commons and Waste Lands within the said Manors, contiguous to the said Bridge, not exceeding one Acre, and to build a Toll-house upon Part thereof, and to make Use of the Remainder for a Yard and Garden to such Toll-house, or for such other Purpose as they shall think proper; and when the said Piece of Ground shall be so inclosed, the same shall be, and is hereby vested in the said Undertakers, their Heirs and Assigns, for ever, without making any Recompence for the same to the said Tomkyns Dew, or any other Person or Persons whomsoever.

Undertakers may inclose a Piece of Common for building a Toll-house, &c.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Undertakers, their Heirs and Assigns, their Servants and Workmen, from Time to Time to search for and dig, and to take and carry away, such Quantity or Quantities of Stones as they shall think proper, in, upon, and from any of the Lands belonging to the said Tomkyns Dew, within the said Manors, for the Purpose only of building and repairing the said Bridge and Toll-house, they the said Undertakers, their Heirs and Assigns, making Satisfaction to the Occupiers of such Lands, for the Damage that shall be done thereby; and that it shall and may also be lawful for the said Undertakers, their Heirs and Assigns, their Servants and Workmen, from Time to Time, to search for and dig Sand and Gravel, and also Brick-earth or Clay, and to make and burn Bricks in and upon any of the Commons and Waste Lands within the said Manors, and to carry away such Sand, Gravel, Earth, or Clay, and Bricks, for the Purpose only of building and repairing the said Bridge and Toll-house, without making any Recompense for the same to the said Tomkyns Dew, or to any other Person whomsoever; they the said Undertakers, their Heirs and Assigns, their Servants and Workmen, filling up the Pits, and levelling the Ground from whence such Stones, Gravel, Sand, Earth, or Clay shall be taken, so that the same shall not be dangerous to Passengers or Cattle.

Undertakers may get Stones and Materials within the Manors.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the said Bridge and Toll-house, and also any Turnpike, or other Matter or Thing, which may be erected or made by virtue of this Act; and all the Stones, Bricks, and other Materials, which shall be provided for making and repairing the same, shall be, and are hereby vested in the said Undertakers, their Heirs and Assigns; and they are hereby authorised and impowered, in the Name of any one of them, to bring, or cause to be brought, any Action or Actions, or to prefer and prosecute, or order and direct the preferring and prosecuting of, Indictments against any Person or Persons who shall steal, take, or carry away, any of the said Stones, Bricks, or Materials, or do any Act to hinder or obstruct any Person or Persons employed by the said Undertakers, their Heirs or Assigns, in the Execution of this Act.

Bridge, &c and Materials vested in the Undertakers.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall wilfully or maliciously pull down, destroy, or damage, or attempt to pull down, destroy, or damage, the said Bridge, or any Part thereof, or any Toll-house to be erected at or near the same, every Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be subject and liable to the like Pains and Penalties as in Cases of Felony; and the Court by and before whom such Person or Persons shall be tried, shall, and have hereby Power and Authority to cause such Person or Persons to be punished in like Manner as Felons are directed to be punished by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm; or in Mitigation of such Punishment such Court may, if they think fit, award such Sentence as the Law directs in Cases of Petit Larceny.

Punishment for wilfully damaging the Bridge.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Person or Persons having the Care of any Boat, Barge, or other Vessel, which shall be navigated upon the said River, shall wilfully, carelessly, or negligently, cause, permit, or suffer any Damage or Injury to be done to the said Bridge, by any such Boats, Barges, or other Vessels; then, and in every such Case, the Owner or Owners of every such Boat, Barge, or other Vessel, shall be answerable and liable to make Satisfaction to the said Undertakers, their Heirs and Assigns, for all such Damage or Injury; and in Default of Payment of such Satisfaction upon Demand, the said Undertakers, their Heirs or Assigns, are hereby authorised and impowered, in the Name of any one of them, to sue the Owner or Owners of such Boat, Barge, or Vessel, in any Court of Record at Westminster, for the Trespass or Damage which shall be so done.

Barge Owners to be answerable for Damages done by their Servants.

IX. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Bridge shall not be rated or assessed for or towards any Public or Parish Rate, Tax, or Duty whatsoever, but shall be deemed extra-parochial, to all Intents and Purposes; and that the said Bridge shall not be adjudged or taken to be a County Bridge, or to subject the County of Hereford to the repairing, amending, or supporting the same; any Law or Statute to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

The Bridge to be deemed extra-parochial and not a County Bridge.

'X. And, in order the better to enable the said Undertakers, their Heirs and Assigns, to defray the 'Expence of building and supporting the said Bridge;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as soon as the said Bridge shall be made fit for the Passage of Travellers and Carriages, it shall and may be lawful for the said Undertakers, their Heirs and Assigns, or such Person or Persons as they shall by Writing under their Hands and Seals appoint, from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, to demand, collect, and receive, to and for the only proper Use and Behoof of the said Undertakers, their Heirs and Assigns, before any Person on Foot, or any Horses, Cattle, or Carriages shall be permitted to pass over the said Bridge, such Tolls as they the said Undertakers, their Heirs or Assigns, shall think proper, not exceeding the respective Sums following; (that is to say) Undertakers authorised to collect Tolls.

For every Foot Passenger, the Sum of one Halfpenny:
For every Horse, Mare, Gelding, Ox, or other Beast, drawing any Carriage, the Sum of three Pence:
For every Horse, Mare, Gelding, Mule, or Ass, laden or unladen and not drawing, the Sum of one Penny:
For every Score of Oxen, Cows, or Neat Cattle, the Sum of ten Pence; and so in Proportion for any greater or less Number:
And for every Score of Calves, Hogs, Sheep, or Lambs, the Sum of five Pence; and so in Proportion for any greater or less Number: The Tolls.

Which said respective Tolls shall be, and are hereby vested in the said Undertakers, their Heirs and Assigns, and shall be paid to them accordingly; and if any Person liable to pay the said Tolls shall, after Demand made thereof by the said Undertakers, their Heirs or Assigns, or any of them, or any Person or Persons to be appointed the Collector thereof as aforesaid, refuse or neglect to pay the same, that then, and in every such Case, it shall and may be lawful for such Collector or Collectors to stop and prevent the Passage of the Person so refusing or neglecting, or of the Horses, Cattle, or Carriages, for which such Tolls ought to be paid, until full Payment be made thereof. Tolls vested in Undertakers.

XI. Provided always, That no Toll shall be demanded or taken, by virtue of this Act, for or in respect of any Soldiers on Foot, or of any Horses belonging to Officers or Soldiers upon their March, or upon Duty; or for any Horses, Cattle, or Carriages, employed in carrying or conveying the Arms or Baggage of any such Officers or Soldiers, or in carrying any sick, wounded, or disabled Officers or Soldiers. Exemptions from Toll.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall take off, or cause to be taken off, any Horse or other Beast, from any Carriage, before the same shall pass through the Gate or Turnpike to be erected at or upon the said Bridge, with Intent to avoid the Payment of the Tolls hereby granted; or shall forcibly pass through any such Gate or Turnpike without having paid the said Tolls; or shall assault, interrupt, or obstruct any Person employed in the Collection of the said Tolls; or if the Owner or Occupier of any Lands or Grounds shall suffer any Person to pass through the same, whereby the Payment of any of the Tolls hereby granted shall be evaded, every Person offending in any of the Cases aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of ten Shillings, for the Use of the said Undertakers, their Heirs and Assigns; and in case such Forfeiture be not forthwith paid, the same shall, upon Proof of the Offences respectively before any Justice of the Peace for the said County of Hereford, either by the Confession of the Party or Parties, or by the Oath of one credible Witness (which Oath such Justice is hereby impowered to administer), be levied and recovered by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party or Parties offending, by Warrant or Warrants under the Hand and Seal of such Justice (which Warrant or Warrants such Justice is hereby impowered to grant), and the Overplus, after such Forfeiture, and the Charges of such Distress and Sale, are deducted, shall be returned, upon Demand, to the Owner or Owners of such Goods and Chattels. Penalty on evading the Tolls.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Bridge shall at any Time become impassable or unsafe for Travellers and Carriages, it shall and may be lawful for the said Undertakers, their Heirs or Assigns, and they are hereby required, during all such Time as the said Bridge shall be impassable or unsafe as aforesaid, to provide a proper and convenient Ferry for the Passage of Travellers, Horses, Cattle, and Carriages over the said River, as near to the said Bridge as conveniently may be; and it shall and may be lawful for the said Undertakers, their Heirs or Assigns, or their Collector or Collectors of the Tolls, to demand, collect, and receive, for the Passage of such Travellers, Horses, Cattle, and Carriages, in the said Ferry, before the same shall be permitted to pass, the like Tolls as are hereby authorised to be taken for passing over the said Bridge. Ferry to be provided, in case the Bridge shall become impassable.

'XIV. And whereas it is agreed, that the Compensation to be made for the said Ferry should be ascertained 'by a Jury, to be impannelled for that Purpose as herein-after mentioned;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after the said Bridge shall be made fit for the Passage of Travellers and Carriages as aforesaid, the said Tomkyns Dew, or the Lord of the said Manors for the Time being, shall, and is hereby required to cause twenty Days Notice, at the least, to be given to the said Undertakers, their Heirs or Assigns, or to one of them, purporting, that the Compensation to be made for the said Ferry will be ascertained and awarded by a Jury, at some General Quarter Session of the Peace to be holden for the said County, within four Calendar Months next after the said Bridge shall be made fit for the Passage of Travellers and Carriages as aforesaid, to be mentioned in such Notice; and the Justices at such Session, or the Adjournment thereof, upon Application made to them by the said Tomkyns Dew, or the Lord of the said Manors for the Time being, and upon Proof of such Notice having been given as aforesaid, shall, and are hereby authorised and required to charge a Jury to be impannelled and returned by the Sheriff of the The Compensation to be made for the Ferry, to be ascertained by a Jury.

said County, without Fee or Reward, consisting of twelve substantial and disinterested Persons, qualified to serve on Juries, upon the Trial of Issues at Law, and to cause them to be sworn, well and truly, on their Oaths, to ascertain and award the Compensation to be made for the said Ferry; to which said Jury the Parties interested shall have their lawful Challenges, when they come to be sworn; and any one Justice of the Peace for the said County is hereby authorised and impowered (upon Application made to him by any of the Parties interested) by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to call before the Justices at such Session, or the Adjournment thereof, any Person or Persons who shall be thought proper to be examined touching or concerning the Premises; and the said Jury upon their Oaths (which Oaths, and also the Oaths to be taken by the Persons who shall appear to be examined and give Evidence as aforesaid, any one of the said Justices is hereby impowered and required to administer) shall enquire touching the Value of the said Ferry, and shall ascertain and award what annual Sum of Money shall be paid by the said Undertakers, their Heirs or Assigns, to the said Tomkyns Dew, or the Lord of the said Manors for the Time being, or his Lessee of the said Ferry, as a Compensation for the same, and also the respective Times of Payment thereof; and the said Justices shall and may give Judgment for the Money so to be ascertained and awarded by the said Jury as aforesaid; which Verdict of the said Jury, and the Judgment thereupon declared and pronounced by the said Justices, shall be binding and conclusive, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, upon all the Parties interested, and shall be fairly entered and kept amongst the Records of the Quarter Sessions for the said County; and the same, or true Copies thereof, shall be deemed and taken as good Evidence and Proof, in any Court of Law or Equity whatsoever; and all Persons may have Recourse thereto, and may take Copies thereof, or Extracts therefrom, on paying the usual Fees paid in Cases of the like Nature.

Jurors may be challenged.

Witnesses may be examined on Oath.

Verdict of Jury, &c. to be binding on all Parties.

The Money adjudged by the Jury, to be paid to Mr. Dew.

XV. And be it further enacted, That after the said Verdict shall have been given, and Judgment thereon declared and pronounced, as aforesaid, the said Undertakers, their Heirs or Assigns, shall pay, or cause to be paid, to the said Tomkyns Dew, or the Lord of the said Manors for the Time being, or his Lessee of the said Ferry, the said annual Sum of Money, and at the Time or Times to be ascertained and awarded by the said Jury as aforesaid; and in Default of such Payment, the said Tomkyns Dew, and the Lord of the said Manors for the Time being, or the Lessee of the said Ferry, shall and may have, use, exercise, and take, such and the same Powers and Remedies, by Action, or by Entry, Distress and Sale, or otherwise, for recovering the said Sum or Sums of Money from the said Undertakers, their Heirs or Assigns, as by the Laws now in Force are provided for and given to Landlords, or as they can use and take for Recovery of Rack Rents in Arrear.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to the Quarter Session, giving 21 Days Notice.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall think himself or herself aggrieved by any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Person may appeal to the Justices, at any General Quarter Session of the Peace to be holden for the said County of Hereford, within four Calendar Months after the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen, the Person appealing first giving, or causing to be given, twenty-one Days Notice in Writing, of his or her Intention to bring such Appeal, and of the Cause or Matter thereof, to the said Undertakers, their Heirs or Assigns, or to one of them, or to their Collector; and within seven Days after such Notice, entering into a Recognizance before some Justice of the Peace for the said County of Hereford, with two sufficient Sureties, conditioned to try such Appeal, and abide the Order of, and to pay such Costs as shall be awarded by, the Justices at such Session; and the Justices at the said Session, upon due Proof of such Notice being given as aforesaid, and of the entering into such Recognizance, shall hear and finally determine the Matter of every such Appeal, in a summary Way, and award such Costs to the Party appealing or appealed against, as the said Justices shall think proper; and such Determination shall be binding and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes.

Limitation of Actions.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or prosecuted against any Person or Persons, for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, every such Action or Suit shall be commenced within three Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid and tried in the County of Hereford, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act: And if the same shall appear to have been so done, or if any such Action or Suit shall be brought after the Time before limited for bringing the same, or shall be brought in any other County than as aforesaid, then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and upon such Verdict, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or suffer a Discontinuance of his, her, or their Action or Suit, after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and shall have such Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Costs of Suit, in any other Cases by Law.

Public Act.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed a Public Act; and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without specially pleading the same.

CAP. XXVIII.

An Act for granting to his Majesty several additional Duties on Advertisements; and certain Duties on Receipts for Legacies, or for any Share of a Personal Estate divided by force of the Statute of Distributions, or the Custom of any Province or Place.

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, towards raising, by the most easy Means, the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's public Expences, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto your Majesty the several Rates and Duties and Sums of Money herein-after mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors,

Preamble.

After June 1, 1780, the following Duties to be paid to his Majesty:

For every Advertisement to be contained in the London Gazette, or any other printed Paper in Great Britain, to be dispersed and made public weekly or oftener, over and above all other Rates and Duties now imposed, there be charged an additional Duty of six Pence:

An additional Duty of 6d. on all Advertisements:

For every Advertisement to be contained in or published with any Paper or Pamphlet whatsoever, printed in Great Britain, to be dispersed or made public yearly, monthly, or at any other Interval of Time exceeding one Week, over and above all other Rates and Duties now imposed thereon, there be charged an additional Duty of six Pence:

For every Skin or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which any Receipt or other Discharge for any Legacy left by any Will, or other Testamentary Instrument, or for any Share or Part of a personal Estate divided by force of the Statute of Distributions, or the Custom of any Province or Place, shall be ingrossed, written, or printed, the Amount whereof shall not exceed the Value of twenty Pounds, a Stamp-duty of two Shillings and six Pence; and where the Amount thereof shall be of the Value of twenty Pounds, and not amounting to one hundred Pounds, a Stamp-duty of five Shillings; and where the Amount thereof shall be of the Value of one hundred Pounds and upwards, a Stamp-duty of twenty Shillings be charged thereon.

A Duty on Receipts for Legacies left by Will, &c. after the following Rate; not exceeding 20l.—2s. 6d; between 20l. and 100l.—5s; 100l. and upwards, 20s.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, for the better and more effectual levying, collecting, and paying all the said Duties herein-before granted, the same shall be under the Government, Care, and Management of the Commissioners for the Time being appointed to manage the Duties charged on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who, or the major Part of them, are hereby required and impowered to employ the necessary Officers under them for that Purpose, and to use and provide such Stamps to denote the said several Duties as shall be requisite in that Behalf, and to do all other Things necessary to be done for putting this Act in Execution, with relation to the said Rates and Duties herein-before granted, in the like and in as full and ample Manner as they, or the major Part of them, are authorised to put in Execution any former Law concerning stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper.

Duties to be under the Management of Commissioners of Stamps.

'III. And, for better securing the said Stamp-duties hereby imposed,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, upon which any such Receipt or other Discharge for any Legacy left by any Will, or other Testamentary Instrument, or any Part thereof, or for any Share or Part of a personal Estate, divided by force of the Statute of Distributions, or the Custom of any Province or Place, or any Part thereof, shall, before the same shall be ingrossed, written, or printed, be brought to the Head Office for stamping and marking of Vellum, Parchment, and Paper; and the said Commissioners, by themselves or their Officers, shall from Time to Time stamp or mark as this Act directs, any Quantities of Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, upon Payment of the said Duty, the said Duty to be paid by the Person or Persons giving such Receipt or other Discharge; and if any Receipt or other Discharge, so hereby directed to be stamped, shall not be marked or stamped as by this Act is directed, or shall be marked or stamped for a lower Duty than as aforesaid, no such Receipt shall be pleaded or given in Evidence in any Court, or admitted in any Court to be good, useful, or available, in Law or Equity.

Parchment, &c. to be brought to the Stamp-office to be stamped, before any Receipt for a Legacy, &c. shall be written or printed thereon.

Receipts, if not properly stamped, not to be admitted as Evidence.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the same Allowance shall be made on present Payment of the several Duties granted by this Act, in such Manner as by any former Law relating to stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, is directed and allowed.

Usual Allowance to be made for present Payment.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Stamps as the said Commissioners are hereby directed and authorised to provide and use, shall and may be altered and renewed in such Manner as any other Stamps on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, are by any former Law relating to stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, directed to be altered and renewed.

Stamps may be altered and renewed.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall counterfeit or forge, or procure to be counterfeited or forged, any Seal, Stamp, or Mark, directed or allowed to be used by this Act for the Purpose of denoting the Duties by this Act granted, or shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same, with an Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of any of the said Duties, or shall privately or fraudulently use any Seal, Stamp, or Mark, directed or allowed to be used by this Act, with Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of any of the said Duties; every every Person so offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

If any Person shall counterfeit any Stamp directed to be used by this Act, &c. with Intent to defraud his Majesty, such Person shall suffer Death as a Felon.

All Powers, Clauses, &c. appointed by former Acts relating to Stamp-duties, to be in Force in raising, collecting, &c. the new Duties imposed by this Act.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Powers, Provisions, Articles, Clauses, Distribution of Penalties and Forfeitures, and all other Matters and Things prescribed or appointed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Stamp-duties on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, shall be of full Force and Effect, with relation to the Rates and Duties hereby imposed, and shall be applied and put in Execution for the raising, levying, collecting, and securing the said new Rates and Duties hereby imposed, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had severally and respectively been hereby enacted, with relation to the said new Rates and Duties hereby imposed.

Receiver-general of Stamp-duties to keep a separate Account of the new Duties, and pay them into the Exchequer, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Rates and Duties hereinbefore granted, shall be paid from Time to Time into the Hands of the Receiver-general for the Time being of the Duties on Stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who shall keep a separate and distinct Account of the several Rates and Duties, and pay the same (the necessary Charges of raising, paying, and accounting for the same, being deducted) into the Receipt of the Exchequer, for the Uses and Purposes in this Act mentioned, at such Time and in such Manner as any former Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, are directed to be paid.

A separate Account to be kept, in the Auditor's Office, of all Monies produced by this Act.

How to be applied.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt of Exchequer, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said several Rates and Duties, and paid into the said Receipt as aforesaid, shall be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon any Account whatsoever; and the said Money so paid into the said Receipt of Exchequer as aforesaid, shall, together with such other Rates, Duties, and Revenues as shall be granted by any Act or Acts of this Session of Parliament for this Purpose, be a Fund for the Payment of the several Annuities, and all such other Charges and Expences as are directed to be paid and payable pursuant to an Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Sum of Money by way of Annuities, and for establishing a Lottery.

Persons sued in the Execution of this Act, may plead the General Issue,

and recover Treble Costs.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time or Times be sued, molested, or prosecuted, for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or of any Clause, Matter, or Thing herein contained, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence; and if upon the Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs awarded to him or them against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

CAP. XXIX.

An Act to protect Goods or Merchandise, of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the Islands of Grenada and the Grenadines, on Board Neutral Vessels bound to Neutral Ports, during the present Hostilities.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS, during the present Hostilities with France, the Islands of Grenada and the Grenadines 'have been taken by the French King: And whereas it is just and expedient to give every possible 'Relief to the Inhabitants and Proprietors of Estates in the said Islands:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this present Act, no Goods or Merchandise of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the said Islands of Grenada or the Grenadines, which shall be found on Board any Neutral Ship or Vessel bound from any of the said Islands to any Neutral Port, nor any such Ship or Vessel on Board which such Goods or Merchandise shall be laden, if taken by any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or by any private Ship or Vessel having Letters of Marque or General Reprisals, shall be liable to Confiscation or Condemnation as lawful Prize; any Thing in an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more speedy and effectual manning his Majesty's Navy, or any other Law or Statute, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Goods the Produce or Manufacture of Grenada or the Grenadines, on Board Neutral Vessels, bound to any Neutral Port, not liable to Condemnation as Prize.

'II. And, in order to ascertain that the said Goods and Merchandise are really and bona fide of the 'Growth, Produce or Manufacture of any of the said Islands,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Master, Commander, or other Person having the Charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall, before his Departure from any Port or Place in the said Islands, be furnished with a Manifest in Writing, specifying the Particulars of the whole Cargo of such Ship or Vessel, with the Marks and Numbers of each Package containing the same, as also the Port or Place to which such Ship or Vessel is bound; which Manifest shall subscribed by any five of the following Persons; (videlicet) Charles Grant, William Johnston, Alexander Scott, James Stewart, William Niccoll, William Lucas, Alexander Symson, Samuel Williams, John Nelson, George Campbell, Robert Threlfal, Henry Palmer, John Pegus, Alexander Fraser, James Wilkinson, John Lesly, David Mill, Thomas Campbell, Edmund Thornton, Fergus Paterson, James Campbell, Alexander Cockburn, David Young, Alexander Campbell, Ninian Home, Edmund Proudfoot, James Baillie, Patrick Maxwell, Thomas Townsend, Robert Bogle, Richard Oliver, James Taylor, William Smith, Alexander Stewart, Frederick Corsar, Robert Lang, John Castles, Andrew Irvin, Robert Harvey, Peter Gordon, Andrew Grant, Joseph Cumming, John Urquhart, Peter Pegus, John Grant, Walter Todd, all of which Persons reside in the Master of every such Vessel, before he leaves the said Islands, shall be furnished with a Manifest specifying the Particulars of his Cargo, &c.; which Manifest shall be subscribed by five Persons.

the said Islands; and if any such Ship or Vessel shall be taken or surprised on her Voyage by any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or by any private Ship or Vessel having Letters of Marque or General Reprisals, then the Master or Commander, or other Person having the Charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall produce such Manifest to the Captain, or other Commanding Officer, of any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or to the Master or Commander of such private Ship or Vessel having such Letters of Marque or General Reprisals, who shall immediately release such Neutral Ship or Vessel, and the Goods and Merchandises on Board the same; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

If any such Vessel shall be taken by a King's Ship or Privateer, on producing the said Manifest to the Captain, &c. she shall be immediately released.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Goods or Merchandise, of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the said Islands, which shall be found on Board any Drogher or other Vessel, employed for conveying the same from one Bay of the said Islands to another, for the Purpose of loading the same on Board any Neutral Ship or Vessel, for any Neutral Port, shall be liable to Confiscation or Condemnation as lawful Prize.

Goods found on Board any Drogher employed in conveying the same from Bay to Bay, &c. not liable to Condemnation.

IV. Provided always, That nothing contained in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to protect from Condemnation any Goods or Merchandise which shall be found on Board any Ships or Vessels which may have taken in any Part of their Loadings or Cargoes at any other Island than Grenada or the Grenadines, the Whole of which Loadings or Cargoes shall be liable to Confiscation and Condemnation as lawful Prize; any Thing in this Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

This Act not to protect any Vessels, except their whole Cargo was taken in at Grenada or the Grenadines:

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing contained in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to affect any Sentence of any Court of Vice-admiralty respecting any Goods or Merchandise of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the said Islands of Grenada and the Grenadines, that may have been, or may be, condemned by any such Court, on or before the first Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty.

Nor to affect the Sentence of any Vice-admiralty Court previous to June 1, 1780.

VI. Provided also, That no Captain, or other Commanding Officer of any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or the Master or Commander of any Private Ship or Vessel having Letters of Marque or General Reprisal, shall be liable to any Suit or Action for or on account of having detained any Ships or Vessels, Goods or Merchandise, which, by virtue of this Act, are not subject to Confiscation, in case it shall appear that such Captain or other Commanding Officer of any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or such Master or Commander of any private Ship or Vessel having Letters of Marque or General Reprisal, has not had Knowledge of the passing of this Act at the Time of the Capture; provided that such Captain or other Commanding Officer, or such Master or Commander, shall immediately, on receiving Notice of this Act, make full and complete Restitution of such Ships or Vessels, Goods or Merchandise, to the Owners thereof, according as the Case may be.

Commanders of King's Ships, &c. not liable to any Action for detaining Vessels contrary to this Act, if they were ignorant of the passing thereof at the Time of the Capture, &c.

CAP. XXX.

An Act for granting to his Majesty several additional Duties upon Wines and Vinegar imported into this Kingdom.

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament 'assembled, towards raising by the most easy Means the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's 'public Expences, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto your Majesty the several 'Rates, Duties, and Impositions, herein-after mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty 'that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the tenth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, over and above all Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and all other Subsidies, additional Duties, and Impositions, whatsoever, due and payable for all Wines and Vinegar imported into Great Britain, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors (before landing thereof), the additional Impositions, Rates or Duties following, without any Discount or Deduction inwards whatsoever; (that is to say),

Preamble.

After May 10, 1780, the following additional Duties to be laid on Wines and Vinegar imported into Great Britain, viz.

For every Ton of French Wine and French Vinegar which shall be imported into this Kingdom, the Sum of eight Pounds; and so after that Rate for any greater or lesser Quantity:

And also for every Ton of all other Wines and Vinegar imported into this Kingdom, the Sum of four Pounds; and so after that Rate for any greater or lesser Quantity.

On French Wine and Vinegar 8*l.* per Ton; and on all other Wines and Vinegar, 4*l.* per Ton.

II. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to lay any further Duties upon Wines damaged, corrupt, or unmerchantable, and for which the Merchants or Importers thereof shall refuse to pay or secure the Duties; and which by an Act, passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for the Improvement of his Majesty's Revenues of Customs, Excise, and inland Duties, are, on such Refusal, directed to be received into the Custody of proper Officers of the Customs, to be publicly sold, in order to be distilled into Brandy, or to be made into Vinegar.

No additional Duty to be laid on damaged Wines.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said additional Duties hereinbefore granted, shall be also subject and liable to an additional Impost or Duty of five Pounds per Centum, in the same Manner, and under the same Regulations, as the additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum is

The Duties above mentioned liable to an additional Impost of 5 per Cent. in the same Manner as the additional Duty of 5 per Cent. granted by 19 Geo. III. Cap. 25.

is granted to his Majesty, by an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon the Produce of the several Duties under the Management of the respective Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in Great Britain.

Duties to be levied and recovered in the same Manner as former Duties;

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several Duties and Impositions herein-before granted, shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, and recovered, in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures (except where any Alteration is made by this Act), as the former Duties now payable to his Majesty upon such Articles respectively are raised, levied, collected, paid, and recovered, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes, as if the several Clauses, Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, respectively, relating thereto, were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this present Act; and the same shall be under the Management and Direction of the respective Commissioners of the Customs, and their Officers, for the Time being, and shall be paid into the Hands of the Receiver-general of the Customs in England, and shall be by him paid (the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, and answering the same, only excepted) into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinct and apart from all other Monies which such Receiver-general shall receive for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for the Use and Purposes in this Act mentioned.

and to be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs, &c.

A separate Account to be kept in the Auditor's Office of all Monies paid in by Authority of this Act. Application thereof.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt of Exchequer, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said several Rates and Duties, and paid into the said Receipt as aforesaid, shall be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon any Account whatsoever; and the said Money so paid into the said Receipt of Exchequer as aforesaid, shall, together with such other Rates, Duties, and Revenues, as shall be granted by any Act or Acts of this Session of Parliament for this Purpose, be a Fund for the Payment of the several Annuities, and all such other Charges and Expences as are directed to be paid and payable pursuant to an Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Sum of Money by Way of Annuities, and for establishing a Lottery.

Upon the Exportation of any Wine from this Kingdom, Exporter to be allowed a Drawback of all the Duties laid hereon by this Act.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the Exportation of any Sort of Wine from this Kingdom to any Part or Place beyond the Seas, as Merchandise, the Exporter shall be paid and allowed a Drawback of all the before-mentioned Duties paid upon the Importation of such Wine, by virtue of this Act; which Drawback or Allowance shall be made in such Manner, and under such Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in all Respects, as any former Drawback or Allowance, payable out of the Duties of Customs upon the Exportation of such Wine, was, could, or might be made before the passing of this Act.

CAP. XXXI.

An Act for allowing a Bounty on the Exportation of British Corn and Grain, in Ships the Property of Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majesty.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS much of the Shipping of this Kingdom, built in Times of Peace for the Purposes of Commerce, is now, in the present Time of War and Hostilities, employed in transporting your Majesty's Troops and Stores, and many Ships and Vessels, through the spirited Exertions of your Majesty's Subjects, are converted into private Ships of War, as also great Numbers of Seamen, taken from the Merchants Service, are in like Manner employed: And whereas, from these and other Effects of the War, the Exportation of Corn and Grain from Great Britain is so far interrupted, that it cannot now, with Advantage to the Farmer and Merchant, notwithstanding the Bounty granted thereon, be exported in British Shipping, the Master and Two-thirds at least of the Mariners being your Majesty's Subjects:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, there be allowed to the Exporters of Corn and Grain, who shall export the same in Ships or Vessels that are the Property of Persons of any Kingdom or States in Amity with his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, one Moiety of the Bounty or Bounties respectively which is or are, by the Laws now in being, directed to be allowed to the Exporters of Corn and Grain the Growth of Great Britain, exported in British Shipping.

Exporters of British Corn in Vessels belonging to any State in Amity with his Majesty, to be allowed Half the usual Bounty.

II. Provided always, That the said Bounty or Bounties be allowed and paid under the like Conditions, Regulations, and Restrictions, as by the Laws now in being are directed to be observed in the Case of the said Corn or Grain exported in British Shipping; and that the Collector, or other proper Officer at the Ports or Places in this Kingdom from whence the same shall be exported, do first receive full and satisfactory Proof that the said Corn or Grain, for which the Bounty herein-before allowed is claimed, is wholly and entirely, without Mixture of any other, the Growth of Great Britain.

The said Bounty to be paid under the like Conditions, &c. as for Corn exported in British Shipping.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue in Force until the twenty-fifth Day of March, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one.

Continuance of this Act.

CAP. XXXII.

An Act for enlarging the Powers of an Act made in the twentieth Year of his late Majesty King George the Second, for building a Bridge cross the River Thames from the Parish of Walton upon Thames, in the County of Surrey, to Shepperton, in the County of Middlesex.

Preamble. Act 20 Geo. II. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the twentieth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for building a Bridge cross the River Thames from the Parish of Walton upon Thames, in the County of Surrey, to Shepperton, in the County of Middlesex, several Tolls, Duties, and Powers were given and granted to Samuel Dicker, Esquire, of the Parish of Walton, in the County of Surrey, to build a Bridge cross the River Thames from the said Parish of Walton to Shepperton, in the County of Middlesex; and a Bridge was accordingly built and passable for many Years: And whereas the said Bridge is now in a ruinous Condition, and, if not effectually repaired or rebuilt, will be manifestly to the Inconvenience of the Public: And whereas Michael Dicker Saunders of the City of Exeter is now sole Proprietor of the said Bridge, and hath proposed effectually to repair or rebuild the said Bridge cross the said River, conformable to the Powers and subject to the Provisoes in the said above-recited Act; but it having been found by Experience that the Pontage Toll or Duty for passing over the said Bridge, or any Part thereof, is greatly inadequate to the Expence of building and keeping in Repair the same;' be it therefore enacted, &c.

"Michael Dicker Sanders, of Exeter, impowered to take the following Tolls: For every Coach or other Vehicle, drawn by six Horses, or other Cattle, 2*s.* 6*d.*; by four Horses, 1*s.* 6*d.*; by less than four Horses, 1*s.*: For every Chaise, or other Vehicle, drawn by one Horse, 6*d.*: For every Waggon, or other Carriage, drawn by more than six Horses, or other Cattle, 2*s.*; by four Horses, 1*s.* 6*d.*; and by two or three Horses, 1*s.*; and by one Horse, 6*d.*: For every Horse, &c. 1*d.*: For every Foot Passenger, ½*d.*; and if with a Wheel-barrow, or such like Carriage, 1*d.*: For every Drove of Oxen or Neat Cattle, 1*s. per* Score: For every Drove of Calves, Hogs, Sheep, or Lambs, 6*d. per* Score. Toll to be paid every Time the Bridge is passed over. How to be levied. Persons unloading Carts, &c. to evade the Tolls, to forfeit 10*s.* 208 Feet to be left for the Passage of the Water. A Temporary Bridge may be erected. The same Tolls for passing over the same. Temporary Bridge to remain no longer than Bridge shall be rebuilt. Powers of former Act extended to this Act. Limitation of Actions. General Issue. Treble Costs. Public Act.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to repeal an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, 'The Master of the Rolls impowered to make Leases for 'Years, in order to new build the old Houses belonging to the Rolls;' and for the better regulating the Method of granting Leases of the said Rolls Estate for the future; and for making Compensation to the Earl of Macclesfield, and Sir Thomas Sewell, for their beneficial Rights and Interests in certain Leases made the Rolls Estate; and for regulating the Method of making Leases of the said Estate for the future.

Preamble. Recital of 17 Geo. III. Cap. 59.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to repeal an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, "The Master of the Rolls impowered to make Leases for Years, in order to new-build the old Houses belonging to the Rolls;" and for the better regulating the Method of granting Leases of the said Rolls Estate for the future; and for making Compensation to the Earl of Macclesfield, and Sir Thomas Sewell, for their beneficial Rights and Interests in certain Leases made of the Rolls Estate; and for regulating the Method of making Leases of the said Estate for the future, it is, amongst other Things, recited, That by an Act, passed in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for rebuilding the Office of the Six Clerks of the King's Court of Chancery, and for erecting Offices for the Register and Accountant-general of the said Court, for the better preserving the Records, Decrees, Orders, and Books of Account, kept in such Offices, it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That out of the Securities purchased with the Surplus Money placed to the Account of Interest arising from Monies placed out in pursuance of an Act of the twelfth Year of his late Majesty King George the Second, therein mentioned, and out of the Interest produced, and to be produced, from such Securities; and also out of the Securities purchased with the Surplus Money placed to the Account of Interest arising from Monies placed out in pursuance of an Act of the fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, therein also mentioned, and out of the Interest produced, and to be produced, from such Securities; and out of the Surplus Interest which should arise or be produced from Securities purchased in pursuance of the said several Acts of the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty, and of the fourth, fifth, and ninth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, therein mentioned; and out of the Interest which should arise or be produced from Securities to be purchased in pursuance of the said Act of the fourteenth Year of the Reign of the present King;

Act 14 Geo. III. for rebuilding the Six Clerks Office.

'such Sum and Sums of Money as the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, or the Lord Keeper, or 'Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain, for the Time being, should in 'his and their Discretion deem necessary, should be paid by virtue of any Order or Orders of the said 'Court, and be applied under the Direction of the said Court, in the first Place, in paying and defraying 'the Charges and Expences in obtaining the said Act, and then in rebuilding the said Office called The 'Six Clerks Office, with the Offices thereto belonging, and in purchasing Ground and Houses for that 'Purpose, if any should be deemed necessary by the said Court, and in providing a proper Place for transacting the Business of the said Six Clerks Office during the Time such Office should be rebuilding; and 'the Sum of ten thousand Pounds in erecting proper and convenient Offices for the said Register and Accountant-general of the said Court, separate and detached from each other, and in purchasing such Ground 'and Houses as should be necessary for those Purposes, and for preserving the ancient Books of Entries of 'Decrees and Orders of the said Court: And it is also recited, That by an Act, passed in the fifteenth 25 Geo. III. Cap. 22. 'Year of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for vesting Part of the Garden of the Society of Lincoln's-inn, 'in the County of Middlesex, in the Accountant-general of the Court of Chancery, and his Successors for ever, 'for the Purpose of erecting thereon Offices for the Accountant-general, and for the Register of the said Court, 'it was enacted, That the Charges and Expences attending the passing and obtaining that Act should be 'paid and defrayed out of the same Funds, and in like Manner as the Charges and Expences attending 'the passing and obtaining the said Act of the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty are 'thereby directed: And it is also recited, That by an Act, passed in the said fifteenth Year of his present Recital of 25 Geo. III. Cap. 56. 'Majesty, intituled, An Act for applying the Funds provided for rebuilding the Offices of the Six Clerks of the 'King's Court of Chancery, by an Act made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for rebuilding the Office of the Six Clerks of the King's Court of Chancery, and for erecting Offices for "the Register and Accountant-general of the said Court, for the better preserving the Records, Decrees, Orders, "and Books of Account kept in such Offices;" in building Offices for the said Six Clerks, in the Garden of Lincoln's-Inn, instead of rebuilding the present Six Clerks Office in Chancery-Lane; and for other Purposes, it 'is enacted, That out of the Securities purchased with the Surplus Money mentioned in the said recited 'Act, and out of the Interest produced, and to be produced, from such Securities; and out of Surplus 'Interest produced, and to be produced, from Securities purchased in pursuance of the several Acts in the 'said Act of the fourteenth Year of his present Majesty mentioned; and out of the Interest produced, 'or to be produced, from Securities purchased in pursuance of the said Act; such Sum and Sums of 'Money as the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, or the Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners for the 'Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain, for the Time being, should in his and their Discretion deem 'necessary, should be paid by virtue of any Order or Orders of the said Court, and be applied, under the 'Direction of the said Court, in paying and defraying the Charges and Expences attending the passing 'and obtaining of that Act, and in purchasing of the said Ground belonging to the Society of Lincoln's-'Inn, therein mentioned and described, and in building thereon an Office for the said Six Clerks, and the 'Offices thereto belonging, as well as in carrying into Execution the Purposes of the said Act of the 'fourteenth Year of his present Majesty, except so much thereof as relates to the rebuilding of the said 'Six Clerks Office in the Place where the same then stood, and except so far as the said Act of the 'fourteenth Year of his present Majesty is thereby altered and varied: And by the said Act of the 'seventeenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, it is also recited, That the Ground for building 'the Offices for the Six Clerks, and for the Register and Accountant-general of the Court of Chancery, 'had been purchased, and the said Offices for the Register and Accountant-general had been erected, 'and so far completed and finished that the Business of those Offices then was and had for some Time 'been carried on and transacted therein; and that all the several Purposes of the said three Acts of the 'fourteenth and fifteenth Years of his present Majesty had been in a great Measure answered and satisfied 'by and out of the Funds provided for the same by those Acts, and would in a very short Time be fully 'answered and satisfied thereout, except that the said Sum of ten thousand Pounds, mentioned in the 'said Act of the fourteenth Year of his present Majesty, had been found not to be fully sufficient to answer and satisfy the Purposes intended thereby; it was therefore enacted (amongst other Things), That, 'from and after the Time when the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, or the Lord Keeper, or the 'Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain, should deem the Purposes of 'the said Acts of the fourteenth and fifteenth Years of his present Majesty, to have been fully satisfied, 'the Surplus Interest arising, and which should arise, from Monies placed out in pursuance of the said 'Act of the twelfth Year of his late Majesty King George the Second; and the Surplus Interest arising, 'and which should arise, from Monies placed out in pursuance of the said Act of the fifth Year of his 'present Majesty; and the Interest arising, and which should arise, from Monies placed out in pursuance 'of the said Act of the fourteenth Year of his present Majesty, shall and may, by an Order or Orders of 'the said Court of Chancery to be made for that Purpose, be appropriated and applied in and to the raising 'and discharging of the several Sums of Money in the said Act of the seventeenth Year of the Reign of 'his present Majesty directed to be raised and paid: And whereas, notwithstanding the said Sum of ten 'thousand Pounds has been found not to be sufficient to answer and satisfy the Purposes intended by the 'said Act of the fourteenth Year of the present King, and is so recited in the said Act of the seventeenth 'Year of the present King, yet there is no Provision in the said last mentioned Act enabling the Lord 'High Chancellor of Great Britain, or the Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the 'Great Seal of Great Britain, to make any Order for the raising and paying any further or greater Sum 'than the said Sum of ten thousand Pounds, out of the Funds provided for building Offices for the said 'Register, and for the Accountant-general of the said Court of Chancery; by reason whereof the Purposes of the said Acts of the fourteenth and fifteenth Years of his present Majesty cannot be satisfied, 'or be deemed to be satisfied, and no Order or Orders of the said Court of Chancery can be made for 'applying the said Surplus Interest to the discharging the Sums of Money directed to be applied by the 'said Act of the seventeenth of his present Majesty, nor can the said last mentioned Act be carried into 'Execution, unless a Power be given to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, or the Lord Keeper, 'or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain, to satisfy the Purposes of 'the said former Act of the fourteenth of his present Majesty;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, out of the Funds in and by the said recited Acts, or any of them, mentioned, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, or the Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain, for the Time being, by any Order or Orders of the said Court of Chancery, to direct the Payment of the Charges and Expences attending the passing and obtaining this Act, and such further Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the Sum of three thousand Pounds, over and above the said Sum of ten thousand Pounds, in order to answer and satisfy the Purposes intended by the said Act of the fourteenth Year of his present Majesty, for the erecting Offices for the Accountant-general, and the Register of the said Court, and for the Purchase of the Ground whereon the same stand, in such Manner as to the said Lord High Chancellor, or the Lord Keeper, or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of Great Britain, shall seem meet; any Thing in the said recited Acts, or any of them, contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Court of Chancery impowered to direct the Payment of the Charges of passing this Act, out of any of the Funds therein mentioned, and a further Sum of 3,000*l.* to answer the Purposes of the recited Act of 14 Geo. III.

CAP. XXXIV.

An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon Salt; and for regulating the Exportation of Salt to the Isle of Man.

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament 'assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's public Expences, have 'freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto your Majesty the several additional Rates and 'Duties on Salt herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may 'be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the tenth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Salt (over and above the Rates and Duties now due or payable thereon by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force), the several additional Rates and Duties following; that is to say,

Preamble.

After May 10, 1780, the following new Duties to be laid on Salt; videlicet,

For every Gallon of Salt, not being of the Product or Manufacture of Great Britain, that shall be imported, from and after the said tenth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, into any Part of Great Britain, the Sum of two Pence Half-penny of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be paid by the Importer or Importers thereof; and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity:

2*d.* Halfpenny per Gallon on all foreign Salt imported:

For every Gallon of Salt, and Rock Salt, that, from and after the said tenth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, shall be made at any Salt Works, or be taken out of any Pit or Pits, in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the Sum of one Penny Farthing of like lawful Money; and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity:

1*d.* Farthing per Gallon on all Salt and Rock Salt made, &c. in England or Wales:

For every Bushel of Salt, that, from and after the said tenth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, shall be made at any Salt Works, or be taken out of any Pit or Pits, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, the Sum of three Pence of like lawful Money; and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity:

3*d.* per Bushel on all Salt made, &c. in Scotland:

And for every Bushel of Salt, that, from and after the said tenth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, shall be imported from Scotland into England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the Sum of seven Pence; and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; to be paid by the Importer or Importers thereof.

And 7*d.* per Bushel on all Salt imported from Scotland into England or Wales.

Which said several and respective additional Rates and Duties, herein-before granted, shall and may, from Time to Time, be charged, raised, received, levied, collected, recovered, secured, and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by such Ways and Means, and under such Management, and subject to such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Power of adjudging and mitigating Penalties and Forfeitures, and subject to such Allowances, Repayments, Drawbacks, Rules, Regulations, and Directions, in all Respects (not otherwise directed by this Act) as the present Duties on Salt are or can, by any Law or Statute now in Force, be charged, raised, received, levied, collected, recovered, secured, and paid, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the several and respective Powers, Authorities, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Fines, Powers of Recovery, and Mitigation of Penalties, Forfeitures, and Fines, Allowances, Repayments, Drawbacks, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this present Act.

The said Duties to be levied and recovered, &c. in the same Manner as the present Duties.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Monies arising by the said several additional Rates and Duties, herein-before by this Act granted, shall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer by the respective Commissioners for the Duties on Salt in England and Scotland for the Time being, at such Times, and in such Manner, as the present Duties on Salt are Produce of the Duties to be paid into the Exchequer.

by any Law now in Force directed to be paid (the neceſſary Charges of raiſing, collecting and accounting for the ſame, being deducted), for the Uſes and Purpoſes in this Act mentioned, diſtinct and apart from all other Monies which ſuch Commiſſioners reſpectively ſhall receive for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and that there ſhall be provided and kept, in the Office of the Auditor of the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies ariſing from the aforeſaid Rates and Duties, and paid into the Receipt of Exchequer as aforeſaid, ſhall be entered, ſeparate and apart from all other Monies paid and payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, upon any Account whatſoever; and the ſaid Money, ſo paid into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer as aforeſaid, ſhall, together with ſuch other Rates, Duties, and Revenues, as ſhall be granted by any Act or Acts of this Seſſion of Parliament for this Purpoſe, be a Fund for the Payment of the ſeveral Annuities, and all ſuch other Charges and Expences as are directed to be paid and payable purſuant to an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raiſing a certain Sum of Money by way of Annuities, and for eſtabliſhing a Lottery.

A ſeparate Account thereof to be kept in the Auditor's Office.

How to be applied.

Recital of an Act 2 & 3 Anne.

'III. And whereas by an Act, made in the ſecond and third Years of the Reign of her late Majeſty 'Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the better ſecuring and regulating the Duties upon Salt, it is (amongſt 'other Things) enacted and declared, That any Perſon exporting Salt to the Iſle of Man, according to 'the Directions of the ſeveral Acts relating to the ſaid Duties upon Salt, is and ſhall be intitled to a 'Drawback of the Duties of the Salt ſo exported, in ſuch Manner as in caſe of the Exportation of Salt 'to any other foreign Parts: And whereas great Sums of Money are paid out of his Majeſty's Duties 'upon Salt on Account of Debentures for Britiſh Salt ſhipped to be exported to the Iſle of Man, and it is 'found, by frequent Experience, that great Part of ſuch Salt has been fradulently put on Shore and 'relanded in Great Britain, without being carried to the Iſle of Man, by which evil Practice his Majeſty's 'ſaid Duties are very much leſſened;' for Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid tenth Day of May, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty, no Debenture ſhall be made or granted, or Drawback allowed to be paid, for or upon Account of the Exportation of any Salt or Rock Salt for the Iſle of Man, until the Exporter of the ſaid Salt or Rock Salt ſhall produce, to the Officer appointed to make out ſuch Debenture, a Certificate under the Hand of the Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms of the Port or Place in the Iſle of Man where ſuch Salt ſhall be landed, or of the Perſon executing ſuch Office, of the particular Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt actually landed, to be computed after the Rate of fifty-ſix Pounds Weight to the Buſhel, in caſe the ſame ſhall be White Salt, and after the Rate of ſixty-five Pounds to the Buſhel, in caſe the ſame ſhall be Rock Salt; which Salt, and Rock Salt, is hereby directed and required to be weighed by the ſaid Chief Officer, or Perſon executing ſuch Office, who ſhall, without Delay, make out and deliver a Certificate thereof as aforeſaid, gratis.

No Drawback to be allowed on Exportation of Salt for the Iſle of Man, until a proper Certificate ſhall be produced of the landing thereof in the ſaid Iſland.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, That no Drawback ſhall be allowed or paid for more Salt or Rock Salt of the Quantity exported, than what ſhall appear by ſuch Certificate to have been actually landed in the Iſle of Man; any Thing in the ſaid Act, or any other Law or Statute, to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

No Drawback ſhall be allowed for more than the Quantity actually landed there.

'V. And whereas White Salt and Rock Salt, in the Exportation to the Iſle of Man, are liable to Waſte,' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid tenth Day of May, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty, upon producing ſuch Certificate as before required from the Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms of the Port or Place in the Iſle of Man where any White Salt or Rock Salt exported from Great Britain ſhall be landed, or from the Perſon executing ſuch Office, of what Quantity of White Salt and Rock Salt was actually landed there, the Exporter or Proprietor of ſuch White Salt and Rock Salt ſhall have an Allowance of four Buſhels for every forty Buſhels of White Salt, and of two Buſhels for every forty Buſhels of Rock Salt, put on Board in order to be exported to the Iſle of Man, in Conſideration of the Ordinary Waſte in the Carriage thereof, to be allowed upon the Debenture before mentioned, over and above the Quantity certified to have been landed in the Iſle of Man, as aforeſaid, and no other or greater Allowance for or in reſpect of ſuch Waſte; any other Law or Statute to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

The Exporter to have an Allowance of four Buſhels for every forty exported of White Salt, and of two Buſhels for every forty of Rock Salt.

Proviſo.

VI. Provided nevertheleſs, That no Debenture ſhall be made out or granted to the Exporter of ſuch Salt or Rock Salt, for more than the Quantity actually ſhipped, although the Certificate of the Quantity of Salt landed in the Iſle of Man, together with the Allowance for Waſte on the Salt ſhipped as aforeſaid, ſhall amount to more.

Regulations to be obſerved in caſe Salt ſo exported ſhall be ſunk at Sea, or taken by the Enemy.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the ſaid tenth Day of May, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty, in caſe any Salt or Rock Salt, ſhipped for Exportation to the Iſle of Man (the Duties whereof ſhall have been paid or ſecured to be paid according to the Direction of the Laws now in Force relating to the ſaid Duties on Salt), ſhall happen to periſh by ſinking of the Ship or Veſſel on which the ſame ſhall be ſo ſhipped and laid on Board, or ſhall be taken by Enemies, then, and in ſuch Caſe, the Exporter or Proprietor of ſuch Salt or Rock Salt, ſo periſhing or loſt, ſhall, upon Proof made before the Juſtices of the Peace at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, to be held for the County, City, Riding, Diviſion, or Place, from whence the ſame ſhall be ſo exported, of the Loſs of ſuch Salt ſo ſhipped, receive from the ſaid Seſſions a Certificate (which the ſaid Juſtices are hereby authoriſed and required to grant), that ſuch Proof was made before them; and upon producing the ſaid Certificate to the Officer of the Place where the Duty on ſuch Salt ſhall have been paid, or ſecured to be paid, ſuch Security ſhall be diſcharged, and ſo much Money as was actually paid for the Duty on the ſaid Salt, ſhall be repaid upon Demand by the ſaid Officer, without Fee or Reward, provided ſuch Proof to be made as aforeſaid, ſhall be made by two credible Witneſſes upon Oath, within two Years next after ſuch Loſs or Capture as aforeſaid; any other Law or Statute to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

No Drawback to be allowed for Salt landed in the Iſle of Man, un-

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be no Debenture made out, or Drawback allowed, for any Salt or Rock Salt, to be landed in the Iſle of Man, after the said tenth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, unless the Entry of the same Salt at Exportation be made for some Port or Place in the Isle of Man, any other Law or Statute to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Unless the same was entered for some Port in the said Island.

IX. And be it further enacted, by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, at any Time or Times, be sued, molested, or prosecuted, for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or of any Clause, Matter, or Thing herein contained, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence for his and their Defence; and if upon the Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs awarded to him or them against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

Persons prosecuted in executing this Act, may plead the General Issue, and recover Treble Costs.

CAP. XXXV.

An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon Malt, and upon Low Wines and Spirits made for home Consumption, and upon foreign Spirits imported into Great Britain, and upon the Produce of the said several Duties; and for granting a Duty on Licences to be taken out by all Persons trading in, vending, or selling of, Coffee, Tea, or Chocolate.

Preamble.

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, being desirous, by the most easy and effectual Ways and Means, to raise the necessary Supplies for defraying your Majesty's public Expences, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant, and by this Act do give and grant unto your Majesty, the several Duties herein-after mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the thirtieth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, there shall be raised, levied, collected, paid and satisfied, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Malt, the Rates, Duties, and Malt Impositions, herein-after mentioned; that is to say,

After May 30, 1780, the following additional Duties to be laid on Malt; videlicet,

For and upon every Bushel of Malt which at any Time or Times shall be made of Barley, or any other Corn or Grain, within that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, by any Person or Persons whomsoever, whether the same shall be or not be for Sale, the Sum of six Pence, and so proportionably for any greater or less Quantity; to be paid by the Maker or Makers thereof respectively, over and above all other Rates, Duties, and Impositions, charged or chargeable thereupon, or that may be payable for the same:

6 d. per Bushel on all Malt made in England, Wales, or Berwick;

And for and upon every Bushel of Malt, which at any Time or Times shall be made of Barley, or any other Corn or Grain, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, whether the same shall be or not be for Sale, the Sum of three Pence, and so proportionably for any greater or less Quantity; to be paid by the Maker or Makers thereof respectively, over and above all other Rates, Duties, and Impositions, charged or chargeable thereupon, or that may be payable for the same:

3 d. per Bushel on all Malt made in Scotland;

And for and upon every Bushel of Malt which at any Time or Times shall be brought from Scotland into England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the Sum of three Pence, and so proportionably for any greater or less Quantity; over and above the Duty herein-before granted upon Malt made in Scotland, and all other Rates, Duties, and Impositions, charged or chargeable thereupon, or that may be payable for the same.

and 3 d. per Bushel on all Malt imported from Scotland into England, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall also be raised, levied, collected, paid and satisfied, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon every Bushel of Malt, whether ground or unground, made of Barley, or of any other Corn or Grain, belonging to any Maltster or Maker of Malt for Sale, Seller or Retailer of Malt, Brewer, Distiller, Innkeeper, Victualler, or Vinegar-maker, either in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, or in the Custody or Possession of any other Person or Persons whatever in Trust for him, her, or them, or for his, her, or their Use, Benefit, or Account, upon the said thirtieth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, the Sum of six Pence, in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and the Sum of three Pence in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and so proportionably for any greater or lesser Quantity; to be paid by the Person or Persons respectively possessed of such Malt, over and above all other Rates, Duties, and Impositions, charged or chargeable thereupon, or that may be payable for the same.

6 d. per Bushel to be paid by Maltsters, Retailers of Malt, &c. for the Stock of Malt in Hand on May 30, 1780, in England and and Wales; 3 d. per Bushel in Scotland:

III. Provided always, That the said additional Duty, hereby directed to be imposed, raised, and satisfied to his Majesty on the said Malt, which shall be in the Possession of any such Persons as are herein-before described, on the said thirtieth Day of May, shall be collected and paid in Manner following; that is to say, one third Part thereof on the thirtieth Day of June, one other third Part thereof on the thirty-first Day of July, and the remaining third Part thereof on the thirtieth Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty.

To be paid in three separate Payments.

Regulations relative to such Contracts for Sale of Malt as will not be fulfilled before May 30, 1780.

'IV. And whereas several Maltsters, who have sold or contracted for the Sale of Malt, may not have delivered the same to the Buyers thereof before the said thirtieth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, and it is reasonable that such Buyers should reimburse to the said Maltsters all such Money as they shall have paid for the Duty charged thereon by virtue of this Act; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, in all Cases where any Person shall have sold or contracted for the Sale of any Malt, and shall not have delivered the same to the Buyer, or Person who shall have contracted for the Purchase thereof, before the said thirtieth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, every such Sale and Contract shall, and is hereby declared to be as valid and effectual as if this Act had not been made; and the Buyer or Person who shall have contracted for the Purchase of any such Malt, shall, and is hereby required, at the Time of the Delivery thereof, to pay to the Person who shall have sold or contracted for the Sale of such Malt (over and above the Price agreed to be given for the same) all such Money as shall have been charged for the Duty thereon by virtue of this Act.

All the Powers contained in former Acts for collecting and recovering, &c. the Duties on Malt, to be in Force for collecting and recovering the new Duties.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Powers, Authorities, Directions, Rules, Methods, Exemptions, Deductions, Bounties, Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, which in and by an Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty several Duties upon Malt; and for raising the Sum of eight Millions by way of Annuities and a Lottery, to be charged on the said Duties; and to prevent the fraudulent obtaining of Allowances in the gauging of Corn making into Malt; and for making forth Duplicates of Exchequer Bills, Tickets, Certificates, Receipts, Annuity Orders, and other Orders, lost, burnt, or otherwise destroyed; or as are contained in any other Act or Acts of Parliament in the said Act mentioned or referred unto, or any of them, are provided, settled, established, prescribed, or directed, for managing, ascertaining, securing, compounding, raising, collecting, levying, recovering, paying, allowing, repaying, adjusting, and settling, the Duties there by granted, or to the Payment of Rents payable in Malt, or according to the Price of Malt, other than in such Cases for which other Directions are prescribed by this Act, shall be exercised, practised, applied, used, and put in Execution, in and for the managing, ascertaining, securing, compounding, raising, collecting, levying, recovering, paying, allowing, repaying, adjusting, and settling the several and respective Rates, Duties, and Impositions, by this Act granted upon Malt, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the said Powers, Authorities, Directions, Rules, Methods, Exemptions, Deductions, Bounties, Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this present Act.

Certain Allowances to be made to Common Brewers out of the Duties on Malt; videlicet,

'VI. And, for the better Encouragement of Common Brewers, and Makers of Beer or Ale for Sale, and 'to the End that no such Brewer or Maker of Beer or Ale may be under the Necessity to take any more 'in the Price thereof, upon the Retail of the same, than according to the usual Rates and Prices,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said thirtieth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, there shall be paid and allowed, out of the Monies to arise by the said Duties on Malt, to every Common Brewer, or other Person or Persons who brew Beer or Ale, and sell or tap out the same publicly or privately, over and above all other Allowances already given by any Law now in Force, the several and respective Allowances herein-after mentioned; that is to say,

Upon every Barrel of Beer or Ale above 6s. Value, 1s. 4d. within London and Westminster, and the Bills of Mortality; and in all other Parts of England, Wales, or Berwick, 1s. 8d. per Barrel;

The Sum of one Shilling and four Pence, upon every Barrel of Beer or Ale, above six Shillings the Barrel, exclusive of the Duties of Excise, brewed by the Common Brewer, or by any other Person or Persons who doth or shall sell or tap out Beer or Ale, publicly or privately, within the Cities of London and Westminster, or within the Limits of the weekly Bills of Mortality, and returned by the Gauger; and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity:

The Sum of one Shilling and eight Pence, upon every Barrel of Beer or Ale, above six Shillings the Barrel, exclusive of the Duties of Excise, brewed by the Common Brewer, or by any other Person or Persons who doth or shall sell or tap out Beer or Ale, publicly or privately, in England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, not within the said Cities of London and Westminster, nor within the weekly Bills of Mortality, and returned by the Gauger; and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity:

Upon every Barrel of Beer or Ale sold for 6s. or under, 4d. per Barrel:

The Sum of four Pence, upon every Barrel of Beer or Ale, of six Shillings the Barrel or under, brewed by the Common Brewer, or any other Person or Persons who doth or shall sell or tap out Beer or Ale, publicly or privately, throughout England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and returned by the Gauger; and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity:

Upon every Barrel brewed in Scotland, above 6s. Value, 10d.

The Sum of ten Pence, upon every Barrel of Beer or Ale, above six Shillings the Barrel, exclusive of the Duties of Excise, brewed by the Common Brewer, or by any other Person or Persons who doth or shall sell or tap out Beer or Ale, publicly or privately, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and returned by the Gauger; and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity:

Upon every Barrel of Twopenny Ale, 6d.;

The Sum of six Pence, upon every Barrel of Two-penny Ale, mentioned and described in the seventh Article of the Treaty of Union, brewed within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and returned by the Gauger; and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity:

And upon every Barrel sold for 6s. or under, 3d.

And the Sum of three Pence, upon every Barrel of six Shillings Beer or Ale, or under, brewed by the Common Brewer, or any other Person or Persons who doth or shall sell or tap out Beer or Ale, publicly or privately, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and returned by the Gauger; and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity:

Which said several respective Allowances for the said Beer or Ale, so brewed as aforesaid, shall be paid at the End of every four Months respectively, after the Duties shall have been paid for the same, and not sooner.

VII. And

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Common Brewer, or other Person or Persons who brew Beer or Ale, and sell or tap out the same, publicly or privately, shall, by himself or themselves, or by his or their Agent or Agents, at any Time after the End of four Months after he or they shall have paid the Duties for any Beer or Ale by him or them brewed after the said thirtieth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, produce to, and leave with, the Collector of Excise of the County, Shire, Stewartry, or Place, where the Beer or Ale, for which the Allowances are by this Act directed to be made, was brewed, and where the Duties were paid for the same, a Certificate or Certificates from the Officer who received the said Duties, that the Duties charged or chargeable upon the said Beer or Ale have been actually paid, and that the same Beer or Ale was brewed since the said thirtieth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty (which Certificate the said Officer is hereby required to give gratis); then, and in every such Case, the said Collector shall, out of the Monies arising from the Duties by this Act imposed upon Malt, forthwith pay to the Person producing the said Certificate, for every Barrel of Beer or Ale mentioned therein, the respective Allowances by this Act in such Case directed to be made; and in Case the said Collector shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands, arising by the Duty by this Act imposed upon Malt, to pay the same, then the respective Commissioners for the said Duty are hereby required to pay the said Allowances out of the said Duty upon Malt arising by this Act; and if at any Time it shall happen that the said respective Commissioners shall not have in their Hands Monies, arising by the said Duty, sufficient to pay the said Allowances, then and in every such Case the said respective Commissioners shall pay the said Allowances out of any Monies then in their Hands.

Common Brewers, four Months after Payment of the Duties for any Beer or Ale brewed after May 30, 1780, on producing a Certificate thereof to the Collector of Excise, shall be forthwith paid the Allowances before mentioned.

VIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whatever Sum or Sums of Money shall be so paid by the respective Commissioners, shall be replaced to the Fund or Funds from which the same was borrowed, out of the first Monies that shall arise and be received from and upon Account of the Duty on Malt by this Act imposed, in Preference to all other Payments whatever.

Monies borrowed from any other Fund to pay the aforesaid Allowances, how to be replaced.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the thirtieth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, for the several Kinds of Spirituous Liquors herein-after mentioned, specified, and enumerated, which shall be made in Great Britain for Home Consumption, or imported into Great Britain from Parts beyond the Seas, over and above all Duties, Charges, and Impositions, by any former Act or Acts of Parliament thereupon respectively set, rated, and imposed, the several additional Rates and Duties of Excise herein after mentioned and expressed; that is to say,

After May 30, 1780, the following additional Duties to be laid on Spirituous Liquors made in Great Britain for Home Consumption, or imported from abroad; videlicet,

For every Gallon of Brandy Spirits, or Aqua Vitæ, above Proof, commonly called Double Brandy, imported into Great Britain from beyond the Seas, to be paid by the Importer before landing, two Shillings.

Double Brandy, 2 s. per Gallon.

'X. And, for the better ascertaining, charging, collecting, raising, levying, and securing, the additional 'Rates and Duties by this Act imposed on the said Spirituous Liquors, and preventing Frauds therein,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such of the said Rates and Duties by this Act granted, as are charged upon Spirituous Liquors made and manufactured in, or imported into, England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, shall be under the Receipt and Management of the Commissioners of Excise in England for the Time being; and such of the said Rates and Duties as are imposed by this Act upon Spirituous Liquors made and manufactured, or imported into Scotland, shall be under the Receipt and Management

Duties on Spirits made in, or imported into, England, &c. to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in England; and those made in, or imported into Scotland, to be under the Commissioners in Scotland.

Monies arising by the said Duties to be paid into the Exchequer apart from all others.

Additional Duty on Rum, &c. to be paid as the former Duties.

An additional Duty of 5 per Cent. to be laid on all the before mentioned Duties; which shall be collected and paid, &c. agreeable to 19 Geo. III. Cap. 25.

After July 5, 1780 5s. to be paid for every Licence for selling Coffee, Tea, or Chocolate; and no Person to sell any of the said Goods without having taken out such Licence.

Who shall grant such Licences in England;

and who in Scotland.

How Licences are to be renewed.

Penalty on selling Coffee, &c. without a Licence.

Management of the Commissioners of the Excise in Scotland for the Time being; and the said respective Commissioners of Excise, or the major Part of them, have hereby Power, by Commission under their respective Hands and Seals, to constitute and appoint under them such Officers as shall be necessary in that Behalf; and all Monies arising by the said Duties in Great Britain, or any Part thereof (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted), shall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the public Revenue, subject and liable to the Uses and Purposes herein-after mentioned.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the additional Rate or Duty hereby charged upon Rum or Spirits, of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the British Sugar Plantations, imported into this Kingdom, shall be paid and payable in such Manner only, and under such Regulations and Restrictions, as the Rates and Duties of Excise heretofore charged on such Rum or Spirits are now by Law paid and payable.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several additional Duties herein-before granted on Malt, on low Wines and Spirits made for Home Consumption, and on Spirituous Liquors imported into Great Britain, shall be moreover subject and liable to an additional Duty or Impost of five Pounds per Centum on the Produce and Amount thereof; and that such additional Duty or Impost shall be raised and levied, collected and paid, in the same Manner, and under the same Rules, Regulations, Powers and Authorities, Ways and Means, Penalties and Forfeitures, as the additional Duty or Charge of five Pounds per Centum, granted to his Majesty by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon the Produce of the several Duties under the Management of the respective Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in Great Britain, are directed to be collected and paid; and all Monies arising by the additional Duty or Impost of five Pounds per Centum, by this Act imposed (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted), shall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the public Revenues, subject and liable to the Uses and Purposes herein-after mentioned.

'XIII. And, for the more effectual raising the said Supply granted to his said Majesty,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, there shall be paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, a Duty of five Shillings for any Licence to be taken out, in Manner herein-after mentioned, by each Person trading in, selling or vending, Coffee, Tea, or Chocolate, or either of them.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, no Person or Persons whatsoever, who now, or at any Time or Times hereafter, doth or shall trade in, sell or vend, any Coffee, Tea, or Chocolate, shall presume, by him, her, or themselves, or by any other Person or Persons whatsoever, employed by him, her, or them, for his, her, or their Benefit, either publicly or privately, to trade in, sell or vend any Coffee, Tea, or Chocolate, or either of them, without first taking out a Licence for that Purpose in Manner herein-after mentioned, before he, she, or they shall trade in, sell or vend any Coffee, Tea, or Chocolate; for which Licence he, she, or they, shall, immediately upon taking out thereof, pay down for the same the Sum of five Shillings, in Manner following; that is to say, If such Licence be taken out within the Limits of the Chief Office of Excise in London, then such Licence shall be granted under the Hands and Seals of two or more of his Majesty's Commissioners for the Duties of Excise for the Time being, or of such Person or Persons as the Commissioners of Excise shall from Time to Time appoint for that Purpose, and the Duty for the same shall be paid at the Chief Office of Excise in London; but if such Licences shall be taken out in any Part of England or Wales not within the said Limits, then such Licences to be granted under the Hands and Seals of the several Collectors and Supervisors of Excise, within their respective Collections and Districts; and the said Duty of five Shillings shall be paid for the same to the Collector of Excise within whose Collection such Licence shall be so granted: And in case such Licence shall be taken out within the Limits of the City of Edinburgh, such Licence shall be granted under the Hands and Seals of two or more of his Majesty's Commissioners of Excise in Scotland for the Time being, or of such Person or Persons as the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland shall from Time to Time appoint for that Purpose, and the Duties for the same shall be paid at the Chief Office of Excise in Edinburgh; but if such Licence shall be taken out in any other Part of Scotland, without the Limits aforesaid, then such Licences shall be granted under the Hands and Seals of the several Collectors and Supervisors of Excise within their respective Collections and Districts, and the Duties for the same shall be paid to the Collectors of Excise within whose Collection such Licence shall be so granted; and such respective Commissioners of Excise, and the Persons so to be appointed by them respectively, and also all such Collectors, are hereby respectively authorised and required to grant and deliver such Licences to the Persons who shall apply for the same, upon their Payment of five Shillings for each Licence.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person or Persons who shall take out any such Licence as aforesaid, is and are hereby required to take out a fresh Licence ten Days at least before the Expiration of twelve Calendar Months after taking out the first Licence, before he, she, or they do presume to trade in, sell or vend, any Coffee, Tea, or Chocolate; and in the same Manner to renew every such Licence from Year to Year, paying down the like Sum of five Shillings for each and every new or renewed Licence, in Manner, and at the Places and Times before mentioned: And if any Person or Persons shall, after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, presume or offer to trade in, sell or vend, any Coffee, Tea, or Chocolate, without first taking out such Licence, and renewing the same yearly in Manner aforesaid, he, she, or they shall respectively forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Pounds for each Offence.

XVI. Provided

XVI. Provided always, That Persons in Partnership, and carrying on their Trade or Business of selling or vending Coffee, Tea, or Chocolate, in one House or Shop only, shall not be obliged to take out more than one Licence in any one Year, for carrying on such Trade; and that no Licence which shall be granted by virtue of this Act, shall authorise or impower any Person or Persons, to whom the same shall be granted, to trade in, sell, or vend, any Coffee, Tea, or Chocolate, in any other House or Place, except in such Houses or Places thereto belonging, wherein he, she, and they shall inhabit and dwell at the Time of granting such Licence.

Persons in Partnership not obliged to take out more than one Licence for carrying on Trade in one House, &c.

'XVII. And, for the better collecting, raising, levying, and securing the Duties by this Act imposed 'on Licences for dealing in, vending and selling, Coffee, Tea, or Chocolate;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such of the said Duties as are charged upon such Licences in England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of his Majesty's Revenue of Excise in England for the Time being; and such of the said Duties as are charged upon such Licences in Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners and Officers of Excise in Scotland for the Time being; which said several and respective Commissioners of Excise, or the major Part of them, shall be his Majesty's Commissioners for granting such Licences; and the said respective Commissioners of Excise, or the major Part of them, have hereby Power, by Commission under their respective Hands and Seals, to constitute and appoint under them such Officers as shall be necessary in that Behalf; and all Monies arising by the said Licences (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the public Revenues, subject and liable to the Uses and Purposes herein-after mentioned.

The Duties on Licences to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland respectively; and to be paid into the Exchequer apart from all other Duties.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt of Exchequer, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said several Rates and Duties, and paid into the said Receipt as aforesaid, shall be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon any Account whatsoever; and the said Money so paid into the said Receipt of Exchequer as aforesaid, shall, together with such other Rates, Duties, and Revenues, as shall be granted by any Act or Acts of this Session of Parliament for this Purpose, be a Fund for the Payment of the several Annuities, and all such other Charges and Expences as are directed to be paid and payable pursuant to an Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Sum of Money by way of Annuities, and for establishing a Lottery.

A separate Account to be kept in the Auditor's Office of all Monies paid in by virtue of this Act.

How to be applied.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any Time or Times it shall happen that the Produce of the several Duties granted by this Act, together with the several other Duties, Revenues, and Taxes granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Payment of the several Annuities of four Pounds per Centum, and of one Pound sixteen Shillings and three Pence per Centum, in respect of twelve Millions borrowed in pursuance of an Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Sum of Money by way of Annuities, and for establishing a Lottery, shall not be sufficient to pay and discharge the Annuity to be due and paid on the said four Pounds per Centum Annuities granted by the said Act, for one Quarter of a Year, to the fifth Day of April, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, and the several Annuities of four Pounds per Centum from thenceforth payable half-yearly, as also the said Annuity of one Pound sixteen Shillings and three Pence per Centum, to continue for eighty Years, from the fifth Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, and then to cease, together with the other Charges and Expences attending the said respective Annuities, to be satisfied and paid out of the same, at the End of any or either of the half-yearly Days of Payment at which the same are directed by the said Act to be paid; then, and so often, and in every such Case, such Deficiency or Deficiencies shall and may be supplied out of any of the Monies, which at any Time or Times shall be or remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer of the Surplusses, Excesses, Overplus Monies, and other Revenues, composing the Fund commonly called The Sinking Fund (except such Monies of the said Sinking Fund as are appropriated to any particular Use or Uses, by any former Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf), and such Monies of the said Sinking Fund shall and may be, from Time to Time, issued and applied accordingly; and if at any Time or Times, before any Monies of the said Fund, to be established as aforesaid, shall be brought into the Exchequer as aforesaid, there shall happen to be a Want of Money for paying the several Annuities as aforesaid, which shall be actually incurred and grown due at any of the half-yearly Days of Payment before mentioned, that then, and in every such Case, the Money so wanted shall and may be supplied out of the Monies of the Sinking Fund (except as before excepted), and be issued accordingly.

In case the Produce of the Duties granted by this Act, and other Acts of this Session, shall prove insufficient to pay the several Annuities granted by the Lottery Act, such Deficiency shall be supplied out of the Sinking Fund;

XX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That whatever Monies shall be issued out of the Sinking Fund, shall, from Time to Time, be replaced by and out of the first Supplies to be then after granted in Parliament.

which shall be repaid out of the first Supplies.

XXI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case there shall be any Surplus or Remainder of the Monies arising by the said Fund, after the said several and respective Annuities, and all Arrears thereof, are satisfied, or Money sufficient shall be reserved for that Purpose; such Surplus or Remainder shall, from Time to Time, be reserved for the Disposition of Parliament, and shall not be issued but by the Authority of Parliament, and as shall be directed by future Act or Acts of Parliament; any Thing in any former or other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

In case of any Surplus of the said Fund after Payment of the Annuities, the same shall be reserved for the Disposition of Parliament.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Powers, Authorities, Directions, Rules, Methods, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, which in and by an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance,

All the Powers contained in former Acts relative to the Duties of Excise on Beer, &c. for collecting and recovering the said Duties, are to be applied in collecting, recovering, &c. the Duties hereby granted.

ance, and for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in Lieu thereof, or by any other Law now in Force relating to his Majesty's Revenue of Excise upon Beer, Ale, or other Liquors, are provided, settled, or established, for securing, enforcing, managing, raising, levying, collecting, paying, mitigating, or recovering, adjudging or ascertaining the Duties or Penalties thereby granted, and for preventing, detecting, and punishing Frauds relating thereto (other than in such Cases for which other Penalties or Provisions are prescribed by this Act), shall be exercised, practised, applied, used, and put in Execution, in and for the managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, adjudging, ascertaining, recovering, and paying the several Duties hereby granted, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the said Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated, and again enacted in the Body of this present Act.

Penalty on molesting Officers of Excise in executing this Act.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall assault, resist, oppose, molest, or hinder, any Officer or Officers of Excise in the due Execution of the Powers or Authorities given or granted to such Officer or Officers by this Act, every Person or Persons so doing shall forfeit and lose, for every such Offence, the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered and applied.

XXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, imposed by this Act, shall be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture is or may be sued for, recovered, or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, respectively; and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall discover, inform, or sue for the same.

Persons sued for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, may plead the General Issue, and recover Treble Costs.

XXV. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, at any Time or Times, be sued or prosecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or of any Matter or Thing in this Act contained, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence; and if upon Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

CAP. XXXVI.

An Act for obviating Doubts, touching the binding and receiving of poor Children Apprentices, in pursuance of several Acts of Parliament made for the Relief of the Poor within particular incorporated Hundreds or Districts; and for ascertaining the Settlement of Bastard Children born in the Houses of Industry within such Hundreds or Districts.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS several Acts of Parliament have of late Years been made and passed, for the better Relief and Employment of the Poor in particular incorporated Hundreds or Districts, within that Part of Great Britain called England, whereby Power is given to bind poor Children Apprentices under certain Restrictions therein mentioned: And whereas Doubts have arisen, whether Persons are compellable to receive and provide for such poor Children as shall be appointed to be bound Apprentices to them in pursuance of the said Acts;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, the respective Persons to whom any poor Children shall be appointed to be bound Apprentices, in pursuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament made and passed for the better Relief and Employment of the Poor in any particular incorporated Hundreds or Districts, within that Part of Great Britain called England, shall, and they are hereby required to receive and provide for such Children, according to the Indentures to be executed by the Directors and acting Guardians of the Poor for such respective Hundreds or Districts, for the binding of such poor Children, in like Manner as Persons are now obliged by the Laws in being to receive and provide for poor Children appointed to be bound Apprentices by Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor, with the Assent of two Justices of the Peace, and also to execute the Counterpart of such Indentures respectively: And if any Person, to whom any poor Child shall be appointed to be bound Apprentice, in pursuance of any such Act of Parliament as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to receive and provide for such poor Child, or to execute the Counterpart of the Indenture for binding such Child as aforesaid, every Person so refusing or neglecting, upon Proof of such Refusal or Neglect being made, by the Oath of one of the Directors or acting Guardians, or of some other credible Witness, before any two Justices of the Peace acting in and for the County, Liberty, or Place, within which the incorporated Hundred or District to which such Child belongs shall be situate, shall forfeit and pay to the Directors and acting Guardians of the Poor for such incorporated Hundred or District, or to their Treasurer or Appointee, to be applied to the Relief of the Poor within the same, the Sum of ten Pounds; such Penalty or Forfeiture to be levied, by Distress and Sale of the Goods of the Person refusing or neglecting as aforesaid, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of such Justices; saving always to the Person, to whom any poor Child shall be so appointed to be bound an Apprentice, his or her Appeal to the next General or Quarter Session of the Peace for that County, Liberty, or Place, whose Order therein shall be final.

After June 24, 1780, all Persons to whom any Children shall be appointed to be bound in pursuance of any Act for Relief of the Poor in any particular District in England, shall be obliged to provide for them, &c.

Penalty on such Persons neglecting to provide for such Children.

May be levied by Distress.

Appeal to the Quarter Sessions.

II. Provided

II. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to compel any Person to take any such poor Child Apprentice as aforesaid, unless such Person shall be an Inhabitant and Occupier of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, in the Parish to which such Child belongs; and that all Bastard Children born or to be born in the House of Industry within any such incorporated Hundred or District, shall be deemed to belong to the Parish or Place where the Mother of such Bastard Child was legally settled.

No Person compellable to take a poor Child Apprentice, except he be an Inhabitant, &c. of the Parish.

Bastards born in Houses of Industry to belong to the Mother's Parish.

CAP. XXXVII.

An Act to continue, for a limited Time, so much of an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, for the more easy and better recruiting his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, as relates to the Encouragement of Volunteers.

Preamble. Recital of 19 Geo. III. Cap. 10.

'WHEREAS an Act was made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for repealing an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for the more easy and better recruiting of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines;" and for substituting other and more effectual Provisions in the Place thereof; to continue in Force until the first Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, and no longer; and it is found expedient, that so much of the said Act, as relates to the Encouragement of Volunteers, should be continued;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Provisions, Clauses, Matters, and Things, in the said Act contained, so far as the same relate to the Encouragement of Volunteers to inlist in his Majesty's Service, and the several Privileges, Immunities, and Advantages therein given and granted to such Volunteers, their Wives and Families, and also to the Time for which such Volunteers shall be inlisted; and also all Provisions relating to the entering the Names, Descriptions, and Terms of Service, of every such Volunteer, in the public Book of the Regiment or Company to which he shall belong, on his being inlisted or draughted, shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be, continued from the said first Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, until the first Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in this present Act.

So much of the recited Act, as relates to the Encouragement of Volunteers to inlist in his Majesty's Service, &c. continued until May 1, 1782.

CAP. XXXVIII.

An Act to vest certain Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in Trustees, for the better securing his Majesty's Docks, Ships, and Stores, at Plymouth and Sheerness; and for better defending the Passage of the River Thames at Gravesend and Tilbury Fort.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS, by reason of the hostile Intentions of the Courts of France and Spain to invade these Realms, and of the great Preparations made in the said Kingdoms for that Purpose, it is become absolutely necessary, for the present and future Protection and Security, as well of his Majesty's Dock, Ships of War, and Stores, at Plymouth and Sheerness, as of the Passage of the River Thames at Gravesend and Tilbury Fort, to erect and raise additional Fortifications and Intrenchments near the same: And whereas the Lands herein-after mentioned, lying near the said Docks of Plymouth and Sheerness, and also near the Passage of the River Thames at or near Gravesend and Tilbury Fort aforesaid, are wanted for the Purpose of being made use of to erect and raise such Fortifications and Intrenchments: And whereas many of the Owners and Proprietors of the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, necessary to be purchased, may insist on large and extravagant Demands for the Purchase of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, or for the Damage and Injury they may pretend that they shall sustain by reason of such Fortifications and Intrenchments: And whereas many Persons may pretend or claim to have Title to the same Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, so that it may be doubtful to whom a Compensation ought to be made, which cannot be determined without the Aid of Parliament: To the End therefore that the true and real Value of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, may be ascertained, and the actual and real Owners and Proprietors may have a just and reasonable Satisfaction for such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, or for any Claim or Right thereto; may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all that Piece or Parcel of Ground, called or known by the Name of Mount Pleasant, containing by Estimation six Acres, be the same more or less, situate, lying, and being in the Parish of Stoke Damerell, in the County of Devon, and all Tenements and Hereditaments thereto belonging, now or late in the Tenure or Occupation of Matthew Dixon, John Spurrell, and Samuel Pyke; and also all that Piece or Parcel of Ground, containing by Estimation seven Acres, be the same more or less, situate, lying, and being near the Manor Pound in the Parish of Stoke Damerell, in the said County of Devon, together with a Stone Pound thereon erected, and all Tenements and Hereditaments to the said Piece or Parcel of Ground belonging or appertaining, now or late in the Tenure or Occupation of Nicholas Farr, Orlando Lockyer, and Richard Vivyan Willisford; and also all that Piece or Parcel of Ground, containing by Estimation seven Acres, be the same more or less, situate, lying,

Penalty on Sheriffs or their Officers making Default;

and also on Jurors.

to impose a Fine upon each and every of the Jurors so impannelled, summoned, and returned, and (without lawful Excuse, to be allowed of by the said Commissioners then sitting, or the major Part of them) making Default, or refusing to be sworn, not exceeding the Sum of ten Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain; which Fine and Fines, so to be imposed and set, the said Commissioners are hereby authorised and required to estreat into his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, to be levied to the Use of his Majesty.

In case a sufficient Jury shall not appear upon Return of the Warrant, Commissioners may adjourn the Inquest, and issue their Warrant for summoning other Jurors in Room of Defaulters.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case a sufficient Jury shall not appear upon the Return of the said Warrant or Warrants to take the Inquest, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, to adjourn the said Inquest to any future Day, not exceeding fourteen Days, nor less than four Days, from the Adjournment thereof, and to issue out their Warrant or Warrants for impannelling, summoning, and returning an equal Number of Jurors to those so making Default, who, together with the Jurors before returned by the Sheriffs of the respective Counties upon such second Warrant or Warrants afterwards to be issued, or upon any future Warrant or Warrants, Adjournment or Adjournments, which the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, are hereby authorised to issue and make from Time to Time, until a sufficient Jury can be had, shall inquire as aforesaid.

Commissioners, after the Inquest shall be taken, may adjourn, &c.

VI. Provided always, That twelve good and lawful Men shall be sufficient to take the Inquest aforesaid; and that in case twelve or more, not exceeding twenty-three in the Whole, shall appear, and be sworn, to take such Inquest, then and in such Case the said Commissioners shall continue and sit from Day to Day, until the said Inquest shall be taken, and, after the Inquest shall be taken, may adjourn to some future Day for making their Judgments and Decrees thereon.

Commissioners to give Notice previous to their respective Meetings.

'VII. And, to the Intent that no Person or Persons may have any Cause or Pretence for not appearing 'to make out their Claims or Title to the said Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Part or 'Parcel thereof,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That five or more of the said Commissioners shall give Notice, in Writing, twenty-one Days at least before their Meeting at each Place, which Writing shall be affixed at the Gates of the respective Docks of Plymouth and Sheerness, and on the Door of the respective Town-halls of Plymouth and Rochester, and on the respective Church Doors of the Parishes wherein the Town of Gravesend and Tilbury Fort are situate, and shall likewise be published in the London Gazette; and if any Person or Persons shall neglect or refuse to appear, or, when he or they shall appear, shall wilfully refuse to shew his or their Deeds or Writings relating to the Premises; that then the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, and the Jurors to be impannelled and sworn upon such Inquest, shall proceed, upon the best Information they can get or have, to make such Inquest, Judgments, and Decrees, as before directed; and all such Judgments and Decrees, being entered and certified as aforesaid, shall be final and conclusive.

How they are to proceed if Owners make Default in appearing, &c.

On Payment of the Sums assessed by Jury, &c. Trustees to be deemed seised of the Premises, for the Use of his Majesty.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That immediately from and after the Time that Payments shall be made of the Sum and Sums of Money so to be agreed for or assessed by the said Jury, and decreed and adjudged by the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, to the Owners and Proprietors of the said Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, herein-before mentioned, or to any or either of them, the Trustees herein-before mentioned shall be deemed and adjudged to stand seised of such Part and Parcel of the said Premises as shall be so paid for, to and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for ever, freed and discharged of and from all and all Manner of Right, Title, Claim, and Demand whatsoever, that can or may be made by any Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, Ecclesiastical or Civil.

Commissioners to examine into Complaints of Owners of adjoining Lands, &c. and to make an Estimate of the Damages received.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, upon the Complaint of any Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, of any other Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, adjoining to any Part of the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, by this Act vested in the said Trustees, that he, she, or they have received any Damage by the erecting or completing of the said Fortifications and Intrenchments, or of any of the Works thereto belonging, to examine into and hear every such Complaint, and shall make an Estimate of such Damage, and shall return such Estimate with, and in the Manner they are herein-before directed to return the aforesaid Judgments and Decrees.

How the Profits of Lands vested in the Trustees shall be applied.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no private Building or Buildings shall be made or erected upon any of the Lands vested by this Act as aforesaid; and that the whole Profits arising, or that shall hereafter arise, from the said Lands, be, and are hereby appropriated and applied for and towards the Erection and Reparation of the respective Fortifications and Intrenchments of each Place, and to no other Use or Purpose whatsoever; and all and singular the Premises shall be, and are hereby enacted and declared to be, unalienable from the Crown; neither shall any Part of the Premises be demised or demiseable, otherwise than during Pleasure only.

Commissioners not liable to the Penalties mentioned in an Act of 25 Car. II.; or in 1 Gul & Mar. Cap. 8; 13 and 14 Gul. III. Cap. 6;

1 Geo. I. Cap. 13.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Commissioner, who shall be employed in the Execution of this Act, shall be liable, for or by reason of such Execution, to any of the Penalties mentioned in an Act, made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Dangers which may happen from Popish Recusants; or in one other Act, made in the first Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for the abrogating the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths; or in one other Act, made in the Parliament holden in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of the late King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the better Security of his Majesty's Person, and the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line; and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Pretenders, and their open and secret Abettors; or in one other Act, made in the Parliament begun and holden in the first Year of the Reign of King George the First, intituled, An Act for the better Security of his Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princess Sophia, being Protestants; and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and secret Abettors.

XII. Provided

XII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That such Commissioners as his Majesty shall nominate for the Purposes in this Act, or any of them, shall not by reason thereof in any Sort be disabled or disqualified from sitting in the House of Commons, or their Election thereby become void; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Commissioners not disqualified from being Members of Parliament.

CAP. XXXIX.

An Act to admit to an Entry in this Kingdom, under certain Restrictions, Tobacco imported not directly from the Place of its Growth or Produce, and for granting an additional Duty on such Tobacco, during the present Hostilities.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That no Goods or Commodities of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of Africa, Asia, or America, shall be imported or brought into England, Ireland, Wales, the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from any other Place or Places, Country or Countries, but only from those of the said Growth, Production, or Manufacture, or from those Parts where the said Goods and Commodities can only, or are, or usually have been, first shipped for Transportation, and from none other Places or Countries, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of all such of the aforesaid Goods as shall be imported from any other Place or Country, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act; and also of the Ship in which they were imported, with all her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel: And whereas, during the present Rebellion of the Colonies in America, several Parcels of Tobacco of the Growth of the said Colonies, which have escaped the Capture of British Cruizers, have been imported into some of the neutral Islands in the West Indies, where they have been purchased by some of his Majesty's Subjects not in Rebellion, and thence conveyed to some British Island in the West Indies, where they have been admitted to Entry; and from whence they have been imported into this Kingdom upon Payment of, or Security given for, the Payment of the British Plantation Duties: And whereas Doubts have arisen respecting the Legality of such Importation into the said British Islands in the West Indies, as also of the Importation thereof from the said Islands into this Kingdom: And whereas it is manifestly for the Benefit of the Revenue and Navigation of this Kingdom, to permit the said Trade, and to exempt from the Forfeitures and Penalties above mentioned, any Parcels of the aforesaid Tobacco, which having been transhipped at Sea on board such Vessels which brought the same from Saint Eustatia, and other neutral Islands, have not been landed at any Island or other Place in the British Dominions in America, from which the same may be lawfully imported into this Kingdom: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Owners of such Tobacco so imported, or which shall or may be imported into this Kingdom, before the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, to enter and pay the Duties due and payable for such Tobacco, without incurring any Penalty or Forfeiture whatsoever, for or by reason of such Importation; and the said Tobacco so entered or to be entered, and the Ships or Vessels in which the same was or may be so imported as aforesaid, shall be released and discharged from any Seizure or Forfeiture on account of such Importation; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Recital of the Navigation Act 12 Car. II.

Tobacco the Growth of the British Colonies in America, imported from the neutral Islands in the West Indies, &c. before Jan. 1, 1781, may be entered, without incurring any Penalty:

'II. And, for obviating any Doubts or Difficulties that may hereafter arise by such Importations,' it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, any Tobacco, being the Growth or Produce of any Part of the British Dominions in America, which, during the Continuance of the present Hostilities, shall be bona fide imported into and landed at any British Island in the West Indies, from any Island or Place in America or the West Indies in Amity with his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall and may be imported directly from such British Island, and shall and may be entered and landed in this Kingdom upon Payment of the proper Duties due thereon; provided the Master, or Person having the Command or Charge of the Vessel in which the same shall be imported, shall produce and deliver to the Collector, or other proper Officer of the Customs at the Port of Importation, at the Time he makes his Report, a Certificate, under the Hand and Seal of Office of the Collector and Comptroller, or other principal Officer of the Customs, of the British Island where such Tobacco was laden and taken on Board, certifying that the said Tobacco was so laden and taken on Board there, and naming the Island or Place from which such Tobacco was so imported; and such Tobacco shall also be accompanied with the customary Manifests and other Documents, and shall in all other Respects be subject and liable to the same Securities, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as Tobacco the Growth or Produce of any British Colony or Plantation is or may be subject and liable to, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force.

And after Jan. 1, 1781, any such Tobacco, which, during the present Hostilities, shall be landed at any British Island in the West Indies from a neutral Port, may be imported directly from such Island into this Kingdom; provided the Master of the Vessel shall produce to the Custom-house Officer at the Port of Importation a proper Certificate, &c.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to import in British Ships or Vessels, duly navigated according to Law, any Tobacco of the Growth or Produce of any Part of the British Dominions in America, from any Island or Place in Amity with his Majesty, into any British Island in the West Indies; and that the Tobacco so imported into such British Island, shall not be liable to Seizure or Confiscation.

Such Tobacco may be imported in British Vessels from any neutral Port into the British West Indies.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all Tobacco of the Growth or Produce of any British Colony or Plantation in America or the West Indies, which, from and after the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, shall be imported into this Kingdom, from

For all Tobacco, the Produce of British America, imported as before mentioned, after Jan. 1, 1781, (except Prize Tobacco) there shall be paid an additional Duty of 1 d. per Pound; besides the additional 5 per Cent. granted by 19 Geo. III. Cap. 25.

from any Island or Place from whence the same may be lawfully imported, not being the Island or Place of the Growth or Produce of such Tobacco (except Tobacco taken and condemned as Prize), there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, an additional Duty of one Penny for every Pound Weight of such Tobacco, which shall be paid down in ready Money, without any Discount or Deduction whatsoever; and shall be also subject and liable to an additional Impost or Duty of five Pounds per Centum, in the same Manner, and under the same Regulations, as the additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum is granted to his Majesty by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon the Produce of the several Duties under the Management of the respective Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in Great Britain).

New Duty to be collected and recovered, &c. in the same Manner as the former Duties on Tobacco (except where altered by this Act); and to be paid into the Exchequer by the Receiver-general of the Customs.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Duty herein-before granted, shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, and recovered, in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways, Means, and Methods, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures (except where any Alteration is made by this Act), as the former Duties now payable to his Majesty upon such Tobacco are raised, levied, paid, and recovered, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the several Clauses, Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, respectively relating thereto, were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this present Act; and shall be paid into the Hands of the Receiver-general of the Customs in England, and shall be by him paid (the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, and answering the same, only excepted) into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinct and apart from all other Monies which such Receiver-general shall receive for the Use of his Majesty, for the Uses and Purposes in this Act mentioned.

A separate Account to be kept in the Auditor's Office of all Monies paid in by virtue of this Act.

How to be applied.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt of Exchequer a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the Duties hereby granted, and paid into the said Receipt as aforesaid, shall be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon any Account whatsoever; and the said Money, so paid into the said Receipt of Exchequer as aforesaid, shall, together with such other Rates, Duties, and Revenues, as shall be granted by any Act or Acts of this Session of Parliament for this Purpose, be a Fund for the Payment of the several Annuities, and all such other Charges and Expences as are directed to be paid and payable pursuant to an Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Sum of Money by way of Annuities, and for establishing a Lottery.

Upon Exportation of such Tobacco, a Drawback to be allowed of all the Duties paid upon Importation by virtue of this Act.

VII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the Exportation of such Tobacco from this Kingdom to any Part beyond the Seas as Merchandise, the Exporter shall be paid and allowed a Drawback of all the before-mentioned Duties paid upon the Importation of such Tobacco by virtue of this Act; which Drawback or Allowance shall be made in such Manner, and under such Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in all Respects, as any former Drawback or Allowance, payable out of the Duties of Customs upon the Exportation of such Tobacco, was, could, or might be made before the passing of this Act.

Continuance of this Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue in Force during the present Hostilities, and no longer.

CAP. XL.

An Act to repeal so much of an Act, made in the fifteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, (for settling Buckingham House upon the Queen, in lieu of Somerset House; and for other Purposes), as enables the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury to apply the Sums necessary for completing Somerset House, out of the Aids granted for Naval Services, or out of any of the Revenues arising from the Receipt of the several Offices to be erected and established by virtue of the said Act.

Preamble.

Recital of 15 Geo. III. Cap. 33.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for settling Buckingham House with the Appurtenances upon the Queen, in case she shall survive 'his Majesty, in lieu of his Majesty's Palace of Somerset House; for enabling the Lords Commissioners of his 'Majesty's Treasury to sell and dispose of Ely House in Holborn; and for applying the Money to arise by Sale 'thereof, together with other Monies, in erecting and establishing Public Offices in Somerset House, and for em- 'banking certain Parts of the River Thames lying within the Bounds of the Manor of the Savoy; and for 'other Purposes therein mentioned; it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That in case the Money arising 'by the Sale or Sales, Demises or Surrenders of Ely House, and other the Premises vested in the Commis- 'sioners of his Majesty's Treasury to be sold or demised, should not be sufficient to answer the Purposes 'for which the same was appropriated, it should and might be lawful for the Commissioners of his Ma- 'jesty's Treasury, or any three of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, out of all or 'any of the Aids or Supplies granted or to be granted by Parliament, for or towards all or any of the 'Naval Services, or out of all or any of the Revenues arising or to arise to his Majesty, within the Re- 'ceipt, Management, or Government, of all or any of the several Offices erected and established, or to 'be erected and established, by virtue of the said Act, to order and direct, from Time to Time, such Sum 'and Sums of Money as he or they should judge necessary for answering the Purposes, and carrying the 'Intentions of the said Act into effectual Execution: And whereas large Sums of Money have already 'been expended on the Buildings at Somerset House more than have arisen from the Sale of Ely House, and 'the other Premises mentioned in the said Act; and further large Sums of Money will be necessary to 'complete the said Buildings: And whereas the Method prescribed for issuing the Money under the said

'Act is contrary to the Usage of Parliament, with respect to Grants for other Public Services, which is 'by Sums voted annually founded upon proper Estimates: May it therefore please your Majesty that it 'may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said recited Act as prescribes the Method of issuing Monies for the Purposes therein mentioned, shall be and is hereby repealed.

Part of the recited Act repealed.

CAP. XLI.

An Act to continue an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for rendering the Payment of the Creditors of Insolvent Debtors more equal and expeditious, and for regulating the Diligence of the Law by Arrestment and Poinding, and for extending the Privilege of Bills to Promissory Notes, and for limiting Actions upon Bills and Promissory Notes, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland. [Further continued till May 15, 1782.]

CAP. XLII.

An Act for granting to his Majesty several additional Duties upon certain Goods imported into the Isle of Man; and for better regulating the Trade and securing the Revenues of the said Island.

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament 'assembled, for further Provision towards defraying the Expences of Government of the Isle of 'Man, and better raising and securing a Revenue for that Purpose, have resolved to give and grant to your 'Majesty the several additional Rates and Duties herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly 'beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the following Duties for and upon the Goods and Merchandises herein-after mentioned, which shall be brought or imported into the Isle of Man; that is to say,

Preamble.

After July 5, 1780, the following additional Duties to be paid on Importation into the Isle of Man; viz.

For every Gallon of Rum, the Produce of the British Plantations, imported from that Part of Great Britain called England, a further additional Duty of six Pence, over and above all other Duties now charged thereon:

For every Gallon of Rum the Produce of British Plantations, imported from England, 6d.

For every Pound Weight of Tobacco imported from England, an additional Duty of one Penny:

For every Pound of Tobacco so imported, 1d.;

For and upon all Hemp, Iron, Deal Boards, and Timber, imported from foreign Parts, an additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum ad Valorem:

Hemp, Iron, &c. from foreign Parts, 5 per Cent. ad valorem;

For every Ton of French Wine imported, an additional Duty of four Pounds:

French Wine 4l. per Ton;

For every Ton of all other Sorts of Wine imported, an additional Duty of two Pounds; and after these Rates for any greater or less Quantity of such Wine.

and all other Wine, 2l.

'II. And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Ma- 'jesty, intituled, An Act for encouraging and regulating the Trade and Manufactures of the Isle of Man; and 'for the more easy Supply of the Inhabitants there with a certain Quantity of Wheat, Barley, Oats, Meal, and 'Flour, authorised, by an Act made in this Session of Parliament, to be transported to the said Island, the Ex- 'porter from this Kingdom into the Isle of Man of such Goods, and in such Manner as therein mentioned, 'was thereupon intitled to receive the same Drawbacks, under the same Regulations in all Respects, as 'were then allowed and prescribed for such Goods respectively when exported from Great Britain to Ire- 'land: And whereas, since the passing of the said recited Act, the Drawback, which was at that Time 'allowed upon the Exportation of Tea from Great Britain to Ireland, has ceased and determined, and 'another Drawback upon Tea so exported has been since allowed by a subsequent Act of Parliament, 'which is now in Force;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, the several Duties granted and payable to his Majesty, in and by the said recited Act, for and upon every Pound Weight of Bohea Tea, Green Tea, and Coffee, imported from England into the said Isle of Man, shall cease, determine, and be no longer paid or payable; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: And that in Lieu of the said Duties by this Act repealed as aforesaid, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the following Duties for and upon the Goods and Merchandises herein-after mentioned, which shall be brought or imported into the said Isle of Man; that is to say,

Recital of 7 Geo. III. Cap. 45.

After July 5, 1780, the Duties on Tea and Coffee imported from England, granted by the recited Act, to cease.

For

New Duties.

For every Pound Weight of Bohea Tea imported from England, six Pence:
For every Pound Weight of Green Tea imported from England, one Shilling:
For every Pound Weight of Coffee imported from England, four Pence.

The aforesaid Duties to be paid in ready Money without Discount; and to be collected and and recovered in like Manner as former Duties.

How to be applied.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Rates and Duties hereinbefore granted, shall be paid down in ready Money without any Discount or Allowance, and shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, and recovered, under the Authority and Direction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, in like Manner and Form, and by the same Rules, Regulations, and under such Penalties and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things not hereby altered, as the former Duties payable upon such Goods were raised, levied, collected, and recovered, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the several Clauses, Powers, Directions, Penalties and Forfeitures, relating thereto, were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this present Act; and (except the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, levying, recovering, answering, paying, and accounting for the same) the said Rates and Duties shall from Time to Time be brought and paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the public Revenue; and such Part thereof as shall remain after the necessary Expences attending the Government of the said Isle of Man, and the Administration of Justice there, are from Time to Time defrayed, shall be reserved for the Disposition of Parliament.

After July 5, 1780, a Drawback to be allowed on the Exportation of Tea to the Isle of Man.

'IV. And whereas it may tend to encourage and promote the lawful Importation of Tea into the said 'Island from Great Britain, and also to prevent the clandestine and illicit Trade therein which hath been 'lately carried on there, if a Drawback of the Customs paid in Great Britain was allowed upon the Ex-'portation of Tea from thence to the said Island;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, there shall be drawn back and allowed for all Tea which shall be exported from this Kingdom as Merchandise to the Isle of Man, in such Quantity respectively limited, and under the same Regulations in all Respects as are prescribed in and by the herein-before recited Act made in the seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign, the several Duties of Customs which were paid upon the Importation of such Tea; which Drawback or Allowance shall be made to such Exporter in such Manner, and under such Rules, Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in all Respects, as are allowed and prescribed for such Goods respectively, when exported from Great Britain to Ireland.

In what Cases the said Drawback shall not be allowed.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Drawback allowed by this Act shall not be allowed for any Tea which shall not be exported directly from the Warehouse or Warehouses wherein the same shall be lodged, pursuant to the Directions of all or any of the several Acts now in Force for that Purpose.

After July 5, 1780, there may be exported to the Port of Douglas, from England, yearly, 50,000 Gallons of British Spirits, and 30,000 Gallons of Rum;

'VI. And whereas the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England are authorised, in and by 'the said recited Act, to grant Licence to any of his Majesty's Subjects to export from any Port of England 'into the Port of Douglas in the said Isle of Man, any Quantity of Spirits, not exceeding in the Whole 'fifty thousand Gallons of British distilled Spirits, and thirty thousand Gallons of Rum of the Produce 'of the British Plantations, in one Year: And whereas only a very small Part of the said Allowance of 'fifty thousand Gallons of British distilled Spirits hath of late been imported into the said Island, and the 'Allowance of thirty thousand Gallons of Rum, of the Produce of the British Plantations, is become in-'sufficient for the Consumption of the said Island, by reason of the late Increase of Population, and of 'the Herring Fishery;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, instead of the Quantities of Spirits and Rum in the said Act mentioned, the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in Great Britain respectively, or any three of them, shall and may grant Licence, without Fee or Reward (to continue in Force for the Term of thirty Days), to any of his Majesty's Subjects to export from any Port of England, into the Port of Douglas in the Isle of Man, but to no other, in British Ships navigated according to Law, any Quantity of British distilled Spirits not exceeding in the Whole forty thousand Gallons, and thirty thousand Gallons of Rum, the Produce of the British Plantations; and from any Port in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, ten thousand Gallons of such Rum, in one Year, in the same Manner, and under the same Regulations in all Respects, as if the said last-mentioned Quantity had been originally limited and prescribed in and by the said Act, instead of the Quantity therein mentioned; and the Certificate directed by the said Act to be transmitted to the Commissioners of the Customs at London, shall, with respect to the Quantity of Rum exported from Scotland, be transmitted in like Manner to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs at Edinburgh, any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

and 10,000 Gallons of Rum from Scotland.

No Licences for exporting Goods to be granted by virtue of the recited Act, until Entry has been made of all such Goods, expressing the Quantity and Quality, the Name of the Ship, &c.

'VII. And, for the better Prevention of Abuses, under Colour of the Licences granted by virtue of 'the said recited Act to export the Goods therein mentioned from any Port of England into the Port of 'Douglas in the Isle of Man,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, no such Licence shall be granted to any Person or Persons whatsoever, to export any of the Goods therein mentioned to the said Isle of Man, and no such Licence shall be granted to any Person or Persons to export such Rum from any Port in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, in pursuance of this Act, before such Person or Persons shall have made a true Entry of all such Goods in Writing with the Collector and Comptroller of the Port from whence such Goods are intended to be exported, expressing the Quantity and Quality thereof, with the Times of the paying or securing his Majesty's Duties inwards for the same, and also of the Name of the Ship or Vessel, and of the Master or Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, in which the said Goods are intended to be exported; of which Entry a Copy, attested by the said Collector and Comptroller, being produced to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland respectively, then, and not before, they, or any three of them respectively, shall and may grant such Licence for the Exportation thereof, as in the said recited Act mentioned, which said Licence shall continue in Force for the Term of thirty Days only from the Date thereof, and no longer; and in case no Exportation shall be made pursuant to such Licence, the same shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Licence to continue in Force for 30 Days only.

'VIII. And whereas by an Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for more effectually preventing the Mischiefs arising to the Revenue and Commerce of Great Britain and Ireland, from the illicit and clandestine Trade to and from the Isle of Man, it is (amongst other Things) 'enacted, That no Wine should be imported into the said Island in any Ship or Vessel of less Burthen than 'one hundred Tons, upon Forfeiture of all such Goods, together with the Ship or Vessel, and all her 'Tackle, Furniture, and Apparel, to be seized and prosecuted as therein-after is directed: And whereas 'great Hardship is thereby laid on Vessels of a less Burthen, trading in Herrings to Madeira and the Mediterranean, where they are frequently unable to make Returns otherwise than in the Wine or Produce 'of the Country;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, it shall and may be lawful for such Ships or Vessels as aforesaid, not being of less Burthen than seventy Tons, to import into the said Island any Wine (French Wine or any Wine from France excepted); and in case any Wine shall be imported into the said Island in any Ship or Vessel of less Burthen than as aforesaid, or in any Vessel or Cask that shall contain less than twenty-five Gallons, or in any other Manner contrary to the said recited Act, except as altered by this present Act, the several Penalties and Forfeitures therein inflicted shall and may be recovered, levied, seized, and prosecuted, in such Manner as the same could or might have been by virtue of the said Act; any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Recital of an Act 5 Geo. III.

After July 5, 1780, Herring Vessels trading to Madeira, &c. of 70 Tons Burthen, may import any Wine (except French) into the Isle of Man.

'IX. And, for the more effectually preventing irregular, clandestine, and fraudulent Exportation from 'the said Isle of Man,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, no Goods, Wares, or Merchandises whatsoever (fresh or unsalted Fish excepted) shall be shipped or laden on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to be exported from the said Isle of Man, to any Place whatsoever, before a Warrant is granted for that Purpose by the Collector or other principal Officer of the Port where the said Goods are shipped or laden, or before such Security is given as by Law is or may be required, on Forfeiture of all such Goods, or the Value thereof; and all Masters, or other Persons having Command or Charge of any Ship or Vessel, wherein any Goods shall be shipped in order to be exported, shall conform to such Rules and Regulations, and be subject to such Forfeitures and Penalties, in all Respects, as are prescribed and inflicted by any Act of Parliament now in Force with respect to the Exportation of Goods from Great Britain.

No Goods to be shipped for Exportation from the Isle of Man without a proper Warrant, &c. on Forfeiture of all such Goods.

'X. And whereas by an Act, made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An 'Act for the better securing, and further Improvement, of the Revenues of Customs, Excise, Inland and Salt 'Duties; and for encouraging the Linen Manufacture of the Isle of Man; and for allowing the Importation 'of several Goods, the Produce and Manufacture of the said Island, under certain Restrictions and Regulations, 'it is (amongst other Things) enacted, That the Inhabitants of the Isle of Man shall and may import 'directly from thence into any lawful Port of Great Britain, Bestials, or any Goods, Wares, and Merchandises, of the Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of the said Isle of Man (except such as are pro'hibited to be imported into this Kingdom), without paying any Customs, Subsidies, or Duties, for or 'in respect thereof (except such Excise or other Duty as was then or should thereafter become due and 'payable for the like Goods, Wares, and Merchandises, of the Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of 'Great Britain), provided the Master, or other Person having the Charge of the Ship or Vessel so import'ing the same, shall bring with him a Certificate or Certificates from the Governor, Lieutenant-governor, 'Commander in Chief, or Chief Magistrates for the Time being, that Oath hath been made before him 'or them, in the Presence of the Officers of the Customs for the Port or Place where such Bestials or 'Goods shall be put on Board, that the same are the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the said Isle 'of Man; which Certificate or Certificates shall also be attested by the said Officer of the Customs, and 'shall express the Number and Tale of such Bestials, with the Marks and Weight of the Species of 'Goods in each Bale or Parcel mentioned in the Bill or Bills of Lading, with the Name or Names, Place 'or Places of Abode, of the Exporter or Exporters from the Isle of Man, and the Name or Names, Place 'or Places of Abode, of such Person or Persons as shall have sworn the Bestials, or Goods therein men'tioned, to be of the Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of the said Isle of Man, and where and to 'whom consigned in Great Britain: And whereas such Bestials or other Goods are exported from the said 'Isle of Man to Great Britain from Parts of the said Island so distant and remote from the Place of Resi'dence of the Governor, Lieutenant-governor, Commander in Chief, or Chief Magistrates for the Time 'being, that the Exporters of such Goods cannot, without great Inconvenience and Expence, make the 'Proof and obtain the Certificate required by the said recited Act; now, for Remedy thereof,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, the said Oath required by the said recited Act to be taken before the Governor, Lieutenant-governor, Commander in Chief, or Chief Magistrates for the Time being, shall and may be administered by the Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of the Revenue at the Port or Place in the said Isle of Man, where such Bestials or other Goods shall be shipped or loaden, who is and are hereby respectively authorised and required to administer the same, and to grant a Certificate thereof, in the Form and to the Effect required by the said recited Act, under his Hand and Seal of Office; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Recital of 5 Geo. III. Cap. 43.

After July 5, 1780, the Oath mentioned in the recited Act may be administered by the Collector, &c. at the Port of Exportation.

XI. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Collector, Comptroller, or other Officer of the Revenue, shall make or grant a false Certificate or other Dispatch, Penalty on Officer granting a false Certificate.

patch, contrary to the true Intent of this Act, every such Offender shall forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, or Plaint, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; one Moiety to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Revenue as shall sue or inform for the same; and the Officer granting such false Certificate or other Dispatch shall also be rendered incapable of serving his Majesty in any Branch of the public Revenue; and any Person who shall counterfeit, raze, or falsify, any such Certificate, or knowingly or willingly make use of any such Certificate so counterfeited, razed, altered or falsified, shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered and applied in Manner aforesaid.

'XII. And, for the further Encouragement to the Inhabitants of the Isle of Man, to carry on the 'Herring Fishery on the Coasts thereof,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, there shall be drawn back and allowed for any White or Red Herrings, caught upon the Coasts of the said Island and cured there, and imported into any Port of Great Britain, and exported from thence as Merchandise to foreign Parts, the whole Duties paid or payable upon the Importation of such Herrings; which Drawback or Allowance shall be made by the Officer appointed to collect the Duties upon Salt, in the Port from whence any such Herrings shall be exported, within thirty Days after Demand thereof, upon a Debenture, to be prepared by the Collector of the Customs where such Herrings shall be entered out for Exportation, and verified by the Person executing the Office of Searcher in such Port, as to the Quantity of Herrings actually shipped, and that the same were good and merchantable; and the White Herrings in Barrels containing thirty-two Gallons each, or in Half Barrels of sixteen Gallons each, and full packed; and the Red Herrings in Casks, on which shall be marked the Number of Herrings in each Cask, for the better ascertaining of the Quantity exported; and that the Oath of the Exporter or Agent be first taken before the principal Officers of the said Port before the Debenture be allowed (who are hereby required and impowered to administer the same), that the Herrings in such Debenture mentioned were really caught on the Coasts of the Isle of Man, and cured there, and that the Duty of the same was actually paid upon the Importation thereof, specifying the Vessel and Master's Name in which the Herrings were imported, and at what Port, and that they are really and truly exported to or for Parts beyond the Seas, and not relanded or intended to be relanded in Great Britain; and in case the Officer hereby directed to pay such Debenture shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands to pay the same, then, upon Certificate thereof by him made (which Certificate he is hereby required to give the Party gratis), the principal Commissioners for managing his Majesty's Revenues of Excise upon Salt for the Time being shall be chargeable with the said Payment, to be made in Course out of the first Money in their Hands arising out of the Duties upon Salt either in England or Scotland, as the Case may happen; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Officers for the said Duties on Salt, in the several and respective Ports of the Kingdom of Great Britain, upon the Exportation of any such Herrings, and before the same shall be laid on Board for Exportation, to mark the Barrel wherein such Herrings shall be exported, to the Intent it may be known that such Herrings have been exported, and Allowances obtained upon Exportation thereof, in case the same, or any Part thereof, shall be relanded or reimported; and that in case any such Herrings shall (after the same shall be exported) be fraudulently relanded or reimported into Great Britain, all the said Herrings so relanded or reimported shall be forfeited and lost, and Double the Value thereof to be recovered of the Importer, Proprietor, or Master of the Vessel in which they shall be reimported; and that no Allowance shall be paid out of the said Duties on Salt for or on Account of the Exportation of any White or Red Herrings that shall not be well cured, or shall be unmerchantable; nor shall any Drawback or Allowance be made for any such White Herrings shipped to be exported, that shall not have been imported from the Isle of Man in Barrels containing thirty-two Gallons, or Half Barrels containing sixteen Gallons each.

After July 5, 1780, for Herrings caught on the Coasts of the Isle of Man, and cured there, and imported into Great Britain, and from thence exported to foreign Parts, there shall be allowed a Drawback of all the Import Duties.

Oath to be taken by the Exporter, &c.

Officers of the Salt Duties to mark the Barrels wherein the Herrings shall be exported.

Herrings fraudulently relanded to be forfeited, and Double the Value.

CAP. XLIII.

An Act for raising a certain Sum of Money by Loans or Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and eighty. 1,500,000*l.*

CAP. XLIV.

An Act to explain an Act of the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for augmenting the Militia; and to declare valid and effectual the Swearing in and Inrolment of Militia Men, Substitutes, and Volunteers, in Cases where all the Provisions of the several Acts now in being, relative thereto, have not been observed; and to indemnify Deputy Lieutenants, Chief Magistrates, and Justices of the Peace, for their Proceedings therein respectively; to declare valid and effectual the Commissions granted by Deputy Lieutenants, in the Absence of the Lieutenant of any County out of the Kingdom, to Officers commanding Volunteer Companies; and to indemnify Deputy Lieutenants and Officers who have granted, or acted under, such Commissions; and to enlarge the Powers of Deputy Lieutenants in certain Cases.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS, in pursuance of an Act of the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for augmenting the Militia, Volunteer Companies have been raised and annexed to the Militia of several Counties within this Kingdom: And whereas the Periods of Service intended for such Companies were not sufficiently ascertained in the said Act, in Consequence whereof, the Men enlisted in several of 'the

'the said Companies have been enlisted for different Periods of Service than were intended by such Act; 'for better Security to Persons who have enlisted themselves therein, and for greater Certainty for the 'future,' be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Persons who have enlisted themselves in any Volunteer Company raised in pursuance of the said Act, for the Term of three Years unless sooner discharged, or for the Term of three Years, or as Private Soldiers therein without any Time expressed, shall be entitled to their Discharge at the Expiration of three Years from the Time of their Inrolment, or at such Time within the said three Years as the Militia shall be disembodied, or at such earlier Period as his Majesty shall think fit to reduce the Volunteer Companies.

When Militia Men, in the Volunteer Companies, shall be entitled to their Discharge.

II. And be it further enacted, That such Persons as shall have enlisted themselves in any Volunteer Company of Militia, raised in pursuance of the said Act, to serve in the same for three Years, or during the War, or to serve during the present War, or to serve according to the Provisions of the said Act of the last Session of Parliament, shall not be entitled to their Discharge till the Militia shall be disembodied, or till such earlier Period as his Majesty shall think fit to reduce the Volunteer Companies.

Militia Men enlisted to serve during the War, &c. not entitled to their Discharge till the Militia shall be disembodied, &c.

III. And be it further enacted and declared, That all Persons that shall, after the first Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, enlist themselves in Companies raised or to be raised in pursuance of the said Act, shall be enlisted to serve till such Time as the Militia shall be disembodied, or till such earlier Period as his Majesty shall think fit to reduce the Volunteer Companies, and for no other Period whatsoever.

Limitation of the Time of Service of all Militia Men in Volunteer Companies, who shall be enlisted after July 1, 1780.

'IV. And whereas several Persons have been engaged to serve as Militia Men, Substitutes, and Volunteers, in several Militia Regiments, Battalions, and Independent Companies, out of the Counties to 'which such Regiments, Battalions, or Independent Companies, respectively belong, and not being Natives of the same, and have been sworn in and inrolled by Deputy Lieutenants acting out of their respective Counties, or by the Chief Magistrate or Justices of the Peace not of such Counties to which 'such Corps of Militia belong: And whereas the several Provisions of the Militia Laws respecting the 'engaging, swearing in, and inrolling, Militia Men, Substitutes, and Volunteers, have not in such Cases 'been observed;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the engaging, swearing in, and inrolling of all such Militia Men, Substitutes, and Volunteers, previous to the fifteenth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, shall be valid and effectual, as if the several Provisions relating thereto had been observed; and that all such Militia Men, Substitutes, and Volunteers, shall be deemed Militia Men, Substitutes, and Volunteers, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and that the said Deputy Lieutenants, Chief Magistrates, and Justices of the Peace, Officers, and Non-commissioned Officers of Militia, shall be, and they are hereby indemnified for such their Proceedings therein respectively.

Preamble; reciting that Deputy Lieutenants, &c. have sworn in and inrolled several Militia Men contrary to some Provisions of Militia Laws: All such swearing in and inrolling previous to May 15, 1780, deemed valid: and the said Deputy Lieutenants, &c. indemnified.

'V. And whereas by an Act passed in the second Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An 'Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the several Laws now in being relating to the 'raising and training the Militia, within that Part of Great Britain called England; certain Powers are 'given to Deputy Lieutenants in the Absence of the Lieutenant of any County out of the Kingdom, 'which Powers in certain Cases have been found to be insufficient;' be it further enacted, That the several Powers granted to Lieutenants of Counties by an Act, passed in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled, An Act to amend and render more effectual the Laws relating to the raising and training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England; and to establish certain Regulations with respect to Officers serving in the Corps of Fencible Men directed to be raised in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and certain other Corps therein mentioned; so far as relates to the appointing Officers to command certain Volunteer Companies authorised by the said Act, and also the several Powers granted to, and the several Acts required from, Lieutenants of Counties, by an Act passed in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled, An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual, the several Laws now in being relating to the Militia Forces of this Kingdom; and for making certain Provisions relative to the Fencible Men in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; so far as respect the Qualifications, Removal, or Appointment of Officers in certain Cases therein mentioned; and also the several Powers granted to Lieutenants of Counties, by an Act passed in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled, An Act for augmenting the Militia, shall, during the Absence of the Lieutenants of any County out of this Kingdom, be executed by, and are hereby required from, such Deputy Lieutenants as now are, or hereafter shall be, appointed in pursuance of the Act first abovementioned.

Several Powers granted to Lieutenants of Counties by the following Acts,

18 Geo. III. Cap. 59;

19 Geo. III. Cap. 72. and 19 Geo. III. Cap. 76; shall, during the Absence of such Lieutenants out of the Kingdom, be executed by Deputy Lieutenants.

'VI. And whereas Commissions have been granted, by Deputy Lieutenants so appointed, to Officers 'to command Volunteer Companies, and Doubts may arise whether the Powers of such Deputy Lieu'tenants extend thereto;' be it further enacted, That such Commissions, granted to Officers properly qualified according to the Militia Laws, shal lbe, and they are hereby declared to be, valid and effectual; and the said Deputy Lieutenants and Officers are hereby respectively indemnified for issuing or acting under such Commissions.

Commissions granted by Deputy Lieutenants deemed valid; and such Deputy Lieutenants and Officers indemnified.

CAP. XLV.

An Act to permit Goods, the Product or Manufacture of certain Places within the Levant or Mediterranean Seas, to be imported into Great Britain or Ireland in British or Foreign Vessels from any Place whatsoever; and for laying a Duty on Cotton and Cotton Wool imported into this Kingdom in Foreign Ships or Vessels, for a limited Time.

Preamble.

Recital of the Navigation Act 12 Car. II.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles 'the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, all 'Goods or Commodities of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture, of Africa, Asia, or America, or 'any Part thereof, are to be imported and brought into the Kingdom of England, Ireland, or Wales, the 'Islands of Guerney and Jersey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in English-built Shipping, or other 'Shipping belonging to some of the aforesaid Places, whereof the Master, and three-fourths of the Ma'riners at least, are English, and are not to be shipped and brought from any other Place or Places, 'Country or Countries, but only from those of the said Growth, Production, or Manufacture, or from 'those Ports where the said Goods and Commodities can only, or are, or usually have been shipped for 'Transportation, and from none other Places or Countries, under the Penalty and Forfeiture of the Ship 'and Goods, excepting in some particular Cases provided by the said Act: And whereas, by the said in 'Part recited Act, it is also enacted, That no Goods or Commodities of the Growth, Production, or Ma'nufacture of Muscovy, or of any of the Countries, Dominions, or Territories, to the Great Duke or 'Emperor of Muscovy or Russia belonging; as also that no Sorts of Masts, Timber, or Boards; no foreign 'Salt, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Hemp, or Flax, Raisins, Figs, Prunes, Olive Oils; no Sort of Corn or Grain, 'Sugar, Pot-ashes, Wines, Vinegar, or Spirits called Aqua Vitæ, or Brandy Wine, shall be imported 'into England, Ireland, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, 'but in such as do truly, and without Fraud, belong to the People thereof, or some of them, as the true 'Owners and Proprietors thereof, and whereof the Master, and three-fourths of the Mariners at least, 'are English; and that no Currants, or Commodities of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture, of any 'of the Countries, Islands, Dominions, or Territories, to the Ottoman or Turkish Empire belonging, shall 'be imported into any of the fore-mentioned Places, in any Ship or Vessel but which is of English-built, 'and navigated as aforesaid, and in no other, except only such foreign Ships and Vessels as are of the 'Built of that Country or Place of which the said Goods are the Growth, Production, or Manufacture 'respectively, or of such Port where the said Goods can only be, or most usually are, first shipped for 'Transportation, and whereof the Master, and three-fourths of the Mariners at least, are of the said 'Country or Place, under the Penalty and Forfeiture of Ship and Goods: And whereas several of the 'Articles in the said Act, and herein-before particularly enumerated, being the Growth or Production of 'some of the Places or Countries within the Levant or Mediterranean Seas, cannot be now imported 'directly from thence in British Vessels without great Hazard of Capture by the Enemies, and much Ex'pence of Insurance to the Merchants trading to this Kingdom; and it has been found necessary, during 'the present Hostilities with France and Spain, by temporary Laws which are now in Force, to suspend, 'in some Degree, the strict Regulations prescribed by the said recited Act; and it is further expedient, 'for the Encouragement of Trade and the Increase of the public Revenue, to permit, for a limited 'Time, under certain Restrictions, various Articles of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture, of 'Turkey or Egypt, and other Goods and Commodities which are enumerated in the before recited Act, 'which are of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture, of Places or Countries within the Streights or 'Levant Seas, to be imported into this Kingdom, or the Kingdom of Ireland, in foreign Vessels, although 'such Goods are not shipped and brought directly from the Place or Country of their Growth, Produc'tion, or Manufacture, or from the Ports or Places from whence such Goods are, or usually have been, 'first shipped for Transportation: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons admitted into, and made free of, the Company of Merchants of England trading into the Levant Seas, commonly called or known by the Name of The Turkey Company, to import into Great Britain or Ireland any Goods or Commodities which have heretofore usually been imported from Turkey or Egypt, or from any Place within the Dominions of the Grand Seignior within the Levant Seas, in any Ship or Vessel built in, or belonging to, Great Britain or Ireland, navigated according to Law; or in any Ship or Vessel belonging to any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, navigated by foreign Seamen, from any Port or Place whatsoever, upon Payment of the same Duties, if imported into Great Britain, as the like Goods would be subject and liable to if imported in British Ships directly from the Place of their Growth, Production, or Manufacture; but if such Goods shall be imported in any foreign-built Ship or Vessel, then, and in such Case, the Goods so imported shall be subject to the Aliens Duties, if such Goods would have been subject and liable thereto if this Act had not been made; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary notwithstanding.

After Jan. 1, 1780, any Person free of the Turkey Company may import into Great Britain or Ireland any Goods usually imported from Turkey, &c. either in British Ships, or Ships belonging to any State in Amity with his Majesty.

What Duties shall be paid for Goods so imported.

No Entry to pass for any Goods the Growth of Turkey, &c. until the Im-

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Entry shall be suffered to pass at the Custom-house for any such Goods of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of Turkey or Egypt, or of any of the Dominions of the Grand Seignior, as before the passing of this Act might be imported only from such Ports or Places in the Streights or Levant Seas as are within the Dominions of the Grand Seignior, and which, by the Authority of this Act, are permitted to be imported in Manner aforesaid, until the Person importing or entering the same shall produce to the Collector or other proper Officer of his Majesty's Customs, at the Port of Importation, a Certificate, under the Hand of the Collector of the Duties for the said Turkey Company, certifying such Person is free of the said Company, and that he has paid the Duties imposed on such Goods by the said Company, and has conformed in all Respects to the Rules and Regulations of the said Company relative thereto.

porter shall produce a Certificate of his being free of the Turkey Company, &c.

III. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, any Goods or Commodities which have been heretofore usually imported from any Port or Place in Europe, within the Streights of Gibraltar, except such Goods or Commodities as might heretofore be imported only from such Ports or Places as are within the Dominions of the Grand Seignior, shall and may, during the Continuance of this Act, be imported and brought, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, into Great Britain or Ireland from any Port or Place whatsoever, in any Ship or Vessel built in or belonging to Great Britain or Ireland, navigated according to Law, or in any Ship or Vessel belonging to any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, navigated with foreign Mariners; upon Payment of the same Duties, if imported into Great Britain, as the like Goods would be subject and liable to if imported directly from the Place of their Growth, Production, or Manufacture, except Drugs, which, if imported by any Person or Persons not free of the Turkey Company, shall be liable to the like Duties as they would have been liable to, if not imported directly from the Place of their Growth and Production, if this Act had not been made; and if any such Goods shall be imported in any foreign-built Ship or Vessel, then and in such Case the Goods so imported shall be subject to the Aliens Duties, if such Goods would have been subject and liable thereto by Law if this Act had not been made; any Thing in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding.

After Jan. 1, 1780, Goods usually imported from the Mediterranean may be imported in British Ships, or Ships belonging to any State in Amity with his Majesty.

What Duties shall be paid for such Goods.

IV. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for and upon all Cotton and Cotton Wool, which shall be imported into this Kingdom in pursuance of this Act, in any foreign Ship or Vessel, or which hath been so imported since the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, and is now remaining in any Warehouse in this Kingdom under the King's Locks, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, a Duty of one Penny Farthing for every Pound Weight of such Cotton or Cotton Wool, which shall be paid down in ready Money, without any Discount or Deduction whatsoever; and shall be also subject and liable to an additional Impost or Duty of five Pounds per Centum, in the same Manner as the additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum is granted to his Majesty by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon the Produce of the several Duties under the Management of the respective Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in Great Britain.

All Cotton and Cotton Wool imported after Jan. 1, 1780, in foreign Vessels, to pay a Duty of 1 d. 1 q. per Pound; and also the additional Duty of 5 per Cent. agreeable to Cap. 25, of last Session.

V. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Part of the said Duties hereinbefore granted shall be repaid or drawn back upon the Re-exportation of the said Cotton or Cotton Wool; and the said Duties shall be raised, levied, collected, recovered, and paid, in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways and Means, and under the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as the Duty of Customs, commonly called The Old Subsidy, is raised, levied, collected, recovered, paid, and applied, and is subject or liable to by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force (except where any Alteration is made by this Act), as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the several Clauses, Powers, and Provisions in such Acts had been repeated and enacted in the Body of this present Act; and the said Duties herein-before granted shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the public Revenue, and shall be so kept apart in the said Receipt of Exchequer as a Fund for the Encouragement of the Growth of Cotton in his Majesty's Leeward Islands, and for encouraging the Importation thereof into Great Britain, in such Way and Manner as Parliament shall hereafter direct.

No Drawback to be allowed on the Re-exportation of Cotton or Cotton Wool.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer, &c.

How to be applied.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue and remain in full Force until the first Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one.

Continuance of this Act.

CAP. XLVI.

An Act to allow the Exportation of Provisions, Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, from Great Britain, to certain Towns, Ports or Places, in North America, which are or may be under the Protection of his Majesty's Arms; and from such Towns, Ports or Places, to Great Britain, and other Parts of his Majesty's Dominions.

Preamble.

16 Geo. III. Cap. 5, recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the sixteenth Year of the Reign of his present 'Majesty, intituled, An Act to prohibit all Trade and Intercourse with the Colonies of New Hamp-'shire, Massachuset's Bay, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pensylvania, the Three 'Lower Counties on Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia, during 'the Continuance of the present Rebellion within the said Colonies respectively; for repealing an Act made in the 'fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, "to discontinue the landing and discharging, lading or "shipping of Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, at the Town and within the Harbour of Boston, in the Pro-"vince of Massachuset's Bay;" and also Two Acts, made in the last Session of Parliament, for restraining the 'Trade and Commerce of the Colonies in the said Acts respectively mentioned; and to enable any Person or Persons, 'appointed and authorised by his Majesty to grant Pardons, to issue Proclamations, in the Cases and for the Pur-'poses therein mentioned; it was, among other Things, declared and enacted, That all Manner of Trade

'and

'and Commerce was and should be prohibited with the said Colonies; and that all Ships or Vessels of or 'belonging to the said Colonies, together with their Cargo, Apparel, and Furniture, and all other Ships 'or Vessels whatsoever, together with their Cargoes, Apparel, and Furniture, which should be found 'trading in any Port or Place of the said Colonies, or going to trade, or coming from trading, in any 'such Port or Place, should become forfeited to his Majesty, as if the same were the Ships and Effects of 'open Enemies, and should be so adjudged, deemed, and taken, in all Courts of Admiralty, and in all 'other Courts whatsoever: And whereas it may be expedient for the present to allow the Exportation of 'Provisions, Goods, Wares, and Merchandise, from Great Britain and Ireland, to certain Towns, Ports 'and Places, within the said Colonies, being under the Protection of his Majesty's Arms, and from those 'Towns, Ports or Places, to Great Britain, Ireland, and other Parts of his Majesty's Dominions, under 'such Limitations, Restrictions, and Regulations, as to the Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces, 'or other Commanding Officer in such Ports, Towns, or Places respectively, shall seem necessary: May 'it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifteenth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty, it shall have been and shall be lawful to carry from Great Britain or Ireland, to any Town, Port or Place, within the said Colonies, which one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall certify to the Commissioners of the Customs in Great Britain, and to the Commissioners of the Revenue in Ireland respectively, to have been, on the said fifteenth Day of April, or in future to be under the Protection of his Majesty's Arms, Provisions, and other Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, in any Ship or Vessel which, before the passing of the Act above recited, might lawfully have traded to his Majesty's Plantations, the same having been or being duly cleared out for that Purpose, and the Quantity and Quality of the Provisions, Goods, Wares, and Merchandises, on Board the same, having been or being particularly specified in such Clearances, and a Bond having been or being first given by the Master of such Ship or Vessel, with two sufficient Sureties, in two thousand five hundred Pounds, if the said Vessel be under one hundred Tons, or five thousand Pounds if above, to the Collector or Principal Officer of the Customs in the Port from which such Ship or Vessel shall have departed or shall depart, for their proceeding directly to, and delivering such Provisions, Goods, Wares, and Merchandises, at such Port, Town, or Place of Destination, for which such Cargo shall have been entered and declared at the Time of the Clearance thereof, and for producing such Certificate of the Delivery of the said Cargo as is herein-after mentioned, within eighteen Months, to the said Collector or Principal Officer to whom such Bond shall have been given, the said Ship or Vessel also carrying a Certificate, under the Hand and Seal of the said Officer, of such Bond having been given, which Certificate such Officer is hereby required to sign and seal accordingly; and no such Ship or Vessel, or the Cargo, Apparel, or Furniture thereof, shall become forfeited to his Majesty, or shall be so deemed, adjudged, or taken, in any Court of Admiralty, or other Court whatsoever; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

After April 15, 1780, Goods may be exported from Great Britain or Ireland to any Town in America, which one of the Secretaries of State shall certify to be under the Protection of his Majesty's Arms.

Bond to be given by the Master of the Vessel exporting the same.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Naval Officer or other Officer, appointed or to be appointed for that Purpose, by the Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces in America, or in his Absence by the Commanding Officer of his Majesty's Troops at the Port, Town, or Place, which shall have been certified, in Manner aforesaid, to be under the Protection of his Majesty's Arms, shall, forthwith after the landing of the said Provisions, Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, at the Port, Town, or Place, for which the same shall have been declared at the Time of the Clearance, give and deliver a Certificate or Certificates, under his Hand and Seal, to the Owner or to the Master or Commander of every such Vessel, of such Goods being landed accordingly.

The Naval Officer or other Officer, appointed by the Commander of his Majesty's Forces in America, &c. shall, on the landing any Goods there, deliver a Certificate thereof.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful, from and after the passing of this Act, to carry Provisions, Goods, Wares, or Merchandise, being the Produce or Manufacture of America, or Prize Goods, from such Town, Port, or Place, within any of the said Colonies, which shall have been certified as aforesaid to be under the Protection of his Majesty's Arms, to any Port or Place in Great Britain, Ireland, Newfoundland, Halifax, Quebec, East Florida, West Florida, Georgia, or the British West India Islands, in any such Ship or Vessel as aforesaid, being duly entered, declared, and cleared out, with such Naval Officer or other Officer as aforesaid; and the Quantity and Quality of the Provisions, Goods, Wares, Merchandises, and Prize Goods, on Board the same, being particularly specified in such Clearances, and a Bond being first given, to the Naval Officer or other Officer as aforesaid, by the Master of such Ship or Vessel, with one sufficient Surety, in one thousand Pounds if the said Vessel be under one hundred Tons, or two thousand Pounds if above, for such Ship or Vessel proceeding directly to, and delivering such Provisions, Goods, Wares, Merchandise, and Prize Goods, at the Place of Destination for which the same shall have been declared at the Time of the Clearance; the said Ship or Vessel also carrying on Board a Certificate, under the Hand and Seal of such Officer, of such Bond having been given, which Certificate such Officer is hereby required to sign and seal; and no such Ship or Vessel, or the Cargo, Apparel, or Furniture thereof, shall become forfeited to his Majesty, or shall be so deemed, adjudged or taken, in any Court of Admiralty or other Court whatsoever; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Goods the Produce of America, or Prize Goods, may be exported from any such Town certified as aforesaid, to Great Britain, Ireland, Newfoundland, &c.

Bond to be given by the Master of the Vessel exporting the same.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces in America, or the Commanding Officer of the Troops at such Town, Port, or Place, as aforesaid, is hereby authorised and required to appoint such Naval or other Officer as aforesaid, for the Purposes before mentioned.

Commander in Chief in America, &c. required to appoint such Officers as aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That the said Naval Officer or other Officer, appointed or to be appointed as aforesaid, shall have full Power and Authority, and he is hereby required to take such further Bonds, and upon Demand to grant such Registers and Clearances and Certificates to the Owner, or to the Master or Commander of every such Vessel, as by any Law now in being may be requisite to such Vessel or Cargo, which shall be as valid and effectual as those taken or granted in the like Cases by his Majesty's Governors, and by the Officers of his Majesty's Customs in America.

Powers vested in such Officers.

The Importation and Exportation of Goods as aforesaid shall be subject to the Regulations of the Commander in Chief, &c.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Importation and Exportation as aforesaid of the above-mentioned Provisions, Goods, Wares, Merchandises, and Prize Goods, into or out of any such Town, Port, or Place, shall be subject to such Limitations, Restrictions, and Regulations, as may have been, or shall be established by the Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces in America, or by the Commanding Officer of his Majesty's Troops in such Port, Town, or Place.

The recited Act 16 Geo. III. to continue in Force, except as hereby altered.

VII. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted, That the said recited Act, made in the sixteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, shall continue in full Force and Effect to all Intents, and in all Respects, except so far as the same is hereby varied in favour of Ships or Vessels, and their Cargoes, proceeding according to the Terms of this Act.

Continuance of this Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That this present Act shall continue in Force to the first Day of June, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, and no longer.

This Act to cease in any Province, &c. where the Civil Government shall be restored.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever and wherever the Civil Government shall be restored, by putting any Province, Colony, or Plantation, or any Port or Place, County, Town, or District, at the King's Peace, this Act shall cease and determine in such Province, Colony, or Plantation, Port or Place, County, Town, or District.

Commanders in Chief in America, and all Persons acting under them, indemnified for all Acts done by them in suppressing the Rebellion there.

'X. And whereas, before the passing of this Act, divers Persons, Vessels, Cargoes, and other Effects, 'may have been seized, detained, damaged, or destroyed, in pursuance of Orders, Regulations, Restric-'tions, and Limitations heretofore issued and established by the Commanders in Chief of his Majesty's 'Forces in North America, or by Persons acting under their Authority, for the public Service, and for sup-'pressing the Rebellion in North America;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Acts, Matters, and Things, shall be deemed, and are hereby declared to be legal, to all Intents, Constructions, and Purposes whatsoever; and that all Actions and Suits, Indictments, and Informations, which have been, or shall be commenced or prosecuted, and all Molestations, Prosecutions, and Proceedings whatsoever, and Judgments thereupon, if any be, for or by reason of any Act, Matter, or Thing, advised, commanded, appointed, or done, with respect to such Orders and Regulations, by the said Commanders in Chief, or by any Person acting under their Authority, shall be discharged and made void; and that every Person, by whom any such Act, Matter, or Thing, shall have been so advised, commanded, appointed, or done, for the Purposes aforesaid, or any of them, shall be freed, acquitted, and indemnified, as well against the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as against all and every other Person and Persons; and the Court, in which any such Action, Suit, or Proceeding, shall or may be commenced or prosecuted, shall allow to the Defendant or Defendants the Benefit of the Discharge and Indemnity above provided, in a summary Way, upon Application to the said Court, and shall make such Order between the Parties, with respect to the Costs of the Suit or Proceeding, as to the said Court shall seem just.

CAP. XLVII.

An Act to indemnify such Persons as have omitted to qualify themselves for Offices and Employments; and to indemnify Justices of the Peace, or others, who have omitted to register or deliver in their Qualifications within the Time limited by Law, and for giving further Time for those Purposes; and to indemnify Members and Officers, in Cities, Corporations, and Borough Towns, whose Admissions have been omitted to be stamped according to Law, or, having been stamped, have been lost or mislaid; and for allowing them Time to provide Admissions duly stamped; and to give further Time to such Persons as have omitted to make and file Affidavits of the Execution of Indentures of Clerks to Attornies and Solicitors.

" Preamble. Persons who have omitted to qualify themselves agreeable to Act 1 Geo. I, Act 13 Car. II, " Act 25 Car. II, Act 30 Car. II, Act 8 Geo. I, Act 9 Geo. II, Act 18 Geo. II, and Act 6 Geo. III, before " the passing of this Act; and who shall, on or before Dec. 25, 1780, qualify themselves, shall be indem-" nified against Forfeitures. Not to indemnify any Person for any Penalty incurred by neglecting to " qualify himself. Persons producing Appointments and Admissions before Dec. 25, 1780, shall be con-" firmed, and qualified to act as Clerk, Officer, or Member of Corporations, &c. may enjoy all Offices " into which they have been elected; and shall be indemnified from all Penalties and Damages incurred " by reason of Omissions. Not to extend to restore Persons to any Office avoided by Judgment. Per-" sons who shall cause Affidavits to be filed before Michaelmas Term 1780, are indemnified and dis-" charged from Penalties. Persons prosecuted, and hereby meant to be indemnified, may plead the Ge-" neral Issue."

CAP. XLVIII.

An Act for repairing, lighting, watching, and cleansing, the High Street or Road, called Goswell-street, leading from Aldersgate-bars, without Aldersgate, London, to the House of Woodhouse Coker Gentleman, near the Turnpike at the End of the said Street or Road, in the County of Middlesex; and also Bull-yard, Glasshouse-yard, the North Side of Fan's-alley, Mount-mill, and Willow-court, contiguous to the said Street or Road, on the East and West Sides thereof; and for removing Nuisances therefrom, and preventing the like for the future.

CAP.

CAP. XLIX.

An Act to vest certain Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in Trustees, for the better securing his Majesty's Dock, Ships, and Stores, at Chatham.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS, by reason of the hostile Intentions of the Courts of France and Spain to invade these 'Realms, and of the great Preparations made in the said Kingdoms for that Purpose, it is become 'absolutely necessary, for the present and future Protection and Security, as well of his Majesty's Dock, 'Ships of War, and Stores, at Chatham, as of the Town of Chatham, to erect and raise additional Forti- 'fications and Intrenchments: And whereas the Lands herein-after mentioned, lying near the said Dock 'and Town of Chatham, are wanted for the Purpose of being made use of to erect and raise such For- 'tifications and Intrenchments: And whereas many of the Owners and Proprietors of the Lands, Te- 'nements, and Hereditaments, necessary to be purchased, may insist on large and extravagant Demands 'for the Purchase of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, or for the Damage and Injury they 'may pretend that they shall sustain by reason of such Fortifications and Intrenchments: And whereas 'many Persons may pretend to claim or have Title to the same Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, 'so that it may be doubtful to whom a Compensation ought to be made, which cannot be determined 'without the Aid of Parliament: To the End therefore that the true and real Value of such Lands, 'Tenements, and Hereditaments, may be ascertained, and the actual and real Owners and Proprietors 'may have a just and reasonable Satisfaction for such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, or for any 'Claim or Right thereto; may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

Certain Pieces of Land, and Tenements thereunto belonging, in the Parishes of Saint Margaret's and Chatham, in Kent,

That all those Pieces, Parts of Pieces, or Parcels of Land, containing in the Whole by Estimation six Acres, or thereabouts, be the same more or less, situate, lying, and being in the Parishes of Saint Margaret's and Chatham, in the County of Kent, or one of them, extending from a Place called Star-lane to the Foot of Chatham-hill, and all Tenements and Hereditaments to the same belonging or appertaining, which said several Pieces or Parcels of Land now or late were the Property of, or in the Tenure or Occupation of, Stevens, Sharp, Tomlyn, Francis Bond, the Brethren of Saint Bartholomew's Hospital, George Glover, Kentish, Joseph Langley, James Best, and Whitacre; and also all those Pieces or Parcels of Land, containing by Estimation forty-five Acres, or thereabouts, be the same more or less, being the Property of Francis Wadman Esquire, and all Tenements and Hereditaments to the same belonging or appertaining, situate, lying, and being in the said Parishes of Saint Margaret's and Chatham, or in one of them; abutting North on certain Lands belonging to Miss Buck and Mr. Thomas Baker, West on a certain Road leading from Star-lane to Horsted, and East on certain Lands belonging to Miss Boghurst; and also all that Piece or Parcel of waste Ground, abutting East on the Lands of the said Francis Wadman herein-before described, and Miss Buck, and West on a certain Lane leading from Star-lane to Snorditch-bottom, and all Tenements and Hereditaments to the same belonging or appertaining; and also all that Piece or Parcel of Ground, containing by Estimation four Acres and an Half, or thereabouts, be the same more or less, being the Property of the said Miss Buck, and all Tenements and Hereditaments thereto belonging or appertaining, abutting North on the present Turnpike Road leading from Star-lane to Chatham-hill, West on the said Lane leading to Snorditch-bottom, South on Land of the said Francis Wadman, and East on Land of the said Thomas Baker; and also all those several Pieces or Parcels of Land, containing by Estimation nine Acres, or thereabouts, be the same more or less, being the Property of the said Thomas Baker, situate, lying, and being in the said Parishes of Saint Margaret's and Chatham, or one of them, abutting South partly on the said Turnpike Road from Star-lane to Chatham-hill, and partly on the Lands of Francis Wadman Esquire, herein-before described, East on Chatham Chest Land, and North on Lands belonging to the Brethren of Saint Bartholomew's Hospital, Master Francis Bond, and others, and all Tenements and Hereditaments to the same belonging or appertaining; and also all those Pieces or Parcels of Land, containing by Estimation fourteen Acres and an Half, or thereabouts, be the same more or less, being the Property of Miss Boghurst, and all Tenements and Hereditaments to the same belonging, abutting North partly on Chatham Chest Land, and partly on the said Turnpike Road from Star-lane to Chatham-hil, West partly on the said Chatham Chest Land, and partly on the Lands of Francis Wadman Esquire, herein-before described, and East on another Parcel of the said Chatham Chest Land; and also one small Piece or Parcel of Land, being also the Property of the said Miss Boghurst, and all Tenements and Hereditaments thereto belonging or appertaining, situate, lying, and being on the North Side of the said Turnpike Road from Star-lane to Chatham-hill, and abutting South on the said Turnpike Road, and North-west and East upon Part of the said Chatham Chest Land; and also all those Pieces or Parcels of Land, containing by Estimation seventeen Acres, or thereabouts, be the same more or less, belonging to the Chest at Chatham, and all Tenements and Hereditaments to the same belonging or appertaining, situate, lying, and being to the North and South of the said Turnpike Road from Star-lane to Chatham-hill, and abutting partly on the said Road, and partly on the Lands of the said Miss Boghurst, and Master Thomas Baker, herein-before described; and also all that Piece or Parcel of Land, containing by Estimation three Acres, belonging to the Brethren of Saint Bartholomew's Hospital, and all Tenements and Hereditaments thereto belonging or appertaining, abutting West partly on other Ground belonging to the said Brethren, and partly on the Lands of the said Thomas Baker herein-before described, and on the Town Gardens, South on Lands of the said Thomas Baker before described, East on Part of the Chatham Chest Land herein-before described, and North on other Town Gardens; and also all those Pieces or Parcels of Land, containing by Estimation eight Acres, or thereabouts, vested in Trustees.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That reasonable and just Compensation and Satisfaction shall be made out of the next Aids to be granted in Parliament, for and in respect of the said Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, before mentioned, to all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, Ecclesiastical and Civil.

Reasonable Compensation to be made to the Proprietors out of the next Parliamentary Aids.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, for the better ascertaining the several Owners and Proprietors of the said Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and their respective Titles and Claims thereto, it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, by one or more Commission or Commissions by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to authorise and appoint any Number of Persons to be Commissioners to hear and determine all Titles and Claims that shall or may be made to the said Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or to any Part or Parcel thereof; which Commissioners so to be appointed, or any five or more of them, are hereby authorised and required, and shall and may in a summary Manner proceed, act, and determine, by and upon the Testimony of Witnesses upon Oath (which Oath they, or any five or more of them, are hereby impowered to administer), Inspection, and Examination of Deeds, Writings, and Records; or, if requested by the Parties interested, by the Inquest of twelve good and lawful Men, to be impannelled and sworn in Manner herein-after mentioned and directed, or by all or any of the said Ways, or otherwise, according to their Discretion, all and all Manner of Rights, Estates, and Interests, and all Controversies, Debates, and Questions, which shall happen and arise between any Person or Persons whomsoever, or any other Matter or Thing relating to any of the Premises, or any Part thereof; and shall have Power to send for any Person or Persons, and oblige them to produce their Deeds or Writings upon Oath relating to any of the same Premises, and shall and may, by Agreement with the respective Person or Persons that shall be determined to be the Owners and Proprietors of the said Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or by the Inquest of the said twelve good and lawful Men to be impannelled and sworn, inquire, proceed, act, and determine, touching and concerning the true and real Value of the said Premises, or any Part or Parcel thereof; and the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, are hereby required to cause all their Judgments and Decrees to be entered fairly in Books, which Judgments and Decrees shall expressly mention and specify the respective House or Houses, or other Messuages or Tenements, Number of Acres or Parcels of Land, with their several Abuttals and Boundaries, together with the Name or Names of every Person or Persons interested respectively in the same, and the respective Sum or Sums that shall be so agreed for or assessed by His Majesty impowered, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal, to appoint Commissioners to determine Claims to the said Lands, &c.

How they are to proceed.

Judgments and Decrees of Commissioners to be entered in Books, &c.

the said Jury to be paid for the same respectively; which Judgments and Decrees shall likewise be fairly ingrossed on Parchment, and certified to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, and to the King's Remembrancer in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer; and such Judgments and Decrees made as aforesaid shall be final, and shall conclude all and every Person and Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate, Ecclesiastical and Civil, their Heirs, Successors, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns respectively, notwithstanding any Disability or Incapacity whatsoever, any Law, Statute, or Custom, or other Matter or Thing whatsoever, to the contrary notwithstanding; Copies of which said Judgments and Decrees shall be laid forthwith before both Houses of Parliament, that a just and reasonable Compensation and Satisfaction may be made to the several Owners and Proprietors of the said Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments.

Copies thereof to be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, for the better carrying the said Commission or Commissions into Execution, the said Commissioners, to be appointed in and by the said Commission or Commissions, or any five or more of them, shall and lawfully may, and are hereby authorised and required to issue forth their Warrant or Warrants, under their Hands and Seals, to be directed to the Sheriff of the County of Kent, thereby commanding him to impannel, summon, and return, before the said Commissioners, at such Times and Places as shall be appointed in such Warrant or Warrants, a good and sufficient Jury of twenty-four good and lawful Men, qualified to serve upon Juries, at the Assizes for the said County, who, upon their Oaths (which Oaths the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, shall have Power to administer), shall inquire into the true and real Value of the said Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and every Part or Parcel thereof, and who respectively are the Owners and Proprietors thereof, and their respective Estates and Interests therein: And the better to enable the said Jurors to make such Inquiry, the said Commissioners shall and lawfully may direct, in such their Warrant or Warrants to the said Sheriff, a View to be taken, by six or more of the said Jurors, of the several Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in the said County, at some Time previous to the Meeting of the said Commissioners: And the Sheriff of the said County of Kent, upon the Receipt of such Warrant or Warrants from the said Commissioners as aforesaid, is hereby required to impannel, summon, and return twenty-four good and lawful Men, qualified to serve upon Juries at the Assizes for the said County; and in the mean Time to have six or more of the said Jurors, so impannelled and sworn, to view the said Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments; and, at the Return of such Warrant or Warrants, to attend the said Commissioners, with his Bailiffs or Officers, to prove, if necessary, the Summons of the Jurors so to be impannelled and returned respectively, upon Oath (which Oath the said Commissioners, or five or more of them, shall have Power to administer to the said Sheriff, and his Bailiffs and Officers, or any or either of them): And in case the said Sheriff, and his Bailiffs and Officers, or any or either of them, shall neglect or refuse (being duly served with such Warrant or Warrants of the said Commissioners fourteen Days before the Return thereof) to impannel, summon, and return, such Jury of good and lawful Men as aforesaid, or otherwise refuse to execute such Warrant or Warrants, or shall not attend the said Commissioners with his Bailiffs and Officers, who shall summon the said Jurors, at the Return of such Warrant or Warrants as aforesaid; then, and in either of the said Cases, the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, are hereby authorised and required to impose a Fine on such Sheriff, Bailiffs, and Officers, or any or either of them, so making Default, not exceeding twenty Pounds, nor less than ten Pounds, for any one Offence; and in case the said Jurors so to be impannelled, summoned, and returned, or any or either of them, shall neglect or refuse to appear at the Return of such Warrant or Warrants, and to be sworn for the Purpose aforesaid, then and in such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners then assembled and met, or any five or more of them, to impose a Fine upon each and every of the Jurors so impannelled, summoned, and returned, and (without lawful Excuse, to be allowed of by the said Commissioners then sitting, or the major Part of them) making Default, or refusing to be sworn, not exceeding the Sum of ten Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain; which Fine and Fines, so to be imposed and set, the said Commissioners are hereby authorised and required to estreat into his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, to be levied to the Use of his Majesty.

Commissioners to issue their Warrants to Sheriffs to summon Juries; who are to inquire into the Value of Lands, &c.

Penalty on Sheriffs or their Officers making Default;

and also on Jurors.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case a sufficient Jury shall not appear upon the Return of the said Warrant or Warrants to take the Inquest, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, to adjourn the said Inquest to any future Day, not exceeding fourteen Days, nor less than four Days, from the Adjournment thereof, and to issue out their Warrant or Warrants for impannelling, summoning, and returning an equal Number of Jurors to those so making Default, who, together with the Jurors before returned by the Sheriff of the said County of Kent, upon such second Warrant or Warrants afterwards to be issued, or upon any future Warrant or Warrants, Adjournment or Adjournments, which the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, are hereby authorised to issue and make from Time to Time, until a sufficient Jury can be had, shall inquire as aforesaid.

In case a sufficient Jury shall not appear upon Return of the Warrant, Commissioners may adjourn the Inquest, and issue their Warrant for summoning other Jurors in Room of Defaulters.

VI. Provided always, That twelve good and lawful Men shall be sufficient to take the Inquest aforesaid; and that in case twelve or more, not exceeding twenty-three in the Whole, shall appear, and be sworn, to take such Inquest, then and in such Case the said Commissioners shall continue and sit from Day to Day, until the said Inquest shall be taken, and, after the Inquest shall be taken, may adjourn to some future Day for making their Judgments and Decrees thereon.

Commissioners, after the Inquest shall be taken, may adjourn, &c.

'VII. And, to the Intent that no Person or Persons may have any Cause or Pretence for not appearing 'to make out their Claims or Title to the said Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Part or 'Parcel thereof,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That five or more of the said Commissioners shall give Notice, in Writing, twenty-one Days at least before their Meeting, which Writing shall be affixed at the Gates of the Dock at Chatham, and on the Door of the Town-hall of Rochester, and shall likewise be published in the London Gazette; and if any Person or Persons shall neglect or refuse to appear, or, when he or they shall appear, shall wilfully refuse to shew his or their Deeds or Writings relating Commissioners to give Notice previous to their respective Meetings.

How they are to proceed if Own-

to

to the Premises; that then the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, and the Jurors to be impannelled and sworn upon such Inquest, shall proceed, upon the best Information they can get or have, to make such Inquest, Judgments, and Decrees, as before directed; and all such Judgments and Decrees, being entered and certified as aforesaid, shall be final and conclusive.

ers make Default in appearing, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That immediately from and after the Time that Payment shall be made of the Sum and Sums of Money so to be agreed for or assessed by the said Jury, and decreed and adjudged by the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, to the Owners and Proprietors of the said Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, herein-before mentioned, or to any or either of them, the Trustees herein-before mentioned shall be deemed and adjudged to stand seised of such Part and Parcel of the said Premises as shall be so paid for, to and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for ever, freed and discharged of and from all and all Manner of Right, Title, Claim, and Demand whatsoever, that can or may be made by any Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, Ecclesiastical or Civil.

On Payment of the Sums assessed by Jury, &c. Trustees to be deemed seised of the Premises, for the Use of his Majesty.

'IX. And whereas that Part of the Turnpike Road called The New Chatham Turnpike Road, which 'extends from the East End of Star-lane to the Foot of Chatham-hill, is included within the Lands to be 'purchased for the Purposes of this Act: And whereas it may be necessary, for the public Service, to 'alter the Course of the said Turnpike Road,' be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, and they, or any five or more of them, are hereby authorised and impowered, if they think proper, to set out, within the Lands so to be purchased, another Road of the Breadth of thirty Feet, and to make and form the same in the Manner of a Turnpike Road; and that, from and after the Time that the said new Road shall be so completed, and fourteen Days Notice thereof given to the Clerk of the Trustees of the said Turnpike Road, the said new Road shall be vested in the said Turnpike Trustees for the Purposes, and subject to the Powers and Provisions of the Act for making the said Turnpike Road, and that that Part of the said Turnpike Road which extends from the End of Star-lane to the Foot of Chatham-hill, shall no longer be subject to the Power and Controul of the said Turnpike Trustees; but the Trustees by this Act appointed shall be deemed and adjudged to stand seised of the same, to and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors for ever.

Commissioners impowered to make a new Turnpike Road instead of that included in the Lands to be purchased for the Purposes of this Act.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any five or more of them, upon the Complaint of any Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, of any other Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, adjoining to any Part of the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, by this Act vested in the said Trustees, that he, she, or they have received any Damage by the erecting or completing of the said Fortifications and Intrenchments, or of any of the Works thereto belonging, or any other the Purposes of this Act, to examine into and hear every such Complaint, and shall make an Estimate of such Damage, and shall return such Estimate with, and in the Manner they are herein-before directed to return, the aforesaid Judgments and Decrees.

Commissioners to examine into Complaints of Owners of adjoining Lands, &c. and to make an Estimate of the Damages received.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no private Building or Buildings shall be made or erected upon any of the Lands vested by this Act as aforesaid; and that the whole Profits arising, or that shall hereafter arise, from the said Lands, be, and are hereby appropriated and applied for and towards the Erection and Reparation of the said Fortifications and Intrenchments, and to no other Use or Purpose whatsoever; and all and singular the Premises shall be, and are hereby enacted and declared to be, unalienable from the Crown; neither shall any Part of the said Premises be demised or demiseable, otherwise than during Pleasure only.

How the Profits of Lands vested in the Trustees shall be applied.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Commissioner, who shall be employed in the Execution of this Act, shall be liable, for or by reason of such Execution, to any of the Penalties mentioned in an Act, made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Dangers which may happen from Popish Recusants; or in one other Act, made in the first Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for the abrogating the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths; or in one other Act, made in the Parliament holden in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of the late King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the better Security of his Majesty's Person, and the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line; and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Pretenders, and their open and secret Abettors; or in one other Act, made in the Parliament begun and holden in the first Year of the Reign of King George the First, intituled, An Act for the better Security of his Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princess Sophia, being Protestants; and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and secret Abettors.

Commissioners not liable to the Penalties mentioned in an Act of 25 Car. II.; or in 1 Gul. & Mar. Cap. 8; 13 and 14 Gul. III. Cap. 6;

1 Geo. I. Cap. 13.

XIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That such Commissioners as his Majesty shall nominate for the Purposes in this Act, or any of them, shall not by reason thereof in any Sort be disabled or disqualified from sitting in the House of Commons, or their Election thereby become void; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Commissioners not disqualified from being Members of Parliament.

XIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall in any Manner lessen, affect, abridge, prejudice, or derogate from, any Right, Privilege, or Franchise of the City of Rochester, in the County of Kent, or the Jurisdiction of the Mayor and Citizens of the said City within the Limits of the said City; but that the same shall continue in the same State and Condition as they were entitled to before the making of this Act.

This Act not to affect the Privileges of the City of Rochester.

CAP. L.

An Act for exempting the City of Winchester, the County of Southampton, the Town of Shrewsbury, and the County of Salop, out of the Provisions of an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for regulating the quartering of Soldiers during the Time of the Elections of Members to serve in Parliament; so far as the same relates to the Removal of Troops during the Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, for a limited Time.

Preamble. Recital of an Act 8 Geo. II.

'WHEREAS, by an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for regulating the quartering of Soldiers during the Time of the Elections of Members to serve in Parliament; it is recited, That by the ancient Common Law of this Land all Elections ought to be free; and that by an Act passed in the third Year of Edward the First it is commanded, that no Man, by Force of Arms, or Malice or Menacing, shall disturb any to make free Election: And that forasmuch as the Freedom of Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, is of the utmost Consequence to the Preservation of the Rights and Liberties of this Kingdom, and that it has been the Usage and Practice to cause any Regiment, Troop, or Company, or any Number of Soldiers, which hath been quartered in any City, Borough, Town, or Place, where any Election of Members to serve in Parliament hath been appointed to be made, to remove and continue out of the same during the Time of such Election (except in such particular Cases as therein after specified); it is therefore enacted, That when and as often as any Election of any Member or Members to serve in Parliament shall be appointed to be made, the Secretary at War, or the Person who shall officiate in the Place of the Secretary at War, shall, at some convenient Time before the Day appointed for such Election, issue and send forth proper Orders for the Removal of all Soldiers who shall be quartered or billetted in any City, Borough, Town, or Place, where such Election shall be appointed to be made, out of every such City, Borough, Town or Place, one Day at least before the Day appointed for such Election, to the Distance of two or more Miles from such City, Borough, Town, or Place, and not to make any nearer Approach thereto, until one Day at the least after the Poll to be taken at such Election shall be ended, and the Poll Books closed, under certain Penalties and Disabilities in the said Act mentioned: And whereas, by a Provision in the said Act, it is declared, That nothing therein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the City and Liberty of Westminster, or the Borough of Southwark, for and in Respect of the Guards of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, nor to any City, Borough, Town, or Place, where his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or any of the Royal Family, shall happen to be or reside at the Time of any such Election as aforesaid, for or in respect of such Number of Troops or Soldiers only as shall be attendant as Guards to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or to such other Person of the Royal Family as is aforesaid, nor to any Castle, Fort, or fortified Place, where any Garrison is usually kept, for or in respect of such Number of Troops or Soldiers only whereof such Garrison is composed: And whereas in the City of Winchester there is a House or Palace belonging to his Majesty, which it has been found necessary to use as a Prison for confining and guarding a large Number of French and Spanish Prisoners, and that a Number of Troops have, for some Time past, been stationed in the said City for the Purpose of guarding such Prisoners: And whereas the Number of such Prisoners are so great, that they could not be removed during any Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the said City, without great Difficulty, Expence, and Hazard of Escape: And whereas the Removal of the said Troops, necessary for the Guard of such Prisoners, would be attended with manifest Danger, not only to the Inhabitants of the said City, and Persons resorting thereto, but to the Public in general: Therefore, in order to the better guarding and safe keeping of such Prisoners during the Time of any such Election;' be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That nothing in the said Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the said City, for such Time only as it shall be found necessary to detain such Prisoners of War in the said House or Palace, and so far as the same relates to such Troops or Soldiers only as are necessary for the Purpose of guarding any such Prisoners of War; provided that the Number of such Troops shall not, during the Times of such Election, exceed the Proportion of three Soldiers to every twenty Prisoners so confined; and provided that such Proportion of the said Troops as are not actually upon Guard, shall, during such Election, remain in the Barracks until it is necessary to relieve the said Guard, after which Time the former Guard shall immediately return to the said Barracks, and so alternately during the Continuance of such Election.

The recited Act not to extend to Winchester, during the Time the Prisoners of War are detained there, &c.

Recital of an Act 7 and 8 Gul. III.

'II. And whereas the said City of Winchester is the usual Place for holding Elections for the County of Southampton: And whereas by an Act, made in the seventh and eighth Years of King William the Third, for the further regulating Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, and for the preventing irregular Proceedings of Sheriffs, and other Officers, in electing and returning such Members, it is enacted, That upon every Election of any Knight of the Shire, the Sheriff shall hold his County Court at the most public and usual Place of Election, and where the same has been usually held for forty Years: And whereas the said City of Winchester is the Place at which the said County Court has been usually held: Wherefore, for preventing the Inconveniences which may happen from an Election of a Knight of the Shire for the said County of Southampton being held at the said City of Winchester,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Election for a Knight of the Shire for the said County of Southampton, which shall be be holden during the Continuance of this Act, shall be begun and holden at the Town of Alresford, in the said County of Southampton, and that the County Court for the said County, at which the said Election would otherwise have been made, shall be holden at the said Town of Alresford, and not at Winchester aforesaid; any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding; and the Sheriff of the said County, or his Deputy, are hereby authorised and required to adjourn the Poll from the said Town of Alresford to Newport in the Isle of Wight, in Manner directed in and by an Act, made in the seventh and eighth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the further regulating Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, and for the preventing irregular Proceedings of Sheriffs, and other Officers, in the electing and returning such Members, in relation to adjourning the Poll from the said City of Winchester.

Any Election for a Member for Hampshire, during the Continuance of this Act, shall be begun at Alresford, instead of Winchester, &c.

'III. And whereas a large Building in the Neighbourhood of the Town of Shrewsbury, and on the opposite 'Side of the River Severn, has been lately fitted up for the Reception of Prisoners of War, and it may be- 'come necessary, for the better Accommodation of such Prisoners, to send a considerable Number to that Place, in which Event a certain Number of Troops will be required for the Guard of such Prisoners: 'And whereas the said Building is not distant above one Mile from the usual Place of Election of Mem- 'bers to serve in Parliament for the said Town of Shrewsbury, and County of Salop, respectively: And 'whereas the Troops necessary for the Guard of such Prisoners cannot with Safety be removed during the 'Time of such Election;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be necessary, during the Continuance of such Prisoners there, to remove from the said Building or Prison the Troops necessary for a proper Guard of such Prisoners; and that it shall be lawful for one Relief of the said Guard to come, and return from thence, once in every twenty-four Hours, for the Purpose of such Relief during any Election to be held for the said County or Town respectively; any Thing in the said Act of the eighth Year of his late Majesty King George the Second to the contrary notwithstanding.

Whilst Prisoners of War shall remain near Shrewsbury, a proper Number of Troops shall be permitted to guard them, notwithstanding any Election in the said Town;

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That not more than in the Proportion of three Soldiers to every twenty Prisoners shall be suffered to remain as a Guard at the said Building during any such Election; and that the Soldiers necessary for the Relief of the said Guard shall be quartered and remain, during such Election, in the Villages on the South-west Side of the said River Severn, and distant at least two Miles from the said respective Places of Election; and that none of the said Troops shall, during the Time aforesaid, come to that Side of the said River where such Elections respectively have been usually held, nor within any Part of what is known and reputed to be the Voting Liberty of the said Town.

Provided that not more than three Soldiers be allowed to every twenty Prisoners.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in Force until the End of the next Session of Parliament.

Continuance of this Act.

CAP. LI.

An Act for repealing an Act, made in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Duties on Licences to be taken out by all Persons letting Horses to Hire, for travelling in the Manner therein mentioned; and certain Duties on all Horses let to Hire for the Purposes of travelling Post, and by Time; and upon certain Carriages therein mentioned; and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to 'his Majesty certain Duties on Licences to be taken out by all Persons letting Horses to Hire for travelling 'in the Manner therein mentioned; and certain Duties on all Horses let to Hire for the Purposes of travelling 'Post, and by Time; and upon certain Carriages therein mentioned; it was enacted, That, from and after 'the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, there should be raised, levied, col- 'lected, and paid, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his 'Heirs and Successors, the several Rates and Duties following; (that is to say), That every Postmaster, 'Innkeeper, or other Person, in Great Britain, who should let to Hire any Horse for the Purpose of tra- 'velling Post by the Mile, or from Stage to Stage, or, being a Person usually letting Horses to Hire, 'should let to Hire for a Day, or any less Period of Time, any Horse for drawing any Coach, Chariot, 'or Chaise, or any other Carriage used in travelling Post, should yield and pay annually unto his Majesty, 'his Heirs and Successors, the Sum of five Shillings for a Licence for that Purpose; that for and in respect 'of every Horse hired by the Mile or Stage to be used in travelling Post, in Great Britain, there should 'be charged a Duty of one Penny for every Mile such Horse should be hired to travel Post; and that for 'and in respect of every Horse hired for a Day, or any less Period of Time, for drawing on a Post or other 'public Road, any Coach, Chariot, or Chaise, or any other Carriage used in travelling Post, there should 'be charged, if the Distance should be then ascertained, the Sum of one Penny per Mile; and if the 'Distance should not then be ascertained, there should be charged the Sum of twelve Pence for and in re- 'spect of each Horse so hired; such Duty to be paid by the Person or Persons by whom such Horse should 'be hired; that every Person who should keep any Four-wheeled Chaise, or other Machine, commonly 'called A Diligence or Post-coach, or by what Name soever such Carriages then were, or thereafter should 'be called or known, for the Purpose of conveying in the Inside thereof any Number of Passengers, not 'exceeding four, for Hire, to and from Stage to Stage, or from Place to Place, should yield and pay an- 'nually unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the Sum of five Shillings for a Licence for that Pur- 'pose; that every Four-wheeled Chaise, or other Machine, commonly called A Diligence or Post-coach, or 'by what Name soever such Carriages then were, or thereafter should be called or known, for the Pur'pose

'pose of conveying in the Inside thereof any Number of Passengers, not exceeding four, for Hire, to and 'from Stage to Stage, or from Place to Place, should be charged with a Duty of one Halfpenny per 'Mile such Carriage shall travel, to be paid by the Owners thereof: And whereas the Payment of the 'said Rates and Duties hath been greatly evaded; we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the 'Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, do therefore think, that it will be for the Advan-'tage of the Public to repeal the present Rates and Duties, and to grant unto your Majesty the several 'new Rates and Duties herein-after mentioned, to be applied to the Uses and Purposes which the said 'Rates and Duties granted by the above-mentioned Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, are now 'applicable unto; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

After Aug. 1, 1780, the Duties granted by the recited Act shall be repealed:

That, from and after the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, the Rates and Duties granted by an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Duties on Licences to be taken out by all Persons letting Horses to Hire, for travelling in the Manner therein mentioned; and certain Duties on all Horses let to Hire for the Purposes of travelling Post, and by Time; and upon certain Carriages therein mentioned, shall cease, determine, and be no longer paid and payable; except only such Monies as shall have been received, or shall be payable, by the several Postmasters, Innkeepers, and other Persons, for and on Account of the said Rates and Duties, at any Time on or before the said first Day of August, and which shall be unaccounted for and unpaid by them to the several Collectors appointed by virtue of the said Act to receive the same, and the several Bonds given, and Licences granted, in pursuance of the said Act.

and instead thereof, the following Duties shall be paid to his Majesty; viz.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of August, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the several Rates and Duties following; (that is to say), That every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, in Great Britain, who shall let to Hire any Horse for the Purpose of travelling Post by the Mile, or from Stage to Stage, or, being a Person usually letting Horses to Hire, shall let to Hire for a Day, or any less Period of Time, any Horse for drawing any Coach, Berlin, Landau, Chariot, Calash with four Wheels, Chaise-marine, Chaise with four Wheels, or any Calash, Chaise, or Chair, with two Wheels, or any other Carriage used in travelling Post, or otherwise, by whatsoever Name such Carriages now are, or hereafter may be called or known, for or in respect whereof any Rate or Duty, Rates or Duties, under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise for the Time being, now is or are made payable by any Statute or Statutes heretofore made, and now in Force, shall yield and pay annually unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the Sum of five Shillings for a Licence for that Purpose; that for and in respect of every Horse hired by the Mile or Stage to be used in travelling Post, in Great Britain, there be charged a Duty of one Penny for every Mile such Horse shall be hired to travel Post; and that for and in respect of every Horse hired for a Day, or any less Period of Time, for drawing, on a Post or other public Road, any Coach, Berlin, Landau, Chariot, Calash with four Wheels, Chaise-marine, Chaise with four Wheels, or any Calash, Chaise, or Chair, with two Wheels, or any other Carriage used in travelling Post, or otherwise, by whatsoever Name such Carriages now are, or hereafter may be called or known, for or in respect whereof any Rate or Duty, Rates or Duties, under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise for the Time being, now is or are made payable by any Statute or Statutes heretofore made, and now in Force, there shall be charged, if the Distance shall be then ascertained, the Sum of one Penny per Mile, and if the Distance shall not then be ascertained, there shall be charged the Sum of one Shilling and six Pence for and in respect of each Horse so hired; such Duty to be paid by the Person or Persons by whom such Horse shall be so hired; that every Person who shall keep any Four-wheeled Chaise, or other Machine, commonly called A Diligence or Post-coach, or by what Name soever such Carriages now are, or hereafter shall be called or known, for the Purpose of conveying in the Inside thereof any Number of Passengers not exceeding four, for Hire, to and from Stage to Stage, or from Place to Place; or who shall keep any Coach, Berlin, Landau, Chariot, Calash with four Wheels, Chaise-marine, Chaise with four Wheels, or other Carriage, by what Name soever the same now is, or hereafter shall be called or known, to be employed as Public Stage-coaches or Carriages, for the Purpose of conveying Passengers for Hire to and from different Places in the Kingdom of Great Britain, shall yield and pay annually unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the Sum of five Shillings for a Licence for that Purpose; and that every Four-wheeled Chaise, or other Machine, commonly called A Diligence or Post-coach, or by what Name soever such Carriages now are or hereafter shall be called or known, for the Purpose of conveying in the Inside thereof any Number of Passengers, not exceeding four, for Hire, to and from Stage to Stage, or from Place to Place; and that every Coach, Berlin, Landau, Chariot, Calash with four Wheels, Chaise-marine, Chaise with four Wheels, or other Carriage, by what Name soever the same now is, or hereafter shall be called or known, to be employed as Public Stage-coaches or Carriages, for the Purpose of conveying Passengers for Hire to and from different Places in the Kingdom of Great Britain, shall be, and the same is hereby charged with a Duty of one Half-penny for every Mile such Carriage or Carriages as aforesaid shall travel, to be paid by the Owner or Owners thereof respectively: And for the better and more effectual raising, levying, collecting, and paying, the said Rates and Duties herein-before granted, the same shall be under the Government, Care, and Management, of the Commissioners for the Time being appointed to manage the Duties payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and charged on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper; who, or the major Part of them, are hereby required and impowered to appoint and employ such Officers under them for that Purpose, and to allow such Salaries and incident Charges, as shall be necessary; and to provide and use such Marks or Stamps as they shall think fit; and to repair, renew, or alter, the same, from Time to Time, as there shall be Occasion; and to do all other Acts, Matters, and Things,

Every Person hiring Horses to travel Post, to pay, for each Horse, 1d. per Mile; or 1s. 6d. per Day, where the Distance shall not be ascertained:

Every Person keeping a Diligence, Post-coach, or other Four-wheeled Carriage, for carrying only four Inside Passengers, for Hire, or any Stage-coach, &c shall pay annually 5s. for a Licence; and shall also pay one Half-penny for every Mile such Carriage shall travel.

The said Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners for the Stamp duties.

necessary

necessary to be done for putting this Act in Execution, with relation to the said Rates and Duties hereby granted, in the like, and in as full and ample Manner as they, or the major Part of them, are authorised to put in Execution any of the Laws now in being concerning stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper.

Penalty on Persons letting out Horses to travel Post, &c. without a Licence.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, no Person whatsoever, required by this Act to be licensed, shall, unless he or she be authorised and enabled in the Manner herein after prescribed, let out any Horse for Hire, either by the Mile or Stage, or to draw any Coach, Berlin, Landau, Chariot, Calash with four Wheels, Chaise-marine, Chaise with four Wheels, or any Calash, Chaise, or Chair, with two Wheels, or any other Carriage used in travelling Post, or otherwise, by whatsoever Names such Carriages now are, or hereafter may be called or known, upon which any Rate or Duty, Rates or Duties, under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise for the Time being, is or are reserved or made payable, for a Day, or any less Period of Time, upon Pain to forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered and applied as herein-after is directed.

Any two Commissioners of the Stamp-duties, or Person authorised by them, may grant Licences for letting out Horses to Hire.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, any two or more of his Majesty's Commissioners appointed for managing the Duties arising by Stamps on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or some Person duly authorised by them, shall grant Licences to such Persons who shall apply for the same, to let out Horses for Hire, in Manner aforesaid, in any City, Town, or other Place, within Great Britain, for the Space of one Year, to commence from the said first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, upon all Licences to be granted on or before that Day, and upon Licences to be first granted to any Person or Persons after the said first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, to commence from the Day of the Date of every such Licence; and all and every Person or Persons who shall take out such Licence for letting out Horses for Hire in Manner aforesaid, shall take out a fresh Licence for another Year ten Days at the least before the Expiration of that Year for which he, she, or they shall be so licensed, if he, she, or they shall continue to let out Horses for Hire in Manner aforesaid, and shall in like Manner renew such Licence from Year to Year, paying down the respective Sums due for such Licences, as long as he, she, or they shall continue to let out Horses for Hire in Manner aforesaid.

No Person to keep more than one Inn, &c. for letting Horses, by virtue of one Licence.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person whatsoever, licensed or to be licensed by Authority of this Act, shall, by virtue of one Licence, keep more than one Inn, House, or other Place, for letting Horses for the Purposes aforesaid; but for each and every Inn, House, or other Place, which any Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, shall keep for the Purposes aforesaid, a separate and distinct Licence shall be taken out and paid for by such Postmaster, Innkeper, or other Person.

Licensed Innkeepers, &c. to cause certain Words to be painted on the Fronts of their Houses, &c. before they let Horses for Hire; on Penalty of 5*l*.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, so licensed to let Horses as herein-before mentioned, shall cause the Words (Licensed to let Post-horses) to be painted or written, in legible Characters, either on a Sign hung out, or in some visible Place in the Front of his, her, or their House, Stables, or Out-offices, at the respective Places at which he, she, or they let out Horses to Hire as aforesaid, to denote that such Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, is a Letter or Furnisher of Horses, and authorised to furnish Travellers with the same, pursuant to Law; and if any Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, so licensed as aforesaid, shall presume to let out Horses for Hire, as herein-before mentioned, without fixing or hanging out such Token as aforesaid, every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered and distributed as herein-after is directed.

Innkeepers, &c. who furnish Carriages to travel Post, shall affix their Names, and their Place of Abode, on some conspicuous Part thereof; on Penalty of 5*l*.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, so licensed as aforesaid, shall, if he, she, or they, furnish his, her, or their own Chaises, or other Carriages, at the same Time with such Horses let to Hire to travel Post as aforesaid, mark or paint, or cause to be marked or painted, on the outside Pannel of the Door, or on some conspicuous Part of the Chaise or other Carriage so furnished, his, her, or their Christian and Surname, and the Name of the City, Town, or Place, of his, her, or their Abode, in large and legible Characters, and continue the same thereupon so long as such Chaise or Carriage shall be so used; and if any Person or Persons shall neglect the same, or mark or paint, or cause to be marked or painted, any false or fictitious Name, or Place of Abode, on such Chaise or other Carriage, he or she shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of five Pounds.

Innkeepers, &c. who furnish Carriages to travel for a Day, or less Period of Time, shall affix upon some conspicuous Part thereof, a Brass or Tin Plate, containing their Names and Places of Abode.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person so licensed as aforesaid, if he, she, or they furnish his, her, or their own Coaches, Berlins, Landaus, Chariots, Calashes with four Wheels, Chaise-marine, Chaise with four Wheels, or any Calash, Chaise, or Chair, with two Wheels, or other Carriage as aforesaid, at the same Time with such Horses let to Hire, for a Day or less Period of Time, for drawing on a Post or other public Road, where such Carriages shall have a Box or other outside Seat for the Driver thereof, shall affix upon some conspicuous Part of the Foot-board, or other Part of such Box or Seat, a Brass or Tin Plate, upon which there shall be marked or engraved the Christian and Surname of every such Owner or Owners, and the Name of the City, Town, or Place, of his, her, or their Abode, in large and legible Characters, and continue the same thereon, and replace the same as often as Occasion shall require, during the Time such Coach or other Carriage as aforesaid shall be so used; and where such Carriages so furnished as aforesaid shall not have a Box or other outside Seat for the Driver thereof, shall affix upon a conspicuous Part of the Pole, Shaft, or Splinter-bar of every such Chaise or other Carriage as aforesaid, a Brass or Tin Plate, upon which there shall be marked or engraved the Christian and Surname of every such Owner and Owners, together with the Name of the City, Town, or Place, of his, her, or their Abode, in large and legible Characters, and continue the same thereon, and replace the same as often as Occasion shall require, during during the Time any such Chaise or other Carriage as aforesaid shall be so used: And if any Person or Persons shall omit or neglect so to do, or mark or engrave, or cause to be marked or engraved, any false or fictitious Name or Place of Abode, on any such Plate so to be affixed on any such Coach, Berlin, Landau, Chariot, Chaise, or other Carriage as aforesaid, he, she, or they shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of five Pounds.

Commissioners of the Stamp-duties are to deliver, to every Person taking out a Licence, printed or written Papers:

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners appointed for managing the Duties arising by Stamps on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, shall, at the Time of issuing such Licence as aforesaid, deliver, or cause to be delivered, to every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, so to be licensed, printed or written Papers (intituled Stamp-Office Weekly Account); in which shall be inserted the Day of the Week, and Blanks left for the Number of Horses and Miles, and for the Day of the Month, and the Names of the Postillions or Drivers employed, to be filled up as herein-after directed, according to the following Form, or such other Form as the said Commissioners shall judge convenient keeping such Accounts:

And shall also deliver, or cause to be delivered, a Number of Tickets, on which shall be printed or written the Words (Stamp Office), and also the Word (Horses), and 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, or 6, in Figures, as the Tickets may be intended to denote the Numbers; and likewise the Word (Miles), except where the Horses are hired for a Day, or any less Period of Time, and then, instead of the Word (Miles), the Words (For a Day) shall be inserted, and also the Amount of the Duty, at and after the Rate of one Shilling and six Pence for each Horse, according to the Number of Horses expressed by Figures on such Ticket, and shall take especial Care that all Persons so licensed shall be sufficiently furnished with such Account and Tickets; and in case any Officer employed in the Execution of this Act, in relation to the said Rates and Duties, shall refuse or neglect to do or perform any Matter or Thing by this Act required or directed to be done or performed by him, whereby any of his Majesty's Subjects shall or may sustain any Damage whatsoever, such Officer so offending shall be liable, in any Action to be founded on this Statute, to answer to the Party grieved all such Damages, with Treble Costs of Suit.

Penalty on Officers making Default.

Postmasters, &c. on receiving their first Licence, to give Security for the Redelivery of Tickets unaccounted for, &c.

X. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That each and every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, so licensed to let Horses for the Purposes aforesaid, shall, at the Time of receiving his, her, or their first Licence, give Security, by Bond, to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the Sum of fifty Pounds, with a Condition that he, she, or they will, whenever thereunto required, redeliver, or cause to be redelivered, the Stamp-office Tickets which he, she, or they may have received, and that may remain unaccounted for by him, her, or them; and that he, she, or they will also deliver to the Person or Persons properly authorised, by the Commissioners appointed for managing the Duties arising by Stamps on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, to inspect the same (and to receive the Money due thereon), the Stamp-office Account so delivered to him, her, or them, as aforesaid, faithfully made out, signed, and attested, as herein-after directed, and make Payment of all such Sum and Sums of Money as shall be due and payable to his Majesty, in pursuance of, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and also truly and faithfully to observe and perform all the Directions, Matters, and Things herein contained, on his, her, or their Behalf, to be observed and performed; and in case of the Non-performance or Breach of such Condition, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or the Persons so appointed by them, to cause each and every such Bond to be prosecuted according to Law; and in case of Judgment against the Defendant, the said Commissioners may, if they shall think fit, refuse to grant to such Person, against whom such Judgment shall be obtained, any Licence to let Horses as aforesaid in future.

Postmasters, &c. letting out Horses to travel Post, shall receive, for the Use of his Majesty, of the Persons hiring the same, 1d. for every Mile each Horse is to travel; and shall deliver to them Stamp-Office Tickets properly filled up. Penalty on Neglect thereof.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, licensed as aforesaid, who shall let Horses to Hire by the Mile or Stage, to be used in travelling Post, shall, by themselves or Servants, previous to the using such Horse or Horses, ask, demand, and receive, for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of and from the Person or Persons hiring the same, the Sum of one Penny per Mile, for each Mile such Horse shall be so hired to travel, at and after the Rate or Number of Miles which he, she, or they shall charge such Traveller or Travellers for the Stage or Distance such Horse may be hired to go; and shall, at the same Time he or she receives Payment of the Duty for such Horse or Horses, deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Person or Persons hiring such Horse or Horses, one or more of the Stamp-office Tickets herein-before mentioned, as Occasion shall require, and to which such Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, shall add, or cause to be added, if an Innkeeper, the Name of his Sign or House, if not an Innkeeper, his or her Name; and he shall also insert the Name of the City, Town, or Place, where such licensed Person resides; and, in Words or Figures, the Month and Day of the Month, and the Number of Miles for which such Horse or Horses are so hired: And if any Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, under Pretence of there not being any Turnpike upon the Road through which he may be hired to go, or under any other Pretence whatsoever, shall neglect to ask, demand, and receive, the said Duty of one Penny per Mile from such Person or Persons hiring such Horse or Horses, or shall neglect or refuse to deliver the Ticket or Tickets, filled up as herein-before directed, to such Person or Persons so hiring the Horses as aforesaid, such Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds; and moreover, in case of not receiving the said Rate or Duty, be chargeable therewith to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the same Manner as if he, she, or they, had actually received the same.

Travellers to deliver their Tickets at the first Turnpike they shall pass through. Penalty on Neglect.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Traveller or Travellers, to whom the Tickets, whereon shall be expressed the Number of Miles, shall be delivered as aforesaid, if they shall pass through any Turnpike, shall, at the first Turnpike through which he, she, or they shall pass, deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Toll-gate Keeper there, the Ticket or Tickets so given to him, her, or them, at the Place where he, she, or they hired such Horse or Horses, which the said Toll-gatherer is hereby directed to receive and file; and if any Traveller or Travellers so going Post as aforesaid, shall have neglected to take such Ticket or Tickets, or shall not deliver, or cause the same to be delivered, he, she, or they shall, before such Horses be permitted to pass through such Toll-gate, pay for every Horse hired and used by such Traveller or Travellers, the Sum of one Shilling and six Pence, which the Gate-keeper is hereby authorised to ask and demand, and not permit such Horse or Horses to pass till he, she, or they shall have paid the same, or produced such Ticket or Tickets as aforesaid.

Postmasters, &c. letting out Horses to travel by the Day, &c. shall receive, for the Use of his Majesty, of the Persons hiring them, 1d. for every Mile each Horse is to travel; or 1s. 6d. for each Horse, where the Distance shall not be ascertained; and shall deliver to them Stamp-office Tickets properly filled up. Penalty on Postmasters, &c. for Neglect.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, so licensed as aforesaid, who shall let to Hire any Horse or Horses by the Day, or less Period of Time, as aforesaid, shall, by themselves or Servants, previous to such Horse or Horses being used, ask, demand, and receive, for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of and from the Person or Persons hiring the same, the Sum of one Penny per Mile for each Mile such Horse or Horses shall be so hired to go, where the Distance shall be ascertained, and where the Distance shall not be ascertained, then the Sum of one Shilling and six Pence for each Horse so hired, previous to such Horse or Horses being used; and shall, at the same Time, deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Person or Persons so hiring such Horse or Horses, one or more of the Stamp-office Tickets herein-before mentioned, with the Words (For a Day) inserted thereon, as Occasion shall require; and to which every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, shall add, or cause to be added, if an Innkeeper, the Name of his Sign or House, if not an Innkeeper, his or her Name, and he shall also insert the Name of the City, Town, or Place, where such licensed Person resides, and, in Words or Figures, the Month, and Day of the Month; and if any Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, shall neglect to ask, demand, and receive the said Duty of one Penny per Mile, or one Shilling and six Pence for each Horse, as the Case shall happen to be, from such Person or Persons hiring the same, or shall neglect or refuse to deliver the Ticket or Tickets so filled up as aforesaid, such Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds, and moreover, in case of not receiving the said Rate or Duty, be chargeable therewith to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the same Manner as if he, she, or they had actually received the same.

Day-tickets to be delivered at the first Turnpike;

in Return for which the Gate Keeper shall give an Exchange Ticket, which shall be shewn at every Turnpike during that Day.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person or Persons to whom such Day-ticket, as aforesaid, shall be delivered, if he, she, or they shall pass through any Turnpike in the Course of the Day for which such Ticket shall be given, shall, at the first Turnpike through which he, she, or they shall pass, deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Toll-gate Keeper there the Day-ticket or Tickets so given to him, her, or them, at the Place where he, she, or they hired such Horse or Horses, which the said Toll-gate Keeper is hereby directed to receive and file; and in return for such Day-ticket or Tickets, every such Person or Persons shall receive, from the Toll-gate Keeper, a Ticket (called An Exchange Ticket), to be supplied from the Stamp-office, which shall contain the Name of the County in which the Turnpike shall be, and the Words (Received Day-ticket); and also the Number of Horses in the Figures expressed in such Day ticket, together with the Name of the City, Town, or Place, at which such Day-ticket was given, and some Mark or Number, denoting the particular Day on which such Exchange Ticket was issued, in printed or written Letters or Figures; which said Exchange Ticket the said Toll-gatherer is hereby directed to deliver to such Person or Persons gratis, in return for such Day-ticket so left with him as aforesaid; and which said Exchange Ticket so delivered shall be shewn by such Person or Persons at every Turnpike through which he, she, or they shall afterwards on that Day pass with with such Horse or Horses, for which such Day-ticket shall have been given: And if any Person or Persons, to whom such Day-ticket or Tickets shall be delivered as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to leave the same at such first Turnpike, as aforesaid, or shall refuse to shew the Ticket, so given to him in Exchange, at every Turnpike through which he, she, or they shall on that Day pass, as aforesaid, he, she, or they shall pay, for every Horse then used by him, her, or them, the Sum of one Shilling and six Pence before such Horse or Horses shall pass through such Turnpike, and the Gate-keeper or Gate-keepers thereof is and are hereby authorised to ask, demand, and retain the same to his, her, or their own Use; and where the Name of the Owner of the Carriage shall be marked on the Foot-board or Seat, or Pole, Shaft, or Splinter-bar, as herein-before is directed to be done, where the Carriage is let out to Hire at the same Time with the Horses, then such Gate-keeper or Gate-keepers shall not permit such Horse or Horses to pass through until such Traveller shall have paid the same, or left such Day-ticket or Tickets, or shall have produced and shewn such Exchange Ticket, as aforesaid.

Penalty on taking off the before mentioned Brass or Tin Plate, in order to evade Payment of the Duty; and on Drivers of Carriages passing through any Turnpike without such Plate.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall take off, or cause to be taken off, the Brass or Tin Plate, herein-before directed to be affixed on Carriages used as herein-before mentioned, with an Intent to evade the Payment of the Duty, or the Sum of one Shilling and six Pence for each Horse to be paid at the Turnpike, as herein-before is directed; every such Person or Persons so offending, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered and applied in the same Manner as the other Penalties in this Act are directed to be recovered and applied.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Carriage, upon which any Brass or Tin Plate is directed to be affixed as aforesaid, shall pass through any Turnpike without having such Brass or Tin Plate then affixed thereon, in the Manner herein-before directed, the Driver or Drivers of every such Carriage shall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings, to be recovered and applied in the Manner herein-after appointed.

Description of the Certificates to be delivered to Travellers who shall hire Horses for two Days, or more.

'XVII. And, in order to prevent any Obstruction or Inconvenience to Travellers, where Horses shall 'be let to Hire for two Days, or more,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, when he shall let to Hire for two Days, or a longer Space of Time, any Horses for drawing a Carriage on any Post or public Road, shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Person travelling in such Carriage, or to the Driver thereof, a Note or Certificate, to be supplied from the Stamp-office, on which shall be engraved or printed (Hired for two or more Days), and to which such Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, shall add the Day of the Month, and the Name and Place of his Abode; and the Driver of such Carriage shall, at every Turnpike through which he shall pass, shew to the Toll-gatherer there the Note or Certificate so given to him as aforesaid: And if any Person or Persons so hiring such Horses for the Purposes aforesaid, shall have neglected to take such Note or Certificate as above specified, or shall refuse to shew the same at the several Turnpikes through which he, she, or they shall pass, such Traveller or Travellers shall pay, for every Horse then used by him, her, or them, the Sum of one Shilling and six Pence, before such Horses be permitted to pass such Toll-gate, which the said Toll-gate Keeper is hereby authorised to ask, demand, and receive, and to retain to his own Use, and not to permit such Horses to pass till such Travellers shall have paid the same, or produced such Note or Certificate as aforesaid; and if any Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, shall, in such Note or Certificate, insert any false or fictitious Name, or Place of his, her, or their Abode, or shall, in letting out such Horses for the Purposes aforesaid, by any Device or Collusion pretend to hire for a longer Space of Time, with an Intent to evade the Duty hereby imposed, such Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds; and the said Commissioners shall, if they think fit, after Conviction of such Offender, refuse to grant such Offender any Licence in future.

If Travellers neglect to take such Certificates, &c. they shall pay 1s. 6d. for each Horse, which the Gate-keeper may retain to his own Use.

Penalty on Postmasters, &c. delivering false Certificates, &c.

Horses hired for any less Time than two Days, shall be deemed to be hired for one Day.

XVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That every Horse, hired for the Purpose of drawing any Carriage as aforesaid, for any less Period of Time than two complete Days, shall be deemed, for the Purposes of this Act, to be hired for a Day, and shall be subject to all the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as Horses hired for a Day, or less Period of Time, for drawing such Carriages as aforesaid, are by this Act made liable and subject to.

Penalty on Gate-keepers for Neglect of Duty.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Toll-gate Keeper who shall have received any of the Day-tickets herein-before mentioned, and shall refuse to give any Traveller or Travellers, gratis, the Ticket hereby directed to be given in Exchange, or who shall deliver the Exchange Ticket without having received in lieu thereof the Stamp-office Day-Ticket, as herein-before mentioned, or who shall make, or permit or suffer to be made, any Alteration in any of the Tickets hereby directed to be filed by him or her, after such Tickets shall have come to his or her Custody, or shall deliver any of the Tickets, directed to be received and filed by him or her, to any Person or Persons other than the Person or Persons duly authorised, as herein-after mentioned, to receive the same, he or she shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings, to be recovered as herein-after is directed.

berty of Westminster, shall, the first Tuesday or Wednesday in every Month, and such other Person so licensed as aforesaid, residing within five Miles of the City of London or Liberty of Westminster, or within the Bills of Mortality, shall, the first Thursday or Friday in every Month, or at such other Times as may be appointed by the said Commissioners, on public Notice given in the Gazette, bring in and deliver to the Commissioners, or to the Person or Persons appointed by them for the Purpose of receiving the same, at the Head Office, the Accounts herein-before directed, for the four Weeks ending on the Saturday preceding such Day of Delivery, and shall, within eight Days thereafter, pay such Sum and Sums of Money which shall appear to be due thereon to the Receiver-general for the Time being of the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, or to the proper Officer for the Time being for collecting the said Duties, for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, at the Head Office in Lincoln's Inn, or wherever else the same may be held, upon Pain of forfeiting ten Pounds for every Default in not delivering in such Account, and double the Amount of the Money so due and payable, from such Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, for the said Rates or Duties, for the Nonpayment thereof.

don or Westminster, or within five Miles thereof, or in the Bills of Mortality, shall deliver their Accounts at the Stamp-office, &c.

XXI. And it is hereby further enacted, That every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person so licensed as aforesaid, not residing within the Cities of London or Westminster, or within five Miles of the same, or within the Bills of Mortality, shall, at such Times and Places to be appointed for that Purpose, as hereinafter mentioned, produce and deliver the Accounts herein-before directed for the Weeks ending on the Saturday preceding such Delivery, and then unaccounted for, to the Person or Persons duly authorised and commissioned, under the Hands and Seals of three of the said Commissioners for managing the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, to receive such Accounts, and the Money due thereon, and at the same Time pay to such Person or Persons all Sum and Sums of Money which shall appear to be due upon such Accounts, under the Penalty of ten Pounds for every Default in not delivering such Accounts, and double the Amount of the Money due and payable from such Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, for the said Rates or Duties, for the Nonpayment thereof.

Where and when licensed Persons living in other Parts of the Kingdom shall deliver their Accounts, &c.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, so licensed as aforesaid, shall enter, or cause to be entered, in his weekly Account, the Tickets so issued by him, her, or them, on the Day in which the same shall be issued; and if any Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, shall date any of the Posting Tickets, or Day Tickets by him or her delivered, in any other Manner than as the same shall, at the Time of such Delivery, be entered in his or her weekly Account or Accounts, he, she, or they shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings; to be recovered and applied as herein-after is directed.

Postmasters, &c. to enter Tickets in their weekly Account on the Day they were issued.

XXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Ticket, delivered from the Stamp-office, that shall appear with the Number of Miles expressed therein, either in Words or Figures, shall be deemed a Ticket upon which the Duty has been received, and shall be accounted and paid for by the Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, according to such Number of Horses and Miles marked thereon, at and after the Rate aforesaid.

All Tickets having the Number of Miles expressed therein, shall be accordingly paid for by the Postmaster, &c.

XXIV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, so licensed as aforesaid, who shall be guilty of any wilful Concealment, or making false Accounts, or any other fraudulent Contrivance, Device, or Pretence whatsoever, with an Intent or Design to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of any of the Rates or Duties imposed by this Act, or any Part thereof, such Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds, to be recovered as herein-after directed; and the said Commissioners shall and may, if they shall so think fit, after Judgment obtained against such Offender, refuse to grant to such Offender any Licence in future.

Penalty on Postmasters, &c. who shall endeavour to defraud his Majesty of the Rates imposed by this Act.

'XXV. And, in order to prevent the evading the Payment of the Duties hereby granted, by permitting Carriages conveying Persons Post to be drawn by Horses which have paid the Duty for the Stage, under the Pretence of such Horses being upon the Return Home;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, who shall take the Hire for such Horses by the Mile, or from Stage to Stage, shall be considered as the Person to whom the Duties herein-before granted shall be paid, and shall be chargeable with and accountable for the same, as if such Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, was the actual Proprietor of such Horses, although the same may belong to, and be the Property of, any other licensed Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person.

Every Postmaster, &c. who shall take the Hire for Horses travelling Post, shall be accountable for the Duty.

'XXVI. And, in order to prevent evading the Payment of the Duties hereby granted upon Horses hired by the Mile or Stage, under the Pretence of the letting such Horses for a Day, or any less Period of Time,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, at whose Inn, House, or other Place, kept for letting Horses to Hire, any Traveller or Travellers shall change Horses, shall let to Hire any Horse or Horses, to such Traveller or Travellers, in any other Manner than by the Mile or Stage; and if any Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, shall act contrary hereto, he, she, or they shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered as herein-after mentioned.

No Postmaster, &c. at whose House any Traveller shall change Horses, shall let them any otherwise than by the Mile or Stage.

'XXVII. And, for the Encouragement of the Toll-gate Keepers to be attentive and vigilant in the Execution of this Act, and as a Compensation for their Trouble,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Toll-gate Keeper shall be, and is hereby authorised to demand and receive, from the Collector to whom he, she, or they shall deliver the Day Tickets and Posting Tickets, in the Manner herein-after directed and prescribed, the Sum of three Pence for every Pound Sterling which the Duties upon any such Ticket shall amount unto, and at and after that Rate for any less Sum than a Pound Sterling; and such Collector is hereby authorised to pay and allow the same accordingly; and that such Allowance of three Pence in the Pound shall be over and above the Allowance or Privilege hereby given to such Toll-gate Keepers of retaining the Money by him, her, or them, collected from such Traveller or Travellers, Toll-gate Keepers to be allowed 3 d. in the Pound for all Tickets they shall deliver to Collectors.

vellers, Person or Persons, who shall not, pursuant to this Act, have delivered the Tickets to such Toll-gate Keeper as aforesaid.

Where and when the Toll-gate Keepers shall bring the said Tickets.

XXVIII. Provided always nevertheless, and it is hereby enacted, That all and every Toll-gate Keeper shall, for the Compensation and Allowance aforesaid, bring, or cause to be brought, the Tickets hereinbefore mentioned by him or her received, if within five Miles of London, then to the Head Office there, or to such other Place within the Bills of Mortality as the Commissioners of the Stamp-duties shall appoint; and if beyond the Distance of five Miles from London, then to such Places, and at such Times, as the Collector appointed to collect such Duties shall require, and deliver up, or cause to be delivered up, such Tickets to the Receiver-general or Collector to be appointed as aforesaid.

Penalty on Toll-gate Keepers who shall not deliver up Tickets on Demand;

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Toll-gate Keeper who shall have received such Stamp-office Tickets as aforesaid, who shall not bring, or cause to be brought, such Tickets, at the Times and Places aforesaid, shall, upon Demand made at the Gate of such Turnpike, deliver such Tickets to the Collector to be appointed by the said Commissioners for managing the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, as aforesaid; and if any Toll-gate Keeper shall refuse to deliver up all and every such Stamp office Tickets, so received by him or her, upon such Demand as aforesaid, every Toll-gate Keeper shall, for each Ticket he or she shall so refuse to deliver up, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Shillings, to be recovered as herein-after is directed.

or who shall neglect to receive or to file any Tickets, as required by this Act.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Toll-gate Keeper shall neglect or refuse to receive from any Person or Persons any Ticket or Tickets, hereby directed to be delivered to such Toll-gate Keeper as aforesaid, or shall neglect or refuse to file the same, every such Toll-gate Keeper, so neglecting or refusing, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings, to be recovered, levied, and applied, in Manner herein-after directed.

Gate-keepers fraudulently accepting less than they are authorised to demand, forfeit 20s.

'XXXI. And, in order to prevent any collusive or fraudulent Practices in Toll-gate Keepers,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Toll-gate Keeper shall ask, demand, or receive, or agree to take or accept, any less Sum or Sums of Money than he or she is hereby authorised to ask, demand, and receive, and retain to his own Use, every such Toll-gate Keeper shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings, to be recovered and applied in the Manner herein-after appointed.

Where Postmasters, &c. residing out of the Bills of Mortality, are to attend and pass their Accounts.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, so licensed as aforesaid, not residing in the Cities of London and Westminster, nor within the Bills of Mortality, shall, at the Times and at the Places to be mentioned at the Foot of the first Licence granted to him, her, or them, when the same shall be delivered, and afterwards at the Foot of every Receipt which shall be given by the Collector for the Money paid in by him, her, or them, on Account of the said Duties, attend, and there deliver in and pass his Account, and pay the Duty received by him, her, or them, as aforesaid, to the Collector so appointed to collect the same: Provided that no such Person as aforesaid shall be compelled to travel for the Payment of the said Duties, or other Cause whatsoever touching or concerning the same, if he, she, or they live in a Market-town, out of the said Town, or if he, she, or they live out of a Market-town, then to no other Place than to the Market-town nearest to his, her, or their Habitation.

This Act not to extend to Horses used in Hackney-coaches, &c.

XXXIII. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Horses used in Hackney-coaches, licensed pursuant to several Acts of Parliament made for that Purpose, where the Horses drawing such Hackney-coaches shall be employed to go to no greater Distance than ten Miles from the Cities of London and Westminster, and the Suburbs thereof.

All Horses hired by the Mile or Stage, shall be deemed hired to travel Post.

XXXIV. And it is hereby further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That every Horse hired by the Mile or Stage, shall be deemed to be hired to travel Post, within the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, although the Person or Persons hiring the same do not go or travel several Stages upon a Post-road, or change Horses; and although, at the Stage or Place at or to which such Horse shall be hired, there shall not be any Post-house; and although there shall not be any Post settled or established on the Road, or any Part thereof, upon which such Horse shall be hired to go; any Thing herein-before contained, or any Law or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

On the Death of any licensed Postmaster, &c. his Executors, &c. shall not be liable to any Penalty for letting Horses to Hire, provided they take out a Licence within 30 Days after his Death.

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, licensed to let Horses in Manner aforesaid, shall die, it shall and may be lawful for his or her Executors, Administrators, or other Persons succeeding to such Inn, House, or other Place, to let Horses to Hire in Manner aforesaid, until such Time as such Person shall procure such Licence, and give such Security as herein-before directed, without being liable to the Penalty herein-before inflicted upon the Persons letting Horses for Hire without being licensed in that Behalf, provided that such Licence be taken out within thirty Days after the Death of such Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person; and such Person or Persons shall be subject to the same Rules, Regulations, and Charges, and liable to account, and to the Payment of the same Rates and Duties hereby imposed, as such Postmaster, Innkeeper, or other Person, was subject and liable to.

After Aug. 1, 1780. every Postmaster, &c. on delivering his Accounts, shall make Oath to the Truth thereof.

'XXXVI. And, for the more effectual taking an Account of the several Duties imposed by this Act, 'and preventing Frauds therein,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of August, every Postmaster, Innkeeper, and other Person, so licensed to let Horses as aforesaid, shall, at the respective Times of delivering their Accounts to the Commissioners, or other Person appointed by them to receive the same, at the Head Office, or to the Collector or Collectors authorised by the said Commissioners to receive the same, and the Money due therein, make Oath, or being one of the People called Quakers, make and subscribe a solemn Affirmation, before such Commissioners, or other Person appointed as aforesaid, or Collector or Collectors, who are hereby respectively authorised and impowered powered to administer such Oath and Affirmation, to the Truth of the Accounts then delivered, in the Form following:

'I A. B. do swear, (or affirm, as the Case may require), That the several weekly Accounts now by me delivered of the Duties arising upon Horses, which I have let for the Purpose of travelling Post, or otherwise, from the Day of to the Day of as far as the same have been entered and kept by me, are fair, just, and true Accounts; and as far as they have been entered and kept by any other Person or Persons, I verily believe to be true. The Oath.

'So help me GOD.'

XXXVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, no Person who shall keep any four-wheeled Chaise, or other Machine, commonly called A Diligence or Post-coach, or by what Name soever such Carriage or Carriages now are, or hereafter shall be called or known, for the Purpose of conveying in the Inside thereof any Number of Passengers, not exceeding four, for Hire, from Stage to Stage, or from Place to Place, or who shall keep any Coach, Berlin, Landau, Chariot, Calash with four Wheels, Chaise-marine, Chaise with four Wheels, or other Machine, by what Name soever the same now is, or hereafter shall be called or known, to be employed as public Stage-Coaches or Carriages, for the Purpose of conveying Passengers, for Hire, to and from different Places within the Kingdom of Great Britain, shall let out the same for such Purpose, without having first obtained a Licence under the Hands of two of the said Commissioners for managing the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, or some Person duly authorised by them, upon Pain to forfeit, for every Time such Diligence, or other Machine, shall be so used, the Sum of five Pounds, to be recovered and applied as herein-after is directed. No Person shall let out for Hire any Diligence, or Post-coach, &c. without a Licence, on Penalty of 5*l.* for each Offence.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, any two or more of his Majesty's Commissioners appointed for managing the Duties arising by Stamps on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, or some Person duly authorised by them, shall grant Licences, under their Hands and Seals, to any Person or Persons who shall apply for the same, to let out for Hire any such Diligence, Coach, or other Carriage, directed to be licensed by virtue of this Act, for the Space of one Year, to commence from the first Day of August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, upon all Licences to be granted on or before that Day; and upon Licences, to be first granted to any Person or Persons after the said first Day of August, to commence from the Day of the Date of such Licences; which said Licence shall be renewed at least ten Days previous to the Expiration of the Year for which it was granted; and if the Person or Persons so licensed shall continue to let out for Hire such Diligence, or other Machine, Coach, or other Carriage, hereby directed to be licensed, he, she, or they shall, in the same Manner, renew such Licence from Year to Year, paying down the respective Sums due for such Licence, and so yearly and every Year, as long as he, she, or they shall continue to let out such Diligence, or other Machine, for the Purpose aforesaid. Commissioners of Stamp-duties to grant such Licences to all Persons who shall apply for them. Licences to be renewed ten Days previous to the Expiration, &c.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons, so licensed to let out Diligences, Coaches, or other Carriages, hereby directed to be licensed, shall, by virtue of one Licence, keep more than one Diligence, Coach, or other Carriage, for the Purposes aforesaid. Only one Diligence, &c. to be kept by virtue of one Licence.

XL. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, so licensed to use any Diligence, or other Machine, for the Purpose of conveying in the Inside thereof any Number of Passengers, not exceeding four, as aforesaid, or any Coach or Coaches, Carriage or Carriages, to be employed as public Stage-coaches as aforesaid, shall yield and pay to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the Sum of one Halfpenny for every Mile every such Diligence, Machine, Coach or Coaches, or other Carriage or Carriages, shall be so used or travel as aforesaid. All licensed Persons to pay one Halfpenny for every Mile their Diligence, &c. shall travel;

XLI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person or Persons, so licensed to use such Diligence or Machine as aforesaid, or any Coach or Coaches, or other Carriage or Carriages, to be employed as public Stage-coaches as aforesaid, shall, at the Time of receiving such Licence, declare from what Place and to what Place such Diligence or Machine, Coach or Coaches, or other Carriage or Carriages, hereby directed to be licensed, is intended to be used, distinguishing the Distance or Number of Miles between the two extreme Towns or other Places such Diligence, Coach or Coaches, or other Carriage or Carriages, is to go, and the Number of Journies each such Diligence, Coach or Coaches, or other Carriage or Carriages, is so intended to be used, either in the Day, or in the Week, as the Case may happen to be, that the same may be inserted in such Licence; and all and every Person or Persons so licensed for such Purpose as aforesaid, shall give Security, by Bond, to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in the Sum of twenty Pounds, with a Condition for the faithful accounting for and paying such Sums as may be due for the Journies such Diligence, Coach or Coaches, or other Carriage or Carriages, may have so made. and shall declare, when they receive their Licence, to and from what Places it is intended to be used, and how often.

XLII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Diligences, Coaches, or other Carriages, directed to be licensed by virtue of this Act, that shall go from London or Westminster to any Place in the Country, or that shall come from the Country to any Place in London or Westminster, shall be licensed by the Commissioners, or some Person authorised by them, at the Head Office in Lincoln's Inn, or wherever else the same may be held. All Diligences, &c. going to or from London or Westminster, shall be licensed at the Stamp-office.

'XLIII. And, in regard it may be difficult to ascertain the Number of Times such licensed Diligences, or other Carriages, to be employed for the Purpose of carrying any Number of Passengers, not exceeding four, making short Stages, may go in a Day,' it is hereby provided and enacted, That the Commissioners for managing the Stamp-duties, or the major Part of them, or such Officers as they shall appoint in that Behalf, shall and may, and they are hereby impowered to make such Allowances, as shall appear to be just, Discretionary Powers vested in Commissioners relative to Diligences, &c. passing and repaſſing within 12 Miles of London,

Poſtmaſters, &c. to be allowed 3d. in the Pound out of the Monies to be accounted for and paid by them.

XLVI. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Receiver-general at the Head Office, and the ſaid other Collectors duly appointed to receive the Duties hereby impoſed, ſhall make an Allowance to the ſeveral Poſtmaſters, Innkeepers, and other Perſons, licenſed by virtue of this Act to let Horſes for Hire, by the Mile, Stage, or Day, for all Monies by them paid on account of the Duties by this Act impoſed on Horſes ſo hired as aforeſaid; and they ſhall be intitled reſpectively to deduct for their own Uſe, at and after the Rate of three Pence in the Pound, out of the Monies by them regularly accounted for and paid to ſuch Receiver-general or other Collector, according to the Directions herein-before contained.

Penalty on forging any Ticket, or uttering the ſame.

XLVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon ſhall falſely make, forge, or counterfeit, or cauſe or procure to be falſely made, forged, or counterfeited, or wilfully act or aſſiſt in the falſe making, forging, or counterfeiting, any Ticket, by this Act authoriſed or directed to be uſed, with an Intent to defraud his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, of any of the ſaid Duties; or ſhall utter or publiſh as true any falſe, forged, or counterfeited Ticket, with an Intent to defraud his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, of any of the ſaid Duties; every Perſon ſo offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be levied and applied as herein-before directed and declared.

Application of Penalties, if ſued for within three Months.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all pecuniary Penalties hereby impoſed, ſhall be divided and diſtributed (if ſued for within the Space of three Calendar Months from the Time of any ſuch Penalty being incurred) in Manner following; one Moiety thereof to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof, with full Coſts of Suit, to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall inform and ſue for the ſame.

Pecuniary Penalties amounting to 20 l. where to be ſued for.

XLIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch pecuniary Penalties, which ſhall amount to the Sum of twenty Pounds or more, ſhall be ſued for in any of his Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, for Offences committed in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, and in his Majeſty's Court of Seſſions, Court of Juſticiary, or Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for Offences committed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, ſhall be allowed.

All Penalties, not ſued for within three Months, to belong to his Majeſty.

L. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Diviſion or Diſtribution of the Penalties as aforeſaid ſhall be, and is hereby confined and reſtricted to the proſecuting for the ſame within the Time herein-before for that Purpoſe limited; and that in Default of ſuch Proſecution within the Time aforeſaid, no Informer or Informers ſhall have or be intitled to any Part or Share of ſuch Penalties, but that the whole thereof ſhall belong to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and ſhall be recoverable in Manner aforeſaid; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Any Juſtice may determine any Offence againſt

LI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Juſtice of the Peace, reſiding near the Place where the Offence ſhall be committed, to hear and determine any Offence against this Act, which subjects the Offender to any pecuniary Penalty not amounting to twenty Pounds; which said Justice of the Peace is hereby authorised and required, upon any Information exhibited, or Complaint made, in that Behalf, to summon the Party accused, and also the Witnesses on either Side, and shall examine into the Matter of Fact; and upon due Proof made thereof, either by the voluntary Confession of the Party, or by Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, to give Judgment or Sentence for the Penalty or Forfeiture, according as in and by this Act is directed, and to award and issue out his Warrants, under his Hand and Seal, for the levying any pecuniary Penalties or Forfeitures so adjudged, on the Goods of the Offender, and to cause Sale to be made thereof, in case they shall not be redeemed within six Days, rendering to the Party the Overplus (if any); and where the Goods of such Offender cannot be found sufficient to answer the Penalty, to commit such Offender to Prison, there to remain for the Space of three Months, unless such pecuniary Penalty shall be sooner paid and satisfied; and if any Person or Persons shall find himself or themselves aggrieved by the Judgment of any such Justice, then he or they shall and may, upon giving Security to the Amount of the Value of such Penalty and Forfeiture, together with such Costs as shall be awarded in case such Judgment shall be affirmed, appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General Quarter Sessions for the County, Riding, or Place, who are hereby impowered to summon and examine Witnesses upon Oath, and finally to hear and determine the same; and in case the Judgment of such Justice shall be affirmed, it shall be lawful for such Justices to award the Person or Persons to pay Costs, occasioned by such Appeal, as to them shall seem meet.

to

this Act, if the Penalty does not exceed 20l.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to the Quarter Sessions.

LII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall be summoned as a Witness or Witnesses to give Evidence before such Justice or Justices of the Peace, touching any of the Matters relative to this Act, either on the Part of the Prosecutor, or of the Person or Persons accused, and shall neglect or refuse to appear at the Time and Place to be for that Purpose appointed, without a reasonable Excuse for such his, her, or their Neglect or Refusal, to be allowed of by such Justice or Justices of the Peace, or appearing, shall refuse to be examined on Oath, and give Evidence before such Justices of the Peace before whom the Prosecution shall be depending, that then every such Person shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of forty Shillings, to be levied and paid in such Manner, and by such Means, as are herein-before directed as to other Penalties.

Penalty on Witnesses who shall refuse to appear, or to be examined, &c.

LIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Summonses issued by any Justice of the Peace, in pursuance of this Act, against the Owners or Proprietors of any Diligences, Coaches, or other Carriages, required to be licensed by this Act, that shall be left at the Inn, or other Place, where the Diligence, Coach, or other Carriage shall put up, with the Book-keeper, or other Person who shall keep the Books for taking Places in such Diligences, Coaches, or other Carriages, shall be deemed good Service on the Owners or Proprietors of such Diligences, Coaches, or other Carriages, although such Owners or Proprietors shall not have a Residence or Habitation at such Inn or Place.

Summonses of the Proprietors of Diligences, &c. left with the Book-keeper, &c. shall be deemed good Service.

LIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That a Conviction in the Form, and to the Effect following (mutatis mutandis), as the Case shall happen to be, shall be good and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, without stating the Case, or the Facts or Evidence, in any particular Manner; that is to say:

Form of Conviction.

'BE it remembered, that on the Day of in the Year of our Lord at in the County of A. B came before me C. D. Esquire, one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County, residing near the Place where the Offence was committed, and informed me that E. F. of on the Day of now last past, at in the said County [here set forth the Fact for which the Information is laid]; whereupon the said E. F. after being duly summoned to answer the said Charge, appeared before me on the Day of at in the said County, and having heard the Charge contained in the said Information, declared he was not guilty of the said Offence [or, as the Case may happen to be], did not appear before me pursuant to the said Summons [or, did neglect and refuse to make any Defence against the said Charge], but the same being fully proved upon the Oath of G. H. a credible Witness [or, as the Case may happen to be], acknowledged and voluntarily confessed the same to be true, and it manifestly appears to me that he, the said E. F. is guilty of the Offence charged upon him in the said Information; I do therefore hereby convict him of the Offence aforesaid, and do declare and adjudge that he, the said E. F. hath forfeited the Sum of of lawful Money of Great Britain for the Offence aforesaid, to be distributed as the Law directs, according to the Form of the Statute in that Case made and provided. Given under my Hand and Seal, the Day of

LV. Provided nevertheless, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Justice, where he shall see Cause, to mitigate and lessen any such Penalties as he shall think fit, reasonable Costs and Charges of the Officers and Informers, as well in making the Discovery as in prosecuting the same, being always allowed over and above such Mitigation, and so as such Mitigation do not reduce the Penalties to less than a Moiety of the Penalties incurred, over and above the said Costs and Charges; any Thing contained in this Act, or any other Act of Parliament, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Justice may mitigate the Penalties.

LVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Duties herein-before granted shall be paid, from Time to Time, into the Hands of the Receiver-general for the Time being of the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who shall keep a separate and distinct Account of the several Rates and Duties, and pay the same (the necessary Charges of raising, paying, and accounting for the same, being deducted) into the Receipt of the Exchequer, at such Time, and in such Manner, as the Duties now charged on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, are directed to be paid; and that in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt shall be provided and kept a Book or Books, in which all the Monies Receiver-general of Stamp-duties to pay the Duties granted by this Act into the Exchequer.

Auditor to keep a separate Account thereof.

Monies arising from the said several Rates and Duties, and paid into the said Receipt as aforesaid, shall be entered, separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatsoever; and the said Money, so paid into the said Receipt of Exchequer as aforesaid, shall be a Fund for the Payment of the several Annuities, and all such other Charges and Expences as are directed to be paid and payable pursuant to an Act of the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Sum of Money by way of Annuities, and for establishing a Lottery.

Part of an Act of 9 Annæ repealed.

LVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of an Act, made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for establishing a General Post-office for all her Majesty's Dominions, and for settling a weekly Sum out of the Revenues thereof for the Service of the War, and other her Majesty's Occasions, as restrains any Persons, other than the Postmaster-general for the Time being, and the respective Deputies and Substitutes of such Postmaster-general, from preparing or providing, or from letting to Hire, or furnishing Horses or Furniture for riding Post within this Kingdom, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed and made void.

Persons sued for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, may plead the General Issue, and recover Treble Costs.

LVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, at any Time or Times, be sued, molested, or prosecuted, for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or of any Clause, Matter, or Thing herein contained, such Person or Persons shall or may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence for his and their Defence; and if upon the Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs become nonsuited, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs awarded to him or them against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

CAP. LII.

An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon Starch and Hair Powder imported, and upon Starch made in Great Britain, and upon Sweets.

Preamble,

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament 'assembled, towards raising, by the most easy Means, the necessary Supplies to defray your Ma-'jesty's public Expences, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto your Majesty the se-'veral Imposts and Duties herein-after mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may 'be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Starch, and upon Hair Powder made of Starch, or other Powder that will serve for the same uses as Starch, which, from and after the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, shall be imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain (over and above all Customs, Subsidies, and Duties, already imposed thereupon), the Sum of two Pence for every Pound Weight, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; which said additional Impost or Duty shall be paid down in ready Money, without any Discount or Allowance, on Importation; and shall be also subject and liable to an additional Impost or Duty of five Pounds per Centum, in the same Manner as the additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum is granted to his Majesty, by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon the Produce of several Duties under the Management of the respective Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in Great Britain), are directed to be collected and paid.

After July 5, 1780, an additional Duty of 2 d. per Pound to be paid on Importation of Starch, and on Hair Powder made of Starch, &c. which Duty shall be liable to the additional 5 per Cent. granted by 19 Geo. III. Cap. 25.

No Drawback to be allowed on Exportation. New Duties to be levied and recovered as the former ones.

II. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Part of the said Duties herein-before granted, shall be repaid or drawn back upon the Exportation of the said Starch, Hair Powder, or other Powder; and that the said Duties shall be raised, levied, recovered, and paid, in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways and Means, as the former Imposts or Duties of Custom on Starch and Hair Powder imported, are now raised, levied, collected, recovered, and paid, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force (except where any Alteration is made by this Act), as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the several Clauses, Powers, and Provisions, in such Acts, had been repeated and again enacted in the Body of this present Act.

After July 5, 1780, an additional Duty of 1 d. per Pound to be paid for all Starch made in Great Britain.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for and upon all Starch of what Kind soever, which, at any Time after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, shall be made within the Kingdom of Great Britain, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, an additional Duty of one Penny for every Pound Weight, consisting of sixteen Ounces of Avoirdupoise, and after that Rate for a greater or lesser Quantity; the same to be paid by the Makers thereof respectively.

The aforesaid Duties to be paid for all Starch in Hand on July 5, 1780.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all Starch which any Starchmakers, or any Person or Persons in Trust for him or them, or for his, her, or their Use, shall be possessed of, and interested in, upon the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, for Sale, there shall be yielded and paid to his Majesty the like respective Rates as are by this Act to be paid for the like Sorts of Starch respectively, to be made or imported after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty; and that all and every the said Starchmakers, and all and every other Person and Persons who, in Trust for them, or any of them, or for the Use of them, or any of them, shall be possessed of, or have in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, or in his, her, or their Workhouse, Warehouse, Storehouse, Shop-room, or other Place or Places whatsoever, upon the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, any Stock, Parcel, or Quantity of Starch, of Foreign or British Manufacture, for Sale, shall, on or before the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, make a true and particular Entry thereof, at the Office for the said Duties on Starch, within the Limits of which they shall respectively inhabit, upon Pain to forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds, and the Starch for which no such Entry shall have been made; and within six Days after he, she, or they shall have made, or ought to have made, such Entry as aforesaid, shall pay down the Duties hereby payable for such Starch, or, within the said six Days, shall give Security to the proper Officers for paying the same Duties, to his Majesty's Use, within three Months then next ensuing; and in case the said Duties for such Stock of Starch be paid down within the said six Days, then there shall be allowed out of the said Duty, for such Prompt Payment, an Allowance, after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the said Time of three Months; and that all and every such Starchmakers who shall refuse or neglect to make such Payment, or to give such Security for Payment, of the said Duties upon his, her, or their Stock of Starch, within the Time by this Act limited for that Purpose, shall forfeit double the Sum of the said Duty which should have been so paid or secured as aforesaid: And that it shall and may be lawful to and for the proper Officers for the same Duties respectively, to take a true and particular Account of all such Stock, or Quantities of Starch, as any Starchmaker, or others in Trust for them, shall, on the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, have or be possessed of; and for that Purpose shall be permitted, in the Day-time, to enter into any Workhouse, Warehouse, Dwelling-house, Outhouse, or other Places belonging to such Starchmaker, who are hereby required to permit such Officer and Officers upon Request to make such Entrance on the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, or afterwards at any Time after the Duty last mentioned shall be paid or secured, and to take an Account of the Quantity of such Starch, under the Penalty of twenty Pounds: And if any Maker of Starch, having, on the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, any Stock or Quantity of Starch chargeable by this Act as aforesaid, shall clandestinely remove or carry away, or cause or suffer to be removed or carried away, the same, or any Part thereof, before the Duties thereupon shall be paid or secured as aforesaid, or shall fraudulently hide or conceal any Part of his, her, or their said Stock of Starch, then, and in every such Case, he, she, or they, so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds; and in every such Case, the Starch so removed or concealed shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any of the Officers for the said Duties; and the Person in whose Custody such Stock of Starch shall be found, who shall not, before the Discovery thereof, give Notice, at the next Office for the said Duties on Starch, of the Stock or Quantity of Starch so in his, her, or their Custody, shall also forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Shillings for every Pound Weight; which said several Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, shall be sued for, levied, recovered, and mitigated, by such Ways and Methods as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, may be sued for, recovered, or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, and Forfeiture, shall be to the Use of his Majesty, and his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall discover, inform, or sue for the same.

Starchmakers, &c. to make due Entry of such Stock, on Penalty of 50 l. and Forfeiture thereof;

and within six Days after, to pay the Duties, or to give Security for paying them in three Months.

Penalty on Neglect.

Officers to take an Account of Stock in Hand, and for that Purpose may enter Warehouses, &c. in the Day-time.

If any Starchmaker shall remove or conceal any Part of his Stock, before the Duties are paid or secured, he shall forfeit 20*l.* and all such Starch so removed or concealed. Penalty on the Person in whose Custody such Starch shall be found. Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered and applied.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for every Barrel of Liquor made within the Kingdom of Great Britain, for Sale, by Infusion, Fermentation, or otherwise, from foreign Fruit or Sugar, or from Fruit or Sugar mixed with any other Ingredients or Materials whatsoever, commonly called Sweets, or called or distinguished by the Name of Made Wines, for which no Duty hath been already paid, or shall be paid on or before the said fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, an additional Duty of six Shillings, to be paid by the Makers thereof, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

After July 5, 1780, an additional Duty of 6*s.* per Barrel to be paid by the Makers of Sweets for Sale.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said additional Duties hereby imposed on British made Starch and on Sweets, as aforesaid, shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, in the same Manner, and under such Management, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and with such Powers for recovering the same, and by such Rules, Ways, and Methods, and with like Drawbacks on British made Starch exported, as the former Duties on Starch made in Great Britain, and on Sweets respectively, are now raised, levied, collected, and paid, under the Directions of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force respecting the said Duties, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the several Clauses, Powers, Directions, Rules, Penalties, and Forfeitures, relating thereunto, were particularly here repeated, and again enacted, in the Body of this present Act.

New Duties on British made Starch and Sweets to be levied and recovered, &c. as the former Duties;

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said several additional Duties herein-before granted on British made Starch, and on Sweets or made Wines, shall be moreover subject and liable to an additional Duty or Impost of five Pounds per Centum on the Produce and Amount thereof; and that such additional Duty or Impost of five Pounds per Centum shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, in the same Manner, and under the same Rules, Regulations, Powers and Authorities, Ways and Means, Penalties and Forfeitures, as the additional Duty or Charge of five Pounds per Centum, granted to his Majesty by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties upon the Produce of the several Duties under the Management of the respective Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in Great Britain, are directed to be collected and paid.

and to be liable to the additional 5 per Cent. granted by 19 Geo. III. Cap. 25.

VIII. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said additional Imposts and Duties by this Act granted, shall from Time to Time be paid into the Hands of the Receiver-general of the Customs and Excise in England respectively for the Time being; and such Receivers-general respectively shall weekly, to wit, on Wednesday in every Week, if it be not an Holiday, and if it be, then on the next next Day after that is not an Holiday, answer and pay all the Monies arising by the said additional Imposts and Duties, the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, and answering the same only excepted, into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinct and apart from all other Monies which such Receivers-general respectively shall receive for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for the Uses and Purposes in this Act mentioned.

New Duties to be paid into the Exchequer weekly.

Auditor to keep a separate Account of all Monies paid in by virtue of this Act. Application thereof.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt of Exchequer, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said several Imposts and Duties, and paid into the said Receipt as aforesaid, shall be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon any Account whatsoever; and the said Money, so paid into the said Receipt of the Exchequer as aforesaid, shall be a Fund for the Payment of the several Annuities, and all such other Charges and Expences, as are directed to be paid and payable pursuant to an Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for raising a certain Sum of Money by Way of Annuities, and for establishing a Lottery.

Persons sued in Execution of this Act may plead the General Issue, and recover Treble Costs.

X. And it is hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, at any Time or Times, be sued or prosecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or of any Matter or Thing in this Act contained, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give the special Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence; and if upon Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuit, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

CAP. LIII.

An Act for raising a further Sum of Money, by Loans or Exchequer Bills, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and eighty. 1,900,000 l.

CAP. LIV.

An Act for appointing and enabling Commissioners to examine, take, and state the public Accounts of the Kingdom; and to report what Balances are in the Hands of Accountants, which may be applied to the public Service; and what Defects there are in the present Mode of receiving, collecting, issuing, and accounting for public Money; and in what more expeditious and effectual, and less expensive Manner, the said Services can in future be regulated and carried on for the Benefit of the Public.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS many Duties, Taxes, and Monies, have been of late Years granted, raised, and appropriated, for the public Service of this Kingdom: And whereas the present Method of accounting for the Receipts, Issues, and Expenditure of the same, is attended with great Delay and Expence, and many and very extensive Accounts remain unsettled, from whence great Inconvenience and Loss to the Public arise: Wherefore, to the Intent that his Majesty, and the People of this Kingdom, may be satisfied and truly informed whether all the said Duties, Taxes, and Monies, so as aforesaid granted, raised, and appropriated, for the public Service of this Kingdom, have been faithfully issued out, disposed, ordered, and expended, for the Ends and Purposes for which they were granted; and also to the Intent that the Balances remaining in the Hands of the different Accountants may, as soon as possible, be applied to the Use and Benefit of the Public, and that the Defects in the present Method of collecting, issuing, expending, and accounting for the said Duties, Taxes, and Monies, may be corrected and amended, and that a more expeditious, more effectual, and less expensive Method of collecting, issuing, expending, and accounting for the same, may from henceforth be established;' be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That Lieutenant General Sir Guy Carleton, Thomas Anguish Esquire, Arthur Pigot Esquire, Richard Neave Esquire, Samuel Beachcroft Esquire, James Tierney Esquire, and George Drummond Esquire, or any three or more of them, shall be, and they are hereby constituted Commissioners for examining, taking, and stating the Accounts of all Duties, Taxes, and Monies, granted, raised, and appropriated, for the public Service of this Kingdom, which have been issued to any Person or Persons whatsoever, whose final Accounts have not hitherto been passed before the Auditor of the Imprest, according to the Forms of the Exchequer, or whose Accounts, although passed, have been for Services which have been performed since the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six; and also of all such Duties, Taxes, and Monies, which shall hereafter be granted, raised, and appropriated, for the public Service of this Kingdom, at any Time before the Determination of this present Act, and of all Arrears thereof; and also for examining and stating in what Manner, and at what Times, the Receipts, Issues, and Expenditures of the said public Monies are now accounted for; and for considering of, and reporting by what Means and Methods the public Accounts may in future be passed, and the Accountants compelled to pay the Balances or Monies due from them in a more expeditious, more effectual, and less expensive Manner.

Commissioners appointed to examine and state the public Accounts of the Kingdom.

'II. And, to the Intent that the Public may sooner avail themselves of some of the Advantages intended to be derived from this Act,' be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, in the first Place, take an Account of the public Monies in the Hands of the several Accountants, and for that Purpose shall call on them to deliver in a Cash Account, and shall consider what Sum it may be proper to leave in the Hands of each Accountant respectively for carrying on the Services to which the same is or may be applicable, Commissioners, in the first Place, to take an Account of public Monies in the Hands of the several Accountants, &c.

plicable, and what Sums may be taken out of their Hands to be disposed of by Parliament for the public Service; all which they are hereby directed to report to his Majesty, and to both Houses of Parliament, in the next Session of Parliament.

Commissioners to examine, on Oath, the Auditors, and all other Officers of the Exchequer, Commissioners of the Treasury, Admiralty, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, and they are hereby impowered, authorised, and required, to examine upon Oath (which Oath they, or any three or more of them, are hereby authorised to administer) the Auditors, and all other the Officers of the Exchequer; the Commissioners, and all other Officers of the Treasury; the Commissioners, and all other the Officers of the Admiralty; the Paymaster General and Deputy Paymasters of his Majesty's Army, and all other the Officers in the Office of the said Paymaster; his Majesty's Secretary at War, and all other Officers dependent upon him and under his Controul; the Treasurer of his Majesty's Navy, and all other the Officers in the Office of the said Treasurer; and the Comptrollers, Commissioners, and Surveyor of his Majesty's Navy, and all other Officers dependent upon or under the Controul of the said Comptrollers, Commissioners, and Surveyor; the Commissioners for victualling his Majesty's Navy, and all other the Officers dependent upon or under the Controul of the said Commissioners; the Master General, Lieutenant General, Surveyor General, and Officers composing the Board of Ordnance, and all other the Officers dependent upon or under the Controul of the said Master General, Lieutenant General, and Surveyor General, or Board of Ordnance; the Commissioners, Collectors, Receivers, and all other the Officers and Persons concerned or employed in collecting, receiving, or managing the several Branches of the public Revenue; and also all Commanders in Chief of his Majesty's Forces by Sea or Land, and all Governors, Commissaries, or other Persons having the Power of granting Warrants, or of issuing, disbursing, or expending Money belonging to the Public, or of drawing Bills, or making Contracts, or purchasing Provisions or Stores, or other Necessaries, or who have granted Warrants, issued, disbursed, or expended Money belonging to the Public, or drawn Bills, or made Contracts, or purchased Provisions, Stores, or other Necessaries, for the Supply of his Majesty's Forces by Sea or by Land, or for the Defence of the Islands or Places where they respectively have had or have Commands; and all other Commissaries, Muster-masters, and Agents, and all Persons whatsoever, who have been concerned or employed in transporting, victualling, clothing, or supplying his Majesty's Forces by Sea or by Land, or in remitting Money for the Use of the same; and all other Persons whom the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall think fit to examine touching the Receipt, Issue, Expenditure, and Manner of accounting for the Duties, Taxes, and Monies, so granted, raised, and appropriated, and touching all other Matters and Things necessary for the Execution of the Powers vested in the said Commissioners by the said Act; all which Officers and Persons are hereby directed and required punctually to attend the said Commissioners at such Time or Place as they, or any three or more of them, shall appoint, and also to observe and execute such Orders and Directions as the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall make or give for the Purposes before mentioned.

and also Commanders in Chief by Sea or Land, Governors, Commissaries, &c.

All which Officers, &c. are to attend the Commissioners, and execute their Orders.

Commissioners impowered to examine into any fraudulent Practices in the Management of public Monies.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall be, and are hereby impowered to examine into any corrupt and fraudulent Practices, or other Misconduct, committed by any Person or Persons concerned in the Management of any of the Duties, Taxes, or Monies, so granted, raised, or appropriated, as aforesaid; and for the better Execution of this present Act, the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, are hereby authorised to meet and sit, from Time to Time, in the old Secretary of State's Office at Whitehall, or in any other Place where they shall think fit, with or without Adjournment, and to send their Precept or Precepts, under their Hands and Seals, for any Person or Persons whatsoever; and for such Books, Papers, Writings, or Records, as they shall judge necessary, for their Information relating to the Accounts, Matters, and Things aforesaid; and all Bailiffs, Constables, Sheriffs, and other his Majesty's Officers, are hereby required to obey and execute such Orders and Precepts aforesaid, as shall be sent to them, or any of them, by the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, touching the Premises: And the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, are hereby authorised to appoint and employ such Clerks, Messengers, and Officers, as they shall think meet, and to give to every of the said Clerks and Officers an Oath for his true and faithful Demeanor in all Things relating to the due Performance of the Trust reposed in him by the said Commissioners, and in all other Things touching the Premises; which Clerks and Officers are hereby required faithfully to execute and perform the said Trust in them severally and respectively reposed, without taking any Thing for such their Service, other than such Salary or Reward as the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall think fit to direct and appoint in that Behalf.

Their Place of Meeting.

May send for Papers or Records.

Commissioners may appoint Clerks, &c. and allow them Salaries.

Commissioners to give an Account of their Proceedings to his Majesty, and to both Houses of Parliament.

V. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, from Time to Time, at their Discretion, or as often as they shall be thereunto required, and as soon as possible after the Determination of their Examinations and Proceedings by virtue of this Act, without any further Requisition, give an Account of their Proceedings, in Writing under their Hands and Seals, or under the Hands and Seals of any three or more of them, to the King's most Excellent Majesty, and to both Houses of Parliament; and shall in like Manner report to his Majesty, and to both Houses of Parliament, an exact State of the Fees or Gratuities paid or given in collecting, issuing, expending, and accounting for, the said public Monies, and the Authority under which such Fees and Gratuities are paid or received; and also what Defects they have observed, during the Course of their Examinations and Proceedings by virtue of this Act, in the present Mode of contracting for public Services, or of executing public Services by Agents, or of collecting, issuing, expending, and accounting for, the public Monies; and whether the said Defects arise from any Omission or Misdirection in the Laws respecting the Course used in the Receipt of the Exchequer, or from any Defect in the Constitution in the Offices of the Auditors of the Imprest, or from the Want of a sufficient Number of fit and able Assistants employed by the said Auditors, in the Execution of their Offices; or from any Defect in the Constitution of any of the Offices concerned in issuing, expending, and accounting for the Money appropriated to the public Service, or from a Want of a sufficient Power to compel the several Accountants to pass their respective Accounts without Delay, or from any other, and what Cause; and shall in like Manner report to his Majesty, and to both Houses of Parliament, such Orders, Rules, and Regulations, as in their Judgment shall appear fit and expedient to be established, in order that the Duties, Taxes, and Monies, granted, raised, and appropriated, for the public Service of this Kingdom, may hereafter be received, issued, expended, and accounted for, in the Manner the most expeditious, most effectual, most beneficial and advantageous to the Public.

Enumeration of Particulars to be contained in such Account.

No Commissioner to hold a Civil Office of Profit during Pleasure

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Person appointed a Commissioner by this Act, shall accept of or hold any Civil Office of Profit during Pleasure from or under his Majesty during the Continuance of this Act.

Any three of the Commissioners to be sworn before the Chancellor of the Exchequer, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That any three of the said Commissioners in this Act, before they enter upon the Execution of the same, shall take an Oath before the Chancellor of the Exchequer, or before the Master of the Rolls for the Time being (which they and either of them are hereby authorised and required to administer), the Tenor whereof shall be as followeth; (that is to say),

The Oath,

'I A. B. do swear, That, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, I will faithfully, impartially, and truly execute the several Powers and Trusts vested in me by an Act, intituled, An Act for appointing and enabling Commissioners to examine, take, and state the public Accounts of the Kingdom; and to report what Balances are in the Hands of Accountants, which may be applied to the public Service; and what Defects there are in the present Mode of receiving, collecting, issuing, and accounting for public Money, and in what more expeditious and effectual, and less expensive Manner, the said Services can in future be regulated and carried on for the Benefit of the Public; according to the Tenor and Purport of the said Act.'

The said three Commissioners to administer the Oath to the rest.

And every other of the said Commissioners in the Act named shall likewise take the same Oath before the said three Commissioners, who are hereby authorised and required to administer the same after they shall themselves have taken the said Oath as aforesaid.

Lords of the Treasury may pay 2,000*l.* to the Order of the Commissioners. Application thereof.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, or Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, are hereby authorised and required to issue and cause to be paid all such Sums of Money, not exceeding two thousand Pounds, to such Person or Persons as the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall, by Writing under their Hands, desire or direct, out of any Part of the public Monies remaining in his Majesty's Exchequer; which Sums so issued and paid shall be employed for the Payment of Clerks, Messengers, and other Officers, and in defraying all other necessary Charges in or about the Execution of the Powers of this Act, and in such Manner, and in such Proportions, as shall be appointed by the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, in that Behalf; the same to be accounted for by the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be issued or paid, according to the Course of his Majesty's Exchequer, without any Fees or other Charges to be taken or demanded for the issuing and Payment of the same on the passing of the said Accounts, other than such Sum as the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall appoint.

Executors of Accountants to attend Commissioners, and execute their Orders.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any such public Accountant is dead, the Executors or Administrators of such deceased Accountant shall, when required thereto by the Commissioners, or any three or more of them, attend the said Commissioners, and observe and execute the Orders and Directions of the said Commissioners, in like Manner as Accountants by this Act are required to do.

Continuance of this Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That this Act, so far as relates to the Powers of taking, examining, and stating Accounts, and administering of Oaths and issuing of Precepts, shall endure for the Space of one Year from the fifth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, and no longer.

CAP. LV.

An Act to repeal so much of an Act, made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, as restrains the Removal of Wool, and other Articles, to certain Times and Hours therein mentioned.

Preamble.

Recital of an Act 13 and 14 Car. II.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act against the exporting of Sheep, Wool, Wool-fells, Mortlings, Shorlings, Yarn made of Wool, Wool-flocks, Fullers-earth, Fulling Clay, and Tobacco-pipe Clay, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, That no Packs, Sacks, Bags, or Cask, of any Wool, Wool-fells, Mortlings, Shorlings, Yarn made of Wool, Wool-flocks, Fullers-earth, Fulling Clay, or Tobacco-pipe Clay, shall be laid or loaded on any Horse, Cart, or other Carriage whatsoever, or shall be carried or conveyed by Land to or from any Place or Places within the Kingdom of England, Town of Berwick, or Dominion aforesaid, nor after the first Day of January, one thousand six hundred and sixty-two, in the Kingdom of Ireland, but in the Day-time, and at seasonable Hours; that is to say, From and after the first Day of March to the nine and twentieth Day of September yearly, between the Hours of Four of the Clock in the Morning and Eight of the Clock in the Evening; and from the nine and twentieth Day of September to the first Day of March yearly, between the Hours of Seven of the Clock in the Morning and Five of the Clock in the Evening, under the Penalty of the Loss and Forfeiture of all such Goods, or the Value thereof: And whereas, since the making the said recited Act, several other Regulations and Restrictions have been established, by various other Acts of Parliament which are now in Force, to prevent the Exportation of Wool, and the other Articles herein-before mentioned; and it has been found very inconvenient, and

'in many Cases impracticable, for the Growers and Manufacturers of and Dealers in Wool to remove 'their Wool to be manufactured, or to the public Fairs and Markets in Great Britain, within the Times 'and Hours limited by the said Act of Parliament herein-before recited, without such an additional Delay 'and Expence to the Proprietors as would be greatly prejudicial and injurious to the Woollen Manufac-'tures of this Kingdom: For Remedy whereof, may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, so much of the herein-before recited Act of Parliament, made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second, as restrains the carrying or conveying of Wool, Wool-fells, Mortlings, Shorlings, Yarn made of Wool, Wool-flocks, Fullers-earth, Fulling Clay, or Tobacco-pipe Clay, within the Times and Hours in the said Act mentioned, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed and made void; but such Wool, Wool-fells, Mortlings, Shorlings, Yarn made of Wool, Wool-flocks, Fullers-earth, Fulling Clay, and Tobacco-pipe Clay, shall, in all other Respects, be subject and liable to the several Restrictions and Regulations prescribed by the said recited Act, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament respectively relating thereto which are now in Force, in the same Manner as if this Act had not been made.

Part of the recited Act repealed.

CAP. LVI.

An Act for continuing in the Possession of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, for a further Time, and under certain Conditions, the Territorial Acquisitions and Revenues lately obtained in the East Indies; and for reviving, and continuing for a further Time, so much of an Act, made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for establishing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs of the East India Company, as well in India as in Europe, as hath expired in the Course of the present Year; and for indemnifying the said Company for any Money they have paid, or may pay, in or about the building of three Ships of the Line for the Service of the Public.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty a Sum of Money, to be raised by Exchequer Bills, and to be advanced and applied, in the Manner, and upon the Terms, therein mentioned, for the Relief of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, it was directed, That the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, should cause to be prepared and made any Number of Exchequer Bills, not exceeding in the Whole the Amount of one million four hundred thousand Pounds, to be sent, advanced, and issued, as in the said Act was directed, for the Relief of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies: And whereas by the said Act it was declared, That in the then Circumstances of the East India Company, it would not be in their Power to provide for the Repayment of the Loan aforesaid, and for establishing their Affairs upon a more secure Foundation for the Time to come, unless the Public should agree to forego, for the present Time, all Participation in the Profits arising from the territorial Acquisitions and Revenues lately obtained in the East Indies; and therefore it was by the said Act enacted, That, until the aforesaid Sum of one million four hundred thousand Pounds should be repaid, and the Bond Debt of the Company be reduced to the Sum of one million five hundred thousand Pounds, the whole clear Profits arising from the aforesaid territorial Acquisitions and Revenues, after defraying the Charges and Expences attending the same, together with all the clear Revenue and Profits of the said Company, after providing for the current Payments of Interest, and other Outgoings, Charges, and Expences, of the said Company, should, from Time to Time, be disposed of and applied in the Manner as in the said Act was directed; that is to say, Until the aforesaid Sum of one million four hundred thousand Pounds should be repaid, and so long as the said Sum, or any Part thereof, should remain unpaid, there should, in the first Place, be set apart and applied, out of the said clear Revenues and Profits, such a Sum as might be sufficient for answering a Dividend to the Proprietors of the Stock of the said Company, not exceeding the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum upon the Capital Stock of the said Company; and all the Surplus of the said clear Revenues and Profits should be applied in Diminution of the said Sum of one million four hundred thousand Pounds, or such Part thereof as should be remaining unpaid, and for defraying the Charges incurred in respect thereof; and after the Repayment of the Whole of the Money so advanced and applied as aforesaid, and until the Bond Debt of the said Company should be reduced to the Sum of one million five hundred thousand Pounds, there should in like Manner be set apart and applied, in the first Place, out of the said clear Revenues and Profits, such Sum as might be sufficient for answering a Dividend not exceeding the Rate of seven Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon the Capital Stock of the said Company; after which all the Surplus of the said clear Revenues and Profits should be applied in reducing the Bond Debt of the said Company; And whereas the said Sum of one million four hundred thousand Pounds has been repaid and fully discharged, and all the Charges incurred in respect thereof have been defrayed, and the Bond Debt of the said Company has been reduced to, or under, the Sum of one Million five hundred thousand Pounds, whereby the Circumstances, in Consideration whereof it was in the aforesaid Act declared, that the Public should agree to forego,

Preamble. Recital of 13 Geo. III. Cap. 64.

'for

'for the then present Time, all Participation in the Profit arising from the territorial Acquisitions and 'Revenues lately obtained in the East Indies, have ceased and are determined; but whereas, notwith- 'standing, it may be expedient that the aforesaid territorial Acquisitions and Revenues should, for a 'limited Time, and under certain Conditions and Restrictions, remain in the Possession of the United 'Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies: May it therefore please your Majesty 'that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the territorial Acquisitions and Revenues lately obtained in the East Indies, shall remain in the Possession of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and their Successors, for and during the Term of one Year, to be computed from the fifth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty.

All the territorial Acquisitions and Revenues, lately obtained in the East Indies, to remain in Possession of the Company till April 5, 1781.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, for and during the said Term, the whole clear Profits arising from the said territorial Acquisitions and Revenues, after defraying the Charges and Expences attending the same, together with all the clear Revenues and Profits of the said Company, after providing for the current Payments of Interest, and other Outgoings, Charges, and Expences, of the said Company, shall be disposed of and applied in Manner following; (that is to say), It shall and may be lawful, out of the said clear Revenues and Profits, to set apart and apply, in the first Place, such Sum as may be sufficient for answering a Dividend to the Proprietors of the Stock of the said Company, not exceeding the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum upon the Capital Stock of the said Company; after which the whole Surplus of the said clear Revenues and Profits shall be reserved and await any future Agreement that may be made between the Public and the said Company.

No Dividend to be made by the Company, before April 5, 1781, of more than eight per Cent. per Ann.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, during the Continuance of this Act, the said United Company do cause, and they are hereby directed and required to cause, to be made up half-yearly, with as much Accuracy as the Nature of the Case will admit, a Statement or Account of the Profit and Loss upon the Whole of the Trade and Revenues of the said Company, together with a State of the Debts of the said Company in England, exclusive of their Bond Debt, to the first Day of September, and the first Day of March; the first of such Statements or Accounts to be made up from the first Day of March to the first Day of September, one thousand seven hundred and eighty; and to transmit such Statement or Account fairly written, and signed by two or more of the Directors of the said United Company, within twenty-one Days after the Day to which such Statement or Account shall be made up respectively, to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or the High Treasurer for the Time being.

The Company are to cause to be made up half-yearly, during the Continuance of this Act, an Account of the Profit and Loss upon their Trade, &c. which shall be transmitted to the Commissioners of the Treasury.

IV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, during the Continuance of this Act, it shall not be lawful for the said United Company, or their Successors, or any of their Officers or Servants on their Account, to accept or otherwise bind the said Company, or their Successors, for the Payment of any Bill or Bills of Exchange, drawn by any of their Officers or Servants, at any of their Presidencies in the East Indies, for any Sum exceeding the Sum of three hundred thousand Pounds, exclusive of Certificates, to the Amount of eight thousand Pounds, to the Commanders and Officers of each of the Company's Ships, without the Consent and Order first had and obtained of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or of the High Treasurer for the Time being; who are hereby respectively authorised to give such Consent, or to make such Order thereon, as they shall judge expedient; and every Acceptance or Engagement made contrary to the true Meaning and Intent of this Act, shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes.

The Company restricted from accepting Bills above a certain Sum drawn on them by their Officers, &c. in the East Indies, without the Consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury.

'V. And whereas by another Act, passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for esta- 'blishing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs of the East India Company, as well in 'India as in Europe, it was, among other Things, enacted, That, for the Government of the Presi- 'dency of Fort William in Bengal, there should be appointed a Governor-general and four Counsellors, 'and that the whole Civil and Military Government of the said Presidency, and also the Ordering, 'Management, and Government, of all the territorial Acquisitions and Revenues in the Kingdoms of 'Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, should, during such Time as the territorial Acquisitions and Revenues should 'remain in the Possession of the said United Company, be vested in the said Governor-general and Council 'of the said Presidency of Fort William in Bengal; and also that the Governor-general, and four first Coun- 'sellors, appointed by the said Act, should each of them hold and continue in his and their respective 'Offices, for and during the Term of five Years from the Time of their Arrival at Fort William in 'Bengal, and taking upon them the Government of the said Presidency, and should not be removeable 'in the mean Time, except by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon Representation made by the 'Court of Directors for the said United Company for the Time being: And whereas it may be expedient 'that the said Regulation should be revived, and extended to the Person and Persons who, at the Time 'of passing this Act, shall have and enjoy the respective Offices of Governor-general, and Counsellors 'of the said Presidency;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Person and Persons who, at the Time of the passing of this Act, shall have and enjoy the Office and Offices of Governor-general and Counsellors of the said Presidency, shall hold and continue in his and their respective Offices for and during the Continuance of this Act, and shall not be removeable in the mean Time, except by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon Representation made by the Court of Directors for the said United Company for the Time being; and shall have and enjoy all and singular the Powers and Authorities vested by the said Act in the first Governor-general and four first Counsellors by the said Act appointed, and shall be subject to the said Restrictions and Limitations as by the said Act the first Governor-general and first four Counsellors were made subject; and that in case of the Avoidance of the Offices of such Governor-general, or any of the said Counsellors, such Office shall be respectively supplied in the same Manner as the same Office would by the said Act have been supplied, during the Remainder of the Term of five Years which was computed from the Time that the first Governor-general and four first Counsellors took upon them the Government of the said Presidency.

Recital of 13 Geo. III. Cap. 63.

The Governor-general and Counsellors of the Presidency of Fort William shall continue in their Offices during the Continuance of this Act, except they should be removed by his Majesty, &c.

VI. Provided always nevertheless, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to affect the Rights of the Crown, or of the said Company, after the Expiration of this Act; but that the same shall remain, continue, and be, in the same State and Condition in all Respects, as though this Act had never been made. This Act not to affect the Rights of the Crown, or of the Company, after the Expiration thereof.

'VII. And whereas the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, have 'resolved to build three Ships of the Line of Battle for the Use of the Public, and great Progress hath been 'made in building the said Ships, the Expences whereof will amount to a very considerable Sum of Mo-'ney: And whereas by an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing in 'the Possession of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, for a limited Time, 'and under certain Conditions, the territorial Acquisitions and Revenues lately obtained in the East Indies; and 'for continuing, for a limited Time, so much of an Act, made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his pre-'sent Majesty, intituled, "An Act for establishing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs "of the East India Company, as well in India as in Europe," as will expire in the Course of the present Year, 'the said United Company are restrained from disposing of the Revenues and Profits of the said Com-'pany, otherwise than in the said Act is particularly mentioned; and it is necessary that the said United 'Company should be indemnified with respect to any Sum or Sums of Money which they have already 'paid, or may hereafter pay, on Account of building the said Ships:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said United Company shall be, and they are hereby fully indemnified, exonerated, and discharged, for and upon Account of all such Sum and Sums of Money as they already have paid, or may hereafter pay, for any Expences incurred, or to be incurred, in building the said three Ships for the Use of the Public; any Thing herein-before, or in any other Law or Statute, contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding. The Company indemnified for all Sums of Money they have paid, or shall pay, for building three Ships for the Use of the Public.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act; of which Notice shall be judicially taken by all Judges, Justices, and all other Persons whatsoever, without specially pleading the same. Public Act.

CAP. LVII.

An Act for enabling his Majesty to raise the Sum of One Million, for the Uses and Purposes therein mentioned.

CAP. LVIII.

An Act for granting further Time for allowing the Drawback on the Exportation of Coffee imported by the East India Company, in the Ship Europa, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

'WHEREAS great Part of the Coffee imported by the United Company of Merchants of England 'trading to the East Indies, in the Ship Europa, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and se-'venty-five, which remained unsold on the sixth Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, 'and other Parts of such Coffee which hath been sold by the said United Company, yet remains uncleared 'in their Warehouses belonging to the Buyers thereof, and which, by reason of the Interruption given to 'Trade, by the Rebellion and Disturbances subsisting in several of the British Colonies in North America, 'the Proprietors of such Coffee may not be able to export within the Term of three Years from the Im-'portation thereof, being the Time limited by Law to entitle them to receive the Drawback of the Duties 'thereon; and it is reasonable and necessary that some further Time should be granted for the Exportation 'of such Coffee; may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if the said Coffee, imported by the said Ship Europa, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five, and now remaining uncleared in the said Company's Warehouses, shall be exported to any Parts beyond the Seas at any Time within seven Years, to be computed from the Importation thereof, there shall be drawn back and allowed for the same, to the Exporter or Exporters thereof, such and the same Drawbacks or Allowances, and under such Rules, Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as such Exporter or Exporters would have been intitled to in case such Coffee had been exported within the Term of three Years from the Importation thereof; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding. Preamble. Further Time allowed for the Exportation of Coffee imported in the Ship Europa.

CAP. LIX.

An Act to impower his Majesty to prohibit the Exportation, and to restrain the carrying Coastwise, of Copper in Bars, or Copper in Sheets, for a limited Time.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS Copper is found by Experience to be of such material Use in the fitting of Ships and Vessels of War, that to certain Purposes the same may be deemed a Military Store, and the public Service may require temporary Restraints upon the Exportation thereof at critical Conjunctures, lest the same should come to the Use of the Enemy; therefore, to prevent all Doubts,' be it hereby declared and enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, may, by Proclamation or Order in Council, when he or they shall see Cause, and for such Time as shall be therein expressed, prohibit the exporting, or attempting to export, out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise in this Kingdom, any Sort of Copper in Sheets, or Copper in Bars, therein described, in such Manner, and under such Restraints, as he or they shall think fit.

His Majesty impowered by Proclamation, &c. to prohibit the exporting, or carrying Coastwise, Copper in Sheets, or Bars.

All Copper shipped contrary to such Prohibition, to be forfeited;

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That whatever Quantity or Qualities of Copper in Sheets, or Copper in Bars, prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council to be exported, or to be carried Coastwise, shall be shipped, or laden on Board any Ship or Vessel, in any of the Port or Ports of Great Britain, in order for Exportation, or to be carried Coastwise, contrary to such Proclamation or Order, all such Copper in Sheets, or Copper in Bars, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs; and the Owner or Owners of such Copper in Sheets, or Copper in Bars, as shall be so shipped for Exportation, or in order to be carried Coastwise, shall severally and respectively forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds for every hundred Weight of such Copper in Sheets, or Copper in Bars, and so in Proportion for any lesser Quantity so shipped for Exportation, or in order to be carried Coastwise.

and the Owners to forfeit 100l. for every Hundred Weight.

Penalty on Persons assisting in the shipping any such Copper;

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall be aiding or assisting in the shipping or loading any Copper in Sheets, or Copper in Bars, for Exportation, or in order to be carried Coastwise, during the Time it shall be so prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council, contrary to such Proclamation or Order, every such Person shall forfeit and pay one hundred Pounds, and Treble the Value of such Copper in Sheets, or Copper in Bars.

and on Masters of Vessels taking it on Board.

IV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Master of any Ship or Vessel shall lade or take on Board, or suffer or permit to be laden or taken on Board, any Copper in Sheets, or Copper in Bars, for Exportation, or in order to be carried Coastwise, during the Time it shall be so prohibited to be exported or carried Coastwise as aforesaid, every such Master shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be applied.

V. And it is hereby further enacted, That the one Moiety of the several Forfeitures and Penalties herein-before mentioned and provided shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, and the other Moiety to the Use of such Officer or Officers of the Customs as shall seize or sue for the same, by Bill, Plaint, or Information, in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in England or Scotland respectively; wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, shall be allowed.

Continuance of this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in Force until the first Day of May, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one.

CAP. LX.

An Act to explain and amend two Acts made in the fifteenth and sixteenth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, with respect to the Limits of the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, and the Seas adjacent thereto; and to enlarge the Time for the Return of the Vessels employed in the Whale Fisheries.

Preamble. Recital of 15 Geo. III. Cap. 31.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Fisheries carried on from Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions in Europe; and for securing the Return of the Fishermen, Sailors, and others, employed in the said Fisheries, to the Ports thereof, at the End of the Fishing Season; in order to induce his Majesty's Subjects in Great Britain and Ireland, and the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Man, to carry on the Whale Fishery on the Coasts of Newfoundland and the Seas adjacent, certain Bounties therein mentioned are allowed annually, for a limited Time, to a certain Number of Vessels which shall be fitted out under the Limitations and Restrictions in the said Act mentioned, which shall take and kill one Whale at the least in the Gulph of Saint Lawrence, or on the Coasts of Labrador, Newfoundland, or in any Seas to the Southward of the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights: And whereas Doubts have arisen, whether Whales taken and killed in northern Latitude sixty-four Degrees and an Half, are, within the Intent and Meaning of the said Act, to be deemed to have been taken and killed in any Sea to the Southward of the said Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights; and to obviate such Doubts for the future, it is necessary to explain particularly the Limits of those Seas, and of the Seas adjacent thereto: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament

Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights shall be deemed and taken to extend to the Latitude of fifty-nine Degrees thirty Minutes North, and no further; and that the said Bounties, granted and allowed by the said recited Act, shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to any Whale that shall be taken and killed in any Sea to the Southward of the said Greenland Seas or Davis's Streights, exceeding forty-four Degrees of North Latitude; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Limits of the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights.

'II. And whereas, by reason of the present Hostilities, Vessels employed in the Whale Fisheries are 'liable to great Hazard, and are frequently obliged to wait for Convoy to protect them from Capture by 'the Enemy, and it is therefore expedient to allow them a longer Time to pursue the said Fisheries, and 'for their Return home;' for Remedy whereof, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Bounties granted by the before recited Act, made in the fifteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, shall be allowed for such Vessels as have been fitted and cleared out since the first Day of January, one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, or shall be hereafter fitted and cleared out, in the Manner directed by the said Act, during the present Hostilities, from and after the said first Day of January in each Year, and which shall return to some Port in England on or before the thirty-first Day of December in the next succeeding Year; and that the Bounties granted by another Act, made in the sixteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Encouragement of the Whale Fishery carried on from Great Britain and Ireland, and the British Dominions in Europe; and for regulating the Fees to be taken by the Officers of the Customs in the Island of Newfoundland, shall be allowed for such Vessels as shall be fitted and cleared out, in the Manner directed by that Act, during the present Hostilities, from and after the first Day of January in each Year, and which shall return to some Port in England on or before the thirty-first Day of December in the next succeeding Year; any Thing in the herein-before recited Acts, or either of them, to the contrary notwithstanding; but the said several respective Bounties shall, in all other Respects not hereby altered, be subject and liable to the same Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as if this Act had not been made.

Vessels employed in the Whale Fisheries allowed a longer Time for their Return home.

CAP. LXI.

An Act for continuing the Encouragement and Reward of Persons making certain Discoveries for finding the Longitude at Sea, or making other useful Discoveries and Improvements in Navigation, and for making Experiments relating thereto.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for rendering more effectual an Act, made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for promoting the Discovery of a Method for finding the Longitude at Sea, so far as relates to the Encouragement and Reward of Persons making lesser Discoveries for finding the same, or making other useful Discoveries and Improvements in Navigation; and to the making of Experiments relating thereto; the Commissioners for the Discovery of the Longitude at Sea were impowered, whenever they should be satisfied of the Probability of any Proposal or Proposals that should be made to them for discovering the said Longitude, or making any other useful Discovery and Improvement in Navigation, so as to think it proper to cause Experiments to be made thereof, to certify the same to the Commissioners of the Navy; and also, in case they should adjudge any Person or Persons to have made any Discovery for finding the Longitude at Sea, which, though not of so great Use as to be intitled to any of the great Rewards specified in the Act, made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Repeal of all former Acts concerning the Longitude at Sea, except so much thereof as relates to the Appointment and Authority of the Commissioners thereby constituted, and also such Clauses as relate to the constructing, printing, publishing, vending, and licensing, of nautical Almanacks, and other useful Tables; and for the more effectual Encouragement and Reward of such Person and Persons as shall discover a Method for finding the same, or shall make useful Discoveries in Navigation; and for the better making Experiments relating thereto, yet that the said Discovery was of considerable Use to the Public, or to have made any other Discovery or Discoveries, Improvement or Improvements, useful to Navigation, to certify such less Reward, or Sum or Sums of Money, as they the said Commissioners for the Discovery of Longitude should think reasonable, to be paid to such Person or Persons; and the Commissioners of the Navy were thereby authorised and required to make out Bills upon the Treasurer of the Navy for such Sums so certified, who was thereby authorised to pay the same immediately to such Person or Persons: And whereas, by reason of several Payments made by the Treasurer of the Navy to several Persons, in pursuance of the Directions of the said first mentioned Act, the said Commissioners for the Discovery of Longitude have expended the Whole of the Sum of five thousand Pounds, granted by the said Act for the Purposes aforesaid: And whereas the continuing the said Encouragements and Rewards, for the Purposes mentioned in the said first mentioned Act, will contribute to the Advantage of Trade, and to the Honour of this Kingdom; may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners for the Discovery of Longitude, and they have hereby full Power and Authority, whenever they shall be satisfied of the Probability of any Proposal or Proposals that shall be made to them for the discovering the said Longitude, or making any other useful Discovery and Improvement in Navigation, so as to think it proper to cause Experiments to be made thereof, to certify the same to the Commissioners of the Navy; and also in case they shall adjudge any Person or Persons to have made any Discovery for finding the Longitude at Sea, which, though not of so great Use as to be intitled to any of the great Rewards specified in the said Act of the fourteenth Year of his present Majesty, yet that Commissioners of the Navy, on being certified by the Commissioners of Longitude of the Probability of any Proposals for discovering the Longitude, &c.

that the said Discovery is of considerable Use to the Public, or to have made any other Discovery or Discoveries, Improvement or Improvements, useful to Navigation, to certify such less Reward, or Sum or Sums of Money, as they the said Commissioners for the Discovery of Longitude shall think reasonable to be paid to such Person or Persons; and the Commissioners of the Navy are hereby authorised and required to make out a Bill or Bills upon the Treasurer of the Navy for such Sum or Sums as shall be so certified to them by the said Commissioners for the Discovery of Longitude, and the said Treasurer of the Navy is hereby authorised and required to pay immediately such Sum or Sums, to the Person or Persons who shall be appointed by the said Commissioners for the Discovery of Longitude to make such Experiments, or to receive such less Reward, or Sum or Sums of Money, for making lesser Discoveries for finding the Longitude at Sea, or any other Discoveries and Improvements useful to Navigation, out of any Monies which shall be in his the said Treasurer's Hands unapplied to the Use of the Navy.

Shall order a Reward to be paid to the Authors of such Proposals.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That all such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Navy, by virtue of this Act, for the Purposes of making such Experiments as aforesaid, and in rewarding in a lesser Degree lesser Discoveries for finding the Longitude at Sea, and also other Discoveries and Improvements useful to Navigation, do not altogether exceed the Sum of five thousand Pounds.

The Sums to be paid by virtue of this Act not to exceed 5,000*l.*

III. Provided also, That such Sum or Sums shall be certified, and such Bills shall be made out, and Payment thereof made, in such Manner, and under the same Regulations and Provisions, as are in and by the said Act of the fourteenth Year of his present Majesty prescribed, with regard to the Sum of five thousand Pounds, by the said Act made applicable to the Encouragement and Reward of such Person or Persons as should make lesser Discoveries for finding the Longitude at Sea, or make other useful Discoveries and Improvements in Navigation, and to the better making of Experiments relating thereto.

The Sums to be certified, and Payment made, agreeable to the Regulations of the above-recited Act 14 Geo. III.

CAP. LXII.

CAP. LXIII.

An Act to indemnify ſuch Perſons as have acted in the Suppreſſion of the late Riots and Tumults in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and Borough of Southwark, and for the Preſervation of the public Peace.

Preamble.

" WHEREAS, on the ſecond Day of June, in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty, a " great Number of diſorderly Perſons aſſembled themſelves together, in a riotous and tumultuous " Manner, near to both Houſes of Parliament, and poſſeſſed themſelves of the Avenues leading to the " ſame, the ſaid Houſes being then ſitting, and there committed great Acts of Outrage and Violence to " many of his Majeſty's Subjects; and afterwards proceeded to attack the Houſes of ſome of the public " Miniſters of Foreign Princes and States, reſiding at his Majeſty's Court, and to break into the Chapels " belonging to ſuch public Miniſters, and to ſet Fire thereto, and continued riotouſly and tumultuouſly aſ- " ſembled for ſeveral Days and Nights; and during that Time attacked and ſet Fire to the Gaol of New-

'gate, the King's Bench Prison, the Prison of the Fleet, and set at Liberty the Prisoners therein respectively 'confined, and broke other Gaols and Prisons, and set at Liberty the Prisoners confined therein, and set 'Fire to, and pulled down, the Dwelling-Houses of divers of his Majesty's peaceable Subjects, in several 'Parts in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, and Borough of Southwark, and burnt and con-'sumed the Materials and Furniture of the same, and did other Acts of Outrage and Violence: And 'whereas divers Magistrates, and others, have exerted themselves for the Suppression of the said Riots 'and Tumults, and for putting an End to the said Outrages, and for restoring and preserving the public 'Peace, and on the Occasions, and for the Purposes aforesaid, have done divers Acts which cannot be 'justified by the strict Forms of Law, and yet were necessary, and so much for the Preservation of the 'Lives and Properties of his Majesty's Subjects, and the public Safety and Peace, that they ought to be 'justified by Act of Parliament, and the Persons by whom they were transacted ought to be indemnified;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Personal Actions and Suits, Indictments and Informations, which have been, or shall be, commenced or prosecuted, and all Molestations, Prosecutions, and Proceedings whatsoever, and Judgments thereupon (if any be), against the said Magistrates, or other Persons, for or by reason of any Act, Matter, or Thing, commanded or done on the Occasions, and for the Purposes aforesaid, or any of them, before the twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, shall be discharged and made void; and every Person, by whom any such Act, Matter, or Thing, which shall have been commanded or done, before the said twenty-fourth Day of June, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, shall be freed, acquitted, and indemnified, as well against the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as against all and every other Person and Persons; and if any Action or Suit hereby discharged, or intended to be discharged, is or shall be commenced or prosecuted, every Person so sued may plead the General Issue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuit, or forbear further Prosecution, or suffer Discontinuance, or if a Verdict pass against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover his, her, or their Double Costs, for which he, she, or they shall have the like Remedy, as in Cases when Costs by Law are given to Defendants.

All Actions, Indictments, &c. commenced against Magistrates, or others, for any Thing done or commanded by them, in suppressing the late Riots, before June 24, 1780, shall be discharged and made void; and all such Magistrates, &c. shall be indemnified.

General Issue.

Double Costs.

CAP. LXIV.

An Act to prevent any Mischief or Inconvenience which may arise to Sheriffs, Gaolers, Suitors, Prisoners, or others, by the Prisoners in several Gaols in the Counties of Middlesex and Surrey, and the City of London, having been set at Liberty during the late Tumults and Insurrections.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS divers evil-minded and disorderly Persons did, at several Times between the second and 'eighth Days of June, in this present Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty, 'assemble themselves together within the Cities of London and Westminster, and the Borough of Southwark; 'and being so assembled together, at some of the said Times, did burn, destroy, or break open, divers of 'his Majesty's Gaols and Prisons; that is to say, the Gaol of Newgate, the Prison of the Fleet, the King's 'Bench Prison, and other Gaols and Prisons in the City of London, and in the Counties of Middlesex and 'Surrey, and did cause the Prisoners then confined therein to escape, and go at large: And whereas the 'Sheriff or Sheriffs, Marshal, Warden, or other Officer or Officers, who had the Custody of the said 'Gaols or Prisons, and the Prisoners therein, may be, or are in Danger of being sued, indicted, prose-'cuted, or proceeded against, by reason of Escapes of Prisoners let out, or set at Liberty, in Manner be-'fore mentioned; and the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs (at whose Suit such of the said Prisoners as were confined 'by virtue of Civil Process were in Custody) may be under Difficulties with respect to their Proceedings 'against such Prisoner or Prisoners; and also such Prisoners as were set at large without their own Con-'currence or Consent, may be in a worse Situation, by Means of their Enlargement, than if they had 'remained in actual Custody:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all personal Actions and Suits, Indictments, Informations, and all Molestations, Prosecutions, and Proceedings whatsoever, and Judgments thereupon (if any be), had, commenced, or prosecuted, or to be had, commenced, or prosecuted, against any Sheriffs, Under-sheriffs, Marshal, Warden, Bailiff, Gaolers, Officers, or their Sureties, for or by reason of the Escape of any Prisoner or Prisoners, who was or were, or has or have been discharged, or let out of Prison, or caused to go at large, in Manner, and on the Occasion aforesaid, be, and are and shall be discharged, annulled, and utterly made void and of no Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, by virtue of this Act; and if any such personal Action or Suit hereby discharged, or intended to be discharged, is or shall be commenced or prosecuted, every Person so sued may plead the General Issue, and give this Act, and the Special Matter, in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuit, or forbear further Prosecution, or suffer Discontinuance, or if Judgment pass against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover his, her, or their Double Costs, for which he, she, or they shall have the like Remedy, as in Cases where Costs by Law are given to Defendants.

All Actions, Indictments, &c. commenced, or to be commenced, against any Sheriff, Under-sheriff, or Gaoler, &c. for the Escape of any Prisoner during the late Tumults, shall be discharged and made void.

General Issue.

Double Costs.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Prisoner or Prisoners, who was or were, at the Times aforesaid, in Custody in any of the Gaols or Prisons aforesaid, by virtue of any Civil Suit or Process, and who was or were let at large, in the Manner, and on the Occasion aforesaid, hath or have surrendered, or offered to surrender, him or herself, or themselves, or shall, on or before

All Prisoners by Civil Process, who were set at large as aforesaid, before the first Day of September now next ensuing, surrender, or offer to surrender, him or herself, or themselves, to the Sheriff or Sheriffs, Marshal, Warden, or other Officer or Officers, under whose Custody he, she, or they was or were, at the Time of his, her, or their said Enlargement, or their Successors in Office, and shall have given, or shall give, or deliver in Writing, to such Sheriff or Sheriffs, Marshal, Warden, or other Officer or Officers as aforesaid (or their Successors in Office), the Place of Abode of such Prisoner or Prisoners; and in case he, she, or they shall change his, her, or their Place of Abode, shall, in like Manner, give Notice in Writing to such Sheriff or Sheriffs, Marshal, Warden, or other Officer or Officers (or their Successors in Office), of such new Place of Abode, and shall at all Times, when lawfully called upon by such Sheriff or Sheriffs, Marshal, Warden, or other Officer or Officers, or their Successors in Office, or by the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, in the Suit or Suits depending against them respectively, be ready and willing to surrender, and shall surrender, or offer to surrender, themselves, in such Manner as aforesaid, such Prisoner or Prisoners so surrendering, or offering to surrender, him or herself, or themselves, and conforming themselves in such Manner as aforesaid, shall be considered, to all Intents and Purposes, as if he, she, or they, now was or were, and had always remained and continued, in the Custody of such Sheriff or Sheriffs, Marshal, Warden, Officer or Officers, in whose Custody he, she, or they, was or were at the Time of his, her, or their said Enlargement, and shall not be liable to be arrested by virtue of any Civil Process out of any Court; and in case they have been, or shall be, so arrested, shall be discharged therefrom.

who have surrendered, or shall surrender themselves before Sept. 1, 1780, to the Sheriff or Gaoler, &c. under whose Custody they were, and shall deliver to him their Place of Abode, &c.

shall be considered as still in Custody, and not be liable to Arrests, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all such Cases it shall and may be lawful for any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, at whose Suit such Prisoner or Prisoners was or were in Custody, or for any Creditor or Creditors having Cause of Action against such Prisoner or Prisoners, to deliver Declarations, and all other Proceedings, against any such Prisoner or Prisoners, to the Sheriff or Sheriffs, Marshal, Warden, or other Officer or Officers, in whose Custody such Prisoner or Prisoners was or were at the Time of their said Enlargement (or their Successors in Office), and to give Notice in Writing thereof to such Prisoner or Prisoners, or to leave the same at his, her, or their Place of Abode; which Proceeding shall be as good and available in Law, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Creditor or Creditors, had proceeded according to the Forms heretofore used against Persons in actual Custody; and such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Creditor or Creditors, shall and may proceed to Judgment thereon, within the same Time as if such Prisoner or Prisoners was or were in actual Custody, and also shall and may take out Execution against such Real or Personal Estate, of such Prisoner or Prisoners, as is or shall be liable thereto by Law.

Plaintiff, or other Creditor having Cause of Action against such Prisoner, may deliver Declarations, &c. to the Sheriff or Gaoler, and give Notice thereof to the Prisoner; and such Plaintiff, &c. may proceed to Judgment thereon, as if the Prisoner were in actual Custody, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That with respect to such Prisoner or Prisoners, who was or were in Custody in any of the Gaols or Prisons aforesaid, by virtue of any Civil Suit or Process, and who was or were let at large in Manner aforesaid, and who hath or have not surrendered him or herself, or themselves, in Manner aforesaid, nor shall offer so to do within the Time above for that Purpose limited, it shall and may be lawful for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, at whose Suit he, she, or they were so in Custody, to deliver in like Manner Declarations, and all other Proceedings against such Prisoner or Prisoners, to the Sheriff or Sheriffs, Marshal, Warden, or other Officer or Officers, in whose Custody such Prisoner or Prisoners was or were at the Time of his, her, or their said Enlargement, or their Successors in Office, and to give Notice thereof in the London Gazette; which Proceedings shall be as good and available in Law, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs had proceeded according to the Forms heretofore used against Persons in actual Custody, and shall and may proceed to Judgment thereupon, within the same Time as if such Prisoner or Prisoners was or were in actual Custody, and take out his or their Execution thereupon.

How Plaintiffs are to proceed, with respect to such Prisoners who shall not have surrendered themselves before Sept. 1, 1780, &c.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be in any Manner prejudiced or damnified for or by reason of his, her, or their not having proceeded against any Prisoner or Prisoners from the Time of his, her, or their said Enlargement, until the first Day of November, one thousand seven hundred and eighty.

Proviso.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Defendant or Defendants in any Action or Information hath or have tendered to surrender him, her, or themselves, or hath or have been tendered to be surrendered in Discharge of his, her, or their Bail, and the Court, or Judge of the Court, in which the Action or Information hath been depending, for want of a proper Place of Confinement, hath not committed such Defendant or Defendants; or in case any Defendant or Defendants in any Action or Information, who hath or have given special Bail, shall, before the said Prisons of the King's Bench and the Fleet respectively shall have been repaired, or other Prison or Prisons been substituted in lieu thereof respectively, and Notice thereof given in the London Gazette, as hereafter mentioned, be desirous to surrender him, her, or themselves in Discharge of his, her, or their Bail, or the Bail shall be desirous to surrender such Defendant or Defendants as aforesaid, such Defendant or Defendants shall and may come or be brought before any Court or Judge of the Court in which such Action or Information is or has been depending, and such Court or Judge shall and may commit such Defendant or Defendants to the Custody of the Marshal or Warden of the Fleet (as the Case may be), and the Tipstaff shall tender such Defendant or Defendants to the Marshal or Warden (as the Case may be), or his or their Deputy or Deputies, and the Bail shall thereupon be discharged, and such Defendant or Defendants shall, and is and are hereby required in all Things to conform to the Rules and Directions herein-before prescribed concerning such Prisoners who have been set at large, and have surrendered or tendered themselves to be surrendered, or shall tender themselves to be surrendered, in Manner herein-before mentioned, and such Defendant or Defendants shall be deemed and taken to be in actual Custody; and the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Suit or Information, or any other Creditor, shall and may proceed against him, her, or them, as in Custody, in Regulations relative to Defendants who have or shall tender themselves, or whose Bail shall be desirous to surrender them, before the King's Bench and Fleet Prisons shall be repaired, &c.

in such Manner and Form as is herein-before directed concerning such Prisoners as were set at large, and shall have surrendered or offered to surrender themselves in Manner herein-before set forth; provided nevertheless, that the Marshal or Warden shall not be answerable for the Escape of any such Prisoner or Prisoners, until the Prisons of the King's Bench and the Fleet respectively shall have been repaired as aforesaid, or other Prison or Prisons substituted in the Place thereof, and such Defendant or Defendants shall be in their actual Custody.

Marshal or Warden not answerable for Escapes until such Reparations are made, &c.

'VII. And whereas there is not at present any Place of safe Custody for Prisoners committed by the 'Courts of Chancery, Common Bench, and Exchequer; and it may have happened that Persons (since 'the Destruction of the said Prison of the Fleet) may have been committed to the Custody of the Warden 'of the Fleet, in Discharge of their Bail, or otherwise, whereby the said Warden may be liable to answer 'for the Escape of such Prisoners;' be it further enacted, That the said Warden, until the said Prison of the Fleet shall be repaired and made fit for the Reception of Prisoners, or some other Prison appointed in lieu thereof, and such Prisoner shall be received within the Walls of such Prison, shall not be answerable for the Escape of such Prisoners; nevertheless such Surrenders shall be good and valid in Law, and the Bail shall be, and are exonerated and discharged, and such Prisoners shall and are hereby required in all Things to conform to the Rules and Directions herein-before prescribed concerning such Prisoners who have been set at large, and have surrendered, or tendered themselves to be surrendered, in Manner herein-before mentioned; and thereupon shall be deemed and taken to be in actual Custody, and liable to be proceeded against as such in the Manner herein before mentioned.

The Warden of the Fleet Prison not answerable for the Escape of Prisoners committed to his Custody since the Destruction of the said Prison; but such Surrenders shall be valid in Law, and the Bail shall be discharged, &c.

VIII. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That so soon as the said Prisons of the King's Bench and the Fleet respectively shall be repaired and made fit for the Reception of Prisoners, or other Prison or Prisons substituted in lieu thereof, and the same shall be notified in the London Gazette by one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, all and every Prisoner or Prisoners who have escaped or been at Liberty in Consequence of the said Tumults and Insurrections, and also all such Person or Persons, Defendant or Defendants, who hath or have since been committed, and who, under the Provisions herein-before mentioned, are to be deemed and taken as if in Custody of the said Marshal or Warden respectively, within twenty-eight Days next after such Notice given in the London Gazette of the Repair of the said Prisons, or either of them respectively, or of any other Prison or Prisons being appointed in lieu thereof, or of either of them, shall, and are hereby required to surrender themselves to the Keeper of such of the said Prisons to which they shall respectively belong, and in whose Custody they are, under the Provisions of this Act, deemed and taken to be, so as to become actual Prisoners, and within the Walls of such Prison or Prisons respectively; and every such Prisoner or Prisoners, Person or Persons, Defendant or Defendants, herein-before mentioned, who shall neglect or refuse so to do, not having any reasonable Excuse in that Behalf, shall forfeit and lose all the Privilege and Benefit of this Act, and shall and may be retaken by any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs as in case of wilful Escape; and such Prisoner or Prisoners, Person or Persons, Defendant and Defendants, shall be, and are hereby declared and rendered for ever incapable of taking the Benefit of any Act which may at any Time hereafter be passed for the Relief of insolvent Debtors.

As soon as it shall be notified in the London Gazette, that the King's Bench or Fleet Prison is properly repaired, all Persons who escaped thereout during the late Tumults, &c. shall, within 28 Days, surrender themselves to the respective Keeper, so as to become actual Prisoners therein; or shall lose all the Benefit of this Act, and be incapable of taking the Benefit of any future Insolvency Act.

IX. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the Case of any Prisoner or Prisoners who, on the eighth Day of June, in the present Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty, was or were confined in the New Prison or the Marshalsea Prison, under the Custody of the Marshal.

This Act not to extend to Prisoners confined in the New Prison, or Marshalsea, on June 8, 1780.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, until the Prison of Newgate shall be rebuilt or repaired, or other Prison substituted in the Place thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the Sheriff of the County of Middlesex to confine any Person or Persons who were not in Custody at the Time of the Destruction of the Gaol called Newgate, and who hath, since the Destruction of the said Gaol of Newgate, been, or shall be hereafter arrested or taken in Execution by the said Sheriff, on any Civil Process, in any other Gaol or Place of Security within the County of Middlesex; and such Gaol or Place of Security shall be subject to all such Regulations and Provisions as County Gaols are by Law subject to; and the Name of such Gaol or Place of Security, together with the Names of the Prisoners therein, and of the Causes in which they are arrested or detained, shall be fixed up in some public and open Place in the said Sheriff's Office.

The Sheriff of Middlesex, until Newgate is repaired, &c. may confine Persons, taken by him on any Civil Process, in any Place of Security within the County, &c.

CAP. LXV.

An Act to repeal so much of an Act, made in the seventeenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, as relates to the more easy and speedy Recovery of Small Debts within the Parishes of Halifax, Bradford, Kighley, Bingley, Guiseley, Calverley, Batley, Birstal, Mirfield, Hartishead cum Clifton, Almondbury, Kirkheaton, Kirkburton, and Huddersfield, and the Lordship or Liberty of Tong, in the West Riding of the County of York; and for granting other Powers for those Purposes; and for extending the Jurisdiction of the Court Baron of the Manor of Kighley, in the said County.

Commissioners may award Execution.

impriſon in the public Priſon herein-after directed to be provided and appointed for that Purpoſe, for ſuch Time as ſuch Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, in open Court, ſhall have adjudged and ordered, not exceeding ſixty Days; and if the Party againſt whoſe Goods and Chattels, or Body, any ſuch Execution ſhall be awarded, and Proceſs ſhall iſſue thereupon, ſhall, by ſecreting or removing his, her, or their Goods and Chattels, or by abſconding, or by any other Means, prevent or evade ſuch Execution, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, upon Proof thereof made to them by the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, from Time to Time, to renew ſuch Execution againſt the Goods or Body of ſuch Party, and Proceſs ſhall iſſue thereupon, and be executed by the Beadle of the ſaid Court, or his Deputy, as aforeſaid, until the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall be fully paid and ſatisfied: And in caſe the ſaid Court ſhall at any Time, upon the Requeſt, and for the Eaſe and Convenience, of the Defendant or Defendants, order and adjudge, or decree, a Debt due to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, to be paid by ſeveral Payments, then, upon the firſt Default or Failure in any of the ſaid Payments ſo ordered, decreed, and adjudged, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall and may, at the Inſtance of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, and upon due Proof of the ſaid Default or Failure, and that Notice had been given to or left with the Party or Parties ſo making Default, when and where Application would be made for that Purpoſe, award Execution for the whole Debt, or ſuch Part thereof as ſhall remain unpaid, or make ſuch other Order or Decree in the Premiſes, as to them ſhall ſeem reaſonable; to be recovered by the ſame Means as are herein provided for the Recovery of Debts and Coſts: And upon every Precept to be iſſued upon Execution awarded againſt the Goods and Chattels, or Body, of any Perſon or Perſons, the Clerk of the ſaid Court ſhall indorſe, or cauſe to be indorſed, the Sum or Sums, and Coſts, in ſeparate Items or Charges, ſo that every Perſon may know how ſuch Coſts, ſo ordered, decreed, or adjudged, aroſe, and the Coſts of the ſaid Execution; and if the Party againſt whom any Execution ſhall be awarded, ſhall, before any real Sale of the Goods or Chattels, or before he, ſhe, or they are apprehended, or before the Expiration of the Term of his, her, or their Impriſonment, pay, or cauſe to be paid or tendered, unto the Clerk of the ſaid Court, ſuch Sum or Sums, and Coſts, together with one Shilling, as a Reward for his Trouble in receiving and paying over the ſaid Debt and Coſts, and entering Acknowledgment and Satisfaction in full for the ſame, then and in ſuch Caſe the Execution ſhall be ſuperſeded, and the Goods and Chattels, or Body, of the ſaid Party, ſhall be diſcharged and ſet at Liberty: And if upon the Day of Return of any Summons, or at any Continuance or Adjournment of the ſaid Court, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall not appear, or appearing, ſhall not make due Proof of his, her, or their Demand, to the Satisfaction of the Court, but become nonſuited, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, to award to the Defendant or Defendants Double Coſts, and to order and oblige the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs to pay the ſame by ſuch Ways and Means as are herein provided for the Recovery of Debts.

Debt may be diſcharged at ſeveral Payments.

In what Caſes Execution ſhall be ſuperſeded.

Perſons being nonſuited are to pay Double Coſts.

Diſcretionary Power veſted in the Commiſſioners with reſpect to Impriſonment and Execution.

'VII. And whereas it is but juſt and humane, and would tend to promote Integrity and Induſtry, if 'the diligent, honeſt, and unfortunate Defendant or Debtor was diſtinguiſhed and diſcriminated, as 'much as can be, in the Judgment or Decree of the Commiſſioners, from ſuch as, with an Intent to 'defraud their Creditors of their juſt Debts, and in order to prevent their recovering the ſame, ſhall ſell, 'ſecrete, or diſpoſe of their Goods and Chattels, or remove the ſame out of the Juriſdiction of the ſaid 'Court, or by an extravagant, diſſolute, idle, or negligent Courſe of Life, ſhall diſable themſelves from 'paying their juſt Debts, or from obſtinate or diſhoneſt Principles ſhall refuſe to pay ſuch Debts;' be it therefore further enacted, That in caſe it ſhall appear to any three or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, being the Majority of ſuch Commiſſioners upon the Hearing of any Cauſe, or afterward, to their full Satisfaction in open Court, that the Debtor or Defendant therein is unable to pay and diſcharge the Debt thereby demanded, from ſome unavoidable Accident, and not from any of the aforeſaid Cauſes, then and in that Caſe ſuch Commiſſioners ſhall not award Execution againſt the Body of ſuch laſt-mentioned Defendant or Debtor; nor ſhall the Bed and Bedding, or Working Tools, of himſelf or Family, be taken or ſold by any Fieri Facias, or other Execution; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

A Priſon to be provided.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, who ſhall be aſſembled in Court at Bradford, upon the Second Monday in Auguſt, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty, or at ſome Meeting which ſhall be held for that Purpoſe, and of which Notice ſhall be given in every Court, ſhall, and they are hereby required to provide, by and from the Fees of the ſaid Court, by ſuch Means as ſhall appear to them moſt eligible, a wholeſome and convenient Priſon or Place of Confinement for ſuch Debtor or Debtors as ſhall be taken and committed in Execution.

The Gaoler made liable to the Debts of thoſe whom he ſuffers to eſcape.

IX. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the Gaoler or Keeper of the ſaid Priſon ſhall, by wilful or notorious Neglect or Connivance, permit or ſuffer any Perſon or Perſons ſo committed to eſcape, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, being the major Part of ſuch Commiſſioners at any Court, upon Complaint and Proof thereof made, upon the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, to order ſuch Gaoler to pay the Sum or Sums of Money which the Perſon or Perſons ſo eſcaping had been adjudged to pay, to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs at whoſe Inſtance and Requeſt ſuch Perſon or Perſons were committed, and ſuch Gaoler or Keeper is hereby made liable thereto; and on Demand made thereof, and upon his Refuſal ſo to do, the ſame ſhall and may be recovered againſt him by ſuch Ways and Means as are herein provided for the Recovery of Debts ordered and decreed to be paid by the ſaid Court.

Impowering the Commiſſioners to order a Maintenance for Priſoners.

'X. And whereas there is no Proviſion for the Maintenance and Support of Priſoners who ſhall be 'confined in the aforeſaid Gaol, and who ſhall happen to be, from Sickneſs, or any other Cauſe, unable 'to maintain themſelves;' be it therefore further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, being the major Part of ſuch Commiſſioners at any Court, Court, upon Application being made to them for that Purpose, to order the Clerk of the said Court to allow and pay to every such Prisoner, from and out of the Fees of the said Court, such Sum of Money not exceeding four Pence per Day, or otherwise, as shall appear to them necessary for the Relief of every such Prisoner.

Debtors not compellable to appear at any Court but that held in their respective Districts.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Debtor or Debtors whosoever, shall be summoned or have Notice or Warning to appear, or shall be compelled to appear, to answer any Debt or Debts at any of the aforesaid Courts, save such as shall be held within and for such of the aforesaid Districts wherein such Debtor or Debtors shall have his, her, or their respective Dwelling-house or Place of Abode, or Place of Dealing or Working.

Parties may compromise Matters without Application to the Court.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Parties in any Suit which shall be brought in the said Court, to compromise and settle such Suit, either before Hearing, or after Judgment, without having the Leave of or being obliged to apply to the said Court, or any Person or Persons whomsoever, for that Purpose, and without any further or other Costs than those which shall have been then incurred.

Mr. Willson appointed Clerk, with a Salary.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That Isaac Willson, of Bradford aforesaid, Gentleman, shall be, and is hereby constituted and appointed, Clerk of the said Court of Requests, during his good Behaviour; and shall have yearly paid unto him, for the Service of himself and Deputies, and also to find and provide the Books and Registers of the said Court, the Sum of two hundred and twenty Pounds, and no more, by the Treasurer herein-after mentioned, from and out of the Fees of the same Court.

Clerk to give Security.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the said Isaac Willson shall give Security, by Bond or otherwise, to the good Liking and Approbation of the Commissioners, or the major Part of them, who shall be assembled at the Court to be holden at Bradford upon the second Monday in August, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, to three or more of such Commissioners, in any Sum not more than five hundred Pounds, nor less than three hundred Pounds; and every other Clerk who shall at any Time hereafter be elected, shall, immediately upon his Election, to the good Liking of the major Part of the Commissioners who shall be then present, give sufficient Security, by Bond or otherwise, to any three or more of such last-mentioned Commissioners, in any Sum not more than five hundred Pounds, nor less than the said Sum of three hundred Pounds, for the Delivery of all Books, Papers, and Writings, belonging to or in anywise respecting the said Court of Requests, and for the accounting (which Account shall be upon Oath, if required by the Treasurer herein-after mentioned) and due Payment by such Clerk of all Monies which shall come to his Hands, either for the Use of the Suitors of the said Court, or as Fees due for the Services of himself and Beadle, or either of them (and all which Fees every such Clerk shall and is hereby impowered to receive), to the said Treasurer, annually, or oftener, if thereunto required by such Treasurer; and every such Clerk shall, from Time to Time, pay all the said Monies (except the Sum of fifty Pounds, which shall always be left in the Hands of every Clerk to answer the Claims of the Suitors) unto the said Treasurer, whensoever he shall be required so to do by such Treasurer; and the Receipt and Receipts in full of such Treasurer, shall release and discharge the Clerk to whom the same shall be given, and his Sureties, of and from such Bond or Obligation as he and they shall have entered into, and of and from all Claims and Demands by the Suitors, or any other Persons whomsoever, for or on account of the Monies so received as aforesaid.

Commissioners to ascertain the Fees to be paid.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That until the Expences of procuring and passing this present Act are discharged, the several Fees herein-after mentioned and expressed, and no other, shall and may be taken for the respective Services of the said Clerk and Beadle; and that after such Expences are discharged, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners, or the major Part of them who shall be sitting and acting in Court at Bradford aforesaid, upon every second Monday in September in every Year thenafter, for ever, and they are hereby impowered to fix, adjust, and appoint what Fees shall be taken for the Services of the said Clerk and Beadle, in the Execution of this Act, for the Year then next following such last-mentioned respective Court Days, and which shall be settled, as near as can be, to answer and pay the several Salaries of every Officer of the said Court, and the several Purposes of this Act, and shall in no Case exceed the several Sums herein-after expressed; (that is to say):

And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the said Court of Requests appointed by this Act, and also all other Clerks of the said Court of Requests thenafter to be appointed, shall, and is and are hereby impowered and required to issue out and register all Summonses, Warrants, Precepts, Acts, Orders, Judgments, Decrees, Executions, and Proceedings of the said Court, and shall provide and keep proper Books, wherein shall be entered and registered all Acts, Orders, Judgments, Decrees, and Proceedings of the said Court; and the Clerk of the said Court for the Time being is hereby impowered from Time to Time, as he shall think proper, to appoint a Deputy or Deputies to act for him in the Execution of this Act.

Power to appoint a Deputy.

On Death or Resignation of Clerk,

XIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the said Court, or the major Part of them, who shall be sitting and acting in Court on the next Court-day after the Death, Removal, or Resignation, of any Clerk appointed, or to be appointed by virtue of this Act, or so soon as the same is publicly known, to give Notice thereof, by Advertisement in one or more of the said Newspapers; and shall thereby appoint a certain Time, which shall not be less than eight Days, nor more than fourteen Days, after such Advertisement being inserted, for the Commissioners to meet at some convenient Place in Bradford aforesaid; and such Commissioners at such Meeting, or the major Part of them then present, are authorised and required to elect another Person in the Room of the said Clerk so dying or resigning, or being removed as aforesaid, for the Uses and Purposes in this Act contained.

another to be elected.

Commissioners to appoint a Beadle and Gaoler, with Salaries,

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby required, upon the said twenty-sixth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, between the Hours of Ten and Twelve in the Morning of that Day, to meet at the King's Arms in Bradford aforesaid; and which Commissioners at such Meeting, or the major Part of them then present, are hereby authorised and required to nominate, contract, and agree with proper Persons, upon such Terms and Conditions as they shall think reasonable and most proper to answer and fulfil the several Ends and Purposes of this Act, to serve the several Offices of Beadle and Gaoler of the said Court of Requests, during such Time as they shall respectively behave well, so as that such Beadle shall not have more than fifty Pounds a Year, nor the Gaoler more than twenty Pounds a Year, for their respective Services.

Clerk may appoint a temporary Beadle or Gaoler in case of Death or Resignation, &c.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon the Death or Resignation of the Beadle or Gaoler, or either of them, the then Clerk of the said Court shall, and is hereby impowered and required to nominate and appoint another Person in the Room of such Beadle or Gaoler so dying or resigning, with a Salary or Reward in Proportion to that of such Beadle or Gaoler so dying or resigning, until another shall be elected by the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, who shall be assembled at the first Court which shall be held at Bradford aforesaid; and in case of the Removal of any such Beadle or Gaoler, the Commissioners, or the major Part of them then present, shall elect and appoint a proper Person in the Room of such Beadle or Gaoler so removed, for the Uses and Purposes in this Act contained, and so from Time to Time upon every such Vacancy of the said Office of Beadle or Gaoler, for ever.

XXII. And

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in case the said Beadle, or his Deputy or Deputies, who shall be employed to serve or levy any Execution, or to take, arrest, and convey to Prison, any such Person or Persons as aforesaid, shall, by wilful or notorious Neglect, Connivance, or Omission, suffer such Person or Persons to escape, or lose the Opportunity of levying such Execution, then, upon Complaint of the Plaintiff in such Execution to the Commissioners, at their next Court to be holden in the District where such Execution ought to have been levied, they shall order the Beadle of the said Court to pay such Sum or Sums of Money for which the said Execution was awarded, and he is hereby made liable and subject thereto; and on Demand made thereof, and on his Refusal so to do, the same shall and may be recovered against him by such Ways and Means as are herein-before provided for the Recovery of Debts. Penalty on the Beadle for suffering Persons to escape.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Beadle, if Need be, shall and may appoint a Deputy or Deputies, and he and they is and are hereby impowered and required to serve and execute, or cause to be served and executed, all such Summonses, Orders, Attachments, Warrants, Subpœnas, Executions, and Precepts, and to do and perform all such Acts, Matters, and Things, as are herein directed and appointed to be done by them. Beadle's Duty.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Clerk hereafter to be elected or appointed shall have more than one hundred and sixty Pounds per Annum for his Services, nor any Beadle more than fifty Pounds per Annum for his Services, nor any Gaoler more than twenty Pounds per Annum for his Services. Salaries of future Officers.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That such Commissioners, not being less in Number than twenty, shall have Power and Authority, by virtue of this Act, from Time to Time, and so often as they shall see Occasion, at any Court or Courts, to make such Rules or Orders for the better regulating the Practice of the said Court, as to them shall seem necessary and conducive to the Purposes of this Act, so as they be conformable to Law, and do not tend to the Exercise of any Jurisdiction inconsistent with the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; according to which Rules and Orders so from Time to Time to be made, the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, shall have full Power and Authority, by virtue of this Act, to proceed upon, and to hear and determine all Matters of Debt, not amounting to the said Sum of forty Shillings, which shall be brought before them by virtue of this Act, and to make and pronounce such Judgments and Decrees concerning the same as to them shall seem agreeable to Equity and good Conscience; and that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them in Court assembled, and they are hereby impowered to administer an Oath to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Defendant or Defendants, and to such Witness or Witnesses as shall be produced by each Party, and also to all or any of the Officers of the said Court, and to any Person or Persons whomsoever, whose Evidence shall, to the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them, appear necessary for the better Discovery of the Truth, and more solemn Determination of Matters and Causes which shall be depending in the said Court. Commissioners may make Rules and Orders for regulating the Practice of the Court; and may administer Oaths to Parties and Witnesses.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Action or Suit for any Debt, brought or commenced in the said Court of Requests, nor any Order, Decree, or other Proceedings of the said Commissioners in the said Court, shall be removeable out of the same by Certiorari, or any other Writ or Proceeding whatsoever, into any of his Majesty's Courts at Westminster, or into any other Court whatsoever, against any Person or Persons residing or inhabiting within the Limits of the said several and respective Parishes, or Lordship or Liberty; and that if any such Action or Suit shall be so removed and prosecuted, the Defendant therein shall and may plead the General Issue; and in case the Debt sued for, or to be recovered in such Action or Suit, doth not amount to the Sum of forty Shillings, and the Defendant shall prove, by sufficient Testimony, that such Action was removed out of, or was first brought in the said Court of Requests, then and in every such Case the Plaintiff in every such Action or Suit shall not recover, but Judgment shall be given for the Defendant or Defendants; and the Judge or Judges before whom the said Cause shall be tried, shall award, that the said Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Action or Suit shall pay to the Defendant or Defendants Treble Costs. Actions or Suits not to be removeable. General Issue. Treble Costs.

'XXVII. And, for the more effectually establishing the said Court of Requests, and the better enforcing the Orders and Decrees which shall be made by the said Commissioners, and that they may be vested with proper Power and Authority, and be free and exempt from any Insults or Abuses;' be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall affront, insult, or abuse, all or any or either of the Commissioners or Officers of the said Court, during their sitting in the said Court, or shall interrupt the Proceedings of the said Court, or in anywise hinder, abuse, molest, or oppose any Officer in the Execution of his Office, it shall be lawful for the Beadle of the said Court, or his Deputy for the Time being, by Order of the said Commissioners, or any three or more of them then sitting, to take such Person or Persons so offending before one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said West Riding of the County of York; and upon the Fact alleged being proved by the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, the said Justice or Justices shall impose and set, upon such Person or Persons so offending as aforesaid, such Fine or Fines as to such Justice or Justices shall seem meet and reasonable; provided the Fine on any one Person doth not exceed the Sum of forty Shillings, nor be less than five Shillings; and upon Failure of immediate Payment of the Fine or Fines which shall be so set, the said Justice or Justices is and are hereby impowered and required to commit the Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction within the said West Riding, there to remain for any Time not exceeding three Calendar Months, unless he, she, or they, shall sooner pay the said Fine or Fines so imposed as aforesaid; in which Case he, she, or they, on Payment of such Fine or Fines, are forthwith to be discharged out of Custody, and the Fine or Fines immediately paid over to the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish wherein such Offence was committed, towards the Support and Maintenance of the Poor of the said Parish. Penalty on Persons interrupting or insulting the Commissioners or Officers in Execution of their Duty.

XXVIII. And

A Copy of the above Clauſe to be ſtuck up in the Courts.

XXVIII. Expences of this Act how to be paid.

XXXIII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the diſcharging, paying, and ſatisfying the Charges and Expences of procuring and paſſing this preſent Act, and in order that the ſame may be diſcharged as ſoon as poſſible, from and out of the Overplus Money ariſing from the Fees, after the Payment of the Salaries to the Clerk and other Officers of the ſaid Court, and all Expences on account of the Priſon and Priſoners therein confined, or any other neceſſary Expences in the Execution of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, not leſs in Number than five, or the major Part of them who ſhall be aſſembled upon the ſaid fourth Wedneſday in July, or at any of the aforeſaid Courts, and they are hereby required, on or before the twenty-ninth Day of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty, or as ſoon after as can be, to borrow and raiſe ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as ſhall be neceſſary for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, at Intereſt, or by the Grant of one or more Annuity or Annuities, for the Life or Lives of any Perſon or Perſons, to be charged and chargeable upon the aforeſaid Fees; which ſaid Annuity or Annuities (if any ſuch ſhall be granted) ſhall not exceed the Rate of twelve Pounds per Annum upon any one Life, for every one hundred Pounds ſo borrowed or raiſed, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Sum; and they the ſaid Commiſſioners, who ſhall be ſo aſſembled, ſhall and may, by an Order or Orders, ſigned by any five or more of them (without any Stamp), charge the aforeſaid Fees with the Payment of ſuch Annuity or Annuities accordingly; and from and immediately after the advancing of the Monies for the Purchaſe or granting of ſuch Life Annuity or Annuities as aforeſaid, into the Hands of the Treaſurer to be appointed by virtue of this Act, and the Delivery of ſuch Order or Orders for the Annuities may be granted for Money borrowed.

Payment of such Annuity or Annuities as aforesaid, such Annuity or Annuities shall stand and be charged and chargeable upon, and shall be paid and payable out of, the said Monies to arise from the said Fees, in such Manner and Form as by such Order or Orders for Payment thereof shall be expressed or directed; and the same shall be free from all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever.

Annuities may be assigned.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every the said Annuity or Annuities may be from Time to Time assigned by the Person or Persons entitled to the same, or his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, by Indorsement upon the Back of the said Order or Orders, to any Person or Persons whomsoever.

Choice and Duty of the Treasurer to the Court;

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners who shall be assembled upon the second Monday in September, in Bradford aforesaid, or the major Part of them who shall be so assembled, shall and may, and are hereby required to elect and chuse a proper Person to be Treasurer, until another shall be chosen in his Room (and which, in case of his Death, Resignation, or Removal, shall be by the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, who shall be acting in the Court next after such Death, Resignation, or Removal), who shall audit and settle the Accounts of the said Clerk for the Time being, and receive the Balance of all such Monies as the said Clerk, or any other Officer, shall have received by virtue of this Act, upon any Account whatsoever, and shall give Receipts and Discharges for the same, and also shall receive all Monies which shall, at any Time after the passing of this Act, be borrowed or paid for or on Account of the Purchase of any Annuity or Annuities, and other the Purposes of this Act; and out of the Monies which shall come to his Hands, shall pay the Salaries of all Officers, and the Expences of procuring and passing this Act, or in anywise relating to the Execution thereof; and every such Treasurer, immediately upon his Election, shall give sufficient Security to three or more of the said Commissioners, in any Sum not less than five hundred Pounds, that he will faithfully audit and settle the Accounts of the said Clerk, and that he will account, upon every second Monday in September, with the Commissioners who shall be then assembled at the Court in Bradford aforesaid, or oftener if thereunto required by a Majority of the Commissioners at any Meeting to be held for that Purpose (of which Notice shall be given in every Court at the least four Days before such Meeting shall be held), for all Monies by him received and paid, as such Treasurer as aforesaid, on twenty Days previous Notice being given, or left at his House or usual Place of Abode, for that Purpose; and he, or his Executors or Administrators, will well and truly pay all such Monies as shall appear to be remaining in his Hands, on auditing or settling such Accounts, and that he or they will deliver over all Books, Papers, and Writings, in his or their Possession, Custody, or Power, belonging to or respecting the said Court of Requests, or to the said Office of Treasurer, to any succeeding Treasurer, or other Person, as the Commissioners at such Annual Meeting, or other Meeting, or the major Part of them, shall direct and require.

who is to give Security.

Commissioners may send for and inspect Books, &c.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That for the better investigating and settling the Accounts of the said Treasurer, and also for the examining and inspecting the Books and Accounts belonging to the said Court, or of the Clerk or Treasurer, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, who shall be assembled at any such aforesaid Meeting for the Purpose of examining any Accounts, to send for, peruse, and inspect, all such Books and Accounts, when and as they shall think proper and expedient.

Limitation of Actions.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons, for any Matter or Thing done or to be done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced within six Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards; and shall be laid in the said County of York, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, provided the Defendant shall give Notice of this Act, and specify the Year when it was enacted, along with the General Issue, and that he intends to give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence on the Trial of that Issue; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, or discontinue such Action or Suit, or if, upon Verdict or Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover Treble Costs, and have such Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in any other Case by Law.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

Former Act repealed.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the twenty-sixth Day of July, one thousand seven hundred and eighty, so much of the aforesaid Act as relates to the more easy and speedy Recovery of Small Debts, within the said Parishes, and Lordship or Liberty, and the several Matters and Things therein contained, concerning the said Court of Requests, shall be, and is and are hereby repealed.

Orders and Decrees, made by virtue of former Act, to be valid.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to affect any Order or Decree made by virtue of the aforesaid Act, for the Payment of Money, but that such Order or Decree shall stand, continue, and be in full Force, and be carried into Execution by the Commissioners who shall sit and act under this present Act, as if such Order or Decree had been made and pronounced by them; nor shall the same extend to take away or annul any of the Rights, Privileges, Franchises, Liberties, Powers, or Jurisdictions of the Courts Baron of the Honour of Pontefract, Manor of Wakefield, and Manor of Bingley, in the County of York, or of any other Court Baron whatsoever, but that the same shall be and remain, and continue, in as full and ample Power, Jurisdiction, and Authority, for Recovery of any Debt or Damages, as if this Act had never been made.

Extending the Jurisdiction of the Court baron of Nighley to Debts under 5l.

' XL. And whereas the Right Honourable Richard Cavendish commonly called Lord Richard Cavendish, ' and the Right Honourable George Henry Cavendish commonly called Lord George Henry Cavendish, are ' seised, for their Lives, with Remainders to other Persons, of and in the Manor of Kighley, in the ' County of York: And whereas, within the Court Baron of the said Manor, Plea hath been immemorially held every three Weeks, or so often as was requisite, in all Personal Actions arising within the ' Jurisdiction of the said Court Baron, where the Debt or Damages hath been under forty Shillings: And

' whereas

'whereas very extensive Trades and Manufactures are carried on by Persons residing or dealing within the 'Parishes of Halifax, Bradford, Kighley, Bingley, Guiseley, Calverley, Batley, Birstal, Mirfield, Hartisshead 'cum Clifton, Almondbury, Kirkheaton, Kirkburton, and Huddersfield, and the Lordship or Liberty of Tong, 'in the West Riding of the County of York, many of whom frequently contract Debts of forty Shillings 'and upwards, to the Amount of five Pounds, making in the Whole a large Sum of Money yearly: 'And whereas the said Parish of Kighley is situate within the said Manor: And whereas, notwithstanding 'Justice hath been from Time to Time administered in the said Court Baron in the most impartial Manner, 'yet the Method of compelling Debtors to appear to Actions commenced in the said Court Baron, and 'of bringing such Actions to Issue and Trial, and the Method of compelling Persons to attend as Jury-'men on such Trials, are very dilatory, and often ineffectual for those respective Purposes, and by Reason 'thereof, and of the Expence attending the Prosecution of Causes to Judgment in the said Court Baron, 'many honest Creditors are often discouraged from attempting to recover just Debts, and thereby many 'evil disposed Persons, who have contracted small Debts within the said Manor, often refuse Payment 'thereof, and set their Creditors at Defiance: And whereas the regulating the Practice and Proceedings 'of the said Court Baron, and extending the Jurisdiction thereof to hold Pleas for Debts and Damages, 'within the Jurisdiction of the said Court Baron, not exceeding five Pounds, would much contribute to 'promote Industry, support and encourage useful Credit, and be a great Advantage to the Inhabitants, 'and others, living or trading within the Jurisdiction of the said Court Baron:' Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Court Baron of the Manor of Kighley, within the Jurisdiction thereof, and the Steward and Deputy Stewards thereof, to proceed and hold Plea, not only in any Plaint, Suit, or Action, for any Debt or Damages not exceeding forty Shillings, but also in any Plaint, Suit, or Action, for any Debt or Damages not exceeding the Sum of five Pounds, which hath accrued, or shall hereafter arise or accrue, within the Jurisdiction of the said Court, and to proceed to Judgment, Trial, Verdict, final Judgment, and Execution, in every such Plaint, Suit, or Action, in the same or the like Manner as they have heretofore done in any Plaint, Suit, or Action, for any Debt or Damages not exceeding the Sum of forty Shillings, with full Power of awarding Costs to either Party, and proceeding for the Recovery thereof as well as for the said Damages, and of exercising all such other Liberties and Privileges whatsoever, as they have heretofore done in any Plaint, Suit, or Action, for Debt or Damages in the said Court, notwithstanding any Thing herein contained to the contrary.

If Defendant, in any Summons, does not enter Appearance, Plaintiff may do it, and proceed thereon.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That if the Defendant or Defendants in any Summons, or Precept in Nature thereof, issued from the said Court Baron, or by the Steward or Deputy Steward thereof, shall not (having been served therewith as hereinafter mentioned) appear at the Return thereof, or within one Hour after calling or opening the Court held next after issuing such Summons or Precept, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein (Proof being made on Oath in open Court, that such Summons or Precept hath been duly executed, by Delivery of a Copy thereof to the Defendant or Defendants, or leaving the same at his, her, or their Dwelling-house or Houses, five Days at the least before the Return thereof) to enter a common Appearance for such Defendant or Defendants, and to proceed thereon as if such Defendant or Defendants had entered his, her, or their Appearance in pursuance of such Summons or Precept, notwithstanding any Law, Usage, or Practice to the contrary.

Penalty on Jurymen for Non-appearance.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every Person duly impannelled and summoned to serve upon any Jury in the said Court Baron, who shall not appear and serve on such Jury (after being three Times called, and Proof being made on Oath that the Person so making Default hath been duly summoned), shall forfeit and pay, for every such Default, such Fine, not exceeding the Sum of five Pounds, as the Steward, or other Officer holding the said Court, shall from Time to Time think reasonable to impose or set, unless just Cause for such Defaulter's Absence shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of such Steward, or other Officer of the said Court; which said Fine or Fines, if not paid on Demand thereof, shall, together with the Costs of levying thereof, be recovered by Distress and Sale of such Defaulter's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of the Steward or Deputy Steward of the said Court Baron, and shall be applied as other Fines of the said Court have been heretofore payable or applicable.

No Plaints, &c. shall be removed from the Court;

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Plaint, Suit, or Action, to be entered or commenced in the said Court Baron for any Debt or Damages under five Pounds, arising within the said Manor, or any Judgment or other Proceedings to be had thereupon, shall be removed or removeable by any Writ of Recordari facias Loquelam, Certiorari, false Judgment, or otherwise howsoever; but such Judgments in the said Court Baron shall be final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

(except Plaints in Replevin.)

XLIV. Provided nevertheless, that all Plaints in Replevin shall be had and proceeded in, and removeable, in the same Manner as if this Act had not been made.

Public Act.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be a public Act; and be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without specially pleading the same.
